First Lighter-Than-Air
Machine to Attempt Trans-Atlantic Flight—Has Crew
of Twenty-three Men—
Will Cross in from Sixty to Seventy Hours.

East Fortune, Scotland, July 2.—
(By the Associated Press.)—The dirigible R-34 started on its voyage to America at 1.48 this morning.

The grant airship was given a final tuning up at 6 o'clock Tuesday night, preparatory to the voyage. The new motor installed since the trip into the Baltic worked perfectly, according to officers.

The meteorological forecast for the week is favorable for the trip. Winds will be encountered across the main route which will bring with them favorable weather conditions, it is reported.

Under normal conditions of weather the R-34 could sail to Long Island and return without replenishing her supplies, but nothing is being overlooked in the attempt to make this historic flight.

Major Scott, her commander, says he will attempt to follow a great circle and arrive over Newfoundland. That is only a hope, however, he added, as weather conditions in mid-ocean may force him in almost any direction to escape cyclonic conditions.

"Give me an even break, and I'll get across without a hitch," said Major Scott to the correspondent tonight. "I took her 2,000 miles over the Baltic, came back in a devil of a wind, and when we got here had 12,000,000 cubic feet, and I am commanded by Major G. H. Scott, of the Royal Air Force. The craft is equipped with wireless system, certain as that of the great ocean liners.

Among the crew of twenty-three men is Lieut-Commander L. Lansdowne, staff commander of the American naval air force in France, who is making the voyage as representative of the United States navy. It has been estimated that the R-34 will cross the Atlantic in from sixty to seventy hours, under favorable conditions. Announcement has been made, however, that no attempt will be made to establish a time record for the crossing, the comfort of the dirigible's crew being given first consideration.

With favorable weather R-34 is expected to attempt a trans-Atlantic flight with a crew of twenty-three men, including a doctor, a radio operator, a mechanic, a cook, and a steward. The dirigible will only make a short stay before starting on her return voyage, because of the fact that there is no hangar at Roosevelt Field or elsewhere capable of housing the machine. Accommodations for 200,000 persons to witness the landing have been provided.

The R-34 recently made a 56-hour trip into the Baltic, during which she covered approximately two thousand miles.

London, July 1.—The Air Ministry announces that the R-34 left the ground at 1.48, Greenwich time, on her trans-Atlantic flight.

Minneapolis, N. Y., July 1.—"We are ready to receive the R-34 any time she arrives," said Colonel Archie Miller, in command of the Harsburt flying field tonight. He added wireless plant capable of picking up messages 600 miles at sea had been completed, and that he expected to confer with the commander by wireless telephone when she was about sixty or seventy miles off shore.

"We anticipate the twelve anchors built of steel and concrete and arranged in a circle, will prove sufficiently strong to keep the dirigible from getting away from us while she is at Roosevelt Field," continued Col. Miller.

Preparations for the reception here of the dirigible were begun last month by British naval aviation mechanics commanded by Major Hugh Fuller, of the Royal Air Force.

Decided To Constitute New Council

Council of Five Are to Assume Direction of Peace Conference Affairs—The Agreements Between France, United States and Great Britain.

Paris, July 1.—The agreements between France and the United States and between France and Great Britain for the defence of France against attack by Germany, it is understood, will become valid as far as Great Britain is concerned until the Franco-American convention is ratified by the United States.

Paris, July 1.—Premier Clemenceau, Foreign Minister Balfour, Secretary of State Lansing, Foreign Minister Piebon, Baron Makino and Viscount Chinda of Japan, and Foreign Minister Titttoni of Italy, decided this afternoon to constitute a new Council of Five. This Council of Five will have as its members Foreign Minister Balfour, Secretary Lansing, M. Piebon, Foreign Minister Titttoni and Baron Makino, head of the Japanese delegation. The Council will temporarily assume direction of peace conference affairs.

A Council of Ten will not be constituted at present. Foreign Minister Titttoni made it clear at the meeting that Italy desires that all territory taken from Austria be definitely disposed of in the Austrian treaty.

This immediately projects into the foreground the Fiume question which had been hoped could be avoided.

Dominion Day In St. Stephen

Ball Game from St. Stephen
Club—Only Son of George
T. Baskin Died After Lengthy Illness.

Special to The Standard.
St. Stephen, July 1.—Dominion Day passed very quietly at the border town. A ball game between the Marathons of St. John and the St. Stephen club was played in the afternoon on the local diamond and was won by the Marathons in the last stages of the game by a score of 9 to 6.

G. Russell Baskin, only son of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Baskin, passed away this morning after a protracted illness of tuberculosis of the bowels and at the early age of 17 years. He was a boy beloved in the community from his infancy, and his demise has cast a sadness over the entire community. He is survived by his parents and one sister, Mrs. Howard Stannard, of New York. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon.

Three Events At North Sydney

Large Crowd Attended Horse
Races Yesterday Afternoon
—Fourteen Year Old Boy
Drives One of the Winners.

Sydney, N. S., July 1.—The horse races at North Sydney this afternoon were attended by a large crowd. A feature of the meet was the driving of the 14 year old son of John Hill, who drove Tonita C. a winner in the 2.30 class.

There were three classes with a purse of $200 for each.

It took four heats before Tonita C. was declared winner of the 2.30 trot and pace—fastest time 2, 19, 14.

Lily Shaver won the 30 trot and pace in straight heats.

The 2.40 trot and pace was badly split up, it going six heats before Queen Oakley pulled down first money. She won the first, fourth and sixth heats.

TWELVE PERSONS KILLED, NINETEEN BADLY INJURED IN REAR-END COLLISION

Second Section of Train No. 41 Run Into by New York Central's Westerner Express at Dunkirk Yesterday Morning—Engineer in Dying Statement Said Airbrakes Failed to Work—Locomotive's Siren Screeching for Half an Hour, Plowed Into Rear Coach.

Dunkirk, N. Y., July 1.—Twelve persons were killed and nineteen seriously injured in a rear-end collision between New York Central's No. 41, known as the "Westerner," and the second section of train No. 41, here early today.

Engineer Clifford of the New York Central's Westerner Express, desperately tried, according to his dying statement to avert the rear-end collision with the train No. 41 here early today which caused the death of twelve persons, the serious injury of nineteen others and eight cuts and bruises to as many more. The airbrakes failed to work, the engineer declared. Witnesses said that the siren was still screeching for the half hour when the Westerner, going fifty miles an hour, plowed into the rear coach of No. 41.

Eight bodies were taken from the wreckage in the early morning hours and three of the injured died during the day. A revised list of the dead and injured compiled by the police and coroner this afternoon follows:

The dead—
Frank Clifford, engineer of the Westerner, Buffalo, N. Y.
Mrs. Fred Cartan, her fourteen year old daughter.

Charles Schiller, dressed in soldier's uniform, address not known.
Mr. Edmund Quinones and two daughters, ten and three years old, of Niagara Falls.
Charles R. Peck, Buffalo.
Charles M. Tillesley, an engineer in the Army Aviation Corps, stationed at Dayton, Ohio, home at Waterbury, N. Y.
P. U. Hurst, Williamson, W. Va.
Fred H. Stolt, Lackawanna, fireman of the Westerner, who died in the hospital tonight.

One unidentified man.

The injured included Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Anker, Toronto, Ont., and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Stephenson, Toronto.

An investigation by railroad and federal officials is said to have developed the fact that the air controlling brake on the Westerner was cut off between the engine tender and the first car of the train, although it was tested in Buffalo yards an hour before the accident. The finding of a body apparently that of a tramp, wedged in the wreckage back of the tender is the basis for a theory that a man stealing a ride on the blind end of the baggage car accidentally or deliberately turned the lock rendering the air brake useless throughout the trip.

Troopships To Arrive Every Day This Week

Five Big Liners With Returned
Men Bound for Halifax
—Baseball is Booming in
the Sister City.

Special to The Standard.
Halifax, July 1.—Baseball is booming in Halifax. Two games were played today between Halifax and New Glasgow, were witnessed by about 3,000 spectators. Halifax won both games, the first in a score of 13 to 11, and the second 9 to 8.

The Halifax league decided today to ask St. John to send over a team to play Halifax, and it is hoped to renew the old friendly rivalry in baseball between the two cities. It is probable the games would be arranged to take place in about two weeks.

A liner will arrive at Halifax with troops daily from tomorrow morning until Sunday. The Caronia will be in Wednesday, the Mauretania on Thursday, the Baltic on Friday, the Northland on Saturday and the Olympic on Sunday or Monday. The Northland's passengers are nearly all for St. John and she has 1,400. The Olympic leaves Southampton on Wednesday, and if she arrives on Sunday she will have made the round trip from Halifax in 16 days, which will be a record.

Biggest Day Digby Ever Had

Bands and the Robinson
Circus Pleasured Thousands.

Digby, N. S., July 1.—Dominion Day, 1919, will go down in local history as the biggest day Digby has ever had. The Digby and Annapolis bands and the War Veterans of Annapolis and Weymouth had combined in a local celebration, and John Robinson's large circus also played here. The combined attraction brought more than ten thousand people to town, the circus alone having an audience of between seven and eight thousand this afternoon.

The celebration passed off without a hitch and a large sum was realized by the Veterans and bands.

Was No Fighting Taking Hamburg

Ancient History To Be Recalled

Mayor of Caughnawaga Will Present Claim Against
State of New York for Moneys Unpaid for Eighty-five Years—Large Sum Involved.

Special to The Standard.
Montreal, July 1.—Some ancient history is to be recalled by the presentation of a claim against the state of New York for moneys held to be payable, but to have been unpaid for the past eighty-five years. The claim is to be presented to the Governor of New York by Chief P. J. Dellella, Mayor of Caughnawaga, who went down today to Albany armed with a deed drawn up in the year 1786, under which certain lands held by the Seven Nations, were ceded in virtue of a lump sum payment, to be followed up by an annual payment in perpetuity.

The copy of the deed which was produced yesterday by Chief Dellella—original of which he states, is in his possession—sets forth that the deed was put through at a treaty held at the City of New York with the Nations or Tribes of Indians, denominated themselves Seven Nations on Canada.

The first payment, payable to the State of New York, was to be $2,123 66. 84, the pound sterling coinage being in use at that period and the annual payment of $212 66. 84, was to be payable that day and repeated on the same day of each year. It was stipulated that "the People of the State of New York shall not be held to pay the said sum unless in respect to the two sums to be paid on the third day in August next, at least twenty, and in respect of the said yearly sum, to and thereafter at least five of the principal men of the said Seven Nations or Tribes of Indians, shall attend as deputies to receive and give receipt for the same."

The question as to how it was that payment ceased seems to be wrapped up in obscurity since, but there is no record of any payment being made since the year 1834, leaving arrears of 85 years, or a sum of $18,176, or $90,886, which is claimed from the State of New York. The amount drawn in the year 1834, according to Chief Dellella was apporportioned to the purpose of building their church in Caughnawaga.

Chief Dellella has been studying the question and is of opinion that it is time to get the State of New York to look into the matter. Some sort of agreement was made by that State that the claims in question were bought out, but such a proceeding, the Chief argues, would be entirely illegal and ultra vires, as the document shows that it was to be a payment in perpetuity. Under the deed referred to, there was a special reservation of a mile square in the village of St. Regis made for a special purpose and the fact that the Indians still hold that land, is held to be a fact supporting this deed and its provisions.

However, the claim may be dealt

Prospects For Prorogation of Commons This Week

Third Reading of Several Government Bills Reduced
Order Paper Yesterday—
Understood Remaining Bills
Stand Over Until Autumn
—Warm Debate in the House.

Ottawa, July 1.—Third reading for several government bills reduced the order paper of the Commons material by today and improved the prospects for prorogation this week. It is understood tonight that several of the remaining bills are likely to stand over until the autumn. These may include the Highways Act and the civil service re-classification bill.

Before government measures were taken up today there was a fairly warm debate on the interim report of the special committee on the cost of living, which recommended the naming of a tribunal to investigate trusts, mergers, prices, etc., and on which a bill carrying out the committee's recommendations is to be based. The report from the committee was not unanimous, being adopted by the casting vote of Mr. G. B. Nicholson, the chairman. A motion by D. D. McKenzie, to have the report referred back to the committee was defeated on a vote of 86 to 45, a government majority of 41. Hon. W. S. Fielding and Dr. Michael Clark voted with the opposition.

Third reading was given the pension bill for the rejection on a standing vote, of a motion by Hon. Rodolph Lemieux to strike out the "unmarried wife" clause.

That the government was not permanently employ returned soldiers and others who replaced the Winnipeg strike was under discussion by Hon. Rodolph Lemieux, D. D. McKenzie, Dr. Michael Clark, Mr. Tweedie and Mr. Mackie (East Edmonton) urged that some measure of leniency be shown to the ex-post-officers now out of employment.

Sir Robert Borden and Hon. Arthur Meighen were in the House when the government could not recede from the position it had taken in the matter. Sir Robert said it would not be in the public interest for the government to back down, while Mr. Meighen said that if the former postal employees were restated it would be an admission that the government's policy was weak and vacillating.

This afternoon the House went into committee on the bill which provides for the nationalization of the Port of St. John. The bill was reported and given third reading.

Mr. Nicholson, chairman of the Cost of Living Committee, in the House this morning moved concurrence in the report of the committee recommending the appointment of a board of commerce.

Mr. Nicholson admitted that the report was a minority report, as it was carried by the casting vote of the chairman. He emphasized the importance of such a tribunal which had power to act, and would act, would do much to allay the unrest through the country arising from the high cost of living.

Major Thomas A. Vien argued that the chairman of the committee, Mr. Nicholson, had no right to give a casting vote with regard to the report. He took the ground that the report should be referred back to the committee.

The remedy suggested by Mr. Vien was very similar to that brought forward by Mr. W. F. O'Connor when he was a commissioner investigating the high cost of living two years ago. Why had the government not acted on his suggestion at that time? Mr. O'Connor's successor, Dr. McCall had made recommendations to the government with regard to steps to reduce the high cost of living, but the government paid little attention to them. The committee investigating the cost of living had made one or two discoveries, said the speaker. It had discovered that the man who was most active in causing inflated prices were in the ring around the government. It had also discovered that the prime minister himself was interested to the extent of $9,500 in the Manitoba Calf Storage Company. It was only human, said Mr. Vien, that he should be influenced by his association.

Mr. Vien suggested that the government should institute legal proceedings against any profiteers. He closed by recommending that the report be referred back to the committee.

Mr. E. W. Nesbitt stated that the high cost of living committee has agreed that the chairman should have a casting vote. With regard to Sir Robert Borden's statement about Sir Robert Borden and the Manitoba Calf Storage Company, Mr. Nesbitt said that things must have come to a pretty pass if public men were not to be allowed to invest money in a storage plant. There has been no profiteering with it, would appear to be one of those cases which would afford ample scope for much research into ancient history and international law, so that if it is dealt with as a serious claim, it will probably be a long-drawn out dispute.

THE MAJORITY AND MINORITY REPORTS OF THE COMMISSION ON INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

A Concerted Raid By 130 Policemen

Tons of Bolshevik and Socialistic Literature Seized in Montreal Foreign Quarters
Early Yesterday Morning
— Houses and Hotels
Searched — No Arrests
Made.

Special to The Standard.
Montreal, July 1.—A concerted raid by 130 policemen, under the direction of Chief Belanger, was carried out early this morning in all the foreign quarters of the city, and tons of Bolshevik and Socialistic literature were seized. No arrests were made, but the police, armed with a special warrant supplied by the federal police authorities, ransacked the premises, took up carpets, searched cupboards, garbages, attics, and every nook and cranny of the places visited, which included houses in the Red Light district, hotels and apartment houses in every quarter of the city.

Two squads of men who returned to police headquarters shortly before two o'clock, brought with them about a ton of newspapers, booklets, journals, correspondence and telegrams, which it is believed will give the authorities much valuable information linking up the activities of the "red" element in Winnipeg with Montreal between which two cities there has been apparently a regular exchange of Bolshevik correspondence.

The correspondence brought in by the first squad was chiefly from Toronto, Hamilton and Windsor. Letters were seized, passports and registration cards and marriage certificates, also fell into the police net, as did a red flag bearing the initials "I. W. W." taken from a house in Cadieux street. This was seized by Captain Sauve.

The journals seized in the raid included the Labor World, The Dial, the Revolution, The National Herald, of Granite City, Ill., printed in Russian, many papers printed in Yiddish, and pamphlets dealing with Bolshevism and the Soviets. Many telegrams to known leaders of radical thought in Montreal from conferences in other cities were seized. Hundreds of photographs were also taken.

The warrant supplied by the authorities in Ottawa authorized the holders to search premises and persons and one warrant covered the entire raid, though as a precaution copies were supplied the leaders of the various squads.

The Free Passage To The Dominions

Government Announces
April 8 as Date After Which
Ex-Servicemen and Women
Will Obtain Free
Passage Under Agricultural Schemes.

London, July 1.—(C. A. P.)—The government announces April 8 as the date, after which ex-service men and women will obtain free passage to the Dominions, under the agricultural schemes overseas governments are going to assured employment. No special shipping is being provided and warning is given that it will be impossible to make more than a very limited number of passages will be granted until the beginning of 1920 to the Dominions as these have their own troops to settle first.

The Commission recommends state insurance for those unable to work through lack of opportunity, sickness, invalidity or old age.

Owing to unsettled conditions, the Commission from everywhere show a great reluctance to risk unemployed capital in new enterprises or the expansion of existing ones.

The high cost of living was assigned as one, if not the chief, cause of labor unrest, which would largely disappear if living expenses more nearly balanced wages. At present, however, the price of many necessities of life, which many people believe is due to profiteering chiefly through cold storage plants, which intercept food supplies. They also blame the present expensive system of distribution and declare there are too many middlemen. The commission notes, with pleasure that this matter is being investigated by a special commission in Parliament.

The Commission approves of the labor declaration in the peace treaty, that "labor should not be regarded merely as a commodity, as an article of commerce."

If this basic principle, the report continues, already freely and frankly acknowledged by employers and acted on, in good faith, it would go far to improve their relations with employees. Without an extraordinary upheaval, policies may be adopted which will ensure to the worker a fairer reward for his loyalty, and a living wage, and insure him against want during temporary enforced idleness from any cause and during old age. The minimum wage now administered by boards, in Manitoba, British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Quebec, should be extended to all the provinces, and should cover unskilled as well as women and girls.

At the greater majority of places visited the Commission found a demand by workers for a shorter working day, based on their desire for more leisure and energy to devote to the things of life other than work.

The Majority Report is Signed

TABLED IN HOUSE YESTERDAY MORNING

Commission Believes Day
Passed When an Employer
Should Deny His Employees Right to Organize—
Makes Many Recommendations Regarding Hours
and Employment.

Ottawa, Ont., July 1.—Sir Robert Borden in the House this morning tabled the majority and minority reports of the commission on industrial relations. The majority report, which is signed by Judge Mathers, Carl Riordan, Charles Harrison, Tom Moore and John W. Bruce.

The majority report, which is signed by Judge Mathers, Carl Riordan, Charles Harrison, Tom Moore and John W. Bruce, recommends legislation for a maximum work week of eight hours, with weekly rest of not less than twenty-four hours; minimum wage, especially for women, girls and unskilled labor, also government action to relieve unemployment through public works, to help the building of workers' houses, to restore fullest liberty of speech and press, and to establish a bureau for promoting industrial councils to improve relations between employers and workers. Immediate inquiry by experts is suggested with a view to early legislation as to the system of proportional representation in Parliamentary elections; also state insurance against unemployment, sickness, invalidity and old age. Other general recommendations are:

Collective bargaining, payment of living wage, right of workers to organize, recognition of unions, steps toward establishment of joint plant and industrial councils; to poorest workers' child extension of opportunity to reach highest educational institution; also that the commission's findings be put into effect in all work controlled by the government, where the principles of democratic management are applied; that the report and evidence be printed for general distribution; and that if the Dominion Parliament has not power to legislate as proposed by the commission, a conference of premiers and other representatives of the provincial governments, and also representative labor unions and the Soviets, be called in Ottawa in order to reach unanimity on such points, and also to unify present Provincial and Dominion legislation bearing on relations between employers and employees.

The Commission was appointed chiefly to consider and make suggestions for securing permanent improvement in relations between employers and employees. It was deemed necessary to investigate the prevailing unrest, which they ascribed largely to economic causes and general disturbances owing to the war, giving rise to a desire on the part of workers generally to reach quickly an objective which ordinarily would require a process of evolution covering a long period.

The Commission recommends state insurance for those unable to work through lack of opportunity, sickness, invalidity or old age.

Owing to unsettled conditions, the Commission from everywhere show a great reluctance to risk unemployed capital in new enterprises or the expansion of existing ones.

Common Council Meeting Monday

Mayor Hayes Reported on What He Learned About Housing Schemes—Commissioner Jones Brought up Programme of Work Requiring $185,000.

At the Council meeting on Tuesday Mayor Hayes read a letter from the clerk of the Executive Council, Fredericton, directing attention to paragraphs 6 and 7 of the Housing Act passed last session by the Provincial Government, and stating that the City Council should draw up a form of agreement and present it to the Government for execution when money for building is available.

The Mayor had a conference with Mr. Adams, the town planning expert, of Ottawa, and a sheet of documents he had gathered together. He suggested that they go into the housing proposition on Thursday morning, and see if they could make any arrangement to get some money from the Provincial Government before they start.

Returned men who acquired some skill in excavation work in Flanders will soon have a chance of digging trenches for the city. At the Council meeting Tuesday Com. Jones brought up a programme of work requiring $185,000.

Com. Jones—Just the service pipes. Mayor—This programme would require a bond issue. What do you have for sewers this year?

Com. Jones—$12,000. Mayor—If the work is urgent we should go ahead. The streets will be paved some time.

Com. Bullock—Have you got the pipes? Com. Jones—We'll have to get them. It was decided not to go ahead with work on certain streets.

Com. Jones moved that a bond issue be authorized for water mains on Douglas avenue, Brussels street, City Road, King, Duke and Adelaide streets and the north side of Market Square and for sewers on Brussels street, Douglas avenue and City Road; amount $161,500.

This was agreed to. The Mayor said a stipulation should be made in contracts for this work that returned men should have the preference.

Com. Jones said it was up to the Council to decide whether they should go ahead with the proposed new pipe from Spruce Lake. Mayor—If we could make a satisfactory arrangement with the pulp company, I would say go ahead.

Sunday School Convention Held

Annual Sessions in Presbyterian Church at Chipman—Large Number of Delegates Present—Districts Showed Marked Progress During Year.

The Sunday School convention of East Queens County met in annual session with the Presbyterian Church at Chipman on Wednesday and Thursday, June 25 and 26, with President I. W. Baird in the chair. A large number of delegates were present, including four pastors, two convention officers and six superintendents.

The first session opened on Wednesday at 2 p. m. with a devotional service led by Rev. E. E. Mowatt, pastor of the entertaining church. Following came the charting of the districts by Rev. J. E. Gosline of Hatfield's Pt. The six districts of the county were charted by the International Standard and showed marked progress during the year, especially in the line of organization.

A number of cradle rolls, home departments and Bible classes having been organized during the year. A very helpful and interesting paper on "The problem of securing efficient and consecrated workers in the rural schools" was given by Rev. David Patterson. The subject was well handled by Mr. Patterson and heartily discussed by a number of pastors and delegates present, all agreeing that the one great need was for more prayer, both in home and church life.

The evening session opened at 7:30 with a devotional exercise led by Rev. D. Price. Following came the report of the nominating committee and election of officers for the coming year. A powerful address was given by Rev. J. E. Gosline on "The responsibility of the home with regard to Bible training." This address was much enjoyed by all. The speaker said: "This subject involves three things: (1) The Bible the greatest subject; (2) The child our richest asset;

Soldiers Back From Overseas

One Hundred and Fourteen Men Were Welcomed at Depot Yesterday Afternoon—Will Receive Their Discharge Today.

One hundred and fourteen more of New Brunswick's soldiers returned from overseas yesterday. The party crossed over on the steamer Belgic, landing at Halifax. They immediately entrained and arrived here about 6 o'clock last evening. Members of the Soldiers Reception Committee and many citizens assembled in the station to welcome the boys back. The big electric welcome sign in the train shed was alight and the returned soldiers were given a hearty reception.

Immediately after their arrival they were taken to the Armories, where supper was served and quarters provided. Those for places outside the city will remain at the Armory until this morning, when they will be given their discharge and transportation to their homes. Those who arrived yesterday were as follows: Spr. Baird, S. E. Titusville, Kings Co.; Cpl. Bickerstaffe, S. Millidge Ave., St. John; Spr. Boulter, H. L. Corneburg, York Co.; Spr. Carpenter, E. W. Couriers on horse back were good enough in '61 but they gave place to dispatch messengers on motor cycles when Pershing flattened the St. Mihiel salient in forty-eight hours. Castor oil, salts, mineral waters, pills and such purgatives were good enough in their day. Today they are giving place to Nujol. Nujol is entirely different from drugs as it does not force or irritate the bowels.

Soldiers Back From Overseas

One hundred and fourteen more of New Brunswick's soldiers returned from overseas yesterday. The party crossed over on the steamer Belgic, landing at Halifax. They immediately entrained and arrived here about 6 o'clock last evening. Members of the Soldiers Reception Committee and many citizens assembled in the station to welcome the boys back. The big electric welcome sign in the train shed was alight and the returned soldiers were given a hearty reception.

Immediately after their arrival they were taken to the Armories, where supper was served and quarters provided. Those for places outside the city will remain at the Armory until this morning, when they will be given their discharge and transportation to their homes. Those who arrived yesterday were as follows: Spr. Baird, S. E. Titusville, Kings Co.; Cpl. Bickerstaffe, S. Millidge Ave., St. John; Spr. Boulter, H. L. Corneburg, York Co.; Spr. Carpenter, E. W. CIVIC OPPORTUNITIES.

Mr. Tilley has proposed civic participation in a comprehensive plan of construction calculated to relieve the housing problem. Others have advocated the replacement of old water mains and the extension of necessary new lines. Advice has been heard at City Hall respecting paving on streets which do not first require attention by the Water Department. All of these proposals are worthy of the most serious consideration in view of the prevalent unemployment, the scarcity of houses, and the creditable condition of our streets. And none of them necessarily involve important additions to our capital debt unless it be the paving proposals from which no immediate revenue may be anticipated. It appears that the Federal housing scheme is still in the air in so far as definite information concerning it is concerned. Yet why wait for Federal aid? The facts are as clear as daylight. There is such a scarcity of homes in this community that families are often compelled to bid against each other for such apartments as may become available from time to time. It is not surprising that landlords are not unwilling to profit by this condition to their own financial advantage, that many persons are forced to pay in rentals greater amounts than they can reasonably afford, with the result that they and their families are deprived of other comforts to which they should fairly be entitled, and that there are many who are actually unable to secure homes at any price within comfortable reach of their places of employment. It should not be inferred that all owners of rented properties are using the present condition as an excuse for increasing their charges, for many have made no advances in years, while some are known to have voluntarily reduced the rentals in consideration of the exceptional circumstances confronting their tenants. This, however, does not tend to overcome the scarcity, and it is generally realized that new construction on an extensive scale will alone meet the situation. In such an effort toward improved conditions the city might well take the initiative. Two hundred thousand dollars would be a generous estimate for the construction of fifty moderately priced residences connected with water and sewerage, built on land owned by the city and not too distant from the business centre. There is such land available, labor is plentiful, the materials are at hand and the financial arrangements are of the simplest. Such an undertaking need not be regarded as a capital outlay, for the chances are that the new homes would eventually either be sold, or placed under rental, on terms which would permit the whole operation to be carried on without loss. And even should some few thousands of dollars be dropped the loss would be insignificant in view of the good accomplished. Street paving is a different matter, but almost equally necessary. If members of the Council ever conclude their deliberations as to the value of otherwise of the utterly useless Local Improvements Act we may hope for the adoption of some definite form of policy. There is of course always to be considered the lack of co-operation between the Public Works and the Water and Sewerage Departments, but in the event of an improvement being shown in this regard it may appear that there are certain streets on which necessary paving might be undertaken during the present year. Now that the Mayor is back from Upper Canada and full meetings of the Council may be held, there will be some expectation of a display of active interest on the part of those responsible.

THE HARBOR SALE.

Mayor Hayes brings back word from Ottawa that the Federal Government contemplates extensive outlays in connection with St. John harbor when the transfer now proposed goes through. It is intimated to him that proper landing facilities for passengers are to be provided, that the elevator system is to be extended to serve the new wharves, and that other expenditures are planned which will bring the immediate requirements to approximately three-quarters of a million dollars. It is true that there is no parliamentary authority for such an outlay, but work such as this is very often undertaken and authority secured afterwards. This at least has happened more than once in the past, and if the Government will give some definite assurance of its intention in the present instance, such objection to the transfer as may now exist will be overcome to some extent at least. In this harbor we have a very valuable asset, and our people should hesitate before sacrificing control without guarantees as to the future. It is contended that Ottawa is not very keen about making the purchase, that the Ontario element which is inclined to believe that the western boundary of Quebec marks the limit of Canadian territory, is opposed to large expenditures in these provinces, and that we should be willing to take what we can get for our greatest asset. In fact, it is stated that unless this is done we may find ourselves left with the harbor on our hands, which indeed would not be a very dreadful situation in view of the fact that we have had it on our hand for many years already and have managed to do quite well with it. And in such an event, it is pointed out that we would be called upon to face heavy expenditures to provide the new equipment and to repair the old. On the other hand there is always the possibility that by the introduction of a reasonable scale of charges this harbor might be made a profit-earning institution such as would more than meet the interest on whatever additional outlay may be needed, and that in due course the Federal Government, being unable to longer justify our position, might be compelled to sell the harbor to the city. In such a case the opposition of Ontario, to talk business. Yet no one is desirous of such an outcome. All wish to have the matter settled as expeditiously as possible and in a manner which will result in fair treatment for St. John and the greatest benefit to the country as a whole. Hence if we can be given to understand that the Federal Government will at once undertake such extensions and repairs as may be deemed necessary, it will do much to overcome the impression that those who have interested themselves in the matter are trying to drive a hard bargain and are taking advantage of our seeming inability to undertake new construction on our own account.

THE MASK OF PEACE.

The Treaty of Versailles has been signed, but there is no feeling of peace in the air. On the surface of things the war is over, but in the hearts of the nations there is still distrust and conflict. Such differences as may exist between the Allied powers with respect to terms of settlement may very readily be adjusted, but the menace to the safety of the world in the form of Prussian militarism is not yet crushed, nor do the German people show any indication of repentance, or even recognition of defeat. On the contrary their attitude is that of a criminal chafing at his bonds and planning still greater crime when the vigilance of his guards is relaxed. The treachery and the disregard of national honor which has characterized the German nation throughout the entire course of the war is apparent in her conduct of even the last few weeks. Her destruction of surrendered warships, the public burning of the French flags in Berlin under the direction of the Guards Brigade, and the impertinence of her delegates to Paris in anticipating a friendly reception by the Allied representatives immediately after the signing of the treaty, all serve to show the determination of that people to evade in every way possible the obligations forced upon them, while at the same time pretending literal observance. Under ordinary circumstances the completion of a treaty of peace would create a sense of relief, would be made the occasion of joyful demonstration by all concerned. But there is no such sentiment today. No one seems to care whether peace was signed or not, nor to consider it worth while to bother about any display of public feeling. This may be partly due to the fact that the conclusion of negotiations has been discounted, that sentiment cannot be maintained for long at a high pitch, but it is more likely true that lack of public enthusiasm is due to the underlying belief that Germany has not yet received her lesson and that the treaty recently signed is merely a formal arrangement presenting a state of affairs which does not exist.

SMALLPOX IN HALIFAX.

Halifax is credited with one thousand and cases of smallpox since the disease appeared there some months ago. This, if correct—and there is no reason for doubting the statement—is simply a disgrace. Smallpox is an absolutely preventable disease and conditions which permit its spread to such an extent in a city the size of Halifax are in every sense disgraceful. The existence of such an epidemic implies gross carelessness on the part of health authorities and involves the expenditure of a great deal of money which is nothing more or less than criminal waste. By the adoption of ordinary commonsense methods, smallpox may readily be checked and the fact that it has been permitted to spread at such a rate in Nova Scotia capital is an indication that health authorities there are either ignorant of modern methods of control or else are utterly careless as to the well-being of the people and to the cost upon the province. It is, of course, impossible to guard against the development of isolated cases, but where the disease is known to exist there is no reason in the world why it should not be stamped out with very little difficulty.

WHAT THEY SAY

The Menace in India.
The Englishman (Calcutta): Can must repeat here that it is an exaggeration to say that Bolshevism is already in India, but if the masses are encouraged, as they have been to disregard law and order, one may ask: "What of your women and children then?"

The Lesson Germany Teaches.
Buffalo Courier: The lesson we are most learn from the conduct of Germany during these historic days, is to let no false sentiments of chivalry or generosity cause us to relax our vigil. The serpent may change his skin, but he cannot change his nature. It behooves the nations that slipped Germany to be on their guard for years to come against this same Germany that nurses her wrath and still prays for "Der Tag."

Something Rose Overlooked.
New York World: They called out 6,000 soldiers last night to see what they could do to control the city. Think a moment and imagine what that little 6,000 could do against the working classes.—Rose Pastor Stokes, Little, indeed. But Mrs. Stokes ignores the fact that what she snobbishly calls the "working classes" might help the 6,000 against a bloody revolution attempted in the republic by Russian-speaking Soviets.

The Real Alternative.
Chicago Tribune: The alternative to Bolshevism is not hidebound conservatism, and a belief in representative government such as we have in America does not preclude an effort towards social reform, but rather should encourage it. To hear the Bolshevists talk one might conclude that a conservative—namely, any one who does not wish to overthrow the government—is desirous of continuing present inequities in our social system, and if possible, to establish new ones.

Anarchy Must Go.
Philadelphia Bulletin: The bomb throwers who expected to terrorize or unnerve this country with their diabolical plots have succeeded in doing exactly the reverse. They have stirred up Americans everywhere to a stern and overwhelming demand that anarchism and anarchy shall be run down and exterminated. Ninety-nine hundredths of the people are utterly and uncompromisingly opposed to these infernal crimes. The present plotting is undoubtedly the most desperate and extensive that has ever been known in the United States. But it will unite the great body of the people against their authors in an unflinching determination to uproot and destroy it at all hazards.

What Becomes of the Leather?
Brooklyn Union: The cat is an animal composed of beef and entirely surrounded by hide. The contents—beef—and the container—hide—must be in some respects a constant, because it is obvious that the more beef, the more hide. And yet the people who sell beef are shouting aloud that beef is cheaper, very much cheaper, while the people who sell shoes, made out of the same hide that surrounds the beef in its happy days, are saying with a baleful glint in their eye that shoes are going up in price and will go up still more. High prices are cutting the value of the dollar in half. It is small satisfaction to pay a few cents less for a pound of steak and have to give up several dollars more for a pair of shoes. If there is an increased scarcity of leather along with a comparative abundance of beef, the body has offered any comprehensible reason why it should be so. Congress should investigate this alleged shortage of leather. Is it all "Jing" about to save the gentle Bolshevist from going barefoot?

To Have Perfect Skin Throughout the Summer
This is the season when she who would have a lily-white complexion should turn her thoughts to macrolid wax, the firm friend of the summer girl. Nothing so effectively overcomes the soiling effects of sun, wind, dust and dirt. The wax literally absorbs the scorched, discolored, withered or coarsened sear skin, bringing forth a brand new skin, clear, soft and girlishly beautiful. It also unclogs the pores, removing blackheads and increasing the skin's breathing capacity. An ounce of macrolid wax, obtainable at any drug store, applied nightly like cold cream, and washed off mornings, will gradually improve even the worst complexion. There is nothing better for the removal of tan, freckles or blotches.

Interesting Ceremony in City
Hall Monday Afternoon—
Chairman of Citizens' Reception Committee Receives
Address and Gold Watch.

An interesting ceremony took place
in city hall Monday afternoon when
in the presence of a large number of ladies and gentlemen who have taken
an active interest in the work of welcoming returned soldiers, Mayor Hayes presented S. H. Mayes, chairman of the Reception Committee, with a handsome gold watch as a token
of appreciation of his untiring services. After Mayor Hayes read an address on behalf of the members of the committee, General Macdonnell,
who was present, spoke appreciatively
of the work of Mr. Mayes and the whole committee. He assured the gathering that the welcome St. John had extended to returning soldiers was
well known and appreciated in Ottawa,
Montreal, Toronto, and as far west
as Vancouver.

A. O. Skinner and R. G. Armstrong
also paid brief tribute to the zeal and leadership of Mr. Mayes.
After remarking humorously that he wondered if he had been presented
with the watch on the Rhine, Mr.
Mayes expressed thanks for the unexpected testimony, and said that he would be willing to do the same work
over again if he had the same support
from the committee. While he deserved no special credit for any efforts
he had put forth to assure the soldiers a warm welcome on their arrival
from the war, civilians had done
nothing to boast about, compared to what the men whom they welcomed
home had done and endured and suffered to safeguard the rights and liberties of all of them.

The address follows:
Dear Friend and Fellow-Worker:
It was in the autumn months of 1914,
the first year of war, that the Army Hospital Commission appealed for the help of the patriotic citizens of St. John to meet and greet, the returning wounded heroes from the battle front.

The volunteer reception committee,
which was formed on that occasion,
has been on active service ever since. Some of its original members have dropped out of the ranks for one cause or another, but for the part of the personnel of the committee
and their methods have been unchanged from the beginning.
Though it might seem to those who were not in touch with the spirit of the committee that the duties at times
involved too great personal sacrifices for volunteer workers to perform, particularly during the cold,
stormy days of winter, it was not so
regarded by the members of the committee. So far as they were concerned it was a labor of love entirely.
They served without fee or hope of reward, save for the reward that came from the smiling, satisfied, happy
countenances of the wounded and
other returned men whom they welcomed. To serve these splendid men,
who made sacrifices a thousand times
greater than any body of civilians
who remained at home, has been an honor and a privilege which the members of your committee have prized
more than any pecuniary reward
which might be offered them.

Without flattery, it may truly be said that if it had not been for the unselfish, unwearied, loyal personal service which you as chairman gave
to the cause of the returning soldier,
the success which the committee has met with in its efforts could never have been achieved. Night and day,
in the coldest and bleakest of winter
days, you have been at the beck and call of our soldiers. You have not spared yourself in the slightest degree.
Your splendid example has been an inspiration to the members of your committee, while your genial disposition and patience under the difficulties have made it a pleasure to serve under you. If he who serves best profits most then your reward of service
must indeed be great.
We would especially congratulate
you upon the success which has attended the welcoming home of the siege batteries, the Ammunition Column, the 26th and 44th Battalions,
largely through your efforts these brave lads received a reception which
for genuine warmth and enthusiasm
has not been equaled by any other city in Canada.

Now that the end of the great adventure is in sight—now that the
splendid valor and spirit of our troops
have brought about the victory that all loyal Britons have longed and prayed for during these weary years of fighting and waiting, your associates
feel that they should tender to you
some tangible expression, however slight, of their appreciation of your self-sacrificing endeavors, and it is
with a very great deal of pleasure
that they ask you to accept the accompanying token of their esteem.
We feel that we would fail in our duty at this time if we neglected to give expression to our appreciation
of what your estimable wife has done
in connection with the work of the committee. Like a true wife, she has shared in your work with an untiring zeal and devotion, and has never
for a moment permitted her personal comfort to interfere with the proper discharge of your duties to the returning men.
These expressions of our regard
for you and your good wife, we can assure you, come from thankful, appreciative hearts. It is our sincerest
hope that in the days to come you may be abundantly blessed and that all the good things of life may be yours.
Yours, most sincerely, on behalf of the Citizens' Reception Committee,
R. T. HAYES,
Mayor and Honorary Chairman.

SOUTH END DUMP.
A prominent citizen in the South End remarked yesterday that there was likely to be an indignation meeting held on the question of the South End dump near the Barrack Square.
He says all kinds of refuse is deposited there, and a filthy sewer that empties on the beach should be extended beyond low water mark.

"It Has No Equal,"
Says Ed. Hooper

No Medicine Did Him Any Good Until He Took Tan-
lac—Had Suffered for Four Years.

"Tanlac has convinced me that it has no equal for people in the condition I was in, for it has made me feel like a different person," said Edward Hooper, of 2062 St. Claire Ave., Toronto, some time ago.
"For four years," he continued, "I suffered from an awful case of stomach trouble. My appetite failed and the little I forced down hurt me. I felt like there was a lump in the pit
of my stomach, and I was constantly belching up sour, undigested food. I would get so dizzy that I would almost fall. I had dull headaches and felt unfit for work. I felt I was getting worse and don't believe I could have kept up much longer.
"I have taken four bottles of Tanlac now, and my feeling fine. My appetite is great, and I haven't been troubled with indigestion or gas since I started taking Tanlac. All that bloated feeling is gone, the dizziness has left me and I actually feel like a different man."

"People who suffer from stomach
trouble should be careful of their diet; most people eat too much and
too fast, and do not exercise properly in the selection of their food.
Indigestion is not only one of the most distressing, but one of the most prevalent of all diseases. It is also one of the most difficult to treat, and has battered the medical profession for years, the most skilled specialists being unable to cope with it successfully.

Hours might be consumed in describing the suffering, mentally and bodily, of the victims of this fearful malady. A morbid, unreal, whimsical
and melancholy condition of the mind,
aside from the nervous and physical suffering, is the usual condition of the average dyspeptic. In the treatment of this trouble it is important to quit all injurious habits. No treatment can give you strength while violating the laws of nature. You must not eat or drink to excess, lose sleep,
or overwork. Plenty of outdoor exercise is essential, also. Tanlac is celebrated medicine, which has proven of such great benefit to those suffering from this trouble, contains certain medicinal properties which, being purely vegetable, are readily taken up by the system, thereby stimulating the appetite and aiding digestion by assisting the stomach in converting the food into nothing else than
building up the tissues and nerve strength.

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., 175 Munro street, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac
representative.—Advt.

WEDDINGS
A pretty wedding took place Monday evening at the home of Gordon
Ferris when his sister, Miss Cora Gladys Ferris, was united in marriage to Orelan Cole. The bride was given away by her father, H. D. Ferris. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr.
Hutchinson in the presence of relatives and friends. After the marriage supper was served. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Cole will reside in Elm street.

Wall-Emergency.
In the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning Rev. Wm. Duke united in marriage Miss Sara Emery, daughter of Andrew Emery, of W. Walter, Wal-
son of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. J.
Wall.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a travelling
suit of grey with leghorn hat trimmed
with blue, and white fox fur, which was the gift of her groom. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses.
Mrs. Alfred Marphy was matron of honor, and was gowned in blue voile,
with blue and gold dials and rich stole.
Her bouquets were of yellow roses. Oliver Emery, brother of the bride, acted
as best man.
Many beautiful gifts were received,
among them a check from J. M. Roche
and a chest of silver from Chas. H.
McDonald. The groom's gift to the matron of honor was a cameo and
pearl ring, and to the groomsmen
gold cuff links.
Mr. and Mrs. Wall left on the noon
train for a trip through Nova Scotia.
They will spend the summer at "The Ferns" and on their return to the city
in the fall will reside in Rockland

The Presbytery
Quarterly Session

Resolution Passed Yesterday
Calling on Government to Deal With Profiteers—Endorse Action Adhering to Prohibition Legislation—
Rev. H. C. Fraser's Resignation Accepted.

The Presbytery of St. John, in quarterly session yesterday unanimously passed a strong resolution
calling on the Dominion government
to deal with the profiteers and one endorsing the action of the House in adhering to its prohibition legislation. The resignation of the Rev. H. C.
Fraser was regrettably accepted and
several matters of routine business
disposed of.

The new moderator, Rev. M. J. Mc-Pherson, of Stanley, presided and Rev.
Frank Baird of Woodstock was record-keeper.

The following resolution moved by Rev. J. A. Morrison and seconded by Judge Forbes, was unanimously carried and a copy ordered sent to Premier Borden:
"Whereas, Evidence, submitted before the Cost of Living Committee
has disclosed the fact that certain
companies doing business in Canada
in lines of goods essential to the life
and health of all the people of this Dominion have been exacting immense percentages of profit, profit far in excess of a reasonable return on the
monies actually invested;

Whereas, During these same years
of war thousands of the sons of our Canadian families have been enduring
the greatest of hardships, unintermittent sufferings unprecedented and
even death itself on the battlefields
of Europe, that our freedom and liberties
might be maintained;

Whereas, These immense percent-
ages of profit exacted by these Canadian companies from the people of our Dominion on the actual necessities of life, have very considerably and unnecessarily added to the burdens of
the people;

Whereas, The evidence disclosed
the fact that the colossal profits extracted by these companies had largely contributed to the great unrest
throughout our Dominion, and are largely responsible for the disturbance and strikes which are endangering the peace and prosperity of our land;

Whereas, It is necessary not only
for the health and well-being of the people of Canada, but also for the fostering of that spirit of National harmony and unity, never more needful than at the present time, that all unnecessary occasions of friction be removed;

Resolved, That the Presbytery of St. John, New Brunswick, now in regular session respectfully convey to the Honorable the Prime Minister and his government, its grateful recognition
of the steps already taken to rectify
these conditions and further, that the Presbytery earnestly prays that the government adopt such measures as shall effect that all profits above a reasonable percentage be handed over to the Dominion Treasury and so applied that as speedily as possible the high cost of living may be reduced
and our Canadian people relieved from conditions that are well nigh intolerable.

Rev. F. S. Dowling referred to the attempt of the Senate to amend the prohibitory legislation of last session
which provided for the law remaining
in force for one year after peace was signed, to make it end with the signing
of the peace treaty, and moved the following resolution:

"Resolved, That this Presbytery of St. John strongly approves of the action of the General Assembly in confirming its decision with regard to Federal Prohibition, and respectfully
but urgently requests that the House
of Commons do permit the will of the people as set forth in the prohibitory
measure passed by the House of Commons, and that this resolution be telegraphed to Senators Thoms, Daniel, Donville and Thompson."

This passed unanimously and copies of both it and the resolution respecting the profiteers were sent out last evening.
The resignation of Rev. H. C.
Fraser, minister of Knox church, was received and regrettably accepted by the Presbytery. Representatives of the session, trustee board and congregation of Knox church were present
and voted their appreciation of the

HERE YOU FIND
THE PROOF

Of What People Have Been Telling You About Dr.
Chase's Nerve Food.

There can be no question that
everybody is in need of some restorative treatment at this season of the year.
Particularly if your blood has a tendency to be thin and watery, the changing season is most trying on you, and you suffer from tired feelings, lack of energy, failure of the digestive system and general depression of the feelings.

If you could only realize what a complete change you would experience with the use of a few boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food you would not be long in making a trial of this treatment.

The best proof we can offer you
is in such letters as the following.
There is no reason in this world why
you would not obtain just as much benefit from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as has the writer of this letter if your system is in a similar condition.

Mrs. M. A. Couling, 61 Stanley street, Kingston, Ont., writes: "For a number of years I suffered from
from which I suffered before, and instead to overwork. I could not sleep and was restless and worried. I had pains through my back, buzzing in
the ears and twitching of my nerves
and muscles. I had indigestion and my appetite became poor. I would get drowsy after eating and frequently suffered from great weakness. My circulation was poor, my hands and feet always cold and my heart action weak. I consulted doctors, but they could do nothing for me. Whilst in this condition I decided upon a trial
of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. After taking eight boxes of this medicine
I am relieved of all the symptoms
from which I suffered before, and in-general I feel like a new woman. I used to be very constipated, so I took
Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in connection with the Nerve Food and am completely cured of that trouble too."

It remains for you to test Dr.
Chase's Nerve Food in your own case.
You will then understand the grateful testimony of the writer of this letter, and the gratitude and appreciation of others for this great restorative treatment, 50 cents a box, 6
boxes, $2.75, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

years of his ministry, in which time
material advances in all departments
of church activity had been made,
but they realized that under the circumstances, Mrs. Fraser's health re-

be accepted, and they did so with feel-

broken.

In connection with the meeting of the Synod, which is to be held at

thorities and try and arrange for the taking of the Nova Scotia and northern New Brunswick delegates direct
to Fredericton by way of Mcgillivray Junction.

The call from Scotch Ridge to Rev.
George Gough was accepted by him
and the induction ordered for Tuesday next at St. James' church.
The reports of the commissioners
from the General Assembly were presented by Revs. W. M. Townsend, of Fairville; Sutherland, of Fredericton;
Malcolm, of St. Stephen, and Judge
Forbes, of St. John. The three principal subjects under discussion at the Assembly were the forward movement
the term of membership and the social
and industrial unrest of the time.

The moderator was appointed to attend the meeting of the Presbyterial
to be held tonight at Fredericton and extend the thanks of the Presbytery
for the aid given by the ladies in the various activities of the church, and
more particularly in the Home Mis-

Rev. James Ross, superintendent of Home Missions, was unanimously
nominated for the office of moderator
of the Synod, which is to be held at

Mother of Sixteen Says Life Was Just a Burden

Mrs. Charlotte Gallant of St. Johns Was Weak and Nervous from Months of Suffering—Says Tanlac Gave New Lease on Life.

"I have only been taking Tanlac for a short while and have just started on my second bottle, but I have improved so much that I am ready right now to tell everybody about it," said Mrs. Charlotte Gallant, residing at 100 St. James' street. St. John, in relating her experience with the medicine recently.

Mrs. Gallant has been married for fifty-two years and is the mother of sixteen children. She is now seventy-five years of age but has a good many years to be had by her. Continuing her statement, Mrs. Gallant said:

"I really feel like I have been given a new lease on life. My daughter has noticed such a wonderful change in me that she is now taking Tanlac and we are recommending it to all our friends. I had suffered for a number of months from stomach trouble and a weak, nervous condition with that tired, run-down feeling. I never felt like eating anything and nothing tasted right to me. My food seemed to do me little or no good as it would lie in my stomach heavy and undigested and keep me feeling uncomfortable all the time. I was so weak I could not walk up the steps without feeling all exhausted, and I often got so dizzy that when I stood over I would almost fall on my face. I could not sleep more than half the night and would get up in the mornings with that tired, lack-of-energy feeling which lasted me all day. Then I got rheumatism in my left arm and the muscles pained me as if they were being torn apart or tied in knots and I suffered so much that life seemed just a burden to me.

When I saw from the papers that so many people had been benefited by this new medicine, Tanlac, I told my husband I was going to try it. So I got a bottle and the improvement I have made on the first bottle certainly has surprised me. Now my appetite is just splendid and I can eat just anything I want without the least trouble with my stomach. In fact, my food seems to digest perfectly—everything tastes good, too—and I get real pleasure out of eating. I have no more of that dizzy feeling in my head and the rheumatism is so much better that I never notice it any more. My husband is now taking Tanlac also and we all think it is the grandest medicine made."

When people grow to the ripe old age of Mrs. Gallant their digestive organs lack vitality and begin to act more slowly and less effectively than in youth. The circulation becomes poor, the blood thin, the appetite fails and digestion goes weak.

Tanlac, the powerful reconstructive tonic, is the ideal strength and body builder for old folks, because it creates an appetite, strengthens digestion, and in a natural way strengthens and invigorates run-down, nervous and aged people.

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co. and P. W. Munro and is the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

TWO ITALIANS WERE ARRESTED
Mike Bonefero and Tony Rinaldi, Charged With Robbing Fellow Countryman, Were Taken Back to Moncton.

Two Italians, Mike Bonefero and Tony Rinaldi, who were wanted by the Moncton police, were arrested on the Moncton train, Monday morning, by Detectives Hiddescombe and Donahue. The men were taken to Central police station and later handed over to an officer, who took them back to Moncton yesterday. The men are 40 and 35 years of age. The man named Bonefero, of having held him up about 12 o'clock on Sunday night and robbed him of $150 and a restaurant meal ticket. Bonefero is employed by the G. A. Fuller Company, who have the contract of erecting the Eaton building. He says that while passing between two freight cars on the wharf tracks while he was on his way to his sleeping quarters, he was struck down by a blow on the jaw and his roll of bills taken from his hip pocket. The money was split from top to bottom. The two young Italians named were also employed by the Fuller Company.

"Mickey" Attracting Crowds To Imperial

One of the Funniest and Most Exciting Pictures Ever Shown at the Keith House.

St. John was wakened from its mid-summer night's dream Monday and yesterday by "Mickey" at the Imperial. The feature attracted so many people that King Square looked like mid-winter with its long lines of waiting evening theatre patrons, although the sunlight and balmy breezes were much nicer than the bygone cold days.

If someone asked you what sort of a picture would please everybody, wouldn't your answer be a film that combined pathos, humor, intense dramatic action, thrills and a bit of slapstick comedy, all so blended as to make a story that runs smoothly, upholds the interest and has been well produced? If it were possible for you to book such a picture wouldn't you make a bee-line for the nearest theatre exhibiting the film and buy a ticket?

You just bet you would, and just such an opportunity presents itself, for in "Mickey" the above combination is to be found at its very best. It's the sort of a picture that comes along only at long, long intervals and fills a long felt want.

"Mickey" is a remarkable feature in many ways and not the least of these is the rare dramatic ability played by the star, Mabel Normand. She brings tears to the eyes at one moment and the very next has her audience roaring with laughter. She registers equally well scenes of the broadest comedy, of tense dramatic interest, and, in addition, performs stunts that would put to shame many of the stars who have won their fame because of their ability to inject thrills into a picture.

Although the story covers all of the emotions from broad comedy to absorbing drama, the tale is told so that it is easy to follow. Because there are some thrilling dramatic scenes, does not mean that anything the least objectionable ever is allowed to creep into the telling of the tale, and this picture, only goes to prove that sensational scenes can be so handled as to make them perfectly proper for anyone to see, though they still retain all of their absorbing interest, some in this feature being so capably done that the theatregoers found themselves gripping the arms of their chairs and entirely lost in watching the exciting events being unfolded on the silver sheet.

Such scenes as these include the well-staged horse race and the realistic fight in the deserted cottage. The former is one of the very best race-track scenes that have ever been filmed. Every detail of the race has been well worked up, large crowds of extras have been capably handled and Mabel Normand rides the winning mount and takes a fall like a veteran jockey. Wheeler Oakman, who does good work throughout, plays over a fight with Lewis Cody that is a corker, both of them going after each other hammer and tongs, managing to stage the sort of a scrap that would be called the big punch in most pictures, but which in this one is only one of many.

Excellent photography and lighting held to the highest standard of this picture. At no time does the film become the least bit indistinct, being at all times sharp and clear. Ideal locations have been provided. Many shots taken in the California mountains show up nicely, the players working before a background of big trees with the hills in the distance. Interior sets are elaborate in many instances, while the atmosphere of the small mining town has been well created.

"Mickey" will be repeated at the Imperial today and Thursday. Its fame is already all over town and crowded houses will doubtless be the order at every show.

On Body and Face, Red and Itchy. Cried For Hours. Lasted a Year.

"A rash started all over my little girl's body, and she had sores on her face. It started in a pimple that was full of water, and it got red and itchy. She cried for hours. This trouble lasted a year.

"Then I started with a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I bought more, and I used four cakes of Soap and three boxes of Ointment which healed her."

Midsummer Attack on High Cost of Living

Semi-ready Store to Jump in on Wednesday With Reductions on All Suits.

George T. Creary says that he is going to make his Semi-ready store a busy spot in July. He is going to start on Wednesday morning with what he calls a "Midsummer Attack on the High Cost of Living."

"For my part not a single garment will be held in reserve, for I do not want to disappoint a single customer. With the 7 1/2 per cent. war surtax dropped off the retail price of suits, that have been making from 72 to 300 per cent. on their capital, will have to take in a reef," continued Mr. Creary.

"The story of their greed in taking advantage of our difficulty in getting British worsteds and serges has been extracted by the Parliamentary Committee, and I have hopes now that we will soon get good clothes for less money."

"I do know that there has been no profiteering on the part of Semi-ready. The price label in the pocket—the same price West as East—the same in the cities and the towns—has enforced exactly the same profit as in times of peace. And I am not disclosing any secret when I tell our customers that for the four war years this store has lost more than two dollars on every suit we sold."

"On Wednesday morning I will sell genuine Semi-ready suits as low as $18—fitted and finished to measure without any extra charge. All prices will be reduced, even on blue and black serges."

COMMON COUNCIL MET IN COMMITTEE

Commissioners on Monday Placed Themselves on Record as Favoring Reinstatement of All Former Employees Who Enlisted.

At the committee meeting of the common council on Monday morning the members placed themselves on record as favoring the reinstatement of all former city employees who had enlisted, or if their old jobs were not available placing them in at least as good a position.

A delegation from the G. W. V. A. consisting of William Vassie, C. H. McLean, W. J. Brown and F. X. Jennings, appeared and asked for the announcement by the council of their policy in regard to taking back returned men who had been employed by the city before enlistment and after some discussion the following resolution was carried unanimously:

"Moved that it is the policy of this council that men who were on the pay roll of the city at the time of enlistment in the recent war on their return and reporting for work be reinstated or placed in an equally good position as at the time of enlistment, and further that returned men be given the preference in any positions which the city may have open."

The delegation expressed appreciation of the action of the council and withdrew.

RUSSIAN SAYS BRITISH BRIBED AFGHAN

Overthrow of Ameer Accepted Subsidy to Peace, is Given as Cause of Present Raids.

SUBJUGATION POLICY

Diplomat Thinks Cause of Unrest Destroyed.

Much anxiety is caused in India by the fact that, on the recent Afghan raid on the western border of India, the British expeditionary force, and British troops on the Indian border and the Afghan forces. A correspondent of "The Chester Guardian," referring to the situation, gives the summary of reports shedding light on the difficulties the have to contend with in the of their Indian empire. He writes:

A curious volume issued by the British government last year, the "Patches of M. Nabokoff—until 1916, Russian Consul General in India and afterwards at Delhi government contains numerous references to Afghanistan which it is likely to develop in the future.

Writing on the last day of the Afghan frontier, the British government by the Viceroy of India, the British government, spontaneously expressed his desire, and intention to remain neutral, and that the Indian government on its part was strongly opinion that "an offensive war in Afghanistan was at present inadvisable." M. Nabokoff refers to the city of troops left in India an inauspicious season of the year.

Hence, all the efforts of the government are at present towards avoiding all complications of the Afghan frontier. In August, 1916, a band of and Turkish agitators succeeded in their way into Afghanistan, and Lord Hardinge immediately wrote the Ameer expressing the hope he would now demonstrate his loyalty, while giving him the opportunity to return to Afghanistan which would give to Afghanistan in case of hostile action.

Again Assured Friends
The Ameer again replied, promising to deal with the soon as they had been driven from London, it seems, the Ameer has been given to call upon the British government to send Lord Hardinge, was opposed to the Ameer's proposal, as he thought the Ameer would be more of maintaining the latter's loyalty in India itself.

A little later, information received, revealed that a band of agitators had been arrested and sent to Kabul, where Lord Hardinge decided to ask King Amanullah to write an autograph letter to the Ameer thanking him for his assistance. But the Ameer was, no doubt, having difficulties with some of his people, led by Nashulla Khan, the Ameer's brother (who, it will be remembered, recently caused the Ameer to be murdered), then proclaimed his successor, but was deposed by the Ameer, a son of his.

Sheltered German Agitators
They successfully sheltered German and Turkish agitators were instigated by the tribesman, Habibullah, as M. Lissoval, Nabokoff's successor, reported in the summer of 1916, there was some fear that the Ameer was assassinated. On its part, the British government in India hesitated to exert strong pressure on the Ameer to maintain the peace in the Indian Empire, "in order to avoid difficulties with some of the Moslem population which might be in case hostilities should break out with Afghanistan." Hence, from risking any rupture.

RUSSIAN SAYS BRITISH BRIBED AFGHAN RULER

Overthrow of Ameer, Who Accepted Subsidy to Keep Peace, is Given as Cause of Present Raids.

SUBJUGATION POLICY URGED

Diplomat Thinks Country as Source of Unrest Should be Destroyed.

Much anxiety is caused in India and in London by the complications following the recent Afghan raids on the western border of India. These have necessitated the dispatch of an expeditionary force, and fighting is at present going on between the British Indian troops and the Afghan guerilla forces.

Felt Out the Ameer.

Writing on the last day of 1914 he formed by the Viceroy of Turkey's intervention in the war, the Ameer of Afghanistan, spontaneously expressed his desire and intention to remain neutral.

Hence, all the efforts of the Indian government are at present directed towards avoiding all complications on the Afghan frontier.

In August, 1914, a band of Germans and Turkish agitators succeeded in finding their way into Afghanistan, and Lord Hardinge immediately wrote to the Ameer expressing the hope that he would now demonstrate by action his loyalty, while giving him a friendly warning as to the fatal consequences which would ensue to Afghanistan in case of hostile attack.

Again Assured Friendship. The Ameer again replied, assuring the Viceroy of his friendship and promising to deal with the bands as soon as they had been discovered.

But the Ameer was, no doubt, having difficulties with some of his own people, led by Nashulla Khan, the Ameer's brother (who, it will be remembered, recently caused the Ameer to be murdered, then proclaimed himself his successor, but was deposed by the present Ameer, a son of Habibullah).

Sheltered German Agitators.

They successfully sheltered the German and Turkish agitators, and were instigating the King against Habibullah. As M. Lissovsky, M. Nabokoff's successor, reported at the beginning of 1916, there was even then some fear that the Ameer might be assassinated. On its part the government of India hesitated to bring strong pressure on the Ameer to obtain the surrender of the enemy emissaries, "in order to avoid complications in India itself."

THE ORIGINAL WORCESTERSHIRE Absolutely Pure.

Ameer, his annual subsidy, as M. Lissovsky reported in April, 1916, was on the contrary, increased, and a further increase was promised if he would continue to maintain strict neutrality.

Diplomat Becomes Suspicious.

M. Lissovsky, however, introduces another motive into the policy of the government of India. In a dispatch, dated May 11, 1916, he reports certain conversations at Simla, from which he derived the impression that the government of India was making every effort to avoid conflict with Afghanistan, not so much because Afghanistan was strong as because it did not want to admit Russia to the solution of the Afghan question, it would be inevitable if Afghanistan's neutrality were violated by it.

On July 8 M. Lissovsky reported that negotiations were being carried out with the Ameer for an increase of his subsidy from 18 to 24 lakhs if he would expel the German emissaries from Afghanistan.

Evaded Russia's Participation. On October 7 he repeats the theory that the government of India "would spare no money and effort to keep back Afghanistan from abandoning its neutrality in order to preclude us from any solution of the Afghan question."

M. Lissovsky was only temporarily discharging the duties of his office, and was soon replaced by M. Tomanovsky, who was quite in sympathy with the policy of the government of India in its relations with the Ameer, as dictated by the needs of the internal situation in India.

"It is clear to every observer here that it will be impossible in future to condone such an exclusive position of Afghanistan... which may be compared to an electric power station which is feeding and charging with political passions our own and the Indian Moslems."

St. Germain-en-Laye Was Refuge of James II. of Scotland and Prison After Napoleon's Fall.

St. Germain-en-Laye, the scene of the peace negotiations with Austria, is described by a correspondent in "The Manchester Guardian."

"The decision of the French government to house the Austrian delegates in the old Chateau of St. Germain-en-Laye pending the discussion of the terms of peace with Austria-Hungary shows discrimination as well as an element of poetic justice."

Rare Jewel in Old Setting.

"It is a rare jewel in a setting of old chateau trees. Below, the sparkling river describes an immense semicircle. OUTBREAKS IN INDIA TEND TO YIELD TO REPRESSIVE RULES

Fighting on Afghan Border and Uncertainty as to Turkey Are Important Factors in Native Unrest.

The situation in India, with special reference to the fighting on the Afghan border, is analyzed by the Simla correspondent of "The Manchester Guardian."

"Recent events in India have much inflamed European opinion, which demands compensation for the severe loss to property, government and private, and also exemplary punishment of the offenders. The condition of the country tends to place Europeans in remote districts at the mercy of sudden outbreaks."

Fate of Turkey Involved.

"The Indian situation demands the close attention of the British public. The distress caused among the poor by high prices is aggravated by wild rumors spread by agitators, causing the villagers to believe that the state will take half the crops and tax marriage and burial ceremonies."

"The situation now is complicated by the trouble in Afghanistan, where it is believed the Ameer Amanullah, finding his position insecure through the power of the opposing faction and the army's suspicion that the real murderers of the late Ameer Habibullah have been sheltered, is attempting to unite all classes by a war against India, apparently believing the country at his mercy."

Trend Toward Order Marked.

Loans on Whiskey Reduced a Fourth

In the Last Year—Funds Secured by Warehouse Certificates Now Amount Only to $50,000,000.

New York, June 29.—If war-time prohibition goes into effect tomorrow it will find bank loans on whiskey reduced to about one-fourth of what they totaled a year ago. Bankers estimated yesterday that only about $50,000,000 in whiskey loans are outstanding. A year ago these loans totalled approximately $200,000,000.

A few local banks still have some funds out secured by warehouse certificates of whiskey, but their total loans probably do not exceed one-fifth of the entire amount. The balance of the loans is pretty well distributed among the banks in the Middle West. The loans now outstanding are principally those made on speculative stocks of whiskey which has passed out of the hands of distillers. About a year ago, when it became apparent that war-time prohibition was seriously threatening the country, a great deal of whiskey was bought up by speculators in anticipation of a sharp advance in price. The advance in price materialized as expected, but holders of whiskey were not able to dispose of nearly all of it. It is estimated that the amount of whiskey in bond today is in the neighborhood of 40,000,000 gallons. Upward of 20,000,000 additional gallons exist in so-called "floor stocks." After July 1 no market will exist in this country for this whiskey. However, the war-time prohibition act does not place any restriction on the export of whiskey and owners of large stocks possibly will be able to dispose of it outside of the United States. They may experience some difficulty

(McDUGALL & COWANS.)
New York, June 30.—The market was quiet in the early afternoon with the shipping stocks with gains of 1 to 2 points each furnishing about the only features of interest. Most of the afternoon prices fluctuated within a narrow range. In certain sections of the list activity increased in the last hour. Texas and Pacific advanced more than four points from Saturday's close on rumors that the well being driven on the company's property had found oil. This was not confirmed. Baldwin was strong in the late trading and advanced more than 2 points for the day. News that the railroad and general deficiency appropriation bills had been signed by the president tended to relieve concern over the effect of the July settlements on the banking situation. Call money got up to 8 and 10 per cent. in the afternoon, the latter rate on all industrial collateral. Sales 1,140,500.

YOUNG BRVES WON.
In a game of ball on the South End diamond, yesterday afternoon, the Young Braves defeated a picked team from the North End by a score of 20 to 10.

THE SPECULATIVE FEELING RAMPANT

Montreal, June 30.—The speculative feeling is very rampant. The most active securities today were the Canada Car and Spanish River common and pfd. In the latter stock, there was a lot of heavy profit-taking, but it is remarkable the way the stock was taken, and it closed strong. The Victory bonds have not been in demand lately to the same extent as they were and they are showing slight signs of easing off. The market is very nervous, and fluctuates both ways very easily. The American market was again a market of specialties, most stocks, however, showed reactions for the day. Baldwin and Texas Pacific were the only exceptions.

Money was not high toward the close, when it ran up to 10 per cent. It should be easier from now on. New York is likely to be duller, with two holidays coming, and a rest does not do the market any harm.

Through the Kind Co-operation of John Robinson This Paper Invites Inmates of Protestant Orphan Asylum, Wiggins' Orphanage, St. Patrick's Home, St. Vincent's Orphanage and Associated Institutions to the Mammoth Circus on Monday Next.

There never was a boy or girl who could not enjoy a circus and it is a great pleasure to The Standard to announce that, through the kind co-operation of Mr. John Robinson, this paper is able to invite all inmates of the Protestant Orphan Asylum, the Wiggins' Orphanage, the St. Patrick's Home at Silver Falls, St. Vincent's Orphanage, and associated institutions to the circus which is to be held on Monday of next week. These children, with attendants will be the guests of The Standard and Mr. Robinson and under conduct of members of the circus staff, will be permitted to see the whole performance, the side shows, the menagerie, and all the other incidental features. Years ago in the Robinson Circus there was a Japanese acrobat who travelled with his little daughter. This performer was accidentally killed and the child, then motherless, was adopted by the proprietor of the circus. She is now quite a grown-up young lady, Miss

Will De Valera Come To St. John?

At Present Leader of Irish Insurrectionists is in New York—Raising a Loan—Expects Portion from Canada.

"Will De Valera or any of his lieutenants come to St. John?" is the question that is being asked by those who have watched with personal interest the fortune fluctuations of the Sinn Fein Irish Republic.

At the present time the acknowledged leader of the Irish insurrectionists is in New York where he is attempting to float a $5,000,000 loan, a considerable portion of which he expects to get from the Dominion of Canada.

De Valera arrived in New York City over a week ago and put up at the Waldorf-Astoria where a "presidential suite" had been reserved for him by his lieutenant Boland, who worked his passage across in the stock exchange of an ocean liner. Since his arrival he has been busy giving interviews to newspapers, and putting the cause of the Irish Republic before the American sympathizers.

Among the notable incidents of his visit so far has been the visit to the prelate of Cardinal Gibbons (more; the conferring of the B. C. L. degree on Valera by the University of New York in offering the visitor the freedom of the city and requesting the citizens to celebrate.

Harry Boland, the aide to President De Valera, is a strong and energetic young man and is looked upon as the chief ambassador of the new republic to Canada during the present financial campaign. If he undertakes the trip, or De Valera in person or his other lieutenants cross the border, there is every reason to suppose that St. John will be one of their points of call and with that prospect in view the local sympathizers of the movement are going quietly about their business, but looking expectant.

The High Cost of Living Problem

A. H. Brittain, Manager of Maritime Fish Corporation, Says if People Bought More Fish They Would Do Something Towards Settling H. C. L.

"If the people would buy more fish they would do something towards settling the high cost of living problem," said A. H. Brittain, of Montreal, business manager of the Maritime Fish Corporation, who was in the city Monday on his way to attend the funeral of Captain Anderson, of Digby.

The cost of living commissioner reported that on the first of June there were nearly 15,000,000 pounds of fish in cold storage," added Mr. Brittain. "But it is not held there to keep up prices. Much of the fish has been offered at pre-war prices, though all the things that enter into the cost of catching fish, vessels, nets, twines, provisions, wages, etc., have gone up about one hundred per cent. But the dealers cannot find a market for it, even at low prices. There may be some fish in cold storage, but it is evident that the consumers are not making any vigorous demand for fish, or the stocks in cold storage would be melting. Perhaps some people imagine that because the fish in cold storage is offered at low prices it is of inferior quality. But that is not the case. There is good reason why the stocks are large. The Government urged the fishermen to increase production, in view of the prospects of famine in European countries. On the Great Lakes and elsewhere the fishing season was extended and various regulations were relaxed. The bulk of fish now in cold storage consists of white fish from the Lakes. The production of Lake fish has been much larger than the ordinary requirements of the market for Lake fish, which has been mainly confined to Ontario and the Middle Western States. Hence dealers are overstocked with this kind of fish, and have in some cases been offering it for less than cost without interesting consumers.

"If the people generally went in more for eating fish, they might find that other foodstuffs might exhibit a tendency to lower prices. No fish dealer wants to hold fish in cold storage any length of time, and the people are losing an opportunity of alleviating the high cost of living trouble by continuing to pay high prices for other foodstuffs when they can get good fish at very reasonable prices. The per capita consumption of fish in Canada is small compared with some other countries, though the nutritive value of the Canadian fish is very high. There is no better diet for hot weather. Probably one reason why fish is not more extensively consumed in Canada is that the Canadian housewives do not know how many tasty preparations of fish can be made. Outside of St. John and Halifax most of the Canadian hotels do not have any special reputation for their ability to make use of fish."
