Hale by 50; Dunlop Last Estimates On 70-Day's Great Battle at the Polls

Result a Sporting Proposition With Chances Slightly in Favor of Conservatives.

Pembroke, Dec. 25.—(Special)—Christmas Day, the day before election, was a wild and riotous festival. It was the busy day of the candidate. Many of the electorate reached high points of exhilaration, but the responsibility of voting will sober them to-morrow.

Mackie Lakewarm. The rumor gained currency late today that Thomas Mackie, M.P., was not pushing Hale's cause as strongly as he would were it his own. He has done no rural campaigning, but has merely spent a few hours daily in the Copeland House chatting with old friends. The reason given for his lukewarmness is that he would prefer to see Dunlop beat Hale, for that even a formidable opponent would be removed from the Federal field, in which Thomas has no desire to be beaten.

May Usenet Predictions. So much has been revealed regarding the machine that the prediction of success must all be taken under this shadow. The machine is here in this town, and is in every polling sub-division in the riding. That is an incontrovertible fact. That its presence is in the interest of an honest election no one believes. What it may do to the machine is evident. The electors, most of them, expect to be bought, and take no pains to conceal the fact. A man from Douglas today approached Nicholas Jeffrey, a Liberal orator, and after declaring he was an independent elector, said he was in the market for $50. Whichever side bought him could have his vote. He is not an isolated case. With such conditions, predictions are not to be depended on. As for the machine such a condition is what it thrives on. And if any wonder when they foregather in their rooms in the Copeland House that they sing around the chink of champagne glasses.

Gamey Will Be There. Gamey is in Ottawa today. He spoke at Grandview and at the Douglas side of the ride before. At Douglas a crowd of Liberal voters went down from Pembroke and for half an hour a Liberal gathering tried to prevent his getting a hearing. Gamey handled the crowd and in a short time had his station till the close of his speech. The organized obstruction is frowned down by the men of Douglas, one of whom, George Herrick, said to the World today: "I believe in giving a man a fair show no matter what his politics are." Gamey will return to Pembroke on Monday morning to aid in getting up the voters.

Stump's Leave the Field. Merritt Whitney, Roy and Hanna led the riding early this morning. Only A. G. McKay, so far, has been in the campaign. He is left to the Vance, Adams, Sutherland and Mackie to put the final touches on the campaign.

Prepared for the Day. Both sides are prepared for the morning. By law each candidate is allowed two representatives in each polling booth, a scrutineer and a legal agent. It is believed that the Liberal scrutineer and the poll clerk and a constable, with the precincts of the booth, will be maintained. A score of Conservative members of the legislature reached the riding today to assist in the safeguarding of the ballot. Some have come to Pembroke and will be distributed north from here. Those who go into the southern part of the riding got off at Carleton Place, where Col. Leavitt will direct them. With them came a dozen or more Conservative lawyers from Ottawa to the part of the riding which will lead to the street and conviction of any person or persons employed in making use of or endeavoring to circulate or deposit, or have deposited, any ballot or ballots other than the individual voters' own official ballot received from the poll and the deputy returning officers are unknown to the voters, that it will be an easy matter to have members of the machine at the polls. This circumstance is worrying them. The circulating of bogus ballots is also feared.

How Reward Offered. The following circular has been scattered broadcast by the Conservatives: "Five hundred dollars reward. The above amount will be paid for information which will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons employed in making use of or endeavoring to circulate or deposit, or have deposited, any ballot or ballots other than the individual voters' own official ballot received from the poll and the deputy returning officers are unknown to the voters, that it will be an easy matter to have members of the machine at the polls. This circumstance is worrying them. The circulating of bogus ballots is also feared."

BOTH CONFIDENT. E. A. Dunlop: "I can't see how they can beat us. I have been over the whole riding and I have met everybody. Our men are standing by us to a man. Those Liberals who joined our forces are still with us, and the whole question now is getting the vote out and managing the polling booths. There is no doubt about it, Gamey has done great service in this contest. The refusal of Stratton to meet me on nomination day had a disheartening effect on the Liberals, and they haven't got over it yet. You may tell your readers that the Conservatives will win to-morrow unless the machine deliberately steals the riding, and with the precautions we have taken I can't see how that is possible."

J. Lorne Hale: "I feel sure I will win. I have not been over the whole riding, but it has been covered by my workers, who bring me reassuring reports. I don't think Gamey has done the Conservatives any good. He has made the political tension more taut and has forced many disgruntled Liberals into line. I expect to be member for North Renfrew with a majority of 150."

St. Petersburg, Dec. 25.—The Russian government is still considering the reply of the Japanese government to its note, which was sent in answer to Japan's relative to the situation in the Far East. A reconsideration of the proposals made in the Russian note is considered as a matter of course here. Russia has never been disposed to take any step which would lead to an abrupt termination of the negotiations with Japan.

London, Dec. 25.—The Daily Mail's Tokyo correspondent says it is reported that the note of Baron Komura, Minister of Foreign Affairs to Baron Rosen, the Russian Minister, in response to Russia's reply to the claims of Japan, had a paragraph to the effect that only two weeks would be allowed for an answer. HUGE WAVE HIT THE SHIP PANIC AMONG PASSENGERS

Memories, Thrown on Her Beam Ends, Rolled Five Days in Trough of Sea.

New York, Dec. 25.—A number of the passengers who were on the Atlantic transport Memories, bound for this port, when she was struck by a hurricane Dec. 7 and disabled so that she drifted at the mercy of the storm for five days, arrived here to-day on the Cedric. They told a thrilling story of their experience.

When the ship righted it was found that her rudder-post had been snapped off, leaving the steering gear disabled and the ship unmanageable. One sailor was caught in the backwash of the wave and dashed against the bulwarks, receiving injuries from which he died an hour later. Three other seamen were seriously injured by the waves, which broke over the ship while they were trying to make repairs to the shattered steering gear. Because of the extreme cold it became necessary to lock the passengers in the cabin. Oil was used to still the waves, but with little effect. For five days the ship rolled in the trough of the sea, Capt Lucas and his officers remaining on the bridge night and day without sleep. Finally, at noon on the fifth day a temporary steering gear was rigged and the ship limped back to Falmouth, where the passengers were sent to Liverpool, and such of them as chose were sent to New York on the Cedric.

Paris, Dec. 25.—The Romp correspondent of The Figaro maintains the accuracy of the statement that the Curia has received from Cardinal Gottl, president of the Congregation of the Propaganda, several millions of dollars, which were held back at the request of the late Pope Leo. The correspondent adds that the money had been invested and that Cardinal Gottl simply transferred to Pope Pius a memorandum of the investments without, however, handing to him the actual securities. It is pointed out that the official denial only cover this latter point.

FALL RESTORED MEMORY AFTER LAPSE OF MONTHS

Rice Planter Reveals a Remarkable Case of Dual Personality.

Quincy, Ill., Dec. 25.—A marvelous case of dual personality has been disclosed since the arrival here last Friday of Charles Du Bois, who is twenty-eight years old and whose family home is in Gibson City, Ill. He became, five months ago, another man for several months until the memory of his previous life came to him suddenly while he was acting as a common seaman on a ship. The story of his experience is supported by plenty of evidence.

Du Bois went to Louisiana seven years ago to work on a rice plantation. Five years later he and another young man, named Albert Carlisle, agreed to run a rice plantation on shares near Gueydan, La. One Sunday morning in June, 1902, Du Bois says he got in his buggy to go to church in Gueydan. While on the way he suddenly dropped out of existence so far as his memory of his former career returned. He was four hundred miles from the United States coast and was on the full rigged sailing ship Endymion, bound for Diego, Surin, Madagascar. The vessel was flying the Russian flag, but Swedish was mostly spoken on board. The captain's name was Peterson.

When Du Bois recovered his former self a storm was raging and the right side of his jaw was aching him. A lurch of the ship had sent him sprawling on the deck. The shock of the fall had caused him to regain the memory of his career, but at the same time he was bewildered by his strange surroundings and by finding himself a seaman.

He was attempting to collect his thoughts when the mate of the ship ordered him to make fast the sails; but the work seemed so new to him that he required instructions. Every task which he was ordered to perform subsequently was strange to him, and he was informed that his strange surroundings and work were entirely new to him in his other personality.

Du Bois had gone aboard the Endymion at Pensacola, Fla., on the afternoon of Aug. 18, 1902, with a German, a Frenchman and two negroes, had signed as sailors before the mast. Du Bois found his own signature on the ship's book, but he had not the slightest recollection of having penned it.

The mate also told Du Bois that the latter had acted in a peculiar manner, but that it had occasioned not much comment. The Endymion after discharging her cargo at the Madagascar port went to the Island of Reunion and next to Bangoon, British Burma, and finally, after several delays and trying experiences, dropped anchor in the harbor of Leith, Scotland, on Dec. 1st.

Hastened Home. Du Bois says he was paid $145 and he made haste to return to his home in Illinois. He reached New York Dec. 14 and last Friday arrived here, where his sister, Mrs. R. O. Beadles, lives. He had written to her from Madagascar and had told her of his remarkable experience.

The only clue that Du Bois has regarding his whereabouts between that Sunday in June, 1902, when he started for church in Louisiana, and Aug. 18, 1902, when he was on the Endymion was the information given to him by the German who shipped as seaman with him at Pensacola. The German told Du Bois that he first saw the latter working on a fishing smack, while he, the German, was on another smack. They met and became friends soon after.

The only other experience that Du Bois ever had in the way of his memory leaving him was a couple of weeks before the date of his long disappearance. He says he was in Gueydan, La., and then all was blank until he found himself on a pier in Gueydan, Texas.

Costello, then assistant division superintendent in the London office, now superintendent of the western division, with headquarters at Grand Rapids, Mr. Costello was a passenger on the express that fatal night and emerged with scarcely a shaking up from the wreck. It was through his able administration that many of the wounded were rescued before they perished of cold and it was his executive work that reduced the terrors of that night to the several scores of men, women and children before they could be taken back to London. His promotion is one of the pleasant features of the year.

HEBREW'S CHRISTMAS SHARE IN SOCIAL JOY

New York Sun: There was a wedding last night in one of the synagogues that dot the lower East Side by hundreds. The crowd was just leaving the place when the conversation was overheard between a young man and a young woman who carried on the sidewalk to exchange a handshake and a greeting: "Merry Christmas," said the young man. "Same to you, and many of them," replied the girl, smiling. The young man caught the smile and reflected it. Then he grew suddenly earnest. "It is a reassuring tone and with a roughish look. 'And I'm sure neither of us meant anything wrong.'"

These two were not the only ones of their faith who, notwithstanding their but not unwillingly, employed the phraseology of the season. The phenomenon has long ago been observed in England and the Scandinavian kingdoms, where the social and political position of those who profess the Hebrew faith is equal to that of the Christian; but elsewhere on such a scale as here in America, and especially in this city.

Jewish leaders are well aware of these facts, and are worried by them. They feel that religion and religious feeling are wholly apart from the matter. The Jews of New York, living in peace and understanding with their Christian neighbors, are adopting Christmas as a social festival, just as they have adopted Poughkeepsie and Thanksgiving Day. This year the Jewish feast of Chanukkah, which commemorates the struggles and triumphs of the Maccabees and which is observed in pretty much the same spirit of cheer and mutual felicitation that characterizes the Christian feast, occurs almost simultaneously with the latter.

A DOLLAR DRAFT EVERY BOTTLE!

Professor Marvell's Honest Plan to Have His Remedy in the Hands of Every Man and Woman in Canada Who Suffers From CATARRH

RECOGNIZES THE FACT THAT SCORES OF SUFFERERS OUTSIDE OF TORONTO CANNOT AVAIL THEMSELVES OF FREE TRIAL TREATMENT AT OFFICES.

A BONA-FIDE DOLLAR DRAFT IS ENCLOSED WITH EACH BOTTLE OF THE REMEDY, AND THE BUYER IS INVITED, IN PLAIN LANGUAGE, TO FILL IN HIS NAME AND PRESENT IT FOR PAYMENT AT ANY BANK SHOULD THE TREATMENT NOT PROVE SATISFACTORY.

Professor Marvell is nothing if not original. With his originality he also practices with his originality. He is the discoverer of an entirely new method of treatment for Catarrh. He dispenses with the old fogey inhalers, blowers, atomizers, snuffs, powders and noxious stomach nostrums. None of these are used in his principle of cure. He believes all these nostrums are a waste of money and proves it by testimony from the people who have used his new system of treatment. Professor Marvell says: "The people who suffer from this loathsome disease have been living in a kind of natural faith, a natural hope and expectation that, some day, if they lived to see it, some new method of treatment would be discovered, and the end of the old systems would come suddenly. And it has come. Marvell's method of treatment for Catarrh is as far ahead of the old systems as the electric car over the tallies dip, or the electric car over the old stage coach. The hope of thousands of victims of this ever increasing and loathsome malady has come at last. It has set the people of Toronto talking as never before. Hundreds of men and women who had failed to secure benefit under the old fogey nostrums have crowded Marvell's offices from the first day of opening. They have taken the remedy home to be given to their loved ones and have come back to praise it, as honest men and women should praise a meritorious article after benefits received. This testimony is on file in Marvell's offices. The names and addresses of a score of people who say they have been cured of Catarrh of the Head, of the Throat, of the Stomach, of Deafness, of Head Noises and Asthma. Marvell had it! Show what his remedy would do. Know that if he could get the people of Toronto to try it, it meant the death knell to the old-fashioned nostrums that for half a century have been foisted upon a suffering people.

HOW TO OBTAIN THE REMEDY WITHOUT RISK. Hundreds of letters have reached Marvell's offices from all parts of Canada, requesting a trial treatment. To supply this enormous demand would indeed tax the capacity of any concern. In fact, the excessive charges to all parts of the country make it utterly impossible to comply with these requests. But something MUST BE DONE. The thousands of sufferers must have the remedy. They MUST BE CURED. The grand army of sufferers must have the system of cure must be increased, until the whole country-side rings with praise and benedictions.

WHAT MARVELL WILL DO. To make assurance doubly sure, to give every man and woman in Canada (outside of Toronto), who cannot call at Marvell's offices, an opportunity to test the remedy, Marvell has decided to make the following offer: With every dollar enclosed for a dollar bottle of MARVELL'S CATARRH CURE, a bona-fide dollar draft, signed by the Marvell Remedy Company of Toronto, will be sent with each bottle. The draft will be made payable at any bank you may designate in your letter, and five (5) full days' time given you to test the remedy and make up your mind whether you desire to keep it or not. Two days will be allowed for the remedy to reach you (not included in draft); five full days are given you to decide. If in that time you are not convinced that the remedy is all that you desire, you are requested to fill in your name and present draft to your nearest bank for collection. Every draft returned WILL BE PAID AND NO QUESTIONS ASKED. This is Marvell's method of helping you get cured. Could anything be more fair? Could you ask more? Could you desire more? Marvell has faith in his remedy, has confidence in the public. Those who earnestly desire a cure should not hesitate a moment. Remember, there are no restrictions. No stipulations other than here stated. All is in your own hands. Address all correspondence: MARVELL REMEDY CO., 36 YONGE STREET ARCADE, TORONTO, CAN.

MARVELL'S WARNING!—Beware of so-called Catarrh Cures, containing powerful drugs, such as cocaine, opium and morphine. Marvell's Catarrh Cure is positively free from any of the above named drugs. So safe that the smallest child can use it without danger. Does not irritate, but, on the contrary, soothes and heals the inflamed tubes and passages.

GLAD IT'S BUT ONCE A YEAR.

Baggage and Mail Rush at Station Was Hard to Handle. The baggage men around the Union Station had to keep close to the steam registers yesterday to keep warm, the first time for nearly two weeks, for the exertion necessary in throwing around large piles of Christmas goods would be put under a man's arms speaking to the World last night, re-ferred to the side of the baggage traffic yesterday.

Even the mails, he said, "are only about a sixth the size of what has been shipped every day. The mail from the Northwest was so small that it could almost be put under a man's arms for the last week a half a dozen bags would come in." In the Customs department, the slack in the Customs Office, Lloyd said that he had been working a great deal of overtime during the Christmas season, and that he was given extra men to handle the baggage, but during the short time of the Christmas season he was forced to handle the Customs Department with the aid of two baggage men. "Then is the time when the person who winds up the season with a dozen bands of thin rope is discarded greatly to his disadvantage."

There is great depression in business circles as the result of the constant disturbance of the financial situation. The financial condition of the government is bad, owing to the fact that the duties levied on imports in aid of the government of President Wey have been suspended.

Hamilton, Dec. 25.—(Special.)—$25,000 blaze broke out in the planning mill and saw and door factory of David Aitchison & Co. this evening about 8 o'clock and raged for three hours. The mill was completely destroyed, with a large finished stock and valuable machinery. The fire was confined to the planning mill, which joins the box factory of the company, from which it was separated by only a stone wall. The loss from water was estimated at $15,000 and $20,000 insurance, which would not cover it. About 35 men are employed by the company, which will rebuild at once.

Because He Did Not Get Enough, Boy Shot Aged and Const. Chicago, Dec. 25.—William Kaufmann, nephew of George Kaufmann, shot and fatally injured his cousin, Ross Kaufmann, and wounded his aunt, Mrs. Rega Kaufmann, in a quarrel over Christmas presents. He made his escape and has not been arrested.

FUGITIVE KILLED.

San Francisco, Dec. 25.—Muldron McDonald, a well-known colored pugilist, was shot and killed this afternoon by W. H. Atkins, also colored. The shooting was the result of an attempt upon the part of McDonald, to steal the sum of $125 from a card table.

Professor Marvell is nothing if not original. With his originality he also practices with his originality. He is the discoverer of an entirely new method of treatment for Catarrh. He dispenses with the old fogey inhalers, blowers, atomizers, snuffs, powders and noxious stomach nostrums. None of these are used in his principle of cure. He believes all these nostrums are a waste of money and proves it by testimony from the people who have used his new system of treatment. Professor Marvell says: "The people who suffer from this loathsome disease have been living in a kind of natural faith, a natural hope and expectation that, some day, if they lived to see it, some new method of treatment would be discovered, and the end of the old systems would come suddenly. And it has come. Marvell's method of treatment for Catarrh is as far ahead of the old systems as the electric car over the tallies dip, or the electric car over the old stage coach. CHRISTMAS DAY WAS QUIET

HOME AND ATTRACTIONS

Church Services, Theatres and Outdoor Recreation Supplemented Indoor Family Festivities.

Christmas has come and gone, and is now as far away as ever again. In Toronto the observance was quiet, so far as the streets and public places were concerned. In other years, the evening has had one or more Mayoralty campaigns, meetings to live things up, but even this chance of excitement was denied to those who take an interest in them.

The day was all that could be desired, except, of course, that sleeping would have aided many to further enjoyment. But there was skating, and the rink, the Don River and even the bay had their crowds. The theatres did a good Christmas business. Christmas is essentially the day of the home, the day of family reunions, when little social parties and entertainments while away the hours, the elders subordinating their own inclinations and delights to satisfy and please the youngsters. Christmas is the day when papa's mind and heart, invades back to his own childhood days, perhaps they were spent on the farm; and he recalls the stockings hung in the big kitchen, the restless night, and then, in the morning, the scampers down stairs to see what Santa had brought, and the unalloyed delight that "what he found an orange, a few nuts and raisins, a half pound of so, or cheap candy, a pair of warm woolen gloves and neckerchiefs; also a Christmas card with its field of snow, two or three prim looking fir trees, a very original and imposing setting up, a thatched cottage and a purple cow or two being driven backwards, then he contrasts the wealth of delicacies and presents that have come down the chimney to his little ones. Verily, it was not like the days of old. And even Christmas was just as happy to him, then, as it ever can be to him now.

The church services were well attended. The Metropolitan Church observed Christmas with a special musical service, the Christmas music from "Messiah" being finely rendered. J. Richardson sang the bass solos and the sopranos, Miss Grace Lillian Carver sang Newton's First Christmas Carol and Dr. Torrey presided at the organ. The choir also sang "Maker's anthem, 'Daughter of Zion.'" Rev. Dr. Torrey preached from I Kings viii, 27: "Will I indeed dwell on the earth?" This question of Solomon at the dedication of the temple indicates surprise at the contemplation of such a possibility, so that the King for very joy doubted the assurance. The tendency among men was to belittle the things of earth, and to believe in any literal way that not a feather falls to the ground that is not taken account of might also not be held by some as evidence of a spiritual world. This relation of the spiritual world to the material is differently viewed by the ascetic who believes the body to be a burden, by the Christian Scientist, and by men with a wrong perception of the natural and supernatural. The distinction is artificial, and nothing is real or secular. There is no such thing as a secular calling. Every man is called to lead a sacred life, a consecrated life. "Both the unseen and the seen make the house wherein we dwell."

Holiday Aftermath.

The arrangements for treating the inmates of the homes of refuge and places of confinement were not allowed to miscarry and joy and merriment of a rather restrained measure, to be sure—replaced the ordinary monotony. In many cases the holiday was as certain government and civic officials, extends over to-day as well. The stormy weather of Thursday night seemed to increase the desire for innoxious, and the police took in a large number of men who were celebrating the holiday eve not wisely but too well. Most of them were let go after sobering up from the effects of their cough or rage cure.

GOLDEN RULE TRUST.

Mayor Jones Sets Aside Stock in His Business for His Employees.

Toledo, Ohio, Dec. 25.—Mayor Samuel M. Jones today announced to the workmen that 100 shares of stock in the B. M. Jones Company, par value $100 each, have been set aside to create a "golden rule trust," to be administered by a board of seven employees of the factory. The dividends on this stock are to be used to "perpetuate the golden rule idea" and to make the company an "educational as well as a manufacturing business."

If the trust proves successful, the stock, instead of the dividends, will be turned over to the trustees for the employees, and an opportunity given to men in all departments to acquire more stock.

"In time," said Mayor Jones to-day, "I have no doubt the entire ownership of the property will pass into the hands of the men who do the work, and all included, where, it is plain to be seen, it properly belongs."

HUTCHINSON'S REMARKABLE TRIP UNPARALLELED ON GREAT LAKES

From Duluth to Buffalo With Big Hole in Outer Bottom, Thru Blizzard and Ice.

The trip of that bruised and battered warrior of the great lakes, the propeller J. T. Hutchinson, which was ended at Buffalo on last night, has been a remarkable one in the history of the lake. It is considered a daring feat to bring a sound steamer thru after the close of navigation, with bad weather and heavy ice in prospect. The Hutchinson has at least one big jagged hole in her outer bottom, and it is thought an examination will show her badly dented and punctured from bow to stern. She had a breach as big as a foot of water in her forepeak at times. A steam pump had to be kept going nearly all the time to keep her amidship hold free from water. Yet old Capt. Davis in Buffalo said, and it was in a modest matter-of-fact tone: "The boat's all right. There's been altogether too much blizzard over this thing. I could sail her now, but I don't want to. The boat is 10 years old, and during one storm she was on her beam ends for 24 hours on board the steamer he was up for 24 hours without a wink of sleep."

The successful attempt to get the big steel propeller of the rocks and bring her to her destination, instead of leaving her to the mercy of the elements, is a feat of navigation, and the Hutchinson has saved about $25,000 to the underwriters. The vessel is 640 feet long, 48 feet wide, and has a draft of 18 feet of water. She is worth $225,000. She is insured for that amount.

There were 187,000 bushels of flaxseed in her hold when she left Duluth. It was insured for $200,000, making a total insurance of $225,000. About 100,000 bushels of the cargo had to be thrown into the water. About 100,000 bushels of the cargo had to be thrown into the water. About 100,000 bushels of the cargo had to be thrown into the water.

Story of the Run.

The Hutchinson left Duluth on the morning of Nov. 23, for Buffalo, with a cargo of 187,000 bushels of flaxseed. With Capt. Smith of Buffalo on board, she went along the south shore of Lake Superior, and ran into a blinding snowstorm. The captain was still on duty trying to pick his way through the ice, and the vessel was still on duty trying to pick his way through the ice.

Union Men Quit Work.

The Hutchinson crew, which was made up of 21 men, quit work on the morning of Dec. 25. The crew was made up of 21 men, quit work on the morning of Dec. 25.

COLOMBIAN FORCES DISBANDING.

No Indications Visible of Attack on Panama.

Washington, Dec. 25.—United States Consul-General Gudgeon at Panama, has transmitted to the American State Department a report from the American Consul at Call, Department of Cauca, stating the Colombian volunteer forces in that section are disbanding and there are no indications of an attack upon Panama. From Cartagena comes information of a similar character.

WARSHIPS READY.

San Francisco, Dec. 25.—Orders have been received from Washington by local United States transport officials to get the troopships Sherman and Detroit in readiness for service immediately. The transport officials maintain secrecy as to the orders received, and refuse to divulge the intended destination of the vessels. It is generally believed, however, that it is the intention to send the troops in readiness for any movement toward Panama.

BROODED OVER POVERTY.

Unable to Buy Gifts, Farmer, Kills His Three Children.

Hudson, N.Y., Dec. 25.—Brooding over his inability to purchase suitable Christmas gifts for his three motherless children, Joseph Phillips, a Holbrookville farmer, last night murdered the children and then committed suicide. Phillips had complained lately of his poverty, and it is believed his mind became unbalanced. With an axe in hand, Phillips entered his house Christmas Eve and crushed the skulls of Tojo, aged 15; Frank, aged 11, and Carrie, aged 10. Mrs. Phillips died last summer.
