THE SERVIA TRAGEDY.

The tragedy at Belgrade is a shocking affair, even in a state whose politics are always revolutionary and whose changes of ministry are frequently accomplished by assassination. Alexander was born in 1876. He was a son of King Milan, who abdicated in 1889. Milan had, in 1888, obtained a divorce from Queen Natalie, mother of Alexander, but the queen after banishment was able to show that she had been wronged and the church cancelled the decree. The boy Alexander went with her to Vienna but was brought back by force. By the terms of his father's abdication, Alexander was to be under regents until he was eighteen, but one evening in 1895, when he was seventeen, he invited all the ministers, guardians and military commanders to a private party, locked them up and told them that he proposed to take charge of affairs. Later he brought back his father and made him for a time commander of the army. Milan and Natalie have both been in and out of the country, as occasion offered, each having a political party.

The king has had a new government about twice a year, several revolutions have been suppressed, and various attempts have been made on his life. Karageorgievich, who succeeds him, is a member of the old reigning family, which has been implicated in several insurrections. The marriage of Alexander to Queen Draga, three years ago, was highly offensive to the nobility. She was the widow of an army surgeon, the daughter of a Serbian in humble station, and had formerly been in attendance on Queen Natalie. Draga was nine years older than the king, who was then twenty-four. The radicals approved of the union and it was favored by Natalie.

WHAT A DAY BRINGS FORTH.

The press correspondents in London were kind enough last evening to avert the cabinet crisis which they invented the previous day. Mr. Chamberlain, who had apparently no friend in parliament on Tuesday was greeted "with a hurricane of applause and ironical cheers" when he entered the chamber on Wednesday. On Tuesday Mr. Balfour's face was troubled and Mr. Chamberlain was "talking" out of the house without even a nod to his leader, after sitting in the chamber all afternoon without exchanging a word with his colleagues. Wednesday Mr. Balfour made a speech which "brought a constant salvo of cheers" and "Mr. Chamberlain sat behind the leader of the house beaming with satisfaction."

On Tuesday Mr. Balfour was greatly embarrassed by Mr. Chamberlain's policy. Wednesday's despatch brings the information that "Balfour has saved Chamberlain." The colonial secretary, who was even paler than usual on Tuesday, was "jubilant" on Wednesday remarking "our friend the enemy is non-plussed this time."

TOO MEAN FOR ANYTHING.

A few days ago a number of increases were announced in the salaries paid to Intercollegiate clerks in Moncton. Subsequently the Moncton Transcript announced that a single one of these increases had been cancelled in consequence of a remark by the Moncton Times that the increases might have had some connection with campaign subscriptions. The Transcript boasted that the offer selected for this special treatment was a conservative, and that the Times had therefore injured its own friend. Since then the Transcript has made two or three references to the matter and to the trouble it is alleged to have made in the Times office.

The Star has no knowledge of the facts, save as they are set forth in the Transcript, but would not like to believe that Mr. Blair is so contemptibly mean and small as the Moncton organ has represented him. Mr. Blair has a sufficient number of faults and failings, but he would surely not descend so low as to make the officers in his own department hostages for the satisfactory conduct of an opposition journal.

The clerks in the railway office at Moncton do not run the Times newspaper and are in no way responsible for it. If the criticism of the Times was unjust and unfair, it is simply brutal tyranny to get revenge out of an innocent person who happens to be in the power of the minister. If, as is more likely, the remarks of the Times were moderate and fair, the course which Mr. Blair is represented to have taken amounts to blackmail. The minister is made to say to the Times: "You shall not criticize my department. If you do, I shall levy a financial fine on all your political friends in the railway service."

In Russia the authorities suppress free speech by punishing the critic. They have not got so low as to hunt up and punish his friends, who are in no way implicated. The minister of railways, described by the Transcript, would have no place in a civilized community. On behalf of the real minister of railways, who is a good deal more of a man than he is thus represented, some correction ought to be made of the Transcript story. There is reason to believe that Mr. Hawke has no great personal love for Mr. Blair, and that may account for the slander.

SCHOOL FOR DEAR AND DUMB.

To Be Established in St. John—Building Has Been Purchased.

A school for the deaf and dumb children of this province will be established in St. John, and the large residence owned by the late H. L. Sturdee, on Wright street, has been purchased by J. Harvey Brown for this purpose, and is understood that he will give the property free of rent for several years at least in order to assist in this good work, and meet the wishes of the parents of a number of the children that a school be established in this city. The building is beautifully situated on rising ground in a park of one and a half acres, on Wright street, and while within the city has all the advantages of a country location. At the last session of the provincial legislature provision was made for a grant of $165 per capita per annum for a term of years for the maintenance of such a school, but not more than $100 as there may be in the province. It was agreed too, that they should be sent to school within this province if one was in existence. The ambition of the promoters is to have such a school established here and ready for the reception of pupils by the opening of next school term, in September.

MOVED TO THE UNITED STATES.

The Bangor correspondent of the Brooklyn Eagle writes:
Two big bull moose swam across the river from the Canadian side and landed near the residence of Mayor Johnson, Hinchley Hill. They remained in the grove on the north side of the road about two hours, and then leisurely crossed the track of the street railway, went up the lane near the residence of J. F. Duren and proceeded in the direction of the woods back of the cemetery. The animals were not molested during their stay in the city, although the news of their presence was common property in the four towns within half an hour of their arrival. The moose from their Canadian home by the forest, which raged fiercely throughout Charlotte county for nearly two weeks, and sought asylum in the United States.

NOTABLE REVIVAL TONIGHT BY KATE CLAXTON.

Kate Claxton's return to St. John after many years in her greatest success, "The Two Orphans," which opens tonight at the Opera House, will be a most welcome one. Fortunately it is this famous revival includes the maritime provinces, for it is in all probability the last chance the public will have to see this play with her in the role of "Louise," the blind sister.
[Kate Claxton is the daughter of Spencer W. Cone. Her grandfather, Spencer Houghton Cone, was a Baptist preacher of considerable distinction and for a while served as chaplain in congress. Deciding to take up the stage, the girl entered Augustin Daly's company, and made her first appearance in the small port of Jo on the same night in 1870 that Clara Morris made her famous debut in "Man and Wife." She did not get many important roles to play at Daly's, and in 1874, under A. M. Palmer, was seen in "The Two Orphans" at the Union Square. This play which ran out the season, at once placed Kate Claxton in the front rank of American stars, and her popularity has increased with the years.]

IT CURED HER AND WILL CURE YOU.

She says: "I wish to add my testimony to the many others who have spoken so highly as to the unfailing virtues of Burdock Blood Bitters. I was all run down, had no appetite, lost all ambition, could not sleep much and had terrible headaches and backache, and my food did not digest properly. I saw B.B.B. advertised, so concluded to give it a trial, thinking if it did no good it could do no harm. But after using one bottle I began to feel better, and by the time I had used three bottles I was feeling like a new person. I am so glad there is such a remedy provided for suffering humanity, I cannot praise it enough for I think there is no medicine like it on the market."

There will, of course, be a clause inserted in

Tickets are selling rapidly for the benefit game this evening, between these teams, when every cent that is received will go to the Musquash fire sufferers. The City Cornet band, as usual in such cases, is once more to the front and will play the teams to the grounds from the head of King Street, having there about twenty minutes of seven.

Everybody is buying tickets and the attendance will undoubtedly be a record breaker. Good base ball will be seen, and the object is one with which all are in immediate and direct sympathy. William Case, the crackerjack pitcher of the Clippers, will throw the sphere for the Alerts in the game this evening. McDermott will take Pinkney's place in right field, Pinkney being relegated to a seat on the benches for the evening. Phelan, the unerring center field of the Alerts, who is also a splendid left hand pitcher, will probably pitch for his team in the game on Saturday.

The Roses are also trying to secure a local man to pitch the game for them this evening. Donovan, their new man, will make his first appearance in the game this evening.

The line up for both teams will probably be as follows:

Alerts—Hayes, catcher; Wm. Case (Clippers), pitcher; Britt, first base; Johnson, second base; White, short stop; Gode, third base; Taylor, left field; Phelan, center field; McDermott, right field.

Roses—Walsh, catcher; Willis, pitcher; Flinn, first base; Donovan, second base; Flannery, short stop; Howe, third base; McFarlane, left field; Tibbitts, center field; Flavin, right field.

The game will be called at 7 o'clock sharp.

The Amateur League.

Rain prevented the scheduled game between the Clippers and Portland which was to have taken place last evening on the Victoria grounds.

As the Roses and Alerts will play tonight in aid of the Musquash fire sufferers, it has been decided to postpone the regular league game between the Clippers and the Y. M. C. A. players. The league is in hearty accord with the movement and incidentally as a body are leaving no stone unturned to make the venture a financial success.

The next contest in the league series will be on Friday night, when the Clippers and Y. M. C. A. meet on the Victoria grounds.

Father and Son BOTH CURED OF KIDNEY TROUBLE BY Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mr. Benjamin Brooks, a well-known farmer of West Cape, P.E.I., tells of how his son was cured of Kidney Disease, and how he was cured of Backache.

The First Sign of Kidney Trouble.

He says: "Our little boy was troubled with kidney disease. We had tried many kinds of kidney pills but they only helped for a time. We got Doan's Kidney Pills and one box effected a perfect cure. About six weeks after this I caught a very bad cold that settled in my kidneys. My back was so sore I could hardly walk. I went to the drug store and got a box, took them according to directions and the result was that my back was completely cured. I believe they are the best kidney pill on the market to-day."

There is not a kidney trouble from Backache to Bright's Disease that Doan's Kidney Pills will not relieve or cure. The price is 50 cts. per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25 and may be procured at all dealers or from

TRURO OFFERS A TROPHY.

$150 Cup for Competition Among Provincial Rifle Clubs—St. John Team Will Enter.

At a meeting of the St. John Rifle Club last night ten new members were elected to membership. A committee was appointed to arrange a spoon match.

A communication was read from the Truro Rifle Club stating that that club and the citizens of Truro will offer a silver trophy, valued at $150, for annual competition matches to be held in Truro during August. The object of the trophy is to create interest in friendly competition between maritime provincial rifle clubs, civilian or military, to whom it is open.

The ranges will be 200, 500 and 600 yards, seven shots at each range, and it may be won out by any team winning it three times, not necessarily consecutively. D. R. A. rules to govern match.

The club is considering the advisability of entering a team to compete for the trophy.

BALFOUR'S TACT.

British Premier's Extraordinary Speech in the Commons.

LONDON, June 10.—By a dexterous and extraordinary speech, Premier Balfour tonight temporarily smoothed over the differences in the cabinet, relieved Colonial Secretary Chamberlain of any necessity of resigning, and for the moment averted a crisis which threatened the unionist party. This Mr. Balfour accomplished without committing the government either to protection or free trade, though the effect of his speech will generally be taken to mean that the tariff issue is to be shelved for the present.

Henry Chaplin's amendment, which gave rise to the most interesting debate of the present parliament, was defeated by the overwhelming majority of 386 votes, composed of unionists, liberals and Irish members. The minority who supported Mr. Chaplin's amendment were almost all followers of the government, while many others of the conservative party abstained from voting.

It was half-past ten o'clock tonight when Premier Balfour sprang to his feet in reply to the taunts of the opposition and appeals from his own party.

For two days the house of commons has rung with echoes of discussions within the cabinet and dissatisfaction without. The premier was loudly cheered. He had scarcely commenced to deal with Mr. Chaplin's amendment before he was interrupted by a hurricane of applause and ironical cheers at the entrance of Mr. Chamberlain, who had been absent hitherto throughout the evening.

The colonial secretary's foodstuffs dropped into his customary place. The house was packed with peers, members of the house and spectators, as it has not been since the days of home rule, and they waited and listened in tense expectation. In a whimsical vein Mr. Balfour explained that the only reason that the corn tax was put on was because the government wanted money, and the only reason it was taken off was because the government wanted money no longer.

Reverting to the charges of vacillation made against him, the premier took on a tone of unusual vehemence. He declared that he himself, though a believer in free trade (which statement met with loud applause), did not regard it as a fetish, and he had absolutely an open mind regarding the necessity for any alteration in a system which was founded to suit conditions of fifty years ago. He refused not only to make a statement of any finality upon such an important question, but he also refused to commit his colleagues to conform to a standard of opinion upon which he himself had an open mind. He admitted that differences of opinion existed within the cabinet, but these were not serious enough to cause the resignation of any members.

Mr. Balfour made an impassioned plea, enforced by the precedents of friction in Mr. Gladstone's ministries, for allowing the premier to retain an open mind upon a question so difficult and so superior to all party issues. The speaker did not believe that the country would ever return to the old protective system and no tax on food was ever imposed without the full assent of the working classes. They were confronted, however, continued the premier, by three great phenomena: high tariff walls against the United Kingdom; the growth of the trusts, and the desire of the colonies for closer fiscal union with the mother country. These factors could not be ignored. He maintained that the method of starting a public discussion was the only way to deal with them, though he did not commit himself to Mr. Chamberlain's more advanced programme. It would be folly and rashness, he said, to interfere with the great system which had been in operation for so many years without the most careful examination and without due regard for history and the traditions of the past, while at the same time they could not ignore these new problems which the ever-changing face of industrial life presented for decision and the action of statesmen.

This non-committal speech and appeal brought a constant salvo of cheers. Throughout, Mr. Chamberlain sat behind the leader of the house beaming with satisfaction.

Mr. Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the liberal leader, briefly replied, appealing for an opportunity for the house to more fully discuss the issue raised.

This appeal elicited no response on the part of the government. The members of the house trooped into the lobby to vote against Henry Chaplin's amendment, the general commotion being "Balfour has saved Chamberlain."

The colonial secretary, himself jubilant, said: "Our friend the enemy is noplussed this time."

LONDON, June 10.—Vice-Admiral Sir Harry Dawson, governor of New South Wales, has called Mr. Chamberlain, in behalf of the government of New South Wales, strongly supporting the colonial secretary's preferential trade proposals. The governor's message concludes:

"Realizing that what is Canada's gain today may be Australia's tomorrow, my government expresses great satisfaction at the declaration by the British government that every self-governing colony shall be secured the free exercise of its rights to enter into closer trade relations with the mother country."

BOARD OF WORKS.

Plans For No. 3 Warehouse Approved And Tenders To Be Called For.

At a special meeting of the board of works held yesterday afternoon Chief Engineer Peters submitted plans Chief Engineer Peters submitted plans for the new warehouse to be erected on No. 3 wharf at Sand Point. It will be the same length as the old one, 335 feet, and 70 feet wide. The roof will have a slope from the front to the rear, something which will be of great advantage. Mr. Peters wanted to drive piles to strengthen the foundation of the shed.

The plan for additional piling passed, and it will be done. The front doors of the shed will be non-continuous and those in the rear will be continuous.

The plans having been adopted, were then handed over to Aldermen Christie, Baxter, Macrae, McMullin, Tilley and Maxwell to look over the specifications, to call for tenders and submit the same to the board.

The director and engineer said they would prefer to have the sub-structure work done by day's work, but there was no reason why the work should not be carried out by contract.

The call for tenders will therefore be the performance of the entire job, the sub-structure and the warehouse.

The request of the city laborers for increased wages was considered. The men asked that the one dollar a day men receive twenty-five cents more and that the $1.20 men get $1.50 per day. The matter was referred to the director for a report.

A number of minor matters were discussed and in some cases definite action taken. In future bicyclists and parties with baby carriages wishing to cross the ferry will be allowed to pay their fare to the gateman. Formerly they had to leave their wheels at the gate and go through the turnstile. North and South wharves are to be replanked. Rodney wharf is to be repaired.

SEBASTIAN ROSS REWARDED For His Timely Suggestion At Sand Point Fire.

Sergt. Jacob Ross of the west side has received from the board of fire underwriters a cheque for twenty dollars, of which he is as proud as though it were a much larger sum given him for any different work.

It was at the time when the big elevator was in imminent danger and the methods employed by the firemen appeared unavailing. Cables had been attached to the conveyor for the purpose of tearing it down but this plan was abandoned because of the danger of being played upon the fire from outside, but all the while the flames were gaining. Then it occurred to Sergt. Ross that the only way to get control of the burning hose through the elevator into the conveyor and fighting the flames from in front. He made the suggestion to Mr. Osborne and Chief Kerr who acted on it and in a few minutes had gained the upper hand of the fire.

Although the elevator was not insured in any of the St. John offices, the underwriters here feeling that the saving of any property is in the interest of insurance people, they have taken this method of acknowledging Sergt. Ross' work.

THAT MOOSE.

The Daily Star of Rockland, Me., contains the following:

"St. John, N. B., had a visitor the other day in the person of a bull moose, which walked up and down the principal thoroughfares of the city. The reporter who advised the outside world of his arrival suggested that he was driven into town by the forest fires. It is more probable that he was attracted by the excellent grazing in the streets."

The Rockland man living here he does is in a position to know the habits of moose, but the animal which paid a visit to St. John, if she came for grass, was disappointed and went away, and the so-called Eastern Question by liberating the Christian populations from the rule of the Turk. Such an Empire will help the farther East by enabling China to emerge from her barbarous condition and danger from predatory neighbors. Such an Empire will be a power for peace, because it will be strong at all points.

And towards the establishment of such an Empire, the most important condition is that the Englishman and the Canadian must join hands, not merely for friendship, but for work, to give and to take, to share sacrifice and to end the so-called Eastern Question by liberating the Christian populations from the rule of the Turk. Such an Empire will help the farther East by enabling China to emerge from her barbarous condition and danger from predatory neighbors. Such an Empire will be a power for peace, because it will be strong at all points.

REV. JOHN DESOYRES

Lectured Upon Englishmen and Canadians Last Evening.

A large audience listened to Rev. J. Desoyres' lecture last evening in the York Theatre upon "Englishmen and Canadians." The address was more than merely interesting; it contained much valuable information, and in its political discussions and predictions upon such a subject.

The lecturer, in contrasting Englishmen with Canadians said that as there were many different types of the Englishman and so on, so there are innumerable types of Canadians, the westerners differing from those living in the east and the townsmen from the countrymen. Englishmen are often greatly misunderstood, from their peculiar manner, but their Canadian brothers must learn to know them better and vice versa, and the two nationalities, or divisions of the same nationality, grow more closely knit together.

Taking up the question of education, the speaker said that in this respect Canada stands on a post of vantage, more than some of us can realize. Our primary schools, in the cities at least, compare favorably with the English board-schools; our two great universities of Toronto and McGill, in some respects are superior to Oxford and Cambridge. The McGill laboratories and medical school far outstrip their more ancient rivals on the other side of the ocean. How excellent the exchange, when young Canadians go to Oxford or Cambridge for advanced studies in science, and the young while English students come over to us, to learn engineering, or to prosecute their scientific studies.

The question of political approximation was one which must look to a distant future for its fulfilment. Much must be done first by economic understanding, and by the introduction of Canadian judges into the Court of Final Appeal. But one vision of the future of the Empire was coming to the mind of a great Imperial Senate, to take ultimately the place of the meribund House of Lords, a senate which shall include among its august members Canadians, Australians, New Zealanders, Rajans from India, Boers from the new Transvaal Colony—all united in the fervent loyalty which will be attached to the person of the sovereign, and to the whole limits of a mighty Empire.

And each portion of this mighty Empire will be free as to its internal government, subject only to such legal, economic, and political suggestions as are beneficial alike to the individual state and the whole body. Such an Empire will utter a preponderating voice in the councils of the world. Such an Empire will be strong enough to end the so-called Eastern Question by liberating the Christian populations from the rule of the Turk. Such an Empire will help the farther East by enabling China to emerge from her barbarous condition and danger from predatory neighbors. Such an Empire will be a power for peace, because it will be strong at all points.

And towards the establishment of such an Empire, the most important condition is that the Englishman and the Canadian must join hands, not merely for friendship, but for work, to give and to take, to share sacrifice and to end the so-called Eastern Question by liberating the Christian populations from the rule of the Turk. Such an Empire will help the farther East by enabling China to emerge from her barbarous condition and danger from predatory neighbors. ## ENTERTAINING THE GRAND CHANCELLOR.

Knights of Pythias Gave W. C. Black Dinner at White's-Officers Elected.

The regular convention of Union Lodge, No. 2, last evening, was doubly interesting, from the fact that it was election night and that W. C. Black of Springfield, N. S., was to pay an official visit.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing term: C. C. J. L. Sutherland; V. C. LeB. Wilson; prelate, A. S. Dinmore; M. of W. A. Dodge; M. of E. B. C. Wilson; K. of R. and S. and M. of P. F. A. Kinneary; M. at A. F. P. Burpee; I. G. P. C. Lachey; O. G. W. C. Clarke.

The rank of esquire was conferred on a candidate and the grand chancellor made an address to the lodge, last evening, on the general condition of affairs.

A special meeting of New Brunswick lodge was then held to receive the grand chancellor, and the members then adjourned to White's, where a couple of hours were pleasantly spent with a choice light supper and rounds of speeches interspersed with songs and recitations.

DUNFIELD-LIVINGSTON.

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Geo. A. Earle, 147 King street east, at 3:30 o'clock last evening, the occasion being the marriage of his niece, Miss Jennie Earle Livingston and Frederick Odier Dunfield, both of the city of St. John.

The bride wore white cashmere, trimmed with silk and lace, and was attended by Miss Lillian Weatherby, who wore white cashmere, trimmed with pink silk and lace. Fred Weatherby supported the groom.

The happy couple were the recipients of many handsome and valuable presents, among them being a carving set from the employees of the Telegraph job rooms. They will reside at 81 Lennox street.

ROBERTSON-TAPLEY.

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place at ten o'clock this morning at the home of the bride, 233 Douglas avenue, when Rev. R. P. McKim united in marriage Miss Alice Pauline Tapley, daughter of Daniel F. Tapley, to Ralph N. M. Robertson.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a travelling suit of royal blue cloth, with pipings of black and white silk, and a straw hat with pastel trimmings. She was given away by her father. After the ceremony breakfast was partaken of, and Mr. and Mrs. Robertson left on the noon train for a trip to Nova Scotia.

On their return they will live at 173 Dorchester street. The rooms were very prettily decorated for the occasion.

Only the near relatives of the contracting parties were present, among the guests being George G. and Mrs. Davis, from Point Wolfe, and Miss Ethel Davis, of Sussex.

Some very beautiful presents were received by the bride, one of which was a handsome royal teplitz statuette from the members of No. 1 Salvage Corps.
