MAYOR SEARS MADE HIT WITH CONGRESS

His Address of Welcome to Trades and Labor Congress, Read This Morning, was Received with Cheers--Delegates Decide he is "Jolly Good Fellow."

The fourth annual convention of the National Trades and Labor Congress of Canada opened this morning in the C. M. B. A. hall, on Union street. President Mee occupied the chair, and in opening the meeting introduced Mayor Sears, who was greeted with cheers. The mayor said that he did not intend to treat those present as strangers, and read the following address:-- Delegates of Trades and Labor Congress of Canada: It has been my pleasure to have greeted many representatives during my civic career, but I assure you to none have I ever extended a warmer hand or offered a more sincere welcome than I now do to you Knights of Labor, as you gather together from many distant points in our Loyalist city to confer over matters material to your mutual interests and pertaining to the establishing of such understanding between labor and capital as shall promote harmony and provide for the reduction of friction in the machinery of our commonwealth. You have come, my friends, to a city, born, as it were, upon the battlefield--used to dangers and to privations--that has undergone many conflicts. It has unlearned out of many conflicts, it has had to learn its lessons under severe discipline and to measure its rewards as re-

INSURGENTS PLANNING CONCENTRATED ATTACK UPON CITY OF HAVANA

HAVANA, Sept. 12. -- It is reported that the rebels near Genfuegos are planning a concentrated attack on the city. They claim to be several thousand strong. The government is taking precautions. Insurgents Driven Back. HAVANA, Sept. 12. -- Col. Avalos' report of the capture of Consolacion Del Sur, Sept. 9, which was effected in General W. B. Stann's hands, was received last night by the government. Col. Avalos with 200 cavalry and infantry approached the town at eight o'clock Sunday morning. The cavalry advanced first, the infantry entering the town from both sides and steadily driving back the insurgents, whose force is estimated at 1,500. The insurgents were entrenched in the quarters of the rural guards and occupied positions in the church and city hall and behind pillars and porches. The insurgents were slowly dislodged. Col. Avalos says that the triumph of the government forces was due partly to the disorganized condition of the insurgents. Seventy wounded and nine bodies were found after the fight. Two lieutenants and four rural guards were wounded. The government forces captured 150 horses and many accoutrements.

Emperor and Empress of Germany

MCGRATH IS FINED $20 FOR ASSAULT

Judging from Evidence at His Trial Today, There Were Lively Times in the Brussels Street Chateau--Many Conflicting Stories Told in Court.

John H. McGrath, charged with brutally assaulting Miss Delay, was again brought into court today, and Miss Delay was first sworn. She stated that she lived at No. 2 Brussels street, with her grandmother, Mrs. Sullivan. She then identified the prisoner. Witness said she was going along the street that day when Mrs. McGrath spat on her out the window, saying nothing and witness said nothing to her. The defendant was in the window with his wife when she spat on her. In reply to a question from his honor witness said she and her grandmother had lived up stairs four months, and the McGraths had lived down stairs for a year. She repeated that she had not anything to do with the defendant previously. In reply to a question from McGrath witness said that neither she nor Mrs. Sullivan had told Mrs. McGrath they would have them up and make them say $20; nor did they say Mrs. McGrath was the talk of the town, nor had she ever thrown slurs at either of them. She reported to the defendant the story of the choking. She had never spoken to him on the street and would not recognize him. To Mr. Mullin the witness said her grandmother was out at the time of the choking. She was not sure who spat on her the first time, but knew it was Mrs. McGrath the second time. Dr. Berryman was next examined, and swore that he saw Miss Delay at 9.30 or 10 o'clock Monday evening. She was the choking. She stated further that Dr.

INVESTIGATE IMMIGRATION

President Roosevelt Has Commissioner on Ellis Island Investigating Conditions.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12. -- The Herald says today: Jas. D. Reynolds who was one of the President's commissioners to investigate conditions in the packing houses in Chicago, is at work on Ellis Island, under personal instructions of Mr. Roosevelt, inquiring into conditions there. Just why Mr. Reynolds is sent there is not known at this time, but it is known that charges reflecting on the treatment and complaint also has been made as to the manner in which some of the contracts have been administered. Mr. Reynolds arrived at the island last Friday accompanied by a Mr. Patton, during the absence of Robert Watson, commissioner of immigration, and has been busy ever since.

NEWS FROM CAPE BRETON

Glace Bay Thinks of Repealing Scott Act--Fire at Sydney.

SYDNEY, N. S., Sept. 12. -- (Special). -- The Christie Block at North Sydney was destroyed by fire this morning. The loss is $1,000 and little insurance. The town council of Glace Bay last night decided on dividing the town into two and to circulate the petitions asking for a repeal of the Scott Act. There has been much opposition to the latter proposal. The four-maned schooner Albert C. Hunt left Boston on August 16th for Cape Breton to load apparel and has not been heard from since. She is believed to have foundered with all hands. Thomas Layton, a young lad recently arrived from England, was drowned at Glace Bay yesterday evening by falling off the ledge at the burnt mine. Wallace Davis, a machine runner at No. 2 colliery and a native of Guysboro, died at the hospital at Glace Bay last evening as a result of injuries sustained in the pit yesterday by the falling of coal.

DID THEY CATCH THE LION ASLEEP?

German Torpedo Boat Destroyers Said to Have Reached British Coast and Returned Without Detection.

LONDON, Sept. 12. -- According to the correspondent at Hamburg of the Daily Mail, during the German naval manoeuvres the night of September 10, thirty-six torpedo boat destroyers accomplished the sensational feat of dashing for and reaching the British coast, retreating without having been detected. The non-detection of the raid across the North Sea was to carry out the search for the German fleet, which, however, the torpedo boat officers knew was lying off Heligoland.

THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

New Lodge in North End Will be Organized Early in October.

The members of the proposed new lodge of the Knights of Pythias to be formed in the north end will meet for organization purposes probably next week. The requisition for a charter has been prepared and will be sent to Grand Chancellor F. A. Marr, of Halifax, within a few days. The names of twenty-five prominent north end men are attached which, together with a number of members from New Brunswick Lodge, No. 1, and Union Lodge, No. 2, who reside in that district, and will apply for transfer cards, will bring the total charter membership to about thirty-five. At the organization meeting arrangements will be made for renting a hall for meeting purposes, and it is understood that the Orange Hall, on Simonds street, can be secured for their nights of meeting. The question of deciding on a suitable name will also be considered and it is expected that the institution of the new lodge will take place early in October.

MORE INVESTIGATION OF HOME LIFE AFFAIRS

TORONTO, Sept. 12 (special). -- The disposition made by Mr. Pattison of the $80,000 which he received as consideration for surrendering his contract with the Home Life was disclosed before insurance commission yesterday. Mr. Pattison testified that in accordance with his arrangement with Hon. J. R. Stratton he had paid the directors named in the schedule the maximum price quoted for the Home Life stock at any time, although he admitted there had been considerable impairment of capital, and in addition they received out of the $80,000 sums varying in amount up to $1,200 because they had received no dividends and had given years of service without fees. The stock of W. J. Firstbrook, brother of John Firstbrook, the permanent chairman of the directors, was included in the small transaction and he, too, received a small

POLAR EXPEDITIONS

BRUSSELS, Sept. 12. -- At the session of the Polar Congress here today, Dr. Jean Charcot announced that he was organizing an expedition to the South Pole, and Charles Benard, president of the Belgian Oceanographic Society, stated that his society was organizing an expedition to the North Pole. The two expeditions will operate in concert.

W. R. HEARST IS FAVORED MAN

Independence League will Probably Nominate Him for Governor of New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12. -- The advocates for a complete ticket were jubilant today because the convention of the independence league last night put itself on record as favoring the nomination of a straight ticket and instructed the committee on resolutions to inform W. J. Hearst and other delegates to the democratic state convention. The convention will meet again at eight o'clock tonight, when a full ticket will be nominated. From talks with many of the delegates and with the leaders of the movement, it appeared today that the following ticket is preferred: For Governor -- William Randolph Hearst, of New York. For Lieutenant Governor -- Lewis Sayvosen Chalmers of Dutchess. For Secretary of State -- Reuben R. Lyon, of Steuben. For Controller -- Isaac Rosenbloom, of Oneida. For Attorney General -- John Ford, of New York. For State Treasurer -- Dr. C. H. Axel, of Erie. For State Engineer and Surveyor -- No candidate decided on.

A BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

W. H. Thorne and D. C. Clinch Gave a Birthday Party Today--They Had a Cake

A very interesting and enjoyable function took place today at 12 o'clock at the residence of W. H. Thorne, 140 Marlborough street, when Mr. Thorne and D. C. Clinch celebrated their birthdays, which happen to be on the same date. A very dainty repast was served and a birthday cake of generous proportions and a very inviting appearance was partaken of. The guests were: Chief Justice Tuck, Judge Barker, J. R. Stone, Hon. Samuel Adams, of New York; Col. Armstrong, Col. Markham, W. E. Vroom and Chief John Kerr. Both gentlemen received hearty congratulations, and best wishes for continued health and prosperity.

HE WAS OUT OF IT

At the meeting of the National Trades and Labor Congress this morning, the French language was spoken and it was very amusing to watch the expression on the face of a local man, who tried his best to learn the French language in a few minutes.

COMBINE IN STEEL TUBES

GLASGOW, Sept. 12. -- It is announced that a combination of Scotch and English steel tube manufacturers to regulate the home and export business has been formed with a view to abolishing the present competition. The industry has suffered incalculably since the previous agreement between the firms in this line was cancelled 18 months ago. It is understood that the new combine is wider in its scope than the old, taking in all the firms in the United Kingdom except one Clyde-side concern. It is stated that the American producers are supporting the combine. It is expected that an advance in prices will soon be announced as it is believed an agreement carries permanency with it.

HARMLESS POET CHARGED WITH ASSAULTING A GIRL

FREDERICTON, N. B., Sept. 12 (special). -- George Pierce, of Harvey, acknowledged an offence under the Scott Act at the police court this morning and was fined fifty dollars. Cases against Roy Veysay and W. H. Foster, of North Lakes, are being tried this afternoon. The complaints were all laid by Rev. J. J. Colter. A North Shore man of poetic instincts was before the court this morning charged with assaulting a young girl on Northumberland street last evening by catching hold of her clothing. He said he was drunk at the time and knew nothing about the affair. As the fellow seems to be harmless, it is probable he will be let off, although the case was postponed until tomorrow for further investigation. Dr. W. L. Ellis, of the geological survey, was here last evening and went to St. John this morning. The doctor is preparing a report on the mineral resources of New Brunswick for the interior department. He is much impressed with the

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

(Special). -- We are having a fine spell of weather here now and the thrashing machine can be heard in the barns. Haystacks are nearly over. Mice are plenty and we expect a lot of sports from town next week. Bill Hornbeam swapped horses with Hon. Jenes last week and says he would not swap back for $10 Good boy. Bill. Outs is a fair crop, but points as small. The brooks is very low this fall, but have patience people for rain will come. Miss Angelina Jane Hornbeam has gone to Poolside for a spell to visit her aunt. Maybe that is why a certain young man stays home every night now--hey, Ben? Well, no more at present. --From Your Own Correspondent. Miss Berlie McWatt paid an early visit to the millinery stores this morning, and it is understood that a number of patterns from Paris and New York, costing from $35 to $70 each, have been marked for Berlie. Owing to the condition of her health, for Berlie had had trouble with her new teeth again lately, she was unable to go to New York this season, and will therefore buy her hats in St. John. No doubt the example of this popular young lady will be followed quite generally in select circles.

Tenders will be received by the street department up to October 1st, for the purchase of the rust on the street rollers at the exhibition grounds. The crop has been good this summer and about amount expected. It is estimated that the civic departments of St. John can produce more road in proportion to surface of plant exposed than any other city in the country. HORNBEAM SETTLEMENT. A LETTER TO OUR READERS.

83 COTTAGE ST. Melrose, Mass. Dear Sir: Every since I was in the Army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power was fast leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time. I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong. In order to be very sure about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water today and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition. I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers I am,

Very truly yours, I. C. RICHARDSON. You may have a sample bottle of the wonderful remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, sent absolutely free by mail, also a book telling all about Swamp-Root. If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular 75c. and $1.25 size bottles at any drug store in Canada. Do not make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

McAULEY MURDER Preliminary Examination of Collins --- Prisoner Nervous During the Inquiry.

Hopewell Cape, N. B., Sept. 11.—Good progress was made by the prosecution with the evidence in the preliminary examination of Thomas F. Collins today, charged with the murder of Mary Ann McAuley at New Ireland on or about August 19 last. Nearly all the witnesses examined told stories differing in the movements of the accused about the time of the murder. A feature of the testimony of witnesses was the frequency with which the prisoner passed the McAuley's place after he had first been seen on the road with the two valises.

According to witnesses he hovered around in the vicinity of the priest's place for some time the Monday morning he left, all the while carrying the two guns and making inquiries about his priest's lost horse.

The prosecution is gradually tracing Collins' every movement in Albert and getting in evidence of all the varied statements he appears to have made to different parties concerning his actions.

Collins follows the stories of the witnesses very closely. He is constantly prompting his counsel and today showed even more marked than yesterday, the great strain upon him.

This afternoon while listening to the evidence of James Doyle, who discovered Miss McAuley's dead body, and Dr. S. C. Murray, who testified as to the wounds he found upon an examination of the body, the prisoner spent an hour and mopped the beads of perspiration from his forehead. Collins has not, however, lost the cheerfulness which made his general demeanor and when a lull in the proceedings came he chatted and laughed over ordinary events of general interest which had the appearance at times of being an amused spectator at some incidents transpiring during the hearing.

Public interest in the examination still keeps up, the court room being crowded again at today's session. Bruce Harbill gave important testimony for the prosecution. On Monday, August 21, he drove his brother out towards Albert and on his way back he met a stranger who turned out to be the accused in court. He met him about a mile from Father McAuley's house on the road leading to Albert. Accused carried two valises, a small one and a large one, and a pair of horse reins. Accused asked him if he saw anything of Father McAuley. Witness answered in the negative but said he saw his horse standing in front of his door as he came past. Collins asked him if he would give him a ride back as far as Duffy's. He did so and landed him a little past Father McAuley's house on the road going to Elgin. After leaving him accused went with Tilman Bannister, whom they met on the road.

Tilman Bannister, of Elgin parish, said he saw the prisoner on August 20. He was going to Albert and met him driving with Bruce Harbill. After passing Collins left Harbill and came after them, carrying his two valises. When he caught up he asked witness if he had seen Father McAuley's horse and wagon on the road. This was about thirty rods from the priest's house towards Elgin. Accused said he had harnessed the horse to go to Albert for goods Father McAuley ordered Friday. He left the horse standing on Mary Ann called him in to get breakfast and while he was eating the horse had gone away and he could not tell where he went. He asked Bannister for a ride to Albert, saying he would go to Albert and probably find the horse upon the road. If he did not he would hire a horse from McAuley to come home. When told he could have a ride he returned to Harbill's wagon and got the two valises and a pair of reins. In conversation with witness as they passed Father McAuley's house the accused said the priest had gone to the Fredericton Road to attend service Sunday. They came eventually to Kent road, leading to Elgin, and witness suggested the horse might have gone that way. Accused got out, took his valises and reins and started towards Elgin. The accused appeared a little excited and witness thought after it was curious that a man looking for a stray horse should be carrying two valises.

Thomas Melin told of riding Father McAuley's horse partly harnessed, on the side of the main road Tuesday morning, Aug. 22nd, between 6 and 7 o'clock. He led the horse to the barn and found the horse open, but apparently no person around.

Aylesford Milton, Coverdale, testified to driving Collins to Elgin from Alex. Bannister's, Monday afternoon about 4 o'clock. He paid $2 for the drive. He had two valises. Accused told him his name was Connor. When he asked to hire a horse from Milton he said Father McAuley's horse took lame, back on the road, and he wanted to go to Elgin to meet Father McAuley. Accused told him he had lived on P. E. Island, in Halifax and Stovick. When they reached Elgin accused asked to be landed at the railway station, but later the witness saw him going to Garland's Hotel. He said Father McAuley had not arrived.

William Berry, a farmer near Elgin, said the prisoner got out his supper at his place on August 20th, last. He was walking, carrying a valise and came along about half past six, and asked for tea. He ate very little and paid twenty cents for the meal. Accused told him in conversation he was from England and had left a schooner at Mary's Point, and wanted to get back to

THE SCARLET PIMPERNEL BY BARONNE ORCZY.

(Continued.) Yes! she often wished to wound him, to make him feel that she too held him in contempt, that she too had forgotten that once she had almost loved him. Loved that name! whose thought seemed unable to soar beyond the tying of a cravat or the new cut of a coat! Ah! And yet! . . . vague memories, that were sweet and ardent and attuned to this calm summer evening, came wafted back to her memory, on the invisible wings of the light sea-breeze; the time when first he worshipped her, he seemed so devoted—a very slave—and there was a certain latent intensity in that love which had fascinated her. Then suddenly that love, that devotion which throughout his courtship she had looked upon as the alabaster fidelity of a dog, seemed to vanish completely. Twenty-four hours after the simple little ceremony at St. Roch, she had told him the story of how, inadvertently, she had spoken of certain matters connected with the Marquis de St. Cyr before some men—her friends—who had used this information against the unfortunate Marquis, and sent him and his family to the guillotine. She hated the Marquis. Years ago, Armand, her dead brother, had loved Angèle de St. Cyr, but St. Cyr was a plebeian, and the Marquis full of the pride and arrogant prejudices of his caste. One day, Armand, the respectful, timid lover, ventured on sending a small poem—enthusiastic, ardent, passionate—to the idol of his dreams. The next night he was wailing just outside Paris by the rails of the Marquis de St. Cyr, and he nominously threatened—threw like a dog within an inch of his life—because he dared to raise his eyes to the daughter of the aristocrat. The incident was one which, in those days, some two years before the great Revolution, was almost daily occurring here and there, incidents of that type, in fact, led to the bloody reprisals, which a few years later were some of those laughing bows the guillotine.

Marguerite remembered it all; what her brother must have suffered in his marriage and his pride must have been equaling; what she suffered through him and with him she never attempted even to analyze. Then the day of retribution came. St. Cyr and his kind had found their masters, and some plebeians whom they had despised. Armand and Marguerite, both intellectual, thinking beings, adopted with the ardour of their youth the Utopian doctrines of the Revolution, while the Marquis de St. Cyr and his family fought inch by inch for the retention of those privileges which had been theirs socially above their fellow-men. Marguerite, impulsive, thoughtless, not calculating the purpose of her words, uttered some words which within twenty-four hours, he was arrested. His papers were searched; letters from the Austrian Emperor, promising to send troops against the Paris revolutionaries, were found in his desk. He was arraigned for treason against the nation, and sent to the guillotine, while his family, his wife and his sons, shared this awful fate. Marguerite, horrified at the terrible consequences of her own thoughtlessness, was powerless to save the Marquis; her own coterie, the leaders of the revolutionary movement, all proclaimed her as a heroine, and when she married Sir Percy Blakeney, she did not perhaps altogether realize how severely he would look upon the sin, which she had so inadvertently committed, and which still lay heavily upon her soul. She made full confession of it to her husband, trusting to his kind and loving for her, her boundless power over him, to soon make him forget what might have sounded unpleasant to an English ear. Certainly at the moment he seemed to take it very quietly; hardly, in fact, did he appear to understand the meaning of all she said; but what was more certain still was that never after that could she detect the slightest sign of that love, which she once believed had been wholly hers. Now they had drifted quite apart, and Sir Percy seemed to have laid aside his love for her, as he would an ill-fitting glove. She tried to rouse him by deepening her love against his ill intellect; endeavored to excite his jealousy, if she could not speak of certain matters connected with the Marquis de St. Cyr before some men—her friends—who had used this information against the unfortunate Marquis, and sent him and his family to the guillotine. She hated the Marquis. Years ago, Armand, her dead brother, had loved Angèle de St. Cyr, but St. Cyr was a plebeian, and the Marquis full of the pride and arrogant prejudices of his caste. What the "Canada Lancet" says about Abbey's Effervescent Salt. "Many physicians of Canada are now prescribing ABBEY'S SALT. It is particularly useful in cases of obstinate Constipation and chronic liver trouble. It is especially effective in kidney trouble. It corrects acidity of the stomach, making it a specific in certain forms of dyspepsia and in gout and rheumatism. We consider Abbey's Salt absolutely the best effervescent salt made in any country." 25c. and 60c. a bottle.

The Food Value of Orange Meat

Orange Meat is the most perfectly balanced food in the world. All the strength-giving gluten--the flesh-forming wheat sugars--of the wheat kernel, are in Orange Meat. It is a dainty food for dainty people. It is never touched by hand from the time the wheat enters the elevators until the package is opened at your table. It is MALTED--made doubly easy to digest. No wonder thin children get plump, and run-down people build up, when they start eating Orange Meat. A pleased mother in Montreal writes: "For three years I had trouble in getting my little girl to eat. In the morning particularly, she had no desire for food. We started to use Orange Meat. Since then she has improved to a noticeable degree. People remark on the change, which I attribute to Orange Meat." Hundreds of valuable premiums are given away to users of Orange Meat. Every 15c package contains a premium coupon. Write for premium list to "Orange Meat, Kingston." ORANGE MEAT is sold by all grocers in 15c and 25c packages. 25c packages contain 2 1/2 times as much as the 15c size.

U. S. AND CUBAN Washington, Sept. 11.—The critical situation in Cuba is absorbing the attention of the administration to the exclusion of all other foreign topics as indicated by the activity of the officials in the state, navy and war departments. The president at Oyster Bay, is keeping in close touch with every development of the revolutionary movement. The development of the day was the admission that the American cruiser Des Moines, which sailed yesterday hastily from Norfolk, has gone southward to Keywest with the ultimate purpose of proceeding to Havana if developments within the next two days seem to warrant such action. As Keywest the Des Moines will be about eight hours run from Havana, and while waiting there Commander Halsey will be in close communication with the navy department, prepared to immediately call out any request from the department's state. There is no intention in this movement of the Des Moines of showing any partiality by the American government towards one side or the other in the present conflict in Cuba. The ship will be at Havana to serve as an asylum in case of need and be at the disposition of the American charge. She is not a formidable craft, being only of 3,100 tons displacement, and with a main battery of six inch guns, but for the duty intended she will be quite as effective as a battleship. Miss West, of Charlottetown, and Miss Duffan, of Summerside, are registered at the Dufferin.

WORK FOR ST. JOHN

The members of the city council and board of trade will do well to work continuously in concert, with reference to the question of increased harbor facilities. It is important that Hon. Mr. Hyman should be made thoroughly conversant with the conditions and the needs of the port, but this is not enough. The people of the west need to have impressed upon their minds the fact that along with western development must go the development of eastern ports, and that this is a matter which concerns the whole country.

A STRIKING SPEECH

A Labor Day oration delivered by Mr. John T. Wheeler at the celebration of the day in Houston, Texas, presented in a very striking way some plain truths to members of labor organizations. He pointed out that while the new movement is a great advance upon cruder methods of the past, yet it is not enough to put candidates in the field and support them.

A BRUTAL SERGEANT

This Sort of Business Might go in Russia But not in Canada if the People Know it. SYDNEY, Sept. 11 (Special).—During the entrainment of the horses which accompanied the 17th field battery to the Aldershot Camp yesterday, one of the drivers who objected to placing twenty-five horses in one car, was promptly knocked down by a blow on the face by one of the sergeants. The act was otherwise unprovoked and came in for some severe remarks on the part of the by-standers.

HIS HANDS Terror that stalketh in the night, Freighting the souls of men with fright, Mocking man's pious wails with mirth; Piteous, heartless, aimless rush Out of the lulling, dreamless hush, Flaming with fear in the dawning's blush! Hovel and palace, hut and hall, Pillar and portal, gate and wall, Flung in a mad wreck, one and all! Are, then we sigh of the chattering bird That has made the land as a shattered cloud— We murmur: 'It came from the hand of God.'

Listen! From home-land and overseas A wonderful song is upon the breeze— The chant of the swelling symphonies. Lull and lull; from the chest and bin, Come the good stores that were held with— And the folk of the world are today akin! Ah, gentle mercy encompasseth The peoples who hearken with quick-caught brains The saddest tale of the city's death.

IN LIGHTER VEIN WELL SUPPLIED. Singleton—I suppose your wife has a lot of will power. Wedderly—Yes, but she has a lot more won't power.—Chicago News.

A CASE IN POINT. "Evil communications corrupt good manners," quoth the teacher. "Now, Johnny, can you understand what that means?" "Sure!" replied Johnny. "This mornin' pa got a communication from ma's dream-maker that made him swear."—Philadelphia Ledger.

EVERY LITTLE HELPS. "I certainly was shocked," said the stern-visaged woman, "to hear that you were married. I wouldn't marry the best man on earth." "He never gave you a chance," retorted Mrs. Bridley, "because he assures me I was the only girl he ever proposed to."—The Catholic Standard and Times.

THE REPORT BUTTER. "Why, how d'ye do?" said the barber to his one-time customer. "Howdy," snapped the latter. "You're a stranger. I haven't seen your face for a long time." "That's odd. I left most of it on your razor the last time I was in your shop."—The Catholic Standard and Times.

SHORT ALLOWANCE SOMETIMES. (Philadelphia Post.) The London Tribune tells how a gentleman met a brewer's drayman on the road. Being of a kindly disposition, he at once engaged in conversation.

PREPARING FOR WINTER SEASON. Seaman's Institute Appeals for Aid to Carry on its Work—What Was Done Last Year. With the rapid approach of cold weather, and in anticipation of a busy winter-port season, those in charge of the Seaman's Institute are setting about the task of laying in supplies for a busy season, during which they hope to be enabled to benefit the sailor both temporarily and spiritually. During the past year the work has been of an encouraging character, which is shown in the following summary:

BASE BALL National League. At Boston-New York, 3; Boston, 0.

BASEBALL IN ENGLAND. Baseball has evidently caught on in England and the founders of the Baseball League are so pleased with the result of their initial tournament that they have started a cup competition too.

Further evidence that baseball is in favor is shown by the fact that a minor league of six clubs, called the London League, has been formed, and next season there will be five leagues in London alone—the British Baseball League (the major organization), the Junior League, Southern League, Commercial League, and the London League.

THE TURF. Sussex, Sept. 11.—A large crowd witnessed the opening of the exhibition race held here this afternoon. The weather was fine, but a strong southwest gale prevented fast time, although all the heats were under the 20 mark.

Summary: 250 Trot and Pace, $100. Kingborough, 2:30, L. D. Morton, 1:11.20.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 11.—Two races were on the card at the opening of the Concord State Fair today, the 2:30 race, and the 2:40 race, which was won by Little Sidney, the outstanding horse Common Voter was discarded in the last heat, having thrown himself in his hops.

THE RING. MIKE TWIN AFTER GAINS. An exchange says: "Mike Twin Sullivan is an ambitious fellow and full of courage. Although he has been twice knocked out by Gans, he insists on another dose of the sleep-producing medicine, and has posted a $10,000 forfeit to bleed a match with the holder of two titles. It would appear that Sullivan, who is certainly one of the best welter in the country, and who recently stopped Jack Dougherty, the Milwaukee 145-pounder, is just the sort of game that Sullivan and the negro should have no trouble in making three in a row."

A special meeting of the J. S. Edwards Lodge, Manchester Unity, O. O. F., will be held this evening in Oddfellows' Hall, Union street.

This morning a crew of men, numbering about forty or fifty, were put at work laying a water pipe on Partridge Island from the fumigation building to the fog whistle station. The contractors in charge of the work are Messrs. Irons and Kane.

The funeral of the late John Gahivan, who was drowned at Quebec, took place this morning at eight o'clock from his mother's residence in Fairville to St. Rose's church, where Rev. Father Collins celebrated requiem high mass. Interment took place in Sand Cove cemetery.

Bernard H. Harvey and his son, Fred J. Harvey, of Worcester, Mass., are registered at the Victoria. Mr. Harvey left this city forty years ago and since his departure he sees many changes in his native place. He and his son will remain in the city about a week and will visit Fredericton before returning to Worcester.

The meeting of the Church of England S. S. Teachers' Association, held in St. Paul's school room, last evening, was largely attended. Rev. Canon Richardson presided, and introduced Mrs. Davidson, who read an interesting paper entitled "Knowledge of the Bible as the Teachers' Secret of Success," after which Rev. C. W. Nichols gave an address on the power of the Holy Spirit.

MANY WILL GO WEST

Expected That 500 Will Leave on Harvesters Excursion Tonight.

It is expected that about 500 persons will go west this evening on the harvesters' excursion. They will leave on a special train about 7 o'clock. Quite a number who intend going out on tonight's train arrived on this morning's train from points in Nova Scotia and P. E. I. A number more are expected on the afternoon trains and also on the Prince Rupert. It is thought an extra train will be all that is required for the accommodation of the excursionists.

Harry Johnson, the C. P. R. detective from Montreal, arrived this morning and will accompany the party.

NEW PRINCIPAL FOR SCHOOL FOR DEAF

A new principal has been secured for the New Brunswick School for the Deaf, which will be reopened after the holidays on Sept. 20th. The new man is J. W. Hansell, of Edinburgh, Scotland. He comes highly recommended and though still a young man, has had eighteen years' experience in the Institute for the Deaf in Edinburgh. He not only holds the certificate of a college for teachers of the deaf, but has a Sloyd certificate, secured in Sweden. He is thus splendidly equipped to teach manual training as well as to perform the regular work of the school in St. John. Several other changes have occurred which will increase the efficiency of the teaching staff, and prove in the interests and welfare of the pupils. The school is being cleaned throughout and made in readiness for the reception of the pupils.

WORKED ALL NIGHT FOR $2 PER WEEK

Compulsory school attendance cannot come too soon in this city. The Times has learned of a boy in his thirteenth year who has been working at night, in shops, beginning at nine o'clock and remaining at work until anywhere from three till ten o'clock the next morning. He was paid two dollars per week. This boy is now at school and his health has greatly improved since he quit night work.

ST. JOHN COUNTY S. S. ASSOCIATION

Annual Meeting Will be Held at St. Martins on Wednesday Next.

The annual meeting of the St. John County Sunday School Association will be held at St. Martins on Wednesday, September 13. Among the delegates who will attend besides those who take part in the programme are—Judge Forbes, T. S. Simms, R. T. Hayes, R. M. Currie, D. R. Usher, Robert, Wilson, W. C. Whitaker, F. S. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kingston, Mrs. Wm. Johnston, W. H. Patterson, A. H. Patterson, A. J. Belyea, Mrs. O. H. Marr, Mrs. J. N. Harvey, Mrs. Hoar, Misses Maude Hastings, Lawson, Willett, Keith, Eagles, Bestag, Magee, Galbraith and Cunningham. Rev. A. L. McLean, Rev. S. Howard and others.

It was intended that the delegates would drive up, but the Hampton and St. Martins Railway has offered to provide a through car leaving St. John at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning and returning at 9 o'clock Thursday morning. President J. N. Harvey has called a meeting of the executive and delegates for tomorrow night in the association's office, Ritchie building, Princess street, to decide among other matters the mode of transportation. The programme at St. Martins will be as follows:

9.15 P. M.—Closing.

FORGOT ALL ABOUT IT

Fairville Man's Absent Mindedness Causes Him Much Worry and a Needless Trip.

A curious story of the "absent minded beggar" type comes from Fairville. A certain well-known resident of that district it seems, told the man who works for him to take one of his horses to the blacksmith shop this morning and have it shod. The order was carried out all right, as the man was up bright and early to take the horse to the smith. Sometime after this the owner got up, and on going to the barn he found one of the horses missing and, forgetting about his order of the night before, he jumped to the conclusion that the animal had been stolen. As quickly as possible another horse was harnessed and he started in pursuit of the thief. He drove through Fairville, making inquiries as he went along, but could find no trace of the missing horse, and he continued on toward South Bay. A farmer, driving in from South Bay reports having seen him and he (the farmer) was hurried to send word to the Policeman Lawson to keep a lookout for the stolen horse. "At last accounts the owner was piling toward Westfield as fast as his rig could take him and in the mean time the blacksmith finished his work and the hired man took the horse back to the stable. Efforts were being made to stop the owner by wire before he reached Westfield, and it will probably be up to him to treat when he gets back. It is suggested that in future he make a memorandum of his orders so that he can consult it and perhaps save needless worry.

MILLINERY OPENINGS

The increasing importance of St. John as a millinery centre was demonstrated beyond doubt by the large number of Lower Canadian milliners in town today. The opening at Manchester Robertson Allison Ltd., was very largely attended, indeed exceeding attendance, and everybody was delighted with the showing. The following novelties shown by M. R. A. Ltd. indicate the trend of style: "Peter Pan" turbans were much in evidence. Small and chic.

"Gamin Hoodie" are also new and pretty, trimmed with shading fringe quills. Large picture hats are conspicuously short at the front and quite as noticeable for their length at the back. Roses lead in the floral line, but all flowers are good, as long as there are plenty of them. Wines, prunes and Burgundy seem to be leaders, an especially late color being characterized cherry-brandy.

Greys, from a pale dove tint to a brownish cast, known as toupe, are well to the front. Long wings, broad quills, blonde and culture plumes are the trimming vogue. Blondines are those small ostrich feathers, wavy and very attractive. Ostrich plumes in shaded effects are proper, quite. In ornaments the particular novelty is Egyptian gold work, with truly eastern design—dull and antique. The buckles are square, also elongated. Feather hats are going to be worn, all kinds of them.

Roman stripe ribbon is again the womanish fancy. It is very swagger on knock-about hats.
