

WAR OFFICIALLY DECLARED TODAY

WAR IS OFFICIALLY DECLARED IN EUROPE

Refusal of Germany and Austria to Accede to Sir Edward Grey's Request Was Followed Immediately by the Declaration of Hostilities.

LONDON, July 28.—Announcement of the declaration of war by Austria-Hungary on Serbia came to-day almost immediately after Germany and Austria had notified Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Minister, of their refusal to join in a mediation conference.

It is assumed here that the efforts of the European nations will now be directed toward localizing the area of hostilities.

The actual cause of Austria-Hungary's determination to enter into hostile conflict with Serbia was the reply sent by the Balkan State to the note from Vienna demanding that Serbia take steps to put a stop to the pan-Serbian propaganda on Austrian territory, and also punish those Servians indirectly concerned in the assassination in Bosnia on June 28 of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne.

The response of Serbia was considered by the Foreign Office in Vienna "unsatisfactory," and in a semi-official communication, made public yesterday, the Austro-Hungarian Government said that the reply was "filled with the spirit of dishonesty."

In the meantime Sir Edward Grey took the initiative of requesting the European powers to permit their ambassadors in London to confer with a view to a peaceful solution of the controversy. Italy and France at once consented to join their efforts to those of Great Britain, but Germany and Austria refused, Germany supporting her ally in the like Austria to appear before a tribunal of the European contention that it would be prejudicial for a great power powers on the same status as the little Balkan nation.

Austria-Hungary in the interval had proceeded rapidly with the mobilization of her great army. The entire railroad system was utilized for the movement of troop trains, the telegraph system was virtually monopolized for Government business, and a strict censorship was imposed.

Serbia also had mobilized her forces and had withdrawn the garrison of Belgrade, the capital, to the interior, as the chief city of Serbia occupied a position too vulnerable to be held.

Every war office and admiralty in Europe was occupied in preparations for eventualities, even the smaller countries, such as Holland, Belgium and Switzerland taking precautionary measures.

Then to-day came the formal declaration of war by Austria-Hungary, one of the members of the Triple Alliance, the other two countries in which are Germany and Italy. The notification of the fact was sent this afternoon to the Servian Government, which has its temporary headquarters at Kraguevatz. It was anticipated here that a declaration of the beginning of hostilities would follow quickly on Germany's decision to hold aloof from any scheme of mediation. The German Foreign Office had said that a conference of ambassadors would in its opinion serve no useful purpose, while "conversations" between Vienna and St. Petersburg were still in progress.

The attitude of Russia was watched carefully to-day in official circles here, and the firm belief was expressed that Russia would enter the lists in support of the little Slav kingdom as soon as fighting started in earnest.

Here is the Official War Declaration

VIENNA, July 28.—The declaration of war was gazetted here late this afternoon. The text is as follows: "The royal government of Serbia not having replied in a satisfactory manner to the note remitted to it by the Austro-Hungarian minister in Belgrade on July 23, 1914, the imperial and royal government finds itself compelled to proceed itself to safeguard its rights and interests and to have recourse for this purpose to force of arms. "Austria-Hungary considers itself therefore from this moment in a state of war with Serbia. (Signed) "COUNT BERCHTHOLD, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Austria-Hungary."

Six Million Feet Of Lumber Was Totally Destroyed

[By Special Wire to the Courier] OTTAWA, July 28.—About six million feet of lumber, several hundred cords of wood and one frame house were destroyed in the fire which broke out in the Gilmore and Hughson yards at Hull last night and raged until this morning. The loss will be over $250,000, nearly all covered by insurance.

As is the case frequently with lumber mills, the cut, though piled in the Gilmore and Hughson yard, had been sold some time ago. Gilmore and Hughson had very little of their own lumber burned, the amount destroyed practically all belonging to the Hughson Company, Albany, and Thomas Macarrell of Ottawa. The exact value of the lumber is not known but it will amount to probably about $200,000, which is covered by insurance. The Gilmore and Hughson mill is not located near the yard where the lumber was burned, and it was not endangered. The Hull brigade was assisted by a section of the Ottawa brigade.

War is Now the Only Course

[By Special Wire to the Courier] VIENNA, July 28.—The Imperial Austro-Hungarian Foreign Office declared to-day that even should Serbia now comply with the demands contained in the Austrian note, the government of the dual monarchy would not be satisfied. Officials at the ministry stated that Serbia's reply had made it impossible for Austria-Hungary to adhere to her former standpoint, and compliance by Serbia with the demands made on her could no longer influence the course of action of the Austro-Hungarian empire.

CHARIVARI OF BLUEVALE COUPLE ENDS IN RIOTING

Stones Thrown and Bride is Injured When Demand for Money is Refused.

WINGHAM, July 28.—Prosecutions will follow as the result of a charivari near Bluevale, about ten miles from here, that developed into a riot when the demand of the mob for $5 was refused.

Mr. Joseph Smith, aged 60, living near Bluevale, was married a week ago to Mrs Bothwell of Lucknow. The couple returned last night from a week's honeymoon and a gang of men from the neighborhood gathered to charivari them. Members of the mob were armed with circular saws, tin boilers and every other form of noisemaker. They demanded $5, which the elderly bridegroom refused. They then began to stone the house. One stone hit Mrs Smith in the back between the shoulder blades. So great was the noise raised by the rowdies that neighbors for over a mile around were aroused and a hurry call was sent in about 10 o'clock for High Constable George Phippen, of Wingham, who was informed that a riot was in progress. He immediately secured an automobile and hurried to the scene of the disturbance. As soon as the mob caught sight of the constable as he stepped from the motor, however, it hurriedly dispersed, many going into an outfield opposite Mr. Smith's house, belonging to Mr. Wm Diamond, who now threatens action for the damage thus done.

Everyone escaped in the darkness but one young man named Churchill who returned to Mr. Diamond's where he was captured by Constable Phippen. The names of a number of the other members of the gang were also secured and prosecution will follow. The neighbors are greatly incensed over the affair.

About a week ago a similar occurrence near Wingham was cut short by the production of the $5 by the bridegroom, Mr. James Fowler, who married Miss Finlay, of Lower Wingham.

WOODSTOCK, July 28.—North Oxford license commissioners in session yesterday decided to grant licenses to the Royal and Arlington hotels, of this city, and to the Burns hotel at Bright for the balance of the year. The granting of these licenses was deferred at the regular meeting of the commissioners held in April, the two local hotels being given a three months' extension with a warning to keep better hotels, while the proprietor of the hotel at Bright, Mr. Thomas Burns, was given three months to transfer the hotel to some other party.

To-day Mr Burns reported that he had not yet sold out, but intimated that he would dispose of the business before the next meeting of the commission. The granting of the license for the two local hotels was based upon the report of the inspector, who has had his eye on the houses in question since the annual meeting.

TROOPS ARE RUSHED OVER ALL ROADS

Warlike Activity is Noticed, Particularly in Bohemia.

No Traffic Except for Soldiers Towards Servia.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] BELIN, July 28.—Reports from the Austrian border to-day state that the transport of the 8th and 9th Austrian army corps from Bohemia toward the Servian frontier began yesterday, and that there was no other traffic on the Bohemian railroads except troop trains. The two army corps in Bohemia consist of 32 battalions of infantry, with a large number of quick-firing machine guns, six regiments of cavalry, two regiments of field artillery and two regiments of the army service corps.

Telegraphic communication with Carlsbad and Marienbad was still open to-day, but only by one direct line from the Saxon frontier. The telegraphic service between Berlin and Vienna was demoralized and on some lines was completely interrupted.

The Militar-Wochenblatt, the official military weekly newspaper, prints a noteworthy article comparing the Austro-Hungarian and Russian armies to the disadvantage of the latter. It says the fighting strength of the Russian army is usually over-estimated, and that numbers alone are not decisive. More important factors, it points out, are morale, higher leadership and armament. The writer says it may well be remembered that in recent times Russia alone never defeated any army of equal rank, and would not have been successful in defeating the Turks in the war of 1877 if she had not been aided by Rumania. It says in conclusion that the five new army corps reported to have been added to the Russian army are still non-existent.

One of the newspapers here to-day received a despatch declaring that Russia had declared war on Austria, but declined to print it, as there was no confirmation.

AMERICA IS NOW POURING GOLD INTO EUROPE

War Scare is Responsible for the Despatch of Twenty Millions in Few Days.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] NEW YORK, July 28.—The latest gold movement to Europe, which began on last Friday when $2,000,000 was sent to Paris, was further increased to-day by a shipment of $1,600,000 aboard the liner Kron Prinzessin Cecilie. This is said to be the largest single gold shipment ever made from America to Europe. Of to-day's shipment $6,000,000 is consigned to London bankers and $4,600,000 to Paris.

In addition to this sum, $2,750,000 in gold bars has been engaged for shipment to Paris by the Carmania, which is due to sail to-morrow. Bankers laid the new demand for gold export almost entirely to the war scare in Europe, although they admitted that the fortnightly settlement on the London Stock Exchange, which began yesterday might have had something to do with it. Other important engagements will be made to-day, it was said, making the amount to go by the Carmania at least $8,000,000, and the total of the movement since Friday of more than twenty millions.

GERMANY'S REQUEST. ROME, July 28.—Authoritative advice received here from Bucharest, state that Germany has asked for positive assurances from Rumania of her intentions in connection with the Austro-Servian situation.

GERMANY REFUSES THE SUGGESTION MADE BY SIR EDWARD GREY

Cannot Ask Two Powers to Come Before Tribunal as Accused—Cabinets, and Not Ambassadors Should Settle It

[By Special Wire to the Courier] BERLIN, July 28.—The German Government to-day returned an unfavorable reply to the British proposal for a conference of the ambassadors in London of the European powers in an endeavor to bring about a settlement of the Austro-Servian difficulty.

In its communication Germany declares that it considers the suggestion of Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, as well meant and good in principle, but not feasible in practice and impossible to carry out.

It says that it cannot be expected that a great power having a dispute with a smaller neighbor will submit the matter to the decision of an European Aroq Pagus. Nor can it be hoped that two great powers will submit to be summoned in the role of accused before such a tribunal.

Germany makes the counter-suggestion that the grounds for peace be conducted between the cabinets instead of by a conference. Germany, however, is prepared to welcome any further suggestions to localize the conflict as far as they are consistent with her duty to her ally.

SERVIANS ARE LEAVING CITY FOR COUNTRY

While Austrians Are Getting Out as Fast as They Can.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] BELGRADE, July 28.—(By indirect route.) Many Servian families left the capital for the country districts in spite of the advice of the authorities while there has been a great exodus of Austrians and Hungarians from Belgrade and other parts of the capital, the police duties having been undertaken by a corps of volunteers composed of students.

Military preparations are being carried out with feverish activity. The troops have been concentrated in fortified positions, the headquarters of the army being established at Kraguevatz, but in the event of necessity they will be transferred at Krushewatz 90 miles southeast of Belgrade.

Hostilities Start Today

[By Special Wire to the Courier] PARIS, July 28.—The Austrian ambassador to France to-day said it was probable that active hostilities between Austria-Hungary and Servia began this morning, but that at 11 o'clock he had not received any telegram to that effect from Vienna.

BUSSES AT STRATFORD HAVE NO SET ROUTES

New Passenger Lines Will Go On Streets to Make Most Money—Machines Arrive To-day

[By Special Wire to the Courier] STRATFORD, July 28.—Everything is set for the coming of the motor bus service to the city. The contract between the city and the Bus Company has been signed. Mr. Thompson has sent word to his solicitor, Mr. J. A. Davidson, that the terms of the contract are perfectly satisfactory to him. He will likely be in the city to-morrow, and with him will come the motor busses.

Concerning the matter of fares, the company has made it clear that the fare between any two points in the city will be not more than the specified five cents. A passenger will be able to proceed from one route to another by means of a transfer slip providing he makes his trip in one continuous journey. But the company is not held down to any set routes and will go on the streets where it can make the most money.

Amos Stonehouse of Enniskillen township one of the best known cattle breeders in western Ontario, is dead as the result of being kicked by cattle.

DUBLIN RIOT HAS STOPPED MR. ASQUITH

Plans For the Home Rule Amending Bill Given a Jolt.

LONDON, July 28.—The first effect of the Dublin tragedy has been to smash Premier Asquith's plans for taking up the amending bill to-day. The premier announced to-day that the matter had been indefinitely postponed. The Irish members are so exasperated over the killing of four persons and the wounding of many others in the clash yesterday between the regular troops and the Nationalist volunteers that they are in no frame of mind to grant any concession to Ulster. The Laborites and many Liberal support them.

The Government announced in the House of Commons to-day that Deputy Police Commissioner Harrell, who ordered out the troops, had been suspended and that his superior commissioner, Sir John Ross, who expressed a desire to share the responsibility, had resigned his office.

A special inquiry will be held, probably by judicial commission. In the meantime the demand for the removal of the Scottish Borderers from Dublin has not been granted, largely because an attempt to march them out would be the signal for attacks by the mobs. They will remain prisoners in barracks until the anger of the people has cooled.

Aberdeen Blamed. The Nationalist members of Parliament held a meeting this afternoon and showed more animus against the castle than the Government; they consider Viceroy Aberdeen's official family prejudiced against the Nationalists.

PARIS WANTS TO GET AWAY FROM COUNTY

Costs Too Much in Taxes—Council Meeting Held Last Evening.

Paris, July 28.—Following a discussion in which it was conceded that Paris pays too much in taxes to the County of Brant, the Town Council last night appointed a committee to investigate the matter and report as to the necessary procedure which must be taken to obtain an act of separation. The idea of separating for municipal purposes has been an issue for some time, but last night's action is the first towards the consummation of the plan. The committee, which is working in conjunction with the town solicitor is composed of Messrs. Pitts, Sinclair and Rehder.

Mrs. George Goodall recently quietly celebrated the 86th anniversary of her birthday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Broughton, Dundas street.

On Saturday's baseball match the Galt Amity Club defeated Paris by a score of 18 runs to 15. Parties around town would do well to securely fasten all lower windows around their house. During Sunday night some party entered the home of Mrs. Annie Lamb, West River st. and stole over $37 in money, besides taking food from the pantry and making a meal in the kitchen. Entrance was gained through a screen window in the pantry.

The robbery has a rather suspicious aspect as Mrs. Lamb drew money from the bank on Friday afternoon to use on Monday. There was nothing disturbed in the house. Simply her handbag taken from the dining room to the kitchen and the money taken out. Parties have been heard prowling around houses of late at different parts of the town. At the junction a quantity of vegetables has been taken from different gardens. The police have no trace of the thieves. Last week a horse and buggy were stolen from the Baptist church sheds and has not yet been found.

RAISING MONEY FOR REDMOND IN UNITED STATES

Large Contributions Are Made in Philadelphia—Money, Not Men, Needed.

[By Special Wire to the Courier] PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—Leaders of the factions in this city engaged in securing funds to assist the cause of home rule in Ireland reported large contributions at meetings held last night. More than $4,000 was pledged at a meeting of the United Irish League. Michael J. Ryan, President of the league, declared that there is no necessity of anyone going from this country to fight as there are plenty of men in Ireland. "The sinews of war," he said, "are the dollars."

The American volunteer fund committee, headed by Joseph McGarrity held an executive meeting and arranged for a mass meeting, the date of which will be announced later. Chairman McGarrity announced that one club in this city has pledged to raise $50,000 within thirty days while other promises of contributions had been received by telephone, messenger and letter.

Poor People Are After Deposits At the Banks

BERLIN, July 28.—The public in the German capital was very nervous to-day and alarmed as the rumors continued to come in. The run on the savings banks, where the poorer classes deposited their money, was resumed this morning. At five o'clock depositors outside the municipal savings banks and the people insisted on having their money regardless of the reassuring statements by the officials. The stock market was discouraged as its hopes of a speedy mitigation of the tension disappointed by Germany's failure to agree to Sir Edward Grey's suggestions.

Runaway Was A Fierce One

A bad runaway occurred on Market street this morning about 10.30 when a horse driven by N. S. Maynard, 48 Ontario St. attached to a rural route mail cart, frightened at a passing street car, on Erie avenue, and made a sudden dash for Market street, throwing Mr. Maynard out of the rig just around the corner on Market St. The frightened beast continued up Market street at a terrific pace, snatching the rig to pieces on a telegraph pole. Constable Pickels on duty at the corner of Market and Colborne streets saw the horse coming up Market street and succeeded in stopping it at the corner. The rig was smashed to pieces, and the harness ripped off the animal. Fortunately, although Mr. Maynard was thrown heavily to the ground, he escaped unhurt.

Music and Drama

At the Brant.
The second instalment of the Million Dollars serial picture held the attention of the audience to the end at the Brant Theatre this week. It was a fitting continuation of the sensational developments which transpired in the first reels.

For a good and sparkling bill, full of wit and humour it would be difficult to approach that served up at the Brant this week.

Geo. Lavender kept up a continuous ripple of mirth when he appeared on the boards and his exit after a grotesque dance was as comical as his performance. He was heartily applauded.

Newell and Most, present one of the cleverest and smartest song and dialogue acts that the Brant has seen. Their first song heralded success.

Some of the most original feats performed upon bicycles, were brought off by the Bander Lavelle Trio yesterday when they formed pyramids and did various amazing things with great dexterity. They repeatedly bowed to an encore.

The bill is a credit to the management.

Local Austrians Will Go Back

Last week, before the present war crisis in Austria and Serbia had broken out, a city official while visiting some of the Austrian homes in the city on civic business, found many of the men of the families preparing to leave for the Old Land. On enquiry they said that they had received word from their home land, Austria that war might be expected any day and they were preparing to leave. This was before a word had appeared in the papers. The gentleman forgot about the matter until he read this week about Austria's ultimatum to Serbia.

Already a number of Austrians have left the city for Montreal, where they will embark for their mother country, while others are now getting ready to leave.

Gave Service To County

The Late Jos. McIntyre Was Three Times Warden of Brant.

In the death of Mr. Joseph McIntyre, who passed away at the residence of his daughter, 63 Brant Ave., yesterday, Brant County has lost one who has for many years been actively identified in the progress of the county and one who was known as a Christian gentleman. The late Mr. McIntyre, who was 75 years of age at time of his passing, had rendered splendid service to his fellow residents of Brant County, and in turn had received well merited recognition in public office of his ability for faithful service. He was three times Warden of the county, a record which is unique in the annals of the county. He served in 1891, 1897 and 1903. In the township of Oakland his memory will be cherished by many. For 20 years he was reeve of that township, the length of service reflecting to a high degree the trust imposed in him. In other county matters the late Mr. McIntyre was both diligent and active. He was the first chairman of the House of Refuge board. He was Vice-President and Director of the Brant Mutual Fire Insurance Company up to the time of his sickness. In politics he was a life long Liberal and an ex-vice-president of the Brant County Reform Association. He was also active in church matters to which he gave liberal and cheerful assistance. He was a deacon of the Baptist church. Our men are called and very few respond to the service of the community such as was given in the long life of usefulness of the late Joseph McIntyre. His passing will be generally regretted as a life of great service has been closed. One son, Charles of Oakland, and one daughter Mrs. T. E. Ryerson, city, also one brother, Robert, Market St. are the surviving members of the family. The funeral takes place to-morrow to Oakland cemetery from the late residence 63 Brant Avenue.

A party of visiting Scottish teachers were entertained in Toronto.

THE EUROPEAN CRISIS—TWO BIG MEN

Great Britain has quite generally been blessed with excellent Foreign Secretaries, Salisbury, Rosebery, and a number of other capable and far seeing men, but none have ever exceeded Sir Edward Grey, the present occupant of the position.

He has held the office since 1905 and from first to last, has disclosed an amount of discernment and resource very seldom paralleled. On more than one occasion this, quiet, but astute statesman has successfully poured the oil of diplomacy upon troubled international waters, and such is the recognized place which he holds in the eyes of the world that when a conference was decided upon in connection with the late Balkan war, each of the contending nations by common consent decided that he was the one man to preside over the deliberations.

He is not brilliantly noisy like Churchill, nor busily vituperative like Lloyd George. As a matter of fact he seldom speaks in the House and although a minister in a Liberal Cabinet he keeps himself sedulously aside from acrimonious debates—in fact seems to be almost apart from all politics—but when he does have anything to say, all the members listen to him with the respect and the attention which are the proper recognition of one so pre-eminently equipped in every respect for the office which he holds.

And at Westminster when it comes to Foreign policy, whether the head of that department be either Grit or Tory, there is to all intents and purposes, practical unanimity in upholding the hands of the Minister in charge.

One explanation is that the Chicago beef packers now control the entire supply of Argentine beef imported into the United States. If this is a fact, it is sufficient to account for the maintenance of the high price of beef and also for the prospective increase.

Before the removal of the duties on meat the beef combine was able to control the domestic market and fix prices; it can do the same thing now if it is in control of the main sources of the foreign supply.

All of which serves to show that free trade is by no means an infallible remedy for the evil of monopoly. It might have been effective a generation ago; but now that trade combination is being internationalized, free importation is of little avail in many lines.

Two individuals, more unlike in character it would be impossible to conceive. Grey is taciturn, the Kaiser voluble. Grey is for quiet means to an end; the Kaiser for the direct blow. Grey has never been known to make what is termed a "break"; the Kaiser has made lots of them, notably that famous message of his in which he congratulated Kruger upon Boer success against Great Britain during the hostilities between the two countries.

The Emperor is commonly known as the "War Lord," and he has always been credited with a desire for the chance to rouse his people with a call to arms, yet his entire career shows otherwise. When, as a young man and new to the throne, in 1890, he had a disagreement with Bismarck, the "Iron Chancellor," and promptly dismissed him, it is not too much to say that statesmen of all other countries gasped.

There was a man regarded as the master of Europe, old in service and famed for brilliant achievements on behalf of the Fatherland, pertly told to vacate by a youthful and untried ruler. The occasion produced that notable cartoon in Punch, depicting the Kaiser as Captain of the German ship of state, looking over the side as Bismarck steps into a small boat. Underneath were the words "Dropping the Pilot." And so everyone felt while at bottom there was the dread as to how William would fill the post of commander. Well, from the first he has handled it, and handled it well. Supreme to the extent of no other European monarch with power under the constitution to dismiss either the Bundesrath (Federal Council) or Reichstag (Administrative Assembly), and with the conviction that he is a ruler by Divine right, and further backed by a magnificent army and splendid navy, he has been in a position on more than one occasion to dictate hostilities, but he has held his hand. Will he do so now? He can accept Grey's invitation with peace assured, or he can keep aloof with a terrible conflict involving many nations the certainty.

Here they are, the one a citizen, the other an Emperor, the two individuals upon whose good services mainly rests the issue as to whether it shall be "cry havoc and let loose the dogs of war," or otherwise. The one has acted for peace, the

(Since the above was written, a cablegram to the Courier this afternoon by special leased wire, announces that the Kaiser refused to cooperate, and that the war is on.)

THE FREE FOOD FALLACY. The Hamilton Herald (Independent) points out that when the new U. S. tariff came in force last autumn, with its free-food schedule, it was anticipated that one of its effects would be a speedy reduction in the cost of living, at least in the prices of food.

But something has happened that is not easy to explain. Although enormous quantities of meat have been imported under the stimulus of the free-food schedule, the prices of meat have not been appreciably lowered. Instead, we are now told that a sharp increase in the price of beef must be looked for.

Here is a case where unrestricted competition has failed to produce any effect on the price of a commodity which is in universal demand and the supply of which has been greatly increased. Possibly the American people are eating more beef now than they were then, and the people are in no better position to indulge in luxuries.

One explanation is that the Chicago beef packers now control the entire supply of Argentine beef imported into the United States. If this is a fact, it is sufficient to account for the maintenance of the high price of beef and also for the prospective increase.

Before the removal of the duties on meat the beef combine was able to control the domestic market and fix prices; it can do the same thing now if it is in control of the main sources of the foreign supply.

All of which serves to show that free trade is by no means an infallible remedy for the evil of monopoly. It might have been effective a generation ago; but now that trade combination is being internationalized, free importation is of little avail in many lines.

If you feel inclined to take part in European hostilities, just pair off with some chap who would be on the other side and then both remain in Brantford.

The Toronto Globe alleges that a Mexican is in that city planning for a new revolution in that country. Probably this is a prelude for another feature of the Industrial Fair at La Li Hung Chang.

QUEBEC'S OUTPUT. QUEBEC, July 28.—The superintendent of the mines of the Province of Quebec, reports that in the course of the last fiscal year, notwithstanding the financial and industrial crisis the mines of this province have given a production of $13,119,811 in 1913. These figures show an increase of nearly two million dollars over the previous year.

As usual, asbestos leads all mineral products, the quantity extracted reaching the sum of $3,830,504. Quebec province alone produces 80 per cent of the world's supply.

At the Ranges

About sixty members of the 38th attended the usual weekly practice at the "butts" on Saturday. The scoring, while not as high as usual, was very good considering the conditions the marksmen had to contend with.

The wind was very tricky, and the man who got through his score without a miss being recorded against him was considered lucky. The scores in order of merit were as follows:

Major Genet, staff, 95; Lieutenant Thomas, A. 90; Lieut. James, C. 88; Pte. Pardew, A. 87; Pte. Forsythe, F. 87; Corp. Gilmour, F. 87; Pte. Boyle, A. 85; Capt. Colquhoun, A. 85; Sergt. G. Lawn Tennis

The St. Mary's Church tennis team defeated the Echo Place celebrities at the St. Mary's tennis courts last night in two single sets of doubles by the scores of 6-2 and 7-5. Playing for St. Mary's were Miss Josephine Kew and W. J. Phillips of lacrosse fame, while Miss Edna Smith and Rath Astley represented Echo Place.

The play was of good fast order and St. Marys rather ran away with the first set, their opponents not getting a run of the court. Later the opposition developed a good service and tied the second set at 5 all. St. Marys however, took the next two points and the set, thus accomplishing the downfall of the Echo Place enthusiasts.

Should the Bell View club send more than four ladies, the Dufferin ladies will have further players in Iradelle Howie, Wilma Jones, Dorothy Rowe and Edith Sweet.

The Bell View Ladies will be represented by Jean Cox, A. Cox, E. Littich and Bertha Norris and others who are not yet decided upon.

THE CROOKS

The people who beat you, horns-woggle and cheat you, don't profit long from the kale; for folks who are tricky find Nemesis sticky—it never abandons their trail. I have often been cheated; the trick has been repeated so often I cannot keep tab; but never has the duffer who thus made me suffer been much better off for his grab. It pays not to swindle; dishonest rolls dwindle like snow when exposed to the sun; like feathers in Tophet is burned up the profit of cheating, the crooked man's moon.

The people who sting me unknowingly bring me philosophy fresh, by the crate; I don't get excited—my wrongs will be righted, by Nemesis, Fortune of Fate. I know that the stingers—they think they are dingers and gloat over the coin they don't earn—I know they will be busted and sick and disgusted while I still have roubles to burn. I'd rather be hollow with hunger than follow the course that the tricksters pursue; I'd rather be "easy" than do as the breezy and conscienceless gentlemen do. "I am a veteran of the Crimean War and the Indian Mutiny, volunteering from the Royal Artillery into the Royal Engineers, and served under Lord Roberts during the Indian Mutiny, and am a pensioner of the British Government. Fierce hand-to-hand fighting and continual exposure left me a great sufferer from Rheumatism, so much so that my legs swelled up, making it impossible for me to walk. "Fruit-a-lives". WILL PAINT THE CITY HALL AND FIRE STATION AT ONCE

Special Meeting of the City Council For the Letting of Contracts—Petition For Holiday Wednesday, Old Home Week.

The tenders for the painting of the city hall and the Central Fire Station were granted last evening at the special meeting of the city council...

The meeting was a very short one, it taking only one hour to transact the business. His Worship Mayor Spence presided and at eight o'clock there was exactly a quorum present...

be done faster with the jobs in separate hands. Ald. Ward wanted to know would both be done in time for Old Home Week...

Mayor Spence stated that fresh tenders had been called for both jobs so as to give everyone an equal chance. It was then moved by Ald. Pitcher...

Moved by Ald. Pitcher, seconded by Ald. Sigmund that the tender of S. F. Thompson for the painting of the city hall at $205 be given to him, being the lowest. On suggestion of the Mayor the words "with best oil and lead" were inserted...

Ald. S. P. Pitcher presenting the report of the Buildings and Grounds committee which advised that the tender of S. F. Thompson for the painting of the city hall at a cost of $205 be accepted...

Ald. Robinson thought McHugh's tender should be considered as it was saving money to grant it, but Ald. Pitcher said that while he was perfectly agreeable to whatever the council might do in the matter the fact remained that McHugh's tender was not in time and also that McHugh was not a regular painter.

Ald. Bragg contended that as Osborne's tender was only a few dollars more than Thompson's he should be given the fire hall and the work would be done faster with the jobs in separate hands.

Mr. Speechley also spoke for the committee and said there were 5,300 men, members of the sixteen different societies represented by the committee who desired the holiday. Ald. Ward suggested that the committee make a general canvass of the merchants and others to see what the feeling is towards the matter.

Just before the council adjourned Ald. Pitcher gave notice that he would present at the next meeting regarding the repairing of the old clock in the city hall. E. H. Newman and Sons of the city had guaranteed to repair it for $60 to run from Old Home Week to the end of the year. It would be put in A1 shape and after the first of the year if looked after would continue to run.

Still Another Shift Manager Deneau is going to try another shift around to-day and will place Johnny Nelson at second and Roth at third, with Cosma remaining at first. Rube will again stay on the bench. Shag will likely put either Peterson or Kane on the mound, while Lage will catch.

Baseball Magnates Here. J. J. McCaffrey, president of the Toronto International Baseball and J. Kelly, manager of the Toronto Internationals arrived in the city Sunday evening by auto and registered at the Kerby House. They had motored all the way from Toronto expected to see the Toronto Canadians play the Red Sox here on Monday, but when they heard that it was Shag who was to be here and not the Beavers, they departed early Monday morning for the Queen City, very disappointed and in rather bad humor over their misreading of the schedule.

Old Home Week Notes In regard to the monster merchants parade on Monday of Old Home Week, a great many merchants appear to think that the parade is for the butchers and grocers only. A member of the parade committee pointed out last evening that such an idea was all wrong, as all business men of the city are not only welcome but are expected to take part in the parade. The bakers of the city, for instance, have already signified their intention of taking part in the parade in automobiles, while A. Thompson is lining up the commercial travellers of the district for the parade. On the whole the parade committee has met with very fair success from the merchant and business men in general.

Great Motion Pictures of the Creation Tomorrow Evening.

The Photo-Drama of "Creation" which opens in this city at the Grand on Wednesday evening is said to be the greatest motion picture exhibition of its kind in the world. It was first presented in New York City about a year ago where it has run continuously twice daily and has also been produced in over one hundred of the leading cities in the U. S., Great Britain and Canada. It is in four parts complete in itself. Part one is run for four days, followed by part two for three days, part three for four days and part four three days. The initial cost of the production was $250,000, the art galleries of the world and the British museum contributing largely to the production, single features from these places costing large sums of money. It presents in fascinating and instructive motion and colored pictures, the world's creation and preparation, including Edenic scenes, based upon the latest deduction, scientific, historical and biblical. A production so stupendous and costly and of such educational value will no doubt be enjoyed by large numbers of Brantford citizens who have seen it, are loud in its praises and pleased for another opportunity to witness this marvellous production.

DOLAN'S HOMER IN SECOND BEAT RUBE'S RED SOX 7-4

New Player Showed Up Well and Should Help Steady the Cellar Boys

Shaughnessy's Senators put it over the Red Sox yesterday afternoon at Agricultural Park in the first game of the weeks three game series by the score of 7 to 4. It was a game that the Red Sox practically won at the end of the 3rd, after the Senators had got a three-run lead on them, but inability to hit when the bases were filled lost the game for the Red Sox. At that game the Sox was a good one, fairly fast and lots of hitting, the Senators getting to Chase for 10 hits while the Sox got after Rogers, the Ottawa twirler for only one less. Cosma, the new player, secured by Rube Deneau from Michigan played well at first and got to first twice in five times at bat; once on a fielder's choice in the first when he stole second, and again in the seventh when after getting a nice single he stole to third but was stopped from scoring by Roth going out. Young Fried at short showed up better at the bat than he has since he joined the locals, getting two hits and a base on balls in four times up. It was Dolan's home run in the second inning that started things moving for the Senators, his homer driving Stewart, Lage and himself home, entailing three runs for the Senators to have over Rube's crew but the Sox did the trick unexpectedly. La-

Scoreboard for the game between Brantford and Ottawa. Brantford won 7-4. The table lists runs, hits, and errors for both teams, along with individual player statistics.

Story of Reverse 43

First Inning. Ottawa—Mitchell batted out an in-field hit. Chase deflecting the ball. Rogers bunted straight at Chase, who made a running catch and completed a double play to Roth. Smykal struck out. No runs, one hit no errors. Brantford—Long was safe at first when Mitchell the $1,000 beauty pulled Dolan off the bag with his throw. Nelson failed to bunt and struck out. Cosma forced Long at second, and Roth popped to third. No runs no hits one error. Second Inning. Ottawa—Shaughnessy was thrown out by Roth, but kicked hard on the decision. Stewart singled to right. Roth covering but little ground. At this stage Smykal was chased off the line. Matty caught Stewart cold off first, but Freeman wouldn't give it. Lage poked a hit through second, which Roth just missed. Dolan, then hit a homer over centre field fence. He had two strikes when he got the blow. Will walked. Powers was out. Nelson to Cosma; Mitchell walked. Rogers forced Nell at third. Three runs, three hits, two walks, no errors. Brantford—Barrett filed to Stewart. Fried got a sharp hit past short, and Lamond lined one to centre. Chase hit to right, scoring Fried. Long hit to left filling the bases. Nelson hit into a double play, Smykal tagging Long and throwing to first. One run, four hits, no errors. Third Inning. Ottawa—Smykal was out, Nelson to Cosma the Brantford third-baseman making a great play. Shaughnessy was out. Fried to Cosma. Stewart filed to Long. Brantford—Cosma struck out, Dudley walked. Roth singled to centre. Barrett was out, Smykal to first, both runners advancing. Fried walked, filling the bases. Lamond doubled to right centre, cleaning the bases. It was a beautiful smash. Chase filed to Mitchell. Three runs, two hits, two walks. Fourth Inning. Ottawa—Lage filed to Dudley. Dolan got a three base hit on the left field foul line. Nil walked. Dolan scored on a sacrifice fly to centre. Will was caught stealing; Lamond's throw beating him easily. One run, one hit one walk. Brantford—Long was out, second to first. Erie Kiboshes The Kockneys

ERIE, July 28.—Displaying a complete reversal of form over Sunday, the Yanks had no difficulty in beating London yesterday 6 to 2. Steiger started on the mound for the Tecumseh, but his slants were taken so kindly that he was benched in favor of Hammond in the fourth. Hammond was touched up quite freely during his stay on the hilltop, but tightened up in pinches and let the Yanks down with but two runs. Steiger was saved from a worse beating through fast support on the part of his mates. Two lightning double plays cut off batting rallies in second and third when the Yanks hit the hardest. Win in Second Inning. The Yanks practically won the game in the second when they batted like fiends. Harris led off with a single; was sacrificed to second, but was held at third on McNeil's drive to right. He then slid under Muller's throw to the plate on Cooper's hit to third. Brown walked forcing in the bases. McNeil and Cooper scored on Scott's single with the bases full. Collihan rapped a hot liner which Steiger scooped getting Brown at the plate, and Collihan was doubled off first on a quick relay from Snyder. The Yankees continued hitting in the third. Gygli singled, but was caught off first. Harris singled sharply to left and scored on McNeil's second single after Patten had walked. Muller started the next double play when Cooper hit a hot one to him.

Hamilton Puts Us In Cellar

ST. THOMAS, July 28.—Playing the kind of ball which would win 90 per cent of games played in the Canadian League, the Hamilton Athletics under Manager White, took the opening game from the locals by the shut-out route, romping off with three runs to the good off Wilkinson's curves. "Cosy" Dolan, in the box for the visitors, was a complete mystery to the Saints who were only able to lean on his shoots for four widely distributed bingles of the one base variety. But one of the locals reached second base, displaying the wonderful article of baseball on the defensive of the Athletics. This was Kading, in the ninth when he was safe when Pendry overthrew first base for the third out. While the locals had five misplays chalked up against them, these did not figure in the run getting, since each of the three runs garnered by the former cellar barons were all well earned by playing fast aggressive ball with men on bases. One Fast Double Play. With one out in the first inning and three men on bases, a fast double play by the Saints robbed the visitors of a chance to score, but they worked across their first run in the third. Cunningham and Corns both singled to start with. Pendry's bunt sent them a base ahead and Ivers' long fly in the fourth they added another when McGroarty was safe on a liner drive, which was too high for McNellis to grab. Baldwin's grounder, however forced him at second base. Baldwin stole second and scored when Fisher's bouncer went over Hadley's head. In the seventh with two out, Pendry made a double, the ball hitting Gillespie on the head on a bound. Pendry scored when Ivers singled through the box to centre field and went to second on Kustus' throw trying to get Pendry at the plate. Dolan had the Saints completely at his mercy, striking out six batsmen. CHIEF OF POLICE DISMISSED. OTTAWA, July 28.—Chief Chevalier of the Hull police force was summarily dismissed from office last night for misconduct. Evidence taken by a committee of the Council behind closed doors is understood to have shown that the Chief frequented a house where liquor was illicitly sold, besides conducting himself in a manner ill-befitting the occupant of his position.

SOME GLEANINGS FROM THE CIRCUIT (St. Thomas Journal.) According to the despatches from Ottawa, Manager Craven has made an offer for Pete Powers, who formerly played with the Saints but just what Craven wants with him can't be figured out. Of course he would make a handy third catcher to have around in case Nevitt and Inker should both be injured at the same time. Matty Howick always manages to pitch pretty good ball, but it seems that the other fellow is always a trifle better. Harry is the original hard luck pitcher of the league, the Cockney wallings to the contrary. We would be willing to see the Saints drop the whole of the series at Ottawa providing that could take the entire series from the Cockneys. The hardest luck of all was when Fursden hit a homer only to be called out for not touching third base. It must have been a nice case of home umpiring. By the way, there are some umpires in this league, but some of them forget this fact when umpiring at Pinafore. (London Free Press.) Arthur L. Gartwhaite, president of the Hamilton Baseball Club, was a visitor here yesterday and saw his team perform. He is not altogether satisfied with the team, but thinks it an improvement. He is bound to get a winner for the Ambitious City and we will make a small bet that he will. Mr. Gartwhaite declares that London has the best team in the league. Righto.

STOCKS DECLINE MONTREAL, July 28.—The local market showed a sharp full break following the liquidation of the European market which followed the depressing turn of the Austro-Serbian situation. C. P. R. fell five points to 175, but at the end of the morning boomed back recovered at 176. Brazilian opened at 63, but at noon stood 1-4 firmer. Toronto Rails furnished a sensation, and at one time sold 6 1-4 below its last price Saturday. Montreal Power, generally firm, dropped over six points and Laurentide over seven at different periods during the morning.

Local Printers Will Likely Play a Return Game in The Ambitious City

Hamilton printers, some 25 in number, journeyed to Brantford yesterday afternoon for a real set-to with their Brantford accomplices in crime. In the plot that was laid behind the dyke the visitors were foiled, the score being 4-3 in favor of the Brantford outfit. Afterwards the social amenities of the occasion were observed as only printers know how, and a pleasant time brought to a close.

The feature of course was the seven innings of big league agony, pulled off by Mr. Eddie Pitman occupied a prominent position on the matrix as Brantford pitcher, he was the worst offender. His speed was terrific, blinding and dazzling. Although he was pounded unmercifully by the visitors, it was a masterpiece of good luck that Cassidy, the Brantford catcher, was able to throw out several would-be base stealers. This prevented Hamilton from winning. At that, there were several stolen bases, Cassidy holding the ball at times as if it belonged to him, and not to the club. In the field a catch by McBride was truly wonderful. Archie Shurt played third base, and will doubtless be drafted at once by the Old Cripples' League. Humble, the Brantford short stop, is already billed to manage the O. I. B., while Geo. Brayshaw did so well at second that he has secured a flattering offer to organize the fourth floor against the third floor at the House of Providence. Woodley and Prime did some good hitting. Bill Reeves acted as substitute until he stubbed his toe in centre field and had to retire. He will be laid up for several months. The finest part of all, however, was Pitman's Pitiful Prayerful Pitching. The Hamilton players were as follows: Slaughter, Brantson, Waite, O'Neil, Wood Campbell, Makeal, Allen, Botham.

A return game is being arranged in the Ambitious City. George Zimmerman and Jack Heatley, two former Courier boys were with the bunch. George says the Hamilton sea air don't agree with his constitution, or his hair. It's mostly all gone.

Sport Comment

The Red Sox took the cellar yesterday when Hamilton beat St. Thomas and the Senators grabbed off a victory behind the dyke. In the last nine games the Red Sox have won two and it is little wonder the club has ducked into the basement. There was a time when the Red Sox had good pitching, but of late the heaving has been very mediocre. Chase's performance yesterday was not up to standard and his offerings were pie for one or two of the Senators. The Brantford south-paw fell down yesterday, when he had three and two continually on the batter and it was the batter as a rule who came out best. Once with three on bases a smart double play pulled the Sox out of difficulties.

Deneau for some reason or other took the bench yesterday, but there are two or three positions where he might fill in and come across when hits are needed. One thing is certain, first base has never been more capably looked after than it is yesterday by the new man Cosma. The latter got a two year contract with Brantford at a high figure and he looked very good yesterday in his first game. Cosma is a right smart fielder. Johnny Nelson reappeared at third and although he is a trifle weak with the stick, he looked good around the red light corner. One of his plays yesterday was a thriller.

It may be the last appearance today of Big Nickel. The elongated heaver is being sent in to-day either to deliver or go home. In the latter event Deneau will probably start pitching himself. Nickel has pitched both good and bad ball, and like the other Brantford pitchers, the club has failed to make enough runs behind him.

The Ottawa crew consist of the same old collection of raw meat eaters. They are not crabs in the ordinary sense at all. In fact ordinary lions in captivity are tame to the Senatorial outfit and when Shaughnessy barks, all follow suit. Verily, an umpire surrounded by Senators is a worm of the earth, and they say it wins ball games especially in Ottawa and Hull.

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots of Water. When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which moves the body's urinos waste and stimulates the normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grams of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grape and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

WORLD'S GREATEST SHORT STORIES

NO. VII. The Story of Richard Doubledick.

BY CHARLES DICKENS

"Stranger!" he repeated. The voice awoke old memories before the days of Private Richard Doubledick. "A stranger now, but not a stranger once," he said in tones that thrilled him. "Richard, dear Richard, lost through so many years, my name—" He cried out her name, "Mary!" and she held him in her arms, and his head lay on her bosom. "I am not breaking a rash vow, Richard. These are not Mary Marshall's lips that speak. I have another name." She was married.

"I have another name, Richard. Did you ever hear it?" "Never!" He looked into her face, so pensively beautiful, and wondered at the smile upon it through her tears. "Think again, Richard. Are you sure you never heard my altered name?" "Never!"

"Don't move your head to look at me, dear Richard. Let it lie here while I tell my story. I loved a generous, noble man, loved him with my whole heart, loved him for years and years, loved him faithfully, devotedly, loved him with no hope of return, loved him, knowing nothing of his highest qualities—not even knowing that he was alive. He was a brave soldier. He was honored and beloved by thousands of thousands, when the mother of his dear friend found me and showed me that in all his triumphs he had never forgotten me. He was wounded in a great battle. He was brought dying here into Brussels. I came to water and tend him, as I would have joyfully gone with such a purpose to the dreariest ends of the earth. When he knew no one else he knew me. When he suffered most he bore his sufferings barely murmuring, content to rest his head where yours rests now. When he lay at the point of death he murmured that he might call me wife before he died. And the name, my love, that I took on that forgotten night—"

"I know it now!" he sobbed. "The shadowy remembrance strengthens. It is come back. I thank heaven that my mind is quite restored! My Mary, kiss me. Lull this weary head to rest, or I shall die of gratitude. His parting words were fulfilled. I see home again!" Well! They were happy. It was a long recovery, but they were happy through it all. The snow had melted on the ground and the birds were singing in the leafless thickets of the early spring when those three were first able to ride out together and when people looked about the open carriage to cheer and congratulate Captain Richard Doubledick.

But even then it became necessary for the captain, instead of returning to England, to complete his recovery in the climate of southern France. He found a spot upon the Rhone, within a ride of the old town of Arignon and within view of its broken bridge, which was all they could desire. They lived there together six months, then returned to England. Mrs. Taunton, growing old after three years—though not so old as that her bright, dark eyes were dimmed—and remembering that her strength had been benefited by the change, resolved to go back for a year to those parts. So she went with a faithful servant, who had often carried her son in his arms, and she was to be rejoiced and escorted home at the year's end by Captain Richard Doubledick.

She wrote regularly to her childer (as she called them now), and they to her. She went to the neighborhood of Aix, and there, in their own chateau near the farmer's house she rented, she grew into intimacy with a family belonging to that part of France. The intimacy began in her often meeting among the vineyards a pretty child, a girl with a most compassionate heart who was never tired of listening to the solitary English lady's stories of her poor son and the cruel wars. The family were as gentle as the child, and at length she came to know them so well that she accepted their invitation to pass the last month of her residence abroad under their roof. All this intelligence she wrote home, piecemeal as it came about, from time to time, and at last inclosed a polite note from the head of the chateau soliciting, on the occasion of his approaching mission to that neighborhood, the honor of the company of cet homme si justement celebre, M. le Capitaine Richard Doubledick.

Captain Doubledick, now a hardy handsome man in the full vigor of life, broader across the chest and shoulders than he had ever been before, dispatched a courteous reply and followed it in person. Traveling through all that extent of country after three years of peace, he blessed the better days on which the world had fallen. The corr was golden, not drenched in unattractive red; was bound in sheaves for food, not trodden underfoot by men in more fatal fight. The smoke rose up from peaceful hearths, not blazing ruins. In a softened spirit he reached the old chateau near Aix upon a deep blue evening.

It was a large chateau of the genuine old ghostly kind, with round towers and extinguishers and a high leaden roof and more windows than Aladdin's palace. The lattice blinds were all thrown open after the heat of the day, and there were glimpses of rambling walls and corridors within. Then there were immense out-buildings fallen into partial decay, masses of dark trees, terrace gardens, balustrades, tanks of water too weak to play and too dirty to work, statues weedy and thickets of iron railing that seemed to have overgrown themselves like the shrubberies and to have branched out in all manner of wild shapes. The entrance doors stood open, and the captain walked in.

He walked into a lofty stone hall, refreshingly cool and gloomy after the glare of the southern day's travel. Extending along the four sides of this hall was a gallery leading to suits of rooms, and it was lighted from the top. Still no bell was to be seen. "Faith," said the captain, halting, "this is a ghostly beginning!" He started back and felt his face turn white. In the gallery looking down at him stood the French officer—the officer whose picture he had carried in his mind so long and so far. Compared with the remembered original at last—in every lineament how like it was!

He moved and disappeared, and Captain Richard Doubledick heard his steps coming quickly down into the hall. He entered through an archway. There was a bright, sudden look upon his face, much such a look as it had worn in that fatal moment at Badajos. M. le Capitaine Richard Doubledick? Enchanted to receive him! A thousand apologies! The servants were all out in the air. There was a little fete among them in the garden. In effect it was the fete day of my daughter, the little cherished and protected of Mme. Taunton.

He was so gracious and so frank that M. le Capitaine Richard Doubledick could not withhold his hand. "It is the hand of a brave Englishman," said the French officer, retaining it while he spoke. "I could respect a brave Englishman even as my foe, how much more as my friend! I also am a soldier!" "He has not remembered me as I have remembered him. He did not take such note of my face that day as I took of his," thought Captain Richard Doubledick. "How shall I tell him?" The French officer, conducted his guest into a garden and presented him to his wife, an engaging and beautiful woman, sitting with Mrs. Taunton in a whimsical old-fashioned pavilion. His daughter, her fair young face beaming with joy, came running to embrace him, and there was a boy baby to tumble down among the orange trees on the broad steps in making for his father's legs. A multitude of children visitors were dancing to sprightly music, and all the servants and peasants about the chateau were dancing too. It was a scene of innocent happiness that might have been invented for the climax of the scenes of peace which had scouted the captain's journey.

He looked on, greatly troubled in his mind, until a resounding bell rang, and the French officer begged to show him his rooms. They went upstairs into the gallery from which the officer had looked down, and M. le Capitaine Richard Doubledick was cordially welcomed to a grand outer chamber and a smaller one within, all clocks and draperies and hearths and brazen dogs and tiles and cool devices and elegance and vastness. "You were at Waterloo?" said the French officer.

"I was," said Captain Richard Doubledick. "And at Badajos." "Left alone with the sound of his own stern voice in his ears, he sat down to consider. What shall I do and how shall I tell him? At that time unhappy many many deplorable duels had been fought between English and French officers arising out of the recent war, and these duels and how to avoid this officer's hospitality were the uppermost thought in Captain Richard Doubledick's mind.

He was thinking and letting the time run out in which he should have dressed for dinner when Mrs. Taunton spoke to him outside the door asking if he could give her the letter he had brought from Mary. "His mother, above all," the captain thought. "How shall I tell her?" "You will form a friendship with your host, I hope," said Mrs. Taunton, whom he hurriedly admitted, "that will last for life. He is so true hearted and so generous, Richard, that you can hardly fail to esteem one another. If he had been spared"—she kissed, not without tears, the locket in which she wore his hair—"he would have appreciated him with his own magnanimity, and would have been truly happy that the evil days were past which made such a man his enemy." She left the room, and the captain walked first to one window, whence he could see the dancing in the garden, then to another window, whence he could see the smiling prospect and the peaceful vineyards.

"Spirit of my departed friend," said he, "is it through thee these better thoughts are rising in my mind? Is it thou who hast shown me, all the way I have been drawn to meet this man, the blessings of the altered time? Is it thou who hast sent thy stricken mother to me, to stay my angry hand? Is it from thee the whisper comes that this man did his duty as thou didst—and as I did, through thy guidance, which has wholly saved me here on earth—and that he did no more?" He sat down with his head buried in his hands and, when he rose up, made the second strong resolution of his life—that neither to the French officer nor to the mother of his departed friend, nor to any soul, while either of the two was living, would he breathe the what only French officer's glass with his own that day at dinner he secretly forgave him in the name of the Divine Forgiver of injuries.

The time has since come when the son of Major Richard Doubledick and the son of that French officer, friends as their fathers were before them, fought side by side in one cause, with their respective nations, like long divided brothers whom the better times have brought together, fast united.

SEVERAL FINES WERE INFLICTED IN POLICE COURT

Liquor Cases Were Disposed of—A Greek Wage Dispute.

The coffers of the Brantford police court were enriched as the result of today's proceedings, when several fines of amounts varying from the costs to $25 were inflicted. There was a long list of out-of-workers who were asked to account for their unemployment. In many cases they said they had jobs to go to, while others said they were temporarily laid off. One excuse was that the police always came across the defendant when he was not working, and never saw him when he was. He claimed he had to leave work to attend the proceedings. The Chief says he is determined upon a clean-up previous to the Old Home Week celebrations, as he will not have any idlers around that week. He firmly believes that Satan finds mischief for idle hands to do, and is acting in accordance.

Wages Were Garnished. Nick Poullos has had some trouble with the payment of two of his staff, and they brought him up for non-payment of wages to-day. They were transferred that Monday. They were the idea of having to eat what was left over from dinner, and had kicked, with the result that he was given a ticket-of-leave, but did not get his wages from the first of the month. For this he asked.

The defendant had a different tale to tell, and said plaintiff owed one of his fellow-men $100 and intended leaving the town in order to escape payment of the debt. The story he had told was a fabrication. Defendant denied that he was going to leave the city, and said his watch and ring were held by the police for the $100. When this was brought to the magistrate's attention, he gave Poullos his ring and watch, saying that was not a matter for the police. The ring was handed over to the creditor by complainant. Other debts were mentioned against Lundy, and the magistrate made an order for full payment of wages claimed, the money to be paid into court, when the just debts will be met and the balance handed over to Lundy.

Louis Carlos asked for payment of wages due to him, and the magistrate issued an order for the payment of that which was legally due to him.

The Nelson St. Scrap. The four foreigners who had a lively period upon Nelson street, at the corner of Clarence, were each fined $3 and ordered to pay costs by the Bench to-day. After hearing evidence Magistrate Livingston decided that the Armenians and Maltese were equally guilty of the breach of the peace. They had used sticks, stones, and saved, and according to witnesses' injuries had not been caused to those around at the time.

Finéd $25 and Costs. Frank Atfield was found guilty upon a charge of supplying a billed man and he was summarily dealt with. P. C. Cox saw him with the billed man, and noticed them throw a bottle away which had been purchased by defendant. This was conclusive, and a fine of $25 imposed.

Austin Bumberry was inclined to make a cheap boast of things this morning, and he told the Bench when he was charged with being an Indian under the influence that he was asked in a Market street restaurant if he wanted some cold tea. He replied yes and was brought some stuff which tasted like whiskey. He now knew what cold tea was. He was fined $5, and also fined another fiver for being disorderly.

Costly Fire Water. Nelles Peters, an Indian, was found with fire water upon him two weeks ago by County Constable Lottridge, and he got away to be hauled up this morning. The case was proved against him and he will have to pay $25 and costs for his liberty.

Local News

Work at Lorne Bridge.

A start on throwing the concrete into the excavation, where it will act as a support for the jacks and also to serve as a temporary abutment to the bridge while it is being raised, was made to-day at Lorne Bridge. The sides of the bridge at the east end are already supported on jacks and as soon as the concrete sets, the others will be brought into play.

Wants Information.

A. L. deMartigny of Montreal has written City Clerk Leonard asking for information regarding boiler inspection in Brantford. Among other things that he wants to know is how many licensed engineers and firemen there are in Brantford. This is only a sample of many of the letters that City Clerk receives. Such information should be obtained from the Government where the licenses are granted.

Oiling of Streets a Success.

Very satisfactory tests have been made of the application of oil on city streets in place of water to settle the dust. No matter how sandy or dusty the road may be the oil has proved successful in settling the dust. Ald. C. A. Ward, Chairman of the Board of Works, when seen this morning, said that the city is not in shape just now to continue the application of the oil instead of water, as it would be necessary to arrange a by-law to that effect. However, the residents on streets where it has been tried out, are so pleased with it that if the residents on any street wish to have the oil it can be supplied to them at a frontage cost of only two cents per foot, that is one cent per foot on each side of an eighteen foot roadway. One application of the oil will settle the dust and keep it down for a month or more, while two applications will last throughout the summer.
