THE MANITOULIN MAN HAS DISAPPEARED AND HIS COUNSEL CAN'T ACCOUNT FOR IT

Gamey Has Not Been Seen Since Saturday Afternoon and All Efforts to Locate Him Have Been Fruitless.

His Lawyers in a Quandary Consider Throwing Up the Case, But Court Agrees to Wait Until Thursday.

He Told Hotel Clerk He Was Going Away on a Visit.

TOOK HIS BAGGAGE WITH HIM

The Defense Had All Outgoing Trains Watched, But Their Efforts Were in Vain.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, April 21. — A dramatic turn was given the Gamey trial this morning. The report that Gamey had disappeared filled the court-room with an excited crowd. At ten o'clock nothing had been heard of the man from Manitoulin, and a hurried consultation was held between counsel and the judges in the ante-room. When the latter took their seats at 10:15, Mr. Blake, senior counsel for the prosecution, arose amid painful suspense. He admitted that Mr. Gamey's absence could not be accounted for. If this investigation was simply a matter as between Mr. Gamey and the defendants, it might be proper for Mr. Gamey's counsel to withdraw from the case. "But we feel," continued Mr. Blake, "that it is not a question between Gamey and others, but an investigation in the interests of the public, and we desire to place ourselves entirely in the hands of your lordships in that respect. If it were an ordinary trial, that would end the proceedings. If you think it is only a matter of Mr. Gamey and that you are not bound by other considerations, we shall withdraw."

Chancellor Boyd, in reply, said he did not regard the case as a private prosecution, but it was a matter, as stated in the statute, which pertained to the good of the country. "It is a matter of public concern, and the commission will have authority to direct that counsel in this case be maintained, and have an opportunity to present it to the best advantage. It would be a misfortune if, on account of the unexplained absence of the person whom we call the prosecutor, Mr. Blake and his colleagues should drop out of the case."

"It would leave us in that difficulty that we ourselves should have to direct some counsel to take it up. Mr. Blake said he quite agreed with Mr. Blake. It was not unreasonable to take the position he had taken. "I am very glad, indeed, that your lordships have taken this view with reference to the position which Mr. Blake should pursue towards the further investigation of this case. We feel it should be investigated, and we are ready to facilitate it in every possible way. We shall see that the court loses nothing by the adjournment until Thursday."

MR. GAMEY.
Who has Mysteriously Disappeared.

and his colleagues can conduct the inquiry with more efficiency and promptitude. They are in a position to do it much better than anyone else."

GAMEY'S SUPPORTERS CRESTFALLEN.

The witnesses spoken of by Mr. Blake are Frank Sullivan's father-in-law and wife, who are expected to tell that Sullivan was boasting about his deal with Stratton and Gamey. It is a great surprise that the prosecution has no other evidence to offer, as it was supposed they had scores of witnesses, a shipload having come down from Manitoulin. People are asking why MacGregor, who is said to be Gamey's confidant, is not going in the box. Gamey's disappearance is the sensation of the hour. It is not believed he will show up, as he would have to account for the missing leaf of the cash book in Crossin's factory, and for the forgery of the teller's initials on the bank deposit slip. The opponents of the Government are entirely crestfallen. From Mr. Whitney down they have made a hero of Gamey,and now find themselves badly stultified.

MORE PROSECUTION WITNESSES.

Mr. Blake said the prosecution had two more witnesses, probably three, and then the investigation of the bank books. Chancellor Boyd proposed that the court adjourn until Thursday,when these witnesses could be heard. That would close the case for the prosecution and would give the defense time to get ready.

Mr. Johnston, counsel for the defense, said he quite agreed with Mr. Blake. It was not unreasonable to take the position he had taken. "I am very glad, indeed, that your lordships have taken this view with reference to the position which Mr. Blake should pursue towards the further investigation of this case. We feel it should be investigated, and we are ready to facilitate it in every possible way. We shall see that the court loses nothing by the adjournment until Thursday."

LATER.

Toronto, April 21.—The counsel for the defense in the Gamey case intend to lay the facts of the recent proceedings by Mr. Gamey before the crown attorney, and claim that the evidence shows the member for Manitoulin guilty of mutilation and destruction of evidence, larceny of the bank deposit slip and two charges of forgery, in connection with the withdrawal of the slip from the bank. It is claimed that when Gamey got the original bank deposit slip from the teller of the Ontario Bank on Saturday last he made two other slips and returned them to the teller, the first one being refused, Gamey having retained the original and signed the teller's initials.

FIRST ROUTE MARCH

Seventh Regiment Has a Good Turnout—More Frequent Parades.

The first route march of the season for the Seventh Regiment was held last night, when the corps made a remarkably good showing, all things considered. The various companies have been having company drill every week, and on this account many of the members find it inconvenient, in fact, almost impossible, to give two nights in the week to the regiment. Notwithstanding this, the turnout last evening was particularly satisfactory, each company having a good percentage of the men on parade. In the absence of Col. Little, who is on a business trip to the coast, the regiment was in command of Major Hume Cronyn. The band, with its big drum major, was also on parade, together with the bugle band. The route marches will be more frequent than they have been in the past.

LAST HONORS TO DEAD STATESMAN

Official Announcement of Lieut-Governor's Funeral.

MANY MESSAGES OF SYMPATHY

A Eulogy From Quebec's Premier, Who Will Attend the Obsequies in Person.

Toronto, April 21.—Out of consideration for the general public the three hours during which the remains of the late Lieutenant-Governor will lie in state at Government House today have been changed from 2 to 5, as at last announced, to 5 to 8. Otherwise the official announcement made on Sunday will be adhered to. Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock the service at Government House will be commenced and will be conducted by Rev. W. Caven, D.D., LL.D., Rev. Prof. MacLaren, D.D., Rev. A. Gandier, B.D., and Rev. Armstrong Black, D.D. Rev. Principal Caven will be the speaker.

The official programme arranged yesterday was given out as follows:

FUNERAL PROCESSION.

The funeral of His Honor the late Lieutenant-Governor will take place at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon to Mount Pleasant Cemetery, previous to which, at 2 o'clock, a short service will be held at Government House. The body will lie in state from 5 to 8 o'clock in the evening on Tuesday (in place of from 2 to 5, as previously mentioned), and from 10:30 in the morning to 12:30 on Wednesday, for the convenience of those coming from a distance.

The Governor-General will be represented by Major Maude.

Representatives of the Scottish societies met yesterday and decided to call upon their members to attend the funeral in a body.

The public schools will be closed tomorrow afternoon.

The military banquet that was to have been tendered the Earl of Dundonald tonight has been postponed till some time next month, but the general will be in Toronto and will attend the funeral officially.

QUEBEC'S SYMPATHY.

The following telegram was received by Premier Ross yesterday:

"Quebec, April 20. — Lieutenant-Governor will attend funeral of late Sir Oliver Mowat. Major Sheppard, A.D.C."

Premier Ross also received the following telegram from the Hon. S. N. Parent, Premier of Quebec: "I am desired to convey to you, on behalf of the Government of the Province of Quebec, the expression of their share of the grief into which the sister province of Ontario is plunged at this moment, by the loss of its distinguished head, the Hon. Sir Oliver Mowat, and to offer you their tribute of admiration for the statesman, who is identified with the political history of Canada as one of the fathers of Confederation, and who was Prime Minister of the Province of Ontario for nearly thirty years, and has just closed his career in the post of honor as the representative of his Most Gracious Majesty in the office of Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, and we pray you to transmit the expression of our deepest sympathy and heartfelt condolence to the members of Sir Oliver Mowat's family."

From Lord Minto to Miss Mowat: "Ottawa, April 19.—Please accept sincerest sympathy in irreparable loss to you and the country from Lady Minto and myself."

SIR OLIVER'S FUNERAL

Suggestion That Middlesex Liberal Association Should Attend.

Numbers of prominent Liberals in all parts of the rural constituencies have expressed themselves as of the opinion that every Liberal Association in the Province should have a representation of its members at the funeral of the late Lieutenant-Governor, Sir Oliver Mowat, at Toronto, tomorrow afternoon. It has been suggested that the Liberal Associations of Middlesex County should take some action in the matter, and thus show their respect for one who, during his long and useful public career, did so much to advance the cause of Liberalism throughout the country.

S. A. BARRACKS BURNED

Quarters at Listowel Destroyed by Incendiarism.

Listowel, Ont., April 21.—A fire broke out in the Salvation Army barracks here early this morning, completely demolishing the building. From all appearances the building was set on fire, as the army had no fire in it from the Sunday previous. The building was owned by J. W. Scott, and insured in the Waterloo Mutual for $500. Fortunately the Salvation Army have their new barracks near completion.

MR. MORTIMER CLARK, K. C., IS NEW LIEUT-GOVERNOR

Was Sworn in Presence of Premier and Cabinet.

A SKETCH OF HIS CAREER

Is a Distinguished Member of the Canadian Bar — Appointment Is Pleasing to Both Parties.

Ottawa, April 21.—Mr. W. Mortimer Clark, K. C., of Toronto, has been appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. His commission was made out last night, and Mr. John J. Magee, clerk of the Privy Council, will carry it to Toronto and administer the oath of office to the new Governor. Mr. Clark is a gentleman of the highest respectability, and one of Toronto's foremost citizens. He has practiced the legal profession for many years, and has established a reputation as a sagacious counselor of solid attainments. The new Lieutenant-Governor has not taken an active part in politics, but he has been closely identified with public movements and with religious and philanthropic work in Toronto. Mr. Clark, it is thought, will worthily uphold and sustain the traditions of the high office to which he has been called.

Toronto, April 21.—The announcement of his appointment as Lieutenant-Governor, which came last night from Ottawa, was a decided surprise to Mr. W. Mortimer Clark, K. C. Mr. Clark was born in Aberdeen, Scotland, May 24, 1836, and was educated at the West End Academy Grammar School, the University of Marischal College, Aberdeen, and at the University of Edinburgh. He is a life member of the general council of the latter university. He is a son of Mr. John Clark, general manager of the Scottish Provincial Insurance Company, and founder of the Caledonian Bank. In 1859 Mr. Clark was admitted a writer to her Majesty's Signet. In the same year he concluded his studies and came to Toronto. He was afterwards called to the bar and became a Q. C. a few years later. He has enjoyed a long and profitable practice in law, his specialty being real estate and insolvency matters, when there was an insolvency law. He has practiced for a long period by himself, but was in partnership at different periods with Mr. Frank M. Gray, and Mr. W. H. Baird, and afterwards with his son, Mr. Gordon Mortimer Clark, whose death occurred last year.

MR. MORTIMER CLARK, K.C.,
Of Toronto, Who Succeeds Sir Oliver Mowat as Lieutenant-Governor.

Mr. Clark is a prominent Presbyterian. He has been connected with Knox Church since his arrival in 1859, being an elder most of that time. He has been chairman of the board of management of Knox College for 23 years, a regular commissioner to the General Assembly, and for ten years past delegate from Knox to the senate of the University of Toronto. Mr. Clark has traveled very extensively in all parts of Europe, Egypt and Palestine, and when at home finds diversion in his splendid library, in admiration of art, and in writing for the press. He married Miss Helen Gordon, sister of the late Mr. John Gordon, of this city. Mrs. Clark and two daughters will make charming hostesses under the new regime at Government House.

MR. CLARK SWORN IN.

J. J. McGee, clerk of the Dominion Privy Council, came to Toronto this morning, and in the presence of Premier Ross and the members of the cabinet, Mr. Mortimer Clark, K. C., was sworn in as Lieutenant-Governor, in succession to the late Sir Oliver Mowat.

BRYAN SCORES AMERICAN PEOPLE

He Says They Are Given Over to Worship of Mammon.

CALLS FOR HIGHER IDEALS

He Raps at Cleveland and Says He Betrayed the Democratic Party Time and Again.

Kansas City, April 21.—William J. Bryan, speaking this morning to the toast "Democracy" at a banquet, bitterly arraigned Grover Cleveland and his supporters who are making the plea for harmony among Democrats. The assembly was made up of representative Missouri Democrats and the remarks of Mr. Bryan met with enthusiastic favor with his hearers. He said in part: "What we need in this nation is moral courage among men. We need moral courage more than ability, and we want the kind of moral courage that will fight for honest Democratic principles. We have had enough of Clevelandism in the Democratic party. We had four years of Cleveland and after his administration was over, we found ourselves weaker than we had ever been before because we had been betrayed. These so-called harmonizers, Cleveland and his followers, showed their nearness to Republicanism by deserting us in our hour of greatest need and supporting the Republican party. The Democratic party won a great victory in 1892, which gave our party a great opportunity, but Grover Cleveland betrayed the Democratic party and it carried the burden of his administration through two national campaigns and there was not a plank in either platform that was such a detriment to me in those campaigns as that burden was. Cleveland had the best opportunity to redeem the Democratic party ever offered to any man since the time of Andrew Jackson, but instead of being true to his party he disgraced himself. He is of the highest service to his fellows who can give the highest ideal. There has been lowering of ideals in this country. Money is talked about morning, noon and night. Commercialism is the curse of the country today, and it has debauched our country. The foreigner has come to regard the American simply as a money-maker, and we give cause for the belief that we put nothing beyond wealth, and that money is ruling the country with an iron hand. The manhood and womanhood of the United States are more important than money. Jefferson set a higher ideal for us then that of the worship of money, and nothing but the ideals of Jefferson will ever lift us out of the slough of despond."

CLINTON HOTEL FIRE

Narrow Escape of the Guests—$3,000 Damage.

Clinton, Ont., April 21.—About 3:30 this morning fire was discovered in the office of the Clarendon Hotel and spread so rapidly through the corridors that it was with difficulty the boarders and inmates escaped, most of them losing their clothes and furnishings. The building was a large three-story brick veneer and fell an easy prey for the flames, it being now a complete wreck, not a wall remaining standing. The building was owned by Mrs. R. J. Tufts, of Belgrave, and was insured for $8,000. The hotel was managed by Perkins & Mahon, who carried insurance on the contents to the extent of $2,000.

BONILLA VICTORIOUS

Is Now President of the Honduras Republic.

New Orleans, La., April 21. — Gen. Bonilla is now president of Honduras. Arias is in prison at Tegucigalpa, and Sierra is a fugitive in Nicaragua, having fled to that country for safety when the handful of Government troops deserted him at Necaome, April 6, when the rebels under Gens. Barahona and Maldonado made an attack on the Government forces under command of Gen. Sierra and then marched on to the capital, where Arias was made a prisoner.

This, with the news that quiet now prevails in the Central American Republic, is the information received by the Times from Honduras. Bonilla been seriously aggrieved in the event tion lasting about two months. That popular sentiment was favorable to Bonilla is evidenced by the wholesale desertions of the Government troops who joined his army.

Reinstate Old Employes.

Philadelphia, April 21.—An order has been issued by the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, which operates several collieries in the Panther Creek Valley, reinstating all of its old employes who have been idle since the strike. About 200 men and boys whose positions had been filled will find work in and about the mines.

ILLINOIS COAL FIELDS

Jim Hill's Big Corporation to Control Them.

Chicago, April 21.—The Tribune today says: Vast coal fields in Central Illinois are to pass to the control of a coporation with a capital of $80,000,000. They will be operated in connection with the Hill system of railroads. President Hill is said to have financed the deal, and the Burlington, the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific Railroads will open markets for Illinois fuel in the Northwest. The territory acquired extends through 40 miles of the richest coal lands in the state, and is traversed by the Jacksonville and St. Louis Railroad, owned by the Burlington.

A Parachutist Injured.

Houston, Texas, April 21.—Professor Leroy Fewer, an aeronaut, has met with a serious accident before thousands of spectators here. He made a successful ascension of 3,000 feet and cut loose with his parachute. On its downward flight, one of the ropes snapped, the balloonist lost his hold when still 150 feet from the ground. He struck in a soft slough. Many bones were broken, but it is believed he will recover.

Famine's Awful Havoc.

Hong Kong, April 20.—The famine in the Province of Kwang-si shows no sign of improvement. In numerous cases the people have been reduced to such straits that husbands are selling their wives and children to prevent their starving to death, as their purchasers will supply them with food, and to save their own lives with the money obtained for them. Sir Henry A. Blake, Governor of Hong Kong, is organizing relief for the sufferers.

FIRE ENGINE AS BURGLAR CATCHER

Under Cover of Stream Police Get Their Man.

WAS PERCHED IN CHURCH TOWER

Armed With Lightning Rod He Kept Officers at Bay Until Water Reached Him.

Bridgeport, Conn., April 21.—After an all-night siege the police, with the aid of the fire department, this morning, captured a supposed burglar who had taken refuge on the cupola above the roof of St. Patrick's parochial residence, 60 feet from the street. The man defied arrest when his presence on the roof was discovered at 10 o'clock last night, and after an officer, who mounted a ladder, had received severe blows on the head from a section of lightning rod which the man used, it was decided to wait until daylight before making further sorties.

At intervals during the night, while the police maintained their guard around the building, the man could be heard for several blocks, and kept the whole neighborhood aroused.

At daybreak when it became possible to get a view of the fellow, there were 2,000 people around the building. To assist in the capture, the police sent for a hose wagon, and a stream from a hydrant was directed at the man. This, however, had little effect, for he merely laughed and brandished his club like a maniac when the water hit him.

A fire engine was then brought up. Under cover of its powerful stream, five policemen suceeded in reaching the roof. Even then the capture was effected by a hand-to-hand struggle lasting half an hour. The man was carried to the station, but refused to tell his name. He appears to be a Russian. Five pawn tickets were found in his pockets.

KING SAILS FOR NAPLES

Is Escorted by the British Mediterranean Fleet.

Valetta, Island of Malta, April 21.—The royal yatch Victoria and Albert, with King Edward on board, sailed for Naples today, escorted by the whole British Mediterranean fleet. As the yacht steamed out of the harbor she was saluted by the guns of the forts and cheered by thousands of people who lined the sea front to bid her farewell.

ROUGH RIDER MURDERS

He Kills a Citizen and Policeman in Wyoming.

Rawlins, Wyo., April 21.—F. J. Keefe, head of the Keefe Commercial House, and formerly city treasurer, has shot and killed Thomas King and Policeman Baxter. A sheriff's posse is in pursuit of Keefe. The shooting grew out of an attempt to arrest Keefe for disorderly conduct while intoxicated. King was a lieutenant in Torrey's Rough Riders during the Spanish war.

ALBANIAN OUTRAGES

They Murder Judges Appointed by the Powers.

Salonica, European Turkey, April 21.—A band of about 500 insurgents, partly in Bulgarian uniform, was defeated by a Turkish force near Radovitz, April 19. Thirty insurgents and nine Turks were killed.

The Konieh, Asia Minor, division of Redifs, numbering sixteen battalions, has been called out for active service in Macedonia and Albania. The new judges, appointed under the reform scheme of the powers, are being terrorized by the Albanians. Two of the judges were shot with revolvers in the streets of Scutari, Asia Minor. One was killed.

ALBANIANS THREATEN SERVIANS AND WANT SULTAN TO HELP

The Lives of Russian and Servian Consuls Are Openly Menaced.

London, Tuesday, April 21. — A dispatch to the Times from Uskub, under date of April 18, confirms the statement that the Sultan's peace commission remains at Ipek, but does not confirm the report that the members are forcibly detained. The commission has, however, failed to impress the Albanians, who are defiant. They profess that they do not wish to fight the Turks, and say they understand that the latter are not responsible for the reform programme, but they threaten to attack the Servians, and ask the Sultan to aid them in this.

The fanaticism of the Mussulmans in the Kossovo Vilayet is increasing. The Christians there are not armed, and they fear a massacre. Ibrahim, the Albanian soldier who killed M. Stcherbina, the Russian consul at Mitrovitza, has been brought to Uskub under sentence of death, but nothing is known yet concerning his execution. He is a popular hero among the Albanians, who have threatened to attempt to rescue him. The lives of the Russian and Servian consuls are openly threatened. Turkish officers talk of a probable advance from Ferozovitch against the Albanians within ten days, but this cannot be confirmed.

KILLED HIS FATHER

Because the Latter Was Abusing His Mother.

Clinton, Mass., April 21.—Thomas Smith, who was assaulted last night by his 17-year-old son Walter, died today. The boy, who surrendered to the police, is said to have made a statement to the chief admitting that he attacked his father with an axe. There had been trouble in the family for some time, he said. After the father had been particularly abusive to the lad's mother last night, Walter said he seized an axe and followed him into the street, where he struck him three times. The father fell, mortally wounded, and the boy went to the police station, where he surrendered.

Framemakers Resume Work.

Chicago, April 21.—Two thousand picture frame makers, who went on strike a month ago for better wages and shorter hours, have decided to return to work, pending arbitration of their demands.

Policy Players Punished.

New York, April 21.—Justice Scott in the supreme court today sentenced Albert J. Adams to not less than one year and not more than one year and nine months in Sing Sing, and to pay a fine of $1,000 for having paraphernalia for playing policy in his possession.

WHAT THE WORD "CANADA" MEANS

In the B. N. A. Act Before the Supreme Court.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY STOCK

Permission for Increase Discussed — Goes to a Special Committee Named by Mr. Hyman.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Ont., April 21.—The Grand Trunk's application for permission to increase its stock was before the Railway Committee this morning, and goes to a special committee to be named by Mr. Hyman.

Hon. Mr. Blair announced that he had been able to reach no arrangement with the railway solicitor as to obtaining details of the present expenditure.

On Mr. Blair's suggestion and the concurrence of Col. Tisdale, the London and Port Stanley Railway Company's bill introduced by Mr. McGuigan, was also sent to a special committee. Mr. Blair thought evidence respecting the many allegations in the preamble should be forthcoming.

Aemilius Irving, K. C., began the argument for Ontario in the hearing of the stated case as to the meaning of the "Canada" in the representation section of the British North America act before the supreme court today.

A message from Canada's Alaskan boundary officials in London sets out to correct an impression that the work on the commission has been postponed. The formal meeting of the commissioners has been postponed for the present, but the officials in charge of the Canadian and United States cases are hard at work preparing the papers, documents and data which must be in by May 2.

OLD RESIDENT PASSES AWAY

The Late George R. Sherlock Was a Native of England.

Mr. George R. Sherlock died last night at his home on John street. He was 87 years of age, and had been a resident of this city for many years. He was the second son of the late Capt. Sherlock, R. N., of Deal, Kent, England. His widow, Mrs. Margaret Sherlock, survives him. During his residence in this city the deceased had acted as clerk for various lawyers, and had a reputation for honor, and he was highly respected by all with whom he came in contact.

TO KIDNAP MANSFIELD

Actor's Prompt Payment of Supes Foils Plans.

Peoria, Ill., April 21.—Richard Mansfield, the actor, saved himself from kidnapping by the prompt payment of his supernumeraries at the play of "Julius Caesar," at the opera house last night, for 100 students of Bradley Polytechnic Institute had planned to take him to their clubhouse and hold him for ransom.

They arranged a strike for the end of the third act, but could not tell when the third act closed, so they hastily arranged the kidnapping. They refused to turn over the costumes at the close of the show, fearing they would not get their money if they did.

Two weeks ago the boys, who served another company in the same capacity, were beaten out of their wages, and the precaution taken last night was to prevent a repetition. Mrs. Mansfield knew nothing of the kidnapping plan until 1 o'clock this morning, when he spoke to the boys, assuring them of his interest and complimenting them for their work.

SPIRITUAL MENTAL WAVES

Society Formed to Encourage Silent Meditation.

New York, April 21.—Gathering each day during the noon hour to sit in silent meditation and send out spiritual mental waves which, it is hoped, will give relief to those who cannot leave the stress and worry of business cares, more than 30 members of the Noonday Club held their first session at the home of Mrs. G. I. S. Andrews, chairman, at 54 West Thirty-seventh street, today. Of more than middle age were the majority who attended this novel seance. After the silence interval there was a lecture on "Silent Centers," as these groups are to be called. In this lecture there was a mild assertion that this branch of religious evolution was especially the forte of women.

HONORED MR. McCRIMMON

Prominent Supporter of Knox Church the Recipient of Gifts.

The Westminster Guild of Knox Church gave a concert last evening in the church that was attended by a large number of members of the church. The real object of the occasion was to present to a retiring member of testimonial of their esteem for him. This was Mr. Donald McCrimmon, who is moving into a neighborhood in the north end of the city, and has decided to identify himself with the New St. James' Presbyterian Church. He has been a prominent supporter of the church work at Knox Church, in South London, and the members took the opportunity to make him the recipient of a Bible and Service of Praise, the presentation being made by Mr. Fred L. Evans, the organist of the church. The address, which was read by Mr. A. McQueen, was signed by the session, the Sunday school and the Westminster Guild.

Mr. McCrimmon was surprised, but he made a very neat reply in thanking the people who had thus remembered him. The concert was provided by the following: Misses Leys, Millie Kemp, Kate Colquhoun and Carpenter, and Messrs. Harry Givens, Joseph Irwin and Thomas Alexander. Refreshments were served at the close.

NEW YORK HOLD-UP

Bank Messenger Robbed of a Large Amount.

New York, N. Y., April 21. — Joseph Kayler, a messenger for the Bronx Borough Bank, was held up by four men on the Harlem bridge yesterday, and robbed of $150 in cash and $2,000 in checks and bonds. Kayler said two of the men held him while the others searched his pockets. He pursued them, but they escaped. Michael McCarthy, a driver, and Larry Murphy, a 'longshoreman, were arrested and identified by Taylor. In Murphy's pockets were found $150 of denominations taken from the messenger.

DR. SHOOP'S Rheumatic Cure

Costs Nothing If It Fails.

Any honest person who suffers from rheumatism is welcome to this offer.

I am a specialist in rheumatism, and have treated more cases than any other physician, I think. For 16 years I made 2,000 experiments with different drugs, testing all known remedies while searching the world for something better. Nine years ago I found a costly chemical in Germany, which, with my previous discoveries, gives me a certain cure.

I don't mean that it can turn bony joints into flesh again; but it can cure the disease at any stage, completely and forever. I have done it fully 100,000 times.

I know this so well that I will furnish my remedy on trial. Simply write me a postal for my book on rheumatism, and I will mail you an order on your druggist for six bottles of Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure. Take it for a month at my risk. If it succeeds the cost is only $5 50. If it fails I will pay the druggist myself—and your mere word shall decide it.

I mean that exactly. If you say the results are not what I claim, I don't expect a penny from you.

I have no samples. Any mere sample that can affect chronic rheumatism must be drugged to the verge of danger. I use no such drugs, and it is folly to take them. You must get the disease out of the blood.

My remedy does that even in the most difficult, obstinate cases. It has cured the oldest cases that I ever met. And in all my experience—in all my 2,000 tests—I never found another remedy that would cure one chronic case in ten.

Write me and I will send you the order. Try my remedy for a month, as it can't harm you anyway. It it fails it is free.

Address Dr. Shoop, Box 41, Racine, Wis.

Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At all druggists.

Another Vanderbilt Wedding.

Paris, April 20.—It is impossible to secure anything authoritative relative to reports that William K. Vanderbilt is to be married quietly on Wednesday to a young American widow and heir. It is necessary before the marriage of an American can occur here that the United States consulate certify to the residence of one of the parties for six months, and United States Consul-General Gowdy says no application to him has been made by any of the parties mentioned. Mr. Vanderbilt is attending the races at St. Cloud.

THE NATIONAL SPIRIT

Was Never So Strong in Canada as Now.

London, April 21.—A dispatch to the Post from Toronto says a prominent Canadian, in discussing the coming session of the Alaskan Boundary Commission, said that at no time in the history of Canada has the growth of real national spirit been so pronouncedly strong as now. Canadians are anxious to help in cultivating a good feeling between Great Britain and the United States, but will not sacrifice their national honor, their dignity, or their territory to the cause.

CARLIN GETS TWO YEARS

C. P. R. Conductor Convicted of Conspiracy to Defraud.

Montreal, April 21.—After one of the most bitter legal battles in the history of the Court of King's Bench of Montreal, Patrick Carlin was yesterday sentenced to two years in the Penitentiary for having conspired with Herbert Johnston to defraud the Canadian Pacific Railway. Carlin was a conductor, and his evidence showed that he tempted Johnston, a clerk in the audit office, to obtain news as to the secret auditing of trains. Johnston was paid large sums of money for the information, which was traced direct to Carlin. The defense got all the strings possible at work, and even political influence was used, but the evidence was so conclusive that Mr. Justice Wurtele dismissed all the motions for a new trial. He delivered a scathing lecture to Carlin before pronouncing sentence.

CAPE TOWN POLITICS

Sir John Sprigg Anxious to Join His Old Party.

London, April 21.—The Times' Cape Town correspondent says political interest, which has flagged since Chamberlain's departure, is reviving. Dr. Jargeson and Dr. Smart are actively touring the constituents on behalf of the Progressives, and the Afrikander Bond's organ is urging members of its party to imitate the Progressive's example. It is believed Sir John Sprigg desires to be taken back by his old party, but the Progressives will not tolerate him working with the Bond when the Bond is in the majority, and rejoicing with the Progressives when they win.

ALARMIST CABLES AND IMMIGRANTS

Mischievous Messages Deter English Immigration.

A LONDON CANADIAN SOCIETY

Canada Not Represented on Food Supply—Warm Praise for Prof. Saunders.

London, April 21.—Some surprise is expected that the colonies are not represented on the royal commission to investigate the food supply of Great Britain in time of war. This is the more strange because Lord Strathcona and other colonials urged the appointment of the commission, suggesting the development of food areas of and communications with the colonies. Some hint that a majority of the commission are desirous of using the war scare to encourage Parliament to protect the farmer by placing a duty on imported wheat and meat.

PROF. SAUNDERS PRAISED.

The Times has a laudatory article on Canadian plant breeding, complimenting Prof. Saunders, "under whose able guidance so many results of practical importance and value have been obtained."

LONDON CANADIAN CLUB.

The formation of a society of London Canadians is advancing step by step. A constitution will be adopted on the 23rd inst., the immediate object being monthly socializing, with the idea of ultimately forming a club for Canadians only.

MISCHIEVOUS MESSAGES.

The alarmist cablegrams from Canada published in the London press as to the discomfort being suffered by emigrants to Canada are causing much trouble for the Dominion's officials here. The Canadian Commissioner of Emigration is most indignant. "I both consider Reuter's and certain other Canadian correspondents' messages as inaccurate and mischievous," says Mr. W. T. R. Preston. "One result of the false alarmist reports has been the cancellation of scores of tickets by intending emigrants. Reuter cabled on Saturday that the luggage of 1,200 emigrants had been burned in the St. John fire, yet Ottawa cable says that not a piece was burned. It's a regular business to answer the hundreds of anxious telegrams and callers about the alleged troubles of their friends."

At one of the largest West End Methodist churches there were special prayers and hymns yesterday for a large number of the congregation on the way to Canada to settle.

A Montreal cable to the Daily Mail alleging the opposition of Canadian labor to the influx of emigrants is unfortunate, if true. One reason for the Canadian boom is that the Dominion is the only colony now welcoming healthy emigrants. Australia and New Zealand have a stationary population, and fast-ebbing securities, largely because, in the view of many observers, of the shortsighted restrictive policy which is dictated by the predominance of labor parties in politics.

THE KING AT MALTA

He Receives His Bluejackets and Marines.

Valetta, Island of Malta, April 21.—King Edward yesterday reviewed 8,000 bluejackets and marines, and later, with elaborate ceremony, his majesty laid the foundation stone of the breakwater which is to protect the entrance of the grand harbor. Many distinguished persons were present. This evening there was a water carnival in the harbor, the features of which were floating models of thirteen types of vessels of various periods, from Noah's ark to the battleship Edward VII. The royal yacht Victoria and Albert leaves here today.

CHORUS GIRL FRAUD

Toronto Maidens Duped by a Sharp American.

Toronto, April 21.—The police have received complaints from dupes of an advertisement in local evening papers. J. E. Morton, of New York, advertised for chorus girls at $50 a week, and posed as representing here the Keith Morton was to meet the girls at the Company, of New York. Some girls, in answer to the advertisement, paid from $2 to $7 to him on his representation that by buying tickets for several at a time he could get them cheaper. Morton was to meet the girls at the train last Monday, but when the girls reached the station he could not be found. Inquiry in New York brought the reply that there was no such an agency.

BEWARE OF THE BERRIES

An Expert Says Strawberries Cause Suicide.

Washington, D. C., April 21. — Do strawberries cause suicide? Clifford Howard, assistant secretary of the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia, says they do, and in this opinion he is backed by a number of others here who are considered experts on the subject. Mr. Howard himself is a student of suicidal mania. His opinion was given because of the fact that in the last two days five residents of Washington have killed themselves or attempted to do so. Speaking of the present epidemic, Mr. Howard said today:

"It is a strange fact, but the records show that suicides are more frequent in the spring than at any other time of the year, reaching their height in June. There must be some reason for this, and some time ago I hit upon the strawberry as a solution. A study of the subject has developed that the eating of the fruit invariably produces mental depression. Now suicide is a direct result of low spirits, and it would seem that the berries had some weight on the many cases of self-destruction that occur every spring."

President MacFarland, of the board of commissioners, when he heard of Howards' theory today, went to his office and said: "Mr. Howard, when did you last eat strawberries?"

"Yesterday," was the reply.

"Where?"

Howard mentioned the name of the most fashionable hotel in the city.

"What did they cost you?"

"Sixty cents a plate," replied Howard.

"Then," remarked Mr. MacFarland, "you have good ground for your mental depression theory."

Does it not seem more effective to breathe in a remedy, to cure disease of the breathing organs, than to take the remedy into the stomach?

GALES IN GERMANY

Berlin Suffers Greatly From Wintry Weather.

Berlin, April 21.—The gale of Sunday wrought such havoc on the grounds of the palace at Potsdam that a full report on the subject has been telegraphed to Emperor William. Many splendid trees, dating from the time of Frederick the Great, were uprooted. The Imperial Wild Park was also seriously damaged. The thirty-six hours' snowstorm over Middle Europe ceased at daybreak this morning. The snow is two inches in Berlin, increasing to a yard deep in the Harz Highlands. Snow lies deep in East Prussia and Poland, where the wires are down and trains are delayed. The temperature in most parts of Germany is barely at freezing point, so that the damage to the fruit crops may not be so serious as at first supposed. The snow is melting rapidly, and the streams are already flooding. The Government has issued notices that telegraphic communication with Russia is interrupted, and that the lines communicating with Pomerania, Silesia and eastward of Berln also are down. The snow lies from eighteen inches to a yard deep on the Polish plains. At noon no trains had arrived at Posen for twelve hours. Trains are snowed ing on the lines all over Silesia and the Province of Posen. The railroad administration has no snowplows, as such storms are extremely rare. Telegrams from many cities show that street cars are immovable. Minor accidents have been numerous. Falling chimneys and tiles made the Berlin thoroughfares perilous last night. Twenty-one injured persons were taken to the hospitals, Count Von Ballestrem, president of the Reichstag, who is on his way to attend the opening of Parliament tomorrow, is snowed in between here and Silesia. Some shipping disasters are reported from the Baltic and the North Sea, but no lives are known to have been lost.

MOROCCO'S TROUBLES

Rebellion Causes Discontent Amongst Loyalists.

London, April 21.—The Times' Tangiers correspondent says discontent in Fez is increasing owing to the great rise in prices, caused partly by the rebellion and partly by drought. The natives of Tangiers are almost daily praying publicly for rain.

The superstitious think the drought is due to the presence of Christians at court, especially since rain has fallen at Marakesh, where there are no Christians. The Sultan's ignorance of the true state of the country is due to the fact that news from the north and east reaches Fez through Tangiers. He had been told that the rebellion had been crushed, and was recently playing polo in European dress with his English entourage. Unfortunate delay in the change in the Sultan's policy regarding his European entourage was due to the bad advice of those who preferred their personal interests to the Sultan's welfare.

Inter-tribal fighting is reported from many districts, and the situation is becoming worse every day.

DR. PITCHER'S BACKACHE-KIDNEY TABLETS.

MR. JAMES TAGGART, mail carrier for the past eighteen years, Palmerston, Ont., gives the history of his case as follows: "For a good many years I have had kidney trouble and pain in the back. It is so many years ago that I can hardly say what it came from, but think it came from a heavy lift; after that the back grew weaker and weaker. I tried everything, and never got a bit of relief until I got a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache-Kidney Tablets. They cleared up the pain, soreness and kidney trouble, and strengthened the back."

The action of Dr. Pitcher's Backache-Kidney Tablets is rapid and positive, curing backache, eruptions, blood humors, dropsical swellings, gravel, smarting and scalding of the urine, frequent rising at night, rheumatic pains, and all kidney troubles of young and old. Price 50c. a bottle at druggist or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto.

TWENTY YEARS OF BRONCHITIS.—Capt. Dunlop, of Kingston, commander of the steaer "Bohemian," of the R. and O. fleet, suffered unceasingly for twenty years, and although he took treatment all that time permanent relief was not obtained until he used "Catarrhozone," which cured him quickly and permanently. The captain says: "Catarrhozone is the best cure for bronchitis on the face of the globe, pleasant to use, quick to relieve and sure to cure." Catarrhozone is a wonderful treatment for all diseases of the throat, lungs and bronchial tubes. Two months' treatment, price $1; small size, 25c. Druggists or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Notice!

Notice is hereby given that under the provisions of Chap. 69, R. S. C., cited as the Animal Contagious Diseases Act, I do hereby declare that the restrictions forbidding the movement of hogs in and from the Townships of Tilbury East, Dover East and West, Raleigh, Chatham and Harwich, in the County of Kent, in the Province of Ontario, are modified as follows:

The movement of healthy hogs within and between the said townships is hereby permitted, except to or from farms under quarantine.

The shipment of fat hogs for immediate slaughter by rail from certain points, hereinafter specified, within the said townships, is hereby authorized under the following conditions:

1. All shipments of live hogs from the said townships must be consigned direct to a slaughter house or packing house.

2. Shipments will be permitted only at the following points: On the Canadian Pacific Railway at Chatham, on the Grand Trunk Railway at Chatham, on the Michigan Central Railway at Tilbury, on the Lake Erie and Detroit Railway at Wallaceburg, Eberts, Chatham, Blenheim and Merlin.

3. Shippers must notify the nearest inspector not less than twenty-four hours previously of the exact time and place of an intended shipment.

4. Each carload or part thereof of such shipment must be accompanied by a certificate of inspection signed by one of the regularly appointed inspectors of this Department resident in the area now under quarantine, such certificates to state that the hogs comprising such carload or part thereof are free from disease and in every way fit for immediate slaughter.

5. All cars used for the conveyance of such shipments must be cleansed and disinfected in a thorough and satisfactory manner after being unloaded, and before being again used for the conveyance of animals or other articles.

Information regarding inspectors, necessary notifications and other details may be obtained from M. B. Perdue, veterinary inspector, Chatham.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

ORIENT MINSTRELS.

The Orient Ministrels have secured the services of the Fred L. Evans Orchestra for their show to be held at the London Opera House on Monday, April 27.

GRAND OPERA TONIGHT.

The Gordon-Shay Grand Opera Company present "Carmen" at the Grand this evening. The Milwaukee Wisconsin says: The presentation of Bizet's Carmen by the Gordon-Shay Grand Opera Company at the Davidson Theater Sunday evening may go on record as one of the best, if not the best, performance of that opera ever given in this city. Rose Cecilia Shay's interpretation of the imperious and wicked cigarette girl was a highly pleasing one; in many ways reminding of that of Mme. Calve.

"A GAMBLER'S DAUGHTER."

To successfully paint upon canvas the interior of a swell gambling palace it is not necessary to reproduce the real simon pure article. Instead of doing so, the noted scenic artists when called upon for a scene of this character for the modern, sensational melodrama, "A Gambler's Daughter," reproduced a drawing-room in the palatial residence of a Chicago millionaire. "A Gambler's Daughter" comes to the Grand tomorrow.

Would You Banish Dangerous Spring Headache?

Try Nature's Cure,

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

And You Will Quickly Rejoice in a New Life.

While headaches are varied in character and are produced by a variety of causes, the majority of victims suffer either from nervous or bilious headache. When neglected, either form will quickly cause serious suffering and will assuredly prostrate the system. Nervous headaches, to which women are specially subject, arise from weak and inflamed nerves, heavy and dull brain, poor circulation and debility. Bilious headaches are usually accompanied by sickness and vomiting. They result from inactive liver, digestive disturbances or sore and constipated bowels.

In the springtime, able and experienced physicians urge upon those who are subject to headaches the use of Paine's Celery Compound. In tens of thousands of cases this wonderful remedy has produced happy and permanent results after all other modes of treatment failed. Unlike other medicines claiming popular attention, Paine's Celery Compound gives prompt and effective results. It gives to weak and sick people an immediate supply of nerve force, with pure blood, active liver and perfect digestive vigor. The work of Paine's Celery Compound is not a simple relieving of pain; it effectually reaches the root and causes of disease and permanently banishes the trouble. Mrs. L. Gatland, Crawford street, Toronto, Ont., says:

"Your Paine's Celery Compound has most wonderfully improved my health. Before using it my appetite was poor, I was weak and debilitated, and suffered much from headache. Your compound has made me a new woman, and I wish it the success it so richly deserves."

GORDON-SHAY COMPANY

Londoners' Rare Opportunity to Enjoy Grand Opera.

Miss Shay in "Carmen"—Frank Firth to Join the Company.

Mr. J. Saunders Gordon, who is directing the tour of the Gordon-Shay Grand Opera Company, was in the city this morning and was seen for a few minutes by a representative of The Advertiser.

This is not Mr. Gordon's first visit to Canada, although it is his initial tour of this section. The company has been in British Columbia, where Grand Opera seemed to be very much appreciated—as popular, in fact, as in the largest cities of America. The Gordon-Shay Company numbers 48 people, who have traveled extensively every season throughout the south and west, and they found in the Canadian coast cities audiences equally as satisfactory as those across the line.

"While this is my first visit to London," said Mr. Gordon, "I hope to come again, for you know a good performance is always welcome on a return visit."

"How do you find business," was asked.

"Well, so far business has been but fair. I have the only company leaving New York City, which has successfully weather the conditions opposing an organization of that sort. In 'Carmen,' which is to be given tonight, you will enjoy Miss Shay's interpretation of the part. She has a remarkable contralto voice and has received flattering notices from every critic this season. I have heard that London always turns out good houses to anything in the musical line. I know you will repeat what has been the universal opinion of the critics this season that the company is a magnificent one and deserves the patronage of the public.

"By the way," said Mr. Gordon, "I nearly secured Mr. Frank Firth, formerly a resident of this city for my company last fall. Owing to engagements he was unable to join us, but I have promises from him for next season. I heard him sing in Toronto, and he has a wonderful voice."

The company closes its season in Montreal on Saturday, May 2, visiting Hamilton, Kingston and Ottawa on the way. Londoners should visit the theater tonight. An admirable performance is assured.

The Plot Thickens.

The Gamey investigation yesterday developed some surprises. It was discovered that a leaf was missing from the cash book of the Crossin Piano Company, of which Mr. Gamey is the president and controlling stockholder. The page contained the entries for Sept. 10 and 11. Sept. 11 is the date on which Gamey deposited with the Traders Bank, the $1,560 claimed to have been received by him as bribe-money. Mr. Crossin, secretary-treasurer of the company, yesterday testified that he discovered the leaf was missing on Saturday last. Only Mr. Gamey and himself had access to the book; Gamey was in the office twice on Saturday—and some of the time alone. On the morning of Sept. 11, according to Mr. Crossin, Mr. Gamey drew $900 from the business and deposited it in the Ontario Bank. He applied for the original deposit slip on Saturday last, presumably for the purpose of evidence. He got the slip, but instead of returning the original he returned a copy. A little later a messenger called at the piano factory and asked for a missing deposit slip. Gamey and Crossin went to the bank; the receiving teller walked back with them to the factory, apparently scrutinizing the sidewalk for a lost paper. This is where the mystery comes in. The receiving teller had a deposit slip, but he evidently believed it was only a copy and that Mr. Gamey had retained the original. Gamey's excuse for making a copy was that he wished to show it to Crossin; but Crossin knew of no business reason why Gamey should do this. Why did Gamey hand the receiving teller the copy and not the original deposit slip? The transaction calls for an explanation, but Mr. Gamey was not in court yesterday to give it. Another interesting development was the testimony of Mr. R. A. Grant, barrister, Mr. Gamey, in his statement, tells of being taken by Frank Sullivan to see Mr. Grant at the Walker House, and of a conversation over a stock proposition which would net Gamey $5,000 in a few weeks. Mr. Grant's story is that Sullivan and Gamey came to see him about a timber scheme, for which they required a partner with $4,000 or $5,000. He told them to put their proposition in shape, but that was the last he heard of it. Mr. Grant denied that there was anything sinister or suggestive of corruption in the interview. At the time he regarded Mr. Gamey as a Conservative member. The petition against Gamey's election was later on "sawed off" against South Wentworth by arrangement between Liberal and Conservative counsel.

Since the above was written the investigation has taken on a new and sensational character. Mr. Gamey failed to appear again today and a vigorous search has failed to reveal his whereabouts. His lawyers are dumbfounded and have secured an adjournment until Thursday in the hope that their eccentric client will return. If Mr. Gamey is only temporarily absent he has, to say the least, shown contempt of court and grossly abused the confidence of his counsel. What do the Conservative politicians and journals think of their hero now?

The Tariff War With Germany.

The imposition by the Dominion Government of a surtax on German imports has provoked angry comment in the German press, and a threat that Canadian goods will be entirely excluded from the German market. By a section of the English press, Canada's action is applauded as a becoming exhibition of pride and spirit, and a counterstroke which Germany has richly deserved, but some of the Liberal and Radical dailies condemn it from the standpoint of orthodox free trade. A policy of tariff reprisals is certainly not good Liberal doctrine. The Liberal party of this country has not subscribed to the theory that the Canadian tariff should be raised because the United States or some other country maintained a higher tariff. Those who speak with authority for the Liberal party have contended that Canada should adjust her tariff to her own interests and not injure herself for the barren satisfaction of inflicting injury on others. The surtax on German goods can be defended on the ground that it is designed to put an end to a tariff war, not to inaugurate one, Germany having done that already. The Canadian Government, by this means, has notified not only Germany but all other foreign countries that she is determined to make what trade arrangements she chooses with the rest of the British Empire, and that if they attack her she is prepared to strike back. This is perhaps the best method of preventing others from imitating Germany, and will probably have the desired effect of bringing the latter to time. The present situation is not a desirable one; the German market should be an increasingly valuable one to Canada, and probably would be under a fair tariff arrangement, but it is not to be purchased at the sacrifice of Canada's fiscal independence, or her right to establish closer trade relations with the mother country and sister colonies.

Canadians bought from Germany last year dutiable goods to the value of $9,175,000. These transactions were profitable to both buyers and sellers or they would not have taken place, but it is likely that Canadians could buy the greater part of these commodities to equal advantage from other countries, or in the home market. The principal purchases from Germany last year were: Sugar and molasses, $3,655,570; paints and colors, $223,540; fancy articles, $392,363; furs, $359,019; glass and manufactures of glass, $300,425; metals and manufactures of metals, $1,248,086; cottons, $243,819; drugs, dyes and chemicals, $103,433; earthenware and china, $202,482. With the development of the beet sugar industry in Canada there will be less demand for German sugar. The surtax will be also an extra dose of protection for the Canadian glass manufacturers. On the other hand, Canadian sales to Germany aggregate less than a million and a half yearly, chiefly furs, metals and minerals and manufactures of the same. As all obstructions to trade are mutually harmful, Canada will lose in a tariff war with Germany, but Germany will suffer more. However, there is reason to believe that this will hasten the removal of the unjust discrimination against Canadian products in the German market.

Ministers Should Exercise.

[Chicago Tribune.]

Dr. Davis, of Pittsburg, would have the ministers chop and saw wood at home, ride horseback and play golf as often as they can, and take their summer recreation in the mountains. "Such exercises," he said, "will take the stiffness out of your winter sermons as it takes the starch out of your summer shirt." It is Dr. Davis' opinion that "the more theology a minister has the more dyspepsia he has." Nearly all eminent theologians have been eminent dyspeptics, while hearty, robust ministers, like Beecher and Phillips Brooks, have cared but little for theology. There can be no doubt our ministers, as a rule, take too little physical exercise. To be successful under existing conditions a minister must work hard mentally. There never was a time when he had to work harder. This makes it all the more imperative that he should have good physical exercise, that he may have "the sound mind in the sound body." Now that the Pittsburg physician has given the clergymen advice from his point of view, some well equipped minister should be invited to do similar service for the doctors.

The Graves of a Household.

[Felicia D. Hemans.]

They grew in beauty side by side,
  They fill'd our home with glee;
Their graves are sever'd, far and wide,
  By mount and stream and sea.

The same fond mother bent at night
  O'er each fair sleeping brow;
She had each folded flower in sight—
  Where are those dreamers now?

One, 'midst the forests of the west
  By a dark stream is laid—
The Indian knows his place of rest,
  Far in the cedar shade.

The sea, the blue lone sea, hath one—
  He lies where pearls lie deep;
He was the loved of all, yet none
  O'er his low bed may weep.

One sleeps where southern vines are drest
  Above the noble slain;
He wrapt his colors round his breast
  On a blood-red field of Spain.

And one—o'er her the myrtle showers
  Its leaves by soft winds fann'd;
She faded 'midst Italian flowers—
  The last of that bright band.

And parted thus they rest, who play'd
  Beneath the same green tree;
Whose voices mingled as they pray'd
  Around one parent knee!

They that with smiles lit up the hall
  And cheered with song the hearth!
Alas! for love, if thou wert all,
  And naught beyond, O earth!

Gamey's Conduct.

[Stratford Beacon.]

It is a principle of law as well as of justice that the evidence of a witness shall receive the fullest corroboration before it is accepted. If a witness acts in such a manner as to throw suspicion upon his testimony it is rightly demanded that it shall be still more strongly supported by other evidence than would be deemed necessary if the witness were undoubtedly a credible one. Mr. Gamey has acted in a manner to throw suspicion on his statements. If he had that sense of the dignity of his position and what is expected of him as a member of the Legislature, he would, when such inducements as he says were offered to him, have spurned them. It is not easy to conceive of a high-minded, honorable man going so far in this matter as he claims to have done.

THE CHAMPION OF LIBERALISM

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Tribute to Sir Oliver Mowat.

PARLIAMENT ADJOURNS TODAY

Debate on the Budget Resumed by Sir Richard Cartwright—Tarte on Protection.

Ottawa, April 20.—In the House of Commons today soon after the session opened, Sir Wilfrid Laurier officially announced the death of Sir Oliver Mowat, paying a high tribute to the memory of the late Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. The Premier said that in view of the prominent position Sir Oliver Mowat had occupied in the other House of Parliament and 40 years of prominence in the public life of his country, the House would be remiss in its duty if it did not, as far as it was able, mark its appreciation of his memory. He was the last and most remarkable of that galaxy of exceptionally strong men who had brought about a thorough revolution in the relations between the colonies and the parent state, and had shaped the constitution that we now enjoy.

The Premier referred to the eminence and success of Sir Oliver Mowat at the bar, in early public life, upon the judicial bench, as Premier for so many years of the Province of Ontario, as a member of the present Federal administration and leader of the Senate, and finally as the representative of the crown in his native Province.

The Premier alluded to Sir Oliver Mowat's early struggles against that autocratic oligarchy, the "Family Compact," and to the fact that one of the last of his acts as a stateman was the taking of office in the Laurier Government for the purpose of settling the grievances of the minority in Manitoba. Sir Oliver Mowat would be known in history best by his efforts to insure generous treatment for the religious minority in his own Province. He would also be known in history for his efforts to establish the Federal aspect of the Confederation of Canada. The Premier sketched the long contest between Sir John Macdonald, who was a believer in a legislative union of the provinces, and was in favor of a policy of centralization, and Sir Oliver Mowat, who was a Federalist and the champion of the powers of the provinces. In that contest, Sir Oliver Mowat had been uniformally successful. He had insured the triumph of the Federal idea. He was the most correct interpreter of the constitution Canada had ever produced. In spite of their differences on this point, however, Sir John Macdonald and Sir Oliver Mowat agreed on the point that they were extremely devoted to the land of their ancestors. Sir Oliver Mowat was true to his Province, true to the Dominion and true to the mother country.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier concluded by moving that, as a mark of respect to Sir Oliver Mowat's memory, the House adjourn on Tuesday over Wednesday, the day of his funeral.

The leader of the Opposition, Mr. Borden, seconded this motion in a few brief words. The motion was an eminently proper one. A great leader had passed from the stage, a man connecting the present generation of public men with the great men of the past. He had had a great public career and had left behind him a name absolutely unstained and respected.

Mr. E. F. Clarke, as a representative of Sir Oliver Mowat's city of Toronto, added a few words of regret. In Sir Oliver Mowat's death, the city of Toronto had lost its foremost citizen, the Province of Ontario had lost its most cherished son, and the Dominion had lost a statesman whose honor and fidelity had never faltered.

BUDGET DEBATE.

The debate on the budget was resumed by Sir Richard Cartwright, who was loudly cheered by the Ministerialists when he rose to speak. He said Mr. Borden's speech was the mildest criticism of a budget he had ever heard. Perhaps it was no wonder. Mr. Borden could not fail to remember the prophecies of Sir Charles Tupper, when the Fielding tariff was introduced, as to the havoc it would play with Canadian trade and industry, and could not fail to be conscious of how conspicuously these prophecies had failed to be realized. Mr. Borden, while criticising the present taxation and expenditure, could not put his finger on a single impost that should be withdrawn or a single expenditure that should be cut down. On the contrary he had said that several of the expenditures should be increased. Sir Richard quoted statistics showing how much greater had been the increase of trade under the present Government than under the Conservative Government. Mr. Borden had endeavored to give the impression that Canada's increase in trade was insignificant comparer with that of other countries. Since 1896 Canada's trade had increased in a greater percentage than that of any other country. It had increased 96 per cent. The increase of the United States was only 48 per cent, and the increase of the United Kingdom was only 24 per cent. Mr. Borden had only been able to make out that the per capita expenditure had increased to the extent he contended by reason of the fact that the population of the census of 1891 was fraudulently padded.

Dealing with preferential trade, Sir Richard contended that the preference had been of much greater benefit to Britain than either Mr. Borden or Mr. Chamberlain admitted. Mr. Borden had said that he wanted to stop the exodus of our laborers to the United States. The exodus today was nothing like it was under the blessed dispensation of the National Policy. Mr. Borden had said he wanted to protect the farmer. Of the articles of agricultural produce Mr. Borden said were imported to Canada from the United States, one-half were promptly re-exported, to the advantage of Canada. Of the balance, the greater part were such things as oranges, bananas, and pineapples, which the Cnadian farmer did not produce.

Of the increased expenditure Sir Richard showed that the greater part of it was simply putting money from one pocket into the other. As for surpluses, it depended how the surpluses were applied, whether they were justifiable or not. This Government would spend the surplus in reducing the debt and providing increased transportation facilities for the development of new territory. In reference to expenditure by Canada for Imperial defense, Sir Richard held that it was better to train our boys to handle a rifle than to keep one of two battalions constantly enrolled for Imperial service, which would be of very little benefit to Britain. As for the Conservative policy of protection, he denied that protection can be applied so as to protect all the classes of the community. It could result only in giving special advantages to some. His advice to the manufacturers was to take advantage of the present time of prosperity to meet the lean years of depression, by refraining from overproduction and collecting their debts. He contrasted the prosperous times and expanding trade and increasing population under the present Government, with what he called "the depression, the trade stagnation and the exodus of the Conservative Government," and concluded by predicting that if the present policy of the Government were pursued the Finance Minister of a decade hence would be able to point to fourteen hundred million dollars of trade instead of four hundred millions, and to surpluses of thirty millions instead of thirteen millions.

MR. TARTE'S CONTENTION.

After recess Mr. Tarte took up the debate. He said the Government had resolved not to make any changes in the tariff this year. Mr. Fielding and Sir Richard Cartwright had stated that the Government felt that they were following the proper course, and that their motives could not be impugned. Mr. Tarte said no one would attempt to deny that the country was prosperous. So were all civilized countries, he said. Canada was not peculiar. He urged, however, that it was a grave question whether it would not be wise to raise the Canadian tariff on agricultural products just as high as the United States had raised theirs against Canadian products. (Opposition applause.) If this were done large farming industries would be developed, where farmers were afraid to invest their capital now. Mr. Tarte went on to argue that as a matter of fact Canada was losing ground. He said:

"The balance of trade is steadily going against us; we are importing more than we should. Why are we losing ground when we have such great resources? The United States are maintaing their balance of trade. We are simply marking time. The tariff of today is the tariff of 1879, weakened a little instead of strengthened. The tariff revision of 1897 was a compromise. He was then a protectionist as he is today. He had done his best to have the tariff kept up. On the whole it had worked well. It would have worked better if it had been stronger." Mr. Tarte complimented Mr. Borden on his speech on the budget; it was one of the ablest discussions of the tariff that had been heard for a long time in Parliament. His speech was clearer than his motion. That went some distance towards Mr. Tarte's ideas, but he wished to go further.

Mr. Tarte resumed his seat amid Conservative cheers.

Mr. John Charlton moved the adjournment of the debate.

IN THE SENATE.

In the Senate, Col. Domville, formerly M. P. for Kings, N. B., was then introduced by Hon. R. W. Scott, and Hon. J. V. Ellis, and took the oath and his seat for the vacancy caused by the death of the late Senator Gillmor.

Hon. R. W. Scott drew attention to the loss the country had sustained in the death of Sir Oliver Mowat. It was not usual to make mention of the death of distinguished Canadians in the Senate unless they were members of that chamber, but Sir Oliver had been so intimately connected with the Senate that he thought the present occasion might be made an exception. He reviewed Sir Oliver's political and legal career; it was no samll testimony to his ability as a jurist that in twenty-four years in nine-tenths of the cases of dispute which had arisen between the Federal and Provincial Governments, Sir Oliver's contention had been sustained by the courts. The late statesman had always been actuated by the highest motives, and his life had been a most valuable one to his country. He moved that when the Senate adjourned on Tuesday it stand adjourned till Thursday.

Hon. Donald Ferguson regretted that Sir Mackenzie Bowell was unable to be present, as he would have been able to speak with more certain knowledge of Sir Oliver's life and career. He indorsed all that Mr. Scott had said. He seconded the motion for adjournment, which was carried unanimously.

LIGHT AND DARK,

Day and night, sunshine and shadow are not more different from each other than a healthful from a sickly woman. The healthful woman carries light and sunshine with her wherever she goes.

The woman who suffers from ill-health casts a shadow on her own happiness and the happiness of others. She cannot help it. Those who suffer cannot smile and sing.

Ill-health in woman is generally traceable to disease of the delicate womanly organism. Many women have been restored to happiness by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"I feel it my duty to inform you that I had been a sufferer for many years from nervousness with all its symptoms and complications," writes Mrs. O. N. Fisher, of 1861 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. "I was constantly going to see a physician or purchasing medicine for this or that complaint as my troubles became unbearable. In the spring of 1897 my husband induced me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking one bottle and following your advice I was so encouraged that I took five more bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and then I did not take any more for several weeks as I felt so much better, but still I was not completely cured. I commenced taking it again and felt that I was improving faster than at first. I am not now cross and irritable, and I have a good color in my face; have also gained about ten pounds in weight and one thousand of comfort, for I am a new woman once more."

The dealer who offers a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" does so to gain the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines. His profit is your loss, therefore accept no substitute.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the paper-covered book, or 50 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ADVANCE IN ALL WAYS

Shown in Reports of Western Ontario Bible Society.

Free Contributions and City Subscriptions Increase.

The 36th annual meeting of the Western Ontario Bible Society will take place in Cronyn Hall at 8 o'clock. The report of the directors, which will be presented, will refer with thankfulness for continued blessings. The committee are enabled to report a substantial advance in almost every department of the societys' operations, notably in the free contributions and city subscriptions to this auxiliary; also to the parent society. Last year the city subscriptions were $375 21; this year $400 95. Last year the free contributions to the parent society were $541, this year $668. Last year the free contributions to the W. O. B. S were $914 22, this year $1,062 23.

Last year's issues of the British and Foreign Bible Society were 5,067,421, and the total issues of the society since its foundation in 1804 amount to 180,000,000 copies, either sold or given away. The number of persons who have never had an opportunity to read any portion of either the Old or the New Testament in the language they understand, because no translations have been made, is estimated at 550,000,000. The Scriptures have, however, been printed already, wholly or in part, in over 400 different languages.

The sales of the Scriptures at the local depository during the past year amounted to 1,500, a slight increase over the previous year.

The Cause of Dyspeptic Pains.

Improperly digested food usually forms gases that cause a painful distention of the stomach and pressure against the heart. This results in much pain and distress, but Nerviline will relieve the distention, dispel the gas and cure the dyspeptic pains very quickly. Polson's Nerviline is really an excellent remedy for dyspepsia, indigestion, cramps, summer complaint and all stomach and bowel troubles. No household is complete without Nerviline. # SOME STARTLING EVIDENCE AT THE AFTERNOON SESSION

The Crossin Cash Book Was Mutilated and Pages Showing Transactions Abstracted.

CROSSIN AND GAMEY ALONE HANDLED THE BOOK

Strange Disappearance of Deposit Slip Which Mr. Gamey Borrowed From the Bank—Mr. Osborn, Handwr.ting Expert, Testifies as to the Typewriting.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, April 20.

Today's events in the Gamey investigation would seem to foreshadow what has been all along predicted by the defense—the total collapse of the charges brought by the member for Manitoulin against the Provincial Secretary. The two startling developments of the day were, first the discovery that several pages had been extracted from the Crossin Company's cash book, presumably for the purpose of destroying evidence which would tell not only where Gamey got his $1,500 on Sept. 11, but also where he got the $900 which he deposited on the same day; and second, the revealing of the fact that on Saturday Mr. Gamey went to the bank and got from it the deposit slip which had been used in depositing the $900, and after having it in his possession for part of an hour, returned to the bank what purported to be the same decument, but which an examination proved to be an imitation of it. On being summoned to the bank he said he had lost the original, but all efforts to find it proved unavailing.

The evidence of the handwriting expert, Mr. A. S. Osborne, of Rochester, was brought to an abrupt termination by the defense's frank admission of everything which the prosecution intended to prove by his testimony.

Mr. Crossin, who was not on hand in the court-room when called, was in the court-room immediately after dinner, and Mr. Johnston began the cross-examination. He said that at the beginning of April he had paid Mr. Gamey three sums, one of $200, another of $65 and another of $100.

What books show this payment? A.—The ledger. It shows a deposit of $900 by the company.

Mr. Crossin had not the ledger with him and he was sent back for it.

While Mr. Crossin was away the chancellor asked Mr. McPherson to outline what he desired to prove from Mr. Osborne, the handwriting expert. Mr. McPherson then explained that various series of exhibits as already published, and intimated that he would show that the documents of each series were written on the same machine.

Mr. Osborne then went into the box and described the divergencies from normal, which tend to individualize a typewriter. These were five in number: First, the bruising of the type, the wearing away of extensions and rounding of angles on the type face; second, the alignment of the letters, either above or below the normal printing point, or to the right or left thereof; third, the position of the character in relation to the base line—it may be bent or print at an angle; fourth, lack of uniformity of impression; fifth, the filling of open letters by dried ink, thus closing the letters, for instance, the upper part of the letter "e" or of the letter "t."

BOOKS MUTILATED.

As there are 76 characters on the ordinary machine, and as each one is capable of a great many deviations, the aggregate of possibilities is many the aggregate of possibilities is many hundreds of millions.

At this point Mr. Crossin returned to court with his books under his arm and re-entered the box.

Mr. Johnston asked Mr. Crossin to turn up his ledger or cash book and show the piano firm's cash transactions upon Sept. 10 and 11, 1902. Mr. Crossin replied that he had discovered that the leaves covering, preceding and following the period asked for were missing. He had not discovered this fact until late on Saturday afternoon, he said.

On reference to the cash book it was found that from July, 1902, to February, 1903, the leaves were missing.

Mr. Johnston—Who had charge of these books? A.—I have charge of the office. Mr. Gamey has access to the office.

You are the only two who have keys to the office? A.—Yes.

You have been using this book right along? A.—Yes.

In that book you have been entering all cash entries from last spring to the present time? A.—Yes.

Yet you did not know till Saturday that they were missing? A.—There were a number of loose leaves, but they were all there.

This is your only record of cash transactions? A.—Yes.

On Saturday you showed Mr. McEvoy an entry of $900 in this book? A.—No, it was in the bank book.

How did you come to notice the missing leaves? A.—I was looking over certain business matters which have no connection with this case. I was looking over it in a general way.

When had you looked over it before? A.—I can't say. It might have been on Friday. I can't say that it was.

Then I take it that if you had looked over the book on Friday you would have known whether or not the leaves had been destroyed, stolen or torn out? A.—I do not say that I looked over the book on Friday. I recall that those leaves were in the book in the early part of last week.

Would they be there as late as Wednesday? A.—To the best of my knowledge they were.

Were they there so late as Thursday or Friday? A.—I do not know.

Then if Mr. McEvoy says that he saw September entries on Friday last, you would not be able to contradict him? A.—No.

Mr. Crossin, taking the cash book, showed that since Feb. 23, the following cash payments had been made to the firm by Mr. Gamey; March 20, $100; March 28, $50; April 3, $200; April 11, $55; April 17, $50.

The moneys paid to Mr. Gamey during the same period were as follows: March 28, $50; March 31, $65; April 3, $200.

The paying in and out of the $200 on April 3 was explained by Mr. Crossin. Mr. Gamey had given the witness $200 and asked him to get a marked check for that sum, as he wished to transmit it.

On Sept. 11 a deposit of $900 was made by Mr. Gamey to your credit? A.—Yes.

When did you see the deposit slip again? A.—I don't know that I ever saw it again.

Was that slip in your handwriting? A.—No.

Did you make any other deposit that day? A.—There is no record of it in the bankbook.

You knew this deposit was made? A.—Oh, yes, I was at the bank.

Did you have any moneys in your possession that you carried over from the 10th? A.—Yes, I had.

How much? A.—Somewhere in the neighborhood of a couple of hundred dollars.

Did you deposit that? A.—No, there were cash payments which distributed it around.

Will you show me those payments on the 11th September that you speak of accounting for the $200? A.—Well, I canot tell you that excepting I have the vouchers.

Do you enter in your cash book the cash you pay out? A.—Only those that have not got vouchers.

And that is all? A.—No, not all that are entered in the cash book.

What did you enter in the cash book as payments out? A.—Well, sometimes I enter them in, sometimes Mr. Gamey enters them, in fact those are Mr. Gamey's entries, not mine at all.

I do not care who enters them—I want to know what entries are in your cash book as money paid out. I am confining you now to September?

The Chancellor—What is that you are reading from?

Mr. Johnston—The diary, but it is not kept in consecutive order at all, it is a cash book.

The items of September are Mr. Gamey's handwriting taken from vouchers. Then I ask you what items do you put in your cash book? A.—Well, that is the same thing. Items without vouchers sometimes, they are all put into that book just as well; as a matter of fact this book has not been balanced up for six weeks.

Was Gamey at your place on Saturday? A.—Yes, on Saturday morning he was at my office two or three times, twice to my knowledge.

When did you first notice the mutilation? A.—Late on Saturday afternoon.

Have you seen Mr. Gamey since Saturday? A.—No.

Do you know where he is? A.—No.

The Chancellor—He is not in court.

Mr. Johnston—No, my lord.

What was the denomination of the bills in the $900 deposited in September by Mr. Gamey? A.—I don't know.

But you swore that you noticed the denomination of some of the bills in the $1,500 deposited on that same day by Gamey? A.—But that was under different circumstances. The $900 deposit was made before lunch, and the $1,500 was made late in the afternoon.

You had never seen the deposit slip? A.—No.

A DEPOSIT SLIP LOST.

What occurred on Saturday last? A.—A messenger from the bank came to the factory on Saturday last and asked to see Mr. Gamey. I called him from the work-room, and the messenger asked him: "What about the deposit slip?" at the same time he produced a deposit slip, and said, "That wasn't the slip." I then left the room, that was all the conversation I heard. About ten minutes later Mr. Gamey and I went to the bank with the messenger, and the receiving teller, Mr. Howarth, returned with us to the office, where he and Mr. Gamey had a consultation. Mr. Howarth had a deposit slip in his hand.

Did you have any further conversation? A.—No, Mr. Howarth and Mr. Gamey were in the office, and I in the workroom. Ten or fifteen minutes after Mr. Howarth left, Mr. Gamey went out and I haven't seen him since. On the way from the bank both Howarth and Gamey seemed to be looking for a lost paper.

You knew it was a deposit slip of Sept. 11, 1902? A.—No, I surmised.

What reason had you to infer that there was a lost paper? A.—I heard Mr. Howarth ask Mr. Gamey what route he took to the bank. Mr. Gamey searched his pockets, and I understood that it was for some paper from the bank which Mr. Gamey had lost.

Did Mr. Gamey say anything about such a paper to you? A.—He said that he had a copy of a deposit slip which he wanted to show me. I don't know why he wanted to show it to me, except to determine whether it was in his or my handwriting. There was no business reason for showing it to me.

In the bank, did Gamey say: "You must surely be mistaken"? A.—I do not know that he said that. I heard him say, "If what I have handed back is not the original, I must have lost it." I was at the bank that morning about 9 o'clock to get some money changed to pay the men.

Who makes out the Crossin Company's deposit slips? A.—I do.

Tell me another case except on the 11th of December that Gamey made out the deposit slip? A.—Once shortly after the partnership was formed. There were only these two.

The deposit of $900 made by Gamey was for what purpose? A.—It was money due from Mr. Gamey to the business. He was paying up his stock in the company.

When was the company incorporated? A. — On Jan. 13, 1902. Mr. Gamey holds 55 shares at $100 a share, which is really a majority of the stock. In the stock book there is nothing to show a transfer of any of these shares.

What is your position in the company? A.—I am secretary-treasurer and business manager.

You are the person whose duty it is to enter the transfers of stock? A.—Yes; they are not valid without my signature. The stock is all held by Gamey, Levisconte and myself.

At this point Mr. Johnston said that he wished to go rather fully into the Saturday episode.

Mr. Blake said the whole affair was news to him, and he didn't see how it could affect the case.

The chancellor suggested that the matter be reserved, at least, until Mr. Johnston was prepared to rest his case.

Mr. Crossin was then cross-examined by Mr. Ritchie. He said that the partnership with Gamey began on the 1st of April, 1901, that the joint stock company was formed on the 12th January, 1902, and that when Mr. McEvoy examined the books a few days ago they were all intact. The cash book did not contain entries of all cash received or paid out, as the books were only temporary ones, used until the regular set ordered was delivered. The $900 was deposited by Mr. Gamey for the purpose of paying up his indebtedness to the business.

Did you understand that there was any assignment of Mr. Gamey's stock? A.—There may have been, but it has not yet been recorded.

Mr. Howarth was then called, but as he was not in court,

Mr. Osborne, the typewriting expert, again took the stand, and was about to continue his description of the variations in typewriters, when the judge stopped him and asked Mr. McPherson just what he wanted to prove, and whether counsel for the defense could shorten matters by admitting the authenticity of some of the disputed letters.

Mr. Riddell admitted that the letter signed "F. J. S.," and the "X. Y. Z." letters were written by Frank Sullivan. As for the unsigned letter of Sept. 16, 1902, it was thought advisable to ask Frank Sullivan whether or not he had sent the letter, Sullivan arose, straightened his collar and went into a corner to consult with Mr. Johnston. While he was gone the chancellor said: "If we can get down this far perhaps Mr. Osborne can get back by the next train."

After a conference between the defense counsel, in the course of which Mr. Stratton, Frank Sullivan, and E. C. Meyers were consulted, Mr. Johnston made the following admissions:

The Globe interview of Jan. 29, the copy of the letter to the Premier, mailed from Gore Bay on Oct. 27, and the typewritten letter of instructions, inclosed with the "X. Y. Z." letters of Feb. 11, were all written on one machine, a Remington.

The "X. Y. Z." letter of Feb. 11, the "F. J. S." letter of Feb. 20, and the unsigned letter of Sept. 16, were all written by Frank Sullivan on one machine, according to Sullivan's own admission.

The letters written in October by Mr. Stratton and Mr. Meyers, and the letter to the Premier, signed in Mr. Aylesworth's office on Sept. 11, were all written on one machine.

As these admissions covered the points which the prosecution desired to establish by Mr. Osborne's testimony, his further examination was rendered unnecessary.

As it was within a few minutes of 4 o'clock the inquiry was adjourned for the night.

LATER.

Owing to Mr. Gamey's disappearance the commission has adjourned its sittings until Thursday.

CITY COUNCIL REFERS TO DEATH OF SIR OLIVER MOWAT

Records Its Deep Sense of the Loss Country Sustains.

Decides That It Will Not Build New Fire Hall.

Neither Will Engine for the Department Be Purchased—Scarlet Fever Resolution.

The city council had what was probably the most unimportant session of the year last night, taking final action on not a single matter of importance. The question of a steam fire engine for the fire department came up, and it was again sent back to the committee, not because there was a strong division of opinion as to the merits of the machines mentioned—Ald. Matthews was the only member of the council who spoke as though he knew anything about straight back and crane-neck engines—but because the aldermen seemed to think that there was plenty of time to deal with it, the permission to issue the debentures not having been received yet. Another question which bobbed up once more was the erection of a fire hall for the north end, and once more it got a solar plexus knock-out, being defeated in spite of the eloquence of Ald. Matthews, who was quite enthusiastic over the matter. One of the troubles with No. 3 committee is that the members are divided among themselves. Ald. Matthews is not one with the members in regard to the class of fire engine to be purchased, and Ald. Greenlees is not of the same opinion as Ald. Matthews, Becher and Saunders on the fire hall move. When they are more united it may be they will get more through the council.

Mayor Beck was absent, being in Montreal on business, and Ald. Judd was acting in his place. Ald. Forristal and Campbell also were absent, leaving only ten members present.

DEATH OF SIR OLIVER MOWAT.

The council took action regarding the death of the Lieutenant-Governor, Sir Oliver Mowat, adopting a suitable resolution. Ald. Judd referred to the loss sustained by the country through the death of the aged statesman ,and added that it was unnecessary for him to say anything about the life of the departed, or the hold he had on the people of the country, and especially the province, during his public career.

The resolution, moved by Ald. Matthews, and seconded by Ald. Saunders, was as follows:

"That whereas Divine Providence has removed his Honor the Hon. Sir Oliver Mowat, G. C. M. G., Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Ontario,

"Be it therefore resolved that the municipal council of the corporation of the city of London hereby records its deep sense of the great loss sustained by the province in the decease of one who for so many years, by his wise counsel, directed the affairs of our province.

"This council at the same time desires to express its respectful sympathy for the family of the deceased Lieutenant-Governor in the trying hour of their bereavement."

The resolution was carried by a standing vote.

Ald. Judd also informed the council of the forthcoming visit of the Governor-General and Lady Minto to the city on May 12, their excellencies to arrive about noon and to leave the following day. The reception committee will arrange the programme for the occasion.

STOP BIG CARS.

Three letters on as many different subjects were received from City Engineer Graydon. One was in reference to the operation of the large Springbank cars, which, he said, was contrary to bylaw 916. Considerable complaint, he stated, had been made at divers times about the large cars, as they were noisy, and, in the opinion of the citizens, a public nuisance.

In a second letter Mr. Graydon advised that where applications are made for the moving of houses, deposits of $50 or $100 should be placed with the department, to be held for a month as a guarantee that any damage to walks, or shade trees, will be made good.

Mr. Graydon gave an estimate of $1,125 for the tiling of Carling's Creek, on Princess avenue, between Adelaide and Elizabeth streets.

The letters were referred to the proper committees.

A number of east end ratepayers asked the council to inspect the property in line with Dufferin avenue, east from English street, with a view to opening it. They offered to give a portion of their land for the street. The matter was referred to the board of works.

A petition for a cement walk on the south side of Forward avenue, between Guelph street and the city limits was sent to the board of works.

MAY HAVE 'PHONE COMPETITION.

Messrs. Kidd & Thompson, of Ottawa, wrote the city clerk, asking for information about the Bell Telephone Company rates in this city, and also for the date when the existing agreement between the city and company expires. "We are applying for the corporation of some capitalists who intend to enter the telegraph and telephone field in Canada in opposition to the Bell Telephone Company," the letter went on, "and we would like the generous support of your corporation."

City Clerk Edwards was instructed to give all the desired information.

A petition, largely signed by Grand Trunk car works employes and other persons living east and south of Queen's Park, was submitted, calling attention to the condition of the footpath leading from the King street entrance to the park to the Campbell street side, which is used as a short cut to the works. During the wet seasons the path is practically impassable, and it was suggested that a few loads of gravel or cinders be placed on it. The petition was also sent to No. 2 committee.

W. F. Montague, grand recorder of the Canadian Order of Chosen Friends, expressed the thanks of the order for the free use of the hall for the annual convention.

No. 1 committee will consider the application of J. F. Carstairs for a grant to the Laura Secord memorial, the estimated cost of which will be from $6,000 to $10,000.

On the application of Frank Newton, British Oak Lodge, No. 82, Sons of England, was granted the free use of the city hall for a dance on May 1.

Mr. Alexander Harvey petitioned the council for the transfer of a strip 33 feet wide on the west side of Talbot street, between Oxford and St. James streets, which he desires to use for building purposes. He offered $50 for the land. The petition was referred to the finance committee.

NOT TALKING "STUFF."

The purchase of a steam fire engine was again referred back to No. 3 committee. For the second time, the committee recommended the purchase of a straight-frame machine, at a cost of $4,600, but Ald. Greenlees, the chairman, would not follow the usual course of moving the adoption of the clause, for the reason that on inquiry he learned that the straight-frame engine was not in use anywhere, being out of date. Ald. Greenlees said if the city bought one it would be decidedly behind the times, and he moved that the "crane neck" engine, costing $600 more, be purchased.

Ald. Matthews stood by the committee, saying that since the recommendation was made the first time, lobbying had been done to get the council to get the more expensive machine.

"You are talking stuff," said Ald. Greenlees. "Nonsense."

Ald. Matthews—"I am not talking stuff." The company, he said, wanted the better engine introduced because of the advertisement it would be to them, and he thought they should be willing to pay for the advertisement. If he were purchasing a machine he would not pay $500 more for the crane-neck engine, which was the more stylish of the two. The city was not going in for style.

The clause went back to the committee, Ald. Gerry moving that course until it was known for a certainty that the city was going to get permission to issue the debentures.

FIRE HALL VOTED DOWN

Another recommendation of the committee which the chairman did not approve, and which he would not move, as he expressed it, "by a long chalk," was for the expenditure of $5,000, to be raised by a debenture issue, on a fire hall for the north end. Ald. Matthews advocated the outlay, saying that halls had been established in the east end and South London, and it was high time a hall was placed in the north end of the city.

Ald. Becher was an equally enthusiastic supporter of the recommendation. It was only a matter of Providence, he said, that the north end, with its numerous charitable institutions, had escaped so far.

Ald. Judd—Continue to trust in Providence.

Ald. Greenlees opposed the expenditure, because he felt that with the outlay for the new chemical and fire engines and the alterations to the central fire hall, enough money would be spent this year on the department.

The recommendation was defeated, on a vote of five to four, Ald. Becher Matthews, Saunders and Cooper being in the minority.

In the board of works report, presented by the chairman, Ald. Wyatt, a recommendation was made that, provided Maurice Inwood completed the work by June 15, he be given the contract for the reflooring of the York street, Oxford street and Victoria bridges, his tender being $1,725, and that otherwise the tender of William Howie, for $2,175, be accepted. The contract was awarded to Mr. Howie, whose tender was the only one submitted in accordance with the specifications. The lumber was to be dry, whereas in his tender Mr. Inwood stated that the timber had to be cut. Ald. Gerry held that the tender of Mr. Inwood was being misinterpreted, as he was told that the only timber that would have to be cut was the 18-foot article, which, however, is not to be used.

WOULD NOT TRUST COMMISSIONER.

The transfer of a small strip of land on the river bank, at South street, to the London Soap Company, was strongly opposed by Ald. Cooper until the valuation of the property had been made to the council by the assessment commissioner. The land immediately adjoins the soap company's works, and as it has been used as a dump until it has become a nuisance, Mr. McMechan desires to purchase it and stop the practice followed by so many, with whom he is at present powerless to interfere. No. 1 committee recommended the transfer, the price to be fixed by the assessment commissioner, but Ald. Cooper wanted the matter deferred.

"Can't you trust the commissioner?" asked Ald. Judd of Ald. Cooper.

The latter replied that he could not, because he knew of an instance last year where the commissioner placed a valuation of $10 a foot on some property which was worth nearer $100.

The matter was referred back until the price of the land is fixed by the assessment commissioner and the chairman of the court of revision.

HOSE DEAL GOES.

Ald. Becher's motion to reconsider the purchase of the hose was lost, and the council adopted a motion by Ald. Cooper to have the acting mayor sign the contract in the morning. Ald. Judd wanted to leave the contract until the mayor should come home on Thursday, but Ald. Cooper persisted in his motion, on the ground that the department did not have too much hose at present, and in the case of a big fire would find itself very greatly handicapped. "And, anyhow," said Ald. Cooper, "it has not come down to this, that the council cannot do business unless the mayor is here."

Ald Matthews' motion re a fire hall for the north end was ruled out, having already been dealt with.

The council adopted Ald. Stevenson's motion to request Mr. C. S. Hyman, M. P., to oppose any Dominion grant to the Toronto Exhibition until he is satisfied that the exhibition is to be thoroughly representative of the Dominion.

Ald. Stevenson inquired about the action of No. 2 committee in regard to the ward foremen, and he was given the desired information by Ald. Wyatt.

APPEAL THIS MONTH.

Ald. Becher was informed that the appeal in the case of the street railway and the city was coming up this month.

Ald. Stevenson gave notice of motion "that the council place on record its protest against the regulations recently adopted in regard to scarlet fever, whereby patients are to be ordered to be placed in an isolation hospital or tent, giving neither the attending physician or the medical health officer any option as to the effectiveness of the isolation of the case at the home nor of the safety or danger with which the patient might be removed, and which in the Canadian climate would under certain conditions be extremely dangerous to life."

LOCAL MARKET.

London, Tuesday, April 21.

There was a very small attendance at the market here this forenoon. The offerings of small stuff, such as butter and eggs, was especially light, and the grocers had to obtain their supplies from the provision dealers. Owing to the small supply of produce, prices were firm in the various lines represented.

Grain—There were only two loads of oats offered, which went at 90c to 95c per cental.

Hay and Straw—There were 18 loads of hay offered; the demand was brisk for the best hay, which sold at $9 50 to $10 per ton; medium and inferior loads at $9 per ton. No straw offered.

There were only a few lots of butter and eggs offered, and prices were unchanged from those quoted.

Vegetables and Roots—Three large loads of potatoes sold at $1 15 per bag wholesale, and $1 20 to $1 25 retail. Tomato, cabbage and celery plants sold at 25c per box.

Dressed Hogs—There were only about six or eight carcases on sale, and they brought $8 50 per 100 pounds.

Live Hogs—There is likely to be an advance in prices, as some of the buyers are paying $6 per 100 pounds for shipments the latter part of this week.

Butchers' Meats—The supply was small and prices unaltered from those quoted.

AMERICAN MARKETS.

CHICAGO.

Chicago, April 20.—Wheat—The buying and bidding up of the May option by the bull interest was the feature of the session. The July sympathized to a good extent. Foreign news was against the holder. Liberal offerings and improved weather conditions checked the advance in Liverpool, and that market closed lower. There were moderate export sales reported. Estimated receipts tomorrow, 45 cars.

Corn was a dull market, with a limited trade. The May option was weaker, selling at one time to a discount of ¾c under the July. Cash market slow and demand for shipment none. Weather rather too moist for farm work. Estimated cars tomorrow, 90.

Oats—Shorts were good buyers early and the market responded to ⅝c. Local long took profits freely on the advance, and prices lost most of the early gain. Eastern cash markets are dull and report demand the lightest for some time. In the sample crowd good oats were strong and the low grades weak. Estimated receipts tomorrow, 100 cars.

Provisions opened dull and a trifle easier on large receipts of hogs, but was given support, and hogs turning strong, the market gained strength and closed with fair gains for the day. It is a professional market on ribs and lard, with but little outside trade in pork. We may see small markets for a week or two, providing hog receipts continue about the same, but would not advise holding long stuff too long, for we believe it is a long market, and we may get a substantial shake out. Estimated receipts of hogs tomorrow, 19,000.

TOLEDO.

Detroit Specialist Discovers Something Entirely New for the Cure of Men's Diseases in Their Own Homes.

You Pay Only If Cured!

Expects No Money Unless He Cures You—Method and Full Particulars Sent Free—Write for It This Very Day.

A Detroit specialist who has 14 certificates and diplomas from colleges and medical boards, has perfected a startling method of curing the diseases of men in their own home, and so that there may be no doubt in the mind of any man that he has both the method and the ability to do as he says, Dr. S. Goldberg, the discoverer, will send the method entirely free to all men who send him their name and address. He wants to hear from men who have stricture that they have been unable to get cured, prostatic trouble, sexual weakness, varicocele, lost manhood, blood poison, hydrocele, emaciation of parts, impotence, etc. His wonderful method not only cures the condition itself, but likewise all the complications, such as rheumatism, badder or kidney trouble, heart disease, etc.

DR. S. GOLDBERG,

The possessor of 14 diplomas and certificates, who wants no money that he does not earn.

The doctor realizes that it is one thing to make claims and another thing to back them up, so he has made it a rule not to ask for money unless he cures you, and if you are cured he feels sure that you will willingly pay him a small fee. It would seem, therefore, that it is to the best interests of every man who suffers in this way to write the doctor confidentially and lay your case before him. He sends the method, as well as many booklets on the subject, including the one that contains the 14 diplomas and certificates, entirely free. Address him simply Dr. S. Goldberg, 208 Woodward avenue, Room G, Detroit. Mich., and it will all immediately be sent you free.

This is something entirely new and well worth knowing more about. Write at once. 76-tf-ywt

Disease Lurks on Every Hand

And Finds Lodgment in the Weak, Run-Down and Exhausted System—Protect Yourself by Using

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

The spring air is often laden with disease germs. The waste and decayed matter of winter is thawed out, and forms a regular hotbed of disease, from which arise poisonous gases and germs of disease.

People with rich blood throbbing through their arteries need have little fear, for disease seeks out the weak and exhausted for its easy victims. For such there is no season more to be dreaded than spring.

The artificial life of winter is such as to leave the blood thin and watery, and as a result the action of the vital organs, such as the heart, stomach, kidneys and liver, is weak, sluggish, and torpid, appetite becomes poor and digestion is impaired.

All depends on the state of the blood, and because Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is, above all else, a builder and enricher of the blood, it is the best spring medicine that can possibly be obtained. Once the blood is made rich and pure, the benefit is felt in every nook and corner of the human body. The vital organs perform their work, the nervous system is nourished and rekindled, new, firm flesh and tissue is added, and new vigor and vitality permeate the whole system.

Instead of purging the system with salts and sarsaparillas this spring, enrich and purify the blood by a month's treatment, with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and see how differently you will feel. As this food cure is composed of nature's great restoratives, it is bound to be of great benefit to you. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2 50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

FENCE VIEWERS' DUTIES

They Are Called in to Arbitrate Upon Disputed Points.

May Fix the Expenses of Fence and Viewers as They See Fit.

The local board of fence viewers, which comprises City Engineer Graydon, Mr. A. T. McMahen and Inspector McCallum, was called in the other day to locate the line between a property on York street, recently secured by Mr. H. C. Green, and the premises of Mrs. McVean. When the board reached the place they found a fence which had been on the line for 30 years, and they ascertained that Mr. Green's object in calling them in was to establish his right to remove a portion of the fence next to the McVean residence and place an old building immediately up to the line to be used as a stable. Such a thing the viewers refused to sanction, and the fence remains as it was originally.

The fence viewers have not been called upon very often lately, as disputes about line fences are not of common occurrence in London. The board is only to be called when two persons owning adjoining properties fail to agree on the exact location of a fence, and it is their duty to fix the line. In the event of their being unable to do this they have the power to call in a surveyor, and their last act is to fix the cost of the fence and their own costs. They need not necessarily order the parties concerned to bear an equal share of the cost of the fence, and it is also within their power to order one of them to pay the entire costs of the board or the major portion of them, as may seem fair. In cases where one of the parties concerned has taken an arbitrary course through the whole proceedings, the viewers are liable to make him pay the whole shot.

DAMAGE SUIT SETTLED

Agreement Reached in Case of Foden vs. Perrin.

Boy's Foot Hurt in Elevator—$175 Compensation—Evidence Heard.

When the spring assizes opened yesterday afternoon before Hon. Mr. Justice Meredith, the first case to be tried was that of Foden vs. Perrin. In this case Mr. John St. Foden sued the D. S. Perrin Company to recover $2,000 damages for injuries received by his 15-year-old son, John Foden, while the latter was employed in the factory last October. Young Foden had been operating the elevator, and the plaintiff claimed that the accident was due to negligence on the part of the company. The boy received a rather serious injury to his foot, and the attending physicians, Dr. Teasdall and Dr. McCallum, gave testimony to the effect that the foot had been weakened by the accident. Father and son both testified that the lad was put on the elevator against the father's orders.

The evidence was all in when court adojurned.

When the jury met this morning to be addressed by the judge, it was announced that the parties to the suit had come to a settlement. Defendants agreed to pay $175, each side to pay its own costs. Messrs. Tennant and Coleridge for plaintiff; Du Vernet for defendant.

Reuben Draper Proves by Experience That Dodd's Kidney Pills Will Cure Gravel.

Bristol, P. Q., April 20.—Reuben Draper, of this place, is spreading broadcast the good news that the operating knife is no longer necessary to cure that once-dreaded disease, Gravel. Mr. Draper was taken ill with Gravel and two doctors consulted failed to give him relief. He was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. He did so and of the result he says:

"Just one week after starting to use Dodd's Kidney Pills, I passed a stone as large as a small bean and four days after I passed one about the size of a grain of barley. This gave me relief and I began to feel better and gain strength.

"That happened four years ago and I have had no return of the trouble since."

BOY STOLE WHEEL.

In the juvenile court this morning the boy who was arrested some days ago, for stealing a bicycle from a young man named Penney, and who denied it at first, pleaded guilty. He was remanded for a week for sentence. He is only about 15 years of age. In the police court two drunks were discharged, and three more carters were up for hiring without a license. Their case was adjourned until Friday. Frank McVean and C. H. Mooney settled. They had had a quarrel and the former was charged by Mooney with assault. The charge was withdrawn.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. # BETWEEN TWO FIRES.

BY MRS. C. N. WILLIAMSON,

Author of "Lady Mary of the Dark House," "The Woman in Gray," "Queen Sweetheart," "Fortune's Sport," "The Barn Stormers," etc.

[Copyright 1902. All Rights Reserved.]

My brain was clearer now—now that the treaty was in the safe at the Foreign Office—and I could think. On my way to the Chief of Police I devised a story which should render one of the enemy's trump cards useless. It would depart but little from the truth; and, thanks to the revelations made to me in malice by Ipanoff, it would exactly fit in with the tale which Noel Brent had told to the Juge d'Instruction. It would, in fact, supplement his.

I was sure of an audience with the chief of police, who is a gentleman and a patron of the theater—when he finds time.

A gallant man is the Chief of Police. His first words to me were in congratulation upon my success in the new play last night. This gave me the cue I wished for. It was well, I said, that I had not to act the part for the first time tonight, or I should fear to disgrace myself, so much anxiety had I suffered since seeing the papers and reading what had happened to a friend of mine who was accused of murder which he could not possibly have committed.

"You say he could not possbly have committed it, dear mademoiselle?" smiled the Chief. "You are a staunch partisan."

"But Mr. Brent was at my house when the murder was committed," I said, quickly. "It is hard for me to come and tell you this, because if the Comte de Ribaumont, to whom I am engaged, should come to know it, he would not easily forgive me. Monsieur Blanchard, if I tell you the whole truth frankly, cannot you save me from exposure, yet at the same time free the man whose innocence I can prove to you? It would kill me to break with the Comte de Ribaumont."

"Dear mademoiselle, trust me to do the best for you," said the Chief, moved already, as I could see, by the tears in my eyes and the touch of my hand on his arm. "You have been frank. I will be equally so. I should have communicated with you on the subject of the accused Englishman, as I was aware of what took place between you at the hotel, but I received a request from a very high quarter indeed to hold my hand for the moment. How comes it, if you are engaged to the Comte de Ribaumont, that you made the statement you did at the Elysee Palace concerning this Monsieur Brent?"

"It is that which I have come to tell you—that, and much besides," I answered. "I throw myself upon your mercy. You shall have all my confidence:

"In England I had what might be called a slight flirtation with Noel Brent, who is popular in society. We exchanged letters, which were a little foolish—nothing more. Yet when I became engaged to the Comte de Ribaumont, only a short time ago (it was to have remained a secret until next year, on account of my professional engagement), I was distressed that such letters should be in another man's possession. I would not be satisfied with being told that they were burnt, at my request. I wrote and asked Mr. Brent to bring me the letters and I would meet him at the Elysee Palace Hotel to take them from him."

"He came under another name."

"Because, it appears, he is engaged to be married also within the last few days, and wished to keep his meeting with me a secret. I only learnt that last night."

"He came to you after calling at the house of the British Home Secretary in London. He was seen to enter there by a private detective, and though he certainly was not seen coming out, he must have done so, as he was in Paris in the evening."

"But it is to the daughter of the British Home Secretary that he is engaged; and she, too, is in Paris now. She came, I think, a little later, and with friends, so that the situation was dangerous for him. You say you know what happened at the hotel, but I will explain the inner meaning of it. Mr. Brent was to have brought me my letters. He gave me a letter-case, saying they were in it; at that instant the lights went out, whether by design or accident I don't know."

"It was not design on the part of the police," the Chief interrupted. "It happened, it appears, all over the hotel."

"When the case was opened by the Commissary of Police, and I saw the diamonds, I was much surprised; the more so, as they had been stolen from the Comte de Ribaumont a few days ago. Again I confide in you as a man of honor. They were the property of a dear friend, an elderly lady well known in Paris, who is an inveterate gambler, but a charming woman.

"She dared not tell her husband of her losses, but begged Maxime to sell the jewels for her in Amsterdam and have them replaced with paste. On his way there to carry out this mission the necklace was stolen from him. You can imagine his state of mind and my surprise on seeing it reappear in so extraordinary a way. I believed that somehow Noel Brent had recovered it; and it was only to keep my letters (which I had not yet received) out of the affair, and also the Comte de Ribaumont's name in connection with the diamonds, that I told the Commissary of Police that the necklace was a gift from my lover. The instant I had spoken the words I regretted them, for fear of consequences, but it was then too late.

"When the police had gone I asked Mr. Brent for my letters. He said he thought he had given them to me; and he knew no more of the diamonds than I did—far less, indeed.

"I was in despair at discovering that my letters were gone, though I was thankful, for the Comte de Ribaumont's sake, to have the necklace, which since I have given to him. Mr. Brent believed that the letters must have been stolen from him in the train, though he could not account for the presence of the jewels in his pocket; but as he suspected a man who had traveled with him, he determined to try and find him, promising to bring news to my house after the theater at 12 o'clock.

(To be continued.)

HERE'S THE TRUTH

Alphonse Caron Investigates Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets and Gives the Public the Result in Plain, Straightforward Language.

Alphonse Caron, editor of the Echo, published at Montmagny, Que., has earned the reputation of going to the root of things, getting the whole truth concerning the matter in hand and then setting it forth in plain language no matter who it helps or hurts.

The statements of such men are always worth reading and none more so than the following. It appeared in the Echo a short time ago:

"Do you know Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets?

"I (the undersigned) know them as the best thing for Dyspepsia. Every person suffering from this terrible malady ought to use them as I have and I am sure he would be satisfied."

ALPHONSE CARON.

Mr. Caron's experience should benefit a large number of people. No disease is more prevalent in Canada than Dyspepsia, none more dangerous, discomforting and dispiriting, none that saps the energy and vigor of people to such an extent. Mr. Caron tells of a sure cure.

The average woman's words don't carry so much weight as her biscuits.

CATARRH Attacks Nose, Throat, Stomach and Kidneys

Catarrh is a treacherous and deadly disease of the mucous membrane that spreads rapidly from a slight cold. It involves the stomach and kidneys, deranges digestion, saps strength, and ends in Consumption. Atomizers, salves and washes are useless because they don't reach the cause of the trouble. Catarrh is a Blood Disease and can be cured only by eliminating poisons and unhealthy matter in the blood that inflame and congest the mucous membrane.

Ferrozone is well known for its blood cleansing properties that make it impossible for Catarrhal poisons to exist in the system of a person using it daily. Ferrozone frees the blood of unclean matter at once, and supplies health-giving Ozone, which acts directly on the mucous membrane. Ferrozone puts nourishment and energy into the circulation, heals the inflamed mucous surfaces, and expels every trace of Catarrh in a short time. It is a simple matter to cure Catarrh in any part of the system by taking one Ferrozone Tablet after each meal. It instantly stops droppings, deafness and headache; corrects nauseous sensations in the stomach, and cures so thoroughly that no symptoms of Catarrh ever return. Ferrozone is a perfect remedy for all kinds of Catarrh, and is guaranteed to cure even the most stubborn cases. It is simple and convenient to take, and is sold throughout Canada and United States by all reliable druggists. No substitute is so good as Ferrozone, which costs 50c per box or six boxes for $2.50. Sent safely to any address by mail, all charges paid, if price is forwarded to THE FERROZONE COMPANY, Kingston, Ont.

THE DAY AT LAKESIDE.

Chicago, April 20.—Kid Weller, who has charge of the betting at Lakeside, and Herbert Myers, a sheet writer, were arrested today by Chief of Police Cox, of Hammond, Ind., just as the horses were going to the post in the fourth race. Chief Cox said he proposed to make a test case on the English system of booking adopted by the track management. The arrest did not interrupt betting in the English system. For today's races the weather was fine, but the track was very heavy. Summaries:

First race, 6 furlongs—Dr. Worth, 5 to 1, 1; Gracious, 12 to 1, 2; Double O., 6 to 5, 3. Time, 1:19.

RUN IN A BLINDING STORM.

Memphis, Tenn., April 20. — Wilful broke her jaw by running into the fence in the Hotel Gayoso stakes, at one mile, today, and John W. Schorr's entry, Rightful and Pericles, finished first and second, with the Don third. The race was run in a blinding rainstorm. Hall, Wilful's rider, said the rainstorm blinded him, and that he had his eyes shut at the moment the accident occurred. While Wilful sustained serious injury, it is believed she will be able to race again within a month. Summary.

First race, mile, selling—Memphian, 9 to 5, 1; Ecome, 5 to 1, 2; Class Leader, 5 to 1, 3. Time, 1:45.

PALM BEARER WON STAKES.

New York, April 20. — Foxhall P. Keene's Palm Bearer, carrying 107 pounds, won the Canarsie stakes, for 2-year-olds, at Aqueduct today. He also equaled the track record by covering the 4½ furlongs in 55 seconds. He jumped away in front and in making all the running won, driving, by a head, from the heavily played Nameoki. Nine Pin was third. Bombino was the only winning favorite. The weather was clear and cool and the track fast. Summary:

First race, 6 furlongs—Flying Buttress, 106 (Minder), 7 to 1, and 2 to 1, 1; Royal, 126 (O'Neill), 16 to 5 and 4 to 5, 2; Demurrer, 120 (Haack), 8 to 1 and 3 to 1, 3. Time, 1:14.

Second race, 4½ furlongs, selling — Bombino, 98 (Redfern), 8 to 5 and 4 to 5, 1; Bruceville, 112 (Odom), 6 to 1 and 5 to 2, 2; Mimon, 93 (J. Robinson), 20 to 1 and 8 to 1, 3. Time, :57 1-5.

Fourth race, Canarsie stakes, 4½ furlongs—Palm Bearer, 107 (Ganon), 4 to 1 and 8 to 5, 1; Nameoki, 110 (Hoar), 16 to 5 and 6 to 5, 2; Nine Pin, 107 (Minder), 10 to 1 and 4 to 1, 3. Time, :55.

Fifth race, selling, 6½ furlongs—Kickshaw, 102 (O'Neill), 4 to 1 and 8 to 5, 1; Oclawha (J. Martin), 4 to 1 and 8 to 5, 2; Rostand, 104 (Gannon), 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, 3. Time, 1:28.

Sixth race, 5½ furlongs—Saccharometer, 111 (Gannon), 6 to 1 and 2 to 1, 1; Illyria, 114 (Odom), 4 to 1 and 8 to 5, 2; Court Maid, 109 (J. Martin), 8 to 1 and 3 to 1, 3. Time, 1:07 4-5.

YOUNGSTER'S GOOD WORK.

One of the best pacing prospects that will be out this year will be the black five-year-old, Hal Patron, owned by W. R. McRae, of the Sydenham Valley Stock Farm, Wallaceburg. This race horse is very well bred, being by Prince Dillard, out of Patti Hunter, by Patron. He was bred by Mr. McRae, who saw how good he was as a 3-year-old, but waited a year later to start him. Last season Hal Patron made his first start at Port Huron, on Aug. 13, and won the race and a record of 2:19¼. In all he won six races, was second, third and fourth once each, and was once outside of the money. He took the record of 2:16¼ at Hamilton, but this was not the limit of his speed by any means. This year Hal Patron will be campaigned in the Canadian circuit and in Michigan, and it would not be surprising to see him knock several seconds off his mark. Mr. McRae wants to keep him in the slow classes as long as possible, and will race about half a dozen others at the meetings he visits, his string being one of the best sent out of the Dominion this year.

PACERS THE FASTEST.

The story relative to the three seconds difference in speed between pacers and trotters has raised the question as to what gives pacers the faster progress. The answer is simpler than might be imagined, and is, without qualifications: Style of gait. In the trotter's gait there is considerable lost motion; in the pacer's practically none at all. In former years, before the pacer had been fully reconstructed from his racking motion, his advantage over the trotter was but slight, as will be seen by figures attached; but the pacer's development has taken away from him almost all of his up and down motion, and has so materially reduced his side motion that now his every effort tells directly in his speed.

The following tabulation gives the best trotting and pacing record by decades since 1830, and shows the difference in speed. The difference was not material until 1880-1890, except during 1840-1850, which may be regarded as accidental, inasmuch as it shows no relation to preceding and succeeding records for many years. From 1880, however, the material improvement of the pacer's action is shown in the advantage in time to his credit. The figures follow.

| Decade | Best Trot. | Record Pace. | Difference. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1830-1840 | 2:31½ | 2:31 | 0:00½ |
| 1840-1850 | 2:29½ | 2:27 | 0:02½ |
| 1850-1860 | 2:19¼ | 2:18½ | 0:00¾ |
| 1860-1870 | 2:17¼ | 2:16½ | 0:00¾ |
| 1870-1880 | 2:12¾ | 2:12¼ | 0:00½ |
| 1880-1890 | 2:08¾ | 2:06¼ | 0:02½ |
| 1890-1900 | 2:03¼ | 1:55¼ | 0:04 |
| 1900 | 2:02¼ | 1:59¼ | 0:03 |

BASEBALL.

MICROBES ARE IN THE AIR.

If you're feelin'
Sorter blue,
Don't know what on
Earth to do,
It's the fever,
Ay, my lad,
An' you've got it—
Got it bad.
All the signs are
In th' land,
As th' time draws
Near at hand;
Umpires listed,
All dates booked,
Mascots chosen,
Players hooked.
Soon your cure
Will be comin'
Down th' avenue
Er running',
An' you'll take it,
For you're sick,
Take it easy,
Grab it quick.
For the old game you've
Been cryin',
For th' swatted ball
Er sighin'—
Oh, th' home runs,
An' th' spells
Of th' rooters, an'
Their yells!
Soon your business you'll
Be droppin',
An' your face'll be
Er moppin'
At th' park,
An' the sun
Er pourin' down
On th' run.
In the wind
Ev'rywhere,
Baseball microbes
In th' air;
They're the ducks 'at
Saw th' wood,
An' you've got 'em—
Got 'em good.

Baltimore, April 20.—The New York American League team shut out the Baltimore Eastern League club today. The score was 4 to 0.

THE WHEEL.

THE JOY OF THE WHEEL.

There is nothing so good for one whose daily life is confined to the city or town as a breath of good country air, and there is certainly no better way of getting it than on a bicycle. It brings all the shady lanes and green fields of the country within easy reach. Canada is particularly blessed with good roads, and it takes but a few minutes riding to get out of the heart of our cities into the pure air and joyous sunshine of the country. There would be fewer pale-cheeked, listless toilers seeking relaxation in crowded places if they could only once realize the joy of wheeling through the rural districts that are so near at hand to the owner of a bicycle.

LACROSSE CLUB GETS THE PARK

Games Will Be Played Over the River Again This Summer— Arrangement Made.

It is altogether likely that the London Lacrosse Club will have the use of Tecumseh Park again this season. Representatives of the club met the City Baseball League management last night and received the terms proposed by the latter, which are said to have been approved of by the club promoters. All the games are to be played at the park. The schedule is to include three Saturday games, and for the season the lacrosse people are to pay the league $75, with $10 for each additional game to be played. The members of the Lacrosse Club have only been waiting for the deal to go through to get into practice. The lack of grounds has kept them from working out before now, and with the grounds secured regular practices will be held, for the club is determined to make a good showing the coming season. From 5 to 7 o'clock tonight is the time set for the opening practice.

Air Space

Two walls built with an air space between are warmer in winter and cooler in summer than a solid wall, which is a "good conductor.

And that's why the "Slater Resilia" soled shoe, with its air space and springy centre sole, pumping fresh air into the shoe, keeping the stocking dry and the foot vigorous, is comfortable both in summer and winter.

WITHDRAWAL OF STRUTHERS NINE

Leave the City League—Place Taken by the Carletons, a New Organization.

The resignation of the Struthers' Baseball team from the City League was received at a meeting held last night, and the vacancy thus created was filled by the selection of the Carletons, a team supposed to possess considerable strength, connected with the Carleton Athletic Association of East London. The withdrawal of the Struthers nine was not a surprise. For various reasons it was expected that it would not remain in the league this season. There were several other teams anxious to come into the league, and the choice of the Carletons was made as it was believed the team would do the best for the advancement of the game. The Carletons include some former members of the Toronto City League, it is said.

The committees are at work arranging for the season's play, and the prospects are said to be very encouraging. Coupon books containing twelve checks are to be issued at $1 apiece. The grounds are being put into shape, and practices will begin shortly. The use of the grounds for practice has been allotted as follows: Monday, Londons; Tuesday, St. John's; Wednesday, McClary's; Thursday, Carletons; Friday, Rockets. The Anchors have decided to practice on their own grounds in East London.

Besides dealing with a number of other matters the league last night approved of the constitution, which includes rules much the same as those of 1902, with the addition of a clause calling for strictly amateur play.

Those present were H. K. Kompass, president; H. B. Beal, secretary; Dr. Clark, treasurer; C. W. Smith, for the Anchors; Bert Sheere, for the Londons; Messrs. Herrick, Pirie and Barter, for McClarys; H. Smith, for St. John's; Messrs. Porter and Woodward, for the Rockets; A. E. Donovan, J. Halton and W. Stapleton for the Carletons.

The schedule for the season will be adopted at a meeting to be held on April 28.

AMERICAN LEAGUE OPENS WEDNESDAY

Most of Last Year's Players Have Been Re-Signed—The Official Roster.

On Wednesday the American League will start its third championship race as a major league. The club managers during the season of 1902 not only re-signed nearly all of the players desired for another season, but made a new assault upon the National League ranks, capturing fully a score of the best remaining star talent in that organization. As a result, the teams which showed weakness last year will be strengthened, thus assuring another close and exciting race for 1903. The only change in the line-up of clubs is the substitution of New York for Baltimore. Following is a correct and official roster of the American League teams as they will enter the race this year:

Athletic — Manager, Connie Mack; catchers, Schreckengost and Powers; pitchers, Plank, Waddell, Wilson, Husting, Atwood, Bender, Quinn, Everett; infielders H. Davis, Murphy, M. Cross, L. Cross; outfielders, Hartzell, Pickering, Seybold, Hoffman; substitute, Wittig.

Boston—Manager, James Collins; catchers, Criger and Farrell; pitchers, Young, Dineen, Winters, Hughes, Altrock, Gibson; infielders, Lachance, Ferris, Parent, Collins, O'Brien; outfielders, Dougherty, Stahl, Freeman, Stone.

Chicago—Manager, James J. Callahan; catchers, Sullivan and McFarland; pitchers, Patterson, Caliahan, White, Durham, Flaherty, Dunkle; infielders, Isbell, Daley, Davis, H. Gleason, Tannehill; outfielders, Green, F. Jones, E. Jones, Odwell, W. Hallman.

Cleveland—Manager W. A. Armour; catchers, Bemis and Abbott; pitchers, Bernhard, Wright, Joss, Moore, Hill, Walker, Hess, Dorner, Pounds; infielders, Hickman, Lajoie, Gochnauer, Bradley; outfielders, McCarthy, Bay, Flick.

Detroit—Manager Ed Barrow; catchers, McAlister, Lilley and Buelow; pitchers, Donovan, Kitson, Mullin, Deering and Eason; infielders, Carr, Turner, G. Smith, Elberfield, Yeager; outfielders, Crawford, Barrett, Clement, Gessler.

New York—Manager, Clark Griffith; catchers, O'Connor and Beville; pitchers, Chesbro, Tannehill, Wiltse, Howell, Adkins; infielders, Ganzell, Williams, Long, Conroy, Dundon; outfielders, A. Davis, Fultz, Keeler, Courtney, M. McFarland.

St. Louis—Manager, James McAleer; catchers, Kahoe, Sugden; pitchers, Powell, Donahue, Sudhoff, Siever, Reidy; infielders, Anderson, Padden, Wallace, McCormick; outfielders, Hemphill, Heidrick, Friel, Burkett.

Washington—Manager, Tom Loftus; catchers, W. Clarke and Drill; pitchers, Orth, Townsend, Lee, Patten, Clark; infielders, Carey, Demontreville, C. Robinson, Moran, Coughlin; outfielders, Delehanty, Ryan, Selbach, Holmes, Martin.

The umpire staff this season will consist of Silk O'Loughlin, well-known in Toronto, Sheridan, Connelly, Caruthers and Hassett. This is considered the best corps yet employed by President Johnson.

The games on Wednesday are:
Boston at Philadelphia.
New York at Washington.
Cleveland at Detroit.
Chicago at St. Louis.

The use of electricity in every-day affairs is developing enormously in Great Britain. The usual price is 2½ cents per unit.

THERE IS ONLY ONE ECLECTRIC OIL.—When an article, be it medicine or anything else, becomes popular, imitations invariably spring up to derive advantages from the original, which they themselves could never win on their own merits. Imitations of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil have been numerous, but never successful. Those who know the genuine are not put off with a substitute, but demand the real thing.

MR. COUSE'S FATHER DEAD.

The death of Mr. Paul Couse, father of Mr. J. W. Couse, of this city, occurred at Belwood last week. He had lived in the neighborhood for the past 70 years. The farm on which he spent his lifetime he received in exchange for 200 acres of land near St. Thomas, which he received for services under Gen. Brock in the war of 1812. The late Mr. Couse was one of the most widely known men in the part of the country in which he lived, and his death will be regretted by all who knew him. He leaves eight children.

AGED LOBO RESIDENT DIES.

Mr. Duncan Ferguson died yesterday morning at his home in Lobo Township, where he had made many native Argyleshire, Scotland, and came to this country about the year 1843. He first settled near Ailsa Craig, later going to Lambton County. About twelve years ago he came to Lobo Township, where he had made many friends, and where he became one of the most respected residents. Mr. Ferguson was only serious ill three weeks, though he had not been well for nearly a year. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon, when services will be conducted by Rev. Colin Sinclair, of St. Thomas, and interment will be made at Poplar Hill Cemetery. His widow and the following sons and daughters survive him: Dougall, of Montana; Archibald, of Cleveland; John, at home; Mrs. J. J. Cameron, of Ferguson; Miss Maggie, of the Sarnia General Hospital, and Mrs. George Graham, of Lawrence Station, Kent County.

EVENING WITH ENOCH ARDEN.

A very delightful evening was provided by Miss Blackburn and Miss Morphy at Cronyn Hall last night, when they gave "Enoch Arden" with musical setting. Miss Morphy's rendering of the Strauss music was perfect. Richard Strauss, the Munich composer, who is the most-talked-of man in the musical world of Europe today, has given in his "Enoch Arden" music something that is most charming. The recital by Miss Blackburn and Miss Morphy was heard with much pleasure by the audience last evening, which frequently showed its appreciation.

LONDONER'S SUCCESS.

Mrs. Meade Adams is visiting her parents in this city prior to her leaving for Norwich, Conn., where Mr. Adams has secured an appointment as agent with the Central Vermont Railway. Mr. Adams was formerly of the freight department of the Grand Trunk in this city, and has latterly been in the general offices at Toronto. Before leaving Toronto his friends on the staff presented him with a beautiful silver tea service. The Central Vermont Railway, with which Mr. Adams has accepted a position, is superintended by Mr. W. E. Mullins, also a London Old Boy.

BOY'S NARROW ESCAPE.

The fender of a Hamilton road street car saved the life of a 3-year-old boy yesterday. The victim of the accident was the son of Mr. Martin Stearns, who lives at 338 Hamilton road. He was sent from his home to a relative's nearby, and instead of going along the sidewalk he wandered on to the road. Before the motorman on the street car, which was coming along quite rapidly, could stop his car, the little fellow was struck, fortunately landing on the fender. Instead of being killed, therefore, he got off with a few rather bad cuts on the head. Dr. Moore was called and dressed the wounds. He does not fear any serious results.

MAGNIFICENT DISPLAY OF CURIOS FROM ALL LANDS

Missionary Loan Exhibition Is a Big Enterprise.

Articles Are Shown From All Heathen Countries.

What will doubtless prove to be one of the most memorable religious enterprises that was ever conducted in this city was begun this afternoon, when the doors of the Missionary Loan Exhibition were opened to the public. For some time the members of the various Episcopal churches have been working hard preparing for this affair, and it must have been with a feeling of pride that they looked about the Masonic Temple today, where all is now in readiness. Not only are the various heathen lands represented by the articles brought from them, but the programme includes short talks by missionaries direct from the respective fields. Such an exhibition cannot fail to arouse the interest even of those who have never given a thought to missions. The arrangement of the various courts has been accomplished with a view to artistic effect and the pleasing appearance the room conveys at once to a person crossing the threshold, reflects credit upon those who arranged them.

THE COURT OF CHINA.

As one enters the room he sees right opposite the court of Japan and next to it the medical exhibit. To the right at the end of the hall is seen India in its gorgeousness, and nearer is the court of Africa. But first of all he comes to the court of China on the tour of inspection, beginning at left of the entrance. Those who have labored here have done well. Few probably realize until they see the products of this Mongolian land what beautiful things can come from there. All the allotted space of this court is used to advantage. Mrs. Waller and Miss Kibbe are in charge of this exhibit, assisted by a number of other ladies of different congregations. Most attractive here, perhaps, is the drape which hangs across the top of the court. It is not only an exquisite article, but it has a historical value that will interest all. It came from the Imperial Palace, the present residence of the Empress Dowager and was looted at the time of the Boxer troubles. The walls are draped with the royal ensign and the typical draperies of China, all marvelously worked in gold and silk. The exhibit is quite complete and contains such things as the idols and demons that are used by the Buddhists in their religion. Another article that came through the Boxer trouble is a money bag, about the size of a common potato bag of our own country. A weather-beaten door god is shown, one that was taken from the outside of a building which was afterwards converted into a Christian chaped. A goddess of mercy and other heathenish articles are shown in profusion.

THE COURT OF JAPAN.

Passing the platform where a handsome piano rests for the music that will be given during the exhibition, one comes to the court of Japan. This court contains as interesting articles as are to be found in this extensive exhibition. There are one or two things that are worth a visit to the affair, of themselves. As striking an article as any here is something in the antique—a coat of mail, which is over 400 years old. While coats of mail may appear to be primitive by the people of today, it must be said that the primeval people must have been experts in the manufacture of what they did make. This armor needs to be seen to be appreciated. This very valuable exhibit is the property of Mrs. John Wells, of this city. Mrs. Fred Harper has a portiere that will no doubt attract the attention not only of the ladies, but of every man who has an eye for the beautiful. It is an exquisite piece of embroidered cloth, fully 12x4 feet. It is blue, worked in gold. One of the things which has drawn particular attention since the opening is a clock. It is a perfect piece of mechanism and different from anything ever shown in this city, or, perhaps, in Canada. Its works are of solid gold, and on account of its antiquity as much as for its intrinsic value, the clock is very valuable. The fortunate possessor is Mr. J. D. Saunby. There are said to be only six of the kind in Japan that are known. Among the minor attractions are a polished steel mirror with carved back; an ancient sword; a goddess of mercy and other idols, while Japanese pictures and draperies are hung in a very pretty way by the ladies who have charge. Mrs. W. D. Brock and Mrs. (Dr.) Shaw have the assistance at this attractive court of Japan of a number of ladies who cannot but help make their portion of the exhibition a success. It might be said here that if there is one thing that is going to make the affair a success it will be the delightful courtesy that is shown by the ladies in every branch of the temple. They vie with one another to make their court the most attractive of all.

MEDICINE AND MOHAMMED.

Next to the exhibit of Japan, which one is rather loath to leave, comes the medical exhibit. This court is not so profuse in its works of art, but to those interested in the work of missions it will appeal as a very important factor. Principal Waller has charge of it and his knowledge of the subject will materially assist the making of this department one of much value to all who investigate. The humanitarian side of the work is so well depicted here that it attracts many who give little thought to what missionary work means. Charts are shown which give a very good idea of treatment in these foreign lands. Medical missions are proving to be the most valuable means of reaching many of the heathen and at the same time the missionaries are able to provide spiritual as well as physical help. The contrasts of the most modern of surgical instruments show, for instance, the urgency of establishing more of these missions.

The booth representative of the Mohammedan lands, is one that has already attracted considerable attention, chiefly through the exhibit here of some articles that are brought from Palestine, and which are of religious and historical value. For instance, there is a crown of thorns made by the monks at Jerusalem, which is said to be the counterpart of the crown that was placed on the head of our Saviour.

The articles of olive wood are most beautiful. All are polished as they could not be polished in America, showing wonderful skill. Passover bread made in Nazareth has an interest for many, while historically instructive are the models shown of the various biblical implements of agriculture. Not the least interesting is a copy of the Talmud and Koran, while all about the court are typical things that have come from the land of Mahommed. Mrs. Street is in charge of this department.

CANADA TO SOUTH AMERICA.

The Canadian flag has a place in the next court, for it represents the Indian missions of the far Northwest. Two ladies have charge of this—Miss Stacey and Mrs. A. Nash. While some of the articles shown are more familiar than those of the other courts there are some things which it is safe to say no one has seen in this city before. One of these is a waterproof garment made for an infant from the entrails of a seal. A number of primitive utensils are shown, some of the exhibits being from as far north as the Herschell Islands in the Arctic Circle.

Before the other two very interesting courts are reached in the main hall, there are a couple of booths in an adjoining room that will be seen on the tour of inspection. The first is the exhibit of the Bible Society, at which are shown Bibles in over a hundred languages, and the second is the exhibit of the South American representative. Mr. Harry Watson, who has been in Paraguay for two years, is attending to this court. The native dress and the weapons of warfare are all of an individuality that shows that they are from the western hemisphere, and the earliest Indian things are shown. The devices used by the South Americans for killing people are shown. One that is attracting attention is the instrument with which the giri babies are killed, the custom being that all girls born before a boy in a family should be put to death.

FROM INDIA'S CORAL STRAND.

Coming again to the main room one finds himself gazing upon the splendor of India. Directly in the center is a case of figures, representing the different castes of India. Idols are numerous, among them being particularly the gods of music, supporting a gong. Most marvelous is the carving work. It hardly seems credible that such delicate work can be done as that which has been done by the natives, in ivory. One or two images of sacred elephants are deserving of attention in themselves. Carving is greatly in evidence, beautiful work being done by the natives in cocoanut shells, in copper, in marble, and in sandalwood. A Burmese Bible and the Koran reading desk are objects of considerable interest. The court has been hung in a most beautiful manner. The drapings are rich and costly.

DARKEST AFRICA.

The last exhibit in the round that has been made is one different from all the rest. It represents Africa. The majority of the articles are the property of Mr. Hill, who is present. He was a missionary in Africa for seven years. Mrs. W. F. Green has charge of the court. The walls here are hung with skins of various wild animals, and give the court a very pretty appearance. The interesting articles include a model of a boat used by the natives of Uganda, that is built without nails or modern tools. The fetish doctor in Africa is one who claims the power of charm. He is different from the rest of the people. His garments are not only queer, but they are woven upon him and cannot be taken off. An outfit is included in this exhibit. The slave manacles are articles of interest. They were used something like the stocks were in England centuries ago. Some antique table mats are the property of Mrs. May Thornley. Her grandfather was the first missionary to go up the Zambesi River and these mats he got as early as 1818. Peculiar water pipes are shown with many distinctly African articles. One of the exhibits is a New Testament printed in Umundu.

THE AIM OF THE EXHIBITION.

The above is but a brief survey of all that is to be seen at the exhibition. It will, therefore, be seen what an educational feature it is, along not only the lines of religious, but philosophic study. The main object, of course, is spiritual. The church aims through this means of increasing the interest taken in missionary work. If only the expenses are paid they will be satisfied from the financial standpoint. What is desired is to have the urgency of the mission work brought prominently before the public, and it is a question whether anything has ever been thought of that will do so in a better manner than by the means now being taken by the Anglican churches of this city. This is the third missionary loan exhibition that has been held in Canada. The idea has been exploited in England and has proved a remarkably successful means of bringing about the desired end. Toronto and Halifax are the only places which have been before London in the enterprise and at both places excellent results have been attained.

Pe-ru-na as a Nerve and Catarrh Tonic, the Talk of the World.

MR. ENDORE LARUE.

Mr. Endore Larue, President of Club of Baseball, 376 Lagauchetiere, Montreal, Canada, writes:

"I have found Peruna well worthy of praise and confidence as a tonic and a general rejuvenator to a worn-out system. I take it every spring and fall, and find it keeps me in perfect health and a few doses when I contract a slight cold will soon drive it out of the system. I unhesitatingly give this testimonial as I feel that Peruna is well worthy."—Endore Larue.

Mrs. W. E. Grissom, Henry, Ellis County, Texas, writes:

"I took Peruna faithfully over two months, and the result is a thoroughly renovated system and a strong, buoyant feeling, to say nothing of a cure of the chronic catarrh. Therefore I shall avail myself of every opportunity to speak of Peruna as a catarrh cure."—Mrs. W. E. Grissom.

Catarrh is a systemic disease, curable only by a systemic treatment. A remedy that cures catarrh must aim directly at the depressed nerve centers. This is what Peruna does. Peruna immediately invigorates the nerve centers which give vitality to the mucous membranes. Then catarrh disappears. Then catarrh is permanently cured.

Peruna cures catarrh wherever located. Peruna is not a guess nor an experiment—it is an absolute scientific certainty. Peruna has no substitutes—no rivals. Insist upon having Peruna.

A free book written by Dr. Hartman on the subject of catarrh in its different phases and stages will be sent free to any address by The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio.

Peruna is for sale at all first-class drug stores at $1 per bottle.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

"THE STORY OF HAGAR"

Musicianly Little Cantata at St. Andrew's Church.

Organist Wheeler and His Splendid Choir Do Themselves Credit.

The story of Hagar is one of the most appealing in Bible history. From the half pathetic, half weird account in Genesis xvi. and xvii., Rev. Dr. Johnston, with a few well-chosen verses, has furnished the words for a very musicianly little cantata by Mr. Charles E. Wheeler, which was given in St. Andrew's Church last night. While not an elaborate effort, the work is bright, tuneful and original, and is very painstakingly scored for soli, chorus and organ. If the cantata is reminiscent at times, as in numbers 6 and 10, of better-known works, it is hardly surprising, since Mr. Wheeler has ventured into a field already well explored. His work, however, is promising enough to commend interest for any subsequent one he may undertake. If a selection might be made, No. 3, a ladies' trio; No. 13, soprano solo, and No. 14, choral, appealed to the audience as being exceptionally melodious and well written, reflecting Mr. Wheeler's ability and thorough musical education.

Mrs. Clyde Green, the visiting mezzo-soprano, pleased her audience very much. Her voice is smooth, full and resonant, and despite a method faulty in the upper register particularly, she is a singer who can command attention. It was the first appearance in London of Mr. David Ross, and of him it can be said that he will improve on acquaintance. His style is smooth and yet robust, and would probably be well suited to oratorio work rather than sacred song, pure and simple. He will be welcome again. The local soloists need no comment, other than that they sang with their usual and well-known finish.

St. Andrew's choir was well-trained and handled, both as regards attack and shading and dynamics. Mr. Wheeler is too thorough a musician to have overlooked, except by accident, the fact that at times the organ obtained a trifle too great prominence, while the chorus, by sometimes forgetting the golden maxim, "sing on the breath," produced a tone occasionally metallic and not sustained. For volume of tone and spirited rendition, though, the choir is of the best.

Mr. Wheeler is one of our most thorough musicians. His work is always conscientiously done, and last night he sustained his reputation both at organ and with his choir. The church, needless to say, was crowded. In addition to the cantata, the following miscellaneous programme was given:

"He Was Despised" ("Messiah")..Handel
Mrs. Clyde Green.
"Barcarolle" (organ) .....Dethier
Mr. Charles E. Wheeler.
"The New Jerusalem".....W. C. Hammond
