No Bar Can Open Before Eight A.M.—Bottle Trade in Taverns Will Be Eliminated-Price For Shop License Made the Same as Hotels, and More Strict Supervision Is Provided For.

The long-expected amendments to the Liquor License Act, which have aroused intense interest thruout the province, were brought into the house at a late hour last evening by Hon. W. J. Hanna, the provincial secretary. The reading of them and a running | fire of explanation at the introduction served to demonstrate that their nature was of the far-reaching, if not radical, character which had been hoped for in view of the growing enthusiasm of temperance workers, and page boys began to fly from the room with phone and telegraph messages at once. Calls were sent out at once by interested parties to different organizations which were vitally interested in the announcement, and the members of both sides of the house listened with acute attention until the

The first clause was intended to amend the section of the act which defined the word "tayern," explained Mr. Hanna. Hereafter the word would mean that it would grant only the right to sell liquor on the premises, to be immediately consumed.

"This measure has been reached only after very serious consideration," he stated, "and deals with what is known as the bottle trade. In the first place there are a number of municipalities which have adopted least entire and which have adopted local option, and these in many cases surround a place that is not under local option. The report there is that the bottle trade extends over the boundary. We have found that such a trade is traceable largely to the right of the licensee to take part in the bottle trade."

The minister explained that in the first place it was not intended that the bottle business should be an important bottle business should be an important part of the licensed trade. In former days it had been pretty well divorced because of the shop sale, but these conditions had changed. He referred to the situation in New Ontario, where contractors and lumber employers had complained that the bottle trade was largely responsible for the evil which

The price of a shop license today in Toronto was $1000 and that of a tavern $1600. This difference was only regarded in large places, but > OTTAWA, April 9. (Special.)-The first day of the battle is over and the advantage seems to be with the government. Mr. Borden's proposed amendments to the rules of the commons, establishing closure and the guillotine, are before the house and no amendments can be offered thereto. This means that, after some debate, the new rules will be adopted.

Code of Honor Violated.

The plan of campaign carefully pre-The plan of campaign carefully prepared by the government worked well if not as smoothly as might have been anticipated. The Liberals are complaining loudly of "dirty ball," and Sir Wilfrid Laurier has charged the prime minister with violating the traditions of parliament and the code of honor in force among gentlemen. On the other hand, the government is satisfied that, by a daring play in one parliamentary game, they have cut the ground from under the feet of the opposition and have cleared the way to a speedy victory.

WOMAN IS FATALLY INJURED prosition and have cleared the way to a speedy victory.

When Mine Was Sprung.

What happened is this. Mr. Borden presented the closure amendments in a conciliatory speech and was listened to with close attention by a crowded house. According to custom, Sir Wilfrid Laurier as leader of the opposition rose to reply. He intended to move that the proposed amendments to the rules should be referred to a special committee, and had this been voted down, any number of other amendments would have been offered one after another and the debate upon closure would have been prolonged interminably.

To meet this situation, it became necessary for the government to move the "previous question" before any move could be made by the opposition. Hence Mr. Hazen moved to speak at the same time as Sir Wilfrid. Mr. Speaker Sproule recognized the latter, but Mr. Northrup at once moved that Mr. Hazen be heard. This motion, which represent-

Made Sailing Easy.

From now it was easy sailing, for Mr. Hazen immediately, moved that the question be now put. Mr. Pugsley moved to adjourn, but the motion was lost and Sir Wilfrid later in the evening spoke in opposition to the new rules. The debate was continued by Judge Doherty and Mr. Kyte, being adjourned before midnight.

The Liberals were frankly disconcerted and enraged by the action of the government. There were long continued cries of "shame," "foul play," "Russian methods," and the like, but no serious disorder. Sir Wilfrid Laurier plainly showed his discomfiture and sat silent in his seat after Mr. Hazen's motion had been made.

His followers, however, regained their spirits when Mr. Pugsley took the floor and spoke upon his motion to adjourn. When Mr. Speaker left the chair at 6 o'clock the Liberals' seemed in better spirits than the Conservatives. They cheered Dr. Pugsley to the echo and then gathering around Sir Wilfrid lustily sang "O Canada," It was observed, and not without comment, that several Liberal Senators from their seats in the gallery joined in the rendition of "O Canada."

The debate will be resumed tomorrow.

The debate will be re Will Not Use Club.

The prime minister, upon rising, was wildly chered, and it was some moments before he was able to proceed. He spoke with quiet disnity, protesting that the new rules would be administered by his government always in a spirit of fairness and toleration. If doubts arose as to their interpretation they would be interpreted in favor of the minority. Indeed, he was oute willing that at the next session there should be a general revision of alithe rules by a committee upon which the minority would be adequately represented. Will Not Use Club.

"Unless we have rules sufficient to suarantee the orderly conduct of public business with reasonable expediency."
Mr. Borden began, "the house will be unshe to perform its functions, and its proceedings will fall into contempt. Freedom of speech and liberty of debate must be preserved under such conditions that they will not be allowed to degenerate into license and obstruction.

He pointed out that under the oresent rules a handful of members could absolutely tie up all business. An ordinary till founded upon a resolution passed thru no less than nineteen stages.

"This opens the door," said the prime minister, "to eighteen debates, in which every member is allowed to speak at any length, and, considering motions and amendments, the eighteen debates may easily be increased to fifty, sixty, or every a hundred debates, in which every member of the louse can participate. Mr. Rowell held up the marriage bill of Mr. Hanna to the attention of the house, and proceeded to show that it was for the most part devoid of the radical nature attributed to it and a great disappointment after the proposals of Forbes Godfrey.

Chief Grasett had not taken the best course in refusing to come, and he did not consider it was treating the court and the jury with proper respect, and he was sorry to have to say it. The police force, the chief of police, and ite, himself, were all servants of the people. They were here to find the cause of David Marsh's death, and if there was neglect on the part of the police it was, for those holding the inquest to find it out. It was not a court of prosecution. He would say that in a matter of this nature there was too much responsibility given the police in allowing them to de-

Can't Get Facts.

"We have not been able to get full knowledge of the powers of the police in matters of this nature on account of the chief not coming here. I also wished to ask him regarding an interview published in The Toronto Star as to whether they were his views or not. In this interview he is reported to have said that he did not consider the cases that they handled

Mr. Borden in closing said that he hoped that it would never be necessary to enforce the new rules to the letter, but that their existence would facilitate that agreement between the majority and the minority thru which public business could be most fairly transacted.

Northrup Forces Issue.

"I move, Mr. Speaker," he said, "that the member for St. John (Mr. Hazen) be now heard."

Amid shouts and yells from the opposition benches Mr. Speaker put the question, and declared it carried. Upon division the government won again: yeas, 165, nays 67.

Mr. Hazen then rose to speak, but his voice could not be heard amid the din and disorder which resounded thru the chamber.

and disorder which resounded thru the chamber.

"Gag rule," "Russian methods," "free speech," "fair play," "sit down," "shut up" were among the expletives hurled at the minister, who, standing perfectly still until the din had in some measure subsided, finally made himself understood. He said: Mr. Speaker, I move that the question be now put.

Pugsley Diplomat.

Mr. Hazen had nothing further to say and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, evidently hurt and angered by the treatment meted out to, him, sat silent. Once again the resourceful Mr. Pugsley came to the front and moved that the house do now adjourn. Upon this motion he discussed many subjects, putting in a good word for votes for women just before the speaker left the chair at 6 o'clock.

On the meeting being thrown open for discussion, R. Home Smith declared that while willing to be convinced, he was not yet convinced. Car lines be the case the alderman was at a loss to understand, but pointed out that a street' car line, including rolling stock, concrete bedding, overhead whes, barns, etc., in really costs very little more than an ordinary four foot sewer main, which on the average cost about $66,500 per mile, not including its many branch services, and a car line cost approximately $73,000 per mile.

The alderman, in reviewing the situation, divided the city into three circles—the old city as of 1891, now tied up in a franchise, the lately annexed and now fairly populous districts, to which it is of the utmost importance a car service be given immediately, and the outlying districts which must be served by radial car lines. "Whatever our future system is to be it must provide transportation from the heart of the city out into the new districts and a route for the radials to come into the reart of the city," declared Ald. Wickett.

"The hydro-electric has changed its policy of securing easements to one of securing rights-of-way, and should this policy prove successful what a magnificent opportunity this gives for the working out of a radial car system." He said.

What it Would Cost.

He quoted figures as to the amount of taxation on property owners paying for their line to convince the members of the practicability of his scheme. Taking an area one mile by two-thirds of a mile to be served by a line, at ax of $22 or $22 on each 22 foot lot in the district would cover the whole expenditure. This spread over ten years of a mile to be served by a line, at ax of $20 or $20 or seach 22 foot lot in the district would cover the whole expenditure. and opened the debate for the Liberals upon the closure rules.

Not Fair Play Says Laurier.

"The spectacle we witnessed upon the conclusion of the prime minister's speech," said Sir Wilfrid in opening, "was an apposite commentary upon that speech. It was a speech interlarded with pious professions of fair play. Yet during its delivery the prime minister well knew that a plan had been prepared by which I was to be gagged and deprived of my right to reply. It was my right as leader of the government, not only by tradition, but by the rules of courtesy, which obtain among gentlemen. (Liberal cheers.) The prime minister told us that he desired to preserve free speech. The words had scarcely fallen from his lips when I addressed you. sir, and, altho the minister of marine and fisheries also desired to speak, you—taking seriously what the prime minister had said—gave me fair play. But immediately that right honorable gentleman called upon his followers to over-ride your ruing and to apply the gag."

lowers to over-ride your ruling and to apply the gag."

"I supposed of course," continued Sir Wilfrid, "that the minister of marine when he deprived me of the floor had some important announcement to make, but he only moved the previous question and for the express purpose of preventing me from offering an amendment. This indicates how much free speech the minister's energy of the majority. What consideration we will obtain from the prime minister's sense of fair play we may gather from his performance here today."

Sir Wilfrid said that Mr. Borden justified his revolutionary proposals by saying that if the minority were allowed to obstruct we would have an election every year. As a matter of fact obstruction had only been resorted to on four occasions. In 1885 the minority by obstruction they had defeated the remedial bill, and had been sustained by the people. In 1908, the Conservatives under Mr. Borden, by obstruction had held up the bill 'o amend the Elections Act, as applicable to British Columbia, Manitoba and the unortagenized districts of Ontario. They had won their point because the Liberal government of that day offered a compromise which proved satisfactory and was a proper solution or the difficulty.

Ancon won the race, while Willic, which the railbirds touted as a contender, fell thind and finished last. Besides winning this event for Zimmer, Snider landed Counterpart in front for the Tennessee Stable in the last event of the day, while putwell, on Judge Walser, surprised the plent by showing, as Snider had done, linning. Spelibound, touted as by far the best in the race, was last. The two-par-old event lived up to its reputation at the track this year by upsetting every expectation, when Connolly came home a sinner on Carbureter, while Odd Cross, he reputed good thing, was last, and the sher short-priced ones were out of the money. The first was the only one in which the bettors guessed right, Mcteary with Wolf up, coming in first. Coud Chief was also played. Lady Sybil and Running Account proved disappointments to many of the insiders.

CORNWALL, Ont., April 9 .- (Special.) -Con. Jones of Vancouver and Lionel Sweet Owen ...115 crosse team in Victoria. were in Cornwall for a few hours on Wednesday. Mr. Jones did not come to Cornwall with the intention of doing a great stroke of business, for a few of the players here whom he might want are on the reserve list of the Irish-Capadians, and the agreement between Vancouver and the D. L. A. clubs prevents a dicker with them. But Mr. Jones did want to see Newsy Lalonde, and he did so. He tencered Lalonde a contract somewhat below that which Newsy received last year, and Newsy did not affix his signature to it. Mr. Jones was disappointed, there is no doubt of that. eague bunting hands down if they are Il as easy as our own brave warriors. 13 to 2 is an awful drubbing.

Dicky Rudolph only lasted four innings and the reckoning was 11 runs, two home runs, one triple, one double and seven singles. Poor Dick.

Maybe Utica will be easier today.

Mighty Tim came to life with a dou. In that hit the Bull sign, but slow base running kept him at the middle station when he easily should have made third, and then to cap it all, he was thrown out at the plate on Bradley's single. More pepper needed.

Trout drove in the Leafs' second run

Hub Northen uncorked a three-corner rap in the eighth and came home on a wild pitch with the Leafs' second and last tally of the slaughter.

The opening game of the National League season scheduled f r Cincinnati today has been postponed until Friday. Rain yesterday made it impossible to get the ball park, under fifteen feet of water during the recent flood, in shape.

Oakland Times: Umpire Phyle, now arbiting the series at San Francisco, paralyzes the fans by tacking "Mr." on the pitchers and catchers when he announces. For instance, it would sound like this out at Buffalo Park: "Ladies and gentlemen, the batteries for today's game will be: Oakland, Mr. Gregory and Mr. Mitze; Sacramento, Mr. Stroud and Mr. Bliss." Class, eh?

Reports from Chicago indicate that Victor Saier's ankle, which he injured in practice, will keep him out of the Chicago National's opening game and perhaps for several days will force him to stay on the invalid list.

Jimmy Archer probably will understudy Saier at first base, leaving the bulk of the catching to Bresnahan for the first few days. It is Manager Evers' intention to accustom Archer to first base anyway, so he can be used against lefthanded pitchers, Saier being somewhat weak when facing them.

Manager Smith of the Newark team is angling for young Leo Callaghan, the sensational recruit now with Brooklyn, and Enos Kirkpatrick, the utility infielder of the Superbas. The last named played with Newark most of last season.

ARTHUR HALSEY OF TORONTO.

The rider mentioned above is Arthur Halsey, the 16-year-old son of J. S. Halsey, 150 Franklin avenue, caretaker of the Perth Avenue School. Arthur stapted last year at Dufferin Park and Hillcrest. He went south, apprenticed to M. Foley, and rode with marked skill at Juarez, port with twenty-one players there the Wayne next Monday night, and will report with twenty-one players there the following week. Word was received at the capital that the Fort Wayne diamond-would be suitable for practice purposes. Dolan and Robertson will play first and third, while Tom O'Hara, Williams and Arnfeldt, the Notre Dame University recruit, will fight it out for short and second base. They may get Harris, an outfielder, from Richmond.

The opening American League game oday are:
New York at Washington.
Philadelphia at Boston.
Chicago at Cleveland.
Detroit at St. Louis.

Benny Meyer failed to make a very good showing on his first day in the big show. The former Leaf not only failed to get a hit, but tossed the game away by missing a foul and muffing one right in his hands. It was ever thus.

Stengel was the bright shining light for the Dodgers. His fielding was sensa-tional and brightened up an otherwise listless contest.

Both Rucker and Seaton twirled grand bail, despite the cold weather.

And Mr Beck got no replies. Mr. Rowell has done a lot of criticizing of the Hydro-Electric Commission, all with the best intentions, of course, and all for the public good, certainly, and all for the benefit of the consumers of power, no doubt. But if Mr. Rowell would go up to Newmarket and tell the people in public meeting that they ought to put in the hydro-electric system it would do more good than all the criticism. It would do the people more good. And it would do him more good. But that is where he fails.

Mr. Rowell charges the governmen with using the Hydro-Electric Commission for political purposes. Well, why does he not get out and use it for political purposes? Let him show the people that he is the friend of the ing it, pushing it along, and he will make friends, too. The government has no monopoly of friendship for the

Mr. Rowell is prolific in statement of what the Liberal party did for hydroelectric power. The people will think far more of what Mr. Rowell is doing for it than of all that his party ever did. And the last thing his party did, as Mr Beck pointed out, was to give away the water powers that should have been kept for the people.

The Globe will probably think this is a hostile view to take for Mr. Rowell. him the truth. The Globe would never do that, for it can only see thru partisan glasses and they are so stigmatic that the idea of going the government one better in support of a good useless to point to Mr. Rowell's speech hydro-electric. What he should do is to get out in Newmarket and hustle the line up there. Then let his lieutenants get out and hustles for lines for the farmers they are commiserating. If the Liberal party comes up with adequate petitions to Sir James for new hydro-electric lines, it will do more to convince the people of the good faith of the Liberal party than all the editorials the whole staff of The Globe can write in a year.

It is quite true that in the delirium of a political campaign people will believe anything the party organ tells them. But it is a mistake to think, as The Globe evidently does, and as many politicians evidently do, that the delirium lasts all the time. When reason returns it is only facts that count. The facts just now are not with the Liberal party. That is why we commend to Mr Rowell the policy of creating a few favorable facts.

PROTECTION FROM CHARTER GRABBERS

Senator Davis' Bill to Enlarge Railway Board's Powers Debated.

OBJECTIONS ARE VOICED

Senators Would Have Even Less to Do, It Is Urged.

OTTAWA, April 9. (Can. Press.)-In the senate today Hon. Mr. Lougheed told Senator Deveber that the government has taken no action in reference to the recommendation of the commission of conservation looking to the enactment of legislation for the prevention of the pollution of international and interprovincial waterways, and that no action has yet been taken in reference to the institution of federal public health laboratories for the manufacture of biological products, such as sera and antitoxines, for human use, for which a grant of $25,-000 was made by the house of com-

nons last session.
When Senator Davis moved the second reading of his bill to have railway charters hereafter granted by letters patent from the state department on recommendation of the railway commission, Senator David moved the six months' hoist on the ground that parliament should not divest itself of its duties without very serious reaons, and no such reason had been iven. The senate had frequently complained that it did not have enough work, and this bill proposed to still further curtail its work.

Public Well Protected. legislation gave the public great protection, as measures had to pass thru several stages in both houses, and in their passage the public was thoroly informed of their character. If the opponents of any measure were too poor to come to Ottawa and urge their bjections they could count upon some of the 221 members of the commons and 86 members of the senate protecting them.

The senate was established to protect the rights of minorities and the rights of provinces. It had done so with railway bills. Would the railway com-mission do this as well? If the bill were adopted and given to the railway commission there would be more abuses than at present, as applications would then get less publicity and less consi-

Senator Beique opposed the Davis Senator Cloran said that parliament had not been effective in dealing with legislation and maintained that the Davis bill would not infringe provincial or municipal rights.

OTTAWA. April 9.—(Can. Press.)—In concluding his evidence before the banking committee today, Jos. Henderson disapprowed of the proposed amendment, making the government the holder of unclaimed balances, which he said, were now put in 'circulation by the banks in the interest of business. He favored making directors responsible for negligence in signing the returns to the finance department, and opposed the idea of sterilizing or destroying bank notes as too costly for the banks. It developed in the discussion of this point that the superintendents of Toronto and Muskoka Consumptive Hospitals attributed this disease largely to disease-laden money.

H. B. Mackenzie, general manager of the Bank of British North America, opposed government inspection, as it would leave the government open to recrimination whenever there was a failure, and it would require a staff as large as that of all the banks. He thought the British system of audit by chartered accountants of high standing the best.

HOPES TO STIMULATE TRADE WITH S. AFRICA

Commissioner Egan to Bring Maker and Consumer Into Direct Touch.

Senator Choquette, while not in tavor of all the bills proviisons, said he would rather so it referred to a senate committee than killed. The provision requiring a cash deposit to cover land damages as a preliminary to incorporation he thought a good one. It would prevent frivolous applications for incorporation.

Senator Po'rier favored the bill because it would tend to discourage tharter-mongering.

The bill was read a second time.

WONTREAL, April 9.—(Can. Press)—Addressing the Montreal Chamber of Commerce today W. J. Egan, recently appointed Canadian commissioner to South Africa, said that Hon. Mr. Foster in appointing him had every hope of largely increasing the trade between South Africa and the Dominion. He hoped to be able to put the Canadian manufacturer directly in touch with the South African consumer and invited manufacturers to address any questions which they wanted to have answered to him. He would endeavor to deal with individual producers and to help them as well as look after the general trade of the Dominion.

Conservatives Disapproved of "Compromise" Motion-York County News.

BRAMPTON, April 9 .- (Special.) --At 4 o'clock this morning an explosion occurred at the grist mill of J. H. McCauley, Boston Mills, this county, which wreeked the building and then set fire to it, burning it to the ground. Last fall Mr. McCauley installed a gasproducer engine which some time later exploded, seriously injuring Mr. McCau-ley, who has not yet recovered from the effects of the accident. The ma-chine, he claimed, was not satisfactory, and the former owner of it, who had sold it to him as being in first-class condition, brought an action against him at the spring assizes here a few weeks ago for payment in full of the amount due on the purchase. Mr. McCauley's defence was that the engine was not what it was represented to be, and an expert testified in the court that it was not a very good machine. The case was settled out of court. Residents of Boston Mills claim that the mill is unlucky. A serious fire occurred there just before Mr. McCauley took it over, since which time the above events have taken place. The building is a total Twenty-two years ago China and Japan supplied all the tea consumed in Canada. The "Salada" Tea Co. at hat time commenced the introduction of British-grown teas, with the result that last year, of the thirty-nine mil-lion pounds of tea imports, thirty-two millions came from Ceylon and India, and nearly one-quarter of all the teas sold in the Dominion was sold in "Sal-ada" sealed lead packets.

The moral is: If you have a good hing with which to serve the public, that was ever meant for a baby during his first year. And any other food is a poor substitute. Therefore it is very necessary that the young mother guard carefully her own health that she may be well and strong for her baby's sake.

she should keep good hours and get plenty of sleep. That is where the value of good training comes in. It is possible for the mother to get a full night's rest.

A certain amount of exercise helps the milk in quantity and quality, tho fatigue should be avoided. Begin moderately and gradually, increase the amount of exercise. Walk a little farther each day, being careful to stop just short of the tired point. Nervous mothers are not good nurses as a rule. The slightest distress upsets them, spoils the milk for that time and make the baby sick.

Mothers so constituted should try to overcome any nervous, worrying habits, and make every effort to lead quiet, restful lives. I have already spoken of the much-needed daytime nap. That breaks the tension of a long day, and freshens the mother wonderfully.

The nursing mother's diet is very much discussed. Everybody she knows either advises her to eat this, or not on any account to touch that. Until it is very doubtful if either baby or his mother would get much nourishment, if all the advice were followed. A safe, general rule is, eat the food to which you have been accustomed, if it agrees with you, and avoid all ex-every day. Then the mother can get away for the change and rest, which she certainly needs and gen-erally longs for. Then, too, it is well to accustom the baby to taking food from the bottle.

What is said to be one of the greatest character studies of the present time is Mr. George Arliss' performance of "Distraeli" in the play of that name, in which he will be seen at the Princess Theatre for the first time on Monday evening next. Mr. Arliss seems to have employed a very high degree of stage art in copying the physical and mental attributes of England's great Prime Minister. HALIFAX, N.S., April 9.—(Can. Press)
S. W. W. Pickup, former M.P. for Annapolis, has been appointed to the legislative council in succession to Hon. Geo. Whitman, whose seat was declared vacant. Mr. Pickup was for years a member of the Annapolis county council.

Table 1. The author, the wit, one of the most picturesque characters of modern English history, is depicted at the zenith of his power in the seventies, a bit ahead of his time and his associates. Being an advanced thinker, and always playing for dramatic effect, this statesman has given to the dramatist, Mr. Louis N. Parker, material that is of great value to the stage. Mr. Arliss is supported by an eminent company of actors, including Margaret Dale, Marguerite St. John, Arthur Eldred, Oscar Little Brown Bear did not mean to tell. But as he was going to the party he happened to meet Mr. Blacksnake.

"Don't you wish you could go with me?" said Mr. Blacksnake, darting under the bushes that grew so near the ground that Little Brown Bear could not follow him.

"Don't you wish you could go with me?" answered Little Brown Bear. "I am going to a party at Gray Mrs. Field Mouse's and you are not invited." and Little Brown Bear hurried on to the party.

The guests at the party danced about in the sunshine and the ten baby field mice played tag with each other, and every one had a very good time. After they were all tired of playing Gray Mrs. Field Mouse said it was time for refreshments and led them to a clear space behind some bushes, where she had spread out seeds and berries and twigs and leaves—a very fine feast indeed. All the animals were so hungry after their play that they began to eat as fast as they could and no one thought of danger until—"Hiss!" said Mr. Blacksnake, peering thru the bushes. And "Hiss!" said Mr. Blacksnake, peering thru the bushes. And "Hiss!" said all the little Blacksnake, and "Hiss!" said the little Blacksnake, and "Hiss!" said all the little Blacksnake. singing of the Miserere from "il Trovator" was not a mere performance—it was an event. His satiny, liqueous soprano was wonderful. Other lyrists last night were merry and melodious, and the audience laughed willingly, even the jaded and experienced, from whom it is hard to drag a laugh; but the grave and tender singing of the old songs of sentiment, some old plantation melodies that were sung first to the tankling banjos of slaves on plantations beneath a southern moon, reached the hearts of the audience, as such songs should, in the good old-fashicned way of human feeling. The audience had its fill of gayest laughter; it allowed itself the privilege of feeling a touch of sentiment when the tenderest songs were sung, and two or three it listend to with sober gravity. There was nothing that did not please.

Mr. Stanley, who will sing the part at the production to be given at the Alexandra Theatre during the week of April 14, is exceptionally well fitted for the part, as he has had a large and varied experience, not only in grand and light operas, but also in drama and comedy.

His success has been so great that he had the honor of singing before the present King and Queen, and was presented to, and personally thanked by them. The production is being staged by Stanley Adams with the able assistance of A.Pike, who has already been connected with many local successes.

its expression in England in the demand for the ballot.

The exhibition, to give it its full title, the Woman's International Exhibition of Fine Arts, will be beld in the beautiful Valentino Park, well known thru the International Exhibition of two years ago, which also had its site there. It is expected that the contributions will number over one thousand of which about half will come from different parts of Italy, but almost every country in the world will be represented. As is inevitable, some have limited artistic value, while others are wonderfully good, showing in some cases veritable genius. But all are interesting as showing the directions in which women are working in art. And there are contributions from all classes of society, from royal ladies to numble peasants.

An exhibit of exceptional interest is a work in marble by Mrs. Robert F. Scott, widow of the English explorer, who lost ins life at the South Pole.

A noticeable feature of this exhibition is that a majority of the works of art come from such countries as italy, flungary and Ireland, where the campaign for the recognition of the rights of woman has not as yet made great headway.

The popularity and good sense of a front closing is as apparent on dresses for young girls as on those for their elders. The model here shown carries this desirable feature, and has many other good points. The deep cut fronts outline a chemisette, that may be made of lawn, or other contrasting material The neck edge is, finished with a pretty collar. The Locked House.

Jesse's Memoir. The book of our adventures which we began together, was to go on thru all our years. We were too young to think how it must some time finish at our parting, that one of us two was to be left, with only the broken end, ing everything, let me take her in my "This filth," he said, "out of the the pity of Christ, and every word a stabbing memory.

There cause I'd scarcely called him once in was the puppy piano, green with mold, her work-basket, half eaten, her writing-table littered with rat-gnawed dred pounds, and I had to scratch his paper. The pages are yellow, the ink neck before he started up to the house, is rusty brown, but the past is alive then to the left along the wagon track in every line, the living past, the sunny, warm-scented land of memory, all full of love and glory and delight, all full of love and glory and delight, and of the grove at a canter, and when

If she were here with me in the old log cabin, she should not see me mourning, or afraid to face the past, or dreading to set an end to our book. She expected courage, and I will face it out, write the last chapter in our Book of Life, then bury it all, lest anyone should see. I warm and burn my hands at the fires of memory, and if the fine sweet pain were taken from if the fine sweet pain were taken from me, what should I have left but cobweb, and ashes, dust, and the smell of rats.

How wonderful it is to the great lady, and this ignorant, callous brute shown up in the rotted manuscript, should ever have been man and wife together! When I think of what I was—illiterate, slovenly, lazy, selfish, brutal, meanly jealous, ignorantly cruel, I see how it was right that she should leave me. It has taken that she should leave me. It has taken there in the years which followed.

Kate's Narrative. My husband was still at dinner when we heard a horseman come thundering in, the old cargador, Pete Mathson, spurrin a weary horse across the yard. Jesse took the letter, and while he read, I had a strange awful impression of days, months, years passing, a whirlwind of time. My man was growing old before my eyes. and it is true that within a few hours his hair was flecked with silver. When the letter fell from his hands he walked away, making no sound at all.
I sat on my little stool and took the letter. The paper felt like something very offensive, so that I had to force myself to read, and even then, with out understanding one word, I went and washed my hands and face, why I don't know, except that it was bet-T LAST "there is something new under the sun." The care of the chambers becomes a simple affair when furniture that is easily cleaned is installed. Even furniture polish is not needed for the steel beds; a soft cloth dipped in hot water freshens the finish like new.

As a bedroom is only influenced by its occupants, it may be as hygienic, as attractive and useful as its users choose to make it.

The demand for white bedroom furniture would seem to indicate that sanitation in sleeping apartments is receiving continual attention.

There are some general principles that hold good for all sleeping apartments. Air the beds daily for an hour; open the windows, place the covers where the wind can blow over and thru them, and turn the mattress around at least twice each week. ## TO DOUBLE-TRACK NIAGARA RAILWAY

Electric Radial Line Must Be Ready For Increased Trade.

A NEW STEAMER ALSO

Sister Ship to Dalhousie City Will Soon Be Built.

The statement was made to The World yesterday by an official of the company that plans are now under way for the immediate double tracking of the Niagara, St. Catharines and Toronto Railway Company's lines. This is the electric railway which runs right across the Niagara Peninsula and running parallel with the Welland Canal connects Port Dalhousie, St. Catharines, Thorold, Welland and with the flour mills and government elevators at Port Colborne. It also makes direct connection with the Suspension Bridge at Niagara Falls.

On the completion of the double tracking of this railway a sister ship to the Dalhousie City will be constructed and put in commission between Toronto and Port Dalhousie by the Niagara, St. Catharines and Toronto Navigation Co. As far as the volume of business between Toronto and the connections at 190rt Dalhousie are concerned the new vessel could have been built and put in service this spring, but in doing so the Niagara, St. Catharines and Toronto Railway would have had more steamship freight business from Toronto than they could handle with the single track line, and the double tracking of the line before building the new vessel has been found necessary.

When the project is completed this railway will have a double track connection with the G.T.R., the C.P.R., the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Railway, and the Michigan Central Railway. It has connection with all three of the G.T.R. lines crossing the Niagara Peninsula.

A singular story was told in court of a "miraculous" ring purchased by Stoll-mann for several thousand dollars. The ring, it was alleged, enabled him to win large sums at cards. The ring was tiny mirror, fastened in such a way, despite its smallness, that Stollmann always was able to read the cards as he dealt them.

In his entertainment book, "Humorous Episodes," Mr. Samuel Cowan, J.P., tells the story of the "hat trick," which may not be uninteresting to our readers. Mr. Cowan first heard of the "hat trick" when working on the staff of a Scottish newspaper.

"One afternoon," he says, "a pedlar or hawker called at a well-known hat-Bylaw Will Be Submitted to hat, tendering therefor a sovereign.

The hatter went out for change, which shop and ordered and paid for a 12s. he got from a baker two doors down, gave the pedlar 8s., and retained the balance. Half an hour afterwards the baker called with the sovereign, threw it down on the counter, said it was a base coin and useless, requested the hatter to give him back his 20s. The hatter, in blank aston-istment, did so, and after the baker had gone sat down to count up what he had lost. "It was too complicated, and he could arrive at no finding. He consulted two neighbours, and they said he had lost £2, while his own feeling was £1 ss. or £1-16s. But he was undecided. He resolved to consult a solicitor, and the solicitor said he had lost £2—viz., the hat and 8s. given to the pedlar, and 20s. given back to the baker for the bad sovereign. The 'hat trick' amused the people in the local-ity as an arithmetical puzzle for many day. What the hatter really lost leave to the mertal capacity The solicitor and friends were all wrong."

Second Annual Report of Toronto Electric Commissioners.

Commissioners' Report

To His Worship the Mayor and the Members of the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto: Toronto.

Gentlemen,-Your Commissioners beg to submit their Second Annual Report, accompanied by the Revenue Account and the Balance Sheet of the Toronto Hydro-Electric System for the year ended 31st December, 1912.

The accounts have been audited by John Mackay and Company, Chartered Accountants, Toronto, under the joint appointment of the Provincial Hydro-Electric Commission and your Commissioners. Their certificate is appended to the accounts in question.

FINANCIAL POSITION 'AS AT 31ST DECEMBER, 1912: The operations for the year 1912 have yielded satisfactory results. From the Revenue Account annexed hereto it will be observed that:

The gross income amounted to the sum of ..... $726,763.55 The cost of electric current and the expenses of operation and management, including repairs and maintenance, absorbed the sum of 500,564.26 Leaving a balance of net income of $226,199.29

The interest chargeable against current operations for the year, the sinking fund instalments for the year, and provision for the depreciation reserve fund, absorbed the sum of 212,643.88

Leaving a balance of net surplus earnings for the year 1912, after meeting all charges applicable thereto, to carry forward to 1913 of ....... $ 13,555.41

It is to be especially noted that the expenses and charges generally described above, and which have been defrayed out of the year's income, include the total cost of getting business and promoting new business. The expenditure for advertising and for canvassers, etc., in prosecuting this important work amounted to over $53,000 for the year. In view of the volume of continuing business which has been procured as a result thereof, it would have been quite in accordance with commercial practice to carry forward as a charge against future profits a part of this expenditure. Your Commissioners, how-ever, preferred to follow the conservative course of charging the total expenditure of the year against the income of the

The sinking fund accruing to the almost purely construc-tion period ended 31st December, 1911, and which is carried as from that date as a charge against future profits, amounts as per the Balance Sheet to $50,985.49. The final result, therefore, of the operations for 1912 has been that of discharging in full the deficiency that accumulated during the earlier part of the year, when the revenue was smaller, and of accumulating a surplus of $13,555.41 to apply on the sinking fund obligations of the construction period, thus leaving only $37,430.08 of that obligation to carry forward against future earnings.

The net earnings are continuing to improve during the current year in a satisfactory ratio, and your Commissioners therefore feel warranted in stating that the surplus for the present year 1913 should, in their opinion, discharge the balance of sinking fund liability arising from the construction period, and leave a margin that will justify a reduction of

The net result of the 1912 operations is more favorable than was anticipated from the interim approximate accounts prepared from time to time during the year. A very gratifying increase of business in the latter part of the year, together with the pleasing reduction of rates made by the Provincial Commission, a reduction in the rate of interest from that on which the interim accounts were based, and other matters, contributed to the ultimate satisfactory result.

It is perhaps worth noting that had the enterprise been conducted under share capital as an ordinary commercial corporation, instead of under debenture capital subject to repayment, the provision that has been made out of income for interest and sinking fund instalments, together with the surplus carried forward to next year (amounting to nearly $158,000) would have been available for dividend, and would have permitted the payment of a dividend at the rate of over 5 per cent. for the whole year on the average capital of $3,000,-000 employed during the year. And this result has been effected on a scale of rates very much lower than the City and the Citizens had previously enjoyed, and on a volume of business that is still in the infancy stage of development.

The estimated cost of the completed plant as finally decided upon by your Commissioners was $4,500,000. Of this amount $3,734,911.33 had heen expended to the end of 1912, leaving an unexpended balance against the completion of construction operations of $765,088.67. This sum will be sufficient to complete the work included in the $4,500,000 estimate.

The condition of the money market during the past year had the effect of leading your Commissioners to moderate the rate of construction progress, with the object of reducing their financial calls upon the Cor-

CIVIC SERVICES:

Very satisfactory arrangements have been entered into with the Waterworks Department, which should prove of interest and value to the citizens in connection with the most important question of water supply. These arrangements cover the maintenance by the Waterworks Department of a complete steam pumping plant to be used by it during "Electric-Peak" hours, while, during "Off-Peak" hours electric power will be used This insures to the Waterworks Department two sources of power supply, thereby protecting the citizens against the dangerous risks attendant upon a single source of supply, while at the same time it gives the Commission a substantial customer for "Off-Peak" periods. The estimated cost to the Waterworks Department of maintaining under this combination the two sources of supply does not exceed the cost of maintaining the steam plant alone under the old arrangements. The Civic Street Car System is also being successfully operated with electric power furnished by the

GROWTH OF CITY AND ITS OBLIGATIONS:

Attention is drawn to the fact that the growth of the city will necessitate from time to time capital extensions to the Hydro-Electric System. The mileage of the streets of the city was increased during 1912 from about 408 to 508 miles; the population is increasing; industrial activity shows no sign of abatement; and the services to the public which the Hydro-Electric System was established to render must be adapted to the enlarging conditions and to the increasing demand that will arise therefrom. The undertaking as confirmed by the public at the time of the passage of the last By-law provided for 13,000 services, while at the present time nearly 17,000 services are established. While, however, these conditions will compel from time to time enlargements of the system, it is to be noted that the system as it stands to-day is capable of bearing the load of greatly increased demands from the public at large. Wherever Hydro lights are to be found in the streets, there is room and there are facilities for extending the service to the public. GENERAL CONDITIONS:

That the work accomplished to date has been productive is sufficiently evidenced by the annexed accounts. It has not, however, been free from difficulties. On the contrary, your Commissioners have had to deal with serious and exacting administrative, construction, and technical problems which have laid upon them an arduous burden of work. Nor is this work by any means finished. The potentialities of the system are very great. The development of a perfect, frictionless, and economical organization adapted to the increasing needs of the public and to the enlarging area of the city will always impose a burden of responsibility and concentrated work upon those to whom it is entrusted.

The rinal result of this venture into a new and wide field by Commission government under municipal auspices will also exert a great influence on the future limits of municipal enterprise. This additional responsibility is deeply felt. Your Commissioners have absolute confidence in the out-

For the confidence and the sympathetic support extended by the Prime Minister of the Province, Sir James Whitney, by the Provincial Hydro-Electric Commission, by the Board of Trade and the Manufacturers Association, by the Press as a whole, and for the active support rendered by the municipal corporation of the City of Toronto, and by the citizens at large during the past year, they are deeply grateful. Such support and confidence can but stimulate them to further exertions in the work to which the city is now finally committed.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Commission, P. W. ELLIS. H. C. HOCKEN, Chairman. Mayor. Toronto, Canada, 4th April, 1913.

AUDITORS' REPORT.

Toronto General Trusts Building,

The Toronto Electric Commissioners

85 Bay Street, Toronto, 3rd April, 1918.

We beg to annex hereto the Revenue Account for the year ended, and the Balance Sheet as at 31st December, 1912, of the Toronto Hydro-Electric System. We have audited the books and accounts of the System from the 1st June, 1911the date upon which you assumed control of the administration—to the 31st December, 1912. The expenditure upon the System from its inception until the 31st May, 1911, (during which time it was administered by the municipal corporation of the City of Toronto), amounting to approximately $1,400,000, has not been audited by us, and we therefore assume no responsibility in connection therewith. Subject to this reservation, we certify as follows:-

(1) No expenditure has been charged to Capital Account except such as is properly attributable thereto. That portion of the interest which constitutes an integral part of the cost of construction has been charged thereagainst. By-law No. 5,918 of the City of Toronto authorizes the issue of $2,200,000 of debentures for the express purpose of providing, inter alia, for the said interest charge.

(2) The Income Account for the year has been charged not only with the usual expenses of operation and management, but with the whole of the cost of getting new business, no part of which has been carried forward; and with provision for actual and contingent losses, for special and general depreciation in addition to the cost of repairs and maintenance, for interest chargeable against current operations, and for the full requirements of the sinking fund necessary to ex-

(3) The inventories of stores on hand at 31st December, 1912-while checked by us as to calculations—have been accepted in the usual way as to quantities and prices on the certificates of responsible officers. The inventory of stores on hand at 31st December, 1911, amounted to approximately $113,000 less than the stores which, according to the books, should have been on hand at that date. The missing stores have in the interval been traced and satisfactorily accounted for, except to the extent of $6,562.06. In our opinion, after full inquiry, there is little doubt but that, subject to the usual wastage, which itself is a charge upon the operations causing it, the stores represented by this deficiency were consumed upon construction operations and through oversights in the stores department not charged thereagainst. The amount has therefore now been charged against Capital Expenditure Account.

(4) Our requirements as Auditors have been complied with, and in our opinion the annexed Revenue Account and Balance Sheet are properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the affairs of the enterprise.

We may add that the interim aproximate accounts prepared from time to time during the year subject to adjustment in some important matters, showed a less favorable result than is disclosed by the annexed accounts, for the reason that in the interest of safety they were loaded for contingencies to a greater extent

Respectfully submitted, JOHN MACKAY & CO., Auditors. Chartered Accountants.

Agricultural Conditions in the Province as Reported to Government.

FODDER SUPPLY IS GOOD

Mild Weather and Close Handling Showed Very Good Results.

The following information regarding argicultural conditions in this province is contained in a bulletin prepared by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, based upon information furnished by a large staff of correspondents under date of Apri! 1: Fall Wheat.

Much of the new wheat entered the fall of 1912 rather below the usual height, owing to rate planting as a result of the delayed harvesting and the general wet weather prevailing during the season. There was a light covering of snow during the winter, expecially in January and a part of February, when in certain sections of the province, fields were practically bare for several weeks together. Notwithstanding these drawbacks, the comparatively mild remperature prevailsmil of the delayed harvesting and the general wet weather prevailing during the season. There was a light covering of snow during the winter, and in cattle was very quiet, with prices along the season. There was a light covering of snow during the winter of the province, fields were practice of the province, fields were practice of the province, fields were practiced to the province, fields were practiced to the province, fields were prevailing and the province of the prov reported. Several correspondents state that too much straw was fed, and as some of the straw and oats was musty owing to the dampness of the season, indigestion was often the result.

Both beef and dairy cattle have been well cared for, and are generally in good health. The chief trouble reported was the tendency of cows to abort, more especially in the dairy breeds. The big steer is a thing of the past. The Fodder Supplies.

The comparatively mild weather helped fodder supplies to go farther than usual. There has been a sufficiency of hay—in some cases it was plentiful—and the experience of recent years of close feeding enabled stockmen to handle it to good advantage. With the exception of peas, all the grains and roots have been more than sufficient for all calls, but corn for the silo has been hardly up to the mark either in yield or quality. Strawalso has been short in quantity and more or less poor in quality, having been unfavorably affected by the rainy weather during and after harvest. Several complaints were made of its searcity for bedding. Taken all to gether, however, fodder supplies in general have been more than necessary to carry the average farmer thru nicely and leave a fair margin for emergencies.

Live Stock.

The wintering of live stock has been a comparatively easy task, owing to mildness of the weather and the abundance of fodder.

Horses have been in good demand, and have consequently commanded high prices. No serious disease has prevailed, altho some of the usual lighter forms of distemper have been reported. Several correspondents state that too much straw was fed, and as

The Corbett, Hall, Coughlin Company sold 10 carloads of stock as follows:

MONTREAL GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, April 9.—Cables on Manitoba spring wheat came easier again today, and the prices bid were 1½d lower with only fair demand. Business was dull, as the advance in Winnipeg threw all the bids out of line, but there was a good demand for oats from both the United Kingdom and the continent, and bids were 1½d higher. A fair volume of business was done for May-June shipment, and several loads of barley were sold at an advance of 3d. The local grain trade continues quiet, and the only change in prices was an advance of 1c per bushel in corn. A fairly active trade was done in flour for export account, and the local demand was fair. Millfeed steady, with a fair trade passing. Butter is strong under a good demand, and small supplies, and prices are 1c higher for jobbing lots. Cheese quiet. There is an active demand for eggs at steady prices.

Corn—American No. 2 yellow, 66c to 67c.

Oats—Canadian western. No. 2, 41½c.

GLASGOW. April 9.—Watson & Co. cable rather lighter supplies offered. A better demand was experienced at quotations; best steers, 15½c to 16½c; Irish, 14½c to 15½c; best bulls, 13c to 14c.

LIVERPOOL GRAIN ECHANGE.

LIVERPOOL. April 9.—The market opened with realizing, induced by the bearish interpretation placed upon the government report, %d to ½d lower. Following the opening, there was some disposition shown to cover, stimulated by the firmness in Buenos Ayres, and steady Plate offers but this was later displaced by moderate realizing on the pause in the demand for cargoes. Paris opened lower and private cables received here report easier market at Berlin.

Corn opened ¼d to ¾ dlower, with the Drincipal pressure in the American grade on the lower American offerings. Later

In the Spring a Young

R. TENNYSON said that "in the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love." But Mr. Tennyson neglected to say that after the young man's fancy has done a complete turn in the thoughts-of-love business, it has to come back for an encore and do another turn in its thoughts of home. Now, after you and the girl have discovered all the secrets of the universe in the depths of each other's eyes, it may seem at first thought as if there were nothing left But really, although it seems horribly commonplace, it wouldn't be a half bad idea to go out and investigate the plumbing in your new home. Or it might even be a better idea to find the home itself. Hunting a home is a lot of fun for young people. It is a glorious quest, but it is a hundred times more glorious if you only go hunting for it in the right way. And the right way, of course, is to turn to the Want Ads of this paper, look up the columns marked "For Rent," and then begin systematically checking off the ones that appeal to your taste and to your pocketbook. Then, when you have checked off the right list and started on your rounds, you have no worry in the world, because you know that whatever you choose will be within the radius of your means. And all that is left will be to find that particular place that appeals to you most as

Just try it with this paper today and every day until you find what you are looking for. Desirable places to live as well as business properties for lease are in the Want Ads of this paper day after day, under the simple two-word heading of "For Rent." This is certainly a method of house hunting well worth

In conclusion, wherever you look please mention the name of this paper, because that will be returning the same courtesy to us that we have been trying to render to you.

Russell Motor Common at Fifty—Brazilian Moves in Erratic Manner.

Almost general weakness was shown in the Toronto stock market yesterday, a steady liquidating movement carrying prices lower practically thru-out the whole list. The dropping of the dividend on Russell Motor com-mon, announced in the morning papers, was the leading factor, but it was quite sufficient to act as a decidwas quite sufficient to act as a decided depressor, sentilment having received an almost staggering blow. The action of the New York Exchange was also discouraging, and probably exerted some influence in inspiring the maintenance of the easier tone.

The erratic changes in Brazilian during the day attracted a good deal of attention and occasioned considerable comment. The shares opened at of attention and occasioned considerable comment. The shares opened at 97 3-4, a full half point above the previous close, dropped to 97 3-8, held there during the morning, and then dropped suddenly to 97 3-8 just at noon. The afternoon opening was 3-8 lower at 92, with the price down an additional fraction to 96 3-4 in the next hour. The last sale at 97 left a net loss of just a quarter point for the session. Trading fell off materially, less than 250 of the shares changing hands.

General Weakness. Weakness was most pronounced in the industrials, where the selling was more concentrated than in the public utility issues. Russell common opened 15 points lower at 50, a new low record in its history. It sold at 90 on March 5, and at 115 last year. The preferred changed hands at 86, which compared with 96 on March 17, and 117½ last year. Consumers' Gas was off to a new low record in many years at 1771/2; Rogers lost a point at 159; W. N. Burt preferred had another relapse, selling down to 97½ for a broken lot, a loss of 2½ from the previous sale. Pacific Burt preferred was a point lower at 88. Winnipeg Rails was offered down during the afterwith the shares available at 208 at the close, a 2-point decline. Steel Co. of Canada was stronger, with sales at 25 7-8, a gain of over a point, and the preferred was fractionally improved. The movement was unexplained. St. Lawrence Navigation was

SPRING SEEDING

This Report, With Talk of Large Exports, Advances Wheat Prices.

Delay to seeding of spring wheat in the northwest because of bad weather was said to be growing serious. Three epth of about four inches. If the tory manner perfect weather, it was said, would be needed from now on. Buying, which followed these reports, was also prompted by a bullish foreign summary, showing that Europe would probably be a large buyer, as native offerings were inadequate. # Bargains in the Making

It would be interesting to follow the genesis of each of the bargains announced on this page. It is not possible, however, to give the details in each case, because of the great list we must cover in a limited space. Broadly, they may be classed as:

First, stocks specially purchased, and, second, goods from regular stocks reduced for bargain selling. In the latter class we include many items on which the regular selling price is withdrawn for the one day only, to make an unusual attraction for Friday buyers. In no case are goods offered unless we are assured that the Friday price means a very considerable saving as compared with the price usually and necessarily charged for regular selling.
