Carrying the Canadian and Breoudan Contingents to
The Coronation of King George V. and Queen Mary

The Coronation Service

The Preparation—In the morning upon the day of the Coronation early, care is taken that the Ampulla be filled with oil and, together with the Spoon, be laid ready upon the Altar in the Abbey-Church. The Archbishops and Bishops Assistant being already vested in their Copes, the Procession shall be formed immediately outside of the West Door of the Church, and shall wait till notice is given of the approach of their Majesties, and shall then begin to move into the Church.

The Entrance into the Church—The King and Queen, as soon as they enter at the West Door of the Church, are to be received with an anthem to be sung by the choir of Westminster. The King and Queen in the meantime pass up through the body of the Church, into and through the Choir, and so up the stairs to the Theatre; and having passed by their Thrones, they make their humble adoration, and then kneeling at the Faldstools set for them before their Chairs, use some short private prayers; and after, sit down, not in their Thrones, but in their Chairs before, and below, their Thrones.

The Recognition—The King standing up by his Chair, turns and shews himself unto the people, as the Archbishop speaks thus to the people:

"Sirs, I here present unto you King George, the Undoubted King of this Realm: Wherefore all you who are come this day to do your Homage, are you willing to do the same?"

The people signify their willingness and joy, by loud and repeated acclamations, all with one voice crying out, "GOD SAVE KING GEORGE."
Then the Trumpets sound.

Then followeth the Litany, the Communion Service and the Sermon.

The Oath—The sermon being ended, the Archbishop goeth to the King, and standing before him, administers the Coronation Oath.

The Anointing—The King sits down in the chair placed in the midst of the Area over against the Altar, with a Faldstool before it, wherein he is to be anointed. Four Knights of the Garter hold over him a rich Pall of Silk, or Cloth of Gold, delivered to them by the Lord Chamberlain: The Dean of Westminster, taking the Ampulla and Spoon from off the Altar, holdeth them ready, pouring some of the Holy Oil into the Spoon, and with it the Archbishop anointeth the King in the form of a Cross: On the Crown of the Head, on the Breast, and on the Palms of Both Hands.

The Presenting of the Spurs and Sword, and the Girding and Oblation of the said Sword—The Archbishop saith: "Receive this Kingly Sword, brought now from the Altar of God, and delivered to you by the hands of us the Bishops and servants of God, though unworthy."

The King, standing up, the Sword is girt about him by the Lord Great Chamberlain; and then, the King sitting down, the Archbishop saith:

"With this Sword do justice, stop the growth of iniquity, protect the Holy Church of God, help and defend widows and orphans, restore the things that are gone to decay, maintain the things that are restored, punish and reform what is amiss, and confirm what is in good order: that doing these things you may be glorious in all virtue; and so faithfully serve our Lord Jesus Christ in this life, that you may reign with Him forever in the life which is to come."

The Investing with the Armilla and Imperial Mantle, and the Delivery of the Orb—Then the King arising, the Armilla and Imperial Mantle or Pall of Cloth of Gold, are put upon the King, standing; the Archbishop pronouncing the Blessing and Exhortation.

The Investiture per Annulum et Barulum—The Officer of the Jewel House delivers the King's Ring to the Archbishop, who puts the ring on the fourth finger of His Majesty's right hand, and saith, "Receive this Ring, the ensign of Kingly Dignity, and of Defence of the Catholic Faith; and as you are this day solemnly invested in the government of this earthly kingdom, so may you be sealed with that spirit of promise, which is the earnest of an heavenly inheritance, and reign with Him who is the blessed and only Potentate, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

The Putting on of the Crown—The King sitting down, the Archbishop assisted with other Bishops comes from the Altar ; the Dean of Westminster brings the Crown, and the Archbishop taking the Crown reverently putteth it upon the King's Head. At the sight whereof the People, with loud and repeated shouts, cry, "God save the King"; the Peers and the Kings of Arms put on their Coronets, and the trumpets sound, and by a Signal given, the great Guns in the Tower are fired. The acclamation ceasing, the Archbishop goeth on, and saith :

"Be strong and of good courage : Observe the Commandments of God, and walk in His holy ways : Fight the good fight of faith, and lay hold on eternal life ; that in this world you may be crowned with success and honour, and when you have finished your course, receive a Crown of Righteousness, which God the righteous Judge shall give you in that day."

Then the Choir singeth : "Be strong and play the man : Keep the commandments of the Lord thy God and walk in His ways."

The Inthronization—The King is lifted up into his Throne by the Archbishops and Bishops, and other Peers of the Kingdom, and being Inthronized, or placed therein, all the Great Officers, those that bear the Swords and Sceptres, and the Nobles who had borne the other Regalia, stand round about the steps of the Throne ; and the Archbishop, standing before the King, saith :

"Stand firm, and hold fast from henceforth the Seat and State of Royal and Imperial Dignity, which is this day delivered unto you, in the Name and by the authority of Almighty God, and by the hands of us the Bishops and Servants of God, though unworthy."

The Homage—The Exhortation being ended, all the Princes and Peers then present do their Homage publicly and solemnly unto the King. When the Homage is ended, the Drums beat, and the Trumpets sound, and all the People shout, crying out :

"God save King George !
Long live King George !
May the King live for ever !"

The solemnity of the King's Coronation being thus ended, the Archbishop leaves the King in his Throne, and goes to his Chair.

The ceremony of the Queen's Coronation is then proceeded with, the anointing, presentation of the ring, crowning and presentation of the Sceptre and Ivory Rod following in simpler form the ceremony performed for the King.

The Access—The whole Coronation Office being thus performed, the King, attended and accompanied as before, the four Swords being carried before him, descends from his Throne Crowned, and carrying his Sceptre and Rod, goes into the Area eastward of the Theatre, and passes on through the door on the south side of the Altar into Saint Edward's Chapel, and as they pass by the Altar, the rest of the Regalia, lying upon it, are to be delivered to the Lords that carried them in the procession, and so they proceed in state into the Chapel, the organ all the while playing. The Queen at the same time descending, goes in like manner into the same Chapel at the door on the north side of the Altar ; bearing her sceptre in her right hand, and her Ivory Rod in her left.

The King and Queen being come into the Chapel, the King standing before the Altar, delivers the Sceptre with the Dove to the Archbishop who layeth it upon the Alter there. And the Golden Spurs and St. Edward's staff are given and laid there also.

His Majesty will then be disrobed of His Imperial Mantle or Robe of State, and arrayed in His Royal Robe of Purple Velvet, and Her Majesty will also be arrayed in her Royal Robes of Purple Velvet. His Majesty wearing his Imperial Crown will then receive in his left hand the Orb from the Archbishop.

Then their Majesties will proceed through the choir to the West Door of the Church, in the same way as they came, wearing their Crowns ; the King bearing in his right hand the Sceptre with the Cross, and in his left the Orb ; the Queen bearing in her right hand her Sceptre with the Cross, and in her left the Ivory Rod with the Dove ; all Peers wearing their Coronets.

The St. Lawrence Route

THE TWO-DAY TRIP to the sea on the River and Gulf of St. Lawrence, that mighty stream of such grandeur and historic interest, shortens the actual Ocean Voyage on the Canadian Pacific Ry. Coy's "Empresses" to less than four days.
