LABOR NEWS.

Is a 'crisis' approaching?—Reduction in the rate of wages.

FALL RIVER, Jan. 6.—Secretary Howard of the Spinners' association has issued a circular reviewing the events of the year, saying it has been a year of strikes of such magnitude as was never before known.

Capital has arisen to a great power, clothing itself in iron mail, and with a hand crushed labor down to starvation wages.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 7.—A convention will shortly be held here for the purpose of effecting a general organization of the 170,000 bituminous coal miners settled in the States under one head for mutual protection.

CANADIAN NEWS.

The Winnipeg Times says that James Hill, owing to the necessity of devoting more of his time to the affairs of the St. P. & M. R. road, has resigned from the executive committee of the Canadian Pacific, but will continue to be a member of its board of directors.

The Clinton News Record mentions a rumor that Hon. Alex. Mackenzie is to succeed Hon. S. C. Wood as treasurer of Ontario.

FRANCE HONORS THE MEMORY OF GAMBETTA'S DEATH. An Immense Funeral Procession Follows GAMBETTA to the Grave—Barricade—Gambetta's Will Recites Alsace and Eastern Gascones Freely.

PARIS, Jan. 6.—The funeral car has just arrived at the Quai d'Orsay in front of the St. Paul's church in Paris. The car is preceded by six horses in black and white uniforms. The car is drawn by six horses, and the coffin is covered with black velvet, which is again partially hidden by a white shroud draped in crape and mortelles.

At the funeral, the coffin was placed on a bier, and the funeral service was conducted by the Rev. M. de la Motte.

LIBERTY IN ONTARIO.

From the report of the inspector of prisons and public charities on the asylums of the province, which has just been issued, we learn that the number of persons of unsound mind in the five asylums of the province on September 30, 1922, was 2742.

Some modification of the oath seems to be necessary if that feature in the administration of justice is to command our respect.

It was his idea that no oath should be administered, but that the law concerning perjury should be read to every one about to give evidence.

There will be occasion for an overhauling of theories relating to the brain if the weight of that of Gambetta—seven hundred grammes—is correctly stated by cable.

Although such decrease in mortgages and in rates is not due, as Mr. McKnight states, to any increase of prosperity in the country, it will result in an increase of prosperity which may probably be equally as satisfactory.

CHINESE ENCRAGEMENT.

MONGOLIAN AND WHITE LABOR ON THE PACIFIC SLOPE.

How the Native Americans are Being Supplanted by Mongolian and White Labor on the Pacific Coast.

The representative assembly of traders and labor unions of the Pacific coast having appointed a committee some three months ago to collect statistics on the Chinese coolie labor question, now presents the result of its investigations as contained herein, a copy of which was forwarded to the Toronto Trades and Labor Council.

The time has come when decisive action must be taken to stop Chinese immigration. A bill was introduced in the United States Senate last December by Senator Miller of California totally prohibiting Chinese immigration into the United States, and the other California representatives have promised to support the bill for this purpose.

The people desire the hearty cooperation of all interested in the freedom and elevation of labor throughout the United States to agitate this question by public demonstration at the time the bill is introduced in the Senate, and thus bring the pressure of public opinion to bear upon Congress in order to prevent the passage of the bill.

The experience of thirty years of Chinese coolie labor on the Pacific coast amply justifies the opinion that the Chinese coolie is a pernicious and degrading element. This competition is inevitably destructive, and will continue to force the laboring American down in habits and expenses of life to the level of the half barbarian.

Labor is honorable and honest, and not degraded by being compelled to compete with a debased and servile race. In the struggle between coolie and free white labor the latter is heavily handicapped, and coolie brings neither nor family with him, consequently he finds no difficulty in unobscuring the Caucasian worker, who maintains his family in a decent, civilized manner and has been taught to believe that honorable toil is worthy of more than a bare subsistence.

The coolie comes here with the sole purpose of making money, and the money he can. To do so he lives poorly, crowded together as close as possible, with no regard to sanitary requirements—hundreds of them being contained in a house not large enough for ten of our race—the type of their sleeping chamber being a sardine box, and as a consequence they have developed all the diseases which are common to overcrowding and close personal contact.

They are engaged in the most menial and unwholesome work, and their wages are so low that they are unable to support a family. They are a constant source of trouble to the community, and their presence is a disgrace to the Pacific coast.

The late Senator Morton joined with the other members of the committee in declaring that "it has become a national disgrace that the Pacific coast must in time either become American or Mongolian; also that the Chinese have advanced the race for possession; they can subvert where the American would conquer; they can work for wages which will not furnish the bare necessities of life to an American."

The evidence taken before the California state senate committee on Chinese immigration, at Sacramento in 1878, when testimony was taken from witnesses of all classes—clergymen, judges, lawyers, ship captains, state and city officials, etc.—all sustained the general belief of the people of California as to the disastrous consequences of Chinese immigration to this country.

It has been calculated that the number of Chinese in California is about 150,000, or nearly twenty per cent greater than the number of male whites capable of bearing arms. Although forming one-sixth of the total population of California, they pay less than one fourth the amount of the revenue required for the state government.

In the city of San Francisco there are 32,000 in number, or about 40,000 of the population. In his testimony before the senate committee, Alexander Bellman, assessor of San Francisco, said the Chinese in the city have personal property to the amount of $500,000 and real estate to the amount of $200,000 assessed to them; thereby paying about one three-thousandth part of the taxes, although forming nearly one-sixth of the population.

Nearly $8,000,000 are sent home to China annually by the Chinese on the Pacific coast. The Chinese women are imported almost wholly for the purpose of prostitution. San Francisco being cursed with about 4000 of these human chattels, and whose contamination and pollution are destroying our youth.

Our objections to the Chinese may be summed up as follows: They underbid white men in the labor market; purchase little or no American products and manufactures; live squalidly crowded together, constantly emitting a noxious odor; unlike white immigrants, they do not come to make homes with us and help build up the country; but come with out wives or children; they do not and can not assimilate with the Caucasian race; they continue their heathenish religion and customs; evade our laws, especially internal revenue, whenever possible; use the state and federal laws frequently to carry out schemes which have been awarded by their own secret tribunals, and also to keep Chinese women in a state of bondage and prostitution—the most cruel and degrading condition of any people known to history.

They are a constant source of trouble to the community, and their presence is a disgrace to the Pacific coast. They are engaged in the most menial and unwholesome work, and their wages are so low that they are unable to support a family.

Emma Abbott To-night.

This evening the engagement of the Emma Abbott Grand English opera company will begin at the Grand with the presentation of the always welcome work, Martha, a composition which is known to and liked by every admirer of operatic productions. As given by the Abbott company, its every beauty is brought out and its creative worth made to appear greater than it ever appeared before. The Abbott cast in this work is said to be the best it has ever had in this country. It is in this opera that Miss Abbott's exquisite singing of The Last Rose of Summer is heard and which always creates a furor. To-morrow evening the brilliant opera, The Captive of For a Day, will be given with Miss Abbott in her charming creation of the Princess Nemes. This work is one of the most beautiful in the entire repertory.

The Civic Executive Committee.

The executive committee of the city council met on Saturday morning, Ald Clarke is the absence of Chairman Roswell, presiding. A petition of the Toronto branch of the Ontario alliance for the suppression of the liquor traffic was laid on the table for the incoming council to deal with. A unanimously signed petition in favor of increasing Mr. Argue's salary in consideration of long service was read and laid on the table. A claim for the payment of $200 to Mr. McLennan, awarded by arbitration for lands expropriated for the extension of Eastern avenue, was by the advice of the solicitor allowed. The consideration of tenders for the various city debentures was deferred.

GRIP SUPPER.

Saturday evening was the occasion of a supper given by Mr. Ellis, foreman of the Grip office, to his employees who had previously testified their appreciation of himself by the presentation of a gold watch and guard. The evening was one of unrestrained jollity, and both foreman and employees have occasion to congratulate themselves upon the harmonious intercourse existing between them. Among the most prominent contributors to the enjoyment of the evening may be mentioned the following:—The genial host and hostess; the Misses Ellis and Bell, who gave some magnificent classic vocal and instrumental music; Mr. Lancaster, who obliged with a fine rendition of a popular song; Mr. Bisher, whose baritone solo was received with undisguised pleasure; Mr. Moore, who sang an old time song of "Fifty years ago; Mr. Lewis, who by way of variety, supplied the company with a comic song and laughable recitations; Mr. Hunt, who capped the climax with a selection from last week's Grip; Mr. Soley, who attended to the religious singing, giving with a rich, full, and melodious voice a selection from the hymns; Mr. Briggs, who supplied music from his concertina and electrified the company with his impromptu jokes; Mr. Taylor, who delivered a humorous essay on printers' ink, its uses and abuses; and volunteer contributions beyond enumeration. At the conclusion of the supper, the company proceeded to sing "Yankee Doodle," and themselves in particular and everyone in general.
