40TH YEAR—ISSUE NO. 14,610 TWO CENTS

"THEIR NAME LIVETH FOR EVERMORE"

TENSION VERY HIGH AT THOROLD PROBE OF NEAR-LYNCHING

Case Opens at Welland—Eighteen Persons on Trial—Crown Counsel Threatens to Have Courtroom Cleared.

Welland, Ont., Nov. 10.—(By Canadian Press).—Very startling developments are anticipated in the preliminary hearing of the eighteen persons accused of being members of an unlawful assembly on the afternoon and evening of August 16th, when, after David McNeal had been committed for trial on the charge of murdering four-year-old Margaret Beacock, mob rule held sway for seven hours during which McNeal was almost lynched by an infuriated mob, and who, because they were shielded in their efforts, set fire to Thorold town hall, doing damage to the extent of three thousand dollars.

Final Act of Drama.
The final act of the Thorold drama which recalled that awful night of terror opened today at Welland before Magistrate Fraser of Niagara Falls, who declared he was not trying the cases, but only holding a preliminary hearing. The first charge was against Barney Cowell, a teamster from Thorold.

When the court resumed this afternoon after Detective McNamara and Chief Mains of Niagara Falls had given testimony of a number of witnesses, the trial attack on McNeal, the stone-throwing scene followed by the firing of the town hall, the tension was great. So great, indeed, that Crown Counsel Jeffrey stated he would have the court cleared unless better decorum was maintained.

Witnesses For.
The attention of the court was attracted by the many legal sparring quips between the crown counsel and the counsel for the defence, W. F. Grittas, of Niagara Falls.

There was another striking feature during the afternoon, and that was the forgetfulness of a number of witnesses. They could remember nothing, and in almost all the major portions of the evidence taken at the first trial during the week ending Sept. 29, they put in an emphatic denial.

So serious did this state of matters become that the crown warned the witnesses as to their attitude, and in the end appealed for an adjournment in order to allow one witness, John Battie, (Continued on Page 3, Column 5.)

DEATH OF MACSWINEY HAS INCREASED CRIME

London, Nov. 10.—Crime in Ireland increased largely immediately after the funeral of Lord Mayor MacSwiney, according to the latest statistics, which record 59 serious crimes in the week ending November 6, as compared with 69 the previous week and 80 for the week ending October 23.

Nine police barracks were damaged or destroyed; twenty-four raids were carried out on the mails and four Sinn Fein raids for arms. Ten policemen were killed, twenty-four wounded, and eleven others shot at. Three soldiers were killed; one was wounded and twelve were shot at. Forty-five arrests were made for outrages or political offences.

Since the first of January 106 policemen have been killed and 218 wounded; 32 soldiers have been killed and 90 wounded.

RACE AGAINST TIME BY BURNING VESSEL

Thousands of Spectators Watch Efforts of Tugs to Clear Channel.
Eight Men Are Injured.
New York, Nov. 10.—After a speedy, but dangerous race against time down the Hudson River, surrounded by puffing tugs and fireboats and with flames licking about her forward decks, the burning Morgan Line freighter El Mundo tonight lay beached on the Communipaw Flats, near Ellis Island, out of the way of harbor traffic.

Thousands of spectators lined the New York and Jersey shores and watched the heroic fight of the tiny tugs to drag the burning freighter out of the river, as she was threatening to sink and block the shipping channel.

HAMILTON TIMES IS COMPELLED TO CEASE PUBLICATION

Printers' Demands and Events in Business World Cited as Reasons.

Hamilton, Nov. 10.—After an existence of but three days as a morning newspaper, The Hamilton Times has decided to cease publication. Some weeks ago it was announced that The Times had been taken over by interests headed by John M. Imrie of Toronto, and that as soon as practicable, it would start a career as a morning paper. The beginning was made only last Monday.

The Times was the outgrowth of a paper established in 1837, the name of The Times being assumed in 1857. The paper was not only the oldest in Hamilton, but one of the oldest in the province.

Official Explanation.
The Ontario Newspaper Corporation, Limited, owners of The Times, made the following statement tonight: "It has been found necessary to suspend the publication of The Hamilton Morning Times. This has been brought about by a combination of circumstances, largely unforeseen and uncontrollable, which culminated today in the inability of the management to secure sufficient printers to make the issue of tomorrow's edition possible. It has been unable since Monday to publish papers of requisite size, owing to this cause. The management, which had been paying a scale of wages in excess of the morning newspaper scale provided for in the agreement entered (Continued on Page 2, Column 1.)

TIDE OF SETTLERS TURNS TO CANADA

Calder, Speaking With Meighen in West, Says Country Preparing for a Rush.

Medicine Hat, Alta., Nov. 10.—(By Canadian Press).—Irrigation was no more a problem for the federal government in respect to the actual construction and operation of irrigation systems than was Ontario's Hydro-Electric and Power Commission, said Hon. Arthur Meighen in addressing this afternoon a luncheon gathering of Medicine Hat citizens who wanted to hear his views on suggestions that his government should undertake the measures which are thought necessary to ensure regular crops in the dry areas of southern Alberta. The prime minister declares that after the federal government had spent something more than one million and one half dollars on elaborate surveys of the irrigation projects—the responsibility for constructing and administering the works rested with the local districts and the provincial government on any arrangements they desired to make.

Calder's Prophecy.
Hon. J. A. Calder said immigration to Canada this year would reach about 200,000 as compared with the peak of 350,000 in one pre-war year. The new settlers were better satisfied than ever before. He was inclined to think that there was going to be a break industrially in Great Britain and the United States within the next year or two, and if this occurred he believed the subsequent unemployment would cause a very large emigration. To handle the parties of this emigration which Canada was sure to receive, his department had been reorganized and it was ready for whatever number might come.

SPRACKLIN STARTS ON NEW CAMPAIGN

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 10.—Ignoring rumors and telephone threats of violence, the Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, of Sandwich, special liquor license inspector for Essex county, made plans Wednesday for an intensive campaign against whiskey runners.

One of his first acts was to recommend the appointment of four additional county constables, to be added to his staff. John N. Rodd, crown attorney, will take action on Mr. Spracklin's recommendation Thursday.

ARMISTICE DAY, 1920

voice of gold, and then we could not say.
As we give thanks in humble tones to God,
One-half of what we owe to them today,
Who lie face upwards 'neath the blood-stain'd sod.
A pen inspired, and yet we could not write
Of what a grateful nation owes to them,
Who gave of all life held to fight the fight,
To rest, beneath a hallowed diadem.
A brief pause in a city's busy glare;
And on a marble stone, with tears, is laid
A flowering mass of blossoms rich and rare,
A whispered prayer—and thus our debt is paid.
Rest on in blissful peace, ye mighty dead;
Your sacrifice, God grant, were not in vain;
If by your high fulfillment we are led
To live a nobler nation thru your pain.
—Robert Partridge.

ASK SAME RIGHTS AS GIVEN BRITAIN

Yellow and White in a Canadian City

An Interview With a Clergyman Who Has Married Twenty-Four Canadian Girls to Chinese Men—Some Inside Information About the Sunday School Classes for Individual Teaching of the Orientals.

AN eminently comfortable house—an iron gate—a front yard with rose bushes—a parlor quiet with remembrances—a more than middle-aged man, but with something of zest in brown eyes. He is a minister widely known in Toronto for his interest in the Chinese. He is in a position to know intimately what the churches are doing for them and visits Chinese Sunday school classes in all denominations. Take full note, then, of what he says:
According to his own evidence he has married twenty-four yellow-white couples—twenty-four Canadian girls hunted to wedlock by Orientals. Only the week I saw him, three Chinamen had come to him saying they were bringing white girls to wed. It may be the marriage register shows these now.
Up the stirring war days of a year or two ago, our educated Chinese were hurrying back to China—taking their Canadian money with them. The coolies who went overseas were sent more or less by the Celestial government as a sop to moisten the rigidity of immigration laws and with the idea that they would probably be in the different countries after the war was over. They served in the capacity of menials and laborers—far better paid than ever before in their lives.

AID REQUESTED FOR HAMILTON HIGHWAY

Government Will Be Asked for Grant—No Change in Commission.

Representatives of the municipalities contributing to the Toronto-Hamilton highway met at the parliament buildings yesterday to consider the proposal for a redistribution of the cost of maintaining the road. At the outset the idea of transferring it to the department of highways to be incorporated into the provincial road system was effectively killed.

Toronto's representatives—Mayor Church, Controllers Maguire, Gibbons, and Ramsden and Works Commissioner Harris—took the ground that the present commission had done good work and should continue in charge.

After a resolution was submitted by Mr. Richardson, of Port Credit, that the province be requested to share the cost on the basis of population, the committee agreed to recommend that the province be asked to contribute to the cost of the highway under the highways act.

This gave rise to the question of whether Toronto and Hamilton would thereby have to pay more than they do at present.

Hon. F. C. Biggs, minister of highways, explained that under the proposed change each city would have to pay 20 per cent. of the cost for that part of the road over which it has jurisdiction. He stated that the cost of the highway is approximately 20 per cent. of the cost of the road. The area of market influence of both cities would have to be definitely decided by the minister.

After searching for other means of distributing the cost, so that the province would share the expense, it appeared that the most equitable method was to have the cost of the highway divided among the municipalities in proportion to their population.

Mayor Cleaver moved a resolution that the Toronto-Hamilton highway be included in the provincial system. On a vote nine municipalities registered against it to five in favor.

Controller Maguire moved that the provincial government be memorialized to grant 80 per cent. of the cost of the highway, and that the distribution of the money be made on the same basis as in the original agreement governing the cost of the route.

This motion was carried, and six municipalities voting for, and six against.

HAMILTON TIMES CEASES PUBLICATION

(Continued From Page 1). Into between the Hamilton publishers and the Typographical Union, was unable to meet the demands which the union officials thought were fair under the circumstances, with the result as stated.

"This is very much regretted by the Ontario Newspaper Corporation, Limited, but as the only alternative to the all the facts are considered, the proposal to establish a morning newspaper in Hamilton is not a commercially feasible and even attractive as a commercial undertaking. However, in the business world of late developed so quickly and unexpectedly as to produce a successful operation of the enterprise which this company has undertaken."

Conditions Not Normal. "The management has, however, reason to be grateful for the encouragement received from the public, and a section of the city. Considering the appeal that was made, the response that was made from the advertising standpoint and subscriptions received, gave assurance that under normal conditions the publication of a morning paper in Hamilton would be a profitable business. All obligations will be promptly met and money received for unexpired subscriptions and advertising refunded immediately."

"Newspaper Service" Unaffected. W. Nelson Wilkinson, managing editor of the Hamilton Morning Times, who is also president and general manager of the Canadian Newspaper Service, Inc., announced that the business of the Canadian Newspaper Service, Limited, was not affected by the suspension of the Hamilton Morning Times.

FURTHER AMENDMENTS TO HOME RULE BILL. London, Nov. 10.—The house of commons tonight concluded the report stage of the home rule bill for Ireland and the third reading of the measure will take place tomorrow.

Several amendments to the bill were agreed to today. These provide that control of the police shall be transferred to the Irish parliament three years after the act comes into operation, and that an absolute majority of the members of each parliament will be requisite to carry a bill for the fusion of the two parliaments.

Another amendment accepted makes it the duty of the central council of Ireland to frame a plan for the constitution of the second chambers.

NEWMAN HALL STUDENTS SAY FAREWELL TO RECTOR. Newman Hall was on fête last night when about three hundred students and their friends held a double function, that of saying a formal farewell to Rev. Father Ryder, the late rector of the house, and giving welcome to his successor, Rev. Father McCullen.

HURT ABOUT HEAD. When the ladder on which he was working fell to the ground from the first floor of St. Michael's Hospital yesterday afternoon, Harry Fromm, 107 St. Clara's avenue, sustained slight head injuries. Stitches were necessary to close one of the lacerations behind his ear.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE ADOPTS RESOLUTIONS

That the activities of the Women's Institute, covers a wide survey of interests, was shown by the number of resolutions brought in yesterday at the annual meeting now in session at the Technical School. One from North Lanark asked that a more rigid censorship be maintained over moving pictures, advertisements and a more general use of educational films encouraged. Disapproval of the order-in-council by the Dominion government of the importation of liquor into the provinces. Other resolutions dealt with the tendency of "modest dress," the blame being attached to laxity in the homes; that in the development of the Hydro-Electric system of the province every consideration be given to the needs of the farm and farm home.

SHOULD OPEN YARDS, LABOR MEN BELIEVE

Say Employment Would Be Aided by Completion of Dominion Vessels.

Considerable criticism of the Dominion government for its failure to re-open the yards of the Dominion Shipbuilding Company has been current during the past few days in labor circles. Trades union officials point out that on the two government vessels which have been left uncompleted last September, the Dominion Shipbuilding Company has been current during the past few days in labor circles. Trades union officials point out that on the two government vessels which have been left uncompleted last September, the Dominion Shipbuilding Company has been current during the past few days in labor circles.

Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine, visited the city during the last part of October, and following a conference with Herb Wright, business agent of the shipbuilders' union, stated that the yard would be re-opened during the early part of this month. No further developments have since occurred, however, although Mr. Ballantyne, at the time of his visit, inspected the yard and the ships in course of construction and expressed his satisfaction that their completion would be both to the interests of the government and to the benefit of the present industrial situation.

MUSIC AT CONSERVATORY SPLENDIDLY RENDERED. Toronto Conservatory of Music, recently added to the faculties of the University of Toronto thru the able ministrations of Dr. Torrington and other friends of music in this city, is to be congratulated upon both the recital given at the Conservatory Hall last night and upon Mr. Carlos Buhler of its faculty, who rendered a number of very classical as well as representative musical studies with an eye both to technique and interpretation. It was notable that his technique was perfect in the pianissimo passages and in the studies which called rather for expression and triple figure study in E flat tonic was perhaps not expressed at its best, whereas in such studies as Chopin's "Ballade in F Minor" and Scriabine's "Etude," or again in Debussy's "La Cathedrale Engloutie," technique was perfectly rendered and expression given full play. The hall was filled with an appreciative audience.

COTTON MILLS TO RUN ON A THREE-DAY BASIS. Lawrence, Mass., Nov. 10.—Notices have been posted in the Everett cotton mills that the plant, employing nearly 1,000, will close tonight for the balance of the week and will run for an indefinite period on a three-day basis. Business conditions are given as the reason, officials stating that the cotton cloth market as glutted. The announcement says that full time will be resumed "when there is a rift in the clouds."

Reduce Wages. Sunbury, Pa., Nov. 10.—The Susquehanna Silk Mills Corporation today announced a 15 per cent. reduction in pay, thru the discontinuance of a ten per cent. bonus for regular attendance at work and a five per cent. "dividend." About 3,500 workers are affected.

ARMISTICE DAY EVOKES EXCHANGE OF MESSAGES. London, Nov. 10.—In connection with armistice day and the arrival of the body of the unknown warrior, a number of complimentary messages have been exchanged. Premier Lloyd George wired warm thanks and an expression of appreciation to Marshal Foch of France for the tribute paid in France to the British warrior, King George sent a message of goodwill to President Millerand in which he expressed his sincere friendship for France and confidence in the future. The King also sent messages of a similar character to the sovereigns and presidents of all the allied nations.

Last September the Toronto Safety League offered sixty dollars in prizes ranging from five dollars to one dollar, for drawings dealing with accident prevention, produced by pupils of the public schools of Ontario.

THREE MASKED MEN IN MIDNIGHT HOLDUP. Druggist Robbed of Money and Drugs—Put Him in Cellar and Escape. Hamilton, Nov. 10.—Held at the point of revolvers, held by three masked men, Vernon Hawkins, of Hawkins' drug store, Cannon street and Victoria avenue, was at midnight robbed of one hundred and ten dollars in cash and six bottles of drugs. The burglars then forced Hawkins into the cellar and then made their escape.

PROBLEM OF LAND IS SACRED TRUST. So Says Premier Drury, and Adds Rural Preachers Have Glad Eye on the City. Something altogether new as a solution to the land problems of the province was thrown out as a suggestion to the Women's Institute members at the meeting in the Technical School last night, by Premier Drury, when he stated that an "open door" for the city into the countryside might solve the present difficulty of many unoccupied farms.

FLEMING ASKS HEAVY DAMAGES. Action for $50,000 Entered Against the Royal Bank. James Fleming, formerly accountant in the Woodbridge branch of the Royal Bank yesterday at Osgoode Hall thru his counsel, W. A. Skeans, K.C., entered action against the bank and the general manager, Stuart Strachan, to recover $50,000 damages, on the ground of alleged malicious prosecution, trespass and false imprisonment.

PATRONAGE IS GONE, DECLARES MEIGHEN. Challenges Doubters to Try to Exert Pull—Heard in Medicine Hat. Medicine Hat, Alta., Nov. 10.—(By Canadian Press)—The Methodist church in this city was the scene of tonight's meeting at which the prime minister of Canada, supported by Hon. J. A. Calder, immigration, colonization minister, defended the record of the Federal government and outlined its policies. The building was filled with 1,500 persons. G. M. Blackstock, president of Medicine Hat National Liberal and Conservative Association, presided, and Mr. Meighen spoke first.

LIKES OPEN SHOP FOR HOUSING SCHEME. Hamilton, Nov. 10.—H. W. West of the survey's committee of the I. L. P. said tonight that he was in favor of declaring an open shop on the work contented here in connection with the housing scheme as long as fair wages were paid the workers. He added that this would be his defence when he appeared before the I. L. P. Friday night to explain what he meant by such statements. The union men seek to have him removed from the committee.

BRIGHTER HOMES MADE BY FLOWERS

Declares Governor-General at Opening of Horticultural Exhibition.

The language of flowers and plants is in very silent evidence at Oddfellows' Temple, 229 College street, where the Ontario Horticultural Association opened their twelfth annual exhibition yesterday. Every lover of flowers should see the display put up by the society. It is smaller this year for reasons of space, but the specimens have been so carefully chosen and blended that the old Oddfellows' Hall is really a place of beauty.

The exhibition of fruit and vegetables is also worthy of great praise. The apple display is excellent, and it would be difficult to find a better Doherty good to see that not all the good apples of Ontario are sent to England, as is often declared, and that the Ontario Vegetable-Growers' Association, the Fruit-Growers' Association, the Bee-Keepers' Association, the Gardeners' and Florists' Association and the Toronto Retail Florists' Club, was opened by the governor-general, who was accompanied by the Hon. Lionel Clarke, Lieutenant-governor of Ontario, and Col. Fraser.

The duke, in declining the exhibition open congratulations, the associations on the display, and said that very few recollections of last year's exhibition were left. He greatly commended the display, and said that it could be done by flowers. There was no better occupation for a man's leisure—not that he knew of any other flowers, he said; they all worked too hard—but when they had the spare time, the cultivation of flowers was to be desired, and that could be done by flowers.

often does, proceed to these, thus producing Pneumonia. Vital statistics show that Pneumonia kills more people than any other disease, excepting Tuberculosis and Heart Disease. Many cases of Pneumonia begin as common colds, which have been neglected.

Persons of hereditary tubercular tendency should guard against colds and should take proper measures to stop their progress with the first symptoms. It is evident, therefore, that instead of being a trivial affection, the "common cold" must be classed as a serious menace to public health.

Asprolox, the new scientific cold remedy which has been accomplishing such remarkable results, probably provides the safest, surest and quickest, as well as the most practical, treatment for colds yet discovered.

This new remedy, according to the statements of the thousands who have used it, is almost magical in its effect. The first dose usually stops the tendency to sneezing and coughing and relieves the feeling of discomfort, and the second and third dose usually suffices to stop the progress of a fresh cold altogether. Only one bottle is generally sufficient to break up the most obstinate cold, no matter of how long standing.

The great superiority of Asprolox over the ordinary treatment heretofore prescribed is due to the fact that it is a combination treatment and acts as an antipyretic, expectorant, laxative and antiseptic, thereby removing the cause, while many other remedies relieve the symptoms only momentarily.

GEN. R. E. W. TURNER SPEAKS IN HAMILTON

Addresses Four Hundred Canadian Club Members—Pays Tribute to Mewburn.

Hamilton, Nov. 10.—Lieut.-General Sir R. E. W. Turner addressed an audience of 400 Canadian Club members tonight in the Royal Copnought Hotel. He was introduced by Hon. S. C. Mewburn, and was given a rousing reception when General Mewburn referred to his great war record. There were many women in the audience.

General Turner addressed the women first, and referred to the wonderful work of the different women's organizations during the war. He went back to conditions on the battle line two years ago tonight, on the eve of the signing of the armistice. There was no let up in the fighting and the Canadian Corps pressed on and captured Mons, he said. He paid tribute to the work of General Mewburn in keeping the ranks filled with Canadian soldiers.

Praises Men in Trenches.

"I tried as they did, to do a man's bit. It was the men in the trenches and the man behind the gun who won the war," he declared. Men, added the speaker, who wanted a voice in the country's affairs in times of peace, should be prepared at all times to accept their share of responsibility.

Considerable time was taken by the general in telling of his experiences in the Canadian north. His talk was brief, and very little mention was made of the war of after war matters.

KILLED MOTORING WITH COL. GAULT

Fiancee of Former Commander of Princess Pats Victim—Colonel Uninjured.

London, Nov. 10.—Mrs. Kathleen Blackader, who was shortly to marry Col. Hamilton Gault, formerly commanding officer of the Princess Patricia Battalion, was killed while motoring yesterday with Col. Gault to the West Somerset, fox hounds meeting. The automobile skidded and overturned. Col. Gault was not injured. The late Mrs. Blackader was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Newberry, and a granddaughter of a famous physician who served with the Hudson Bay Company in British Columbia half a century ago. She and the late Captain Blackader met in Florence, where he was pursuing his studies as an architect in 1911. They were married in London in 1912 and returned to Montreal, where Captain Blackader engaged in the practice of his profession with considerable success. Seven years ago their only child was born here.

Before the outbreak of war, Captain Blackader was attached to the 8th Royal Highlanders, and on the formation of the 42nd Battalion he joined as captain and went overseas, serving with his unit until June, 1918, when he was killed in action.

RACE AGAINST TIME BY BURNING VESSEL

Fuel Tank Exploded.

More than a score of longshoremen and members of the crew were unloading the vessel at the southern Pacific Line pier, when the fuel tank, containing several thousand gallons of oil, blew up without warning, hurling men in all directions and carrying away a section of the deck. Planks on the port side also were torn out and the ship immediately began to list. Spread by burning oil, many workers on the pier had narrow escapes from being burned to death. Several also had the clothes blown from their bodies by the force of the blast which shook the waterfront for blocks.

Police reserves and firemen rushed to the scene in answer to several alarms, removed the injured, but were unable to penetrate the forward part of the ship which was wrapped in smoke and flames. At three other big oil tanks were threatened fire officials, fearing another explosion, issued orders clearing the pier of workers and newspapermen. Firemen also were ordered off the blazing freighter, which began to list dangerously on the port side.

Second Explosion Occurs.

Several tugs were pulling the steamer into the middle of the river when another explosion occurred and flames leaped up the forward mast, sweeping the deck superstructure. She gave another heavy list and threatened to sink in mid-channel, blocking river traffic. More than a dozen tugs came to "be rescue and after a valiant fight succeeded in dragging the burning ship two miles down stream, with the hope of getting her into the outer harbor. A short distance north of Ellis Island, however, the freighter began to sink rapidly and it was found advisable to drag her on the Communipaw mud flats, off the Jersey shore.

During the trip fireboats glided alongside and swept the El Mundo forward and set with streams of water, but their effect on the burning oil was almost negligible. No one, however, attempted to board the blazing ship because of the danger of additional explosions.

WILL NOT CONSTRUCT TEMPORARY TRACK

(Continued From Page 1). little expense, especially if the crossing of the old belt line was made on the level, and the estates between Upper Canada Avenue and Eglinton Avenue donated all the land needed for opening streets or widening those parts already there. Personally he had no objection to the largest annexation scheme proposed. The World (the whole block east of Bathurst and south of Eglinton).

The land held by himself and other members of his family was all in the city now and he was paying $3,000 in taxes instead of $250, as formerly, to the township, so that the question of the extent of the strip to be annexed did not interest him. The opening of a thoroughfare here would relieve Yonge street of motor traffic and reduce the accident risk.

With regard to the Mount Pleasant carline, Mr. Ellis said the commission had gone over the ground and could understand the anxiety of residents for transportation as soon as possible. Personally he did not think the problem was entirely a North Toronto one. Both Moore Park and north Rosedale should be considered in the working out of the solution. By turning the proposed Mount Pleasant carline along St. Clair to Yonge would not meet the difficulty, said Mr. Ellis, because those people who desired to go south on Yonge street, when the weather did not favor walking, would pay another fare on the Metropolitan to reach the city cars, or three fares. The proposal for a temporary track on Mount Pleasant line also fails to impress Mr. Ellis. He realizes that the people are suffering for need of a car service, but he feels that the building of a temporary line would be wasteful. Members of a deputation which waited on the commission a week ago asked for a temporary track, and while no decision has yet been announced, it is entirely probable that one permanent carline will be considered by the commission.

TWO SUGAR REFINERS REDUCE PRICE LIST

New York, Nov. 10.—Two of the leading sugar refiners today reduced their list prices to the basis of 10 1/2c for fine granulated. Three are now listed at 10 1/4c, while two are still 10 1/2c. Several retail firms offered sugar to the public at 11 cents, while the prices quoted by other firms range from 11 1-2 to 16 cents.

DEPEND FOR PAPER ON OWN RESOURCES

Canada and Argentina Cannot Supply Enough to U. S. Says Expert.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Warning that the United States would have to depend on its own resources for paper, because Canada and Argentina did not have enough surplus to supply her with any great quantity, was given by C. W. Sisson of Potsdam, N.Y., president of the American Paper and Pulp Association, speaking today at the opening session of that body's convention here. Mr. Sisson declared that prices on paper are not likely to recede for some time. He said the industry was in better condition financially than many others, but lack of surplus stock would make price reductions impossible.

Preliminary plans for a paper conservation campaign with "avoid waste and conserve scraps" as its slogan, were made by the association today. Complete plans will be announced later.

ENGLISH MUNICIPALITIES ELECT THEIR MAYORS

London, Nov. 10.—Lord mayors and mayors were elected thruout England and Wales yesterday. Staleybridge again elected Mrs. Summers, and Worthing and Hoxton chose ladies for the first time. Sheffield elected a labor lord mayor for the first time, Alderman William Wardley. Buxton chose Lord Hartington, son and heir of the Duke of Devonshire, Governor-General of Canada.

Other election results were: Bradford, Colonel Gads; Bristol, G. Bretton; Birmingham, Alderman Cadbury; Hull, Alderman Atkinson; Leeds, A. Braithwaite; Liverpool, Alderman Russell Taylor; Manchester, Alderman Kay; Norwich, Col. Berney Duff; York, Alderman Walker; Blackpool, Charles Callis; Northampton, W. Reeves; St. Helens, Richard Ellison; Bath, Alderman Colmer; Oxford, E. B. Lewis; Leicester, G. Hilton; Wakefield, G. Foster; Halifax, Alderman May; Nottingham, H. Bowles; Barnsley, S. Jones; Wigan, E. Yates; Barnstaple, H. Ashton; Huddersfield, Alderman Woolven; Ipswich, F. Mason.

CANADIANS OFFICIATE AT BURIAL OF SOLDIER

London, Nov. 10.—Hon. Sir George E. Foster and Hon. C. J. Doherty, of the Canadian federal cabinet, and Hon. N. W. Rowell, an ex-member, will have places with the British cabinet around the cenotaph erected in London in memory of the British killed in the war when the King unveils it tomorrow. Sir George Foster, the senior Canadian privy councillor, will deposit a wreath of maple leaves at the foot of the monument on behalf of the Dominion of Canada. The Canadian party will then follow his majesty and the royal princes on foot to Westminster Abbey, where the body of an unknown soldier is to be buried.

STRIKE BY DOCTORS AVERTED BY MINERS

Glace Bay, N. S., Nov. 10.—A threatened strike of medical practitioners in the mining districts of Nova Scotia has been averted by a practically unanimous vote of the various locals of the United Mine Workers granting the doctors an increase in the levy on the miners who pay for their services, of fifteen cents per week.

The new rate of forty cents asked for by the doctors will now be put into effect.

MAN-TO-MAN VIEW NEEDED IN INDUSTRY

Brandon, Man., Nov. 10.—There is a fear growing falsely in the minds of many that those who work "for money" and those who work "with money" belong to a different species, declared Rev. Dr. Leslie Pidgeon, in an address to members of the Presbyterian Synod of Manitoba in session here. To those with intimate knowledge, he said, it is quite clear that both are quite human. The problem is to bring these common human elements to the surface, and make them practical in the actual direction of industrial life. Most of the difficulties that have arisen in industry, asserted Dr. Pidgeon, are the outcome of the breaking down of the "man-to-man" view.

MUST PERMIT OF OCEAN TRAFFIC

Deep Waterways Scheme a Failure Unless Canal Deepened to 30 Feet.

The St. Lawrence canal is not deepened to permit the passage of ocean-going boats drawing 30 feet of water over the sill, then all the money we have spent on the deepening of the Welland canal and improvements on the Toronto harbor front has been virtually thrown away. If a recommendation is permitted to go thru to deepen the canal to the extent of only 20 feet over the sill, this will be a disaster to this association. This was one point strongly stressed by E. L. Cousins, harbor board engineer, in his address on the Canadian deep waterways project to the Engineering Institute of Canada at the university mining building last night.

Mr. Cousins stressed the point that there was apparently an attempt being made by certain interests hostile to the project to have it held at the 20-foot depth, which meant the restriction of the 26-foot depth, with preparations for docking ocean vessels. There are 2,700 miles of waterways throughout the Great Lakes route, with only 97 miles to be canalized.

Canal Will Pay. The value of this St. Lawrence project cannot be worked out on the basis of dollars and cents, he said. "It is not a question of whether it will pay or not; there is no doubt about that. The four million electric horse power which could be developed by the Hydro would in a short time pay for it. As to its worth to Canada, it would be just as impossible to state that as it would be to say what the Bloor street viaduct is worth to Toronto. It is too comprehensive a subject to go into all the reasons why it should be built. It would be more to the point to debate on why it shouldn't be built. Whether the canal is built by Canada alone or internationally, it must permit of ocean-going traffic, and the day is not far distant when it will be a reality."

Major Alex Lewis, M.L.A., secretary-treasurer of the Deep Waterways Association, produced figures showing that five cents could be saved on every bushel of wheat going from Canada to the old country, if it were possible to load the grain on a boat at the head of the lakes and dump it off on the docks at Liverpool without rehandling. "It is the handling and re-handling of this grain, if sent part of the way by rail, which is responsible for the heavy cost," he said. Figures compiled show that the proportion of cost of transportation is 13 1/2 to 1 in favor of water transportation.

Will Help Railroads. "This project, when completed, will not hurt the railroads, but will rather help them. It is an established fact that after a certain point is reached, increased business for the railroads does not pay them. This is because of the fact that it costs more to operate with the facilities at hand, and also means the building of new lines, and the purchasing and renewing of more rolling stock. With this scheme we can co-operate with the railways and relieve them of the heavy freight hauls."

A general summing up of the whole project proposed by the association was made by O. E. Fleming, president, Windsor. He showed how Canada was losing money in that the great bulk of Canadian wheat was sent to New York for overseas distribution and not to Montreal. He also said that figures would indicate that produce could be carried by water at one-tenth of the cost by rail.

That the power developing project should be connected at the same time that the canal was deepened appeared to him to be the economical course. The scheme permits of four million horse-power being developed which could be put on the market as it was needed. He stated that all the evidence had been taken and he hoped it would result in a favorable report.

THE REASON WHY. At present prices, an apple a day will keep the doctor away because there will be nothing left with which to pay him.—Greenville (S.C.) Piedmont.

Keep Fit For Success In Life

You can take your boy and out of him make anything you like if you can get him under good self-discipline. All roads are open to the man who is strong and fit. Uncle Sam took "our boys"—those slab-sided, stooped, hollow-chested youths—and made of them vigorous, well-developed, well-set-up and courageous men. Take the right way! Train yourself and your children to take proper exercise, drink plenty of water and keep the system clean. Your doctor will tell you that anything from a common cold or headache to the most serious illness may result from the absorption of poisons in the intestines.

The first principle is to keep the system clean. Occasionally see that the boy or girl, as well as yourself, has an internal bath. It may be with castor oil or a tiny pill of May-apple, aloin and jalap, which is sold by druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. If a cold starts with a cough and it persists, then some local treatment for this condition should be taken. A well-known alternative extract which has been on the market for a great many years, and which has been highly recommended by thousands of users, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This tonic compound is composed of an extract of roots and herbs, without alcohol, and has a soothing effect upon the mucous membrane, allays the irritation and at the same time works in the proper and reasonable way, at the seat of the trouble—the stagnated or poisoned blood.

MRS. ELLA LEFTWICK, another Kansas City woman whose remarkable restoration by Tanlac has astonished her neighbors, many of whom have begun taking the Master Medicine. "They all agree with me that it is the greatest medicine on earth," says Mrs. Leftwick.

"A number of my friends, after seeing the wonderful good Tanlac did me, began taking the medicine, and now they all agree with me that it is the greatest medicine on earth," said Mrs. Ella Leftwick, 723 Pile St., Kansas City, Kan.

"Tanlac completely restored my health," she said, "and just seemed to give me a new lease on life. If I could talk personally with every woman suffering as I did, I would urge them to take this medicine. "For the first time in three years I am able to eat and enjoy three hearty meals every day and not suffer in the least with indigestion afterwards. I am never troubled now with the awful smothering spells that used to frighten me so much, and the dreadful headaches that came upon me every day have been entirely broken up. "I was extremely nervous and couldn't sleep well, but now my nerves are in splendid shape, and I sleep like a child every night. My strength has been so wonderfully increased, that I can now do all the housework in my eight-room house and attend to the children besides. I feel just splendidly all the time now. Tanlac is certainly worth its weight in gold."

Tanlac is sold in Toronto by Tamblin Drug Stores and by an established agency in every town.

ANOTHER SIX WEEKS IN PHONE RATE CASE

No Retroactive Rates. Another matter of almost equal importance was settled at the session, namely, when Chairman S. J. McLean, of the railway commission announces that there would be no retroactive measures, but that any increases, if granted, would date from the issuing of the order of the board, and would have no retroactive effect. This led to a request by counsel for the Bell Telephone Company that proceedings should be hastened, since they claimed that under the present rates the company was losing $200,000 a month.

Large Attendance. There was a large attendance at the meeting, including representatives not only of Montreal and the South Shore towns, but also from Quebec city. Apart from Quebec and the South Shore representatives there was a unanimity of opinion that if the Bell Telephone could show that it was entitled to an advance in its rates, this should be granted.

Mayor Samson and other representatives from Quebec objected to any increases at all, while representatives from the South even wanted a reduction in their tolls, which, they stated in their case, were usually long-distance.

General opposition was voiced to the adoption of the measured system.

VELEBRANTS TO ADOPT MUNICIPAL SLATE

Special Meeting of G.A.U.V. Executive Will Be Held on Sunday Next.

Candidates for the majority, board of control, city council and the board of education will be endorsed at a special political executive meeting which the G.A.U.V. is holding next Sunday afternoon. This will be practically the G.A.U.V. municipal slate.

J. Harry Flynn, vice-president of the association, said yesterday that the association attributed the defeat of the Soldier-Labor candidate, James Higgins, to the fact that there were only 513 members of the G.A.U.V. in the riding. Out of that number, more than 400 voted.

The municipal elections the G.A.U.V., which is sixteen thousand strong in Toronto, will prove by results that there is nothing to worry about on account of the failure to capture the seat in Northeast Toronto.

Attention of the provincial command of the G.W.V.A. will be called to the need of urging the duty of the G.W.V.A. to be more closely following the movements of ex-service men who have strayed away from home, victims of temporary loss of memory or other forms of derangement. As matters stand, the duty of following the movements of men so situated is left to the various soldiers' organizations, entailing upon them arduous work and one who has been recently brought to the attention of the G.W.V.A., in which the son of an invalid mother, during a fit of depression, left home and has not been seen or heard of since. This mother, who has had to fend for herself for nearly a year, has applied for relief.

Ex-service men interviewed yesterday afternoon expressed the opinion that men suffering from bad wounds and other injuries liable to affect the mind were really wards of the government and should be so considered, in which case the government should apply proper relief to the dependents affected when proper representation was made.

Nominations for president of the Central G.W.V.A. include the names of two very well known men among the service men in Ontario. One is J. H. Rawlinson, the blind veteran, who has fought consistently for increased pensions before the pensions committee at Ottawa and elsewhere; the other is D. H. Howe, now acting president, the new champion of the dollar a day gratuity. Other nominees for various offices are: Vice-president, D. G. McLachlan and J. H. Stevenson; second vice-president, E. A. Meader and W. S. Coward. At least fifteen names have been submitted for place on the executive, to which body it will be necessary to elect five.

George Marshall, one of the best known workers in the association, has had his appointment to the position of secretary of Central G.W.V.A. confirmed.

C. B. Topp, of the soldiers' insurance department at Ottawa, is scheduled to address Riverside G.W.V.A. at the meeting which is to be held at the Oddfellows' Hall, Broadview avenue, near Queen street, on Thursday, November 18.

Central G.W.V.A. executive has passed a resolution to urge the need of the Toronto district calling a special joint executive meeting to be held to consider the re-establishment bonus scheme which is being fathered anew by the branch, under the leadership of D. Howe and other prominent members.

The Amputations Club last night held the first euchre of the season, more than thirty members being present at the comfortable club rooms on College street near Yonge street. It is anticipated that many other enjoyable socials will be held during the season.

Central G.W.V.A. now has 900 members in good standing, and is expected to have a thousand members very shortly. Fifty of the 900 members are ex-service imperial, some of whom saw service at the battle of Mons. The branch is settling the claims of adjustments and distress cases every day, and the office is kept very busy.

It is understood that a general meeting of the Mississauga Military Club, with fine commodious quarters at Gerard street, near Yonge street, may be held very shortly to consider plans for more effective organization. It was stated yesterday afternoon by those in the know that this club has potential membership of 20,000, that is to say, that there are at least 20,000 ex-service men in Toronto and districts who are enlisted with the four units comprising the club. The membership proper of this club is 4,000. It comprises our units as follows: the 75th, the 124th, the Mississauga and the 2nd Battalion. Of these four units the 2nd Battalion alone has more potential members outside than within Toronto, the battalion having been organized from Eastern Ontario units. The headquarters of this battalion are really at Kingston. All of the other three units were raised from Toronto itself, and each of them numbers several thousand former members. The club is made up of all former members of these battalions, who pay an initiation fee of $2, no further payments being required. The members of the newly-recruited Ontario Mounted Rifles and the 75th Battalion Mississauga Horse, also recently organized, are eligible for membership.

PROPERTY IN TORONTO IN WOMAN'S ESTATE

Realty valued at $17,500 is the estate of Mrs. Jimmie Peters, who died July 23. An equity in property at 1123 College street is valued at $8,200; in 513 West King street, $4,000, and 14 and 16 Ashdale avenue, $5,300. By a will made at Sundridge, Pa., on November 4, 1910, the testatrix devised the entire estate to her husband Albert E. Peters.

The house at 36 Winesave avenue, $14,000; book debts and cash, $8,997, totaling $10,897, is the estate of Ellen Moore, a widow, who died May 11. The beneficiaries are the mother, Christina Sandham, three brothers, Charles, Ernest and William, a sister, Mrs. Lillie M. Woodland, of Winnipeg, and two children of a deceased brother, John, living in Vancouver and Westmount.

SIGNED STATEMENT IS NOT CORRECT

So Declares John Sirrs at the Inquest on Child Struck by His Car.

An inquest was held last night on Gertrude Lacey, aged 14, who was struck at the corner of Yonge and Roshampton avenue, at 8.30 a.m., November 3, by a Ford coupe, driven by John Sirrs, 210 Sheldrake boulevard, and was adjourned by the coroner, Dr. M. M. Crawford, until November 17.

Mr. Sirrs swore he was traveling south on Yonge at a speed of from 10 to 15 miles an hour, when he swerved aside to pass some motors in front of him, and did not see Miss Lacey, who was crossing ahead of the cars he was attempting to pass, until he was some twenty-five feet away. She was standing on the road and when he came within three or five feet, she started to run across in front of his car. He immediately pulled to the left to avoid her and put on the brakes. In doing so, she did not clear the car, the left front mudguard hitting her, and his car slid into the ditch.

The girl was attended to by Dr. W. J. Bond at his office previous to her removal to the Sick Children's Hospital, where she died early the next morning from internal injuries and hemorrhage.

The statement Mr. Sirrs signed and which Detective Croxson read to him, was not correct, he said, and when questioned by Mr. Harvey Snyder for attention whatever of stopping when he saw the girl first. At that time the girl was twenty-five feet ahead and four feet west of his car. He denied that she had been dragged after being struck.

Miss Margaret Jordan, 63 Orchardview boulevard, could not say whether anything obstructed the girl's vision as the car approached, because her own had been cut off by a motor passing at that time. The girl had been carried about twenty feet, she stated.

Mr. Peter White, K.C., appeared for Mr. Sirrs, assisted by Mr. Schaeber.

WILL REORGANIZE TO COMBAT DISEASE

Ontario Committee Also Desires Plans Changed for Permitting Pictures.

A meeting of the Ontario provincial committee of the Canadian National Council for Combating Venereal Diseases was held at the head office of the council, 164 Bay street, yesterday. Among those present were: Dr. Charles A. Hodgetts of Ottawa, in the chair, Dr. R. R. McClenahan, Miss Fairley and Dr. Douglas G. Storms of Hamilton, Miss Gertrude Tate, Mrs. H. P. Plumptre, Mrs. Torrington, Dr. Andrew S. Grant, Dr. A. Grant Fleming, and Dr. Gordon Bates. Mrs. Neville Rolfe, O.B.E., Miss Grant, M.B.E., and Dr. Rupert Hallam of the commission sent out by the British National Council for Combating Venereal Diseases were also present, and were able to add considerably to the value of the meeting by the information which they have in reference to the organization of the campaign against venereal diseases in Great Britain.

The most important business discussed was reorganization of the Ontario council with a view to organizing a close-knit organization between the government, the provincial council and municipal council similar to that in vogue in Great Britain. The general principle underlying this idea was approved and a committee appointed to go thoroughly into the matter.

A resolution was passed urging that in future when moving pictures dealing with the subject of venereal diseases come before the board of censors the advice of the provincial board of health and of the National Council for Combating Venereal Diseases be sought before such films are shown to the public.

A further resolution was passed urging that the Dominion government remove all restrictions upon the importation of approved surgical products for the treatment of syphilis. It was stated that an embargo placed upon such products at the beginning of the war has not yet been removed, and that its retention has proved very irksome to medical practitioners who desire to use various preparations whose importation is prohibited.

It was reported by various subcommittees that the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and the Trades and Labor Council have been approached with a view to organizing for the widespread distribution of literature and for the utilization of speakers before various audiences. It was also reported that branch councils had been formed in Hamilton, Brantford and London.

Do this in Remembrance of Armistice Day

Millions of children in Central and Eastern Europe have been made fatherless by war. Many of them are stunted and weakened through lack of proper food. Under-fed children are dying by thousands, a prey to disease. Millions are growing up weak and undeveloped because the milk, sugar and fats that promote normal growth are wanting.

These are the coming citizens of Central and Eastern Europe. Upon their present care and nourishment depends whether the nations to which they belong will be healthy and right-minded or hot-beds of anarchy and degeneracy. For the future of civilization, we must save the children.

These countries can provide about $2 worth of food out of the $3 necessary to the proper feeding of one of these children for a month. Other foods, like milk and fats, costing $1 per month per child, must come from outside. And it is this dollar which will turn the scale.

The Ravages of Typhus
While the children are suffering so much the adult populations have been reduced to the direst misery by the spread of typhus. An investigator for the League of Red Cross Societies says:

"Misery greater in extent and intensity than the modern world has ever before witnessed exists in the broad belt lying between the Baltic, the Adriatic and the Black Sea. In this great area there is generally an absolute lack of medicines and sanitary appliances; doctors, nurses and hospital equipment are practically non-existent; food and clothing are insufficient to make life itself tolerable, and disease and suffering are present in practically every household."

The British Empire War Relief Fund has been undertaken by all British peoples to help mitigate the suffering of plague-stricken Europe and to save the children. It will be administered in Europe in co-operation with the League of Red Cross Societies.

To Look Younger
How often have you seen the face of an old man at a social event, and thought, "that couldn't get any younger, could it?"
The answer is, "Yes, it can." It is not an old man's face that you see, it is a face that has been neglected. The skin is wrinkled, the eyes are sunken, the hair is thinning. This is the result of a poor diet, lack of exercise, and a general neglect of the body.
The only way to keep your face young is to take care of it. Use a good skin cream, get plenty of sleep, and eat a healthy diet. This will keep your skin smooth and your eyes bright. You will look younger and feel better.

TO HOLD CONFERENCE ON MAGISTRATES' PAY

Representatives of the city will have a conference with the attorney-general regarding the salaries of magistrates. The province makes the appointments. Attorney-General Raper wrote Mayor Church yesterday suggesting that the salary of the magistrate to be appointed in place of the late Atkins and Kingsford should be twice the amount paid to Mr. Kingsford, who received $4,200 a year.

STRUCK BY RUNAWAY

While about to board a Dundas street car at Dundas and Augusta avenue yesterday afternoon, Morris King, aged 25, of 11 Bellevue place, was struck by the street car and away from him attached to a wagon. He was removed to the General Hospital in the police ambulance. It was ascertained that he had received a fracture of the right leg.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 11.

A Dangerous Deadlock.

Something like an endurance test is going on in the United States between producers who will not sell and consumers who will not buy. The cotton planter, who threatens to burn his crop unless he gets his price, finds a congenial companion in the textile manufacturer, who closes down his factory to create an artificial scarcity.

Many preachers are being indulged in by newspapers, which we fear few people read or pay any attention to, but a note of strident optimism has been struck by Judge E. H. Gary of the United States Steel Corporation.

There is no use to lambast the middleman, against whom everyone has a stone to cast. The merchants of the country are just as honest as the farmers, the manufacturers and the general run of consumers.

If the retail merchant is unable or unwilling to sell at what the consumer considers a fair price, and if the customer be unwilling to buy at any price, we have the business deadlock that is going on all over the continent in concrete and understandable form.

We believe that prices generally have come down. The man or woman who goes shopping certainly knows whether they have or not. They may go lower, and there is a temptation to hang off and see what is going to happen.

The humble unknown, buried in Westminster Abbey today, bears the honors due every British soldier who fought in France. Just as he bore the bitterness of war and death on the battle line for every home-staying man, woman and child of the British people.

Straws Wafted by Political Breezes.

It is exactly for us in the east to learn exactly what is happening in the west as a result of the stumping tours of Premier Meighen and Leader King. Both drew large crowds, but that was to be expected.

Rhyming Views On Daily News

By GEORGE H. DIXON.

"Indecent and immodest dress," this was the subject we confess, raised by the Women's Institute, and of much evil called the root. Their faces lit with smiling smiles, these women boldly knocked the styles, and passed a resolution strong that modern fashions were all wrong.

The Free Press, once a Liberal and then Unionist, finds Mr. Crerar more to its liking than either Mr. Meighen or Mr. King. For the present it is supporting him upon the threadbare issue that the Dominion government should turn over to the prairie provinces their lands, timber and minerals.

The free trade farmers of the west may be against the Meighen government; to what extent can they swing into line the farmers of Ontario? That is a question which will not be definitely settled at the East Elgin by-election, but the by-election will be a straw to show the way in which the wind in Ontario is blowing.

OUR PRAYER

By GORDON HOLMES

Marguerite at first believed he was joking. When he assured her he was even more serious than usual, she relieved the situation by making an elaborate curtsy to her own reflection in an old-fashioned mirror in the drawing-room.

"Lady Dalrymple!" she cried. "Presented at court by her humble self, Sir Robert Dalrymple, K.C.S.I., Lady Dalrymple, K.I.S.S.I."

Whereupon, she proceeded to invest each of them with her own order. When the bench, the bar, the police, and the press were duly represented that afternoon, Mr. Stephen Ogilvie spoke fully and frankly.

For she alone knew what this gentleman-voiced, white-haired man had endured during those June days two years ago. Even the tender-hearted Marguerite could never realize the exquisite torture which her father had suffered voluntarily.

It is not to be wondered at if Dalrymple and Marguerite exchanged smiling glances at those words; but the professor's strange narrative should not be interrupted by lovers' confidences.

"I am a man of highly sensitive nature," he went on, "and my mind almost gave way under the shock when my brother James, somewhat older than myself, who occupied a prominent position in Birmingham as manager of an important private bank, was reported missing from his office under circumstances which pointed to a serious and systematic embezzlement of the bank's funds.

"What Protestant Chinese classes have you visited recently?" "I visited the Church two or three months ago."

"How many teachers were there?" "Fifty-six teachers, girls and some men."

"One teacher for each Chinese?" "The Chinese greatly prefer lady teachers, don't they?" "A Chinaman likes to boast to another Chinaman about having a lady teacher."

"And white women are sympathetic with them, I suppose?" "I guess so. I know at the time Mr. Dobb was arrested in France, owing to a chance meeting with a man who knew him. He was brought to trial, condemned to a long term of penal servitude, and passed into seeming oblivion accompanied by the curses of thousands. My wife and I literally could not hold up our heads among our friends in the Midlands, and, as we were not wholly dependent on my earnings, we resolved to change our name and start life anew. At that crisis, my mother died. Undoubtedly her death was hastened by my brother's wrongdoing, and it is probable

An Interview With a Clergyman Who Has Married Twenty-Four Canadian Girls to Chinese Men—Some Inside Information About the Sunday School Classes for Individual Teaching of the Orientals.

By BILLEE GLYNN.

(Continued From Page 1). It's a lovely world, and we've forgotten it. Today the soldier who lost an eye or a leg at Mons would be handed over to the authorities by one of our Sunday-school-going Chinamen if he hadn't the price of his meal or cup of coffee. No other class is so ready to do good.

Twenty-four marriages—How many does that mean in progeny? But this minister was at least frank enough to admit the truth. Some others who had performed the ceremony for numerous couples, and behind the staid-looking man in the matter as distinctly as ink could do it.

But let us proceed with the interview transcending from horizontal to vertical in every case, because these gentlemen were told the information might be used in a report to the Dominion government. This minister I shall call No. 2. He is leaning back in his chair, and a faint smile on his face.

"Where is your church?" "On St. James street, near the market."

"Have you much of a Chinese attendance?" "They haven't been attending well since the war started. A lot went to China when the war started. I don't know what he is doing when he later on sends his fellow-citizens to the same retreat."

There ought to be a real competition for the job on the police court bench if the salary is boosted from $1,200 to $4,000. Hundred per cent. increases are not by any means general in these getting-back-to-normal days.

It is unlikely that a report from the finance commissioner that the Gas Company is justified in increasing its rates, will be satisfactory to members of council and the public, who are demanding a thorough investigation.

The humble unknown, buried in Westminster Abbey today, bears the honors due every British soldier who fought in France. Just as he bore the bitterness of war and death on the battle line for every home-staying man, woman and child of the British people.

Licence Commissioner Flavell says he does not know whether or not Rev. Mr. Spracklin's usefulness as a licence official has been impaired by the shooting of Trumble. That is a point upon which Mr. Flavell should lose no time in coming to a definite decision.

Premier Drury is reported as promising an important announcement about better enforcement of the O.T.A. A lot of people would like to hear him talk about amending out of the act several features that do not commend it to lovers of sane and fair legislation.

LONDON BANK ACQUIRES LARGEST JUTE FACTORY. London, Nov. 10.—The Commercial Bank of London has acquired the world's largest jute factory, situated at Dundee, and also has taken over five other jute concerns in the same town, says The Evening News today.

"Some of them don't—no! I was very careful in the beginning, and used to keep the marriage license the Chinaman brought me till I had investigated it. Then, when I went to see him in a matter of such investigation I was told by Mr. —, the government official in charge at that time, that it was the government's business to sell marriage licenses, and not mine to say anything about it. He threatened me with jail for retaining licenses. Some other ministers, I believe, were not so careful. I was told that the Rev. — married two couples I turned away."

"Who told you?" "The parties themselves. The Rev. — also married quite a few couples. "One has to congratulate the Toronto ministers in taking such a liberal stand in this matter. I suppose the Chinese appreciate it, and make the marrying minister a pretty present in cash."

"A pause, but no answer." "I cannot press the question without awakening suspicion. But, if it were not so, the answer would not be withheld anyway, my information from other sources assures me on this point."

"What about the association of white girls and Chinese in Toronto outcasts of marriage? As I told you, we want all the facts, even though they should be unfavorable, so that in B. C. we can avoid the dangers, if there are any."

"I understand there are a good many white girls living with Chinese in Toronto. They are, I think, principally young girls who come from the country, and go to school in the city, and are acquainted with them, or perhaps get married to them, and live with them in Chinese homes."

"(This is in refutation of most of the other ministers interviewed, and also of the head of the local Chinese Y.M.C.A., who, when the announcement of these articles was made, wrote a letter to an evening paper denying such prohibition, and stating that the Chinese didn't know it should be done, and that it made him personally very sad.)"

"I understand there are twenty-five classes for Chinese in the Sunday schools of Toronto?" "There must be more. I believe the Presbyterian Church has 28 classes alone. Then, the Methodist, Anglican and Baptist Churches have classes. During the last two years I have been told the Roman Catholics have started two schools."

"What are your views on the Chinese?" "I have lived among the Chinese and know them pretty well."

"Whose fault is it when the lovmaking is so far as my judgment goes I would say the girl."

"Nevertheless, you say you keep a keen eye on the Chinese. Perhaps that is the reason your class is not so popular with the Chinese as the other classes."

"One Sunday in 1903 Mr. —, superintendent of —, who was visiting my service, told me Chinese class in my own mission that in the — Presbyterian Church the next Sunday every Chinese would be given an individual lady teacher. I had a large class at that time and a few lady teachers, but not teaching individuals. The next Sunday, because of the announcement, I lost four teachers and eighteen Chinese men from my class. I think there is a great deal of danger in the churches. However, in my church two is the least that any girl teacher has in small—not in consequence, I suppose."

"I do not think so. But it is so small I am sometimes able to teach them all myself. On occasional Sundays, as I have said, there are fifteen or sixteen Chinese pupils and six or seven teachers."

"Your Chinese pupils are adults, of course, is so in all the churches?" "Yes, adults, with, perhaps, an exception here and there. I have had a class for Chinese children in Toronto that I know of."

"(Permit me to interpolate here that, though he has been mentioned in connection with the Presbyterian Church, this reverend gentleman is not a Presbyterian minister. To give his denomination would be practically giving his name, from which I refrain at this time.)"

"Do you know of any marriages of Chinese and white girls in Toronto?" "Yes; they are quite numerous. I have married twenty-four or twenty-five couples myself. Nearly all the ministers marry them. So there must be quite a great many. I have had one Chinese woman who wanted to marry white girls because I knew they had wives in China."

"A Chinaman doesn't mind having a couple of wives, then?" "Some of them don't—no! I was very careful in the beginning, and used to keep the marriage license the Chinaman brought me till I had investigated it. Then, when I went to see him in a matter of such investigation I was told by Mr. —, the government official in charge at that time, that it was the government's business to sell marriage licenses, and not mine to say anything about it. "I understand there are a good many white girls living with Chinese in Toronto. They are, I think, principally young girls who come from the country, and go to school in the city, and are acquainted with them, or perhaps get married to them, and live with them in Chinese homes."

"(This is in refutation of most of the other ministers interviewed, and also of the head of the local Chinese Y.M.C.A., who, when the announcement of these articles was made, wrote a letter to an evening paper denying such prohibition, and stating that the Chinese didn't know it should be done, and that it made him personally very sad.)"

"I understand there are twenty-five classes for Chinese in the Sunday schools of Toronto?" "There must be more. I believe the Presbyterian Church has 28 classes alone. Then, the Methodist, Anglican and Baptist Churches have classes. During the last two years I have been told the Roman Catholics have started two schools."

"What are your views on the Chinese?" "I have lived among the Chinese and know them pretty well."

"Whose fault is it when the lovmaking is so far as my judgment goes I would say the girl."

"Nevertheless, you say you keep a keen eye on the Chinese. Perhaps that is the reason your class is not so popular with the Chinese as the other classes."

"One Sunday in 1903 Mr. —, superintendent of —, who was visiting my service, told me Chinese class in my own mission that in the — Presbyterian Church the next Sunday every Chinese would be given an individual lady teacher. I had a large class at that time and a few lady teachers, but not teaching individuals. The next Sunday, because of the announcement, I lost four teachers and eighteen Chinese men from my class. I think there is a great deal of danger in the churches. However, in my church two is the least that any girl teacher has in small—not in consequence, I suppose."

"I do not think so. But it is so small I am sometimes able to teach them all myself. On occasional Sundays, as I have said, there are fifteen or sixteen Chinese pupils and six or seven teachers."

"Your Chinese pupils are adults, of course, is so in all the churches?" "Yes, adults, with, perhaps, an exception here and there. I have had a class for Chinese children in Toronto that I know of."

"(Permit me to interpolate here that, though he has been mentioned in connection with the Presbyterian Church, this reverend gentleman is not a Presbyterian minister. To give his denomination would be practically giving his name, from which I refrain at this time.)"

"Do you know of any marriages of Chinese and white girls in Toronto?" "Yes; they are quite numerous. I have married twenty-four or twenty-five couples myself. Nearly all the ministers marry them. So there must be quite a great many. I have had one Chinese woman who wanted to marry white girls because I knew they had wives in China."

"A Chinaman doesn't mind having a couple of wives, then?" "Some of them don't—no! I was very careful in the beginning, and used to keep the marriage license the Chinaman brought me till I had investigated it. Then, when I went to see him in a matter of such investigation I was told by Mr. —, the government official in charge at that time, that it was the government's business to sell marriage licenses, and not mine to say anything about it. He threatened me with jail for retaining licenses. Some other ministers, I believe, were not so careful. I was told that the Rev. — married two couples I turned away."

"Who told you?" "The parties themselves. The Rev. — also married quite a few couples. "One has to congratulate the Toronto ministers in taking such a liberal stand in this matter. I suppose the Chinese appreciate it, and make the marrying minister a pretty present in cash."

"A pause, but no answer." "I cannot press the question without awakening suspicion. But, if it were not so, the answer would not be withheld anyway, my information from other sources assures me on this point."

"What about the association of white girls and Chinese in Toronto outcasts of marriage? As I told you, we want all the facts, even though they should be unfavorable, so that in B. C. we can avoid the dangers, if there are any."

"I understand there are a good many white girls living with Chinese in Toronto. They are, I think, principally young girls who come from the country, and go to school in the city, and are acquainted with them, or perhaps get married to them, and live with them in Chinese homes."

"(This is in refutation of most of the other ministers interviewed, and also of the head of the local Chinese Y.M.C.A., who, when the announcement of these articles was made, wrote a letter to an evening paper denying such prohibition, and stating that the Chinese didn't know it should be done, and that it made him personally very sad.)"

THE TORONTO WORLD'S FIRST WEEKLY NOVEL

BY JAMES B. HENDRYX. That's where I dropped it, eh? "figured Monk thought he'd found something, the dog barked at you, called the name of the time he searched it, so I followed him to the place you'd said for him." He paused for a moment, his eyes fixed on me, as if he were waiting for me to know him. Patty thought she detected a flicker of amusement in his eyes.

CHAPTER XVII. Unmasked. At the Samuelson's ranch they found that Mr. Samuelson's condition had taken a sudden turn for the better and it was a jubilant little group that welcomed Patty as she rode up to the veranda. VII Holland had muttered an excuse and gone directly to the bank.

STEWARDS REFUSE TO ACT IF SHILLING GETS A LICENSE

May Mean the Closing of the Pimlico Meeting—Maryland State Commission Orders Jockey Club to Grant a Temporary License—Ross Avoids Trouble by Using Butwell on Billy Kelly on Wednesday.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 10.—Under a resolution adopted by the Maryland State Commission tonight, the meet at Pimlico may be brought to an abrupt conclusion tomorrow. This resolution orders the Maryland Jockey Club, which operates the Pimlico track, to grant a temporary license to Jockey Carroll Schilling, under penalty of having the track's license revoked. Schilling has been under suspension since 1912 for rough riding. The granting of the temporary license was in response to the request of Commander J. K. L. Ross, who employs him. Under the rules of the American Jockey Club, the officiating stewards would refuse to serve if Schilling appeared on a contender, and would call off the other horses in the race.

The trouble over Schilling came to the front today. He was granted a temporary license to enable him to ride Billy Kelly today. Frank J. Bryan, steward, representing the Jockey Club, declared he would not serve in the stand and Clerk of the Course Herman F. Conkling announced he would not weigh him in.

An embarrassing situation was temporarily avoided when Commander Ross and Trainer Redwald substituted Jimmy Butwell for Schilling. Butwell went in and won the race. Steward Bryan explained that he could not officiate without first obtaining the permission of the body which suspended the jockey. If Schilling should ride without a permit, Bryan said, any places his mount won could be protested by any other entry in the race. All the officials serve under the rules of the Jockey Club of America.

Algernon Dangerfield, secretary of the jockey club, hurried here from New York. He arrived tonight and tomorrow morning will try to patch up the controversy with the state commission.

BROADVIEW SWIMMING ACTIVITIES

In several long-distance periods held recently the following members have qualified for membership in the Broadview Swimming Club: Wesley Young, Harold Clark, Frank Hall, Charlie Vaughan, Albert Wager, Bert Gibson, Jack Walkinshaw and Bert Buwat. The successful graduates are: Stewart F. Cork, W. M. Bailey and R. C. Bailey, who will each receive the award of merit in due time.

BILL TO LEGALIZE BOXING IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Nov. 10.—A bill to legalize boxing in the state was ready to be presented to the city council today by Alderman Joseph O. Koester. The bill as a whole is similar to the one drawn up by the alderman last year, and is to be presented in the state legislature by its sponsors after submission to the city council for endorsement. It provides for a state athletic commission of three men to be appointed by the governor. The bouts shall not be longer than 15 rounds, and six-ounce gloves must be worn.

PLAYGROUNDS SOCCER

The City Playgrounds Soccer League is playing semi-finals and finals in all leagues except the senior on Saturday. Strathcona and Leslie Grove are playing for the championship of the Intermediate League in the Junior League. O'Neill and Carlton are playing a semi-final game, and in the Juvenile League, Strathcona and McMurrich are playing a semi-final game. The following are the draws and officials:

12 o'clock Noon

Thursday, November 11th, 1920

THOS. L. CHURCH, ESQ., MAYOR OF THE CITY OF TORONTO.

Whereas, His Majesty the King has asked that an opportunity be provided for the people of every part of the British Empire on the second anniversary of the armistice, which played the world-wide carnage of the four preceding years and marked the victory of right, justice and freedom, to perpetuate the memory of that great deliverance and of those who laid down their lives to achieve it.

His Majesty, therefore, requests that there may be on Armistice Day, for the brief space of two minutes, a complete suspension of all normal activities, so that in perfect stillness the prayers and thoughts of everyone may be concentrated on reverent remembrance of the glorious dead and of the victory by God's grace vouchsafed to the Empire and its devoted Allies.

I, therefore, in compliance with the wishes of His Majesty the King, do request that, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon, on THURSDAY, THE 11th INSTANT, all business and domestic activities of every description should cease for a period of TWO MINUTES.

I beg also to request that commemorative services be held at that hour in schools and colleges of the city.

A patriotic ceremony will take place in front of the main entrance of the City Hall, at noon, on which occasion all citizens are invited to be present.

It is further specially desired that flags be flown throughout the city in honor of the Day.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused this proclamation to be made public.

T. L. CHURCH, Mayor,
Mayor's Office, Toronto, November 11th, 1920.
GOD SAVE THE KING.

THE EXCHANGE RATE

VII.—What Controls It?

WE have shown in former issues of this series that currencies, outside their own countries, are commodities, not money, the advantage of Bills of Exchange over gold for making settlements and the effect of the Trade Balance on the Exchange Rate.

Before the War, except during the greatest financial crises, paper currencies of the chief countries could be redeemed in gold on demand, and the gold could be sent to another country.

The principal controlling factor in the exchange market was therefore withdrawn, and the price of Bills of Exchange depended chiefly on whether the amount offered exceeded, or was less than the demand.

STEEL ORDERS DECREASE. New York, Nov. 10.—The monthly tonnage report of the United States Steel Corporation, made public here today, showed 3,626,852 tons of unfilled orders on hand Oct. 31. This is a decrease of 837,962 tons from last month's unfilled orders, which totalled 10,774,814 tons.

CITY TO CONFER ON QUESTION OF POWER

Shortage Is Still Acute, Says Acting-Manager of the Commission.

The board of control will have a conference next Tuesday at two o'clock with the Toronto Hydro-Electric Commissioners on the power question, and it is expected Sir Adam Beck will also be present. Mayor Church stated yesterday that something may also be said regarding the negotiations for the purchase of the Metropolitan railway.

"The commission is meeting with considerable success in its campaign to get consumers on the different circuits together and arrange with them in what way they can take their share of the power available with the minimum of inconvenience," said E. M. Ashworth, acting general manager of the commission, yesterday, adding that the shortage of power was as acute as ever, and that even if the city got 5,000 additional horsepower from the 15,000 horsepower now delivered by the Electrical Development Company, conditions would not be quite as good as last year, although they would be materially better than at present.

"There are only two ways of notifying power users in advance of a cut off," Mr. Ashworth stated. "One is by telephone, but this method is a physical impossibility, as at such times our switchboard is smothered. The only other form of notification in advance is to have some kind of schedule, but the trouble in this case is that any schedule, to be effective, must take care of the worst conditions that can arise.

POSTMEN ASK MAYOR TO TAKE UP CASE

Several of the 65 letter carriers who were laid off on the first of the month have asked the mayor to take up their case, and his worship has written to the chairman of the civil service commission asking if something cannot be done towards keeping them on.

STATEMENT GARBLED, SAYS NEW MAGISTRATE

James Edmund Jones, the new deputy magistrate for Toronto, to whom was attributed by a morning paper the remark that his "blood boiled" on an Ontario Temperance Act clause placing onus of proof on the accused, said yesterday that no good purpose could be served by entering into any controversy over his reported remarks on the O.T.A. However, he did point out that his remarks, as referred to in the morning paper were incomplete and the report garbled. He added that in the particular case under discussion his worship recorded a conviction.

"As Ontario Temperance Act cases will be continually coming before me," said Mr. Jones, "I think my attitude with regard to the act will be shown clearly enough by the manner in which I administer it."

DID NOT TURN UP.
A deputation of women to urge the appointment of a woman police magistrate for Toronto was to have waited on Attorney-General Raney yesterday, but failed to keep the appointment, which has been indefinitely postponed.

MEN YOU HEAR OF Seen as Their Friends Know Them

The Farmers' feed building at No. 10 Don Espinasse has been sold to A. A. McFall, grain merchant, for about $30,000.

H. M. Niblock has purchased the residence at 129 Westmount avenue from P. M. Spalding for $15,000. The frontage of the property is 35 feet.

W. B. Charlton is one of the purchasers of lots in the old general hospital site on East Gerrard street, which has been cut up into building sites. Mr. Charlton's syndicate will erect houses on the Sackville and Sumach streets frontage. They have also purchased the old hospital building and will demolish it. The buildings are about 480 feet of land were sold for $85,000.

FORMER TORONTONIAN FIGURES IN TRAGEDY
Details have reached Toronto from England, of a tragedy in which the principals were a former resident of this city, H. E. Abbott, who two years ago kept a meat store at 205 Danforth avenue, and his wife, a widow, whom he married in England following the death of her husband, a soldier, who fell dead at her feet just as she was about to greet him when he returned home on leave.

Abbott and his wife separated, and meeting her on the streets in Morecambe, a seaside resort in Lancashire, after some overtures in regard to conciliation, which proved abortive, cut her throat and then his own. Both died a few minutes later.

Mrs. Abbott's first husband was Private Singleton, whose tragic death occurred on August 8, 1919. Mrs. Singleton remained a widow until she married Abbott in September of this year. They lived together a few weeks and then separated.

CHARGE SHOPLIFTING.
Alfred Raven, 137 Sumach street, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective-Sergeant Koster on a charge of shoplifting. The man is alleged to have stolen a number of articles from both Eaton's and Simpson's stores.

BIG LUMBER YARD IN FAIRBANK SWEEP BY FIRE

In the early hours of yesterday morning the property shown, owned by Ashforth Pedwell, a tract of about one and one-half acres, was visited by fire. Owing to the difficulty in getting help in fighting the flames, the fire gained great headway and the loss is estimated at $50,000.

QUERY LEGALITY OF VOCATIONAL POST

Question of Bengough's Appointment Goes to Solicitor for Opinion.

At a meeting of the management committee of the board of education yesterday, Trustee Edmund questioned the legality of the recent appointment of a director of vocational training and opportunity classes, and the question of the legality of the appointment sent to the solicitor of the board of education for an opinion.

Inspectorship plans were discussed upon the recommendation of the chief inspector that an application be made to the minister of education to put in half of the ten Toronto public school districts and a reorganization of the work.

Under the present law the inspectors have to make a written report upon two inspections a year of the work of every teacher in the district. Chief Inspector Cowley says that in view of the supervision of the school principals of the individual teacher's work, one inspection a year of each teacher's labors is all that is necessary.

Under the proposed plan the inspectors would have more time for attendance at meetings of the board of inspectors to consider questions referred to them by the board. The inspectors were stated by Chief Inspector Cowley to have harder work than any of the teachers.

Trustee Edmunds argued that what was required was more inspectors, so that they would have time to prepare frequent model lessons, and not have to do their work with tired and hazy brains.

GIVE BUILDING PERMIT FOR NEW SYNAGOGUE

The congregation of Beth Jacob took out a permit yesterday for the construction of a synagogue at 23 Henry street, which will cost $120,000. The edifice will be of stone and brick.

Other permits issued by the city architect's department yesterday were: Crane, Limited, warehouse, stable and garage, northeast corner of Front and Windsor streets, $3,800; Tarbox Bros., boiler house, 14 Morrow avenue, $3,500; W. E. Wilder, dwelling, 32 Whitney avenue, $19,000, and J. W. Fisher, pair dwellings, south side Murdoch avenue, $5,000.

The Farmers' feed building at No. 10 Don Espinasse has been sold to A. A. McFall, grain merchant, for about $30,000.

H. M. Niblock has purchased the residence at 129 Westmount avenue from P. M. Spalding for $15,000. The frontage of the property is 35 feet.

CHARGED WITH THEFT.
Annie Farrell, 87 Wrenson avenue, and Annie Davis, 21 Elm street, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective-Sergeants Mitchell and Dawn on a charge of shoplifting from the T. Eaton Co. The two are alleged to have stolen a quantity of wearing apparel.

ASK REORGANIZATION OF T. AND N. O. COMMISSION

An announcement is expected shortly regarding the long-promised reorganization of the Timiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway Commission.

The government is being urged by Northern Ontario members of the house to hurry up, and the premier said yesterday that the matter was being considered.

The suggestion has been made that the personnel of the commission be increased from 3 to 5 and that, too, is being considered.

SPRACKLIN'S FUTURE IS STILL IN DOUBT

Government Has Not Considered Whether Services Will Be Retained or Not.

There was no particular significance attached to the conference yesterday between the attorney-general and License Commissioner Flavell. "We are continually conferring regarding the O.T.A.," Mr. Raney explained.

As for the case of Rev. J. O. Spracklin, Mr. Raney declined again to make any comment at present. Neither he nor Mr. Flavell would say what the department proposed regarding his services. As a matter of fact, the former said, the case had not been discussed yet except informally.

Asked about the rumored appointment of License Inspector Mousset as a police magistrate for Essex county, Mr. Raney said he had nothing to say.

Commenting on the liquor situation generally, Mr. Raney said, "We feel that there has been considerable improvement in the enforcement of the liquor law, but there is still much room for improvement."

BACKUS WILL NOT ENJOY MONOPOLY

Premier Quotes Agreement for Sale of English River Limits.

Denying that the Backus Lumber would have a monopoly of the power in English River limits, Premier Drury yesterday quoted the following clause in the agreement between the government and Backus:

"The lease of the said water power (referring to the White Dog Rapids), shall be the standard form of government lease of water power, but in addition the said lease and rights so granted shall be subject to the rights of all private ownership property which are liable to be affected by the development of the water power at the said rapids or the storage of water in connection therewith; and to such rentals, reservations, provisions, conditions and stipulations, including the regulations of the Norman dam at the outlet of the Lake of the Woods, as the minister of lands and forests may deem to be in the public interest."

RADIAL COMMISSION RETURNS FROM TOUR

The Sutherland Royal Commission, which is investigating the Hydro-Radial program in Ontario, has returned from a trip thru the New England States, where a study was made of the electric lines there. It is expected that the findings of the commission will be resumed on Nov. 22, W. S. Murray having expressed his ability to be present and give evidence at that time. The testimony of Mr. Murray, who is the New York engineer engaged by the Hydro-Electric Commission to make the special report last spring, is awaited with interest.

MORE CONTRIBUTE TO NAVY LEAGUE DRIVE

The town reporting to provincial headquarters yesterday in the Navy League of Canada drive to raise $750,000 were: Eganville, $200; Pembroke, $900; Fort Carleton, $150; Niagara-on-the-Lake, $55; Mitchell, $49; Quebec, $175.45; Montreal, $196.00. Eighty-nine women's institutes have contributed. The list to be heard from were Shanty Bay, Allanville, Gilbert's Mills and Sigin.

DEAD MEN TELL NO TALES

The directors of the Exhibition will have a conference on Tuesday next at noon with the board of control regarding plans for the new pure food building which will be erected on the grounds. The pure food exhibitors are undertaking to pay a rental sufficient to cover the carrying charges for 10 years.

POWER SETTLEMENT STILL IN BALANCE

Difference Between Government and Hydro Commission Delays Matters.

The expected settlement of the power situation did not materialize yesterday. Hopes, however, are held out that something definite will be arrived at today.

The government's proposals for a clean-up were considered by the Hydro Commission yesterday. They are said to suggest that a board of engineers, and not judges, be appointed to fix the price to be paid the Mackenzie interests for the power to be furnished to the Hydro Commission. This is understood to be agreeable to Sir William Mackenzie and his associates, but Sir Adam Beck, on the other hand, is said to be absolutely opposed to the idea. He is credited with taking the position that the private interests should be asked to name a price for the power they are to supply to the commission, and pointing out that a commission of judges, but not engineers.

After consulting with legal counsel the commission forwarded its reply to the government's proposals, but Sir Adam Beck declined to disclose the contents of it.

When seen by The World yesterday Premier Drury said he thought that the extra power from the Mackenzie company would have been supplied to the Hydro Commission on Tuesday, but the Hydro Commission had objected to the terms upon which it was to be supplied, hence the delay.

Sir Adam Beck, on the other hand, explained that he had received a memorandum from the government outlining the proposed terms upon which the Mackenzie interests would supply the power. The matter was of such importance that he had called a meeting of the other members of the commission as well as its legal advisers and as soon as possible had sent a reply to the premier. What the reply was he declined to say. Developments are expected today.

OPPOSE INCREASE IN CHATHAM GAS PRICES

The city of Chatham yesterday opposed before Mr. Justice Logie at Osgoode Hall an injunction restraining the Chatham Gas Co. from increasing its rates from 25 cents to 35 cents for domestic uses, and from 35 cents to 45 cents for furnace use.

An agreement was for furnace use. An agreement was for furnace use. An agreement was for furnace use.

The city of Chatham says that the suggested rates are greater than those in a score of Ontario towns at the present time.

The argument this morning centred about the question of whether appeal should be made to the courts or to the Ontario Railway Board. W. N. Thiel appeared for the gas company, and O. L. Lewis for the city of Chatham. Judgment was reserved.

MACHINE GUN STORY IS PURE INVENTION

Machine guns were to be issued to the police force according to a report in a morning paper yesterday, but when Chief of Police Dickson was informed of this he retorted that there was not a word of truth in it. "The story is made out of whole cloth, and the reporter who made it up must have been dreaming," said Chief Dickson.

The only way in which this rumor could have originated was by somebody having heard that the chief had inspected a newly-invented miniature Colt automatic machine gun, but there is not the slightest intention that these dangerous weapons should be issued to the Toronto police force for any purpose whatsoever.

WILL DISCUSS PLANS OF PURE FOOD BUILDING

The directors of the Exhibition will have a conference on Tuesday next at noon with the board of control regarding plans for the new pure food building which will be erected on the grounds. The pure food exhibitors are undertaking to pay a rental sufficient to cover the carrying charges for 10 years.

DEAD MEN TELL NO TALES

The pure food exhibitors are undertaking to pay a rental sufficient to cover the carrying charges for 10 years.

MORE LATITUDE BY THE GOVERNMENT

Commissioner McCutcheon Tells Civil Service Board of Appointments.

J. M. McCutcheon, civil service commissioner, told the Ontario civil service commission, sitting at Osgoode Hall yesterday afternoon, that the present government allowed him greater latitude in making civil service appointments than any previous provincial cabinet. The making of appointments was now left almost entirely to him, while formerly it had been cabinet ministers who had given them out.

Commissioner Pocock asked Mr. McCutcheon if it were true that it was very hard for an applicant to get in touch with him. He said that he had heard complaints that Mr. McCutcheon surrounded himself with several strands of barbed wire and often an applicant could not reach him. The commissioner stated that he had never refused to see an applicant.

Chairman Gregory said complaints had been received from returned soldiers' bodies to the effect that many of these civil service positions were filled before it was known that there was any vacancy. He was of the opinion that these vacancies should be advertised in the public press.

Miss Helen E. Pallen, one of Toronto's women barristers, asked that if women were to be appointed as magistrates and assistant juvenile court judges, these women should have legal training. "It is not fair to give women these positions unless they have the same qualifications as are demanded of men filling the same kind of job," she said.

W. L. Haight, crown attorney, Parry Sound, offered the novel suggestion that all applicants for appointments as magistrates should be required to attend a training school in Toronto and submit individual theses on the duties pertaining to this office before their appointments were confirmed. He thought there should also be a school in the city for high constables.

Mr. Haight also strongly advocated the complete abolition of grand juries. He characterized them as being wholly superfluous, and instead of being a help, were a hindrance.

STILL TRYING TO FIX NATURAL GAS PRICES

Representatives from municipalities in western Ontario using natural gas held another all-day session at the parliament buildings yesterday with officials of the Union Gas Co. in an effort to come to an agreement regarding the proposal to increase the price of gas. The conference, however, was again fruitless and was adjourned until next week.

The municipalities are willing to pay 40 cents for domestic gas, but the company is asking 50 cents. The latter claims to have already made a number of contracts at this price.

ASKING ACTION ON EQUALIZING RATES

Manufacturers' Association Asks Railway Commission for Early Judgment.

The Canadian Manufacturers' Association has made application to the board of railway commissioners asking for the earliest consideration of the question of equalizing freight rates between western and eastern Canada.

This application is based on the recent order-in-council issued by the committee of the privy council recommending the board of railway commissioners to reconsider their judgment in connection with the recent increase of freight rates.

Particular attention is directed in the application to the question of rates in British Columbia and the Maritime Provinces, and claims that conditions have materially changed since the board's order in the western rates case was issued in 1914.

ASKING ACTION ON EQUALIZING RATES

Manufacturers' Association Asks Railway Commission for Early Judgment.

The Canadian Manufacturers' Association has made application to the board of railway commissioners asking for the earliest consideration of the question of equalizing freight rates between western and eastern Canada.

This application is based on the recent order-in-council issued by the committee of the privy council recommending the board of railway commissioners to reconsider their judgment in connection with the recent increase of freight rates.

Particular attention is directed in the application to the question of rates in British Columbia and the Maritime Provinces, and claims that conditions have materially changed since the board's order in the western rates case was issued in 1914.

CALEDONIAN SOCIETY HEARS LECTURE ON SCOTT

The regular monthly meeting of the Caledonian Society of Toronto was held in the Foresters' Hall last night, when the Rev. W. Muir Auld, of Old St. Andrew's Church, delivered an interesting address entitled "Romantic Sir Walter Scott," in which he dwelt upon the life of the noted author, his works, and his connection with "Auld Reekie."

Prior to the address the musical part of the program was much enjoyed and included a medley by the Misses Robertson and Johnson, highland dances by the brothers Alexander, and pipe selections by Pipe-Major Burns.

Many well-known people were present, including J. A. Patterson, K.C., and Dr. J. A. McDonald, while the chair was taken by J. A. Patterson.
