The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

The Nova Scotia
Legislative Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

The Nova Scotia
Legislative Library

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

But full members elected on or after the 1st day of July in any year are required to pay but one-half of the annual subscription for the year in which they may be elected. Whenever there are three vacancies in the Committee in the current year, notice shall be posted in the Club, and such vacancies shall be filled up by ballot on the day for the election of members next after fourteen days from such notice. A Treasurer shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting, who shall be ex officio a member of the Committee. The Treasurer elect will be required, before entering on the duties of his office, to provide security to the amount of Four Thousand Dollars.

XV.—The Committee shall meet weekly, on a stated day, to transact current business, and to audit the accounts of the preceding week, three of whom shall form a quorum.

XVI.—Any infraction of the rules and regulations of the Club, shall be taken immediate cognizance of by the Committee; and in case the conduct of any member shall, in the opinion of the Committee, or of any thirty members of the Club who shall certify the same to them in writing, be injurious to the character and interests of the Club, the Committee shall be empowered to recommend such member to resign; and if the member so recommended refuse to resign, then the Committee shall be authorized to suspend him from the privileges of the Club, until his conduct shall have been investigated and decided upon by a Special General Meeting to be convened for that purpose upon a Requisition of 30 members as provided by Rule XX; and whenever any circumstance shall occur likely to endanger the welfare and good order of the Club, or whenever the Committee shall think it expedient to submit the conduct of any member to the judgment of a General Meeting, the Committee shall summon a special Meeting, giving fourteen days notice thereof, and in the event of it being voted at that meeting, consisting of at least fifty members, by two-thirds of the persons present (to be decided by ballot) that the name of any member should be removed from the Club, then in that case the subscription of such member for the current year shall be returned, and he shall cease to belong to the Club. Such decision to be final.

General meetings.

XIX.—There shall be two General Meetings of the Club regularly every year, one on the first Wednesday of April for the purpose of electing the Committee for the succeeding year, and receiving from the Committee a report and abstract of the accounts and general concerns of the Club for the past year, together with an estimate of the receipts and disbursements of the current year; which report and estimate shall be printed for the use of the members and one copy put in each of the public rooms of the Club at least fourteen days before the first General Meeting. At this meeting members shall be at liberty to bring forward any subject having reference to the management and concerns of the Club. The other regular General Meeting shall be held on the fourteenth day after the former, for the purpose of deciding on such propositions as may have been submitted at the first meeting. The chair shall be taken at all annual and special General Meetings at 2 o'clock, p. m., precisely. The accounts of the Club shall be audited by an auditor not a member of the Committee.

Extraordinary meeting.

XX.—The Committee shall have power at all times to convene an extraordinary meeting of the Club, on giving fourteen days notice, to be posted during that period in the public rooms of the Club, specifying the object of such meeting, in the form of a resolution, to be signed by not less than six members of the Committee; and at such extraordinary meetings no subject shall be discussed beyond that specified in the notice. The Committee shall also call a General Meeting at any time, on a like notice, and under similar restrictions, on the written requisition of thirty members not being of the Committee, who must state distinctly their object.

XXI. If any new Rule or alteration of an old one be duly proposed at the first regular Annual Meeting, and approved of and confirmed at the second regular Annual Meeting that day fortnight, by two-thirds of the members then present, whatever the numbers may be, the same shall be considered as adopted by the Club; but with this exception, no new Rule or adoption of a general Rule shall ever be made without the sanction of an absolute majority of two-thirds of the members present at a special General Meeting, and forty members at least voting on the occasion, and twenty-eight days notice being given; nor unless the proposed new Rule or alteration of an old one has been posted up in the usual place in the public rooms twenty-eight days previous to the day of meeting.

XXII.—The Club shall be open every day for the reception of members at seven o'clock in the forenoon in the summer, and at eight o'clock in the forenoon in the winter, and shall be closed and the lights extinguished at one o'clock, a. m., except on Saturdays, when the house shall be closed at eleven o'clock, p. m., and no member shall be admitted into the Club House after these hours on any pretence whatever, unless specially authorized by the Committee.

XXIII.—Each member shall be allowed to bring a stranger to dine with him, under such regulations as may be made by the Committee, the dinner to be charged at rates to be regulated by the Committee; it being expressly understood that the bill is to be discharged by the member. The Committee are also empowered to regulate the admission of strangers in company with members, at other times, and they shall decide what rooms they are to be admitted to. The Committee have the power to suspend this rule during such periods as they may think necessary, for the convenience of the Club, notice of such suspension being posted up in the coffee-room at least one week previously. No persons residing within the limits of the County of Halifax, shall be eligible to be introduced as strangers, or the guests of members.

Payment of Club bills.

XXIV.—All members are to pay their bills for every expense they incur in the Club before they leave the house, the servants having positive orders not to open accounts with any individual.

No gratu-

Complaints.

XXVIII.—All complaints respecting Breakfasts, Dinners, &c., stated on the back of the bill, and signed by the member so complaining, must be specially noticed by the Committee on settling the weekly accounts; and all complaints respecting the servants or domestic arrangements of the Club must be stated by letter signed by the member complaining, which letter addressed to the Secretary must be laid by him before the Committee, at their next weekly meeting.

XXIX.—Each member of the Club shall give ^{Address of} his address, or that of his banker or agent, from ^{members.} time to time, to the Secretary; and all notices being sent to such address, shall be considered as duly delivered.

XXX.—No member is on any account to bring ^{No dogs.} a dog into the Club House.

XXXI.—Officers in Her Majesty's Army, and ^{Privileged} persons holding Civil and Military appointments ^{Members.} under the Imperial Government who may be stationed in Nova Scotia for an indefinite period, and other eligible persons who shall satisfy the Committee that their residence in this country is temporary and precarious, and liable to be terminated by the occurrence of circumstances beyond their control, may be elected by ballot as ^{Privileged} Members without payment of entrance fee, but subject to an annual subscription of twenty-five dollars, payable on the first day of January; or a semi-annual subscription of fifteen dollars, payable on the first of January and first of July; and also to the constitution and regulations of the Club generally; and after having paid their subscriptions, but in no case before, will be admitted to all the advantages of the Club, except that of being elected members of the Committee, or voting in any way in the affairs of the Club.—Privileged members who may be elected within one month of the day in which the several subscriptions become due, will be required only to pay pro rata for that month; but that together with the subscription for the ensuing period, must be remitted to the Treasurer before they can be allowed the use of the Club.

Officers in Her Majesty's Navy may be admitted to this Club as "Privileged Members" under this rule, subject to a quarterly subscription of eight Dollars each, or semi-annual or annual subscription as above mentioned, and also to the constitution and regulations of the Club generally. Persons, not officers of the garrison, who satisfy the Committee that their residence in this Province will not exceed three months may be admitted to this Club on the same terms as officers in H. M. Navy.

Privileged members desiring to retire from the Club will be expected to give notice thereof in writing, to the Secretary, previous to the expiration of the period for which they have subscribed; any Privileged member failing so to do, or who shall frequent the Club after that period will be liable for the subscription for the ensuing period.

☞ All Ordinary Members of the "St. James Club," Montreal; "Stadacona Club," Quebec; "Toronto Club," Toronto; and "Montreal Club," Montreal, who shall be duly certified as such, and whose usual place of residence is without the Province of Nova Scotia, shall be eligible for election as Privileged Members of this Club, subject to the provisions of this rule.

Their election.

XXXII.—Each candidate as a Privileged Member must be so designated in the book and also on the lists of candidates for election posted in the public rooms, and no candidate to be a Privileged Member shall be placed on said list unless his name shall have been submitted for the approval of the Committee one week before the day of ballot.

Honorary members.

XXXIII.—The Committee shall have the power to admit as "Honorary Members," the Lieut.-Governor of the Province, the General commanding the Troops in this garrison, and the Admiral commanding the Fleet on this station, such Honorary Members to pay no entrance fee or subscription; and they may also admit to the privileges of the Club, for such periods as they may from time to time think fit, any strangers of distinguished rank and position visiting this city to whom it may seem proper to offer such a compliment, but the resolution to admit them must be agreed to by a majority of the Committee.

XXXIV.—Any member wishing to introduce a friend temporarily visiting Halifax, and not residing in the Province, as an Honorary Member of the Club, must send in a written application for permission to do so stating the name and profession of such friend, to the Committee at their weekly meeting, for their sanction; or he must obtain by request, the signatures of five members of the Committee, or the Active Committee for the month, to his application as approving of it. The application thus signed must then be handed to the Secretary who will notify the person named therein that he has been admitted to the Club, for fourteen days, beyond which period the privilege shall in no case be extended, at one time; nor shall it be extended to more than one friend to each member at one time. Every member to whom this permission may be accorded will be held responsible for the eligibility of his nominee, as well as for his observance of all the rules of the Club.

Commissioned Officers of H. M. Navy visiting this port, and officers of the Army on joining the Staff, or Regiments stationed in this garrison, or on returning from general leave of absence, may be admitted by the Committee under this rule, for fourteen days, or if they signify their wish to become Privileged Members and have been duly proposed and seconded, until they can be ballotted for; but any officer before taking advantage of this last proviso will be required to pay to the Treasurer his subscription in advance, which, however, will be returned to him in the event of the ballot proving adverse. The name of every Honorary Member, with that of his proposer, will be entered in a book provided for that purpose, on the day of his admission; but the period for which the privileges of the Club may be granted him will be reckoned from his first entry to the Club House to partake of them. If however, any Honorary member shall fail to avail himself of the permission within the fourteen days, it will then be cancelled. No person shall be eligible to be proposed as an Honorary Member after having been in Halifax fourteen days, nor for more than twice in any one year.

lege.

Rules to be printed, &c.

XXXV.—These rules and regulations shall be printed, and a copy of them, together with a list of the Committee shall be delivered to every member of the Club, or transmitted to his address, and thenceforth become binding upon every member of the Club; but no member shall be absolved from the effect of these rules on any allegation of not having received them.
