

Sabbath School. BIBLE LESSONS.

Adapted from Robinson's Select Notes. FOURTH QUARTER.

Lesson I. Oct. 6. Judges 2: 1-12, 16. THE TIME OF THE JUDGES.

GOLDEN TEXT. "The Lord raised up judges which delivered them."—Jude. 2: 16.

THE SECTION includes the first five chapters of Judges.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES.—1. "His name" is derived from the fact that it is a record of the doings of the judges.

2. "Its author" is unknown, but whoever wrote or compiled this history doubtless used records made about the time the assassinations took place.

3. "Its time." The period covered by the book of Judges extends over about 350 years from Joshua's death, n. c. 1427, to the birth of Samuel, n. c. 1146.

4. "Its structure." The book is not a continuous history, but rather groups of incidents designed to illustrate the progress of God's people and God's dealings with them.

5. "Its scene." The judges formed temporary heads in particular centers, or over particular groups of tribes, in the north of Israel: Gideon in the center, Jephthah, on the east of Jordan, Samson, in the extreme southwest. Nevertheless, the judges are represented as exercising jurisdiction over Israel as a whole.

EXPLANATORY. I. THE PARTIAL CONQUEST AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.—V. 1-5. Probably not long after the Israelites had settled down in their various allotments, it became plain that the people were not fulfilling their part of the covenant and were in danger of being occupied by the Canaanites remaining in the land. Once more God gave them a solemn warning.

1. "An Angel of the Lord" was some special visible manifestation of God.

2. "The phrase used nearly sixty times to designate the angel of God's presence, (See Gen. 16: 7, 9, 11; 22: 11-16; Num. 22: 22, 23, etc.) in all cases where the angel of the Lord delivers a message, he does it, as here, as if God himself were speaking."

3. "From Gilgal," the first encampment near Jericho, "to Bochim," probably near Shiloh, where the tabernacle was pitched; it means that the last message from God was at Gilgal, and now his next one was at Bochim. "I will never break my covenant with you." (See Gen. 17: 7; Ex. 3: 6-8) Whatever they had done, God had been true to his own promise. His part of the covenant had been strictly kept, as all their past history proved. If they were not securely settled in Canaan, it was their own fault, not God's.

4. "And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants" (Deut. 7: 2, 3; 12: 3). This was a part of the covenant on the part of the people. Their duty was to wholly drive them out, and to "throw down their altars," not the old religion, so that they would not be tempted to worship other gods. "Ye have not obeyed my voice," though that was the condition on which alone they could prosper (Josh. 23: 11-13).

5. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

6. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

7. "Canaanites in OUR PROMISED LAND." It is the same with the Canaanites in our own hearts. The victory over sin cannot be gained in a day, by one great battle. It is a war, not a contest. But God's people should make a constant warfare, and so combat the victory.

8. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

9. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

10. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

11. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

12. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

13. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

14. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

15. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

16. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

17. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

18. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

19. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

20. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

21. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

22. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

23. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

24. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

25. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

26. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

27. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

28. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

29. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

30. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

31. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

32. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

33. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

34. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

35. "As thorns," annoyances, trials, vexations, "a snare," tempting to sin and leading to the punishment of their sin. The temptation was the result of their sin, and became the door to his bitter trials.

36. "Whosoever shall say, 'I have no sin.' I will not drive them out from before you." I will not work wonders as in the past, and give you the necessary aid. "The Garden of Eden was not the only paradise that was ruined. Here was something like a new paradise for the children of Israel; and yet there was a possibility—more than a possibility—of its being ruined by sin."

B. Y. P. U. OUR OBJECT.

The unification of Baptist young people their increased spiritual life, their stimulation in Christian service, their education in scriptural knowledge, their instruction in Baptist history and doctrine, their cultivation in missionary activity, their extension denominational institutions.

OUR FELLOWSHIP. All Young People's Societies of whatever name in Baptist churches and Baptist churches having no organizations are entitled to representation in our Young People's Union.

Kindly address all communications for this column to Rev. G. O. Gales, St. John, N. B.

Prayer Meeting Topics for Sept. 20.

P. Y. P. U. Topic.—Conquest Meeting. "Antioch and the Inauguration of Foreign Missions," or "An approved Workman."—II Tim. 2: 15.

Scripture.—"From the Christian Life."—2 Peter 1, 1-11.

Bible Readings. [Permitting of Baptist Union.] Monday, Sept. 20.—"Strength his own" (vs. 20). Rev. 18. Read Text. 33, 48, Luke 11, 49-51.

Tuesday, 21.—"Marriage of the Lamb." (vs. 7). Rev. 19, 1-10. Read 2 Cor. 2, vs. 12-13.

Wednesday, 22.—"The Victor—the Word of God." (vs. 13). Rev. 19, 11-21. Rev. 1 John 5, 7, Phil. 2, 6.

Thursday, 23.—"Christ's Co-regents." (vs. 4). Rev. 20. Read II Tim. 13, Rev. 6, 2, 3.

Friday, 24.—"The New Jerusalem." Rev. 21. Read Ezek. 11, 8, 15-20, Rev. 22, 6.

Saturday, 25.—"The River of the Water of Life." Rev. 22, 1-9, Ezek. 47, 1, Zech. 14, 8.

The Sacred Literature classes need now to be reorganized. Every church ought to have one or more such classes.

"When there is a will," you can have a class, if not large at least enthusiastic.

Divide your class into sections if the young people cannot all meet at the same place every week. Then have a rally of the whole once a quarter.

How enjoyable and at the same time how profitable to hundreds have been the hours spent in the S. L. Studies of the past three winters. We earnestly hope these with many new students will be continued in the present pursuit of the studies of '95 and '96.

There are many young Christians who have been saved the forming of evil habits—saved the making acquaintances of those whose company would have tended to worldlyness and denial of the Master; by the being associated with the fellow students of the S. L. C., and instead of drifting away into the worldly gaieties have been drawn into closer relationship with the Christ and his service.

For your own sake and for the sake of the class of this autumn, should you join the class of this autumn.

"How intelligently that young man speaks; how will read he appears in our distinctive principles!" Yes, he studied with the class of '94 and '95 and we're many more just as intelligent members of the same class.

Halifax, North Church. Our Y. P. Union had a grand temperance rally on Thursday evening. The programme for the evening was prepared by the M. and T. committees.

We regret our lady presented Rev. Wright, J. D. Spaul and J. F. Dastan, upon "The run sellers relation to hell."

"The effect christianity has may have on the liquor traffic." "Necessity of teaching temperance to the young." "The temperance cause presented by A. C. Chute's presence to give his address to 'The church as an aggressive temperance society. Its duty.'" Rev. D. G. MacDonald, as chairman, made some pleasing and appropriate remarks, and the following hymns were sung, lead by the choir.

Sept. 8, '95. JEAN DUMARREK.

THE WANDERING THOUGHTS.

BY H. F. SWARTZ.

We hear much of the importance of private prayer, and but little of its difficulties. We have continually urged upon us its cardinal necessity, while this very insistence indicates some general resistance. What is this difficulty?

Prayer would not be in such constant danger of neglect if they were the help they should be, instead of being, all too often, flat and uninspiring. Undoubtedly there are difficulties, and whoever is able to overcome them is blessed.

"Indifference" some good brother cries just here. "The whole thing is mere don't care." Anybody can pray who wants to. This is not true. People are not indifferent to that which they enjoy and which they know helps them. The matter stands the other way. Our closets is so seldom our highest pleasure that, as with other doubtful successes, we are tempted to neglect it.

More than one truly faithful worshipper has been anxious about his spiritual condition because of the chaos of ideas, the debris of the day, which captures his mind when wishing to know nothing but the presence of his Lord. A man of God, a earnest christian worker, was lamenting to the writer what he said for years been distressing him, sometimes even driving him to question his sonship; "What is this application? I ought to be free and that is all I ought to know; for when I know what is necessary to be known, I know all that is necessary to know." Editor (be-wildered)—"I leave you address."

Sufferers from La Grippe should not despair.—Putnam's Emulsion is the best remedy for them. A bottle or two taken as they are getting well will hasten their recovery—perhaps saving them months of lassitude and debility.

Editor—"What qualifications have you for this application? I ought to be free and that is all I ought to know; for when I know what is necessary to be known, I know all that is necessary to know." Editor (be-wildered)—"I leave you address."

Sufferers from La Grippe should not despair.—Putnam's Emulsion is the best remedy for them. A bottle or two taken as they are getting well will hasten their recovery—perhaps saving them months of lassitude and debility.

Editor—"What qualifications have you for this application? I ought to be free and that is all I ought to know; for when I know what is necessary to be known, I know all that is necessary to know." Editor (be-wildered)—"I leave you address."

Sufferers from La Grippe should not despair.—Putnam's Emulsion is the best remedy for them. A bottle or two taken as they are getting well will hasten their recovery—perhaps saving them months of lassitude and debility.

Editor—"What qualifications have you for this application? I ought to be free and that is all I ought to know; for when I know what is necessary to be known, I know all that is necessary to know." Editor (be-wildered)—"I leave you address."

Sufferers from La Grippe should not despair.—Putnam's Emulsion is the best remedy for them. A bottle or two taken as they are getting well will hasten their recovery—perhaps saving them months of lassitude and debility.

Editor—"What qualifications have you for this application? I ought to be free and that is all I ought to know; for when I know what is necessary to be known, I know all that is necessary to know." Editor (be-wildered)—"I leave you address."

Sufferers from La Grippe should not despair.—Putnam's Emulsion is the best remedy for them. A bottle or two taken as they are getting well will hasten their recovery—perhaps saving them months of lassitude and debility.

Editor—"What qualifications have you for this application? I ought to be free and that is all I ought to know; for when I know what is necessary to be known, I know all that is necessary to know." Editor (be-wildered)—"I leave you address."

Sufferers from La Grippe should not despair.—Putnam's Emulsion is the best remedy for them. A bottle or two taken as they are getting well will hasten their recovery—perhaps saving them months of lassitude and debility.

Editor—"What qualifications have you for this application? I ought to be free and that is all I ought to know; for when I know what is necessary to be known, I know all that is necessary to know." Editor (be-wildered)—"I leave you address."

Sufferers from La Grippe should not despair.—Putnam's Emulsion is the best remedy for them. A bottle or two taken as they are getting well will hasten their recovery—perhaps saving them months of lassitude and debility.

Editor—"What qualifications have you for this application? I ought to be free and that is all I ought to know; for when I know what is necessary to be known, I know all that is necessary to know." Editor (be-wildered)—"I leave you address."

Sufferers from La Grippe should not despair.—Putnam's Emulsion is the best remedy for them. A bottle or two taken as they are getting well will hasten their recovery—perhaps saving them months of lassitude and debility.

Editor—"What qualifications have you for this application? I ought to be free and that is all I ought to know; for when I know what is necessary to be known, I know all that is necessary to know." Editor (be-wildered)—"I leave you address."

Sufferers from La Grippe should not despair.—Putnam's Emulsion is the best remedy for them. A bottle or two taken as they are getting well will hasten their recovery—perhaps saving them months of lassitude and debility.

JESUS ALL SUFFICIENT.

Pr. 119-114. TUNE ANNE LAURIE. By Brother and my Saviour, Thou art my hiding place; And for my perfect shelter I trust Thy holy grace. I trust Thy holy grace: 'Tis all of life to me; And for Jesus, blessed Jesus, I would lay me down and die.

My Lord, my dear Redeemer, Thou art my sure defence. And for my every sorrow A sacred recompense: A sacred recompense: The pearl of life to me; And for Jesus, blessed Jesus, I would lay me down and die.

My hope for every future Is in Thy blessed word; And this is all my treasure The love that Thou conferred. The love by Thine conferred: 'The dearest love to me; And for Jesus, blessed Jesus, I would lay me down and die.

ADDISON F. BROWNE. Lockeport, Aug. 24, 1895.

When we have a willing mind, everything good and beautiful and true conspires to help us. All nature then becomes pervaded with a divine beauty, and we see God everywhere present in the advancing or receding year. He smiles upon us in the sunrise or sunset; He seems to hold us in His embracing arms in the long summer days. Our life then grows more full of God. All its events have a providential meaning. None arrive by blind chance or accident. Our friends come to us from God; when they leave us, they go to Him. Thus, having nothing, we possess all things. In one sense, nothing is ours; in another, all things are ours. Of ourselves and by ourselves we are nothing, but in God we have all things. For all things are tending inevitably toward that great consummation of being which we desire. All things are working together for good while we love God.—James Freeman Clarke.

The Proprietors of Parmelee's Pills are constantly receiving letters similar to the following, which explains itself. Mr. John A. Beam, Waterloo, Ont., writes: "I never used any medicine that can equal Parmelee's Pills for Dyspepsia or Liver and Kidney Complaint. The relief experienced after using them was wonderful." As a safe family medicine Parmelee's Vegetable Pills can be given in all cases requiring a Cathartic.

Looking at a crab-apple tree in bloom, one marvels at the Providence which joined such flowers and such fruit. Some lives blossom in just such fragrant promise, yet afterward bear crab-apples.—Presbyterian.

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer, and that there is nothing spiritual about them. True, but neither are the difficulties "spiritual." Here, if ever, it can be said, "The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

These suggestions, which are believed to be truly good because of the help that they are known to have afforded others, may have to face the objection that they are merely the machinery of prayer,

Messenger and Visitor.

50.00 per annum: When paid within thirty days, 25.00.

OFFICE: No. 3 PULLEY BUILDING, PRINCE WILLIAM ST., ST. JOHN, N. B.

ADVERTISING: The Messenger and Visitor is published weekly...

Messenger and Visitor.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 20th, 1905.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

At the Provincial Synod of the Episcopal Church held last week in Montreal an interesting discussion occurred in reference to the matter of religious instruction in the schools.

ARE CHURCHES EXPENSIVE?

A man with a statistical turn of mind finds that fifty million dollars are spent each year in maintaining churches in the United States.

church buildings. Notwithstanding this, every thinking person must perceive that the expenditure means great gain not only to the spiritual but also to the intellectual and material interests of the people.

THE N. B. CONVENTION.

The New Brunswick Baptist Convention met in its second annual meeting at Harvey, Albert Co., Saturday Sept. 14.

The first meeting was held at 10 a. m. but, as but few delegates were on the ground, it was decided to postpone organization until the afternoon.

At three o'clock p. m.—the train from Salisbury in the meantime having arrived with a number of ministers and other delegates—another meeting was held.

The Convention then proceeded to the appointment of seven directors in the place of seven retired by lot in accordance with a provision of the constitution.

The matter of appointing directors was again taken up. In place of Rev. Dr. Hopper, deceased, G. G. King Esq. was appointed, and it was voted that the name of Rev. J. H. Hughes be substituted on the Board of Directors for that of N. B. Ogilvie.

dwell first on the necessity of the leadership of the Divine Spirit. This is of prime importance. With such leadership the humblest human instrumentalities are made effective and without it, the best results will be wanting, however much of human talent there may be.

Rev. W. E. McIntyre was introduced to speak on education. He alluded to the work undertaken under difficulties last year at St. Martins. It was also then understood that an effort would be made to repurchase the property and pay off the debt.

After some remarks from Rev. J. H. Hughes and others, the congregation was dismissed and the business of the Convention was resumed.

Rev. W. E. McIntyre reported verbally for the committee on publication that 1200 copies of the minutes of Convention for 1894 had been published and that the advertisements had paid for the printing.

SUNDAY.

The churches in the vicinity were supplied generally by ministers in attendance upon the convention.

SATURDAY EVENING.

The matter of appointing directors was again taken up. In place of Rev. Dr. Hopper, deceased, G. G. King Esq. was appointed, and it was voted that the name of Rev. J. H. Hughes be substituted on the Board of Directors for that of N. B. Ogilvie.

presented by Rev. M. Addison. It is of prime importance of S. S. work, the necessity of insisting on pious teachers, the importance of providing for the schools.

M. S. Hall followed in a short address. He spoke of the great importance of the S. S. work. In his view it was possible and highly desirable that every Sunday school should be kept open every month in the year.

Rev. S. D. Ervine said the S. S. school should have the sympathy and support of every member of the church. Parents should be especially interested.

Rev. F. C. Wright said he had found that the greatest difficulty in S. S. work was the lack of home preparation. The part both of the teacher and the pupil. The teacher especially needs spiritual as well as intellectual preparation.

The first part of the evening service was given to Missions. Two addresses were delivered, one on Foreign Missions by Rev. J. H. Hughes and one by Rev. S. D. Ervine on Home Missions.

Rev. W. E. McIntyre reported verbally for the committee on publication that 1200 copies of the minutes of Convention for 1894 had been published and that the advertisements had paid for the printing.

SUNDAY.

The churches in the vicinity were supplied generally by ministers in attendance upon the convention.

SATURDAY EVENING.

The matter of appointing directors was again taken up. In place of Rev. Dr. Hopper, deceased, G. G. King Esq. was appointed, and it was voted that the name of Rev. J. H. Hughes be substituted on the Board of Directors for that of N. B. Ogilvie.

by T. H. Hall. He believed that the rule that no one but a professing Christian should teach in the school, was one that should not be too rigidly adhered to.

Resolved: That a committee be appointed to correspond with superintendents of Sabbath schools with a view to effecting the formation of a Baptist Sabbath School Convention to meet annually with this convention.

The resolution was adopted and the following were appointed: Rev. M. Addison, Rev. S. D. Ervine, F. C. Wright, Bro. H. L. T. Wiggins.

Bro. C. A. Coonan offered his resignation as a director of the Convention in favor of Rev. W. W. Weeks. This was not a good suitable closing recommendation either on the boat or on the land.

Rev. W. E. McIntyre was introduced to speak on education. He alluded to the work undertaken under difficulties last year at St. Martins. It was also then understood that an effort would be made to repurchase the property and pay off the debt.

After some remarks from Rev. J. H. Hughes and others, the congregation was dismissed and the business of the Convention was resumed.

SUNDAY.

The churches in the vicinity were supplied generally by ministers in attendance upon the convention.

SATURDAY EVENING.

The matter of appointing directors was again taken up. In place of Rev. Dr. Hopper, deceased, G. G. King Esq. was appointed, and it was voted that the name of Rev. J. H. Hughes be substituted on the Board of Directors for that of N. B. Ogilvie.

the Ladies' Society, the superintendent being their responsible adviser. Having accepted the position and received such a charge I felt that I had a duty to perform.

In order to show the conditions under which the Missionary must labor I will give a simple rehearsal of what we saw and heard by space and other limitations forbidding a minute description.

It must be borne in mind that the lakes on which we are to travel are very large. Lake Winnipeg is over three hundred miles in length and Lake Manitoba one hundred and twenty-five miles.

And now that we are fairly well fitted out for our first expedition in tent, we take train for Winnipeg, the terminus of the N. W. of Winnipeg. We went by Lake Manitoba at the head of which we expected to meet our Indian Missionary, Mr. Prince, who had gone on some weeks before in order to meet the Indians when they gathered home to their Reserves at that time.

My first camping experience was to get potatoes while gathering Water Lilies; just before going on board ship I took down some potatoes.

Rev. W. E. McIntyre was introduced to speak on education. He alluded to the work undertaken under difficulties last year at St. Martins. It was also then understood that an effort would be made to repurchase the property and pay off the debt.

SUNDAY.

The churches in the vicinity were supplied generally by ministers in attendance upon the convention.

SATURDAY EVENING.

The matter of appointing directors was again taken up. In place of Rev. Dr. Hopper, deceased, G. G. King Esq. was appointed, and it was voted that the name of Rev. J. H. Hughes be substituted on the Board of Directors for that of N. B. Ogilvie.

for us and as we lay on the tent, the convalescing from a house were being singing.

They have a collection into Cree as well as for use in Church singing with great enthusiasm.

The services were solemn and impressive. The baptized person on the contrary met the people here of a joyous band of clear evidence of conversion.

My first camping experience was to get potatoes while gathering Water Lilies; just before going on board ship I took down some potatoes.

Rev. W. E. McIntyre was introduced to speak on education. He alluded to the work undertaken under difficulties last year at St. Martins. It was also then understood that an effort would be made to repurchase the property and pay off the debt.

After some remarks from Rev. J. H. Hughes and others, the congregation was dismissed and the business of the Convention was resumed.

SUNDAY.

The churches in the vicinity were supplied generally by ministers in attendance upon the convention.

SATURDAY EVENING.

The matter of appointing directors was again taken up. In place of Rev. Dr. Hopper, deceased, G. G. King Esq. was appointed, and it was voted that the name of Rev. J. H. Hughes be substituted on the Board of Directors for that of N. B. Ogilvie.

The First Time.

This store can't be useful to you until you know it. How to get customers here the first time--that dubious, uncomfortable first time; how to tempt them past the lion that is't at the door--that's always the problem.

It is time it were known that our stock of Boys' and Men's Clothing is the finest in St. John. We have here one of the largest Clothing stores in the Dominion. Mere bigness isn't an advantage. In clothing it is. When one buys clothing he wants to have the largest resources at his command; he wants to be sure he will not miss anything he ought to see.

Exclusives are suits for stout men--men who measure as much or more around the waist as around the chest. Serge $8.50; Tweed $12 and 14. We have Rothery College Suits, nobody else does... ready to put on and wear. Price according to the size.

Scovill Bros. & Co., Oak Hall, King Street, Corner Terminal, St. John.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.--Latest U.S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

SUMMARY NEWS.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell opened the Bay of Quinte Fair on Tuesday. Thh Guelph, Ont., street railway was formally opened on Tuesday. Coal has been discovered along the line of the Newfoundland railway. There is a movement on foot for an exhibition at Quebec next year.

The health of Sir Oliver Mowat, premier of Ontario, is causing apprehension to his friends. He is said to be suffering from a form of kidney disease. Millions of small herring came ashore on the beach at Dipper Harbor on Monday last. It is estimated that 2,000 barrels of them were strewn along the beach.

MARRIAGES.

ROSS-COIT. At Springhill, Sept. 18, by Rev. H. B. Smith, M. A., Seymour J. Dobson, to Alma C. Scott, both of Springhill. ATKINSON-TOWER. At Springhill, Sept. 18, by Rev. H. B. Smith, M. A., Charles M. Atkinson, to Annie M. Tower, both of Springhill.

DEATHS.

WORDER. At Johnston, Q. C., Sept. 28, Thomas Worder, aged 3 years, and Gabriel Worder, aged 2 years, children of Gabriel Worder. NOWLAN. At New Tuxet, Sept. 18, George H. Nowlan, aged 40 years. Bro. Nowlan professed conversion when 9 years of age and was baptized into the Methodist church by Rev. Charles Russell.

A FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION.

How It Cured Mrs. Somerville, of Bramford. Her Case Had Defied Ten Years of Treatment--The Trouble Brought on by an Attack of Typhoid Fever--She is Again Enjoying Good Health. From the Bramford Nationalist.

That Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a favorite medicine in Bramford and vicinity will be readily borne out by the local druggists, and that such suffering has been alleviated by the use of this wonderful healer, is amply shown by the number of strong statements in favor of Pink Pills from this section. And yet the number of cases published is small in comparison with the total number that have found benefit from the use of this great blood builder and nerve restorer.

LONG YEARS OF TORTURE

On Shipboard, in the Hospitals and at Home--Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic Restored Him to Health and Strength. Capt. Wm. F. Spurr, of Deep Brook, Annapolis Co., N. S., can tell you what yellow fever is, and how it leaves a man who is fortunate enough to survive.

LAST DOLLAR!

REV. CHARLES T. COCKING, Retired Missionary from Japan, now of Woodville, Ont., considers K.D.C. worth its weight in gold. Any one suffering from Dyspepsia, U. or has a general loss of appetite, let him try the truth of what I say. They who give it a trial will continue to take it, I am sure.

A TEST PROVES IT THE BEST.

FREE SAMPLES OF K. D. C. AND PILLS. K. D. C. CO. LTD., New Glasgow, And 127 State St., Boston, Mass.

PUTTNER'S EMULSION

PREVENTS CONSUMPTION. PUTTNER'S EMULSION. Cures Consumption in its early stages. PUTTNER'S EMULSION. Prolongs life in the advanced stages of Consumption. PUTTNER'S EMULSION. Is the remedy, par excellence, for Consumption and all Lung Troubles. PUTTNER'S EMULSION. Is the best cure for all Wasting Diseases. PUTTNER'S EMULSION. Is made by all good Druggists at 50c. For a large bottle.

If You Never

Have a sick Horse do not read this, it will not benefit you. But like most horsemen your stock occasionally gets out of condition from Distemper, Worms, Swelled Legs, Loss of Appetite, Hide-bound, or Eruptions of the Skin, etc., then read this and profit by it.

We Recommend

Manchester's Tonic Condition Powders. For the following reasons: 1st. They are put up only by qualified Veterinary Surgeons, and are guaranteed pure and superior to any on the market. 2nd. They are the only Horse Medicines ever accorded special Diplomas of merit in these Provinces. 3rd. They are the only Powders that will do what is claimed for them. 4th. They are the best sellers on the market, which shows that the public appreciate a really first class article.

Now is the Time to send in your requests for samples.

Our new Dress Goods

are all in, and never before have we shown such good value.

Mantle Cloths

this season are shown mostly in beaver and golfs, with some chevrons and boules.

FRED A. DYKEMAN & CO.

67 King St., ST. JOHN, N.B.

THE CHRISTIAN VOLUNTEER

Vol. XI, N.

-It is a saying that "when God built a narrow wall and big years in that small building, it is because treated strength can..." -"Prone fiery" our phrase someone spiritual complexion whose religious activity exercise in attendance which the listening to our subjects may be enjoyment of an inex... -"We would see People's Unions that like taking time by the S. L. C., study in which they gage this year. The whoever they may be the lead in this work that arrangements at study began without in order that a good year's work may... -As an encouragement who sometimes find to preach to small told that John Newt... an English village wa were present, but w was Scott's the com man turned his the truth, and the Chris Scott's Bible may be... The world is echoes of the discou preached that day. -At an Exposition St. Louis, a Frenchm delighted crowd by wheel or half a dozen of glass tumblers up went through the oil, lying down or pill and the Central Bapt have caught the idea those theologians wh time in splitting hairs who call attention to ancing an imaginary guage upon the sharp cal pans. -The young Duke at present in this week in Montreal. portrait given of him we mean the pen pil the Duke is a modest case looking young m with sensible in his lacking in mental for hair, blue eyes and which expresses th is in his frankness. H cordial. He has been Cambridge University his maiden speech in and declares his fal that venerable instit esting young noblemen sometime to Miss Co daughter of W. K. V. es, it is said, to $10 said also that it is a le the wealth of the you of the young man we ing factors in bringin ment. -From all accounts certain that the har year in Manitoba and has been an exception when we are told of acres of wheat which to the acre, we are of that some one is a l apprehension. But m sary allowances for the exuberant imagination doubt is excellent, a beneficial effect upon it will improve the poe ple now there, and w emigration. Already effect in that respect many of the men who the farmers of the No their harvest are ren purpose of taking up themselves permanent country. Principal G who has lately return the prairie province is ing, in answer to the are your latest impress tobs?" -"As to Manitoba, I eral times since 1872 sion saw a decided imp no time were the pec spirits as they are a country has its own di people of Manitoba are how to overcome the d with the ultimate, if conditions of the prov enormous aid of exal an regards cereals and large business is growi tion with mixed farmi