FORCES LANDED AT SIX POINTS IN DARDANELLES; LOSSES HEAVY AUSTRALIANS GAIN HIGH PRAISE

Armies Have Consolidated Positions After Making Advance and Repulsing All Attacks--Casualties in Fleet Slight--Queen Elizabeth Sank Turkish Transport.

LONDON, April 30.—The British war office tonight made public an official communication concerning the operations of the allies against the Dardanelles:

"The disembarkation of the army in the Dardanelles began before sunrise on April 25. Six different beaches were used, and the operation was covered by the whole fleet.

"The landing was immediately successful on five beaches, although it was opposed with vigor by a strongly entrenched enemy in successive lines, which were protected by barbed wire entanglements in some places fifty yards wide, and supported by artillery.

Final Attack by British.

"On the sixth beach, near Seddul Bahr, the troops could not advance until evening, when a fine attack by the British infantry from the direction of Cape Tekeh relieved the pressure on their front. The arrangements for landing had been concerted in the utmost detail between the fleet and the army.

"The result of the first day's operations was the establishment of strong forces of British, French and Australian and New Zealand troops on the lower slopes of Sari Bahr, to the north of Gaba Tepe, of the British troops at Cape Tekeh, at Cape Helles and near Morobay, and a French force on the Asiatic shore at Kum Kaleh, after a gallant attack toward Yent Shehr.

Battled in Labyrinth.

"During the afternoon of the 25th strong counter-attacks by the enemy began and hard fighting took place. Meanwhile the disembarkation of the army proceeded and was continually favored by good weather.

"At daybreak on the 26th the enemy was still holding the village and position of Seddul Bahr, which was a labyrinth of caves, ruins, trenches, pits and entanglements. Aided by the gunfire of the fleet this position was stormed by the British in frontal attack, through undamaged wire entanglements. Seddul Bahr was taken about

Sir John French Reports Foe's Attack Has Ceased

Great Artillery Activity Prevails Around Ypres, However--French, Supported by Artillery, Have Made Good Progress.

"On our immediate left the French made counter-attacks today, supported by our artillery fire, which made sensible progress.

"Yesterday a German aeroplane was attacked in the air and fired at by our guns and was brought down at our lines east of Ypres.

Call Will Soon Go Out For a Fifth Contingent

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Ont., April 30.—The casualties to the Canadians have stimulated recruiting in Canada. Men all over the country are joining the colors in larger numbers than since the first enlistment after the war began. This is the reply of Canada. One hundred thousand men are now under arms. Soon there will be one hundred and fifty thousand. In the common words of the end of last session, General Hughes intimated that 150,000 men would be sent if they were required. This force will be necessary. Soon the call will go forth. It is probable that before the end of the present year Canada will have a fifth contingent.

A Fifth Contingent.
There is a full Canadian division at the front. There are several thousand men still in England, who went with the first contingent, and these are being rushed to the front according to cables, which have been received. Canada has two more contingents ready and the fourth is being recruited. Soon the call will go forth from General Hughes for recruits for a fifth contingent.

Today's is the Most Serious List Yet Published and Indicates That the Casualties Are Heavier Than at First Anticipated—More Than 200 Canadian Officers Now Are Killed, Wounded or Missing, Showing That Nearly Half in the First Contingent Are in the Casualties.

By JOHN A. MACLAREN.
It is feared that when the full list of officers who fell, were wounded or are missing, in the Battle of Langemarck is completed, it will include nearly half of those in the first Canadian division. Additional casualties received last night from Ottawa give the names of 55 attached practically to every infantry battalion.

In the latest list the Fifteenth Battalion composed entirely of the 48th Highlanders of Toronto, under the command of Lieut.-Col. J. A. Currie, M.P., suffered most severely. Fourteen of Toronto's most efficient officers are wounded or missing.

The 48th Highlanders went to France with a total strength of officers numbering 42. Only 22 are left according to the official lists. Of these 22, five are non-combatants. The regiment suffered the loss of six of the original eight company commanders. As a matter of fact latest advices show that only 15 company officers remain of 32.

Although nothing official has been received, it is understood that the reason for the long list of missing among the officers of the Toronto Highlanders was not a surrender. It is believed that the battalion held its ground while the Germans showered the poisonous gas bombs on their position. One by one officers and men fell unconscious under the terrible asphyxiating fumes. When the division finally was ordered to retire the stupefied and unresisting soldiers were easily captured.

Owing to a cable having been received that Capt. Cory was taken prisoner, there seems little doubt that a greater portion of the regiment suffered similarly.

A Heavy Price.
Casualties among the Canadian officers now number over 200. It is doubtful if any division that has crossed the channel, excepting the first expeditionary force, has suffered so severely in any one engagement. But no other division "saved the situation" in any of the larger actions which have been fought in the lowlands of Flanders. More and more it becomes apparent that the Canadians covered themselves with glory in holding back the German hordes, they paid an appalling price.

Spectacular Cavalry Sweep Is Tried By Von Hindenburg

BY FREDERICK RENNET.
Special Cable to The Toronto World.
PETROGRAD, April 30.—German cavalry, useless for trench fighting in Flanders and the Carpathians, is now moving in the extreme north between Elchhorn's army and the sea. The chief advance is along the Dubsisa, a tributary of the Niemen, in the direction of Schawli.

The Russians see Hindenburg's personal hand in this new spectacular movement. The region is without strategic value except for the purpose of forcing and cannot, owing to lack of roads and railways, be used for great movements of infantry and artillery, unless they are landed from transports above Poland.

To Impress Neutrals.
Doubtless it is hoped this cavalry movement will impress Scandinavian neutrals and the local non-Russian population of the Baltic provinces, besides giving Hindenburg an opportunity of attempting to outwit the new Russian commander in the north, Michael Alexeyeff. Immediate intercession is centred in this campaign, as the Russians have driven the Germans backwards at Mlawa and along the entire front in Poland.

Wounded Reach England

Canadian Associated Press Cable.
LONDON, April 30.—The following wounded officers of the Canadian division have reached England: Capt. Bertram, Lieut. Gilliat, Col. Kemmis, Lieut. Betty, Capt. Kidd, Capt. McDonald, Lieut. Watson, Capt. Jamieson and Capt. Young. Also fifty-four of the rank and file have been admitted to the Canadian hospital at Cliveden today.

The British list of Canadian wounded, issued tonight, gives three killed, seventeen died from wounds and 219 wounded.

CANADIAN DIVISION DEFEATED FOUR TIMES NUMBER IN FIGHT TO SAVE SITUATION AT YPRES

(By Sir Max Aitken, Canadian Official Eye-witness) LONDON, England, April 30.—The recent fighting in Flanders, in which the Canadians played so glorious a part, cannot of course be yet described with precision of military detail. The battle which raged for so many days in the neighborhood of Ypres, was bloody, even as men appraise battles in this callous and life-enraging war.

On the military records of Canada this defence will shine as brightly as in the records of the British army shines the stubborn valor with which Sir James Macdonnell and the Guards beat back from Hougomont, the division of Foy and the army corps of Beaulieu.

Amazing Record of Bravery. The Canadians have wrested in the trenches over the bodies of the dead and maimed, the right to stand side by side with the superb troops, who, in the first battle of Ypres, broke and drove before them the flower of the Prussian Guards.

It contained no doubt a sprinkling of South African veterans, but it consisted in the main of men who were admirable raw material, who at the outbreak of war, were neither disciplined nor trained as men count discipline and training in these days of scientific warfare.

The salient at Ypres, like all salients, was known to be a source of weakness to the force holding it, but the reasons which have led to its retention are apparent.

Held Line of Three Miles. On April 22 the Canadian division held a line of roughly 5,000 yards extending northwesterly from the Ypres-Roulers railway to the Ypres-Poelcapelle road.

The day was a peaceful one, warm and sunny, and except that the obvious day had witnessed a further bombardment of Ypres, everything seemed quiet in front of the Canadian line.

King's Congratulations On Dardanelles Exploit

Acting Vice-Admiral De Robeck and General Sir Ian Hamilton Complimented on Success of Joint Naval and Military Operations.

LONDON, May 1, 12.30 a.m.—King George has sent to Acting Vice-Admiral John Michael De Robeck, commander of the allied fleet at the Dardanelles, and to General Sir Ian Hamilton, commander-in-chief of the Dardanelles land forces, the following despatch:

"It is with intense satisfaction that I have heard of the success which, in the face of determined resistance, has attended the combined naval and military operations at the Dardanelles. Please convey to all ranks, including those of our allies, my hearty congratulations on this splendid achievement."

It is possible to distinguish when the attack was everywhere so fierce it developed with particular intensity at this moment upon the apex of the newly-formed line of the direction of the St. Julien. It had already been stated that four British guns were taken in a trench which was intercepted by the 10th Battalion of the second brigade.

All thru the following day and night these battalions shared the fortunes of the most important of the third brigade. An officer who took part in the attack describes how the men of the 10th Battalion, under Lieut. Col. Boyle, and after a most fierce struggle, in the light of a misty moon they took the position at the point of the bayonet.

It was, therefore, decided to give relief by a counter-attack upon the first line of German trenches on the second day from those originally occupied by the Ontario 1st and 4th Battalions of the first brigade, under Brig-General Meribach, acting in combination with a British brigade.

It did not seem that any human being could live in the shower of shot and shell which fell to play upon the advancing troops. The 4th Canadian Battalion came under a particularly withering fire. For a moment, not more than a few men, who were gallant and brave, were left.

With a hoarse cry of anger they sprang forward as if to avenge his death. The astonishing attack, pushed home in face of direct frontal fire, in broad daylight, was carried in the first line of German trenches. After a hand-to-hand struggle the last Germans who resisted were bayoneted and the trench was won.

The measure of this success may be taken, when it is pointed out that this trench represented in the German advance, the apex of the breach which the enemy had made in the original line of the allies, and that it was two and a half miles south of that line.

After withstanding a series of stubborn Austrian attacks on the Str front, the Russians have begun an offensive and captured the advanced trenches, making 400 prisoners.

Aikenhead's will close at 1 o'clock Saturdays during May, June, July and August. Aikenhead Hardware Limited 17 Temperance St.

FINE PROGRESS IN DARDANELLES

Allies, Despite Great Resistance, Have Gained Secure Foothold.

April 28 at the entrance to the narrow straits. Sixteen armored cruisers attacked our advance batteries at the narrow straits, but up to evening the thousands of shells fired upon our batteries and infantry positions resulted only in the wounding of a number of soldiers.

On the morning of the 27th, after repulsing a Turkish attack upon their left towards Cape Helles, the allied force advanced and at 8 p.m. was established in an entrenched line running from a point about 2 miles north of Cape Tekeli to a small plateau above De Tott's battery.

ELECTION DECISION TO BE MADE SOON

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Ont., April 30.—The question whether or not there is to be a general election immediately will be decided within the next few days by the members of parliament, both Liberal and Conservative, who are in Ottawa this week. It has been unable to obtain any definite statement.

Senator Macleod of Prince Edward Island was here this evening and has been in conference with Sir Robert Borden, presumably regarding the question of an election and appointment of the senate. If the government goes to the senate the matter will be decided in all probability by the senate.

LATE JAMES S. TUPPER WAS ILL SOME TIME

Announcement of Death of Sir Charles Tupper's Son Came From England.
From England comes the announcement of the death of James Stewart Tupper, K.C., of Winnipeg, son of the Right Hon. Sir Charles Tupper. He had been ill for some time, and was under the care of Sir William Osler.

CLOTHES AND THE MAN.

In the old countries of Europe a man's rank in the social scale can usually be ascertained with approximate accuracy from his clothes. That is not, however, invariably true because there is no such thing as a standard scale. Nowhere competent observers have remarked, is there so odd a collection of disreputable garments as can be found in the house of lords except possibly in the slums.
In the new countries of the west a different rule prevails. Men of all ranks have developed a certain pride in their garments. Everyone not actually engaged in his avocation wants to be well dressed or at least so dressed that he will avoid derogatory remarks. This is where Hickey's, 375 Yonge street, comes in with $15 suits, with good style, hand tailoring, smart trousers and serviceable wear. Hickey's has supplied the want and continues to do so.

The four McCutcheon brothers were committed for trial on four charges of theft in police court yesterday. The crown withdrew one of the theft charges laid against them. A. J. Russell Snow, K.C., deposed the fact that owing to the rush of police court business he was unable to get his clients tried summarily.

John A. Stevens was the only witness heard in court. He claimed to have paid $400 Regina property for which he had nothing to show but a letter.

Arrested on a nominal vagrancy charge Abraham Lewis is really suspected of being a finished New York burglar, and was remanded until Tuesday in police court on $2000 bail. For keeping a betting house, Chas. A. Jones was sentenced to 90 days in jail.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

PROBE MYSTERIOUS FIRE AT WESTON

Contradictory Evidence Given Before Provincial Coroner Yesterday.

LETTER BOX SEALED FOR SEVEN THOUSAND

IRRECONCILABLE EVIDENCE ELICITED

At the exhaustive enquiry into the circumstances of the fire of Monday night, March 29, at No. 3 St. John's road, held before Joseph E. Rogers, provincial coroner, yesterday afternoon in Weston town hall, the enquiry was conducted by County Crown attorney Richard H. Greer, Mr. Campbell, the tenant of the house, maintained he had not been to the house since the Monday morning, when he did not enter till after the fire. About 12.30 he arrived back at his father's house at the Junction, where he with his wife and two children had gone to stay during the removal of furniture to a new house on Edmund avenue, and not feeling well, immediately went to bed. At 3.40 he went across to the house of Mr. Wakelind, High Park, with a tender for a garage, and got back six or seven minutes later. He was not out again till word came of the fire about 11.20, when he went to the car with his wife and brother, but did not board the car.

Letterbox Sealed.
"I understand there was a piece of paper pasted over the letterbox inside," said Mr. Greer.
"I didn't know anything about that," returned Mr. Campbell.
In answer to further questions, he knew Mr. Studley, a conductor on the Suburban car.
"If his man states he saw you get in his car that night at 8.20, what would you say?" asked Mr. Greer.
"Campbell—"It must be a mistake."
Mr. Greer—"Conductors Davis says you came out on his car on the night of the fire, the car leaving Weston at 9.10."
"Campbell—"No sir."
Mr. Greer—"And if he is so positive about it as to have made a note in his book?"
Campbell—"He must have been mistaken."

Mrs. Campbell, on being called, said she did not know anything of the paper on the letterbox.
Searching enquiries were made regarding the claim made for loss on the furniture. Two statements were submitted, one modifying the other, but both appearing to be correct. The $381 was the total claim on a piano obtained by Mrs. Campbell before her marriage some six years ago, it appeared, while $265 was the amount actually paid on it, and the claim was for $460. The policy was for $1000, and the statements of loss and damage amounted to over $1100.

Constable's Evidence.
County Constable C. F. Wacey stated he had investigated the case. He stayed in the wrecked house practically all night, and on the morning of Tuesday he saw a morning paper, kicked, evidently, into the dining-room, and a Sunday paper in the hall. They could not, he stated, have been pushed under the door. On the Tuesday morning he drew Mr. Campbell's attention to the paper in the letterbox, and she then tore it with her finger. He saw Mr. Campbell, on April 12, when he saw his paper, and Mr. Campbell then distinctly told him he was ill in bed on that day, all day, with hot water bottles round him, and that his father's house was full of people, and that he went to the car with his wife that night.

George Day, a soldier at Exhibition Camp, testified as to seeing Campbell crossing the corner of Keele and Dundas between 8.30 and 8.40. He was sure of the time and place.
George Day stated Campbell travelled on his car from the Junction, that car getting to Weston at noon, and went back with him on the 9.10 trip out of Weston. On going down on the 10.10 trip, he observed the fire, and noted in his book that Campbell had travelled down on the 9.10.

Saw Him on the Car.
Walter Studley, conductor, also saw Campbell, he said, on the 8.20 car leaving the Junction. The car would reach St. John's road at 8.40.
Evidence of the outbreak of the fire about 11.20 was given by Nell Campbell, next door neighbor. He had heard Campbell tell Constable Wacey he was home sick in bed all day.

Mrs. Fullerton, sister of Campbell, was positive that at 8.30 on the night of the fire she had seen Campbell in the house upstairs, while Kenneth Campbell, a brother, stated that when he left his father's house on that night at 8.45, his brother had not gone out. After hearing the evidence, the enquiry was adjourned.

START EXCAVATION FOR NEW HYDRO STATION

Will Cost Sixty-Five Thousand Dollars and Include Branch Supply Store.

Excavation work is in full swing for the new Hydro-electric sub-station at the corner of Gerrard street and Carleton avenue. Tenders have been called for the building of which a permit has been granted on the basis of an estimated cost of $65,000. These tenders will be received up to May 15th, and the commissioners hope to be in a position to award the contract and commence building operations at the end of the month. The station will have a rounded display window at the corner, and will be also a branch store for the selling of hydro supplies. The site has been completed by the obtaining of another piece of land adjoining the property already acquired.

URGE CITY COUNCIL TO BUILD CAR LINE

RESIDENTS ON PACIFIC AVENUE OPPOSED—MOTION WARMLY DEBATED.

Considerable discussion marked a lively meeting of the Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association called last night in the Annette St. school for the discussion of the decision of the Ontario Railway Board which calls for the forfeiture of their franchise on Pacific avenue and Annette street in view of their failure to construct a line on those streets when ordered to do so by the commission.
The discussion was started by the introduction of a motion by Secretary Wallis T. Fisher and Treasurer Wakefield "that in view of the decision of the Ontario Railway Board given to-day to the west end of the City of Toronto a building a line of street railway on Pacific avenue and Annette street, we as an association urge the city council to take up this important matter immediately and give the relief for which we have looked so long."
Although the audience was small nearly every member had something to say for or against the resolution and a lively debate ensued.

George W. Bider, St. Clair street, said: "This is another step in which ward seven has a chance to get what justly belongs to her," said Ald. W. H. Weir, "The Bloor street line was built as a beginning for this line down Pacific avenue and along Annette street. It will serve the most thickly populated part of the west end, and as the Humber. It passes thru the centre of a district containing the business section, banks, post office, tax and civic offices, churches and schools, and in fact the main part of ward seven. The rapid means of transportation for the people of the northern part of the ward to the park is a great reason for the Pacific avenue line." (Hear, hear.)
Mr. C. H. Barnes who is a resident on Pacific avenue, strongly objected to the passing of the resolution, and residents on that street do not want it," said he. "A short time ago a petition was circulated protesting against the proposed line which was signed by every resident on the street between Dundas and Bloor streets, with the exception of one woman. Pacific avenue is an old street and a narrow one and a car line would spoil it. It always has been a residential street and should be kept one."
Treasurer Wakefield: "I would like to remind Mr. Barnes that this line will serve 7000 residents not on Pacific avenue."
"And they are quite welcome to it," retorted Mr. Barnes. "They may have the line much nearer those 7000 if they want it there. There are a great many parallel streets which would be more suitable for such a car line." (Applause.)

Expert's Report.
Mr. W. Smart quoted the report of the transportation experts of a year ago.
The report called for the construction of a line from the west end to the north on Jane to St. Clair ave. The first part of this has already been built. Why break off at Pacific ave? Later they recommended a line from Annette street, from Runnymede road to Jane street, and not a word was said of any Pacific avenue-Annette street line."
"If Humber side avenue was continued west of Quebec avenue, I believe it would be the ideal street for such a line," said Mr. Wakefield. "It is much more central than Annette street and I have no doubt that a better route would be ready by the time the city was ready to build a line in West Toronto."

Other residents of Pacific avenue spoke against the motion claiming that there was a reason for the construction of a car line on the proposed streets.
Secretary Fisher drew the attention of the speakers to the fact that ex-City Engineer Rust had advocated the Pacific-Annette line.
Trustee Dr. Hopkins also strongly objected to the proposed line. "The officials of this association have always advocated the line, and great credit is due them for their energy," said he. "But it is not by any means an ideal line. It is quite useless on a matter of fact and will not serve the people of the district who are already served by the Bloor street line." (Hear, hear.)

"Their proximity to all the churches does not seem to have made the residents on Pacific avenue and Annette street remember to think of their neighbors as themselves," declared a member from the extreme west, with heat and laughter.
Late resolution was then submitted and adopted, thirty-eight voting for and nineteen against the motion. An argument as to the right of certain of the audience to vote sprang up, but as the meeting was an open one the count was allowed.

The secretary then referred to some of the mosquito-breeding ponds and areas in the western part of the ward, and a resolution asking for the filling-up of such unhealthy spots was unanimously adopted.

MAY SUE THE CITY.

The property holders of eight acres adjoining the Miller property, expressed their protest against the proposed park and playground proposed for Oakwood and Earls court, held a meeting in the hall above the Dominion Bank, corner St. Clair and Bever street, on Tuesday evening, and have organized for the purpose of enforcing their rights against the city in the most effective way, should the city decide to definitely abandon the site.

DISCUSS INCORPORATION OF TADMORREN DISTRICT
Some Fear Taxation Would Be Much Increased—Others Want Water and Sewerage.

Discussion is prevalent in Todmorden as to whether it would be advisable to have the place incorporated as a town. In conversation with the World last night A. Tobin, secretary of the Todmorden Ratepayers' Association, said: "The consensus of opinion seems to be, in view of the way the notice of expropriation was given by the city on February 20, and despite repeated attempts on the part of the former owners to come to terms no effort has been made by the city to settle the difficulty."
The firms affected are the McIntosh Granite Company and A. C. Jennings & Co. leasehold just south of the C.P.R. tracks, and Charles McGill of McGill & Co., directly north. In each case the properties have been acquired by the city last year, and will be excavated, giving the full 86 feet width, the same as that contemplated in the future widening of Yonge street on the east side at this point. A meeting of the owners affected was held at A. C. Jennings' office on Pleasant Boulevard last night in connection regarding the city's delay in the matter.

Other ratepayers take the view that, even supposing the incorporation takes place the two great questions of water and sewage would still have to be coped with and would be a greater burden to them as a town than as part of the Township of York. They point out the need of waiting to see what the township council's endeavors, in this regard, amount to before taking any action. This question, together with those of police protection, hydro electric rates and several others of interest to the locality, will be discussed at the next meeting of the Ratepayers' Association, which is to be held on Monday in St. Andrew's Parish Hall, Peace avenue.

The date for the opening of the new Todmorden school on Woodville avenue has been definitely set for May 27th, and invitations have been extended to many prominent persons to be present at the ceremony. Several have signified their intention of being present, including W. F. Maclean, M.P. A committee is busily engaged arranging a program.

Conservative Smoker.
Todmorden Conservatives marked the close of their winter season, Thursday night by a smoking concert, which was one of the best ever held in St. Andrew's Hall, Peace avenue. The speakers included W. F. Maclean, M.P., George S. Henry, M.L.A., John Galbraith, Ald. H. H. Ball, Dr. E. A. McDonald, and Chas. McKay of the York Township Council.

An excellent program of music was contributed to by the North Riverside brass band, Sam Hill, Taylor and Jacobs, W. Giddings, J. Warren and J. Thompson. Fred Gordon at the piano added materially to the success of the evening.

UPHELD HOLLAND LANDING BYLAW

Task of Upsetting Local Option Legislation Formidable, Says Court.

EMIL NERLICH'S APPEAL

Stated Case Before Appellate Division Soon—Toronto Firm Wound Up.

At Osgood Hall yesterday, Mr. Justice Hodge dismissed the application of J. Sharpe to have the Holland Landing local option by-law quashed. In the judgment he states that the discretion exercised by the courts as to the quashing of a by-law is vested in the provincial executive. The change was introduced in 1908 and while the court is bound to decide according to law and may quash a by-law, the effect of the decision is dependent on the minister. In pointing out that recent changes in the municipal law have transferred the cause of proof from the defence to the applicant, he says: "The onus upon those supporting the by-law is confined to showing compliance with the principles laid down by the act, while upon the applicant is laid the burden of showing that the result was affected by the proved irregularities. This seems to me to render the task of upsetting the by-law a formidable one," he adds. Unsettled Basis. Under a previous by-law proof of irregularities unsettled the basis on which the vote rested and the tribunal had to be satisfied that the result was not affected. By the change in the section when the irregularities are proved the court does not concern itself with the effect subject to compliance with the principles of the act, unless it is made to appear that the irregularities did not affect the result. In the opinion of his lordship the legislature has provided that the courts will not in the future have to busy themselves annually in considering the infinitesimal and unimportant mass of suggested irregularities relied on to defeat every local option vote. Can Have Full Title. Mr. Justice Middleton gave judgment in the action of Matilda Hetherington v. N. C. Sinclair, Irving E. Perkins and Herman O. Tool of the Township of Harwich, Kent County. The plaintiff was sole beneficiary of May Jane Crawford, who borrowed a sum of money from Sinclair and gave a deed for some property. In 1900 the arbitrator was appointed to reconsider and readjust the affairs of the estate found that $1677 was due to Mr. Sinclair. She states that Sinclair refused since then to give her an accounting of the receipts from rentals on the property. In 1914 Sinclair sold some of the property to the other defendants at $10 an acre and the plaintiff claimed that the price was low and unfair, and further that the defendants have no right to the property which they purchased. His lordship decided that if the plaintiff pays the sum which was due to Sinclair she can have full title to the property. Before Chief Justice Mulock in SCOTLAND, Ont., Aug. 26th, 1913. "Fruit-a-tives" are the only pills manufactured, to my way of thinking, they work completely, no gripping whatever, and one is plenty for any ordinary person as a dose. My wife was a martyr to Constipation. We tried everything on the calendar without satisfaction, and spent large sums of money until he happened on "Fruit-a-tives." I cannot say too much in their favor. We have used them in the family for about two years and we would not use anything else as long as we can get "Fruit-a-tives." Their action is mild, and no distress at all. I have recommended them to many other people, and our whole family uses them.

BRITISH RIFLE FIRE

ROSS ARM EFFECTIVE

Usefulness of Canadian Weapon for Sniping Proved in Practice.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.

LONDON, April 30.—The following is the text of a cable from the Royal Grenadiers, Toronto, and of the 3rd battalion, 1st division Canadian expeditionary force, who is at present in Belgium. It was during the early part of the war that the British Expeditionary Force after its accomplishment of one of the greatest achievements in military history, stood at bay on the Marne. At this period, before the fighting became "stale-mate," before the opposing armies had commenced seriously to "dig themselves in" and fight continuously from the cover of their trench parapets, we used to read of the great British marksmanship and the demoralizing effect of their rifle fire on the Germans. During this stage of the war we constantly read of British snipers being inclined to treat the German rifle as a joke, expressing anxiety only on account of Jack Johnson's coal-boxes and black-balls. Germans Shoot Better. During the past few months we have not heard quite so much contempt expressed for our snipers. Marksmanship, and many allusions are made in letters from newly-arrived soldiers who are very quick to disabuse the minds of friends at home as to opinions they may have formed from earlier correspondence and reports. Since my return from France I have been constantly asked why in the opinion of so many of our men fall victims to the German sniper, apparently without any chance of retaliation, my question being "if the Germans have got us in such a position that we cannot put our heads over the parapet of a trench and cannot even make our shooting from loopholes safe, why cannot we with our superiority of aim do likewise?" For the benefit of those who take a general view and are not versed in small arms I am offering an explanation that I hope may prove satisfactory. Sniping Training Superior. Speaking first of our own army. After a careful study of the system of training used by our allies and our enemies, I venture to express the opinion that no finer or more efficient system exists in the world than that used by the British army today. Were this article a treatise on marksmanship I could refer to some length to the efficient system which has reached its culminating point in efficiency. Suffice it to say that during the last ten years the effect of this training has been witnessed by experts and the "come of year" has been narrowed year after year. The British soldier knows his rifle down to the last bolt, and his rifle is taught to use it, not as a prize-winner or pot-hunter, but as a soldier. His military efficiency is measured by his marksmanship, and we find battalions containing full companies of marksmen. He is taught the importance of rapid fire, and every soldier in the front ranks is a sniper. Superiority of Fire. The rifle of the British army is made for the obtaining of superiority of fire preparatory to a general assault. It has lived up to its reputation. It is not a "sniping" or Bliley weapon, and was never meant to be. The shortness of its barrel, which gives it its perfect balance, alone detracts from its value for skilled or fine shooting. Its trajectory is therefore much higher than that of the long-barreled rifles. According to reports the Germans employ especially trained snipers, who use their long-barreled rifles, fitted with telescopic sights; these rifles, having a very flat trajectory up to 1000 yards, it is therefore easy for them during the present trench fighting to assume a temporary superiority over our snipers. Their loopholes are arranged at an angle to their trench line, and their sniping is done from a position where these loopholes doubly handicap our snipers. British Fire Best in Assault. What do not intend to belittle the effect that the British rifle has on us I candidly state that has on us I believe is being made or repulsed, which gives it its superiority of fire. It may be of interest to know that the Ross Rifle, with which the Canadian contingent is armed, is similar in trajectory to the German Mauser. Its fine adjustment in degrees, every Ross Rifle as constructed is a rifle that can be used for sniping, is nevertheless of delicate mechanism, requiring knowledge and constant care, and while its merits for rough service remain yet to be proved, its barrel and its sights are absolutely perfect; its trajectory is flat, and for long range shooting it is second to none. Speaking generally, the men of the Canadian contingent are good shots, and in the battalion to which I belong we have not to have taken up sniping as a hobby for years. These men have "sniped the sniper," and many a German sharpshooter has answered the call of a Canadian bullet. After my first experience in the German trenches I formed the opinion that the German snipers were well concealed in the trenches, from which points and at long range they did their deadly shooting. I am now, however, convinced that they are looking in from the front trenches, and fire from carefully constructed loopholes such as I have described. Snipers, while invaluable for general observations, are of little use in only being held up for a very short time before a bullet smashes the upper part of the head, and the sniper is successfully located it is only a matter of taking a chance that our own loopholes before that particular locality is "more sniping" than sniping.

FOE'S BIG LOSS AT STEENSTRAATE

Force of Four Thousand Men Was Virtually Wiped Out.

HAVRE, April 30.—The virtual annihilation of 4000 Germans who crossed the Yperes over a bridge near Steenstraete is described by the newspaper, Vingtieme Siecle. Belgian heavy artillery destroyed the bridge, while field artillery showered them with shrapnel. Many tied handkerchiefs to their bayonets and raised them in sign of surrender, but immediately their own rifles were fired, the newspapers says, opened fire and mowed them down pitilessly. Many survivors were made prisoners by the Belgians.

It All Came From Strain and Cold

But G. K. MacDonald Found Relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Nova Scotia Man, After Fifteen Years' Suffering, Finds a Cure Thru Reading an Advertisement. Harrington Cove, Halifax Co., N. S., April 30th.—(Special).—After suffering for fifteen years from lame back and kidney trouble Mr. George K. MacDonald, a well-known resident of this place, is telling his neighbors of the great benefit he has received from using Dodd's Kidney Pills. "My trouble started from a strain and a cold," Mr. MacDonald states, "I was troubled with stiffness of the joints and cramps in the muscles. My sleep was broken and unrefreshing, my limbs were heavy and I had a dragging sensation across the loins. "My back ached and I suffered from rheumatism, when reading an advertisement led me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. "I am only too pleased to say that the treatment was successful. Dodd's Kidney Pills have done me a great deal of good. "Mr. MacDonald's symptoms show that he was troubled with Kidney Disease. That's why Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him.

SPLENDID HEROISM IN YPRES CONFLICT

Canadian and British Battalions, Nearly Surrounded, Fought Way Out.

LONDON, April 30.—When the full story is told of how the British and Canadian soldiers fought in the mighty conflict around Ypres, it will be found that they displayed tremendous heroism and at times struggled against tremendous odds. Wounded men arriving from the front today, tell stories of the dastardly way in which asphyxiating gas was used and of the fiendish shelling of hospitals containing wounded soldiers of the Royals of Montreal was wounded by shrapnel in the thigh and a young bugler of a British regiment picked him up in the opening. They did not go far when a shrapnel shell burst over their heads and killed the young bugler. The Montreal man shortly afterwards crawled to shelter where he was picked up by a stretcher. He saw hundreds of Germans dressed in khaki and kilts in the terrific struggle which began on Thursday. At one time several Canadian battalions and a number of English ones were surrounded on three sides by the Germans, who were in an exposed field, and in a desperate situation. They were forced to retire over an open plain and were exposed to a terrible fire. Later they were reinforced and gave it back to the Germans.

Best and First War Pictures

There are six solid pages of the very latest pictures of the war in next Sunday's World. They include a drawing, from cabled descriptions, of the BATTLE OF LANGEMARCK, the review of TORONTO TROOPS and NURSES, an EATON ARMORED CAR CLIMBING STEPS at the Exhibition grounds, and several pages of photos direct from the war zone. The Sunday World's rotogravure section reproduces photos in their natural shades and in sepia ink. The reproductions are as fine and as clear as the photographs.

SUING FOR WOOD BURNED.

Judgment Reserved in Case Against C.N.R. Brought by Farmer. Mr. Justice Middleton reserved judgment in the case of Benjamin Allen, who is suing the Canadian Northern Railway Company for $5000 for loss of the wood around his summer residence in Burton Township, Parry Sound. The property consisted of 27 acres and was covered with hemlock spruce, birch, maple, beech, cedar, poplar and oak trees, which were destroyed by fire on May 14.

CONSUMERS' GAS WILL PAY.

Mrs. Lucinda King was awarded in the assize court yesterday $5000 damages against the Consumers' Gas Company. Her husband was awarded $500. The action followed injuries received by Mrs. King, who fell into an excavation on Oakwood avenue.

LOST AGAINST STREET RAILWAY

Wm. Schiffell Was Unsuccessful in Action to Recover $5000 Damages. William Schiffell, a waiter, lost his action in which he sued the Toronto Street Railway for $5000 damages. Schiffell alleged that while he was attempting to board a car at the corner of Queen and Bathurst the car started forward and he was thrown over. A motor truck, the property of Elias Rogers, which was passing at the time, passed over his leg, which had to be amputated.

Blood Thin and Weak Too Nervous to Sleep

Here is Another Case in Which Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Proved Its Great Reconstructive Influence.

This blood and exhausted nerves usually go together. A considerable portion of the blood is constantly consumed in keeping up the vitality of the nervous system. Once the blood is deficient in quantity or quality, the nervous system suffers. Headache, neuralgia or sciatic pains are the indications in some cases, while in others weakness, nervousness, irritability and sleeplessness are the most marked symptoms. Mrs. R. E. Catlin, Elm Springs, Ga., writes: "For years I was troubled with nervousness, and could not sleep at nights. Also had lack of color as a result of the blood being thin and weak. My husband saw Dr. Chase's Nerve Food advertised, and got some for me, and wanted me to try it. I did so, and it has proven a wonderful help to me. By enriching the blood, it has restored color to my face and has built up the nervous system. I can now rest and sleep well. It is a pleasure to recommend so excellent a medicine." Dr. Chase's Nerve Food goes direct to the formation of pure, rich blood and for this reason is the most certain means of increasing the quality, as well as the quantity of blood in the human system. The feeble, wasted nerves are restored, and through the nervous system new vigor and energy is imparted to every organ and member of the body. You will be surprised at the way this food cure puts new strength and vitality into the weakened body. And the best of it is that the benefits are both thorough and lasting. In this the Nerve Food differs from mere stimulating medicines, which give rise to false hope and when discontinued leave you as weak as before. But this great restorative treatment, the test and prove its merits in your own cases. 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50. All dealers or, Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

About Strength and Vigor Sent Free to All

My friend, the stories of perfect health and unlimited energy are more apparent and more highly rewarded now than ever before. Today the world relegates to the background the man who has "lost his grip" on account of disturbances to his bodily health and nervous functions. All those who find themselves in this sad predicament are compelled to take a back seat in life's game as it is played in this strenuous generation, while the strong and healthy surge forward in the knowledge of public approval, accepting the boldness and the plethoric of their fellow-beings, and the true admiration of all. This, my dear reader, is the mighty and glorious power which comes alone from a well-balanced, vigorous body, the condition which you and everyone else should strive to attain. In this respect, please remember that you can do much for yourself, as my little booklet will explain. In addition, I believe I may be able to greatly aid you in your effort, for I manufacture a little appliance which I call the Standard Electro-Herules, that would be a very good thing for you to use. This Herules weighs but a few ounces, and is worn all night. Thus while you sleep it sends a continuous, soft and pleasant stream of electro-energy into your body, which gives a new lease on life. People everywhere say it gives strength, takes pain out of the back, builds up the nerves, and gives a new lease on life. It is a marvel of mechanical ingenuity, a real self-treatment without the use of drugs or medicines. With special attachments, it is used by thousands all over the world for rheumatism, lumbago, liver, stomach, bladder disorders, etc. It is one part of the free book. I fully describe this Electro-Herules, and tell you what it will cost for a thorough test. If you live in or near this city, I should be most pleased to have you call and get a free demonstration of the vitalizer, otherwise write. Address: 8 to 6.

WHY MY FREE BOOK CONTAINS

As I have previously said, my little book of 16 pages, fully illustrated, is a lesson in physics and research. It is not only a treatise on the science of electricity, but it is also a practical guide to the use of the Standard Electro-Herules. It gives you some facts about the Herules appliance. Remember, the book is sent free, by mail. Please use coupon below, or call personally. Entrance, 8 Temperance Street.

A. B. Sanden Co., 140 Yonge St., Toronto, Ont. Dear Sirs—Please forward me your book, as advertised, free.

Trade After the War

"In time of peace prepare for war." That is a motto which Germany observed and the allies, each in its measure, more or less disregarded, with results that, if disastrous, are at least sufficiently disconcerting as events have happened.

This, however, is not the point immediately in view. The converse of the motto quoted is one of more particular and immediate importance, especially to the United Kingdom and other nations that have had to meet German competition in trade and commerce.

GERMANY'S SHAME

and the narrow channels of the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles are also under enemy control. The determination of Russia to secure an open passage to the Mediterranean is natural and has the approval now of the only government that prevented this in the past.

German trade has expanded merely because of the discipline applied as rigorously to industry as to the German army. From infancy to maturity the youth of the nation has been trained to fill specific places in the social organization, and every industry has been supported by an elaborate system of buying and selling.

Maritime Control

Never before has British control of the sea been more sweeping in its scope than in this greatest of wars. Due in part to the co-operation of the French navy in the Mediterranean and the Atlantic the situation, as it now exists, provides a striking illustration of the value of maritime power.

A COMMON SORROW.

Buffalo Evening News: Buffalo and the frontier generally has something more than a common interest in the list of Canadian casualties after the battle of Langemarck and St. Julien.
