LITTLE PROGRESS MADE IN NEGOTIATIONS RELATING TO ARMAMENT LIMITATION

China's Economy Embarrassments Formed the Test of the Far Eastern Discussions.

HUGHES' NAVAL PLAN GROWS IN FAVOR

Confidence Growing That Details of U. S. Plan Would Bring Powers Into Agreement.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The negotiations relating to both the Far East and Armament Limitation moved more slowly today as the attention of the Arms Delegates passed from general policies to specific details. China's economy embarrassments formed the text of the Far Eastern discussions, which resulted in the appointment of a sub-committee of representatives of nine nations to study the whole subject of administrative autonomy for the Chinese Republic, with particular reference to tariff and tax restrictions.

Land Armament Problem

The land armament problem also was considered at various informal conferences during the day and a meeting of the Armament Committee of the whole was called for tomorrow with the expectation that Premier Briand, of France, would say a last word as to his country's attitude on reduction of armaments. It is understood that he is anxious to bring the question to a point of a formal expression by the conference before his departure for France.

On the side of naval armament, informal exchanges continued between individual delegates and naval experts with an air of growing confidence that details of the United States plan, although requiring considerable time for determination, would eventually bring all the powers into agreement.

It is possible that the naval plan may receive some consideration at tomorrow's meeting of the five delegations which constitute the Armament Committee of the whole, but the greater attention is expected to center on land armament in view of the imminent departure of M. Briand.

It is the preservation of her army, with the moral backing of the principal powers, that most of the delegates at the present stage of the negotiations, and it is known that M. Briand would be forced to take back to France with him a formal conference endorsement of the position he has taken against material reduction.

Hughes Consults "21"

Land, naval and Far Eastern questions were talked over by Secretary Hughes today with the United States advisory committee of twenty-one, and after he had presented a report on the present status of the negotiations a number of sub-committees were instructed to prepare reports for the United States delegates on various subjects of detail.

Progress Encouraging.

Although the delegates have not yet taken up some of the most troublesome questions involved in the Far Eastern question, the progress made thus far was described in official quarters tonight as highly encouraging. So rapidly and smoothly have the negotiations moved thus far that some who at first thought definite agreements unlikely, now are predicting that the conference will go a long way toward clearing up the whole Far Eastern trade.

The probable procedure of the conference, with reference to Chinese and other Far Eastern and Pacific questions, was forecasted today in authoritative quarters. The Root resolution, adopted yesterday by the Far Eastern committee of the whole, together with any adopted in the future, it was said, would be brought before a plenary session of the open conference for final discussion and adoption. Other resolutions on Pacific and Far East

JUNKING OF WAR MATERIAL NO EASY JOB FOR OFFICIALS IN GERMANY

Potsdam, Nov. 5.—What difficulties the inter-Allied military missions have to overcome in some instances when ordering the destruction of war material, was revealed here in the trial against the former airplane manufacturer, Hans Grade, that ended with the acquittal of the accused.

The Ministry of Treasury confiscated nine airplane engines in the factory of Grade last June. When a deputation of Allied officers arrived to order their destruction the workmen refused to carry out the work and told the officers to do it themselves. When they demanded tools for that purpose, these also were refused them by the workmen. Then the officers ordered the engines to be stored in a nearby shed until they could be taken away, though the engines weighed from 24 to 32 thousand pounds each, all nine disappeared over night.

WARM CONTESTS NOW ASSURED IN EACH PROVINCE

Nominations Filed Yesterday for the 235 Constituencies of the House of Commons.

GOVERNMENT HAS 211 CANDIDATES

In All Nine Provinces But One Candidate Elected by Acclamation.

Ottawa, Nov. 22.—From noon until two o'clock this afternoon, nominations were filed for the 235 constituencies of the House of Commons. Evidence is ample that in every province there will be arduous fighting. In all the nine provinces, there is but one candidate elected by acclamation, Gus Porter, Conservative candidate in West Hastings, Ontario, who has represented the constituency since he was first elected at a by-election in 1901. There was, indeed, a Progressive named to contest the division with Mr. Porter. But his nomination papers, the returning officer held, were not properly filled out, and Mr. Porter was declared elected. Candidates elected to the last Parliament by acclamation numbered no less than twenty.

Old Parties About Even

Today the two older parties ran closely in the number of candidates nominated. In the Dominion, as a whole, the Government has 211 candidates nominated and the Liberals 202. The Progressives, at the outset of the campaign, announced their intention of running around 130 candidates, actually nominated 144. Labor and Independent candidates numbered no less than 74. Four women candidates were nominated—two in Ontario, one in Montreal and one in Winnipeg. They represent varying schools of thought. In Ontario, one running in Liberal and one in Progressive interests; in Winnipeg, the lady candidate is run as an independent.

Contests in Quebec

In the Liberal stronghold of Quebec, there will be a contest in every constituency. In the 45 divisions, 35 Conservatives and 40 Progressives, Labor-Independents were nominated. Liberals, as was expected, have a candidate in every division. In the great battleground of Ontario, the two main parties—Conservatives, Liberals and Progressives—are keenly fighting for control of the next house. In the 83 constituencies there were nominated 79 Conservatives, 64 Liberals and 79 Progressives. Again, in the Prairie Provinces, candidates of the three parties closely approximated in number. In British Columbia, Quebec and Maritime Provinces, the Progressives fall behind the Conservative and Liberal parties in number of candidates nominated. In the 31 seats of the Maritime Provinces there were 25 Conservatives nominated, 30 Liberals, but only 14 Progressives; in the 12 seats of British Columbia, 13 Conservatives, 11 Liberals and 7 Progressives.

Three Cornered Fights

Three cornered fights will be in the common order of things and no matter which party presented the advantage on December 6, the next House will be one with many familiar faces missing, with many new to parliament life to take their place. Of the three main parties, the chief of only one was nominated—J. A. Robb, chief whip of the Liberals. W. S. Middlemore, who acted as chief Government whip, is not nominated. Levi Thompson, who was chief whip of the Progressives, was not nominated.

Liberal Nominee At Digby Jumped His Trolley

Contradicts Himself Several Times During Speech—Gov't Claims Strongly Presented.

Special to The Standard. Digby, N. S., Nov. 22.—A. L. Davidson, of Middleton, and Dr. L. J. Lovett, Bear River, were formally nominated today to contest this county in the election on December 6; the former representing the Government and the latter the opposition. At the close of the Sheriff's court they repaired to the Bijou Dream Theatre, which was crowded to the doors. H. B. Short presided. Mr. Davidson, the first speaker, presented the claims of the Government and pointed out the reasons why they should be returned to power. His address was a masterly one. Dr. Lovett, in following, showed considerable improvement in form. His address was well thought out, but he contradicted himself several times in speaking of this Government being a tool of capitalists. He made the statement that manufacturers had been able to make enormous profits, and not five minutes after he said that they had protective tariff today was responsible for their being six thousand fewer industries in Canada today than there were under the Laurier regime. These were the only two speakers.

RIOTING IN BELFAST ATTENDED FIRST DAY'S FUNCTIONING OF NEW ULSTER GOV'T CREATED BY HOME RULE ACT

Two Bombs Exploded In Tram Car Full of Shipyard Workers, Killing Three and Injuring Eighteen Others.

VENDETTA AGAINST PUBLIC HOUSE KEEPERS IN BELFAST

Belfast, Nov. 22.—A feature of the trouble tonight was a vendetta against the keepers of public houses. A party of men entered Dugman's public house in York street and fired at Dugman's assistant, but missed him. In Duncannon Gardens, a spirit dealer, named Connelly, was shot in the stomach, and another public house keeper in York Road was shot in the neck. The wounds of both men are serious.

Bomb Thrown

Two bombs were exploded in a tram car full of shipyard workers this afternoon, killing three of the occupants and injuring eighteen others. Shortly after the attack more bombs were thrown among a crowd watching the burning car, and twelve additional persons were injured. The deaths of the three persons inside the tram car were due to gas fumes. The total number of deaths during the disorders of yesterday and today is nine.

Tram Service Suspended

Tramway service was entirely suspended in the district around the York street tram mills, the biggest concern of its kind in the city. The mill closed its doors today an hour before the usual time. The girl operatives left the factory by a hole made in the wall in a side street on the occasion of the last rioting in the district. There was shooting during the day near the Labor Exchange, where one of the clerks was killed outright, and another man was so badly wounded that he died later. The remainder of the staff of the exchange fled in panic.

Confusion Followed

The bombs were thrown from among a crowd of men. The car was packed, even the steps being loaded with passengers. The force of the explosion blew out a portion of the side of the car. A scene of indescribable confusion followed. The men who threw the missile fled, and the uninjured workmen on the car ran away, panic-stricken, without waiting to help their wounded comrades, whose cries were audible from inside the car.

Finally, when the confusion had ceased somewhat, the injured and dead were taken from the debris and laid on the footpath alongside the tramway line. There the injured were cared for by ambulance surgeons who hastened to the scene, while large bodies of police cordoned the vicinity.

Finally, when the confusion had ceased somewhat, the injured and dead were taken from the debris and laid on the footpath alongside the tramway line. There the injured were cared for by ambulance surgeons who hastened to the scene, while large bodies of police cordoned the vicinity.

Tram Service Suspended

Tramway service was entirely suspended in the district around the York street tram mills, the biggest concern of its kind in the city. The mill closed its doors today an hour before the usual time. The girl operatives left the factory by a hole made in the wall in a side street on the occasion of the last rioting in the district. There was shooting during the day near the Labor Exchange, where one of the clerks was killed outright, and another man was so badly wounded that he died later. The remainder of the staff of the exchange fled in panic.

Confusion Followed

The bombs were thrown from among a crowd of men. The car was packed, even the steps being loaded with passengers. The force of the explosion blew out a portion of the side of the car. A scene of indescribable confusion followed. The men who threw the missile fled, and the uninjured workmen on the car ran away, panic-stricken, without waiting to help their wounded comrades, whose cries were audible from inside the car.

GEORGE B. JONES MAKES TELLING SPEECH AT NOMINATION DAY PROCEEDINGS FOR KINGS-QUEENS

Produced Cheques Issued by Provincial Gov't to Few Electors of Royal for Work Never Performed, Which Arrived Yesterday—Makes His Position Clear on Campaign Issues—Dr. McAllister Provides Some Amusement, and Mr. Perkins Some Pathos.

Hampton, N. B., Nov. 22.—Nomination day here resulted in officially placing three candidates in the race to contest the constituency of Royal in the person of George B. Jones, Conservative; Dr. Duncan McAllister, Liberal; and G. Harold Perkins, Farmer. Following the closing of nominations at two o'clock, a meeting was held in the old Court House building, which was addressed by the three candidates. H. N. Flowering, of Hampton, presided as chairman.

It was decided that George B. Jones would be the first speaker with a limit of one-half hour; Dr. McAllister the second, with a time allowance of thirty-five minutes; and G. H. Perkins, the third, with a similar period, and that the Conservative candidate would have fifteen minutes for rebuttal.

High Finance.
The three speakers consumed their full allotment of time, and the best speech of the day was made by George B. Jones, who discussed at length the issues of the campaign with convincing effect.

In the course of his remarks, and in corroboration of his statements, Mr. Jones produced two cheques which had been issued by the Provincial Government, one for $15.00 in favor of Duxton Roberts, and the other for $12.00 made payable to the order of Lee Jones. Both cheques were dated November 18th, 1921, and were received by the gentlemen in question at Wickham on Monday. In the first instance, Mr. Roberts had done nothing to earn the sum set out on the cheque he received, with the exception of work to the value of $5.00 only. Lee Jones had done $3.00 worth of work, but his cheque was for $12.00. The two cheques were charged against "capital account" of the Provincial Government, and not to the "bridge and road account."

Provincial Treasurer Challenged.
On November 18th the speaker had met Hon. Dr. Hetherington, provincial treasurer; Dr. Duncan McAllister, the Liberal candidate; and G. Harold Perkins in a certain part of Queens county. He did not charge them in the matter, but he did make the definite charge that it looked mighty fishy, especially in view of what happened in the Parish of Wickham last year, just before the provincial election, when cheques were received by various people all the way to $40,000, of which the recipients had not done a day's work to earn them.

Mr. Jones remarked that as the Provincial Treasurer was in the audience, he challenged him to make an explanation of the whole matter. Hon. Dr. Hetherington did not make any statement. The Conservative candidate declared that he desired to make his stand clear in reference to his attitude towards the Farmers' Party. A short time before the nomination at Norton, on October 5, he had been asked by a large number of them to be their candidate. He had replied that he would be glad to accept, but that it was impossible for him to go on the same platform with Mr. Gray, as he did not believe it was in the interests of the Maritime Provinces. At their request he had sent a letter in which he had embodied his reasons. When the convention was subsequently held his name had not been entered, it was stated, because he was not a full-fledged farmer. Ninety per cent. of his business was with the farmers of the counties of Kings and Queens; and he believed that he would make them a good representative.

Union Government History.
In 1917 Sir Robert Borden had decided that it would be advisable to form a Union Government with a cabinet of a fifty-fifty basis. Mr. Jones had worked for the Government candidate in the constituency of Royal during the campaign which took place at that time, although it had not done so. Sir Robert Borden first approached Sir Wilfrid Laurier

Sydney, N. It was on Nov. 22, 1920, that the strike began, and the men, conductors and brakemen in the employ of the Dominion Steel Corporation and the Nova Scotia Steel & Coal Company walked out for standard rates of pay, hours and working conditions, and they have been out ever since. The companies continue to operate what yard engines they have.

London, Nov. 22.—Describing the reception of the Prince of Wales in Bombay, the correspondent for the London Times, in a despatch received here today, relates how the Prince broke away from his scheduled programme at the Poona race course last Sunday, making a half-mile detour in order to pass, unaccompanied, through the crowd. Striding well ahead of the staff, says the correspondent, the Prince rushed along close to the rails, laughing, acknowledging the cheering, exchanging greetings, touching hundreds of eager outstretched hands and then inspecting a group of veterans in the center of a great throng of Indians.

Why are some chocolates so gritty—compared with Ganong's?
There are no short-cuts to the even silken surface of Ganong's chocolate coating. Care in selecting the cacao beans, skill in blending and roasting them; time and attention in refining the cocoa with the sugar—these are more than mere ingredients in a perfect confection. And Ganong's keeping working and refining the chocolate for days, long after the chocolate coating would be "passed" by a less exacting maker catering to a less discriminating public.

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, Nov. 22.—The semi-annual meeting of the Senate of the University of New Brunswick was completed this afternoon, the session being held in the Supreme Court Chamber. A delegation composed of R. B. Hawkins and F. H. V. Burgess, appeared and represented the case of the student body in support of a petition that training in the Canadian Officers Training Corps be made voluntary and not compulsory for under-graduates in the first and second years. It was pointed out that other universities either did not have C. O. T. C. units or had them on a voluntary basis, also that the time required for drills out very much into times which it was desirable should be devoted to athletics or other college activities. No decision was reached on this question, but it was decided to let consideration go over until the annual meeting in May next. It was recognized that the under-graduates had made out a strong case.

DO YOU SMOKE TOO MUCH?

These are heavy times on your heart and nervous system tobacco produces the most serious results. It causes palpitation, pain in the heart, irregularity of the beat, makes the hands tremble, sets the nerves on edge, causes shortness of breath, and loss of sleep. To counteract this demoralizing influence on the heart and nervous system there is no remedy so equal as WILBURNE.

HEART AND NERVE PILLS.
They make the heart beat strong and steady, restore tone and vigor to the nerves, and remove all the bad results caused by the tobacco.
Mr. Frank Lewis, 71 Terrace Hill St., Bradford, Ont., writes—"I had been troubled with palpitation of the heart for a number of years, and by spells it would bother me a lot. The doctor told me it would stop on me sometimes if I did not eat tobacco. When I would get a spell my heart would pound, and I would break out in a perspiration, and get so weak I would have to sit right down and quit my work; also in the night I would wake up and my heart would be going, I should say, about 100 beats a minute. About three years ago I got a box of Wilburne's Heart and Nerve Pills, took them, and found that they did the job. I am feeling fine and have gained over 50 pounds in weight."
Price, 50c. a box at all druggists, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Wilburne Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

33,617 FRIENDLESS KIDDIES FROM BRITAIN ARE EMIGRANTS TO CANADA IN TEN YEARS

Brought Out by Philanthropic Societies and Looked After by Immigration Department — They Make Good and Prove Big Assets to the Country.

How would you like a family of thousands of hopeful boys and girls? As supervisor of juvenile immigration for the Canadian department of immigration and colonization, C. Bogus Smart is officially father to such a family and has some definite opinions on the value of the members of his family. He holds that his official children, who are all of British birth, sent to Canada under the auspices of philanthropic organizations, such as Dr. Barnardo's Home, the Church of England Society, the Catholic Emigration Society, etc., may be ranked among the most valuable contribution of the motherland to the Dominion. They are, he says, productive assets in the first and last analysis. He points with paternal pride to the fact that during the war fully 10,000 of his official children enlisted with the Canadian Expeditionary Force and "none caused him pain until they died." Many of his family are now asleep over yonder; many were wounded, several were awarded decorations and won their commission on the field. In the list of Canadian V. C. heroes the name of one of his children is to be found.

In the past 10 years 33,617 children have come from the British Isles through philanthropic agencies under his supervision and with proper paternal pleasure he states that he does not know of one of these boys or girls who is a charge on the Canadian public. "Some of course," says Mr. Smart, "do not rise to positions higher than hewers of wood or drawers of water, but it is encouraging to me, particularly to know that several very successful clergymen, doctors, lawyers, merchants, school teachers, etc., in Canada were my official children. But fully 15 per cent have remained in agricultural life, for which most of the boys are trained. Many of them are now very prosperous farmers. The girls, too, are, without exception, useful citizens. Some have married men in prominent positions."

This juvenile immigration is one of the most important branches of immigration work. For comparatively little about it is known to the general public. It was begun more than 50 years ago, when some philanthropically inclined individuals decided to take some action towards helping British orphan children to get better opportunities in life by a change of environment in a newer country, with its consequent wider field for self advancement.

The first organized party arrived at Quebec from Great Britain in 1869. This party was welcomed by officials of the Dominion and provincial governments of that time. Since then parties of healthy boys and girls have come to the Dominion every year, with the exception of two years during the war when ocean travel was fraught with the probabilities of considerable danger due to the submarine menace. In 22 years about 73,000 children have come to the country through agencies, approved by both the British and the Canadian Governments. They come either as little boys and girls of age varying from three and one-half years to 12 years, for adoption, or from 12 to 18 years of age, and the boys as farm apprentices and the girls for domestic workers.

Emigrants by Choice. No child is forced to emigrate. He or she must express a preference for doing so after the consent of the next of kin is obtained. Everyone must have a clean bill of health and be satisfactory in regard to character and other essential qualifications. These factors, however, do not waive the rigid examination and inspection at the port of entry in Canada. When passed by the Canadian immigration authorities the children are sent to receiving homes in different parts of the Dominion, principally in Eastern Canada. These homes are Canadian branches of the parent institutions in the old country, and from there the children are sent out to foster parents or situations on farms usually previously arranged.

At intervals, usually unexpectedly, Mr. Smart or one of his inspectors gets in touch with the juvenile in his new home or position. If there is any dissatisfaction on the part of the child, foster parents or employer, the child is sent back to the receiving home and kept there until other satisfactory arrangements are made. "Father Smart is not only backed up in whatever action he takes by the Canadian Government, but by the British Government, too. He is practically the agent for both, by mutual agreement. It is obvious therefore, that by this system of supervision the possibilities of a non-productive citizen resulting are reduced to practically the irreducible minimum, for it is generally conceded that the best of character can be well recognized before a boy or girl reaches the age of 18 years.

However, the appended figures may serve as convincing support of the quality of these juvenile settlers as citizens. Last year Mr. Smart's report upon the results of the distribution of the young arrivals from the old country disclosed:

Conduct: Good, 3,477; fair, 76; unsatisfactory, 5.
Homes and situations: In good foster homes and situations, 1,731; in inferior foster homes and situations, 14; in satisfactory homes and situations, 1.
Progress: Good, 1,171; fair, 30; unsatisfactory, 3.
Health: Good, 1,215; fair, 40; unsatisfactory, 1.
Not Sium Children.
It should be appreciated that, due to the official supervision, these notes on the unsatisfactory classes, must either improve and satisfy their official father or they are sent back to the old country.

Any impression that these juvenile children are children of the slums and that they are selected without discrimination would be entirely wrong. Many of them are of good families who were taken by the homes due to the death of the parents or other unfortunate circumstances.

An indication of what a creditable reputation these juvenile settlers have made in different parts of Canada may be taken from the fact that while only 33,617 have come to the Dominion in the past 10 years, yet there have been in the same period 448,289 applications from people in this country anxious either to adopt or employ wards of accredited philanthropic agencies in the British Isles. These figures not only show the careful selection made in the old country, but also the equal concern on the part of Mr. Smart and others interested in the selection of foster parents and employers. Another factor that may have a bearing on why these children do so well in Canada is that the old boys are given a sound elementary training in Canadian methods of farming before they leave England and the older girls are trained for domestic work as it is done in this country.

This juvenile immigration is only one branch of the activities of the department whose work may properly be regarded as among the most vitally important of the nation's business, dealing as it does with the human element.

In the past 40 years 4,784,790 settlers have come to Canada, of whom 1,173,734 were from the British Isles. Presumably a great proportion of immigration to Canada will always come from the old country, and among this hardy Anglo-Saxon and Celtic stock none will prove more valuable citizens than these juveniles, who come not only physically fit, but with the advantage of youth and its ready adaptability to assimilation.

TIGER REGARDS ARMS PROPOSALS ANOTHER DREAM

Clemenceau Agrees to Hughes Plan in Principle But Can't Be Worked Out.

Paris, Nov. 22.—Dr. Premier Clemenceau, when seen today by your correspondent in his Paris apartment, joined with all the rest of France in agreeing upon the Hughes Navy Disarmament Programme "in principle." Remark, however, those quotation marks about the words "in principle" for that is as much as the "Tiger" admits for publication. In principle he also concedes that life is hard, that it is difficult to be good and that he is still against the programme.

The "Tiger" received me in his lair in the Rue Franklin and the opening rumble was the usual "no interview." Therefore, after he had declared himself "in principle" I was reminded from what followed of the story current during the peace conference when Woodrow Wilson was insisting upon the League of Nations. According to the story Mr. Clemenceau always up on retiring insisted to himself "George Clemenceau, you believe in the League of Nations. You know you do." But awakening in the morning his first remark addressed to himself was "The Tiger has the inner idea that it is another idealist plan that may turn out troublesome and even mischievous." The Tiger told me today the news paper to be edited by Andre Tardieu, which was to have appeared this month had been postponed until January 10, and that the name previously given it, "Nation Française" was likely to be abandoned for another title. He said his own name, instead of "The Tiger" he would like to see the paper's founder which he intends to take even a more active role than previously planned. He said: "I am doing this so that I can take all the knocks. I do not know how often I will write—I told Tardieu it would be only when I felt like it."

Concerning the possibility of his visiting the United States, M. Clemenceau said he had abandoned all thought of it. "Until these fellows now there all get home."

Replying to the suggestion that he might actively enter the political ring he replied in English, that to be good is difficult.

Prosecutions In Nova Scotia Under Migratory Bird Act

Clyde Hirtle and Garnet Young, of the Parnack Island, were recently apprehended by Federal Game Officer Richard Hiltz for a violation of the Migratory Birds Convention Act. These men were shooting Sooties (which are known as "Cooks") from a motor boat and this practice is well known among gunners to be contrary to law. They were brought before Magistrate Holloway at Mahone Bay, and subsequently fined $30 each and costs. This they refused to pay and were accordingly sentenced to thirty days in the county jail. Their cases attracted much attention and later they furnished bail and decided to appeal to a higher court. The hearing before the Supreme Court in Lunenburg was set for Tuesday, Nov. 28th. A few hours previous to this hearing they decided to withdraw the appeal and the fines and costs were paid, amounting in all to $100.

In Halifax County, particularly, there have been a number of prosecutions for selling and offering for sale blue-winged ducks, it now being illegal to buy or sell or offer for sale any kinds of game birds whatsoever. The Royal Canadian Mounted Police who are affiliated with the official staff in charge of the Federal Game Laws, have recently made several seizures in the Halifax Market and elsewhere. Fred Bower, Thomas Williams, Ratus and Beatrice Nieroth, Richard Gator and Joseph Dumphy, all of Halifax County, were lately fined for this offence. At Alberton, P. E. I., Edward C. Barber, Thomas Broderick, Hunter Weeks, and Russel Oulton were recently convicted for similar offences.

In Northern New Brunswick two men living at Dalhousie Junction were last week overtaken in a very serious violation of the Act and were heavily fined, and in addition had their guns, ammunition and search lights confiscated. They were indulging in that most unsportsmanlike method of shooting geese and brant by means of a powerful light at night. The blind and deaf birds sit helplessly on the water till the case of beam comes within range, when they are readily slaughtered. Their names are Allan Mennie and Irving Mennie.

All sportsmen and fair minded citizens should assist to stamp out this barbarous custom by reporting any instances which come to their notice, to the proper authorities.

Acids In Stomach Cause Indigestion

Medical authorities state that nearly one-third of the cases of stomach indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well. Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisulphated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisulphated Magnesia in powder or tablet form, or noney liquid or milk is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

New York, Nov. 20.—James Pagano, 17, of 253 Pleasant Avenue, walked into the District Attorney's office yesterday and said he wanted to give himself up for the killing of Frank Aljeski, a six-year-old boy. Pagano told of shooting the child while trying to protect his own 12-year-old brother from a man who had struck him. He said the shooting occurred September 20.

Police of the East 104th street station had been searching for Pagano ever since the shooting which occurred at 115th Street and East Avenue. Pagano said he saw his brother Joseph being chased by Samuel De Rosa, of 247 East 112th Street. Being afraid to back De Rosa with his fist, James said he took a revolver he had just bought out of his pocket and fired at him. The bullet struck the Aljeski boy in the abdomen, also wounding the child's uncle, Joseph Aljeski, in the leg. The child died. Pagano said De Rosa brandished an axe at him before he drew the revolver. Magistrate Doune in the Harlem Court held Pagano on suspicion of homicide without bail for a hearing tomorrow.

France Calls Arms Coup U. S. Idealism

Nation Still Amazed, Feels Relief That Plan Does Not Refer to Land Forces.

Paris, Nov. 22.—The Washington plan for the limitation of naval armaments, described by the French press as Secretary Hughes' coup de theatre, has electrified France, not as a proposition affecting her immediate interests, but as an astonishing concrete example of America's practical idealism. Accustomed to the disarmament question, officials here give every sign of amazement at the definite proposition with which the spokesman of the Harding administration opened the conference, and with this is mingled a feeling of relief that France virtually is left outside the discussion of this concrete suggestion as she would not have been had it applied to land forces.

Officials here are reticent about expressing an opinion, believing it would be impolitic for France to enter deeply into this discussion. The French view is that acceptance of the plan might carry with it the abandonment of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, which will be the key of the controversy that must ensue.

The Temps tonight holds that it is useless to discuss the merits of a proposal which is also placed on building capacity, as otherwise one country could increase its building facilities during the holiday and quickly outstrip the other. The Temps also believes that international control will be necessary by some organization outside the league.

For Japan, the Temps believes, the question is comparatively simple, whereas England must consider her dominions.

Satisfaction is expressed by M. Gouvin in the Journal des Debats over the fact that France has been let out, because had the plan applied to her, not possessing, as she does, any capital ships, she would have been left in a dangerous position. The plan must carry with it abandonment of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, according to the Journal des Debats, because "any such regulation of naval armaments would be ineffective if two or three of the great naval Powers should remain united by an alliance."

Sens should assist to stamp out this barbarous custom by reporting any instances which come to their notice, to the proper authorities.

SILVER EELS FROM QUEBEC

New York, Nov. 22.—Silver eels in squirming thousands arrived yesterday at the foot of 143d street, Hudson River, in two specially constructed barges that brought them from Quebec by way of the St. Lawrence River and streams intermediately connecting with the Hudson. They are fresh water eels of a particularly delicate flavor, according to the consignee, a fisheries concern at Fulton Market.

Salt water contact, it is said, might affect their toothiness and they were therefore halted as far upstream as convenient within the city limits. Eels are quoted at about 30 cents a pound and it is expected there will be a large sale to epicures and others who do not look favorably on the high cost of turkey.

Romance Carried Whiskey Cargo

New Bedford, Mass., Nov. 22.—The packet schooner Romance was escorted into the harbor here today by the coastguard cutter Acushnet and boarded by customs officials from Boston who seized 350 cases of whiskey. The officials, headed by Herman Hornel, surveyor of the port of Boston, refused to permit any of the passengers to land. The schooner has been engaged in the packet trade between this port and Cape Verde, but is understood to have called at Bermuda on her last trip. She was sighted off the island of No Man's Land by the Acushnet yesterday anchored in a heavy fog.

Moses D. Mann, special United States deputy surveyor, tonight arrested Wilfred H. Senior, 47 Draper street, Boston, captain of the Romance; Roy F. Teixeira, 1243 Washington street,

Boston, president of the Insular Trading Company, of Boston, owners of the vessel; and Israel Horvitz, head of the Horvitz Trading Company of this city who was a passenger on the Romance. They were all bailed in the sum of $5,000 each for appearance before United States Commissioner Goodspeed here tomorrow morning on charges of violation of the customs laws.

ARMAMENT PA REGULAR

Doors Are Closed and It to Know—Confidence Ebb—Brand Goes Hilarity Ways.

Washington, Nov. 22.—It's not a regular peace conference now, doors are closed and the public to what the conferees want to do. Following the sensational open week ago, public confidence in the conferees has steadily dropped slightly—and the will continue until the next operation Monday. There will tell Mr. Hughes will succeed in securing substantial measure of public confidence this Washington conference.

Cheers Will Ring Again. But Monday the cheers will again. Brand is scheduled to attend, the masterful, the fiery, plead the cause of his beloved France. Oh, yes, that will be worth going to. But Brand goes home next.

Lloyd George has not yet come may not. So there's the mire down with chief attractions away. If the doors are kept closed, the will come to lose some of its interest, and therefore, inevitably, a bit of faith in the conference.

Now that the newspapers are busy from seasons of the conference it is of interest to sketch the "public" through which the world learns of doings of the diplomats.

Mr. John Woodward, P.T.O. Lucan, Ont., writes: "It gives me much pleasure to recommend Dr. Chase's medicine, especially the Nerve Food. I was a sufferer from neuritis for several years, and tried all kinds of remedies, yet never seemed to get any better. At last my nerves and whole system seemed to give way through not being able to get any sleep at night for pain, which would not use to take me in all parts of the limb and feet. My nerves would twitch and my whole body would seem to jerk right up as I lay in bed. Almost at the point of despair, I decided I would get Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which I did, and after taking twenty boxes I believe myself almost normal again. I also took a box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills on hand, and for the past year I seem to enjoy my usual health."

ARMAMENT PARLEY MORE LIKE REGULAR PEACE CONFERENCE.

Doors Are Closed and Public Knows What Conference Wants It to Know—Confidence and Enthusiasm Beginning to Ebb—Briand Goes Home This Week—American Publicity Ways.

Washington, Nov. 22.—It's more like a regular peace conference now. The doors are closed and the public knows what the conference wants it to know. Following the sensational opening a week ago, public confidence and enthusiasm in the conference has of necessity dropped slightly—and the ebb will continue until the next open session Monday. Time will tell whether Mr. Hughes will succeed in securing a substantial measure of publicity for this Washington conference.

Cheers Will Ring Again.

But Monday the cheers will ring again. Briand is scheduled to speak. Briand, the masterful, the fiery, will plead the cause of his beloved France. Oh, yes, that will be worth going to see. But Briand goes home next week. Lloyd George has not yet come and may not. So there's the more danger, with the chief attractions away, that if the doors are kept closed, the public will come to lose some of its interest and, therefore, inevitably, a bit of its faith in the conference.

Now that the newspapers are barred from sessions of the conference it may be of interest to sketch the "publicity" through which the world learns of the doings of the diplomats.

The visitors are rapidly adapting themselves to American ways. It has been and is the custom for the President and heads of departments, like the secretary of state, the secretary of war, etc., to have two regular periods each week for meeting the newspapermen. At such a time the department head meets the newspapermen in a group and submit to a barrage of questions. The official tries to answer each question as far as he feels himself able to. Often he will frankly state that he does not care to say anything on a certain query. The gatherings are most informal and questions may be asked by both sides. There is one condition, however—the department head must not be quoted. The information he gives may be used in the papers but it must not come from him.

So one reads that "it is the view of the administration" or "a high government official stated" that peace with Germany would soon be a fact, when in reality it was President Harding who gave the information. So, Hughes says that the conference will last two months, one reads that "it is said by state department officials," etc., that the conference will last two months.

Follow American Idea.

The English were the first to get into the swing of things, quickly followed by the Japanese. These two delegations now have a regular time each day—the English now have three such sessions—when one of their number or a representative thereof, meets the newspapermen. The American idea is followed out—no one must be quoted. The French usually arrange an interview each day but it is not so well advertised as those of the English and Japanese. Members of other delegations which do not go into the publicity business so thoroughly can, of course, be reached from time to time by the successful searchers.

Lord Ridd is handling the British publicity. A tall, thin, well-set-up, wiry, keen faced, gray-haired man, he has caught on to the game very well. He meets the writers each morning and afternoon. Then in the evening a member of the British delegation is there in addition to Lord Ridd. Balfour, Lord Lee and Sir Robert Borden have all been present. Balfour, at first slightly perturbed at this new ordeal, proved most courteous and considerate. Borden proved very

Got No Sleep

But now the neuritis has gone, the pains have ceased, the nervous system is restored and the writer of this letter pays a grateful tribute to the medicine which made him well.

Mr. John Woodward, P.T.O., Lacan, Ont., writes:

"It gives me much pleasure to recommend Dr. Chase's medicine, especially the Nerve Food. I was a sufferer from neuritis for several years, and tried all kinds of remedies, yet never seemed to get any better. At last my nerves and whole system seemed to give way through not being able to get any rest or sleep at night for pain, which mostly used to take me in all parts of the limbs and feet. My nerves would twitch till my whole body would seem to jerk right up as I lay in bed. Almost at the point of despair, I decided I would get Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which I did, and after taking twenty boxes I believe myself almost normal again. I also took a box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills on hand, and for the next year I seem to enjoy my usual health."

People Buying Now For "Way Down East"

Though a new experience altogether—that of buying reserved seats a week in advance for a motion picture show—the people of St. John have again indicated their willingness to support high-class attractions by buying generously for next week's engagement of the D. W. Griffith classic, "Way Down East." The ticket rack in Imperial Theatre. The ticket rack for the whole week's run, and already many of the pigeon-holes bear evidence of heavy buying. Because of the novelty of this advance reservation for a picture show many have not yet awakened to the fact that choice seats may be pretty well taken up before Saturday unless they make their selections early. The price scale for "Way Down East" is the lowest on the continent, namely, 50 and 75 cents for the orchestra floor at night, $1.00 for the boxes, and 50 and 75 cents for the balcony floor, with 75 cents for the two front balcony rows. The matinees will be unserved and sold at the door.

"Scoops" and "Beats."

It is to be suspected that the British are not unacquainted with the trial balloon method of attack. It will be remembered that several news stories had appeared to the effect that England preferred the building of one or two battleships a year to the proposed annual holiday in order to keep her yards up. This report emanated from the British conference with newspaper men. Thursday night a member of the British representation, of higher rank than the man from whom had chiefly come these reports, declared that he had never heard mention of the proposal to build a battleship or two a year. So one news story got a vacation, for a time at least.

At times a newspaper man gets to see some delegate or adviser alone. This is often the way "scoops" or "beats" are obtained. But the official publicity is not handled this way, and exclusive stories are comparatively scarce.

JAPAN LEADING DOUBLE LIFE, SAYS TOYODA

Younger Generation Adopts Occidental Mode of Living —Jap Homes Divided.

Such is the opinion of O. Toyoda, Imperial minister of railways of the island empire, who has been a visitor in Philadelphia. But the double life has no sinister meaning—rather a humorous one, for it is the product of the never-ending battle between the traditions of Nippon and the practicalities of the Occident.

British Offer Pleases China

Retention of Hong Kong But Surrender of Shantung Naval Base Suits Delegates.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The British Empire will refuse to relinquish Hong Kong, its greatest fortification in the Far East, it was stated authoritatively today.

Great Britain however, will return to China the port of Wei Hai Wei, England's great naval base in Chantung province, it was declared.

These two points will be included in the British reply to the Chinese proposal, it was stated. Both the retention of Hong Kong by Great Britain and the restoration of Wei Hai Wei to China meet with China's complete approval.

Great Britain may stipulate that the return of Wei Hai Wei should be made contingent on the return to China by Japan of the Nipponese leaseholds in Chinese territory, it was said.

Wei Hai Wei History.

Wei Hai Wei was leased to Great Britain by China in July, 1898, as a naval base. It was specifically set forth in the convention at that time that the Wei Hai Wei lease should endure "for so long a period as Port Arthur shall remain in the occupation of Russia."

With the transfer in 1904 of Port Arthur to Japan, it might have been possible for China to have raised the question whether the Wei Hai Wei lease was not ipso facto terminated. No such question, however, was raised by China. This attitude of China toward Great Britain will serve to make the return of Wei Hai Wei a matter over which there will be no quibbling and one which might be interpreted as Great Britain's reward to China for the latter's attitude in 1904, it was declared.

British "Made" Hong Kong.

Hong Kong has been "made" by Great Britain and its position as chief mart of the Orient is due to the British activities there, it was said, and for this reason the retention of Hong Kong by the British would not be objectionable to China. China would prefer to secure Wei Hai Wei, it was asserted, because it is in Shantung province. The moral effect of Great Britain's renunciation of her leasehold would in all probability prove a factor in forcing Japan to surrender Kiaochow and Tsing Tao, also in Shantung, it was declared.

Anxious for Rehabilitation.

Great Britain's policy toward China was outlined officially today as embodying a desire on the part of the British Government to do everything in its power for the rehabilitation of China and to assist the latter in taking her proper place in the commercial life of the nations of the world.

MEETING NOT HELD.

A meeting scheduled for yesterday morning between the members of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission and the City Council was cancelled. Mayor Schofield said that he had received from the commission further information regarding the power available from the Mesquigue development and the estimated cost of delivery would be forwarded to him in the near future. The mayor therefore decided not to take any further action until this information was forthcoming.

Northcliffe Is Against Japan

Says U. S. is Unmindful of Dangers — Urges Anglo- American Friendship.

Peking, Nov. 21.—Lord Northcliffe, British publisher, in an address before the Anglo-American association here today, declared:—

"If the United States is ever mentioned in the Far East, it is at any time her magnificent work in the Philippines is disturbed, is there any reason why Singapore should not be available for her fleets? Great Britain and America must hang together in the Far East, or some time or other they may be hanged separately."

Lord Northcliffe declared that never in history had Anglo-American friendship been more necessary. He said America, Canada and thousands of Australians were much concerned over the prolongation of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, which had benefited Japan beyond her wildest dreams. He continued:—

"Japan at present is in much the same position as Germany before the war. Nominally a democracy, she is absolutely governed by four men, whose intentions might be judged by examining the constantly-changing map of the Far East and the immense expansion of Japanese armaments."

"That the Japanese military party is hostile toward the United States might be gathered from their many publications which obviously are approved by the rulers of Japan. But just as we took little notice of their hardi before the war, so the Amer-

cans are not worrying about such books, as "If Japan and America Fight," by the famous soldier, Gen. Sato; or "Small Japan and America Fight" by Seranetio, or a dozen other such publications. These works show a lamentable ignorance of the United States, of her economic power, of her fleet and of her capacity for raising armies.

"Moreover, they even display absolute ignorance of the state of feeling throughout Australia. The names of the Australians detest the alliance as heartily as the Canadians. These Japanese war books, which accurately represent the military party of Japan, constantly twist the United States with having no base in the Far East. They seem to regard Pearl Harbor as the nearest important American sea station."

"When the Americans came to our assistance in 1917 there were certain bases in southwestern Ireland to which we gladly invited them," added Lord Northcliffe, who continued with the suggestion of the advisability of Singapore, and concluded:—

"With the Irish question settled, believe a cordial Anglo-American hand shake will result."

Group Domination — A Menace to the development of Canada and the unity of our people

THE original movement out of which the Crerar policy has developed, was set in motion by a group of grain traders in the West, headed by Wood, a Missourian, for the sole purpose of controlling Western wheat. The main interest of both Crerar and Wood, is not the raising of, but the exploitation of wheat.

As selfish interests were the foundation of the movement, so in its development selfishness continued to be its chief characteristic.

In fact, so selfish and dangerous has Crerar's policy become that a number of the men who originally took a leading part in the movement, men highly respected in farming communities, such public-spirited and patriotic men as Clark, Fletcher, Henders, Ferguson and others, have withdrawn from Crerar's group and have repudiated his plans as a step towards national suicide.

Crerar advocates everything for the special benefit of his group without regard to the great majority of the people and with no thought for the welfare of the Dominion as a whole.

He is committed to his group to destroy every vestige of the Tariff and introduce Free Trade—which would surely destroy the industries of our towns and cities, throwing many thousands of Canadian men and women out of work and driving them to the United States for a livelihood.

Crerar's policy presents Group Domination in a most menacing form, and as Fletcher said—

"We must stamp out this system as we would deal with a dreaded disease and we have a right to expect the assistance of all people who respect Canadian institutions."

Common Council Regular Meeting

To Install Carmarthen Street Main Won't Reduce Insurance Rates.

Commissioner Prink acted as chairman at yesterday's meeting of the Common Council in the absence of the Mayor, who was required as a witness in the Circuit Court.

Commissioner Jones reported on those streets in the city which were without water or sewerage facilities, or only partly served.

The commissioner reported that the revenue to be derived would pay for the work, and moved that the firm's request be accorded to payment to be made out of unexpended balances.

Commissioner Jones recommended that instead of proceeding with the renewal of water mains, the council consider the extending of water and sewerage to sections of the city which were as yet unserved in this respect.

The commissioner submitted a drawing made by the late Mr. Murdoch in 1912, and further considered by the present city engineer, relating to an improvement in water and sewerage on Bellevue avenue.

Commissioner Jones said that the revenue to be derived from the extension of the water and sewerage services would not justify the expenditures, but that the Board of Health had insisted that the people of those sections be afforded better sanitary facilities.

Commissioner Jones then reported on the extension of water and sewerage on Visart street. He said this first estimated cost had been placed at $13,500; a second plan had been proposed by which the main would be taken northward from Millidge avenue to the old Adelaide road, the total cost of the work being estimated at $4,500.

Commissioner Jones then reported on the extension of water and sewerage on Visart street and to discharge near the old bridge at Newman Brook.

Commissioner Bullock moved that the report on the future maintenance of trestle and crib structures supporting railway tracks in West St. John, owned by the city and over which the tracks of the C. P. R. run, which was submitted by the city engineer representing the city, and C. C. Kirby, district engineer for the C. P. R., be submitted to the council for consideration.

An application from J. J. Babak asking for permission to erect an electrical sign on his premises at the corner of King and Union streets, West End, and a similar request from Leo Gilbert for his property at 183 Charlotte street, were both referred to the Commissioner of Public Safety.

A communication was received from F. B. Williams stating that he intended holding the city responsible for damages occurring to his property, the Victoria Rink, from the overflowing of surface water from City Road.

On motion of Commissioner Bullock the report was submitted to the Common Council for consideration.

THE HOCKEY RINK. The $25,000 required for the erection of a new hockey rink in the city is now in sight, so Mayor Schofield announced yesterday. There still remains to be decided the plan under which the subscribers will enter the project, before any definite announcement can be made regarding starting the erection of the rink.

Report On West End Trestle And Crib

City and C. P. R. Engineers Recommend Agreement be Entered Into.

At the regular meeting of the Common Council yesterday, Commissioner Bullock read a report from City Engineer G. G. Hare, and C. C. Kirby, District Engineer of the C. P. R., who acted jointly in an endeavor to find a basis for an agreement between the city and C. P. R. re the maintenance of trestle and crib structures in West St. John.

The report follows: T. H. Bullock, Esq., Commissioner of Harbors, Forts and Public Lands, City.

J. M. Woodman, Esq., General Superintendent Canadian Pacific Railway, City.

Dear Sirs,—In accordance with your instructions that we, the undersigned, should jointly endeavor to find a basis for an agreement between the City and the Canadian Pacific Railway with respect to the future maintenance of trestle and crib structures supporting railway tracks in West St. John, which trestles and cribs are now owned by the city and which tracks are owned by the Canadian Pacific Railway, we, therefore, beg to report that we have duly considered the circumstances now existing and recommend that an agreement be entered into on the following basis:

(A) The Canadian Pacific Railway to assume the cost of maintaining, renewing and repairing the trestle and crib decks supporting the tracks, and such decks to include stringers, ties, footwalks, stop blocks, etc.

(B) The City of St. John to continue to bear the cost of maintaining, renewing and repairing the sub-structures below the level of the decks, including piles, posts, sills, caps, walings, braces and crib timbers, etc.

(C) The tracks and ties to be included are those covering sheds Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4 and the Potato Warehouse in Sand Point and Sheds 5 and 6 on South Rodney Wharf.

(D) Whenever tracks are laid on the plank tops of wharves or cribs, the Railway Company to maintain the planking for width of fourteen feet (14') for each track.

(E) The City to continue to maintain the planking of driveways across the tracks.

(F) The Railway Company to continue to maintain the girders erected by it along or giving access to the wharf sheds.

(G) End supports for stringers to be provided not less than twelve feet (12') apart and not less than fifteen (15') apart whenever replacement of existing crib or trestle beams are made.

(H) The City and the Railway Company to be jointly responsible for the inspection of the structures as a whole. Neither party shall be held the other responsible for damages which may occur from failure to properly maintain the portions of structures belonging to their respective interests, unless such joint inspection has previously been made and either party has failed or omitted to carry out a mutually agreed upon scheme or programme of repairs.

(I) The agreement to be for a term of ten years from November 1st, 1920 subject to earlier termination in the event of the harbor properties being sold to the Dominion Government.

(K) In the event of such termination the Railway Company to be reimbursed for the value of the material placed in the structures, the life or usefulness of which is not completed.

(L) The Railway Company to pay to the City the cost of repair work done on the trestle decks during the year 1921.

(M) The Railway Company to be given the right to continue to keep its tracks on solid ground owned by the City, free of charge for the period of the agreement.

(N) The City to withdraw its bylaw dated October 4th, 1921 and to agree not to make any charge for cars placed on trestles.

(O) In the event of it being mutually agreed between the parties that any portions of the structures could be replaced with filled ground the cost of such filling shall be apportioned between the parties as their interest may appear in respect to the maintenance of timber structures.

Enjoyable Social Tendered the Members by Senior Y.M.C. A. Classes Last Evening.

An enjoyable social was tendered the Young Ladies' League of the Y. M. C. A. by the senior Y. M. C. A. classes in the Y. M. C. A. gym last evening. A musical programme was carried out, consisting of a solo by Leslie Bulck, a reading by Miss Good, a vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Merrereau, and a reading by Ronald Shaw. This was followed by games and dancing, and towards the end of the evening refreshments were served.

SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION.

Miss Ethel H. Jarvis, secretary of the Red Cross, returned yesterday after attending the national convention of the central council of the Canadian Red Cross, held at Toronto last week. Miss Jarvis said that the convention had been very successful, and that every province was represented. French-Canadian members from Montreal and other centres were present and contributed much to the general success. The convention extended from Monday until Friday and the Friday morning session, when representatives of the D. B. C. R. were before the convention, was perhaps the most interesting meeting.

NOT KNOWN HERE.

In reference to a letter which Mayor Schofield received Monday from D. A. Maston concerning the death of D. J. Campbell at Port of Spain and which stated that an uncle worked in the local Customs House, inquiry at that place failed to locate that he had no nephew of the name. William Campbell is the only person of that name employed at the Customs House, and he said yesterday morning that he had no nephew of the name. If there was an uncle on the mother's side, he is not employed at the Customs House at the present time.

Peck Memorial Hall To Be Dedicated

Wednesday, Nov. 30 Building, at Hillboro, the Gift of John L. Peck, M. L. A., Memorial to Albert C. Boys.

Hillboro, N. B., Nov. 22.—The Lieut. Gov. B. Peck Memorial Hall at Hillboro will be formally dedicated and presented to the public on Wednesday next, Nov. 30th. This building, the gift of John L. Peck, in honor of his father, has been erected for the use of the people of Albert County and is a memorial to the sixty-one Albert County boys who died overseas. Construction was commenced last spring and the building has now been completed with the exception of portions of the interior furnishings. The entire cost of the structure has been met by Mr. Peck, but at their own request various organizations of Albert County are providing furnishings for the various rooms. The building consists of a commodious restaurant in the basement, with washrooms, etc., and on the main floor a large hall with rest rooms and all conveniences for the holding of public functions and for the comfort of out-of-town visitors of Hillboro who may desire to make this community centre a resting place. There have been installed in the building six memorial windows, each representing one of the parishes of Albert, and each window in honor of the men from that particular parish who gave their lives in the war. A striking feature of the decorations is found in enlarged photographs of fifty-four of those who died, photographs of the other seven being in the building in the dedication ceremony. On Wednesday the clerkmen of various denominations represented in the county, together with municipal officers, will participate in the dedication, supper will be served and in the evening a musical and literary programme will be carried out. On that particular day will present the building to the public, when it is understood a board of trustees for the administration of the property will be selected.

Miss Mary Josephine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Power, Red Bank, Northumberland County, and Walter Joseph McGinnis, West Side, were married yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock in the Church of the Assumption, with Nuptial Mass, by Rev. J. J. Ryan. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Stella Power, of Red Bank. Following the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast, supervised by Miss Rose Power and Miss Mary Kelly, was served at the presbytery. The bride for a number of years was housekeeper for Father Ryan, while the groom is well known on the West Side, being a member of the McGinnis four corner crew. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends of the young couple. Miss Catherine Power, Red Bank, sister of the bride, attended the wedding. There were many handsome and appropriate presents received by the happy couple, who will reside at 250 City Lane.

Charges Before The Grand Jury

The case of the King vs. P. A. Campbell, J. P. H. James LeClair, Bob Ward Tighe, John Wood, John McDonald, H. Kane, Percy Moore, Allen Northrup, Thomas McDonald and Felix McMillin, charged with holding an unlawful assembly tended to disturb the peace, was considered by the grand jury yesterday at the opening of the circuit court, and will be again taken up on the opening of the court this morning before Mr. Justice Chandler.

In charging the grand jury His Honor expressed the opinion that there was enough evidence to show that it was not all the twelve accused, at least some, were present. That there was an assembly formed for the carrying out of a common purpose, namely a parade. That there was a disorder, and that while there was no direct evidence to show that any of the twelve took part, yet the disorder was of such a kind as to make people in the neighborhood fear that the peace would be disturbed tumultuously.

Only ten grand jurors were present, after considering the evidence, failed to agree, discharging 5 to 5. The grand jury are: Wilfred C. Day, foreman; Beverley Stevens, Harry J. Duffin, Charles A. Donald, Maurice D. Cull, Nesbit A. Lynch (absent), Daniel J. Doyle, Louis G. Hedd, Ernest Lako, Walter Hamm, Alfred L. Dodge and L. W. Nickerson.

A truce bill was found in the case of the King vs. George Parker, two indictments, theft and receiving stolen goods. Cases to be considered today are: The King vs. Edward O'Brien, an action arising from the death of Albert Norris, the charge now against the prisoner being the stealing of a bottle of whiskey. The King vs. Joseph Neaves, theft of goods from the store of William Jacobson. The King vs. John McElhanna and Leonard Craig, acting together in placing obstructions upon street railway tracks in Carleton. A list of the petit jurors follows: H. B. Cozman, E. M. Logan, John P. Coffey, Jas. L. Porter, Colson Parent, H. R. Brundage, H. E. Bayne, W. Bailey, Louis Thompson, W. B. Barie, R. A. Carroll, C. N. Huxford, R. J. Craig, W. F. Smith, J. W. Thomas, A. P. Burditt, H. F. Hinch, G. W. Lawson, R. J. Armstrong, C. P. Dykeman, E. M. Duval, J. H. Scribner, W. L. Simpson, F. G. Poole, Alex. Steen, G. A. Stephen, son of J. Praser, R. P. O'Brien, G. H. Worden, W. J. Anderson, V. A. Scott, H. H. Ellis, B. Batey, A. J. Nagle, I. H. Kimball, I. O. Wilson, G. H. McLaughlin, J. H. Armstrong, P. J. Likely, S. H. Peters, H. E. Brown, Herbert Butler, C. E. Cowan, L. L. Collier, J. A. Davidson, H. H. Daley, H. G. Day, J. B. Hunsinger, W. A. Erie, P. Z. Power, Civil Docket. The civil docket was as follows: Jury Cases, Albert Conack vs. N. J. Power.

Salmon Spawning.

The most successful year at the government retaining pond, Little River, is reported by fish experts concerning salmon spawning. A total of 8,000,000 eggs were spawned and were sent to Grand Falls and Silver Falls, with the former stations receiving the greater number. Next spring, when the eggs are hatched, they will be distributed in the different streams throughout the province. Twelve hundred salmon were received at the Little River retaining pond during the fishing season, at a rate of $5.25 delivered, and there was little loss sustained during the period of retention. After the fish are spawned they are released and fish spawned and tagged have a year later been caught and sold to the Little River station and found to be in good condition, and were spawned a second time.

London, Nov. 19. — (Associated Press).—The British Government, it was announced today, has handed the Soviet Government at Moscow a firm worded note absolutely denying the allegations of Foreign Minister Tchitcherin that the British evidence of hostile Bolshevik propaganda in Central Asia and Afghanistan was founded on forged documents, German or otherwise.

The note declares that the Soviet reply of Sept. 26 to the former note of Lord Curzon, the British Foreign Minister, apart from the allegations now denied by Great Britain, consisted of a series of quibbles regarding positions held by officials, and that no attempt was made to answer the very serious charges of Russian hostile propaganda in Persia, Afghanistan or Central Asia.

CALLS ON JAPAN TO FACE THE JAZZ MUSIC

Jabin Hsu Argues Time Now Ripe to Clear Mystery of Anglo Pact.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 22.—The world today calls on Japan for a showdown. China smokes an atmosphere of surprise has made her demands for the solution of her problems.

The United States, although well understood to be sympathetic with the formula, adopts a watchful waiting policy because she has apparently decided that it would be better strategy for her to await the developments and reaction from other quarters.

The French delegates also have expressed their willingness to accept the China proposal. Great Britain's highest authorities are said to have expressed their readiness to support the general principles so concisely presented by Dr. Sze, the chief delegate, while Italy, the Netherlands and Portugal have all favorably commented upon the plan as a suitable basis for the discussion of Far Eastern problems.

Admiral Baron Kato, on behalf of the Japanese delegation, yesterday, however, asked and received from the heads of the various delegations a delay of several days to allow his delegation to examine the proposal presented by China on Wednesday.

Inquiries elicited that certain points in the Chinese proposal raised doubtful questions which might be answered only after mature consideration.

The Japanese delegation regarded the proposal that "the Powers conclude no treaties affecting China without consulting her" might affect the Anglo-Japanese Alliance. It was declared to be the view of the highest British authority that the alliance was not directly involved in China's proposal. It may later be drawn into the discussions.

Furthermore, the Japanese attach great importance to the proposal that all existing commitments relating to China should "be examined" with a view to determining their scope and validity. They believe that this will directly affect their national interests.

It is not the slightest doubt in the minds of any student of Far Eastern questions that the third clause in Dr. Sze's proposal was framed directly against the existence of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, which not only China but also the United States and the British colonies expect to be abrogated by the present conference.

Since the signing of the Anglo-Japanese alliance has been a mystery to other nations. Its existence has been regarded as enough to create international distrust, cynicism and suspicion. Why should Japan ally herself to the United States? The American press has vehemently denounced it. The sentiments of the Ministers of the British dominions are that it is an unstable military alliance. In Tokyo further rapacious designs in both Korea and China. It is something unnatural, something hidden.

I believe it was Gen. Smuts who said that day has come for the "exclusive treaties of alliance." All the nations of the world have an interest in the preservation of peace and an obligation to mankind to remove all causes of strife through encroachment and penetration. The agreement of the nine Powers represented at the conference today seems to be sufficient protection for each. If so why does Japan hesitate in giving up her alliance?

Coming to Japan's second point of objection as intimated by her spokesmen, which calls for the declaration of special rights and privileges, open to her or commitments to be examined with a view to determining their scope and validity, we believe that China has made the minimum demands with the utmost fairness.

We are all aware that it is most embarrassing to expose a "dirty deal" in the white lights of publicity, which this present conference is giving, but some of the so-called special rights have never been declared to the world, thanks to the practice of secret diplomacy. It will be remembered that even the secret of the notorious Twenty-one demands was "deliberately kept" to borrow the phraseology of Lord Balfour, while innumerable concessions were granted to Japan through negotiations with corrupt officials of China, whose subservience to the Japanese has been conclusively demonstrated.

Secretary Hughes's daring adoption of open diplomacy has been styled by the ablest diplomats as "a landmark in human progress." A new era has been inaugurated at this conference to have covenants openly arrived at. The world repeats what it saw yesterday. The present conference is an attempt to right the wrong. Why should the declaration of the special rights, privileges, immunities and commitments, disclosed as they are, change the nature of the relations? Besides, China will not be the sole judge on the validity of the issue. If Japan can justify her claims she will try to dispute her legitimate holdings?

The time is indeed opportune for Japan to follow the lead of the United States by "facing the music" courageously and sincerely.

Hardly remaining among the critics and many of those in today's convert list are more than likely to backslide from time to time. For instance, the stock headlines in a Communist press are "The Washington Conference or the Coming War." Gustave Home, in Victoria cries:

200,000 Mennonites Are Moving From Canada To Mexico

Migration of 50,000 Families to Take Two Years.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 21.—One of the largest migrations of Christian people of modern history is that of about 200,000 Mennonites, 50,000 families, from Canada to Mexico, which will be in Canada in December. Their trek is expected to last two years.

The Mennonites for the past year have been looking for a new home, claiming unjust treatment in Canada during the World War. Eight millions have invited them. Land "sharps," "boomers," and others have tried to influence them.

After a dozen trips to Mexico, during which representatives conferred with President Alvaro Obregon and officials of the Mexican immigration service, the leaders have decided to settle in Mexico. These editorialists from various sources, save Mexican, declared the Mennonites were "making a mistake" that religious freedom which they have sought could not be guaranteed them under the Mexican constitution. Another trip was made during which the Mennonite leaders and government officials assured the Mennonites that they could worship God as they pleased, that they could hold all the tenets of their religion and could enter that country and make their permanent home.

Canadian Mennonites hold the same belief as early members of the sect who settled in the United States—that of non-resistance. The Mennonites, in defending their belief, declared that they suffered loss in the early days at the hands of the Indians than did others who waged warfare against the savages.

The Mennonites still refuse to enter any war.

Another peculiar custom of these people is the washing of feet. They say that the command of Christ to the women to wash His feet sends on the same spiritual level as His acts of distributing food and drink to the hungry and thirsty. To the Mennonites the story related by St. Luke is comparable to the ones other Christians regard, including the sacrament and communion.

Community property is another belief of some Mennonites, although it is no general. The members of the sect co-operate in building roads, school houses and churches.

The removal of the Mennonites to America came about when William Boylston was granted land for his Quaker followers. He was told of Mennonites who had fled from Germany to Holland and the Quakers credited with helping them financially in colonizing parts of Ohio, Indiana, Kansas, Nebraska, and South Dakota. Mennonites were established in Saskatchewan and other parts of Canada. During the past few years of the sect have settled in Florida.

For years there were independent bodies of Mennonites, but years ago the sect was reunited. The reunited sect will settle in Chihuahua and Durango, principally in the former state. Options have been taken on land in both states and improvements are being made on one large tract, the Bustillos hacienda, or ranch, near Bustillos and Chihuahua City. The colonists have paid 25,000 francs for the tract, the money being on deposit to the credit of the Zuloaga family, heirs of the large land owner, Carlos Zuloaga. The purchase price is 600,000 pesos.

France Pleased With Outlook of Conference

French Views Now Shift from Cynicism to Optimism.

Paris, Nov. 22.—This aged cynical civilization of France is today stunned therefore slightly incoherent, but nevertheless pleased, with the concrete working basis propositions so quickly placed before the Washington conference by Secretary Hughes. For the first time there seems to be an inner conviction, even in these hoary edifices of deep politics and shrouded diplomacy—the Palais Bourbon and Quai d'Orsay—that the real and honest idealism of America may permit her not only to keep her own position as world leader but also actually to drag the world up with her.

Today's papers contain only the long official account of the opening proceedings called by the Havas News Agency, but the opening line of this dispatch, "we have had a surprise of the first order" permits one to understand why the French special writers at the conference have not yet had time to adjust or readjust and get caught up with themselves.

However, the home opinion has for the first time shifted, frankly from cynicism to optimism, although the French writers from the moment of President Harding's invitation have expressed sincere well wishes for the success of the conference, the underlying and purely typical gallic note of unbelief has never been absent. Although the good faith of America has not been doubted ex-President Wilson proved that apparently it has not been in the Latin nature with its centuries old background of political intrigue and likewise with the failure of Paris conference before it, to believe that any real good could result at Washington. But now not only the wisdom of American leadership, but the strength of American public opinion has been presented with such emphasis that now persuasions are being formed—these likewise with typical gallic clarity.

Jacques Roulin, in Figaro, well illustrates the change. He says: "The President of the United States has a conviction that it is possible to inaugurate a new diplomacy and to affect changes in the relations between nations that people have with each other. His conviction is shared by the American people. They present a force that is almost irresistible."

The Petit Parisien goes even further by likening the opening of the conference to a ray of real sunshine at last and declares that no Frenchman can read the inaugural of President Harding or the programme of Secretary Hughes without emotion. The impromptu address by Premier Briand naturally is given greater prominence here than elsewhere, nearly all the gallic headlines announcing that the applause which greeted it was a moving manifestation of the ardent sympathy for France.

Of course there are many "dis-

New York Gives Marshal Foch A Rousing Send-Off

French Hero Begins 12,000 Mile Trip to 23 States and Canada.

New York, Nov. 22.—New York bade Marshal Foch a rousing adieu tonight, sending him off on a swing about the continent, which will end Dec. 13, when he returns to this city, to sail the next day for France.

The itinerary, announced tonight by the American Legion, his hosts on the American visit, indicated that the illustrious generalissimo will travel more than 12,000 miles and visit 23 states and Canada.

The trip will take him to the Pacific coast by way of the Great Northwest and back again to Washington by a southerly route; thence into Canada and back to New York through New England. The marshal left tonight for Washington, whence the swing will be started in real earnest, Tuesday night.

A public reception tonight in the Hippodrome ended the allied commander's visit to New York. A great street went up from the waiting crowd outside the theatre as the marshal's flag-decked automobile drew up and the doughty little figure of Foch stepped brightly out with right hand at salute.

The crowd inside was equally wild with enthusiasm when he appeared in his box and faced them. A chorus of 1,000 voices launched into the stirring strains of the "Marche des Nations" and his aides stood at stiff salute, the audience standing at attention.

Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, was introduced by William F. Deagan, New York state commander, and he in turn presented Foch to the crowd.

The marshal responded briefly in French, expressing his appreciation of the tributes the city has paid him in continuous round since he arrived Friday morning.

Martin W. Littleton then delivered a eulogy which was punctuated by cheers at every reference to Foch's exploits.

As he left the theatre for the train that was to take him to Washington,

JOHN PARIS AGAIN ON TRIAL
FUR MURDER OF SADIE McAULEY

Jury Empanelled and Evidence Heard Before Judge Chandler Yesterday Afternoon—Walter Humphries Testified Regarding Dates and Conversation With Accused Regarding the Murder.

The case of the King versus John Paris charged with the murder of Sadie McAuley was taken up at the Circuit Court yesterday before Judge Chandler.

In this case the Attorney General, Honorable J. P. Byrne and Dr. W. B. Wallace, E. C., conducted the prosecution for the Crown, and H. V. Vernon of Truro, N. S., conducted the defence. The following jury was empanelled—E. W. Dugal, R. G. Day, J. H. Scribner, G. A. Stevenson, A. S. Stet, H. E. Brown, George H. Worden, Chas. P. Dykeman, J. H. Armstrong, Walter Bailey, W. E. Baris, H. S. Colman. On the opening of the trial the case to be set up by the Crown was outlined by the Hon. J. P. Byrne to the jury. He pointed out that Sadie McAuley was a young girl, a cripple who lived with her mother. On the same street lived the Levins whose father on the second day of August was working on Douglas Avenue. On this day Hattie Levine, accompanied by Sadie McAuley left Clarence St., taking a dinner in a parl and reached Douglas Avenue about 12 o'clock and gave the girl to Levine saying that "they were going to pick berries." The evidence discloses that they were going down the hill while other girls were coming up. Hattie Levine says that after they had been there a short time a man approached and gave her a handful of berries. He picked berries with them, picking towards a wire fence. When he reached the fence Sadie went through and the man followed. Hattie Levine stayed and called for her to come back. Hattie went to the top of the hill and said to "Bob" Robert Elliot, that Sadie had gone over the fence with a man. Before going home she looked for Sadie but could not find her. When she got home she told the story to her mother and a party went to the spot to search for her but to no avail. On the night of August 2nd it was reported to the police that Sadie McAuley was missing.

On the 9th of August a young man named Kimball while picking berries saw the shoulder of a girl under a pile of stones and hauled some stones away and saw the girl's body. He told his discovery to the police and the body was removed to Chamberlain's Undertaking rooms, where the body was identified by the father of the child. A post mortem was held by Dr. Abrahamson and the body was found to be outraged. Marks were found of strangulation and looking to death. In addition to this the Crown has the evidence of Mr. Calvin, Walter Humphrey, Mrs. Craft and Mrs. Gerow. Mrs. Calvin will say that on the first day of August she was in the park on the Avenue by the Hillyard home with her 12 year old daughter, a man approached and the child cried out, she noticed the man and it was John Paris, the accused. The Crown also produces that on the 2nd of August Walter Humphrey, some time in the forenoon rowed Paris from the Carleton side to the St. John side of the river and after reaching the city side Paris wanted Humphrey to go to the park but he was not able to as he had to get meat for Walter Cook's dinner. On the night of the 2nd a fire in the Cushing mill which lasted until morning and Mrs. Craft saw Paris on the night of the 2nd standing in the window. Alfred Byers, saw Paris on the second of August. On the morning of the third Walter Humphrey some time in the forenoon before dinner was talking to Ernest Campbell and while talking Paris came along. After 2:40 of the third day the British fish shed burned. In the morning Walter Humphrey talked to Campbell and Paris about the fire. Paris had a boil on his arm and Ernest Campbell tied up a bandage on his arm. Paris wanted to row across the river on August third and Humphrey got a boat from Mrs. Craft and rowed him over. Paris told him of the relations he had had with a white girl in Riverview Park on the previous day. When Paris got out of the boat he wanted Humphrey to go up to the Park. Humphrey said he was not dressed up. Paris said "better come up." Humphrey said "little girl missing." Paris then asked him what he was going to do. Answered "nothing, why John?" Paris said "I want you to help me to do something. Bury the body of that kid." Humphrey asked, "John, did you do that?" Paris replied, "That's between you and me." Mrs. Craft remembers the 3rd of August, owing to it being the birthday of her son. Humphrey asked for the boat and she saw him row Paris over below Warner's mill and return. John Best also remembers seeing Humphrey row Paris from the Carleton side to the city side in the forenoon. William Sweet rowed Paris back from the St. John side to the Carleton side at low tide. Hattie Levine will say that the man looked like Paris but for the mustache and in the same size. Mrs. Calvin saw Paris on the first day of August in the park and saw him on the sixth day in the park. It was the same man who had approached her daughter.
