

The Duties of Pastors to their Churches.

ADDRESS OF THE REVISED PRESIDENT OF CONVENTION, 1887.

Brothers: The president of last year in retiring from the chair addressed you upon the duties of church members to their pastors. It seems naturally to fall upon me to discuss the duties of pastors to their members. Under the circumstances this must be done from the humble point of view of one of the members. I shall venture these duties as they occur to me without attempting to arrange them in the order of their importance. And more strictly speaking, I shall mention only some of them and not attempt a compendium. I am speaking, of course, of pastors of Baptist churches—of Baptist churches embraced within the Convention of the Maritime Provinces.

he may help to perpetrate that condition. If after patient and tender and faithful conference, the church persists in pursuing its old ways, let him decline to pastor. In giving the church his reasons so fully and clearly and kindly that they may be duly appreciated. Questions.—On the point of salary should the pastor-elect decline the call simply because the salary offered is too small? Yes, if the church is able to give more adequate and comfortable support. No, if the church has stated an amount quite equal to its ability. There is, no doubt, a short cut across and away from all these and kindred questions. A call is given, the pastor-elect declines; the outlook is not promising; he simply declines and awaits some better opening. He has not done his duty. He has not risen to the greatness of the occasion which Providence has created. He has given a silent lesson only when the opportunity existed for presenting the lesson with tenfold greater power and effectiveness.

further understood that this rule applies as between brethren of associated churches. If a pastor declines to pastor, the church of the doctrine, they become very important that within the church itself there may be found speedy and ample remedy for wrong done, and redress for all offences. Suppose accusation be met with denial, a trial must ensue. In such a case the pastor is the only rightful president of the court. He is the chief judge. It is for him to see that an intelligible charge or accusation is placed before the body, and that such charge be brought home to the accused, and that full opportunity for defence be given. He is to bring members to the direction of the proceeding all his knowledge of ecclesiastical jurisprudence. Let the investigation be thorough, speedy, skillful, impartial; and let the deliverance be full and clear, tender and considerate, true and just. He is to be the chief judge in cases it will be accepted by all parties as a settlement of the difficulty. No one else could have conducted the proceedings so well as the pastor, and it was his duty.

side, and a rap at the door. A young man, with fire, earnest face, crowned with abundant hair, greeted her thus: "I to the light, land lady, I was your boy, so she said I could come right up." "My boy! Mine!" Mrs. Emmet said, in a dashed way. "Yes, your boy; that's what you used to call me. You'll not disown me now, I hope," he stepped within the room smilingly, and took the widow's hands within his own. "Is it Tom? Can it be my Tom?" "Yes, yours forever, although there is someone else holding some claim to me." He kissed her faded cheek, as he spoke, with a kiss borne of a loving, grateful heart. "I love all I am and all I possess in life to you. I tremble to think where I would have been had you not come to me in my need, and led me back into that old Rye street school, where you taught me how to climb up the stairs heaven. God bless you for it! That's what I say, and that's what my wife, Mary, says. She's waiting now, in the dearest little home you ever saw, to give 'our mother'—for my wife is an orphan as well as myself, the warmest welcome mortal ever received."

What Chris Liked. BY CATHERINE B. HOLMES. Chris had bright red hair and bright blue eyes. When he came into the street car, the March wind had blown a rosy color into his cheeks, so that he looked like a very bright boy. He went to the front end of the car to put his fare into the box, and when he came back, a young lady was entering the door. Chris sat down opposite her, and waited until she had drawn from the purse the little black circle which was the ticket used on the line. Before she had even time to raise her eyes, she saw a red mitten held out before her, and she dropped the ticket into it with a pleasant "Thank you."

The First Sign

Of falling health, whether in the form of Night Sweats and Nervousness, or in a sense of General Weakness and Loss of Appetite, should suggest the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This preparation is most effective for giving tone and strength to the enfeebled system, promoting the digestion and assimilation of food, restoring the nervous forces to their normal condition, and for purifying, enriching, and vitalizing the blood.

Falling Health.

Ten years ago my health began to fail. I was troubled with a distressing Cough, Night Sweats, Weakness, and Nervousness. I tried various remedies prescribed by different physicians, but became so weak that I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest. My friends recommended me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which I did, and in ten more or less days I was cured. Mrs. E. L. Williams, Alexandria, Minn.

Dyspepsia Cured.

It would be impossible for me to describe what I suffered from Indigestion and Heartburn, but I have had the most mercurial Christmases ever had. And why shouldn't we? For you have found 'your boy,' and I have found 'my mother.'

I have been greatly benefited by the prompt use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It tones and invigorates the system, regulates the action of the digestive and assimilative organs, and restores the blood. It is, without doubt, the most reliable blood purifier yet discovered.—H. D. Johnson, 83 Atlantic ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price $1.50 per bottle, 60¢ per half bottle.

Especially in the infantile, it is the cause of many of the most distressing diseases. It is a most valuable food for infants, and is used by the most eminent medical authorities.

WALTRAM WATCHES. The subscriber being the only authorized agent for the sale of the WALTRAM WATCHES in this city, and having a large stock on hand, he is enabled to supply the public with the most reliable watches at the lowest prices.

1887.—APRIL.—1887.

OUR NEW SPRING GOODS.

MEMBER DANIEL & BOYD's duty to bring to the attention of the public the fact that they have secured the exclusive right of selling in this city the goods of the following manufacturers:—

DANIEL & BOYD'S SHERIFF'S SALE.

WILL be sold at Public Sale, on the premises of the City of Portland, Me., on the 1st day of September, 1887, between the hours of 10 o'clock in the afternoon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Advertisement for Gates' Kidney and Bladder Remedy, featuring various testimonials and product information.

RELIEF IS AT HAND. Gates' Certain Check

It is specially making its way to every family in the land... The relief is at hand...

CHILDREN'S BIADDEM.

New Sunday School Song Book. By ARNET & BEUGERS. A happy thought, the above undertaking...

CABINET ORGANS, at a Bargain.

Two American made CABINET ORGANS, suitable for Church or Sunday School use, are offered AT A BARGAIN.

The Daily Graphic.

Is the Favorite Home Journal of Refined American Families everywhere, and the only Daily Illustrated Newspaper Published in the World.

THE WEEKLY GRAPHIC

There is hardly a Post-office in the United States where at least a few copies are not received each week by subscribers.

There is no Better Medium for Advertising

From time to time we issue Special Editions illustrating the industries and business opportunities of cities, towns and localities throughout the country.

The AMERICAN GRAPHIC CO.

39 & 41 Park Place, N. Y. LEADING HOTELS OF THE COUNTRY.

The New Hair Restorative sold by D. O. L. W. is the best... It does not dye gray hair...

Sabbath School. BIBLE LESSONS.

STUDIES IN THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW. Third Quarter.

Lesson XI, September 11, Matt. 7:1-13. GOLDEN PRECEPTS.

GOLDEN TEXT. Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do even so to them—Matt. 7:12.

I. JUDGING OTHERS. Judge not. Be not censorious, do not assume the right to find fault with others, and unjustly and falsely condemn them.

2. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged. Your own standard will be applied to yourself.

3. Why beholdest thou the mote in thy brother's eye? The mote is in thy brother's eye, as if he were sympathizingly sorry for him.

4. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. This is the sum of the duties to man which they owe him.

5. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, mind, strength, and thy neighbor as thyself.

6. Do not think that I have come to abolish the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

7. Who is my father and my brother? Those who do the will of my Father who is in heaven.

8. Do not lay the yoke of the law upon yourselves. The yoke is easy and the burden is light.

9. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

10. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

11. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

12. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

13. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

14. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

15. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

16. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

to their children is here contrasted with that of God. Will he give him a stone? Less than he asks and poorer, something he does not need.

17. If ye, then, being evil, give a gift to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good gifts to them who ask him.

18. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

19. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

20. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

21. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

22. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

23. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

24. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

25. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

26. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

27. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

28. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

29. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

30. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

31. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

32. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

33. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

accepted as a matter of course, and no acknowledgment is made of any favour, naturally he will not care to have innumerable duties imposed upon him merely because he is a boy, but if asked to do any thing which is more than courtesy which you would ask a gentleman to render you the same service, you will find that he will willingly develop the civility which is latent in every boy's heart.

17. If ye, then, being evil, give a gift to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good gifts to them who ask him.

18. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

19. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

20. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

21. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

22. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

23. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

24. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

25. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

26. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

27. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

28. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

29. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

30. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

31. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

32. Do not think that I have come to bring peace. I have come to bring a sword.

33. Do not think that I have come to destroy the law and the prophets. I have come to fulfill them.

JOHNSON'S FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL USE. ANODYNE LINIMENT. MOST WONDERFUL FAMILY REMEDY EVER KNOWN.

WHEN YOU ADVERTISE, Be sure of one thing:- Advertise in a paper with a LARGE CIRCULATION, and in one that circulates in the section of country where you want to trade.

IN THE "MESSENGER AND VISITOR." Rates furnished on application to E. A. POWERS, Publisher, 99 GERMAIN ST., SAINT JOHN, N. B.

Handy to have in the house, MINARD'S HONEY BALM, the prompt and certain remedy for croup, colds and pulmonary affection.

Why do they wear those Medals? Because they are the "Only" Upright "Dehr" terms. Taming done to order. WILLIAM CRAWFORD DIRECT IMPORTER, 66 KING STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B.

READ THIS! A Testimonial to the Worth of BUDS AND BLOSSOMS. "Buds and Blossoms," published at Hall's, N. B., is not only one of the cheapest, but also the handsomest and best publication for young people that has come under our observation.

Encourage Home Manufacture! BEARDSLEY'S Celebrated Oil Paste Blacking. The best Leather Preservative known for Harnesses, Boots and Shoes, and leather generally.

WANTED 10,000 SUBSCRIBERS. Get a Bottle at PARKER BROS. BUREAU SQUARE, SAINT JOHN, N. B. CURES GOLD IN THE NEAD. PRICE, 50 CENTS.

Advertisement for a business or service, partially cut off.

Messenger and Visitor.

30.00 per Annum; when paid within Thirty days $1.50.

Messenger and Visitor.

WEDNESDAY, August 31, 1887.

THE CONVENTION.

[Our readers were doubtless disappointed that so much of the report of proceedings of Convention appeared in our last issue.]

The Maritime Baptist Publishing Company held its annual meeting on Friday evening.

The Convention began its sessions in the Baptist church in Charlottetown on Saturday, at 10 a. m.

After the opening exercises, the retiring president gave his address, which was carefully prepared and forcibly delivered.

The election of officers resulted in the following appointments: President, Prof. Jones; Vice presidents, Mont. McDonald, Esq., and Rev. T. J. Shinner; Secretary, Prof. Kierstead; Asst. Secretary, Prof. Eston; Treasurer, Jas. Desbrey, Esq.

The Report on Obstacles was a touching tribute to our brethren who have left us for the better land.

The Report on the State of the Dominion was adopted as published last week.

After the appointment of the committee on our finances, whose work will be noticed later, the FOREIGN MISSION BOARD presented its report.

brethren in Foreign Mission work, in deference to the request of the united conference of missionaries in India, as published in the MESSANGER AND VISITOR some months ago.

Table with columns: Ca., Dr., and monetary values for various funds and salaries.

There has, therefore, been a deficit of $943.41 on the operations of the year. This is due chiefly to the large item for travelling expenses of the three missionary families who have been making the journey between our land and India.

The estimated expenditure of the Foreign Mission Board for the coming year is $8,366. If a missionary be sent to India this year, it will require for outfit and travelling expenses $1,625 in addition, or $350 more than was expended last year, and $1,503 more than was received.

Table with columns: Name, Amt., and monetary values for various missions and institutions.

The report was referred to a committee who recommended some changes and pointed out some inaccuracies.

address was full of valuable information. We hope to give it to our readers before long. He was followed by Bro. J. T. Burboe, a native of P. E. I., but now settled in Illinois.

Bro. John March gave a statement of the great success attending the ladies' aids, and then announced that this was the last time he should ever address them as Foreign Missionary Secretary.

Monday morning, Dr. McLeod, of the Rel. Intelligencer, was introduced as the representative of the Free Baptists of N. B.

The following is the summary of labors and results: There have been 51 men laboring under the direction of the Board for the whole or part of the year.

All the churches in the Maritime Provinces could be grouped into 184 fields. Of these, 66 need aid. Only about two-thirds of this number are assisted, while new fields are ready to be occupied when it becomes possible to do so.

One bright feature of the year's work has been the lifting of the debt of $3000, which rested on the Board at the beginning of the year.

Quite a warm discussion arose over the policy of the Board in granting aid to city missions. Some thought that these missions should be sustained by the churches of the city, and not be a tax on general funds.

A very important question was left with the Board, last year. It was how to devise a scheme to increase the rate of remuneration of our pastors, so that none should receive less than $600 and a parsonage. The Board advises:

First.—Adopt a plan of grouping satisfactory to the Board.

Second.—Raise $450 from the field for pastor's salary, besides parsonage, or $590 without parsonage.

Third.—Contribute at the rate of not less than $4.25 per resident member for pastor's salary, and contribute in addition to the benevolent enterprises of the denomination.

The receipts for Home Missions, this year, have been very satisfactory. The special effort to raise the debt seems to have stimulated the interest in home missions in general.

REPORT OF THE HOME MISSION BOARD. The following is the summary of labors and results: There have been 51 men laboring under the direction of the Board for the whole or part of the year.

There was a great deal of eager interest to be read on the faces of the large audience that came together.

REPORT OF THE MINISTERIAL RELIEF AND AID BOARD. There has been a meeting and recommendation of our H. M. Board appropriate $1,000 this year to the Northwest, instead of $500 as last year.

At this stage, Judge Johnson raised the point of order that the whole question of the union was outside the objects embraced in the constitution of the Convention.

Dr. Sannders said that although opposed to the union at first, he had become thoroughly converted to the movement.

Rev. E. H. Hall of Sackville was the first speaker, and his subject was the duty of a church to the destitute fields around it.

The next speaker was the Rev. C. H. Martell, who pointed out why we should put more money into Home Missions.

Rev. G. O. Gates (St. John).—How should we increase the number of our pastors? He said there was a great dearth of pastors.

Your committee to whom was referred the important matter of systematic work in our churches, by leave to report that they have given some attention to the subject.

This important subject, also, received very inadequate attention. The committee was continued, and it is hoped that there may be great progress to report next year.

The Ministerial Education Board reported that appropriations had been made to 20 students. As the Board had but about $400 to appropriate, the amount to each was small.

Reference was made to the importance of Horton Academy as a feeder for Acadia College, and the Seminary at St. Martins was mentioned in the same connection.

There was a great deal of eager interest to be read on the faces of the large audience that came together.

At this stage, Judge Johnson raised the point of order that the whole question of the union was outside the objects embraced in the constitution of the Convention.

Dr. Sannders said that although opposed to the union at first, he had become thoroughly converted to the movement.

Rev. E. H. Hall of Sackville was the first speaker, and his subject was the duty of a church to the destitute fields around it.

The next speaker was the Rev. C. H. Martell, who pointed out why we should put more money into Home Missions.

Rev. G. O. Gates (St. John).—How should we increase the number of our pastors? He said there was a great dearth of pastors.

After the platform meeting, the Convention resumed its business, and the following brief report on Systematic Work was adopted:

hope of such a "Basis." He had cooperated out of his right arm than lay an obstacle in the way of this union.

The "Basis" was then taken up, clause by clause. The first article was amended. Instead of saying the scriptures are "a perfect, supreme, infallible and sufficient standard of faith and practice," it was made to read, the scriptures are the only, &c. If there can be more than one "perfect, supreme," &c., the amendment was necessary.

We believe that persevering attachment to Christ is the grand mark which distinguishes real Christians from superficial professors.

The other articles were adopted without discussion until that on the Lord's Supper was reached.

It was admitted by all that this article, in connection with the preceding, gave no liberty to any but immersed believers to partake of the Lord's Supper.

The old committee that has had the shaping of the movement thus far, was reappointed to report the action of our Convention to the F. Baptist Conference, and to prosecute the union, should the F. Baptist Conference adopt the "Basis."

A communication had been received from Dr. Reid, explaining the changes that had been made by the union of McMaster Theological Hall with the Arts College to be established in the formation of McMaster University.

Resolved, That this Convention heartily congratulate our brethren of Ontario and Quebec and rejoice with them in the success of their efforts to establish a Christian school of learning with university powers wholly under the government and control of the Baptist denomination.

The first session of the Convention a large committee had been appointed to consider the question of our finances.

current year, the Association this plan under in their respect prepare the Associations are

It was also carefully classified during the year. Finance agents include all least purposes by auditors by a list of the finance

It was felt our despatch and the committee whole questions to a conference report at our recommendation

The recom agent be appointed and free discuss plain speaking, but in the usual finally decided three, to appoint was continued, morning, and the Convention ville the usu

The British ge resolution one was a long deb leaders took documents of cr but refused, poi the table of the At the voting, i members were s them shirking the Unionist pr The vote stood 2 the government was at the be Chamberlain vot He has withdra declared himsel The fact that i itself so decisiv gives the govern them. They kn bury and a new political annih inclined to hold government hold of dissolution of of things cannot doubtful, howe earnest will use hands to attempt It is evident the Ireland to suppress the objects of rather than crim

The rebels in scattered by the now comes from has escaped from and is hastening stir up new rebel Prince Ferdinand of pluck since th thrones. He does "by your laws powers. He is support of Engl perhaps, Gerra Russia are oppo more apparent th aid to France. A African frontier Britain shows th own interest, an The death of K Mooocoo Gassie, exercised a costl Ceasr himself, w a very close allia It is admitted t men have done y ear as they did I believe have shows the Cana value, and may American govern come to term.

There is great The govern ment mind the people of the Can which began a branch railway system of C. P. R. have interest this li in junction fro the new road acc which has been p This will thro the Canadian go bas as ge ally a origin to die, i ment side with enforce their ruli The sugar raff have raised a p way. The cotton to be a'out to do on very far th the whole protest the people than al

—Send to Bapti for Sunday scho each Little Gift 50 cents, 75 cent print, 85 cent peopl T. S. 1000—$3.00 the pastor's abe end for a Bible, l edger, $2.00 a viti teacher's. 30.00 and $7.00 Now is the time to

The Appetite

May be increased, the Digestive organs strengthened, and the bowels regulated, by taking Ayer's Pills. These Pills are purely vegetable in their composition. They contain neither calomel nor any other dangerous drug, and may be taken with perfect safety by persons of all ages.

IMPROVED

My bowels were regulated, and by the time I had used two boxes of these Pills my tendency to headaches had disappeared, and I became strong and well.—Darius M. Logan, Wilmington, Del.

I was troubled, for over a year, with Loss of Appetite, and General Debility. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and before finishing half a box of this medicine, my appetite and strength were restored.—C. O. Clark, Danbury, Conn.

Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered stomach and Liver. I suffered for over three years with Headache, Indigestion, and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was weak and nervous most of the time.

BY USING

three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and, at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured. My digestive organs are now in good order, and I am in perfect health.—Philly Lockwood, Topeka, Kans.

Ayer's Pills have benefited me wonderfully. For months I suffered from indigestion and headache, was restless at night, and had a bad taste in my mouth every morning. After taking one box of Ayer's Pills, all these troubles disappeared, my food digested well, and my sleep was refreshing.—Henry C. Hemmingsway, Rockport, Mass.

I was cured of the Piles by the use of Ayer's Pills. They not only relieved me of that painful disorder, but gave me increased strength, and restored my health.—John Lazarus, St. John, N. B.

Ayer's Pills,

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

Notice These Prices!

WOODILL'S GERMAN BAKING POWDER RETAILS AT 2 Cents per Pound, 3 Cents per Ounce.

WHY PAY HIGHER?

BEST ON EARTH SURPRISE SOAP THE GREAT SELF WASHER TRY IT

HERBERT W. MOORE, Barrister-at-Law, SOLICITOR IN EQUI, CONVEYANCER

An Article Required in Every Home NIGHT COMMODE

SPECIAL REDUCTIONS. Cabinets, $3.00 per doz. Cards, $1.50 & $1.00 per doz.

ISAAC ERB, 15 Charlotte St. St. John, N. B.

NOVELTY COO MACHINE

"Whistle That To Tase!" BY REV. H. L. MORSEHOKE. "Simon Peter, dost thou love me?"

There was present the disciple loved of Jesus, tried and true; Simon, turning, asked the question: "Lord, and what shall I do for thee?"

Do the Master's bidding, ever; Christ is saying, "Follow me!"

Christ who took the form of servant, Christ the meek says: "Follow me!"

Christ who bore the heaviest burdens, from the cross calls: "Follow me!"

Christ who bore the heaviest burdens, from the cross calls: "Follow me!"

Christ who bore the heaviest burdens, from the cross calls: "Follow me!"

Christ who bore the heaviest burdens, from the cross calls: "Follow me!"

Christ who bore the heaviest burdens, from the cross calls: "Follow me!"

Christ who bore the heaviest burdens, from the cross calls: "Follow me!"

Christ who bore the heaviest burdens, from the cross calls: "Follow me!"

and the flush is entirely gone from the Mother will be so happy when she sees her. I think that the separation has been hardest on mother than on the child.

"But, do you—do your parents realize that she can never live at the North again?" Colonel Chester asked, soberly.

"No, sir; they thought—we all thought—that she could go home this spring."

"So she can't, but she must come south again in the fall; and then she runs great risks than if she remains here altogether."

"What you have told me leads me to think that your parents cannot afford the expense of sending her south every winter."

"There is only one way," said Ned, with a sigh. "And that?"

"To for me to remain and earn her passage money while she is home for the summer; they can't carry it on the little farm at home; and it will cost less for her to travel back and forth than for both of us to go. I have good employment here, which I should not have there. Nina has been over the road once with me, and I do not think she will object to going alone, when she knows how necessary it will be for me to stay."

"But your mother, Ned, and the twin brother who is so like yourself."

"Like my better and truer self," said Ned, humbly.

"I should think you would want to see them by the time."

"Colonel Chester searched the boy's face closely. 'Don't, Colonel Chester,' said Ned, appealingly. 'You make it so hard for me. I must try to forget what I would like, and remember only what will be best.'" remarkable coincidence," said Colonel Chester, with knitted brows. "If I were the least bit superstitious, I should believe in omens, and I should think that some great danger was about to befall me, and that, in some way, you were to save me; but, I am not a seer, and I place no reliance on such things."

"Nina, as your dream like mine?" asked Nina.

"Nina, exactly," said Colonel Chester, in tones of annoyance. "My dream was a foolish one, a most foolish and senseless dream, for a man of my experience and understanding."

"He did not seem to be inclined to tell his dream; and though Ned wondered greatly what it could have been, he did not question him further."

"And now," he said, arising from a momentary abstraction, "I am about going north. I shall go as far north as R—"

"It is our home," cried Nina, unable to restrain herself any longer. Her eyes grew large and intense in their eagerness, and her small hands clasped unconsciously together.

"Indeed!" said Colonel Chester. "Would you like to accompany me?"

"If I could! If I could!" exclaimed Nina, clasping and unclasping her hands nervously.

"There, then, child, don't get so excited about it," said Colonel Chester, abruptly. "I have already invited Ned to accompany me on my trip, and will send him an invitation to you also; and you need not worry your heads about ways and means either."

"Nina was a child of impulse, and without a moment's thought, she caught the Colonel's great hand between her own, and showered tears and kisses upon him."

"Bless you," said the Colonel, humbly. "I have not had so many kisses since my Nina died. When shall we start?"

Helps to Fasten. A woman whose life had been long and chequered with many reverses, said faintly: "Nothing has given me more courage to face every day's duties and troubles than a few words spoken to me when I was a child by my old father. He was the village doctor. I came into his office where he was compounding medicine one day, looking cross and ready to cry."

"What is the matter, Mary?" "I'm tired. I've been making beds, and washing dishes all day, and every day, and what good does it do? Tomorrow the beds will be to make and the dishes to wash over again."

"Look, my child," he said; "do you see these little things, of no value of themselves, but in one I put a deadly poison, in another a sweet perfume, in a third a healing medicine. Nobody cares for the value; it is that which they carry that kills or cures. Your daily work, the dishes washed or the floor swept, are homely things, and count for nothing in themselves; but it is the anger or the sweet patience or zeal or high thought that you put into them that shall last. These make your life."

No strain is harder upon the young than to be forced to do work which they feel is beneath their faculties, yet no discipline is more helpful. "The wise builder," says Bolser, "searches out the bricks which his journeyman lays, but the mason in which he lays them."

The man who is half-hearted and lagging as a private soldier will be half-hearted and lagging as a commander. Even in this world he who uses his talents rightly as a servant is often given the control of many a city. "They also serve," said John Milton, "who only stand and wait."

We should remember above all that the greatest of all men spent thirty years of his early life waiting the appointed time to fulfill his mission.—Youth's Companion.

In Brief, and To The Point. Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature. The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people a healthy nation that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

—Master Tommy is out walking with his mother. Seeing a colored man, he exclaims: "O! wouldn't I like to be as black as that!" "What an idea!" "Yes, because then I shouldn't have to bother about washing my face."

Are You Going TO PURCHASE A THRESHING MACHINE

If so, write to us for particulars about the MATCHLESS MACHINES.

That we have for sale, and at their cost. BETTER STILL, CALL IN AND SEE THEM.

If not near one of our establishments, talk with one of the many clever salesmen and agents that work for us and sell our goods.

Knowledge of the best machines, which we sell only. Is Power.

JOHNSTON & CO., Fredericton, Newcastle, Petitediac, and Local Agents.

Book and Job PRINTING, Of every description

EXECUTED PROMPTLY, CHEAPLY

At This Office.

E. H. MACALPINE, A. M. Barrister, Notary, Etc.

REFEREE IN EQUITY. Office: Nos. 12 & 14, PEGSLEY BUILDING, ST. JOHN, N. B.

Are You Going TO PURCHASE A THRESHING MACHINE

Are You Going TO PURCHASE A THRESHING MACHINE

Are You Going TO PURCHASE A THRESHING MACHINE

Are You Going TO PURCHASE A THRESHING MACHINE

Are You Going TO PURCHASE A THRESHING MACHINE

Are You Going TO PURCHASE A THRESHING MACHINE

Are You Going TO PURCHASE A THRESHING MACHINE

Are You Going TO PURCHASE A THRESHING MACHINE

Are You Going TO PURCHASE A THRESHING MACHINE

Are You Going TO PURCHASE A THRESHING MACHINE

Are You Going TO PURCHASE A THRESHING MACHINE

