HAMILTON OFFICIALS ARE HELD RESPONSIBLE

Treasurer and Auditor Blamed for Loose Methods That Led to Thefts.

Canadian Press Despatch. Hamilton. Nov. 7.-The final report of C. S. Scott & Co., auditors who examined the city's books following the discovery of defalcations in the tax office and treasurer's office, was presented to the board of control to-day. It was released for publication, but the meeting at which it was discussed was closed to the press. The report fixes responsibility for the looseness in the two de-partments, through which large sums were stolen, equally upon City Treasurer Davis and City Auditor Dempster. Regarding the theft of $50,000 by Harold Forbes, the missing cash-ier. Mr. Scott says:

"The present situation is almost wholly the result of insufficient supervision by the treasury department, and the failure of the auditor adequately to check the department. The loss to the city occasioned by Forbes, was wholly caused by omissions of importance, so that he was perfectly free to omit, falsify or mis handle as he pleased.

HOME BANK DIRECTOR

Col. Clarence F. Smith of Montreal Found Guilty on One Charge Only.

SENTENCE DEC. 1

Judge Coatsworth, in Lengthy Judgment, Gives Reasons For Entering Conviction.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, Nov. 7.—Colonel Ciarence

the directors of the Home Bank, was today found guilty by County Judge Coatsworth on the charge that he "negligently did sign or approve of a false return" to the government in a false return" to the government in connection with the Home Bank, now in the hands of the receiver. This is the first conviction against a director of the bank, although officials are awaiting sentence.

Judge Coatsworth intimated that e would sentence Colonel Smith on Smith was arraigned on counts, first, "making a wilfully false or deceptive statement": second, "unlawfully using a false or false or deceptive statement," and, third, "negligently signing, approving or concurring in an account containing false or deceptive statements." Judge Coatsworth finds him not guilty on the first two counts, but guilty on the third.

Lengthy Judgment.

The judgment is very lengthy and ummarizes exhaustively all the evidence and the factors to be considered in deciding the issue. It comments on the fact that directors and their friends and companies in which they were interested had secured loans to the amount of some eight millions from the hank. The director millions from the bank. The director says the judgment, cannot plead that he did not know of what was going on. It was his duty to know. Grand Presents "Bull-Dog Drummond" With Distinguished English Company.

Percy Hutchison and his English company carried "Bull-Dog Drummond," a sensational, thrilling and exciting play by "Sapper," through four rapid-fire and gripping acts before a Grand Opera House audience last night.

"Bull-Dog Drummond" employs all "Bull-Dog Drummond employs and the devices that have fixed melodrama in the hearts of theatregoers. As a mystery play it belongs with the "Bat," "The Cat and the Canary" and the Grand Guignol plays of France, and in the title role of Bull-Dog Drummond Mr. Hutchisch hear part that gives him scope son has a part that gives him scope for forcible acting.

The play is based on the move-

The play is based on the move-ments of an ex-army officer, Capt. Hugh Drummond, in search of ad-venture following his return from the war. As a result of an advertisement in one of the London papers for a war. As a result of an advertisement in one of the London papers for a little exciting pastime, association with crime not objected to, Drummond, whose war experiences have quickened his liking for taking desperate risks finds himself up against a gang of clever criminals playing for high stakes, and whose methods make a most effective cloak of their real purpose. The elements of good modern melodrama are all there and are used to best advantage. There are straight jackets, mysterious opening and closing doors, drugs, revolvers, screams in the dark and a Chinese servant. All combined to make a series of seething sensations that tensely held last night's audience. In "Bull-Dog Drummond." Percy Hutchison appears in a play that adimirably suits his clear cut style and characteristical breeziness of manner. As a book, "Bull-Dog manner. MAJESTIC SHOWS

'Married To a Mormon' Was Filmed in England-Simplicity Throughout.

Contrasting with the made-in-America films, a British photodrama, is on view at the Majestic theatre for the last three days of this week. It bears the title, "Married to a Mormon," the romance of America's harems. Clive Brook and Evelyn Brent play the title roles.

The production should be of interest to Canadians from more than one standpoint. First, it treats of an American subject in England, Secondly, erican subject in England. Secondly, it shows the influence of the hectic titles of the United States releases. It demonstrates, too, that California has no monopoly on sensation, even if it has the start on the other countries. Lastly, it shows as so many fine photoplays do, that virtue is bound to triumph in the end.

Briefly, the plot concerns a young and characteristical breeziness of manner. As a book, "Bull-Dog Drummond" had a wide range of popularity and as a play it has been even more greatly received by the public. Last night's presentation justified glowing advance reports of the four-act melodrama.

INSPECTORS LAUD CLASSES AT TECH.

Govt. Officials Visit Building -Find Accommodation Nearly Taxed to Limit.

The London technical high school, one of the largest of its kind in the province, is almost overflowing.

Such was the opinion expressed to The Advertiser this morning by M. A. Sorsoleil, M.A., and F. F. Rutherford, B.Sc., provincial inspectors of technical schools, who are in the city this week making their annual inspection of the technical school.

"The numbers attending the technical school," stated Inspector Sor-soleil, "are exceedingly satisfactory, solel, "are exceedingly satisfactory, showing a marked growth. The courses offered are diverse and adapted to the needs of the community. There is a readiness, too, to give other courses if required. A feature this year is the special class for pupils with requisite academic standing doing commercial work in one year. There are 41 students in this class, which was organized this year for the first time at the local school.

"The night school is in a healthy condition with a wide range of classes offered. The attendance of 865 people is excellent. A marked feature of the night classes, too, is that they are composed very largely of adults from the industrial plants of the city."

"The printing and electrical shops departments added to the technical school courses during the past year are already giving excellent results," stated Inspector Rutherford, who inspects the practical side of the work, Inspector Sorsoleil confining himself. Inspector Sorsoten comming initiality to the academic side. "The numbers enrolled for the work are very gratifying and justify the organization of the two shops. ECZEMA ON HANDS .- Mr. J. E. Cusick, of 349, Wilson St. Hamilton (Ont.), says:—"Every winter eczema appeared on the back of my bands. The intense itching and pain was most severe, and the disease got so bad, I was unable to work. Even a sample box of Zam-Buk proved its worth, and I at once bought a supply. I never could have believed if I had not experienced it, how quickly Zam-Buk completely healed my hands."

BURNS' & SCALDS .- Mr. E. When You Can Be Well, Why Be Sick!

Why Suffer Delay and Grow Worse? Enjoy Life-Health-Happiness

To Have No Back Pains, No Nervousness, No Kidney Disease, With Plenty of Life, Energy and No Blood Disease, Is the Wish of Every Young, Old or Middle-Aged Person.

To you-if you are sick-if you suffer-if you are afflicted with any ailments of MEN-if you are worn out, tired or failing, if you need medical advice-if you are not in perfect health-if life is a dragging, miserable existence-if you lack energy, vim and vigor that make life worth living, to you-rich or poor-young or old-you need my treatment

Nerves and Blood Are Life
The lack of nerve force is found among men of all ages. This is true with men in all walks of life, from the day laborer to the mechanic or professional man. Merchant and clergy are alike sufferers—no man is exempt from the ailment who has rebelled against nature's laws—so if you have the result of overwork, dissipation, sedentary habits or worry, and your vital organs are disturbed, remember, delay in seeing the right doctor makes it more difficult to overcome the symptoms, and you might reach an incurable condition beyond relief if you delay too long.

My Equipment
Is composed of the latest and best known agents in Electrical, Surgical and Mechanical Apparatus, and I am prepared by the knowledge of their uses and the experiences in prescribing them so as to get the expectate uniform results from greatest uniform results from them.

I Am Prepared to Give You derums. Bacterins, Vaccines and any and all forms of treatment of this character that have been

MIDDLE-AGED MEN

How about it, are you qualified to face it—are others doing more and getting more out of life than you are? Find out, if you don't know already, what is dragging you down. No one can violate nature's laws and succeed. I have helped thousands physically, mentally, morally, I believe I (as I have thousands of other men), can help you. Just be frank and tell us your troubles. Let me help you to regain and maintain your health.

Constitute a large part of my practice. At this time of life a most important physicological change takes place and men feel the need of an experienced doctor for men to not only treat them at this critical period but as well to advise them as to what to do and what to avoid to regain health, strong nerves and a sound body once more.

FIVE OVERCOATS CHARGED BY GABY

Expense Accounts of Chief Engineer Comes Under Fire at Probe.

SETTELL IS SILENT

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, Nov. 6.—The expense account of F. A. Gaby, chief engineer of the provincial hydro-electric system, under review today before came under review today beto Commissioner Judge Snider, who investigating charges made by C. Settell, former secretary to the chairman, Sir Adam Beck, of irregu-larities in the administration of the nydro system. The expense account rendered by Mr. Gaby in connection with his trip to England and France in 1913 showed that five overcoats, four pair of motor goggles, a thermos kit and flasks, were purchased by him and charged to the hydro com-

Hotel bills for his party and others were charged to the commission.
The party included Mr. Gaby's brother and another hydro official.
That labor of hydro engineers went into the construction of Mr. Gaby's house was admitted by hydro auditors on the staff.

Work On Gaby's House. Copies of Mr. Gaby's account showing that services of hydro officials had been charged as en-gineering expense when labor was actually done on the home of Mr. The total of these amounts, which

The total of these amounts, which were small, amounted to $40.25.

Settell charged that $5,000 worth of hydro materials and labor had been used in the house. Other statements were produced, showing that in the following year Mr. Gaby had paid the hydro $248 for wiring his house and $139 for work upon a septic tank.

For the rest of the day, the feature For the rest of the day, the feature was principally the refusal of Settell to testify further for the probe, declaring that he was acting under the instructions of his counsel, R. H. Greer, K.C., who had just returned to the city.

This attitude was strongly resented by Judge Snider as an attempt to

This attitude was strongly resented by Judge Snider as an attempt to force the crown to allow Settell his freedom without bail until his trial under the threat that his testimony would not otherwise be available to the inquiry. His honor stated that such a plan would not succeed and that, were Settell not willing to testify, the probe would proceed on the basis of his statement given at Hamilton. On Settell's behalf, accordingly, objection was taken to the use of this statement on the ground that it had been taken when Settell had been under great mental stress. had been under great mental stress, and without Settell having opportunity to secure the advice of counsel. Note was taken of the objection.

Use of Cars. The use of hydro motor cars by the staff for personal purposes was again prominent in the day's evidence. It prominent in the day's evidence. It was explained that prior to 1921 the use of hydro cars had been upon such a basis that it had been possible for officials to use them for personal purposes at nights or on holidays. Conditions were, however, declared to have been since changed so that more vigorous check was now kept.

R. H. Greer, K.C., counsel for Settell put in an appearance at the in-tell, put in an appearance at the investigation late this afternoon and spoke a few plain words to Judge Snider, the commissioner.

"I see you made the suggestion to day that my advice to Settell not to answer any more questions is an at-tempt to block the inquiry," began Mr. Greer. "Such a statement is not necessary at all." Judge Snider denied tha the interpretation to be put upon his remarks, and said that his insinua tion was that it was an attempt or the part of Sette' to get out without bail. This did not appease Mr. Greer, who was very indignant, and who told the judge that that was not the right position to take in regard to a man in custody on a seri ous charge.

Judge Snider: "I did not take any such position, and you have no light to say that."

Mr. Greer: "It is said anyway, and that is my view of the matter."

Judge Snider: "We don't want your views or your advice on any-

Mr. Greer: "Well, you have it, and I give it voluntarily."

Will Raise Bail. Mr. Greer held a consultation with Settell in the corridor and arranged send to Montreal at once for his mother, that bail proceedings may be proceeded with at Hamilton as soon as possible. If the $15,000 bail de-manded can be raised, and Settell assured his counsel that it could. when the inquiry resumes next Tuesday, Settell will be out of cus-

Just before the commission ros this evening Judge Snider asked Mr Brewster, his counsel, to "go and see the attorney-general and advise him that I see no justification for providing counsel for Settell until such time as he is ready to give evidence."

"I made the recommendation that his counsel should be paid for by the government,", continued the judge, "but it would not be fair to continue it. He is not doing any thing to help us."

In honor of her guests, Miss Muriel Thompson of Windsor, and Miss Hilda Galt of Goderich, Miss Gussie Wilson entertained at a delightful bridge party this afternoon. Five tables were in play and several guests came in at the tea hour later in the afternoon. In honor of Miss Thompson and Miss Galt several parties have been arranged. Mrs. Cameron Wilson will be their hostess tonight, and Miss Babby Chisholm is entertaining at a couple of tables of bridge on Monday afternoon.

Miss Mae Martin recently entertained the B. C. Club at her home in Dufferin avenue. Four tables of ridge were in play Halloween decorations being effectively carried out through the rooms. During the eveng the president of the club. Mrs. Riddell (nee Miss Irene Chowen), was surprised with a kitchen shower when the two small nieces of the hostess, Misses Peggy and Barbara Reid entered the living-room in Halloween costume, drawing a wagon laden with delightful gifts. The hostess served a dainty supper.

Miss Agnes Duffield, Mrs. Hector Connolly, formerly Miss Isabel Coles of this city, and Mr. Connolly were guests in Quebec at the wedding of Miss Olympe Bruneau of Montreal to Lieut. Jean Perodeau, son of the lieutenant-governor of Quebec. The wedding ceremony was performed on Wednesday at the private chapel at "Spencerwood," the official residence of the bridegroom's father. Following the ceremony a reception was held by the Hon. Narcisse Perodeau. Lieut. Perodeau and his bride have left for their honeymoon trip in A dainty sup-per was served by the hostess, bring-ing the party to a happy close.

When Mrs. F. R. Miller held her post-nuptial reception this afternoon at her home on Wolfe street, the many callers of the afternoon were received in a living-room where huge bowls of golden 'mums had been attractively placed. Soft candle-light cast its mellow glow over the lovely gowns of the guests. Receiving with Mrs. Miller was her aunt, Mrs. E. H. Johnston, who wore a handsome gown of black jet. The hostess her-self wore her wedding gown of white georgette, prettily beaded in silver, and carried pink roses. In the tearoom pink roses and mauve sweet peas were used with pretty effect. Over the tea table, centered with roses and sweet peas and lit with pink candles, Mrs. Fred Brickenden and Mrs. Norman Humphries presided, the former wearing an attractive gown of sand canton crepe and large black hat, and the latter gowned in black velvet and wearing a black hat. Young Married Women Need Mother's Advice-111. 14. 7000 MRS. PEARL STEELE GREAT many women after childbirth get up too soon A and, too weak to care for the child and perform their household duties, often bring on serious derangements. Lydia E. Warrensburg Which Should Interest Every Mother in the Land:

Warrensburg, Mo.—"When my second child was born I got up too soon as my mother wasn't able to do for me. I could not stand on my feet without being dizzy and my back would ache so badly that I would have to lie down at times through the day. My mother had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had a bottle of it at the time, so she begged me to take it, which I did, and I cannot tell you how much better I felt after taking it. Then a year later my husband got back from overseas and we went to keeping house by ourselves and I got all run down again. I couldn't work long at a time but would have to sit down and rest. My husband kept begging me to take the Vegetable Compound again, so I have done so. I recommend it when I can as I know it is good for women's troubles and I thought you might like to know what it has done for me."—Mrs. Pearl M. Steels, 203 Main Street, Warrensburg, Mo.

Ontario Woman's Interesting Case

Mount Forest, Ontario.—"I am proud today to think I have a fine big baby boy, as healthy as a trout, and I never felt better myself. Before I took your medicine I felt weak and miserable, and had pains all through me. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began to get stronger and those pains all left me. I am glad I found out about this medicine. I think there is none other equal to it for women who have troubles of this kind. I cannot praise the Vegetable Compound too highly for the good it has done me. Whenever I know of a woman suffering I am glad to tell her of it."—Mrs Wm. RIDSDALE, R. Dad Helps Brother to Get a Start in Business, Why Shouldn't Mother Use Her Wisdom and Experience in Helping Daughter Get a Start in the Business of Matrimony?

The matchmaking mother who hawks her beautiful and artless young daughter around the market places until she sells the girl to some rich, old, blear-eved rounder or ensnares some brainless, drunken, young millionaire Into her matrimonial trap is one of the villains with whom we often meet in novels and at the movies. We seldom see her in real life, however, because such odium is attached to the matchmaking mother that most women steer clear of the role. They wash their hands of all responsibility of their daughter's marriages and leave them to shift for themselves about getting husbands.

Now, this is all wrong. Between the cold-blooded, scheming mother, who disposes of her daughter in marriage as if she were a slave on the auction block, and the mother who leaves her daughter's matrimonial fate entirely to chance and luck, there is a wide field in which it is not only the province, but the duty of a good mother to forward her child's happiness and well-being.

It is strange that mothers do not oftener realize this, for nearly all women, even when they have not been happily married themselves, believe in marriage. They recognize it as woman's predestined place in life, the career for which nature intended her, and in which she is most apt to find peace and contentment.

Every woman wants her daughters to marry. She never feels safe about them until they are married, and the first breath of relief that a mother ever draws from the time her girl baby is born is when she sees her walking out of the church door on the arm of her husband, with rice in her wedding veil.

This, then, being the case, why is getting her daughter married not legitimate occupation for the mother? Why should not a mother use all of her wisdom and experience in trying to secure for her beloved child a good husband, since the man she marries holds a woman's whole fate in his two hands, and on the way he treats her depends whether she lives the balance of her life in heaven or hell?

Of course, the supreme requirement in any marriage is congeniality between the high contracting parties, and that is a matter of absolute personal taste. That is beyond any other human being's jurisdiction, and it is a crime for a mother to overpersuade her daughter to marry a man who does not appeal to her, or to keep her daughter from marrying the man she prefers. The choice of the individual man is up to the girl. She is the one to be pleased, not mother. She is the one who has to live with him, not her

No mother has a right to use her influence to make her daugh ter marry any particular man just because he is a good catch. But none the less, she should use her own matrimonial experience and her own knowledge of men to subtly guide her girl in making the right choice of a husband.

Every woman knows that in affairs of the heart an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. There is no use in arguing with a girl in love. She is temporarily insane and incapable of seeing anything in its true light. She is deaf to reason. Blind to all facts.

Every woman also knows that propinquity is the great matchmaker and that girls marry the men with whom they are thrown in contact. Hence, it is the mother's duty to see that the men with whom her daughters associate are the kind whom she would welcome as her sons-in-law.

The woman who is properly on to her job as mother does not take into her family a handsome young man relative and throw him into daily, intimate association with her pretty young daughter and then howl with horror when she finds that they have fallen in love with each other and want to get married. Nor does she give the run of her house to some fascinating, dissipated ne'er-do-well and then weep with despair when her daughter announces her intention of marrying him despite all the warnings that are held up before her as to how such a marriage is sure to turn out.

The managing mother prevents these catastrophies. Not believing in the marriage of cousins, she does not invite good-looking young kinsmen to make their home with her. She runs no free hotel for dead beats. She freezes out the undesirables, and, above all, without her daughter's knowing it, she turns the spotlight of her common sense and humor on the girl's beaux, so that daughter sees them as they are and not as her youthful inexperience paints them.

The wise mother teaches her daughter that while love is the great thing in matrimony, it is not everything, and that a woman does not long love a husband who has not the solid qualities that command her respect. She teaches her that there are lots of men with whom it is fun to play around, but who are not amusing as husbands. She teaches her that a man who can make his wife a comfortable living will hold her affections longer than one who starves her and repeats poetry to her. So when the girl selects her life mate she does it intelligently, instead of taking up the first attractive male creature that strikes her fancy.

It is surely a mother's duty to help her daughters get married. She can do this by making her home an attractive place for men to come; by giving her girls pretty clothes, and, if they live in a place where there are no eligible men, by taking them where the hunting is good.

Men help their sons start in business. Why should not mothers help their daughters marry? That's the average girl's business in

Thrifty Chatterer Works Hard To Gather His Winter's Food

By THORNTON W. BURGESS.

Autumn is a busy time for most of the little people of the Green Forest and the Green Meadows. There are a few who are not particularly busy, but only a few. Peter Rabbit is one of them. His cousin, Jumper the Hare, is another.

"Mushrooms! Do you eat mushrooms?"

But Chatterer was already out of sight. Peter could hear him scurrying about in the dry leaves just as he had heard him many, many times at this season of the year. But Lionel was quick to follow the instructions. He leaped up in his bonds, and, reaching out as far as they would permit him, he struck Sakr-ei-Bahr. "We will shorten his road for him." He snatched a crossbow from the rest about the mainmast, fitted a shaft to it and took aim. On the point of loosing the bilt he paused. "Marzak!" he called. Sox, 8 to 5, at the Stamford Bridge football grounds.

Before the game started the King. Prince of Wales and Prince Henry went on the field and shook hands with each of the players. The royal guests saw a game that was a hard-hitting affair, with frequent smashes into the bleachers which surrounded the grounds. These bleacher swats counted only as two-baggers by agreement. grounds. These bleacher swats counted only as two-baggers by agreement.

Almost every time a foul tip sped straight off the bat toward the royal box directly behind the plate, the King and Queen either dodged or put up their arms to protect their head Each time the ball collided harmlessly with the wire netting sheltering the grandstand spectators and roiled to the ground.

The King seemingly enjoyed the fact that his instinctive act of protecting the head that wears the crown wasn't without its amusing aspect. He got several laughs out of the situation.

TAKEN IN SHOW Thanksgiving Day Competition Will Open Local Canine

Opening the 1924-25 season of local dogdom activities, the London canine association is holding a matinee dog show at Queen's park in the dog show building, on Thanksgiving Day. Already there promises to be a record entry as many of the local fanciers will be exhibiting, and there will be several dogs entered by citizens who have never before shown their pets.

Interest in the competition at these local fixtures is always keen as many good dogs come together. It is at these matinee shows that several good dogs make their first appearance, and it will be remembered that some of the dogs shown for the first time at the Thanksgiving show last year have now made canine history. It is anticipated that this year's show will eclipse all others in this respect, for there are rumors of "dark horses" in several of the important kennels, and it is known that there are a number of privately owned dogs that, if their owners can be induced to bring them out, will make the going very interesting. This is particularly true of Springer spaniels, a breed that is fest gaining popularity in be induced to bring them out, will make the going very interesting. This is par-ticularly true of Springer spaniels, a breed that is fast gaining popularity in America. Several good dogs of this breed are owned in London, and if they can be brought together in com-petition some sensations are promised. The judge, J. W. Weldon of Galt, is well equipped to handle all breeds, and fair decisions will undoubtedly be given.

Four Teams Will Operate In Manufacturers' League

Percy Ferguson Succeeds 'Cap' Graham as President of Loop.

PLAY WEDNESDAYS

Only four clubs will contest for the championship of the Manufacturers' hockey league this season, judging from facts brought out at the meeting of the executive last night. The four teams will be McClarys, Perrins, C. N. R. and either Standard Drug or Bell Telephone with a possible amalgamation between the two last clubs to form one team. Bell Telephone has only two or three players left while the Standard Drug team is in about the same boat.

An effort will be made to confine players to actual employees of the firms they are representing, but if this stands in the way of producing four good teams been or two outside players may be allowed on each outfit.

Percy Ferguson was elected president of the league, succeeding "Cap" Graham. Jack Allen was elected vice-president, and "Bud" Suddick, popular secretary, again returned to his familiar bost. R. M. Brisco was re-elected honorary president. The executive will include one representative from each team. The McClary and Perrin clubs appear to be pretty well off for material from which to build up their sextets. The former has the three McKay brothers, "Bud" Kelly, Wilson and Ab Buchanan while Perrins have Pete McGeoch, Wilcox, Kenney, Andrews, McCallum, Hvnd and Bill Howard.

From the layout it looks as if the fans will really see three brands of hockey here this winter, senior and junior O.H.A. and the Manufacturers filling the intermediate gap with double-header games on Wednesdays. In this way, the Manufacturers is filling a real role. It would have been unfortunate had the Intermediate players in town been more or less forced to forego hockey exercise, as more than one player has graduated from industrial leagues in other cities to higher company.

This method should successfully restrain the player and prevent him from trying to slaughter the ball. It is hard to make the average golfer realize that an easy swing will give him plenty of distance provided his force is properly applied. He is carried away by his overwhelming impulse to "give it a ride."

Such a manager was Leidy, a blike a plow horse at the barrier. This kid is high-strung and he can't be bullied. He's got to be nursed along. He's got to be fire, and the thing to do is break him to bridle. He is carried away by his overwhelming impulse to "give it a ride."

The Regent Tailors specialize on suit or overcoat to measure at $24, and their values are not surpassed in Canada. Their store is located at 189 Dundas St.—Advt. and nothing so hurts gate receipts as to show faulty judgment on the possibilities of a recruit. Augusta was in a slump and the patrons were saying, "If they hadn't let that kid Cobb go we might be somewhere in the standing. Look at what he's do-ing for Anniston. He's hitting .370 Strouthers, tiring of the criticisms, J. Harding tried to get Cobb back. He wired R. Hodgson him an offer and Cobb's reply ran something like this: "I won't play for you in Augusta, and I'll never play for you anyand I'll never play fer you any where else."

Several weeks later Strouthers lost his job. His release of Cobb was one reason and a losing team was another, and the chief reason. In another, and the chief reason. In Strouther's place came George Leidy. The Augusta fans were still demanding the return of Cobb. and Leidy, acquainting himself with the facts attending Cobb's departure. wired him an offer, guaranteeing him fine treatment and assuring him that Strouthers was no longer connected with the club in any way. with the club in any way. Seven In Family Hockey Players

Special to The Advertiser.

Special to The Advertiser.

Ottawa, Nov 6.—Fred Lowry, the latest local amateur to join the ranks of the monied players, steps up with a big reputation to uphold. Lowry is a very promising young player, and has not yet attained his twenty-first birthday. He is at present in the city, but plans to report to Montreal within the next few days, where he will play for the new Montreal glub.

Fred Lowry is one of an athletic family. Eddie Lowry, a brother, has coached Queen's hockey team for the past two years, previously to which he played pro hockey in the Western Canada league and with citawa. Tommy Lowry, another brother, was a noted local amateur, and is at present coach of the Shamrocks in the Ottawa city league. It is with the latter team that the youngest boy, Frank, will play this winter.

Bob Lowry is at present star

CHICAGO CHICAGO

Associated Press Despatch.
Chicago, Nov. 7.—Reports of unfavorable crop conditions, both in Argentina and Australia, together with higher quotations in Liverpool, led to sharp unturns in wheat prices here today during the early dealings. Hot winds were said to be prevailing in Argentina, emphasizing lack of moisture. In Australia there were heavy rains, threatening to make a wet harvest. Chicago opening prices, which varied from ½c decline to 1½c advance, were followed by material gains all around.

Colder weather tended to ease the corn market. After opening unchanged to ½c up, prices sagged to below yesterday's finish.

Oats were firm, sympathizing with wheat rather than corn. Starting at ½c to ½c higher, the oats market continued to harden.
Futures opened:
Wheat—Dec., $1.47%; May, $1.53¼.
Corn—Dec., $1.47%; May, $1.53¼.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the Council of London Township has appointed Arthur Corsaut to enforce the provisions of "The Dog Tax and Sheep Protection Act." Section 9a of said Act is, in part, as follows: "In a Township, every owner of a dog shall procure from the corporation a tag for each dog owned by him and shall keep such tag securely fixed on the dog at all times." "Every dog which does not wear a tag and which is found off the premises of the owner and not under the control of any person may be killed." "Every owner of a dog who neglects to comply with the provisions of this section shall incur a penalty of not less than $10 and not more than $25 for each such offence."

SCHOOLS WILL BE CLOSED THREE DAYS EARLIER The public schools, collegiate in-stitutes and technical high school will close for the Christmas vacation on Friday, Dec. 19, instead of Mon-day, Dec. 22.

This decision was made by the Executive Named To Co-operate With Dawn of Tomorboard of education yesterday upon recommendation of Inspector V. K. Greer, Principal E. A. Miller, of the row Editor.

Greer, Principal E. A. Miller, of the collegiate institute, and Principal H. B. Beal, of the technical high school. It was pointed out that while Monday was the day the schools should close, in accordance with the department of education regulations. that it would not be worth while to bring the pupils and students back for only one day and that the first in the week.
