EDITOR BREMNER'S TALE

Lott and Harryett Asked Him to "Forget Some Things."

As a Result of His Evidence a Warrant is Out For Harryett—Phil Lott Freedman Signed Statement Declaring That Trick Ballot Boxes Have Been Made in Ogdensburg For Toronto At the Call of the "High Muck-a-Muck."

Belleville, Nov. 28.—The ballot box investigation will go on next Friday, this arrangement having been made to after consultation between the magistrate and the representatives of each side. As a result of Saturday's events a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Harryett of Bancroft. He is lying in a semi-private ward in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto. On Saturday an operation was performed for the removal of a growth on his right hand, and he is also suffering from a sprained ankle.

Liberal Member Kell.

With Harryett under surveillance the roll of distinguished election workers who figure in the conspiracy case stands thus:

W. J. Shibley, Liberal candidate in Frontenac, fugitive from justice. Byron O. Lott, Liberal candidate, under $2,000 bonds to appear on Tuesday, but now probably a fugitive.

Francis J. Reilly, teacher of Latin and Greek in Regiopolis College, Kingston, in jail at Belleville. Bail fixed at $2,000 but not paid.

Thomas E. Whalen, officer of inland revenue department, Prescott, under $2,000 bonds to appear on Friday.

Edward G. Rutan, deputy returning officer in the late election, under $2,000 bonds to appear on Friday.

Joseph Hawkeye, or Hawkeye, a professional wrestler, of Chicago, deputy returning officer at the Ardoch poll, Frontenac, for whom the police are searching. Hawkeye is advertised to wrestle one Rousseau in Kingston on Thursday night next.

Editor Bremner speaks.

T. S. Cole swore to receiving a copy of The Daily Ontario, containing the alleged libel.

John R. Bremner, editor of The North Hastings Reporter of Bancroft, swore he supported Byron Lott on two occasions on which he has been a candidate. Bremner said he received a case on Oct. 25 or 26, but did not know what it contained. He received the case from D. H. Ross, carter. The box was put in the store room of Samuel Harryett, the Police Magistrate, because Harryett told him a while before that a box was coming. The Police Magistrate was present when the box arrived at Bremner's.

Bremner said he noticed the case there the day after the election, when he had read of the bogus boxes in the paper. He took the box to his home and shipped to the Police Magistrate through Bremner then aroused his suspicions. On Saturday previous to nomination Byron Lott asked if the box had come for him. Lott stayed over Sunday. Bremner thought the Police Magistrate and Byron Lott were trying to conceal the matter from him. Lott said he would give Bremner some of the printing, but no mention was made of ballots.

Wanted to Conceal Them.

On Nov. 4 the Police Magistrate went to Bremner and wanted to know what he would do about the matter, how he would get rid of the bogus ballot boxes, or conceal them.

"He had violated your friendship by unloading the boxes on you?"

"That's about right."

"And he wanted you to get mixed up further in the matter?"

"Yes."

Bremner and Harryett talked half an hour. The Magistrate suggested that Bremner conceal the boxes in his house. Then he suggested Patrick Moore as a good person. He could trust him. Moore was deputy returning officer at No. 3 Paraday.

Byron Lott had not told him that he had gone up to Toronto, and that he had been promised protection. He did not say he had telephoned to Jim Vance.

Asked to Conceal Facts.

Byron Lott asked Bremner to conceal the facts. This was after the cat was out. On Sunday last Byron came down from the north. He converted that some person had put up a trick on him. On Thursday last Bremner met Sam Harryett and Byron Lott in Toronto at the Liberal Convention. Lott again asked him to conceal what he knew. The three met at the Somerset House for dinner. After dinner they had a talk in a private room, which was interrupted once or twice by entrance of the bartender. George Weese, hotelkeeper at Bancroft, was also present. Either Lott or Weese instructed him to kiss his thumb and only tell what he had to.

"They told me to say I didn't know anything. They told me to perjure myself for friendship. Lott said he had an appointment with E. F. B. Johnston, who was going to defend him. Harryett and Weese did not expect to be in. Lott seemed to think he could clear himself."

Bremner's excuse for not finding out where the boxes were that he was too busy, but if he went to look he would go to Police Magistrate Harryett of Patrick Moore. He kept what he knew until the present time because he knew the matter would come out. He had written articles in his paper suggesting that the whole thing was a Tory plot.

Byron Lott in Toronto.

Byron O. Lott, Sam Harryett, George Weese and Bremner were all in Toronto for the Liberal convention. Bremner knew Kelly, having seen him several times in the Crown Lands Department. Kelly was present during the interview in the Somerset House. They were all there when Bremner arrived about 7 or 8 o'clock. At the interview they pressed Bremner not to disclose what he knew. He did not remember what part Kelly took in the conversation. He did not advise. He is in the sales and free grants office in the Crown Lands Department.

Bremner told them he could not conceal anything. On the following day Bremner saw Kelly in the Crown Lands Department. He did not refer to the matter.

One of the clerks said something about Kelly coming in and about Bremner said something about his being out the night before. Kelly asked Bremner not to say anything about it, as the clerks might tell Mr. White about his being out drinking. Bremner thought Kelly knew what the subjects of the interview of the night before were.

"Did you have any idea why they had Mr. Kelly there?"

"No."

"What?" Mr. Kelly with the free grants?

Asked why he did not give this information before Bremner said he thought it would be "more difficult to trace the matter if he told it in open court."

Look For Vance Telegram.

Arch Forsyth, telegraph operator at Harrowsmith, produced a number of telegrams bearing on the enquiry. He was asked to look up any telegrams to Vance at Toronto.

Carl Taylor, mail carrier, testified that on Tuesday before election he went to Ardoch on election work, for Mr. Shibley. He spent two days at the work, and was under pay as mail carrier when he was on election work.

Mr. DuVernet conducted the witness by many ramifications to Clarence on the night of the election, where in a hotel Taylor met Mr. Sproule and Joseph Hawkeye, the Chicago wrestler. They went into a private room. Sproule had a bottle and they had a drink. Hawkeye had the ballot box used at Clarendon and Miller. After emptying the bottle Sproule and Taylor went down to the bar and had a couple of drinks.

They arrived at the hotel at 11 o'clock and left at one in the morning to get the train.

The theory of the prosecution is that the ballot box used at Ardoch was exchanged in the room of the Clarendon Hotel, the ballots being put into the genuine box.

Taylor told of a walk he and Sproule took up the track after night. They left the Chicago wrestler in the hotel.

Al Clark, operator at Anson Station, put in a number of telegrams chiefly by Byron Lott.

Shibley's Agent Talks.

William Sproule, merchant of Harrowsmith, swore he was Shibley's agent at Ardoch on election day. This was 60 miles from Harrowsmith. Sproule went out two days before election. On the train he saw Carl Taylor. He went out on the same train with Hawkeye, who took out the ballot box. They were there the night before election and the night after. Hawkeye also had a valise. He had never met Hawkeye until the time they stayed together at the hotel. On the morning of election Hawkeye sent witness out to get a constable.

"I said we had had some surprising good results."

"Then he winked?"

"Yes."

Mr. Hawkeye, Mr. Taylor and witness went upstairs to have a drink. They took the ballot box up. The room was engaged by Sproule "to change his collar." He was not sure whether the hotelkeeper charged him for the room.

Alone With the Boxes.

The witness and Taylor left Hawkeye in the room with the valises. He did not know whether Hawkeye changed his collar, but he remained there alone for some time. Taylor and Sproule went out for a walk to talk about the hunting. They did not go hunting, because Mr. Brickwood, the game inspector, was at the hotel, and he might suspect they were after deer.

Sproule said he saw Hawkeye was in Kelly vicinity two days ago. Reverting to the subject of the hunt, Sproule said he had never been hunting before and did not possess a gun. He had acted as agent at an election at Harrowsmith, but had never gone so far from home as Ardoch. When he reported the state of the poll to Shibley on his return to Harrowsmith he did not remember that Shibley said anything.

Recommended By Lott.

John Williams, returning officer for West Hastings, asserted that Arthur Reid, the election clerk, was recommended by Byron O. Lott. Lott also recommended the deputy returning officers in Rawdon and Huntingdon. George Weese and William Clendinning were recommended by Police Magistrate Harryett. The returning officer had no special reason to look up the ballots except for the regular way. No improper suggestion was made to him by anybody. He swore in all 10 deputies except two. A few days before the election he was away nearly all the time. No one suggested that he leave the extra ballots behind. There were 330 of these ballots, and he took them with him in case he should need them. Mr. Williams said notwithstanding Byron O. Lott recommended Reid, he took precautions to enquire into his standing.

"You've been badly misled."

"I don't know that I have."

"You heard him say in the witness box that two days before the election he (Reid) heard of a dishonest thing in connection with the election."

"I don't remember that."

L. Guess, a Kingston liverman, testified that on the afternoon of Oct. 28 Shibley and Ed. Rutan called on him and engaged to have a rig call at the Albion Hotel in the evening to come literature. Rutan was to accompany Guess out to Harrowsmith. Mr. Guess drove to the hotel about 7 o'clock, and Rutan helped to carry the boxes out to the rig.

When they arrived at Harrowsmith about 9.30 they met Shibley and Rutan, and assisted in carrying the boxes into Shibley's house.

Frank Fitzpatrick, clerk of Hotel Quinte, produced the hotel register to show that Shibley and Lott were together there on the 13th, the date the telegram was sent by Shibley to Lott arranging for the meeting.

Phil Lott Again.

Phil Lott was recalled and detailed what he learned on a visit to Watertown, N.Y., last week in search of evidence. This has already been given, so far as the manufacture of the boxes is concerned. He found that Frank J. Reilly was registered at the Woodruff Hotel on Sept. 17, and at the Hardiman, Oct. 1, 4 and 8, and also in September. Phil Lott again gave the names of the deputies who were to use the boxes.

Lott referred to some of the details of his interview with Reilly. Reilly said the ballot box was a winner, and that God Almighty could not beat the Ontario Government with these boxes. This remark has been denied by Reilly.

For the first time during the day W. J. McCammon took a hand in the investigation. Phil denied that he brought a sample box to Belleville before election day. He was sworn in, and in the face of his oath he was determined to go on and catch the men who intended to commit wrongful acts.

"And I could consider if they were mean enough to do this they ought to be ketch'd."

Phil asked to be permitted to put in a word of commendation for T. E. Whalen, the Prescott inland revenue officer.

Reilly had told Phil that he had a friend in Prescott who would ship the boxes, but he would not dare tell him the scheme or he would have nothing to do with it.

High Muck-a-Muck.

Witness said he had secured signed statements when he was in Watertown, N.Y. He read them, as follows:

Watertown, N.Y., Nov. 26, 1904.

To A. F. Wood, P.M.: Dear Sir:—The box brought over here has been used in Frontenac. It was brought over here with No. 14 on it. Bogus boxes has been made in Ogdensburg for some years and dropped every time after being used. These were ordered made by the High Muck-a-Muck in Toronto, and have been used a long time, the kind with a spring. So I was told by one of the men who made the deal with me for the boxes.

C. L. Roof.

Witnessed by Leon C. Roof.

Another letter reads: Watertown, N.Y., Nov. 26, 1904.

To Mr. A. F. Wood, P.M.: Dear Sir,—I am willing to make oath and say that B. O. Lott had nothing to do with ordering or paying for those ballot boxes to me, that it was two other men whose names I will not mention as yet.

(Signed) Claude L. Roof. Certified to by Leon C. Roof.

Watertown, N.Y., Nov. 26.

I hereby certify that the box delivered by me to P. A. Lott was taken from the court house at Kingston and delivered to me as a pattern by P. J. Reilly.

C. L. Roof. (Signed) Phil Lott said Roof was willing to come over here and testify in the case if given protection. Lott took Roof before a notary, and he was ready to make an affidavit, but the lawyer advised him not to, as it might incriminate him being connected with the conspiracy.

Clayton Cronk, foreman in The Daily Ontario office, told of the publication of the document complained of by E. Gus Porter.

Trick Box Maker's Evidence.

A witness from Watertown, N.Y., was introduced just at 6 o'clock. He was Patrick Carter, employed by E. B. Irwin, hardware merchant. Two months ago, he said, he was working for C. L. Roof & Co., and Mr. Roof put him to making bogus ballot boxes. He saw Reilly over there a week or so after he commented to make the boxes. He did not hear what was going on, as the boss sent him out of the shop when he and Reilly talked over the matter. He was told afterwards that the boxes were to be used to cheat the people out of their votes over here. One was to be used to Brockville, he was to be used to be left in Prescott. They finished 20, and five were not finished. The boxes were packed in dry goods boxes and sent to Ogdensburg. Claude and Leon Roof also worked on the job. They had a model box like the one produced.

A team belonging to Mr. Shreeves, of Raleigh, took fright in this city Friday night and ran away up Colborne street, and out as far as Edward McKernan's farm, where a maple tree stopped their flight. There was no one in the rig at the time of the runaway. The rig was somewhat smashed.

Premier Ross on Byron O. Lott

"He was glad to come on behalf of Byron O. Lott, whose aggressiveness he knew thoroughly. He had, in addition to his other duties, acted as Commissioner of Crown Lands in 1897, when Mr. Gibson was in the Old Country, and during that time was thrown into contact with Mr. Lott frequently.

"He is a curious fellow this man Lott! He seems to make up his mind that what he wants he must have.

"He came to us with bridges that must be built, and roads that needed money, and we began to wonder if it were possible that there existed so many rivers and bogs and mountains that had to be crossed. So persistent was he that, if he had had his way the thing I had to fear was that our beloved surplus would disappear.

"It may be that the Government has not done its whole duty by the constituency, and it is certainly the wise course to have a man of Mr. Lott's energy in the House to tell the Government what you need, and to add lustre to the great party of Baldwin, Blake, and Mowat,"—Hon. G. W. Ross at Madoc, Dec. 21, 1899.

THE BALLOT BOX REVELATIONS.

The connection with the plot of Byron O. Lott, and his visit to Watertown—where, after an inspection of the box, he asked that the secret receptacle for bogus ballots be enlarged, because of the large adverse majority he had to overcome in West Hastings—were also related by Mr. Reilly. He admitted that when he realized that the apparently innocent project undertaken at first as a personal favor to an old friend was leading him into what was becoming a serious position he endeavored to protect himself from the consequence which would follow exposure. He resisted the financial inducements offered him by Byron O. Lott and W. J. Shibley to leave the country, and declined to exile himself as they desired.—Toronto Globe, Nov. 26, 1904.

THE SITUATION IN WEST KENT

It is announced that the Liberal executive of West Kent are to hold a convention for "the purpose of considering the nomination of a candidate" and other business. The character and conduct of this convention will be watched with interest.

There are three courses which appear to present themselves to the Liberals of West Kent and, if the convention is not a cut-and-dried affair dictated by the local party managers, its choice will be fraught with much meaning. In the ordinary political convention outsiders have, perhaps, not much interest, but at the present crisis in Provincial affairs—with the contest between the platform of purity, honesty and morality and the further ambitions of the Sullivan-Ross-Stratton combination—the action of the party representatives means much to every elector, no matter what his party affiliations or his political inclinations.

The three courses which confront the coming convention are as follows:

1. Blind allegiance to Ross, condoning and excusing his party past and enlisting with his colleagues, Sullivan, Stratton, Vance, et al, in their effort to continue in power at any price, and the selection of a candidate to champion his unfortunate and unclean cause.
2. Sturdy repudiation of Ross and his camp followers with adherence to the old, clean and honorable platform of Liberal policy and fulfilment of pledges and promises, with the selection of an independent Liberal candidate to energetically oppose the Ross program and vindicate the policy and honor of old Liberalism.
3. Endorsement of and support James Clancy, the nominee of the friends of clean elections, purity in politics and the promotion of healthy morality in governmental dealings and deliberations. Fortunately no matter of policy to-day separates the Liberals of the old school and the platform of Mr. Clancy. There is only a great issue of higher things, honesty, integrity, cleanliness and morality—and Liberals as well as Conservatives are heartily and confidently invited to enlist in this splendid campaign.

WHAT CHOICE WILL THE CONVENTION MAKE?

Let the thinking men of the Liberal party study the situation for themselves. The present is not a time when they can safely accept the party dictation of their leaders and central executives.

It will be a surprise and source of regret to all right thinking men if the convention adopts the first-mentioned course. It is hard to imagine any reputable man, worthy the esteem and confidence of the community, consenting for a moment to champion a cause of endorsement of Ross and his disreputable record and surroundings. To defend and endorse these things—let alone to champion them—would be keenly offensive to a man of honor and integrity—and we do not believe such an one can be found to become standard-bearer for a convention which has applauded or excused the Ross-Sullivan-Stratton regime.

With the second course, that of nominating an independent Liberal candidate allied to the traditions of true Liberalism and opposed to the Ross combination, no right-thinking elector can quarrel. Such a course would be at least honorable and straight-forward. Yet the value of such a representative to his constituency is, perhaps, questionable, unless we are assured of such a general course being adopted throughout the Province as to insure a vigorous and effective phalanx of strong, clean independent men in the new Parliament.

The third proposition to unite and endorse the candidature of James Clancy and return him without opposition, may not at first glance prove popular with the strong Liberal party men. But an honest, careful study of the situation will show that course steadily growing in the judgment of the electorate of both parties. Mr. Clancy's platform is not a party platform. It is a platform of honesty and common sense. He stands for a thorough and effective house-cleaning, for the removal of the uncleanness and rubbish and for a reaffirming of the competent and the right. He believes in stamping out dishonesty and effectively in both parties all impurities and immoralities and safely guarding against their recurrence. He believes in inaugurating and maintaining a cleaner and better atmosphere in Provincial politics. He is earnestly and emphatically opposed to the dangerous and improper spoils system and no Liberal who has performed his duties honestly, competently and conscientiously will receive ought but commendation and endorsement at his hands. Mr. Clancy stands for an end to electoral corruption; for clean and honest government of the people, for the people and by the people; for broadening the scope of the Ontario agricultural interests; for encouragement and assistance in the improvement of municipal drainage schemes; for a license regulation that will be honestly enforced; for sympathy with all measures of moral reform; for the general welfare and prosperity of the people of our Province.

This is not a party platform as such. It is a platform upon which both Liberals and Conservatives can stand—and be proud to stand. It is a platform that is not controversial. It is worth considering, worth endorsing.

As a Minister of the Crown, in complete and influential contact with the Cabinet deliberations, Mr. Clancy will be able to bring results to his constituents. He will be a worthy representative, one of whom we can all be proud. He is able, honest and upright. He keeps in close touch with the people and their interests. He is the man who will best serve West Kent.

The Toronto Globe, the Provincial organ of the Liberal party, said editorially of Mr. Clancy last week: "MR. CLANCY IS A MAN WHOSE ABILITY AS A CRITIC IS GENERALLY ADMITTED AND WHOSE GENIAL QUALITIES MAKE HIM POPULAR WITH MEN OF ALL OPINIONS."

Such is the spontaneous tribute of an opponent after over twenty years of public service and heated political controversy! Liberals of the Old School, what is to be your choice?

ROSS—BURKE

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized on Nov. 16th, at the residence of Richard Burke, of the 13th concession, Dover, when his eldest daughter, Minnie, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to William J. Ross, of Dover. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Brown. The groom was assisted by Mr. Alex. Ross and the bride by her sister, Miss Sarah Burke.

The bride looked very charming when she entered the room to the sweet strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Brown, leaning on the arm of her father. She was gown in white voile over silk, trimmed with lace and chiffon, and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bridesmaid was attired in white voile over silk, trimmed with lace and chiffon, and carried pink carnations. After the ceremony was performed the guests sat down to a sumptuous dinner and about midnight the happy couple left for their future home in Dover Township, accompanied by showers of rice and the best wishes of their friends.

JENNER-CORLETTE

On the evening of Thanksgiving Day at six o'clock two of the most popular young people of Charing Cross—Miss Olive Corbett and Mr. Thomas Jenner—were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. Mr. Thompson. Only the immediate friends and relatives were present. After the ceremony was over a beautiful supper was served and a social evening was spent by all, after which the newly married couple left for the Middle Road, where they will in future reside, and whither they carry with them the best wishes of a host of friends.

MRS. BRADLEY CAN EAT AND SLEEP

She Was Rescued From A Terrible Condition by Dodd's Kidney Pills And Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

"I am thankful to say I can eat most anything, and can sleep comfortably." These are the words of Mrs. James Bradley, of Smith's Cove, Digby Co., N. S., but only those who know Mrs. Bradley's previous condition can appreciate all those words mean, or how much she owes to Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and Dodd's Kidney Pills. Let Mrs. Bradley tell of it herself.

"I had Dyspepsia for over nine years," she says. "I tried the best doctors and never got relief. I had to starve myself from eating. I had given up all hope of ever having any help. No tongue can tell what I suffered. Six boxes of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and six of Dodd's Kidney Pills completely restored my health."

If Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure extreme cases of Dyspepsia like that of Mrs. Bradley, how much more easily will they cure your indigestion?

FAST FORCING FORWARD.

Idaho is one of the best watered states in America. People are moving there because hot winds and destructive storms are unknown and because its matchless climate generates physical and mental vigor and guarantees good health. Idaho has rapidly grown in popularity, during the past five years and settlers in its irrigated valleys have met with more than ordinary success. This fact has induced a large influx of eastern capital in the state, with the result that its growth has been rapid. If you have in mind a change for the general improvement of your condition in life, or if you are seeking a climate beneficial to health, Idaho will meet these requirements. The easiest-in fact the only direct route to Idaho points is via the Union Pacific. This road runs two trains daily from Chicago and Kansas City to all points in Idaho, Montana and the great Northwest. For full particulars and descriptive information inquire of J. O. Goodsell, T. P. PT. ARTHUR AT ANY COST

Jap Army Ordered to Renew Its Attack On the Fortress.

St. Petersburg Expects the Assault—Japanese Sappers Have Reached the Centre Ditches, and Russians Are Now Only in Possession of the Parapets of Defence
Works On Rhinung and Sungshu Mountains.

Washington, Nov. 26.—The Associated Press learns on excellent authority that the Japanese army has been ordered to renew its attack on Port Arthur at once and to take the main fortifications at any cost.

Reaches Centre Ditches.

Tokio, Nov. 26.—It is reported that the Japanese sappers directed against Rhinung Mountain, Sungshu Mountain and East Keekwan Mountain have reached the base of the centre ditches. The defensive works outside the parapets of Rhinung Mountain and Sungshu Mountain
have been captured, leaving the Russians in possession of the parapets only. The Japanese guns are shelling the parapets and inflicting heavy damage. The occupation of the forts is expected shortly. If the forts are taken, the capture of Port Arthur seems to be assured within a short time.

St. Petersburg Expects It.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 26.—The report that the Japanese are concentrating their energies for a desperate assault on Port Arthur in view of the approach of the second Pacific squadron is quite generally credited in official quarters.

Kuroki Dead Again.

Berlin, Nov. 26.—The Loka An-zeiger's Mukden correspondent telegraphs as follows: "According to a report brought by Chinese to Russian headquarters, the corpse of Gen.
Kuroki has arrived at Yinkow."

All Port Arthur Coal Lost.

Tokio, Nov. 26.—The usual daily bulletins were received yesterday from the third army headquarters before Port Arthur, and the news indicates that the conflagration caused on Sunday by the naval gun fire from Chungshoo destroyed not only the magazines of the army buildings, but the only coal supply that remained in the fortress. After it was seen that the army buildings were ablaze, shells were constantly dropped upon the scene, so as to make powerless
any effort to extinguish the fire.
The buildings continued to burn until 2 o'clock Thursday morning,
and it is practically certain that all
the coal stores were destroyed.

Japs Hold Permanent Forts.

Telegraphing in a second bulletin
from army headquarters, General Nogi's chief of staff says: "All the permanent forts are now in our possession. We hold all the advance works on Rulin Mountain and on the entrenched hills farther south, including old Fort Kurokatsin, Kobo
Hill, Petou Mountain, Antze Mountain, Chungshoo fort, all the galleries and moats of the fort on Kewan Mountain, the two main forts
on Rulin Mountain, Sachitakyama, and 174 Metre Hill. The enemy is now attempting to defend the city
from the redoubts on Kwang Hill,
Golden Hill and the forts on White Wolf Hill, which are being bombarded
by our fleet off the harbor."

Blockade Perfect.

"An attempt at midnight on Monday to rush our entrenchments between Quail Hill and Orlung fort was repulsed after 40 minutes of fighting, the Russians leaving 99 dead. The blockade of the city from the outer harbor, owing to mild weather in the last week, has been unusually successful. Two ships carrying 25,000 tons of meat and three junks with provisions have been captured. No Russian soldiers remain in Port Arthur proper, except in the western entrenchments. Our bombardment yesterday was continuous,
and the Russian warships were repeatedly hit by shells. An explosion took place on one of the second-class cruisers. Eleven deserters came in from the Russian line before dawn.
They say food, ammunition and water are lacking."

North Sea Convention Signed.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 26.—The North Sea Convention was signed at the Foreign Office yesterday afternoon by Foreign Minister Lansdorff and Ambassador Hardinge.

Trolley Out in Two.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 26.—There were fifteen people injured, three, and possibly more of whom will die, as a result of a collision between a fast southbound train on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Road, and a trolley car
on the Northern Ohio Traction Line
yesterday near Bedford, a few miles east of this city. The trolley car was struck by the passenger train while the latter was running fifty miles an hour. The electric car was cut completely in two and the wreckage thrown 60 or 70 feet to one side.
The passenger train was not derailed.

Mrs. Banwell Killed By Engine.

Windsor, Nov. 26.—While driving into town Friday morning, Mrs. Edward Banwell, who lives on the Huron line, in Sandwich West, about six miles from Sandwich, was struck by a passing train on the M.C.R., and received injuries from which she died
at Hotel Dieu in the afternoon. Mrs.
Banwell was accompanied only by her grandson, who escaped with serious injuries.

Missing For a Week.

Windsor, Nov. 26.—William Carley, express messenger for the Canadian
and American express companies,
has been missing since the 19th inst.
No one can account for his disappearance; he gave no intimation of his departure. His accounts are straight. Carley was a drummer in the 21st Fusilier Regt. band. Detective Mahoney is investigating the case.

INTERESTING IF TRUE

You Can Try It For Yourself And Prove It.

One grain of the active principle
in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of meat, eggs or other wholesome food, and this claim has been proven by actual experiment which anyone can perform for himself in the following manner: Cut hard-boiled eggs into very small pieces, as it would be if masticated,
place the egg and two or three of the tablets in a bottle or jar containing warm water, heated to 98
degrees (the temperature of the body), and keep it at this temperature for three and one-half hours, at the end of which time the egg will be as completely digested as it would have been in the healthy stomach of a hungry boy.

The point of this statement is that what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do to the egg or meat in the stomach, and nothing else will rest and invigorate the stomach so safely and effectually. Even a little child can take Stuart's Tablets with safety and benefit if its digestion is weak and the thousands of cures accomplished by their regular daily use are fully explained when it is understood that they are composed of vegetable essences, aseptic pepsin, diastase and Golden Seal, which mingles with the food and digests it thoroughly, giving the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate.

Deterring never cures dyspepsia, neither do pills and cathartic medicines, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines.

When enough food is eaten and promptly digested there will be no constipation, nor in fact will there be disease of any kind, because good digestion means good health in every organ.

The merit and success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are world-wide and they are sold at the moderate price of 50 cents for full-sized package in every drug store in the United States and Canada, as well as in Europe.

Public Ownership in Calgary.

Calgary, Nov. 26.—This city last night decided to invest $60,000 in a domestic and steel lighting electric plant, in opposition to the private ownership company. The council's decision came as the climax of a hot fight in which Calgary Electric Light Company endeavored to secure a ten-year contract.

The Quebec Elections.

Montreal, Nov. 26.—The Provincial elections are over, and the new Legislature of Quebec will be composed of 79 Liberals and five Conservatives. Hon. Dr. Guerin, a member of the Government, has been defeated in St. Anne's; Ex-Speaker
Rainville has gone under in St.
Louis.

Senator Choquette Hit.

Quebec, Nov. 26.—Senator Cho-quette was wounded in the neck by a stone in a volley of missiles from a mob that gathered as the result of an announcement that he would deliver a speech in St. Rochs Thursday evening against Hon. Premier Parent and his candidate, Mr. Dar-veau.

Shooting Accident.

Newtonville, Nov. 26.—While a young man named Ogden, living
north of here, was out shooting Thursday, he slipped and fell forward, losing hold of his gun, which in some way was discharged. Ogden received the contents near his heart.
His recovery is doubtful.

Davis Appeal Adjourned.

Toronto, Nov. 26.—The appeal of H. E. Davis from the decision of Chancellor Boyd and Mr. Justice
Teezel, unseating him at the trial
last September, was opened at Osgoode Hall yesterday afternoon and adjourned for argument until Tuesday.

JUST IN TIME.

A motorist in Chicago ran his car onto the approach of an open bridge but stopped it with the fender actually overhanging the gulf below. He wouldn't want to repeat the experience because the chances are that he'd never again
have the same good fortune.

Once in a while some one who has traveled to Europe by way of the Pacific edge of the danger line of stomach disease stops just in time to save his health. But the majority of people who cross the line, and slight symptoms of indigestion grow to disease of the stomach, involving the other organs of digestion and nutrition.

Indigestion and other forms of stomach "trouble" are perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It strengthens the whole body by enabling the perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

$3,000 FORFEIT will be paid by the monial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing, thus proving their genuineness.

"I have been suffering for about eight years,"

weakness and others for stomach trouble, but

I was hardly able to work, and you advised me

FOR COLONIAL CONFERENCE.

British Statesmen Discuss the Colonial Relations With the Motherland.

London, Nov. 26.—(C. A. P.)—The eastern division of the National Union of Conservative Associations adopted Right Hon. Henry Chaplin's
Southampton resolutions. A motion was also adopted that the contemplated conference should be invited to consider relations between the mother country and the colonies regarding their contributions towards Imperial taxation, colonial defence, emigration, colonial development and colonial influence in Imperial affairs.

At Huddersfield, Earl Percy said
Mr. Balfour and Mr. Chamberlain were to be praised for their efforts to bring about a conference between the mother country and the colonies. Canada had set a noble and self-sacrificing example by giving Great Britain a 30 per cent. preference in 1897. Germany's threat of retaliation for that step had no effect.

Sir Edward Grey, M. P., speaking at Hastings, said he dreaded a preference more than protection. After we had taxed our food in the interests of the Empire we should never cease pressing colonies to admit British goods free to their markets, yet we were plainly told by the colonies that they intended to go on imposing duties on British manufactures
so that Mr. Chamberlain's proposals, instead of being a bond of union,
would be a cause of constant friction. Let there be a conference with the colonies on such questions as Imperial defence, foreign policy and the general interests of the Empire, by all means, but a conference on the fiscal question was bound to lead to heart-burning and disappointment.

Right Hon. George Wyndham, Irish secretary, speaking at the United Club, said the most important method of bringing the colonies into a closer bond of Imperial unity was that the Mother Country should regularly take counsel with all parts of the Empire.

BEYOND ALL DESCRIPTION.

Was the experience of Mrs. E. V.
Carter, of Dansville, had with rheumatism, which rested everything till Nerviline was tried, and it cured.
"The only relief I ever got was from rubbing on Nerviline," writes Mrs.
Carter. "It penetrated to the very core of the pain and eased my suffering after a few applications. I have used many rheumatic remedies, but none had the soothing, pain subduing power of Nerviline, which I recommend highly." Try Nerviline yourself. Good for internal use and excellent to rub on Price 25c.

A MEMORY

When the workmen were about to place the glass in the door of the she of its office in Harrison Hall, the late Sheriff Mercer noticed that the word "sheff" was spelled with two H's. This was too much for that gentleman's love of pure English and he at first refused to allow the pane to be put in. Later he consented to the glass going in on condition that it should be turned upside down so that the spelling would not be particularly noticeable. This was done and since then the glass remained as a memory of that remarkable man Sheriff Mercer. The upside-down miss-spelled sign was the cause of considerable comment, and visitors to Harrison Hall always had to comment
on it.

Recently the County Council had the old sign removed from the glass and a new one put on. The latter sign is a cheap looking affair and it now is the cause of considerable caustic comment.

AN ELECTION TRICK.

One Sample of the Dodges to Which They Recort in England.

Canon J. George Tetley tells the following story of the late Justice Denman, who in 1805 ran for election at Tiverton, in England. He was advertised to address the electors on a certain morning. In order to fulfill his engagement it was necessary for him to leave by the 9:15 express. He had taken the precaution of ordering a cab overnight and was quietly eating an early breakfast when attention was called to two or three men who seemed to be hanging about in the neighborhood of his house. He thought little, however, of the matter, but presently sent his servant to put his luggage on the cab, which was due to arrive. The cab approached the door, but before the portmanteau could be located one of the mysterious strangers jumped in
and was driven rapidly away.

And when this happened a second time it became evident that something very definite was intended. So Mr.
Denman consulted his watch, and, directing his luggage to be sent after him, he buttoned his coat and, calling to his aid all his old Cambridge training, took a bee line for the station. He met not one empty cab till too near the terminus to be of any service to him.
He dashed through the "booking office" on to the platform, seized the handle of a carriage door as the train was actually starting and flung himself into a compartment.

On arriving at Tiverton he found his committee in a state of extreme anxiety which gave place to astonishment and relief on his appearance, for the walls of the town were covered with placards warning the Liberal electors that their candidate would not keep his engagement to address them.

A man is sometimes known by the company he doesn't keep.

GREAT GETTER OF COLLECTIONS

Spontaneous Tribute to this G. H. J. as an Advertising medium by Visting Evangelist.

At a Word From this Paper Every-body Shells Into the Collection Plate and Funds are Boosted—Our Fallings Duly Noted.

Several friends of The Planet mentioned the fact that Mr. McHardy, the evangelist, had referred to this G. H. J. in the course of his remarks yesterday morning in the Victoria Ave. Methodist Church. It has never been the intention to injure the business of Mr. McHardy or any other evangelist in so far as it was legitimate. He has a perfect right to his views and his work; and it is to be hoped that he is accomplishing all the good that he says he is. Yesterday, in the course of his remarks, Mr. McHardy complained that this journal had misrepresented him and he expressed a wish that a reporter of The Planet was present to take down his remarks.

Unfortunately, no one was present, but a representative of the paper, which Mr. McHardy chose to class as a "yellow journal," called on him today so that he might have an opportunity of repeating for publication what he wished a reporter had been present to take down.

"A man can't give verbatim what he has said when he doesn't use notes," responded Mr. McHardy, who is an approachable and pleasant man to meet.

"You attacked me by saying that my motives were mercenary. That applies to every preacher in the city. Why don't you tackle them? You haven't got the moral courage to do it. Your low slurs of a mercenary motive against an evangelist are bad policy and the law won't uphold you. You're not standing up for the morals of the community. You'll put in the report of a dog fight, or of the theatre, and you'll patronize the bummy whiskey element."

"I condemned neither the children who took part in Pinero's not their parents," continued Mr. McHardy, "but the institution of the theatre. It is the institution that is bad. I don't condemn the man who drinks whiskey, but the saloon. That is the institution. Some of the parents didn't know the nature of the production till I had condemned it, and as a result they didn't send their children the second night to take part."

"It wasn't the misquoting of me that I found fault with because the people have rallied around me and the collections have been better since. But the trouble is that thoughtless young people will read the article in The Planet and believe it and believe in the power to reach them will be lessened."

"The report in the paper stated that some of the parents were angry at my remarks. If the report be truthful, I am surprised that they did not give a man credit for seeing to it that he protected the children from the evil influence. Some whose children took part wouldn't permit them to go on account of my remarks."

"You say that my motives are mercenary and then flatly contradict it by saying that I make people mad. How can I get money from people I have made mad? I have been offered more money to take a church than I have ever received from any other source. The Lord has given a guarantee to all who preach the gospel and I'm not afraid that he will break His promise."

Mr. McHardy closed the interview with the following threat, "Be careful what you say or I'll get after you to-night. If I load the cannon up to the muzzle I'll load it."

DRAWN BATTLE

Oratorical Gladiators of the Macaulay Club Inaugurate the Season with a Capital Debate

The Macaulay Club inaugurated the season of 1904-5 on Saturday evening in the Public Library Auditorium with a capital debate.

The secretary, Dr. George Musson, read a letter from J. M. Pike, one of the leaders, regretting inability to be present. One new member was hailed for and accepted.

Herbert D. Smith presided over the debate, which was as follows: "Resolved that all public officials, except the judiciary, should be elected by the popular vote."

The affirmative was led by J. S. Lane, B. A., with whom were associated Frank D. Laurie, Ald. Thomas Scullard and Chas. Jenkins, all of whom made splendid speeches.

The negative was ably championed by Chas. E. Beeson, who was assisted by Harry J. Stevens and Harry W. Anderson.

In summing up the chairman delivered an excellent address, declaring the debate to be a drawn battle.

The critic, Edwin Bell, then briefly addressed the club and adjournment was made to next Saturday evening.

Severe Chest Colds And Painful Coughs

Demand Prompt and Active Treatment.

The great danger in troubles of this class is "delay." Don't neglect a Cough or Cold, it can have but one result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected—Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Asthma, Catarrh and Consumption will surely follow the neglect to cure.

The first dose of

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP will ease the cough, soothe the inflamed throat and loosen the phlegm.

Mrs. Joseph Paradis, Blackwell, Ont., writes:—I had such a bad cold I could hardly breathe. I noticed Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised, so had my husband get me two bottles—I had only used one before I was cured. I recommended it to a friend, and two bottles cured her after other remedies had failed—we both keep it in the house now and would not be without it. It is the best cough medicine I have ever taken.

Price 25 cents per bottle.

KENT BRIDGE.

Miss Ella Davies, of London, Ont., has returned after having spent a few days visiting her friends in our village.

Mrs. Richardson, Adelaide St., Chatham, spent Thanksgiving in our midst.

Robert Bucke, of London, spent the recent holidays with his brother Dr. Bucke.

C. W. Pickard had a house warming on Thursday last, in the form of a Thanksgiving dinner.

A. C. Shaw made quite a large shipment of sheep here on Saturday.

There is quite a market here every week for poultry. We notice large consignments leaving the C. P. R. station weekly.

Dawson Pickard and family, of Detroit, spent a few days with Chas. Pickard last week.

Mr. Cameron, from East of Toronto, spent a few days with his cousin Mrs. Fred Arnold. It is about eleven years since he saw his relatives here.

Mr. J. W. Lewis's successor as clerk in A. J. Pesh's general store here, has arrived to take up his duties. We are all very sorry to lose Mr. Lewis, as his vacancy will be hard to fill. We wish him success in his new field.

Now for the Provincial elections. There will be surely "something doing" on our side.

A. J. Pesh is installing two new oil tanks at the rear of his store.

THE STORY OF A SUCCESSFUL MAN

He Found His Lost Health in Dodd's Kidney Pills

Leading Business Man of Welland Gives His Experience With The Great Canadian Kidney Remedy.

Welland, Ont., Nov. 28.—(Special).—There is no better known or more highly respected man in Welland than Mr. J. J. Yokom. Born and brought up in the neighboring township of Crowland, by his own industry and sterling honesty he has grown to be one of Welland's leading merchants. Consequently when Mr. Yokom comes out with a statement that he was cured of a serious illness by Dodd's Kidney Pills, everybody knows it must be so.

"For a year or more I had Kidney Trouble in all its worst symptoms," says Mr. Yokom. "My head was bad, I had no appetite and I lost weight fast. At times I was entirely incapacitated. I doctored with a physician of vast experience but got no good results."

"I became despondent of ever being well again, when by good luck I chanced to try Dodd's Kidney Pills and from the first they seemed to suit my case. Five boxes cured me completely."

Knew by the Question.

"Doctor," said the patient, entering the office with a most lugubrious expression, "how does a man feel that has indigestion?" Doctor—"You haven't?"

Women soon grow tired of the companionship of their women.

Few men believe success makes any difference in their disposition.

Between the ages of fifteen and forty-five, the time when womanhood begins and motherhood ends, it is estimated that the aggregate term of woman's suffering is ten years. Ten years out of thirty! One-third of the best part of a woman's life sacrificed! Think of the enormous loss of time! But time is not all that is lost. Those years of suffering steal the bloom from the cheeks, the brightness from the eyes, the fairness from the form. They write their record in many a grease and wrinkle. What a boon then to woman, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It promotes perfect regularity, drives up debilitating drains, heals ulceration, cures female weakness, and establishes the delicate womanly organs in vigorous and permanent health. No other medicine can do for woman what is done by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The highest manhood resides in disposition, not in mere intellect.

LETTER BOX

MR. MALOTT EXPLAINS.

To the Editor of The Planet:

Dear Sir,—A report appeared in the Saturday issue of your paper of an interview one of your reporters had with me on Saturday morning. There are inaccuracies in that report that I wish to correct. As the wording of that report was wholly the work of the reporter I can easily understand how inaccuracies might occur.

When asked that I thought of the proposed temperance legislation of Mr. Ross, I stated plainly at the outset that I could not give an opinion, as I was, as yet, ignorant of the character of such proposed legislation, not having had time to read the report of the recent Liberal convention. When asked what kind of temperance measure would suit me, I said that as far as I was concerned (without attempting to speak for the temperance people generally) a measure that would suit me would be some such measure as was proposed at the time of the referendum, and that I thought such legislation would suit the temperance people as a whole. I distinctly stated that I made this statement without reference to what Mr. Ross had done or was likely to try to do. I said in regard to the whole temperance question I was sometimes thoroughly disgusted with the way it had been played with, meaning by the temperance people as well as the politicians. I declined to pronounce on the question of Mr. Ross' non-fulfillment of pledges, and told your reporter that my views of the temperance question, as stated to him, were made without any reference to the present political issue. As I did not dictate what appeared in quotation marks in your account of the interview, I do not wish that report as worded to be attributed to me.

Will you kindly publish this letter and oblige.

Yours truly,

F. E. MALOTT.
Chatham, Nov. 28th, 1904.

TEAM SCORED

City Pastor Goes After the Lacrosse Club and Draws Some Lessons

Rev. G. H. Cobblidick, pastor of the Park St. Methodist Church, took occasion to score the Tecumseh Lacrosse team of last season, during his evening address to his congregation. His sermon was based upon the actions of the Prodigal Son, and he pointed out that this son was ruined financially, socially and morally. He then went on to point out that the moral standing of the Tecumseh Lacrosse Club players was not what it should be, and that they had injured the fair name of the city by occupying positions on the team.

He wanted it made clear that he was not opposed to manly sport, but he was opposed to "sports" such as were being played by the players. He said they were an aggregation of players thrust on the city, who were supposed to be amateurs but who were professionals, because they were paid, he said, for playing on the team. They got high salaries, which is also by the way, that in the final games some of them did not show up. He said they cost the city thousands of dollars and they spent their time in questionable pastimes. He said they put into existence a gambling resort which is still in operation, and they also helped to ruin young men who bet money on the games.

The service was very largely attended and the choir rendered excellent music. Jasper Wilson sang a solo. A little difficulty was experienced with the electric lights, much to the annoyance of the congregation, and two people fainted during the service.

ANOTHER BURGLARY

The Central Drug Store was burglarized last night. The robbers got into the store and got out again without being discovered. Entrance was secured through the window on the west side, the window was broken. A pane of glass was easily removed. The robbers got the cash register and pulled it apart. The robbers apparently either didn't know enough to open the register in the regular way, it not being locked. Perhaps they were afraid the bell would ring. From the register they secured about $2 in money. The only other articles missed from the store is a pipe and a safety razor. As usual, Boyd and Tremblay are again blamed for this deed.

STOLE FROM FATHER

Hattie May Givens, aged 16, and her two girl friends, Gertrude and Lizzie Flood, are under arrest on the charge of stealing $40 from Tom Givens, father of the first named girl. Tom had been working for John McNaughton, on the third concession, and when he drew his pay it amounted to $50. Givens decided to go on a visit to his sister in the States and with that end in view made a few purchases of wearing apparel. Later he went to his domicile which is common with John Bannister he enjoys, and there lays down to sleep. His daughter approached him while he slumbered and from the pockets of her paternal sire took the roll of bills which amounted to forty dollars. When the father awoke, he was real angry when he missed the money, and began an investigation. He found that his daughter had spent his hard-earned funds and he saw pictures of himself staying in Chatham instead of taking a pleasure trip. This did not lessen his wrath, so he set out to invoke the aid of the law against his daughter and her chums. They were arrested and now languish in the embrace of the law.

PROMISED LAND OF TO-DAY

Lott Fields returned from Moosejaw, N. W. T., on Saturday night. Mr. Fields and his two sons, Melvin and George, have 1,120 acres at Boharm, eleven miles west of Moosejaw. "The West is the greatest country that is," remarked Mr. Fields this morning. In our district the wheat crop was particularly good. We threshed about 4,000 bushels of wheat that graded No. 1 hard and netted us 80 cents a bushel clear of elevator fees and threshing. We had also 2,000 bushels of oats, 200 bushels of flax and a few bushels of barley. I left Moosejaw last Wednesday and it was a fine bright day. We had been working on the land all fall and right up to the time I came away.

"My advice to the young men of Ontario is to go to Western Canada. It is the promised land of to-day and if it is not literally flowing with milk and honey it readily provides a good living and for the workers promises affluence in a few years."

NOT A FISH STORY

Rev. J. W. Hoyt Spoke on Jonah and the Whale at the Wm. Street Baptist Church.

Rev. J. W. Hoyt, pastor of the William street Baptist church, chose this subject for his sermon last night: "Was Jonah really swallowed by a fish?" A large congregation gathered to hear how the minister answered the question. He selected Jonah 1, 17 and 2, 1 as his text. He said that perhaps no book in the Bible had been more bitterly assailed than the book of Jonah. Infidels and skeptics had found material enough in this book to whet their swords and gnash their teeth against the Bible and religion for the past centuries. Regarded as literature the story of Jonah was one of the finest in any language, and it contained many beautiful and practical lessons which have been lost sight of in the smoke of the many criticisms.

The preacher said he most thoroughly believed that Jonah was a real person, and that he was no imaginary hero. His prophecies were referred to in II. Kings and also by Christ. If the story of Jonah were a myth, Christ would not have represented His resurrection, the greatest event of the ages, by it. Mr. Hoyt went on to point out that the seventeenth verse of the first chapter stated that God had prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah. He believed God could have prepared a fish large enough to swallow Jonah and all the crew. If God had power to prepare a worm to eat the gourd in a night, He would have the power to prepare a fish to swallow Jonah. "There is no greater or less to omnipotence. The creation of a universe and the whole stellar system, or a fly, are all due to Him, simple acts of His divine will. He spoke and it was so."

Dr. Pusey, Dr. Miller and other naturalists tell us that there are now many fish in the Mediterranean Sea large enough to swallow a horse, a sea calf, etc., and if that be the case, surely God could prepare a fish large enough by the order of nature to swallow a man.

In conclusion the minister drew attention to the behavior of Jonah while he was on his submarine voyage. He prayed, repented of his sins, and made a vow unto God. God heard him and answered his prayer. Some men will never pray until they are put into a tight place. Mr. Hoyt urged all present to repent, pray, and be saved.

As an elocutionist Miss Henry has probably never been equaled here. She is indeed an English beauty in all that the term implies.—New York Herald. With the Meister Singers, Dec. 5th.

EXCELLENT CHOIR

The annual Harvest Home services of Christ Church were held last evening and they were characterized by very large congregations both morning and evening.

Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick, rector of All Saints Church, Windsor, conducted both services and he preached excellent sermons. In the morning his sermon was especially good, he preaching from the text "I will look unto the hills from whence cometh my help." Mr. Chadwick is an able speaker and his sermons were keenly enjoyed by the large congregations. The interior of the church was very beautifully decorated for the occasion with palms and flowers.

The music rendered by the choir was especially enjoyable. The vested choir is getting better every week under the able directorship of J. W. Wilson. It was generally remarked that the music rendered at both services yesterday was about the finest ever heard from a Maple City choir. In the evening, besides the regular music of the service, two special numbers were a solo by Miss Lucy McKellar, formerly soprano soloist of the church, and a duet by Messrs. J. W. Wilson and R. W. Angus. Miss McKellar sang beautifully. She always a favorite in Christ Church and the people of the congregation were very much pleased to hear her again.

Mr. Chadwick, during his remarks in the evening, took occasion to compliment the church very highly on their excellent vested choir. It was not often his privilege, he said, to listen to such excellent music as that rendered by this excellent choir. The church should indeed be proud of their singers.
