

The Daily Tribune.

SAINT JOHN, N. B. TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 2, 1874

No 187

VOL. III.

MAPLE HILL.

THE subscriber begs to announce to his friends and the public generally that he has just received from the MANAGER OF THE PLACE in MAPLE HILL, a very fine and complete assortment of goods, and that he is prepared to receive orders for the same.

CHAS. WATTS, Proprietor.

CARD.

D. E. DUNHAM ARCHITECT.

Rooms, 1 and 2 Bayard's Building, 105 PRINCE WILLIAM STREET.

Persons desiring to build or remodel their buildings, should call at his office, as he has a large stock of plans, and is prepared to execute all kinds of architectural work, and to superintend the construction of the same.

THE ACADIA HOTEL.

MRS. LORDLY, thankful for liberal patronage, and for the kind attention of her guests, begs to announce that she has just received from the MANAGER OF THE PLACE in MAPLE HILL, a very fine and complete assortment of goods, and that she is prepared to receive orders for the same.

M. A. LORDLY, Proprietor.

BARNES & CO.

Printers, Booksellers, Stationers, and

BLANK BOOK MANUFACTURERS.

We have added new machinery to our business, and are enabled to execute all kinds of printing, and to manufacture all kinds of blank books, and stationery of every description.

FRENCH LANGUAGE

MR. F. A. BERNARD.

WHO has for the last several years, been successful in teaching French, Italian, and Spanish, to a large number of students, and has a few hours to spare, every day, for the instruction of others. He is prepared to receive orders for the same.

NEW DRY GOODS STORE!

48 Charlotte Street,

(Next to D. D. MacArthur's Drug Store.)

GENT'S FURNISHING GOODS,

LINEN COLLARS, LINEN CUFFS,

Ties, Scarfs, Half Hose,

AND

Merino and Cotton UNDERCLOTHING.

W. A. SPENCE,

Produce Commission Merchant,

AND DEALER IN

Hay, Oats, Feed, &c.,

NORTH SLIP,

THE AURORA

Now Ready in Good Working Order!

Cool Sparkling Soda Water!

SOODA WATER!

I have secured the services of an experienced Soda Water Maker under whose superintendence

the AURORA

has been put in working order, so that I am able to supply all customers with a cool and refreshing drink, at the same time you can observe the motion of the new improved and fancy Chamber Water, being the first of the kind introduced in this City.

Call and judge for yourself and give the verdict.

R. D. MACARTHUR,

Medical Hall, No. 46 Charlotte Street.

Spiced Roll Bacon.

RECEIVED TO-DAY:

9 CARDS (2 tons) Extra Cured Spiced Roll Bacon.

30 GRY MORRISON, JR., 2 and 3 South Street.

Black Silk Travelling Caps.

BLUE CLOTH CAPS,

DRAB SHELL HATS,

Extra Satta Hats, Calico, Cheap Straw Hats.

D. MAGEE & CO., 31 King Street.

HAT AND CARBONACE.

NEW BOOKS!

Just received from Lee & Shepard, Boston:

SEVEN-MINUTE TALKS, by Billie Burritt.

Home Work, by Annals House.

Seven Daughters, do.

Seven Sisters, do.

Mrs. Annals' Ward, by D. T. Wright.

The Ancient City, by D. C. Johnson.

Travels Round the World, Hon. W. H. Seward.

France, by J. J. Jewell.

From Que. Rondelet & Son, London.

The Royal Princesses of England, Mrs. Hall.

Digit's Household, by Mrs. Hall.

The Path to Heaven, by F. W. H. K.

Stepping Heavenward, by F. F. F.

Dante's Divine Comedy, translated by Longfellow.

NOTES AND NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

It is said that Robert Bonner spends $200,000 a year for advertising the Ledger. No wonder he's rich.

Hammond, the revivalist, is playing the mischief with the theories and other places of amusement in Missouri. A large number of them have been closed owing to the superior attractions of Hammond.

An impressive warning against attempting to do unusual feats without gradual practice is pointed by the Press of Lafayette, Indiana, in the case of a citizen who was drowned in the canal while trying to wash himself.

A Texas jury has given a verdict which indicates that two and a half per cent. a month interest is too much to expect to collect on loans down here. Hereafter, forewarned is forearmed, and money-lenders will have to be cautious when they "go to Texas."

A gentleman who came several thousand miles to visit the country with the purpose of purchasing, got a large-sized ant on him a few days ago, and, strange as he was, he carried around and used as appropriate language as if he had lived here all his life, and moved in the best of society—Antonio Herald.

If you want to read all about more robberies, murders, outrages and other black crimes than ever darkened the record of any community in both hemispheres by a New Orleans paper and see what fellows the streets are doing for a living down there, it beats the Arabian Nights.

Now, who'd have thought it? Ex-liege Commissioner Marshall says that the ratio of drunkenness is twenty per cent. less in New York than in Boston or Brooklyn, and that there has been a decrease of thirty per cent. in the number of crimes resulting therefrom during the past year. This is comfort for Sodom.

Boston has the honor.

Philadelphia specialists state that the meeting of the iron-masters there on Friday was a very gloomy one, and it is believed that half of the tonnage now in blast will be extinguished by the 1st of September. One man stated that he was paying men only one dollar per day, who formerly earned $5 per day, and even at this low rate for labor could not make iron at a profit. Letters from a number of furnace owners throughout the country show the same depression.

Now we know all about it. An enormously learned climatologist tells the world, in Gaiter, how our incipient summer got nipped in the bud, thereby "the children of that time of the year" are to be expected to be "nipped" on the same point of our orb.

Everything, it seems, was not lovely at the recent high-life wedding at Senator Stewart's house in Washington. The supper-room of the guests became full of tea and coffee or other cheering liquid dates, was turned into a scene of confusion, which resulted in considerable breakage of glass and china, and compelled the hostess to order the guests to be escorted to the door.

In other words, the guests behaved disgracefully, just as often happens in Washington, and for that matter in other places. The fact seems to be that putting "Hoon" before some men's names does not make gentlemen of them.

GENERAL.

The world is forgetful of its benefactors. Who knows the name of the man who invented chewing gum?

The cable despatch stating that Don Carlos's army had captured a paper of cigarettes proves untrue.

The Danbury Jew man will present a copy of his Almanac to the Queen if she consents to an introduction.

A young man of this city, who was engaged to be married, saw one of his sweet-heart's stockings floating from a clothes-line the other day and concluded he wouldn't.

If cremation should be universally adopted, we don't know what the undertakers would do with their supply of patent burial cases, unless they use them for putting up fresh fruits and vegetables instead of at-eight cases.

An exchange asks, "Why is it that there are many bald-headed men and so few bald-headed women?" We presume it is because few husbands are so unmanly as to snatch their wives bald-headed, no matter what the provocation may be.

A German Jew was eating a pork chop in a thundershot. On hearing an unusually loud clap, he laid down his knife and fork, and observed: "Well, did any body ever hear such a fuss about a little piece of pork?"

An ardent lover, pouring out his passionate devotion in verse, spoke of that night when, walking with his sweetheart, he "kissed her under the silent stars." In print he was made to say that he "kissed her under the cellar stairs."

It is reported that an explosion occurred Friday morning in the colliery at Clay Cross, in Derbyshire, attended by a terrible loss of life. Some thirty miners are said to have been killed and a large number injured.

Colonel Martineau, a veteran of the First Empire, has just died in France at the age of ninety years. He was, under Napoleon, aide-camp to General Rapp, and at the Bourton restoration became one of the gentlemen of the Chamber of Louis XVIII.

The Duke of Edinburgh, though a sailor, must needs be identified with the land service; therefore the Ninety-ninth regiment of foot has been chosen to bear his colors, and hereafter will be known as the Duke of Edinburgh's regiment.

It doesn't pay sometimes to be too good a mimic. Down in Texas, the other day, two men were out turkey-trotting. One of them, who was a good mimic, was good at the "hobble-de-gobble" business, which is a necessary accompaniment to turkey-trotting, and so they heard each other's noise and both laid low for a good shot. Finally, one man pulling trigger, and he beheld, he performed a worthy freedman instead of a turkey. The deceased was a first-rate turkey, but a very poor fellow, and, before he talked turkey to poor purpose.

Morbid Impulse.

Dr. Wm. A. Hammond read an interesting paper Thursday night before the members of the New York Medico-Legal Association on "Morbid Impulse," that strange psychic force which impels men to the commission of crime when there would appear to be no possible reason for it. The theme was ably handled, and the essay was so little burdened with technical nomenclature as to be perfectly intelligible in all its parts to the most unsophisticated of the Doctor's auditors.

The lecturer instanced as a singular illustration of the effect of the morbid impulse the case recently reported in The One of a man who, while in his garden with his little daughter, saw a sudden and almost irresistible impulse to murder her with his spade.

The man was in every way healthy, and this singular temptation to attack women in his street, thrown down them, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

Now, long ago a young man of good family became the victim of a singular impulse. He could not resist the temptation to attack women in his street, throw them down, and take their shoes from their feet. When he was arrested in his garden, he confessed, on examination, that he did so under an irresistible impulse that he was only for the time in such condition mentally that he took pleasure in doing harm to others.

EVERITT & BUTLER,
WHOLESALE WAREHOUSE
 55 and 57 King Street.
Wrapping Paper, &c.
 NOW IN STOCK:
 1000 RAMS assorted sizes. STRAW PAPER. 400 Rams assorted sizes. Mottled Wrapping Twines. Wholesale only. Lowest prices.
EVERITT & BUTLER,
 55 and 57 King Street.
Stamped Rug Patterns.
 ON HAND—All sizes, from 1 to 2 yards. STAMPED RUG PATTERNS, new and elegant designs. Samples and printed directions by post.
EVERITT & BUTLER,
 55 and 57 King Street.
OAK AND PITCH PINE
TIMBER
 For this Building purpose, constantly on hand. Also
WHITE PINE, BIRCH, &c., &c.
R. A. GREGORY,
 Office—FOOT OF FREDRICK STREET. Portland, St. John, N. B.
DR. J. E. GRIFFITH, Dentist.
 Office, corner German and Duke Streets, (OPPOSITE VICTORIA HOTEL,
 SAINT JOHN, N. B.)
 37 Teeth Extracted without pain by use of Nitrous Oxide (Laughing Gas).
MARITIME
WAREHOUSING AND DOCK COMPANY
 Storage in Bond or Free. Cash Advances on all descriptions of Merchandise. BANK STERLING CREDITS granted to Importers.
JAMES D. O'NEILL,
 MANUFACTURER OF
OIL-TANNED LARRIGANS!
Women's, Misses' and Children's BOOTS and SHOES
 IN SEWER, KID AND GRAIN LEATHERS.
MISPECK MILLS, - - - St. John, N. B.

HOMESPUNS,
 All Wool Twilled Flannels and Tweeds!
 ALL AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES!
 Also, First Class
COTTON WARPS.
 THE above named Seasonable Goods are all of SUPERIOR QUALITY, manufactured from the best material, and warranted to give satisfaction.
J. L. WOODWORTH, Agent
 10 KING STREET.

DAVID MILLER,
 MANUFACTURER OF
Hoop Skirts, Corsets,
 AND DEALER IN
Hair Goods!
 Real and Imitation
Sewing
Machine!
 Sole Agent for the Maritime Provinces
 for the following articles:
 The Lockman, Appleton,
 Hesper, White,
 and Singer Manufacturing
 Co. Sewing Machines.
 10 KING STREET.

Wholesale Warehouse
CANTERBURY STREET.

DRY GOODS!
 To be found in the Dominion.
 We invite the attention of the trade to the STOCK and assortment of Value that Cannot be Equalled
T. R. JONES & CO.

GREY COTTON WHICH IS MUCH SUPERIOR
WM. PARKS & SON,
 New Brunswick Cotton Mills,
 SAINT JOHN, N. B.
THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE
 A 42 COLUMN PAPER.
 The Best in the Maritime Provinces!
 Only One Dollar a Year!
 Sample Copies Mailed Free!

The Daily Tribune
 TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 2.
 Cowardly Candidates.

The cowardly candidates for the Opposition in this County are attracting marked attention, as it compares unfavorably with the utterances of the others. Even Mr. Maher, whom we expected to come out in a manly style in favor of separate schools, giving facts, figures and reasons in favor of such a system, dodges the whole question. The other candidate, Mr. Armstrong, is equally misty in his utterances. He does not like our school system; he wishes to conciliate the Catholics; he is a free school man; he does not want sectarian schools; he wants the Bible as a text book in schools! This is a conglomerate of statements that should be patented at once, and cannot have been invented without great mental distress. Mr. Armstrong should take the head of the class at once, and give the people a lesson in logic. He has the honor of the people's book in the respect of the Common Schools Act so that he may get a better one passed, pales before a combination of opposing forces like this of Mr. Armstrong's. Every man hasn't the courage to put up with the people's book in schools for the purpose of conciliating the Catholics. Only a genius—one who can do the Christian Brothers' gamb and march around with an Orange flag in his hands—would think of it. We honor the gentleman for his inventive genius. He either considers the people foolish, or he is amusing himself at the expense of those who support him.

We should have liked a square fight on the separate school issue, as it would have been instructive to both sides. The people stand on that question, and are sorry that there is no candidate in the field who openly declares himself an uncompromising advocate of sectarian education.

Protect the Heligens.
 Mr. Dean, who had charge of the cattle that dropped exhausted in the streets of Bangor, was fined in that city. The authorities should also act in the matter. The abuse can never be remedied in this way, however. The drover should not be punished for the neglect of the carrier to provide facilities for preventing suffering among the cattle under his charge. The drover does not construct cattle cars, cannot be expected to supply them with troughs and tanks, and cannot stop the train when the cattle require rest. The railways provide certain facilities, and the shipper must take his own care to keep his cattle at home. The abuse of cattle on railways is an old story, and it cannot be remedied by occasional fines on drovers. Here is an instance from the Montreal Witness, of a more serious character than the one to which we have already called attention:

The Calcutta Black Hole, so fatal in one night to its crowd of British prisoners, seems yesterday to have been crowded with suffering with sheep, lambs and calves, numbered on which were sent and others dying, on its arrival at the Bonaventure street station. The sight is described as being equally pitiable and disgusting, and the cruelty and want of thought involved in this penning up these creatures without sufficient room and ventilation, was seen in the shocking result. The poor creatures, made it obvious that self-interest alone of the owners is not a reliable guarantee for the protection of these dumb animals in transit to market. Whether any of these which were so done to death will ever reach the shambles, and from thence the table, we cannot say.

Instances of equal cruelty have been common in the States, and philanthropic societies there are doing the best they can to bring about a better state of things. All efforts must fail, there and here, that are not directed at railway management. Land transportation is entirely controlled by railway combinations, and individual shippers are powerless, having to accept whatever facilities are offered, and to abide by whatever rules they find in force.

Dividends in charge of stock owners are something more than appears to be done generally, to compensate for the want of a proper transportation system, but the barbarous treatment of cattle on railways will never be remedied without the railway managers are held responsible for suffering caused by the want of proper facilities for supplying food and drink to the cattle they accept as freight. Mr. Dean explains that his cattle rested by day, and were supplied with food and water in plenty. He accounts for their exhaustion from the fact that they are stall-fed animals that never had much exercise. But if the cattle were not suffering for drink we don't think they would break away from their drivers and plunge into the Penobscot, or jump off the ferry boat into our harbor.

Those Grit politicians seem to have no regard for decency. The Minister of Justice solemnly denied, during the last week of the session, that he was going on the bench, and yet leaves the Cabinet and does the crime at the end of the first week of the recess! One of the Opposition speakers predicted that this would be done within three months. Three months, indeed! The man was silly enough to imagine that the Minister would have some regard for appearances and postpone the transformation some three months!

The "Canadian Andrew Bock" is the newest and best of the kind. E. Peller & Co., agents.

A Bible Drummer.

Another commercial agent was up before the Police Court this morning for selling goods without a license, and confessed taking orders for Bibles. He produced his two samples, which were elegant copies of the Protestant and Douay editions of the Holy Scriptures. A number of orders had been taken for the Bibles, the price of which was $16. From the order book, the Magistrate took a few orders on his book. The Magistrate looked at and admired both books, and handed them back. He would let the matter stand, he said, as he could not see any way clear to fine a person for selling the Bible. The more they were circulated in the city, he thought, the better. The case was allowed to stand for a few days until he consulted with the Mayor, Mr. Richardson, the agent, will remain for some days in the city and pursue his work unhampered.

Shipping News.
 The S. S. Sidonion arrived at Glasgow yesterday, after a passage of 11 days from this port. She sails from Glasgow on the 6th inst., and Liverpool on the 9th, for Halifax and this port.

Twice Passage.—Messrs. Taylor Bros. have received word of the arrival of their bark Assyria at North Sydney. She made the passage from Harve to that port in 22 days, which is a remarkably quick trip.

A few active boys are required at this office to sell the Daily Tribune. School boys can earn from one to two dollars a week in this way, without interfering with their school duties. Apply at the printing office, between three and five o'clock in the afternoon.

Fire in Portland.
 Mr. D. Cather's house in McCookery Road, Portland, a new house almost ready to be occupied, was completely destroyed by fire last evening, together with a barn adjoining it belonging to Mr. David Sprigitt. The two buildings were in the middle of a block of wooden houses, and nothing but the active exertions of the firemen saved the rest from being burned. The origin of the fire is unknown, but Mr. Cather thinks some boys may have thrown lighted matches into the building. The loss is a very serious one to Mr. Cather, who is a mechanic, and had only a short time since purchased the house. There was no insurance.

Merchants' Exchange.
 New York, June 2.
 Markets—Cotton, nothing doing (mid-dings 184c).
 Exchange—nothing doing. Gold opened at 112 1/2, was 112 N. W., light, clear. Their 65c.
 Boston, June 2.
 Weather—Wind E. S. W., clear. Ther. 55°.
 Portland, June 2.
 Weather—Wind N. Light, clear. Ther. 56°.
 City of Portland left for Boston at 5.30.
 London, June 2.
 Financial—Consols 84 1/2 a 92 for money; 92 1/2 for account, and they were Commercial—Liverpool breadstuffs quiet; corn 55s; lard 55s 6d; cotton dull and unchanged. Weather throughout English fair.

Markets.
 [Corrected weekly for THE TRIBUNE.]
 June 2nd, 1889.
 Hay, per ton, $12.00 @ $14.00
 Sheepskins, 2.00 @ 2.50
 Mutton, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Beef, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Pork, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Butter, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Eggs, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Flour, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Sugar, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Coffee, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Tea, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Rice, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Oil, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Soap, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Candles, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Lard, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Tallow, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Grease, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Soap, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Candles, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Lard, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Tallow, 1.00 @ 1.50
 Grease, 1.00 @ 1.50

Another Case of Bronchitis Cured.
 MR. JAMES I. FELLOWS.
 Dear Sir—While in Windsor on a visit in December last, I fell ill with an old friend—Capt. H. Coffin—and finding him looking so hearty and robust, was led to inquire what had produced the great change, for when I last saw him, two years previous, he was a mere skeleton. He informed me that your very valuable Syrup of Hypophosphites had effected a perfect cure. He persuaded me to try the Syrup for Bronchitis, from which I had suffered much during several years. I purchased one dozen of this Syrup, and have used only three bottles, and my health is now better than it has been for years. Not requiring the balance of the dozen, I sold it to different parties, and now there is a general demand for it from all parts.

Academy of Music Theatre.
 Miss Kellogg, with more courage than prudence, ventured, at the selfish request of some who were eager to see her again as a dilettante, to give a second representation of a play for her benefit. This was unprecedented in St. John, where the best play fills the house one night only, and it was feared that Miss Kellogg had sacrificed the dollars of the crowd to the applause of a circle of intelligent admirers. The result was more favorable than had been expected by any one, the house being nearly as good as at the opening and all the evening of the Queen's Birthday. If a new piece had been put on the house would have packed. Miss Kellogg was called before the curtain three times and warmly applauded. Everybody watched for the farce, which Mr. Owen made very funny. "School" will be given to-night, and the rest of the week will be devoted to standard comedy and tragedy, the bill being changed every night.

Mr. Morley's was for so long a time in the employ of Mr. S. Powers. He had commenced the business of undertaker, etc., on his own account. See advt.

Wholesale Journal Prices.
 Paper, per 1000, $12.00
 Ink, per 1000, 1.00
 Pen, per 1000, 1.00
 Press, per 1000, 1.00
 Paper, per 1000, $12.00
 Ink, per 1000, 1.00
 Pen, per 1000, 1.00
 Press, per 1000, 1.00

Episcopal Sunday School Teachers' Association meets this evening in the hall of the Commercial Hotel. Several addresses will be delivered.

The door of Miss Swift's millinery store was closed last night between 11 and 1 o'clock by the police.

Mr. Notman tells us that the present month is the most suitable for photographing private residences, as the foliage is not too thick. He has an outdoor stand to attend to work of this kind, as by order he may be favored with his careful attention.

Point Lepreau Weather and Marine Report:
 June 2d, 11.30 A. M.—Wind S. E. E light, clear. A ship in the South Channel toward 9 A. M.—Wind N. clear, strong breeze. One brigantine and two schooners in ward. Three schooners outward.

The Daily Tribune and all the popular Canadian, English and American newspapers are magazines can always be obtained at the bookstore of Mr. W. J. Crawford, King street.

Express trains now run daily between Annapolis and Halifax. Thirty-nine colored persons were imprisoned by the Rev. Mr. Thomas on Sunday last, in Bedford Basin. The lady converts were all dressed in white, and the scene is described as "a singular one." A large concourse of people on the shore and in pleasure boats assembled to witness the remedy.

The Halifax Recorder has an instance of an eagle, a few miles from that city, endeavoring to carry off a boy. The bird first took the boy by the hat, finding itself sold, returned and took him by the coat collar and tried to fly off. The struggles of the boy prevented this and his cries brought assistance. The boy was fifteen years old.

The Emperor of Brazil opened the Chamber on the 5th inst. and read a message of peace between Paraguay and the Argentine States, which would result in the present complications. Alluding to religious troubles, he declared that the members of the Bishop of Olinda and Paris was necessary, because they had transgressed the laws and constitution of the Empire.

Sufferers who unshy lot in life it has been the next door to a musical family, will appreciate a story this is told of Von Kulow, the eminent German pianist. An aspiring genius, which would send him to the present complications. Alluding to religious troubles, he declared that the members of the Bishop of Olinda and Paris was necessary, because they had transgressed the laws and constitution of the Empire.

Mr. Dean, who had charge of the cattle that dropped exhausted in the streets of Bangor, was fined in that city. The authorities should also act in the matter. The abuse can never be remedied in this way, however. The drover should not be punished for the neglect of the carrier to provide facilities for preventing suffering among the cattle under his charge.

Mr. New, a Methodist minister, was sent for. This was done, but when he arrived they opened fire upon the whole party, killing the minister and three others, and driving the rest away. They escaped and robbed a mail agent and a drover the same day. Gov. Baxter says that he will soon be able to preserve peace and make Arkansas one of the most orderly States in the Union.

It may be of interest to state that, in Glasgow, there were no less than twelve large steamers belonging to the Royal Line. These were—the Ethiopia, 2604, Capt. Craig; Australia, 1848, Capt. Mackay; Olympia, 1527, Capt. Young; Cassia, 1560, Capt. Butler; India, 1444, Capt. Harris; Columbia, 1897, Capt. Higgins; Anglia, 1462, Capt. Smith; California, 1898, Capt. Greenstone; Macedonia, 1464, Capt. Laird; Europa, 1574; Scandinavia, 1918; Troika, 2820. The aggregate tonnage of the above vessels is close upon 20,000 tons, and the monetary value will not be much short of a million. These figures represent the actual net tonnage—Glasgow Mail.

It is rather depressing to read of a row about the copyright of a hymn-book. An assortment of spiritual songs in chancery presents a painful spectacle. In England the hymn-books are given to the Conference. All the ministers being sent, a Mr. Gibbons of Bristol has published a cheap edition of his book for his own profit, and a motion was lately made before the Master of the Rolls to restrain Mr. Gibbons. Neither party was called upon by the Master to show "When can you rest until we are free?" but it is a common law to restrain the defendant.

Fire was the number struck that night. From the Fire Alarm, in the tall old steeple, while the bell rang and the light flashed on the streets, a large fire broke out. A pillar of cloud rose high, and a wind whirled round the square. From the deep-voiced son on the square!

Mr. New, a Methodist minister, was sent for. This was done, but when he arrived they opened fire upon the whole party, killing the minister and three others, and driving the rest away. They escaped and robbed a mail agent and a drover the same day. Gov. Baxter says that he will soon be able to preserve peace and make Arkansas one of the most orderly States in the Union.

It may be of interest to state that, in Glasgow, there were no less than twelve large steamers belonging to the Royal Line. These were—the Ethiopia, 2604, Capt. Craig; Australia, 1848, Capt. Mackay; Olympia, 1527, Capt. Young; Cassia, 1560, Capt. Butler; India, 1444, Capt. Harris; Columbia, 1897, Capt. Higgins; Anglia, 1462, Capt. Smith; California, 1898, Capt. Greenstone; Macedonia, 1464, Capt. Laird; Europa, 1574; Scandinavia, 1918; Troika, 2820. The aggregate tonnage of the above vessels is close upon 20,000 tons, and the monetary value will not be much short of a million. These figures represent the actual net tonnage—Glasgow Mail.

It is rather depressing to read of a row about the copyright of a hymn-book. An assortment of spiritual songs in chancery presents a painful spectacle. In England the hymn-books are given to the Conference. All the ministers being sent, a Mr. Gibbons of Bristol has published a cheap edition of his book for his own profit, and a motion was lately made before the Master of the Rolls to restrain Mr. Gibbons. Neither party was called upon by the Master to show "When can you rest until we are free?" but it is a common law to restrain the defendant.

Fire was the number struck that night. From the Fire Alarm, in the tall old steeple, while the bell rang and the light flashed on the streets, a large fire broke out. A pillar of cloud rose high, and a wind whirled round the square. From the deep-voiced son on the square!

Mr. New, a Methodist minister, was sent for. This was done, but when he arrived they opened fire upon the whole party, killing the minister and three others, and driving the rest away. They escaped and robbed a mail agent and a drover the same day. Gov. Baxter says that he will soon be able to preserve peace and make Arkansas one of the most orderly States in the Union.

It may be of interest to state that, in Glasgow, there were no less than twelve large steamers belonging to the Royal Line. These were—the Ethiopia, 2604, Capt. Craig; Australia, 1848, Capt. Mackay; Olympia, 1527, Capt. Young; Cassia, 1560, Capt. Butler; India, 1444, Capt. Harris; Columbia, 1897, Capt. Higgins; Anglia, 1462, Capt. Smith; California, 1898, Capt. Greenstone; Macedonia, 1464, Capt. Laird; Europa, 1574; Scandinavia, 1918; Troika, 2820. The aggregate tonnage of the above vessels is close upon 20,000 tons, and the monetary value will not be much short of a million. These figures represent the actual net tonnage—Glasgow Mail.

It is rather depressing to read of a row about the copyright of a hymn-book. An assortment of spiritual songs in chancery presents a painful spectacle. In England the hymn-books are given to the Conference. All the ministers being sent, a Mr. Gibbons of Bristol has published a cheap edition of his book for his own profit, and a motion was lately made before the Master of the Rolls to restrain Mr. Gibbons. Neither party was called upon by the Master to show "When can you rest until we are free?" but it is a common law to restrain the defendant.

Fire was the number struck that night. From the Fire Alarm, in the tall old steeple, while the bell rang and the light flashed on the streets, a large fire broke out. A pillar of cloud rose high, and a wind whirled round the square. From the deep-voiced son on the square!

Mr. New, a Methodist minister, was sent for. This was done, but when he arrived they opened fire upon the whole party, killing the minister and three others, and driving the rest away. They escaped and robbed a mail agent and a drover the same day. Gov. Baxter says that he will soon be able to preserve peace and make Arkansas one of the most orderly States in the Union.

It may be of interest to state that, in Glasgow, there were no less than twelve large steamers belonging to the Royal Line. These were—the Ethiopia, 2604, Capt. Craig; Australia, 1848, Capt. Mackay; Olympia, 1527, Capt. Young; Cassia, 1560, Capt. Butler; India, 1444, Capt. Harris; Columbia, 1897, Capt. Higgins; Anglia, 1462, Capt. Smith; California, 1898, Capt. Greenstone; Macedonia, 1464, Capt. Laird; Europa, 1574; Scandinavia, 1918; Troika, 2820. The aggregate tonnage of the above vessels is close upon 20,000 tons, and the monetary value will not be much short of a million. These figures represent the actual net tonnage—Glasgow Mail.

It is rather depressing to read of a row about the copyright of a hymn-book. An assortment of spiritual songs in chancery presents a painful spectacle. In England the hymn-books are given to the Conference. All the ministers being sent, a Mr. Gibbons of Bristol has published a cheap edition of his book for his own profit, and a motion was lately made before the Master of the Rolls to restrain Mr. Gibbons. Neither party was called upon by the Master to show "When can you rest until we are free?" but it is a common law to restrain the defendant.

Court of Sessions. The Court of Sessions opened this forenoon in the Council Chamber at 11 o'clock, Mayor Smith in the chair. After opening, W. H. A. Keas, Esq., in a well chosen speech, congratulated His Worship on being in the position of Chief Magistrate of the County, and hoped that he would be enabled to discharge the duties in a satisfactory and impartial manner as his father.

By Telegraph. Canadian, British and Foreign. [To the Associated Press.] New York, June 1, p. m. The French Communist, Rochefort, continues besieged by newspaper interviewers and lion hunters. He remains private as possible.

DRESS MATERIALS! WE beg to call special attention to this Department, which is now complete in all the Latest Novelties! Including the NEW TALASCA CLOTH! Ladies' Dresses & Costumes. LIKELY, CAMERON & GOLDING'S, 53 KING STREET.

New Advertisements. THEATRE. St. John Dramatic Lyceum, (SOUTH SIDE KING SQUARE). Manager, J. W. LANIERMAN. Second night of the charming, Artistic, LILLIE EDLIDOR.

ENCOURAGE HOME INSTITUTIONS. THE ROYAL CANADIAN INSURANCE COY. Capital Authorized, $5,000,000. All Classes of Risks against Fire, at moderate Rates. ALL CLAIMS WILL BE PAID IMMEDIATELY ON THE LOSS BEING ESTABLISHED.

LONDON HOUSE, Retail. BARNES, KERR & CO. WOULD CALL THE ATTENTION OF THEIR CUSTOMERS TO THE STOCK OF ROUILLON'S Josephine Kid Gloves!

CARPETS! Beaten by Steam Power. The Subscribers having added to their Machinery a CARPET-BEATING APPARATUS. Are prepared to receive Orders at the following rates:

Wants. Barouche, Double Wagon, Express Wagon and Light Carriage, etc. Vessels Wanted. Wanted, a Schooner to load the latter part of this week, 100 tons live fish in her hold.

NEW GOODS! June 1st. We are now showing the following NEW GOODS: Imported per steamer Captain and Jyrin.

MANCHESTER, ROBERTSON & ALLISON, New Premises, 27 King Street. Another importation per "Anna" this week will make our stock complete in all Departments.

SPRING HILL COAL. HAVING been appointed Agents for the sale of the best quality of Spring Hill Coal, we are prepared to make contracts for delivery at the lowest prices.

AMERICAN CONVEYOR CLINIC RINGS. All sizes, from 1/2" to 12". BERRYMAN, 121 South Water Street, Montreal.

THE NEW PREMIUMS. OUR BOYS: on the Dussan and "New York" are two new and original pictures.

CHILDREN'S SHOES! 55 VARIETIES. OF Children's BOOTS and SHOES, in Kid and Blended skin.

Ladies' Spring Boots. IN ALL THE NEW STYLES. JUST RECEIVED BY E. FROST & CO., 27 King Street.

Haddies. 10 DOZEN PINN HADDIES. For sale at 10 WATER STREET, J. D. TURNER.

Steamers

INTERNATIONAL STEAMSHIP COMPANY
Spring Arrangement.
For Newport, Portland and Boston.

CUNARD LINE.

The British and North American Royal Mail Steamship Company's Fleet
Callings Three Times a Week each way.

UNION LINE!

For Fredericton,
FARE
STEAMER "DAVID WESTON" will depart for Fredericton on MONDAYS, WEDNESDAYS and FRIDAYS.

Steamer "May Queen."

UNION LINE further notice.
STEAMER "MAY QUEEN" will leave for Fredericton on MONDAYS, WEDNESDAYS and FRIDAYS.

Anchor Line

Importers are respectfully informed that the favorite full powered steamship
REDEMPTION, 1800 TONS.

Steamers

Steamer "City of St. John."
The Shortest and Cheapest Route to Parsons, Windsor and Halifax.

EXPRESS LINE!

Steamer ROTHESAY
For Fredericton, FARE $1.50
Connecting at Fredericton with Steamers of the "People's Line" for Woodstock, Tobique and Grand Falls.

THREE TRIPS A WEEK!

ST. JOHN TO HALIFAX.
Steamer "Empress"
FOR DIGBY AND ANNAPOLIS!
Connecting with the Windsor and Annapolis Steamers every MONDAY.

Grass Seed!

JUST RECEIVED—24 tons Harvey Grass
K. E. PUDINGTON & CO.
41 Charlotte Street.

FIRE! FIRE!!

A Rare Chance for a Bargain
450 COOK STOVES
SAVED from the late fire in my premises on the night of the 15th inst. will be sold at about HALF PRICE!

Lawson's Rheumatic Liniment.

THIS invaluable Liniment has the extraordinary property of absorbing immediately all cases of Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, and Neuralgia, and restoring the system to its normal condition.

Grass Seed!

JUST RECEIVED—24 tons Harvey Grass
K. E. PUDINGTON & CO.
41 Charlotte Street.

FROM BOSTON,

Per Overland Express.
JUST RECEIVED:
GREEN MOUNTAIN ASTHMA CURE.

TEA BISCUIT.

Tea Biscuit Hot Every Evening.
AGUT RIE & HEYWOOD'S.
44 Charlotte Street.

Albion Liniment.

DR. LEARY'S...
Albion Liniment.
Sole Agent: J. CHALONER, 44 Charlotte Street.

A BACHELOR'S CONSOLATION.

BY DOUGLASS.
In a small little cot, not a thousand miles off,
Lived a lonely, contented old "bachelor."

Election Cards.

To the Electors and Citizens of the City of Saint John:
GENTLEMEN—
Confirming my Circular recently issued and published in the Press of Saint John, I beg to assure you that, if elected, I will not fail to do what I can for the interests of this City and Province.

To the Electors of the City and County of St. John.

I have the honor to remain
Your obedient servant,
ROBERT MARSHALL.

To the Electors of the City and County of King's County.

GENTLEMEN:
The General Assembly having been dissolved you will shortly be called to elect representatives to serve you for another term in the Legislature.

Insolvent Act of 1869.

In the matter of HENRY S. BECK, Insolvent.
NOTICE is hereby given that a Meeting of the Creditors of Henry S. Beck, who has been adjudged Insolvent, will be held at the Office of the Court of King's County, on Thursday, the 10th day of June, 1874, at 10 o'clock, A.M.

Business Cards

FOREIGN FIRE PROSPECTUS.
NORTHERN ASSURANCE COMPANY.
London and Aberdeen.
ESTABLISHED A. D. 1826.

BAY VIEW HOTEL.

WILLIAM WILSON, Proprietor.
THE SUBSCRIBER, having leased the above well known House on Prince William Street, and furnished it throughout, is now prepared to receive his guests in the most comfortable and convenient manner.

THE NEW BRUNSWICK STEAM COFFEE AND SPICE MILLS.

No. 7 Waterloo Street.
OFFER A GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF
Spices, Mustard, Cream of Tartar, COFFEE, &c.

LIST OF ELECTORS

For 1874.
QUALIFIED to vote for Members to represent the City and County of St. John in the General Assembly of the Province of New Brunswick, revised by the Sheriff, New Brunswick, and for sale to Candidates.
GEO. W. DAY.

INSOLVENT ACT OF 1869.

In the matter of GEORGE N. GOLDING, Insolvent.
NOTICE is hereby given that a Meeting of the Creditors of George N. Golding, who has been adjudged Insolvent, will be held at the Office of the Court of King's County, on Thursday, the 10th day of June, 1874, at 10 o'clock, A.M.

VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California.

Read This!

NEEDS. KING'S COUNTY, Dec. 14, '73.
MRS. LESTER—Dear Madam, I have been troubled for the last fifteen years with a kind of indigestion, and have tried many of the different kinds of medicines recommended to me, but without any permanent benefit.

NOTICE.

Sealed Tenders marked "Tender for Ferry Point Bridge" will be received at the Department of Public Works, Fredericton, New Brunswick, on Friday, the 27th day of August next, at 10 o'clock, A.M.

THE CELEBRATED

Dunn Edge Tool Co's.
SCYTHES
HAYE the Company's name stamped in red letters on the side of each Scythe.
W. H. THORNE.

APRIL 27, 1874.

Per steamers we have received:
630 BALES & CASES
British & Foreign Manufacture,
Making an assortment COMPLETE IN EVERY DEPARTMENT.
DANIEL & BOYD.

Business Cards

FOREIGN FIRE PROSPECTUS.
NORTHERN ASSURANCE COMPANY.
London and Aberdeen.
ESTABLISHED A. D. 1826.

BAY VIEW HOTEL.

WILLIAM WILSON, Proprietor.
THE SUBSCRIBER, having leased the above well known House on Prince William Street, and furnished it throughout, is now prepared to receive his guests in the most comfortable and convenient manner.

THE NEW BRUNSWICK STEAM COFFEE AND SPICE MILLS.

No. 7 Waterloo Street.
OFFER A GENERAL ASSORTMENT OF
Spices, Mustard, Cream of Tartar, COFFEE, &c.

LIST OF ELECTORS

For 1874.
QUALIFIED to vote for Members to represent the City and County of St. John in the General Assembly of the Province of New Brunswick, revised by the Sheriff, New Brunswick, and for sale to Candidates.
GEO. W. DAY.

INSOLVENT ACT OF 1869.

In the matter of GEORGE N. GOLDING, Insolvent.
NOTICE is hereby given that a Meeting of the Creditors of George N. Golding, who has been adjudged Insolvent, will be held at the Office of the Court of King's County, on Thursday, the 10th day of June, 1874, at 10 o'clock, A.M.