GRADUAL BUT SURE ADVANCE OF ALLIES IN THE WEST

Artillery Proving Superior to Enemy's - Operations Fail at Only One Point - The German Grip is Weakening

Paris, Jan. 4.—The French War Office gave out the following this afternoon: "From the sea to the Oise, the day passed in almost complete calm. The weather was rainy. There were artillery exchanges at some points of the front in front of Noidettes our heavy artillery reduced the German batteries to silence."

"On the Aisne and in Champagne the cannonading was particularly violent. Our batteries showed their superiority and brought under their fire the reserve forces of the enemy. We became possessed of several points of support held by the Germans in the region of Perthes, and of Mesnilles-Hurlus.

"Between the Argonne and the Meuse, as well as on the heights of the Meuse, there was intermittent cannonading. An effort made yesterday morning by our troops to occupy Bourlivalle did not succeed.

"Our advance continued in the forest of Le Pretre, to the northwest of Pont-A-Mousson.

"In Upper Alsace we occupied an important height to the west of Cernay. A counter attack by the enemy was repulsed.

"In Steinhach we have taken possession of the vicinity of the church and cemetery."

TO DIE FOR ASSAULT ON GERMAN OFFICER

Copenhagen, Jan. 4.—Copenhagen—A Berlin message says that the German supreme war tribunal has sentenced a British war prisoner named Lonsdale to death for assaulting a German officer in the Dohertiz concentration camp, Lonsdale, in the first instance, was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment, but the military authorities' appeal for a sentence of capital punishment has been successful. Lonsdale, it is admitted, did not hurt the officer, and the prison guard beat him off.

Gradual, But Actual

London, Jan. 4.—The Times correspondent in Northern France telegraphs that the fighting on the Yser again is an artillery duel. The Germans have lost ground at Nieuport and St. Georges and to the south of Dixmude, and have been expressing their discontent by shelling everything within range. "The situation on the Yser is better than it has been since the battle began. The French and Belgians are progressing excellently at St. Georges. At Dixmude, the Germans are held off on the farther side of the town, and there is a counter-balance by the secure position which the Belgians won on the eastern bank of the canal, just to the south of Dixmude, and their hold on this bridge head will become more and more valuable.

ANOTHER PHASE OF CASE

Of the case in which it was reported that a girl was attacked by soldiers on an I. C. R. train, the Moncton Transcript says: "An official investigation into the occurrence was held today at Moncton, and although the official statement has not been given out, it is learned that the report contained in the case was not so serious as reported. The young woman is said to have come with one of the soldiers from Halifax. She was drinking with them. As she was the only female in the second class car, the train crew several times remanded her to the first class coach, but she went back to the soldiers each time. There were three men under arrest at Yaro and the girl returned to Halifax yesterday. No blame attaches to the train crew, who did everything to separate her from the men."

Quick Revenge For Loss Of Formidable, Says Unofficial Report Coming From Berlin

Submarine Sent Battleship Down But Herself Was Destroyed by Mine - Graphic Stories by British Survivors - Jack Tars Salute as They Swarm to Deck of Sinking Warship

Berlin, via Amsterdam, Jan. 4.—It is reported here, though not officially confirmed, that a German submarine sank the British battleship Formidable with two torpedoes and was herself sunk three hours later by a mine. It is said that all on board the submarine were lost.

MEN OF FORMIDABLE TELL GRAPHIC TALE

London, Jan. 4.—The survivors of the Formidable give graphic stories of the scene on board when the vessel went down after the ship either had struck a mine or been torpedoed. They say that when the explosion occurred, 2,300 in the morning 500 men were asleep. Their hammocks and bunks were jerked several inches upward by the shock. The explosion missed the magazine by only ten feet, but it entered the dynamite room and put all electric lights and the wireless out of action. The captain was on deck all the time until the vessel sank. When the time was given for all hands to come on deck the men swarmed up, saluting the officers as they passed them. Many were almost without clothing. Two minutes after the first alarm the engineer was flooded. This was the worst blow of all, because with steam the Formidable might have been able to make port. The absence of steam also made the work of getting the boats out very laborious. The vessel was soon tilted to an angle that made it difficult for the men to retain their foothold.

GET READY FOR FIGHT AT ANTWERP

Germans Dig Trenches and Lay Mines in Them - Arrest of Many Suspected of Being English Spies

New York, Jan. 4.—A London Daily Express despatch dated "on the Belgian frontier, Sunday," to the New York Herald, says: "The growing custom of arresting persons promiscuously in Brussels, Antwerp and elsewhere, on suspicion of spying for the English, shows that a fear of espionage on behalf of Great Britain is spreading among the German staff. There are so many suspects in Antwerp awaiting interrogation by the commandant that the central prison is overflowed, and some of the stations and forts of the Antwerp defenses have been turned into temporary jails. 'The constant and mysterious activity of the German fortifications is a cause of much secret speculation and foreboding among the population. Thousands of men are able to dig and employed at trenches west and south of the city and around the forts, which were damaged by shells during the siege. The excavations are described as being erratic in design, and when the day before wholly obliterated and are not allowed to approach the sites. They declare the trenches they have been excavating, and form part of an extensive scheme to mine all the approaches to Antwerp. The Belgian garrisons are said to have been removed from the forts and replaced by new Krupp."

TAKE EVERY ABLE BODIED MAN TO WAR

May be Mistake in Reading of Orders Received at St. Pierre, Miquelon

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 4.—Every able bodied man between 18 and 49 on the island of St. Pierre, Miquelon, has been ordered to hold himself in readiness for military service in France. It is estimated that out of a population of 3,000 there are at least 1,200 men who will be included in this order and that about 500 families in St. Pierre will be left without support. It is suggested that there has been some misinterpretation of the order but no action had been taken. It was the intention of the committee to take the matter up with the new attorney-general.

WHEAT JUMPS TO RECORD

Chicago, Jan. 4.—Wheat prices today overtopped all previous high records since the beginning of the war. May delivery went to $1.82 1/2. Shutting out of fear of Argentine competition was the immediate cause of today's advance. Ocean freight rates from Argentina have so sharply advanced that South American grain is no longer relatively cheap. Besides, higher quotations at Liverpool this morning showed the urgency of the European demand. During the advance in wheat a jump of 1/2 cent since Saturday, trading appeared of a decidedly livelier character than recently.

Czar's Men Capture Almost Entire Regiment—Weather Conditions Harsh

Petrograd, Jan. 4.—An official Russian report of fighting in Transcaucasia says: "In the region of Sarikamyah, on January 1, the great battle continued obviously to our advantage, but the enemy continued obstinate resistance."

"We captured the 50th regiment of infantry almost complete, including the commander and fifty officers. The total of Turkish prisoners amounts to 5,000 soldiers, forty officers and several sergeants. We also captured three machine guns and more than 700 prisoners."

"At one point a company of a Cossack regiment was dispersed by bayonet charges while two Turkish companies were cut to pieces by artillery fire. "Our troops are operating under conditions exceptionally painful on account of the cold and snow in a high altitude. The morale of our soldiers is good and they fight with ardour."

WAR NOTES

About fifty more men have reached shore in a cutter from the battleship Formidable, sunk on Friday in the English channel. By taking the Austrian position near Uskok Pass, the Russians have cleared their road into Hungary. The Germans have taken the Russian post of Borjowim. Indications are that the Balkan states will become embroiled in the war soon. Greece has mobilized her army and is ready to take steps to protect her newly acquired territories gained from Turkey and Bulgaria in the last year.

Germans Overcome In Fight With The Bayonet

Russians Watch Men Cross River, Then Surround Them—Czar's Troops Score Several Successes—Enemy Trying a New Plan

Petrograd, Jan. 4.—A Russian official communication regarding the fighting in Poland and Galicia, says:—"A strong artillery combat has been fought all along the front on the left bank of the Vistula. The attempt of the Germans to gain ground in certain places in the region of the Buzra River was without success."

"On the night of January 2, we discovered the passage of Germans across the Buzra in the vicinity of Kosloff and Biscoupi. One of our glorious regiments surrounded the Germans and attacked with the bayonet without firing a shot. In the hand-to-hand struggle which followed they killed several hundred men. The survivors surrendered."

"About 3 p. m. on January 2, a brigade of German infantry attacked our position near Borjowim, northeast of Bolimow, but the German assault was repulsed with enormous losses. Desperate fighting occurred during the night of January 2, continuing until daylight, northeast of Rawa, where we succeeded in dislodging the enemy from some of the trenches previously taken."

"South of the Pilna River, fighting took place at Metarie and Gachet, and also southeast of Malagassow, where we repulsed all attacks of the enemy and Zaskiersk, northeast."

"In the region of Uskok Pass and Rostok (south of Lisko), we have made progress. We drove back the enemy who fled in great disorder. We captured 2,000 prisoners and some Mitralouises. Several companies of the Austrians surrendered in a body. In their retreat to Uskok, the Austrians abandoned arms and ammunition."

THE PLAGUE IN PRZEMYSL

Lehberg, Galicia, via Petrograd, Jan. 4.—It is reported here that pestilence is spreading in the city among the garrison of Przemysl which is now almost without provisions. Intellectual sorties still continue from Przemysl, but they are less vigorously pushed, probably because of the garrison's knowledge of the failure of the Austrian relief forces to break through the Russian lines.

GERMANS TRY NEW PLAN

London, Jan. 4.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at Petrograd telegraphs: "The Germans have sent Prussian and Bavarian troops to aid the Austrians in Galicia. They are also making efforts to cross to the north of the Vistula, the idea being that with assistance from the east Russian army of General Francois they might threaten Warsaw from this direction."

Today With Men Going to The Front

Speculation as to When They Will Sail—Equipment For Divisional Train—Instruction Schools—Skating Rink on Partridge Island

All arms of the service on duty in the city are now setting down to the last stretch of home drill prior to their departure overseas in the second contingent. The general opinion seems to be that the units will be quartered here at least a month longer, possibly more, but the understanding is that it will go to when the motherland will be ready to receive her sons from overseas. The idea prevails that many military men and for this reason every encouragement is being given efforts to the recreation of the men in uniform. A skating rink has been made on Partridge Island for the men of the garrison. Training quarters changed, for further seasoning.

NEW EQUIPMENT

When the Canadian Divisional Train, under Lieut-Col. Macle, sails from this side the understanding is that it will go fully equipped as regards transports, motors, and all essentials for active participation in service. The equipment for No. 5 Company under Major McKean has not yet reached St. John. The necessary requisites required have been expected for some days. It was said about today that 1,000 motor lorries were being ordered for the Canadian army service units to be taken across with the next contingent, but no definite word was received by the local officers. All the officers of the local branch of the divisional train have now reported for duty and under their direction an active programme of training is being carried out by the men drilling here. A veterinary officer is still to be appointed to the train.

INSTRUCTION SCHOOLS

A school of instruction in infantry training for provisional officers is to be opened this week, possibly this evening, under the direction of the officers of the 62nd Regiment. Sergeant-Instructor Ford of the R. C. B. headquarters is now in the city to take charge of the classes which will extend for four weeks and which will be closed with two weeks' training in Halifax. Some fourteen young men will take the course.

Lesson From Irene Hough's Beauty

Dark navy blue serge costume is best for every-day wear.

"It is very easy to get into bad habits of walking and sitting if a girl works. When one is tired it is easy to slouch."

I had noticed before this that Miss Hough had a very graceful and free carriage. She walked on the balls of her feet, dropping her heels lightly.

I asked Miss Hough to pose for me in what she considered a proper kind of office dress, and she did so in the number of them. He has not yet taken over the active control of his department.

SERVIA TRIUMPHANT

In the first week in December the fate of Serbia seemed sealed. A second Belgium, another little state destroyed in the contest between the great, seemed assured. Austrian armies appeared certain to reach Nish, the temporary Serbian capital, to open the Orient Railway to the Bulgarian frontier and persuade Bulgaria, still smarting from her defeat by Serbia, to cast her lot with the two Kaiser and open her territory for the passage of the Turks to the battle lines of western Europe.

In the moment of greatest peril, however, Serbia was saved, partly by her own courage, by her own determination, without which destruction was inescapable, partly by the new advance of the Russians. While the Austrian troops were still before Belgrade, Gostacks once more crossed the Carpathians, swept down into the Hungarian Plain, panic reached the very gates of Budapest, and three army corps were hurriedly recalled from Serbia to defend Hungary. Once more at the critical moment the Austro-Germans had to surrender.

Then followed the three corps been withdrawn from the Serbs again took the offensive. Old King Peter, now stricken in years and infirm, rode the Serbian frontiers, and he himself instilled something of the fire that earned him his cross of the Legion of Honor as a soldier of France in 1870, rode the front of his troops, mounted on a white charger, and harangued them as their chiefs of remoter centuries were accustomed to do.

What was most noteworthy in the days following the Serbian victory was the first considerable number of Austrians, in Vienna, in Prague, in Budapest, of discontent, weariness, desire for peace.

WIRELESS - CONTROLLED BOAT GOES 28 MILES

Control of vessels and self-propelled torpedoes at a distance by means of wireless impulses was successfully demonstrated recently in the presence of officers of the United States army and navy, by John Hays Hammond, Jr., whose earlier experiments in this line have previously been referred to in this magazine. The boat "Natalia," built by Mr. Hammond, was manoeuvred around Boston harbor and out into the open sea as far as Graves Light, a distance of twenty-eight miles, and safely back. There was not a living person on the boat, all its movements being directed by a single wireless operator stationed at Marblehead, more than twenty miles away. The January Popular Mechanics Magazine contains some very interesting views of the boat and its operator.

PAPER BOATS. From the Japanese paper known as "sashikiran," treated chemically to make it waterproof, an ex-admiral of the Japanese navy has succeeded in making paper lifeboats that can be packed away in a space of about one cubic foot, but which, when inflated, are seaworthy and durable. The January Popular Mechanics Magazine contains a picture of one of these strange boats inflated.

CLASH OF DATES. Chatham World.—The Fredericton people have chosen the same dates that Chatham had already announced, Sept. 20 to 25, and it is felt that it would injure both exhibitions to hold them at the same time. Chatham chose the dates first, and will appeal its rights to agriculture to protect its date. A delegation, consisting of R. A. Lawlor and George E. Fisher, has been appointed to visit Fredericton and discuss the matter with the Fredericton Exhibition Association and the minister of agriculture.

TRIBUTE TO MR. VENOIT. Chatham World.—P. J. Venoit, of Bathurst, is addressing Carleton county meetings on behalf of the opposition candidate for the legislature, Mr. Simms. Mr. Venoit is a forceful and resourceful speaker, with a great mine of political information to draw from.

THE MARITIME FORWARD MOVEMENT

(Maritime Merchant)
The day on which our last issue was published was the day of the Maritime Forward Movement convention at Amherst, the deliberations of which were reported at very considerable length in the newspapers. As might be expected there is a difference of opinion as to the success of this conference, some who attended saying that it was impractical and useless and others going so far as to pronounce it the most successful effort in the province. Perhaps if we say that the first mentioned critics suffered from lack of imagination and that the others were ultra-enthusiastic, we shall characterize both criticisms correctly. For ourselves, we are disposed to be sympathetic with the view of the more enthusiastic, not because the meeting was a success in every detail, but because it was a definite starting point of what seems to us to be a good effort. The conference experienced the usual shortcomings of a first attempt, just as we might have expected it to. But because it did not accomplish things that the first mentioned critics would describe as practical it should not be presumed that it did not do things that in the end will be useful. Every bit of progress the world has ever made was due to some individual having a new idea that proved to be a good one. The writer benefited because it was passed along and it is as a medium for passing such ideas along that the Amherst Movement will have its greatest usefulness.
If we have any criticism of the meeting it would be that several of the addresses were somewhat aside from the purpose of the programme. The chairman in his address stated that the conference was designed to increase the confidence of Maritime people in their own section of the country, and to encourage co-operation for the general good of all. Many of the addresses were absolutely to the point and were very inspiring, but some were most unfortunate in this respect. We do not need to particularize for anyone who was there or who read the reports in the newspapers will know exactly what we mean. The occasion in our opinion was not one on which to talk of our woes and sufferings; it was a time to talk about our strong points, and why we should be hopeful. It is quite all right that the country should be told what the troubles of certain individuals are, but this was not the time to do it, and their being told more or less neutralized the good influence of the cheerful reports of other speakers.
Now, looking to the future, the next question is, has such a convention any prospective value as a permanent institution, having annual meetings at some central point in the province? We believe that it has. We believe that an annual assembly of maritime provinces men, where especially prepared addresses would be given on subjects in which we are all directly or indirectly interested should have a great usefulness. Such a gathering would be especially appreciated by men who live in the smaller places and have few opportunities to hear ad-

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID SICKNESS
Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions, and are responsible for the readiness with which many people contract disease.

HE IS MAYOR NO LONGER
Mr. Hurley of Salem Was Adverse Critic of St. John
Mayor John F. Hurley, of Salem, Mass., was recalled by the voters in a special election last week. Matthias J. O'Keefe, leather manufacturer and candidate of the Better Government Association, defeating him, 846 to 209. It was the first recall election in New England.
In the campaign the opposition charged that Mayor Hurley had not enforced the liquor laws. He had been the executive head of the city five times and is widely known as the "Silk Hat Mayor."
Mayor Hurley visited St. John about five years ago. At that time he attracted considerable attention in the streets because of his costume of alk hat, sack coat, plaid vest, light blue socks and fawn colored spats, to say nothing of his luxurious denture. His comments on St. John as "a one-home town," made popular the query "Where is Salem, anyway?"

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyleth's Sage and Sulphur tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and youthful appearance within a few days.

BOYS OF SIXTEEN FOR THE ARMY OF GERMANY
Bernie, Jan. 2—The Bavarian press contains the announcement that on and after January 2, the military training institution of the Potsdam Guards will be prepared to receive volunteers between the ages of sixteen years and sixteen years and nine months, the height of candidates to be not less than five feet three inches. All volunteers must produce the authorization of a parent or guardian and a birth certificate.
An official statement gives the German losses among army doctors as 845 of whom 112 were slightly wounded, forty seriously, one ill, sixty-five dead (including those who died of disease), seventy-five missing and forty-six captured—in all nearly three per cent of the total number of doctors in the German army.
The general staff is making every effort to be agreeable to American and Italian journalists, for whom comfortable motor cars and the best sleeping accommodations are provided, and everything is being done to induce them to extend the German army. I am informed, however, that the Italian journalists thus entertained represent unimportant papers with a strong pro-German bias.

Twitching of the Nerves Broken-down System
Now Entirely Cured—Never Used Any Medicine With Such Benefit as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.
Headaches, sleeplessness and nervousness are often very disagreeable, but when your nervous system gets into such a condition that the nerves twitch and jerk, and you have peculiar nervous sensations come over you there is cause for grave alarm.
Everybody dreads the thought of paralysis of the face, of locomotor ataxia. Nothing is worse to look forward to than to look forward to MRS. McKELLAR.
The writer of this letter did not know what to expect, but fortunately began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food in time to head off danger, and writes that she was entirely cured of the old trouble. The last paragraph proves that the cure was lasting.
Mrs. John McKellar, 11 Barton street east, Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"I was injured some years ago, and that left me with a broken-down nervous system. I could not sleep, and suffered from twitching of the nerves and disagreeable nervous sensations. I then began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and can say that I never used any medicine that did me so much good. In fact, I am entirely cured of my old trouble. The Nerve Food not only strengthened the nerves, but also built up my system in every way."
Under more recent date Mrs. McKellar writes confirming her cure, and states that she has had inquiries from many people who had heard of the great benefits she obtained from Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

RING
Three Champs. Defeated
The year of 1914 was ill-starred for champions of the boxing world. Willie Ritchie, who had only begun to enjoy the fruits of the lightweight title, was sore from the brow of Ad Wolgast, was soundly trounced by Freddie Welsh in London and Johnny Coulon of Chicago who for years ruled the ranks of the bantamweight fighters, was knocked out by "Kiki" Williams, from Baltimore. George Chip of Newcastle, Pa. generally recognized as the real champion of the middleweights, was beaten by Al McCoy of Brooklyn, with one punch.

Manager McGraw of the Giants is said to have closed a deal whereby he secured Hans Lobert, the great third baseman of Philadelphia National team, to play with the Giants.

ATHLETIC Defines an Amateur.
The question of when an amateur is not an amateur was decided on last Wednesday by the Athletic Research Society, at its ninth annual conference. The definition was put in one syllable talk that even a layman can understand. Here it is:

"An amateur athlete is one who participates in competitive physical sports only for the pleasure and physical, mental, moral and social benefits derived therefrom."

The research society laid down three rules which, if violated, makes the offender a professional. The three ways in which an amateur is changed to professional ranks follow:
"Teaching or coaching professional athletes for pay.
"Competing under salary, or for a fee.
"Competing for a cash prize or a stake bet."

The society set a definite status for a new class—that of non-competing amateurs.
This class includes athletes who have lost their full amateur standing and instruct amateurs, but not professionals, for salary, but who have retained their former amateur standing in all other respects.

BATHURST CHURCH DESTROYED BY FIRE

St. Luke's Presbyterian Building Burned to the Ground - Insurance $2,000

(Special to Times)

Bathurst, N. B., Jan. 4.—St. Luke's Presbyterian church here was destroyed by fire last night in a spectacular blaze which was first seen about ten o'clock. During the evening service, which closed about 8.30, there was a faint odor of smoke, but investigation showed everything apparently all right. It is supposed that the fire originated in the attic round the chimney, as the upper part of the building was ablaze when the alarm was sounded. Inside of an hour the quaint little building was nothing but a heap of smoldering ashes.

It was one of the oldest buildings in Bathurst, built about seventy-four years ago. It was insured for $2,000.

BRITAIN AND THE VATICAN

London, Jan. 4.—(Montreal Gazette cable)—The publication, as a parliamentary paper, of the instructions given to Sir Henry Howard concerning his mission to the Vatican entirely justifies the counterbalance the British influence around the Holy See. The message in question was censored heavily, but the official paper shows that the envoy was instructed to inform the Pope that the British government were anxious to put themselves into direct communication with him for the purpose of demonstrating the motives which governed their attitude since the moment normal relations between the great powers of Europe were disturbed.

IMPORTANT MATTERS AFFECTING EDUCATION AND PROVINCE SCHOOLS

Conference of Chief Superintendent With Inspectors and Others

"BREACHES OF FAITH"

Too Common, Was the Opinion - Fly the Flag - More Attention to School Sanitation - Encourage Athletics to Combat Cigarette-Supply of Teachers

The conference of Dr. Carter, the chief superintendent of education, with the inspectors, directors of vocational education and principal of the Normal School, closed on Thursday evening after two days of careful consideration of the schedule and various other matters relating to the condition and welfare of the schools of the province.

The consideration of district difficulties, the supply of teachers, and the promotion of the professional side of Normal School training occupied the first day.

It was proposed that forms be furnished each school district on which to record the minutes of the annual meetings as is done in Ontario, in order to promote a more business like and systematic account of the proceedings, and to insure a copy of the same for the inspector, which many secretaries at present fail to send.

It was considered most desirable that each school district should be empowered at the annual meeting to elect one or more delegates to institutes, as is now customary in the United States and to defray their expenses.

The good influence of women's institutes in the work of the schools is recognized, but it was felt that we should also enlist the co-operation and influence of the men in the work of the schools. The parent teachers' movement was commended.

More Frequent Reports.

The inspectors were asked to report more frequently to trustees, in country districts upon the form supplied, and in urban districts by means of special reports each year.

The view was expressed that in the few districts in which it is not possible to obtain an acting board of trustees, that the board of education should authorize the inspector to act in place of a school board from term to term as may be necessary.

That lists of directors should be prepared in each district having a valuation of less than $15,000, in order that the attention of Class III teachers may thereby be directed to them.

All the inspectors were of the opinion that "breaches of faith" were becoming much too common in the part of teachers and that some more stringent action was necessary.

It was recommended that legislation be sought providing that in future the area of school grounds in country districts shall not be less than one acre.

That, in order to facilitate the work of secretaries, who are paid very little for their work, the exhibition of the assessment list should be a sufficient notice of taxes due.

That all trustees should be required to insure their school property.

Fly the Flag.

It was recommended that greater attention be given to patriotism and more insistence upon flying the school flag. It was suggested that Victoria Day be observed as Empire Day instead of May 23 as at present.

That school sanitation receive more attention, the more frequent cleaning of school buildings be insisted upon and some agent used keeping down dust in all school houses.

That school athletics be encouraged as the best counteracting influence against cigarettes and the use of tobacco, and that all proper encouragement be given the formation of cadet corps and to the boy scout movement, in so far as it does not interfere with the school activities of many agents for books and apparatus who from time to time prey upon teachers and trustees and improperly take up the time of the schools.

The teaching of morals, manners and civics is to be increased supervision.

Teachers.

The supply of teachers was reported more satisfactory than for some time past and it is believed will fairly equal the demand for the present year—except in grammar and superior grades. Female teachers have almost entirely supplanted males, and I and II class male teachers have difficulty in securing positions. This is a matter for deep concern as the supply of male teachers is increasing, there being no normal school in attendance at the Normal School than for some time.

There was a long and animated discussion over the subject of professional training at the Normal School, and a strong desire was expressed that less scholastic training should be given there. There should be a better professional training given first class teachers than second, and no teacher should be able to secure a first class license without a period of successful experience. It was pointed out on the other side that, with the existing scarcity of teachers, it was a poor time to curtail the supply, that two-thirds of the present supply of teachers come from country districts and additional scholastic training is necessary for them. To add to their present expenses by attendance at a high school would seriously affect the number of prospective teachers.

Fund for French Aspirants.

A very interesting and important statement was made by Inspector Hebert with reference to the supply of higher class French teachers. Through his initiative a fund which has up to this time reached $2,500 has been raised to assist those of his race who will take a full course at the Normal School; no interest is charged and the loan is expected to be repaid in three years.

It is partly due to this fund that eighteen French students are at present taking the full course at the Normal School. Inspector Hebert believes that all short term French teachers should be required to undergo a preliminary examination.

WINS D. S. O. MEDAL

Lieutenant Basil White Mentioned in Field Marshall French's Despatches

The London Sketch, in a recent issue has a piece of information which will be read with interest here, the gaining of the Distinguished Service Order medal by Lieutenant Basil White, son of Colonel G. Holt White, who was D. O. C. here some years ago. The Sketch publishes a list of fifty-eight mentioned in Field Marshall Sir John French's despatches and under the heading "D. S. O." says:—

"Lieutenant Henry Basil Hayden White, 1st Battalion Queen's Own (Royal West Kent Regiment) near Neuve Chapelle, for bringing his battalion out of action after ten successive days in the trenches during which time he showed great power of leadership and determination of a high order."

Lieutenant White is a brother of Mrs. George West Jones.

GIVE BOUNDARY LAND IN WEST FOR PART OF STATE OF MAINE?

That is Report of Changes Which Reaches Winnipeg Paper

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 4.—The Free Press says it has received inquiries from Saskatchewan regarding rumors of proposed change in the boundary line between Western Canada and the United States. One says the opinion on the Canadian side was that a twenty-mile strip from the Great Lakes to the Pacific was to be exchanged by Canada for territory in Maine. The Free Press states that the boundary has been moved twenty-five miles to the north, from the Pacific to the Great Lakes.

ENTENTE TRADE LEAGUE SEEKS FRIENDS HERE

The Entente Trade League has recently been established in Great Britain to encourage trade with the empire and its friends. Circulars have been to the boards of trade throughout Canada urging them to adopt the idea. The circulars say that the main object of the league "which has been formed on a non-contributory basis and aims at no commercial profits" are briefly as follows:—

1.—To obtain a pledge from the buying public in the United Kingdom to abstain from buying German and Austrian goods as soon as existing stocks of these goods shall have been replaced by similar articles manufactured in the British Empire or by our allies and friendly nations.

2.—To provide facilities for manufacturers desirous of availing themselves of the fresh openings for imperial and foreign trade which must arise owing to the absence of German and Austrian competition.

3.—To make known to wholesale traders, importers and retail establishments, the best new sources of supply, independent of Austria and Germany."

IS SLAIN BY HUSBAND AS SHE SITS ON BROTHER'S KNEE

Shot Fired Through Panel of Door After He Was Reused Admittance

New York, Jan. 4.—Mrs. Frances Collins was shot and killed early today in a bedroom of her home, where she lived with her husband, William, and her two brothers. The husband is locked up, charged with murder.

Collins, a cabaret singer, and his wife quarreled early in the evening. When he returned home he heard her voice in an adjoining bedroom. He peeped through the keyhole and saw her sitting in a man's lap. Another young woman was in the room. Collins demanded admittance, was refused, and it is charged, fired through the panel of the door. Mrs. Collins fell to the floor, fatally wounded.

The man in whose lap Mrs. Collins was sitting, was her brother George.

POLICE COURT

Four prisoners charged with drunkenness came in for a severe reprimand from Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning. Two were remanded until tomorrow morning, one was fined $8 or two months in jail with hard labor, and the fourth, who faced an additional charge of using obscene language, was fined $24; $15 being allowed to stand against him pending his future conduct. "I wonder if the rum sellers are aware that they are responsible for the majority of the cursing that is heard on our streets?" was the comment of the magistrate as he passed sentence upon the prisoners.

Geo. Fitham, who was found wandering about Brussels street last night, and not being able to give a satisfactory account of himself, and also for carrying a revolver, was fined $50, which was allowed to stand against him.
