A DANGEROUS CROSSING

The other day a double wagon loaded with pressed hay was struck by a train at the Depot street crossing and was demolished. The team and the boy driving it escaped unharmed. The outfit belonged to Walter Cook of Victoria. It was while the train crew were shunting cars that the accident happened, the wagon being struck by a box-car that was being backed into the siding. Undoubtedly there is more traffic at this particular crossing than at any other on the sub-division, and being right across the railway yard, there are three tracks. The trainmen keep a constant look-out to prevent such accidents and in this instance the driver was duly warned.

The crossing is protected by gates but the rules order that these be lowered only for passenger trains. Their use for protection from the shunter would be impracticable since it would mean obstruction of the crossing for hours at a time. The only safe precaution is that teamsters have a care. Heed the trainmen's warning and don't try to beat the train out at any crossing. It may be added that the railway people have no authority to allow cars to stand on a crossing for any period of time, although at times it is difficult to prevent it.

Royalton Reflections

Farmers are busy hauling potatoes to Centreville where they are getting above $2 per barrel.

Mrs. Ezra Cronkite is visiting in Presque Isle.

Elisha Crawford with two teams has gone to the lumber woods.

Perry Crawford who enlisted for overseas service and who has been doing home duty at Amherst, is visiting his parents for a few days.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Harry Cronkite who has been ill for the past week is some better.

Evangelists H. S. Mullen and wife assisted Mr. Briggs in holding some revival services in the R. B. church recently. Their beautiful singing along with the good preaching attracted large crowds. Rev. Mr. Henderson of Blaine continued the meetings on for a week after their departure.

We are sorry to learn that Clair Crawford is sick. Dr. Peppers was called in on Sunday last. We trust it is nothing more serious than a heavy cold and hope to see him around again.

We understand that at the last recruiting meeting held at Centreville there was a number of young men in the vicinities around about enlisted to go to the front.

Mrs. Thos. Piper and grandson, Fred Piper, made Mrs. Willie Burt a short visit recently.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. David Campbell is in poor health, threatened with appendicitis.

Work of the W. C. T. U.

Members of the W. C. T. U. spent a most enjoyable time at the home of Mrs. D. H. Nixon on Thursday evening, knitting for the soldiers. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. S. Hayden Shaw, and all who are interested in knitting for the soldiers will be welcome whether they are members or not. At this last meeting the members decided to send the White Ribbon Bulletin, a year's subscription, to each of the Hartland clergymen.

K. OF P. ENTERTAINED THEIR FRIENDS

Brighton Lodge, K. of P., gave their friends a most pleasant evening at their Castle Hall on Thursday of last week. Practically the whole town was invited and many responded to the kindly summons. The evening was passed in social intercourse and generous refreshments of cake and coffee were served. During the evening Wendell Nixon, a leading spirit among the younger members, was warmly commended by his brother Knights for that he had lately enlisted to serve his King and country. He was very much surprised when M. L. Hayward stepped forward and presented him with a neat wrist watch, a tangible token of Pythian friendship. Mr. Hayward addressed the young man at considerable length and fittingly expressed the feelings of brother Knights who were proud to send another of their number to the empire's succor. Mr. Nixon was deeply touched and his reply though brief showed a determined desire to see the fight through, unmindful if he perished.

Brighton Lodge is flourishing, new members coming in from time to time. An effort which shows every promise of success, is being made to organize a Temple of Pythian Sisters, where the wives and sisters of Knights may know the mystery of the order and strength of its cardinal principle—true friendship.

The Lodge is arranging for either the building or purchase of a hall of its own. That they will own their own building by one or the other of the means is now quite certain.

Death of Mrs. H. M. DeWitt

Mrs. H. M. DeWitt of Upper Woodstock passed from this life on Nov. 17 at the age of 52 years. She was the daughter of William and Mary Ann Culbertson of Waterville and was born Nov. 9, 1863. When but a girl she made a profession of Christ as her Saviour, and was baptized by the late Rev. T. S. VanWart into the fellowship of the Waterville Free Baptist church.

On March 18, 1885, she and H. M. DeWitt were married, making their home in Waterville for a good number of years. Of late they moved to Upper Woodstock. Mrs. DeWitt has been a great sufferer for years, but through the love of God she was able to endure to the end.

The husband, two sons, two brothers, two sisters and many friends miss her. By her own request Rev. E. C. Jenkins preached her funeral sermon and her body was laid to rest in the Waterville family lot on Nov. 19, 1915. Rev. J. B. Gough assisted at the home, and Rev. J. D. Wetmore at the church.

Flotenville Notes

Mrs. Perkins spent the weekend with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Boyer.

Rev. M. H. Manuel and wife entertained about forty of the young people on Thursday evening.

Mr. Goodwin spent Saturday in Hartland with his friend Principal Berry.

Miss Augusta Slipp spoke Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church in the interest of the Women's Missionary Societies. An appreciative audience listened with deep interest to the stirring words of the "recruiting officer" as she appealed to the women of the churches to stand fast in these days of stress and strain and strive for advancement all along the line.

BUTTER WRAPS

Since the Dairy Act was passed making it necessary to have the words "Dairy Butter" or "Creamery Butter", as the case may be, on all butter prints offered for sale, most farmers have been using wrappers which also bear their name as the maker.

The result of this is a very noticeable improvement in the quality of dairy prints found in the stores, for the makers are very careful about the butter they put their name on. Farmers are also learning that it is easier to sell butter when they guarantee it with their name than when they don't. Most consumers are willing to pay more for the product put up in that manner. Indeed, it costs the farmer a trifle more and dealers would serve the farmers a good turn if they asked one cent a pound more for butter bearing the maker's name—and they would render a more appreciable service if they offered to pay the farmer a cent a pound more. The consuming public will be willing to pay a cent to know who makes the butter they eat. Indeed, the Observer man would give two dollars to know who made the butter he tried to eat a few days ago.

Sometimes very poor butter is sold that has the maker's name on it. This, it may be reasoned, is the result of careless handling in the stores, all the butter being placed together so that the bad contaminates the good.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body, and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building tonic, free from any harmful drugs. Try it.

ADVERTISING RATES

Notwithstanding the schedule of advertising rates printed in The Observer last week, there have been received every day since, requests, or, rather, demands, that we publish advertisements free. In some cases these free publicity seekers not only demand space for nothing but blandly request the editor to stop the work he has in hand and prepare the copy for them.

Any announcement that especially serves the purpose of an individual, or a group of individuals must be paid for, except that we shall continue, in the future as in the past, making no charge for announcing church services, Red Cross or Patriotic meetings.

Henceforth to announce any event that has for its purpose the raising of money for any purpose whatsoever, except for Red Cross or patriotic purposes, The Observer will make a charge of 25 cents. The copy must be plainly written and the announcement paid for in advance. Otherwise it will not be printed.

Displayed advertisements are charged for at one price—10 cents a column inch, each insertion. It makes no difference what the advertisement is for, the cost is the same. No new account will be opened for a sum less than $1.

Detailed reports of Red Cross, patriotic, or any other societies are charged at 2 cents a line.

The Observer is always glad to get items of real news, no matter on what topic, so long as it is local news. In many cases arrangements can be made for announcing an event without cash consideration, a report of the proceeding after it has occurred sufficing.

THE POTATO SITUATION

Ottawa authorities have issued an interesting report concerning the condition of potatoes throughout the dominion. It says rot and blight are prevalent and gives the quality of New Brunswick potatoes as 88 per cent of standard. Local buyers declare there is no rot or disease in the potatoes grown in this section, but that New Brunswick stock has got a black-eye from careless sorting. At the time of digging when very high prices prevailed, all kinds of potatoes, large and small, of different and mixed varieties, were thrust on the market, to the disgust of the consumers in Montreal and Toronto. The result of this has been that Quebec and Ontario potatoes have got the preference and for the first time are quoted higher than those from New Brunswick.

Moral: Farmers! sort your potatoes.

The Ottawa report follows:

The conditions governing the production of potatoes have this year been as bad as last year good. The total estimated yield is 62,604,000 bushels from 478,600 acres, an average yield per acre of only 131 bushels. Last year the corresponding figures were 85,672,000 bushels, 475,900 acres, and 180 bushels. Not since the average of 119 bushels in 1910 has the rate per acre been so low; it is 27 bushels below the average of 158 bushels for the five years 1910-14. In Ontario, where the record yield of over 16, bushels per acre was obtained last year, the average yield per acre is not more than 92.6 bushels, the lowest yield on record for the province. In other provinces the potato yield is also poor, excepting in Alberta and British Columbia. In the former province the total yield is 5,155,000 bushels of 27,300 acres, an average of 188.8 bushels per acre, and in the latter the yield is 3,956,000 bushels from 16,000 acres, an average of 247 bushels. In both provinces the yield per acre is larger than in any year since 1911 when the respective yield 211.6 and 252 bushels. For all Canada the quantity is 84 p.c. of the standard as compared with 90 p.c. last year; but in Ontario the quantity is down to 66 p.c. as compared with 101 p.c. last year. In P.E.I. the quality is 91; in Nova Scotia it is 76, and in New Brunswick it is 88 p.c. In Alberta the quality is good with 91 p.c. and in British Columbia it is 84 p.c. The average price per bushel to the grower works out to 57 cents for Canada, 76 cents for Ontario and 33 cents in Alberta. Potatoes are very generally reported as affected with rot and blight, especially in Ontario, and the indications are that the keeping qualities this year will be very poor.

Backache

The artist sketched this picture from life in a Toronto blacksmith shop, in order to get the correct pose of the smith at the anvil and shoeing a horse. Is it any wonder that the blacksmith's greatest troubles are backache and derangements of the kidneys? The constant strain on the muscles of the back and kidneys interferes with the filtering action of these organs. The uric acid poisons left in the blood cause pains and aches, backache and rheumatism, and such serious diseases as Bright's disease and hardening of the arteries result.

But it is not the blacksmith alone who is tortured by backache, for there are many occupations in which the continuous strain on the back leads to much suffering, and also to serious disease.

Blacksmiths have always been strong in their praise of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and by telling others of the good results accomplished by this treatment have added much to its popularity among farmers and horsemen generally.

Being direct and prompt in their action, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills appeal to the man of action. The liver is awakened, the bowels aroused and the kidneys strengthened by the influence of this medicine. The filtering and excretory organs lose no time in cleansing the system of the poisonous matter which gives rise to pain and disease. Constipation is overcome, kidney derangements corrected, digestion improved, and you feel fine. Put them to the test when you are feeling out of sorts. Let them prove their value. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Death of Guy McCollom, Senior

Guy McCollom, sr., died suddenly last night. While he has been in failing health and a great sufferer, he was as well as usual yesterday, and was able to walk out. He was seized with heart failure at about 8 o'clock and died at 10.

Mr. McCollom was born in Queens county and lived there for nearly fifty years. Thirty-seven years ago he came to Carleton Co. with his wife and young family and took up a farm at Ashland. During the whole of his life time he was interested in lumbering, and in his day carried on extensive operations on both the lower and upper St. John as well as on the Miramichi. Born of Scotch parentage he possessed many of the characteristics peculiar to that hardy race. As an employer he was always considerate, as a friend true and loyal, and as a husband and father kind and affectionate. He will be mourned not only by his immediate family circle, but by the whole village his cheery greeting will be missed.

Mrs. McCollom died five years ago. The surviving children are J. E. McCollom of Hartland, W. Guy of Ashland, George of Calgary, and Moses and John of Cobalt, Ontario. Mrs. J. F. Murdoch is the only daughter. At her residence he made his home of late years, and there he died.

The funeral will be held tomorrow (Thursday) at the Methodist church, Rev. M. H. Manuel, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Florenceville, preaching the sermon.

TOOK THE ADVICE OF HIS FRIEND

Stomach Trouble and Rheumatism
Relieved By "Fruit-a-lives"

MR. L. LABRIE
594 Champlain St., Montreal.

"I have been restored to health by taking 'Fruit-a-lives'. For two years, I was a miserable sufferer from Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble. I became very weak, had frequent dizzy spells and when I took food, felt wretched and sleepy. I suffered from Rheumatism dreadfully, with pains in my back and joints and my hands swollen. A friend advised me to try 'Fruit-a-lives' and from the outset, they did me good. After I had started the second box, I felt I was getting well and I persevered in the treatment. I can truthfully say that 'Fruit-a-lives' is the only medicine that helped me."

WHO STANDS ASIDE?

About the most contemptible wretch in Canada today is the man who gives thought only to the means by which he may enrich himself out of the war. At a time when tens of thousands of men are offering their lives, and when the very existence of the country is at stake; when the appeal to all that is highest and best in human nature is more urgent and impelling than ever before in our history; and when there are so many tasks of supreme importance to be performed, the man who not only withholds his personal support but regards the nation's tragedy as his opportunity for gain is of all men the most to be condemned. An honorable and patriotic citizen should not only be well-content but should entertain some doubt about the quantity of his patriotism if at the end of the war he is one dollar richer than when it began. For if he has the opportunity to acquire wealth his immunity from personal danger and loss is brought by the blood of other men, whether they be Canadians, other British subjects, Belgians, Serbs, French, Russians or Italians. This is humanity's war against the swelling tide of barbarism, and the Canadian who is safe owes some of that safety to all of the men who have died and are dying in the conflict.

It is not merely by going to the front that men can serve. Money must be provided. The families of fighting men must be cared for. The wounded heroes who return must be given due recognition. The reconstruction period after the war must be provided for and plans formulated before the time for action arrives. The recruiting campaign must be kept up until there is no more need of new battalions. On every side are avenues of usefulness for every man, and he who refuses to see them is only different from an enemy in that he maintains a neutral attitude with one eye on the main chance.

Nor does the mere contribution of funds absolve any man from further thought or activity in this supreme crisis in the history not only of the British Empire, but of humanity. In this hour of world-travail, when a new democracy is struggling into birth, and the whole future of mankind is involved, the burden of a great responsibility rests upon every individual. Whoever lives through this war, and fails not in duty done, will have the right to rejoice in the task accomplished and the new and better era that shall dawn upon the race.

There are two great issues in this war. Democracy is fighting for its life against military bureaucracy; and, what is even more important, the champions of honor among the nations, of the sacredness of treaties, and of the rights of the smaller groups of people of the earth, are contending against a power that would throw treaties to the winds, trample upon the rights of the weak, and make political expediency the justification for wholesale murder.

How then can any individual in Canada be neutral or indifferent? Above all, how can any man concentrate his mind on thoughts of personal gain, when the issues are so stupendous, and whatever immunity he enjoys is purchased at incalculable cost by those who bear the brunt of the attack? The business of this country is war. Social and religious life is on a war footing. Whoever, therefore, stands aside to profit by the sacrifice of others should be of all men the most despised today, and in the years to come the most miserable. —St. John Times.

Was Expected to Settle Valley Railway Claims Without Money

The announcement is made that Special Auditor Dunlop, who recently left on a trip to his home in Ottawa, has decided to stay there and look after his "business interests." Mr. Dnnlop was brought to New Brunswick last winter to find out what was wrong with the famous Audit Act, which he assisted in preparing way back in the year 1908. He apparently found some flaws in the act, for he was kept on the job for weeks at a wage of fifteen dollars per day. Sometime ago he expressed a desire to have a life job here and an obliging government appointed him as special commissioner to settle Valley Railway claims. He has been drawing

GinPills FOR THE KIDNEYS Why Demanded

"Gin Pills did for my husband and me what no other remedy could. I have advised two other parties to use them, one of them being my mother who has been a great sufferer for upwards of 20 years, and one box cured her, so as to enable her to sleep on her left side, something she could not do for many a year. The doctors told her they could not cure her, but could relieve her by an operation for a floating kidney, but on account of her age they did not think it advisable for her to go. Upon my advice she tried Gin Pills which cured her and for which she is ever ready to speak in terms of praise."

his salary for this job since early in September, but so far as known he hasn't settled a single claim. It is only fair to him to say however, that he had nothing to settle the claims with. The claimants had previously received from Premier Clarke and others all the promises they cared for, and Mr. Dunlop of course, was unable to make use of this class of currency to advantage. Having nothing else to do, he spent most of his time scrapping with officials of the various departments. All seem pleased that he has pulled up stakes and quit and are hoping that no effort will be made to bring him back. Should the government need the service of a chartered accountant, there are lots of capable ones in New Brunswick anxious and willing to serve the public. —Fredericton on Mail.

The Seasonable Event.

Hey, there!
You can have
Three guesses.
Guesses?
Have them.
Yes, to burn.
What direction
In the springtime
Does
The young man's fancy turn?
Think you're smart
You know
The answer.
Well, who wouldn't?
It's a snap.
In the spring
The young man's fancy
Turns
As upward flows the sap
To the laughing
Little maid.
Who last winter
Turned him down,
When he thinks
Beyond a question
Is the only
Girl in town.
Will he find
With her
More favor
When the leaves
Begin to bud,
Or he wonders
As he wanders
Will his name
Be still
Just mud?
Will she come
In tears, repenting
Over the cruel
Words she said
When the other girls
Have fellows
And the rose of June is red?
