Technical and Bibliographic Notes/Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous.

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

D. B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\longrightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

D. B. Weldon Library
University of Western Ontario
(Regional History Room)

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\longrightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THE PROGRAMME

The primary idea of this Programme is, of course, to enlighten the audience as to the personnel of the artists taking part in the performances, incidentally to serve as a guide to the plot of the piece, and generally to give such information as will tend to the enjoyment of the auditor.

Reading matter of a miscellaneous nature, is, however, liberally supplied, that may be perused with interest and advantage. Quips and Quirks give zest to the solid matter, as sauces do to meats, but there is a fund of information in the advertisements that may be seriously considered with profit.

The publishers are prepared to attend to all business in the way of general and special advertising.

Respectfully,

BELTON & ROOTE,

Advertising Agents.

HARD.

Bertrand—I wonder how I can make an impression on that Boston girl's heart?

Claude—From my experience I advise you to use a stone crusher.

UNIFORMITY.

Robinson—Since Jigly got a position in the bank he only wears one kind of clothes.

Jones—What kind?

Robinson—Checks.

W. T. STRONG.

DISPENSING
CHEMIST . . .

184 dundas Street.

A Chicago lad makes a living by securing seats for women in crowded cars. He makes his stand at a thoroughfare that is always thronged and arranges with some well-to-do woman, with her arms full of bundles, or perhaps a baby, to run around and jump on a car before it reaches the corner. When it gets to that point he has a seat reserved for her.

It is foolish to make professions that you do not live up to.

MONTEBELLO Champagne was never so well known the world over nor so popular with the elite of all civilized countries as it is to day. This wine is produced in the heart of the champagne district of France, on what was formerly the estate of the Duke of Montebello. The industry was begun by the duke and his two brothers sixty years ago, and the heirs are now the active partners in the famous firm of Alfred de Montebello & Co. The grapes (usually of the black varieties) are pressed immediately after being gathered, and the juice on the first fermentation turns white. After being raked it is mixed with the juice of other growths and the brewing is effected. Then in the spring of the year the wine is decanted and bottles being placed cork downwards to allow of the dregs being easily withdrawn. After this is done, a liquid made by dissolving sugar candy in champagne wine is added, the bottles are recorked and dispatched to their destination. Such is, in short, the method of the manufacture of this great wine. That the result is a wine of unparalleled excellence connoisseurs the world over will testify. The triumphs of the Montebello brand are many, a notable one being that achieved at the Agricultural Hall, London, Eng., where out of twenty of the leading champagnes it was placed first. During the recent festivities given in France in honor of the visit of the Russian Fleet, Montebello Champagne was used at the following fetes:—Dinner of six hundred guests at the City Hall Toulon; grand dinner given by President Carnot to Admiral Avalanc at the Palais de L'Elysee; grand dinner at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs; grand dinner at the Hotel de Ville, Paris; grand ball at the same place, and at the grand dinner given by the City of Lyons. Montebello champagne is supplied to President Carnot, the Court of Russia, the Court of Spain, the Khedive of Egypt, the Duke d'Aoste of the Court of Italy, His Highness the Prince of Galles, and the nobility and gentry the world over, and is to-day sold by all the leading Clubs, Hotels and Restaurants in the Dominion.

WHAT DREAMS MAY COME,

Christmas Day is almost here,
The small boy fairly crows
To think of all the things to eat
That he will soon inclose.

He dreams about the turkey big
And eke the hot mince pie,
And other things that will within
His little stomach lie.

But when beneath his little vest
Those goodly things have sped
And he bids Pa and Ma good-night
And trundles off to bed,

Oh, what a difference there will be,
And likewise what a row;
For then he'll have some other dreams
He does not dream of now.

Do not judge a man by the clothes he wears. God made one and the tailor the other. Do not judge him by his family, for Cain belonged to a good family.

We never know the true value of friends. While they live we are too sensitive to their faults; when we have lost them we see only their virtues.

DOORS open for matinees at 2 p. m. ; curtain rises at 2.30 p. m.
Evenings.—Doors open at 7.30, and curtain rises at 8.15 p. m. sharp.

Tickets can be reserved two days in advance without extra charge.

Office open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

Seats can be secured by mail, telegraph or telephone. Telephone 732.

Physicians are requested to register at the Box Office, leaving seat number, as this will enable Ushers to find them, if called for, without disturbing the audience.

Children in arms not admitted to evening performances. Children three years old or over full price.

Patrons will confer a favor by reporting to the management any incivility or inattention on the part of the employees, and annoyances of any nature.

If the individual members of an audience would stop to think for just an instant, they would undoubtedly appreciate the fact that the habit of rising from their seat and leaving the theatre before the curtain falls, is a most annoying one, and one that should be stopped. We therefore beg our audiences to kindly remain in their seats until the close of the performance.

Carriages can be ordered at the Box Office or of the Chief Usher.

For all lost articles apply at Box Office.

It is strange, but there is a class of people that seem to take an intense delight in bespattering the floor with tobacco juice, and in being boisterous and using profane language. These people should know at once that the courts authorize their immediate expulsion, should the management see fit to exercise its rights.

The Ohio State University is soon to have one of the finest mastodons ever mounted in this country. It was found some months ago in Clark county, O., and the mounting, which is being done in Rochester, N. Y., is almost finished. The expert engaged in mounting the mastodon says that there is but one other in the United States to compare with it.

The north coast of Egypt has been guarded by a lighthouse since 300 B. C., when Ptolemy Philadelphus, the Greek king of Egypt, and one of the successors of Alexander the Great, built the so-called Pharos of Alexandria. This was a lofty tower, placed at the entrance of the harbor, with a great fire blazing on its summit during the night.

"I am sensible of the honor you do me, Mr. Spoonamore, in the proposal of marriage you have just made," said the young woman, with a slight curl of the lip, "but circumstances over which I have no control will compel me to decline the honor." "What are those circumstances, Miss Marigold?" fiercely demanded the young man. "Your circumstances, Mr. Spoonamore."
