

of England, was held in the highest respect by all the Saxon natives of the north of England. But with the blood of this ancient royal race, many of their infirmities had descended to Athelstane. He was comely in countenance, bulky and strong in person, and in the flower of his age—yet inanimate in expression, dull-eyed, heavy-browed, inactive and sluggish in all his motions, and so slow in resolution, that the soubriquet of one of his ancestors was conferred upon him, and he was very generally called Athelstane the Unready. His friends, and he had many, who, as well as Cedric, were passionately attached to him, contended that this sluggish temper arose not from want of courage, but from want of decision; others alleged that his hereditary vice of drunkenness had obscured his faculties, never of very acute order, and that the passive courage and meek good-nature which remained behind, were merely the dregs of a character that might have been deserving of praise, but of which all the valuable parts had flown off in the progress of a long course of brutal debauchery.

FREDERICTON, DECEMBER 11, 1879.

THE DANISH IMMIGRATION SCHEME.

We have before us a letter from a gentleman from Victoria County, who has most advanced views on immigration and settlement, and he thinks our views on the "Scheme" proposed by Hans Peter "Lyngard" Peterson were quite correct. He goes on to say:—

"We have had too much of this kind of work already. What the Government should do in this part of the Province is to get back by exchange or purchase a tract of land from the Railway Company along the County line between Madawaska and Victoria, and open a road on that line to Rossig Mills. This is the finest tract of settling lands in New Brunswick, and all necessary is for the government to open the roads and thus throw the land open for settlement. If Danes choose to come and settle there let them, but there is no necessity for making special arrangements to bring them here, as the land would be taken up immediately by our own young men who deserve some consideration at the hands of the Government."

This is precisely what we say; but this certainly is not the view Mr. Hans Peter Peterson and his brother would take of it. Mr. Peterson wants to have the name of carrying out a big scheme, and thus revive and do honor to the obsolete name of Lisear; he wants above all to reap the profits of that scheme. We do hope, therefore, that the Government will pursue the even tenor of its way and calmly consider the Scheme on its merits.

As we have said repeatedly, we urge no objection to bringing in foreigners by the score to people our lands, but we do say now with our correspondent, and we have always said it, that no special inducements should be held out to these people so long as we have strong and stout hearted young men of our own who would be glad to avail themselves of these inducements. Any one but a poltroon, a creature without either heart or brain, will agree in this, even though the foreigner would make as good a settler as our native born. But as in the case of the Danes we have to repeat they are the poorest class of settlers that come to our Province. It is their nature to be slow and sluggish. They are slow to think, slow to act, and awkward in plan and operation; but they are indomitable and frugal. This is the peculiarity of every northern people, just as a fiery nature and quick thought and action are the distinctive marks of the sons of sunnier climes. 'Tis true the Dane is a great improvement on the E-quinoux, but he is far inferior to the German or the Austrian.

Let us look at their country. We once heard a most eloquent pulpit orator call Denmark and Sweden "the two most God forsaken countries in the world." They have not yet reached to the civilized point of wearing leather shoes, and perpetuate the sabot or wooden article when they come to the forests of Victoria. The writer has been through their settlement, and can bear testimony to their frugality and industry, but he can also bear witness of how very far their farms and their habitations fall behind those of Tilly, of Kincardine, Kintore or Johnville. True there was one residence there and that was almost princely; it was Mr. Petersen's. He, the neighbors told the writer "was a great schemer," and got the fat of the land. He wanted to be a "big man," they said out of the money of the Province, and eyed little how the other Danes eyed provided he drove his aristocratic type wheeled gig, and played his organ, and triumphed his flowers. They said he did about as he liked with the money during Mr. Stevens time, and it certainly struck us that he did. For when he came to New Brunswick he was as poor as a church mouse, boasting of nothing save the exact name of Lisear which the Commissioner in his vanity loves to talk. No, Mr. Petersen, is not by any means a favorite of the poor wooden-shoed Danes. They eat their pan-akes and he swallows wheat bread, and recites Oleschinger's poems 'er the pretty "Love lies bleeding." Other Commissioners with only their five per cent. commission could scarce afford to loll 'er the yellow foam of the pumpkin; so that one must conclude Hans Peter possesses a wonderful knack of laying out five per cents.

It will be seen by our readers why the scheme is so dear to Mr. Petersen, and how easy it is to gull the shallow headed creatures that write in some of the city press.

A SUGGESTION.

We have been thinking that after all Sir Leonard Tilley would incur no risk in dropping the Fisher party right overboard at once. Some people think it strange of us to oppose this Mr. Fisher because forsooth he is of the party. Yes, truly, but he is as much in the party as a weed is in a carrot bed. He is an innocent, harmless citizen, but certainly no strength to the party. He is thoroughly pious; indeed we do not believe he has ever committed a mortal sin in his life. But what of all that. There are scores of pious persons in the Sunday School Class that Mr. Fisher leads who are just as sinless as their teacher; but no one would conclude that they are all justified to come out and represent York County, for a large proportion are women. The time has passed now for people to keep their eyes and their ears shut to what is being said and done at Ottawa. Canada's policy is no longer an abstract question: it is a living, burning issue. We want men of ability to represent us at the Council of our country, unless indeed we are content to put up with what is given us by those who feel but little interest in us. We think, therefore, the best thing to do is to drop Mr. Fisher, to discontinue Mr. Pickard, and turn our eyes and our interest to some citizen of ability and the right political creed.

NEW BRUNSWICK SCHOOL BOOKS.

The Printer's Miscellany is indignant because Nelson & Sons, of London should have the printing of our New Brunswick School Books. The Press generally has endorsed the views of the Miscellany, but none of them has pointed out the reason why the books are not printed in New Brunswick. Nelson & Sons hold the copyright of the Royal Readers, and would prosecute any publisher in New Brunswick who would re-publish them. They also have the copy-right of the jumbled mass known among our School books as Archer's History of Canada. All the other books may be printed or purchased anywhere. The Board of Education argue that if they were to compile new readers it would disturb every school in the Province by asking pupils to throw away the books they have and purchase new ones. But this is a ridiculous objection. We surely have some future of our own, and the books now in print will not last till the Province ceases to be; therefore the sooner we get up our own books, and give the publishing of them to our own printers the better.

We join with the press of the Province in asking the attention of the Board to this matter; and venture to hope they will not be too hardy enough to keep their ears closed to the cry of the Province.

SNEAK THIEVES OF THE PRESS.

We have to request some of our St. John contemporaries when taking items from the Star to give due credit for the same. There is said to be "honor among thieves," and we do not know why there shouldn't be among newspaper men. Now where did the Amplexion vehicle, the St. John Globe, get that item about the purchase of the Fulljelly property?

It will be seen in another column that some of our enterprising business men propose starting a boot and shoe factory in this city with a capital of $10,000. A large number of the shares have been already subscribed. This is another of the results of the death of N. P.!

WEATHER PREDICTION.

A gentleman has sent us the following, which is worthy of reproduction: C. C. Blake, of Decatur, Illinois, who has gained some celebrity for accuracy as a weather calculator, makes the following predictions:—

November, 1879.—I hardly know what to say about this month; my calculations make it a somewhat "chopped" one, a conglomerate mixture of all kinds of weather, but not very cold.

December, 1879.—Will be like November, "only more so." It will be warm, wet and disagreeable; cold snaps will be short and sharp.

January, 1880.—Will be rather warm, wet and muggy, part of the time. There will be some cold weather, but no steady cold weather.

February, 1880.—Will be much like January—a considerable amount of snow or sleet, and a moderate amount of cold weather.

March, 1880.—Will be changeable; rather wet, especially in the middle of the month, and only moderately cold.

The winter of 1879-80 will be warm and wet, with a few cold snaps of limited duration; but will be colder than the winter of 1877-78.

It will be observed the Professor hit it pretty well for November and so much of December as has passed.

A St. PETERSBURGH despatch states that rumors are afloat that owing to severe nervous prostration the Czar is considering the subject of abdicating.—Tageblatt.

One thing is sure, there is little prospect of his dying with the crown on. Either deposition, abdication or assassination will be the end of his reign; and when one comes to view his despotism in the light of other nations' tyrannies, he wonders that the end of his reign has not been before now.

We are very sorry to learn that Mr. Laundry's little daughter too has been taken away from him. The loss of these two beautiful children must be a painful blow to Mr. Laundry and Mrs. Laundry; and we can only offer our most genuine sympathy.

The Czar Nicholas.

FURTHER QUEER ANECDOTES OF THE AUTOCRAT OF RUSSIA.

[Boguslawski's Memoirs.]

In the year 1844, when a piece bearing the title, "The Emperor's Farewell announced for performance in Paris, Nicholas wrote to the King, "If you do not forbid the representation I will send a million of spectators to hiss it from the stage."

As the Emperor was once taking a walk he heard a man and a woman talking loudly in the German language. Hearing the man declare that he would not leave the spot until he had seen the Emperor, he latter went towards him and demanded what he meant and what he wished. The German who did not know the Czar, answered that he was an artisan from Hamburg and desired to submit a paper describing a new and cheap method of making shoe soles for the army. "Why do you apply to me?" the Emperor?" inquired the Czar; "why have you not first addressed your petition to some one about him?" "I wish to do so and called on the Chief of Police for the Emperor's dog, the Emperor's man, but his clerk asked me to pay 300 roubles, which is impossible as I have no money." "Then you might have communicated with the Governor-General," suggested the Czar. "Has he then no Secretary?" inquired the man. "If so, 500 instead of 300 roubles would probably have been demanded of me." The Emperor, smiling, said, "Then you should have gone with your petition direct to the Grand Duke Michael Pawlowitch, was not it?" "Go to that scoundrel of soldiers, the Grand Duke? Not for the world!" replied the man. "Well, my fine fellow," said the Czar, "if you will not transact your business with the Emperor in person, speak up, for I am here." At this unexpected revelation, the honest Hamburg was so terrified that, trembling from head to foot, he fell on his knees. In going to his hat dropped from his hand. The Emperor's dog, his almost constant companion, seeing his hat being played with it. The Emperor contemplated the scene with characteristic pride, hugely relishing the sight of the poor artisan. At last he pulled the hat from between the dog's teeth and, handing it, smiling, to the still kneeling Hamburg, said: "Do not be alarmed, my friend; give me your paper; I will have it examined. Meanwhile, come to the palace, where you shall have a present in token of my sympathy for the fright you have suffered." On the day following, the Emperor invited the Grand Duke Michael Pawlowitch, the Governor-General, Count Essen, and the Chief of Police, Kokosukin, to dine with him. He related to them the adventure he had had and enjoyed immensely their embarrassment and confusion. What came of the proposal does not appear, but the Hamburg himself went mad. At this termination of the affair the Emperor was seized with compassion, and allowed the family of the victim a regular pension.

Local Matters.

Machinery. Yesterday two carload-of machinery for the Marysville flour mill arrived from Ontario.

To Shut Down. The factory of J. C. Risdon & Co. will probably close operations for this season in a few days.

N. B. R. Car Works. The N. B. R. Car Works have just turned out box car No. 256. It is a fine piece of workmanship.

Wild Geese. A very large flock of wild geese flew over the city yesterday on their way to "the sweet, sunny South." They made a tremendous clucking.

The Princess Louise. The London World is responsible for the gratifying report that one reason of H. R. H.'s visit is "the prospect of an heir being born to the future Duke of Argyll."

Saddlery Establishment. Messrs. Boone of St. Mary's informs us that notwithstanding the untoward state of affairs in reference to travelling, he has manufactured this year 25 per cent. more sets of harness than in 1875.

Post Stamps. There is two-thirds as much mail on a two-cent stamp as there is on a three-cent stamp, and just one-third as much on the one-cent as on the three. And we wish the post office authorities to make a note of the fact.

Personal. Attorney General Fraser returned home yesterday evening.

John S. Covert, M. P. P. was here yesterday. He deprecates the condition of the country.

Hans Petersen, the great immigration schemer, is at the Barker House.

To Correspondents. We are obliged to hold over till next issue an excellent communication on the use of opium and a horrible combination of fifth and poison - "Black Jack." We thank our esteemed correspondent for his interest in this matter, and we shall always be too happy to make the "TAR" a means for carrying a crusade against tobacco.

Accident. We are pleased to learn that Mr. Thomas Barker is recovering from the injuries received by his fall on Saturday last. The conflicting accounts given of the catastrophe seem to indicate that Mr. B. was falling among the trees, and fell some 20 feet and the injuries consisted in a deep cut above the eye and bruises about the chest and back.

Birthday Celebration. His Lordship Metropolitan Medley celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday last evening at Bishopscote. The ladies and gentlemen comprising the choir, with one or two others were present. His Lordship is yet hale and hearty, and his great talents seem to have lost none of their lustre, nor his energies any of their force. May he long be spared over the Church of which he is such an ornament.

Business Card. As I propose to remain in Fredericton this winter, I intend, if classes can be formed before the first of January, to teach a limited number of pupils of both sexes (collectively or separately, as may previously be agreed upon) for the season, in the various branches of Drawing and Painting (Land-scapes and Figures, &c.) Arrangements may be made by calling at the studio, 818 E. GARDNER STREET. Dec. 11 - 17

Trapping. A couple of trappers in the employ of Mr. H. Braithwaite have just arrived in town with the "pelts" of this season's operations. The pack consisted of 14 mink, 13 beaver, 3 lynx, a heterogeneous mass of mart in and musquash skins, and the hide of a 400-lb. bear that had been caught in a deadfall in the Burnt Hill district. The latter had been torn considerably by another of the same species while lying in the trap. The men report that the weather has caused a complete deadlock in lumbering operations owing to the impossibility of getting provisions to camp.

New Boot and Shoe Factory. We have been informed by a competent authority that the number of go-ahead business men contemplating the formation of a new channel for enterprise in the shape of a boot and shoe factory here. I have been proposed to start operations with a capital of $10,000, composed of $30 shares. The new factory will be located in Messrs. Simmons & Lowell's tannery, Queen Street. A large percentage of the required amount has already been subscribed.

A Bad State of Affairs. This is a most trying time on business men and it is no wonder so many of them are in the blues. Within the past fortnight there have been scarce a dozen teams in town, and the prospects are at present that the ice will soon be too unsafe for crossing. Roads are too rough for waggons, and they are too bare for sleds: so that even those people who are not obliged to cross the river, can't get to town. But the waggons attending the present weather, that when the first snows came on, farmers butchered their hogs and their fat cattle, and killed the poultry, geese and turkey, laying them by till the market rose. But the soft weather coming on, hundreds of pairs of chickens, of turkeys, etc., have been spoiled. Everything in its season assuredly is the most desirable.

STAR BRIEFS.

Hay is selling at $7 per ton.

Caribou are reported as being very thick at the head of the Big Clearwater branch of the S. W. Miramichi.

The skating rink is to be opened on the 22nd inst. Mr. J. Estey has made every provision for the comfort of his patrons.

Rev. Mr. Mowatt of Windsor, N. S., has accepted the call of St. Paul's Church in this city. The Rev. gentleman is distinguished for his scholarly attainments and is said to be a very forcible speaker.

When you see a young man with his trousers tucked into his boots, belt with powder flask and shot pouch attached encircling his manly form and a big double-barrelled shotgun over his shoulder, it doesn't follow that he will bring home a bag of game unless he runs across a couple of boys who have snared and tied their own to pecuniary inducement.

NEW BRUNSWICK SCENERY.

Our citizens who had been looking forward during the last two weeks to the grand intellectual treat that had been promised them, assembled on Tuesday evening at the City Hall in goodly numbers. The subject was one of great interest to all present, the views were well selected and artistically colored. The remarkable distinctness of the views was the subject of general comment, and certainly reflected much credit upon the artist, Mr. George T. Taylor. Mr. Jack commenced by describing the discovery of New Brunswick by De Monts and Champlain and the subsequent reticence of the Maritime Provinces by the French through many years of almost victory and defeat, until the fall of Louisburg in 1758. Five years later, Israel Perley was despatched from Massachusetts to explore the St. John River. On his report, 200 families emigrated to Margueriteville, thus forming the first permanent settlement in this Province.

After a few general remarks upon ensuing events, portraits were shown of Henry IV. of Navarre and the great explorer Champlain. An copy of New Brunswick, printed by direction of Sir Robert-General Adams, showing all the railroads of the Province (including the Grand Southern), and the area (in black) of what is known as the "coal formation," taking up apparently about one-third of the whole Province, composed of the lower portion of York County and embracing all the eastern Counties, was then shown upon the canvas.

The lecturer paid a compliment to the skill of the draughtsman, Mr. Logie, and went on to describe the coal formation, supplying information concerning this part of the province, that was appreciated by the audience. "The coal of this district," said Mr. Jack, "is generally poor and hungry, and utterly unfit for agricultural uses and any one who wants to get an idea of the unproductive nature of the land need but drive a few miles out of the Richibucto road to Carlo Settlement, where, I am informed, 100 acres of cleared land were lately bought for $20. I, myself, some time since, bought 500 acres on the coal formation for $20. I would be very glad to swap back. The location of the Intercolonial Railway, through the most sterile parts of the province, is such to be regretted. It would have been much better for Northumberland, for the North, and for the province generally, if the Intercolonial had come down the valley of the St. John, gone up the valley of the Nashuak, and down the S. W. Miramichi, to Chatham, along the shore of the Gulf through Richibucto, Bouchette and Cocagne to Shediac. Had this been done, $135,000, the cost of the Richibucto branch - 1,000,000 acres of the best land in the province, granted to the N. B. R. - would have been saved. (He might have added, said the Northumberland lumberman, $200 extra stumpage which they will have to pay to the N. B. R.)

The views of Passamaquoddy Bay were very good, and Mr. Jack waxed graphic in his description of the raids and massacres which took place there in the earlier part of the 18th century.

Those of St. Andrews, Indian Point and vicinity, showing among other buildings the New Hotel, and in fact all of the views which were shown evinced careful selection and artistic taste on the part of Mr. Taylor.

Several representations of the Grand Falls, from various standpoints, were exhibited, and the audience testified their appreciation thereof by frequent applause.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

The Herald correspondent of A North Shore paper writes: "I. W. Crocker, Esq., has his icehouse removed on Clamton Point, Fox Island, N. B. Mr. Wm. Sinclair of Chatham has been down to Fox Island repairing the Light Keeper's house at the head of Fox Island, which was badly wrecked by the great storm of the 25th October."

The New Settlement that was surveyed last season by surveyor Crocker for settlement under the Free Grants Act is progressing well. Several building contracts for lots in the Settlement are on foot, and Mr. Jonathan N. Able is the Commissioner.

Miss Russell of Douglas-town has charge of the school in No. 3 District in this Parish.

The Moncton Times' editor has started in the Stationery business beside his paper bag and newspaper enterprises. He also runs a magistrates office.

The Academy at Hillsdale, King's County, is again open and progressing favorably under the management of our very efficient teacher, Wellington H. Jenkins, of Waterville, Queens County.

OUR EUROPEAN LETTER.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

LONDON, ENG., Nov. 25, 1879. That the invigorating air of Scotland has proved beneficial to the Empress Eugenia, morally and physically, is evident from the fact that Her Majesty, less assailed by grief, has been sending to a number of her more devoted friends, portraits of the lamented Prince Imperial, the last taken of him at Natal. I have seen some, to which are appended, in the Empress's own hand, the lines "Souvenir du 1er Juin, 1879, Eugenia." It is reported that Her Majesty has formed a resolution which is much regretted by her friends, and that is to make a pilgrimage to South Africa, for the purpose of visiting the spot and kneeling on the soil that drank the life-blood of her son.

This desire is not so unnatural as it is unreasonable. All great passions are unreasonable. Grief, love, and joy, inspire actions that are not always wise or prudent. The length of the voyage, the inclemency of the climate, and the roughness of travel in the wild Zululand would only open the wounded heart to a more intense grief, and religiously deposited it in the sacred vault at Chislehurst, before who flowers are daily laid and prayers offered, it would seem that nothing more could be done to assuage a mother's grief, and the only duty left is to wait in patience for the approaching meeting, which hope promises in the Land of the Hereafter. But with a supreme affection it is useless to reason. Let nature will have its course. The river of sorrow must flow on until lost in the ocean of eternity.

"When a raging fever burns, We shift from side to side by turns, 'Tis but a poor relief we gain, To change the place and keep the pain."

The malignant pests of society called "society papers" have been taught a severe lesson by the prosecution in London for the libel of Mrs. Langtry and Mrs. West. Such vapors of the press live on scandal as trout live on poison, and what they cannot find they invent. It was formally and circumstantially announced some weeks ago by a London weekly publication that the husbands of the above named had commenced actions for divorce, naming several co-respondents, among others H. R. H. the Prince of Wales. There is not a shadow of truth in this calumnious report, as has been proven by the trials. Yet newspapers, both in Europe and America, presuming the report to be correct, have published the libel, with severe comments on the characters of all the parties implicated or alluded to. It is high time that these professional slanderers, who manage to get control of type, should be brought up with a round turn. The managers of these so-called "society papers" are invariably the p rials of society, who have not the slightest personal knowledge of the distinguished men and women whose names they so flippantly use and vilify. The vices they impute to others are catches from their own "inner consciousness," and, judging their superiors by themselves and their own vile associates, they can only at tribute rotteness and corruption to the higher classes. "Good name in man or woman," says Shakespeare, "is the immediate jewel of the soul," and these libellers in ink seem to have no other object but to rob eminent men and beautiful women of that priceless jewel.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE BIBLE - OPINION OF THE LATE Hon. D'ARCY MCGEE. - In his eloquent lecture on the "Mental Outfit of the New Dominion," the late Hon. D'Arcy McGee paid the following noble tribute to the value of the Bible: - "There is no cure for a defective or diseased imagination, the Book of books itself - the Bible. I do not speak of its percepts as a duty incumbent on all Christians; it is not my place to inculcate religious duties; but I speak of it here as a family book mainly; and I say that it is well for our New Dominion that within the reach of everyone who has learned to read, lies this one Book, the rarest and most unequalled as to matter, the cheapest of books, as to cost, the most readable as to arrangement. If we wish our younger generation to catch the inspiration of the highest eloquence, where else will they find it? If we wish to teach them lessons of patriotism, can we show it to their under nobler forms than in that of the maiden deliverer who smote the tyrant in the valley? or in the cries of Judas as he poured the foreign king his wine at Susa? or in the sublime beyond the solace of song, which bowed down the exiles by the waters of Babylon? Every species of composition, and the highest kind in each species, is found in these two Testaments. We have the epic of Job; the lute of Isaiah; the elegies of Jeremiah; the sermons of the greater or lesser prophets; the legislation of Moses; the parables of the gospel; the travels of St. Paul; the first chapters of the history of the Church. Not only as the spiritual and intellectual reading, but as the highest of histories, the truest of philosophies, and the most eloquent utterances of human organs, the Bible should be read for the young and by the young at all convenient seasons."

Mr. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. REV. SYLVANUS COBB thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman: - "We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good - particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing, with children, by giving an infant freedom from the absolute quiet sleep, and the parents unbroken past at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as 'bright as a button.' And during the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething stage, on and consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle. Dec. 6 - 17

A LAW

In further addition to "A Law to Protect the Public Health and to Prevent Nuisances." [L. S. Copy.] GEO. F. GREGORY, Mayor. BE it enacted by the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Fredericton as follows: - No person shall, without permission from the Mayor or from the Road Surveyor, put or place, or cause or allow to be put or placed in, over or upon any of the open ditches or watercourses within the limits of the City of Fredericton, whether on private property, or where the same crosses any of the Public Streets or Highways, any manure, nightsoil, dirt, offal, or any rotten or offensive substance, or any broken glass, stone, bricks, rubbish, iron, bark, timber, lumber, slabs, or anything whatsoever, or any building or erection tending in any degree to impede the flow of the water, under a penalty not exceeding TWENTY DOLLARS, nor less than FIVE DOLLARS for each and every offence; and in case the owner of any such article, offensive substance, erection or impediment, or the person who may have so placed the same as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to remove the same forthwith, when directed so to do by the Road Surveyor, or any Peace Officer of the City, every person so offending shall for each and every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of FIVE DOLLARS, and in case of neglect or refusal to comply with such order as aforesaid, or in case the offender cannot at any time be found, it shall be the duty of the Road Surveyor or other officer to be appointed for that purpose, forthwith to remove or destroy the same, or to sell the same, as he may deem advisable; and the expense of such removal or destruction, shall be paid in addition to the penalty hereby imposed, by the owner or person neglecting or refusing to remove the same. Passed and enacted this 2nd day of December, A. D. 1879. (Signed) CHAS. W. BECKWITH, City Clerk.

Up to the 5th, 170 arrests had been made in Moscouville and neighbourhood, for supposed connection with the attempt upon the life of the Czar.

The destruction of dams on nearly all the principal rivers in Hungary and Transylvania and terrible inundations are again filling the public with anxiety and it is feared that Gross Warden and several villages around that city would share the fate of Zegedin. Several towns in Transylvania were partly inundated on Monday, and, as in Gross Warden, a great number of houses fell. So suddenly came the flood that hardly any preventive measures had been taken and great damage to property is reported, but no loss of life. The continuance of trust alone prevents disasters.

The value of land in Ireland is so depreciated at this moment, says London Family Fair, that the Lawless Estates Court, last week, adjudged, in regard to the estate of an estate in Roscommon, for which no higher offer could be obtained than fourteen year's purchase. There were no fewer than seven estates for sale that day (Nov. 7), but only four were sold. For two of these there was absolutely no bidding.

Telegraphic News.

IRELAND.

DUBLIN, Dec. 11. Mr. Bond, reporter of the Express, was hanged in effigy by a mob at Castlebar on Monday night, and his life is threatened. On his way from the Court House he received an escort of 4 constables to protect him from violence. He incurred this danger by denouncing the movement of the agitators with vigor. The leniency of the court to Brennan one of the agitators is said to be due to a visit made by Parrell to Dublin Castle. Brennan has been admitted to bail for $800, and was allowed during his trial to go to his hotel with one escort. Mr. O'Malley defended Brennan, and compared the present movement to that at Rannymede when the Barons rose against John.

RUSSIA.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 10. Another number of a revolutionary journal, entitled The Will of the People, has been distributed among the people. It was printed subsequently to the recent court martial and contains comments on the trial of the Nihilist Mirsky.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED

IS A FACT ATTESTED BY THE HIGHEST MEDICAL AUTHORITIES IN THE WORLD.

A careful observation of the laws of health, and the systematic and persistent use of Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda will accomplish this result. This preparation has all the virtues of these two most valuable remedies, in form perfectly palatable, and agreeable to the most delicate stomach, and we make the unqualified statement, that Scott's Emulsion is being used with better results and endorsed and prescribed by more physicians for Consumption and the diseases leading to it, such as Coughs, Bronchitis, Scrophula, Anæmia, General Debility and the wasting Disorders of Children, than any other remedy known to medical science. The rapidity with which patients improve on this food medicine diet is truly marvellous.

See What Physicians and the People Say About It.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne: 66 West Thirty-sixth Street, New York, September 3, 1876.
GENTS,—I have frequently prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites during the past year, and regard it as a valuable preparation in scrophulous and consumptive cases, palatable and efficacious.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—Gentlemen,—Within the last year I have used in my own family, and in my private practice prescribed very extensively Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites and found it a most valuable preparation, especially in cases of children. It is agreeable to the most delicate stomach, which renders it a very reliable agent as a nutritive remedy in consumptive and scrophulous cases.
Oct. 12, 1879. Yours respectfully, A. H. SUTTON, M. D., Baltimore.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—Gentlemen,—Within the last two months I have fairly tried Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, and I candidly declare that it is the finest preparation of the kind I have ever seen brought to my notice; in cases of the lungs and other wasting diseases, we can consider it our most reliable agent, in a perfectly agreeable and elegant form.
December 20th, 1878. Yours truly, J. SIMONAU, M. D., New Orleans, La.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—Gentlemen,—In September, 1877, my health began to fail and my physician pronounced it spinal trouble; under his care I got some relief from pain, but my general health did not improve, and early in the winter I began to raise blood and rapidly grew worse. In May last I was taken with a violent bleeding which brought me to my bed and my life was despaired of for many weeks; violent symptoms appeared, night and morning cough, night sweats and short breath, and a return of the spinal trouble. My physician stopped the bleeding and then ordered Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites, but they did me no good. I had all hopes of it and was an object of pity to all my friends. Last September I purchased a bottle of your Emulsion and before it was all taken I was better. I afterwards bought a dozen bottles, with the following results: Coughs subsiding, night sweats stopped, appetite returned, pain in spine disappeared, strength returning, and my weight increased from 118 to 140 pounds in sixteen weeks. I have taken no other medicine since commencing with your Emulsion and shall continue its use until I am perfectly well. I frequently recommend your medicine to my friends, and say to them, "What cure you?" and I answer, "See my bottle of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites." I have a friend who has not spoken aloud for 15 months, and he is getting better. I gave him a bottle and he coughed two more, then got a dozen, and says it is food and medicine for him. He was given up to die a year ago, but he is improving now wonderfully. My recovery is exciting the surprise of many people, and shall do all I can to make known your valuable medicine.
January 20th, 1879. Very truly yours, H. F. SLOCUM, Lowell, Mass.

Messrs. Scott & Bowne:—About the 15th of April I got a bottle of your Emulsion and at that time I was so prostrated that no one who saw me thought I could live longer than a few weeks at most. I could retain nothing on my stomach and was literally starving. I commenced the use of the Emulsion in small doses; it was the first thing that would stay on my stomach; I continued its use, gradually increasing the dose; and from that hour I commenced mending, and now am able to ride and walk, and am gaining flesh and strength rapidly. I have advised other parties to try it, and some two or three have already done so. I am sure I shall entirely recover.
I am gratefully yours, R. W. HAMILTON, M. D.
