Germany Gives In

No More Torpedoing of Liners Without Warning

OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION

Bernstorff Communicates Government Decision to Washington—Submarine Which Sank Arabic Dewa is Herein Reported Sunk

Washington, Sept. 1.—Count Bernstorff, German ambassador, on instructions from Berlin, verbally informed Secretary of State Lansing today that the German government had accepted the principle that passenger liners should be warned before attack by submarines. He will formally communicate this information in writing.

Washington, Sept. 1.—The ambassador's conference with Secretary Lansing lasted fifteen minutes. As by left Von Bernstorff said Mr. Lansing would give a statement as to the conference but himself refused to discuss his visit.

Secretary Lansing following the visit of the German ambassador said that the German government would accept our declarations regarding submarine warfare on principle. The ambassador agreed to reduce his statement to writing which he will submit to me later in the day.

It was also revealed at the state department that affidavits have been received from survivors of the Arabic, the steamer which was attacked July 17, before the Arabic was sunk, presumably by a submarine.

Secretary Lansing conferred briefly with the president just before seeing Count Von Bernstorff.

Reported Sunk
Washington, Sept. 1.—Bearing out reports that the submarine which sank the Arabic had been seen in the Mediterranean, department officials revealed that a report was received from Ambassador Page at London, the day after the sinking of the Arabic, indicating that a German submarine had been destroyed near the scene of the Arabic disaster.

London, Sept. 1.—The admiralty has been out on information concerning the fate of the German submarine which sank the Arabic. Unofficial reports that the submarine had been destroyed are circulated. It is said that the craft attempted to torpedo the British steamer Nicotian, which was sunk on August 24, five days after the Arabic went down.

According to the report, the Nicotian escaped and the submarine, while attempting to sink her, fell a victim to a patrol boat. It is reported that the submarine has been captured and sunk.

RUSSIA'S WAR BILLS NEARLY FOUR BILLIONS

Petrograd, Sept. 1.—The finance committee of the Duma today presented a bill extending the rights of the state bank to issue paper money. The report discussed the entire problem of meeting war expenses, stating that annual needs were so large that all possible sources of revenue must be used—taxation, internal credit operations, issue of paper money and foreign loans.

"For 1916," the report stated, "the estimated war expenditures are 7,945,000,000 rubles ($3,211,000,000), and other expenses, 2,847,000,000 ($1,128,000,000), making a total of over ten million rubles ($3,800,000,000)."

"The revenue from ordinary receipts is estimated at 2,990,000,000 rubles ($1,188,000,000), while credits opening up to the present time have yielded 4,000,000,000 rubles ($1,590,000,000), leaving over 8,000,000,000 ($3,100,000,000), yet to be provided."

SERBIA AGREES TO THE DEMANDS OF BULGARIA

Correspondents Are Optimistic Over Balkans Situation Though Difficulties Yet to Overcome

Paris, Sept. 1.—The Serbian government has informed Greece that its sole object will be to lay the foundations of a greater Greece, which must include large portions of near eastern territory.

The Bucharest correspondent of the Times emphasizes the necessity for a better understanding between Roumania and Bulgaria. "If Roumania could be induced to make a definite offer to Bulgaria," he says, "the effect on her sister country would be immediate."

Reuter despatch from Athens says it is reported from reliable sources that in an encounter near Scutari, Albania, between partisans of Esmad Pasha, former provisional president of Albania, and Merudis, the former were defeated, losing 215 in killed and wounded, besides 800 prisoners. Esmad Pasha's final victory is considered a matter of time, however, as the Merudis lack ammunition.

"BUD" TIPPETS MEETS HOWIE MEN

Calls on Fairville Soldiers in 26th and A. S. C.

JOE DRYDEN ALSO VISITED

Early Departure of Half Regiment—"Helmets" May Mean Elsewhere Than France at Flanders—Maritime Province Notes of War

A letter received this morning from "Bud" Tippetts at his old home in Fairville told of a visit he had made to the quarters of the Army Service Corps and 26th Battalion in England. He had much pleasure in renewing acquaintance with many friends in both units, and he had about all given his consent to call in on Sunday with some of the Fairville boys in the 26th. The menu, he wrote, was better than what the first contingent had had at Salisbury Plains, the dinner consisting of roast beef, potatoes, peas, turnips and plum pudding.

He also says, "We are going to be looked over by the king, queen and Lord Kitchener this week. There will be 20,000 there and more than 100,000 bands, so you can imagine what a time it will be."

Private Garnett closes with a heartfelt appeal for some Black Jack. He remarks that they get lots of cigarettes.

The Right Spirit
In a letter to his mother written from Belgium Aug. 1, Gumer, E. R. Snow, Woodstock now with the 4th Battery, says:

"We hear reports almost daily that we are going to be sent back for a rest as soon as the Second Contingent arrives in France. Personally I have not been here long enough to be tired and would sooner stay on the firing line than go back for a rest. You speak of the young men hanging back when their country needs them; well, more, they will have all the more regret when this war is over and the allies are triumphant."

Woodstock Recruits
Woodstock Press: The recruiting officer, R. S. Welch, is having much success in his work and during the last ten days he has sent twenty-six men to Sussex. Since our last issue the following splendid specimens of manhood have gone to that recruiting centre from here: Edwin Hazel, London, Eng.; Chas. Powell, Birmingham, Eng.; Alex. G. Shaw, Woodstock; Robin Hawkins, Woodstock; Harold Johnson, Woodstock; Benson Fanning, Upper Woodstock; Herbert W. Lee, Woodstock; Jack Little, Woodstock; Wm. G. Andrews, Birmingham, Eng.

Want Germany Punished
Private Ernest C. Parsons of Woodstock, who has returned to the firing line after having been wounded by a shrapnel at Passchendaele, writes of the desperate character of the battle and adds:

"It was a regular death trap and every man realized it. The shells were dropping right in the trench, but we held the Germans back and you get me were happy when we got relieved. I have been in the trenches several times since then. I have had a life shot out of my hands

KING SQUARE AND THE RECRUITING

Again in Honorable Service As On Other Momentous Occasions of Past—Historical Review

The decision arrived at by the General Recruiting Committee to place a marquee tent on King Square, as a convenient recruiting stand and public speaking location, once more brings St. John's central radiating point into loyal and distinguished service for Canada and the empire. Our local historian, Clarence Ward, mayor's clerk, has contributed the following outline of King Square's share in notable emergencies and joyful occasions during the history of the city. It is a very interesting review.

"The citizens of St. John are very much indebted to the happy foresight of Paul Beeth, who in laying out the bounds of the city in 1785, reserved two open spaces for public squares—called King's and Queen's in honor of George III and his consort, Queen Charlotte.

"In the early years of this city the Loyalist settlers were too much occupied in opening up the fields, erecting habitations and employing themselves in various ways to provide maintenance for their families, to devote any attention to laying out or beautifying the squares. The squares were left in a state of neglect, and the buildings which were erected on the squares were of a very inferior character. However, being open and convenient of access, they were often put to various uses, such as holding cattle fairs, drilling the militia and on special occasions, when news was received of some great victory achieved in the war with France, or the accession of a new sovereign to the throne, the festivities in honor of the event were held on King Square, where oxen were roasted whole and the assembled populace fed on beef with beer and jowans of Jamaica rum.

"Two particular instances may be mentioned in which the square was utilized for special purposes in connection with memorable events. The first was the calamitous fire of 1877, in which two-thirds of the city was destroyed and thousands left homeless. King Square was a welcome refuge for the women, children and aged of the city. There they gathered the few things they had left upon their backs, and the square was littered with household utensils, furniture, and other articles. The women were called out to preserve the peace and guard the people and goods from the depredations of plunderers and evil doers. Merchants who had saved some portion of their goods were permitted to erect booths along the sides of the square, where they carried on what business they could with the means at their command. This condition prevailed for nearly all of the summer of 1877.

"The second instance was the performance of the Victoria jubilee in 1877. It was celebrated in St. John on June 30, 1877. Then it was the old square presented a brighter and more joyful scene. Over 3,000 school children, all dressed in white, assembled in the square and were addressed by Sir Leonard Tilley, Dr. Silas Alward and the Hon. John Boyd, which the great concourse of boys and girls sang with all their hearts the national anthem and marched around the square.

"On various other occasions there have been great gatherings in the most popular of all St. John's breathing spots and it is certainly an indispensable element of life to the community. The square is a place where the people can be met and the most honorable thing that can yet be placed to the credit of the historic greenway.

WEDDING OF TWO BAPTIST MISSIONARIES IN AMHERST TODAY

Amherst, Sept. 1.—At the residence of Rev. C. W. Rose and Mrs. Rose, this morning, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Stillwell, B. A., and Rev. Harry B. Stillwell, B. A., took place. Both gentlemen have been laboring in India as Baptist missionaries for some years.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Rose, who was a classmate of Miss Churchill at Acadia University. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. M. P. Churchill and Mr. Churchill, who were among the first of Baptist missionaries to go to India from the maritime provinces. She was born in India, and after finishing a course at Acadia—graduating in Arts with the class of 1888—Miss Churchill returned to India to join the staff of Baptist missionaries at work there. For several years she has been in charge of education work among the girls of India.

Rev. Mr. Stillwell is an Ontario man who for sixteen years has been engaged in the Baptist missionary work in India. He is at the present time he holds the principality of the McLaughlin Hotel, which he has been in charge of since 1908. He is also acting as treasurer of the Home and Western Mission Boards of Ontario and Quebec. Besides being a man of outstanding administrative ability and an educationist of notable standing, Mr. Stillwell is a preacher of exceptional ability.

SOLDIERS' COMFORTS WORK
At a meeting of the Soldiers' Comfort Association of West St. John in the evening, Mrs. A. E. Fraser, vice-president, acted in the chair, reports showed the returns from the ice cream booth conducted at the patriotic fair at Seaside Park to have been $168.43. The general fund of the association was left intact, and that this sum should be secured after having paid all expenses has given much satisfaction to all.

The People's Dairy gave the ice cream to the committee barely at cost and also gave much attention and time to the work, which was greatly appreciated. Contributions to the booth were entirely voluntary. The members of the committee were complimented upon their share in the fair. The West Side circle plan to hold a Thanksgiving Day supper in aid of their funds.

Acknowledgment of the receipt of $9.20 from four little girls, Muriel Stackhouse, Ella Ring, Doris Urquhart, and Midge Britain for the funds of the Soldiers' Comfort Association was made. The money was the proceeds of a garden concert held in West End.

GERMANY'S CHANGE OF FRONT RELATIVE TO THE UNITED STATES

Berlin, Sept. 1.—The National Zeitung publishes a leading article under the heading "Wilson, Bryan and Roosevelt," which is noteworthy for its friendliness and for the ungrudging admiration expressed for President Wilson.

"The personality of President Wilson has been illuminated more strongly than ever before," the National Zeitung says, "during the exciting days through which America has just passed. The president will appear to many in a new light. Never was his position more difficult than during the Arabic crisis. When Mr. Bryan was calling upon Americans for peace at any price, and Col. Roosevelt was summoning them to war against Germany."

President Wilson is pictured as standing between the two rivals, whose activities threatened to bring about such a situation that the president might make his attitude toward Germany dependent on domestic political considerations.

"That President Wilson without the temptation and may be counted on to withstand it further, must be acknowledged, notwithstanding the fact that the German people certainly have reason to be dissatisfied with his attitude in the matter of submarine warfare."

NEW TECHNICAL SCHOOL IN TORONTO OPENED

Toronto, Sept. 1.—Education in the province Ontario entered on a new epoch last night when Sir John S. Hendie, lieutenant-governor, formally declared open the new technical school which has cost the city of Toronto almost $2,000,000.

It is suggested that meetings of the assessment commission to which the public are invited, be held in the evenings rather than in the afternoons, as in many cases citizens who are anxious to attend cannot get the time in the working hours of the day.

SAVINGS BANK RETURNS
Deposits at the Dominion Savings Bank for August were $68,967.33, and withdrawals $26,841.12.

JAPAN MAY TAKE A HAND IN DARDANELLES

Intimation From Ambassador to Italy—French Repulse German Attacks—First Battle on Skis

Paris, Sept. 1.—What appears to be an intimation that Japan may co-operate in the campaign to force the Dardanelles, is contained in an interview with Baron Rayashi, Japanese ambassador to Italy, sent to the Petit Parisien by its Rome correspondent.

"I cannot say much about that," the baron is quoted as saying, in reply to a question regarding the Dardanelles, "for we must not allow our enemies to profit by information of the movements of troops."

Discussing the part Japan has played in the war, the ambassador said: "We have not ceased to collaborate with our allies to the extent desired, to us. The world will be astonished when it knows what we have done, what we are doing, and what we are willing to do."

HE HAD DONE VALOROUS WORK
Paris, Sept. 1.—Reports of the death of Adolphe Pegoud, a famous aviator, have been officially confirmed. The news caused sincere sorrow among the French people who regarded him as a hero. Pegoud, who was only twenty-six years old, joined the aviation corps as a private, but soon gained a sub-lieutenant's commission, because of his skill and daring. He captured a plane in the military medal and the military cross. He brought down his sixth German aircraft on July 11.

Battle on Skis
Geneva, Sept. 1.—In Carmaux, for the first time in the history of warfare, a battle in which all the participants were skiers, took place on the mountain slopes of the Alps. The Italian Alpine troops put the Austrians to flight.

Crew Brought Home
New York, Sept. 1.—The steamer Rorana arrived today from Cardiff, bringing Captain Wrye and the crew of the British schooner St. Olaf, which was sunk by a submarine off Galway, Ireland, on Aug. 18.

German Figures
Berlin, Sept. 1.—An official review of the eastern campaign estimates that since May the Russians have lost at least 200,000 men in killed or wounded, and 1,000,000 in captured by the Germans. The Russian Situation

London, Sept. 1.—Germany's plan for defeating three wings into the Russian defensive lines is being carried forward. The Russian army is spread so far apart that the sweep over Poland is almost isolated, and unless the Russians soon throw heavy forces against Von Hindenburg's exposed flank, this port must fall into the hands of the invaders.

Although this northern attack seems to have been checked for the moment, the Russians have been unable to develop a counter offensive in that region comparable with their activities in East Galicia, where, on the River Dnieper, they have inflicted a serious defeat on the invaders. At any rate the bill is paid and there isn't any doubt they gave good value for their money. Just think, what a battle has happened if Dugal had not made these changes! Let me see, how does the whole thing work out chronologically?

1914—Dugal charged made. April 18—Royal commission given. May—Royal commission appointed. June 4—Royal commission began work. June 6—Berry went to U.S. July, August, September—Royal commission investigating. October—Royal commissioner's report. November—Report made public. December 6—Premier Fleming resigns.

1915—August 30—Gould retired. Many other things have happened but these come to my mind just at present.

Of Miss Joan Arnold, who will address the Women's Canadian Club in St. John (Stone) church school room this evening on soldiers' comforts, the Halifax Echo says: "Miss Arnold, in company with Miss Plummer, has been in charge of the committee administering the department of field comforts to our Canadian soldiers in Europe. Miss Arnold and Miss Plummer spent last winter at Salisbury Plain looking after this important department and later were at Shorncliffe occupied in the same way. She sails from Canada on Sept. 8th to resume her work and in just completing a series of lectures and talks in the cities and towns of Canada west to east. "GHOST BREAKERS" AT IMPERIAL TONIGHT

H. B. Warner is one of the most prominent of American stars. The vehicle which made him famous, "The Ghost Breakers," a queer, weird and yet somewhat funny tale of a haunted castle in Spain, in which lay a hidden treasure. The secret of this mysterious hoard was discovered by a Spanish princess visiting America, when she loosed the secret spring of an heirloom locket. An adventurous American, accompanied by a faithful old colored man servant, decided to go to Spain and find the treasure. A Spanish duke repudiated the ghost theory in a very practical way and the old dandy is well worth seeing. This is a splendid play in five acts and will make you shiver and laugh at the same time. The miners of South Wales have accepted the terms of settlement.

September showed a flash of strength at the start on short covering, but in a few minutes that option had dropped half a cent. Low yesterday's close, selling being active. Deferred months also eased off materially. An easy tone in Liverpool was an aid to the bears.

This contest was the greatest in the history of the Hoosier Company. Forty-five hundred dealers took part in towns of every size and condition. More than a million dollars worth of the famous Hoosier kitchen cabinets were sold. In writing the local firm the Hoosier Company said: "It is a great pleasure indeed to send you this check which you won in the Hoosier prize contest during the spring. The money represented by this check is only a portion of the real advantage we feel that the prize contest has won for you. It is no small thing to stand among the winners of one of the hardest fought prize contests ever held in this country."

Dead Men Tell No Tales —but a man's real worth is disclosed soon after his death. Then it is that his friends know how successful and how farseeing he has been in providing for his family's future. Then it is that the story is told of a widow sacrificing herself to support the children and give them a fair education. Or then it is that she looks back with tender memories of her husband's unselfish efforts to provide for their, not only during his life, but for ever after. What will your record be if you should die tomorrow? Is your estate, your family, properly provided for? If not, you ought to get an Imperial Home Protection Policy at once. VISITS FREDERICKTON AFTER FIFTY YEARS. Judge James Lafferty is visiting his old home, Fredericton, N.B. He came from California to make his visit after being away from the scene of his boyhood in a century and not having been back here in all that time. Judge Lafferty was born in Fredericton, a son of the late Peter Lafferty, who conducted a tavern at the corner of Brunswick and Regent streets, and in 1848, when nineteen years old, struck out from home on his own account. At Orville Mr. Lafferty has been Judge of the police court and is one of the most highly respected residents of that city. During his visit here Mr. Lafferty has been having a hard time to find any of his boyhood friends, about the only one he located being John Owen, who conducts a grocery business in Regent street. With his sister, Mrs. Giles Osmond, of Roxbury, Mass., who is also here, Mr. Lafferty will leave in a day or two for Boston, where he will visit his other sister, Mrs. Robert Maxwell.

ORDAINED IN ROME. Among the visitors to Fredericton yesterday was Rev. Father Carter, a native of St. John, N.B., who has just returned from Rome, where he has been studying for the last six years. He is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Wm. Williams. Father Carter was ordained in Rome during May and has since been visiting various parts of Italy, France and England. He will leave on Thursday to visit his brother, Rev. Father Carter, pastor of one of the Catholic churches near Chatham.

'THE BROKEN COIN' SERIAL STORY FRIDAY. Imperial Has a Hum-Dinger For The Week-End. Chapter Number One of 'The Broken Coin' tells how an American newspaper reporter named Kitty Gray comes across the half of a coin in an old curiosity shop. The coin bears a peculiar inscription. At the same time a suspicious-looking man casts longing eyes upon the coin, which naturally arouses Kitty's curiosity. Upon her returning to the newspaper office she bets her editor a year's salary that she will go to the queer little country in the middle of Europe to which the coin belonged and solve the probable mystery of the broken piece of money. She takes the steamer but what happens as she crosses the Atlantic when the suspicious-looking foreigner again confronts her will be found out when the story is shown. History is full of stories of the fall of kingdoms through their rulers. Even Caesar himself did not disdain the wiles of Cleopatra, and the past hundreds of years are of similar instances. To find out how Kitty Gray, becomes the instrument of vengeance on a silly old puppet, you must see the thrilling picture story 'The Broken Coin.'

THE PRESENT APPRAISAL

Why is a great recruiting campaign to be started this week in St. John? Whom does it concern? What interests are at stake?

The Russians have given the Germans another surprise. In eastern Galicia they hurried back the enemy, and on both sides they are holding their ground.

It is a kindly and a gracious thing the Automobile Association is doing today, in providing the orphans with a long and delightful ride, concluding with a visit to the animal show so dear to the hearts of children.

The passenger on the little railroad was impatient at the crawling speed. He summoned the porter. "Sam," he demanded, "can't you make better time than this?"

He-At last we are alone. I've been hoping for this chance. He (pleased)—Ah! You know, then, that I wanted to ask you to be my wife, emphatically and get it over with.

STANDARD AND GLOBE The Standard cannot dodge the issue in that matter of the hold-up of the liquor dealers. What prominent members of the government party got the money, and what representations did they make to get it, at a time when the fate of the liquor traffic was being considered by the government?

LIGHTER VEIN

"Do you know why this war won't last long?" "No. Why?" "Because it was made in Germany."

It's interesting book of memories, "Sixty Years in the Wilderness," Sir Henry Lucy has an amusing story about Sir Francis Burnand, Sir Henry and Sir Francis were talking together at a big function when a very important looking guest arrived in a brilliant uniform came up and effusively shook hands with Burnand, who appeared surprised at the fact.

He-At last we are alone. I've been hoping for this chance. He (pleased)—Ah! You know, then, that I wanted to ask you to be my wife, emphatically and get it over with.

A Poor Advertisement The Germanic assumption to all the virtues in a superlative degree is as amusing as the bombastic wording of certain advertisers or the frothy mouthings of cheap political spindlers.

Hints for the Cook

Pickles. Wash your cucumbers, lay them in order in clean jars and pour over the following mixture: One gallon of cider vinegar, 1 teaspoon table salt, and 1-2 teaspoon ground mustard stirred to a paste with a little vinegar. Mix well and pour over your pickles.

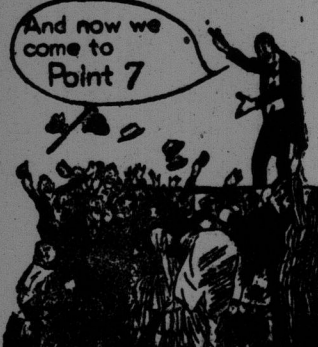

Blackberry Jam. Mash berries, put on fire and beat in their own juice, then strain, and to 1 pint of liquid add 2 pounds of sugar. Return to fire and let boil 25 minutes. Very good.

Roasted Corn. Remove the husks and silk from 12 ears of sweet corn, dip them one at a time in melted butter seasoned with a little salt and pepper. Lay the corn in a dripping pan and bake in a very hot oven till brown. Turn the corn in the pan if necessary, so it will bake evenly. Baste once or twice with melted butter.

Apple Pickle. Cut sweet apples, after paring, into pieces the right size to go into cans. Cook in water until tender, then put in a heating. Boil together 2 pounds of sugar, 1 pint of vinegar, 1/2 ounce each of cinnamon bark and cloves. Put this spice in a bag. Turn over the cooked apples in the cans while hot and seal. Use more sugar if apples are sour and be careful not to cook too long.

THE GREAT AUCTION MEANS RAISING OF $50,000 IN A WEEK

Ambitious Project in St. John With The Cause As Inspiration FOR THE PATRIOTIC FUND

Preliminary Steps in Whirlwind Campaign to Gather in Half a Hundred Thousand Dollars in Six Days—Everyone Can Help

Much interest has been aroused in the announcement that an endeavor is to be made to raise $50,000 in one week in St. John in aid of the patriotic fund. Will it be possible? That is the query heard on all sides, and the most positive answer in the affirmative is that given by the committee in charge, the representatives of the Daughters of the Empire, Rotary Club, Knights of Columbus, and the Elks. They feel confident of success and are already opening the preliminaries of their campaign to conduct the movement, a Patriotic Auction in St. John's risk from October 4 to October 9.

They are asking the aid of all citizens in and about St. John and realize that only by the hearty co-operation of all can success be accomplished, and success with them means $50,000 for the fast increasing needs of the Patriotic Fund.

While the scheme is most stupendous and elaborate in every respect, it is realized that only extraordinary efforts can attain the success desired, and the hope is that in the Patriotic Auction of next month all previous endeavors in this connection will have been surpassed. Satisfaction has been expressed at the organization which has been effected, with H. A. Porter, manager; F. G. Spencer, chairman of publicity; Mrs. J. B. Travers, convener of the Daughters of the Empire workers, and a large and industrious committee from the several societies represented.

For a short while the affair will be directed from offices at 181 Prince William street, but these will later be removed to St. Andrew's Hall, where the headquarters will be established. Many offers of assistance have already been given. The city newspapers have given the use of their columns freely and gladly and will aid as greatly as possible in the movement. Merchants have promised the use of their motor trucks for a time in receiving and delivering goods, citizens the use of their automobiles to the committees which will participate in the canvassing, while many promises to make substantial contributions have been made. Canvassers will soon start on a systematic visitation of the city and suburbs. Committees are to be appointed to call upon all citizens and ask their donations, which can be given in any form desired. There will be much hauling to be done and this will give an opportunity to teamsters to assist. The use of their time and teams for a few hours night or day will be most heartily appreciated. The auction is not to be of any special class of goods—anything will be acknowledged gratefully which can be sold. Farmers will be asked to contribute of their harvest, from their dairy or poultry stock. Automobiles will carry canvassers through the rural districts to the homes of farmers and other residents between St. John and Sussex, and St. John and St. George, and along the river, and it is expected that free transportation can be arranged for all goods donated, besides excursion rates from all parts of the province during the auction week.

Housewives can contribute from their store of preserves, home cooking, fancy work, or otherwise; dealers from their stock in trade. Any work or time which can be given by carpenters, electricians, sign-painters, or men of other trades will be most acceptable, and will help in the economical conduct of this praiseworthy endeavor.

Opening Sale. And then, when the auction is in progress will come the effort to convert the goods received into the ever necessary dollar. Several auctioneers will be busy at once. All parts of the big rink will be the scene of animation and activity. For a few days tonight the big event will be in execution with something new for sale, and some novel means of selling, every day and every night. The committee in charge will do their part well—they have made a splendid start—it but remains for all citizens to assist and encourage them, to give within their means to the auctioneers, to patronize the sale and buy, and in every way possible aid in the achievement of increasing the Patriotic Fund by $50,000 in a week. The committees will soon make their call upon you—will you be ready to receive them?

THE NOVA SCOTIA LADS

Grace McLeod Rogers, of Amherst, a well known Nova Scotia writer, in a recent number of the Canadian Courier, tells "a simple true story of ten Nova Scotia lads" who not many years ago were members of a football team, but of whom seven are now serving at the front or are en route. The story was suggested by a group picture of the lads clustered semicircle about the center "youth" who proudly holds the football of the team. On the football is printed in letters plain to read, "Rangers, 1906."

The story is such excellent evidence of what Nova Scotia is really contributing to Canadianism that it is given in full as follows:

"1901 They were lads of twelve and thirteen, the boys of the neighborhood—sons of the Judge, the bankers, the barristers and the merchantmen of the town, and this was their first essay at team-work. How eagerly they planned, personed, how importantly they framed their rules and saved their pocket money for the coveted pig-skin—arranging matches with down-town opponents, and at close of the season triumphant over all their foes, they gathered for this pictured group. Ten sturdy little forms in the clustering chairs. Ten eager winsome faces looking straight into your eyes. O, the world was all before them and the way seemed bright and fair!

"1915 Nine years. Where are the boys of that clustered group? From High School they separated for College—to Acadia, to Mt. Allison, "Dalhousie" and "Kings," they went. Presidents of their classes, captains of football and hockey, leaders of debate, winners of prizes—fitting themselves for their share of the world's great work. Some moved to the west, others to neighboring cities; various interests called them various ways and they seldom meet.

Today two of the group who are my own are crossing overseas, to serve their King and Country, and as I sat in the late afternoon thinking wistfully of them, suddenly this picture of the "Rangers" met my gaze. The sinking sun threw a beam of gold upon it, and every little eager boyish face shone clear and plain as though the lads themselves sat before me. I counted them over, thinking of one, and another, and another who beside my own had joined the colors, and I saw to my wonder that nine of the ten had enlisted for their country's service.

The little group was transfused! It was the Hero Ship of old!

What had so stirred their young souls? What had moved them to offer up the supreme gift, their lives, with all their promise fair, for their Country and the Cause?

It was not in the first flush of the war that they had answered when adventure mayhap might have lured and when the surety of England's safety and victory seemed certain, but in later weeks, after "Ipres" and "Langemarck" when they knew the cost. What should call these mere youths from college halls to battlefields afar!

Only two of the nine were mine to deal with personally.

"It is our bounden duty to go," said they, when they came from college to claim our consent. "We are unfettered, healthy, and not actually needed at home, and for us to remain for selfish motives would contravert every motive of our upbringing, every fibre in our character, and every obligation to the land which gave us birth."

"The hot tears blinded and I could not see."

And the pain of it stabbed the heart of me.

And I said, "But we have been waiting so anxiously for you to be out in your chosen calling, taking your place in Canada."

Quick they answered:

"We would not feel like taking our place in Canada if we failed her in this time of need, and what we consider to be our duty and our service, that we should render, no matter at what cost to feelings or ambition. You have always taught us that."

"But are you willing to give up your lives? You must face that squarely," I said, seeking still to prove them—and myself as well, for they looked so fine and strong and young.

"If we tried to save our lives this way we should lose them in another," was the simple answer.

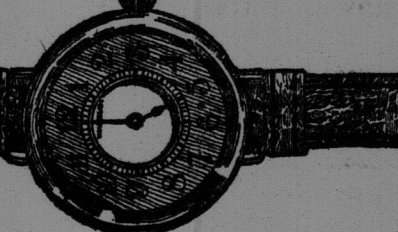

And I was humbled at their strength, and awed and filled with pride at such an uplift of spirit.

Who was I that I should meddle with a man's soul! And I said then, yes, and so faced they forth.

And so faced they forth, all of them, from the numbers of them—the college gowns folded away, the books and the sporting toys thrust aside. They are men, they—and the King's sons—and all that wondrous host of youth—the ocean-

LOYAL SPRINGHILL FAMILIES

Amherst News—Two families in Springhill can claim genuine pride in what they have done for King and Country since the outbreak of the war. The family of Mr. and Mrs. James Ellsworth has already sent three to the front, Richard, Daniel and Michael, and another son, Hughie, expects to leave shortly. Mr. and Mrs. David Foster have two sons on the other side one of whom has already been wounded, and another son at McNab's Island, and still another, Earl, who is now in training at Sussex, for overseas service. Many of the families in Springhill have sent one and two, but very few in the whole province can point to sending four. All honor to these splendid, loyal families in Springhill.

made the track heavy and trying to the horses and public form was completely upset.

In the $5,000 race for 208 trotters, which was the feature of the programme, Lee Asworthy, 2:08 1/4, hitherto unbeaten this season, was defeated in a crushing style by Peter Scott. In the heavy going the colt that won the fastest three-horse race on record, Cleveland 4:40, four nights ago, could do no better than "take third money when the heats were in 2:06 1/4, 2:10 and 2:09 1/4. There was no heat for the meeting. Owing to the heavy track Direction 1 did not start to meet his record of 1:58. He will start on Thursday.

Charter Oak Free-for-Alls Off
Hartford, Conn., Aug. 31.—The free-for-all race and free-for-all trot, announced for the Grand Circuit meeting at Charter Oak Park, Sept. 6 to 11, did not fall and were declared off yesterday. The other late closing events, the 2:08 pace, 2:10 trot and 2:15 trot, filled satisfactorily and were added to the programme.

News of the Boxers
Pecher, of Philadelphia, who is to meet Mike Gibbons at Brighton Beach, N. J., Sept. 11, was only seven pounds over the required weight of 145.

There has been a lot of adverse comment about boxers changing their names. There is a boxer now in New York who figured he was doing the best thing when he made a change from Lemon Kegg to Roger O'Malley. He is now known as real name would make him a joke in the opinion of the promoters.

The art of punching is not to many of the boxers today. That it can be acquired by practice and study is verified by the case of Tommy Raymond, who "When I broke in the game as an amateur I couldn't break an egg with my punches. I looked like a kid who was real name would make him a joke in the opinion of the promoters.

Tom Covler vs. Jack Hemple, New York. Who is the middleweight champion? That is a question that is puzzling the fight fans. Australia thinks that it is Dory who is the champion. From what he did recently by knocking out Eddie McConroy in the fifth round, it is clear that his claim is just about as good as any one else's. McConroy was right at the top in the United States. No one has ever considered "Al" McCoy a real champion, in spite of the fact that he gives him the title. McCoy is a false alarm. Gibbons may be the equal of any middleweight, but it remains to be seen what he can do over a long run.

Well Known Athlete Killed

The crew were saved.

Standard Rules This Year
New York, Aug. 31.—A committee appointed by the Amateur Athletic Union to confer with the college athletic authorities regarding basketball announced Tuesday that for the first time in the history of that game the amateur and college rules this year will be alike. This result was attained through a number of open meetings held during the winter and a male vote.

Heckling the amateur rules did not permit the scoring of a goal after a dribble, but the amateur authorities have conceded this point to the collegians and in the future amateur teams will permit this style of play.

A Unique Challenge
Newell W. Banks, the American checker champion, who is also recognized as an expert at chess, having heard of a proposition put forth by Frank L. Marshall, United States chess champion, to play anyone a blindfold match consisting of four games of chess and four games of checkers, all eight to be carried on simultaneously, for a game of $1,000, says that he is prepared to begin negotiations with such an end in view. The draughts champion, however goes Marshall one better and declares to meet him in a manner that will appeal to the followers of both games, as more practical. In other words he suggests that two matches over the board one of ten games of checkers for $500 a game in addition to a stake of $200, the disposition of which will depend upon the final total score. Such a match would be the first of the sort ever arranged between really noted exponents of the two games. Banks plans to make a comprehensive tour of the country shortly, playing both checkers and chess and next year will make an open bid for the world's championship at checkers, now held by Jordan of England.

THE PASSING OF NANCY HANKS

Career of Famous Mare Ends at Age of 29 Years—World's Record in 1892

Nancy Hanks 2:04, once the champion of the world, died at the age of twenty-nine years, a few days ago at Hamburg Place, Lexington, Ky., where she has been owned for several years, and was buried in the lot provided for a last resting place for the noted horses owned by the master of the great breeding establishment.

The daughter of Happy Medium and Nancy Lee, by DeLator, was bred by Hart Moswell, of Fayette county, Kentucky, and in her two-year-old form was turned over to Ben Kenney, then a young trainer of considerable fame and began her education on the track on the farm of the late James B. Haggin, and known as Green Hill. At first owned by the late James B. Haggin, she was the most noted trotter of her day, and was not until the autumn of her first season of active training that Kenney was able to show her greater speed than that of any other two-year-old mare faster than any other two-year-old mare Kenney knew that, if all went well with his pupil, a new star had been discovered.

During the following season Nancy Hanks raced in the Blue Grass Circuit without meeting defeat and with only one losing heat charged against her. The trotter to gain distinction as the only mare to finish in front of the future champion was Bonnie Wilmore, 2:14 1/2, and this honor was an empty one, as the mare was taken back when the word was given and the colt allowed to win on a surferance. As a three-year-old Nancy, as she was called by the Kentuckians, repeated her clean sweep of engagements, and at the end of the season was heralded throughout the country as the greatest trotter ever foaled in Kentucky.

How well she fulfilled the predictions that had been made for her is known to all admirers of the trotter, and that she showed her true mettle in the light harness races was in keeping with her early promise, her breeding, and her way of going.

After her successful career as a four-year-old, Nancy immediately became the reigning sensation of the trotting world and so great was her capacity that her owner concluded to accept the proposition made him by Bird Doble to train her and race on a percentage plan. As a five-year-old she made the most memorable mile over the famous Kite-shaped track in California, and at the end of the season had gained a record of 2:09, a mark within a fraction of a second of the time made by Susie, 2:08 1/4, in her memorable mile over the famous Kite-shaped track in California.

In 1892 came the change in the style of sulkes, and with the advantage of this new type of vehicle the little mare eclipsed all former records, and closed her campaign by placing the mark at 2:04. During the meeting at Lexington in 1891, J. Malcolm Forbes, who was on a visit to Kentucky, purchased Nancy Hanks from her breeder for a sum said to have been $35,000, but which was never divulged even by the check and the other who paid for her with which she here to investigate, was admitted yesterday by President J. J. Lammie of the Red Sox. At the same time Mr. Lammie stated that the mare was far less betting in Boston than in other American league cities and that as no money is passed it is difficult to eradicate the evil.

"Setting on different phases of the game has been in vogue in the bleachers and grand stand in every league city for many years," he said. "Some arrests were made some years ago, but the proposition made him by Bird Doble to train her and race on a percentage plan. As a five-year-old she made the most memorable mile over the famous Kite-shaped track in California, and at the end of the season had gained a record of 2:09, a mark within a fraction of a second of the time made by Susie, 2:08 1/4, in her memorable mile over the famous Kite-shaped track in California.

FOUGHT IN THE CIVIL WAR

Amherst News.—In the ninety first year of his age, Benjamin Gross, for many years a resident of Westmorland Point, passed away Sunday. Old Amherst boys scattered abroad throughout the world will read with regret of the death of "old Ben Gross." For many years he was a familiar and lovable character on our streets. A kindly hearted colored man, with a heart that remained young despite increasing years. He was born in the Annapolis Valley. At the time of the great Civil War, the United States he went south and joined a northern regiment to fight for the freedom of his colored brethren. After the war he joined a minstrel troupe and toured the northern and southern states and Canada. Finally he settled at Westmorland Point, but for many years his hand and bones were called into requisition at entertainments given in his town and "old Ben Gross" certainly could rattle the bones in the old days. He is survived by his wife who is eighty-seven years of age.

The Man In The Street

Now to show that this is a city of Loyalists.

Don't forget to write it September after today.

One month from today it has been promised we'll be able to ride in a street car across the new bridge.

And one positive way to show you are an optimist is to say you fully expect to do so.

Yes, One or More

Those who had their last half-holiday for the season on Saturday, pending the week-end in the country, probably consulted themselves by whispering: "Oh, well, we had to have at least one wet Sunday."

Now that four has taken another slump will the bakers still call for that extra cent?

That extra penny pays the war-tax on many a letter.

China is said to be negotiating for the purchase of submarines in the States. Apparently she's getting out of the "junk" trade.

The Russians have stopped retreating on their left flank and taken 3,000 prisoners. Perhaps it won't be said again that they have no standing army.

A patent has been secured for a contrivance to keep girls from falling out of hammocks. The chap who invented it probably didn't realize that that was part of the joy of hammocks.

A Patriotic Inspiration

The Nova Scotian who sold a blind stallion for use in the war no doubt had the idea that he would be saving the cost of blindness to the government, and consequently taxed an extra dollar sign on the bargain ticket.

If some of those horses from about Kennebec could be had here from October 4 to October 5, there would be no doubt about that "$50,000 in a week" for the patriotic nation.

Hard to Take

It is hard to resist the invitation, "take one," some times displayed on advertising matter, etc. but so far no one has accepted the invitation which some amateur humorist chalked on the pile of structural steel lying ready to be placed in the frame work of a new building.

Great chance for souvenir hunters now that the suspension bridge is being dismantled.

The example set by the churches and patriotic organizations has borne fruit. Now we have a street carnival operating games of chance with the police threatening them with jail if they continue. Handy seems like a square deal.

EVERYBODY MAKE A CONTRIBUTION ON BIRTHDAY

S. C. Matthews' Plan For Swelling Funds—Might be Made Dominion-Wide

S. C. Matthews, who has been doing such excellent work in connection with entertainments to raise funds for the Red Cross and other funds, has hit upon a scheme which, if adopted in this city and province, or for that matter throughout Canada, would result in a daily stream of contributions. It is that each person contribute on his or her birthday, to some one of the funds as many cents as there are years in his or her life. Thus a person ten years old would give ten cents, a person fifty years fifty cents, and so on.

As numerous birthdays fall on every day of the year, the aggregate would be a considerable amount each day and an enormous amount in a year. Mr. Matthews points out that the call would not be large on any individual or family, and none would miss so small a contribution, while it would enable everyone to give something.

Mr. A. Schofield suggests that to make Mr. Matthews' plan effective, blank forms and addressed envelopes should be placed in all post offices, and all contributions carried free by the post office department. If this were done and the people responded, there would be a constant and very large addition to the patriotic funds.

FAIRVILLE NEWS

The roads and sidewalks in Lancaster have been generally much improved this summer through the efforts of the highway board, but some complaints have been heard about sections of Main street.

It is learned this will receive attention at once, for out places are to be replaced and along Church avenue from Barnhill's corner to Prospect street a new permanent walk is to be laid by Contractor Murray W. Long. This job is to be commenced during the present week.

The space around the famous steps of Wm. L. Pink will also be filled in with concrete and this closes the episode which created so little excitement last year. The steps will remain where they are which was the matter of contention.

DIED IN SEATTLE

Sad tidings have been received from the west by Simon Bradshaw of Fairville, in the word of his son, Walter L. Bradshaw died in Seattle, Wash., August 19. He had been not long ill, suffering from hemorrhage. Mr. Bradshaw was thirty-six years old and was well known in St. John. He left here about six years ago journeying through the Canadian west and finally locating in Seattle. Before going west Mr. Bradshaw followed his trade as a harness-maker and conducted a business in North End. Friends will regret to learn of his death.

SEPTEMBER MORN

Somehow it seems to be the birthday of those twin sisters—work and worry.

Playtime is over and the things to be done loom very large. The school bell will remind grown-ups as well as "kiddies" that the long grind is near.

In a business way the signs are encouraging—the times look like more work and less worry.

And the new impulse for energy naturally suggests the meeting ground for helper and helped—the advertising columns of The Telegraph and Times.

It is the place where those already after business are making themselves known and where those with wants to be filled are finding answers to their questions.
