BRITISH TROOPS PUSHING FORWARD WITH REGULARITY

Great Body Moves With Precision of a Marvelous Machine

CORRESPONDENT SEES WONDERFUL WORK

Thousands of Soldiers Cross Channel and Land Without the Slightest Confusion—What the Task of Transporting One British Cavalry Division Means

Have, Aug. 27—British troops are steadily going to the front. It has been my good fortune to see more probably of the concentration and dispatch of British troops to the fighting line than any other correspondent. It is against public interest to disclose the centers from which I made my observations or to tell the number or the class of troops passing me, but there can be no harm in stating that not only were the British troops proceeding rapidly, but they were moving with the regularity of a marvelous machine. I have seen one British cavalry division transported across the Channel, landed in perfect order without the slightest confusion and the transports away again four hours after their arrival. To show what this means to the initiated it is only necessary to say that one such division consists of the following items: Officers and men, 8,778; horses, 9,846; machine guns, 24; thirteen pounders, 24; ammunition wagons, 12; motor cars, 20; two horse vehicles, 18; four horse vehicles, 284; six horse vehicles, 81; bicycles, 197.

With the inestimable baggage train and ambulance this division was soon riding away in column of fours from the pier of departure. It made a procession nearly twelve miles long. They do not, of course, always ride away. They are immediately ordered to the assigned position. This is also accomplished with amazing order and celerity. The cars are something like the larger American freight cars. For the infantry four rows of seats are put together. They permit of being carried. The animals are packed fore and aft—that is to say four horses and four others face them. Head ropes being fastened to two ropes tied across the car.

PATRIOTIC FUND NOW AMOUNTS TO MORE THAN $8,000

Church to Take Up Special Collection—Amalgamation With Dominion Organization Discussed

Preparations for the demonstration in honor of the artillery volunteers who leave for Valcartier this evening occupied the attention of the executive of the citizens' committee this morning. Considerable time was devoted also to the discussion of the advisability of amalgamating with the Dominion fund but no action was taken for the present. Reports submitted showed that collections are proceeding satisfactorily and the treasurer announced that he has now in his hands more than $8,000.

The committee met at eleven o'clock, A. P. Barnhill presiding. E. T. Sturdee reported on his visit to Partridge Island to see the men and the arrangements in connection with their comfort. The secretary submitted a letter from the pastor of the Congregational church announcing that the church will take up a special collection for the patriotic fund and suggesting that other churches might do the same.

J. A. Fugley wrote renewing his offer of the use of the Glen Falls property at any time they may be needed. (Continued on page 2, fifth column.)

TODAY'S REPORTS FROM FRONT CONFLICTING AND CONFUSING

Berlin Official Statement Declares Germans Are Winning All Along the Line—London Hears of Heavy Losses to British Troops, Who Are Doing Fine Work—Other Reports

London, Aug. 28.—(4.50 a.m.)—A despatch to the Times from Boulogne says it is asserted that the German troops, presumably cavalry, broke through the French lines near Arras in the province of Pas de Calais. The French moved up with rapidity, it is declared, and have the situation well in hand. The despatch says that the allied troops are being swiftly arranged to deal with any further attempt to break through the lines between Dunkirk and Lille.

BERLIN OFFICIAL REPORT SAYS ALLIES DEFEATED ALL ALONG LINE

Berlin, Aug. 28.—By wireless to the Associated Press, via Sayville, L. I.—Headquarters has issued an official report declaring that the western enemy has everywhere been defeated, and is in full retreat after nine days' fighting. General Von Kluck defeated the French army at Maubeuge, renewed the attack today, and threatened to surround it. General Von Buslow and Von Hausen completely defeated the Franco-Belgian forces, about eight corps, between the Sambre and the Namur and the Meuse in several days' battle and are now pursuing them to the eastward of Maubeuge. The attack on Maubeuge was opened by the Grand Duc Albert of Wurtemberg, who defeated and pursued the enemy across the Sambre and the Meuse.

The German crown prince is advancing towards the Meuse and the Crown Prince of Bavaria repulsed an attack from Nancy and the south. General Von Heeringen continues the pursuit southward through the Vosges. Four Belgian divisions attacked Tuesday and Wednesday from Antwerp, have been repulsed, losing guns and many prisoners. The Belgian population generally participated in the fighting necessitating severe repressing measures. The corps of the last reserves have been called out to guard communications.

THE BRITISH GREATLY OUTNUMBERED AT MONS

London, Aug. 28.—(4.58)—The Times' Rouen correspondent taking the battle of Mons from the accounts of the British, says: "The English artillery was magnificent, but there was not enough of it in comparison with the enemy's. There is universal testimony that gun for gun, both the English and French are superior to the Germans. The allies' shells burst without fail. The German shells burst and fall short. The sheer weight of their massed batteries carried them forward. Their infantry also advanced in close order and offered a magnificent mark. Their losses beyond question are greater than those of the allies, but unfortunately were their numbers. They came and came again. All Sunday the English held their ground. On Monday morning came the order to retire."

BRITISH STEADY AND IN CHEERFUL MOOD

London, Aug. 28.—The Rouen correspondent of the Daily Mail in a despatch to his paper describes the arrival of the wounded there and gives their stories of the fight. He says the appearance of the wounded was terrible, but not alarming. They were, despite their wounds, not miserable, but instead displayed a cheerful stoicism. Not many of the British have had wounds. Many have only broken down from the hard marching and will be well again in a few days. Most of those who were killed were killed by machine gun fire. They had no trenches or cover of any kind, and were obliged to lie down all day and pop up their heads occasionally to fire. When night fell they did their best to make trenches.

Another British regiment was luckier. They were entrenched and although the Germans bombarded them for nearly twenty-four hours, they had very few casualties. Another of the British wounded said: "We marched into Mons Sunday about ten in the morning and were just about to be killed, when marching orders came and we were off again. We were to advance under cover of artillery fire, but the enemy was doing a bit of artillery work too, so we threw up trenches and snuggled down to wait for whatever happened."

Shells Whistled Around. "We did not wait long. The German guns were over a ridge two or three miles in front, and their shells came whistling around us. I got my baptism of fire and at first did not like it. Fortunately most of their shells burst behind us, and did no harm. We thought they might stop when it got dark, but they kept it up hard as ever."

Another said: "I hardly saw a German. I came on one German infantryman while marching through a village, and he began talking to me, saying, 'Yah Yah,' or something like that. What did I do? I ran my bayonet through him, and would do so again if he came back."

There is much difference of opinion among the British soldiers as to the accuracy of the German gunners. One of the soldiers said regarding this: "They had a bunch of their machine guns trained on the gas-works at Mons, but they shot wild. If they had shot straight would not be here, for we were posted right under the big tank. Shell after shell whizzed over head. Every time they missed we cheered, but each time we waited for the next shot pretty anxiously."

SAY FORTS AT NAMUR NOT EVEN READY TO SURRENDER

Paris, Aug. 28.—The Havas News Agency declares today that two motor cyclists attached to the Belgian army, who arrived in Paris this morning from Namur, say that the forts at Namur are still holding out, and that they are not even ready to surrender.

Military Attache Says Force is Great

A Hundred Guns Taken From the Enemy in Southern East Prussia—Other Important Captures Also Reported

Paris, Aug. 28.—Colonel Osovolich, Russian military attache here, is quoted by the Journal as having remarked, in an interview, that he could say without reservation that the Russian army was about to invade western Prussia. After crossing the Vistula, he said, the Russians would march straight to Berlin. Got 100 Guns

London, Aug. 28.—(8.58 a. m.)—A despatch to Reuters from Paris gives additional war office communication, which says: "After the victory of the Russians, the German troops in east Prussia evacuated the district of Masurien (southern East Prussia). The Russians sustained no check in this very difficult country, and yesterday they occupied its western frontier. It is confirmed that they captured a hundred guns which destroyed the Russians have established postal service in East Prussia, and Russian stamps are used. Russian Captures Great London, Aug. 28.—The Russian embassy has received telegrams confirming the Russian occupation of Tilsit, a town in East Prussia, 400 miles southeast of Koenigsberg. It is added that the Russians made great captures and that the German army in that district was in a state of confusion. The Russian offensive is being continued normally south and southwest of Prussia.

According to the embassy's despatches it was the Russian cruiser Bogatryr which destroyed the German cruiser Magdeburg, the commander of which is said to have escaped.

SIR EDWARD GREY EXPLAINS ABOUT GERMAN QUIBBLING

Kaiser's Unfair Proposition One Which Could Not be Considered For a Moment

London, Aug. 28.—(2 p.m.)—Answering a question in the house of commons today, Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, declared he had seen an incomplete statement published by the German government, purporting to contain certain proposals which had been made with the idea of securing French and British neutrality during the war.

The circumstances, Sir Edward said, were as follows: "It was reported to him one day that the German ambassador in London had suggested that Germany might remain neutral in a war between Russia and Austria-Hungary, if Great Britain would remain neutral and secure the neutrality of France. The foreign secretary replied that this seemed possible. It transpired, however, that the German ambassador's proposal was that Great Britain should remain neutral and secure the neutrality of France if Germany would make a formal declaration of neutrality, and in view of France's alliance with Russia, one which could not be entertained."

As soon as the misunderstanding was cleared up, the German ambassador sent an explanatory message to Berlin saying that the German telegram had not been published, although one based on the initial misunderstanding had been given out.

THE FARM SETTLEMENT BOARD IN SESSION HERE

The New Brunswick Farm Settlement Board is meeting this afternoon in the offices of the provincial immigration superintendent, A. W. Hay, of Woodstock; C. W. Butler, of Milltown, and James Gilchrist, of St. John, are here for the meeting.

The board is not considering the purchase of any additional farms during the war, but are engaged in completing the purchase of several farms, for which arrangements have been made. They still have several farms on hand and these will be sold as opportunity offers. Apart from this their work is likely to be of a routine nature until the end of the war.

Mr. Gilchrist took a trip this week through Kings Albert and Westmorland counties to visit the farmers located on properties secured through the board, and found the men all well satisfied and prospering.

Expert Points Out Great Necessity of Holding Enemy Back

London, Aug. 28.—The Times military correspondent, in discussing the situation on the French frontier, says: "The news is that the allies have retired and the line from Lille to Maubeuge has been abandoned, and that these two fortresses have been left temporarily to look after themselves. The necessity for holding the interval between the Scheldt and Cambrai and the Sambre near Le Cateau is probably due to the need for holding Metz. Once this point goes or the Meuse between Metz and Verdun is penetrated by the invaders, the whole system of the frontier defence of Eastern France breaks down, and if the field armies are inferior to the enemy, nothing remains but retreat to the Falaisses of Champagne. If this line is skilfully defended, it should be most difficult to penetrate Laferre, Lann and Rheims, which are provided with permanent fortifications. But we are not at that point yet."

"The line from Leateau to Cambrai must expect an enveloping attack on the north but this attempt will probably fail. "We have every right to expect success today, but if we do not win, a decisive victory, we must abandon our bases on the coast north of the mouth of the Somme and shift either to Havre or Cherbourg. "If we are unable to resume the offensive and beat back the German attack from the north, one consequence will be that the Germans will establish a permanent base at the Straits of Dover, and thereby be able to keep us under constant observation. "We must meet this by counter-attacks. Sportsmen should make us take with searchlights and anti-aircraft parties for airship shooting. "The Germans will also mount their heaviest guns at any port they seize and once more there will be an army encamped on the heights of Boulogne. "Let us, however, be grateful for one mercy. The information of financiers, doctrinaires and lunatics who wished to fit us out with a channel tunnel are closed for good and all."

BRITISH MARINES LAND IN FORCE AT OSTEND

London, Aug. 28.—(6.06 a. m.)—The British marines in force are now in control of Ostend, says a despatch from the last named place, to the Times. They continued landing all day yesterday and several quick fires were brought ashore early today. The men present a splendid appearance, and all are eager for an engagement with the enemy. Meanwhile the approaches to the station are thronged with sightseers and citizens, who express regret that the marines were not landed sooner.

The British officers declare the reason they did not land sooner was because of objections by the local authorities, who held a meeting in the town square, the crown prince and the Crown Prince's forces are conducting their invasion of Prussia and Galicia. In eastern Prussia, Koenigsberg is now invested and the Russian armies are now advancing toward Danzig.

BRITISH WARSHIPS SLIGHTLY DAMAGED IN UNMASKING KIAU-CHAU BATTERIES

Pekin, China, Aug. 28.—British torpedo boats and gunboats demonstrated Tuesday before Tsing-tau, the German port of Kiau-chau, for the purpose of unmasking the German batteries. After a few hours of firing the British were in the direction of Wei-Hai-Wei. They suffered a loss of 11 men killed and their boats were slightly damaged.

APPEAL HEARD IN MARRIAGES CASES

Judgment Reserved in The King vs Brown—Annulment Suit Postponed—Action Promissory Note, Alleged to be For Gambling Debts

The appeal in the case of the King vs. Otto Brown, in which the defendant was convicted by the police magistrate for non-support and fined $500 or one year in jail, was heard this morning in the county court before Judge Forbes. J. A. Barry, for the appellant, argued that it had not been proved that the clergyman performing the ceremony was authorized to solemnize marriages and that duress was exercised to influence the appellant to marry. R. G. Murray appearing contra, argued that a prima facie case had been established and the burden was on the defendant to show that the marriage was illegal. The proceedings were continued by sharp passages from counsel. His Honor reserved judgment.

NO SATISFACTORY CLUE TO RIDDLE OF THE FRONTIERS

How The London Times Summarizes The War Situation

NO STATEMENT YET OF THE CASUALTIES

Natural Conclusion From Sir John French's Message is That at Least on Left Wing of Allies There Has Been No General Fight Since Saturday Night

London, Aug. 28.—The London Times in its news introduction for Friday summarizes the war situation as follows: "There is for the moment no satisfactory clue to the riddle of the frontiers. Sir John French, in a message read in the House of Commons by the Prime Minister today, said that British troops engaged on Wednesday against a superior German force fought splendidly. Announcement of the casualties sustained by the army in the impending battle were satisfactory. The natural conclusion from this is that at least on the left wing of the allies there has been no general engagement since Saturday night. Announcement of the casualties sustained is still delayed. It is clear, however, that the allied force, as a whole has retired to a position fifteen miles further behind the French frontier than it was understood to have made a stand after the first big encounter Saturday and Sunday. The French official statement rather adds to that resolves complications of doubt in which the whole position is involved. On the sea, the position is far more satisfactory. German mines have been sown in enormous numbers in the North sea, but so far they have done damage only to neutral shipping. Every day brings further confirmation of the rapidity and success with which the Russian forces are conducting their invasion of Prussia and Galicia. In eastern Prussia, Koenigsberg is now invested and the Russian armies are now advancing toward Danzig."

ripped Valenciennes, but the British are reported to have driven back the enemy near Mons.

"There is nothing to indicate that the allies line from Mons to Conde has been seriously turned."

Germany Demanded Money

London, Aug. 28.—Telegraphing from Ostend, the correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says:

"The Germans on entering Tournai, Belgium, took the burgomaster and threatened to kill him and the other town officials if $400,000 demanded from the town, was not forthcoming in two hours. The inhabitants were able to save the life of the burgomaster."

"I hear in reliable quarters that several thousand German troops stationed in villages near Courtrai, have been recalled by Charleroi by aeroplane messages. It seems that the Germans are hard pressed there."

"The Ostend newspapers state that in a battle between 25,000 French troops and 10,000 German troops, four miles from Tournai, the Germans lost 800 men."

The Conditions at Lille

London, Aug. 28.—The correspondent of the Daily News telegraphing from Tournai says:

"I visited Lille today, Wednesday. I expected to find it occupied by Germans as it was an open town and abandoned by the mayor and local guards two days ago. Not so, however, I found the mayor and local guards had returned and that the authorities were awaiting the arrival of the allied troops, whom they expected shortly."

What the meaning of this is, is hard to say, for here, unless it indicates that the allied army has again moved forward victoriously. But this belief is difficult in view of the reports of hard fighting at Pont A Marve, Maryheimes and Croyne, which would seem to indicate that the Germans have advanced."

The town of Tournai is quiet and peaceful, although Sunday it was very near the centre of a storm."

Losses on Both Sides Heavy

London, Aug. 28.—Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons today that the British troops in Wednesday's fighting, were exposed to the attack of five German army corps. The losses on both sides, he said, were great.

"We have heard from Field Marshal Sir John French, commander-in-chief of the British expeditionary force, that in the fighting which took place between his army and the enemy, on Wednesday, August 26, and which appears from the French official reports to have been in the neighborhood of Cambrai and Lectan, our troops were exposed to the attack of five German army corps; two divisions of cavalry and a reserve corps of cavalry, and a second cavalry division. Our second corps in the fourth division bore the brunt of the cavalry attack while our first army corps was attacked on the right and inflicted a very heavy loss on the enemy."

"I regret to say that our casualties were heavy, but the exact number is not yet known. The behavior of our troops was in all respects admirable. General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, in a message published this morning, conveys his congratulations and sincere thanks for the protection so effectively given by our army to the French flank."

The British Casualties

London, Aug. 28.—The official bureau says that Earl Kitchener has received a telegram from Sir John French, stating that the latter feels strongly the necessity of giving full details of the casualties as soon as possible. He hopes to telegraph some of them immediately. It has been impossible in the circumstances to send them up to the present.

YOUTHFUL SOLDIER SHOT WHILE ON DUTY

Montreal Lad Met Death in Mysterious Manner—His Mother's Statement

Montreal, Aug. 28.—Gordon Betts, a fifteen-year-old boy, was shot dead last night while on duty at Lock No. 5 in the 5th Royal Highlanders Guard at Soulanges Canal, was shot dead last night while on duty at Lock No. 5 in the 5th Royal Highlanders Guard at Soulanges Canal, was shot dead last night while on duty at Lock No. 5 in the 5th Royal Highlanders Guard at Soulanges Canal.

It is believed the accidental discharge of the rifle of another sentry at the lock caused young Betts' death. The bullet struck him in the head. He was the first native born Canadian soldier to fall.

The body was in the hands of his relief man. The coroner was immediately notified, and a preliminary investigation at the morgue this morning was adjourned until tomorrow. Gordon Betts lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Betts at 861 Colonial Avenue.

The lad's father, Thomas Betts, was for twenty years a member of the 5th Royal Highlanders. The boy's mother said today:

"Gordon was so anxious to join that he was only 15 last April, in December I decided to let him go into his father's regiment."

He was enjoying the militia authorities are all in the thick of the shooting.

THE PATRIOTIC FUND NOW AMOUNTS TO MORE THAN $2,000

G. E. Barbour & Co., Ltd., sent word that the proceeds of the demonstration of King Cole's tea at the exhibition would be added to the fund and suggested other exhibitors might be willing to make some similar arrangements to contribute to the fund.

The treasurer announced that he has received cash subscriptions of more than $2,000 including one for $500 from Robert Thomson this morning.

Mr. Campbell reported that work in France was progressing satisfactorily and that they have been very well received even in the poorest homes.

G. S. Hayes suggested placing contribution boxes in public places and a committee consisting of Messrs. Hayes, Campbell and Kimball was appointed to take action along this line.

Senator Thorne brought up the question of amalgamating the work of the committee and the funds with the Dominion organization, pointing out that this would lessen the complications arising from different organizations and would also give St. John the benefit of a share in the large contributions of the banks and corporations. E. A. Schofield did not approve of losing the identity of the local work but others were willing to consider the matter. It was decided finally to allow the matter to rest until further notice.

Tonight's Parade. Commissioner Russell reported on the arrangements for the artillery for Valcartier this evening. It was decided that the committee would meet at the Board Room at 5:45 and proceed to Reed's Point to meet the men as they land from the ship.

The committee will make short addresses and the committee will march in the procession to the station. Four or five bands have volunteered their services and these, with the local militia, will parade with the volunteers.

Commissioner Potts was appointed marshal for the parade.

The route will be from Reed's Point through Prince William, Queen, Germain, Princess, Charlotte, E. Dock and Mill streets to the station.

The committee adjourned until 11 o'clock on Monday morning.

BURIED TODAY. A large number of friends attended the funeral this afternoon of George Patterson who died on Wednesday as a result of injuries he received when he fell into a pit at the street railway car barns in Wentworth street last week. The funeral was held at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence Pokok road to Cedar Hill.

TIMELY SUGGESTION BY LANCASTER MAN

Would Have Arrangements Made at Once For Street Railway Extension Below Fairville

Fairville people naturally regard with satisfaction the work which has been accomplished on the new bridge, in having the western part finished in such short order, for the final completion of that steel roadway means as much to Lancaster as to any section which will be served.

Now with more for Germany's defeat than Professor M. M. Sterne, who came to Amherst from Alsace-Lorraine many years ago, after serving in the Franco-Prussian war, which took him to the assault upon the gates of Paris, where he was wounded by a French bullet.

"I am a German myself," said the professor yesterday, "and yet it is with every feeling for the father-land that I hope the Kaiser's army will get the stuffing kicked out of them. It is not that I am against the Germans, for never have I been ashamed of my nationality, but I am against the autocratic government of the Kaiser. I hope the Germans will get the stuffing kicked out of them because then they will get a republic and there will be an end to this cursed militarism."

It is not the same Germany I left thirty-nine years ago. They have grown greatly, but the second largest capacity in the world. But they still have conscription. And conscription means slavery. I would not stand for conscription, that's why I left Germany. I refused to stay where I would be dragged into the army. I was studying mathematics at that time. I was studying mathematics at that time. I was studying mathematics at that time.

Professor Sterne is absolutely impartial in his estimate of the situation. He does not believe Germany's stand for in any way justified. The people were not for war they were led into it by the few at the head of affairs in Belgium, and they met deserved opposition.

Professor Sterne has a fine opinion of the Belgians as soldiers. In fact he thinks they are better battlers than the French. "The French," said he, "are unbeatable on the attack. None can rush ahead with such spirit, but when the fight has gone against them it is a different matter. Now I don't want you to misunderstand the Germans. They are of the same race as Englishmen, Anglo-Saxon. They will stand like bulldogs and be shot down. They are the same as the English, for the disposition I tell you."

The professor ought to have some idea for he was right in the thick of it last time. Germans clashed with the French. He thinks the Germans will do again. "I am sure they will do again in 1914. He believes they will penetrate to Paris, which is fortified for forty miles around. Eventually, they should capture it."

"But in the meantime," he added the Russians are pouring into Prussia. By the time the Germans are at Paris, the Russians should be at Berlin. Then where will the Germans be? Of course this will take a long time. We won't get all the news of it at once, but mark my words and see if on the whole I am not right."

Tactics Will Decide. Professor Sterne was shot before Paris when only a boy of fifteen. He was a member of a red cross corps. They had to be right up with the army to care for the wounded. There was a sharp skirmish and some soldiers dashing past yelled a warning to run for their lives.

"You may bet I ran," smiled the professor. "As I was getting over the ground, though, I felt my foot wet in the knee-sock. I wondered what it was and afterwards when I got a chance I took it off and found it blood-soaked. It was a glancing wound in the lower leg. I still have the scar, too."

"This war," remarked Professor Sterne, "is a game of generalship. The millions of men cannot come together in one battle. They will be picked out and the large numbers will be used for reinforcements. Strategy will count most."

Professor Sterne's boyhood was spent in Alsace-Lorraine, the home of contention for the French forces which are alternately advancing and withdrawing. So far this is chiefly playing the game of war and so much for the sake of recapturing the "lost provinces." It would do them no good to go to Strasbourg, the keynote of the situation, because there they would be hemmed in by the Rhine and by another river hard by. But the French hold the vantage point in the Vosges mountains there. All the passes are safely guarded against German invasion.

Know's War's Horrors. "With all this red war raging," the professor closed his remarks, "we have little idea of what a terrible thing it is to have seen it. I have been off the battlefield when the battle is on, when the ground is strewn with writhing forms,

When faces are twisted in torture, and when the air is full of all kinds of yelling and groaning in death pain. I learned to know it and that is why I explained my departure from Germany to my father: "I don't want to kill any Frenchmen and I don't want any Frenchmen to kill me."

THE HOUR

We've shut the gates by Dover Straits, And North, where the tide runs free, Check by Jew, our watchdogs growl, Grey hulks in a grey sea.

And the prayer that England prays tonight— O Lord of our destiny!— As the foam of our plunging prow is white, We have stood for peace, and we war for right.

God give us victory!

Now slack, now strung, from the main-mast flung, The flag throbs fast in the breeze; Strained over the foam, like the hearts of men, At that beat for their sons on the seas.

O Lord of our destiny!— But we've no time, for our lips are tight with fight, Our fists are clenched, and we're stripped to fight, God give us victory!

THE G. T. P. CAR FERRY
(Montreal Gazette)
The war will delay the departure from England of the car ferry and ice-breaking steamer, built by Cammell, Laird and Co. Birmmhead, for the Transcontinental Railway Co. This craft, which is intended for service on the St. Lawrence between Quebec and Lewis ran successful trials a month ago. An ice-cutting propeller of nickel steel is fitted at the forward end of the ship, which is 826 feet long by 65 foot beam. Passenger and freight trains will be carried at all seasons of the year. Arranged above the main deck is a tidal deck on which the trains are carried and which has three lengths of track, each about 270 feet long. This deck is designed to carry, fully loaded, a locomotive and train of a total weight of 1,400 tons. Lifting trials were carried out with entirely satisfactory results. Gearing is provided to raise or lower this deck at the rate of one foot per minute to any level up to 20 feet, so as to allow of trains being shipped or unshipped at any stage of the tide. Above the tidal deck a promenade has been arranged all round the vessel for the convenience of passengers.

A banker living in Yonkers, N. Y., was recently aroused by his wife, who told him that there were burglars in the house. Armed with a double-barreled shotgun he promptly investigated, and fired both shots at a moving dark spot which proved to be his own shadow.

OHNS CONTINGENT.
The largest and the largest to go from St. John to Valdeuil depart. Altogether St. John contributed over five hundred of the Canadian contingent, which is as good a showing as is by any other city. Some of the places have, however, contributed more in proportion to their population, and of the St. John contingent a few have come from other parts of the maritime provinces. This city has every right to be proud of the manner in which its sons have responded to the call to arms, and their readiness and devotion cannot but stimulate those who remain at home to do whatever lies in their power in the great task imposed on all by the exigencies of war. The later of militia says a second contingent from Canada will be needed, and a response will be as cheerful as in the first instance. It will now be necessary to recruit the local militia forces up to full war strength, and also to be in readiness for the next call for foreign service. Today, however, the thoughts of the citizens are with the men who go forth to encounter danger and perhaps death under the flag which means so much to every British subject. This word has been drawn in a righteous cause. It will not be sheathed, however great the sacrifice, until the victory has been won.

EXPLANATIONS NEEDED
Is there something wrong with the intelligence department of the French war office, or how is it that when we are told to expect a strong German advance in one quarter we discover that the Germans have made a distinct forward movement in another quarter? Where were the French forces when the north and crossed the French border to occupy Lille, Robaix and Valenciennes? The Paris war office has continued to give the assurance that it had the situation well in hand, and that it was prepared for any movement on the part of Germany, whether against the French centre or the right or left wing. The Germans appear to have got around or through the left wing. Will they be equally successful in dealing with the centre and right wing?

UNEMPLOYMENT.
Toronto papers say that the Ontario government is energetically considering measures to alleviate distress in that province during the fall and winter. It is expected the government will continue its public works, and it has been suggested that the government should consider the possibility of making a substantial contribution of some sort, in addition to what is being done by the federal government. This is not a time when we can afford to haggle about the cost. Canada is at war, and the news from the scene of the great conflict must have already discouraged any who entertained the notion that the struggle would soon be over. One people of every province in Canada are vitally interested in a war which threatens the very existence of the Empire, and every province
must assume its share of the burden imposed.

WHAT OF NEW BRUNSWICK.
The people are beginning to ask what the province of New Brunswick proposes to do in the matter of offering assistance to the Imperial government.
Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Quebec, Ontario and Alberta have been heard from, and it may be hoped that New Brunswick will not be altogether the last in the list. Acting Premier Clarke has gone to Montreal and Ottawa, and it may be that he will discuss the question with the federal authorities and that an announcement will be made after his return. It is rather surprising that action has not already been taken, since so excellent an example has been set by other provinces. New Brunswick cannot be expected to do as much as larger and wealthier provinces, but what it can do should be done promptly and with hearty goodwill. It is said that the province of Quebec, in addition to its gift of cheese to the value of about half a million dollars, is considering a grant of money. Every province in Canada should make a substantial contribution of some sort, in addition to what is being done by the federal government. This is not a time when we can afford to haggle about the cost. Canada is at war, and the news
from the scene of the great conflict must
have already discouraged any who entertained the notion that the struggle
would soon be over. One people of every province in Canada are vitally interested
in a war which threatens the very existence of the Empire, and every province
must assume its share of the burden imposed.

UNEMPLOYMENT. (continued)
It is true that every day the allies are able to bar the road to Paris is a very important gain, and that whatever successes the Germans may win will not save them from final defeat. Such successes, however, would prolong the war, and it would be a very great relief to learn that the allies had entrenched themselves in positions from which they would not be compelled to withdraw, and where they would be able to meet successfully the German attempts to break through their lines.

It is of course possible that they have anticipated the German movement to the north and know how to deal with it; but we would be very glad at this time to receive some definite assurance on that point. The bald facts seem to be that the work so well begun by the Belgians has not been followed up, and that because the French commander-in-chief did not have an army where it should have been the Germans have not got into France with an easier road to Paris than some others they might have sought, but they have executed a serious flanking movement and even threatened the British line of communication from the English Channel.

France should be able, with the aid of the Belgian and British armies, to have more men in the field than Germany could spare for the attack on France, since Germany has another foe to meet on her eastern border. Where are those French forces? Why was not the German army which had so hard a fight to get through Belgium met by a French army before it entered France and seized several towns? We are told also that the Germans have taken Longwy, which is just across the Luxemburg border in French territory, so that despite the spectacular movements in the region of Alsace-Lorraine the French do not appear to have been found in sufficient force where there was greatest need of it. And yet they have only one border to defend and one foe to reckon with.
Have they underestimated the strength of their foe, or is their strategy at fault?
Let us hope today's cables will bring reassuring news.

MANY GRAIN VESSELS
There are now forty-four ocean liners and seven coasting vessels in the port of Montreal. Of these vessels thirty-three are grain-carrying vessels whose presence is being utilized constantly to reduce the amount of grain stored in the elevators at the harbor front. There is now a good prospect to move away what comes forward to the port during the season of navigation to make way for the movement of the new crop later.

LIGHTER VEIN.
Caution.
A Pennsylvania farmer was the owner of a good Alderney cow. A stranger, having admired the animal, asked the farmer: "What will you take for your cow?"

LIGHTER VEIN. (continued)
The farmer scratched his head for a moment, and then said: "Look a here, he told the colored porter that he wanted to be called early in the morning."
The porter replied: "Say, boss, I reckon yo' ain't familiar with these heah modern inventions.
When yo' wants to be called in de mornin', all yo' has to do is jest to presde button at de head of yo' bed. Den

Mrs. de Gravel, "that I don't go into my kitchen once a week."
"That's the pleasantest," said the husband, "and every province must assume its share of the burden imposed."

NO TIME FOR ELECTION
(Sackville Post, Cooperative.)
The death of H. R. Emmerson left a vacancy in the parliamentary representa-tion from this county. At the present time Westmorland is without a member of parliament. Some time ago a despatch from Ottawa indicated that a by-election would probably be held in Octo-ber, but that was before the war broke out, and before the members of the government became absorbed in this all important question. For the time being in Canada there is but one political party. Party politics as we have come to understand the game, has been lost sight of, and at this critical point in the nation's history, all should be thankful that it is so. In parliament last week no one showed any disposition to play politics. The opposition, led by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, did everything possible to assist the government. There was no word of criticism or fault finding. The sum of $50,000,000, the amount asked for by the government for this emergency was voted without a dissenting voice.

and short sleeves in one and a square neck finished with buttonhole scallops. There is a suggestion of a shoulder yoke, which is delicately embroidered.

For a girl of average size 3 1/2 yards of 36-inch material are required to make the dress.

The cutting is simple, but the shoulder yoke may be a little difficult for the inexperienced dressmaker. Begin with the waist, lapping shoulder edges of back on front, notches even; stitch; then close under-arm and sleeve seams as notched. Turn hem in back at notches. Center-back indicated by large "O" perforations. Gather lower edge between double "X" perforations. Sew narrow belt to lower edge, notches and edges even; small "o" perforation at under-arm seam. Sew collar to neck edge as notched; large "O" perforation indicates center-back. Sew out to short sleeves as notched.

Join side and back gorges of skirt as notched; close center-back seam. Form inverted pleat, creating on lines of slot perforations; bring folded edges to seams and press. Sew to belt, center-backs and front edges even.

Adjust wide belt, bringing corresponding single large and double small "o" perforations in belt, front and in side gorges together and tack. Create front and front gorges on slot perforations; bring folded edge to corresponding small "o" perforations; tack to position on belt and press. Turn hem at lower edge of dress on double "oo" perforations.

Nothing makes a more effective finish for the dress than a belt of black massaline silk ribbon, as this is softer and more youthful looking than taffeta or satin.

Hon. Dr. Roche's Health Unequal to Task

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—The continued ill-health of Hon. Dr. Roche is giving rise to the belief that a change in the administration of the Department of the Interior is not far off. Dr. Roche recently underwent a severe operation and will, it is understood, undergo another less serious one before his return to Ottawa. It is understood that under these conditions he is not likely to resume the permanent administration of so heavy a department as that of the Interior.

PRICE OF TEA DROPPED.
Toronto Houses Lowered 10-Cent Increase to 5 Cents.

Toronto, Aug. 28.—The wholesale tea houses have announced that the price of tea, which was increased ten cents per pound when the war commenced, had been reduced by five cents. The reason given by the merchants for the continuation of the additional five cents per pound is the fact that there is war risk insurance to be paid on all shipments.

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO HELP YOUR COUNTRY

(From The London Daily Chronicle)
Do not draw from your bank more money than you need. Don't hoard gold. You must help to prevent any panic run on the banks.
Don't hoard food. Buy only for your immediate needs. That will keep food cheap and help millions of your fellow-countrymen and women, who must go hungry unless you exercise restraint.
Live simply. No extravagance. No waste.
Keep calm. Don't get hysterical. Don't agitate. Don't get gloomy or depressed. We shall probably have reverses. All we bring them. Don't get panicky or downcast. We shall probably have success. Don't be over-excited. Keep calm, whatever happens.
If you are a workman, you can do your best to help your employer in meeting cheerfully what he proposes for the good of the country.
If you are an employer, you can help the country's morale by keeping as many of your hands employed as possible.
You can help our soldiers and sailors to make war as honorable and chivalrous a combat as possible by refusing to believe the scare reports of the inhumanity of our enemies. Most of them are quite untrue. Do not believe and circulate them, thereby giving pain to our soldiers' and our sailors' families at home.
You can help your country by helping yourself to keep sober and in good health. Be an example of a true British citizen.
You can help your country by being an honor and an example to it. We must all stick together and help one another. We are all equal today. Help your country by acting as if you realized it.

MORNING WAR NOTES

It is stated that British marines landed at Ostend and that this important port on the English channel will not be taken without a hard fight. The Royal Marines are foot soldiers who are held in readiness to board any vessel or as a landing party. They are a small but remarkably effective branch of the British army.
The light German cruiser Madgeburg ran ashore in a fog on Odenburg island during a battle in the Gulf of Finland yesterday. Under heavy fire from the Russian fleet a majority of the crew were saved by a German torpedo boat. Seventeen men were killed, twenty-five wounded and eighty-five, including the captain, are missing.
In the British House of Commons yesterday afternoon, Premier Asquith moved that King George should convey to the King of Belgium the sympathy and admiration of the British people.
In the first action brought in a Canadian court by a German since war was declared Judge Morson gave judgment in Toronto yesterday to the effect that while a state of war exists no German firm has any status in a Canadian court.
At Woodstock, N. B., there was a great demonstration last evening in honor of the four artillerists who will leave today in command of Lieut. Col. W. C. Good and Lieut. R. V. Jones for Valcartier.

RECENT DEATHS

Daniel Holland, seventy-seven years of age, a former resident of Harvey Station died last Tuesday at his home in Acton. He leaves his wife and two sisters.
Mrs. William Dawson died at her home, Hopewell Hill, yesterday morning after a lengthy illness.
The death occurred on Tuesday at Barker's Point, of Mrs. Alex. McSherry. Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters, Misses Ethel and Lillian, at home. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Connolly, of Barker's Point, three sisters, Misses Lillian, Jennie and Hattie, and two brothers, George and John, all at home, also survive.
The death occurred at Portland, Me., on Sunday, August 23rd, at the residence of his uncle, Robert Coyle, of Wilton, John Walsh, formerly of Fredericton. He was twenty-seven years of age, was a son of Patrick and the late Mary Ann Walsh, and was born in Fredericton.

WELL DONE MONCTON.
A Playgrounds Association has been organized in Moncton. At a meeting of leading citizens with J. T. Hawke in the chair, the association was formed and constitution and bye-laws adopted. The mayor, the chairman and secretary of the school board, the police magistrate, president of the Y. M. C. A. and of the W. C. T. U., principals of the schools, the regent of the Daughters of the Empire, the president of the Sunshine Guild and the chairman of the board of works are ex-officio members of the executive, and all clergymen are honorary members. Much of the credit for the organization of the association is due to Mrs. (Dr.) M. F. Keith, who recently visited St. John and gathered a great deal of information about the work of the Playgrounds Association here. The officers of the Moncton association are as follows:
President—Mrs. (Dr.) M. F. Keith.
Vice-president—A. E. McSweeney.
Second vice-president—Mrs. (Dr.) C. T. Purdy.
Secretary—G. Harry Goshell.
Treasurer—Miss Mary McCarthy.
There are also sixteen additional members of the executive.

Regularity
of the bowels is an absolute necessity for good health. Unless the waste matter from the food which collects there is got rid of at least once a day, it decays and poisons the whole body, causing biliousness, indigestion and sick headaches. Salts and other harsh mineral purgatives irritate the delicate lining of the bowels. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills—entirely vegetable—regulate the bowels effectively without weakening, sickening or griping. Use

THE BRAVE AT HOME

(By Thomas Buchanan Read)
The maid who binds her warrior's sash
With smile that well her pain dissembles,
The white beneath her drooping eyelids,
One starry tear-drop hangs and trembles.
Though heaven alone records the tear,
And Fame shall never know her story,
Her heart has shed a drop as dear
As e'er bedewed the field of glory.
The wife who girds her husband's sword,
Mid little ones who weep or wonder,
And bravely speaks the cheering word,
What though her heart be rent assunder,
Doomed nightly in her dreams to hear
The bolts of death around him rattle,
Has shed as sacred blood as e'er
Was poured upon the field of battle!
The mother who conceals her grief
While to her breast her son she presses,
Then breathes a few brave words and brief,
Kissing the patriot brow she blesses,
With no one but her secret God
To know the pain that weighs upon her,
Sheds holy blood as e'er the soil
Received on Freedom's field of honor!

A "SEMI-READY" DEMONSTRATION

Favor me with an opportunity to prove beyond the shadow of a doubt that the Semi-ready Tailoring system will suit you best.

That a man will only believe what he sees is becoming a greater truth every day. If you can put on a garment and look yourself over—if you can take the garment up and closely examine its tailoring—if you can go over that garment point by point in every feature—we are willing, right now, to call any garment you fancy a "Lonely" and sell it to you at these prices:

- All $15.00 Suits now $11.50
- All 18.00 Suits now 13.00
- All 20.00 Suits now 16.00
- All 25.00 Suits now 20.00
- All 30.00 Suits now 22.00

These are the smartest and best clothes we have of this season's style.
EXTRA—A few more Lonelies added to sell at half-price.

Players We Know
Pete Condon got a chance to show Lynn fans he still could pitch time, when he relieved Durning against Portland on Monday. Condon pitched the last five innings and allowed four hits, holding Portland to one run, that came as a result of Whitehouse's four-run walk-off. The Lynn item speaking of Condon's entrance into the game has the following:
"Pete Condon who took Durning's place at the beginning of the fifth, proved a considerable improvement. Only one run was got off him, with four hits. One of the latter, however, was a slap over the right field fence by Whitehouse for a circuit of the bases."
Gus Daum, the veteran New England leaguer, who played here with the Lynn club in 1912 when they made their trip to New Brunswick under Frank Leonard, is the leading hitter of the General Electric players in the Manufacturers' League at Lynn, Mass. Daum has an average of .410.
The reason why Pat Duggan has not been gracing the box scores of the Haverhill Club of the New England League with his name is because the ligament of his right shoulder are torn out of place and he will be unable to throw a ball hard for the rest of the league season.
Pat received the injury to his shoulder sliding into third base, but returned to the game too soon after and made the injury worse by so doing. He was "going great" when he received the injury, but it slowed him up when he returned to the game.
Swelled head is the only disease in which the suffering is done by other people.

Many Volunteers To Leave For Valcartier Tonight

Officers Planning To Give Them a Fine Send Off—Talk of a New Brunswick Regiment

For more than two hundred and seventy-five men—volunteers with the 28th Regiment Canadian Artillery for overseas service, last night was their last at St. John for a period of which no one can speak with certainty. And they were not allowed to spend it at home. Strict military discipline prevailed and the last good-bye had to be said at home before 8:30 o'clock last evening. This was the order issued by the commanding officers, though it was not without a pang of regret that it was done. All the members of the overseas detachment were compelled to report for duty on Partridge Island last night, and were required to stay there today.

Tonight at 6:30 o'clock they will come to Reed's Point, and will be met by a committee of citizens, and three or four bands who will parade with them to the Union Depot, where they will entrain at seven o'clock. Since the news came that the unit was leaving this week, there has been a rush of volunteers and the total establishment is expected to be up to militia requirements, 285 men. The officers of the foreign service detachment are Major Frank Magee, Major J. T. McGowan, and Lieutenants Cyrus Inches, Ralph Hayes, and Laurence Kelley.

Route of March.
The probable route of march tonight will be via Prince William, Queen, Green and King streets to Market Square, Dock and Mill streets to the depot. Police will lead the parade, and there will likely be a patrol from the 28th Dragoons in order to endeavor to get the lines clear, with a guard of honor from the local militia regiments. A "boosters" squad will join in the procession to see that all the liveliness possible attends the demonstration given in honor of the gallant lads marching for the fray. With the departure of the artillery volunteers this evening, St. John will have furnished about 800 men for the first contingent, even allowing for a great number of rejections at Valcartier. In the detachments leaving tonight are twenty-three South African veterans and one Egyptian medalist, and an excellent standard of efficiency in the whole unit has been strongly maintained. Recruiting was continued all day today and many more names were added to the battery.

A New Brunswick Regiment.
A telegram received last night by Senator Daniel from Col. Sam Hughes intimated that if New Brunswick desired its volunteers to go to the front as a distinctive unit, more men would be required. There is just a possibility that more volunteers will be recruited and a New Brunswick regiment formed at Valcartier before the departure for Europe.

PROCEEDS FOR THE PATRIOTIC FUND

Double Header Baseball Game on Shamrock Grounds Tomorrow Afternoon—Good Baseball Assured

A double-header baseball game for the benefit of the patriotic fund will take place on the Shamrock Grounds tomorrow afternoon, beginning at two o'clock. There will be no admission fee, but a collection will be taken up, and the players hope that a substantial sum may be realized for the benefit of the fund. There will be a game between the Glenwoods and the Victorias of the East End League. The winners of the game may rely upon seeing a good article of baseball, and because of the purpose for which the games will be played there should be a crowd in attendance that will overflow from the grand stand and bleachers all round the field.

INVESTIGATION INTO I.C.R. BLAZE

Inquiry Begun Before Magistrate Ritchie

THE EVIDENCE

Elevator Employees Tell of Seeing Fire Early and Giving Alarm—Special Policeman Testifies as Instructions—To be Resumed

An investigation into the cause of the fire which destroyed the I. C. R. elevator on August 18, was begun before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning. Both Commissioner McLellan and Chief of Police Clark questioned the witnesses for the evidence. James Totten, a special policeman appointed by Chief Clark at the instance of the government to do special duty about the I. C. R. elevator was the first to see the fire. He saw it at about 11:30 o'clock. He had been appointed with him, were on Long wharf together when they heard the alarm. Jeremiah Daley, engineer at the I. C. R. elevator, said that on the night of August 18, he was in the engine house when he heard the alarm at his home, 112 Charlotte street. He did not meet anyone running away from the fire. He said he left the engine house about eight o'clock. The machinery was running when he left, and was being loaded with grain. He saw fire at both the top and bottom of the elevator.

WAR WILL NOT DELAY OPENING OF REFINERY

All the Machinery Here and Operations Are Likely to be Started Within Two Months

It is expected that within the next two months at the latest the plant of the Atlantic Sugar Refineries, at the Ballist Wharf, will be in full operation if everything works out as well as the present situation indicates. All the heavy machinery has been placed in position in the different buildings and it now remains to have this connected and several minor, though important, details completed. Two months ago it was anticipated that the refinery would be in full operation by now, but the delay of different kinds have crept in with the result that the completion of the plant has been further delayed.

ACTIVE RECRUITING TO WAR STRENGTH

Active recruiting to war strength is being undertaken by the government. St. John Post Office, under Colonel J. L. McAvity, the required establishment between the top and bottom of the loop line. Company captains have been given authority to recruit to 125 men, which is the strength of the company. A large number of names have been enrolled. An energetic canvass is being made for the recruitment of men. Success has already been met with.

CITIZENS COMPLAIN OF STREET CAR SERVICE

Visitors to St. John are not likely to go away with a glowing opinion of the city's car service, and the experiences of those who depended on the service of the St. John Railway company for transportation to the Decoration Day ceremonies at Fernhill yesterday afternoon will not tend to improve matters. Thousands of people went yesterday to Fernhill to watch the Knights of Pythias decorate the graves of their departed members. Many of them went by car from different parts of the city and transferred at Haymarket square for the Kan's corner line. At this point they found that the company was operating before the fire but saw nothing wrong. He said he had been told to patrol the elevator separately from Campbell but had no instructions not to patrol outside the elevator alone. He and Campbell were on the wharf when they heard the fire alarm. Ex-Sergeant Campbell was a special man on duty duty. The hearing was adjourned until Monday morning.

James Downey, Edward Simpson, James McIlenny, Ralph Strang, Harry Ross and others will be called to give evidence.

REPORTED BY POLICE

Guy H. Flewelling, of Perry Point, has been reported by the police for driving his automobile through the city streets last evening without having any lights on the machine.

LITTLE ONE DEAD
The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kellers, of Union street, west end, will sympathize with them in the loss of their little son, George Raymond, whose funeral took place at 8:30 o'clock this afternoon.

CRICKET GAMES OFF

The war has broken into the schedule of the Bay of Fundy Cricket League, and for this year there will be no further play. There was to have been a game in the city last Friday and another today, but on account of the Barrack green being occupied by the volunteers, the games had to be called off. Two of the teams, Sturdee and Tucker, are among those who have been sent from the city for foreign service.

ANOTHER ONE GOES

Van Alen, Ltd. will have the distinction of having three of their employees in the first Canadian contingent. Besides the two invoice clerks, Ronald Livingston and Dewitt Mallin, who donated the uniform earlier in the week, another man, Murray Cowan, clerk in the smallwares department, reported for duty at Partridge Island this morning. As in the cases of the other two men, Mr. Cowan was given a remembrance from his fellow workmen in the shape of a wrist watch, which was sent out to him at the island this afternoon.

HONOR VOLUNTEER

At the regular meeting of No. 1 Division A. O. U. last evening it was decided to postpone until next year the decoration of graves of deceased members who die in a memorial mass meeting on the date which is to be announced later. Those who have contributed floral emblems in the past are thanked for their contributions and it is hoped that they will continue their efforts next year. John Dunn, member of the division has joined the 8th Artillery Regiment and a resolution was passed commending him in full membership until his return to the city from his services to the Empire and trusting that he and his comrades will return.

DISTURBED BY REVOLVER SHOT

The report of a revolver shot last midnight disturbed the peaceful quiet of Renforth. The cause of the disturbance was a stranger who was making himself disagreeable at one of the summer houses and refused to go when ordered. Four ladies, who had been out to spend the evening, were returning to the house about 12:15 and found the man on the verandah. He refused to move, but refused to go and kept continually kicking at the door. A man who is in the other side of the street heard the noise and went to the door to investigate. Although a revolver was pointed at his head, the intruder refused to move. Stepping up to him the subordinate landed a swift left uppercut on his jaw which sent the man off the verandah on to the gravel path below. The Renforth man then fired his revolver in the air and soon afterwards the stranger left.
