While the control of the galaxy and the control of the galaxy are the con terror to the hearts of superstitious rivermen. While coming down from the Snow Rapids, with a tow last Monday morning, and while off Blackwell's I., the crew of the "Levi Young" noticed a huge serpent swimming ahead of the boat. Mr. John Dungan, chief engineer, and a deck hand named Shaw, jumped into a bun and started in pursuit of the reptile. They succeeded in getting within striking distance of the serpent, when Mr. Dungan struck it a blow over the head with his oar. The beast then turned and made for the occupants of the boat, literally churning the water with his tail in his fury. Another powerful and well directed blow with an oar on the neck of the serpent laid it outdead, when it was taken in tow and brought aboard the steamer.
