BONE FOOD
Soft and crooked bones mean bad feeding. Call the disease rickets if you want to. The growing child must eat the right food for growth. Bones must have bone food, blood must have blood food and so on through the list.
Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment for soft bones in children. Little doses every day give the stiffness and shape that healthy bones should have.
Bow legs become straighter, loose joints grow stronger and firmness comes to the soft bones.
Wrong food caused the trouble. Right food will cure it.
In thousands of cases Scott's Emulsion has proven to be the right food for soft bones in childhood.

suffered from nerve racking headaches, and the least exertion would cause my heart to palpitate so vio-

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., MAY 20, 1904

Acadia Second Forward Movement.

Last week we gave to our readers a report of Dr. Trotter's address on the above subject, delivered to the congregation of the Wolfville Baptist church on Sunday morning, the 15th inst. We also gave some account of the response made by the Baptist people of the town, and expressed our confidence that, when appealed to, the people of the town, without distinction, would do their utmost to make this comprehensive undertaking a complete success.

We understand that during the present week a general appeal to the citizens has been made, and once more we bespeak for the appeal that large-minded consideration which it surely should command. The exercise of a genuine public spirit at the present time by our citizens would greatly strengthen the hands of those charged with the task of raising the funds, and would furnish them with an example which could be quoted all over the country for the inspiration of other communities. On the other hand, if this community were the institutions are situated, this community which enjoys the intellectual and social advantages of them in the most direct way, and whose commercial life is largely the outgrowth and result of the presence of the institutions—if this community should be lacking in public spirit, it could hardly fail to have a depressing and harmful effect.

We have a large measure of confidence that the response will be worthy of the town, and of the important issues at stake. Six persons have pledged $5,000.00. The rest of the community combined ought to be good for an equal amount. With the privilege of spreading the payment of pledges over four years, it will be possible for many to do what otherwise would have been impracticable.

Good taste, the real basis of what is known as 'good form,' always marks the suggestions on social observances contributed to The Delineator by Mrs. Frank Learned. In the June number of this magazine Mrs. Learned discusses the timely subject of weddings, and apropos of home ceremonies she says: 'The chief aim at a home wedding is to have everything as simply arranged as possible. A few formalities are necessary in order that all may be done in a dignified manner and without confusion. But it is desirable to avoid anything that detracts from the serious nature of the ceremony.' For a simple home wedding Mrs. Learned suggests as a refreshment menu salads, croquettes of chicken or lobster, cold salmon mayonnaise, dainty sandwiches, ice-cream, cakes and bonbons; and in reference to the practice of rice-throwing she gives the guarded opinion that if indulged in at all, it should not be overdone. Probably Mrs. Learned would agree that private facings of the bride should be a guide to her friends in each case with regard to this custom.

For some time past the provincial government has been making enquiries regarding a suitable man as good roads instructor for the province. Last week the appointment of C. R. Coutlee, of Aylmer, Quebec, to the position was announced. Mr. Coutlee, who is a well-known member of the Canadian Society of Civil Engineers, is about 40 years of age, and was educated in Kingston. Since he has graduated he has practised his profession on many important works from Montreal to Vancouver. He has had considerable practical experience in the construction of roads, and is said to be well acquainted with the general conditions of highway construction. He is not an entire stranger to Nova Scotia, as he was at one time assistant to T. H. White, chief engineer of the Halifax and South-Western railway.

The Intercolonial Railway authorities are inaugurating a new feature—a passenger train between Montreal and Halifax, to be known as the 'Ocean Express' and will be equal in every way to the famous Maritime Express. The new train will start July first and will accomplish the trip in twenty-four hours, four hours less than at present. At the outset the cars and equipment may not be equal to the standard ultimately intended, as appropriations for the necessary rolling stock have not yet passed, but temporary arrangements for the necessary stock will be made for the first trip on the evening of Dominion Day. The new train will leave Montreal at 8 p. m., so passengers will be able to view the scenery of the Metapedia Valley and New Brunswick in the daylight.

Digby is to have a new illuminated $5000 clock placed in the post office building by the Dominion public works department. Ferguson and Page, of St. John, have the order to supply it, and it is to be in place by the end of June. Wolfville, which is a larger and in many ways a more important town than Digby, cannot even boast of a government building—there are some one in the town with sufficient 'pull' with the government to move in the direction of getting one?

The members of 'Lily of the Valley' Division, Port Williams, are to give an entertainment in their hall this evening. A choice program of vocal and instrumental music, readings, tableaux, and an interesting dialogue (Mrs. Lester's Solace) is to be given, and a pleasant time will no doubt be had.

Sir Henry M. Stanley.

Sir Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer, died at London last week. He was 63 years of age, having been born on January 28th, 1841, near Denbigh, Wales, of humble parentage. For ten years he was educated in the poor house of St. Asaph. At fifteen he went as cabin boy on a vessel bound for New Orleans. There he was adopted by a merchant named Stanley, whose name he took in place of his original one, John Rowland. He was in the Confederate army; subsequently in Federal navy; afterwards newspaper correspondent for the New York Herald in Abyssinian war. He was finally sent by the proprietor of the Herald, James Gordon Bennett, to find Dr. Livingstone, of whom nothing had been heard for more than two years. Stanley succeeded after a perilous journey in finding Livingstone at Ujiji on Lake Tanganyika. His subsequent life up to 1890 was devoted to the exploration of Africa. Stanley left Livingstone in Africa in February, 1872, both starting for the coast in different directions. Livingstone never returned alive, but Stanley reached England in July 1872, and was received with royal entertainments. After discovering that Livingstone was dead, on his second expedition in 1874 he explored Lake Victoria Nyanza, and dissipated many false theories in regard to the topography in that hinterland of Africa, now in general so well known to every school child. He discovered the head waters of the Congo, believed hitherto to have been the Nile. Afterwards he relieved Emin Pasha, bringing him back from Equatorial Africa to Egypt. In this expedition the sources of the Nile were discovered, and returning to England in 1890, he received an unending ovation. Universities conferred degrees on him, and everywhere he was honored. After that he gave up exploration. He has written 'How I found Livingstone,' 'Through the Dark Continent,' 'The Congo and the Founding of the Free State,' 'In Darkest Africa,' 'My Dark Companions and their Strange Stories,' and 'Through South Africa.' He has lectured extensively in United States and United Kingdom. In July, 1892, he offered for a seat in the British Commons, but was defeated in North Lambeth. Among the Queen's birthday honors in 1899, his name appeared as G. C. B. The story of his life as an explorer has been one that has fired the imagination of all English people, and his work as a pioneer holds an exceedingly high place in the annals of explorers.

A Few Divorces.

For the first time in seven years an effort has been made to secure statistics of divorce in the United States and the result shows that in that time the yearly average of divorces has grown from 16,336 to about 70,000, or more than 400 per cent. Father O'Brien has prepared for the Roman Catholic Messenger a table of statistics of divorce for recent years which shows that the percentage of increase since 1877 has been growing steadily, and that in a few years the United States will have as many divorces as Japan, which now has nearly as many divorces every year as other nations combined. The estimate for that country is 100,000 divorces a year.

ROSY, HEARTY CHILDREN.

If you want to keep your little ones rosy, hearty and full of life give them Baby's Own Tablets the moment they show signs of being out of order in any way. This medicine cures all forms of stomach and bowel troubles, breaks up colds, prevents croup, destroys worms, allays teething irritation, and gives the little ones sound, natural sleep. No child objects to taking the Tablets and the mother has a guarantee that they contain no opiate or harmful drug. No other medicine for little ones gives this guarantee. Mrs. Geo. Campbell Killarney, Man., who has had much experience says:—'I find Baby's Own Tablets a fine medicine for children. They are prompt in relieving little ills and gentle in their action.' All medicine dealers sell these Tablets or you can get them by mail at 25 cents a box by writing The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Quality's the Point

We have in view in making clothes. Any tailor can make poor clothes, badly fitting, cheaply lined, clumsily put together. We don't make that kind. When we advertise a Tweed suit at $25.00, Fancy Worst suit at $25.00, Pair of Trousers at $5.00, We mean the very best best that can be made at the price.

The only difference between our most expensive and cheapest suit is the price of the cloth you pick out. Our reputation proves it.

There is practically no such thing as luck in business. Behind what is termed 'luck' there is always a good and sufficient reason. The 'good and sufficient' of 'VIM TEA' Success has been 'VIM TEA' quality, not luck.

As it is the purpose of the Council to require all other parties to connect their premises with the sewer in the near future C. M. GORMLEY will be pleased to furnish estimates on a guaranteed job. Call early and avoid the rush.

Persons wishing to secure convenient and comfortable accommodation for Anniversary week may learn of such by applying at the office of THE ACADIAN.

Mr C. H. Borden has recently added to his frontage on Main street by the purchase of several feet of land from Mr J. W. Vaughn. We understand it is Mr Borden's intention to enlarge and improve his store in the near future, his business having grown to such proportions as to make more room necessary.

Narrow tires do much to cut up roads even when they are fairly good, and with this fact in evidence, the Government of New Brunswick have done wisely in enacting a law, making wider tires compulsory. A similar move in Nova Scotia would be in the right direction.

Mr W. R. Geldert, agent of the Grand Division, S. of T., reorganized 'Harvest Home' Division, No. 157, last week, with 27 members. It is over twelve years since the Division had its last meeting. Mr Geldert spots the prospects good for building up a strong Division, as considerable enthusiasm was manifested.

Capt. Baird has been in port this week with his new vessel, the 'R. P. S.' Owing to his increased business he found the 'Greenville' too small for his purpose, and this spring disposed of her and bought the vessel he is now sailing. She is a staunch and well-fitted-up craft of about 90 tons register, and on her last trip carried 160 tons of freight.

A lady remarked to me the other day: "What a blessing to be able to select such beautiful room paper at home, instead of standing around a store and then not getting what you want." Send a word to B. G. Bishop and he will show you samples of the finest and cheapest Wall Papers in America. 'Twill be a revelation to you. Feb. 19, 3 mos.

Rev. Dr. Boggs and Mrs Boggs left on Saturday last for Cleveland, Ohio, where they will attend the anniversary of the American Baptist Missionary Society, which takes place at the end of the month. Mrs Boggs expects to be absent a few weeks only, while Dr Boggs will not return until during July or August. At the close of the anniversary exercises at Cleveland he will be engaged in addressing a number of churches in and about that city.

Reference was made by THE ACADIAN some weeks ago to the improvements that were being made in Mr Regan's building. They have now been completed, the result being very creditable to the enterprising owner. The large plate-glass windows and neatly lettered sign boards in gold, give a very showy appearance, and when displayed with Mr Regan's fine stock the establishment is one that is a decided credit to the town. We wish the proprietor continued prosperity.

In an account of a recital given by the pupils of the New England Conservatory of Music the Boston Globe of a recent date says: 'A feature was the singing of Miss Lida Munro, of Bridgetown, N. S., who was heard in Vancouver's 'Sol per Piacenti' and Hawley's 'Spring.' Miss Munro has a very promising soprano voice, with a splendid range and unusual sweetness.' Miss Munro is a graduate of Acadia Seminary, and has many warm friends in Wolfville, who will be glad to learn of her success. The Globe also published a half-tone of Miss Munro.

Mr. W. S. Wallace has had the front of his building newly painted in tasty colors during the past week, and it now presents a very showy and attractive appearance. THE ACADIAN is always glad to report improvements of this kind.

The old delapidated plank-bridge for driveways, &c., ought to have been replaced by this time a thing of the past. Now is the time to have them replaced by a terra cotta bridge. C. M. Gormley, of this town, has on hand a supply of hard-glazed crock pipe, guaranteed against frost, which is excellently adapted for the purpose, and cheaper in the end.

Remember that we carry several lines of Ladies' & Gentlemen's American Fine Footwear at the People's Shoe Store.

Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. William Chipman in the death of their son, Jack, which took place at Pasadena, California, on the 12th inst. The winter had been spent at Coronado Beach, trusting the balmy climate would benefit the boy's declining health. Finding their hopes unfulfilled, the parents had started to return by easy stages to their Nova Scotia home, but had only reached Pasadena when the sad event occurred.

Rev. H. T. DeWolfe, B. A., Principal of Acadia Seminary, and Professor of History, Ethics, Psychology, and Bible in that Institution, was here for a few hours Monday. Mr DeWolfe is not only a successful educational and Principal of Seminary, attended by some 200 young ladies from all parts of the Maritime Provinces, but is a thorough business man too, of most pleasing and genial address. Acadia Seminary has never been more prosperous than to-day.—Truro News.

It is reported that the D. A. R. has purchased the steamer Messenger, which will immediately be put in first-class condition for the Kingsport-Farmboro route. The service will be in June inst.

Mrs S. S. Borden and Miss Borden, who have been spending the winter in Boston and vicinity, have returned, and will occupy the residence recently occupied by Mr. C. A. Patriquin, at the corner of Gaspeaux avenue and Winter street.

The 'Linet', the trim little craft purchased last fall by Mr John Foster, who recently returned from the U.S., has been fitted up in good style during the winter and is now employed in the fishing business. She is a very neat little vessel and well adapted for the business. It is the intention of the owner to make a thorough trial as to the profit of fishing in the Minas Basin, which he believes will prove to be a profitable venture.

Mr. A. J. Woodman has purchased the lot on Maine street between Mr. Regan's harness shop and the old American House property and will begin the erection thereof shortly of a fine large building for the accommodation of his increasing business. Part of the lot has been sold to Mr. W. T. Ford, who also will build there. It is expected that the new buildings will be of brick, and when finished will add considerably to the appearance of the street.

The Provincial Government through the Nova Scotia Farmers' Association, has arranged a programme of lectures to be delivered throughout those counties that have formed county associations. These counties have been grouped so as to include those having similar needs and conditions, and intimate lecturers assigned to each group who will deal with agriculture and horticultural matters of particular concern to that section. The lecturers for Kings, Hants, and Annapolis counties are Alex. McNeil, Dominion Fruit Inspector, of Ottawa, and J. Rufus Starr.
