Threatening Criminal Proceedings Against Sir John Lister-Kaye for Peruvian Atrocities—Long Lineage But Short Pulse—The Ambassador to Washington

Considerable pressure is being exerted upon the British government with a view to bringing criminal proceedings against Sir John Lister-Kaye and his fellow directors of the Peruvian-Amazon Rubber Company, for the shocking atrocities in the Putumayo district.

Both England and America, indeed, are arranging to maintain consulates on the upper Amazon, in order to see that the Peruvian authorities fulfil their duties, and the Duke of Norfolk has headed an 80,000 subscription for the establishment of a mission of Franciscan Fathers in the Putumayo district—a mission to the maintenance of which His Holiness Pius X. has already contributed largely.

While it is hoped that these measures will prevent a re-occurrence of the atrocities, it does not solve the question of the punishment of those whom the public holds as accountable.

Both England and America, indeed, are arranging to maintain consulates on the upper Amazon, in order to see that the Peruvian authorities fulfil their duties, and the Duke of Norfolk has headed an 80,000 subscription for the establishment of a mission of Franciscan Fathers in the Putumayo district.

Daily Hints For the Cook

PLUMBO SOUP

Pour boiling water over two pounds of any kind of plums, and leave them for about half an hour. Then remove the skins, and leave them for an hour to draw out the juice. Let three pounds of water with a bit of stick cinnamon in it come to the boil, add the plums, and simmer till tender; sweeten to taste. Stir one ounce of butter with one ounce of flour over the fire till brown and crisp, but not in the least burnt, mix with a little lemon syrup, add to the soup, stir till thickened, and serve with crabs or small sweet biscuits.

GOOSEBERRY SOUP

Top and tail green gooseberries, allowing half-pound to each child. Wash them, cover with boiling water, which strain off at once, and put the fruit on with fresh cold water, a pint to each pound of gooseberries. Add a piece of thirty-grain lemon rind, and simmer till tender enough to pass through a sieve. When all has gone through except the skins, put in one ounce of sugar to taste, and thicken with arrowroot. Flavor with lemon syrup, and serve with sponge biscuits.

The First Raise

By RUTH CAMERON

"TELL me what a man does with his first raise," a successful financier, used to say to me, "and I will tell you if he has any chance of becoming a rich man."

The other day I happened to be present at the family councils of a certain young couple when the husband announced that he had just received a raise of ten dollars a month.

The little wife, who is an enthusiastic young person, clapped her hands like a child and cried, "Oh Frederick, then we can have that nice apartment we wanted. That was just ten dollars a month more. I'll go around tomorrow and see if it is still vacant. Oh, say we may."

As this prompt disposal of his hitherto-earned raise, Frederick, who is the common sense of the partnership, looked a trifle dubious, but the enthusiastic little person was ready for him with a dozen advantages such as that the kitchen was cooler and more conveniently arranged, and that the house was so near the river that they would be able to have a canoe and go out on the river hot summer evenings. This last bit of diplomacy was a telling stroke, and before I left Frederick was evidently considerably more than half persuaded.

Now I have sometimes heard these same young people bewail the fact that, although they realized the need of saving for a rainy day, they needed every cent of his salary to live on. Whether that was strictly true or not is an open question, but there is no question but that if they had lived on that up to the time of the raise, they could have continued to live on that or a very little more afterwards, and could have saved at least a part of that raise.

Now what does a raise mean to you young people who are receiving your first advance in salary? Does it mean the possession of some hitherto unattainable luxury? Does it mean that you won't have to look after the nickels and dimes so closely in the future? Or does it mean at least some increase in saving power?

A young business woman who in the past six years has worked up from ten to twenty dollars a week, told me she found it just as hard to save on twenty as she did on ten, and that altogether she had not saved over a hundred dollars. Undoubtedly that girl had regarded each raise as an enlargement of her spending power.

Another girl who has worked about the same time and never earned more than eighteen dollars a week, has saved nearly a thousand dollars. "Each time I was advanced in salary," she said, "I saved half the raise. You see, I reckoned that if I could live on eight dollars a week I could certainly live on nine even if my salary had been raised to ten."

Now there are, to be sure, many people who can never enjoy the present because they are always saving and scrimping to an unnecessary degree for the future. That, I think, is the very worst kind of extravagance, because it means wasting a perfectly good present for the sake of a future that may never come.

But between these two extremes, there is, as always, a mean. And this time it is a golden mean in more than one sense.

NEW ENGLAND AIDS BOYCOTT ON MEAT

Boston, Aug. 6—Mayor John F. Fitzgerald's suggestion that persons all over the country cease eating meat as a protest against the high cost of living is being discussed all over New England. No definite action toward putting a boycott into effect has been taken, but Mayor Fitzgerald believes his suggestion has already cost meat dealers thousands of dollars.

"I have received many letters," he said tonight, "and all the writers pledge themselves to join with me in abstaining from meat until prices are lowered."

Nearly all of New England's mayors favor Mayor Fitzgerald's programme for fighting the beef "barons". Mayor Roberts of Burlington (Vt.), says: "If every one would follow Mayor Fitzgerald's suggestion prices would undoubtedly drop."

Mayor Edward C. Smith of Manchester (N. H.), said: "I'm not sure what the effect would be, but I believe the experiment is worth trying."

HOBBLE SKIRTS ARE BLAMED FOR MORAL DECLINE

Censors Attribute Increase in Numbers of Mashers to Abbreviated Form of Dress — Ministers Call a Halt

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 6.—Widespread interest in this city was attracted yesterday by the statement of the Rev. Dr. Walter T. Sumner, chairman of Chicago Vice Commission, that immodest dressing by women was responsible for "mashers". Moral censors of the city agreed with Dr. Sumner and declared that a change in the style was urgently needed here. They agreed with him that the nation was passing through an era of suggestive dressing. The Rev. Dr. Amos A. Johnson, pastor of Siloam Methodist Episcopal church, who has been active in moral movements in the city, advocated concentrating the aim of which would be to wage an educational campaign to show women and girls the evils of the hobble skirt.

"I think that the Episcopal authority of Chicago has uttered the truth," said Dr. Johnson. "Modesty stands in deadly peril because of the supposed striking attire now worn by women. It is time to call a halt. Pure minded youths are waylaid by the brevity of skirts, and I believe that the predominant styles are hideous."

"I am encouraged by the activities of the great papers of the country in condemning the hobble skirts and other forms of sensuous and abbreviated attire. Newspapers can do more good than other agencies, and I see only victory in sight when they enter into the crusade."

"I am inclined to believe that there are more 'mashers' now than in past years. Naturally, you can only hold the immodest clothing responsible."

Dr. Thomas C. Pollock, of the Oak Park United Presbyterian church, declared the predominance of 'mashers' was a shame to the police forces of the larger cities.

"But," he added, "ministers and others shocked by the pagant of immodest clothing should remember that the police, the root of the evil in the senseless desire of women to expose their charms as far as the law permits. They have one last enough, and moralists should step in."

BOSTON PROTESTS

Boston, Mass., Aug. 6.—Boston clergymen agree with the Rev. Walter T. Sumner, Chicago, that the 'masher' is responsible for the 'masher' evil. The Rev. J. Frank Chase, secretary of the Watch and Ward Society, said:

"There never was a time when woman dressed in a manner to expose herself so much as now. The prevailing style of light skirt and low corset leaves little to the imagination. This must necessarily have a demoralizing effect on the police. The roots of these clothes liable to insult."

"The women have taken their style of dress from Paris. It is small wonder that the men who see them believe they have taken their style of morality from Paris also."

The Rev. E. A. Torrey, of Dudley street Baptist church, said:

"Women of the highest respectability dress, powder and paint themselves today to look like demimondaines, and to encourage men to believe that they are such."

Recently I was in Los Angeles, and I was horrified at the manner in which the women there dressed and painted themselves. Only a few days ago a woman told me that just the same thing was true in New York."

The Rev. Dr. Robert S. MacArthur, of New York, who is the highest respectability dress, powder and paint themselves today to look like demimondaines, and to encourage men to believe that they are such."

MANCHESTER ROBERTSON ALLISON, LTD.

MISS MARY ROBSON, AS AUNT MARY, RECEIVED WITH ENTHUSIASM

Repeated Success of Former Productions — Delightful Comedy Artistically Presented

"God meant us all to be happy, only some of us don't know how to set about it—that's all." These are the last lines spoken in Miss Robson's great—probably her greatest—success, The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary, and briefly they unfold the hidden spirit of the play and the lesson that it teaches. Miss Robson received the warm plaudits of the St. John theatre-goers when she appeared in the role of Aunt Mary in this successful comedy in this city about three years ago, and a repetition of her success in the same role was witnessed in the Opera House yesterday afternoon and last evening by fairly large and very appreciative audiences.

Miss Robson is decidedly at home in the leading role of The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary, and her acting and speaking of the lines are done with naturalness that seems to be a striking feature of her own personality. In the reading of pathetic lines she is superb and her bright changes to the humorous side of life are more than cheerful.

Miss Robson's role requires the careful interpretation that the clever comedienne gives to it and her portrayal of the part with natural grace and ease is very pleasing. She was greeted with frequent applause last evening and forced to respond to several curtain calls at the close of each act.

Jack Storey was excellent in the role of Jack Watkins and Paul Decker, particularly, and also Lewis Parmenter and John Rowe, as Jack's chums, displayed considerable talent and shared in the honors of the evening. Miss Faye Cusick, as Betty, was pretty, winsome and graceful in the part, and Misses Lotta Blake, Edith Conrod, Louise Rand, Margaret Boland and C. C. Swaine, George E. Hall and Lester Wallace were also pleasing in their respective roles.

The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary will be played again on Friday night for the last time in this city, and this evening and Saturday afternoon and evening A Night Out will again be presented.

WIRELESS SYSTEM FROM THE "SOD" TO MONTREAL

Ottawa, Aug. 7.—It is understood that one of the results of the recent international wireless congress held in London, at which Canada was represented by Deputy Minister of Naval Service Desbarats, and the superintendent of Dominion Wireless, Mr. Edwards, will be that the various governments will make wireless equipment on lake and ocean going vessels compulsory.

At the present time there are no vessels on the Great Lakes equipped with the apparatus the chief reason being that there was no land communication available. Two new stations, namely Midland and Tobermory both of which are now operating and within a few days there will be a station operating at the Sod with which connections can be secured from Montreal.

Paris is generous in statues erected to her heroes. Voltaire is honored with four memorials. There are two to Diderot, of "Dictionnaire Encyclopedique" fame. The profile of the poet Alfred de Musset is to be seen in three places. Jeanne d'Arc has for the potato was first found; it fell out of a window and wasn't found again for 20 years.

Mrs. Malcolm Whitman, who was Miss Jennie Crocker of San Francisco, has engaged a special car to carry a score of her prize-winning dogs from that city to her new home in New York. The dogs are valued at $10,000. The special car will be attached to the same train that carries Mrs. Whitman.

H. W. Phinny, of Belfast, Me., has a petrifed potato which he plowed up on his farm 29 years ago. The eyes are plainly to be seen on it, but it has gradually changed in color. A short time after the potato was first found, it fell out of a window and wasn't found again for 20 years.

BISHOP CASEY'S CAREER

St. Andrews Beacon—A great honor has been done to a son of Charlotte county by the elevation of Bishop Casey to the Archbishopric of Vancouver. The quiet, studious little country boy, who a few years ago, played amid the green fields in the humble little rural settlement of Flume Ridge little dreamed that such a distinguished honor was in store for him. It shows the great possibilities that lie at the door of even the humblest son of Canada.

CUSHING-AVARD

The Sackville correspondent of the Moncton Transcript gives the following details of the Cushing-Avard wedding: One of the most interesting events of the season was the marriage of Miss Eliza Joseph Avard, daughter of the late Joseph Avard, Great Shomagus to William Wallace Cushing, a prominent business man of Florida. The ceremony was performed at the home of Charles Siddall, brother-in-law of the bride, in the presence of a number of the most intimate friends of the contracting parties. The parlors were handsomely decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and potted plants. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. D. McCully, B. D., of Hillsboro, assisted by Rev. F. W. W. DeBarre. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, George J. Dobson, of Byfield and was attended. She was becomingly gowned in a traveling suit of navy blue broadcloth with hat of champagne and tan. Mrs. W. C. Avard, sister-in-law of the bride, played the wedding march. After the ceremony and congratulations, luncheon was served and the happy couple left on the Ocean Limited for their future home in Calhoun, Florida. Many elegant gifts totaling to the popularity of the newly wedded pair. The groom's gift to the bride was a chest of sterling silver. They will be at home to their friends after September 1st. Among those present at the wedding were Miss Frances Carter, L. F. Avard, Moncton; Mrs. F. Donkin, Amherst.

THE NEAL 3-Day Cure for Alcoholism

Its Origin, Object and Something About Its Originator and the Business and Professional Men Behind It. (By Dr. B. E. Neal).

I have devoted a good many years to the study of intemperance and have originated a treatment which is based upon a different theory from those that have been heretofore advanced and which has proven more efficacious than other methods. Based upon the results of my theoretical study and practical, clinical investigation, I claim alcoholism is not a disease, but a poisoning and that by a treatment of neutralization and elimination, alcoholic poisons can be restored to a normal condition so far as the effects of alcohol are concerned, in three days' time. I claim that fully ninety per cent of drinking men are comparatively healthy and that when the poisonous effect of alcohol is neutralized and perfect elimination secured, they will in all probability live just as long and as comfortably as men who have not drunk to excess. The Neal Treatment is composed of harmless drugs which neutralize the poisonous effect and eliminate the alcohol from the system; it is always administered inter-ally, which is positive proof that there will be no immediate or future complications from poisoning which might follow improper use of an infected needle by a careless or incompetent operator. During the time I have been making a specialty of treating alcoholism I have treated men from all ranks of life, from bankers, professional and business men, to the common jail drunkard. One of the most remarkable features of the Neal Drink and Drug treatment is the immediate effect upon the drinking man's brain and general system. After the three days' treatment has been administered, the patient finds himself in a perfectly mental and physical condition so far as the effect of alcohol is concerned, and they often remark that they seem to have emerged from a fog or mist which they have been existing for months and years. This result is permanent and a new lease of life is obtained without suffering or danger to the patient. There are two million men and women in the United States today who are using alcoholic intoxicants to an injurious extent. There are one million of these who have become so poisoned with it that they cannot by their own force of will, power, or the aid of any other means, break the chains that bind them to the habit of drink. Everyone of them knows that his powers to accomplish good results, financially, industrially, politically and socially are impaired by his craving for drink. Each one of them has a family or friend who not only knows but admits the truth of this and regrets the tendency of the victim to lose more and more of his power to fill his station in life. These feelings of regret, shame and forbidding on the part of those connected with the drinking man differ only in degree, from the business associate of the active, energetic business man who drinks, to the pitiful, crushing sorrow of the wife and children who are forced to suffer the deprivations of a drunkard's home and the humiliating ostracism by society of a drunkard's family. SCENES OF WILD ENTHUSIASM WHEN ROOSEVELT IS NOMINATED

Governor Johnson of California for Vice-President--No Opposition to Platform or Candidates--Sang the "Battle Hymn of the Republic"

Chicago, Aug. 7.—Singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" and the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" the delegates to the first national convention of the new Progressive party tonight acclaimed Colonel Theodore Roosevelt of New York as their candidate for president and Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California as their choice for vice-president.

Marking a new departure in the proceedings of national conventions, the two candidates immediately were formally notified of their nomination and in the midst of deafening cheers appeared before the delegates to voice their acceptance and to pledge their best efforts to the coming campaign.

After adjournment Controller Frendergast delivered the formal speech, putting the name of Col. Roosevelt in nomination. Frendergast concluded his speech at 2:22 and a wild demonstration was immediately begun. Delegates and spectators jumped upon their chairs and a chorus of cheering followed. A sea of waving red bandanas appeared over the heads of the howling delegates and hats were thrown into the air. Over the Colorado delegation appeared a banner inscribed "Lindsey for vice-president."

From a gallery a big American flag was dropped. To it was attached a picture of Col. Roosevelt in rough-rider uniform. He was greeted with an outburst of cheers. Enthusiasm became pandemonium and in the midst of the tumult a Minnesota delegate broke loose the state standard and started up the center aisle. New York delegates immediately followed, surmounting a pole bearing an American flag came next and soon every state standard was swinging over a yelling, shrieking mob that surged through the aisles.

Away up in the back gallery the strains of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" broke loose. Out of the confused roar a few strong voices took up the stirring anthem. The shrill shriek of the rifle of the veteran fire and drum corps rose above the bedlam and the song was lost in a wilderness of sounds.

On the platform a white-bearded veteran in a Grand Army uniform swung an American flag and urged the delegates to make more noise. When the convention had been in an uproar for twenty minutes, the veteran fire and drum corps appeared on the floor and headed by a boy carrying two flags, joined the crowd, parading in the aisles. A Montana delegate, bearing a little girl on his shoulders, followed the veterans.

High up in the roof of the big hall a squad of workmen ran out on the steel rafters. They dropped over the shrieking bedlam below a huge American flag. The band swung into America, and the delegates and spectators, harrowed and standing, sang the national anthem.

When the demonstration had been under way forty-five minutes Chairman Beveridge made an attempt to beat down the tumult with his gavel. With some difficulty he quieted the crowd, but a gray-haired enthusiast in the New York delegation leaped to his chair and waving an umbrella over his head began to shout for "Teddy." He was finally suppressed and Beveridge introduced Judge Ben Lindsey of Colorado, who seconded the nomination of Roosevelt.

The close of Lindsey's speech was cheered and Beveridge announced: "Mr. Funk of Illinois, will escort Miss Jane Addams to the platform." As the noted sociological worker appeared there was an outburst of enthusiasm and delegates and spectators gave her three cheers. Her speech was frequently interrupted by applause.

Quiet was restored when Alex. T. Hamilton of Georgia, was introduced as a delegate from "Colonel Roosevelt's mother state." He made a brief speech seconding the nomination of Roosevelt.

General Horatio King, of New York, followed with a Roosevelt speech. He declared that because of the late hour he would not make a lengthy speech. Mr. King appeared as a union veteran. He was followed by Colonel T. Lloyd of Florida, a Confederate veteran.

General King escorted the old Confederate soldier to the platform and stood with his arm around his shoulder as the crowd cheered its approval. The Confederate veteran was an old man, with an empty right sleeve. He was followed by General John H. McDowell, of Tennessee, commander of the Confederate veterans in that state. General McDowell concluded with these words:

"I want to repeat to the brave comrades who confronted me in the war that the greatest mission bearing upon my heart before I cross the River Styx is that I may see this nation united once more. There is more in my heart I would like to say but time will not permit, but until the polls close in November you will find me following that noble leader with my hat in the ring."

The delegates jumped to their chairs and shouted. The band played Dixie and the floor and galleries joined in singing the Southern anthem.

Chairman Beveridge succeeded in quieting the tumult of about five minutes. By this time the formality of calling the roll of states had been wholly dispensed with and Beveridge recognized Henry J. Allen, also to second the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt. When Mr. Allen had concluded with a denunciation of President Taft, Lucia F. C. Garvin, of Rhode Island, seconded Colonel Roosevelt.

P. V. Collins, of Minnesota, seconded Colonel Roosevelt on behalf he said, of the farmers, characterizing the colonel as the only friend of the farmer in the present campaign.

John J. Sullivan, of Ohio, seconded Roosevelt, predicting the colonel would carry Taft's state.

Robert S. Fisher, of Arizona, made the last preceding speech for Colonel Roosevelt.

Chairman Beveridge then recognized William Draper Lewis, Dean of the Law Faculty of the University of Pennsylvania, to present the platform. Lewis concluded the platform at 3:38 and a demonstration in the picture and is above talking to William Finn (2) of Pittsburgh, and (3) J. L. Hamilton. No. 4 is Mrs. R. H. Elders of New York, one of the many feminine delegates to the bull moose convention.

short and the platform was adopted without a dissenting voice.

Governor Carry, of Wyoming moved to suspend the rules and declare Theodore Roosevelt the nominee of the convention for president.

"Does the chair hear a second by two states?" demanded Beveridge, and a roar swept the hall.

"If it did not take so long I would name all of the states as seconding the motion," said Beveridge.

"Those in favor of the motion will answer 'Aye.'"

From the floor there arose a rolling row of "Aye's."

A dull silence greeted the call for "Noes."

"The ayes seem to have it," began Beveridge, and a cheer interrupted him.

"The ayes have it," he continued when he could be heard. "And Theodore Roosevelt is declared nominee of the convention."

Beveridge halted an incipient demonstration and John M. Parker, of Louisiana, took the platform to nominate Governor Hiram W. Johnson, of California, for vice-president.

Judge Ben Lindsey, of Colorado, was recognized to second the nomination of Johnson. Lindsey moved that the nomination of Johnson be made by acclamation. But Beveridge reserved the right to put the motion later and recognized C. S. Wheeler, of California, who, on behalf of that state, seconded the nomination of Johnson.

Chairman Beveridge then put the motion of Judge Lindsey to nominate Johnson by acclamation.

The motion was greeted with a roar of ayes.

"An permanent chairman of this convention," declared Beveridge, "I hereby declare Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, to be the candidate of the convention for president of the United States."

When order was restored Beveridge introduced Roosevelt as the next president of the United States.

"I come forward," said the colonel, "to thank you from my heart for the honor you have conferred upon me and to say that, of course, I accept. I have been president and have been known much of life and I hold it by far the greatest honor and the greatest opportunity that has ever come to me to be called by you, for the time being, to the leadership of this great movement for the common people."

When the cheers that greeted the close of Roosevelt's speech subsided, Beveridge introduced Johnson.

He pledged himself to aid Roosevelt in the "Fight for the common good," and concluded: "I had rather go down to defeat with Theodore Roosevelt than to victory with any other presidential candidate."

The convention then adjourned.

In Spite of N. B. and Maine.
When the big Notre Dame baseball team of Roxbury was disbanded in 1910 because of the large number of players who joined the team in the New Brunswick-Maine League another team bearing the same name was organized and it has made a very creditable showing. This season it has met and defeated some of the strongest amateur and semi-professional teams in the state and stands ready to meet any team which think they are superior to it. The team has lost only two games this summer.

Nova Scotia League
The Halifax Socials defeated the South Quinny nine at Halifax yesterday by a score of 7 to 3. The Stellarton team won from the Westville nine by a score of 4 to 3.

Chance Still Confident.
Manager Chance is supremely confident that his team still has an excellent chance to win the pennant. They are playing great ball just now, despite the weakened condition of his pitchers, but the hard hitting of the entire team is winning games for them. Reulbach at the present time is the best hurler on the staff, and his great work last week in checking the Giants on three consecutive days when he was sent to the relief of the other who were wobbling, was excellent and shows that Big Ed is once again in winning form and that he will give valuable service to the club during the closing weeks of the pennant race.

Griffith's Scouts
By September 15 the Washington club will have purchased all the young players it intends to try out this fall and next spring. Scouts Kahoe and Ryan are busy scouring some of the minor leagues and reporting their finds to Griffith. Kahoe has jumped into the town where the team is stopping several times on this trip, and then leaves again after a few hours' conference with Griffith. There will also be drafted out for quite a lot of players through the most desirable will be purchased.

Not a One-Man Game.
The glorification of the pitcher is being carried to an absurd length this season, and to judge from lots of the stuff that is being published a reader would think that baseball had come down to a one-man game. For instance, Marquard of the Giants pitched in nineteen games and each was a victory for his team—remarkable feat no doubt, but nothing in comparison with that performed a few years ago. For nineteen times in succession, Marquard won, but his games were not played on successive days. But let that go. It will be noticed that each of these victories is credited solely to Marquard. Now, skillful as he is as a pitcher, Marquard could not do it all. There was a man behind the bat, and men in the field and had these not done their work well, Marquard might have pitched in vain. The fact is that Marquard was most fortunate in having so effective a team behind him and the team equally fortunate in having so effective a pitcher. Baseball is not a one-man game.

The Ring
Fighters Think in Big Money.
Wolgest demands $35,000 for three fights. Jack Johnson wants $30,000 to box Jesse ten rounds.

McCarthy Grows Impatient.
Luther McCarthy is growing impatient. The big Chicago fighter, who put an end to Carl Morris' career last spring, is finding it rather hard to secure matches in New York. He has been training for several weeks at a quiet New Jersey resort, having agreed to box Al Palmer in New York, but all this work has been in vain. For the reason that Palmer, badly advised, is trying to avoid a meeting. Mc-

FOUR CRACK WASHINGTON PLAYERS WHO ARE PUSHING SENATORS PENNANT-WARD AND SCENE IN RECENT GAME

Washington, Aug. 7.—"Pennant" is the epidemic here. Never before in the history of the national game—and the capital has had ball since 1885—have the people of Washington been so worked up as they are just now over the remarkable and surprising showing the Senators have made during the present season. When the team astonished the baseball world by winning seventeen straight games the local fans lost their heads. Then came the slump and much depression. Next the Senators started on another winning streak. At present they are playing pennant winning ball and are not very far behind in the run for first third base in recent New York-Washington series. Critics are now beginning to figure on game.

McCarthy's manager, William McCarty, who has vainly tried to corner Palmer and his advisers, declared yesterday that McCarthy has as much right to a match with Jack Johnson as Palmer. Accordingly he wired Johnson asking him to box ten rounds with McCarty and promising the negro champion a guarantee of $50,000. "It is as plain as day that Palmer is afraid of McCarthy," said McCarty. "He told me himself that he did not want to take any chances with McCarthy. He knows that McCarthy can hit harder than Bombardier Wells, and he doesn't want to be knocked out in a round. Palmer would have about as much show with Jack Johnson as a small boy with a cannibal. It is absurd to talk of such a fight, but while we are at it McCarthy intends to cut Palmer out if the negro is willing to talk business."

Athletic
Walker Knox Plans Tour.
W. R. Knox, the famous Canadian athlete, who carried off numerous prizes at the Highland gatherings held in Scotland last year, is still showing excellent form, says the Referee. He is at present acting as trainer to the Canadian athletic team at Stockholm, but has intimated his intention of competing at the Thornton gathering this month. That he is still a splendid all-round athlete is indicated by some of his recent performance at practice. He managed twenty-two feet in the broad jump, got over eleven feet two inches in the pole vault, and accomplished a heave of forty-four feet ten inches with the sixteen pound shot. Jumping, however, is his favorite sport, and we understand that he is desirous of meeting either Spivey, Corbett or Scott in a series of contests—standing high jump, running high jump, and pole vault; and is also willing to tackle Ram, Scott and John McKenna in a pole vaulting contest.

The Turf
Frederickton Races.
The attendance at the Frederickton races yesterday was very large. The free-for-all and the 2 1/2 mile class races were run off and were very exciting. Dimple K.

SCOTCHMEN HELD SUCCESSFUL MEET
Annual Demonstration and Games at Toronto Attended by 5,000 People

Toronto's Scotch population to that number of over 5,000 turned out to witness the grand demonstration and games held at the Exhibition grounds, under the auspices of the United Toronto Camps of the Sons of Scotland. Bagpipes, kilts and Scotch music were very much in evidence and the demonstration was most successful. There were four accidents during the afternoon, but all were of a trifling nature and the injured contestants were looked after by members of St. John Ambulance Corps. The meeting was held under the sanction of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union and many prominent athletes were among the competitors. The programme was a splendid one, including a motor-cycle race, football, competitions and dancing and piping contests in addition to the regular athletic events. Every event was hotly contested, but the motor-cycle race was, perhaps, the most popular one on the card. It was a five-mile event and was won by T. Smith, who covered the distance in 7 minutes 27.5 seconds, which is remarkably fast for a circular half-mile track. The pole vault was also close, Ed. Archibald defeating Bricker by clearing the bar at 11 feet 10 inches. In the dancing competition Mrs. Lela Markness, of New York, carried off premier honors, winning first prize in every event, but one, for which she was eligible. The special prize for the oldest Scotch couple in the grounds was won by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waldrum, of 28 Mercer street. Mr. Waldrum is 84 years old and Mrs. Waldrum 74. They have lived in Toronto for 28 years and were given a great ovation when they mounted their platform and were announced as the oldest couple. The programme was completed with two football competitions.

A Weird Thrilling Drama of Ancient Egypt
"A TRAGEDY OF THE DESERT"
Remarkable Two-Reel Story by Kalem Co.
THIS IS THE FIRST OF THE KALEM COMPANY'S MARVELLOUS PICTURES OF THE BELY LAND AND EGYPT GENERALLY. It is a thrilling fiction fraught with the intense drama of the East. Every scene is made in Luxor ancient city of the desert. The backgrounds are primitively Egyptian and the watcher is actually looking upon the famed lands of the oldest world, such as millionaires delight in an tour. No motion picture yet presented upon the Nicheil curtain approaches "A Tragedy of the Desert" in dramatic intensity. It is a class of its own—wonder, compelling and strange. Gene Gauntier, James McGowan, Channey Oloot, Harry Clark and the whole great company of Kalemites tell the story with fervor and striking effect. Two reels of superb scenic drama—a rare treat.

THEOLOGICAL STUDENT SUES FOR CUSTODY OF HIS CHILDREN

Grandmother Refuses to Give Them Up Without Payment For Board—Father Wins—The Francis Kerr Co. Case

A very interesting matter came up before Mr. Justice McKewen this morning, on habeas corpus proceedings. The question in dispute was the custody of two children, a girl of four years of age, and a boy of two, both of whom were brought before the court in obedience to the writ. The boy and girl are the children of Kenneth McLeod, who was last September living with his wife and the children in Sydney, C. B. Mr. McLeod wanted to attend college to prepare for the ministry, and an arrangement was made whereby the children were to live with their grandmother, Mrs. Jane Crosby at 99 1/2 Erin street, for whom Mrs. McLeod her daughter was to keep house. Mrs. McLeod died of tuberculosis in June last, and when Mr. McLeod asked for the possession of his children the grandmother refused to give them up unless he paid an amount between $200 and $300 for board. The writ was issued last evening and was returnable this morning.

Mrs. Beatrice Orr, sister of Mrs. McLeod, Mr. McLeod, and Mrs. Crosby gave evidence after which His Honor ordered that the father be given the custody of the children, and the claim for board was not allowed. When the order was made, Mrs. Orr created quite a scene in court, and threatened vengeance if anything happened to the children. Finally, His Honor had to request her to leave the court room. C. F. Liches appeared for the applicant, Mr. McLeod, and A. W. Baird for the respondent.

King's Bench Decision

In the matter of the Francis Kerr Co. Limited, and its winding up, disputed claims against the company were heard by Mr. Justice McKewen in chambers this morning. The claim of Frederick W. Pizlard was ordered to be placed on the dividend sheet, when prepared, as a preference claim. Respecting the claim of the Robert Reford Co., Ltd. for the value of 1400 bags, which they contended were never redelivered to them, Hammond J. Evans, accountant with the Robert Reford Co., Ltd., gave evidence, but was unable to prove the claim. The hearing was further adjourned until August 22nd when more evidence will be taken. Mr. J. King Kelley, K. C., appeared for the liquidators, J. J. Porter for Mr. Pizlard, and F. R. Taylor for the Robert Reford Co., Ltd.

A PITIABLE CASE

Woman of Sixty Years Arraigned in Police Court as a Vagrant—Objected to the Cells

Mary Craig, aged 60, was arraigned in the Police Court this morning, charged with lying and lurking in a part of Cliff street and not being able to give a satisfactory account of herself. According to the story told by the police the old woman is a vagrant with no visible means of support. She told the court this morning that she had a husband to support her, and that she was no vagrant. She was ordered sent below until enquiries can be made regarding her. The old woman refused to be taken below and made a great commotion in the court, shouting "murderer," as she was taken below. She will probably be sent to the Municipal Home.

William White, charged with drunkenness and also with violently resisting the police was before the court this morning. He appeared in court with his face and clothes all covered with blood.

CONFIRMATION AT LAND'S END.
An impressive confirmation service was held on Monday evening at Land's End, St. John River, when His Lordship Bishop Richardson administered the rite to a class of seven—three boys and four girls. After the imposition of hands, the Bishop made a very eloquent and appropriate address. The rector of the parish, Rev. A. B. Murray, was present and took part in the services. Mr. Ellis, the student, who has been supplying for the summer at Land's End and Baywater, also was present.

WRIGHT-HASTINGS.
An early morning wedding ceremony of popular local interest was performed today at 8:30 o'clock by Rev. George A. Ross at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Hastings, Douglas Avenue, when he united in marriage Miss Helen Beatrice, their daughter, to William Ludlow Wright, of West St. John. The bride was unattended. She wore a traveling costume of tan serge and a white milan hat with willow plumes. After the wedding, breakfast was served and later the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip through Nova Scotia, via Digby. They were nicely remembered by their friends who made them recipients of many handsome presents. Mr. Wright is in the employ of Piddington, Wetmore & Morrison as shipper, and he received a handsome gift from that firm as a token of their esteem.

THE NEW GARAGE

W. H. Allan, representing Lockwood, Green & Company, of Boston, was in the city yesterday in connection with the preparation of the plans for the new automobile garage which is to be erected at the corner of Germain and Princes streets by J. A. Pugsley & Co. This Boston firm are experts on concrete construction, and especially in automobile garage construction, they having constructed the Pierce-Arrow plant in Buffalo.

The tenders for the construction work will be called in about two weeks time. The new garage will be composed mostly of concrete and glass, one of the principal ideas being to have it exceptionally well lighted. G. Ernest Fairweather and the Boston firm will be associate architects in the work.

ANNUAL MATCHES OF THE NEW BRUNSWICK RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Number of Prizes Increased—Record Meet Anticipated—Change in Regulations for Blue Ribbon Event

Entries for the annual matches of the New Brunswick Rifle Association which will open at Sussex on next Tuesday, the 13th, containing all Friday night, have been coming in very freely and it is anticipated that they will have a record meeting.

Several changes have been made in the programme. A number of prizes have been added to each match, and the Pugsley Cup having been won outright at last year's meeting, the Sussex Mercantile Company have presented a cup to take its place, and this will be placed in competition in a match bearing their name.

A change has been made in the regulations governing the competition for the J. F. Robertson prize, a blue ribbon event of the meeting. This will now be awarded to the competitor making the highest aggregate in all the matches fired during the meeting.

The rebates on railway fares will again be included and the special rebates on entries to new members, or "Maidens," as they are named has been continued.

It is expected that the larger number of the competitors will camp on the range, and provision is again made for them. T. H. Brown, of Sussex, will have charge of the catering.

COMMISSIONERS DEAL WITH REQUESTS OF TELEPHONE COMPANY

At today's meeting of the city commissioners matters in connection with the department of public works were under consideration. An application was received from the New Brunswick Telephone Co. for permission to open a sidewalk in front of their building in Chipman's Hill for the purpose of installing new boilers. They also asked permission to put in a coal vault under the sidewalk. It was thought by the commissioner of public works that the nature of the sidewalk, a whole question of granting permission to put in coal vaults without some charge, requests of other cities were becoming quite numerous. The Telephone Co. asked leave to lay conduits in Germain street between Princes and King in anticipation of the new pavement in that section.

swiftdt detresse emtry hrd mlw hrdhru

The company was granted permission to open the street in front of their building for the installation of new boilers under arrangements satisfactory to the recorder. The matter of putting in a coal vault was left over for further consideration, as it was felt that in other cities this privilege was paid for and the likelihood is that this will be the rule here in future. The permission to open up the street, Germain street, between Princes and King for laying conduit, was left over for further consideration.

ELABORATE PROGRAMME FOR TONIGHT'S CONCERT

The 62nd Fusiliers' Band will give a band concert in the King Square this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. The programme for the concert has been specially selected and will be one of the best given in the city this season. Two of the pieces on the programme, Nos. 4 and 6 will take twenty-five minutes in playing. One of the lengthy selections will be A Soldier's Life, and will introduce pieces descriptive of the life of Tommy Atkins, at home, on the sea and at war. This piece has been specially prepared by the band and will doubtless be well received. The other selection is entitled Reminiscences of Wales.

The following is the programme selected for the concert:

- 1—March—Face All, D. V. Turpin.
- 2—By the Swanee River, W. H. Myrdleton.
- 3—Valm—Oriental, Moonlight on the Nile, K. L. King.
- 4—Selection—Soldier's Life, W. J. D. Sheriff. Introducing, The Roselle, Orders for abroad, Embarkation. Then You'll Remember Me, The Anchors Weighed, Farewell To Portsmouth Town, Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep, The Bay of Biscay, The Storm, Prayer during the Storm, Fine Weather Again, Landing, Advance of the Grenadiers, Advance of the Scotch Regiment, Lights Out, Alarm, Commence Firing, The Battle, See the Conquering Hero Comes, When Johnny Comes Marching Home Again, Home, Sweet Home.
- 5—Cocoons Dance, The Spirits Revelry, E. H. Bailey.
- 6—Selection, Reminiscences of Wales, F. Godfrey.
- 7—Morcean, The Turkish Patrol, Michells.
- 8—March, 2nd Regiment, R. B. Hall.

God Save the King.
