

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

LONG DALHOUSIE is now spoken of as the successor of the Marquis of Lorne. Next!

Mr. M. P. HOGAN's letter, from Baltimore, has been received, and will appear next week.

"On LITTLE OAK" for May, has been received. It is very interesting for the young folks.

Students not receiving their papers regularly, will confer a favor by notifying us to that effect.

His Grace Archbishop O'Brian is expected to arrive here next Monday evening, and will probably remain for several days.

The steamer Worcester sailed from this port for Boston on Thursday last, with a full cargo of produce and 34 passengers.

This regular monthly meeting of the Rev. Fr. H. H. O'Connell will be held in St. Patrick's Hall, to-morrow evening, at 8 o'clock.

The Supplementary Estimates, laid before the House of Commons, contain an appropriation of $300,000 for the Prince Edward Island Railway.

To make room for the very interesting article upon the "Potato Bug," and other matters consequential, we are obliged to hold over several editorial articles.

A serious accident occurred at the Vale Colliery, N. E., on Thursday morning last. By the breaking of the hoisting rope, six men were killed, and five others injured.

We are pleased to place on our exchange list, the Montreal Post, the only daily paper in the Dominion, if not also in the United States, devoted to Irish Catholic interests.

This Commissioner of Public Works is having the fence around the Provincial Building and Law Courts repaired and painted. The grounds also are being put in order.

The workmen employed by the City Surveyor are shoveling away at the sidewalks and crossings, and it is probable that, at the present rate, the work will be well under way by the fall.

In other places it is a breach of the law to throw orange peel upon the pavement. Our sidewalks furnish every facility just now for breaking one's neck, without any extraneous aid.

ALEXANDER CAMPBELL, of Murray Harbor, who was so seriously injured on the Maine Central Railroad, at Bangor, last week, died on Thursday morning last, and his remains were forwarded to his home next day.

HON. W. W. SULLIVAN left yesterday morning for Ottawa. It is hardly necessary, perhaps, to state that the reason assigned yesterday's Patriot for Mr. Sullivan's present visit to the Capital, is wholly incorrect.

Under the proper heading, in another column, will be found the record of most interesting and important events in the lives of some young persons, well known to our citizens. We heartily wish Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, and Mr. and Mrs. Thornburn their full share of health and prosperity.

The steamer Corvair arrived from Boston, at 1 o'clock this afternoon, with a full cargo of freight and the following passengers: R. Ashbury, A. McPhoe, G. A. Woods, Jas. Shaw, M. Salmon, D. O'Connell, Miss Mary Penney, Miss McKinnon, Miss Carrie Fisher, Miss Shaw, Mrs. Bradley, Miss Lizzie E. Davis, Miss Luff. She will sail to-morrow evening at 5 o'clock.

Among "successful Islanders abroad," may be included Mr. Stephen R. Jenkins, son of Dr. J. T. Jenkins of this city. He has just completed his second year at the University of Pennsylvania, where, in the recent examinations in Anatomy and Physiology, he took the full number of marks, viz., 100 in each subject, and, in Medical Chemistry and Toxicology, 98 out of a possible 100.

SOME days ago, one of the Ladies of the Convent de Notre Dame, in this city, while walking upon one of our rottes, sidewalks, sprained her ankle so severely, that she has since been unable to walk. Had this accident occurred to a member of the accompanying body known as Commercial Travellers, the city would probably be heavily mired in damages, as they were in Haiti's case, but as it happened to a poor Sister, they are not likely to hear of it.

At 1:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, an alarm of fire was rung out for Ward 4, and proved to be for a building in the rear of Mr. Steele's residence, on Grand Street, near the Prince of Wales Colliery. The Engines and Hook & Ladder Co. turned out in full force, but the only fire observed was quickly extinguished by Mr. James Goodman, painter, who, mounting a ladder, extracted the burning shingles from the roof, and blew the blaze out. James should be made an honorary member of the Fire Brigade.

PATRICK DELANEY and Thomas Caffrey, charged with participation in the Phoenix Park murders, have pleaded guilty, and been sentenced to be hanged. Delaney's sentence has been commuted to penal servitude for life, as he had no actual participation in the murder, although present in the Park at the time, through intimidation. Joseph Hanlon, one of the prisoners awaiting trial, turned informer. James Mullett and William Murphy have pleaded guilty to the charge of conspiracy to murder, and Lawrence Hanlon has been found guilty on the same charge, and sentenced to penal servitude for life. Kelly and Fitzgibbon are to be tried again, the latter on another charge. True Bills have been found by the Grand Jury against Sheridan, Walsh, and Tyan (No. 1).

We clip the subjoined notice from the Daily Times of the 17th ult., published at Worcester, Mass. The happy bridegroom was formerly a resident of this city, and has many friends here, who will be pleased to learn that he has taken an important step towards the attainment of complete earthly felicity:

"A very interesting marriage ceremony took place at St. John's church, this afternoon. The contracting parties were Mr. Andrew P. McCarron, a prominent member of the Canadian Literary Association, and Miss Rose A. Quinn, for several years a schoolmistress at the Boston Store. Rev. Thomas Griffin officiated. The bridegroom was Miss Little, and the bride, Miss Quinn. The ceremony was attended by a large number of friends, who were in attendance and wished the happy couple much joy and future success. Mr. and Mrs. McCarron will fly at 11 o'clock to-night. They start on the 7:30 train to-night."

Mr. M. P. HOGAN's letter, from Baltimore, has been received, and will appear next week.

"On LITTLE OAK" for May, has been received. It is very interesting for the young folks.

Students not receiving their papers regularly, will confer a favor by notifying us to that effect.

His Grace Archbishop O'Brian is expected to arrive here next Monday evening, and will probably remain for several days.

ONLY AN IRISH BOY.
THE FORTUNES OF ANDY BURKE.
CHAPTER V.
A FORTUITOUS JOB.
After finishing her work at Colonel Preston's, Mrs. Burke went home. She did not see Mrs. Preston again, for the latter sent her the money for her services by Ellen.

CHAPTER VI.
THE TWO OLD MAIDS.
'Where did you get them, Andy?' she asked, in surprise.
'Where did I get them? One way and another, by my work. We won't starve while they last, will we?'
Andy cheerfully told her his story upon his mother.

CHAPTER VII.
THE DEACON'S DEED.
The deacon looked up.
'Ever worked on a farm?'
'Yes.'
'Can you milk?'
'Yes.'
'Where did you work?'
'In Carver.'
'What's your name?'
'Andy Burke.'

CHAPTER VIII.
THE DEACON'S DEED.
'Ever worked on a farm?'
'Yes.'
'Can you milk?'
'Yes.'
'Where did you work?'
'In Carver.'
'What's your name?'
'Andy Burke.'

CHAPTER IX.
THE DEACON'S DEED.
'Ever worked on a farm?'
'Yes.'
'Can you milk?'
'Yes.'
'Where did you work?'
'In Carver.'
'What's your name?'
'Andy Burke.'

CHAPTER X.
THE DEACON'S DEED.
'Ever worked on a farm?'
'Yes.'
'Can you milk?'
'Yes.'
'Where did you work?'
'In Carver.'
'What's your name?'
'Andy Burke.'

CHAPTER XI.
