

MAJOR BEATTIE ATTACKS LABOR CALLS ITS CANDIDATE USELESS

Declares That They Are Always Looking for Jobs, and When They Couldn't Get One, Had No Consideration For Their Party.

About 100 people attended a meeting held in the east end hall last night in the interests of Major Beattie, the Conservative candidate.

The feature of the meeting was the attack of the major upon the labor men. He said that labor candidates were "no good"; that they were always out for jobs, and that when they could get a job they had no consideration for their party.

Mr. Adam McMahon presided, and in opening the meeting spoke briefly of the campaign, hoping it would be a clean one.

Mr. Judd Speaks.
Mr. C. Judd, who spoke next, said there has never been any friction between the Labor party and the Conservatives. The Conservatives have continually passed legislation in favor of the workingman. The Conservatives, he thought, were not entitled to any particular credit for this, as it was simply their duty. Mr. Judd said the only thing The Advertiser could point out that the Liberals had done was to pass the Lemieux bill, which had been condemned by every union in the country. No measure ever passed tied the workingman's hand so much. In 1896 when the Liberals came into power they had promised to reduce the expenditure $3,000,000 per year. Sir Wilfrid Laurier pledged his word to this. Sir Richard Cartwright had said it was a shame to ask the people for $38,300,000 per year for Federal expenditure. In the time that the Liberals have been in power they have increased the expenditure

Mrs. Haight Sues Michigan Central For the Death of Her Husband

Was Struck By a Train as It Was Taking Up Water.

Mr. J. F. Faulds, of this city, has been instructed by Mrs. Ida Augusta Haight, of Tillsonburg, to enter suit for unstated damages for the death of her husband, who was killed by a Michigan Central train near that place on the sixth of this month.

Mr. Haight was employed by the Michigan Central to look after the water tanks placed along the roadbed for providing water for through trains which scooped it up on the fly, and was engaged in his duties when a fast train came upon him without warning and decapitated him. The body was found thirty feet from the head.

It is alleged that the train was running on the opposite track to that generally used by trains going in the direction it was going, and that when Haight was killed the train did not stop.

Haight is survived by a widow and six infant children.

Board of Education's Big Overdraft Will Run Something Like $4,000

Expenditure This Year Has Been Extraordinarily Heavy.

The board of education will have an overdraft, the exact amount of which is not known. There is no doubt about it, however.

The overdraft will be in the public school account. The Collegiate account at present is in very fair condition, and with the increase in fees at the school, there should be a balance on the right side of the ledger.

The public school account will show a considerable deficit. So far as can be learned there is but a trifle over $2,000 to meet the current expenses of the schools for the next three months.

Each Side Accuses the Other In Nipissing Election List Case

The Liberals and Conservatives Charge One Another With Padding.

New Liskeard, Oct. 21. — Political lightning commenced to flash here today when the charge was made by the local Conservatives that the Liberal enumerators have padded the voters' lists for the unorganized districts in the neighborhood of the Transcontinental Railway. The accusation was replied to with the counter-charge that the Conservative enumerators have falsified the lists in the neighborhood of the T. and N. O. Railway.

The stories have caused quite an excitement in both political camps, though in meeting the situation the Conservatives seem to have the whip hand in being able to command the resources of the attorney-general's department. This morning Provincial Detective Calbeck, of the license department, stationed in Cobalt, went north with no less than fifteen policemen with two scrutineers each. The Liberals, who, of course, must be satisfied with plain clothes scrutineers, complain that the policemen are merely doing Government-paid electioneering. Mayor W. J. Blair, of New Liskeard, a leading Conservative, made public the Conservative charge, and Mr. A. T. Morgan replied for the Liberals.

It is happened that a Liberal enumerator handled the district in question near the Dominion Government road, while a Conservative enumerator looked after the list in the unorganized territory along the Ontario Government line. These enumerators agreed to accept each other's lists without protest, and did so, but the Conservatives now charge that 292 names were slipped in.

Mr. Blair said that he had been credibly informed that there are 292 names on the list at Low Bush River, which runs into Lake Abitibi in the north in a district lying near the Quebec boundary. He had it from Mr. J. B. O'Brien, a contractor of the G. T. P. Railway, that there are

STEEPER DIES OF INJURIES

McGillivray Man Was Fatally Injured Wednesday in While Threshing.

Henry Steeper, the McGillivray Township thresher, who was so badly injured by being drawn into a threshing machine, died of his injuries during the night. His arm was torn from the socket, and his body terribly bruised. He never regained consciousness.

Deceased is survived by a widow, two sons, William, on the homestead, and Frank, who lives opposite, and one daughter, Mrs. Woodburn, of Centralia. Steeper had been engaged in the threshing business for 25 years, and was always considered a very careful man.

BERLIN MAN WAS ARRESTED IN LONDON

Louis Decker Taken Into Custody on a Serious Charge.

A telegram was received at the police station yesterday afternoon from Chief of Police Hubble, of Berlin, asking the local detectives to arrest Louis Decker, a book agent, who is wanted in Berlin to answer a charge of seduction.

Decker has been selling books in this vicinity for the last three weeks and was located on the street by Detectives Rider and Egerton and at once arrested. He was sent back to Berlin this morning.

A NATIONAL HERO.

Montreal, Oct. 21.—Speaking editorially of last night's demonstration, The Witness has the following to say:

"As expressing the culmination of the career of Canada's greatest man of any period the demonstration of last night had an object well worthy of the wild enthusiasm manifested. The present has been spoken of by some as Sir Wilfrid's last appeal to the people. But we pleasantly and hopefully recall how often Mr. Gladstone made positively his last appearance, yet was induced again to serve his country. It was unquestionably the greatest public tribute to the popularity of a great statesman ever received in this country, and it would not be easy to match it in any other. It is natural, perhaps, for the Conservatives to seek to minimize its grandeur and vastness by alleging that it was machine-made and the result of party organization. Of course, no event of the kind could happen without some sort of organization, so far as the procession was concerned. But, apart from this, outside all that, the turnout of people was so enormous as to numbers and their good-will was so great as to be a remarkable event in the history of Montreal and of Canada. The city, indeed, may be said to have been out-of-doors to acclaim the national hero."

FIRE HORSE BADLY INJURED WHILE ON THE WAY TO A FIRE

Wagon Slew'd, Allowing It to Run Up on the Team at the Corner of Dundas and Elizabeth Streets—Animal Was a Fine One.

"Doc," the big bay horse which for several years has been one of the team that hauls the hook and ladder truck, met with a bad accident this afternoon at a quarter to two while proceeding to a fire on Elizabeth street.

The horses were going at a gallop, and while turning the corner at Dundas and Elizabeth streets the wagon slewed on a rough place in the road. "Doc," who was on the off side, was carried into a wire that ran down from a telegraph pole to the ground, and which was used to steady the pole.

The big horse tripped over the wire and fell before he could pick himself up from the front wheels of the truck had passed over his hind legs bruising them very badly but, fortunately, not fracturing either.

The horse was immediately taken out of his harness and another procured from Maker's livery, and the truck proceeded on its way to the fire. The horse secured was one lately discarded by the department.

The fire, which the brigade was responding to when the accident occurred, was in a barn at the rear of the residence of Mr. Frank Taylor, of 647 Elias street.

The barn was burned to the ground, a valuable horse being burned in the building. It is not known how the blaze started, but it soon ran to the rear of the Taylor residence doing much damage before the brigade brought it under control.

It is not known what the damage will amount to.

The sparks carried to the roof of the residence of Mr. John Powers, at 634 Elias street, but the blaze was extinguished with small damage.

Serious Charge Against Mrs. Karn Alleged She Damaged Property

Gas and Other Fixtures Were Removed From a House, It Is Said.

In the police court this morning James Donnelly, charged Mrs. Thirza Karn with malicious damage to property, alleging that she was responsible for the removal of the water piping, gas piping and electric light fixtures from premises she had rented from him. Mr. Judd appeared for Mrs. Karn, and stated that his client knew nothing about the matter.

Magistrate Love laid the case over for a week in order that all the witnesses possible may be produced, as the defence, if proven, is a very serious one.

Sidney Sare, arrested last night for being drunk and a vagrant, begged hard to be let go, promising to leave town at once if allowed to do so. Magistrate Love refused to listen and remanded Sare to jail for a week. It is likely that Sare will be sent to the Central for six months.

M. Powers was fined $5 for being drunk and J. Burns $3 on a similar charge.

A young man, who acted in a disorderly manner on a street car, paid a five dollar fine.

Several first-timers were allowed to go.

London Widow Will Sue G. T. R. For Death of Husband at Burford

Inquest Into Collision in Which Three Men Lost Their Lives.

The inquest into the collision near Burford, which resulted in the death of Engineer Frank Fralick and Fireman Cecil Burrell, of this city, and Yardman Ribble, of Brantford, commenced in Brantford last night before Coroner Ashton.

Superintendent Gillen, of Toronto, read a statement that had been made by Joseph McGuire, who has disappeared.

Mr. McGuire's statement is to the effect that he was partly to blame for the wreck in that he allowed the London train to leave the yards before the yard engine returned. This was against the rules.

Yardman McGuire gave as his excuse for letting the London train out of the yard that the morning was very foggy and he did not see it go.

PREMIER SAYS SIXTY MAJORITY

And Betting Men Figure on a Majority of Fifty-Seven.

Toronto, Oct. 22 — A special to the World (Conservative) says:

Montreal, Que., Oct. 21. — With the information to hand from all parts of the Dominion, and cheered by hundreds of thousands on his way to his meetings here last night, Sir Wilfrid Laurier predicted a majority of sixty for his Government.

"There is no doubt his enthusiastic followers are convinced the majority will be this or more," said one of the most prominent Liberals in the city today, who has considerable personal interest in the result.

"On the eve of every election since Sir Wilfrid became leader of the Liberal party, the organizers and others active in the campaigns have been asked to supply information to their friends in all sections of the Dominion. This information is eagerly sought after by men of betting propensities. They are of the kind who care no more for political parties than a deep sea fisherman cares for a wriggler. They want information and they want it accurate."

"The Blair-Russell deal badly fooled this style of citizen in 1894, but upon this occasion they are taking no chances. They even know what the inner view of the Albany Club, Toronto, is and their bets are on the general result, including the deferred elections. Here is how they figure it out to bet:

"In the Maritime Provinces there are 35 seats, and the Liberals will carry 23, or a Liberal majority of 11. In Quebec the Liberals will carry 65 seats, and the Opposition 10, making a Liberal majority of 45, while in Ontario the Conservatives will at the most not have more than 10 of a majority, being two more than they had in Ontario at the dissolution of the House. Of the 35 seats west of the great lakes the Liberals will carry 23, the Conservatives 12, or a Liberal majority of 11.

"These figures show a majority for Sir Wilfrid Laurier of 57.

At the opening of the campaign, the Conservatives would not concede more than 26 seats to the Liberals in Ontario, but gradually the betting people have obtained more information and their lowest calculation is 34 for the Liberals and 52 for the Conservatives, but at the same time, the Ontario Liberal members of the Laurier administration assure the Premier they will carry 40 seats in Ontario.

"Some time ago, I believe, your correspondent furnished you with a table showing that the Liberals would have a majority of from 35 to 55, and bettors and bluffers might stick to that table without regard to the views of partisans or sports."

TWELVE HUNDRED BAGS OF POTATOES

Offered for Sale on the Market This Morning.

Twelve hundred bags of potatoes were offered for sale on the market today, and prices slumped in accordance with the superfluous supply.

The prices asked were 70 and 75 cents by the load, the bulk going at the former price.

It is predicted that before night prices will have gone down to 60 cents a bag wholesale, and a few cents more retail.

The market for a Thursday was a good one.

MANY SUFFRAGETTES ARE SENT TO JAIL

London, Oct. 22.—Seventeen of the women suffragists, who were arrested Oct. 13 during the storming of the House of Commons on charges of disorderly conduct, were today sentenced in the Bow Street police court to terms of imprisonment varying from three weeks to three months. The women were offered the alternative of giving bonds for their good behavior, but they elected to go to jail.

ALL INGERSOLL TURNED OUT TO MONSTER LIBERAL RALLY

Minister of Railways Graham and Candidate Schell of South Oxford Address Immense Gathering of Electors and Receive Remarkable Ovation.

(By a Staff Reporter.)

Ingersoll, Oct. 21.—The impression that South Oxford would go Conservative was dissipated this evening when Mr. Malcolm S. Schell, the Liberal candidate, and Hon. Geo. P. Graham, minister of railways, were given one of the greatest ovations ever tendered public men in this town. Before the meeting a monster torchlight procession, headed by the Ingersoll band, escorted the speakers to the town hall. Along the streets hundreds greeted the coming member for North Oxford. That the Liberal candidate is popular was demonstrated beyond shadow of doubt. At the hall there was not even standing room, and hundreds stood from eight o'clock until after eleven. The platform was jammed, until the speakers had but little space in which to move.

Unearthed a Plot.

Mr. Graham was in excellent trim, and delivered one of the most effective speeches of the campaign. He revealed another plot to stampede the electors of Canada to the Conservative candidates. Some time ago, he declared, that he had unearthed a scheme whereby a hired writer, an American from Montana, was secured to prepare a pamphlet condemning the Grand Trunk Pacific. This was to have been distributed in millions throughout Canada during the last week of the campaign in order to prevent the Liberals from successfully contradicting the statements contained in it. However, the scheme was discovered, and electors notified to be on the lookout. It was never issued, as the Opposition leaders became alarmed. However, they were attempting to get the matter into the press, and for some days the Conservative newspapers have had dispatches, presumably from an American source, at-

LABOR MEN RESENT INSULT MAJOR BEATTIE CRITICIZED

Mr. J. A. McCandless, the Labor Candidate, Defends Men of His Class Who Have Been Elected to Parliament.

The members of the Labor party are not well pleased with the references Major Beattie made to them last night in the East End.

At the Labor headquarters this morning the incident was freely discussed and Major Beattie's gratuitous insult to the workmen of Canada and their representatives was roundly condemned.

"I understand Major Beattie attacked Mr. Verville, the representative of the Labor party in the House," said Mr. McCandless. "I think Mr. Verville's record is a good one. He has influenced labor legislation as much as any member of the House, more than the majority of members in Parliament. On all questions affecting the laboring classes he is well qualified to speak. He has often been consulted by Sir Wilfrid Laurier on questions of that kind, and his advice has been listened to. By common consent he is regarded as a useful member of the House. The trades congress knew its business when it elected him its president for three years. If Major Beattie's record in the House is as good as Mr. Verville's he need not be ashamed of it."

Looking for Jobs.

"As for the Labor people always looking for jobs and that, I do not know that they are any worse in this regard than any other class of people. They are just as honest, just as clean, just as honorable as any other class, and to charge them with being always out for that sort of thing is neither just nor fair. The major is very suspicious.

"We are working away, canvassing daily and meeting with workmen and voters all over the city. We are getting assurances every day from quarters we least expected, and I am confident we will make a good showing."

The organization work is going ahead rapidly and the Independent Labor party will get out all its vote.

Fruit Juices Clear the Skin

The skin mirrors faithfully the state of the blood, and the blood shows how well—or how badly—the liver, bowels, kidneys and the millions of tiny glands in the skin are doing their work. If these organs are not properly clearing out the waste matter, the blood will be poisoned and the skin sallow, "muddy" and sprinkled with pimples.
Plenty of ripe fruit helps more than any other food to cure this condition, but even more effective, as well as less expensive, are "Fruit-a-tives." These are little tablets of concentrated fruit juices, combined in such a way as to many times increase their action on those organs that eliminate impurities. One or two "Fruit-a-tives" a day will keep the blood pure and give the skin the clear glow of health. 25c for trial size box—50c for regular size—6 for $2.50. Dealers everywhere should have both sizes. If you are unable to obtain "Fruit-a-tives" in your neighborhood, they will be sent on receipt of price. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

A good, practical Christmas Gift to either a man or woman would be this Locket. It is beautifully made from solid gold—$5.00—and contains places for holding two photographs.

ENGRAVED with any monogram and enclosed in suitable case; the price is $5.00

Laurier's Great Work;
His Record in Brief

His Performances Stated in Paragraphs—A Wonderful List of Achievements—Let Laurier Finish His Work.

After all, Laurier's work, the record of accomplishment in the twelve years of Laurier, is at least as well worth consideration as the flaws his opponents have been able to find in some items of administration after going over it with a rake.

Laurier's work includes a record of trade development to which there is no parallel in Canada's history.

Laurier's work covers an increase of total trade from 2,626 millions in the twelve last years of Foster, to 5,152 millions in the twelve last years of Laurier, or almost double.

Laurier's work covers an increase total exports from 1,223 millions in the last twelve years of Foster, to 2,445 millions in the last twelve years of Laurier, or just double.

Laurier's work covers a growth in the exports of farm produce from 521 millions in the last twelve years of Foster to 1,108 millions in the twelve years of Laurier.

Laurier's work covers an increase in the export of manufactures from 69 millions in the last twelve years of Foster to 214 millions in the twelve years of Laurier.

Laurier's work covers an increase in the exports of bacon and hams from 19 millions in the last twelve years of Foster to 139 millions in the twelve years of Laurier; in exports of butter from 10 millions to 51 millions; in exports of cheese from 127 millions to 247 millions.

Laurier's work covers a growth in the exports of wheat from 45 millions in the last twelve years of Foster to 213 millions in the twelve years of Laurier; a measure of development of the West.

Laurier's work conducted to an increase in the amount of capital invested in manufacturing industries, from 447 millions in 1900 to 843 millions in 1905; in the amount of wages paid from 113 millions in 1900 to 182 millions in 1905; in the amount of output from 481 millions in 1900 to 706 millions in 1905.

Laurier's work has led to the entry of 1,213,934 immigrants in the twelve years of Laurier, and to the stoppage of the exodus which up to 1897 was draining Canada of its life-blood.

Laurier's work is responsible for there being a million people in the western provinces, and nearly 200,000 farms.

Laurier's work includes the adjustment of the Manitoba school difficulty, and the removal of an issue that had disturbed the country for years.

Laurier's work includes the British preferential tariff, the best and most profitable advertisement the Dominion ever had, and a general tariff which deals fairly with the whole people.

Laurier's work in the British preference, brought Canada increase of prestige, the goodwill of British capitalists and the favor of British consumers of such products as Canada has to sell.

Laurier's work led the way to the adoption of preferential treatment of Great Britain in other parts of the Empire.

Laurier's work is seen in the German surtax, a proper and spirited measure indicating Canadian resentment of a German attempt to dictate what her fiscal relations with the Empire and with other countries should be.

Laurier's work is seen in the legislation against combines in restraint of trade, and in prosecutions which have operated as salutary warnings.

Laurier's work is seen in the anti-dumping clauses of the tariff, which save Canada from being a slaughter market for American goods.

Laurier's work includes the intermediate tariff, designed as a lever by which the doors might be opened to other markets.

Laurier's work includes the making of the French Treaty, the first treaty Canada was left absolutely free, by the British Government, to negotiate for herself.

Laurier's work includes an unprecedented development of transportation facilities. The completion of the St. Lawrence canal system, with a uniform depth of fourteen feet; the equipment of harbors on Lake Superior, where grain is shipped; of Georgian Bay, Lake Huron, and Lake Erie for transshipment; the improvement of Montreal, Quebec, St. John and Halifax harbors; the deepening of the ship channel from Montreal to the Gulf, the extension of telegraph services down the coast; the abolition of canal tolls; the making of the St. Lawrence a safe route for large ships by day or by night; all this is Laurier's work.

Laurier's work in this particular, was so good that the Toronto Mail was driven to say, on September 2: "In shipping circles of New York and other North Atlantic ports of the United States, envy, and something like panic has been produced by the steady set of the outward wheat forwarded to Montreal. During the past three months the Canadian port has received more wheat from the interior than have all its rivals of the United States put together."

Laurier's work has borne fruit in the reduction of marine insurance rates from eighty-four cents per $100 on general merchandise and ninety-nine cents on wheat in 1900, to thirty-eight cents on both in 1907, which was worth nearly a million to Canadian commerce last year.

Laurier's work involved the expenditure of twenty-six millions on canals, thirty-one millions on Government railways, seven millions on Montreal harbor, two millions on the chief lake harbors, twenty millions on bonuses for the building and extension of railways, twenty-seven millions so far, on the National Transcontinental.

Laurier's work includes the opening of the great coal and metaliferous areas of the Crow's Nest Pass district by the construction of a railway.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE

Convention at Buffalo Breaks Up
Confident of Victory.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 21.—The 40th annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association ended today. In closing the final business session President Anna H. Shaw said: "We never have had a more instructive, comprehensive convention than this has been. We will go home with greater enthusiasm, and a greater determination to continue the struggle, and if need be enter upon a militant campaign for our birthright. We are on the battle line. Victory is in sight."

Resolutions were adopted congratulating the women of Great Britain on their gallant fight for the franchise; favoring equal pay for women and men in all public and private employments; an eight-hour work-day, and efficient laws for the prevention of the evils of child labor; affirming that wage-earning women, like wage-earning men, need their votes for their own protection, and that married women, especially, need votes for the protection of their home and children; requesting President Roosevelt to recommend to Congress an appropriation for a peace conference to promote international friendliness, and help support the bureau of international peace at Berne; endorsing the effort to secure the creation of a children's bureau by Congress, and expressing gratitude to the national and state granges, the American Federation of Labor, the political parties and other organizations that have endorsed woman suffrage.

Much interest was taken in the proposed poster campaign to be inaugurated at the November elections, and many of the delegates took hundreds of the posters home with them.

GOLDWIN SMITH AND THE LABOR CANDIDATE.

The Labor candidate in South Toronto, Mr. J. G. O'Donoghue, has received a letter from Mr. Goldwin Smith, who says:

"Though on public questions I like my fellow-citizens, take my side, I am not a member of a party. I look to the community above all, wishing that it should fairly represent all interests, and that of labor not least. Neither in England nor here, I believe, have I failed to support, when I had the chance, a good representative of the interests of labor. You appear to be such, and therefore, whether we are agreed or not on special questions, you command my sympathy and best wishes."

The eminent scholar, who played a great part in extending the bounds of political equality in the old land, has consistently argued in favor of giving parliamentary representation to the working classes as a matter of right and justice, and as an amelioration of social unrest and discontent. The conditions which have bred working-class parties in Europe are not reproduced in America to nearly the same extent and degree, but the aspiration of the workmen of Canada to a share of political influence is a just and reasonable one.

There was only one Labor member in the last Canadian House of Commons. There are not more than half a dozen Labor candidates in the present election. Even if they were all elected the workmen would be very feebly represented, numerically speaking, as compared with other classes. They could not dictate legislation, but they could bring their ideas prominently before Parliament and public, and hasten the adoption of measures which they could demonstrate to be useful and needful. The mass of labor legislation inscribed on the statute book in recent years shows that the Government is willing to be convinced.

THE ENEMIES OF THE PREFERENCE.

The New York Post, which closely watches Canadian affairs, thinks Lord Milner will be politically disillusioned by his pilgrimage to this country. Says the Post:

"Quite as serious, from the Chamberlain point of view, is the attitude of the leaders of the Conservative party in the election campaign now in progress in the Dominion. Borden and Foster, since 1901, have repeatedly condemned the preference. These Tory leaders are possessed with the 'mad' idea of a 'free' trade, and Lord Milner will not need to read many of the speeches of Conservative candidates to realize that there will be an end to the preference in all schedules in which it is of any value to England if Borden and Foster displace Laurier and Fielding in control of the Government at Ottawa."

The Post is correct, even to the coupling of Borden and Foster. The Opposition leaders have not had the courage to openly attack the preference, but they have persistently tried to reduce it to a farce by nullifying every advantage it gives to the mother country. A number of Conservative candidates have been bolder and less hypocritical than their leaders, and have condemned it outright.

The theory that commodities should be "made in Canada" at any cost to the Canadian people is one which the Government positively rejects. The Opposition, if the words of its accredited spokesmen mean anything, is pledged to a tariff that would absolutely shut British goods out of the Canadian market if home manufacturers could supply it. In brief, the Liberal party is committed to a competitive tariff, and the Conservative party to a prohibitory tariff. The Opposition's policy is a negation of the preferential idea. Lord Milner will have visited Canada to little purpose if he does not see through the humbug of Mr. Borden's plea for imperial preferential trade.

DIRTY WORK.

The distribution of the Calgary Eye-Opener is a feature of the Opposition campaign in some ridings. This filthy sheet has been utilized for years by enemies of the Ottawa Government. It has been the conduit for sewage which the regular party newspapers refused to handle. Because of its obscene character, it has been refused the privilege of the mails, but it has found its way by underground routes to every part of the Dominion. Of late it has been sold openly in the city of Toronto. No decent man would read it through, except out of curiosity, and if he did he would never soil his hands with a second copy, but it is welcomed by unscrupulous partisans as an ally in the campaign of slander and scandal waged against the Liberal

I.
"My Dear Doctor,—As you know, the Foresters have $500,000 of their money in the Northwest land deal. On the security of this we have borrowed all the money we can from the banks. We have also put into this deal as much of the I. O. F. current account as can be arranged. We require still more money. Could we not have part of the reserve fund for this purpose? Yours sincerely,

(Signed) GEO. E. FOSTER.

"Dear Doctor,—I have not received a reply to my former letter. Let me assure you that the machinery of the Union Trust Company needs oil. Please turn on the tap. We need the surplus of the I. O. F. Yours sincerely,

(Signed) GEO. E. FOSTER.

II.
"I took these lands from the Canadian Northern Railway for one Gordon, and for the Hon. R. P. Roblin, in equal shares. I don't recollect that Mr. Gordon informed me just at the first interview that Mr. Roblin was taking a half interest with him, but at all events it was intimated that all the lands should be put in my name. Evidently before I had concluded an agreement with the Canadian Northern I must have known that Mr. Roblin was in it, although I have no recollection of an interview. The probability is that it would be a telephone communication."

—Mr. Whitla's evidence, page 3031.

III.
"Dear Lefurgy,—We have succeeded beyond our wildest hopes. We wired D. M. (Dan Mann), and he met us at the train, Toronto, and took us to his leaders. The wonder is that it has been allowed to poison the air so long. In King's County, Nova Scotia, a house-to-house distribution of copies of the Eye-Opener, containing scurrilous references to Sir Frederick Borden, was undertaken by opponents of the Government. One of the men engaged in the work has been arrested on a warrant issued by Sir Frederick. He has also entered a suit for libel against the Cowansville, Que., Observer, for reproducing an article from the Calgary sheet. A leading British magazine paid dearly for dipping into the same garbage barrel. In view of Sir Frederick Borden's determination to set the law in motion it is likely that agents of the Opposition will be less inclined to push the circulation of the Eye-Opener."

MR. BEATTIE'S ATTACK.

An attendance of a hundred at a Conservative meeting in the East End is not a comforting omen for Mr. Beattie. Nor did he improve the occasion by his attack upon Labor representatives. He denounced them roundly as mercenaries and place-hunters, and complained that in Parliament they invariably voted with the Government.

It is true that the Labor members of Parliament since 1896 have usually been found supporting Government measures, though not always. They could do this without forfeiting their independence, because the Laurier Government has gone further toward meeting their views and the just demands of the working class, than any other administration, Provincial or Federal, past or present. Mr. Ver-ville, the Labor member for Maisonneuve in the late House, testified that he was frequently consulted by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who acknowledged that the presence of Labor representatives had been useful to the Government in ascertaining the workman's point of view.

It is pretty certain that Mr. McCandless, if elected, would be found voting with the Government as often as with the Opposition—probably often, since the Liberal party is the only one that has shown any practical sympathy with Labor interests. The only distinct Labor measure credited to the Conservative party since Confederation is the grant of a public holiday. This is a beggarly concession, indeed, compared with the vast amount of Labor legislation in the past twelve years, beginning with the abolition of the sweating system, which the previous Government refused to touch.

Fielding or Foster? Which one would the people of Canada trust with their money?

"Labor representatives are no good," says Mr. Beattie. Of course not, when they divert votes from Tory candidates.

North Toronto will show on Monday whether it has any regard for personal honor in its public representative.

Mr. Foster's "Turn on the Tap" ranks with the late Matt Quay's "Shake the Plum Tree" in the literature of high finance.

The Opposition denounces irrigation in the Medicine Hat district, but defends it in Colchester, N. S., where it is labeled "Choice Tomatoes."

The false date in the Mayes affidavit is no more false than the other charges against the integrity of members of the Government.

The Industrial Banner complains lightly enough that Mr. Borden's immigration plank has a string to it. So office and gave us the route so far as located, of course under cover of the strictest secrecy, to keep it mum except to Borden, Bennett and yourself. We have decided to increase the thing to 200,000 acres. On arriving here we interviewed Sir Thomas Shaughnessy. He said we would get the best that was going. We want to arrange for a meeting there when the party returns to Montreal. Tell Messrs. Borden and Bennett about the meeting. It will be necessary for at least two of us to go to this fall to locate, as it could not be done in the spring, and that is one of the things that must be arranged at the meeting. Yours very truly, (Signed) GEORGE W. FOWLER.

Later.
"Well, old man, I think we have struck a pretty good thing, and you people ought to erect a monument to the memory of Pope and myself for what we have done in your behalf."

IV.
"Perhaps I had better go into a detailed explanation of the matter, because it is a little involved, unless it is so. About the 24th of October—23rd or 24th of October—I received a letter from Mr. Borden, the Chief, telling me that money must not be handled by any person, I believe—I won't give the exact words, but to the effect that money must not be handled by men in the party, in public life, or words to that effect, and that it was better to have, in each province, persons appointed who were in every way acceptable to the party, locally. I sent a copy of that to all the different provinces where I was giving any assistance. From Mr. Hugh Graham's sworn testimony, has every other plank in the Halifax platform.

Every time Sir Wilfrid Laurier speaks of cementing the British and the French elements of the population, the Nationalists and the Castors of Quebec throw a fit.

The residence of Hon. T. M. Daly, Mr. Sifton's opponent, has been burned down. The Opposition press strongly suspects Mr. Sifton, but perhaps he can prove an alibi.

The Liberals of London are not obliged to lie down under the charge that their Ottawa leaders are a set of thieves. A vote against Mr. Beattie is a protest against those slanders. The underhand attacks upon the Grand Trunk Pacific in American newspapers are paid for with Canadian money. What a patriotic business! And the Conservative press, in reproducing the literature for campaign purposes, is no better than the men who write it, or the men who are paid for publishing it.

RISKS OF THE CAMPAIGN.

[Toronto Star.]
Campaigners are a bad risk. There is the case of the Conservative candidate in the West, who has broken his leg in two places, and a stump for E. W. Nesbitt, in North Oxford, has dislocated his ankle. So far, despite all the talking, however, no cases of dislocation of the jawbone are reported.

LIBERALS AND LABOR.

[Montreal Herald.]
Sir Wilfrid, it seems, agrees with the Herald that the Labor party runs close enough to Liberalism to warrant Liberals in backing Mr. Verville in Maisonneuve.

TURN ON THE TAP.

[Peterborough Examiner.]
We have a picture of the Fowlers and Rogers, the Robins and Campbells standing around the table, if ever Mr. Foster gets a chance to "turn on the tap."

THE EYE-OPENER.

[Calgary News.]
And so when "Nesbitt" asked for the opportunity to go after the "false alarm" who acts as the figurehead of the Eye-Opener—after the fashion of the Eye-Opener—no barriers were placed in the way. When a mad dog is roaming loose in a city the people do not go to meet him with the "false alarm" if you were not put on spotless linen to do the job. You wouldn't undertake to chase a skunk armed with a bottle of lavender water. If you knew that a desperado was waiting for you with a Winchester you would deem it the part of wisdom to take a "pot-shot" at him.

THE PERELESS TALKER.

[New York Sun.]
Mr. Bryan has just finished an endurance test in which he delivered speeches in 72 hours, without turning a hair. A very Marathon race of loquacity, in which he has left all competitors nowhere.

A SENSE OF OPULENCE.

[Washington Star.]
Dey tell me I'm unlucky.
Cause I haven't got a cent.
Coppin' now an' den a little.
Foh a payment on de rent.
But de road is long an' shady.
An' de leaffy woods is free.
An' I somehow can't help feelin' dat dey all belongs to me.

De blossoms in de summer
An' de gold leaf in de fall—
I doesn' ax permission
An' I shore enjoys 'em all!
An' de singin' in de bushes
An' de sunshine on de sea—
I couldn' hardly notice
Dat dey don't belong to me!

HALCYON.
[Life.]
Zooks, what a lonely day 'twill be
When the deep takes back what it gave,
And the "Merry Widow" drifts out to sea
On the crest of the Marcel wave.

WILL FOUND IN A HAT.

[London Evening Standard.]
Probate has been granted of the will of a piddler who left an estate valued at $11,587. He was Mr. Harris Norman, a Polish Jew, of Mill road, Cambridge. The document was found in his silk hat after his death. It was dated Jan. 15, 1905, and by it he left the whole of his property equally between Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge, and the London Jewish Synagogue, for the relief of poor and needy Jews.

LET LAURIER FINISH HIS WORK

The Montreal Witness, a journal of sterling independence, which at all times has the courage of its convictions speaks with no uncertainty or hesitancy as to the duty of the Government to sustain at the polls the Government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, both in the interest of Canada and in the interest of that wider imperial patriotism to which all true Canadians are attached, as opposed to the party of obstructionists and slandersers nominally led by Mr. Borden, whose attitude is not merely opposed to the progress of Canada, but is distinctly anti-British. "We are convinced," says the Witness, "balancing one thing with another, that the country should give Sir Wilfrid Laurier another term of office at Ottawa, rather than return a party which threatens to raise our tariff taxation, to add to the other and other things we need cost us much more than they do now, and make our country, and especially this province, the dearest place in the world to live in; WHICH THREATENS TO KILL THE BRITISH PREFERENCE, THAT OUR FARMERS HAVE SO MUCH FOR OUR FARMERS' AND OUR OWNERS' IN THE EXPANSION OF OUR TRADE AND REDUCING THE COST OF LIVING, BESIDES BEING A BOND OF EMPIRE; which is dominated by Mr. Foster, and over against the objectionable members of the Liberal party include such men as Fowler, Bennett, Lefurgy, and the vituperative Robin. As on these and other good grounds we believe it best, on the whole, for the people to return to the head of the Government again the widely-loved and venerated Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who has accomplished so much that is beneficial for Canada, so we should much prefer to re-elect him in Montreal Sir Wilfrid's friend, Mr. Robert Bickerdike, whose energy, ability and honesty are established, and who is a 'true Briton' in the fair and wise and generous sense—not in the narrow, selfish sense proclaimed by Mr. Ekerdt and who is a loyal Canadian and admirable citizen."

LAURIER'S BEAUTIFUL ANALOGY.

[Toronto News, July 22, 1907, before the House passed under Tory control.]
In a speech of this grace and dignity which Sir Wilfrid delivered at a university dinner in Toronto a few years ago, he declared his devotion to Great Britain in the simple and touching words which Ruth addressed to Naomi: "Entreat me not to leave thee or to return from following up after thee, for whither thou goest I will go, and where thou lodgest I will lodge; thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God. Where thou diest will I die, and there will I be buried." Lord do so to me and more also, if aught but death part thee and me."

There, and as an expression of ideal relations between the old country and the outlying British dominions, it is singularly happy in quotation than the prime minister, and few have gone so deeply into the well of English undefiled. He has resolute and hearty words which welcome of his fellow-countrymen the Quebec, and far beyond the bounds of the cheering in all the Provinces, and among all classes, the sympathy and the respect and even the affection of the mass of the Canadian people.

He has been the object of no such bitter and constant attack as was Sir John Macdonald. There is a curious disposition to lay the faults of his administration upon the backs of his associates. Endowed with the eloquence of a poet and distinction of bearing, moderation of temper, reserve and patience, he is a picturesque and impressive figure, and on all ceremonial occasions, at home or elsewhere, Canadians know and rejoice in the knowledge that he represents the country with distinction and dignity."

FROM A PRIVATE JOLONEL.

[Army and Navy Life.]
There once was an old army colonel,
Whose wit was a wellspring of wit;
But for those who would shirk
From their authorized work,
His language was something infolent!

COMPENSATION.

[Smart Set.]
Laughter and Tears are ever close akin,
And where Tears fall, Laughter ventures in;
Or when fair Laughter, scourged to flight,
Leaves pain,
Softly the Tears veil o'er the struggle vain;

Nor hides one far from where the other lies—
Each waiting each, within my lady's eyes.

PULPIT METHODS.

[Los Angeles Times.]
"Bishop Potter was a wonderfully effective preacher," said a Brooklyn man. "His method was reserved and quiet. He always had himself well in hand."

"I once delivered a sermon before him. I was young and enthusiastic at the time, a disciple of the methods of Talbot. I let myself go in that sermon, in which he shook the church. My gestures shook the pulpit."

"At luncheon, afterward, I am ashamed to say that I barked for compliments. I leaned over the bishop and asked him in a low voice to give me some advice on preaching. Dear knows what I expected him to reply—probably that I was beyond any advice from him. At any rate, what he did reply was this:
My dear young friend, never mistake in the pulpit perspiration for inspiration."

VINDICATED.

[Philadelphia Press.]
"Why do you wear that ridiculous hat?" he growled.
"Do you really think it ridiculous?" she replied, graciously. "How lovely of you. I was afraid it wasn't quite the style."

SHE KNEW THE PLACE.

[Youth's Companion.]
The elderly matron with the bundles, who was journeying to a point in the West, and occupied a seat near the middle of the car, had fallen asleep. On the seat in front of her sat a little boy. The brakeman opened the door of the train and called out the name of the station the train was approaching. The elderly woman roused herself with a jerk.

"Where are we, Bobby?" she asked.
"I don't know, grandma," answered the little boy.
"Didn't the brakeman say something just now?"
"No. He just stuck his head inside the door and sneezed."

"Help me with these things, Bobby," she exclaimed, hurriedly. "This is Oshkosh. It's where we get off."

MERRILY GOES

THE CAMPAIGN

Liberal Candidates in Western

Counties Make Splendid

Fight.

There is no doubt that North Middlesex will remain true to Liberal principles. Mr. Alex. Smith, the Liberal candidate, is extremely well known throughout the riding, being a stockman of wide reputation. He has the advantage in this over his opponent, who is not so well known. He is from Biddulph, but outside of that his acquaintanceship is not extensive. The township of Lobo, the banner Liberal township, will pile up a very large majority for Smith, and McGillivray and East and West Williams will do the same.

With West Middlesex certain for Calvert, North Middlesex assured for Alex. Smith, and a fighting chance in East Middlesex, Liberalism will not fare badly. Two out of three is certain, and it is likely that Middlesex will make it unanimous. Let every Liberal rally about the candidates.

Routledge's Fine Fight.

Dr. Routledge, the Liberal candidate in East Middlesex, is making one of the best fights ever put up in an Ontario constituency. The riding was Conservative by over 400 four years ago, but nothing daunted by the large handicap, he set to work with a will, and the indications are that he will more than hold his own. He is a great worker, and since entering the campaign has been tireless. Reports made by the township of Westminster indicate that he will have a very large majority there, and he will do well elsewhere.

Meeting at Strathroy.

A meeting in the interests of Mr. W. S. Calvert, the Liberal candidate for West Middlesex, will be held in Strathroy this evening. Addresses will be delivered by Mr. Calvert, Mr. Duncan C. Ross, M. P., and others. The Liberal candidate has returned to Strathroy after making a thorough canvass of the southern section of his riding, and reports are of the most encouraging kind. Whenever he has spoken he has been greeted by large audiences, and has been given a most attentive hearing. Indications are that Mr. Calvert will be elected by a larger majority than four years ago.

In West Elgin.

A meeting in the interests of Mr. W. Tolmie, the Liberal candidate for West Elgin, will be held in Wallacetown this evening. It will be addressed by the candidate, Mr. O. R. Stinson, J. B. Davidson and Jas. C. Black. A correspondent writes that the impression prevails that Mr. Tolmie will sweep Dunwich Township, and will have a substantial majority in Dutton. The reports from Aldboro and Southwold are most encouraging also, and the indications are that Mr. Tolmie will poll a great vote in the country. He will do well in the city of St. Thomas.

East Lambton.

East Lambton is the scene of rather a bitter campaign. Mr. J. E. Armstrong is a qualified member of the Slanderbund, uttering sentiments that would not be uttered by many Conservative speakers, but in keeping with the general policy of the party. That the campaign is not proving effective is shown by the fact that everywhere Dr. C. O. Fairbank, the Liberal candidate, is meeting with great encouragement from sources least expected. Mr. Armstrong is seized of the fact that he has the fight of his life on his hands, and is reckless in his statements.

On Tuesday night, the Liberals held a largely attended meeting in Alvinston. Mr. J. Walter Curry, K. C., one of the ablest speakers in Canada, discussed the issues in a most convincing manner, and was given a splendid

LOCAL OPTION AGITATION

Dutton People Taking Action in the Matter—Bicycle Stolen.

Dutton, Oct. 21. — The people of this village are becoming very enthusiastic about local option, and conditions in this place are looking very serious for the liquor men. A petition is being circulated, and receiving the signatures of those in favor of the scheme, and it is stated that the success of the local option advocates is beyond their expectations.

To all appearances the term in Central Prison that Police Magistrate Hunt, of St. Thomas, meted out to J. H. Cook for petty thefts, has proved a warning to someone in this neighborhood. A bicycle was stolen from the verandah of Mr. E. Fillmore last evening, and no trace of the wheel has been discovered. The authorities, however, have been notified, and no doubt will find the guilty person or persons.

Mr. J. C. Hertel paid a visit to his friends here yesterday.

Snow has fallen again heavily in Sackatchewan, and light local snow in Alberta and Manitoba.

"Babes in Toyland."

"Babes in Toyland" will be the offering at the Grand Saturday, matinee and night. While described as an operatic extravaganza, "Babes in Toyland" is a name which indicates admirably by its vague suggestion that something unusual will occur in the course of the entertainment. Despite the indefinite character of the title there was no question as to the definite nature of the hit made by the clever company of capable comedians. The principals and chorus are combined in an amusing and at times brilliant combination of school and military, fun and frivolity. Jester children

MONTREAL SUBURBS IN DANGER OF FIRES

Town of Lachine Threatened and Beloit Mountain is on Fire.

Montreal, Oct. 21.—Owing to the prevailing lack of rain, the country surrounding Montreal is again on fire, and danger is threatened from all quarters. The deep, boggy ground in the neighborhood of Lachine, ten miles from the city, is on fire and a portion of the town itself is threatened. The foot of St. Louis Mountain, near Sherbrooke, is ablaze, and the timber limits of A. C. Bissell and the Canada Paper Company are suffering. Beloit Mountain, twenty miles to the south of Montreal, which is surrounded by many handsome homes of rich Montrealers, is also afire, and a large corps of men has been organized to fight the flames and save property in the neighborhood.

Navigation Suspended.

Brockville, Oct. 21.—The forest fires which have been raging in this locality since Sunday reached the large peat bog two miles north of the town last night. The reflection illuminated the entire town and this morning navigation is completely suspended.

BEATTIE ATTACKS LABOR MAN

tremendously. They deceived the people, Mr. Judd said, in order to get into office.

Taxation Criticized.

In regard to taxation, it had been increased very largely also. The Liberals say this is all right, as the population has increased. The poll tax has increased from $5 46 per head in 1896, to $10 in 1906, and $11 70 in 1908. Who is getting the money? Not the people. What is increasing the taxation in Canada but the expenditure? The Liberals have bought elections with the money, and right here in London they defeated Wm. Gray by corrupt means. The Montreal deal was another example of an unjust expenditure, having cost double what it should. The politicians had obtained the rake-off, Hyman Hall and other buildings were built with money obtained by rake-offs.

Premier Whitney has given Ontario the only honest government it ever had, declared Mr. Judd. Premier Whitney has control of the public domain in Ontario. Sir Wilfrid Laurier took away this right of control in western provinces. This was done because Mr. Sifton had so many relatives to look after in the west. In conclusion, Mr. Judd reiterated his statements that the Conservatives have no fight with the Labor party.

Mr. William Gray.

Mr. William Gray was given a rousing reception and said that in 1904 he was given the nomination in London when they (the Conservatives) couldn't get anyone else. He thanked East Londoners for the support they had given him in the elections of 1904 and 1905. He accused the Liberals of "Tammany Hall" of manipulating the ballot box in that subdivision and defeating him. He attacked Mr. Lemieux's honesty in the Gaspe election. Mr. Gray charged that any Government officials were grafters, especially those looking after the Galicians. Mr. Gray thought the Liberal power was doomed in Canada, and concluded with an account of what he called the Arctic and Montcalm steamship scandals.

Major Beattie.

Major Beattie said he was very pleased to meet the workmen. He did not see why he should have had to fight a Labor candidate on two occasions. No one knew the difficulties of the laboring man better than he did, as he had been a workman himself. He had no new policy to announce, but intended to follow out Sir John A. Macdonald's policy as far as possible. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had done nothing to make the country prosperous. We need more protection. The workmen may ask for eight-hour days, but they need employment more. Canada's industries need more protection. We should not help to support American workmen. We would not pay one dollar more for goods we now buy from the United States if they were manufactured here. Laurier says he made the good times. If so why does he not keep them good? There should be no depression if things were managed properly. Major Beattie attacked Alexander King, saying all he did was to get out the Labor Magazine, which was of no

Horsemen Honor Dan McEwen

Eel's Famous Driver Banquetted

The Harness Horse Lovers Show
Appreciation of Season's Fine Record.

Mr. Dan McEwen, driver of the world's champion pacer, the Eel, 2:02 1/4, and F. W. Entricken, the horse's owner, were banquetted by London horsemen last night in Dufferin Hall. The affair was entirely informal and was therefore the more enjoyable.

Horsemen were present from all parts of Ontario, and never has a more thoroughly enjoyable and memorable affair been held in the Forest City. At least 125 were in attendance to express their admiration of the great work done this season by Mr. McEwen in driving the Eel to four great records, and the world's pacer championship. Mr. Entricken, too, came in for his share of the plaudits and was warmly congratulated for the foresight he had shown in buying the Eel when a colt and in holding him even when he did not fulfill the promise that was expected of him.

Messrs. Geo. McCormick, William Mahon and Dr. F. L. Wood, who so successfully arranged the banquet, were not forgotten, either, by the speakers. The reception was practically the first that had ever been tendered a horseman or horsemen in this city, and too much cannot be said in recognition of its success. Vita's orchestra rendered the music for the occasion.

One of the most pleasing features of the evening's enjoyment was the presentation to Mr. McEwen of a handsome diamond ring, the gift of the admiring horsemen of this city.

Mr. McEwen would sooner risk his life behind a two-minute horse in a fast race any time than make a

DAN McEWEN

Dan McEwen, although not London born, has been driving in and out of this city for the past seven years. He was born in Allen, Mich., over 50 years ago, and has been connected with horses in the capacity of trainer and driver for at least 25 years.

Among the many famous campaigners Mr. McEwen has trained and driven are:

The Ace, 2:05 1/4; Nellie Bruce, 2:10 1/4; Texas Rooker, who won a race yesterday at Tottenham, 2:05 1/4; Jubilee, 2:06 1/4; Judo, 2:04 1/4; Cleopatra, 2:12 1/4; Gallagher, 2:02 1/4; Acmon Jim, 2:16 1/4; and Jennie Macg, unmarked.

Nellie Bruce was perhaps one of Mr. McEwen's greatest favorites and most consistent performers. Starting sixteen times in one season, Nellie Bruce took a like number of firsts, and at Lexington was paid first place money for staying in the barn on what would have been the seventeenth race.

speech, but he replied that it was good to know that he had so many friends who wished him well, and that he would never forget the occasion.

Mr. George McCormick made a most excellent toastmaster, and in a few words welcomed Mr. McEwen and Mr. Entricken to London.

It was good to have the pleasure of welcoming the owner and driver of the world's champion pacer. It was better to know that a London man had reached the height of a horseman's ambition to drive the fastest piece of horseflesh in the world.

Good Man, Good Horse.

"It was a case of a good man making a good horse," said Mr. McCormick, "and we hope that next season will witness an even more striking success than the past one."

Mr. McCormick said that in Henry Winters, Mr. Johnson's splendid stallion, Mr. McEwen had had another horse that bid fair to become a world-beater, and that with him London horsemen expected to see Mr. McEwen annex the trotting championship as well as the pacer record.

"We wish the Eel all kinds of success and hope that Henry Winters will do as well or better than Allan Winters or his sire Ed Winters," said the speaker.

At the head of the first table of honor sat Mr. McCormick, Mr. McEwen, Mr. Entricken, Mayor Stevely, and Dr. Fred L. Wood.

Following the excellent dinner which was provided, and Mr. McCormick's address of welcome, letters of regret were read from Hon. Adam Beck, Police Magistrate Love, and Mr. Robert ("Bo") Reid.

The Mayor Addresses.

His Worship Mayor Stevely said that he had attended many functions in his time, but that he had never felt more real pleasure or enjoyed himself better than at the banquet at hand. A few days before he had the pleasure of welcoming to London one of the world's greatest ballplayers, George ("Mooney") Gibson. His worship had then expressed the opinion that the excellent work of Mr. Gibson had advertised and made famous from coast to coast the city of London. It was indeed a pleasure to repeat those sentiments in welcoming to London Mr. McEwen, Mr. Entricken and The Eel. Mayor Stevely hoped that he would have the pleasure of presiding at a similar function in Mr. McEwen's honor next year.

Messrs. Wm. Skinner, Dr. F. L. Wood, J. W. McIntosh and Wm. Ward rendered an excellent vocal selection, which was later followed by other equally fine selections by the same quartette.

Dr. Routledge.

On behalf of the Amateur Road Drivers' Association, Dr. Routledge, of Lambeth, Liberal candidate for East Middlesex, presented the handsome matinee trophy to Mr. Wm. Collins, of this city.

Dr. Routledge was enthusiastically cheered for several moments after he arose.

As president of the association, the speaker had great pleasure in presenting to Mr. Collins the cup emblematic of the matinee championship of 1938, which Mr. Collins had fairly won with Star Brino.

Mr. Collins had shown himself an upright, straightforward horseman, and one who had fought the matinee battle fairly to the end. The cup had to be won twice by the same horse, or three times by the same owner, and he hoped to see Mr. Collins the winner with Star Brino in 1939.

Dr. Routledge said that judging by the number of enthusiastic horsemen present he could win the present campaign hands down, with The Eel and Mr. McEwen to drive for him.

In reply Mr. Collins modestly stated that he was proud to have won the cup and was proud of his gamey horse. The contest had been a friendly one, and one that had brought London horsemen in closer touch with one another.

Mr. Ernie Mullin was next introduced as the writer of a song entitled "The Eel," which he sang most acceptably. The song was descriptive of The Eel's famous battles on the Grand Circuit this year with Minor Heir, and the injustice done the Canadian stallion by unfair judging. The piece took the house by storm.

Mr. Frank N. Entricken, Tavistock, owner of The Eel, was very brief in his remarks, contenting himself by saying that he was proud to have won the cup and was proud of his gamey horse.

Mr. George Neely, M. P. P., was honored to be present at such a representative gathering of Ontario horsemen. He had known Mr. McEwen as long as anybody present, and had himself introduced to "Dan's" excellent hands. "Fast horses developed by McEwen might never have been heard of if trained by another," said Mr. Neely, mentioning a string of famous horses. Mr. McEwen had trained and driven, including Nellie Bruce, 2:10 1/4, The Ace, 2:05 1/4, and Texas Rooker, 2:05 1/4.

"But one other reinisman ever approaches Mr. McEwen," continued the speaker. "I refer to Ed. Geers, who resembles our friend in appearance."

It was good to know that Mr. McEwen had always been honest and upright, and that he enjoyed the confidence of the horsemen at large. Mr. Neely congratulated Messrs. McEwen and Mr. Entricken in the possession of the best horse in Canada. If not in the world, and said that it was a pleasure in the midst of such a warm campaign to find not only electors on both sides seated around the table of good fellowship, but also to learn that even the candidates found time to be present.

Mr. Byron B. McCarthy, of Thamesford, after eulogizing Mr. McEwen and Mr. Entricken, said that he had witnessed some of The Eel's great performances, and was confident that he was the leading pacer of the world.

"At Detroit," said Mr. McCarthy, "a party of Americans seated around a late hour table the night after Minor

FRANK W. ENTRICKEN

Mr. Entricken, the owner of The Eel, began racing horses about ten years ago. Starting with practically nothing in a financial way Mr. Entricken has become one of the most successful horsemen in the world, and today is worth thousands of dollars.

Among the best horses Mr. Entricken has owned is Wisdom King, who last year, under new ownership, cleaned up all along the Canadian circuit, and that despite the fact that he has been raced for seven consecutive years.

Mr. Entricken is an all-around sportsman, and he numbers among his friends all with whom he has come in contact. Mr. Entricken is in the brickmaking business, but finds his time well taken up watching the performances of his famous stallion.

HISTORY OF THE EEL

The Eel is a grey stallion, six years old this fall, by Gambolier, 2:22 1/4, by Gambetta Wilkes, dam Dolly Bidwell, by John L.

Mr. Frank W. Entricken, of Tavistock, the owner, bought the Eel five years ago next February, from Mr. J. Bragg, of Deerfield, Mich., for the insignificant sum of $100. Since then Mr. Entricken has refused an offer of $12,500 for the Eel.

The Eel was first called Silver Joe, and received much of his preliminary training at the Queen's Park track.

Following a most successful campaign at the Ottawa ice races last winter, the Eel was sent down the big circuit for the first time this season, and up to date has won, according to Mr. McEwen's own statement, $17,725.

The Eel has started in eighteen races, and Mr. McEwen and others hold that he has been given fair treatment he would have won them all.

In thirteen races on the grand circuit the Eel has won ten firsts, two seconds and a third.

With another year's experience the Eel is confidently expected to pace below the two-minute mark, and barring accidents, should win the pacer championship next year in clean fashion.

Among the many creditable performances made by the horse this year—his first one in racing—was the creating of a state record for pacer stallions in three heats of a race at Detroit, the stepping of the fastest quarter-mile ever paced on the famous Poughkeepsie grand circuit track, and the fastest half-mile on record at Columbus.

Heir's doubtful victory, listened to the following toast:

Here's to American horses—the best in the land—
Here's to Minor Heir, first before the stand!

"It was somewhat different, though, at Columbus, continued the speaker, 'when an enthusiastic Canadian, who had witnessed The Eel's great victory recited a toast as follows:

'Here's to the Canadian wonder—the ghost they call The Eel.
Minor Heir is champion no longer, for today he was shown the heel.'

The extreme modesty of Mr. Joseph Johnson caused him to decline the honor of eulogizing his own great stallion, Henry Winters, owner of Morgan charges, so Chairman McCormick did it for him. Great things were expected of the London stallion next season, Mr. McCormick said. Already Henry Winters had worked a mile around 2:00, and looked like the coming trotting stallion.

"Don't like to say much about my own," said Mr. Johnson, owner of Morgan Winters, Henry Winters' oldest foal, "but I can state that under Mr. McEwen's capable management I look for great things from that youngster. He has had him less than six months, when he went at a three-minute clip, and he was then not two years old."

Mr. James McCartney, one of London's best known and veteran horsemen, said that he was more than proud of Mr. McEwen and Mr. Entricken, and that if The Eel were present in person he would back up what the speaker said.

"That's right, hand the ghost a bouquet," shouted someone, amid loud applause.

Dr. Fred L. Wood, one of the local horsemen responsible for the reception, was pleased to be present, and to witness the tribute to the crowning triumph of Mr. McEwen's career as a reinsman. "A few short years ago 'Dan,' then a comparatively young man, had taken Nellie Bruce all the way down the big circuit and had since handled other famous harness horses. The speaker wished Mr. McEwen years of added success, and stated that there was plenty of first-class local material for campaign purposes.

After announcing that The Eel would appear at Bennett's Theatre tonight, Chairman McCormick threw the meeting open to all who cared to speak.

Have Local Runners Accepted Money?

The latest tip handed out is to the effect that a number of local and neighboring runners have been or will be professionalized by the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union for participation in races for money at fall fairs. Among those mentioned as being under the ban are Jack Sweeney, Vincent Adams, Bernie Adams, Ed Ryckman and the other members of the Middlesex County relay team.

Some of the runners who have been recently admitted to a C. A. A. U. scout who was nosing around here that they had cleaned up $200 apiece at the fairs.

Adams and Sweeney were formerly members of the Ontario A. A. U. but left that body to throw in with the Ramblers, which club is said to have paid their expenses and entry fees at different places.

Other local runners were placed under the glass, but escaped suspension or exclusion along the line, it is said.

The Basketball Series Begins Tonight

When Referee Wickett blows his whistle for the opening game in the Y. M. C. A. series tonight (Thursday), he will be faced by some new men on nearly every team.

The Tigers will present Walter Morris, a member of the Winnipeg Thistles last year, and Vincent Adams, the local runner, a graduate from the Class League. The old faces on this team will be Paul Poisson, Max Smith and Russell McRobert.

The Shamrocks will bring out two hustling, fast, good shooting forwards in Jones and Gough. These men are pretty light for senior company, but make up for it in speed and good shooting. They should be well fed by Elmer George, the big centre man, who will captain the team. Butcher and Martin, who went to school together in St. Mary's, will stay together on the defense. "From here it looks like the Shamrocks' champions."

The Midgits, last year's champions, will be captained by Harold Wood, who has been playing basketball in New York and Ottawa, where he has picked up some new wrinkles, and a new pair of suction shoes, which claim to stand upon any kind of slippery floor. Harold, who is a brother of Duff, now in Toronto, and is lovingly called "Jimmy" for short, will have old basketball when Doc Sippl first tried, and the two Glen boys and Logan to help him out.

The Wizards will have Martin Strauch at centre, and Crosbie and Anderson forwards. This trio worked together last year so well that no change is contemplated. Stanley Percival graduates to senior company this year, and is a very heady player. Nobody knows who the fifth man will be, but it is rumored that Seymour Hill, one of Brantford's fastest men, is in the city, and representatives of all four teams are on a still hunt to locate him.

The referees will be: Referee—C. H. Wickett, Judge of Play—Stanley Brent, Scorer—Frank George.

Splits were frequent on West's side, and Barnes seemed to bowl in the best of form and luck.

West and Barnes will meet again soon, after which they will challenge any two bowlers in Canada to a series of best of three games.

Bell and Barnes meet Wednesday. The scores: West—161, 165, 133, 181, 166, 211, 213, 194, 178, 218.—1,870. Average 187. Barnes—192, 152, 186, 210, 191, 214, 153, 233, 258, 191.—1,960. Average 193. A series of matches and was defeated by 14 pins on the entire series.

West had a lead of 67 pins when the two came together yesterday, but Barnes earned a margin of 90 pins, winning the series by the score mentioned.

West bowled in the hardest kind of luck, and made but one error in the ten games.

Mr. N. Parke Graydon wasn't personally a horse owner, but took great interest in the sport. The speaker had first heard of Mr. McEwen when the latter campaigned Nellie Bruce, and had gone to see him race at the Queen's Park track.

Of Henry Winters, Mr. Graydon knew little, except through his friend Jenkins, who kept mentioning in glowing terms that "colt of his." It had been a great feat for Mr. McEwen to invade the great American race centres and clean up so handsomely with The Eel.

Mr. Jarvis, of Tavistock, a brother-in-law of Mr. Entricken, told of having driven behind The Eel in a cutter. "He was a slim one then," said he, "but he could go like a ghost."

Apologizing for being late, Major Lattin commented briefly on the excellent work of judgment of Messrs. McEwen and Entricken, and expressed his regret at having missed seeing The Eel race during the past season.

Mr. McIntosh created a laugh when he stated that he had known Mr. McEwen for over fifty years, and that the two of them had gained their early knowledge through knotholes in the race track fences.

"Dan's father would have been just as good a horseman as his son," said Mr. McIntosh, "and he has been given the same opportunities. I frequently saw him—a man of 30—driving to church at a 2:30 or 2:35 clip."

Dan McEwen had always got more out of a good horse than any other driver he knew of.

"I consider Mr. McEwen's work nothing short of marvellous," said Mr. R. J. Young, "especially when the handicaps he had to undergo at the hands of American turf officials is considered."

Mr. William Ward, introduced as "Mark Twain," began by stating that to enjoy life one must cultivate a taste for three things: First, a good cigar; second, a good horse; third, broken biscuits. The latter articles went with horsemanship, and losing horseman might find himself reduced to eating bread for the sake of economy. Horsemen generally were a sociable, genial lot, and the only reason they did not get on better was that they did not care to beat his good neighbor, Dr. F. L. Wood.

In conclusion, Dr. H. A. Stevenson proposed, and Mr. McCormick, McCormick and Entricken, who planned and carried out the highly successful reception and parade.

Mr. McEwen and Mr. Entricken were kept busy shaking hands for some time after the banquet was over.

GRIDIRON NOTES

Wonder where London is at on that Dundas protest? One report says matters look favorable to London and another says that the matter has been dismissed. Secretary Sage says that the question won't be dealt with until the London team arrives in Hamilton Saturday.

TWO GAMES.

London fans who accompany the locals will have an opportunity of seeing the seniors in action against Montreal, as well as the Cubs against London. And all for a few dollars.

HOW'S THIS?

The appeal of the London team against the referee of the game at Dundas a week ago last Saturday has been dismissed.—Hamilton Times.

DOPE.

Up to date Hamilton has scored 80 points against 18 by the other three teams in the Interprovincial in three games; Ottawa 64 against 28 Argonauts; 32 against 99, Montreal 23 against 54.

Hamilton and Dundas have each won three games in the intermediate Interprovincial, scoring 102 to 7 and 105 to 11, respectively. London and Argos have been the victims, the latter not scoring a point to 127 against.

SENIOR TIGERS.

Hamilton Spectator: It was announced last night that Ballard would be in the game here Saturday against Montreal. George claims he is just about ready to play now, and as the game Saturday should not be particularly hard, it is very likely that he will play, Burton going to center half. In addition to this, there is the possibility of a couple of other changes.

Liz Marriott is laid up with a bad knee, and he may rest up, young Glassford being tried out at outside wing. Wigle will not play again until the Ottawa game. His foot is causing him considerable trouble, and it is deemed advisable to save him as much as possible.

HARD AT WORK.

"Although they got away with a handy victory on Saturday and appear to have the championship clinched, the Tigers were hard at work last night, that is, those who were in shape to frolic around, and a busy hour was put in being drilled by George Ballard. After a little punting and drop-kicking practice the team was lined up and put through a heavy signal practice. All the old plays were worked out and Captain Ballard was given a surprise or two with a couple of new plays that are being reserved especially for Ottawa. One of the new plays, worked on the principle of a fake buck, works particularly good, and with Captain Ballard in his old place at quarter and Dutch Burton on the back line, there is no doubt as to the result of the Ottawa game.

DAVE TOPE.

It was a delight last night to watch Dave Tope shooting drop kicks over the bar. The cotton-top was drifting them over at all angles, and punting like himself all the way. Dave is showing great improvement every day, and has almost lost all traces of his recent injury. He should be pretty fit in another week or so, and with Ballard in the game, Dave in form, Simpson and Burton as good as ever, to say nothing of the hoped-for improvement in Moore, the Tiger back line should look like itself by the time the trip up the Rideau is taken.

SLIGHTLY MIXED.

Owing to the fact that the three Tiger teams were scheduled to play here on Saturday, there has been a slight change made in the intermediate schedule, and on Saturday there will be but one game played, the Argos going to London. Dundas was scheduled for Toronto and London to Hamilton here, but the Tigers and the Valleys will have an off day.—Hamilton Spectator.

Briefs

YES, LONDON is not going to Toronto Saturday. These twists in schedules are enough to create a brain-storm.

HAVING RUN OUT of material for the Herald road race to be pulled off Nov. 9 over the famous Hamilton course, the Hamilton Herald is now sizing up London as a sporting proposition.

"London is to have a mile track ready for racing next season, and it is likely that there will be a race meeting at least a week's duration in the city that Paul Wreath cleaned up last spring while Fred Paige was on the job here. London is a great horse town, and a properly conducted race meeting should be a great success there. It is to be hoped that it will not develop into a Dufferin Park meeting, and it is not likely that it will, as the horsemen in London are not pikers, but men who are interested in the welfare of the turf."

AN EXCHANGING REMARKS that our old friend Dave Graydon has been elected president of the C. A. A. That is an honor to tickle the palate of any sportsman. To be the czar of four thousand "roaring" brothers armed with beams "is just a trifle better than bossing one of those little two-by-four kingdoms that keep kicking up a fuss over around the Balkans at the present time."

DUFFERIN PARK is still a-running.

THEY ARE TELLING a good story about a local sportsman with a penchant for following the ponies. Yesterday he got down on Zarape at Latonia, and so anxious was he to learn the result that he phoned a local telegraph office.

"Dixie Himmel, first," came back the reply. "Nope, nothing said about Zarape. Must have been scratched."

The better, of course, congratulated himself on the fact that while he had not won he had not lost at all events. Later he learned that Dixie Himmel had run in the second race at Empire City, and that Zarape had been an also ran at Latonia.

Hard luck, eh?

SEYMOUR HILL, late of Brantford, and one of the best basketball players in Canada, is in the city and will probably line-up with the Y. M. C. A. team tonight. Hill is one of the few men who were ever able to hold Strauch when that player was right.

The local fans feel confident that, even without Raymond, who, as mentioned on another page yesterday, has returned to Halifax, they will give the Cubs a great game and be returned winners.

The Rooters' Club is respectfully urged to fall in line and accompany the team to Hamilton.

Young Men's Club Was Organized

Last night a meeting was held in Taylor's greenhouse to discuss the formation of a young men's club for London Township. Those present were unanimous for forming the society. The idea of the club is to gather the young men together during the winter and spend a pleasant evening. They will exchange postcards with the different parts of the world. Although the official name was not decided on it is thought that likely it will be christened "The Jolly Jokers' Club."

The Chicken Exhibition a Good One

Local chicken fanciers are more than pleased with the outlook for the big poultry show to be held in Queen's Park on Thanksgiving Day. It will be the biggest and best thing in the line of poultry shows that London has ever seen," said President McNeill to The Advertiser this afternoon. "For that matter, there will be no choicer collection of prize birds to be seen at any show in America. Last year we had 1,200 entries; this year we will have between 1,500 and 2,000. Many of the best-known breeders in London are showing the pick of their prize birds, and the best-known breed-

LIGHT IS NEEDED AT YORK AND RECTORY

People of That District Are Again Agitating.

The residents of the vicinity of York and Rectory streets are again agitating for a light at that corner, and it is thought that the request will be granted, as the new church recently erected by the Seventh Day Adventists there is now occupied.

The place is a particularly quiet one, as Rectory street school is on one corner and the church on the other. There is no light on York street east of Glebe street.

The agitation for a light has been going on for about two years, but for some reason the residents have always been unable to get it.

Readers are advised to cut out and save page six of The Advertiser, containing the names of all candidates in the Dominion elections. It will be found very useful on election night, when the returns come in.

Slightly Improved.

The condition of Mrs. E. R. Dennis, of London, who is seriously ill at Port Colborne, is slightly improved, and there seems to be a chance that she will eventually recover from the attack of blood-poisoning from which she has been suffering for several weeks.

A Pretty Wedding.

He issued ten summonses this morning for delinquents, and will issue several more within a short time.

Great for the Children.

The numerous novelty matinees which Manager Driscoll is giving to the children every Saturday at Bennett's Theatre, have proved to be very popular. Next Saturday there will be a "Tiger" Buster Brown matinee, and undoubtedly the house will be filled to overflowing, as has been the case since these novelty matinees have been inaugurated.

Numerous inquiries have been received at the postoffice in reference to the annuities, and much interest evinced in the arrival of the detailed descriptions.

May Appeal the Case.

It is probable that Mr. J. M. McEvoy will enter an appeal against the $1500 fine meted out to H. A. Judge, the Government detective, who was recently found guilty by Magistrate Chittick and Hodgins on two counts of taking liquor upon the Oneida Indian reserve. "I have not yet received definite instructions," said Mr. McEvoy today, "but expect to proceed on Tuesday next."

Halloween Concert.

Scotchmen in London should be grateful to the Sons of Scotland male chorus for reviving the old Scottish celebration. Burns' anniversary was celebrated for the first time in many years in London last January by a fine concert in the Auditorium. This year they start off with a concert on Halloween night in the Auditorium. They will be assisted by Miss Jean Robb, of this city, and Geo. Some of the problems to be developed in the later periods of the year will be taken up—infancy, the kindergarten period, youth and adolescence. These will be developed in the different clubs according to the needs and interests of the members.

BRYAN'S NEW CHARGE

Says Railroads Are Compelling Employees to Vote Against Him.

Newark, Oct. 21.—In a speech here to a large crowd today William J. Bryan criticized the Republican party for its campaign methods. His utterances were full of vigor, and were greeted with loud cheers.

He read from a dispatch from a Columbia paper, which stated that five hundred workmen of the Erie Railroad at Bellefonte, Pa., had been called together in the shops and notified that if Bryan was elected there would be a 10 per cent reduction in wages, and that if he was defeated there would be an increase in both pay and work.

"There, my friends," said Mr. Bryan, "is the statement in a Republican paper of the threat made by the officials of a great railroad system. They threaten to punish men for voting the Democratic ticket by a 10 per cent cut in their wages, and they promise to increase their pay and their work if they will vote the Republican ticket. I say to you that the little weakling who goes around and bribes a man for $5 is a moral character, besides the man who attempts to use his power to threaten those who work for him, and to buy them, by a promise of increase or threaten them by a promise of a decrease."

Delaware, Oct. 21, 1908.

Editor Advertiser

Dear Sir:—In today's issue of The Advertiser I noticed you mentioned that one of the hotelkeepers in Delaware had been fined, and as I am the only hotelkeeper in Delaware Township, I beg leave to contradict statement, as I have never been fined in Delaware yet. So be kind enough to have same contradicted, and oblige.

Yours,

W. H. FRALEIGH.

WARDER KILLS FOUR INDIANS

Officer Shoots Murderous Redskins But Is Himself Killed in Battle.

Butte, Montana, Oct. 22.—A dispatch to the Miner from Missoula says: Game Warden W. F. Scott and Deputy Warden Henry A. Vass, arrived here last night with the remains of Deputy Game Warden Charles B. Peyton, killed in a fight with Indians on Sunday in the Swan River country while attempting to arrest them for transgressing the game laws of the state.

According to the story of Peyton's death, told by Herbert Rudolph, the ranch hand who accompanied Peyton within forty feet of the Indian camp, the deputy game warden was shot by a 13-year-old Indian boy who had been behind the horses of the Redskins, and not by his tracks with a bullet. Two other Indians attempted to get their guns unheated, but Peyton killed them before they could get into action. Rudolph then observed the little Indian lad kneeling between the horses aiming at Peyton, and he fired at the Redskins just as the latter bowed over Peyton. The Redskins toppled over dead.

All the mountain passes are being watched for the fleeing squaws who had ended Peyton's sufferings with a half a dozen shots from some small rifle. The dead, and who are now carrying off the bodies of the dead men and boys.

FOR UNIFORM SCALE

Toronto, Oct. 21.—The members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen who are in Toronto representing all the eastern railway lines, held their second session today in Occident Hall.

The object of the gathering is chiefly to bring about a uniform scale of wages on all railways for conductors, baggagemen and brakemen.

The gathering will prepare a scale and report it to their different local bodies for their approval.

"This," said one of the officers, "we found necessary to do because one road was paying its employees against the other. The object, therefore, is that when the brotherhood in the future makes a demand for an increase of wages it will be generally along the one line. A similar conference was held recently in New York by representatives of the western line, and Grand Chief Morrissey, of the trainmen, and A. Garveston are in attendance to advise the men the most prudent course to take."

REVENUE AND TAXATION; TWO RECORDS COMPARED

Revenue in 1908 Exceeded That of 1896 by $59,881,410—
The Receipts From Excise in Taxation Decreased.

Owing to the accidental omission of several paragraphs, the article in yesterday's Advertiser on Revenue and Taxation (page six) was not as clear as it might have been. The following will explain what was intended:

LIBERALS PRODUCED A REVENUE.
The Liberals promised, if returned to power, that they would design a tariff that would produce a revenue. In 1896 the total revenue of Canada was $2,000,000 less than it was in 1889, and the public debt was over $40,000,000 greater. It had been found necessary by the Conservatives to borrow money TO PAY THE ORDINARY EXPENSES OF THE COUNTRY. The public debt had been piling up year by year, and the time had arrived to change the government. The people were promised an increase in revenue, and this is how the Liberals kept their promise:

IN 1896 THE TOTAL REVENUE OF THE COUNTRY UNDER CONSERVATIVES WAS $36,618,590
UNDER LIBERAL RULE.

In 1897 this was exceeded by	$ 1,211,188
In 1898 this was exceeded by	3,936,648
In 1899 this was exceeded by	10,122,659
In 1900 this was exceeded by	14,411,404
In 1901 this was exceeded by	15,896,111
In 1902 this was exceeded by	21,432,200
In 1903 this was exceeded by	29,418,478
In 1904 this was exceeded by	34,051,226
In 1905 this was exceeded by	34,564,182
In 1906 this was exceeded by	43,520,770
In 1907 (9 months) this was exceeded by	31,350,738
In 1908 this was exceeded by	59,881,410

TOTAL REVENUE IN 1896, AFTER CONSERVATIVES HAD BEEN IN POWER EIGHTEEN YEARS, $36,618,590

TOTAL REVENUE IN 1908, AFTER LIBERALS HAD BEEN IN POWER TWELVE YEARS, $96,500,000

EXCESS OF REVENUE 1908 OVER 1896, $59,881,410

REVENUE FROM EXCISE.
IN 1896 THE TOTAL REVENUE FROM EXCISE WAS $500,000 LESS THAN IT WAS IN 1893. IT AMOUNTED TO $8,034,077

IN 1897 this was exceeded by	$ 1,254,603
In 1898 this was exceeded by	(no excess)
In 1899 this was exceeded by	1,768,193

LIBERALS REDUCED TAXATION

Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised not only to increase the revenue, but to reduce the rate of customs taxation in 1908, and the tariff was ultimately designed to accomplish this result. How successfully this was done the following official figures will demonstrate.

PERCENTAGE OF TAXATION.
Average rate of customs taxation in 1896 (last year of Conservative Rule)	18.28
Average rate of customs taxation in 1908, under Liberal rule	15.88
This means that the Liberal reduction of the Conservative taxation is equivalent to	13 per cent
The Liberal Government has effected a reduction in the rate of duty and taxation. On all goods entering Canada for home consumption, the average rate of duty in 1896 was 18.28 per cent, and in 1907 it was 15.66 per cent, a reduction of 2.62 per cent. IN OTHER WORDS, THE LIBERALS REDUCED TAXATION $2 55 UPON EVERY $100 OF GOODS ENTERED FOR HOME CONSUMPTION.

TRIED TO SECURE UNIFORM PRICES
Grocers' Guild Had Strenuous Time Preventing Cutting of Rates.
Toronto, Oct. 21. — The prosecution in the case against seven members of the Dominion Wholesale Grocers' Guild produced over two hundred letters at this morning's session before Chief Justice Falconbridge, showing the attitude of the guild toward retailers, jobbers and wholesalers, how refractory parties were dealt with and how manufacturers sometimes joined hands with the guild and at others kept apart. Thus it was shown that the Tuckett Tobacco Company at one time refused the petition of the guild to discipline the Hudson's Bay Company for underselling. The manufacturers of Crosse & Blackwell's pickles had likewise flouted their own preferred methods in the guild's face and said they would sell to whoever they pleased and make no discrimination. It was indicated that in the three important commodities of sugar, canned goods and tobacco, the guild made strenuous efforts to secure uniformity in the selling prices, and to bring any parties sharply to task who cut the rate to retailers, or allowed special rebates.

The defence will be given their opportunity in a day or two, and will, it is understood, enter the plea that the Dominion Wholesale Grocers' Guild was a legal organization for the protection of the wholesale trade from retail intruders, and that all the prosecution's letters and other evidence proves only that the alleged "conspiracy in restraint of trade" was a simple arrangement to keep retailers from enjoying the prices accorded wholesalers.

Mr. H. C. Beckett, president of the guild, expressed the opinion this morning that the evidence against the guild was "all bosh."

"The complainants in this case are sore because they cannot get rights from the manufacturers equal to the wholesalers. Every manufacturer has a bundle of letters in his office from retail men wanting to buy direct. It's a matter of common experience. The charge in this case has no foundation." The reading of letters to the court explained in a general way the working of the guild's policy. When the Hudson's Bay Company refused to come in Mr. W. J. McMillan, vice-president of the British Columbia Exchange, was wired by Mr. Beckett: "Have had long interview with Tuckett. Sorry to say he will not discipline Hudson's Bay Company. Trade are at liberty to sell any price they like."

Mr. Beckett later wrote Mr. McMillan as follows: "I pointed out to Tuckett that such a stand as he had taken would have no other effect than antagonizing the trade and that it would certainly tend to make him unpopular with a large majority of the wholesale grocers."

The Price of Tobacco.
The conception of an officer of the guild regarding the tobacco business in general was expressed in a letter from Mr. H. C. Beckett to Mr. J. Stanley Cook:

"The price of tobacco should be sold at manufacturers' list prices, and that the profit to the wholesale trade come in the shape of a rebate from Tuckett just the same as it does from the Empire Company. . . . The net result of my plan would be that Winnipeg would be getting one cent more than they are getting now in their trade in Macdonald's and Tuckett's in the Northwest."

A circular from Secretary Cook, of the guild, dealing with the agreement for the sale of Sir Wm. C. Macdonald's tobacco to the guild, stated: "To secure uniformity in price and terms, we, the undersigned firms, hereby agree with each other that we will faithfully and honestly adhere to the above advance and terms, and that, if at any time we break this agreement, we agree not to complain if the manufacturer refuses to supply us with his goods."

Another circular issued by Mr. Cook read: "On Monday, Feb. 8, 1903, T. & B. tobacco jumps 5 cents per pound over the duty paid price. (This arrangement applies to the whole Dominion.)"

Canned Meats and Vegetables.
Still another place of Mr. Cook's voluminous correspondence sent the membership of the guild said: "We will give you a sum equal to 5 per cent on your entire purchase of canned meats and vegetables on the condition that you sell at the listed price and give not more than 1 per cent discount."

A blank form was enclosed with the above, which read: "We hereby agree to confine our purchases to Canadian canners."

Another official guild letter read: "About 90 per cent of the canners have come into the agreement, the understanding being that the rebate shall only be given to those wholesalers who keep the selling prices, and make no purchases whatever from canners outside the agreement."

Why McCrae Was Struck Off.
On the witness stand Mr. J. Stanley Cook, secretary of the Dominion Wholesale Grocers' Guild, gave reasons why certain names submitted to him by Mr. Washington were never admitted to the guild. A number of these referred to merchants who ran retail and wholesale businesses under the one management.

"W. R. McCrae & Co., of Kingston, Ont., were struck off the guild list. Why was this?"

"Because of representations from the Kingston guild branch that the firm was unfairly competing with retailers. When the business moved under new management the guild cut off their wholesale privileges."

"How many rebates have been withheld from members by the guild for breaches of agreements?"

"Only one that I know of, though the refiners have the right to act on an individual complaint, and withhold rebates when they please."

"Who gets the rebate?"

"I don't know. I suppose the refiners must get them."

"GREY GHOST" HELD ALL EYES

Entricken's Beautiful Pacer Central Attraction of A Big Parade.
Hundreds of Londoners turned out yesterday afternoon to catch a glimpse of the most famous racehorse in the world, the Eel.

The procession which followed the Eel through the main streets of the city was several blocks long, and contained every well-known horse and horseman in London and vicinity.

Naturally, chief interest centered in the beautiful "Grey Ghost," and what a picture the dainty little fellow made as with head tossed high and thoroughbred written all over him, he stepped briskly along ahead of the sulky which he pulled to so many great victories on the Grand Circuit last season, his first in big company.

The procession was formed at Victoria Park and proceeded down Richmond to Carling, to Ridout, to York, to Richmond, to Dundas and east to the fair grounds, where the Eel paced an exhibition half-mile in 1:04 1/4.

Behind the Eel was a carriage containing Messrs. McEwen and Entricken, Mayor Stevely and Mr. Geo. McCormick.

Immediately behind the carriage came Henry Winters, Mr. Jos. Johnston's clever trotting stallion, who is expected to do big things under Mr. McEwen's expert handling next season. Next came Henry Winters' oldest foal, Morgan Winters, owned by Mr. Jenkins of this city.

After that came London's horsemen in full force, making a most imposing and picturesque turnout.

All of last year's matinee winners were out, gaily bedecked with the ribbons they had won, and practically every horse worth while was in line. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Seventh Regiment Band and Vita's orchestra.

A Fast Exhibition.
The Eel's performance at the track was a noteworthy one, even if it was but an exhibition. Incidentally he lowered the local matinee record.

The Eel did not carry an ounce of superfluous flesh and appeared in trim to go out yesterday and beat his old adversary, Minor Heir, hands down.

It was a great procession, and one that will long be remembered by Londoners.

Tonight Londoners will be given another opportunity of seeing the famous stallion, at Bennett's Theatre, the management of which, with its characteristic enterprise, has secured the Eel as an added attraction, for one night only.
