ALLIES LIKELY TO BLOCK THE RETURN OF CONSTANTINE

View of Jonnart, Prominent French Diplomat

Says There is Precedent in the Case of King Otto of Bavaria—New Ministers Call on Queen Mother Olga.

Paris, Nov. 19.—Allied nations will probably intervene to prevent the return of former King Constantine to the Greek throne, says Charles C. A. Jonnart, former French high commissioner in Greece and at present extraordinary French ambassador at the Vatican. A similar opinion is voiced by Baron Denis Cohnin, an eminent authority on Greek affairs.

"Constantine," says M. Jonnart, "seems to me not only undesirable for the Allies, but quite impossible. It is the right and duty of the protecting powers not to allow a Greece that is stronger than ever to become a vassal of Germany."

"It cannot be denied that Constantine acted as an autocrat, and the powers have a perfect right to oppose his return to the throne. A historical precedent may be found for this action, King Otto of the Bavarian monarchy of Greece, attempted in 1862 to set up a rule in that country. This resulted in Anglo-French intervention and the deposition of King Otto was required. The Bavarian dynasty was later replaced by one having its origin in Denmark."

Athens, Nov. 19.—Members of the new Greek ministry motored to Tziker Palace last night and were received by Queen Mother Olga. They informed her that she was regent of Greece, pending the arrival of former King Constantine and the agreed to his return.

M. Respoules, M. Negropontes and M. Simos, members of the Venizelos cabinet, left Greece last night and others are preparing to depart.

London, Nov. 19.—A despatch to the Times says that general political amnesty has been proclaimed in Athens, and all political prisoners have been released. The city is said to be fairly quiet.

Average Increase of $250 in Salary in Protestant Episcopal Church in States.

New York, Nov. 19.—A million dollar increase in salaries to ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church has been paid during the last year, an average of $250 to each clergyman of the denomination, says Nonell Szary estimated here today. The increase is attributed largely to the nation wide campaign in the Episcopal church begun in the spring of 1919, calling for a living salary for all clergymen.

Boston, Nov. 19.—A budget calling for the expenditure of $29,745,000 for the present purposes by the Methodist Episcopal Church was adopted by the council of the board of benevolence here last night. NEW INDICTMENT AGAINST BRINDELL

Proceedings in Case of New Yorker Charged With Extortion in Contract Work.

New York, Nov. 19.—A further indictment charging extortion was found yesterday against Robert Brindell, president of the building trades council of New York by the joint committee investigating the "building trust."

After pleading not guilty to the amended indictment alleging attempted extortion of $25,000 and the new charge, Brindell was granted his liberty on the $100,000 bail furnished yesterday. The new indictment charged Brindell with the extortion in that he received $500 from Louis F. Cohen a house wrecker on July 15, in connection with a demolition job.

While Brindell was busy pleading in the criminal building, the legislative committee in the city hall heard witnesses testify to the payment of more than $48,000 to the labor leaders for wrecking jobs and protection against labor troubles.

The executive recommended that it was needed to take over the teen age girls' work and secure a primary worker as soon as possible. The officers include, president, J. A. The executive of twenty-one members is headed by Dr. Rev. W. A. Ross, general secretary. Last night a resolution was passed protesting against many of the moving pictures and vaudeville shows put on in the maritime provinces, the low moral standard of travelling shows and the sale of cigarettes to growing boys. WASHINGTON'S MILLIONAIRES HEAD OF WOMEN POLICE

As Hiram Sees It

"I see they had nine boys in the police court yesterday," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter. "Say, Mister—if us farmers make us had a failure raisin' cattle as you city fellers does in raisin' boys we orto be locked up an' horsewhipped—yes, sir. The idee of lettin' boys grow up an' run wild in gangs—it's a cryin' shame. An' then when you hev to put 'em away you put 'em in a place where a feller over fourteen years old is jist wastin' his time instid o' learnin' a trade. If I was a preacher I'd hev somethin' to say next Sunday. I'd take the hide offa the folks that goes on bevin' a good time while the souls of the boys an' girls is bein' stunted an' warped. Aint there nobody kin wake this town up an' call things by their right names? It's easy to say that there's the school an' there's the Sunday School all ready waitin' for the youngsters—but that aint all that's waitin' for 'em—and you know it. What's the matter with people? Why can't they get as much satisfaction helpin' somebody that needs it as they do in bein' selfish an' mebbe settlin' a bad example? Spose'n you can't make all boys good—is that any reason fer not showin' 'em you want to give 'em a fair start? Somebody orto know what every boy's doin' in his spare time—and we orto see that he gets a chance to spend the time right—with his chums. If we done that we wouldn't hev half so many goin' wrong—no sir. Oh—we're a great people to say Amen—and let George do it. I s'pose we'll hev to get some missionaries from China to tell use how to raise our boys. I guess they know more about it. If they don't they're a poor bunch—By Hen!"

JAPAN LOOKING FOR OUTLET FOR HER POPULATION

Congested Condition of Her Own Territory Makes Emigration a Necessity — Door Closed in Many Countries.

Tokyo, Nov. 19.—How to find vent for her surplus population, now increasing at the rate of three quarters of a million a year, is one of the most difficult problems facing Japanese statesmen, and may in some measure explain the nation's expansive policy. The cry for a white Australia is echoed by Canada and the United States. Where, then, is Japan to find an outlet for her people, now more than 80 to the square mile?

As most of the more sparsely settled lands of the world are under British or American rule, Japan naturally looks towards them to assist her out of the dilemma; and because they hesitate to offer any solution to the problem, and at the same time bar the door against Japanese, while admitting Germans and others, Japan cannot understand their avowals of friendship. She holds that race prejudice must be hopelessly ingrained when it refuses to find relief for labor troubles by welcoming the more efficient and strenuous toilers of the Far East.

After the forests and mines are fully exploited it is improbable that the Japanese will care to remain.

COFFIN FILLED WITH EXPLOSIVES FOUND AT MILAN

Rome, Nov. 19.—A strange story of hand grenades and other explosive material being found in a coffin comes from Milan. Some days ago information was conveyed to the police in the Lombard capital that a mysterious funeral procession had been seen to set out from the Motomeccanica factory in Via Oglio at an hour when the ordinary work had ceased.

The authorities were naturally anxious to discover why a funeral should start from a metallurgical factory at night. As a result of investigations, the coffin was traced to an orchard on the outskirts of Milan. Shovels were requisitioned, and a large coffin, buried three feet underground, was brought to light. When it was opened, instead of the supposed body, there was found an assortment of explosive material. The police confiscated several hand bombs, twenty-two tubes of explosive gelatine, some rifles and some roughly-made daggers. The affair is evidently an aftermath of the recent metallurgical strike.

of Mr. Daly, a Labor member, provides that "The pictures and other paraphernalia of or from British Kings and their representatives at present in the Mansion House of the city hall be disposed of by public auction or private treaty, and the moneys so accruing be placed to the credit of the employment committees."

It is regarded as probable here that the slight conveyed in this resolution will find a majority in the corporation. Many valuable canvasses would thus come under the hammer, and in such case will probably be bought by loyalist inhabitants.

For a short time in the kitchen we prepare our meals—for a short time in the dining room we eat them—for quite a time in the bed room we sleep—but in the living room for quite a while we live. The furnishings of this room, then, are bound to affect us. SIR GEO. FOSTER VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE LEAGUE (Associated Press Despatch).

Geneva, Nov. 18.—It was announced by the League of Nations today that Spain and Great Britain, as well as France and Belgium, would send troops to Vilna to maintain order during the plebiscite to be held to determine the political fate of that city as between Lithuania and Poland.

Sir George Foster, Canadian minister of trade and commerce, was elected vice-president of the League of Nations on the first ballot. It was announced by President Hyman's this afternoon.

It developed today that Hon. C. J. Doherty, Canadian minister of justice, one of the most active of the delegates to the assembly, had become a victim of one of the high speed translations made during the assembly's proceedings which some times become mistranslations. The translator made him say that Canada would abstain from voting on the message of sympathy offered in the assembly for transmission to President Wilson. Mr. Doherty, in even better French than the translator's at once corrected the mistake, but the correction got lost in the confusion of the first session and the incorrect version of the delegate's remarks became widespread.

Prisoners of War. Dr. Fridtjof Nansen of Norway, took the floor to report to the assembly the work done in connection with the prisoners of war. He prefaced his remarks with an expression of full accord with and great admiration for the speech delivered yesterday by Lord Robert Cecil and he hoped the committee would take up their work in the spirit which animated Lord Robert's remarks.

Doctor Carlos Urueta, delegate from Colombia, moved a resolution of thanks to the Red Cross for its aid in repatriating the prisoners.

CANADA'S FUTURE REPRESENTATION IN GREAT BRITAIN Matter to Come Before Meeting of Premiers Next June.

Ottawa, Nov. 18.—The future character of the Canadian representation in London will be one of the questions taken up at the conference of premiers there next June. Sir George Perley, high commissioner, is going back to London to resume his duties but it is understood that his tenure will be limited as he is desirous of returning to Canada to attend to his private affairs. Who will be his successor and what function will attach to his position will likely be determined only after the forthcoming conference, especially if it is to take up the question of constitutional relations. Upon this latter point there is some doubt. A Canadian minister plenipotentiary in London, with power somewhat similar to those proposed to be exercised by a minister at Washington has long been suggested. There might be this difference, namely, that the London minister would be a member of the Canadian cabinet and, if the proposed imperial cabinet works out, he would belong to that body. His presence in London it has been suggested would facilitate communication between the two governments upon questions of common interest.

Sweet Nut Feature Churned from Nuts and Milk

The particular housewife is today using SWEET NUT instead of high priced  not because it is cheaper, but because it is so much more reliable than cow's  and does not vary in quality as  so often does at this time of the year.

Sweet Nut is always the same, always good. Do not confuse SWEET NUT with the old fashioned animal fat oleomargarine. SWEET NUT is churned from the white inside of the cocoanut and fresh milk, and it contains no animal fats and no preservatives.

The law does not permit us to color it like  and it comes to you white, just like the inside of the cocoanut from which it is made, but a few drops of  worked into it will give it the appearance of June creamery *****.

POISONING THE STREAM

While the United States government fears that undesirable aliens may enter that country by way of Canada, Mrs. Marion K. Clark, chief investigator of the Bureau of Industries and Immigration of the New York Industrial Commission, declares that excludable aliens are being admitted through their own ports into that country in such large numbers that within a few years the penal institutions and asylums for mental defectives in New York State will be overrun by them.

It appears that under the law an alien liable to be excluded because likely to become a public charge, or because of physical disability other than tuberculosis in any form or a loathsome or contagious disease may be admitted, in the discretion of the secretary of labor, upon the giving of a bond. Under this bond a limited indemnity may be exacted from persons giving bonds should the excludable aliens become public charges after their entrance is accomplished, but Mrs. Clark asserts that such bonds are seldom enforced and the persons so admitted remain in the country. She charges that political influence is often exerted in their behalf, and in other cases they give wrong names, or change their addresses, and so escape deportation. A report of an interview with Mrs. Clark says:—

"Mrs. Clark produced statistics to prove that during the European war, before this country entered, 3,025 defective aliens were held at Ellis Island for deportation. Of these 1,723 were insane, others had incurable transmissible diseases, and some were feeble-minded. All of these, said Mrs. Clark, were dismissed from the island, most of them on their own recognition when this country entered the war, in order to make room for Germans at the immigration detention station. Few of them, if any, she believes, have been deported since that time, and they are still at large in this country."

"The result of indifference in regard to this matter, Mrs. Clark says— "Were it just that these people, and the thousands who are being admitted now, become public charges, the problem would not be so serious. The financial burden, while unnecessary, could be borne by the state without much trouble. But when I think of these mentally defective thousands becoming promoters of persons just as incompetent, and sometimes more so, it staggers me. You and I and our children ride in the subway with persons carrying loathsome diseases, passed into this country by the immigration authorities despite the law. New York has nothing to say about the admittance of aliens. That is a federal right. But it is the state of New York which must bear the burden, for it is here that thousands of the defective immigrants make their permanent residence. Were the danger to end with the death of the immigrant I would not complain. But the laws of eugenics show too clearly how the defective strain runs through generations, and that means an ever increasing horde of public charges and social dangers."

Force is added to this very striking comment by the fact that of 4,820 inmates in the New York state penal institutions in 1917 no less than 1,811 were of foreign birth, while many more were not more than one generation removed from the immigrant. It is necessary, therefore, to keep more than the radical agitator out of the country. There are other undesirable who poison the race stream and lower the human standard. There is here a grave lesson to be learned by Canada.

A REAL WOMAN'S COURT.

The following article from a western newspaper shows how far behind the eastern provinces are in some respects:— "A new chapter was written in the legal and court history of the province of Alberta when Miss H. E. Barclay, B. A., the first woman lawyer of the province, appeared in court Wednesday afternoon to plead her first case before Magistrate Emily Murphy. For the first time in the history of the province there appeared the unique situation—a woman's police court, a woman magistrate, a woman lawyer, a woman court orderly, a woman prisoner at the bar. The only thing that seemed to spoil the design was the unavoidable and enforced presence of the men detecting and a male clerk. Otherwise, and with the exception of the crown prosecutor, who is a man, the occasion was one in which the women had the ascendancy. Miss Barclay, as she rose to defend her client, appeared to be master, or rather mistress, of the situation, had her case well in hand and showed none of the signs of nervousness usually noticed in young lawyers. The young lawyer was noticed to take a deep interest in her client and she not only consulted with the accused, whom she was defending, but sat by her side in more than a professional attitude. Miss Barclay presented a certain plea for her client and Judge Murphy, reviewing the case, conceded her client and the prisoner was accorded the strict treatment."

It is particularly appropriate that cases in which women figure as delinquents should be dealt with by members of their own sex. Women have also shown their fitness to preside over juvenile courts. The police-woman has demonstrated her value in London and some other cities. The courts will not deteriorate because women take up the study of law or act in a judicial capacity, nor will womanhood suffer in any respect by the entry of members of the gentler sex into the realm of legal activities.

The General Public Hospital is getting some very undesirable publicity. The Ladies' Aid is very outspoken regarding changes and improvements that are needed. The state of affairs cannot be allowed to continue. The city or country physician has a hard enough time to persuade a patient in need of special treatment to go to the hospital, and the task will be still harder if the impression prevails that the institution is not what it should be. Such a condition of affairs as now exists is not creditable. This hospital should have so high a reputation that no patient would be deterred by published reports from seeking treatment within its walls. Both the provincial and municipal authorities are interested in this matter. Delay in action to improve conditions would be inexcusable. Why go on talking about it? ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦

The following paragraph from the Vancouver World shows that the Navy League on the Pacific coast is doing excellent work:—"The main business of the Navy League now is getting the boys to sea," was the remark of Lieut. P. A. Rayner, in addressing the Naval Brigade. "The opinion has been advanced that the Navy League has been marking time in the past three years, but this is not the case. Since January British Columbia has sent forty boys to sea and out of these eleven are officer cadets in the merchant service. Big shipping companies are now coming direct to the Navy League for the boys they want." He announced that he had picked two Vancouver boys to go to sea. There was room for eight more on sailing ships being built at Victoria."

Greece appears to want Constantine as king, but France and England, will, it is said, object. They do not want a pro-German autocrat in Athens. Constantine asserts that he has been misjudged in regard to his attitude toward England but his present professions do not square, in British opinion, with his former actions. The situation is a bit awkward, but no one of Constantine's sons may be accepted as a compromise.

Revelations made in the United States Shipping Board enquiry show that while the country was at war and after there were many persons profiting by gross fraud, and that the hand of the grafter was everywhere. Until every citizen is willing to practise the principles of common honesty such exploitations will continue.

The farmers of Manitoba will support the Norris government "in all good legislation." Which means that they will not join forces with the Conservative opposition to defeat the government.

THE IMPOSSIBLE.
I cannot talk worth fourteen cents, and so no spools I bring; and must I every gifted genius who make the welkin ring. Chautauqua magnates ply their game, and promise bundles fine, if I'll but write my moral name upon the dotted line. And often I am tempted sore; then I hear Conscience say, "What right have you, I ask, to bore an audience for pay? You know that every time you've tried to paint the welkin red, a lot of wilted eggs were shed, in anger, at your head." How much of boredom we'd avoid, how much of language blue, if fewer fellows were employed at work they cannot do! I'm weary of that singer's screech who knocks the notes to pulp; I'm tired of hearing blacksmiths preach, and seeing farmers sculp. I'm glad that I have sense enough to know where I'm at a foot, and so I dodge the platform stuff, I ought at a frightful cost; for there the easy money lies, and there the soft snags grow; the country's full of talking guys who trade hot air for dough. But as a speaker I am tough, which cannot be denied; I'm glad that I have sense enough to let the welkin slide.

CANADA—EAST AND WEST
Domestic Happenings of Other Days

MILITARY THIEVES.
In the days when France ruled the northern portion of the continent of America, the king of that race had constantly to watch his military officers in command of forts lest they rob him of great sums annually. The appointment to a fort command was for a term of three years, and in that period most of the officers intended to amass a fortune. As the command was in the gift of the governor of New France usually he secured the illicit profits.

The fur traders and the Indians were the two chief sources of money making. The commander would make a requisition for supplies with which to keep the Indians friendly. He would probably order for several times as many braves as there were in his immediate vicinity and when the goods arrived there were few given without a charge to the redmen. He made them pay in furs for what had been given to him by the king for the braves. It is estimated that two-thirds of what the king sent the Indians was stolen and the rest sold to them—rather than being a gift from the Great Father in France.

Wonders of Communication.
(Boston Transcript.)
The thing that was the wonder of yesterday becomes the commonplace of today, but we never cease to be amazed. It is less than fifty years since Alexander Graham Bell, in a building still standing in Court Street in this city, heard through the first of telephones, words spoken in another room in the same building. The little instrument that made possible the reproduction of the tones of the voice soon became the wonder of the day, and then it passed into the category of the marvels which have ceased to cause wonder because they have been numbered among the appliances which are in ordinary use. The telephone had long been one of the commonplace implements of daily life when the wireless telegraph became the wonder among means of communication. The "wireless," as the term is ordinarily understood, has, in its turn, been included in the commonplace.

AMAZING STORY OF OFFICIAL GRAFT

Further Details of Ship Repair Matter

$100,000 Charged for Unnecessary Work—Captain Arrested When He Refused to Be "Salved" and Protested to President Wilson.

A colorful tale of a conspiracy in Rio de Janeiro to rob the Shipping Board of more than $100,000 on fabricated "repairs" to vessels was related this week to the Walsh committee, New York, by Capt. William Henry Chambliss, one-time master of the Lake Elkwood, operated by the Kerr Line, on a voyage from Norfolk to Buenos Aires with a cargo of coal.

The captain never reached his destination, the ship having been taken from his command at Rio, stripped of its supplies, and placed in dry dock for forty-nine days at a cost of $2,000 a day, according to his testimony, although he declared the repairs to the big propeller blade could have been made within three days at the utmost.

Deprived of Command.

His testimony made it appear that because of his honesty and feeling of loyalty to the Shipping Board, and his refusal to become a party to an organized system of graft which was being perpetrated on the Government at South American ports through unscrupulous agents, he was deprived of his command, and later tried on charges of misconduct and negligence before the Department of Commerce at Washington.

To substantiate his testimony, Capt. Chambliss quoted into the record two telegrams which he had sent to Joseph T. Lantry, secretary to the President.

The first was as follows:

"Consult your clique holding up my ship, Lake Elkwood, in Rio to make money on repairs not needed. Please confer with Shipping Board. I advise discipline this Consul."

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1920

UNEMPLOYMENT IS ON THE INCREASE

In 1,000 New York State Factories 115,000 Released Since March.

Albany, Nov. 18.—The industrial depression which began last March is continuing. Several branches of manufacturing report a high level of operations, but indications point to a decrease in some of these in the near future.

According to a survey made by the Bureau of Statistics of the State Industrial Commission, there is a drop of 9 per cent. in the number of persons employed in 1,000 factories in the state. Up to October, the decrease since March was 7 per cent., with a total of about 100,000 fewer names on the payrolls of these factories. During October an additional 2 per cent. decrease in factory employment took place, swelling the total of the number of idle persons to about 115,000.

In a few industries the reduction in employment has already assumed considerable proportions, while in others it is only getting under way.

The automobile and cotton industries are the hardest hit. The latter has a reduction in employment of 44 per cent. since April, while the former is close behind with a decline of 42 per cent. since April. The depression in these industries seems to continue to grow. In the cotton industry there was a decrease of 26 per cent., and in the automobile industry 10 per cent. during October.

Another industry to slacken up its speed is the men's clothing industry. The reduction in employees since April is 20 per cent.; of this reduction 5 per cent. took place in October. In the boots and shoe industry the reduction is 22 per cent. since March; in firearms, 18 per cent.; cutlery, 16 per cent., and heating apparatus 12 per cent. since July.

Other industries affected, though to a lesser extent, are brass, copper, and aluminum, sheet metal work, and hardware, machinery and electrical goods, furniture, pianos, rubber goods and rubber reclaiming, buttons, miscellaneous chemicals, and milk products.

The important increases during October occurred in glass, railway equipment, drugs and chemicals, women's clothing, and light and power.

BOY SCOUTS IN FRANCE FAVORED

Bolton Smith of Memphis, Tenn., a member of the executive committee of the Boy Scouts of America, has just returned from France and reports that there is good promise of uniting the Catholic, Protestant, and state associations of scouts in that country. Leaders from all these organizations took part in training 275 young men as scout leaders during the summer at a camp in the forest of Compiègne within a quarter mile of the spot where the armistice was signed.

The French, says Mr. Smith, realize that their boys have not had the physical and educational advantages that come to the American boy through scout work and most of the leaders who were trained in the Compiègne camp will go to different sections of the devastated region to establish new chapters.

THE LAW SLEEPS

(New York Evening Post.) Yesterday's fatal panic in an East Side moving picture theatre repeats a familiar story. A law is passed establishing a regulation in the interest of safety. It is less and less rigidly enforced until it becomes a dead letter. Then an accident which the law was passed to prevent occurs and the authorities remember the law and start enforcing it again. No resulting from a cry of "Fire!" true or false, but if children were allowed to enter the New Catharine yesterday unaccompanied by parents or guardians, in violation of the law, the normal risk of injury and of loss of life was greatly increased. Parents who permit their children to go to the "movies" alone must share in the blame for the tragedy.

Are there not some other neglected safety regulations that should be enforced along with the one prohibiting children from entering a theatre alone?

Interesting Items of News and Comment

(Contributed.) In 1919 one million weddings were celebrated in the United States, but only 70,000 new houses were built. The normal increase of the republic would call for the erection of 12,000,000 dwellings and the country is short over 1,000,000 houses.

This year's college enrolments are a surprise to most people. In Canada we have some large figures, but in the United States they have some amazing ones. Here are a few: Columbia, 16,000; Cornell, 5,174; University of Chicago, 5,725; California, 11,154; Wisconsin, 7,070; New York, 9,861; Yale and Harvard, 3,208, and 5,821 respectively.

Two weeks ago, fourteen boys of the Scout class in Western Canada chopped enough wood to supply seven families with fuel for the winter. It was not a sincere job and it certainly was an outstanding case of practical Christianity.

If every Canadian boy who imagines he has had enough of school and plans to enter the business world could see the following figures, perhaps a great many of them would alter their decision: With no schooling thirty-one Americans out of 5,000,000 attained distinction; with elementary schooling, 505 out of 38,000,000 attained distinction; with high school education 1,245 out of 2,000,000 attained distinction. Think on these things.

At last everybody seems agreed that there is no such person as a "bad boy." There are misunderstood boys, and boys who didn't have a chance, and there are feeble-minded boys, but I'm glad we're offered to give his check for $1,000 to any one who would disprove his statement. In England a ton of coal costs $3.81 at present. W. E. (Passyfoot) Johnson cabled Chicago for the official figures, which and other expenses cost about $1.49, royalties sixteen cents, capital adjustment made by the speaker in question. Mr. Johnson received the check for $1,000 and handed it over to the Scottish Temperance Association. It is pretty nearly safe to call the liquor man's bluff at any time.

MENNEN'S COLD CREAM

will keep your complexion safe from the hazards of rough weather. Don't forget—before you go out—to give your face and hands a thorough massage with this protecting cream.

British government published recently in order to show just where the cost of coal came in. It is clear that by far the most important item is the labor and only the introduction of labor saving machinery can possibly reduce the price to the consumer. Can any one tell us why the Power Company can get coal delivered at this port for $3.40 and the school education 1,245 out of 2,000,000 attained distinction. Think on these things.

Some careless but cocksure speaker in Scotland during the recent temperance campaign stated that there had been a large increase in crime in the city of Chicago since prohibition came in, and offered to give his check for $1,000 to any one who would disprove his statement. In England a ton of coal costs $3.81 at present. W. E. (Passyfoot) Johnson cabled Chicago for the official figures, which and other expenses cost about $1.49, royalties sixteen cents, capital adjustment made by the speaker in question. Mr. Johnson received the check for $1,000 and handed it over to the Scottish Temperance Association. It is pretty nearly safe to call the liquor man's bluff at any time.

AGED MAN'S ROMANCE ENDS.
Chicago, Nov. 18.—The story of a Costa Rican romance and its tempestuous end was revealed when attorney for Herbert P. Crane, sixty-five-year-old millionaire, agreed to settle his differences with Mrs. Elida Piza Crane, his young Costa Rican wife, for $100,000.

Mrs. Crane has been suing in the circuit court at Geneva, Ill., for separate maintenance and a substantial increase over her present $800 a month alimony. Under the settlement Mrs. Crane has the custody of her young son, subject to orders of the court. It is understood that the cash settlement will pave the way for a complete divorce, which Mr. Crane sought in a cross bill. Attorneys for Mr. Crane offered the Costa Rican wife $15,000 in settlement, but it was refused.

WANTED BY THE POLICE OF MANY AMERICAN CITIES

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Portland, Me., Nov. 18.—Stuart E. Eggleston, of New York, alleged to be wanted by the police of Montreal, New York, Washington, Baltimore and a few other places, for passing worthless checks while stopping at exclusive hotels, was arraigned in the municipal court today. He was charged with passing one of the checks here in August, 1919, and being a fugitive from justice from Washington (D. C.). The cases were continued until Nov. 26, bail being fixed at $5,000.

TWO MEN BEAT GIRL, ROB HOME OF $4,500
Posing as Detectives, One Knocks Her Unconscious—Take Money and Jewelry.

New York, Nov. 18.—Miss Lillian Scenova, 38 years old, of 640 Taylor Avenue, the Bronx, was attacked in her home by two men, who gained entrance on the false representation that they were detectives. One of the men knocked the girl unconscious by a blow on the head with a milk bottle and the pair then ransacked the house and stole Italian lire to the value of $3,000 and jewelry valued at $1,500. The girl who gave an alarm from a window after recovering consciousness, was taken to Fordham Hospital with a possible fracture of the skull.

Miss Scenova is housekeeper for her father, Carmine Scenova, an employe of the Street Cleaning Department, and her two brothers. The elder Scenova is reported to have made considerable money during the last two years by taking advantage of the rate of exchange and dealing in Italian currency.

The girl was alone when the two men rang the doorbell of the two-story frame home and, saying they were detectives, asked if a man they had been chasing had entered. Miss Scenova told them that no one had come in, but the two men brushed by her. On her return, she found one of them pick up a milk bottle and struck her on the head. They then dragged her into a bedroom and locked the door.

After the thieves had left, taking with them a bundle of Italian currency and jewelry, including seven pairs of diamond earrings and seven gold watches, the girl crept to a front window and by breaking the glass attracted the attention of two children, who ran for help to a saloon kept by Ralph Peppe at 622 Taylor Avenue. Peppe went to the Scenova home and found the injured girl. He notified the police of the Westchester station.

SAYS NEW YORK IS LONELY

Dr. Sears Tells Conference That Men Die There of Loneliness

"New York is one of the loneliest places in the world, and every year men die of loneliness here," said the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Sears, superintendent of the Baptist City Mission Society, in the Madison Avenue Baptist Church, New York. It was the second of a three-day conference and missionary exhibit under the auspices of the Metropolitan Board of Promotion of the Northern Baptist Convention.

"No foreign field offers a greater opportunity for missionary workers than Manhattan," Mr. Sears said. "This is both because of its vice and because of its loneliness."

"There is boundless opportunity in a city where men die of loneliness among crowds, where there is starvation amid plenty, where a thousand people live on an acre of ground they never see, where vice shines and virtue exists in secluded spots and where ideals are concealed." "The influence of Manhattan extends to the remotest corners of the globe. The sun never sets on the influence of New York. Broadway's songs are heard in South Africa and her 'movie' stars are seen in Singapore."

PHOTOGRAPHS SENT 1,000 MILES BY WIRE

Four Pictures Telegraphed
Between New York and St.
Louis in Eight Minutes.

(N. Y. Times)

The first American demonstration of the telestereograph, the invention of Edouard Belin of Paris, which telegraphs photographs, was held yesterday, when four photographs were wired between this city and St. Louis. Each of the pictures went the 1,000 mile route in about eight minutes, the negatives being reproduced with distinctness.

The tests were between the office of The World and the editorial rooms of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and were conducted by Mr. Belin, who came to New York at the invitation of Ralph Pulitzer of The World.

"The instrument has demonstrated its efficiency and utility," said Mr. Pulitzer after the experiment, "and I am quite satisfied with the tests."

"Do you intend to introduce the telestereograph into your offices?" he was asked.

"Well, I am hoping to," he said.

with the relative height of any point of the bas-relief record at any given moment. At the receiving end this current variation is translated into various gradations of light.

"The first step, then, is to prepare the transmitting record or plate. A copper cylinder forms the base of the record (which, incidentally, is of the size and appearance of the old-fashioned phonograph records), and its surface is coated with a 5 per cent shellac solution. Meanwhile a carbon print is made in the conventional photographic manner from the photographic negative to be transmitted, after which the print is wrapped face to face with the shellacked copper cylinder.

"The cylinder with the print is then placed in hot water, with the result that the gelatine of the print adheres to the cylinder in accordance with its own degree of blackness, while the unexposed gelatine is washed away with the paper. In this manner a coating of uneven thickness is formed on the cylinder, or a photograph in bas-relief."

View of Yale-Princeton Game.

One of the photographs sent from this city to St. Louis yesterday was a view of the Yale-Princeton game of Saturday, a scrimmage near Yale's line, and the second was an airplane picture of the East River skyline, showing Brooklyn Bridge.

After Mr. Belin had got his machine synchronized, Ralph Pulitzer wrote a message to be the first thing over the instruments. It was to his brother, Joseph Pulitzer, of the St. Louis newspaper, and read:

"Joseph Pulitzer, Post-Dispatch, St. Louis:

"Greetings from The New York World to The Post-Dispatch of St. Louis."

"RALPH PULITZER," prepared paper and was penned by Mr. Pulitzer in red ink, made thick so it would cause the broad-pointed stubbed pen literally to comb the words. After some delay, due to a slight hitch in the apparatus, the message was sent. Then the picture of the Princeton victory went over the wires.

The first photograph bound East came through in good style and was hurried upstairs to the developing room, where the process is an ordinary developing scheme. Wired photographs can be turned out in seconds, if necessary.

Somewhat the photograph was ripped and cut aside. On a call, St. Louis shot along another, and this, when developed, was a remarkably fine photograph of an Indian chief with a warpath headdress on and a look that showed somebody had just tipped him off to the fact that Anheuser-Busch was no more.

The photograph that failed to fare well in the hands of the developers was a picture of the Mississippi River steamboat. The last picture to go from this end was the Manhattan skyline view and, according to Mr. Benington, it went through well.

ELECTION AFTERMATH IN THE UNITED STATES.

The tumult and the shouting of election having died down, says the New York Evening Post, Mr. Brown has retreated again to his tent, after emerging for a moment to say "I told you so" and speak scathingly of President Wilson's leadership. Democratic leaders have retorted that the party is still very much alive, and hint that even if it requires reconstruction Mr. Byran is not likely to be called in as consulting architect. Mr. Cox has warned his party against any attempted "political sabotage." Mr. Harding, having courteously declined the President's kind offer of a warship for his projected Panama Canal trip, is enthusiastically catching tarpon at Point Isabel, Tex. The "best minds," he stated before leaving Marion, are to be consulted immediately on his return from his vacation. On Thursday, Armistice Day, he spoke of the war, sensibly and effectively, at Brownsville, Tex., his first formal speech since election.

Political interest for the moment has shifted to Mr. Root, whose appointment as secretary of state has been widely urged. His position in regard to the League of Nations, already sufficiently clear, was emphasized in correspondence from Washington by David Lawrence, published on Monday. Mr. Lawrence's article revealed that last August Mr. Root sent a cablegram from Lon-

AIRPLANE BOMB DROPPED INTO CROWDED CHURCH

Washington, Nov. 19.—According to a dispatch received by the Lithuanian day by Polish troops, in which many unarmed citizens, including women and children, were killed.

The dispatch said that while services were being held Sunday morning at a large Catholic church in the town of Wilkemia, a Polish bomb from an airplane was dropped through the roof and exploded among the kneeling congregation, killing and wounding many. The bombing of Wilkemia, the dispatch said, began about 11 o'clock in the morning. Legion, the city of Kovno was totally without warning to the peaceful inhabitants.

Korno is the provincial capital of Lithuania. Wilkemia is approximately fifty miles northeast of Kovno.

The legion has information that a commission from the League of Nations, now in session at Geneva, arrived in Kovno this morning and urged the Poles to cease hostilities at once, pending a discussion of the differences between Poland and Lithuania by the League. The President of the commission stated that the war between Poland and Lithuania would be taken up at once by the Geneva conference.

I call it the Natural Result. For years I sold a better dollar's worth of footwear than any person else. I kept footwear prices down. I went away, footwear prices soared. Yes, everything soared, but dealers piled up profits. I came back and re-established the dollar to its shoe-buying ability when I sold out the stock of the late Wm. Searle. Dealers have now knocked off some of their profit and are selling their hoarded footwear. They simply have to or they could not compete with my prices for my goods have been bought since the drop. If you have no use for money, buy footwear anywhere. If you want to knock the high cost of footwear, buy from me. I can also repair your present footwear. Prices are lower at my new store.

Which Blade is Yours?

You shave with the first blade—unless you use an Auto Stop Safety Razor.

Shaving causes a saw-like edge to form on the blade, and the edge becomes dull. Stropping realigns the edge and brings the blade back to its original keenness. That's why the Auto-Stop Razor has such a large sale. Because men realize that no razor can do good work without constant stropping.

Stropping—shaving—cleaning are done without removing the blade from the razor.

The Quickest Way to Ruin Your Carpet or Rug is to Beat It!

"The old order maketh way for the new," runs a poet's line, and this is truly exemplified in the modern method of home cleaning via the vacuum cleaner route.

In the old days carpets were hung out on a line and "beaten" to remove the dust; and this furnished violent exercise for the man or boy elected for the office.

But no self-respecting carpet or rug can long hold its complexion under this treatment, and soon the nap is a thing of history. Even a slight beating will effect this condition.

Not so with the Eureka cleaner though, because possessing the most powerful motor of any cleaner it draws the air naturally all the way through the rug—thus removing the dirt, etc., and bringing the nap to its correct position. Air never injured anything. Remember this in connection with the EUREKA.

May we explain this exclusive line in more detail to you?

$782,000 PAVING PROGRAMME FOR CITY PRESENTED

The Work Will Likely Cover Three Years

Douglas Avenue, Brussels Street, Marsh Road and Haymarket Square Mentioned for Attention Next Year.

A street paving programme for the next two or three years, covering an expenditure of $782,945 was submitted to the committee of the whole of the common council in session this morning. In presenting the estimated costs, Commissioner Frink said that he did not hope that the total work outlined would be done next year, but that it was his intention to present to the council a statement of the streets which in his opinion should be paved so that the council could decide on what to attempt first.

The Streets.

The following are the streets and the details of paving suggested:

Douglas Avenue—Main street to the C. P. R. Bridge—granite blocks in track sections; asphalt on sides; six foot concrete sidewalk and curb, except at St. Peter's church where the present width would be maintained. Should the overhead crossing be put into the bridge it would affect about 1700 feet of the paving and change the estimate considerably.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS MAYOR SCHOFIELD APPEALS TO CITIZENS

British Labor Man, G. N. Barnes, Had the Floor This Morning.

Geneva, Nov. 18.—At the opening of today's session of the assembly of the League of Nations George Nicol Barnes, a British delegate, began discussion of the report of the council of the league. Mr. Barnes dwelt especially on the necessity of lending assistance to the Armenians.

"They are," he declared, "hemmed in by the brutal Bolsheviks on one side and by inhuman beings on the other."

The labor chapter would become the most important part of the treaty of Versailles, Mr. Barnes predicted. "There can be no permanent peace in the world," he said, "until there is industrial peace; and there can be no industrial peace until labor gets a better share of the products."

Mr. Barnes wanted to know why the council had not taken action to prevent the war which had been going on for a year between Poland and Soviet Russia.

He declared, was unmistakably threatening.

Regarding the admission of former enemy states, Mr. Barnes said he was here to represent the league element of Great Britain and he knew the vast majority of the laboring people demanded that all the enemy states be admitted without delay.

London, Nov. 18.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Hon. C. J. Doherty, writing from Geneva to the Times, emphasizes the fact that the Canadian delegation to the league of nations in no way dissented from the proposal to send a message from the league to President Wilson, although speaking through himself it did dissociate Canada from the proposed tribute to Rousseau.

The Canadian message, although speaking through himself it did dissociate Canada from the proposed tribute to Rousseau.

The minister's letter to the Times was rendered necessary owing to an error in the transcript of his speech before the assembly which had misled several press correspondents.

MAYOR SCHOFIELD APPEALS TO CITIZENS

Sees the Need for Generous Support of Empire War Relief Fund—Big Drive Nov. 25.

That local conditions are such that money is urgently needed to help many very deserving people right here in St. John throughout the coming winter, is a fact that cannot be disputed—and though I, in my official capacity as Mayor of this city, am made daily aware of the increasing gravity of the local position, and anticipate the likelihood of a campaign for help in the future, nevertheless the terrible misery and heart-rending sufferings of eleven million fatherless children in Central Europe, literally dying by thousands from hunger and disease, as a direct result of the war, is a tragedy so appalling, so pitiful, and so vast, as to call for the instant help of all people who read these lines.

I therefore heartily endorse the noble appeal of the British Empire War Relief Fund, whose drive will start in this city Thursday next, November 25th, and feel confident that this call to our citizens to help save the lives of these innocent little war victims, will meet with a ready and generous response.

(Signed) E. A. SCHOFIELD.

SERIOUS CHARGES BY WOMEN'S HOSPITAL AID

Severely Criticize Impossibility of Isolation in Epidemic Building; Lack of Accommodation in Children's Ward and Prevalence of Vermin.

The impossibility of isolation in the epidemic hospital because of lack of accommodation, the inadequacy of the accommodation in the children's ward of the General Public Hospital, the prevalence of vermin throughout the hospital were all severely criticized in the report of the house committee presented at the meeting of the Women's Hospital Aid in the board of trade rooms yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. A. C. Skilton presided.

Mrs. R. Duncan Smith, as treasurer, reported a balance in the general fund of $5,578.49 and in the flower fund of $4.92. In her statement of the financial results of tag day she said $3,588.66 had been collected in the banks, $445 had been given in special donations, and $1,080 for furnishings had been promised.

Mrs. L. Green reported as convener of the visiting committee. She referred to the Russian sailor patient whose ship had left St. John while he was in hospital and had taken with it all his clothing and money. She said the Hebrew Immigration Society had provided him with clothing and transportation to Montreal.

lack of remuneration and at the resignation of Miss Retallick, who leaves the hospital on Dec. 1. The report also stated that all criticism of the cleanliness of the hospital which had appeared in the press was fully justified.

On motion, it was decided that the Aid should purchase as many basket cribs for the babies' ward as were necessary. Miss Hunter was given authority to make the purchase.

The Aid secretary was asked to write to Miss Retallick expressing sincere appreciation of her assistance and of her work for the hospital.

In reviewing the tag day, which was said to have been the best organized the city had ever had, votes of thanks were passed to all who assisted. Plans were made for the Christmas Day observance in the hospital and convener were appointed as follows: Toys, Miss Travers; greeting, Mrs. M. Bohan and Mrs. Morris; fruit and candy, Mrs. C. de Forest, Mrs. Skilton and Mrs. W. White. Miss Young was authorized to purchase the stocking material, which will be cut out and sewn by the Sunshine class of the Tabernacle church through the kindness of Mrs. Cuthbertson. Miss Addy's offer to have the stockings filled at her home by the members of the Graduate Nurses' Society was accepted gladly. Miss Millican was appointed convener for Christmas cards. Mrs. G. R. Ewing offered to take complete charge of the children's ward and on motion she was appointed convener for that ward. Mrs. J. Verney McEl-

HELD FOR SENTENCE ON STAMPS CHARGE

A final hearing of the case against Howard Leith and William Downey, charged with attempting to sell postage stamps in violation of the federal postal laws, was heard in the police court yesterday afternoon and the accused, who pleaded not guilty, were remanded for sentence. Evidence for the prosecution, which was conducted by Sergeant Detective John Powce, was given by Joseph Ritchie, head of the money order exchange and stamp branch of the St. John post office, and H. W. Woods, post office inspector.

In the evidence it was shown that Leith, who said he did not know the other man half-an-hour before they joined forces in the stamp-selling matter, was the one who tried to do the selling. Leith had told Mr. Ritchie that the stamps had been secured in exchange for a suit case. Downey had said that the stamps had been secured in a poker game at a hotel in St. Stephen. The value of the stamps was $835. The accused were remanded for sentence, the magistrate notifying the detective sergeant that a break in the post office at Lawrence should be looked into in connection with the case.

The case against George F. Cunningham and Company, and O'Neill Brothers of the city market, charged with selling and having for sale on November 8 birds protected under the migratory bird act, was postponed for judgment.

UNITE IN SERVICE IN RECOGNITION OF WEEK OF PRAYER

The united observance of the "week of prayer" by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. was held last evening in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, more than 100 from both organizations attending. Stanley Fisher was the chairman. It was observed in response to the world-wide appeal of the Y. M. C. A. to its members and to the members of the Y. W. C. A. to set aside this week for prayers on behalf of the two organizations.

Prayers were offered on specified subjects by George A. Henderson, Mrs. J. A. McAvity, Miss Sime, Miss Johnston, Charles Robinson, Robert Cochrane, Mrs. R. A. Jamieson and H. Usher Miller. A solo was sung by J. Stewart Smith.

Rev. S. S. Poole, the pastor of German street Baptist church, spoke on the "Influence of spiritual power" in the organizations. He said that the purpose and soul of an organization must necessarily both be present for its progress and for the fulfillment of its duty; that the purpose alone would not be sufficient to insure good work; that the

AUTO USERS BLAMED FOR GAS OIL PRICES

Supply Cut Down from 314 Barrels Per Motor in 1911 to 50 Barrels in 1920.

(N. Y. Times)
Automobile users and not the oil interests are responsible for the shortage and consequent high price of gas oil, it is held by the American Petroleum Institute, which is holding its annual convention in the Hotel Pennsylvania yesterday. More than 1,000 delegates representing 85 per cent of the national gas industry, listened to the institute's report.

Mr. Welsh said that the economic condition of the market is in the hands of the oil industry, and that the oil industry is responsible for the shortage and consequent high price of gas oil, it is held by the American Petroleum Institute, which is holding its annual convention in the Hotel Pennsylvania yesterday. More than 1,000 delegates representing 85 per cent of the national gas industry, listened to the institute's report.

Just now, he said, there was a "squeeze" and he illustrated with an array of statistics. These, he said, showed that there had been 814 barrels of crude oil available for every oil-burning vehicle in the United States in 1911. There were only fifty barrels available in 1920.

The American oil supply, he continued, stood at about 625,000,000 barrels exclusive of Mexican imports, but with oil imports increasing from 700,000 in 1911 to approximately 16,000,000 in January, 1921, the supply was being absorbed as fast as made, and he predicted an early demand for one billion barrels.

The convention was opened by George B. Collety, president of the American Petroleum Institute, who spoke of the need for greater chemical research and voiced a protest

MEXICAN GENERALS LOSE THEIR JOBS

"We Had Too Many," Declares Serrano—Rapid Reduction in Military Forces.

The new Government in Mexico is anti-militaristic and has already in a single sweep reduced the army from 150,000 to 80,000 men, according to Gen. Francisco B. Serrano, Assistant Secretary of War in Provisional President De La Huerta's Cabinet, who is in New York.

Gen. Serrano was speaker of the last House of Representatives under President Carranza and acted as chief-of-staff for Gen. Obregon in the latter's campaign against Villa.

"The greatest danger to Mexico has been militarism," he said. "Therefore we have reduced the army rapidly. In August alone nine hundred generals and other officers received their discharge. You know, we have had too many generals in Mexico."

The 100,000 men discharged were given the choice between land-ownership and good jobs in factories. Most of them ask for farms; with the title deed to the land they get from one to three months pay to help them get started. We have already established three big agricultural military colonies. Those who do not take land are entered in a reserve corps and receive 50 per cent of their previous military allowance until they are established in civilian life.

Little Trouble Yet.

"You ask if we have trouble with the officers discharged? Very rarely. The longest disturbance lasted only forty-eight hours. We classify the officers into three groups: First, those who wish to enter civil life; second, the gun-toters, swaggerers, and trouble-makers, whom we are glad to discharge; and third, good officers whom we cannot keep. The latter we transfer to the reserve corps on half pay. Every officer retained must be a graduate of the National Military Academy, officers of proved value who have risen from the ranks are sent to the academy for technical instruction, regardless of their age or rank. It is sometimes a strange sight to see the old-timers going to school like boys."

Making Units Work.

"We are making the military units which still remain in the army useful in building roads and in clearing land for agriculture. We no longer have to use our guard trains for fear of bandits."

"It is our plan to reduce the army still further, but we cannot go too fast. Fifty thousand is our maximum."

"Are we keeping a large enough army to suppress the bandits? That is a matter of efficiency and good organization rather than numbers. We are recruiting the new army with men of good record whether they have served previously with Villa, Zapata, or in the legitimate military establishment. The fact that we have abolished the billeting of soldiers in the villages has removed one abuse which led to banditry."

"What will Villa do? I shouldn't care to make a guess. But Villa has always travelled with Obregon, except once, and then he got a good licking. I was with President de la Huerta when Villa telegraphed in his terms for giving up the fight. I advocated the granting of his terms. So far he seems contented with his farm and his ploughing."

"Obregon is a man of wide experience in administration. He has been a merchant, a farmer on a large scale, a commission dealer, the commander of the largest army corps the Mexican Army ever had, and Minister of War. He is a deep student and a man of ex-

NO "YOUR LORDSHIP" FOR ANGLICAN BISHOPS IN U. S.

(New York Times)

No one in America need fear that the Episcopal Bishops in this country are going to insist on being called "Your Lordship" or "Lord Bishop," and even the Anglican Bishops of today want this custom done away with, according to Bishop Charles S. Burch of the Episcopal Diocese of New York.

Bishop Burch made this statement last evening in an address before the Church Club at its first formal meeting of the season, held in the club house, 23 East Fifty-sixth street.

Another speaker was Robert H. Gardiner of Gardiner, Me., General Secretary of the World Conference on Faith and Order. The presiding officer was Henry L. Hobart, Bishop Burch spoke on "The Lambeth Conference," which he attended in London last summer, and Mr. Gardiner told the preliminary meeting of the World Conference on Faith and Order, to which he was a delegate in Geneva, Switzerland.

Bishop Burch said that he was walking through the streets one day with the Right Hon. and Right Rev. Arthur Foley Willington-Ingram, Bishop of London, and addressed him as "Your Lordship."

The Bishop of London paused, said Bishop Burch, whirled around and said, "Now don't you ever call me that again if you please. I don't like it, and I never want to hear it from your good lips; call me just plain Bishop."

"Some of those who just before we sailed for England were afraid we were going to insist on being called 'Lord Bishop' on our return, need have no fear," said Bishop Burch.

The Rev. Dr. Percy Stickney Grant, rector of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, in a sermon last Spring just following his being curtailed in his Sunday night forum method, said that the American bishops expected to be called "My Lord Bishop" as soon as they got on a ship facing Great Britain.

Bishop Burch related an amusing incident of another walk he was taking last summer in London with another English bishop.

"He was dressed in the customary knee breeches, gaiters, apron, shooting hat, and a little newboy passed us," said Bishop Burch. "The boy looked up at me, whereupon he punched another little urchin with him and said: 'Spot the guy; he ain't no real bishop at all. He ain't got no knee breeches, gaiters, shooting hat or apron, nor nothin' like a bishop.'"

Bishop Burch explained that as a son of a gun, he was not a member of the Episcopate.

"The English Bishops led us in debate. Of the American Bishops none was more able and none made us prouder than did Bishop Thomas F. Gallor of Tennessee and our President of the Council of the Episcopal Church," said Bishop Burch. "He represented us on several occasions and always most ably."

MORE CANADIAN HORSES WIN AT NEW YORK SHOW

New York, Nov. 19.—(Canadian Press) Yesterday at the horse show, Driftwood Blase, a beautiful brown gelding owned by Mrs. Walter Hanley of East Greenwich, L. I., added to his laurels, by capturing a silver medal offered by the Association of American Shows, Inc. for horses over 14.5 and not exceeding 15.5 hands, up to carrying 1600 pounds. Driftwood Blase was a Canadian re-mount horse and was picked out of a bunch that was being shipped overseas during the war.

Another Canadian bred horse which had won first during this year's show, added to its laurels yesterday, when Animation, chestnut mare, owned by London Literary Landmarks Are Threatened.

(New York Herald.)

Chelsea, long famous in London's history of art and letters, is in danger of being made over in a fashion which will leave it more unlovely and less inspiring than it is now. Soon it may lose many landmarks of its former greatness and see their places supplied in a manner thoroughly familiar in New York—by bronze tablets which tell of what has been.

This quiet district of the great and ever spreading city is permeated with artistic and literary traditions. It is a land of genius, and as such it might be thought it would be London's pride to see its characteristics preserved. It may seem its characteristic preserved. It may seem its characteristic preserved. It may seem its characteristic preserved.

On one side the fashionable West End, which disdained Chelsea when it was growing famous, is sending into it invader in the shape of the never rich, who desire to share in its reflected glory. Then the Fulham hospitals are seeking more land prices are lower, which in this case happens to be Chelsea. The third element which menaces the traditional atmosphere of Chelsea is found in the numbers of model dwellings which are being erected there. Perhaps these are Chelsea's most dangerous foes, for modern notions of efficiency have little in common with the things which imparted

SAY UNEMPLOYMENT IS NOT ABNORMAL

Social Service Workers Not Disturbed by the Conditions—Birds of Passage.

(Montreal Gazette.) Social service workers whose duties bring them in close touch with the seamy side of life in Montreal are not dismayed by the possibilities which the coming winter is said to have in its train.

"The jobs to which men are sent are not of a permanent nature," he said, "but in many cases they lead to definite employment. Sometimes a man who is really destitute is unable to secure employment at the regular bureau because he lacks the necessary personal equipment and the wherewithal to provide it.

"As a rule," said Adjutant Harbour, "they are birds of passage, who travel at the expense of the railways; here today and gone tomorrow. We entertain a certain percentage, which is naturally increasing as the cold weather sets in, but they rarely stay more than a day. On Sundays we have our greatest number. They cannot travel so easily and are obliged to put up for the week-end."

Adjutant Harbour was inclined to be skeptical of the reports of large numbers of unemployed in Montreal at present. Where skilled labor was concerned, he said, there was always a chance of absorption in other directions. Many also, even if they are laid off and must rely upon the system of rotation in vogue in the unions for obtaining re-employment, had substantial savings. The necessity for adaptation to circumstances also applied in such cases and men should be prepared to take whatever employment was available, rather than to despondently accept the grim alternative. He, himself, spoke from a personal experience of work in the camps, and while the environment was not altogether favorable for exacting people, yet it provided temporary means of provision for a man and his family until conditions generally improved.

While enquiry at the Protestant House of Industry and Refuge, on Dorchester street, also indicated that the applications for assistance by destitutes was not any greater than is normally the case at this time of year, another charitable institution, the Welcome Hall Mission, on St. Antoine street, has been obliged to deal with an increasing number of needy cases among families of a superior class. The institution specializes more in the sphere. According to the superintendent, J. David Fraser, the unusually large number of such cases, which have been reported by the missionaries, is directly attributable to the slackening of industrial activity.

The officers of the Salvation Army working under Colonel Bettridge, who is in charge of field work, have also reported a large number of like instances. The relief work of this department will not begin fully until December and the extent of its efforts will, Colonel Bettridge stated, be governed by the amount of support accorded by the public.

"TRAFFIC COP" SCHOOL CHILDREN'S NEW GAME. Attempt to Teach "Rules of the Road" in Play to Become General.

Another phase of the teaching of hard and fast facts that will be of immediate use to the scholar is being urged by the textbook committee of the Highway and Highway Transport Education Committee of the United States Bureau of Education. This committee is urging school officials throughout the United States to include courses designed to teach children the "rules of the road." Some indications as to what these courses will contain can be obtained from studies which are already under way in Detroit public schools, as well as in others.

In Detroit, for example, the work starts with the kindergarten, where the child is taught to exercise care in crossing streets, always waiting on the corner until he is sure that nothing is approaching within a half block. Later, as the child progresses to the elementary grades, the course is broadened and the element of personal responsibility enters into the course, together with more detailed instructions as to rules of safety, always in language which is easily understood and which is confined to fundamental principles.

Thus, for example, in one kindergarten one child is selected as the traffic cop. Others represent buildings, others machines, others are pedestrians crossing the street. The "cop" has a traffic sign with the words "go" and "stop" on it, and the pedestrians proceed according to the signs. While no definite statistics are available to show all the causes of the many accidents and fatalities on streets and highways, it was the feeling of members of the Highway and Highway Transport Education Committee in Washington that one very definite reason is in a lack of understanding of rules. If the child can be taught care the rules so learned will remain with him as he grows, and not only will he have a better appreciation of safety as a pedestrian, but if he becomes a driver of an automobile, a street car motor-man, or a locomotive engineer, his early training will always stand him in good stead.

In the Y. M. C. I. House League last evening the Hawks took three points from the Owls winning the first series of the league's games. A good deal of credit for last night's win goes to Fowler who made an average of 10% one of the best of the season. noon. Sophomores defeated the seniors 82 to 11.

THE RING.

Dempsey to Fight.

New York, Nov. 18.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, will defend his title in a fifteen round bout against Bill Brennan, the Chicago challenger, at the Madison Square Garden on Tuesday, December 14. This will be the first contest between big fellows to be decided in New York State under the Walker Law and was made possible by the action taken by the State boxing commission here today during a joint meeting with the license committee.

In a statement the commissioners gave out tonight they said they had decided that a point had been reached in the operation of the new boxing law which they felt justified in permitting heavy weight boxing contests. Accordingly they acted favorably on the application of Tex Rickard for the Madison Square Garden sporting club to hold the Dempsey-Brennan contest.

ATHLETIC.

Noted Runner Turns Pro.

New York, Nov. 18.—Homer Baker, who in 1914 won the half-mile championship of Great Britain, and has held several American middle distance records, has announced that he will turn professional within the next month.

BASEBALL.

"Black Babe" Outfits Ruth.

New York, Nov. 18.—Babe Ruth has been in Cuba with the Giants and has played fifteen games, receiving $1,000 a game. He did not make a single home run in the fifteen games, though he batted .500 on the trip.

"Forcibles," the "Black Babe Ruth" on the other hand, hit three home runs in one game last week, and in a fourth trip to the park made a two-bagger.

For this feat he received $154 which was showered on him as he rounded the bases—and he had to pick it all up!

SING-SING PLOT

WARDEN'S BELIEF

Fuse Found in Cell—Tip of Plot from "Underground Sources."

Ossining, N. Y., Nov. 18.—Discovery of a fuse made of lint paper cotton fibre and other inflammable materials in a cell of Sing Sing prison, disclosed what Warden Lawes announced last night he believed was a plot to start a fire in the workshops with the object of a general jail delivery.

The warden admitted he had learned of the plot from "underground sources." He investigated immediately, and while the cells of four Russians from New York city were being searched, the fuse was found in one occupied by Nicholas Carlo. The man denied having knowledge of it, saying it had been placed there by some one else.

Old Steamboat Bells.

(J. H. Curtis in Memphis Commercial Appeal.)

Owners of steamboats fifty years ago had great pride in having fine bells that were used in announcing the time of departure of the steamers. The captains generally rang the big bells half an hour before leaving time, and their deep tones could easily be heard for two miles and further on quiet, clear days or nights.

In old days to have a fine boat minus a special bell was like attempting to operate a circus without an elephant. Some of the famous bells of the Mississippi River boats were on the J. M. White, Robert E. Lee, Natchez, James Lee, the First, Imperial, Pennsylvania, T. P. Leathers, Belle of the Coast, and after the civil war there were fine ones on all the Anchor-Line steamers.

The Lee line followed this custom. On their steamers in the early days and until recent years they had some of the finest bells. Many of them are said to have had a finer and deeper tone than some of the older ones. The Kate

Adams, now operating in the Memphis and Rosedale trade, possesses a very fine toned bell, so does the Harry Lee. Practically all the bells used on the big steamers prior to the civil war were taken from the boats and scrapped by the Government. The North as well as the South needed the copper in them.

For many years there was a small bell foundry in Louisville, operated by a man named Kay. In it were moulded the most famous bells heard along the Ohio and Mississippi rivers.

Kay is said to have come to the United States from Scotland. He had some experience in casting bells in his home country and established his little place in Louisville before the civil war. He designed all the big boat bells and charged about a dollar a pound to mould one. He used a mixture of material that gave him a splendid tone, but the owner of the bell usually put in several ounces of silver, often dumping into the melting pot so many ounces of silver.

The weight of these bells averaged from 1,600 to 2,000 pounds. They were placed on the hurricane roofs of the pilot house and another dropping down to the lower deck, so that the crews could ring them when necessary.

A few of the bells were removed from the boats and used after the war. Several fell into the hands of wealthy planters and were installed on plantations. It is said the bell of the J. M. White, until a few years ago, was used on a Louisiana plantation.

In days when steamboating was good at Memphis it was a great sight to visit the levee at a time when the boats were getting ready to depart. The captain began tolling the bell in time to notify the passengers and the steamer was getting ready to leave. The

He cannot pull his hand out while it is doubled up with the rag in it, and he hasn't sense enough to let go. There he sticks, fighting with the bottle, until the hunter comes along and, by pressing the nerves in his elbow, forces him to open his hand and leave the rag for the next monkey.

A prominent physician tells us that convalescing patients whose appetites require stimulating and whose digestion is weak, can use large quantities of Ice Cream with great advantage.

He further states: "Many of my patients have lived on Ice Cream without other nourishment for periods varying from three to six weeks."

One quart of Ice Cream will do as much towards the maintenance of body and mind as a pound and a half of round steak or a gallon of oysters. It provides an excellent fortifying food for people of all ages and reduces one's desire for heavier and less digestible foods that work havoc with one's stomach.

Bear in mind the food value and economy of DAIRY PRODUCTS in the home. Eat MORE MILK, MORE BUTTER, MORE CHEESE, MORE ICE CREAM, and you will have greater reason to rejoice over the physical and mental well-being of your family.
