DILLONS RELEASE. LETTER FROM MR DAVITT-RELI

JECTURES ON THE SITUATION Speaking of Mr Dillon's lease, the Freeman's Journ says:-" We trust this act justice is as the dawn of the d of liberty to Michael Davitt a to all John Dillon's fellow soners. No tenant could ce brate a Land bill victory wh the advocate of the tenant li gered in gaol. Mr. Dillon w arrested nominally for a spee at a land league meeting, really for the determined agi tion against the tyranny wh

The unexpected release of N Dillon created almost as mu excitement in Dublin to day his arrest on the 3rd of May la No reason whatever has be assigned for the step on the p of the Government. Mr. Dill is not in bad health as was first reported. The stateme that he has been released on ground turns out to be a guess. The imprisoned "suspectivas at his evening meal, wh the Governor of Kilmainha visited him and informed hi that he was no longer under r straint. In less than twen minutes Mr. Dillon was drivi home. As he passed up Sackvi street he did not even the Land League's office, though there were lights in t windows, The news of the lease was accidently made py lic by a reporter who called at out-o-the-way detectives stati but it was not credited until t reporers enquired at Mr. Dillo houseand found him in bed. answer to inquiries he stat that his release, was uncondition al. He had not the slightest pectaton of his imprisonme being to suddenly curtailed.
