THE HOUSE AND LEVEL CROSSINGS.

Trains Limited to Ten Miles an Hour in Passing Certain Specified Crossings.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Ottawa, May 11.—The House of Commons this morning considered the protection of life at level crossings amended in several respects.

10 miles an hour until protection is provided according to Railway Commission, and that when the commission has made an order for protection of the crossings trains should not run over that crossing at a greater speed than 10 miles an hour until the board's order has been complied with.

Mr. Lennox objected to the Railway Commission having a free hand in assessing municipalities and urged the inclusion of a provision in the bill limiting contributions of municipalities.

ARE TAKING SOME NOTICE.

Greater Hamilton's Boom is Being Observed All Over.

To show how the Greater Hamilton Movement is being noticed abroad, the following is reproduced from the Sign of the Times, a publicity journal published in Cincinnati.

More than fifty prominent citizens, enthusiastic boosters and optimists in the future greatness of Hamilton, Canada, met on Wednesday afternoon, April 14th, 1909, at the Board of Trade Rooms, elected officers, approved of a constitution and heard, with satisfaction, of the progress already made in the "boosting" campaign, which it is expected will set a pace for civic progress rivaling any Canadian City.

The election closed with the following result: John Hoodless, President; John Patterson, First Vice-President; George C. Copley, Second Vice-President; Thomas W. Watkins, Third Vice-President; Stanley Mills, Treasurer, and C. A. Murton, Secretary.

SOMETHING NEW IN KINRADE CASE

Col. Warburton and Wife (Miss Elliott), Found in Alexandria, Ind. --Important Letters in Hands of Authorities.

Montreal Despatch Says Mrs. and Miss Kinrade Have Left For Portland, En Route For England--Others All Here.

That Col. Warburton and Marion Elliott, two of the mysterious persons told about at the inquest by Miss Florence Kinrade, are real living people is the belief now of members of the local detective department. Only a few days ago they were looked upon as mythical individuals.

The Provincial detective department will at once investigate the story from Alexandria, and if the couple are the man and woman told of by Miss Kinrade, some new light may be obtained.

WHAT WILL AUTHORITIES DO? On the decision of Premier Whitney's Cabinet, which meets in the Parliament buildings this afternoon to consider the recommendation made by the Crown representatives, rests the question of whether the important step, vaguely hinted at in the press during the past week, is to be taken.

Leaving For Eng.?

Montreal, May 11.—It is believed here that Florence Kinrade, the central figure in the Hamilton murder inquest, along with her mother and Montrose Wright, her fiancé, left this city this morning on the 8.30 train for Portland, Maine, and it is presumed it is the parties' intention to leave for England on a Dominion Line steamer which sails tomorrow.

REPORT CONFIRMED.

Montreal, May 11.—Florence Kinrade, who, accompanied by her mother and her fiancé, Montrose Wright, the divinity student, has been staying at the Queen's Hotel here since yesterday morning, left here on the 8.30 train for Portland, Maine. The Kinrades were positively identified at the railway station by A. J. Ferson, a commercial traveller from western Ontario, who knows the family intimately.

The Kinrades were positively identified at the railway station by A. J. Ferson, a commercial traveller from western Ontario, who knows the family intimately.

Ministers sanction the recommendations made by George Tate Blackstock, the Crown examiner, and the alienists, decisive action will be at once taken.

BY NAME OF LACHLAND.

If Florence Kinrade, her mother, and Florence's fiancé, Clair Montrose Wright, are in Montreal, as reported in the Times yesterday, they are registered under assumed names.

The trio, who carried only hand baggage and had apparently no trunks with them, went to the ladies' waiting room, and there held a brief conference as if discussing plans.

They walked slowly along St. James street, and about Inspector Street were lost to observation for a time, but afterwards they turned, retraced their steps and were seen to enter the Queen's Hotel.

No names corresponding to theirs appeared on the Queen's register, but shortly before noon the young man and young woman came out of the Queen's and crossed over to the station, where they made enquiries of a member of the ticket agency staff regarding the summer resorts of the province.

Having got this information, they were seen to re-enter the Queen's Hotel. The members of the station staff are most positive regarding the identity of the Kinrade party, the features of all being familiar from their portraits which appeared in the newspapers during the trial.

"You see that party of three in front, that is Florence Kinrade, her mother, and Wright, the sweetheart of Florence. They have come to Montreal for a few days, they say."

OTHER MEMBERS HERE. All the other members of the Kinrade family are in Hamilton. As stated in "Continued on Page 10."

MRS. JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, SR., Who has been dangerously ill at Hot Springs, Va.

EDWARD HUGHES GAVE HIMSELF UP.

Is Alleged to be the Man Who Assaulted Henry Buswell on New Year Day.

At last the citizens of Hamilton are to see a mystery solved. Edward Hughes, 106 Market street, the young man accused of assaulting Henry Buswell on New Year's Day and inflicting injuries upon him which, it was feared at first, might result in his death, walked into the police station this morning and gave himself up.

The assault occurred about 3 o'clock on the morning of New Year's Day. Buswell, together with his wife and a party of friends, were returning home across the Market square and along King William street, when one of a gang of young men standing on the sidewalk made an insulting remark to Mrs. Buswell.

Mr. Buswell resented this, and went back to protest. The gang waited until he got up to them, and then he received a fearful blow. Mr. Buswell's party seeing the state of affairs hurried to his assistance, but too late, the gang took to their heels, and nothing more was seen of them.

Mr. Buswell was taken to the hospital in the ambulance, and for several days he was not expected to live. He finally recovered, and after staying in town for a short time left to take a position out of town. Before leaving the warrant had been made out for Hughes, and Buswell was very anxious that he be arrested.

Some weeks ago one of the city detectives is alleged to have gone to the residence of Mrs. Buswell, who remained in Hamilton, and she says, offered her $100 to drop the case against Hughes, who was in New York at the time. Mrs. Buswell wrote to her husband, but he instructed her to refuse the offer, which Mrs. Buswell did the next time the officer called. Complaint was made to the Police Commissioners and an investigation was held, the result of which was never given out.

Chief Smith, in an interview with the Times at the time of the investigation, said that the officer had been merely doing his duty, as he was instructed by the department, but that Mrs. Buswell had misunderstood him.

It was told to go down and see if any person had offered Mrs. Buswell money to drop the charge," said the chief.

Hughes disappeared shortly after the assault, and nothing was heard of him until this morning. He presented a rather prepossessing appearance as he stood in the prisoners' dock. He is about twenty years of age, fair, rather good looking, well dressed, and has not the appearance of a man one would think would be mixed up in such a scrape.

Speaking to the reporters later on, Mr. Kerr said the defendant had a strong case, and could likely clear himself.

Another tyled door investigation to find out who gave the tip before that house was raided.

Toronto has a big revival every year or so. But I don't notice much improvement in its morals or walk and conversation.

Did you read in last evening's Times what the Greater Hamilton Association stands for? You are wanted to help in the good work. Get your membership card and fall into line. Mr. Murton needs the assistance of you all.

I am afraid the agricultural editor of the Herald did not know what he was talking about when he said the rain made the "farmers laugh." The fact is the farmers are almost crying over it. Work is at a standstill and the season is very backward.

What Hamilton will be five or ten years from now depends very much upon what the Hamilton people do in the meantime. A city is like a business. To grow it requires steady, persistent and intelligent effort to build it up. It needs push and hustle behind it, with proper publicity. Many of the large cities on the other side have found this out, and have gone into the business with energy and snap and go, and have been rewarded with the greatest success.

They have set a mark to be aimed at—a high mark. Some have got there, others are getting there. Now, what other cities have done Hamilton can do. It has got all the advantages. For situation it cannot be beaten. Its railway facilities are of the best. The district it lies in is perhaps the most fruitful in Canada. It has electric power superior to anything in Canada. It has reached such a position that it cannot now be kept back. But its citizens—its business men, as well as its workers—can accelerate its growth if they will. Now the Greater Hamilton Association has been organized to help Hamilton grow; 100,000 population is wanted. You are asked to come and give your best effort to help. It is your work just as much as anybody else's. Don't say you haven't time or that others can do it. Nobody but yourself can do your share. If you are patriotic and loyal to Hamilton you will not hesitate to do your best, whatever that is. Come on in and register; then take off your coat and hustle.

Mrs. J. H. Robinson, 19 John street north, will receive this Thursday, and not again until the fall.

Three Got Off

Duluth, Minn., May 11.—F. R. Goodnow, captain of the steamer Berlin, and Fred Reno and Lester Elmer, special police officers, were released last night by a Coroner's jury in Superior, Wis. The men were charged with complicity in the killing of James O'Rourke, a union seaman, on board the Berlin, when the latter arrived in port Saturday night with coal.

FELLOW OF THE U. OF C.

Rev. Chester New, of This City, Wins Scholastic Honors.

High scholastic honors have again come to Hamilton, the winner being Rev. Chester New, nephew of Mr. Henry New, with whom the young man lived prior to taking charge of the Baptist Church at Ridgetown. Rev. Mr. New has been granted a fellowship for church history in the University of Chicago. It is worth $500 a year, and will give him the privilege of a post-graduate course at the same time.

Mr. New has already had a brilliant scholastic career. He received his primary and Collegiate Institute courses in Hamilton, graduated in arts at the University of Toronto, and took his divinity course, with the degree of B. D., at McMaster University.

It is Mr. New's intention to remain at his present charge in Ridgetown throughout the summer, and take his place in the University of Chicago in October.

His many friends here bespeak for him still greater things.

Best Always.

GOES TO ERIE.

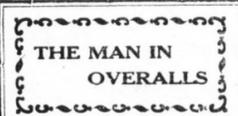

Vernon Carey Engaged as Soloist in U. S. City.

Hamilton is to lose another of its brilliant singers, who is going to another city to uphold the laurels of this musical city. This time the singer happens to be that favorite tenor, Mr. Vernon Carey; the place he is going to is Erie, Pa., and to the Central Presbyterian Church. He is taking the place left vacant by the resignation of Mr. Chryslar Brown, who was so well and favorably known here. Mr. Brown has gone to New York, and the Erie people were of the opinion that they could do no better than come back to Hamilton again, and they did. Mr. Carey's education has been most thorough, and he has a pleasing appearance and an excellent voice. He will leave in the second week in August, and will take up his duties as choirmaster and tenor soloist on September 1st.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

Join the Greater Hamilton Association and boom your own city. Oh, yes, we will have some nice weather yet.

Mr. James Boyle, the kidnapper, has been sentenced to life imprisonment. Let us hope, with my Irish friend, that he will live long enough to serve out his sentence.

The new City Engineer will not find it necessary to flush the sewers. The rain has done that.

The prospective June brides are beginning to pick out their trousseaus, and the grooms are counting their money.

I haven't yet given up the idea of this city having an annual exhibition. I think there is room for it in this neighborhood.

This free car ride proposition of Stanley Mills & Co.'s should set the other business men thinking what they can do to advertise Hamilton and their own business.

How are the boys of the public schools making out with the medium Spencerian style of penmanship? I don't hear much jubilation over the change.

Mr. Editor—How long can a pewholder in the Gore Park keep his seat? Can he hold it all day or must he get up and let another sit down, say, at the end of a half hour or hour? Can't tell. Ask George Wild.

Perhaps a dose of what the kidnappers got would be good medicine for the bicycle thieves.

The drowning season has now fairly opened. But not without some cases of real bravery in efforts to save life, which helped to lighten the gloom.

The Frost Wire Fence people have certainly confidence in the future of Hamilton.

Constance rose, holding Arol's hand. She was pale and looked tired. Then Lord Elliot spoke again of the drive.

"Say yes," he pleaded, as she moved toward the door. Her lips moved; she found it difficult to speak. He saw, though he did not understand, her emotion.

"You are tired and unwell," he said in a low, anxious voice. "And I will not worry you. Forgive me. If you knew Miss Grahame--"

Constance held out her hand, and just managed to murmur "Good-night." (To be Continued.)

Detroit Contractors Cannot Have Civic Contracts in Windsor.

Windsor, Ont., May 11.—The City Council last night reaffirmed its stand against Detroit contractors and Detroit labor being permitted to have municipal contracts in Windsor. Todd & Co. had secured a ten thousand dollar contract for sidewalks to be laid in the city this summer, their bid being several hundred dollars below the next lowest one. It was alleged that Mr. Todd was connected with a Detroit firm, and the intention at first was to re-advertise, but after a long discussion the contract was allowed to stand with the proviso that it become void if it was found later that any Detroit firm was interested in it.

MISS KRAFT

Broke Down When She Met Her Brother in Jail.

Windsor, Ont., May 11.—Disappointed in her hope that the Richard Kraft, who shot up the Windsor police station and wounded three persons when arrested for stealing a bicycle last Friday was not her brother, Miss Kraft, of Berlin, broke down completely when she faced her kin in the Sandwich jail yesterday. The meeting between the brother and sister was found later that the shock would be fatal to his mother. Miss Kraft told the police that her parents had considerable social distinction in Germany, but had lived quietly since coming to this country. The prisoner is an only son, and has caused them some anxiety in the past. All Kraft's victims are improving rapidly.

HAINS JURY IS NOW OUT.

Both Sides Expect a Favorable Verdict in the Case.

Counsel for the Prisoner and Judge Address the Jury.

Trial May Result in Hains Going to Insane Asylum.

Flushing, L. I., May 11.—The case against Peter C. Hains, jun., charged with the murder of Wm. E. Annis, was expected when court opened to-day to be given to the jury by noon.

Ex-District Attorney George A. Gregg, who had not finished his summing up of the State's case when court adjourned yesterday, expected to conclude his argument in about an hour, after which the charge of Justice Garretson to the jury will be in order. The Judge has announced that this would occupy about an hour. Anxiety as to the verdict of the jury prevailed among the counsel for both State and the defence before the opening of the court.

John F. McIntyre, of counsel for Capt. Hains, said that from his study of the jury he was certain that eight of its members would vote for acquittal, while the remaining four were doubtful. District Attorney Dewitt said that he expected a conviction.

In the event of Capt. Hains' acquittal on the grounds of insanity at the time he shot Annis, the case would be referred to the Board of Insanity at the Yacht Club last August, the question of his present mental state arises. Mr. McIntyre has not hesitated to say that he believes his client is insane at the present time. Should Justice Garretson share this belief, he might issue an order for the defendant to be confined in a State institution for the insane until he is pronounced cured.

Resuming his remarks to the jury to-day, Mr. Gregg read from the testimony of the defence's alienists in which they state the defendant was suffering from "impulsive insanity" when he shot Annis and that the attack subsided as soon as the act was committed.

"Now what kind of insanity do you call that?" said the prosecutor. "I ask you to use your own good common sense in determining whether this man was insane on Aug. 15, 1908."

Gen. Hains and Mrs. Hains, the defendant's parents, came into court soon after Mr. Gregg resumed his remarks.

The prosecutor declared that General Hains and Thornton Hains had taken refuge behind the answer, "I don't remember," while under cross-examination.

"We could never get any of the rational speeches of Capt. Hains out of them," said Mr. Gregg. "Only the glassy eyes, the twitching face and the shuffling walk."

Mr. Gregg finished his argument at 12:40 a. m.

In the delivery of the charge of Justice Garretson, "but there was no intention of the evidence in the case, and warned the jurors against being swayed one way or the other by their sympathies."

The jury has the right, from the records, to find an intent to kill," said Justice Garretson, "but there must not only be an intent, but also a premeditated and deliberate design to kill." The court defined murder in the first and second degree and manslaughter. He said there was nothing in the record on which the jury would assume that the defendant's act was justifiable or excusable.

"Is there premeditation in this case?" asked the court. "That is for you to decide after a careful study of all the evidence. If you find no premeditation it is your duty to consider whether the defendant's act comes within the definition of murder in the second degree."

"One may be guilty of manslaughter in the first degree who kills on the impulse of the moment in the heat of passion or because of a peculiar set of circumstances which confront him."

Justice Garretson defined a reasonable doubt, and said it must be a mere impression, but a moral certainty of the doubt.

THE JURY OUT. The Hains case was given to the jury at 12:05 p. m.

PURE MILK FOR BABIES.

Board of Health is Working Out a Good Plan.

Prevention of Tuberculosis Convention Here Next Week.

Street Railway Co. Will Not Delay Barton St. Work.

A business-like effort will be made by the Board of Health this year to lessen the appalling death rate among infants in the hot summer months.

During July and August of last year nearly a hundred of them died and in a majority of cases the doctors declare death was due to the milk supply and improper feeding. The plan mapped out by a sub-committee of the Board of Health last night, it is believed, will cut the death rate in half and the cost will not exceed $1,000. It is proposed to select a farm, where the surroundings are all that could be desired, and arrange for a milk supply. A nurse or inspector will be appointed to see that the milk is carefully handled, properly bottled and delivered in the city at some central station. It will be sold at actual cost. The slogan will be "Pure Milk for Babies," and five thousand booklets with instructions on how to feed babies will be distributed. The Board of Health emphasizes the fact that it is not going into competition with any of the milk dealers. The milk to be sold under its supervision will likely cost a little more than the milk delivered around the city. The Finance Committee of the City Council will be asked to supply part of the funds. The Hamilton Medical Association is heartily in sympathy with the movement and has appointed a committee to act with the Board of Health.

In connection with the annual convention of the Canadian Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis which will be held on Wednesday and Thursday of next week, Dr. Roberts, Medical Health Officer, is anxious to arrange to have the Ontario tuberculosis exhibit shown here. If sufficient funds can be raised to secure the Bennett Theatre for Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, the exhibit will be secured. The management of the theatre has offered the use of the house at the cost of opening it. The idea is to have an illustrated lecture each afternoon and evening, the lectures from the Public Schools attending in the afternoon. The exhibit itself would be displayed in the City Hall or some central place and the children after hearing the lecture would be able to appreciate it. In Montreal last year this exhibit was shown and attracted a great deal of attention. Whether it can be secured for Hamilton depends on the generosity of some of the citizens.

If the scheme to take in the Jockey Club grounds with the other portion of Barton township east of Sherman avenue, which it is expected will shortly be annexed, materializes, the city will be in a position to get considerable more revenue than if only the territory first proposed was taken in. It is believed that the city could collect a license fee from the Jockey Club, and from the Maple Leaf Amusement Company, in ad-

NATURAL GAS.

Windsor to Get a Supply From the Fields at Tilbury.

Windsor, Ont., May 11.—The Windsor Gas Co., it is declared, has entered into an agreement to get a supply of natural gas from the Volcanic Oil & Gas Co. in the Tilbury fields, and is prepared to guarantee that gas will be delivered through its mains by the beginning of December. It is proposed to charge a flat rate of 25 cents a 1000 cubic feet for cooking and lighting during the winter months, and 30 cents in the summer months. Arrangements will be made to purify the gas for lighting by the use of individual purifiers.

THE HAMILTON TIMES

TUESDAY, MAY 11, 1909.

THOSE BY-LAWS.

Last night the aldermen took the final steps to submit the Power, Board of Control and Hospital by-laws to the ratepayers on June 7. There has been a little thinking done by the aldermen since the beginning of the year, and as a result, the feeling of the Council seems to be strongly in favor of the popular acceptance of the power contract made with the local company. Doubtless, some of the aldermen have been informing themselves upon the subject of electrical supply and what it costs in various parts of the world; and a study of the figures as compared with those prevailing in Hamilton has been enlightening and prejudice-dispelling. One after another, Mayor and aldermen, frankly expressed their appreciation of the many advantages of the local contract, and their belief that it would be very unwise to attempt to establish competition under the circumstances. Obviously the only reasons that the majority of the aldermen insist upon a popular vote on the question is to preserve the appearance of consistency to the convention for which they stood and to carry out the action, which has seemed to gain ground greatly in late years, that a City Council should deal with no matters save those of but trivial moment without submitting them to popular vote. At any rate there seems to be a remarkable consensus of opinion that the power-by-law secured by Hamilton is, as one alderman put it, "the best in the world." We believe that it will be hard to find a better, and that, as we have always contended, its results will be far more beneficial to Hamilton than could be hoped for from any blind plunge into socialistic ownership and operation competition—which might, indeed, involve us in serious loss. At the same time as this contract is voted upon a plebiscite will be taken on the Hydro-Electric scheme. We think it should have been made clear in the submission of this plebiscite that a year vote would entail the assumption of a very large liability on the part of the ratepayers and the tying up of the city to a monopoly contract of 30 years.

As to the Board of Control by-law, it involves an important addition to the expense and machinery of our municipal Government. It is not without points in its favor. The system is capable of yielding good results in the hands of good men. If the men are not of the superior stamp required for the positions we have the additional expense and machinery to cause complications without realizing the possible advantages of the situation. Perhaps it would not be fair to charge to the Board of Control system the follies and failures of the municipal government of our sister city of Toronto. The short-sightedness, narrow-mindedness and bungling which marks the municipal Government of the Provincial Capital is more probably due to the Toronto habit of mind and to the men to whose business judgment (the affairs of the city are entrusted) than to any inherent weakness in the board of control system. If our people adopt this system, it should be their ambition to firmly exclude political partisanship from the municipal field and to earnestly seek to obtain for the Council the best business talent available. Only on such lines can we hope to realize the best results in any form of municipal government.

FITS THE CRIME.

The Pennsylvania Court that tried the Whitla kidnapping case sentenced the principal in the crime to prison for life, and the woman who took so prominent a part in it to twenty-five years in prison, a $5,000 fine and the costs of the process. We may probably with safety omit the fine and costs from the consideration, as being uncollectable. The State can afford to bear the costs of the case if the result of the trial is to discourage kidnapping as a short-cut to wealth. The crime is one of the most atrocious, and in the opinion of many merits a death sentence. Let it once be known, however, that all the energies of society will be bent to the capture and punishment of such criminals, and that such salutary sentences will not only be pronounced on the guilty, but will be carried into effect, and the results will be good. There is still an element of mystery in the Whitla case, and it is believed that the man and woman convicted could, if they choose to do so, cast such light upon the matter as would lead to the conviction of the third party behind the scenes. They, however, maintained silence during the trial and acted defiantly. Long years in prison cells may bring about a change of heart.

SAFETY IN TRAVEL.

For the second time since 1877 the British railways have closed a year without the killing of a single passenger in train accidents. In 1901 a similar record was made. In that year 1,172,385,000 passenger journeys were made exclusive of travel by season ticket holders. Of all this vast multitude, not one was killed, and only 476 were injured. But excellent as was the record of 1901, that of 1908 is better. The number of passengers carried is estimated at 1,250,000,000, exclusive of the travel of season ticket holders; of this number not one was killed and only 283 injuries were reported. Some people on this side of the water are fond of gibing at the British people as slow. The gibe is unwarranted. They have nothing to learn from this continent in the matter of fastness of trains; and they certainly set us a standard of safety in the handling of their traffic. It is interesting to note while considering this matter that the Home Office has just issued a report in which it is stated that in 1908 there occurred in England and Wales in the seven months ending December 31, 17,973 street accidents of which 746 were fatal. The classification is as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Category and Fatal count. Includes Motor cars and cycles, Motor omnibuses, Horse-drawn Omnibuses, Other horse-drawn vehicles, Horse-drawn trams, Mechanically-propelled train cars.

Perhaps the feature which will most strike the reader in this presentation is the large proportion of accidents caused by motor vehicles. It is pointed out that the number of casualties in London streets causing death or injury rose from 9,200 in 1897 to 17,055 in 1907, and in the three years ended with 1907 the number of fatalities increased from 155 to 283, or four deaths in every five days. Terrible as such a record is, it compares most favorably with the records of great United States cities. The problem of safeguarding the public amid the rush of traffic in a great metropolis is a most serious one. In the matter of railway travel, however—the average Briton seems to enjoy an enviable degree of safety, not often reached outside of the railway property.

WHAT IS "BOOKMAKING"?

The appellate division of New York State Supreme Court rendered judgment last week in the betting case before it. The judgment is particularly important as defining what Judge Gaynor holds "bookmaking" to be as affected by the anti-race track gambling laws of the State, to render ineffective which the gambling fraternity has spent so much money. Briefly stated, the effect of this judgment is to hold that the prohibition of the anti-race track gambling legislation does not apply to an oral bet that is not placed on record, but that just as soon as a memorandum or entry of a betting transaction is made, the law against bookmaking becomes operative. This clear declaration occurs in the judgment.

There can be no bookmaking without writing or recording. The word in betting and as used in the penal code implies the use of a book, or sheets of paper, or a bulletin board, or some such thing. This is the genesis of the word. It is not necessary to enter upon a precise definition, no facts of writing or recording being alleged. The case is to be carried to the Court of Appeal at once, it being felt desirable to get a decision of that body. Meanwhile it would appear that the verbal bet will not come under the law. The betting fraternity do not, however, seem to regard the judgment as helping their case much. Burke, the president of the organization that is fighting the Hughes anti-gambling laws, expresses himself as hoping for little from the judgment. "Beyond making it possible for two friends to make a little wager without being bothered by the police, I don't see where it is going to help the sport much. It will help the small end of the game, but it won't benefit the large end," he says. A leading racing man is quoted as saying:

"Don't take any stock in the Hughes stuff," said a racing man, who asked that his name be withheld. "The fact is that the decision will benefit the bookmakers very little should they decide to open up again in this State. Under the verbal system every bookmaker would be at the mercy of the better. It would simply be taking a man's word and a desperate chance. The men whose word we are willing to take have always placed their bets that way, but we couldn't take a chance on the small better. And the small better helps a whole lot."

A great variety of opinion is expressed, but on the whole the decision is disappointing to the craft. Even should the Appeal Court take a similar view of the law, the result would but be to permit private, verbal wagering between individuals. The big bookmaking interests would not be in any degree relieved of the legal penalties incurred by recording bets.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Well, Gipsy Smith has a grand field in which to work when he tackles "Toronto the Good."

"To Settle a Bet"—Wm. Jennings Bryan lectured in Toronto on "Bi-metalism" in 1897. The date was June 4th.

Hamilton fire brigade does not appear to be losing its reputation as a training school for chiefs for the brigades of the Province.

Remember, when you find a lot of frolicking dogs destroying your lawns and flower beds, that there is a by-law preventing their running at large.

Australia is going to follow Canada's lead and manufacture its own rifles for the defence force of the country. Wonder if the patriotic work will be as bitterly opposed as it was in Canada?

Hon. George E. Foster is reported to have characterized the National Transcontinental Railway project as "a wild goose scheme." Mr. Foster may have reason ere long to wish that these attacks might be forgotten.

If Hazen does not take action in the courts against Pugsley the people will be justified in suspecting him of being a party to a shameful plot to besmirch the Minister of Public Works by prostituting the powers of the Provincial Government to slander and falsehood.

Why do not the Tory organs and managers which are so severe in their verbal abuse of Hon. Mr. Pugsley in connection with that Hazen Commission report induce the Hazen Government to take the logical course and follow it with a prosecution in the courts? Why?

The transactions of the Civic Fuel Committee seem to require a great deal of explanation each year. Perhaps, however, we can afford to pay more for our coal when it is purchased from outside and handled by the city than if we patronized our home dealers!

Lloyd-George's new budget is a pretty steep one, but it is rendered necessary by the demands of the socialists on one hand, and jingoes on the other. Have you marked how quickly there came a change in the jingo song when they found that they were going to have to help to pay the bills?

The supplementary estimates brought down yesterday are the smallest in many years, totalling only $1,016,689, of which $83,589 is chargeable to capital account. With the close parring down of the estimates, and an increasing revenue, Mr. Fielding looks forward to good results next year.

Secretary James A. Wilson, of the United States Department of Agriculture, is very severe on Patten and his fellow speculators in wheat. He declares that Patten is not a merchant, and that the present prices of wheat are artificial and due to a corner. He asserts the accuracy of the Government crop reports.

The British Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants had in 1908 a membership of 80,321. This is a reduction of 17,240 from the figures of 1907, due to the establishment of conciliation boards and boards of arbitration, which has given the men confidence that they will receive fair treatment. The total number of railway employees in the United Kingdom is placed at 621,341.

The 4,000 "heirs" of Anneke Jans Bogardus are said to be organizing to make an attempt to recover 192 acres of the richest part of New York City, which they seem to think they should have by virtue of their descent from that lady. Well, a clever lot of lawyers ought to be able to take up quite a substantial contribution from 4,000 persons who enthusiastically seek such a fortune.

Toronto City Council yesterday decided to petition the Parliament of Canada for "some more immediate and practical action this session on behalf of the people of Canada in developing a permanent naval policy." The magnificent capacity for administering city affairs, which has been displayed by the Toronto Council, gives its instructions to Parliament very much the appearance of a poor joke.

Toronto's burning eagerness to have Canada prove its "loyalty" to the Empire by some great expenditure of money for a navy, no matter what form it may take, not unreasonably attracts public attention to Toronto's failure to raise the small sum of money required for its much heralded monument to the Canadians who fell in South Africa. But when it comes to mouth devotion to the Empire, Toronto aldermen take the red ribbon.

OUR EXCHANGES

NO HYDRO GUARANTEE. (Brandford Examiner.) The Hydro Electric Commission should guarantee its prices as other power dealers have to do.

THE NEWLY MOVED. (Toronto Star.) Well, since you moved, how's everything? Is life at last complete? And do the newer neighbors bring in anything to eat?

WAS UNEXPECTED. (London Free Press.) A Hamilton cab driver who charged a passenger fifty cents more than the tariff has been sent to jail for two months without the option of a fine. Which proves that one can never tell where lightning will strike.

GUELPH'S TAXES. (Stratford Beacon.) The sooner Guelph gets its sinking fund straightened the better. Putting it off only keeps the rate temporarily lower. A higher rate might cause some little irritation at present, but if it does not come now it is sure to come later.

NOT UNCOMMON. (Kingston Whig.) A girl, healthy and pleasure-loving away from the restraints of home, among people as new to her as if citizens of another planet, dazzled by the prospects of a stage career, imaginative, romantic and romancing, acting off the stage as well as on it, is not so uncommon as to cause profound astonishment.

THE CROWN PROSECUTOR. (Toronto Globe.) One of the principal objects of the Coroner's jury at Hamilton was to ascertain who killed Ethel Kinnaird. It is admittedly a difficult question to answer. Are not the newspapers which criticize the means adopted for arriving at an answer a little hypocritical?

CONSTITABLES ABUSIVE. (Ottawa Free Press.) There are many, many cases in which the evidence adduced in the police court clearly shows that constables have committed assault upon those whom they took into custody, or used grossly insulting language toward them. In all such cases it would be well if the crown attorney would make it his duty to bring a charge against the constable concerned, and have the full penalty of the law meted out to him.

THINK OF IT, YOUNG GIRL.

(Peterboro Examiner.) Does the pretty, modest, refined, sensitive girl, with a slight list towards the employment to slay as her only notable deficit—does she reflect that when she employs the popular epithet, "let," she is using the family name of the Saviour of mankind as a flippant nickname? In addition to this expression being very bad form, coming from a pretty month, it is simply blasphemous slang—unconsciously blasphemous, consciously slang. It is a very utterly odious slang expression "Hully Je!" is a corruption of the word "holy" prefixed to the sacred name. Slang is always low and vulgar, but when the element of irreverence—disregard for the holiest names—is present in its employment, it is all the more fittingly characterized by the conjunction of evil and profanity.

HURRAH FOR GREATER HAMILTON.

Hamilton's already great. But she should be greater. She should be made a city. From here to the Equator.

With resources unexcelled. And with a situation. Which for health and hue is held Unrivaled in creation.

With light and heating forces rich, Routing competition. And with communications which, March by grand position.

With a people up to date. In all that genders greatness. (Though, happily, sometimes in their gait Allied or linked with lateness.)

With such advantages, we ought not to waste our mountain. Yet, even to wear a kingly coat. Like that of proud Toronto.

We've been too modest in the past. With open to make our mountain. We ought at once to be a vast, Unmatched industrial fountain.

With mighty Hoodless in the chair. And Merton's pen and paper. Our noble ere we are aware. Will vanish into vapor.

And, with delight will come along. Recruits from all creation. Repeating our triumphant song. With joy and jubilation.

Then, to the top with Hamilton! With shoulder all to shoulder. Let each and all roll on the ball. To make us big and bolder.

MAPLE LEAF

Construction Work Nearly Completed—Wild West Secured.

John Hax, President of the Ingersoll Construction Company, of Pittsburg, was in the city yesterday inspecting the work that his company's men are doing at Maple Leaf Park, and is well pleased with the progress made so far. He went to Toronto this morning to oversee some work that the company is doing at Ham-lan's Point, and will return to this city on Saturday and remain here until the opening of the Greater Hamilton Exposition at Maple Leaf Park on Victoria Day. Mr. Hax has had a great deal of experience with construction work around amusement parks, and says that, while there may be larger parks than the one being made here, he has yet to see one more complete or more suitably located.

This week will see the greater part of the construction work completed, and next week will be devoted to putting on the finishing touches, so as to have everything in readiness for the opening. A steel tower, 200 feet in height, is under construction, and when completed will be one of the highest electric towers in Canada. It will be lavishly lighted with powerful electric lights, and on a platform, 150 feet high, a powerful searchlight will be installed, which will throw a reflection all over the city, and it is expected that it will be possible to see it from Toronto Island on a clear night.

Yesterday Manager Robertson closed with Kemp's Wild West Show to play during the entire two weeks of the Greater Hamilton Exposition. The show has been booked for all the leading cities in the United States as Canada, and comes recommended as one of the best on the road.

FRENCH POSTMEN

Will Strike Unless Clemenceau Cabinet Falls.

Paris, May 11.—Whether or not the French postmen are to inaugurate a strike probably will be decided on the result of the debate in Parliament this afternoon.

The leaders of the men are proclaiming loudly that unless the Clemenceau Cabinet falls, which would involve the disappearance of Under-Secretary of Posts and Telegraphs Simpan, a strike will be ordered at the meeting to be held to-night.

Lyons, France, May 11.—The local postmen have issued a final appeal to Parliament against the Government's "failure to keep its promises."

Marseilles, May 11.—The military and civil authorities, with the aid of the Chamber of Commerce, have completed arrangements for wireless telegraph and automobile service to insure the continuation of the transmission of telegrams and letters in case of a strike.

HANGED HIMSELF.

Was Discovered by His Young Brothers Under Tree.

Washington, May 11.—There's a man standing under a tree out there, looking straight up, and he doesn't move a bit!" excitedly announced two little sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Orum to their mother this morning, near Ten Mile, after starting to get the cows from pasture.

Investigation revealed that Robert Orum, the 18-year-old son, had hanged himself from the limb of a maple tree near his home. The boy had taken a cow halter, climbed the tree, fastened one end of the halter to a limb and the other about his neck, and dropped off. His neck was not broken and death had resulted from strangulation.

The motive for the suicide is not known. Last Monday the boy was rebuked by his father for whipping a horse while the two were working in a hay

Opinions of Eminent Men On Co-Operation. "Our reasoning brings us to this conclusion, that what is known as co-operation—the contribution by many workmen of their savings towards a common fund, which they employ as capital and co-operate in turning to profit—constitutes the one and only solution of our present problem, the sole path by which our laboring classes as a whole, or even in any large number, can emerge from their condition of mere hand-to-mouth living, to share in the gains and honors of advancing civilization."—Professor Cairnes, "Leading Principles," page 345.

CANON HENSON FALSE NEWS. To Face Trial For Preaching in a Nonconformist Pulpit. N. Y. Reporter After Men Who Gave Fake Information. (New York Telegraph.) The thanks of his fellows and the congratulations of his boss are due to Mr. J. J. Finnegan, a reporter on the staff of a New York newspaper. He is the first to bring into play the law which makes it a misdemeanor to supply fake information to a newspaper. He has haled into court a lawyer and his client on charges of telling him things to print which weren't true. The information received on the character of a woman of standing, Mr. Finnegan gave the information to his newspaper and got into trouble. Now he has the sand to go the journey with his informant. This is refreshing. There are in this fair village and others a host of persons who think it a splendid joke to tell pipe-stories to newspaper men and then later cavil with a smug assumption of virtue about the "unreliability of the press."

AMUSEMENTS

"Brewster's Millions," one of the best comedies seen here, comes to the Grand again to-night and to-morrow evening.

"SHADOWS OF A GREAT CITY." Seats go on sale to-morrow morning for "Shadows of a Great City," which comes to the Grand again next Friday and Saturday.

"A BROKEN IDOL." "A Broken Idol" will be seen here at the Grand on Saturday matinee and night of next week, and from all accounts it is a great production.

"The Broken Idols" tells about a trip to Chinatown, Harlan, a bunco artist, has wedded a Chinese maiden, in his character as Dr. Whatt, who is "promoting" a marriage between Lord Dunby, an English fortune hunter, and an American heiress, he has an opportunity to run in all sorts of funny business, and does it well.

The music is tuneful, and the chorus—which appears in skirts—sings and dances well. One of the novelties is in the second act, when Alice Yorke, the soubrette, floats out over the audience in a balloon.

OFF TO EUROPE. New York, May 10.—There was another theatrical exodus to Europe yesterday, three liners having professional people on their passenger lists.

On board the Celtic were W. H. Crane and wife, William Gillette, Mlle. A. Genet and William H. Thompson. Crane, Gillette and Thompson are on their way to Havana for a few months' rest and Mlle. Genet is to appear in His Majesty's Theatre, in London.

Passengers on the Minnetonka, including Mr. and Mrs. d'Orsay, were greatly entertained by a chase by two process servers up to the roof of the double-decked pier. The process servers showed up at the pier before 7 o'clock and said they were looking for one "H. H. Smith," whose name was on the passenger list. They visited his stateroom a number of times, but he was not to be found.

UPLIFTING THE DRAMA. The following comment is made by the Toronto Mail's dramatic critic on the opening of the Burns-Nelson fight pictures in that city last night:

"The uplifting tendency imparted to the drama by the theatres under the control of the trust was never better illustrated than in the vivid and stirring drama, replete with human interest, which is the attraction at the Princess Theatre this week. The production properly falls under the same classification as 'Everyman,' the famous old English morality play, depicting as it does a world-old struggle between the elements of light and of darkness in the soul of mankind.

It has been decided to-night, so far as Mrs. Boyle is concerned at least, that no appeal will be asked for. Even should she be liberated she would be returned to Ohio for trial.

Sensations followed each other thick and fast to-day. The severity of the sentence surprised many. Then came the sensational scene in the court room, when both prisoners collapsed and had to be carried from the room. Hardly had they reached their cells when the word was given out that the woman had taken poison and had narrowly escaped death at her own hand, and that a razor had been found concealed in Boyle's clothing.

Before this thrill had lost its force, Boyle gave out his statement implicating Harry Foraker, brother of Mrs. Whittla. He said:

"I know absolutely nothing of this case. The whole story is a wilful, malicious lie."

J. P. Whittla, father of the kidnapped boy, who is alleged in James Boyle's statement to have accepted letters from Boyle belonging to Harry Foraker, denies absolutely that any such deal with Boyle occurred.

DOCTOR SAYS YOU'RE COMING DOWN IN AGUE, MOTHER EARTH. Paris—M. Deparville, scientist, says the last half of May will be featured by earthquakes. He announces shocks will occur on May 12, 13, 17, 18, 20, 23, 26, 27, 30 and 31.

BOYLE'S STORY OF ACCOMPLICE

Alleges That Billy Whittla's Uncle Planned Affair.

Uncle and Others Declare Boyle's Story is Not True.

Affecting Leave Taking Between Boyle—Talk of Suicide.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 10.—James Boyle and his wife, Helen Boyle, were lodged in the Western Penitentiary here to-night shortly before 8 o'clock, the former under a sentence of life imprisonment, and the latter sentenced to serve a term of 25 years.

The prisoners were taken first to a side room and told they would have to say good-bye as the rules of the prison would not permit them to see each other again.

Mrs. Boyle threw her arms around the man's neck and kissed him. She said, "We must take it the best we can." The prisoners then shook hands, and the matron escorted Mr. Boyle from the room. When she reached the corridor she burst into tears and asked to be permitted once again to see her husband. The request was granted and she again kissed and embraced Boyle. The man maintained silence.

When Mrs. Boyle gave her belongings to the matron, she asked permission to keep a small mirror she carried, saying, "I do not want to leave it behind, as that would make me have seven years of bad luck." The mirror was returned to her and she will be allowed to keep it in her cell.

During the trip here from Mercer, where they left late this afternoon, the kidnapers spent most of the time in quiet conversation together. They discussed the sentence and asked what steps they could take to get a review of the case, and how to see an attorney. Mrs. Boyle knew if he would be permitted to smoke.

When asked how she felt, Mrs. Boyle said, "Pretty bad." On arriving in Pittsburg she remarked, "Mercer will sleep quieter to-night—sleep old Mercer—since we are out of it."

It has been decided to-night, so far as Mrs. Boyle is concerned at least, that no appeal will be asked for. Even should she be liberated she would be returned to Ohio for trial.

Sensations followed each other thick and fast to-day. The severity of the sentence surprised many. Then came the sensational scene in the court room, when both prisoners collapsed and had to be carried from the room. Hardly had they reached their cells when the word was given out that the woman had taken poison and had narrowly escaped death at her own hand, and that a razor had been found concealed in Boyle's clothing.

Before this thrill had lost its force, Boyle gave out his statement implicating Harry Foraker, brother of Mrs. Whittla. He said:

"The complete history of the kidnaping of Willie Whittla, the origin of same and what led up to it, is as follows: 'On the morning of —, between the hours of —, Dan Reebel, jun., was found dead on the sidewalk in front of the Manser block, East Federal street, Youngstown, and over the prostrate form was Mr. Harry Foraker, of Sharon, Pa., holding in his right hand a package of letters that was gathered from the sidewalk near the dead body of Mr. Reebel.

As he was about to depart from the vicinity he was intercepted by the writer and a man who has since passed to his reward, Mr. Dan Shay, a saloon-keeper, of Oak street, Youngstown, O. 'In Mr. Foraker's hurry to leave the scene he failed to find two envelopes that contained four letters. The same were picked up by Mr. Shay and later taken to his place of business on Oak street.

"The writer and Mr. Shay examined and read the contents of same, which proved beyond a doubt the presence of Mr. Foraker there at that time. 'About six months ago, when I returned to Sharon with my wife, I met Mr. Foraker and informed him that unless I received $25,000 within ten days and the time I intended to leave Sharon, I would hold the secret no longer.

"He then informed me that some time in April, 1909, he was to come in possession of a certain amount of money and would then turn some over to me. 'PROPOSED KIDNAPPING. 'On my leaving Sharon on March 12, 1909, I proceeded to Cleveland, O., and on the same evening I addressed to Mr. Foraker at Sharon, a letter which read as follows: 'I have decided not to wait any longer in regard to the money proposition, and if I don't hear from you soon there will be some exposing.

"On March 16, 1909, I received an answer, which read: 'Friend Bailey: You know the circumstances and the promise I made you when you left here, but if you are really desperately in need of money, as you profess to be, I will outline a little plan which with your co-operation can be very successfully carried out, namely, the abduction of J. P. Whittla's son. I can arrange to have boy brought to Warren, O., due there at 11.15 with escort.

"There was no signature to the letter. 'I left Cleveland at 8.15 a. m. and arrived at Warren. Later the boy and escort arrived. 'While Boyle does not name the date of the Youngstown tragedy, Mrs. Boyle in a statement issued to-night says the tragedy took place fourteen years ago. A man was killed in Youngstown, about the time mentioned, by either being thrown or falling out of a window.

The victim of the crime or accident was Daniel Reebel, roller in one of the mills. His body was found on the sidewalk, and despite the fact that there were many rumors of foul play at the time, the matter was hushed up on the theory that it was an accident. Reebel was the son of a man of considerable means.

Some years before his death he had married Miss Wellendorf, a handsome and buxom young woman whose mother kept a hotel in New Castle and Edinburgh for many years. 'After several years of married life the couple disagreed and separated, Mrs. Reebel returning to her mother at Edinburgh and still lives there.

WHAT THE WOMAN SAYS. 'After she had been sentenced to-day, Mrs. Boyle said: 'I swear I am innocent of this kidnaping. I did not know Willie had been kidnapped. I thought his parents were in a divorce case, and that Jimmie was helping his father keep the boy away from his mother.

"I brought Willie to me one night in Cleveland. I was told I was to keep him that night and the next day Willie told me about the big fight his father and mother had over something, she let out about a murder case he was the attorney in. The boy said his father told his mother she talked too much. 'I never saw the newspapers to learn Willie had been kidnapped because I was not well and did not go out. A picture of Willie torn from a newspaper told me his name."

"DON'T BELIEVE STORY. 'Youngstown, O., May 11.—Unless stronger proof than the word of James Boyle is offered to show that there is a mystery connected with the death of Daniel Reebel, jun., which occurred here fourteen years ago, there will be no official investigation of the case. Daniel Reebel, father of the dead man, and the police and county officials are unanimous in expressing the opinion that the Boyle story is untrue, and the authorities believe that if the investigation by the Boyle's attorney in connection with the kidnapers' story was fruitless, they could accomplish nothing by an enquiry. 'At the time of Reebel's death Boyle was employed in a plumbing shop adjoining the building from which Reebel fell. The police express the opinion that Boyle heard much about the death in this shop, and from his knowledge of the accident, built up his story.

WESLEY-GORE. Epworth Leagues of the Two Churches Fraternalize. The Senior and Intermediate Epworth Leagues of Wesley Church paid a fraternal visit to the young people of Gore Street Methodist Church last evening, for the purpose of becoming better acquainted before the amalgamation takes place. A very large number of the Wesleyans turned out, and with the officers of the League, marched in a body down to Gore Street, where they were received by the heads of the Young People's Societies, and welcomed. The evening was spent in games, in which all took a very hearty interest. The orchestra of Gore Street Sunday school provided delightful music, which was much appreciated. Towards the close of the evening light refreshments were served.

OVER AGE. Two or Three Hamilton Cadets Just Miss Bisley. Hamilton is not to have the honor of a representative at Bisley from among the clever cadets of the Collegiate Institute. On Saturday last the Department of Militia wired Col. Serget. Syme, who has charge of the Cadets, asking him to send in at once the name of a boy under 16 who could go, and have him in readiness by Thursday of this week. Yesterday Mr. Syme made a careful canvass of the situation, and was unable to get a boy who could qualify as to age. He had several who could go and do credit to the city, but they are all over 16, or will be by July 1—two or three by only a month or two. As the age rule is very strict, Mr. Syme replied that he had not a boy under 16 who, he felt, could do the corps credit, and he would rather not send one at all than one who would not do well.

ST. LAWRENCE. Two Special Sermons at Same Time This Evening. Rev. Father Doyle was the speaker at the first week night service in connection with the two weeks' May mission at St. Lawrence Church. He spoke earnestly on the gravity of sin. The meetings this week are for women. This evening there will be two sermons, at the same time. In the church there will be one especially for married women, upon their state in life, and in the parish hall the sermon will be to unmarried women, upon their state. Next week the services will be for men.

WHITE LEAD VOTE. Washington, May 11.—Votes on the duty on white lead and other products of lead will be taken in the Senate to-day, it being the full belief of Senator Aldrich and others of the Republican majority that all of the recommendations of the committee on finance will be upheld.

A tablet to the memory of the late Mayor Alexander James Boyd was unveiled at St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, on Monday.

A MINISTER'S GRATITUDE.

Zam-Buk Cured a Face Sore which Defied all other Remedies for Two Years.

Rev. Charles E. Stafford, of Bridgeburg, Ont., says: "I had been much troubled for over two years with a sore on my left cheek. I tried all kinds of salves and lotions, but nothing I procured seemed to have the least bit of effect towards healing the sore. Hearing of Zam-Buk, I decided to give it a trial, and see if it would bring about a cure, as so many other things had failed. I purchased a supply, and commenced with the treatment. After several applications, to my great joy, Zam-Buk has effected what for two years I tried in vain to bring about—a complete cure."

After case could be quoted in which, as in the above instance, Zam-Buk has worked cures when everything else tried had failed. There is a reason for this. Zam-Buk is the ideal remedy because of its unique ingredients for all skin injuries and diseases. The Roman gladiators, secret balms were used for the healing of cuts and injuries sustained in the arena and in battle. Then came a period during which external balms were neglected, followed by a period in which all the salves and ointments had as their base animal fats and oils. Zam-Buk marks a new epoch. It is absolutely devoid of all animal fats, all mineral coloring matters, and is composed entirely of rich medicinal herbal extracts. Zam-Buk is a combination of Nature's rich healing herbal juices, by the most modern scientific methods, and the result is a balm which cures when others fail.

Skin diseases, such as eczema, ringworm, salt rheum, and prairie itch, are speedily overcome by it. For piles it is fine—easing the pain and inflammation, and hastening a cure. It also cures burns, scalds, ulcers, children's sores and eruptions, blood-poisoning, scratches, old wounds, varicose ulcers, etc. All Druggists and Stores sell at 50c a box, or post free for price from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Refuse harmful and cheap imitations, sometimes represented as "Just as good."

GOT FRANCHISE. Brantford Street Railway Co. Renews 50-Year Franchise. (Special Despatch to the Times.) Brantford, Ont., May 11.—The Street Railway Company was given a renewed lease of its 50-year franchise by the City Council last night on the filing of a bond for $25,000 signed by W. S. Denwick, J. S. King, Toronto, and M. A. Yerner, directors of the company, also the placing up of $35,000 worth of Grand Valley Radial bonds, that the work of double tracking would be completed this summer. The city representatives, after over a year of delay, were determined to hold the company to its agreement, and it looks as if local troubles were at an end, as the company commenced work on Church street this morning.

JAP STUDENTS Passed Resolutions to Quit School and Walked Out. Tokyo, May 11.—Fifteen hundred students of the Commercial High School to-day held the last mass meeting, at which resolutions were passed declaring they would no longer attend the school. Then they formed a line in front of the building, sang the school song, said farewell, removed their school insignia and at length dispersed.

The trouble in the Commercial High School commenced some time ago, when the students petitioned the government to raise it to the rank of a university. The trouble culminated last week in a fire, which nearly destroyed the building. It was suspected that the fire was the work of enraged students.

LUKEMAN COMING TO KERR MEET. Bobby Kerr received another letter from Frank Lukeman, the Montreal sprinter, yesterday, and there is now no doubt but that the Montrealer will be a contestant in the athletic games at Britannia Park on Saturday. Lukeman is very eager to come to Hamilton for the 15th, and has made rather strenuous efforts this last week to induce the M. A. A. authorities to send him. In addition to this, the Tiger officers have been in communication with the M. A. A. heads, and the arrangements are practically completed whereby not only Lukeman, but Don Buddo, the crack half-miler, will also compete here on Saturday.

With Lukeman in the competition for the Tom Flanagan all round championship medal, which Cal. Ogilvie and Cal. Bricker are both counting upon winning, there should be some exciting going on Saturday. Ogilvie is entered in four events, the 100, 220, 440 and 880; four real hard races. Bricker, the ex-Varsity champion and member of last year's Olympic team, has gone him several better, and is entered in seven events, the 100, 220, 440, 880, high jump, broad jump and pole vault. Lukeman will compete in the 100, 220, 440, broad jump and high jump. Bricker, owing to the fact that he is in so many events and is some class in all of them, looks like the favorite for the diamond medal, but two of the first places will do more than several seconds and one or two firsts, as the points for the all round championship will be five points for first place, three for second place and one for third place in each event.

The entries for the games are all in and a total of 149 individual athletes are entered in the various competitions. Some of these are entered in several events.

HINT FOR ROCK GARDENS. My main objection to rock gardens, which nobody ever seems to get over, is that too much soil is used. If those people who design this sort of work would study how rocks crop up in hilly countries, as they often do in our own, as well as in Switzerland, they would see that the prettiest come out of the ground. If the ground is suitable, it is by no means essential that the rocks should be everywhere to grow Alpine flowers.

Many Alpine plants are as hardy as grasses of the field, and want no more accommodation, while others want the protection of rocks and stones.—From Gardening Illustrated.

The Owen Sound C. P. R. strike was declared off yesterday afternoon, when the men, by a ballot of 98 to 08, declared to go back to work at the old scale and leave the matter of increased wages to adjustment by arbitration under the Lemieux Act. This decision was reached after a special committee of the men reported in its favor. It is a good deal easier to sympathize with the under dog than to do anything else for him.—Dallas News.

EVANGELIST IN TORONTO.

Gipsy Smith Makes a Plea For Open Confession.

Massey Hall Again Thronged by Great Audiences.

People Must Tighten Their Grip on Sunday.

Toronto, May 11.—"You've been public sinners, why not be public saints," was the appeal Gipsy Smith made to the audience which, in spite of rain, thronged Massey Hall last night. Again four thousand people sat in a deep-hushed silence while the silver voice of the evangelist, the wonderful carrying power of which made the spoken words distinct even in the top-most row of the highest gallery, gave utterance to truths of practical Christianity. The testimony that his flooding went home was to be found in the numbers who in response to his call went to the inquiry room. The scene in that lower room was one which circumstances demand should only be touched on with the greatest respect. Old and young, men and women, were there. Some engaged in application, and others listening to the whispering exhortation of the mission-workers. It was a drama of evangelization, involving a story not merely of life, but of eternity.

CHRISTIANS NEED NO BADGES.
"I wish I could take you down some of the lanes I know in the old country. You know we really get spring there. Color! Color! Why, there's color enough to make you think that the Lord had broken up a rainbow and scattered the pieces at your feet. And perfume; it's as if the angels had passed by. Music; the birds are singing the songs the angels whisper. If you saw me there with a whitewash brush writing on the side of the lane, 'It is spring,' you would say, 'Poor thing.' It's just the same with a Christian. When God has kissed your life into splendor and righteousness you needn't put on a badge. People will find out."

The agitation of some so-called Christians must have been hurt at the reminder, "Even Christ was not satisfied with Himself." Then in a low but penetrating tone he asked, "Is God first? You can fill a school-room on a week's night with people who take communion for a dramatic performance, and only get a dozen there for a prayer meeting. You sing, 'Oh For An Hour of Pure Delight,' when you never had a consecutive hour in your lives and never bowed your head for five minutes without starting through the fingers. The lost art of the Church is 'How to pray.' There never was a day when there were so many magnificent preachers, so much given for missions, such magnificent singing, but we've lost the power to pray and are powerless in consequence."

PRESERVE SUNDAY AND CHILD.
"Parents," he described the people who were content to go to church on Sunday, and quoted, "As was his custom, he went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day. What would your recommendation be for the lady who goes to church in the morning, takes communion, and gives a bridge party after. (Laughter.) Don't laugh. I am not appealing to your giggles."

If the people of the American continent were going to hold their own with the people of the world they would have to tighten their grip on the Lord's day, and teach the children. It is declared, "the devil is to be fought to a finish, with victory on the side of the church, we will have to fight with the devil. You would have more Christians, more church members, if you would take some little wail from the slums, wash and dress it, and take it out in your automobile instead of raising a dog."

At the afternoon meetings it is Gipsy Smith's way to get some prominent local minister to give a short address first. So far it has been the case that from these addresses the evangelist has taken his own text. Yesterday afternoon the Rev. Dr. Elmore Harris spoke from the text, "Herein is My Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit," and also, "So let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Gipsy Smith accepted the text which had been given him. "It seems to me," he said, "that the majority of professing Christians I have met have but one dominating idea, and that is to receive from God a very little for the purpose of giving out. You know if you properly take in, something will come out. An apple tree in your garden would not be very much use if it never gave any apples. I'd soon cut it down."

HOW IS YOUR LIFE?
"Is your life—you would be insulted if I came down and said 'How is your glorifying God? I ask you to be honest with yourselves, and put the question. It will do you good to get alone with God and make yourself answer that question."

"It was a question," he continued, "which they could apply to their social, commercial, domestic and political circles. A consistent tree would give consistent fruit without making any blunders."

"How did you live this morning?" was the pertinent question. "How have you conducted yourself? Has anybody heard you say or do anything to-day that reflects on the Christian life? Do you bring with you an air from the divine halls, an atmosphere from God Almighty when you came into the breakfast room?"

"How does Mary in the kitchen feel about her religion? For servants have souls, although some people don't think, or don't act, as if they thought so. And what was your own feeling in your room because every man and woman who can live for Jesus in secret can live for Him in public."

GILDED WITH HEAVEN'S MORNING.
He took it that the text meant that if they were right they would bear the impress. "It means that your days must be gilded with Heaven's own morning, and full of the music that falls from the lips of angels. Full and pulsating with the power of the infinite and supernatural, and everybody you come in contact with will be inspired with the gospel of living within the service of Jesus Christ."

Sunday Christianity was useless. "It's no use going to nice little meetings and conventions, taking little pencil notes and saying 'Isn't that elegant? Isn't that a little posy?' It means that they must carry the spirit into every portion of their walk in life. "It means," he added, "that you must speak to the girl on the other side of the counter, who is trying to serve you, as with the spirit of Christ. These are very practical, these things, and if not practical they are nothing. It means more than creeds or professions. It means that you will not have to just squeeze through, but let 'abundant entrance'."

Let them but take care to be faithful and God would see that they were fruitful. "The fruit of the Spirit is love," and hammering home his theme Gipsy Smith asked, "Is there anybody in the world you are not willing to shake hands with? Are you not in love and fellowship with your neighbors? Is there anybody in your church you are not on speaking terms with, or anybody you have a grudge against? If there were, then they were not in accord with the real spirit of Christianity."

"Do you know," he said, "that the great Welsh revival began with people confessing their faults to one another? You ministers, wouldn't it be a wonderful thing if next Sunday some one went around the church and said to another, 'Forgive me; I have wronged you.' That's the spirit."

GET THE SHINE ON.

Then the evangelist proceeded to speak of the joy which followed in the wake of confession, and the need for them to let the world see. "The face," he said, "generally indicates the heart, and I am not surprised that some preachers can't preach with some of the face in front of them. Get the shine on. When the Lord measures a man for his heavenly clothes he doesn't measure his face. He would take too much stuff sometimes. He measures his soul. If you have the Spirit, joy will gild your face and sparkle in your eye. I saw an advertisement once for a young lady to act as a travelling companion. 'Christianity is a joy, but must be cheerful. Get the shine on, and if your heart is right don't be afraid to laugh. If your heart is not right you ought not to laugh. If your heart is with God let your face show it. The fruit of the Spirit is 'joy,' not 'law,' and if you preach less to the side of the lane, 'It is spring,' you would say, 'Poor thing.' It's just the same with a Christian. When God has kissed your life into splendor and righteousness you needn't put on a badge. People will find out."

The agitation of some so-called Christians must have been hurt at the reminder, "Even Christ was not satisfied with Himself." Then in a low but penetrating tone he asked, "Is God first? You can fill a school-room on a week's night with people who take communion for a dramatic performance, and only get a dozen there for a prayer meeting. You sing, 'Oh For An Hour of Pure Delight,' when you never had a consecutive hour in your lives and never bowed your head for five minutes without starting through the fingers. There never was a day when there were so many magnificent preachers, so much given for missions, such magnificent singing, but we've lost the power to pray and are powerless in consequence."

Nerves Unstrung
You Feel Limp
Loaded With Worry
Unable to Speak
Tired and Excitable,

You'll Grow Steadily Worse Unless the System is Better Nourished.

Nothing will build you up with the certainty of Ferronose. Thousands it has cured who never hoped to be well—and here is ample proof—substantiated by one of Nova Scotia's prominent clerics.

"Before taking the first box of Ferronose," writes Mrs. Annie Jeffrey, of Sandy Cove, N. S., "my condition was deplorable. Though I employed the most skillful medical aid, I grew steadily weaker. In fact, I was in such a low condition that it was impossible for me to walk across the room. My heart was very weak and I suffered from terrible palpitations, which the doctors said were from troubles peculiar to women. Friends urged me to try Ferronose, and I bought six boxes. The first box did wonders. My palpitations ceased, my appetite increased, and I got a good, easy sleep. My condition would be impossible to describe. I am now as well as ever. I have many suffering sisters who use Ferronose for it will surely cure them."

Rev. J. C. Morse, D. D., pastor of the Baptist Church, Sandy Cove, bears witness to the recovery of Mrs. Jeffrey, and writes: "This is to certify that Mrs. Annie Jeffrey is a lady upon whose word you can depend. I have known her since childhood, and believe her to be a truthful and honest woman." This adds weight to the testimony of Mrs. Jeffrey, and gives assurance to other sufferers that Ferronose does what is claimed for it. Three weeks' treatment costs 50c., or six boxes for $2.50, at all druggists.

DIDN'T FEED HIM.
Zion City Man Tried the Raven-Feeding Faith.

Chicago, May 10.—E. M. Brock, an aged Zion City man, lay four days under a tree during the recent severe storms, waiting for ravens to feed him. He is slowly recovering. He had read about Elijah by exercising faith being fed by ravens, and he decided to try it. He had enough faith to last four days, during which he prayed incessantly, but the ravens were not on the job. He finally gave up, and suffered himself to be carried back to his cabin.

DEATH STEPPED IN.
Falls Man Fell Dead While Shooting at Another.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., May 10.—The hand of death was all that prevented Willis White from killing Jos. Thomas here this afternoon. White, armed with a revolver and a razor, went to a barn where Thomas was employed and demanded some money. Meeting with refusal he drew the revolver. For several minutes Thomas managed to elude him by dodging in and out among the vehicles. He was finally driven into a corner, but just as White lifted the revolver and fired the latter was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs. The shot went wild. With blood pouring from his mouth White staggered forward several steps and fell dead.

New Zealand Accepted.
London, May 10.—New Zealand has accepted the invitation of the British Government for the defence conference, pointing out that it will be difficult for representatives to attend before the end of July at the earliest.

THE SENATE AND DIVORCE.

Members of the House of Commons Sound a Warning.

Hon. William Pugsley Corrects Mr. Crockett.

Better Medical Examination of Immigrants Suggested.

Ottawa, May 10.—Mr. W. L. MacKenzie King, looking well after his trip to the east, took his seat in the Commons to-day, and was warmly greeted by many friends on both sides of the House. Anxious to hasten the order papers was warmly greeted by many friends on both sides of the House. Anxious to hasten the order papers was warmly greeted by many friends on both sides of the House. Anxious to hasten the order papers was warmly greeted by many friends on both sides of the House.

DR. PUGSLEY CORRECTS MR. CROCKETT.
When the House met this morning Hon. Dr. Pugsley, on a question of privilege, called attention to certain statements made by Mr. Crockett in connection with the New Brunswick Coal and Railway Company. Mr. Crockett had conveyed the impression that $5,000 had been assigned and paid to Mr. David O'Connell, of St. John, in satisfaction of some old claim which he had against him, and that there were no outstanding transactions between them. So far from the $5,000 having been paid in connection with business between them, it was assigned for payment of the amount of a promissory note of the New Brunswick Coal and Railway Company which Mr. O'Connell had discounted, and the proceeds of which were used in payment for steel rails purchased for the Intercolonial at Moncton and used for branch lines of the New Brunswick Coal & Railway Company.

Col. Sam Hughes asked whether it was proposed to establish a school of technology at Ottawa or elsewhere in Canada.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said the matter had not engaged the attention of the Government.

QUESTION OF DIVORCE.
In connection with several divorce bills on the order paper Mr. Borden said he desired to concur in the protest which had been made by Mr. Ethier, Chairman of the Private Bill Committee, against any tendency to make divorce easier in Canada. He thought it was of the utmost importance that the evidence in divorce proceedings before the Senate Committee should only be acted upon in a court of law. In England there was a King's Proctor, whose special duty it was to see that there was no collusion between parties. He did not see how that could be done in this country, if any such a safeguard had been adopted by the Senate, but he saw no reason why such a safeguard should not receive careful consideration.

Mr. W. F. Maclean thought that a court should be created for the purposes of divorce. Parliament was overworked and ought to be relieved of the work of granting divorces.

Mr. Monk did not think the evil of divorce had become great enough in Canada to require the creation of a special tribunal for that purpose.

Mr. Cavell concurred in the suggestion of Mr. Maclean. He had observed cases in which divorce had been granted by the Senate Committee, and he thought that would simply have been laughed at in a court. All sorts of hearsay evidence was taken.

Mr. Lamer took the view that they should do everything to make divorce more difficult. They should make it clear to young people that when they married they should stay married, and try to forgive each other's faults. Mr. Miller deprecated the tendency to use the services of American detectives to get up evidence for divorce cases.

Hon. Mr. Fielding informed Mr. Orosby that in view of the Liberal assistance already given to the steel industry, the Government had not taken up to the present time, to recommend additional bonuses.

EXAMINATION OF IMMIGRANTS.
A committee on the Government bill respecting immigration, Mr. Paquet urged that more adequate provision should be made for the medical examination of immigrants. Four doctors he said, were now charged with the task of declaring as to the physical condition of over 140,000 immigrants landing at Canadian ocean ports within a period of six months. He believed that subsidizing immigration should be abolished, and each immigrant should be required to have an adequate sum of money in his possession on landing.

J. A. C. Ethier reviewed at some length the present policy of the Immigration Department and showed from the departmental records that in the matter of regulations calculated to insure only the best class of immigrants the Government had now taken all necessary and possible precautions.

Mr. Monk urged the examination of immigrants on the other side of the Atlantic.

TREATMENT OF CATTLEMEN.
Mr. Bickerdike protested against a clause which he declared would compel immigration officers to treat all cattlemen as immigrants. Many of these cattlemen, or most of them, were Canadians who went over with the shippers who sent them. He held that under the bill the Canadian cattlemen would retain his Canadian citizenship on the voyage to England, but the moment he set his foot on a vessel to make a return voyage he would lose that citizenship and would become an immigrant. The cattlemen had protested against that provision. Mr. Bickerdike could see no reason why cattlemen should be discriminated against. There were some very respectable cattlemen in Canada. He was one himself, and under the bill if he or Speaker Crawford of the Ontario Legislature went to England on business, they would lose their citizenship on returning to Canada and would become immigrants.

Hon. Mr. Oliver said that under the bill any Canadian, whether cattlemen or not, who returned to Canada, would be regarded as immigrants. Mr. Oliver suggested an amendment defining the term passenger to include any person who signed as a member of a ship's crew, and who is discharged at any port of entry in Canada. This was accepted by Mr. Bickerdike as satisfactory and reported.

Progress was reported and the House adjourned at midnight.

BOGUS COIN.

Two Montreal Men Arrested in New Ontario.

Complete Outfit Was Discovered by Officers.

Latchford, Ont., May 10.—Two Montreal men, posing as prospectors, and giving their names as Adelard Dion and Thomas Gascon, were arrested on Saturday after one of them, it is alleged, had tried to pass a false fifty-cent piece at Duncan McGregor's store. In the tent they were occupying on the shore of Bay Lake, were found a number of moulds, dies, blow pipes, crucibles, and a complete equipment of the counterfeiter's trade. They made a desperate struggle to get away from Constable Jerry and Fred Lefebvre, but they were eventually overcome and their goods seized.

Only a small quantity of false coins were found, but the camp fire had been lighted, and one of the crucibles was standing over it when the seizure was made.

The men were fully equipped for a trip up the river, and had in their possession $500 of good money. They accounted for the possession of the moulds, etc., by stating that they were intending to make tests of different ores up the river at the shaft head. The spurious coins, while excellent in design, could easily be detected as they rang false and were rough to the touch. One of the men said that the other had a mining school in Montreal and that they had chummed together on a prospecting trip. He said that he knew that money was being made but he thought it was for a pasture, and that the articles used in its manufacture were brought along for the purpose of making tests. The men were remanded for trial at North Bay.

HATS STAY ON.

Guelph Ministers' Protests Have Little Effect on "Merry Widows."

Guelph, May 10.—In almost all of the city churches yesterday the "merry widows" and kindred creations in millinery remained a tranquil sea of verdure, untroubled by the storm of protest raised by the Ministerial Association. The resolution that hats either be removed or that those of modest dimensions be worn seemed to have scarcely any effect, although the weather was not propitious for a fair test.

Many of the city ministers were not in their own pulpits, and from only two was the matter referred to, at Knox and Dublin Street Methodist. At the latter church Rev. Mr. Crews referred to the hat nuisance at length, and in the evening there was some reduction in the number of monster creations, for which Mr. Crews expressed his thanks and the hope that the ladies would come to a full appreciation of the situation.

At Knox the appeal had no apparent effect.

JORDAN WATER,
Not in Demand, Run Into a New York Sewer.

New York, May 10.—Three thousand gallons of water from the River Jordan were emptied to-day in the gutter along North Moore street, out of ten enormous casks, covered with Turkish seals, while a crowd of small boys watched it flow in a turbid stream into the Greenwich street sewer. Nobody seemed to hanker much for the water, which looked a little muddy, and had a slight odor. Other casks of the water, all of which were imported by Col. Noland, of Kentucky, and are stored in a warehouse on Greenwich street, will follow. It was found that the water could not be sold, or even given away, and the Colonel, who brought it here expecting that there would be a great demand for Jordan water for baptismal purposes, decided to throw it away.

There are 46 casks, each containing 300 gallons, still down in the cellar of the warehouse, and many boxes of bottled water.

Sugar Beet Land Flooded.
Chatham, Ont., May 10.—The recent heavy rains are having a serious effect upon the farmers of Kent. There are acres of land around Wallaceburg ready for sugar beets, but the farmers cannot get the seed in, as the land is completely flooded with water. Other crops are being badly owing to the incessant rain.

MORE GRAFI.
Saloonkeepers Testify at the Montreal Enquiry.

Montreal, May 10.—The feature of today's sitting of the Civic Commission was the testimony of Capt. Beignot, who retired from the police force about a year ago. Beignot swore that the C. P. R. Stock Yards Hotel, kept by a man named Patenaude, was in his district, and that he reported the place on three occasions for selling on Sundays. One day Inspector Lamouche came to him and notified him that hotel had been taken out of his district, though it was located in his district, and placed in that of No. 14, and that he would not report upon it in the future.

BURNED TO DEATH.
Corpse of Another Child Cremated Near Rush Lake.

Rush Lake, Sask., May 10.—Prairie fires have been working great havoc throughout this district, and already fifteen families have been rendered entirely destitute by the destruction of their farm buildings and property. To the work of destruction has been added a tragedy, the little seven-year-old daughter of L. Klein, north of this point, having perished in the burning house. Mrs. Klein and two other children were badly burned at the same time and the corpse of the infant child of a neighbor, named A. J. Mayer, who had been burned to death a day or so before, was cremated.

Among the settlers who has suffered the loss of farming equipment and buildings are: W. M. Mayer, George Whitman, David Klassen, Jacob Klassen, and H. Corbushon. Prairie fires are raging in many parts of the west, and the settlers are having difficult fights to save their dwellings.

MOOSE JAW, SASK., MAY 10.—John Hebert, a visitor to-day, died as a result of burns suffered in a prairie fire at his farm near Baildon.

LADIES IN COMMONS.
Sign Declarations That They Will Not Break Rules.

London, May 10.—Ladies made their appearance behind the grille of the House of Commons to-day for the first time since the ladies' gallery was closed, because of the suffragette demonstration when a woman chained herself to the grille. Each woman to-day had to sign her name to a declaration that she would not break the rules of the House.

Retailers' Plan of Action Against the Wholesalers.

Toronto, May 11.—Moved by Mr. Skelton, seconded by Mr. Spooner, that the general secretary of this association name a committee of ten or twelve members to consider the feasibility of forming a permanent purchasing committee for the retail grocers and fruit men of Toronto," was the resolution carried unanimously at a joint meeting of the grocers' and butchers' sections of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada, Toronto branch, in St. George's Hall last night as one way of answering a circular sent out by the Toronto Fruit and Produce Association regarding shorter terms of credit. A motion to test the validity of the wholesalers' recent action, was carried unanimously, nearly every member present standing in support of it.

The above resolution was carried in the City Council yesterday.

Before the vote was taken on what acting Mayor Ward characterized as Ald. Chorney's "bread-drought resolution," Controller Harrison reminded the mover that the question was at present before the Dominion Parliament. "I am sorry to see an injection of politics into this council," said the controller. "It is practically a resolution of want of confidence in the Dominion Government, and I do not think it will be appreciated by the city. I claim to be just as loyal and patriotic and as ready as any member of council to defend my country, but I am opposed to this motion."

"No politics in this resolution," replied Ald. Chorney. "I regret to say the Dominion Government is not representing public feeling to-day on this matter, neither is the Opposition."

Cabinet Decides to Let Law Take Its Course.

Ottawa, May 10.—The Cabinet in council had under consideration again to-day the capital case of Walter Blythe, the Agincourt section man, under sentence to be hanged on Thursday next for killing his wife through beating her with a poker while in a rage. It was decided to let the law take its course.

OTTAWA RIVER BANK CAVED IN CARRYING THEM WITH IT.

Ottawa, May 10.—Two young Ottawa boys, Napoleon and Daniel Valiquette, brothers, were drowned in the Ottawa River this afternoon, at the foot of Kent street, within a few hundred yards of the Parliament building. They were standing on the edge of the high embankment overlooking the river, when a large section of earth, loosened by recent rains, gave way and slid into the river, carrying both lads, along with another boy named Oscar Major, into the swift-flowing river beneath. The latter managed to grab a tree at the bottom of the embankment and saved himself. The other two were swept away by the current.

THEY ALL FAVOR CATARACT POWER.

City Council Unanimously Accepts New Agreement—"Cheapest in World," Says One.

Voting to Take Place on June 7—Dog By-law Passed—Other Council Business.

WHAT THE COUNCIL DID.

Sent the Power, Board of Control and Hospital by-laws on to the people.

Fixed June 7 as the day on which they are to be voted on.

Provided that the Cataract Company must agree before Wednesday next to sign the by-law if it be carried.

Passed a by-law preventing dogs running at large.

Once more the power question goes to the ratemakers for their verdict, and this time there should be no doubt about the result.

At the City Council meeting last night the aldermen, although they made no recommendation to the people, unanimously approved of the new Cataract contract, and many of the staunchest supporters of the Hydro-Electric declared it to be the best deal the city could make.

Alderman Jutten and Alderman Hopkins, both strong advocates of Niagara power, during their term in the Council, moved and seconded the contract, which was given two readings.

Alderman Ellis, another Hydro-Electric man, declared the local company was offering the cheapest prices in the world.

Mayor McLaren expressed the opinion that from a dollars and cents point of view there was no doubt the Cataract was the safest and cheapest for the city.

The Cataract by-law will be submitted in the shape of a contract to be endorsed by the ratemakers. The Hydro-Electric by-law will be a plebiscite. The question the ratemakers will vote yes or no on is as follows:

Are you in favor of the city corporation, at the present time, entering into a contract with the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario for a supply of electric power from the commission?

The question of where the city will stand in the event of both by-laws being carried was raised last night, and Mayor McLaren explained that it would be up to the Council then to decide. The aldermen were not likely to enter into both contracts.

SOME OF THE ALDERMEN ALSO DEMANDED to know if there was any assurance that the company would enter into the contract if the people endorsed it.

They evidently had in view the fact that the company rejected the street railway by-law after the people sanctioned it. To prevent this occurring again the following resolution, moved by Ald. Jutten and seconded by Ald. Allan, was passed:

Resolved, that the by-law authorizing the corporation of the city of Hamilton to enter into a contract with the Hamilton Cataract Power, Light & Traction Company, Limited, be submitted to the ratemakers, provided an agreement satisfactory to the City Solicitor is duly executed by the company and delivered to the City Clerk on or before Wednesday next, whereby the company agrees to execute the power contract and supplementary street lighting contract, and deliver the same to the City Clerk within one month from the date the said by-law and a by-law authorizing the execution of the said supplementary street lighting contract have been finally passed by the Council of the said city.

MAIN FEATURES OF CONTRACT The main features of the contract as it stands are that the company undertakes to sell power to the city for $16 per horse power and always ten per cent. below any other municipality in Ontario supplied by the Hydro-Electric and ten per cent. lower than any other place supplied with Cataract Power. The small power user and the people who use incandescent lights in their houses are fully protected and every provision is made for arbitration in the event of any dispute. The company is not to be called upon to sell power in excess of its ability to generate at Bower Glen, but every provision is made for the city getting all the power it can use. It is to have the preference in every case, even over the railways owned and operated by the Dominion Company.

position of the small power user. He referred to the case of a man who using a three-quarter horse power motor was asked $67 annually, or at the rate of $90.40.

Two clauses in the contract, His Worship said, would be afraid to object for fear of being persecuted by the company, and he wanted to know if such cases the Council would inter itself.

The Mayor replied that he had no doubt that in the event of any power user being unjustly treated the Council would help him. The proceeding was an appeal to the Ontario Municipal Board, which would adjust the rates.

The rates charged by the company to consumers in Hamilton are always to be open to inspection by the city.

The by-law is to be published in full in the press and the aldermen expressed the hope that the ratemakers would take enough interest in it to read it.

HYDRO ALDERMEN FAVOR IT. Ald. Jutten, after complimenting Mayor McLaren and Ald. Allan on their work in connection with the contract, pointed out the improvements made this year. The old agreement, he said, was a good one from the city's standpoint, but the citizens were not protected.

"It looks good to me," said Ald. Ellis, another Hydro-Electric alderman, who described the contract as a fair one. He favored competition if necessary. "But I don't know if we can present anything better than the Cataract offer," he added.

The by-law, he thought, should be sent to the people without any opinion from the Council.

SOME PEOPLE OUTSIDE OF THE COUNCIL, Mayor McLaren said, favored giving the Cataract the contract at any price, but he could not see it in this light. His Worship gave the aldermen who voted for the contract last year credit for being honest in their opinion. He did not think, however, that the citizens were adequately protected and for that reason he considered it best to have competition.

"We owe a great deal to the Hydro-Electric," he said, "for what we have been able to get. At the same time, we found the Cataract ready to give us a deal in the elements of competition. When it comes to a matter of dollars and cents, in view of this contract, I think it would be very foolish to go in for another distributing plant, when it would not be needed for any purposes but power only, and have to look up business that we might or might not get."

If the city entered the Hydro-Electric scheme it should go in for the whole scheme or nothing. "We are absolutely free every five years," he explained, "and we run no risk in the meantime."

"While we had considerable difficulty arranging with the lawyers to get the wording in shape," he said, "we did not have the usual difficulties in dealing with the company."

The wording in every case, the Mayor said, was clearly defined, and in matters where any serious difficulty, unforeseen at present, might arise, adequate provision was made for arbitration.

"It seems to me," said His Worship, "that from a dollars and cents view, with this contract, it is safer and probably cheaper than if we had a distributing plant."

The building of a transmission line, the keeping of books and upkeep of a distributing plant, His Worship thought, would be a foolish move, unless the city entered into the municipal power scheme on a wholesale plan. It was the only way it could be made a financial success. He believed in the city working hand in hand with the company, but the difficulty was that the company did not see matters in the same light. It seemed to feel that it had the right to charge higher rates as a bonus for bringing manufacturers here, when, as a matter of fact, when it had a practical monopoly it should be in a position to give lower rates.

"I believe the best thing we can do now," he said, "is to give the Cataract a trial on the new basis for a term of years, and if it does not turn out satisfactorily the company is not likely to get another trial."

ALL ONE COULD EXPECT. "I believe we have the contract down to what a reasonable man could expect," said Ald. Allan. While giving the

Hydro-Electric credit for putting the city in a position to get very favorable terms from the Cataract, at the same time he did not think any business man would enter into a contract to pay for something for thirty years when he did not know what he was getting or what it would do. "I think the people will carry this by-law," he said, "and I think they would be very foolish to pay more for something they can get cheaper."

CHEAPEST IN THE WORLD. "The Cataract Company to-day," said Ald. Ellis, "is offering cheaper prices than any other company in the world. Two cents a kilowatt for light is the actual cost of distribution to any users of power or light."

Ald. Ellis declared he was a strong believer in competition, but if the company delivered the goods he did not think the offer could be best.

THE BOARD OF CONTROL. The council meeting last night came near spinning out to a three-hour session. It presented a contract to the power question, and the aldermen expressed their views. There was less than a dozen backbenchers last night, and it was not the power question that attracted them there.

The Board of Control by-law, which was given two readings and sent on to the ratemakers to be voted on with the hospital and power by-laws on June 7, provides that:

The council of the city of Hamilton shall hereafter consist of a Mayor and four controllers, to be elected by the city at large, according to the provisions of the municipal act, which may from time to time be in force authorizing the election of a Board of Control, and the aldermen to be elected from the wards of the city, under section 70 of the municipal act, and the four controllers so elected, together with the Mayor, shall be the Board of Control for the said city.

The council may, by by-law, fix the salaries to be paid to the members of the Board of Control, but the same shall not exceed for each member the sum of $1,500 per annum.

HOSPITAL BY-LAW. The hospital by-law to raise debentures to the extent of $30,000 provides that:

The money realized upon and from the said debentures shall be used for the purpose of purchasing a site, or sites, for a hospital, or hospitals, for fever or other patients, and the building, or buildings, to be erected on the site, or sites, and such moneys shall be deposited by the city treasurer in the name of this corporation to the credit of a special account to be called "the hospital site fund, 1905," and shall be paid out only on certificate of the chairman of the Finance Committee of the City Council, that such payments are necessary and proper for the purposes of this by-law.

CRITICISED FUEL STATEMENT. The statement presented by the Fuel Committee was severely criticised by the Chairman, Peregrine, of the Finance Committee, who declared that the soft coal account showed that 216 more tons were received than were sent out. There was not sufficient allowance made for interest. The dealers were prepared to supply coal from ten to fifteen cents a ton cheaper than the city was handling it.

"It is extraordinary," he said, "that we should let this go on from year to year and throw money away. The Fire and Water Committee, who have been $8,000 last year, and I don't think it is right this should go on."

The expense of the department last year was $1,027. The business was handled by City Clerk Kent and Inspector Morgan, and Mr. Peregrine declared he did not like this way of doing business.

Mr. Kent was permitted to make an explanation, and he declared the city was getting its coal for $3,624. "Any dealer will supply it for $3.55," said Ald. Peregrine, "and the city allowed twelve and a half cents a ton for handling the coal, the dealers only provided for a profit of five cents. Had the city asked the Buffalo dealers for tenders it would have got a cheaper rate, declared Ald. Peregrine.

The report was adopted without further discussion.

THE NEW DOG BY-LAW. Some of the aldermen questioned the legality of passing the new by-law preventing dogs running at large because nearly all the licenses this year have been issued, and it was taking away privileges for which people had already paid. It was explained, however, that the council had power to pass such regulations.

"It will be a hardship," said Ald. Ellis, "on some dogs that like to traverse the city."

"We will get a playground for them," said His Worship.

The by-law provides that no dog is to appear on the street, under the leash or chain and in charge of some one at least seven years of age.

The council authorized the expenditure of $200 to round up tramp dogs.

ODD ENDS. A recommendation by Chairman Clark, of the Fire and Water Committee, that the drinking fountain at the corner of Victoria avenue and Cannon street be removed to the city yards until a more suitable location could be secured for it, provoked a twenty-minute discussion. Ald. Morris was opposed to removing it. He divided the council on the question, and the report was adopted without the recommendation.

The Hamilton Electric Light Company's offer to illuminate Goswick park and the extension of the Valley Wood and Main streets from May 24 to September 30 for $550 was accepted.

Neglect Your Cough—Anger. You may dislike taking medicine—but coughs are best cured without medicine. The modern treatment is "Cataract-hozone"—it isn't a drug—it's a heating vapor, full of pine essences and healing balsams. It penetrates the surfaces that are weak and sore from coughing. Every spot that's congested is healed, irritation is soothed away, phlegm and secretions are cleaned out, and all symptoms of cold and catarrh are cured. Nothing so quick, so sure, so pleasant as Cataract-hozone. In 25 cent and $1 sizes at all dealers.

"MIXED" SMOKING ROOM. Experiment Tried on Allan Line Virginian Seems to be Popular.

Montreal, May 10.—The Allan Line has introduced an innovation on the Virginian Virginian in the shape of a mixed smoking room. During the last voyage to Canada the room was given its first trial, and the Allan Company reports it to be a huge success, being largely used by both ladies and gentlemen for cigarette smoking and card playing.

THE HOME PHYSICIAN

Some Hints to Keep People Well.

Ninety-nine per cent. of the ordinary sicknesses are caused by the bowels, the kidneys or the skin.

As you know, these organs are the great purifiers of the human system. They filter impurities from the blood and pass them from the body. If the kidneys, bowels or skin weaken or get tired out or fail to do their regular work—then the blood becomes laden with impurities and poisoned. If it be the fault of the kidneys, then the skin is overworked in its efforts to throw off excess of urea and waste matter. The glands become inflamed and enlarged—pimples break out—and there may be a rash or eczema of the skin. If it is the fault of the skin, then the kidneys are strained by overwork and they in turn get out of order. It is the fault of the bowels, the blood is poisoned, the skin and kidneys weakened, the stomach upset—and, of course, there is Constipation and Biliousness.

How easy it is, then, to be free of all these troubles! "Fruit-a-tives" is not merely a remedy for any one of these troubles, but a cure for all. "Fruit-a-tives" acts on the liver and the kidneys. "Fruit-a-tives" keeps all these great organs well and strong, and thus insures the blood being always pure and rich. With "Fruit-a-tives" in the house to take at the first sign of any feeling well, you need not have a day's sickness. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box, 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

HAS DOUBLED.

Garth Street Mission Made Great Progress in One Year.

Garth Street Mission was crowded last night to hear Rev. F. W. Hollinrake deliver an illustrated lecture. Not only were the members out in full force, but also a number of outsiders, which goes to show that the work in the Mission is being carefully noted by the other churches. The attendance has been so large that a canvass will be made in the course of the next few months to see if enough money cannot be raised to build a larger church, that the work will be able to grow as it has in the past, and the members and friends will be given an opportunity to devote what they will to it and show how much they appreciate the work that is being done. The pastor, Rev. E. G. Sanders, acted as chairman.

The address by Mr. Hollinrake and the views proved very interesting and instructive. He told in a thorough way the customs prevailing in England, and had many views which showed the interest that is taken in many things appearing to be long enough, and would speak of the harm the liquor traffic is doing, and said the extent of the harm was not realized by the people. The views included some of the "Ram's Horn" series, in speaking about the slide entitled "Spike and Gun." Mr. Hollinrake said the gun represented the liquor traffic that was dealing out death and ruin, and he urged upon the audience the necessity of spiking the gun to prevent the young men of the coming age from being tempted as their predecessors were. He showed the devil standing close by with a smile on his face and watching the ruin he was doing. He said the day was coming when the people would realize that they had been tied down to a demon long enough, and would work for the abolishing of the traffic. It would be a fight of men and women, shoulder to shoulder, who realize that their interest is at stake. Mr. Hollinrake also spoke of the dangers a boy en-titled "Spike and Gun." Among the other views were pictures of Holland, Staunback Falls, which are over 1,000 feet in height; the Eiffel tower, in Paris, and a number of others of different countries.

The report of the secretary of the mission was most encouraging. It showed rapid progress. One year ago there were 57 scholars at the mission; to-day 124, an increase of 67; largest attendance any one Sunday 100; average 79. A year ago there were six classes, now twelve. Average collection $1.76 per Sunday; contributed to missions $19.51. During the year a number of the scholars were received into church membership.

MISTAKE MADE.

The Wrong Body Was Shipped to Widow.

Windsor, Ont., May 10.—The presumably unwitting substitution of the body of a stranger for that of her dead husband whom she expected to see, threw Mrs. Frank Lesperance into a hysterical condition to-day. Lesperance was killed in a mining accident at Sturgeon Lake, Ont., with two other men, some time ago. The remains were ordered shipped to his old home in Minneapolis, and the widow, accompanied by a party of friends, came here to meet them.

Upon arrival here, the casket was opened to make sure of the identification. Instead of the remains of her husband, the widow gazed upon an entirely strange face. The shock almost caused her to swoon, and the casket was hastily closed.

It is supposed the body of the wrong man was placed in the casket by mistake for that of Lesperance, and an effort is being made to get the proper corpse sent on. The remains of the pseudo Minneapolis man are being held in Detroit for the present.

EVERY DAY BRINGS A FRESH PROOF

That Dodd's Kidney Pills are a Boom to Suffering Women.

Mrs. Rousseau Tells How They Cured Her After Three Years of Almost Ceaseless Pain.

Hintonburg, Ont., May 10.—(Special.)—Every day furnishes fresh proof that the women of Canada can be cured of ailments which have hitherto seemed to be a part of the inheritance of the sex by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. And this place has a living proof in the person of Mrs. William Rousseau, of 37 Merton street.

"For over three years," Mrs. Rousseau states, "I was very ill. My troubles were painful. I suffered very much with my back. My head ached almost continuously, and I scarcely knew what it was to be free from pain. I was very weak and run down. Occasionally my hands would swell up, and this, too, gave me a great deal of annoyance and discomfort. I began to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and very soon commenced to improve. Three boxes cured me completely."

Ninety-nine of suffering women's troubles start from diseased kidneys. The natural way to cure them is to take away the cause, that is, to cure the kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure diseased kidneys.

BEARS GENERALLY JOLLY. But Sometimes One Comes Along With a Settled Grouch. "Rarely are bears born ill tempered. They may show some resentment at the time of their capture when but two months old, but this feeling soon disappears, leaving a jolly roving will to box and wrestle. I once knew a cub that was a regular terror," says a writer in Collier's, "and he never reformed. He would attack anything, regardless of its size or strength."

"At the age of three months he would charge at me, snorting, sniffling and striking with his tiny paws, and when I did not protect myself he seized my trousers leg between his teeth and shook it violently."

"At first I thought that he had been abused by his former owner, and that by kind treatment he would soon outgrow his temper, but no, he just had it in him and he became more and more dangerous at time sped by."

"Finally he grew large enough to be put in with the mature bears. Without danger of his squeezing between the bars and escaping, and to the surprise of every one he immediately took charge of the den. Old bears twenty times his size, possibly from some sense of honor, if animals have honor, submitted to cuffs and slaps in the face and actually allowed him to snatch food from their mouths without resenting the insult."

"Why doesn't some one invent a new puzzle?" "Cheer up; the spring change of railway time-tables is about due."—Buffalo Express.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

Rube Waddell Batted Freely by the Phillies.

Rain and snow has cost the big league owners thousands of dollars already this season. Yesterday rain prevented all the games scheduled in the Eastern League, and stopped one in the American and two in the National. At Brooklyn the A. L. game was halted by a continuous rain. Brooklyn batted Coakley in the first game of the series, and he was hit effectively. The fielding behind him was poor. Score: R. H. E. Philadelphia . . . 000,010,010--2 7 2 Brooklyn . . . 120,000,107--4 9 3 Batteries--Coakley, Sparks and Dorn; Bell and Berger. At Boston--Inability to hit Raymond's pitching with men on bases cost the locals the game to-day. New York won 2 to 1, the fourth time in this series that the same score has prevailed. White was wild, but kept the hits scattered. Score: R. H. E. New York . . . 100,010,010--2 6 0 Boston . . . 001,000,000--1 5 4 Batteries--Raymond and Schiel; White and Bowerman. IN THE NATIONAL. LEAGUE YESTERDAY. The first game of the series with St. Louis, 2 to 1. Waddell was unsteady and he was hit effectively. The fielding behind him was poor. Score: R. H. E. St. Louis . . . 000,000,000--1 7 3 Philadelphia . . . 000,000,000--5 9 0 Batteries--Waddell and Stephens; Plank and Thomas. At Chicago--Chicago defeated Washington, the first of the eastern teams to appear here, in a hard fought eleven-inning game. 1 to 0. Both White and Johnson pitched good ball up to the eleventh. In the deciding round Johnson weakened and unsteady hits by White, Hahn and Waddell gave Chicago the winning run. Score: R. H. E. Chicago . . . 000,000,000--1 6 1 Washington . . . 000,000,000--0 4 1 Batteries--White and Sullivan; Johnson and Street. PASS BALLS AND FOUL TIPS. Owing to the number of foul balls appreciated by the spectators at the Brooklyn games the president has decided to give a pass to every one returning a "foul" ball. Second baseman Louie, of Rochester, whose right name is Lodenbacher, has been sold to the Wilkes-Barre Club. President Bill Tingle, of the "G. H. Party," a limited band of rooters, will shortly call a meeting of the organization to get ready for the season's business. The giant outfielders form about the weakest hitting outfield in the National League at present--Chicago Hahn is one of the trio. What is the National League coming to? Not a Casey, Kelly or O'Brien in the present membership, and only a few years ago these honored families were as numerous as chickens round a farm yard. Joe Kelly was disappointed at the New York announcement that Fitcher Ford had been turned over to Jersey City. Stallings had promised Ford to be under 16 years of age and each must post a forfeit of $225 before May 17th. Teams entering prospecting post $1. W. Miller was chosen umpire, and the league will open May 22nd, when the following teams will play: 2--Hurons vs. Alerts; 4--Blue Labels vs. Violets. All games will be played at the field near the corner of King and Wentworth streets.

No. Maude, dear; just because a girl doesn't paint we shouldn't say that she was artless.

I Don't Blame You

You never before have had an opportunity to invest your money in a Cobalt enterprise that has behind it two men who helped locate the Temiscamingue and Hudson Bay Mining Co.'s properties and a third who was the discoverer of a mine, which sold for One Million Dollars cash. Yet such is the proposition which we are placing before you to-day.

The Cobalt Commercial Mines, Limited, has for its president Mr. John Dunkin, of London, who has been a director of the Hudson Bay Mining Co. ever since its organization, and was, until recently, the largest individual shareholder in the Temiscamingue and Hudson Bay Mining Co.

Mr. Bisbee, Secretary-Treasurer, was one of the original shareholders of the Temiscamingue and Hudson Bay Mining Co., realizing $277,000 for every dollar invested, and with Mr. Dunkin, was among the party who located the properties of the Temiscamingue and Hudson Bay Mining Co.

Mr. Bucknall has had upwards of ten years' experience in this district and was the discoverer of the Cobalt Casey Mines, which sold for One Million Dollars cash, and has since proved a good investment even at that price. Besides these three men are Mr. A. W. Marquis, solicitor, St. Catharines, and Mr. H. C. Russell, of Hamilton, who are well known to you.

Behind our company are three men who have been very successful in the Cobalt camp, and what we have done before we believe we can do again. Would you like to take a small interest with us, and share our profits?

We now own over two hundred acres in the well known territory south of Lorraine, where we have uncovered eleven veins of calcite and decomposed matter, carrying from traces of silver to over two hundred ounces per ton. In addition to this we will send out expert prospectors who will work in the new fields and in this way we will secure other properties at the very lowest cost.

We will be pleased to have you call at our office, inspect our samples and prospectus.

MARKET EXPERTS TALK.

New York, May 11--Continuation of profit taking and bearish aggression will likely cause an extension of the reaction to-day, but we expect to see an upward trend, and on the dips we advise purchases of good stocks generally for turns at least. While some pools are in a position to boost up their specialties, they will take every advantage to do so just now. Manipulation of the Metal Market may compensate for the unsatisfactory showing of copper figures, but we are still unfavorable to ACP and would prefer if trading to sell that stock on bulges. Weakness in the Steels may be reflected in the Industrial list generally. We consider Corn Products, Equipment stocks, especially Railway Springs and P. R. S. as attractive purchases. Of the rails Reading is most likely to break and we would not buy on reactions, then confine operations to such good stocks as KSI, M. P., N.Y.C., Ill. Central, S. P. and U. P. ENORMOUS PROFITS OF COBALT

It has just been announced that the profits of the La Rose mines for the past twelve months will be one million and fifty thousand dollars. During the past week a property owned by Mr. J. R. Jowsey, of the Keeley-Jowsey & Wood Mining Co., was sold to English capitalists for fifty thousand dollars. This property joins the property of the Cobalt Commercial Mines, Limited, and judging by the amount of work in progress and the interest being taken in Lower Lorraine will be foremost among the new camps this year. At the Keeley-Jowsey Wood Mining Co.'s properties high grade ore is being bagged daily and two car loads of high grade ore are waiting shipment at the wharf. The Halleybury Silver Mining Co. in South Lorraine recently sold nineteen acres for one hundred thousand dollars. On the Morrison claim joining the Cobalt Commercial Mines, Limited, a fourteen inch vein of calcite has been discovered, carrying plenty of native silver. Highfield School is well represented in the Toronto University cricket club. At the annual meeting, which was largely attended, S. W. C. Scott was elected captain, while E. Bristol and S. S. Mills were placed on the committee.

CRIMINAL CASES HEARD.

Robert Barrow Thinks Stout Did Not Mean to Defraud.

Charles Flynn Agrees to Sign the Pledge For One Year.

Charges Against Wm. Hildreth and John Walsh Fail.

Judge Monck held a criminal court in chambers this morning. The first case taken up was that of Hugh G. Stout, of Anaster, charged with having obtained unlawfully and by false pretences Robt. Barrow to endorse a promissory note for the sum of $400, made by Hugh Stout and payable to James McEwen, with intent to defraud.

Stout pleaded not guilty, and Crown Attorney Washington announced that Barrow had come to his office yesterday and stated that he did not think Stout had intended to defraud him.

"This is another case where the criminal law has been worked to obtain money," said his Honor.

"There are too many of these cases," replied Mr. Washington.

"Have you any evidence to offer, Mr. Washington?" asked the Judge.

"No."

"You are found not guilty," said his Honor.

Charles Flynn was charged with aggravated assault on his wife, Annie Flynn, at his home, 70 Sheafie street, a couple of weeks ago. Complainant said he went home drunk one afternoon and demanded a dollar from his wife to go to the doctor. She said that if he laid down and slept for a while she would give him the money. He became enraged and, following her into a bedroom, threw a lamp at her, which struck her on the head.

She told the court if Flynn would sign the pledge she would be willing to take him back.

"Let me see, he is on the Indian list, isn't he?" asked Mr. Washington.

"Yes," replied Mrs. Flynn.

"Well, where does he get his liquor?" asked the Crown.

"I don't know," replied the wife.

"Will you sign the pledge for a year?" asked his Honor.

"Yes," eagerly replied Flynn.

"Well, you can go," said the court.

Mr. A. M. Lewis appeared for Flynn. The next case taken up was that of William Hildreth and John Walsh, charged with stealing $80 from James Phillips on April 19. Both pleaded not guilty and were represented by Mr. M. J. O'Reilly, K. C.

Mr. Washington explained to the court that Phillips was in the police court this morning on a charge of drunkenness, and that in default of his fine he had been taken to jail, and for that reason could not appear to give evidence. The crown asked permission to have his evidence taken at the police court. Mr. O'Reilly agreed, subject to objection.

The story of the alleged assault was again told and witnesses told of seeing the three men scuffling on Vine street. One witness said that he was standing about one hundred feet away from the three men and thought some paper money was taken from Phillips.

It was shown that the three men were very drunk.

Mr. O'Reilly submitted that no case had been made out against his clients.

Mr. Washington said that Phillips had told him at the police court that he did not lose his money.

"I have no doubt in my own mind that these men are guilty," said his Honor, "but the evidence is of such a nature that it would not warrant a conviction."

"All right," replied the Crown.

TO COL. LOGIE.

Magnificent Silver Service From the Highlander Officers.

At a delightful little dinner party given last night in the new armories by Lieut.-Col. Bruce in honor of Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Logie and Lieut.-Col. Moodie, a handsome silver tea service was presented to Col. and Mrs. Logie by the officers of the Ninety-first Regiment in recognition of their interest and the many services each have rendered to the regiment. The toast to their good health was drunk deeply and responded to in glowing terms. Lieut.-Col. Moodie was toasted and the officers all expressed their hearty wish that his term of office as President of the Dominion Power and Transmission Company would be both a prosperous and happy one.

SUIT OVER THAT BRIDGE.

Kerr & Thomson, acting on behalf of Mrs. Mary Gleason, have issued a writ against the Grand Trunk Railway for unstated damages for alleged injury to her property, on the north side of Ferris street east, between Ferguson avenue and Wellington street, caused by the erection of a bridge to carry the line of Ferris street over the defendants' tracks.

A Bargain is Determined.

TEA TABLE GOSSIP.

The Hamilton assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will meet in St. Thomas' Church lecture room on Thursday night, Mr. J. A. Gatto, of Toronto, will be the principal speaker.

Thomas Todd, of this city, is attending the thirty-second annual meeting of the Grand Division of the Order of Railway Conductors of America, at Boston. There are forty-two Canadian delegates in attendance.

Miss Sprouts, who has been working among the lumbermen of Northern Ontario, and well known to many people in Hamilton, will address a public meeting in Erskine Sunday School room this evening. Dr. R. T. McDonald will preside.

Next week will see the installation of a new moulding machine in the Gurney-Tilden factory, which is calculated to improve the work of the men one hundred per cent. It is a new invention, and is looked upon as a valuable one by the moulding firms.

In the case of Almas vs. Herman, for a balance amounting to about $600, under a contract, Mr. M. J. O'Reilly, K. C., for Almas, moved before Judge Monck this morning to strike out jury notice. Mr. S. D. Biggar, K. C., contra. His Honor referred the matter to the trial Judge.

The death occurred last night of Mrs. Lenora Webb, wife of William J. Webb, at her late residence, Kenilworth. She deceased was 31 years of age, and leaves, besides her husband, three children. She was born in Bradford, and will be buried in Gage's cemetery, Barton, on Thursday at 2 p. m.

WILL NOT SIGN.

Master Builders Decide What Terms They Will Offer.

At a meeting of the builders, in their quarters in the Federal Life building last night, which was called that they might try and come to an agreement with the journeymen carpenters, they were unanimous in their decision that no agreement be signed. The highest wage will be 35 cents an hour, and the men will be paid according to their worth. By signing the agreement, the builders say, they would not have the same opportunity as those not belonging to the Builders' Association, as the outsiders would not be bound by the agreement. The builders, therefore, decided that the open shop was the best, and so made their decision to that effect. They decided in favor of an eight-hour day, and their decision will take effect on Monday.

The men are willing to accept the decrease in their wages from 37 1/2 cents to 35 cents, but they want the builders to sign an agreement. They threatened to strike if the builders would not sign the agreement.

The men will consider the ultimatum at an early date.

KEPT BACK.

Farmers Two Weeks Behind With Seeding—Good Hay Prospect.

The cold weather and excessive rain of the past month have not been very favorable to the farmers, as it has kept them from doing their seeding, and at present they are about two weeks behind in this work. Although it has not been favorable for seeding it has been good for hay, as the old saying goes, "Wet May makes plenty of hay." Only a few of the farmers were fortunate enough to get any of their seeding done. Before the rain on Thursday the ground was getting into good shape, but it is in poor condition again, and the earliest possible date for the farmers to start work would be in about a week. The unfavorable weather will be especially bad for the farmers who have no drainage.

TWO ACCIDENTS.

Oliver Beatty, 570 Catherine street north, a teamster employed by the Inland Navigation Company, fell from his rig yesterday, and received a severe shaking up. He was taken to the City Hospital, and was much better this morning.

While working in the Canada Screw Company's factory yesterday afternoon John Bryan, 204 Queen street north, met with a painful accident, his face being badly burned with acid. It was feared for a while that he might lose the sight of one eye, but prompt medical attention removed that danger, and this morning he was much improved.

SOLD CANDY ON SUNDAY.

Barton Street Storekeeper Fined $20 in Police Court.

Magistrate Commented on His Way of Doing Business.

James Phillips in Dock Instead of Witness.

For selling candy on Sunday, George Culy, 423 Barton street east, was fined $20 by Magistrate Jelfs at the Police Court this morning. Last Sunday P. C. May was watching the place, when he saw a young lad come out with a bag of candy in his hand. He stopped the boy and asked him what he had. The youngster held out the candy and said that he had bought it at Culy's for five cents. May took the lad's address, confiscated the candy and laid a complaint against Culy for breach of the Lord's Day Act. Culy said that it was only his most intimate friends that he sold anything on Sunday, and produced a card, on which were inscribed the words, "Nothing sold on Sunday." "Oh; that is the way some people do business nowadays," said the Magistrate, after glancing at the card. "This is clearly a breach of the act, and you are fined $20," he said, turning to the defendant.

As a result of too big a thirst, John McElroy woke up in the police cells this morning. He was charged with being drunk and disorderly. "Guilty or not guilty?" asked the desk sergeant. "Guilty." "What was he doing?" asked the bench, but John hastened to cut in with his plea again. He was allowed to go with a fine of $3.

Ernest Seymour, Augusta street, pleaded guilty to obstructing a public alleyway by placing building materials in it, and was fined $2.

James Phillips must have had an unusually large load of wet goods aboard last night, as he was still wet when he appeared in the dock this morning. He pleaded guilty and was assessed the usual tariff. Phillips' last appearance was about three weeks ago. He accumulated a bad jag on that occasion and reported that he was robbed of about $45. William Hildreth and John Walsh were arrested and charged with the thefts and Magistrate Jelfs sent them up for trial. The case was to come up at the High Court to-day.

E. D. Johnston, Dennis Bennett and Thomas Donnelly were each fined $2 for being drunk.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Kingston, Ont., May 11.—Three young Kingstonians—Clara Smith, Annie Wright and Robert McKorkill—had an unpleasant experience last night when their gasoline launch caught fire, as a result of a lighted match dropped into some spilt gasoline. TORONTO FIRE.

$80,000 Blaze This Morning—Fireman's Wrist Broken.

Toronto, May 11.—Probably $80,000 damage was done by a fire that broke out shortly after 3 o'clock this morning in a four-story building, at the corner of South and Esplanade streets. The interior of the building was completely gutted. Damage $100,000. The losses: William C. Wilson, ship supplies, $8,000; White & Co., fruit auction rooms, $6,000; Rudd Paper Box Co.'s, $15,000 on stock and $18,000 on plant; Ontario Novelty Co., $25,000. William Warr, a fireman, while engaged in fighting the flames, had a wrist broken by a ladder striking it.

All men interested, and who have not yet put in signed applications, should attend this parade, if they look to become part of this splendid military unit.

The Little Girl's "weet"

Eugene Walter, at a dinner at the Ansonia, was accused of pessimism. "Well," said Mr. Walter, "I am not a pessimist, but I don't believe that human nature is by any means angelic. We are all much alike. The best we can do is to curb our faults and favor our virtues."

"What faults should I curb?" a pretty young lady asked.

"Well," said Mr. Walter, "I should think you'd have about the same faults to curb as a little girl I talked to yesterday. She's a charming little girl, and as we conversed alone in the drawing room while waiting for her father and mother to come down I said to her: 'Have you got a sweetheart?'"

"She smiled and wriggled. 'Yeth,' she said softly."

"Well," said I, "I'll give you a quarter if you'll tell me who he is."

"Tommy," she answered, in a low voice, and I gave her the quarter.

"A few minutes afterward she said suddenly: 'Now, if you'll give me another quarter, I'll tell you who my other sweetheart is.'"

There is a place for everything, and the place for slippers is very often on the seat of a small boy's trousers.

The people who look good to you are not always the ones who are considered good looking.
