POLISH CHIEF IS OPPOSED TO PRESENT LAWS

Proposes Dzielowski or Mosicki for Office Which He Declined

WARSAW, May 31.—Marshal Joseph Pilsudski, head of the successful military coup, today refused the presidency of Poland, to which he was elected by the Senate and Chamber of Deputies sitting as a national assembly.

Pilsudski based his refusal upon the ground of conscientious scruples against the existing constitution. He recommended the election of Prof. Marjan Dzielowski, of Vilna University, or Dr. Ignatz Mosicki, professor of chemistry at Lemberg University.

Pilsudski contends that the present constitution fails to protect the president against parliament and derives him of the needed executive influence because it fails to give him authority to dissolve parliament in the case of urgent necessity.

Renews Belief in Adequate Defense, World Court and Economy Practice

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 31.—"Common sense must be the keynote of the United States contribution to world peace, as well as the controlling force in her conduct at home," President Coolidge said today in a Memorial Day address at Arlington National Cemetery.

The role of practical possibilities he applied to the Geneva arms negotiations, to the war debt negotiations and to many domestic problems. He renewed his belief in "the principle of religious liberty and tolerance and equality of rights," in adequate national defense, in the world court and in the practice of economy.

"Practical results," Mr. Coolidge said, "is what the United States seeks from the negotiations at Geneva. We believe that other nations ought to join with us in laying aside their suspicions and hatreds and to agree among themselves upon methods of mutual relief from the necessity of national armaments." He repeated his belief in "the principle of religious liberty and tolerance and equality of rights," in adequate national defense, in the world court and in the practice of economy.

GOAL IMPORTS ARE PLANNED IF NO SETTLEMENT

Government Determined to Keep Industries Going

RIFT IN UNIONS

Cook's Fiercely Denunciation of Other Labor Bodies Alienates Sympathy

By HERBERT BAILEY

British United Press.

LONDON, May 31.—The coal crisis has taken a decisive turn today. The government's offer of £3,000,000 temporary subsidy which will be paid to the operators during the period of negotiations, if the men were allowed to go back to work under the conditions existing prior to the strike, expires at midnight unless some move towards settlement is made by either the owners or the miners.

If nothing is done today and the struggle promises to run on indefinitely, the government is planning to import coal for industrial purposes. Some have been unable to resume work since the general strike owing to shortage of coal, and many other industries are threatened with suspension by the diminishing supplies.

FROM FOREIGN MINES. The government is determined that if the owners and the miners are unable to reach a settlement of their problems it is the government's business to insure the industries shall be kept going even if it is necessary to secure coal supplies from foreign mines. The leaders of the miners declare that ships, crews, dockers and railwaymen will work on an eight hour basis. Meanwhile the mine workers are reconciling themselves to the idea of working longer hours provided there is no reduction in their pay, and in some isolated places they are going back to work on an eight hour basis. Meanwhile Cook is still shouting "not a penny off, not a minute off" although the miners' leaders, the Hoeges, are placing proposals forward intended to act as a compromise.

MINERS TENACIOUS. The situation in this regard is not so favorable to the miners as it would ordinarily be owing to Cook's fiery denunciations of all the other unions which have so embittered his relations with them that their response to the plea of the miners for strike suspension is very cool.

COOK DENOUNCES OTHERS. The situation in this regard is not so favorable to the miners as it would ordinarily be owing to Cook's fiery denunciations of all the other unions which have so embittered his relations with them that their response to the plea of the miners for strike suspension is very cool.

Military Movements Control Governments In Many Lands As League Tackles Problem

WHILE the technical committees of the preliminary disarmament conference are hard at work in Geneva, endeavoring to evolve a programme for universal disarmament, military movements are in control of governments in many parts of the globe.

There is military rule in Portugal, Poland, Rumania, and Greece, and governments installed by military movements are functioning in Spain, Turkey, Lithuania and Latvia.

Shah Riza Khan Pehlevi heads the military movement in Persia; the Red army controls Russia; General Wu Pei Fu and Marshal Chang Tiao Lin hold the destinies of China in their hands. French forces dominate Syria, and French and Spanish troops Morocco. There is military rule in Venezuela, and martial law in Brazil, Nicaragua and Guatemala.

URGES PATIENCE

"We should not underestimate the difficulties of European nations nor fail to extend to them the sympathy and patience and the most sympathetic consideration. But we can not fail to assert our conviction that they are ready to enter into a programme of further limitation of armaments and our determination to lend them every assistance in the solution of their problems."

"We have entered the conference with the utmost good faith on their part. We want to see the problem solved in a way that will secure practical results. We present them with our support to every effort that is made in that direction."

LIVE AND LET LIVE.

"The little sentiment of 'live and let live' expresses a great truth," he said. "It has been thought wise to extend the payment of our debts over a long period of years, with a very low rate of interest, in order to relieve foreign peoples of the burden of economic pressure beyond their capacity to bear. The moral principle of the payment of international debts has been preserved. Every dollar that we have advanced to those countries they have promised to repay with some interest. Our national treasury is not in the banking business. We did not make those loans as a banking enterprise. We made them for a very large extent as an incident to the prosecution of war. We have not sought to adjust them on a purely banking basis. We have taken into consideration all the circumstances and the elements that attended the original transaction and the results that will probably flow from their settlement. They have been liquidated on the broad moral and humanitarian basis."

Council in Committee Recommends New Ramp
Be Constructed

PROSPECT POINT PARK IS URGED

Mayor Says Proper Firing
Would Lessen Smoke
Nuisance

The committee of the whole, in session this morning, decided to recommend to the Common Council that a new ramp be built in the steamer Empress dock, at Prospect Point. The committee also discussed a progress report of Commissioner Harding on the "smoke nuisance" and a request by J. Fraser Gregory that the street leading from Douglas avenue to their mill be taken over by the city and that the city lay out a park on the shore of the river at Prospect Point.

LETTER FROM C. P. R.
Commissioner Bullock presented a letter from J. M. Woodman, general superintendent of the New Brunswick Division of the C. P. R., offering to pay an increased rental for 12 per cent on 10 per cent of the cost of a new ramp at the steamer Empress dock, estimated at $20,000, for the part of the year in which the dock was used by the steamer and named that the work be proceeded with and the expenditure charged to next year's expenditure. It was found necessary tomorrow he will bring a resolution as to the rental should be reduced on a yearly basis for the part of the year the dock was used by the steamship.

DEVELOPMENT SUGGESTED
J. Fraser Gregory was heard in connection with the taking over by the city of a street leading through the property of Murray and Gregory to their mill. He said that unfortunately the street was not laid out when they wanted to develop the 30 acres of property they had as a residential district. The street had been laid out and would be decided to the city at this time. At present there was an 8 inch water main laid and sewerage could be installed. At the present time there were nine houses all occupied on the property.

He also suggested that the city acquire a strip of land along the river bank and develop it as a park which was the best place from which to view the river. Commissioner Harding reported that the city could not afford to move from the market building to the court house and was being placed over the present office's chair in the council chamber. The cost of arms is about 6 feet wide and 7 feet high and was saved by J. McDonald in 1924.

IS GIVEN CLUB BAG

Commissioner Harding presented a report from Harry Lytell, a graduate of the Royal Sanitary Institute, on work done May 12 to 26 investigating the "smoke nuisance" in this city and stating that right firing would eliminate much of the surplus smoke. Among the points visited by Mr. Lytell were the houses of the Admiral Beatty hotel, Pacific Electric, Post Office, James Robertson Co. Ltd., Atlantic Sugar Refineries, Corona Candy Co., Saint John Iron Works and the Central Public Hospital. At the Sugar Refinery he found that a very expensive installation of smoke consumers had been installed and this had practically done away with smoke from their chimney. In the other plants the amount of smoke had been reduced when his instructions had been followed by the firemen.

Mayor White said this report showed that the nuisance could be greatly abated by proper firing and thought this was the standpoint from which the council should take whatever action was to be taken. He suggested the licensing of the firemen by the city. No action was taken.

An application for permission to change the sign over the entrance to the Clifton House, made verbally, will be presented to the council tomorrow in writing.

Of Basketball Meet

Walter R. It was the first open meeting of the organization, most of its deliberations in the past having been made by correspondence.

The Saint John Trojans having twice won their way to the national semi-finals, have acquired a special status for the future. For instance, barring default locally, they will be entitled to enter the Canadian championship games should New Brunswick teams fail to offer opposition. In other words, lack of competition will not bar them from trying for the Canadian championship.

Irvine and the officer then got into a tussle. Irvine hit the policeman and they fell with the two men on top of the officer. Policeman Garter then came to the assistance of the witness.

POLICEMAN'S STORY.
Policeman Covey testified to meeting Irvine, Sproule and another about 9:50 p.m. He said that Irvine was drunk and Sproule told him that he could do nothing with him. The policeman twice told Irvine to go home and when he later refused, he arrested him. Sproule told him of him and would not let go. Irvine and the officer then got into a tussle. Irvine hit the policeman and they fell with the two men on top of the officer. Policeman Garter then came to the assistance of the witness.

TAKING LEVELS.
A sign on the "Reed's Castle" property, Mount Pleasant, setting out that surveys were being made there by the Federal Department of Lands and Forests was found to be in violation of the regulations. On investigation it was found that the property was being used as a base from which to secure levels in the Bay of Fundy and harbor of Saint John.

HARBOR REVENUE.
The Saint John harbor revenue for May this year was $81.28 less than for the same month in 1925. This falling is due to the fact that some collections are still to be made and these will help to swell the total for next month. The revenue for the five months of this year is about $6,500 in excess of the amount received for the same period of last year. The figures are: 1925, $7,999.93; 1926, $8,162.1.

EMPLOYMENT REPORT
The month of May was a busy one for the local Employment Service Bureau. The demand for experienced tradesmen and unskilled labor in the city was heavy during the month. Most of the placements have been in railway construction and woods work outside the city. As regards the men, Mr. Ryan said a fairly large number of pulpwood workers are desired. At the present time, 300 men, in quest of employment, are registered at the bureau.

SPROULE TESTIFIED
Sproule testified on his own behalf and said that he had said nothing to Irvine to incite him to resist arrest. Claude Phinney also was there. They were walking along with the officer when Irvine said, "Why put on a gun and resist arrest." Covey used his baton and hit Irvine over the skull with it. The witness was afraid that Irvine would be injured so took the baton and threw it away. He said that Garter then came along and started "beating" up the witness.

In reply to Policeman Covey, the witness denied that he had tried to take Irvine away from him.

The case was then postponed until this afternoon in order that Claude Phinney might be called for the defence.

Joseph Hatty Charged With Buying Goods Knowing
Them Stolen

Joseph Hatty appeared before Magistrate Henderson in the Police Court this morning on a charge of receiving stolen property, knowing it to have been stolen. He was not asked to plead. The charge arose over a case sent to work in which two youths, Bernard Price and Ronald Horgan, who pleaded guilty to stealing three automobile wheels with balloon tires, the property of Kenneth C. Irving and valued at about $25 each. Hatty was charged with buying two of the wheels.

YOUTHS ON STAND.
Price told of stealing the three wheels from a garage in Mecklenburg street. He hit two under a bus on St. Patrick street and put one in a box car. He met James McInerney and with him met Hatty in Prince Edward street. He told Hatty they had the tires and he went in his car and got them. The boys were to get $80 for the three, but they had not been paid. Hatty, he said, took two of the wheels and when the witness went for the third in the box car it had disappeared. He had told Hatty where they had got the wheels. Hatty, he said, drove the witness home and asked him to get him a carburetor. Horgan was the witness to get him a spare tire. Ronald Horgan also testified and corroborated the witness's story.

James McInerney of White street, said that the boys talked with him and he told Hatty where he could purchase two tires. He was in the car when Hatty got the tires but did not hear any of the conversation.

In reply to Hatty, the witness said Hatty had said that he would buy the tires provided they were not stolen. The witness knew that Hatty did not know the boys and did not know the tires were stolen. The witness did not know at the time either that they were stolen.

The case was then continued until Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock to permit Kenneth C. Irving, owner of the tires, to be present. Hatty was again permitted out on bail, Fred Isaac and Peter Saab being his bondsmen.

REVOLT LEADER NAMED PREMIER OF PORTUGAL

Commander Cabecadas Asked to Form New Government

MILITARY COUP

Da Silva Quits Office After Bloodless Revolution—Public Enthusiastic

Canadian Press

LONDON, May 31.—Commander Cabecadas, one of the most popular men in the Portuguese army, who in 1910 contributed greatly to the establishment of the Republic by bombarding the Royal Palace, is to take over the responsibilities of government until a new ministry is formed.

President Machado has requested Cabecadas to act in this capacity until the situation caused by the overthrow Saturday in the ministry headed by Antonio Maria Da Silva is straightened out.

The downfall of Da Silva, was due to a revolutionary movement in which Commander Cabecadas was one of the leaders.

The coup which resulted in the ousting of Da Silva started last week, and was carried out without the firing of a shot.

MOVEMENT REPUBLICAN

The revolutionary committee in a communication announced that the movement was purely republican and that it was begun on the basis of forming a democratic government and saving the country from politicians who were ruining it.

In addition to Commander Cabecadas, General Gomes Da Costa was one of the prime movers of the revolt, which had the support of the garrisons of Lisbon, Oporto and Braga, and the naval school on the left bank of the Tagus and the infantry school outside Lisbon.

President Machado, after the commencement of the revolt, which began at Braga, conferred with the revolutionary leaders and agreed to the formation of a new extra-parliamentary government, the duties of which were the dissolution of parliament and the expunging of laws which are considered to be against national interest.

Commander Cabecadas agreed to take over the government temporarily and form a ministry of military men and civilians who do not belong to any political party.

ARMY LEADERS SUMMONED

The commander will have the post of Minister of Marine in the new government. Representatives of all the divisions of the Portuguese army have been summoned to Lisbon to discuss the new ministry.

Cabecadas last year started a similar revolt but the army failed to act with him. In 1910, when he hopes Cabecadas bombarded the Royal Palace and contributed largely to the victory of the dissidents and the establishment of the republic.

FORKE FINDS TARIFF PROBLEMS DIFFICULT

Nova Scotia Coal Issue Hard to Solve—Learns Much of Modern Trade

TORONTO, May 31.—I have learned more about the automobile business in the last six weeks than I ever expected to learn in my life.

Robert Forke, Progressive leader in the Federal House of Commons, said while discussing the tariff reductions on automobiles embodied in the Federal budget. Mr. and Mrs. Forke were in Toronto on their way to the Niagara Falls where they spent the week-end.

Western farmers, Mr. Forke said, were quite favorably inclined toward the tariff reductions on automobiles, but the problem of protection was a difficult one.

"We are supposed to be low tariff men," said Mr. Forke, "but in practice it is difficult to carry out theories."

COAL AND STEEL

"Take the coal and steel industries in Nova Scotia for instance. The simple fact is that the mines there are not economically sound. Coal is produced at an excessive cost and when it is produced it is poor in quality and yet there are half a million Canadians in the Maritime Provinces dependent on the industry. It cannot stand up on its own feet unprotected, and if the duty is removed an answer must be found to the question of what we are going to do with all these people."

Principals Third Cousins and Natives of Cape Breton

MARRIED KEITH IN 1902

The wedding will appropriately be staged in the land of orange blossoms on June 15 in the beautiful mansion which Keith built for his wife at Pasadena. Neither Mrs. Keith nor her younger cousin ever dreamed in the days when they were romping as children about prosaic Cape Breton, the place which gave Johnny Miles of Marathon fame to the world, that they would rise to such dizzy heights of affluence and wealth.

Back in 1908, Keith, who founded the company which manufactures a shoe sold in every part of the civilized world, went to Cape Breton on a vacation trip. He fell in love with the pretty Canadian girl, whose maiden name was Archibald, when he was 29 years old and she but 27. In July of that year he married her and she came to this city to live at the Keith home.

MADE WIDOW IN 1920

After Keith's death in 1920 young Archibald left the island of coal mines and started on his way to fortune and romance. He arrived in this city and entered Mrs. Keith's employ as a chauffeur. To friends Mrs. Keith stated that he was her cousin from her birthplace and she knew him from babyhood.

THE CANADIAN LIQUOR TRADE

In The Outlook W. R. Plewman of The Toronto Star recounts the results of a personal coast-to-coast survey of the liquor situation in Canada. He shows Government control to take on as many variations as the number of Provinces. Five of the nine Provinces have gone into the liquor business, but no two have gone into it in the same way. In four, private agencies handle the sale of beer; one keeps this an exclusive governmental function; three permit sale by the glass; two limit to sealed packages.

The Provinces vary also in the amount sold to individual buyers. In Saskatchewan the authorities insist on the most terrible restriction that one purchaser confine himself to "two gallons of beer, one gallon of wine, and one quart of whiskey per day." Quebec puts no such curb on personal liberty. True, thirst must be satisfied there on the installment plan. But there the Province permits one bottle of whiskey to be bought at a time. A person can go the rounds of the Government stores and buy a quart bottle at each. Or he can go in and out of the same store getting a bottle each time until he is content. President Cordeau of the Quebec Liquor Commission volunteers the statement that he himself, when caught short in his own supply, bought liquor in three stores on the same day.

Such flaws in the Canadian systems as The Outlook article points out tend to establish the fact that Dry extremists, themselves have succeeded in settling back the cause of temperance. Moral education is necessary before legislation can be effective.

THE EMPIRE AND AN ELEPHANT

The dispatch from London reporting the Maharaja of Marwar's escape from death (dick) after a needless operation that His Highness was in imminent danger of being trampled underfoot by an infuriated elephant when the latter appeared suddenly from the jungle and charged.

Was the elephant a wild one—if wild elephant still exist in the Nilgiris where the prince was shooting—or a tame one gone "musth" as in certain seasons they are unable to do? Indian elephants are not usually aggressive like their African brethren, but both need a heavy rifle and a steady hand to stop them in full career.

Just after the armistice a British officer who had proved his courage asked for leave to go after a herd of elephants he had heard of. He returned empty-handed and a little subdued. Questioned, he answered: "Oh yes, I came up with them all right, but when I saw the size of the things I decided they were a bit too big to tease." And that is most people's sentiment regarding wild elephants, though some stout hearts in Africa make their living elephant hunting and others elephant poaching.

The Maharaja is to be congratulated on his escape and doubtless the Government of India is congratulating itself. Marwar (Jodhpur) is a most loyal and progressive state. The Rajputs of that part are of practically unmixt Aryan descent—the blue-blooded warriors who descended through the northern passes and spread throughout the peninsula—horse-lovers and all-round sportsmen. His Highness is a faithful supporter of the auzerain power and princes such as he are a valuable prop of the Indian Empire, which includes both British India and the Native States, and of the wider inclusive British Empire of which we form a part.

A CITY BY-LAW

That many citizens have overlooked the fact that there is a city by-law prohibiting expectation in the streets and public places is evidenced by the strong recommendation by the Saint John Branch of the Red Cross Society, invoking stern enforcement of the same. The general principle is beyond criticism, but has the Red Cross pondered, we wonder—did those originally responsible for the measure pause to consider—its far-reaching consequences. To start with, is it not a blow aimed at an almost international sport indigenous to the North American Continent? What would those fine characters have to say, strong silent men who by years of assiduous practice developed the amazing skill necessary to register nine bullseyes out of ten at a mark no larger than a knot-hole twelve feet across the sand? How is the conversationist, who is also a lover of the fragrant weed, compressed in molasses and chewed from a pungent fig, to punctuate his sentences? What will the story-writer do when deprived of this effective "action"? Indeed this looks like an attack on sport, conversation and literature in one. Is it to be inferred that he who finds himself in the street or a public place with a mouthful of nicotine must hasten into the privacy of his own or somebody else's home? And does the injunction restrain human beings only, or

POEMS LOVE

"The Old Mill," by Thomas Dunn English. And I see the black floats rise and fall. I rode there often when I was young. With my grip on the horse before, And talked with Nelly, the miller's girl, As I waited my turn at the door; And while she tossed her ringlets brown, And flirted and chatted so free, The wheel might stop or the wheel might go. It was all the same to me.

POEMS like this, perhaps a bit old-fashioned now, will never lose their spell. We have little time today to visit such prehistoric relics as old mills—save a song now and then. But the person who does not, at moments, resent the encroachment of modern inventions, which rob the world of much of its picturesque, is indeed rare. Here are some of the olden days. English also wrote "Ben Bolt."

Here from the brow of the hill I look, Through a lattice of boughs and leaves, On the old gray mill with its gambrel roof, And the clatter on its rotting eaves. I hear the clatter that jars its walls, And the rushing water's sound, And the wheel moves slowly round.

THE BEST OF ADVICE

IS DEMOCRACY A FAILURE? spent, her heart grown dull and indifferent to her young men of promise and her idealistic, idealistic States.

There is much talk that the vision of government on which our forefathers founded the United States is impossible of realization—that Democracy is a failure. We are told, moreover, that all the great men whose names we have revered for generations and who have held up to us our moral, no more superman than we ourselves.

It once was said that "no man was a hero to his own valet"; now it seems no man is a hero to the modern historian or biographer, and because of them, to the rising generation.

Well, suppose we concede that these great figures of history were real human beings with human frailties. Suppose we admit that Washington probably told some untruths in the course of a by no means tranquil life. That he probably used language that was a trifle hectic. That Lincoln's stories were not always refined that all the great men of our early history played a game of politics adroitly, etc., etc., and not always disinterestedly.

What of it? Are not the accomplishments of these same men all the more remarkable because they were not gods, but men? Is Democracy necessarily a failure because flaws are to be discerned in the state of society which has developed from the government founded on it?

BECAUSE Democracy has borne heavy burdens and the heat of the day and her children are many, are we to conclude that the light has faded from her eyes, that her strength is gone, that she is no longer the champion of democratic freedom challenged by a power which, if it is successful, means the overthrow of a system that has withstood all assaults.

One hand wrote Both

PEOPLE have been judged by their handwriting for more than 300 years. A faltering hand may suggest a hidden weakness where a misfit pen may be responsible. Worth far more than the money you pay is a pen that gives your hand utter freedom. For thus does the personality, charm and character of your handwriting reach its highest expression.

The Point must be mated to your style of writing—Extra Fine, Fine, Medium, Broad, Stub or Oblique. And must be smooth as a jewel.

The Grip must fit your hand so you need not cramp your fingers to fit the Grip.

And, for free motion, the barrel must have balanced swing.

Any good dealer can fit your hand in all these three dimensions with a classic Parker Duofold. And the point is guaranteed if not misused for 25 years' wear.

Step to the nearest pen counter—try your size and point. And choose your color—Black and Gold, or Black-tipped Lacquer-red—so handsome to carry and hard to mislay.

OFFICIAL ORDERS
PETER SMITH FREED
ON TICKET OF LEAVE

Message Sent From Ottawa
After Review of Case
by Cabinet

SENTENCED TO FINE AND IMPRISONMENT

Drury's Ex-Aid Given Term and Assessed $100,000
by Courts

Canadian Press Despatch.

OTTAWA, May 30.—Release on ticket-of-leave has been granted to Peter Smith, former Provincial Treasurer of Ontario, now confined in Portsmouth Penitentiary. A telegram which provides for the release of Peter Smith forthwith, was sent tonight by the Under-Secretary of State. The case has been under review by the cabinet.

Peter Smith was convicted and sentenced on Oct. 24, 1924, to three years in Portsmouth Penitentiary, Kingston, on charges of conspiring to defraud the Province of Ontario in connection with the purchase of bonds when he was provincial treasurer. He is 49 years of age, was born at Stratford, Ont., and has farmed most of his life. He was prominent in municipal affairs in Dundas Township when he was elected U. F. O. member in the general provincial election of 1918. He was appointed provincial treasurer on Nov. 15, 1920, and was ousted from office at the fall of the U. F. O. government of Premier Drury in the general election of June 25, 1923.

ARRESTED IN 1924

Mr. Smith was arrested on April 24, 1924, at the Ontario Parliament Buildings in Toronto shortly after his refusal to give evidence before the public accounts committee of the Ontario Legislature which was then inquiring into provincial bond transactions. Bail of $100,000 was set and Mr. Smith came up for trial on Oct. 20, 1924, with Mr. Jarvis. The hearing lasted four days. Chief Justice Meredith sentenced Mr. Smith to three years in the penitentiary and Amellius Jarvis, who was tried jointly with him, to six months at the jail farm and imposed a joint fine of $600,000. They were to remain in custody until the money was paid. Later this fine was reduced by the Appeal Court to $200,000 for Mr. Jarvis, which was paid and is now seeking to have returned, and $100,000 for Mr. Smith. The latter's fine was to be paid on termination of his absence or sentence or else he would have to serve an additional five years. An appeal to the Supreme Court by Messrs. Jarvis and Smith was dismissed. During Mr. Smith's incarceration in Portsmouth there have been frequent rumors that he was suffering from an illness. He has recovered about half of his three year term.

SUCCESS ATTENDS
NORTH END BRIDGE

Seventy-five Tables at Event
Saturday Conducted by
C. W. L.

Admirably arranged and very largely patronized was the afternoon bridge and tea held on Saturday afternoon in St. Peter's church hall, under the auspices of the Saint John North End Division of the Catholic Women's League. It was an unqualified success, both as a social event and as a money-raising effort of the society. There were 75 tables of card players and many tea guests also. Mrs. H. S. Clarke was the general convenor and each member of the society had some part in carrying through the entertainment so successfully. Miss Minnie Durrieck, the president, Mrs. J. D. James and Mrs. Clarke were the reception committee and welcomed the many patrons. The tickets were in charge of Miss Alice Phillips. Those who poured tea and coffee were Mrs. M. A. Mullin and Mrs. Alice Phillips. The table, over which they presided, was exceedingly pretty with its charming decorations. A silver basket in the centre was filled with pink carnations and forget-me-nots and was tied with a bow of pink tulle. Pink candles in single silver candlesticks and in two large silver candleabra carried out the pleasing scheme of decoration most effectively. Those who assisted by replenishing were Mrs. Charles Rush and Mrs. George McCluskey. There were very handsome prizes for the winners at cards and there was also a very nice lucky chair prize which was won by Miss Evelyn Quinn. The fortunate prize winners at cards were as follows: Bridge, first, Miss Edith Fitzgerald, and second, Mrs. E. J. Henneberry; forty-fives, first, Mrs. Rose Allen, and second, Miss Bertha Logue. During the afternoon a delightful musical program added much to the enjoyment of the occasion. Mrs. M. A. Quinn was the accompanist and solo solos were contributed by Mrs. E. J. Cronin and Miss Margaret McCarthy.

CONTINUES LECTURES.

Rev. James Cloran, C. S. S. R., delivered the second last in the series of his addresses on Character Building last evening in St. Peter's parish hall when he spoke of one phase of moral development. Father Cloran last night dealt with the will as governing all other faculties. He will give the closing lecture of the series next Sunday night. The series has attracted much interest and each lecture has been very largely attended.

Polish Revolt
Effects Seen
at Halifax

HALIFAX, May 30.—The revolution led by Marshal Pilsudski in Poland robbed the Baltic-American liner Lituanian of a large share of her passenger list. It was reported that the steamer arrived this morning from Danzig and Copenhagen. A great many bookings for the Lituanian were cancelled because the railway services had been demonized by the revolution and the passengers could not reach the port. The Lituanian sailed for New York.

A. W. PETCH OWNER
OF 2 OLD VOLUMES

One is "The Whole Duty of Man," Published in 1684

Another rare volume owned in Saint John is a first edition copy of "The Whole Duty of Man," the property of A. W. Petch, 89 Peters street. It has been in his family for more than 70 years. This book was published in London in 1684. Editions of 100 years later date have become very valuable and are eagerly sought by collectors and Mr. Petch's copy is believed to be worth a considerable sum of money. Since the book is so keenly sought recently Mr. Petch has decided to present this old volume and another which is nearly as old to the Natural History Society or to some similar public organization in order that it may be carefully preserved and be accessible to all who wish to examine it and read it.

"WHOLE DUTY OF MAN." The copy of "The Whole Duty of Man" is a weighty volume, measuring 14 1/2 inches by 9 inches and has a strong leather binding. While the front page is slightly foxed at the edges the rest of the book is in a marvellously good state of preservation. The paper has not discolored with age and is as white as when it was first printed. The lettering is very clean cut and perfect in its alignment. The type used in the book is of the fly-leaf type today. Initial lettering on some of the pages are very beautiful pieces of craftsmanship. There is a wood cut showing Moses with veiled face giving the ten commandments to the people of Israel. The name Mrs. Mary Holford is written in ink on the wood cut and the ink has eaten a hole in the paper in one place but is still an intense black. At what date the name was written is not known. Mr. Petch's first knowledge of the book is that it was owned by his stepfather, A. A. Coughlan, who has written on the fly-leaf of the book his statement that he was born at Habitant, N. S., in 1813, and was on a whaling voyage in the South Pacific ocean at that time, May 24, 1846.

The second book, Matthew Pilkington's "Evangelical History and Harmonies," is somewhat smaller than "The Whole Duty of Man," being 13 1/2 inches by 8 1/2 inches. It also is strongly leather bound and is in an even nearer perfect state of preservation. It is a less rare book than the other but can boast of a hoary old age.

I HEARD ABOUT Mrs. Jean Bochar, Nelson, B.C., writes: "For many years I have been troubled with my liver, and suffered terribly with constipation."

Is Now On Staff
Of Biltmore Hotel

Frank B. Doherty, who was for some years chief clerk in the old Dufferin Hotel in Saint John, has sent to a local friend a card and a booklet which is entitled, "The Official Metropolitan Guide" and is used by the Hotelmen's Association of New York. Mr. Doherty is now one of the rooming clerks in the front office of the Biltmore Hotel, having joined the staff last fall. He reports meeting an occasional Saint John man and some of the old Dufferin former out-of-town guests and says on these occasions the old Dufferin days are very pleasantly recalled.

VICTIMS INCLUDE 4
CHILDREN, 3 OTHERS

Father Fails to Reach
Kids After Hurling Pair
Out of Window

NEW YORK, May 30.—Seven persons lost their lives tonight in a fire which destroyed the old Taft Hotel in Brooklyn. Four children were burned to death when their father, Thomas Hughes, a subway dispatcher, failed to reach them after throwing his two other children from the window of their hotel room to persons in the street who caught them safely.

Mrs. Thomas Hughes, mother of the children and an aged widow known as Mrs. Smith, and J. F. Knowlton, 65, were also burned to death. The fire started in a paintshop at the rear of the hotel, and quickly spread to the hotel which was a wooden structure. The hotel burned like tinder and the first and second stories were a mass of flames when firemen arrived on the scene.

The Hughes family, in their rooms on the second floor, were trapped while sleeping. Hughes, after throwing his youngest children, twins, to the street made a vain attempt to reach the rooms in which his wife and the others were sleeping. He saved himself by jumping from a window.

Engaged Girls are Anxious to Marry Because They Believe They Will Live Happy Ever After the Wedding—But Wise are the Young Men Who Refuse to Marry Until They Can Afford Matrimony.

DOROTHY DIX

WHAT'S the matter with girls that they are in such a hurry to get married? A number of young men recently asked me. Then these harassed youths go on to say: "We are anxious to marry the girls to whom we are engaged, but we are just getting a start in life. We are making small salaries, not enough to support a family in any decent comfort, and we want to put off marrying for two or three years until we have saved up a little money and have worked up into better jobs and can feel that we are not running such a cowardly risk when we take wives into ourselves."

"But the girls are not willing to wait. They want to rush into matrimony whether we are ready for it or not, and it puts us in a damned awkward position. Makes us seem slack lovers to be standing with cold feet, shivering on the brink and afraid to take the plunge into matrimony when the girls are all for shutting their eyes and taking a header into it."

"Goodness knows, marriage is no more of a picnic for a poor woman than it is for a poor man, so we can't see why girls are in such a rush to get themselves into trouble, but they are. They are prodding us on to the altar all the time, and not many of us have the nerve to balk when the hands of the women we love are pushing us on."

"BELIEVE me, it is the girls who are responsible for most of the foolish, premature marriages. Left to themselves, the men would have waited until they were ready to marry. But the girls wouldn't wait, and we wonder why?"

Probably the first is because when they are in love they are possessed by the delusion that every other woman is equally enamored of the man on whom they have set their affections, and that the only way to keep them is to put their matrimonial brand upon their foreheads.

OF COURSE, this is utterly silly, for the man who won't stand hitched before marriage will slip the bride and jump the fence after he has been corralled into the holy estate. Also women's tastes differ in men, and because one girl thinks that a certain youth is mother's white-haired angel boy is no indication that he looks that way to other feminine eyes.

Another reason why girls are in a hurry to marry is because they have been led to believe that her wedding day is the great moment in a woman's life.

IT IS the hour she has dreamed of ever since she was old enough to have a conscious thought. She looks forward to it as eagerly as a child does to going to the circus, and she can't bear to wait two or three years for the big thrill of walking up the aisle with orange blossoms in her hair and a trailing veil, and having the spotlight turned upon her.

And, curiously enough, every girl believes that a miracle is going to be wrought in her behalf and that, no matter what marriage has brought other women, it is going to bring her nothing but unadulterated happiness.

All her life she has seen how hard her mother has had to work and what sacrifices she has had to make. She has seen her sisters dragged down by babies and worn with the struggle of trying to make one dollar do the work of five. But she is not warned by their fate, and she rushes into matrimony because she is convinced that, somehow, things will be different with her and that marriage will be the open door to paradise.

MANY girls are in a hurry to marry because they are lazy and self-indulgent. They don't want to earn their own bread and butter. They want a man to take care of them, and they don't want to punch the time clock of a morning. They prefer to lie abed and snooze along until noon. They don't want a job in which they will have to be sufficient. They want one on which they can loaf and from which they cannot be fired. Therefore as soon as they get their clutches on a man they hurry him off to the person as quickly as they possibly can.

Perhaps the chief reason of all why girls are more in a hurry to marry than boys are is because women are more given to acting upon impulse than men are, and women are less forward looking than men are. A woman seldom counts the cost of what she does until after she has done it and she has to pay the piper.

SO WHEN she falls in love she wants to marry right then and there, without giving a single thought as to how she is to be fed and clothed and housed, or taking a look at the future and trying to forecast what it will bring to her.

Worse still, she does not perceive that in her greediness which makes her snatch at green fruit she is throwing away the perfect thing that she might have if she had only the patience to wait for it to ripen. For innumerable marriages are failures only because they were entered upon too soon. They would have been successes if only the man and woman had waited until they were prepared to marry.

No young couple need wait until they are sick to marry, but they are courting disaster if they marry before they have enough to live upon in a fair degree of comfort.

THERE is no happiness in a household over which the gaunt specter of want eternally hovers, where little children cry for food and where a shabby man and woman are torn with never-ending anxiety about where the rent money is to come from.

Nor does any man long love the woman who has dragged him down to poverty and who has balked his ambition and blighted his career by having inveigled him into marrying her before he had got his feet firmly planted on the ladder of success. When he sees his fellow who stayed single forging ahead, while he is crushed by the burden of supporting a family, he hates the wife who has been his undoing.

There is no truer proverb than the old one which says that if we marry in haste we will repent at leisure. Young men engaged to girls who are in a hurry to marry will do well to reflect upon this ancient law and lay its wisdom to heart. So shall they protect themselves and the girls against the folly of marrying before they can properly finance matrimony. DOROTHY DIX.

IN NEW YORK SEE SAWING UP and DOWN BROADWAY

IN THE crowded, noisy heart of Manhattan's East Side, just over the edge of "trastown" on Allen street, is a unique tenement.

For many years it has been known as "the baby house."

Several years ago he offered $50 for every pair of twins born in his tenement. This may or may not be responsible for the present population.

WHILE strolling about the East Side the other day, I met a young lady engaged in finding out the effect of prohibition on the tenement belt.

PERHAPS there is no more incongruous sight in all New York than the line-up of high-priced sedans, limousines and seven-passenger cars in front of many looking tenements.

Is this your BIRTHDAY MAY 31. You like to dress well and to have an artistic home. You have many friends, and take much interest in social life. FREDERICTON, May 30.—Osborne Savage, 9, son of Irvine Savage, a Canadian National Railways employe, was found drowned this morning in Nashwaak River, half a mile from its mouth, and within a short distance of his parents' home at Barker's Point. The boy disappeared yesterday and last evening troops of boy scouts from Barker's Point and Devon searched for him until midnight along the Nashwaak River and elsewhere. This morning at daybreak the search was resumed, and about 8 o'clock the body was found. It is believed that he fell into the water while playing on some logs in the river. Dr. D. W. Ross, of this city, who was summoned as coroner, ruled an inquest unnecessary.

The June News Letter, published by the interests of the Waltham Graduate Nurses' Association, at Waltham, Massachusetts, pays a glowing tribute to the late Miss Fanny G. Burnside, which is of interest to many friends in Saint John, and throughout the Province. Miss Fanny G. Burnside, '00, one of Waltham's best known and best loved graduates, entered into life's journey in 1870, and spent her last years in the Waltham Hospital on Sunday, April 5, 1926. She was the highest type of Waltham nurse faithful to the last degree, devoted to her profession, unswerving in loyalty to her patients. Perhaps longer than all else those who knew and loved her will remember her sunny disposition, her happy, untroubled life, her unselfish nature. Even during the last few weeks of her life, when she was struggling with illness, she kept at her work until she had finished a desperate case—and not one of her patients who suspected that there was anything amiss. Surely, as she closed her eyes on this world, there came her Master's voice saying "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. The world is the poorer for her passing."

Miss Audrey Rankine left on Friday evening for Halifax, where she is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hall. Miss Rankine will be one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Helen Johnstone on Tuesday, June 1.

Dr. and Mrs. Moriarty passed through Saint John on Saturday en route to Halifax. Before her marriage Mrs. Moriarty was Dr. Angela Magee, of this city.

Miss Vivian Fowler was recently the guest of Miss Hazel Myles at Sussex.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. C. Mackay, 148 Westworth street, have moved to their summer home at Westford Beach.

Mr. Cecil Fitzgerald, of New York, is expected in the city today to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Angevine are occupying part of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Flosswood's residence at Riverside for the summer season.

Miss Constance Starr is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ghden Campbell, at Weymouth, Nova Scotia.

Mrs. J. T. Sargeant, 55 Moore street, gave a small but very enjoyable party on Tuesday, May 25, in honor of the 12th birthday of her daughter, Olivia. The table decorations were in pink, centred with a decorated birthday cake with 13 lighted candles. After tea games and music were enjoyed by the little guests. Mrs. Sargeant was assisted in serving by Miss Winifred Waters and Miss Lullula Sargeant.

Mr. and Mrs. John Magee, of McKel street, Fairville, entertained about 50 friends at their home one evening last week as a farewell party in honor of Mrs. Charles Magee, their daughter-in-law. During the evening Mr. John Magee, on behalf of those present, made the presentation of a handsome initial club bag to the guest of honor, who expressed her thanks and appreciation in a few suitable words. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and music. Mrs. Sargeant was assisted in serving dainty refreshments by Mrs. Richard Craft and Mrs. Doris Magee. Mrs. Charles Magee left on Friday evening for Kenora, Ont., where she will join her husband, who has accepted the position of manager of the future home in Kenora. Mrs. Charles Magee was formerly a resident of Fairville for a few years in Fairville she has made many friends, who join in wishing her and her husband all success and happiness in their new home.

Attend at St. John's—Address Given By Rev. Mr. Fleming

The 3rd St. John's church Company of Girl Guides in their annual parade in the church yesterday morning, made a fine showing. They were in charge of the acting captain, Miss Margaret Anderson, and had special guests in the church, Rev. A. L. Fleming the rector, in his sermon referred to the fact that the day was Trinity Sunday and the day on which candidates for the ministry were being ordained. Although the Guides could not be given authority to be ministers yet they could give a very real service in ministering to the church. Mr. Fleming pointed out, and he reminded the Guides that their constitution and aim was to minister to others.

He then explained the significance of the "Trinity in Unity" and impressed upon the Guides that the day was depending upon them to go help Him in building peace and righteousness on earth. During the service the Girl Guide prayer was repeated. After the taking of the offertory a verse of the National Anthem was sung. The service throughout was very impressive.

See Indication of Hot Summer In U. S.

NEW YORK, May 31.—The blue-gray gnat catcher, a bird never seen before in the New York Botanical Gardens, was observed a few days ago by Robert S. Williams, garden ornithologist, who thereupon predicted a hot summer, since the gnat catcher customarily ranges further south and rarely gets as far north as this.

Next to the humming bird in size, it is distinguished by a remarkably long tail for so small a bird. It is active but quiet, being virtually songless. It is doubtful, Mr. Williams thinks, whether it will nest in so noisy a place as the garden. Probably it will find some quieter place still farther north.

Among the latest arrivals in the garden are the black-poll warblers, thought to be on their way to Canada. The night hawk, seldom observed in the park, is here also.

Spring Freshness in your home all the year 'round

EVERYBODY likes their home to be freshened up for Spring. How would you like to keep it fresh, not in spring only—but all the year round.

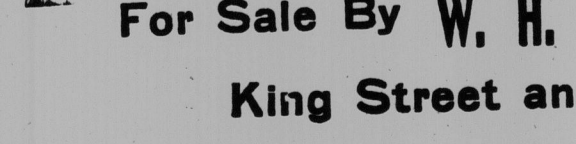

You'd like it—of course you would. Go to your nearest dealer and ask for Rogers Brushing Lacquer. There are 18 colors to choose from and black, white and clear as well. Choose what shades you want and get a small brush.

Is the base board in the living room scratched and bumped from the heavy wax polisher? Take your paint brush and a can of the right shade of Rogers Brushing Lacquer and touch up the scratches just as soon as they are made. Rogers Brushing Lacquer flows on as easily as oil. Anyone can do it. And it dries on the plain without brush marks or hard edges, inside half an hour.

Are there stained and dirty window sills and frames to be freshened up for the clean curtains? Do you like a clean, lustrous floor? Does your white bedroom or your white bathroom begin to look grey and dirty? Go over the paint with Rogers Brushing Lacquer. Try Ivory Tint this time instead of the dead white.

Or you can have white if you prefer. You can leave off in the middle of a job and there'll be no visible line the next day. You can use it for furniture, children's toys, porches, verandahs, lawns, chairs—any wood-work. Really it's a wonderful lacquer for household use. Ask your dealer about it.

Bogus Lord Beaverbrook, Under Arrest in Philadelphia—Fleeced Many

LONDON, May 31.—The Standard says today that information received from the Commercial Record Offices indicates that a man passing under the title of Lord Beaverbrook, arrested last week in Philadelphia, and that a man named Alexander Gordon, alias J. J. King, who is "wanted" in London on alleged robbery and bigamy, are identical. Police allege that the man married more than 100 women from many of whom he obtained money, the paper asserts.

In 1925 he married two women within a few days of each other and disappeared with more than $20,000 worth of his jewelry, according to the Standard. The paper goes on to say that police want Gordon in Berlin and Vienna on bigamy charges.

Two Meet Death Seeking The Ultimate In Aerial Thrills

William H. Moyer, eager to taste all the thrills of flying, asked Chief Pilot J. Harry Jones of the Jones Flying Circus, to take him up for a ride and show him "all the stunts in his bag of tricks." And for this rare privilege he paid $5 extra. The crowd about the field at Coatsville, Pa., saw the take-off and the beginning of the aerial stunts. Then Jones went into a loop. At its peak the plane crumpled and the man who had gone aloft for the ultimate in thrills and the pilot who had guaranteed them fell hundreds of feet to death. ## HERRING PRICE IS LOW AT EASTPORT

Only One Factory of Twelve is Operating; Fish Plentiful

EASTPORT, Me., May 30—With herring schooling in Maine waters and prospects of buying at $7 a bushel instead of the price fixed by Canadian fishermen of $10, there is a prospect of more canneries starting operations here next week. But one cannery has been in operation so far this season of the 12 plants here. Hundreds of factory workers, who have had nothing to do since last October, have been hoping for weeks that something would start, but although herring have been plentiful the owners have held back.

The break in the price on this side of the line may not last if the demand cleans up the catch.

POTATOES AT $3.50

Little Demand in Maine at That Price; Planting Under Way

CARIBOU, Me., May 30—Potatoes, once held for $12 a barrel, are now being hauled in and sold for around $3.50, as there now seems no hope of getting much more. What is left of the old stock is being rapidly shipped out and many houses are now empty but there are said to be more than 1,200 carloads left in the country, previous estimates having been rather low. Getting the new crop into the ground is now worrying the farmers more than the old. According to indications the acreage will be about normal.

SAYS UNION OF CHURCHES HAS SHOWN SUCCESS

Rev. J. S. Bonnell Preaches On Subject in St. Andrew's

CHRISTIAN WORLD WATCHING CANADA

Visiting Clergymen in Saint John Pulpits On Sunday

"One Year of Church Union" was the subject of the sermon delivered by Rev. J. S. Bonnell in St. Andrew's church last evening. He took his text from the prayer of Christ, "That they all may be one." He quoted from Richard Baxter, an Anglican divine of the 17th century; Marcus Dods, of Scotland, and other great religious leaders to show that the divisions of the Christian church are stumbling blocks in the way of its effectiveness. He said that while this fact was recognized no church was ready to undertake the risk or adventure of uniting with different denominations. He pointed out that every advance humanity had made in matters material or spiritual involved risk and he cited the discoveries of the New World, the aeroplane and the steamboat.

GREAT ADVENTURE, HE SAYS

Three great denominations in Canada undertook this great adventure, Mr. Bonnell said, and their risk had been abundantly justified, he claimed.

In proof of his assertion that each of the three uniting churches had contributed richly to the common life of the United Church he spoke of the procedure of the United body. First he mentioned the historic elder-ship which, he said, had been retained by all the Presbyterian churches entering union. Then he referred to the right to call a minister. Former Presbyterian churches retained this right unimpaired and it had been extended to United Church which previously did not possess it.

SETTLEMENT COMMITTEE

The settlement committee had been an organization of the former Methodist branch of the church and it had established itself as one of the most valuable organizations of the United Church. He showed how the right to call a minister and the functioning of the settlement committee had been the means of filling all of the United Church pulpits in the Maritime conference and said that 80 men were appointed to congregations that did not desire to call a minister, so there would be no vacant congregation throughout the conference this year. Mr. Bonnell said that under the old Presbyterian system of calling a minister in one Presbytery, which had 83 charges, there had been as many as nine vacant for nearly 12 months.

REFERS TO ORDINATION

Ordination by conference, which was another procedure adopted from the Methodist observance and this method, Mr. Bonnell believed, was a great advance upon ordination by Presbyteries. At the recent Maritime conference meeting in Sackville there had been eight young men who were solemnly ordained in the presence of 450 of their brethren in the ministry and of a congregation that crowded the church. They had pledged themselves to teach and preach only the doctrines of the United Church of Canada as set forth in the basis of union. It was an impressive and touching service, Mr. Bonnell declared.

In closing, Mr. Bonnell said that the eyes of Christian people the world over were watching the progress of union in Canada.

MAY DEVOTIONS IN CATHOLIC CHURCHES END

CONFIRMATION ON NEXT SATURDAY

St. John Baptist Church Announcement—St. Rose's 40 Hours

The impressive ceremonies of the crowning of the statue of the Blessed Virgin during the procession of children were carried out in three of the Catholic churches of the city yesterday, marking the closing of the May devotions. In St. Peter's church the ceremonies are to take place tonight.

In St. John the Baptist church the young girls of the school marched in procession carrying the flowers for the Virgin's crowning. The special sermon was preached by Rev. J. J. McDermott, parish priest. Announcement was made that a novena for the Sacred Heart would commence on Wednesday and that on Thursday Corpus Christi would be observed. His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc is to officiate at confirmation in the church on Saturday morning.

A very large congregation attended. The service opened with the recital of the beads, led by Rev. Charles Boyd. The choir then sang the Litany of the Blessed Virgin, under efficient direction of Miss Nellie Coplan. Appropriate hymns also were commendation.

The procession of 150 children marched through the church to a beautiful shrine and there a small statue of the Virgin Mary was crowned with flowers as the little ones sweetly sang "O Mary, We Crown Thee With Blossoms Today." Solemn Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacraments with Father McDermott officiating, closed the service. Rev. C. P. Carleton was deacon and Rev. C. Boyd sub-deacon. Rev. A. W. Kinella, curate, was master of ceremonies. The children were well trained by Miss Ada Baxter, assisted by Miss Nellie Powers and Jennie Stevens and they were given much credit.

THE PROCESSION

The order of the procession last evening was as follows: Banner, Mary McCormick; streamers, Audrey Murray, Irene Carlson, Gertrude Britt, Maureen Flaherty; procession of girls led by Marion Power, Margaret Breen, Irene Power, statue carried by Mary White, Marjorie Murray, Josephine Doherty, Claire Mooney; streamers of statue, Frances Ellsworth, Christina Hendry, Constance Henneberry; flower girls, Marjorie Bowers, Eleanor O'Brien; crown, Nora McCarthy; statue crowned by Margaret McGivern.

In St. Rose's church there were 70 girls clad in white dresses with white veils who marched in the children's procession and two carried the crown of flowers for the virgin's statue; the others each bore a floral offering. Rev. W. J. Mallette preached the special sermon. On Friday of this week 40 hours devotions will begin in St. Rose's church, to close next Sunday night, when Rev. Joseph Floyd, of the Cathedral, will be the preacher.

In the Assumption church the children's procession was very impressive and there was a large congregation present. Rev. Ronald McGillivray, second assistant, was the special preacher.

IN THE CATHEDRAL

In the Cathedral it was announced that a novena to the Sacred Heart would commence on Wednesday night and be concluded on the evening of Friday, June 11, and as Thursday of this week is the Feast of Corpus Christi on next Sunday the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed at the 11.30 a. m. mass and in the evening there will be vespers and the closing observances of the feast. That afternoon the children will present their eucharistic bouquets at a special service at 8 o'clock.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS OF PRICE OF MILK

A. Ren Smith Says Late Season and Feed Price Prevent Reduction

A. Ren Smith, president of the Kings County Milk Producers' Association, speaking of the decision to continue the winter price of milk to distributors in Saint John, said the late season and the advanced price of feed prevented reduction, when the matter was discussed at a meeting of the association on last Wednesday at Apohaig.

The meeting went on record as strongly in favor of pasteurization as the best method of safeguarding the consumer at a moderate cost. A. Ren Smith, president of the association, was in the chair. Mr. Smith said last evening that there was absolutely no desire on the part of the producers to hold the city people up, and that it was the wish of the producers to co-operate with the dealers.

The meeting was called, he said, to discuss the price for the summer months, and the subject was openly discussed in the presence of the dealers, so that each party might understand the other's troubles and experience in producing and dispensing milk. Contracts with the dealers were agreeably made at the 50 cent price, he alleged.

Some of the dealers had expected a reduction, but when it was shown that owing to the late spring, which prevented the cattle from being pastured and to the increased price of feed, the high standard of milk which had been supplied to the satisfaction of the dealers, could not be maintained at a smaller price, he stated.

IMPERIAL PARLEY WILL SEEK TO FIX UNITY OF EMPIRE

Efforts Impend to Lay Down Future Relationship Basis

MACKENZIE KING'S MOVE STIRS BRITAIN

Hertzog-Smuts Struggle in South Africa Will Be Up at Conference

LONDON, May 30.—The Imperial Conference which is planned to be held early in October will be the most important yet held in the Empire's history, according to opinions expressed to the British United Press by those in charge of Imperial affairs and also in Dominion circles here. All the problems which have accumulated since the last conference are going to be faced squarely and frankly, it is said, and attempts are going to be made to lay down a basis of relationship which will ensure the future unity of the Empire and will harmonize conflicting interests in both politics and industry.

Mackenzie King's motion formally providing that the Canadian Parliament must approve of any international treaty entered into by the British government before its ratification can be advised by Ottawa has attracted much attention here today, but the chief interest is concentrated on the situation in South Africa where Premier Hertzog is being pursued by former Premier Smuts for a statement that the Dominions should make formal declaration to the outside world of their full independence and that the only link between the Dominions and Mother Country is the personal bond of a common King.

MATTER FOR CONFERENCE. Hertzog told Smuts recently in parliament that such a declaration could

Produce Direct From Field To Market

By means of a light gauge railway train drawn by a gasoline driven locomotive, the field crops of the eastern counties of England are brought direct to the L. N. E. Railway sidings at Littleworth, where it is loaded on the regular trains for transportation to London.

only be made in conjunction with Great Britain and this is one of the matters which must come up at the Imperial Conference where it is bound to attract interest and to arouse the keenest discussion.

The attitude which Mr. Amery is taking is to leave matters in the hands of the Dominions, feeling assured that they will find means at the Imperial Conference of proclaiming the solidarity of the Empire and fostering a change of relationship by a process of natural development.

Meanwhile all preparations for the conference are going forward with much vigor, following the suspension of the detailed work during the strike.

Wembley To Go Under Auctioneer's Hammer

LONDON, May 29.—Wembley is to be sold. The liquidators, after vainly endeavoring to get a bid for the great exhibition grounds and buildings by private tender, have decided to put the whole up at public auction. The site covers about 332 acres and has kept the employe of the income tax department, the Palace of Industry, as well as the Stadium, which will accommodate 100,000 people. Several of the Dominion pavilions will also be included in the sale.

WARNS GOVERNMENT.

"But on the subject of the income tax, I warn the government that the country is not going to tolerate the conduct of any administration that reverses the will of the people as expressed in the civil service act," said Mr. Meighen. Unless there was one common body having the income tax, the multiplicity of branches of the service, there would be inequality in respect to salaries.

Robert Forke, Progressive leader, said he was opposed to the patronage system and in favor of the merit principle. He agreed with a "good many" of the remarks of the leader of the opposition, but thought that some of his comments were unworthy of him. There was nobody in the House who could say that Mr. Forke had ever "sold himself" or had ever done anything unworthy of a member of the House.

Mr. Meighen said that he had made no reflection on Mr. Forke's honor, but he considered it an attack on his honor to be described as an "independent liberal," added the opposition leader.

2 POLISH OFFICIALS ARRIVE IN DOMINION

Will Look Over Farming and Distribution of Work Among Nationals

QUEBEC, May 30.—Out here to study farming conditions in the western sections of Canada and also to look into the distribution of work among the Polish colonies in the Dominion, Stanislawski and Brenesien-Stanhusser, of Warsaw, the former Polish immigration delegate, and the latter a delegate from the Polish ministry of agriculture, arrived in Canada Saturday, about the 8.8. Minnesota.

While both gentlemen styled this the object of their visit and pointed out that their tour of Canada would last some six or seven weeks, neither would comment upon the political situation in Poland, confining themselves to outlining their future journey throughout the Dominion.

The Minnesota also brought out Rev. Louis Duval, of Saint John, who is returning to Canada, accompanied by Mrs. Duval, after a lengthy absence in Sierra Leone, where he was engaged in missionary work.

Rev. Batis, director of the Mount Royal Hotel orchestra, Montreal, was also on board, while Dr. Bruce Hewson, of London, was in charge of a party of boys being brought out from the Ontario government.

Mrs. N. Palmer, wife of the Canadian Trade Commissioner in Rotterdam, is in Canada for a short time, while Admiral J. Soutendam, of the Dutch Navy, is also here, both of them brought out by the Minnesota, which brought out a large number of returning Canadians, as well as prospective immigrants.

EMERGENCY LAW EXTENDED.

LONDON, May 30.—A royal proclamation issued late Saturday continues the regulations for the state of emergency created by the stoppage of work at the coal mines on May 1. The proclamation extends the emergency powers of the government for one month.

OTTAWA LOOKS FOR PARLIAMENT TO END SESSION BY JULY 1

Customs Inquiry Expected to Finish in 3 Weeks or Fortnight

CHANGE IN CRIMINAL CODE IS PROPOSED

Opium and Narcotic Drug Laws Are Slated For Amendment

OTTAWA, May 30.—This week the House of Commons begins what will probably be the last month of the present session of Parliament. While there is still plenty for the members to do, progress during the past week has been satisfactory and belief is growing that Parliament will prorogue by Dominion Day.

The customs inquiry committee, which is now delving into the affairs of the Dominion Distillery Company and subsidiary companies, will be expected, continuing the examination of witnesses from the organizations when it resumes on Tuesday.

SPEEDY END SUGGESTED.

A number of other firms are under investigation but their examination will not, it is understood occupy much of the time of the committee. It is even suggested that the committee will conclude its examination of witnesses in a week or ten days, and will be prepared to report to the house in a fortnight, or at the most, three weeks.

Tomorrow will be the last private member's motion of the present session. The government has given notice of the introduction of amendments to the criminal code, the opium and narcotic drug act and to the Yukon quartz mining act. If tomorrow is not occupied fully with private members' resolutions, estimates, possibly those of the Department of Trade and Commerce will be taken up.

SCOUTS AT CHURCH

100 Played to Service by High School Buglers at Capital

FREDERICTON, May 3.—The Boy Scouts of Fredericton district attended Divine service this morning at the cathedral, where Rev. A. F. Bate, rector of Fredericton, preached an instructive sermon from the text John 8:9. "There is a light here which has five small bars and two small fishes, but what is that among so many?"

The drums and bugles of the High School Cadets played for the march and upwards of 100 members of the six Scout troops were in line.

The steamer Orilla is expected to arrive at New York today from Southampton.

She Was Weak, Thin and Nervous

One of the greatest strength givers and producers of good healthy flesh in the world is Cod Liver Extract—The full of vitamins.

Thank goodness that now, when a woman is weak and haggard and don't know what she ought to do, she knows where to go for help as all druggists are now selling McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets, sugar coated, and as easy to take as candy. And it's a mighty good thing for skinny, rundown men and women to know that they can get the real Cod Liver vitamins in condensed form, that they can easily carry with them wherever they travel.

Men and women, weak, thin and nervous, are urged to put on weight and get back their health and strength with these wonderful tablets.

One woman gained 15 pounds in five weeks and that's going fast enough for anyone.

Only 60 cents for 60 tablets, and if 150 don't put five pounds of flesh on you this person in 30 days—why, money back and no quibbling about it, either.

But be sure and get McCoy's, the original and genuine. Watsons Two Stores, Ross Drug Co., Wm. Hawker & Son, and druggists everywhere are selling lots of them.

MILES TO COMPETE AT BOSTON JUNE 12

Runs at North Sydney Today, in Stellarton on 2nd, and at Amherst on 3rd

SYDNEY, N. S., May 30.—John C. Miles, 20-year-old Cape Breton champion Marathoner, will leave for the States within the next two weeks to take part in a 10-mile run at Melrose, Boston, on June 12.

Miles' schedule for the next month and especially for the coming week, is an active one. The Sydney Miles runner is booked to run tomorrow North Sydney in a six-mile event in which he is matched against three North Sydney runners, who will stage a relay race of the distance.

On June 2 Miles will be in Stellarton to run in a five-mile affair. The following day, June 3, he will take part in the Maritime 10-mile championship run at Amherst. The Melrose 10-mile will be his next race, while on Dominion Day, Miles has accepted an invitation to go to Halifax.

Between the latter two dates it is probable that Montreal will witness the Cape Bretoner in action, as he has received an invitation from sportsmen of that city which he will accept.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., May 30.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, who was stricken by an attack of chills and fever here Friday night was reported much improved though considerably weakened today.

Dempsey has lost eight pounds as a result of the ordeal. His left forearm was still swollen from the large carbuncle, which caused a general infection resulting in his illness.

Johnson was floored at the end of the seventh, lifted to his chair, and unable to return for the eighth round.

SWEETSER PRAISED BY BRITISH PAPERS

LONDON, May 30.—The Sunday newspapers and their special golf correspondents at the British amateur golf championship tournament at Muirfield are generous in their tributes to Jess Sweetser.

The Sunday Times says that Sweetser's performance was plucky but there was no question who was the better golfer.

Observer comments, it would have been quite submerged in the satisfaction which the general vindication of British golf in this tournament has awakened.

Rothesay Lad Nets 3 At Title Meet

MONTREAL, May 30.—Three athletes from Maritime Provinces schools who engaged with 300 boys from eastern Canada in Saturday's Dominion interscholastic championships here, took back with them four points, a second and third place.

H. P. McCurdy, of Rothesay, N. B., Collegiate Institute, garnered three points by placing second in the senior 220 yards distance, won by R. A. Adams, of Hamilton Central Collegiate Institute, in 24 seconds.

McCurdy won his heat in 24.15 seconds. In the 100 yards dash he was less fortunate. After winning his heat in the morning in 11.15 seconds he did not place in the semi-finals in the afternoon. The final 3 won and none lost.

Nathan Rubin, Dominion intercollegiate mile champion and Maritime mile and half mile champion, has sent in his entry for the West Side track and field sports on the West Side on June 3, according to Secretary Wright this morning.

Rubin is one of the Maritime's best bets to make the Olympic grade two years hence. He will compete in the mile and half mile.

The entries for the girls' events have not come in as expected, particularly in view of the girls' meet here on June 19, and all girl athletes seeking a chance at some real competition are urged to get in their names before it is too late.

On the other hand, the committee has been greatly encouraged by the number of entrants for the five-mile road race, by which six take part, including Norval Lambert, George Spragg and Patstone. In all about 50 entries have been received to date and a successful meet is assured. The grounds are in excellent shape now.

EL PASO, Texas, May 31.—Bob Lawson, of New York, negro light heavyweight champion, yesterday scored a technical knockout over Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, in the seventh round of a scheduled 12-round bout.

Johnson was floored at the end of the seventh, lifted to his chair, and unable to return for the eighth round.

TRACK IS NOW BEING WHIPPED INTO GOOD TRIM

Plans for horse racing at Moosepath on June 8 are well under way, according to a report made this morning by S. E. Rice. The track is being whipped into shape, and several entries, including a trotter and a pacer, both new to the game, belonging to Alec Long, of Calgary, are booked for the holiday program.

Mr. Rice plans on staging a meet at Moosepath between June 8 and July 1, after which he will get his stable in readiness for the summer and fall Maritime circuit.

James Downey turned in a record score for the S. M. L. E. rifle, on the range Saturday afternoon. J. P. Archibald also had a good score, making a possible score at 600 yards.

Chats with your GAS man

About Your Gas Bill

"Daily savings in little things makes big bank accounts," recently stated a prominent banker.

And one little daily saving can be on your gas. Here are some helpful rules for getting more for the gas you use in your gas range. Tack these rules up beside your kitchen stove.

- 1. Plan your meals systematically, such as when baking, plan an oven dinner. The gas ordinarily used to heat the oven is saved. 2. Light the burner just as a pan is placed over it. Turn gas off at once when pan is taken from flame. 3. Use a small burner on the gas range whenever possible, instead of a large one. 4. Don't use the oven to heat the kitchen or dry clothes. A small room heater is much more efficient. 5. Boil all gas range burners once a month in a strong solution of soda or washing powder. Clean burners burn best. 6. Have all burners adjusted so that a blue flame only shows. 7. Have thermostatic controls, which automatically keep the heat at the proper temperature, installed on ovens, water heaters and house heaters.

A little careful watching every day means quite a saving at the end of the year, without your giving up any good enjoyed from the gas you buy.

DRIVER TRAVELS 175 MILES PER HOUR ON SAND

Parry Thomas Drives 400 h.p. Car at Dizzy Pace

LONDON, May 29.—With sheets of flame belching from its drain-like exhaust-pipe, and cascades of water in its wake, J. G. Parry Thomas' giant 400 h. p. racing car "Babs" set up the world's fastest speed record on the sands at Pendine, a small town in Carmarthenshire, Wales, in spite of the fact that the driver was handicapped by having to steer with only one hand.

SPEED RECORD.—The speed recorded was 16 m. p. h. faster than that of Major Segrave's kilometre record, and 18 m. p. h. faster than Malcolm Campbell's mile record. It was 2 m. p. h. faster than the claimed, but not internationally recognized, United States record. Sands and wind were favorable and thousands of people came from all parts of Wales to see the monster unleashed. Some 2 1/2 miles from the timing post Mr. Parry Thomas climbed into the car. He is a big man and there was little room to spare in the small bucket seat—all space is required for machinery. In front of him stretched a huge bonnet crammed full of engine—twelve fat cylinders each as big as a small car unit, four carburetors supplying its gross appetite of a gallon to every four miles.

Exclusive Golf Courses For Women Suggested

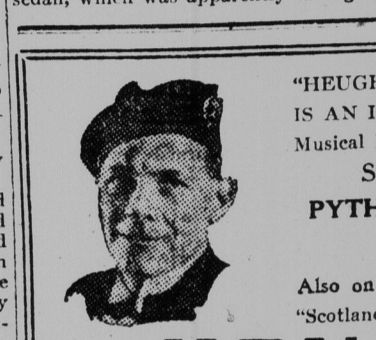

NEW YORK, May 28.—Golf courses exclusively for women may be common through the country within the next few years, as feminine golfers rise up in arms against the rules imposed by many clubs which deny women the use of the links on week-ends. The U. S. Golf Association admits that the increasing popularity of the game has brought about a serious problem.

It is seldom that the courses are not crowded on Saturday and Sunday, sometimes much to the detriment of the proper amount of enjoyment of the game. Several well known clubs, such as the Queens Valley, Long Island, and the Old Elm Club of Chicago, attempted to solve this condition by limiting women to five days of play a week.

Directors Assailed.—Hence the Board of Governors of many golf institutions found themselves assailed from both sides and households were divided against themselves. At the Hempstead Country Club on Long Island, the situation has all the earmarks of a political battle. A committee, self-styled as "The Bachelors and Unfraternal Husbands," has petitioned the Board of Governors to ban women from the course on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. The women's faction has fought the petition, ably seconded by husbands who apparently are less courageous, and any decision is bound to antagonize certain players.

CITY SCHOOLS TO BE CLOSED ABOUT 9 WEEKS

Graduation Exercises on June 25—Examinations Begin Soon

The public schools will close Friday, June 25 with the usual appropriate exercises. The High School will again hold its graduation exercises in the forenoon in Imperial Theatre. The period of vacation at the present reckoning will be eight weeks and five days, the schools reopening Thursday, August 26. However, there is a possibility of this date being extended to Monday, August 30.

EXAMINATION TIME

High School examinations will begin next week, a little earlier than the third and final series of papers throughout the schools generally. The entrance examinations for Grade 8 pupils will begin on the 21st. It is understood there will be a record number of boys and girls writing these papers, again emphasizing the pressure upon the older High School accommodations, as well as the doubling of the number of students to be examined in the next year. Last year 517 pupils of Grade 8 wrote the examinations and the intimation of a larger number this year is an encouraging commentary upon the school activities of this city, according to a prominent school official. The High School graduating class of 1925 numbered 126; this year it also will be large.

Following the closing of the schools, the Provincial Teachers' Institute will begin its sessions in Fredericton on the 28th. On July 6 the Normal School entrance examinations will be held in the High School building here and on the 8th examinations of licensed teachers for advance in classification. Inspector George Marr will conduct these tests.

DR. M. ANGLIN IS DEAD AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Bright Young Physician Passes Away at Parents' Home in Lancaster

His death mourned by a host of friends, Dr. Ives M. Anglin, fourth son of Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Anglin, Lancaster, passed away at the home of his parents last evening after an illness of almost two years. He was taken ill in 1924, while house doctor in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal and although Montreal and Baltimore medical men strove to effect a cure, their efforts were in vain. In January of this year the young man returned to his home and had been bed-ridden ever since. His death removes from the medical profession a brilliant young graduate of McGill University.

McGILL GRADUATE OF 1923.
The late Dr. Anglin graduated from the local High School in 1917 and subsequently spent one year at Mount Allison University, Sackville. On his decision to enter the medical field, he enrolled as a student at Dalhousie University, Halifax. After a year of study at that institution, he entered McGill and graduated from the medical school in 1923. He was successful in passing the Dominion examinations that summer and was appointed house doctor, as assistant to Dr. H. F. Hamilton, at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. Dr. Anglin entered the Royal Victoria for another year, but was taken ill and had been in failing health since. An exceptionally promising young man, he bore a long and painful illness without complaint. Besides his parents, Dr. Anglin is survived by three brothers, Arthur and Gerald G., of the law firm of Barnhill, Sanford & Harrison, and Norman. A fourth brother, Lyman, was killed at the battle of Vimy Ridge, 1917. There will be deep sympathy for those bereaved by Dr. Anglin's death.

Detective Saunders Was Injured in January While Chasing Youth

Friends today were congratulating John Saunders, popular member of the local detective department, on his return to duty. Although still limping as a result of his injury, he attended in this morning on special duty. Detective Saunders was hurt on the night of January 22 when, in company with Detective Kilpatrick, he was endeavoring to arrest John Beckwith. While trying to lead Beckwith off the officers separated and agreed to meet in a short while at a certain corner. Saunders went down an alleyway off Prince street and street when he did not arrive at the designated place. Detective Kilpatrick located him in the alley with a broken ankle, caused by a fall on the ice. Kilpatrick placed his brother officer across his shoulders and carried him to a nearby house. He later was sent to the hospital. Beckwith, who was arrested about a month ago, was charged up for a two-year term, made his escape recently from the county jail the day before he was to have been taken to Dorchester.

PAVEMENT SPOTS BOTH MOTORISTS

Drivers Complain of Places in City Streets and Rothersey Road

Automobile drivers are complaining of many bad spots in the city and Rothersey road pavements. "There is one particularly dangerous spot on the Rothersey road near Renforth station," said one motorist to The Times-Star this morning. "The action of the frost has raised a ridge about eight inches high across the road. When driving at night it cannot be seen until too late to slow up and avoid an awful fall. It needs fixing at once, otherwise some unfortunate riding in the back seat is sure to suffer a broken neck."

There are also a number of bad holes in the city pavements. A series in 36 street at the intersection of the Admiral Beatty hotel are a menace to both cars and drivers. If they are not fixed soon the city might be facing a few hills for broken axles. There is also the possibility of a bad accident through a driver being compelled to run over on his wrong side to avoid the holes."
