The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PREFACE.

It has always been a matter of surprise to me that no book exists to which Riflemen can turn to trace the fortunes of a Regiment whose career has been so long and so distinguished as that of "The 60th, or King's Royal Rifle Corps;" but it may probably be accounted for by the peculiarity of the early history of the Regiment, its numerous battalions, and its singularly varied services.

It is not my object, in the present volume, to attempt a connected history of those services. The scanty and broken materials at my disposal make such an undertaking at present almost an impossibility; it will be enough if I can furnish those interested in the Regiment with a book of reference on most matters of importance in its eventful annals.

I am well aware that my information in many instances is fragmentary, and that I have not even been able always to assign the exact dates to the facts recorded, or to distinguish the separate services of the different battalions; nevertheless, I have thought it best to publish, without any more delay, what I have been able to collect, after careful research during the past five years, from private manuscripts and records, and from public offices and libraries in England and America.

Imperfect as this Regimental Chronicle is in too many respects, I believe that it will be found to contain some information that is new, and many things that have never before been brought together, in a convenient and accessible form.

I sincerely thank all those who have given me assistance, and especially Major-General Rigaud, who throughout has shown the liveliest interest in the work, and who, moreover, has greatly helped me in revising the proofs.

I am much indebted to Major-General Bedford, Captain Boyle (Rifle Brigade), Captain Astley Terry, Major Morrah, the Hon. Walter Pepys, and the Rev. Richard Davy, all of whom have lent me either valuable manuscripts or prints.

Most of the plates are from sketches (taken from old prints) by the Hon. F. Greville and another friend, to both of whom I am greatly obliged.

As there is still very much more to be done in working out the history of the Regiment, I earnestly ask all who are interested in the subject to help me, as far as they can, by furnishing me with any materials they may have collected, or by pointing out to me any fresh source of information, so that I may be able to make as complete as possible the volume which I hope to publish at some future time, containing the Historical Records of the 60th King's Royal Rifles.

SKETCH OF THE HISTORY

OF THE

60TH, OR THE KING'S ROYAL RIFLE CORPS.

THE formation of "The 62nd, or the Royal American Regiment of Foot," now called "The 60th, or King's Royal Rifle Corps," dates from the middle of the last century.

About that time it was thought advisable to augment the Army by eleven battalions, war between England and France seeming imminent, owing to the disregard of the treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle, and the frequent encroachments upon British territory in America by the latter power.

In May, 1756, war was declared by Great Britain against France, and, in order to strengthen the British Forces in America, the immediate attention of Parliament was turned towards raising in that country a new Regiment of Foot which was intended to combine the characteristics of a Colonial Corps with those of a Foreign Legion.

During the Parliament of 1755,* the sum of £81,000 was voted for the purpose of raising a Regiment of four battalions, each a thousand strong, for service in British North America.

By the same Parliament an Act was also passed "To enable His Majesty to grant commissions to a certain number of foreign Protestants, who have served abroad as officers or engineers, to act and rank as officers or engineers in America only, under certain restrictions and regulations."

The Earl of Loudoun, who had shortly before been nominated Commander-in-Chief of the Forces in North America, was appointed Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment.

About fifty Officers' commissions, or rather less than a third of the whole, were given to Germans and Swiss; and none were allowed to rise above the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

* 29th George II., cap. 5, November, 1755.

The men were chiefly German and Swiss Protestants, who, for some years past, had settled in America on the waste lands which had been assigned to them by the British Government. These men, from their religion, language, and race, were considered in every way suitable opponents to the French.

On enlistment for the requisite term of three years they were obliged to take the oath of allegiance, and to become naturalized subjects; but they were required to serve only in America.

This new Regiment was at first called "The 62nd, or the Royal American Regiment of Foot."

At the disbandment of Shirley's and Pepperel's Regiments in August, 1756, which were numbered the 50th and 51st Regiments, the title was changed to "The 60th, or the Royal American Regiment of Foot."

In 1757, General James Abercromby was appointed Colonel-in-Chief, and, in 1758, was succeeded by General Sir Jeffery Amherst, K.B.

In 1761,* an Act of Parliament was passed referring to Act 13 George II., naturalizing foreign Protestants, and giving further instructions on the subject.

At the conclusion of the seven years' war with France, the Third and Fourth Battalions were disbanded in England in 1763† and 1764.

In 1772,‡ another Act of Parliament, explanatory of the two former, was passed.

In 1775, owing to the outbreak of the Civil War in America, the British Government again decided to increase the Army.

Two more battalions of the 60th, numbered the Third and Fourth, were raised in England and ordered for service in the West Indies.

At the conclusion of the peace in 1783, these battalions were once more disbanded in Nova Scotia, and any of the men who chose were allowed to settle there.§

In 1787 they were again formed in England, almost entirely of foreigners, and sent to the West Indies.

In 1794, rifles were introduced into the English Army, and were first issued to a battalion of "The 60th Royal American Regiment of Foot."

‡ 13th George III., cap. 25, November 26, 1772.

§ Royal Warrant, St. James's, June 9, 1783.

In 1797, H.R.H. the Duke of York was appointed Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment.

In the same year* another Act of Parliament was passed for the raising of a Fifth Battalion, in the Isle of Wight; about 400 of "Hompesch's Mounted Riflemen" were incorporated with it, and 500 of "Lowenstein's Chasseurs," a corps raised by a Prince of that name for the Dutch Republic, were also drafted into the battalion on its arrival in the West Indies.

The Colonel of the new battalion was Francis Baron de Rottenburg. About the same time Walstein's Foreign Light Infantry were drafted into the Fourth Battalion.

A clothing warrant of 1800 shows that for some time the Fifth Battalion had been dressed in green. This confirms the statement to that effect contained in the records of the First Battalion.

The Fifth Battalion was armed with rifles and carried leather rifle bags instead of knapsacks.

In 1799,† an Act of Parliament was passed for adding a Sixth and Seventh Battalion.

The Sixth Battalion was formed the same year, in the Isle of Wight, almost entirely of Germans.

The Seventh Battalion was raised in 1813, in the Channel Islands, from German prisoners of war, and consisted of 840 rank and file, 640 of which were called Light Infantry, and the remainder Rifles.

In the same year‡ an Act of Parliament was also passed to augment the Regiment still further by the addition of three more battalions.

The Eighth Battalion was formed at Lisbon in 1813, but the Ninth and Tenth do not appear to have been raised.

After the conclusion of the peace in 1815, six of the battalions were disbanded and drafted as follows:—

May, 1816. Drafts from the Eighth Battalion were sent to the Fifth Battalion at Gibraltar; the remainder were disbanded at Portsmouth.

June, 1817. The Seventh Battalion was disbanded at Halifax,

* 38th George III., cap. 13, December 30, 1797.

† 39th George III., cap. 104, July 12, 1799.

‡ 5th George III., cap. 12, December 6, 1813.

Nova Scotia, and drafted into the Second and Third Battalions, and lands were granted to all discharged men to settle on.

February, 1818. The Sixth Battalion was disbanded at Portsmouth, and the men drafted into the Third Battalion at Halifax, Nova Scotia.

July, 1818. The Fifth Battalion was disbanded at the Isle of Wight, and the men drafted into the Second Battalion at Quebec, which was renamed "The Rifle Battalion," whilst the Third Battalion was called "Light Infantry."

April, 1819. The First and Fourth Battalions were disbanded at Portsmouth, and drafted into the Second Battalion at Quebec; the Second Battalion was again renamed and designated "The First, or the Rifle Battalion;" and the Third, "The Second, or Light Infantry."

Early in 1824 the Regiment was made a "British Corps," and its title changed to "The Duke of York's Own Rifle Corps" and "Light Infantry," and in July of the same year, both battalions were called "Rifle Battalions," and were ordered to be equipped as such.

In October the motto "Celer et Audax," granted to the Regiment for distinguished conduct and bravery under General Wolfe, in 1759, which had for some unaccountable reason fallen into disuse, was resumed by authority.

In 1830, the title was again changed to "The 60th, or the King's Royal Rifle Corps."

In 1855, during the Crimean War, a Third Battalion was once more raised in Dublin.

In 1857 the Indian Mutiny having caused the breaking up of the Native Army in the Bengal Presidency, second battalions were added to many of the Line Regiments, and a Fourth Battalion to "The 60th."

In 1827, H.R.H. the Duke of Cambridge was appointed Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment, in succession to H.R.H. the Duke of York.

In 1850, H.R.H. the Duke of Cambridge died, and Field Marshal H.R.H. Prince Albert, the late Prince Consort, was appointed Colonel-in-Chief.

In 1852, General Viscount Beresford was gazetted Colonel-in-Chief.

In 1854, General Viscount Gough, &c., &c., became Colonel-in-Chief. At his death, in 1869, Field Marshal H.R.H. the Duke of Cambridge, &c., &c., &c., succeeded to the appointment.

ORIGIN OF THE REGIMENTAL MOTTO, "CELER ET AUDAX."

THE motto, "Celer et Audax," was given to the Regiment by General Wolfe for its distinguished bravery at the siege of Quebec, in 1759. It is not, indeed, possible to produce contemporary evidence of this; at least, I have failed to find any; but it will be seen that it was treated as a well-known fact by the Authorities at the Horse Guards. From some cause, which it is not easy to conceive of, this motto was either forgotten or disused, at what period I am unable to say. It was resumed on October 14, 1824, when, as the following letter shows, His Majesty George III. was pleased to authorise its being restored and worn on the Appointments of the Regiment:—

"HORSE GUARDS,

"October 11, 1824.

"SIR,

"I have the honor to acquaint you, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief, that His Majesty has been pleased to permit the 60th Regiment, 'The Duke of York's Own Rifle Corps,' to resume the motto, 'Celer et Audax,' which was formerly worn by the Regiment in commemoration of its distinguished bravery whilst employed with the British Army in North America, under Major-General Wolfe, in the year 1759.

"I have the honor, &c.,

(Signed) "J. McDONALD,

"To the Officer Commanding

"D.A.G.

"1st Battalion, 60th Rifles."

A happier motto for a Rifle Regiment it would be difficult to find, but it is chiefly prized as being so closely connected with the early fortunes of the 60th in North America—a Regiment in whose history occurs the following curious and noteworthy coincidence:—

THE 2ND AND 3RD BATTALIONS OF THE 60TH, AS PART OF THE first ENGLISH GARRISON OF QUEBEC, WERE PRESENT IN SEPTEMBER, 1759, WHEN THE BRITISH ENSIGN WAS HOISTED OVER THE CITADEL BY AN OFFICER OF THE ROYAL ARTILLERY; AND IN NOVEMBER, 1871, ONE HUNDRED AND TWELVE YEARS AFTERWARDS, A DETACHMENT OF THE 1ST BATTALION OF THE 60TH, THE REMNANT OF THE last ENGLISH GARRISON OF QUEBEC, CONSIGNED THE IMPERIAL FLAG TO THE KEEPING OF ANOTHER ARTILLERY OFFICER, WHILST THE FLAG OF THE DOMINION OF CANADA WAS HOISTED IN ITS STEAD.

PROBABLE ORIGIN OF THE MALTESE CROSS.

“A CROSS OF EIGHT POINTS OF THE FORM WORN BY HOSPITALLERS (AS A DECORATION) AND OTHER ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.”—

Chambers's Encyclopædia, Vol. vi., page 287, 1874.

It is difficult to discover the origin of the Maltese Cross as a Regimental Badge, but it probably was first adopted about 1797 when a Fifth Battalion was added to the Regiment composed principally of “Hompesch's Mounted Riflemen.” As each battalion successively became a Rifle Battalion it was ordered to be equipped on the model of the Fifth Battalion, and it is therefore natural that they should have adopted the Badge which Hompesch's Battalion had in use at the time of its incorporation with the Fifth Battalion.

This theory is plausibly suggested in “Notes and Queries,” July 14, 1870, by the writer, who signs himself H. A. St. J. M., where he says, “I suggest that Hompesch, who was a Bavarian, adopted the badge of the Maltese Cross either from the war medal then given to the Bavarian soldiers, or else because he was a relation of Ferdinand de Hompesch, Knight of Malta, who, in 1797, became grandmaster of the order.”

That it was sanctioned as a Regimental Badge is certain, as it was worn by H.R.H. the Duke of York, Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment, upon his own appointments, which were presented on H.R.H.'s death by His Majesty George IV. to the First Battalion, in whose possession they are still preserved.

PROBABLE ORIGIN OF THE MALTESE CROSS.

THE CROSS OF GERMANY WHICH WAS FIRST USED BY HOSPITALIERS
 (THE A. DECEPHALON) OF THE ORDER OF KNIGHTS, &c.—
General's Review, Vol. V. page 287. 1874

The origin of the cross which is now the badge of the Maltese Cross is a somewhat doubtful one. It probably was first adopted about 1797 when the 1st Battalion was added to the Regiment composed principally of 'Hompesch's Mounted Riflemen.' As each battalion successively became a Rifle Battalion it was ordered to be equipped on the model of the fifth Battalion, and it is therefore natural that they should have adopted the Badge which Hompesch's Battalion had in use at the time of its incorporation with the Fifth Battalion.

This theory is plausibly suggested in 'Notes and Queries,' July 14, 1870 by the writer who signs himself H. A. St. J. M., who has also suggested that Hompesch, who was a Bavarian, adopted the cross of the Maltese Cross either from the war medal then given to the Bavarian soldiers, or else because he was a subject of the Grand Duke of Baden who, in 1797, received the Maltese Cross from the Emperor of Austria.

The Maltese Cross is a possession of the 5th Battalion, as it was given to the 5th Battalion of York's Regiment by the Regiment upon the 1st of January, 1801, which was presented on 14th of the month by His Majesty George IV. to the 5th Battalion, in whose possession they are still at present.

Regimental Badge.

NOTE.—Great difficulty has been experienced in tracing all the changes of quarters, owing to the numerous moves and detachments of the Regiment during its early service in America and the West Indies.

The following table is, however, believed to be correct.

In many instances where moves have been frequent and for short periods, only the head-quarters and principal stations have been named.

In all cases the stations have been verified by Regimental Records, Army Lists, and other Official Sources.

The Isle of Wight has been entered as the Regimental Depôt for all the Battalions from 1763 to 1824, as I have been unable to trace it to any other place; and as nearly all the Battalions were raised, recruited, and disbanded there, it is but reasonable to suppose that it was the Depôt during that period.

Before 1763 the Depôt was probably at Albany or New York.

REGIMENT.

Anno vicesimo nono
GEORGII II. REGIS.

29 Geo. II., cap. 5.

An Act to enable His Majesty to grant Commissions to a certain Number of Foreign Protestants who have served Abroad as Officers, or Engineers, to act and rank as Officers, or Engineers, in America only, under certain Restrictions and Qualifications.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for Naturalizing such Foreign Protestants, and others therein mentioned, as are settled, or shall settle, in any of His Majesty's Colonies in America; all Persons born out of the Allegiance of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, who have inhabited and resided, or shall inhabit and reside, for the Space of Seven Years, or more, in any of His Majesty's Colonies in America, or shall not have been absent out of some of the said Colonies for a longer Space than Two Months, at any One Time during the said Seven Years, are upon the Conditions prescribed by the said Act, naturalized and made Partakers of all the Benefits and Privileges which the natural-born Subjects of this Realm do enjoy, other than such as are specified in a Proviso in the said Act contained: And whereas many Foreigners, being Protestants, have been induced by the Encouragement offered to them by the said Act, to reside and settle in some of the said Colonies (and particularly in the Provinces of Maryland and Pennsylvania) the natural-born Subjects of which last-mentioned Province do in great Part consist of the People called Quakers, whose Backwardness in their own Defence exposes themselves, and that Part of America, to imminent Danger: And whereas, for the better Defence of the said Colonies, it hath been proposed to raise a Regiment there, consisting of Four Battalions of One thousand Men each, and to enlist as Soldiers in the said Regiment any of the said Foreign Inhabitants of the said Colonies, who, together with the Natives, shall voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Service as Soldiers; which Foreigners cannot so well be raised or trained, without the Assistance of some Officers who are acquainted with their Manners and Language: And whereas it is expedient in the present Juncture of Affairs, to facilitate the speedy raising of such Regiment, and to enable a certain Number of Foreign Protestants who have served Abroad as Officers, or Engineers, and thereby acquired experience and knowledge, to serve and receive Pay as Officers in the said Regiment, or as Engineers in America; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all such Foreign Protestants who shall receive Commissions from His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to be Officers in the said Regiment, or to be Engineers in America (which Commissions it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to grant) and shall, in some of His Majesty's Colonies in America, take and subscribe the Oaths, and make, repeat, and subscribe the Declaration, appointed by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia, being Protestants; and for extinguishing the Hopes of the Pretended Prince of Wales, his open and secret Abettors; and shall at the Time of the taking and subscribing of the said Oaths, and making, repeating, and subscribing the said Declaration, produce Certificates signed in Manner directed by the said Act of the Thirteenth Year of His present Majesty, of their having received the Sacrament in some Protestant and reformed Congregation within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or within some of the said Colonies in America, within Six Months before that Time, shall and may be enabled to serve and receive Pay as Officers in the said Regiment, or as Engineers, in America.

Provided, nevertheless, That the Number of such Officers in the said Regiment shall not in the whole, at any Time, exceed Fifty; nor the Number of Engineers in the whole, at any time, exceed Twenty.

Provided also, That the Colonel of the said Regiment shall be a natural-born Subject, and not any Person naturalized or made Denizen.

Provided also, That no such foreign Officer shall be enabled by this Act to serve as an Officer or Engineer in any Place, except America only; but every such foreign Officer, when he shall be reduced, shall be capable of receiving Half-pay, according to the Rank in which he shall then serve.

LIST OF OFFICERS FROM 1756-1878.

The accompanying Lists have been taken from the Annual and Quarterly Army Lists published since the formation of the Regiment, and do not, therefore, necessarily include the names of all Officers who may have been gazetted to the Regiment, whose length of service in it may have been extremely short.

Great care has been taken to copy these Lists correctly, but in such a mass of names and dates some errors are almost unavoidable.

In September, 1808, he embarked with his corps for Spain, under Lieutenant-General Sir David Baird, and was present in the action of Corunna. He subsequently served in the West Indies. The 4th of June, 1813, he received the brevet of Colonel in the Army; and the 12th of August, 1813, that of Major-General.

The following complimentary honours were presented to this officer after the prompt suppression of the revolting negroes in Barbadoes, in 1816:—

“ Bay Plantation, 8th of August, 1816.

“ Sir,—By order of the House of Assembly, in a full house, when every member was present, I have the honour of transmitting to you the unanimous and grateful thanks of the House, and to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the garrison of St. Ann, for the eminent services rendered by you and them to this country, by speedily, and without waste of blood, putting a stop to the late dangerous insurrection of the slaves, which, in its commencement, threatened the destruction of the island. I cannot do justice to the high opinion which the House of Assembly entertain of your conduct, without conveying it to you in their own language; I therefore enclose copies of the votes of thanks, and request that you will be pleased to communicate the thanks of the House to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the garrison of St. Ann. The sentiments expressed in these votes are not confined to the House of Assembly—as far as my observations extend, they are the sentiments of every member in the community. Having long had the honour of your acquaintance, and no stranger to your exemplary conduct at the different times that you have been stationed in this island, and being also a witness to the promptitude and zeal with which you marched against the insurgents, I beg leave to assure you, Sir, that I feel highly flattered and gratified that it has fallen to my lot to be the instrument of handing to you this testimony of the regard and good opinion of the inhabitants of this country.

(Signed)

JOHN BECCLES,

“ Speaker of the House of Assembly.

“ To Colonel Codd.”

“ Resolved unanimously—That the thanks of this House be given to Edward Codd, Esq., Colonel in His Majesty’s Army, Lieutenant-Colonel of the 2nd Battalion of the 60th Regiment of Foot, Commandant of St. Ann’s Garrison, and General of the Militia of the island, for the great and important services which he rendered to this island during the late unfortunate rebellion of the slaves, for his prompt and decisive measures, his vigilant and unremitting exertions, and his judicious arrangement of the forces under his command, by which good order, tranquillity, and security were, in a short time, restored; as well as for his humane interference, whereby all unnecessary effusion of human blood was prevented. That the thanks of this House be given to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of St. Ann’s Garrison, for the prompt, spirited, and efficient aid rendered to the inhabitants of this island during the late calamitous insurrection of the slaves.

“ August 6th, 1816.”

“ St. Ann’s, Barbadoes, 9th of August, 1816.

“ Sir,—I have had the honor to receive your letter, dated yesterday, conveying to myself, the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of this garrison the very favorable opinion which the House of Assembly has been pleased to express of our services during the late insurrection of the slaves, and I beg you will assure the House that we sensibly feel, and gratefully acknowledge this high distinction. The House of Assembly has much overrated my own efforts on that occasion. Prompt and energetic measures seemed to me necessary, and they were adopted equally to suppress the insurgents, as to spare the effusion of the blood of those who, from delusion, had been excited to acts of rebellion by mischievous persons. The expression of your own good opinion will ever be remembered by me with gratitude, and the favourable sentiments which you assure me so generally prevail in this community cannot but, and really do, prove highly satisfactory to my feelings.

“ Honourable John Beccles,

(Signed)

EDWARD CODD, Colonel.

“ Speaker of the House of Assembly.”

Barbadoes, August 14, 1816.

"Sir,—It is a matter of the highest gratification to me to be the organ of the Honourable the House of Legislative Council to convey to you the enclosed resolutions. I cannot omit this opportunity to express, in addition to the well-deserved commendation of His Majesty's Council, my individual thanks for the good advice and ready co-operation I experienced from you during the late slave insurrection, and, as an eye-witness of your personal exertions and fatigue, I have sincere pleasure in testifying that this community must ever feel grateful for your services.

(Signed)

"JOHN SPOONER,

"Colonel Codd."

"President of the Council.

"Resolved—That the thanks of the Legislative Council be presented to Edward Codd, Esq., Colonel in the Army, Lieutenant-Colonel of His Majesty's 2nd Battalion 60th Regiment, and General of the Militia, for his zealous and meritorious services in the suppression of the late slave insurrection, and for his unremitting attention to the public interest while he commanded the Militia of this Colony. Resolved—That the thanks of the Legislative Council be likewise given to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the garrison of St. Ann, for the valour, steadiness, and good discipline displayed by them during the same period and in the same cause."

St. Ann's, Barbadoes, August 15, 1816.

"Sir,—I have been honoured with your letter, conveying to me the resolutions of the Honourable the Members of the Legislative Council of this island, on my conduct and that of the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of this garrison, during the late insurrection of the slaves. It cannot but be flattering to the feelings of the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates under my command on that occasion to have their conduct approved of by those who witnessed their exertions, which were rather fatiguing than dangerous; for myself I request you will convey my sincere thanks for the honour conferred upon me. It would, however, be unbecoming in me, if I did not declare, that the success which attended my measures was chiefly owing to the assistance I received on every occasion connected with the public welfare from yourself and other members of the Legislative Council, to whom I always applied with advantage in cases where their experience and local information were required; and I had ever the greatest pleasure in consulting with you, particularly when the interests of humanity required that the lives of deluded slaves should be protected from the punishments due to their crimes, into which mischievous persons had seduced them.

"EDWARD CODD, Colonel.

"His Honour John Spooner, President of the Council."

Colonel GEORGE MACKIE, C.B.

Colonel George Mackie was appointed Major in the 60th Foot on the 8th of March, 1802. He returned to England on account of his health, and in 1805 went again to the West Indies. In 1807 he came to England with the 2nd Battalion, 60th, and in February, 1808, was ordered to the West Indies to take the command of the 3rd Battalion of the 60th, of which he was appointed Lieutenant-Colonel, the 22nd December, 1808. He landed in the Bay La Temise with 700 men; marched across the Island of Martinique, and was present at the siege and surrender of Fort Dessaix. The 4th June, 1814, he obtained the brevet of Colonel. He has the honour of wearing a Medal for the attack and capture of Martinique, and is a Commander of the Order of the Bath. On leaving Martinique, the following Brigade Orders were issued:—

Fort Royal, 24th June, 1814.

"Major-General Wale, after having three years' experience of Lieutenant-Colonel Mackie's merit as an officer, cannot omit, on the occasion of his leaving the island for England, to thank him for that uniformly steady support that the Major-General has ever received from that excellent officer. It was to Lieutenant-Colonel Mackie that the inhabitants of the town of St. Pierre were most indebted for their safety in the partial insurrection of the black population in 1811. It has been chiefly owing to his energy of character, joined to great urbanity of manners, in the execution of his measures, that the populous town of St. Pierre has been brought to that perfect state of tranquillity which it enjoys at the present moment, for which the Major-General, in his civil capacity as Governor, returns him his best thanks; and the Major-General assures Lieutenant-Colonel Mackie of his entire approbation of his conduct in the discharge of his duty as commanding the District of St. Pierre, and of the state of his garrison, both as to appearance in movements in the field, and as to general good conduct in quarters; and the Major-General can also assure Lieutenant-Colonel Mackie that in all his reports to headquarters he has invariably remarked the happy art by which he has attained these essential objects, with the least possible coercion or severity, a circumstance which cannot fail to recommend him as much to the good graces of the Commander-in-Chief, as it must to the esteem and veneration of the soldiers who have had the happiness of serving under him, and who, with every officer and civilian who has known Lieutenant-Colonel Mackie, will join with the Major-General in wishing him welfare."

"To Lieutenant-Colonel MACKIE, Commandant of the Town of Saint Pierre.

"Sir,—The inhabitants of the town of St. Pierre learn with sensible regret that the state of your health compels you to retire from the command of this garrison, which you have held with such honour to yourself and so much to public satisfaction. They are ambitious to offer you, Sir, every respectful testimony of their approbation and admiration of your conduct generally in this command, but pointedly in a period of difficulty and apparent danger to the Colony at large, when personal confidence was restored by the exemplary order and discipline of the troops, resulting from the care and unwearied vigilance of the Commandant. They do not pretend to set forth in what high degree they appreciate your services in this command; they will, however, venture to solicit you to honour them by the acceptance of a piece of plate, of the value of one thousand dollars, as a testimonial of their regard, which will be flattering to them, in the hope it may recall to your mind, in distant time, the inhabitants of a town by whom you were so much esteemed. That your voyage may be prosperous, and its view filled to the plenitude of health, is their unanimous, their most anxious desire. Having been deputed by the inhabitants of Saint Pierre to present you this address, we assure you, Sir, that we pride ourselves in the opportunity it offers us of testifying to you our personal respect and attachment.

"JOHN O'DELHORNS.

"Saint Pierre, 22nd June, 1814."

(REPLY.)

"St. Pierre, Martinique, 22nd June, 1814.

"Gentlemen,—It has ever been my wish to deserve the confidence and esteem of the inhabitants of St. Pierre, and it is with feelings of the most lively gratitude that I now find, by the address that you have just honoured me with, that my endeavours have in so far succeeded; and it will ever, I assure you, be one of the happiest events of my life. The piece of plate, which you have requested my acceptance of, I receive with the greatest pleasure, and should circumstances place me again amongst you, I trust my conduct will prove that your confidence and liberality have neither been misplaced nor forgotten. I feel much gratified by the anxious wish you express for the speedy re-establishment of my health, which a change to a Northern climate, I hope, will soon effect. To you, gentlemen, who are on this occasion the organs of this very respectable and populous town, I offer my most heartfelt thanks for the very flattering manner you have been pleased to convey their sentiments, and of which I shall ever retain a just sense.

Colonel JOHN FORSTER FITZGERALD, C.B.

Extract from the "Times," November, 1877:—

"DEATH OF FIELD-MARSHAL FITZGERALD.—Our Paris Correspondent telegraphs that the papers there announce the death, at Tours, of Field-Marshal Sir John Fitzgerald, of the British Army, at the age of 91 years. Sir John Forster Fitzgerald, G.C.B., Colonel of the 18th Royal Irish, was the son of Edward Fitzgerald, Esq., M.P., of Carrigoran, and was born in 1786. On the 29th October, 1793, when only seven years old, he obtained a commission as Ensign in an independent Company of Foot. On the 31st January, 1794, he was promoted to a Lieutenantcy, and on the 9th May in the same year was promoted to a half-pay Captaincy in the old 79th Regiment, not the 79th Highlanders, which had been reduced in 1783. On October 31, 1800, he was brought on to full pay as Captain of the 46th Regiment. According to Hart's Army List he joined that regiment for duty in the following year, when, though only 15, he had already been a titular Captain seven years.
