Prepared Especially For This Newspaper by Pictorial Review

A REMODELED DRESS

Although it is one of the latest designs of the season, this dress is really a "make-over." The upper part is formed from a dainty silk left from last season, while the lower part is of crepe de Chine. The same idea may be employed with any two materials, with splendid results at small expense. A lawn or silk lining may be used for the waist, and it will probably be necessary to have a bit of new lace for the vest and neck. A yard of 27-inch satin will make the skirt, which should be finished at the back with a large bow. For the outer blouse, close the under-arm and arm seams, hem the back on both sides and add hooks and eyes. Gather lower edges to the size of stay and stitch the same. Now adjust the bib, back and front, being very careful to see that the ends are even and well-pointed. This may be outlined with a piping of silk or satin if desired. Take the skirt, slash down the center back fold of back gore from upper edge to large "O" perforation for opening. Pleat as perforated and bring folded edge to small "o" perforation; then stitch. Join the gores, matching the notches and if there is any unevenness let it come out at the bottom of the skirt. Pleat extension creasing on side perforations, bring folded edge to small "o" perforations and press. Close back seams of flounce from large "O" perforations to lower edge; finish edges above for openings. Gather upper edges between double "X" perforations. Adjust to position in skirt, centers even, stitching gathers in lower flounce along small "o" perforations and bringing double "o" perforation to side seam; stitch upper edges of upper flounce and skirt together, small "o" perforation in flounce at seam. Sew skirt to lower edge of waist, centers even.

An excellent suggestion for making over a frock from last season. Two materials may be employed and if the dress is trimmed with beading or embroidery and lace it will follow the very newest models.

MANY PRETTY STYLES IN NEW HAIRDRESSES.

The most popular hair dressing is the French twist or the French roll as it is called nowadays. But any becoming hair dress can be worn, provided it is tight to the head at the sides and one that leaves at least some part of the ear showing. The latest styles of coiffures are here shown for matrons, misses and maids.

Liars, Robins, Shad and Taxes, At The Landing

Last Sunday it was the wild honey-suckle by the apple bloom. A week before it had been the bilberry blossoms. Today it is the lilacs. The chook-cherry and the red cherry are also blossoming, and many a wild flower along the wayside and in the secluded nooks. The bloom is still on the apple trees, and the white and pink petals are raining softly down as the wind swings the branches. The garden crops have made notable growth during the week, and last night's rain, followed by today's sunshine, was of the greatest benefit. When the Ozone made fast to the wharf at Public Landing, last night about thirty people came ashore, and were soon scattered among the cottages and farm houses. About the same time three sailing yachts folded their wings and came to anchor just above the wharf. Three other yachts were then in sight along the river. As soon as the schools close, many who now spend only the week-end at points along the river will enjoy week weeks by the shore.

The Call of the Wild.

I was a mile or more into the wilderness before eight o'clock this morning. The dog Pickles led me in advance. When I paused at the roadside to enjoy the view and turned again he was facing me far ahead, and the moment I moved toward him he wheeled and ran. Several times this was repeated. It was a challenge, a call to the open road, and I went. Passing from the highway into an old wood-road, we climbed a hill covered with small growth, and through a small grove into what had once been cultivated land, but which was now covered with young evergreens of varied height. On all sides were taller trees, and through the canopy lay the grassy road. Once this field bore other crops, but soon, if it is not cleared again, it will have returned to its original state, and the grassy road will be an avenue of fir and spruce. My attention was attracted by the anxious piping of a robin, on a tall branch looking down, and a moment later by the noisy piping of the female bird upon another branch. Pickles was foraging in the neighborhood, peeping with delight now and then, and had evidently disturbed the mother bird from her nest. I called him and we passed on into a tangled wood, where the trees grew so close together that little sunlight entered. Such a place would be the despair of a modern forester. For myself I dug beads of gum from the spruces, and went in my way into another almost cleared space, covered with a luxuriant growth of wild raspberry bushes. So we wandered on where the brown and gray and yellow mosses lay soft under the trees and tiny flowers blossomed in the wild. Incidentally in this morning stroll I saw some excellent poles that will do service as uprights for swings for the children at the farmhouse.

The Cost of Living

At dinner at Public Landing, if one desires it, one may have a shad fresh taken from the river. I was told the fishermen sold these shad at fifteen cents each. In St. John the same shad are quoted at twenty-five to fifty cents, or were a few days ago when they could be got up the river at fifteen cents. It would therefore seem either that the people of St. John pay too much for shad, or the fishermen do not get their share. Talking of prices with a farmer, he spoke of the difficulty there is in getting the full market price for produce. He said that at Indian town on the arrival of a boat there is a remarkable agreement among the purchasers as to the price at which they will sell. The remedy would seem to be for the farmers, as well as the fishermen, to cooperate, and get their produce into the open market, where there would be more purchasers, and a better chance to sell at the market price.

The Tax Gatherer

Strange as it may appear, and idyllic as may be the life of rural communities, the tax-gatherer goes his rounds. They tell an interesting story of a tax-gatherer at Public Landing. The usual tax bills had been made out, and the collector gathered in the money. Somebody of an inquiring turn of mind, and there are such among the farmer folk, discovered, however, that some of those who should pay taxes had escaped. If there is anything more objectionable than the payment of taxes it is the paying of somebody else's taxes, and the word soon went round that an injustice had been done. It was not to be tolerated. New tax bills were therefore made out, and those who had not been called upon in the first place were invited to contribute their share. This resulted in a rebate for those who had paid in the first place, for they had been asked to pay too much. When one of the farmers got his rebate he received it in one cent postage stamps. He was in no need of postage stamps, and it is said that when he discovered them it was necessary for him to go out into the pasture to find a space large enough in which to express his feelings toward the tax-gatherer. Time passed, and nearly a year later a friend who had heard the story, and also the farmer's opinion of the tax collector, asked him how he had got along with his postage stamps. There was subdued wrath in the tones of the farmer as he answered: "I kept those stamps so that when he came around this year I could give them back to him, but the blanket blank didn't come around. There's a new collector."

H. J. MOWATT HEAD OF DRUGGISTS' SOCIETY

Annual Meeting of The Provincial Organization Yesterday—Hope to Have Dominion Association Here Next Year

The New Brunswick Pharmaceutical Society, which held its twenty-eighth annual meeting yesterday combined business with pleasure, for while the first part of the meeting was arranged to take place at the Market square building all but the necessary routine business was transacted at Ben Lomond.

H. J. Mowatt, vice-president of the society, presided at the first meeting in the absence of the president, J. McD. Cooke, of Moncton. At the adjourned meeting it was decided to extend an invitation to the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association to meet in St. John next summer. It was stated that the association had met in every province so far except New Brunswick and had already met twice in Toronto so that the members were hopeful of getting the association here next year.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, H. J. Mowatt, St. John; vice-president, H. H. Woodworth, Sackville; secretary, Geo. O. Heston, Moncton; treasurer, E. O. Steeves, Moncton; registrar, E. R. W. Ingraham, West St. John.

The council elected included the above officers with F. W. Munro, J. McD. Cooke, A. E. Holstead, G. A. Leger, F. W. Merritt, H. J. Dick and S. M. Welmore.

Delegates to the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association chosen were: G. O. Spencer and J. D. B. Mackenzie, (Charlottetown), substitutes, H. H. Woodworth and George O. Reicker. Others who attended the meetings were Alonso Staples (Fredericton) and A. J. Coombs, St. Mary's. After the meetings a dinner was given the visiting members by the local members.

How to Destroy The Dandruff Germ

BY A SPECIALIST

That the dandruff germ is responsible for nearly all the diseases to which the scalp is heir, as well as for baldness and premature gray hair, is a well known fact, but when we realize that it is also indirectly responsible for many other diseases, we appreciate the importance of any agent that will destroy its power. We are therefore, particularly pleased to give herewith the prescription which an eminent scientist states he has found after repeated tests to completely destroy the dandruff germ in from one to three applications. It will also almost immediately stop falling hair and it has in numerous cases produced a new hair-growth after years of partial baldness. This prescription can be made up at home, or any druggist will put it up for you: 6 ounces Bay Rum, 2 ounces Lavona de Compose, one-half drachm Menthol Crystals. Mix thoroughly, and after standing an hour it is ready for use. Apply night and morning, rubbing into the scalp with the finger-tips. If you wish it perfumed, add 1 drachm of your favorite perfume. While this preparation is not a dye it is unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color.

Acid Stomachs Are Dangerous

Common Sense Advice by a Distinguished Specialist

"Acid" stomachs are dangerous because acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach, thus hindering and preventing the proper action of the stomach, and leading to probably nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble from which people suffer. Ordinary medicines and medicinal treatments are useless in such cases, for they leave the source of all trouble, the acid in the stomach, and leading to probably nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble from which people suffer. ABOUT YOUR OWN VIGOR Sent Free to Men

MR. READER: Here is something I have to offer you absolutely for nothing—a little private book of special information about the legitimate use and unusual abuses of manly vigor; about the preservation of manly strength and its possible self-restoration; an illustrated pocket compendium of 8,000 words, 72 pages and 80 half-tone photograph reproductions—which I am very pleased to send by mail, absolutely free of charge, in a plain, sealed envelope, to any man, young or elderly, single or married who writes for it.

Over a million of these books have been thus sent to applicants all over the world since my first free offer appeared. Publishers are charging as much as $3 for books on sex subjects, while my book is free. Therefore, reader, if you would like a great fund of inside information relating directly to the subject of manly vigor, all put in perfectly plain, easy-to-read language, with many hints that you can surely apply to your own self, no matter how strong you may be, or how nervous or run-down you may be—if you want to know the facts about this particular subject, given to you without a single scar, then fill in the coupon below, send to me and receive my book, sealed, by return mail. In one part of this little publication I describe a mechanical invention of my own, which I call the SANDEN vitalityizer, something you wear at night as an aid to the restoration of lost or waning strength; but you are not expected to get one of these appliances unless you decide for yourself that you want one. The book is complete, and there is absolutely nothing you are required to buy or pay, either now or in the future. Therefore, please send your names and address today.

SANDEN, Author.

MANHOOD! The quality which rules the world today. My friend, there never was a time in the history of the human race when real, sturdy manhood, manly vigor and manly courage counted for as much as they do now, this very minute. No matter what your years, whether you are 20 or 60, you must be either entirely in the race or entirely out of it. It is invariably the fellow who proves up strongest in this human strength that forges to the front, while weaklings stand aside; it is he also who is in most demand and most sought after by women and men of his community, simply because he radiates that marvellous magnetic influence which only an abundant vigor and rugged manly health can radiate. I believe any man can hope to completely develop or restore this same vigor or manly strength, no matter what his past follies may have been, provided he is willing to REALLY MAKE THE EFFORT; and provided, of course, he is not weighed down by extreme old age or is not incurably diseased. To my mind, the road of the one who wants more vigor is perfectly plain, but it is a road that any man MUST travel if he attains the highest ideals in respect to his own manhood. See information in my free book.

As to the SANDEN Vitalizer, previously mentioned, will say it is a little mechanical appliance, weighing but a few ounces, which you wear at night. This Vitalizer generates and sends forth a certain soft, penetrating force which I call Vitality. It drives this Vitality into your nerves, blood, muscles and organs as you sleep. It is quieting to the nervous system, at least, so users say. Men write that it takes pain out of the back often at once and restores vitality in 90 days. Remember, the general information of the free book is independent of this Vitalizer, and you are not expected to get one of these little appliances unless you want to. You can write me later as to that if you so desire. With special attachments, my Vitalizer is used by women as well as men for rheumatism, kidney, liver, stomach, bladder disorders, etc. If you live in or near this city I should be most pleased to have you call in person at my office, where you may see and test the Vitalizer free of charge. Hours: 9 to 6; or if inconvenient to call, do not fail to write for the free booklet.

The Evening Times and Star

ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 17, 1914.

The St. John Evening Times is printed at 27 and 29 Canterbury Street every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co. Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

THE ENQUIRY

The Times is charged by the Standard with pre-judging the case in the matter of the Dugal charges. Those who have read the Times can testify that this newspaper has done nothing of the sort. It has insistently demanded an inquiry. In fact, the Standard itself says: "The Times has been one of the most blatant of newspapers in its howl for an investigation."

Will the Standard say that the evidence submitted on the very first day of the inquiry does not justify the demand for an inquiry? The Times has no intention whatever to pre-judge the case. This Journal is quite content to leave the matter in the hands of the Royal Commission, and very heartily commends the fairness and wisdom of its decision yesterday to admit the testimony of Mr. Burchill, in regard to his conversations with Mr. Berry, to whom he paid $2,000 in addition to the bonus, and which Mr. Berry said was required for political purposes. The Standard's friends endeavored to have this evidence excluded. Naturally the Standard is much disturbed, but what about its suggestion yesterday that the provincial government should dismiss Mr. W. H. Berry? That gentleman has been subpoenaed. What efforts have the government made to secure the presence of their official at this inquiry? Will he come and give testimony, or will he remain away? If he does remain away, what will the government do about it? He is a government official. All that Mr. Dugal and his friends ask is that an opportunity be given to present all the evidence. The government can assist very materially by producing Mr. Berry.

COL. SAM'S DILEMMA

Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes is perfectly at home in the saddle, and there are even times when his friends are disposed to wish that he would join a circus; but he, nevertheless, finds it somewhat difficult to ride two horses. There is, for example, that affair of the march out of the 8th Regiment in the Corpus Christi procession in Montreal last Sunday. He had to satisfy his friends, the Nationalists of Quebec, and also his friends, the Orangemen of Ontario. The former wanted the regiment to march as usual and carry rifles. The latter did not want them to march at all. The war lord decided that the men might march, but they must not carry their rifles. There was at once a protest from the Quebec ministers and something had to be done. When Sunday came the regiment turned out and carried rifles. When Col. Hughes was asked about it he explained that the men did not carry the regular militia rifles. What appears to have happened is that the militia department turned over a lot of obsolete rifles to a merchant, who in turn provided the regiment with them for Sunday's parade. In this great battle between the two sections of the Tory party, who wins?

MR. FOSTER CRITICISED

The West India Committee Circular, the official organ of the West India Committee, is not greatly impressed with Hon. George E. Foster's efforts to increase trade between Canada and the West Indies. Mr. Foster in a recent letter takes it for granted that it was quite understood that all British colonies were to receive the same preference as the West Indies in regard to sugar. The West India Committee replies that a moral wrong is done to the West Indies if other colonies are given for nothing that for which the West Indies give a preference. It declares that the admission of Mauritius and Fiji to the advantages of the agreement was never contemplated in West India circles, and that it puts the Canadian refiner in the possible position of having more than enough preferential sugar for his requirements, and thus gives him greater bargaining powers. While it is true that the amount of sugar sent to Canada by Mauritius and the East African colonies has thus far been small, there is no guarantee that this state of affairs will continue. The West India Committee therefore contends that Mr. Foster has placed the West Indies in an anomalous position. Mr. Foster as minister of trade and commerce has not thus far accomplished any great results. It would perhaps have been much better if he had been made minister of finance, since the gentleman now occupying that position is far from being a success.

GREEK AND TURK

The New Statesman of London gives an interesting account of what is going on in Thrace and Asia Minor at the present time and which has brought Greece and Turkey to the verge of war. It is stated that during the last eighteen months some 850,000 refugees have passed through the port of Salonika. Some of these were Mohammedans withdrawing from lands which have fallen under Christian rule, and some were Christians forced out of Moslem lands. The difference between the voluntary and the forced immigration is to be noted. The New Statesman says that the Moslems have been moving into Eastern Thrace because the Young Turks in Constantinople are anxious to consolidate Islam, and especially to fill up Eastern Thrace with men of their own race and religion. The territory, however, contained many Greeks, and while there was a voluntary emigration of these it was neither large nor rapid enough to suit the Young Turks. A commercial boycott of Greeks was begun and applied in many towns, and when this did not suffice peasants were turned out of their houses and ordered to quit the country. As a result, during the last three months nearly 40,000 Greeks have been forced to leave Turkey, and were not permitted to carry more than they could take on their backs. They arrived in steamers loaded at Salonika, homeless and destitute, to be fed by the Greek authorities and to be settled in Greek territory on Macedonian soil. While this may eventually be good for Macedonia, the cruelty of the process of forced emigration has aroused the greatest indignation in Greece, and the feeling is deepened by the fact that the Turks are pursuing a somewhat similar course in Asia Minor.

"They appear," says the Statesman, "to be aiming at ridding the Ottoman Empire of its Greek subjects altogether." The Turks apparently believe in pursuing the same policy with regard to the Greeks that many people are urging Canada to pursue in regard to the Hindus.

LEARNING TO SWIM

The mayor of New York is to take up with the board of education the question of teaching all pupils to swim. The city of Detroit has added swimming classes as a special feature of its supervised playgrounds, which opened on June 14 and will continue open until September. Twenty-four schools in that city have playgrounds equipped with swimming pools. In the summer season at six swimming centres, free shower baths with soap and towels are also open all season. It is so arranged that both children and adults, male and female, may take advantage of the opportunity to swim and also to enjoy the baths.

The only opportunity that is given in St. John to learn to swim, aside from the bath in the Y. M. C. A. building. Provision has been made for harbor swimming this summer, but we are still without adequate provision for the children, all of whom should be taught the art.

The British polo team has won the international match. Now if Sir Thomas Lipton should win the America cup, the eagle would take to the mountains.

It now appears to be feared that the Niagara conference will fail, in which case Mexico would continue in a state of bloody revolution, even if war with the United States should not occur.

Every announcement that is made of the opening up of new streets and the erection of new buildings is another reason why there should be no delay in appointing a town planning commission for St. John.

The announcement that Carleton county has decided to establish a municipal farm and abandon the system of farming out paupers will come as a surprise to some people, who had thought the farming out process had been abandoned in all the counties. At its best it was a bad system, and at its worst it was positively brutal.

Those who encouraged the Ulster volunteers are now greatly disturbed by the movement to enroll Nationalist volunteers. The Tory press tried to make it appear that there was bitter strife between John Redmond and those at the head of the volunteer movement, but a cable yesterday announced that Mr. Redmond had gained control. The Unionists have found that two can play at the volunteer movement and the knowledge is not comforting.

Referring to the alleged breach of faith by the senate in the matter of senatorial representation, the Standard says: "The breach of faith was not on Sir Wilfrid's part, but upon the part of those who refused to be bound by the plightful word of the party leaders." Then the Conservative senators must have been guilty of a breach of faith when they refused to pass the Farmers' Bank legislation. But would it be desirable for either party in the senate to be a mere voting machine for the leader of that party in the lower house?

Mr. John S. Leighton, junior, was charged some years ago with having, as a political trick, removed a Bible from the Carleton county court house. Although that had nothing to do with the inquiry before the Royal Commission, reference was made to it by the counsel for Mr. Flemming. Mr. Leighton promptly took advantage of the opportunity to deny on oath that he had done that with which he had been charged by the Tories of Carleton county. The Standard treats the matter as a joke. To slander a political opponent is, however, a serious matter.

LIGHTER VEIN.

"How is it," inquired a young bride of an older married friend, "that you always manage to have such delicious beef?"

"It's very simple," said the older woman, "I first select a good, honest butcher, and then I stand by him."

"You mean that you give him all your trade?"

"No! I mean that I stand by him while he is cutting the meat."

Mr. Paine had become much disturbed over some stomach difficulty and had decided to consult a noted specialist. Accordingly he was ushered in to the office of the great physician, complaining that he felt badly right then.

"What did you have for luncheon?" the doctor inquired.

Mr. Paine answered thoughtfully: "I had crabs on casserole, bisque soup, a little chicken, nut salad, ice cream, coffee, crackers and cheese."

The great physician gave him an X-ray look.

"You don't need a stomach specialist," he said. "You need a brain specialist. Twenty-five dollars, please."

Augustus and Angelina were climbing the highest peak of the Alps, and she stood above him some twenty feet.

"What do you see?" "What do you see?" "Far, far below," she cried, "I see a long white streak, stretching like a paper ribbon back almost to our hotel."

"That's the hotel," he ejaculated. "It's that hotel bill overlooking us."

The return home of the truant, "Mona Lisa" recalls a good story. A second-hand picture dealer was trying to sell what he described as a genuine Raphael.

The signature does not look like Raphael's," remarked the prospective customer, after using his magnifying glass.

"It reads more like Rachel," said the dealer, "I will tell you the history of that. When Raphael painted this picture he was in rather low water, so put it in the wife's name for safety."

One of Lord Sandwich's ancestors went to Paris to learn dancing, but as his lordship had no dancing partner, he was taking his leave, offered to do what he could for him in London.

"Then," said the man, bowing profoundly, "I should esteem it a particular favor if your lordship would never tell anyone who taught you to dance."

In a Great Western Railway carriage on the way up to London a youth had disturbed and annoyed the other passengers by loud and foolish remarks during a great part of the journey.

The train passed Hanwell Lunatic Asylum he remarked:

"I often think how nice the asylum looks from the railway."

"You will probably have occasion to remark how nice the railway looks from the asylum."

EACH SAYS OTHER CAUSED DISASTER

Conflicting Evidence in Empress Inquiry—Captain Kendall Says Storstad Changed Her Course

Quebec, June 16.—Evidence amplifying the known contentions in regard to the cause of the disaster to the Empress of Ireland at Father Point in the St. Lawrence on May 29 was brought out at today's opening session of the investigating dominion commission, of which Lord

Mersey, of the British house of peers, is chairman. So far, the main arguments of Captain Kendall of the Empress that he was stationary when rammed by the collier Storstad; and of the owners of the collier that the Empress placed herself in front of their vessel, which indisputably had the right of way, were only emphasized. Captain Kendall was on the stand for several hours and gave a straightforward account of the events of the terrible morning, along the lines of his testimony at the Rimouski inquiry.

Questioned by Lord Mersey as to why he stopped his ship when he had turned his green light to that of the Storstad, in conformity with navigation rules, he claimed he took the step as a safeguarding measure owing to the fog. He could not be got by the lawyer for the Storstad, to admit that his boat could have drifted in front of the Storstad, unless the collier had changed her course after the fog had been from him, which contingency he was of the opinion had taken place.

That the collier had not changed her course after first sighting the Empress, though absolute attempts had been made to port her helm after she had been slowed down and that the Empress was crossing her bow, were the principle points arising from the testimony of Alfred Tuftens, the first officer of the Storstad, who was examined during the afternoon.

The witness also repeated the story that the Empress sailors refused to go back in boats to carry on rescue work after once reaching the Storstad.

Mr. Haight supplemented the evidence of Mr. Tuftens, at the request of Lord Mersey, by giving as his explanation of the disaster a belief that the big liner

MOUNT LASSEN The Eruption of Volcano in The State of California

Red Bluff, Cal. June 17.—Mt. Lassen, ninety miles south of the Oregon line and ninety miles west of the Nevada line, the world's newest active volcano, splattered through the early hours Monday. What came from her two new cones, which came into existence on Sunday night, or the third, which has been growing larger steadily since May 30, is a matter of much scientific conjecture. Her activities, beginning with geyser-like steam clouds two weeks ago, have augmented steadily, until a burst of smoke rising 2,000 feet Sunday morning was followed at night by a pillar of fire visible a hundred miles down the Sacramento Valley. W. H. Storms, former state mineralogist, who arrived here Sunday to make observations, scouted the geyser theory. "Indications are that Lassen will imitate the performance of Krakatoa, a volcano on the island of Java," he said. "Krakatoa in 1883, after a few minor disturbances similar to Lassen's present activity, burst into one tremendous explosion which destroyed the mountain and spread a pall of darkness over thousands of square miles. "It is a mistake to put the disturbance in the class of geysers. Geysers do not eject rocks, scoria, cinders and ashes. These are the characteristics of genuine volcanoes. Lassen is an active and violent eruption."

national reports, was more comforting. "I hardly think the activity of Lassen will become so great as to produce eruptions of lava," he said. "It is likely to maintain a feeble and comparatively harmless activity. Lassen is too far from the ocean and too far inland to become a source of much real danger." Jesse Wright and J. H. Redding, who early Monday reached a point within three quarters of a mile of the main crater, said they were enveloped in sulphurous fumes and saved themselves from suffocation by laying on their faces and digging into the ground. So far as could be learned early Monday the crater of May 30, which started as an enlarged fissure is the most active. From it Sunday rose the great black cloud "like a burning oil well" observers said, which attracted many persons within a radius of fifty miles. Irued Graham, a lumberman, and seven companions up the slope until they were almost overcome by the noxious vapors. The eight threw themselves into snow banks while hot ashes and rocks fell among them. One rock cut off Graham's arm and tore open his breast. Relay parties tried to bring him down the mountain in a blanket litter. Repeatedly he was reported dead, but the latest word said he was still alive though fatally injured. Anxiety was also felt concerning W. J. Rushing, United States forest supervisor, who has been active in viewing the disturbances.

MANY VISITORS AT SAINT JOSEPH'S FOR JUBILEE

But this Golden Jubilee has a meaning far beyond the precincts of our Alumni Association. It means the inspiration of other groups of teachers throughout America to find in your example and sympathy encouragement in the work of intellectual development, of moral upbuilding, of the forming of citizenship. Above all, in this demonstration especially, heartening and consoling to the church, for hers is the mission to be, for the Americas, Asia and Africa in former ages, "the light of the world; the salt of the earth."

May your Alma Mater flourish in her golden jubilee. May her banner, which has established, and carry to the rostrum, to the legislative chambers, to the pulpit, to every roll which the needs of the hour demand, and in the order of mortality may be the common cause which we cannot forget for ever, until in the fulness of truth, God, the abiding and plenary truth, shall have communicated to us the fullness of the sum of knowledge necessary for eternal happiness, beatification in the halls of God's great school, the Kingdom of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

SAFER MILK IN SIGHT. (Ottawa Journal). Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture has put through a Dominion order-in-council which enables any municipality to compel tests against bovine tuberculosis, and which provides for partial government compensation for slaughtered animals. To bring the law into force, a municipality must pass a by-law to prohibit sale of milk or cream in the municipality except from licensed dairies; and to get a license, a dairy must conform to fixed rules of cleanliness, light and air, and must agree that within two years the cows must have a clean bill of health from the Dominion veterinary inspector. This will force dairies to have their cows tested for tuberculosis under government regulations. If disease be detected, the animal must either be destroyed, in which case the government will pay half the value; or if the case be doubtful, the animal may be kept, but no milk or cream from that dairy can be sold unless pasteurized. Hitherto the public has had practically no protection except where municipalities have passed by-laws forbidding sale of any but pasteurized milk. The new condition is a most desirable advance.

I WANT YOU TO MARRY ME IMMEDIATELY—TONIGHT!

Old Jerome Warren lived in a hundred-thousand-dollar house at 85 East Fifty-seventh street. He was a downtown broker, so rich that he could afford to walk for his health—a few blocks in the direction of his office every morning, and then call a cab.

Barbara was alone. Uncle Jerome and Nevada had gone to the theatre. Barbara had not cared to go. She wanted to stay at home and study in the study. If you miss, were a stunning New York girl, and saw every day that a brown ingenuous Western which was getting hobbles and a lass on the young man you would see your eyes, too, would lie taste for the oxidized-silver setting of a musical comedy.

"Sure I use TIZ every time for any foot trouble." You can be happy-footed just like me. Use "TIZ" and never suffer with tender, raw, burning, blistered, swollen, itchy, sore feet and cause sore, inflamed, aching, sweaty, smelly feet.

Yes! Nevada is here, waiting. We've been engaged quite a while. Some opposition among the relatives, you know, and we have to pull it off this way. We're waiting here for you. Don't let Agnes out-talk you—bring her! Will you? Good old boy! I'll order a carriage to call for you, double-quick time. Confound you, Jack, you're all right!

Come to think of it the ex makes the case look worse. The picture of a regiment of five hundred both intoxicating fluid in its possession, train stopping at many unprotected points, concludes up all sorts of possibilities, especially when it is heard that the soldiers were armed a regiment could have been snatched in a big camp like Peti.

BRITISH TEAM TAKE THE POLO CUP

Meadowbrook Club, Westbury, Long Island, June 16—The International Polo Cup, emblematic of the world's championship, will cross the ocean again, having been won here today by the English team in the second game of the series by a score of 4 to 2.

When the eighth and final period opened the American four was leading by a fraction of a point, but despite their desperate efforts they could not hold the advantage. Each team scored a goal in this period, but the defenders in their anxiety to clinch the victory transgressed the rules by sharp crossing and were penalized for fouling.

Outplayed and utterly routed in the opening contest, when they went down to defeat by a score of 8½ to 3, the Americans came back in surprising form and scored an equal number of goals to those made by the winners. It was the desperate style of their play and the lack of perfect team work that finally wrought their downfall, for they lost in penalties 2½ points out of a gross five, while the English were penalized but one point, retaining four of their five goals.

The teams lined up as follows: England—No. 1, Captain E. A. Tomkinson; No. 2, Captain L. St. G. Cheape; No. 3, Major P. W. Barrett, (captain); back, Captain Lockett.

United States—No. 1, R. Lamontagne; No. 2, J. M. Waterbury, (captain); No. 3, L. Waterbury; back, D. Milburn.

Guarding Against Business Blight

SUMMER dullness is more a fiction of the imagination than an inevitable fact. The wants and needs of men and women do not cease when summer comes.

Those who find business dull in summer are those who relax their own efforts to maintain and develop business.

The summer brings its own new demands—for clothing, food, beverages, enjoyments, and pleasures and comforts of many kinds.

It rests with the business men of this community whether or not the so called 'summer dullness' blights their businesses during June, July and August. Let them withdraw their public appeals—their newspaper advertising—to the buyers of this community, and the money which their customers and possible customers are spending or are ready to spend will be spent with others or else may not be spent at all.

The summer has its own activities and plans which call for the expenditure of money.

Money is spent just as freely in summer as at any other season. Advertisements of merchandise and service of every description are read in summer with undiminished interest and responsiveness.

Money is spent just as freely in summer as at any other season. Advertisements of merchandise and service of every description are read in summer with undiminished interest and responsiveness.

RENEWED VIGOR IN OLD AGE

This Letter Brings a Message of Cheer to the Aged—Results of Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

New, rich blood is what is most needed in the declining years to keep up energy and vitality. That Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a wonderful help in maintaining good health and prolonging life is attested by the writer of this letter: Mr. Stephen J. Leard, North Tyron, P. E. I., writes: "At seventy-five years of age my heart gave out and became very irregular and weak in action and would palpitate. My nerves also became weak, and I could do nothing but lie in bed in a languishing condition, losing strength and weight. In that condition I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and am cured. Had I not obtained this treatment I would now be in the box with the roof over my nose. At eighty-one I have an energy which means go, and I am writing this letter so that old people like myself may prolong their health and strength by using this great medicine." See a box, 6 for $2.50. For sale by all dealers.

Little River Came Back

One victory was all that the Little River baseball artists would allow the East St. John team for they stopped their winning on Monday evening on the Polo Grounds, Little River, with a decidedly crushing defeat of 14 runs to 2. Stirling was not so effective as in the first game and swat after swat was made of his delivery. Ross received for the Easterners, while Eric Stewart and McHugh made a formidable battery. Ian MacLaughlin was the star batsman for the winners, getting two nice doubles and a single, all of which counted tallies. The next game will likely take place on Friday evening.

The Local League

The Halifax Pro-Baseball club has secured the services of four of the Sydney players for their games with St. John—McGovern, Connel, Sprague and McDevitt. They will bring along Rawley, Murphy, Hanlan, Brennan and Gibbons. The Halifax manager is working overtime on the league proposition, and a wire from Halifax this morning says that he will be ready to outline the plans for the local semi-pro league on his arrival on Thursday. McGovern will have charge of the Halifax team on the field.

YACHTING

Prize of Shamrock IV. London, June 16—In an article on Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock IV, the Daily Mail's yachting expert says: "Saturday's sailing of the Shamrock IV was a hard-weather trial and revealed what everybody wanted to know, namely, that the challenger for the America cup can carry her gear and carry it with ease."

"The international class boats were racing off South Sea, and while I watched one was dismantled and another disabled; yet Sir Thomas Lipton's boat seemed quite at home. Nothing snapped and nothing parted; the test was severe and the result eminently gratifying to all concerned. The lesson was the strength of the Shamrock's mast—a truly wonderful stick, strong and supple as surely no other mast has been."

"The single headstall rig certainly possesses marvelous windward working qualities. It is only when of the wind that it lacks efficiency, and Mr. Nicholson (designer of the Shamrock IV) has a troublesome problem to solve whether to retain it for its good qualities or discard it for its shortcomings. But I am inclined to think the challenger will race with two head sails."

After another trial the Shamrock IV will be hauled out for experimental alterations—the taking away of some of the lead from her keel and the adding of more sail.

Re-Rigging Defiance

New York, June 16—Defiance, the Tri-City cup yacht, is to be re-rigged again and when she appears at the starting line with Resolute and Vanitie she will receive a time allowance from both her competitors. Her bowsprit is to be removed and her sails will be cut down so she will resemble the sloop Defiance, designed by George Owen, who turned out Defiance. More than 4700 pounds in weight has been taken from Defiance. The next race of the cup candidates will be on June 23, off Great Captains Island.

Change Rig of Shamrock.

London, June 17—A special despatch from Portsmouth says the rig of the Shamrock IV is to be altered from that of a sloop to that of a cutter. The challenger for the America's cup is to be given a longer bowsprit with jib and foresail. The despatch adds that the removal of lead will reduce her water line and effect time allowance.

ATHLETIC.

A 32 Mile Run. Spokane, Wash., June 16—Jack Norman, a local marathon runner, blazed the trail for distance runners last week when he ran from the summit of Mount Spokane to the heart of the city, a distance of thirty-two miles, in four hours and twenty-nine minutes. Norman had previous experience in mountain marathons, having finished second in the Mount Baker race last year. He is the first runner who has covered the distance between the Spokane and the city. The mountain is 6,000 feet high and is unique from the fact that it is almost entirely made of gold. Norman was carried on a motorcycle in within three miles of the summit. He walked the remaining distance to the top, and at 8:35 p. m., without having eaten since seven o'clock that morning, he started the run to Spokane. He reached here at 8:34 p. m.

KAISER INCREASES WAR CHEST.

A commission has just made its regular report to the German government with regard to the war treasure which is kept in the famous Julius tower in Spandau. This treasure amounts to 120,000,000 marks and is all in gold. It is held in readiness to defray the expenses of the mobilization of troops. It is made up of gold pieces of 10 and 20 marks, 40,000,000 marks worth of the former and 80,000,000 of the latter. The latest report of the commission advises an addition to this treasure, and it has been decided to add 240,000,000 marks; withdrawing this coin from circulation and replacing it with provisional bonds.

AN INTERNATIONAL CAPITAL

Truly an idealistic project seems that of a perfect city, but such is the plan that has long been contemplated by the scientists of many countries and has now taken such form that the details of the plans have been evolved and the international organization, known as the World Conscience Society is to determine the location of the ideal city at the next meeting of its international committee.

Ambitious the project certainly is, but those who are behind the movement believe that it is thoroughly practicable. The detailed plans are not the work of a moment but represent the labor of ten years of Hendrik Christian Anderson, an American-Scandinavian sculptor residing in Rome, assisted by many sculptors, artists, engineers, architects and scientists.

According to a reviewer of the plans this city is to cover ten square miles of ground and is to be a city of light, health, wide avenues, parks, playgrounds, fountains, lagoons and noble buildings. It is to be a city without slums, a city of efficiency, convenience and beauty, not only an ideal city in structure, plan and equipment, but destined to become the intellectual, artistic and practical international capital of the world. There will be three centers devoted to science,

MORE PAYMENTS AT THE DEMAND OF BERRY HEARD OF IN INQUIRY TODAY

(Continued from page 1) A-Not then. I went back to the office and called on the man who had the check and a certified check was not satisfactory. He wanted bank notes and bank her brother. She was pretty attired in a royal blue tailored costume and wore a hat with royal blue plumes.

The witness continued that the bank draft was taken to Mr. Brankley's office and paid for with the check. Q-What was this $4,300 paid over and about the amount paid to the government? A-Yes. Q-What if it paid as a result of the proposition put up to you by Mr. Brankley, as the mouthpiece of Mr. Berry? A-Yes. Q-And afterwards your lands were classified at $75 an acre. A-Yes. Q-Do you consider that $75 is all your lands are worth. A-Too much. Q-Why? A-The lands are depleted and there has been a fire through them. Q-Did Mr. Berry ever suggest that the bonus would be paid to the government? A-No. Q-But you could not find out what the bonus would be until you had agreed to pay $15 a mile to Mr. Brankley. A-That is right. Q-What was Mr. Berry in Mr. Brankley's office when you deposited the suit in the bag? A-Not that I know of. Mr. Teed-What lands do you hold? A-Those of the Miramichi Company. Q-You think $75 a mile too high for them? A-Yes. Q-What lands were first classified as A? A-Some held in conjunction with Mr. Teed. Q-What did you do about it? A-I went to the office of the department and protested. Q-Did you point out that none of your lands should be charged at more than $75? A-Yes. Q-And they were all reduced to $75? A-Yes. Q-What interest do you hold in the lands held jointly with others. A-About two-thirds. Q-This comes from Stevens' evidence. Q-Why do you say that? A-B. Snowball, the next witness, of the J. B. Snowball Co. Ltd. had office at Chatham, who mills at Tracadie and Millerton, in all. The company held about 81 miles of crown lands.

Mr. Carvell-Did you have any conversation with Mr. Flemming or Mr. Berry about the classification? A-Mr. Berry came to see me early in June. He telephoned me to come to a meeting at Hotel. I had talked with Mr. Flemming and Mr. Grimmer and did not think they would insist on more than $75. He said there was no hope for that. I asked if he was authorized to fix it at $100. He said: 'Yes, if we can agree.' I said I will take it over with my friends. He said: 'There is something else I want to discuss with you.' I said, 'yes.' He said, 'it is thought that this would be a good time to raise a fund. I said, 'yes.' He said, 'About $15 a mile.' I said that this is the first time such a proposition was ever put up to me, and I could not answer until I had talked it over with my friends. He said he did not want it to get out. I said I would do nothing without consulting Mr. Brankley and Mr. Ritchie. He said all the others have promised, but these two who say they want to talk it over with you. I talked with these gentlemen about the proposal. Afterwards I saw in St. John. Berry and told him that I could not give him a decided answer. He said 'If you decide to pay, give the money to Mr. Brankley.' Q-Did you pay the money to Mr. Brankley? A-Yes. Q-Did you object on the grounds that the scope of the inquiry was limited to payments made before the classification, and also that the question was too broad. Mr. Carvell-Do you mean to say that if a payment was one day late that we cannot secure evidence of it? Q-Did you have any more conversation with Mr. Berry? A-Yes, by phone. Once early in July. He said 'every one else had contributed and he thought I should pay up. I said I had not decided. He called again about July 13 or 14. I asked if I was getting the same classification as others? He said everyone was paying $100. I objected that some of my lands were not worth that, but if everybody was being treated alike, I would pay also. Q-Did you pay? A-Yes. Q-When? A-When Mr. Teed objected on the grounds that if the payment had been made after the classification there could be no extortion. Mr. Carvell argued that the arrangement was made before the classification was fixed, and the date of payment was immaterial. Mr. Stevens said that the final classification will not be completed under the act, until 1917 or 1918. The deputy minister had testified that there was no order-in-council showing what governed the classification. When the classifica-
