COAL SITUATION BETTER YESTERDAY

Sunday's Fine Weather Allowed Railway to Bring in Several Trains.

CITY YARDS BUSY

Have Already Supplied Fuel to Hundreds of Families Needing It.

Over the week-end the railroads moved a considerable amount of coal to this city, and unless the gale that raged last night has things up again it will only be a matter of time and good weather before the border congestion is cleared up.

The weather was ideal Sunday, and coal trains arrived with almost the summer load of cars. A derailment at Port Robinson shortly after 9 o'clock Sunday night prevented the Grand Trunk making even a better showing. The figures of the receipts from Saturday to Monday morning were: Grand Trunk, 77 cars anthracite, 128 soft and one car of coke. Canadian Pacific, 108 cars of all kinds of coal. This makes a total of 314 cars of fuel brought in to Toronto over the week-end. In addition to this there were three coal trains stalled behind the derailment, and another train of 41 cars of hard coal at Merriton. This train of 41 cars sounds as though it might be the special train of hard coal that the coal section of the Retail Merchants' Association brought from the St. Clair collieries, under the protection of the Dominion Railway head.

J. E. Walsh of the traffic department of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, stated yesterday that the coke situation has improved considerably and the future outlook in regard to the supply of coke was very good. He left for Ottawa last night, and is to attend another conference there today in regard to the general situation.

Due to the War. Sir Donald Mann said yesterday that the whole traffic situation was due to the war, which had greatly increased coke and fuel consumption, and at the same time had withdrawn untold numbers of men from the mines and railways. About another month would see fine weather and the relief of the situation. The C. N. R. this winter had distributed coal quite different to what has been the custom. From the foot of the mountains coal has been brought eastward to relieve the prairies, and the coal stored at Port Arthur has been sent as far east as Quebec.

The University of Toronto still remains closed, and there is no coal supply in sight. Some other institutions have been in pretty tight places, but have been able to secure the necessary coal to keep things turning, but through the city the general feeling prevailed that the railways were moving and the end of the shortage was in sight.

Through the city yards the hard coal situation is very much improved and no citizen, so far as known to the civic yards, has had to go without fuel. Before 9 o'clock yesterday morning 100 tons were sent out from the city yards in quarter and half-ton lots.

BROKE LIQUOR LAW. Albert Shurman, William Jackson, Pat Boylen and George Foltz were each fined the usual $200 and costs when they appeared in the police court yesterday on charges of having liquor in their possession and selling. The alternative of three months in jail was also imposed in each case.

The Queen street west Red Cross branch of the Union Jack Chapter, I. O. E. have voted $100 to the Canadian Red Cross.

During the past year 1400 visits to soldiers' families were made by the members of York Chapter I.O.E. $1012 was sent to Mrs. Rivers, Bulkeley, for Canadian prisoners of war in Germany, and 708 pairs of socks were distributed. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. regent, Mrs. Demison Taylor; regent, Mrs. Cyril Rudge; 1st vice-regent, Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, 2nd

INSPECTOR A "CONSUMER."

On charges of failing to affix a war stamp to a bottle of hair remedy he sold to H. J. Dager, inland revenue inspector, and omitting to first cancel the stamp of a bottle before selling it, J. Cox came up in the afternoon police court yesterday, and was fined $50 and costs on both charges. Counsel for Cox argued that the inspector was not a "consumer," therefore, the inland revenue inspector's evidence was not material to the case. But Magistrate Kingsford deemed it otherwise.

HAD LEG BROKEN.

Chas. Smith, 14 Davenport road, had one of his legs broken yesterday morning at the Imperial Rubber Vulcanizing Company's plant, 569 Yonge street, by a piece of machinery driven by the explosion of a steam vulcanizer. He was standing over the vulcanizer watching the mending of a tire when the machine burst. He was removed to the general hospital in the police ambulance.

The outbreak of fire which followed was easily got under control by the firemen. The damage to the building amounts to $1500.

FRANCO-BRITISH AID SOCIETY.

As a result of the program, consisting of English and French plays and dances, given on February 10 at the Margaret Eaton School, the Franco-British Aid Society has cleared $117.27, which will be sent to the mayor of Nantes, Brittany, for the blind soldiers in the hospitals.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.

Mary Pinckam, 383 Church street, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective Twigg, on a charge of stealing two silk blouses and a corset cover, worth $11.50, from the Robert Simpson store.

The log raft of the Mississippi is a deplorable sight. The forests along the stream have been devastated by the wood choppers' axe.

JOSEPH B. COATSWORTH DEAD.

Was For Many Years in Civic Employment From Which He Retired About Fifteen Years Ago.

Joseph B. Coatsworth, brother of the late Commissioner Coatsworth, and uncle of County Court Judge Coatsworth, died at his home, 228 Riverdale avenue, Sunday, at the age of 84 years. He was born in Merriton, Ontario, and lived in St. Catharines until his early twenties, when he came to Toronto and entered the employ of the city from which he retired about 15 years ago. His wife died five years ago.

He is survived by two sons, Joseph, of Toronto, and George, at present living in the United States.

ACTION OVER PROPERTY.

In the non-jury court yesterday Eva and Charles Edward Jones, of the town of Oxbridge, commenced an action against E. L. Wickham asking that he later fulfil the specific performance of an agreement made with the plaintiffs re the sale of their 150-acre farm in Scott Township. The plaintiffs claim that Wickham reached an agreement with them to exchange the farm for city property and a mortgage, but the exchange has not been consummated. The case will be concluded tomorrow.

SIX HUNDRED PAIRS OF SOCKS.

Six hundred pairs of socks were realized by the shower held by the 109th Regiment in aid of the 256th Battalion.

The sum of $28 was realized by the patriotic bridge held at the home of Mrs. S. T. James, Tyndall avenue, in aid of the Belgian Relief Fund.

UNSUSPECTING JAILER FOOLED BY PRISONER

C. Cooke Escaped From Cell by Playing Role of Lawyer.

The call for Clarence O. Cook, remanded in the police court last week on a charge of stealing a bag containing various trinkets from Mrs. E. Bird, led to the revelation in court yesterday that he had escaped from the cells a week ago.

It seems that Cook watched his opportunity and when the jailer visited the cells he suddenly became engaged in fictitious converse with a woman prisoner in the adjacent cell. The jailer thought he was a lawyer, allowed in to interview a prisoner, and paid little attention when Cook brazenly walked thru the open door of the cell to freedom. The remarks of the magistrate and crown attorney when informed of his easy escape were not complimentary to the police.

Contract Was Cancelled By War Order-in-Council

Judge Denton gave judgment against Stone Limited for $273.88, balance due Joseph E. Ellery, a New York art publisher, who supplied a consignment of German art goods before the war, but was unable to complete the contract because of the order-in-council of September, 1914, which put an end to importation of German-made goods. The judge ruled that the order-in-council cancelled the contract, which they would have fulfilled if permitted, and therefore he dismissed their counter-claim for $473 damages for loss sustained.

POSTED AS PRISONERS.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. London, Eng., Feb. 19.—The following have been posted as prisoners: 401626, Nigh; 447320, Everett; 58547, Bromley; also Lieut. E. W. White and D. W. Davis, attached to the Royal Flying Corps.

OPPOSITION TO LINE HAS NOT APPEARED

May Come Out When Appropriation for Pape Ave. Service Reaches Board of Control.

Toronto's share of the cost of the Pape avenue car line as ordered by the Ontario Railway Board, has not yet been estimated, but it is probable that it will probably be recommended by the board of control some time this week. By the order of the Ontario Railway Board work is to commence before April 1 in the absence of opposition from the city. So far the board of control have stood pat and have declared themselves neither for or against the new line. If there is to be opposition from the city, it will probably develop when the board of control considers the matter this week and when the matter of expense is introduced. Up to date none of the controllers have committed themselves on the matter. The aldermen of ward 1—Robbins, Hiltz and Fenwick, are all agreed that ward 1 needs the new car line and they are also agreed that the course as laid out by the railway board, on Carlaw to Guelph and along Pape Avenue, is the proper course. "The opposition of the school trustees because the line would pass school is all nonsense," Aid. Robbins declared yesterday. "Why they built the Queen Alexandra School, one of the largest in the city, on Broadview avenue where the cars pass."

When the matter was before the railway board, Alderman Robbins quoted population figures to show that all the recent growth of Toronto has been in ward 1. They have increased in population by 14,000 while the other wards have either stood still or decreased in population.

PEERAGE LOSES HEIR.

London, Eng., Feb. 19.—Another English peerage is left without an heir by the death on the Laureatic of Lord Alan de Blaquiere, only surviving son of Lord de Blaquiere. The elder son, John, fell in action in 1914.

MUNITION PLANT BURNT CAUSE IS NOT KNOWN

Bad Blaze Destroys Building and Plant on the Esplanade.

Electric motors, cranes and various other machinery for the manufacture of iron and steel implements were lost in a fire of unknown origin which gutted the factory premises of the Queen City Foundry Co.

The blaze began in the southeast corner of the foundry, and when the flames had gained a good hold of the building, oil-soaked benches and machinery provided the fuel and the fire rapidly rendered the efforts of the firemen futile.

The annual meeting of the Canadian Red Cross Society, which is to be held next Wednesday, the 21st inst., should be of great interest to all those who give money or time to the work of this great society.

The meeting is to be honored by the presence of the governor-general and the Duchess of Devonshire, in whose London house (Devonshire House), the British Red Cross Society headquarters are at the beginning of the war, and which is still the headquarters of the voluntary aid detachment work of the society.

From the outbreak of war until March last, when the number of Q.O.R. men in the 3rd Battalion had been greatly reduced by casualties, the principal work of the chapter has been supplying comforts to the men of the 3rd Battalion and caring for their needy ones at home. At this time a fund was also established for the care of Q.O.R. prisoners of war in Germany, of whom eighty were communicated with. Walter Barr contributed $25 and Fred Hayward $10 as a nucleus to the fund; $400 was realized by a garden fete at Casa Loma, and $400 of this was deposited with Fane Sewell to be used for a regular supply of bread to prisoners. Working to Keep Down Your Cost of Living

Previous to the organization of the Farmers' Dairy a number of the leading dairy farmers of Ontario met to decide how to supply Toronto with better milk at a lower price. They formed the Farmers' Dairy. Since then The Farmers' Dairy has been raising the standard of milk and keeping down the price.

In the spring of last year the dairies were confronted with conditions which threatened to prove disastrous. The absence of sufficient rain caused a shortage of crops which seriously affected the supply of milk.

The dairy was also faced with the problem of the scarcity of labor. The resultant increased cost of milk production made a raise in the price of milk seem inevitable. But despite adverse conditions The Farmers' Dairy succeeded in lowering the price of milk during the summer.

The price was kept down as long as possible, although the cost of production increased. In the fall, however, it became impossible for The Farmers' Dairy to continue this. We would not sacrifice quality for price, and therefore reluctantly raised it to 18 Tickets for $1.00.

The Farmers' Dairy milk is still the same price as ordinary milk. If you are not already benefitting by its healthful body-building qualities you should do so as soon as possible. It will cost no more. Tickets can be had from our salesmen, or by writing or phoning us—Hill. 4400.

The Marguerite Clarke Fund

Another good beginning for Monday gives hope for the remainder of the week and makes the trustees of the Marguerite Clarke Fund glad more and more optimistic of reaching the point they have set for themselves for the benefit of The World's Little Blind Girl. In today's contributions we have fifteen dollars from the employees of the F. N. Burt Company, who, seeing our appeal, thought they would like to help. They took up a collection at the shop and "almost without an exception everyone gave cheerfully towards a cause which we feel is worthy of everyone's support." Another fifteen dollars is from the Independent Knitters, who held a euchre party to make up the sum. The others are individual subscriptions and all given so cheerfully and in such good spirit.

The Submarine Failure

In the record of the German submarine campaign since the first of the month may be read the decline of the German power both on land and sea. Had there been victorious armies under the kaiser on land the submarine barbarism would not have been resorted to.

Stories now begin to come in of the ability to sink a million tons of shipping a month have dwindled to little more than a third of this in realization, and for all intents and purposes the submarine campaign has been a failure.

Vessels are freely crossing the Atlantic both ways, and while a few of them are sunk hundreds escape and carry on their lawful traffic.

One of the successes of the submarine campaign was the tying up in United States harbors of vessels arranged to sail.

UNFIT SOLDIERS SHOULD BE HERE

N. W. Rowell Says Many Deported Overseas Thru Lack of Hospitals.

ARTIFICIAL LIMBS

Hon. W. D. McPherson Says Returned Soldiers Are Making Enough.

Of the 5400 soldiers who have returned to Ontario, 554 are taking vocational training here, according to Hon. W. D. McPherson, who went into the matter exhaustively in the house yesterday, in answer to N. W. Rowell.

To meet the difficulty in supplying artificial limbs in this province, a factory for these has been started in the rear of the convalescent hospital on College, and a branch on College street near Spadina avenue. There returned soldiers were employed, and had proved extraordinarily adept under trainers from Great Britain and the United States, said he. At present the provincial secretary was of opinion that they were now able in Ontario to supply all the artificial arms and legs that would be required here, unless there was a deluge of patients. These limb factories did all the repairing, too, as ordered by doctors. They were given free to returned soldiers.

If 15,000 or 20,000 men were returned to Canada, Ontario could take care of them, said Mr. McPherson. The general situation was good. The feeling on the part of the general public and employers was excellent, said he.

Men getting vocational training were given nearly their service pay and allowance. No difference in the men's pension was made for their added proficiency.

Mr. Rowell, in asking for a return of all correspondence regarding returned soldiers, pointed out that many have been sent over to England, and there found unfit for military service. These men were a loss to Canada's industrial life, and should be brought back as soon as possible, said he. He had heard that some of them were detained in England on account of lack of hospital accommodation in Canada. He would suggest that it might be well to use the war tax to increase hospital accommodation in Canada rather than in England.

Vocational training was not compulsory, said Mr. McPherson, in reply to a question from Mr. Rowell. Officers had told him that they had seen men in their ranks who they knew on the first parade were physically unfit. He suggested that they had been passed in order to swell the ranks. However, that might be the thing was to get them back as soon as possible.

Mr. McPherson said the more strenuous training in England had been largely responsible for numerous rejections. The British authorities were not anxious to keep unfit soldiers. He suggested that the whole subject should be discussed with a great deal of caution lest the public should gain wrong impressions.

Premier Hearst outlined the government's work for returned soldiers, and said the government would always be alert to aid returned soldiers back into civil life.

POTATOES DEARER HERE THAN IN GREAT BRITAIN

Many Causes Contribute to Bring About Scarcity Here and Prices Are Higher.

Large shipments of potatoes to Canada, destruction of Canadian potatoes by freezing and the poor Ontario crop were assigned by wholesale and retail dealers yesterday as the chief causes for the prevailing scarcity and the steady increasing price. That the scarcity promises to reach the proportions of a famine is a generally accepted view of the situation, which is nearing a crisis.

In Great Britain they think prices are high because until March 31, they will sell there for $15 a ton, and thereafter for $20 a ton. This price is 84 per cent less than the prevailing price in Toronto today, as potatoes are selling here for $4 a bag or $77.75 a ton.

A wholesale dealer declared yesterday that 60 carloads of potatoes were being sent weekly from New Brunswick to the West Indian Islands, where they are for the most part used for seed. A potato exchange of that province quotes prices ranging from $3.50 to $3.85 a bag for potatoes.

The scarcity recalled to another dealer the famine of 1881, resulting from a poor crop, when the price was similar to that which is prevailing here. It is said that New York is paying a higher price for potatoes than Toronto.

COUNT ON LIGNITE TO PRODUCE FUEL

Canada May Become Almost Independent of U.S. Coal Supply.

CHEERING OUTLOOK

Scientific and Research Council Reports on Results of Inquiries.

By Staff Reporter.

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 18.—If a scheme now being worked out by the scientific and research council, recently created by the government, is successful, Canada may become almost commercially independent of the United States in the matter of coal for fuel. The scheme in question, which is already well advanced, is the production of lignite, of which there are great quantities in Saskatchewan, of two grades of high-class fuel, one similar to anthracite or hard coal and the other resembling soft coal. The department of mines and the commission of conservation have already carried out a good deal of investigation, and the question is now engaging the active attention of the research council.

Experimental Plant. Following an all-week session in Ottawa, the council gave out a statement tonight in which, among other things, they state that if the studies now in progress give satisfactory results, they will advise that an experimental plant to turn out this high-grade fuel on a commercial scale be erected, and the possibility of producing this fuel at a cost considerably lower than that at which coal from the United States is now laid down in Manitoba and Saskatchewan be demonstrated on a large scale and the coal actually placed in the market.

TERRIFIC ALLIED DRIVE BEGINS SOON IN WEST

Special Cable to The Toronto World. London, Feb. 18.—The next move on the part of the allied armies, according to one of the best military experts in this city, will be one of the most terrific drives all along the western front that the war has so far seen. In fact, this authority tonight stated that the events of the last few days prove that the Anglo-French commanders have already begun this move.

THE FORMAN MYSTERY

By GEORGE HUGHES.

But his reaching fingers never grasped the stem. A rustling suddenly halted him with his hand in mid-air. He looked around in an effort to locate the source of the sound, and saw that it emanated from the left-hand side of the bay window opposite to where he stood. The window shade was drawn to the inside sill, and the noise was caused thru the action of the wind in brushing against the woodwork.

His curiosity whetted to a keen edge, Warrener strode over to the window and lifted the shade. The light of the room shone full upon the spot, revealing to him the open window. The bottom sash was pushed up halfway, and the chill wind burst thru the aperture and made him shiver.

Warrener was perplexed, and a big "Why?" asked for answer. Why was the window open on such an inclement night? Glad as she was in thin bed, Warrener could not believe that Ethel Forman had opened it for the sake of obtaining a little fresh air. Who, then, could have opened it and for what purpose had it been opened?

He was completely nonplussed. The more he studied the matter the more of a mystery it became. From without the tile of the breeze came keen and numbed with its touch. But he heeded it not; his whole attention was given to the mystery of the raised window sash.

Like a flash an idea struck him. Backing toward the window, he placed one heel against the baseboard, and commenced to peer toward the spot where the dead girl lay. He came to a halt with the toe of his boot touching the piano stool. He had taken four paces, roughly about ten feet.

Returning to the window, he released the shade, and it sprang to the top of the window with a swish. Then scanning the head in the aperture, he scanned the verandah for anything that would give him a clue and assist him in fully establishing the theory which had just presented itself to him.

Suddenly thru the clear night air sounded the staccato cough of a hard-driven motor. As yet it was faint with the effect of distance, but Warrener's listening ear sensed the reduction in noise as the motor became gradually clearer. Came a brief period of silence, the sound of men calling to each other, the metallic clink of keys as the gate at the head of the lane was swung open, then the harsh crunch of the frosty earth as it yielded beneath the heavy, hurrying feet of the oncoming men.

Next came the gate at the head of the lane was thrown open, and the tramp of heavy boots on the verandah. Warrener met the two men at the door. They were big, brawny, heavy men of the type which usually graduate from the monotonous round of a beat to the motor of detective headquarters and become the terror of evildoers.

Warrener led the officers into the house, and introduced himself. In turn they gave their names as Barton and Waller, headquarters men. It was Barton who had taken the message given over the wire by Warrener, and Waller being on office duty at the time.

Thru the hall and into the sitting-room the detectives followed Warrener. But before they inspected the immediate surroundings and made an examination of the dead girl.

Flattering to the Original

But Imitations Only Disappoint

There are many imitations of this great treatment for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and whooping cough. They usually inspect the immediate surroundings and made an examination of the dead girl. "What do you know about this, doctor?" Barton queried, as he and his companion ceased their investigation. Briefly Warrener told his story, including the loss of his car. The two officials listened intently until he concluded. "I would like to speak to this Miss Rafferty, doctor," said Barton. "Would you mind calling her in here?" Warrener left the room in search of the servant. He found her in her room at the rear of the hall. When he opened the door in answer to his knock he saw that her face bore marks of fresh grief. She weakly resisted when he made known to her the detectives' request. Finally, however, she managed to conquer her fear, and followed Warrener into the sitting-room.

WILSON'S POLICY STILL UNDECIDED

He is Expected to Address Congress on Submarine Situation.

WASHINGTON IS QUIET

Wilson Counted on to Take Definite Action Before March Fourth.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The American Government continued its waiting policy towards Germany's ruthless submarine warfare today and although it is taken for granted in all quarters that President Wilson will go before Congress on the situation before adjournment, March 4, the statement was authorized that so far he had made no definite plans to that end.

The president made no move during the day and unusual quiet prevailed at the state, war and navy departments. The visit of the president to the capital yesterday to discuss with the secretary of state and the retired declarations of members of the administration under which most of the American ships in overseas transit have been frightened into cancelling sailing dates, cannot be permitted to continue. The opening of Halifax as a port of examination, allowing some vessels to avoid the danger area by not going to Kirkwall, is expected to somewhat lessen the effects of the virtual blockade of eastern American ports.

HONOR HEROISM OF FRENCH GIRL

By Opening Sluice Gates She Checked Germans at Somme Canal.

CAPTURED BY ENEMY

When About to Be Executed, French Artillery Fire Saved Her.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. Paris, Feb. 19.—A instance to celebrate the heroism of French womanhood, and the patriotic heroic action of a young girl of 21 years of age, has been heard at the Sorbonne. This girl, Marcelle Semmer, was decorated with the Croix de Guerre and the Legion of Honor.

During the retreat in August, 1914, after the French had crossed the Somme and its canal, pursued by the enemy, Marcelle Semmer had the presence of mind to open the sluice gates in order to prevent the Germans from crossing the canal. This act of heroism was carried out under the fire of the Germans, who fired on her and on French troops. As a result the enemy troops were held up until the following morning.

Saved from Execution. Remaining in the village, the girl was able to pick up and to hide underground the exhausted French soldiers, whom she helped to escape in civilian clothes. Having been caught by the enemy in the act of feeding a French soldier hidden in a trench, she was condemned to death. When questioned she replied: "I am an orphan, and have but one mother, France. Do with me what you will."

She was on the point of being executed when a rifle from the French artillery dispersed the Germans. She then hid in an underground vault, and was saved the next day when the village was retaken by the French. While serving as a guide to a patrol she was again taken prisoner, but after being shut up in a church she escaped in the night thru a shell hole and rejoined the French lines.

EAST DURHAM LODGE APPLAUDS SIR SAM

County Orangemen Pass Resolution as Record of Unqualified Approval of His Acts.

Special to The Toronto World.

Milbrook, Feb. 19.—At the annual meeting of the county Orange lodge of East Durham it was moved by Mr. Geo. McCartney, seconded by Mr. Jas. Paul and resolved "that the members of this county lodge desire to place on record our unqualified approval of the acts of our friend and brother, the Hon. Sir Sam Hughes. Born in our county, he has added lustre to this old Dominion by the exercise of his great abilities. He was the only man who could equip, arm and equip an army of 32,000 men and land them on the shores of England in two months. The same untiring energy and devotion to duty have made our beloved land the envy and admiration of the world. We regret that owing to the lack of loyal support due him he was forced to resign his ministerial office, but it is with a great amount of satisfaction that we find his great talents, assistance and advice are still at the disposal of the militia department. We hope he may be long spared to his country, and pledge him our unqualified support."

BRITISH SHARPLY RAP BAVARIAN COMMAND

Allied Lines Now Overlook Miramont at Several Points.

New York, Feb. 19.—A News Agency despatch published here today follows:

With the British armies ahead, Feb. 19.—The German army of Crown Prince Rupprecht has received several sharp raps on the knuckles during the last 36 hours. Following Saturday's engagement at dawn in the Miramont region, the British have advanced further—and this despite fog, a thawing of the frozen ground and resultant mud—quite satisfied with the result, they asserted today. The British lines now overlook Miramont at several points. A violent counter-attack by the Germans north of the Ancre yesterday at noon was bloodily repulsed.

North of Amiens the British raiders penetrated 200 yards into the German second line trenches, killing 60 men. Many dugouts were cleaned out by bombs.

Other minor raids yesterday and last night were successful.
