The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

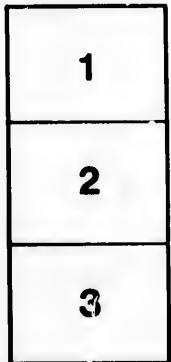

University of Saskatchewan
Saskatoon

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▽ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

University of Saskatchewan
Saskatoon

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▽ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THE TOWN OF WALKERTON.

THE county seat of Bruce, and is situated within the Township of Brant, and on either side, but chiefly on the left bank, of the Saugeen, which at this point runs winding through a pleasant and picturesque valley, formed by a "bottom" of varying width, from the outer edges of which the surface rises, by gentle ascent toward the south-west, till at the average distance of nearly a mile it attains the general level of the surrounding country; while the north-eastern boundary of the valley is formed by an abrupt "break" and almost precipitous ascent, the general lines of which are broken by here and there a gulch, originally a water-course, at irregular intervals, these forming by their presence easy modes of communication with the outside country, and, in their intervals, some of the finest building sites imaginable, the commanding positions of which have been utilized and beautified by the erection of elegant private residences.

The history of the early settlement and subsequent growth of the place is identical with that of a score or more of others—some of which almost rival it in size and extent—in that part of the western peninsula chiefly covered by Bruce County. The first actual settler within its present limits, and the real founder of the place as well, was Joseph Walker, who settled on the lot where Vogan's large mills stand, on the 12th May, 1850. He at once built a mill here on the site of the present grist and flouring mill; and being the first not only in the township, but in a large extent of country surrounding it on every side, this enterprise formed the nucleus of a village whose development was immediate, continuous and rapid. John B. Lundy was the second settler in the place, very soon after Mr. Walker, and kept a little tavern here. He was from Cobourg, Northumberland County, and was a large property owner in this part of the county. The late John Valentine, late wards of Paisley, kept the first store in the place, and it was managed by Malcolm McLean, the ex-taylor and present postmaster. The original load of goods with which this store was opened out was brought on an ox-cart from Toronto via Hamilton, by Robert Clement, a son of one of the very first settlers in Brant; and it required eight days to make the journey from Hamilton, the greater part of the road lying through the forest.

It is not necessary to detail the many little incidents forming part of Walkerton's early history. By common consent, it came to be called after its founder from the time it was nothing more than a collection of log huts nestled in the forest, and the name—than which, under the circumstances, none could be more appropriate—clings and still clings to it through the many transpositions and transformations which have resulted in making it the municipal and political metropolis of this large and magnificent county.

Walkerton was never an incorporated village, but was taken from the Township of Brant and erected into a town by special legislation—the General Act requiring a population of 3,000, whereas its population at the time was 994, and to include this number an area of some 1,400 acres was covered, which has since been increased to 1,500, in order to extend to the railway depot, the nature of the country preventing its near approach to the centre of the place. The town was "proclaimed" immediately after the passage of the Act of Incorporation, at the beginning of the legislative session of 1871, and the first meeting of the new Municipal Council was held March 17th ensuing. Joseph Walker, the founder of the settlement, was chosen first Mayor; Wm. McVicar, first Reeve; and Messrs. Stephen Noxon, David Moore, Hugh Todd, William Shannon, Jas. F. Davis, Wm. Smith, Moses Stewart, Louis Wisser and Paul Ross, Councillors. Walter Langmuir Watt was the first Clerk and Treasurer, and John Blair the first Collector. The chief municipal offices have been filled since incorporation as follows:— Paul Ross was Mayor in 1872; James G. Cooper, 1873-4; A. Shaw, 1875; A. Sproat, 1876; Paul Ross, 1877-8; Malcolm McLean, 1879; H. P. O'Connor, 1880-1; David Moore, 1882; A. B. Klein, 1883-4; Andrew McLean, 1885; C. W. Stovel, 1886-7; R. E. Truax, 1888-9; David Robertson, 1890-1; William Richardson, 1892-3; Hugh Birss, 1894-5; John Standish, 1896; A. Menzies, 1897-8; M. Stalker, M.D., 1899-1900. The first Deputy-Reeve was E. McDonald in 1878.

The town has grown to be a fine manufacturing, business and educational centre. The American Rattan Co., The Sieding Furniture Co., Rife's clothing factory, R. Truax & Co., and others, each employ a large number of hands. The mercantile establishments of the town have long been noted as the finest in the country north of Toronto. The late Thos. Whitehead developed a business that equalled a city departmental store. A splendid system of education was early established, and has since held its ground in the front ranks of the province. Its High School is especially noted for excellence.

The press is fully and ably represented in the municipal capital by three widely circulated and well conducted weekly newspapers. The Bruce Herald, a Conservative newspaper, is the oldest; established in 1861 by Mr. Cox. After him came Mr. Wm. Brown, at present of Vancouver, B. C., then Kribbs & Wesley, and subsequently Mr. W. R. Telford for many years Principal of the Wilkerten Public School. L. H. McNamara, the present proprietor, assumed the management of the paper in August 1899. The Telescope was established in 1869, and Die Glocke, a German newspaper, was also started in 1869, by John Klein, who in 1875 sold out to Eby & Rittinger, and in 1878 Mr. Rittinger purchased Mr. Eby's interests, by whom it has since been conducted.
