ANNUAL MEETING

The Curlers met on Monday Night

OFFICERS ELECTED

Skating two nights per fortnight. Hockeyists dissatisfied

The annual meeting of the Curling Club was held on Monday night. About sixty members were present. Minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed.

The following officers were then elected—

President, W. A. Mott.
Vice-President, Jas Gillis.
Secy-Treas, D. C. Firth.
R. H. Anderson
Geo. G. McKenzie
Directors J. T. Mowat
C. F. Clare
H. J. Wilson

The following new members were elected—

Chas S. O. Crockett, Clare Jellett, Ernest Murphy, F. H. Lockhart, Ray Bray, Donald Trueman, Roland Moffat, Fred Kerr, and Allan Miller.

The following were elected skips for the coming season.

R. H. Anderson, E. J. Allingham, A. A. Andrew, D. J. Bruce, H. H. Bray, John Cameron, C. F. Clare, S. H. Cook, W. W. Doherty, Jas Gillis, J. P. Jardine, John Kean, H. Lunan, M. D. W. A. Mott, John T. Mowat, F. M. Murray, F. F. Matheson, M. P. Moores, Hugh Marquis, Geo. G. McKenzie, Alex McLennan, A. D. MacKendrick, A. McG McDonald, Daniel O'Keefe sr., E. B. Price, W. R. Riddle, Ernest Smith, J. H. Wilson, Thos Wran, John White.

Several important matters were discussed, the most important being the skating question. It was decided to have skating two nights per fortnight instead of two nights per week as last year.

This arrangement is not meeting with the approval of the hockey club. If this decision of the Curlers is final there will be no hockey this winter which is much to be regretted.

Another question discussed was the dues of members. The question drew considerable discussion and it was decided to pay the same rate as last year viz $6.00.

The financial statement showed that the Club had a balance on hand of over two hundred dollars

KILGOUR SHIVES.

By MICHAEL WHELAN.

New Brunswick's sons are tried and true
Whatever post they fill,
Whatever work they find to do
They do it with a will;
Whether upon the dear old farm
Or in the forest fair,
They bravely bare the brawny arm,
And take the toiler's share;
With ringing cheer and answer clear
At Duty's clarion call,
Up from the humble homestead dear
To Legislative Hall,
No better man was ever born
Amid her toiling hives
Than he, for whom to-day we mourn,
Lamented Kilgour Shives.

A man he was, to friendship dear,
Beloved by all of those
Who closely watched his clean career
And mourn its tragic close.
He prospered not by selfish plan,
But thought of higher things,
The manly work that makes a man
To stand for more than Kings;
Not for mere wealth or things that fade,
Nor false and fleeting fame,
Far greater than the million made,
He held an honest name;
A man is measured by his mind,
By that for which he strives,
And in the foremost rank we find
The name of Kilgour Shives.

Far in the forests of the north
Death's summons swiftly came,
And fiercely flashed its fiat forth
In rifle smoke and flame;
The strongman fell, a sad farewell
To all whom he held dear,
And thus within that forest dell
Was closed his high career.
Alas! for happiness and hope,
Man's life is but a breath,
And in this human horoscope
The distant view is Death.
His day is done, his race is run,
His Memory sweet survives.
While by the beautiful St. John
They buried Kilgour Shives.

THE BRITISH WOOD MARKET

(Farnworth & Jardine's Circular.)

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 1.—The arrivals from British North America during the past month have been 22,011 tons register, against 23,679 tons register during the corresponding month last year, and the aggregate tonnage to this date from all places during the years 1903, 1904 and 1905 has been 438,924, 425,151 and 444,612 tons respectively.

In the business of the past month there has been decidedly better tone and rather more activity. Imports generally have been moderate, the deliveries fair, and values of some of the leading articles partly in sympathy with advance in freight, have shown a marked improvement. Stocks, with few exceptions are fairly light.

New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Spruce and Pine Deals.—The arrivals during the past month have been 9,040 standards during the corresponding month last year.

The deliveries have fully kept pace and values have improved, recent sales being the highest prices of the season; stocks are large, though rather less than at the same time last year. There is little tonnage offering and freights have shown a marked advance. Pine deals have been in better request, but prices rule low.

Birch Logs.—A moderate import, chiefly from Quebec. There has been more enquiry, stocks are light and values firm. Planks are in better request; stocks are low and values have improved.

Croup

A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even the croupy cough appears. For sale by all druggists.

FELL 40 FEET

Chas Johnston fell from Telephone Pole

JAW BROKEN

Operation Performed Tuesday and Bone set

Mr Charles Johnston had his jaw bone broken and received a severe shaking up on Monday by the fall of a telephone pole on the top of which he was working. The pole should have been placed four feet in the ground but this particular one, which was on the top of an embankment, was only two feet in the ground. The pole toppled over precipitating the unfortunate young man to the ground, a distance of forty feet.

On Tuesday the jaw bone was set but to do this an operation was necessary. Two holes were bored in the broken bone, one on each side of the fracture and the parts are now being held in position by a piece of silver wire. The operation was performed by Drs. Lunan, Pinault and Cates.

A WOMAN'S BACK IS THE MAINSPRING OF HER PHYSICAL SYSTEM.

The Slightest Back-ache, if neglected, is Liable to Cause Years of Terrible Suffering.

No woman can be strong and healthy unless the kidneys are well, and regular in their action. When the kidneys are ill, the whole body is ill, for the poisons which the kidneys ought to have filtered out of the blood are left in the system.

The female constitution is naturally more subject to kidney disease than a man's; and what is more, a woman's work is never done—her whole life is one continuous strain.

How many women have you heard say: "My low back aches!" Do you know that backache is one of the first signs of kidney trouble? It is, and should be attended to immediately. Other symptoms are frequent thirst, scanty, thick, cloudy or highly colored urine, burning sensation when urinating, frequent urination, puffing under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, floating specks before the eyes, etc. These symptoms if not taken in time and cured at once, will cause years of terrible kidney suffering. All these symptoms, and in fact, these diseases may be cured by the use of

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

They act directly on the kidneys, and make them strong and healthy. Mrs. Mary Galley, Auburn, N.S., writes: "For over four months I was troubled with a lame back and was unable to turn in bed without help. I was induced by a friend to try Doan's Kidney Pills. After using two-thirds of a box my back was well as ever. Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25 at all dealers, or sent direct on receipt of price. The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

BATHURST BASIN

As it is a lengthy period since I've seen items from our charming vicinity, I will endeavor to insert a few of interest.

The snow birds have come and brought with them a message. Listen! What is it they tell us. Winter is near at hand, already, this mother-earth sees the sample of her winter robe. Some do not appreciate the snow birds visit, they do not care to see winter coming but these people surely did not figure, another word he whispered in my ear, the season of Christmas, the jelliest time of all the year.

Halloween has passed but no doubt has left an impression on the young peoples mind, not soon to be forgotten as they enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mr J Chamberlain has established a comfortable home.

P McCurdie of Belvedere paid a flying visit to the Basin on Thursday last.

The Miss Melanson's entertained friends from Nigado on Sunday last.

Mr Joe Martin has a fine house under construction, which will be quite an addition to our little place.

Miss Nellie Arsenau from the Village was visiting friends in the Basin.

Miss Nellie Burke is visiting friends in Beresford.

Miss Minnie Hacky entertained friends from Campbellton on Thursday last.

Billous Attack Quickly Cured

A few weeks ago I had a bilious attack that was so severe I was unable to go to the office for two days. Failing to get relief from my family physician's treatment, I took three of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the next day I felt like a new man—H. C. Bailey, Editor of the News, Chapin, S. C. These tablets are for sale by All druggists.

BLACK CAPE NOTES

What has become of our Black Cape correspondent, we have not heard from him for some time. We think he must have withdrawn his place in the Events.

Rev E. R. Roy preached at Mrs. N. Johnson's on Sunday morning.

Rev G. P. Tattire occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church, New Richmond on Sunday morning.

Mr William Campbell was in Campbellton on Monday last attending the meeting of presbytery.

Mr Alfred McWhirter, general mercantile of this place has put up a large house. He has closed down work for the winter season, and will begin work early in the spring.

Messrs W. A. McRae & Co. expects to begin lumbering operation in Musselville about the first of December.

The New Richmond Lumber Co. are building a railway from their mill to connect with the A. & L. S. R. C. R. Scoles, manager has the contract.

Every Hour Delayed

IN CURING A COLD IS DANGEROUS.

You have often heard people say: "It's only a cold, a trifling cough," but many a life history would read different if, on the first appearance of a cough, it had been remedied with

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP.

It is a pleasant, safe and effective remedy, that may be confidently relied upon as a specific for Coughs and Colds of all kinds, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Pain in Chest, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

Mrs Stephen E. Strong, Berwick, N.S., writes: "I have used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for Asthma, and have found it to be a grand medicine, always giving quick relief. We would not be without a bottle of it in the house."

Dr. Woods Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper. Three Pine Trees is the trade mark, and the price 25 cents at all dealers. Refuse substitutes. Demand Dr. Wood's and get it.

POKEMOUCHE

The weather is very favorable at present and there are prospects of a late fall.

Smelt fishing is rather good and the fishermen are enjoying some great hauls at the bridges.

The C. Election passed by very quietly, only some of the girls are greatly disappointed, that their young chaps didn't succeed.

Robert Wilson and family of Miscou have moved up here for the winter.

Miss Lizzie Nevins and her niece have returned home, after spending a few days with her sister Mrs Quinlan.

Mr James LeBreton lost a valuable walking cane last Tuesday. Finder will be rewarded by returning same to post office, Cowan Creek.

NOUVELLE

Your correspondent has remarked in the past few years that the general public of this large municipality was much interested in reading the news columns of our local paper "EVENTS". Its readers were no doubt well pleased to read all the happenings of this well known place of Nouvelle for "EVENTS" was well patronized with its many intelligent correspondents. What has become of them? I will not believe that the change of its Editor and proprietor was the cause of their silence for correspondences of general interest do not fail an insertion in our local paper, so I hope Mr. Editor will permit the insertion of these few lines.

The efforts of our well known lumberman Mr McKen are well appreciated in giving employment to a couple of hundred men in Nouvelle with some four or five lumber camps and his intention is to keep a mill running in Nouvelle during next summer season it would be a joy to many inhabitants of this place.

Farmers are at present very busy threshing their grain and all seem well satisfied with their crop as many are reaching the high number of 1000 to 1200 bushels of grain each.

We are much pleased to have a new merchant in Nouvelle in the person of Mr J. A. Allard, son of Mr Ernest Allard with a general stock of Merchandise. Mr Allard is very popular in this place and many are the wishes of friends for his success in his new enterprise.

We have noticed the shipment of many car-loads of hay from this place during the past week in destination for New Carlisle.

Now, I will retire but will probably send in a few interesting items in next issue.

Chapped Hands

Wash your hands with warm water, dry with a towel and apply Chamberlain's Salve just before going to bed, and a speedy cure is certain. This salve is also unequalled for chapped lips. For sale by all druggists.

SALMON BEACH.

Miss Lillie Murphy spent a few days at her home here recently.

Mr and Mrs Fred Buttiner had a narrow escape on Wednesday from a runaway horse. Mr Buttiner was dragged quite a piece and had his head cut in two places. Mrs Buttiner jumped from the buggy and escaped with slight injury.

Mrs Robt. Ellis of Bathurst is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs Fred Buttiner.

Mr Henry Daley of Clifton spent Friday with Mrs Richard Miller.

We are sorry to note the illness of Mr Leslie Smith who came from the woods last week. He is under the care of Dr McNichol and it is hoped he will soon be able to again.

Mrs Arthur Jague spent Wednesday with Miss Nettie Buttiner.

Mr and Mrs Heber Buttiner were the guests of Mr Allan Buttiner on Sunday.

Mr Edward Jague spent Sunday in Canobie.

Miss Inez Miller is spending a few days in Clifton, the guest of Mrs John Dempsey.

How to Insure Success in Home Dyeing

A woman, who wants everything she colors at home, to turn out just as she expects, ought to be mighty careful to get "DYO-L-A." Because "DYO-L-A" never disappoints. "DYO-L-A" COLORS are rich, beautiful and permanent. They make coloring at home a pleasure, because they are so easy to use and the results are exactly the same. Whether the waist or skirt or suit is pure wool or cotton and wool—or cotton or silk—"DYO-L-A" colors either one or all three perfectly. This means less expense—and as a matter of fact, "DYO-L-A" colors more goods—package for package—than any other.

Any woman can prove all this with the first package she uses. All dealers have them—ten cents a package. Address The Johnson Richardson Co., Limited, Montreal, Can., for a Color card.

The Red Rose Flavor and Strength

NO Ceylon tea nor Indian tea alone can have the "rich fruity flavor" of Red Rose Tea, because neither variety in itself possesses all the qualities of strength, richness, delicacy, and fragrance. Each has its own peculiar qualities, but each has its weaknesses.

By combining the two in the Red Rose proportions, I produce a tea with the "rich fruity flavor" and strength of Red Rose Tea, a flavor and strength found in no brand of Ceylon alone.

Red Rose Tea is good Tea

ANSLOW BROS., Publishers,
CAMPBELLTON, N. B., Nov. 16, 1905.

The Tribune of Tuesday says:—
“The members of the Board of School Trustees should either attend to the duties devolving upon them as members of the Board, or resign their position, so that others will be appointed who will at least try to attend to the business in which our citizens are much interested. The Board is supposed to meet on the first Monday of every month. A petition was placed in the hands of the Secretary of the Board of School Trustees on Saturday morning, Nov. 4th, requesting that the Board open up a school in the West End for children between the ages of six and ten, as the distance to the brick school from that quarter is too long for children to travel, particularly in the winter months.”

We think our conferees are dealing rather harshly with the School Board. True, the petition he speaks of was handed to the Secretary on Saturday, Nov. 4th, but the Secretary was out of town the following week and no meeting was held.

Now, this petition was signed by every parent and guardian, with the exception of two, in the district west of the Railway track on Gerrard St., and we suppose that the matter has been agitated by the Tribune Editor, as previous to his coming to our town, everybody favored a consolidated school.

One school where all scholars would be benefited alike.

In speaking with a member of the Board we learned that the West End School would not be opened, at least not this winter.

Think of Campbellton needing one thousand cars to move its lumber and not being able to get them. Sydney and other points wanting hundreds of cars and not any available, when 3000 Canadian cars are being used in the United States at the rate of twenty cents per day when the shippers of the Maritime Provinces would gladly pay $200 per day for the same cars. If there is any way of having these cars returned to Canada the management should not delay an hour. If these cars were here the fifteen or more brakemen who have been laid off in Moncton, would have plenty work and there would be less cause for complaint by trainmen, drivers, firemen and brakemen. The money saved by laying off a number of trainmen is not going to reduce the deficit much but the revenue from the cars ($2,000,000) now being used in the United States would not only pay off the deficit, but would give employment to more men and save the country from serious loss. It is up to the management to look after this matter.—Railway Record.

Up to the time of going to press we have not heard the exact amount at which the Tribune will settle the reservoir matter.

Eileen, Campbellton.—We can't publish your letter. Perhaps the Tribune will do so. Even though as you say, “Charlie” sprang on “Bev” all summer, occupied half of his room, ate his provisions at the Camp, and blowed on him to the Customs officer for smuggling the motor when he kicked him out and damned him as a dead beat for refusing to pay for part of the food he had eaten, we don't think the matter of public interest.

He is unfortunate in being in a position that neither nature nor education has qualified him to fill. He's only a cub, anyway, and can't help being ignorant and foolish. He might, however, have refrained from informing on the man who had fed him, especially as he had used the lunch as much as the owner.

The above article was published in the Chatham World of Saturday November 4th and it is not necessary for us to say that it is a falsehood throughout.

Both persons above mentioned are known to people of Campbellton. And the one who, directly or indirectly, furnished the material for the above article is one of the most miserable specimens of humanity which our community contains—one who has proven himself to be a roved prevaricator a common thief, a law breaker, and the most dangerous character which has ever been imposed upon our peace-loving, law-abiding community, and who if he got his just desserts would be serving time behind prison bars.

The Scientific-American declares that the Japanese achievement in raising Russian battleships is one of the most astonishing feats performed during the war. It is in sharp contrast with the inactivity of the United States after the naval battle of Santiago—Exchange.

The First “Canard.”
The first use of the word canard (meaning a duck) in the sense of hoax is attributed to Norbert Cornelissen, who, to give a sly hit at the ridiculous pieces of intelligence in public journals, circulated the report that an interesting experiment had just been made calculated to prove the extraordinary voracity of ducks. Twenty were placed together, and then one of them was killed and cut up into pieces, feathers and all, and thrown to the other nineteen, who greedily devoured it. The process was repeated until, as was averred, the last duck had eaten the whole of his nineteen companions. The story ran the round of all the journals in Europe and so established the appropriateness of the term canard for hoax.

Degenerate.
One day in the cloakroom of the senate, apropos of a discussion whether, from an intellectual standpoint, statesmen of the present fall below the standard set by those of the past, one of the members told the following story:

“There lived in Lee county, Ky., a local sage by the name of Jesse Cole. Jesse entertained the notion that the present day type of lawyer was not to be compared with the jurists of the old days. One day as he was entering the courthouse at Berryville he noticed a group of lawyers who were discussing the points of a case that was to come up that day. Cole, disgusted by their conversation, stepped up to them and said:

“Gentlemen, thirty or forty years ago the lawyers in this state were men—great, big, immense men, wearing fur hats as big as bushel baskets. But now, gentlemen, I honestly believe that a fellow could without the least difficulty draw a tomato can over the head of any one of you.”—Harper's Weekly.

Things to Eliminate.

That candy eating habit, girls—does it do you any good?

That tobacco habit, boys, or the occasional “treating” or “being treated”—is it of real use or benefit?

That way of spending money on every little trifle that we fancy—is it of real use or benefit?

Those people whom we go to see and also entertain, yet really care nothing for—is this society of any real use or benefit?

Better one good friend of nature, stimulating, congenial and sympathetic, saith the prophet, than a host of society friends of the wreathed smile, the nod and beck which conceal the sneer.

These facts of music or art or short fits of study—are they of any real use or benefit?

One branch of knowledge concentrated upon amounts to more in the long run.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

TOWN COUNCIL

Regular Monthly Meeting
Held Tuesday night

INJUNCTION SERVED

Mr. McLatchy Authorized
To Employ Legal Help

Town Council met on Tuesday evening last at 8.30. There were present His Worship Mayor Murray and Councillors, Blair, Blackhall, Ferguson, Joudry, Lawgillan, Miller, Taylor and Vautour. Minutes of last meeting read and confirmed.

Moved by Conn. Blackhall and resolved that the council place on record its deep sense of the loss which the Town of Campbellton has sustained in the removal by death of the late Mr. Kilgour Shives, a former member of this Council and an upright, progressive and enterprising citizen. And that a copy of this resolution be sent to Mrs. Shives.

Clerk read communications among which was one from Geoffrey Stead. President Engineer Chatham asking that the Town of Campbellton deed a piece of land at the foot of Ramsay Street to the Dominion Government for the purpose of building an approach to the wharf to be built by the Department of Public Works, west of the present I C R wharf. Communication referred to Public Property and Streets Committee.

The Mayor stated that he had yesterday been served with an injunction out of the Supreme Court in Equity restraining the Town Council from proceeding to arbitration in the reservoir matter, and as the court meets in Fredericton on Tuesday next at which time an appearance will be required to be put in on behalf of the Town and proceedings defended. I handed the injunctions and papers connected therewith to Mr. McLatchy in order to expedite matters.

Moved by Conn. Blackhall seconded by Conn. Joudry that Mr. H. F. McLatchy be authorized to employ such legal help as he deemed necessary in the above suit. Carried.

Conn. Joudry asked Conn. Laughtan what was the matter with the electric lights. He said that the lights should be on at dark and until after train time in the early morning.

Conn. Laughtan said that he had been away during the past week and did not know there was anything wrong with the lights. He said that as the new fireman had made a mistake in orders he had received the street lights were not put on at train time on the morning referred to by Conn. Joudry.

Conn. Joudry—What about the lights in the evening I think they should be on at dark.

Conn. McLaughlan—The lights usually are on at dark and I would draw Conn. Joudry's attention to a number of holes in the streets and sidewalks which need repairs.

Committee reports were then read. Among those was the report of Police Magistrate Matheson with a cheque for $132.00 attached. Report adopted.

Conn. Taylor from the Water and Sewerage Committee recommended that the application of Angus Dewar for connection with the town water system be not entertained this year. Adopted.

Conn. Blackhall moved that Town Treasurer S. H. Lingby be authorized to sign cheques for the Town of Campbellton. Carried. Council adjourned.

The First Erie Canal Boat.
The William Tell was the first boat to pass over the Erie canal from Buffalo to Albany and down the river to New York. Her cargo consisted entirely of logsheads, barrels and bottles of Lake Erie water, part of which was mingled with the waters of the bay of New York on the occasion of the great fete in celebration of the opening of the wonderful waterway. Her passengers included Governor De Witt Clinton, the leader in the canal enterprise, and a delegation of statesmen and distinguished persons from foreign lands and various parts of the United States.

“Burning the Water.”
Some readers will remember the spirited account given by Scott in “Guy Mannering” of the form of salmon fishing that used to be known as “burning the water.” It was a favorite amusement in England, Scotland and Wales. The practice is no longer legal and can be indulged in only at the risk of penalties, with the disgrace which attaches to things denounced as unsportsmanlike. Torches were used, and the salmon were speared by the thrust of a weapon having barbed prongs, called a leister. Scott again may be quoted for his description of the spearing of salmon from horseback in the Solway. The Tweed, which was the river of his lifelong affections, was one of the worst sufferers from “burning the water” in the days when it was permitted, and it was computed that thousands of salmon were annually taken by this form of capture. The water may be “burned” even now here and there, and in Wales a few years ago there was a short lived revival of the practice.

Milo of Creton.
Of the wonderful athletes of all ages Milo of Creton is perhaps the most known. He once ran a mile with an ox on his shoulders, then with a blow of his fist killed the beast and ate it in one day. The strongest man could not take from Milo a pomegranate which he held between his two fingers. He could break by contracting his veins and muscles a cord tied around his forearm. One day, being in a house with some pupils of Pythagoras, the ceiling threatened to fall but Milo supported the column on which it rested, thus giving his friends time to escape. His death is well known. He tried to tear asunder the trunk of a tree, but his hands got pinched in the wood, and, being unable to disengage them, he perished, devoured by wild beasts.

FEEDING

The average horse, with the usual flow of saliva, eats one quart of oats in about fifteen minutes; with this flow partially stopped it takes thirty minutes.

This shows how important it is to have the proper quantity of saliva and digestive juices.

Clydesdale Stock Food

increases the saliva and digestive juices because the feed being made "tasty" it makes the animals "mouth water," the same as our own when we add butter or jam to our soda biscuit; it makes it more enjoyable to eat. The horse, therefore, eats it up clean.

The increased digestion and assimilation makes the blood circulate better, loosening the hide and making the coat glossy. Nothing injurious in it and can stop feeding it without harmful effects.

Our Heave Cure, Tar Foot Remedy, Colic Cure, Embrocation Liniment, Gall Cure, Balsam Fine Healing Oil, and Worm Powders are equally as good in their own way.

THE RETURN OF SHERLOCK HOLMES...

BY A. CONAN DOYLE

During our return journey I could see by Holmes' face that he was much puzzled by something which he had observed. Every now and then by an effort he would throw off the impression and talk as if the matter were clear, but then his doubts would settle down upon him again, and his knitted brows and abstracted eyes would show that his thoughts had gone back once more to the great dining room of the Abbey Grange in which this midnight tragedy had been enacted. At last by a sudden impulse just as our train was crawling out of a suburban station he sprang on to the platform and pulled me out after him.

"Excuse me, my dear fellow," said he as we watched the rear carriages of our train disappearing round a curve. "I am sorry to make you the victim of what may seem a mere whim; but on my life, Watson, I simply can't leave that case in this condition. Every instinct that I possess cries out against it. It's wrong—it's all wrong—I'll swear that it's wrong. And yet the lady's story was complete, the maid's corroboration was sufficient, the detail was fairly exact. What have I to put up against that? Three wineglasses—that is all. But if I had not taken things for granted, if I had examined everything with the care which I should have shown had we approached the case de novo and had no cut and dried story to warp my mind, should I not then have found something more definite to go upon? Of course I should. Sit down on this bench, Watson, until a train for Chesham arrives, and allow me to lay the evidence before you, imploring you in the first instance to dismiss from your mind the idea that anything which the maid or her mistress may have said must necessarily be true. The lady's charming personality must not be permitted to warp your judgment.

"Surely there are details in her story which, if we looked at in cold blood, would excite our suspicion. These burglers made a considerable haul at Sydenham a fortnight ago. Some account of them and of their appearance was in the papers and would naturally occur to any one who wished to invent a story in which imaginary robbers should play a part. As a matter of fact, burglars have done a good stroke of business are, as a rule, only too glad to enjoy the proceeds in peace and quiet without embarking on another perilous undertaking. Again, it is unusual for burglars to operate at so early an hour; it is unusual for burglars to strike a lady to prevent her screaming, since one would imagine that was the sure way to make her scream; it is unusual for them to commit murder when their numbers are sufficient to overpower one man; it is unusual for them to be content with a limited plunder when there was much more within their reach, and, finally, I should say that it was very unusual for such men to leave a bottle half empty. How do all these unusuals strike you, Watson?"

"Their cumulative effect is certainly considerable, and yet each of them is quite possible in itself. The most unusual thing of all, as it seems to me, is that the lady should be tied to the chair."

"Well, I am not so clear about that, Watson, for it is evident that they must either kill her or else secure her in such a way that she could not give immediate notice of their escape. But at any rate I have shown, have I not, that there is a certain element of improbability about the lady's story? And now, on the top of this, comes the incident of the wineglasses."

"What about the wineglasses?"

"Can you see them in your mind's eye?"

"I see them clearly."

"We are told that three men drank from them. Does that strike you as likely?"

"Why not? There was wine in each glass."

"Exactly, but there was beewings only in one glass. You must have noticed that fact. What does that suggest to your mind?"

"The last glass filled would be most likely to contain beewings."

"Not at all. The bottle was full of it, and it is inconceivable that the first two glasses were clear and the third heavily charged with it. There are two possible explanations, and only two. One is that after the second glass was filled the bottle was violently agitated, and so the third glass received the beewings. That does not appear probable. No, no, I am sure that I am right."

"What, then, do you suppose?"

"That only two glasses were used and that the drops of both were poured into a third glass, so as to give the false impression that three people had been here. In that way all the beewings would be in the last glass, would it not? Yes, I am convinced that this is so. But if I have hit upon the true explanation of this one small phenomenon then in an instant the case rises from the commonplace to the exceedingly remarkable, for it can only mean that Lady Brackenstall and her maid have deliberately lied to us, that not one word of their story is to be believed, that they have some very strong reason for covering the real criminal and that we must construct our case for ourselves without any help from them. That is the mission which now lies before us, and here, Watson, is the Sydenham train."

"The household at the Abbey Grange were much surprised at our return, but Sherlock Holmes, finding that Stanley Hopkins had gone off to report to headquarters, took possession of the dining room, locked the door upon the inside and devoted himself for two hours to one of those minute and laborious investigations which form the solid basis on which his brilliant edifices of deduction were reared. Seated in a corner like an interested student who observes the demonstration of his professor I followed every step of that remarkable research. The window, the curtains, the carpet, the chair, the rope—each in turn was minutely examined and duly pondered. The body of the unfortunate baronet had been removed, and all else remained as we had seen it in the morning. Finally, to my astonishment, Holmes climbed up on to the massive mantelpiece. Far above his head hung the few inches of red cord which were still attached to the wire. For a long time he gazed upward at it, and then in an attempt to get nearer to it he reeled his knee upon a wooden bracket on the wall. This brought his hand within a few inches of the broken end of the rope, but it was not this much as the bracket itself which seemed to engage his attention. Finally he sprang down with an ejaculation of satisfaction.

"It's all right, Watson," said he. "We have got our case—one of the most remarkable in our collection. But, dear me, how slow witted I have been and how nearly I have committed the blunder of my lifetime! Now, I think that, with a few missing links, my chain is almost complete."

"You have got your men?"

"Man, Watson, man. Only one, but a very formidable person. Strong as a lion—witness the blow that beat that poker! Six foot three in height, active as a squirrel, dexterous with his fingers; finally, remarkably quick witted, for this whole ingenious story is of his conception. Yet, Watson, we have come upon the handwork of a very remarkable individual. And yet, in that bell rope he has given us a clue which should not have left us a doubt."

"Where was the clue?"

"Well, if you were to pull down a bell rope, Watson, where would you expect it to break? Surely at the spot where it is attached to the wire. Why should it break three inches from the top, as this one has done?"

"Because it is frayed there?"

"Exactly. This end, which we can examine, is frayed. He was cunning enough to do that with his knife. But the other end is not frayed. You could not observe that from here, but if you were on the mantelpiece you would see that it is cut clean off without any mark of fraying whatever. You can reconstruct what occurred. The man needed the rope. He would not tear it down for fear of giving the alarm by ringing the bell. What did he do? He sprang upon the mantelpiece, could not quite reach it, put his knee on the bracket—you will see the impression in the dust—and so got his knife to bear upon the cord. I could not reach the place by at least three inches, from which I infer that he is at least three inches a bigger man than I am. Look at that mark upon the seat of the oaken chair! What is it?"

"Blood."

"Undoubtedly it is blood. This alone puts the lady's story out of court. If she were seated on the chair when the crime was done, how comes that mark? No, no, she was placed in the chair after the death of her husband. I'll wager that the black dress shows a corresponding mark to this. We have not yet met our Waterloo, Watson, but this is our Marengo, for it begins in defeat and ends in victory. I should like now to have a few words with the nurse, Theresa. We must be wary for awhile if we are to get the information which we want."

She was an interesting person, this stern Australian nurse—taciturn, suspicious, ungracious. It took some time before Holmes' pleasant manner and frank acceptance of all she said thawed her into a corresponding amiability. She did not attempt to conceal her hatred for her late employer.

"Yes, sir, it is true that he threw the decanter at me. I heard him call my mistress a name, and I told him that he would not dare speak so if her brother had been there. Then it was that he threw it at me. He might have thrown a dozen if he had but left my bonny bird alone. He was forever ill treating her, and she too proud to complain. She will not even tell me all that he has done to her. She never told me of those marks on her arm that you saw this morning, but I know very well that they came from a stab with a baton. The sly devil—God forgive me that I should speak of him so now that he is dead! But a devil he was if ever one walked the earth. He was all honey when first we met him, only eighteen months ago, and we both feel as if it were eighteen years. She had only just arrived in London. Yes, it was her first voyage. They were married in January of last year. Yes, she is down in the morning room again, and I have no doubt she will see you, but you must not ask too much of her, for she has gone through all that flesh and blood will stand."

Lady Brackenstall was reclining on the same couch, but looked brighter than before. The maid had entered with us and begun once more to foment the bruise upon her mistress' brow.

"I hope," said the lady, "that you have not come to cross examine me again?"

"No," Holmes answered in his gentlest voice; "I will not cause you any unnecessary trouble, Lady Brackenstall, and my whole desire is to make things easy for you, for I am convinced that you are a much tried woman. If you will treat me as a friend and trust me you may find that I will justify your trust."

"What do you want me to do?"

"To tell me the truth."

"Mr. Holmes?"

"No, no, Lady Brackenstall; it is no use. You may have heard of any little reputation which I possess. I will stake it all on the fact that your story is an absolute fabrication."

Mistress and maid were both staring at Holmes with pale faces and frightened eyes.

"You are an impudent fellow!" cried Theresa. "Do you mean to say that my mistress has told a lie?"

Holmes rose from his chair.

"Have you nothing to tell me?"

"I have told you everything."

"Think once more, Lady Brackenstall. Would it not be better to be frank?"

For an instant there was hesitation in her beautiful face. Then some new, strong thought caused it to set like a mask.

"I have told you all I know."

Holmes took his hat and shrugged his shoulders. "I am sorry," he said. And without another word we left the room and the house. There was a pond in the park, and to this my friend led the way. It was frozen over, but a single hole was left for the convenience of a solitary swan. Holmes gazed at it and then passed on to the lodge gate. Then he scribbled a short note for Stanley Hopkins and left it with the lodge keeper.

"It may be a bit or it may be a miss, but we are bound to do something for friend Hopkins just to justify this second visit," said he. "I will not quite take him into my confidence yet. I think our next scene of operations must be the shipping office of the Adelaide-Southern line, which stands at the end of Pall Mall. If I remember right, there is a second line of steamers which connect South Australia with England, but we will draw the larger cover first."

Every Two Minutes

Physicians tell us that all the blood in a healthy human body passes through the heart once in every two minutes. If this action becomes irregular the whole body suffers. Poor health follows poor blood; Scott's Emulsion makes the blood pure. One reason why is such a great aid is because it passes so quickly into the blood. It is partly digested before it enters the stomach; a double advantage in this. Less work for the stomach; quicker and more direct benefits. To get the greatest amount of good with the least possible effort is the desire of everyone in poor health. Scott's Emulsion does just that. A change for the better takes place even before you expect it.

Did you ever have your range grates burnt out?

If you did you will know what that means in common ranges—it means plumbers, delay, muss and big bills—because common ranges are built that way.

As range grates must some time burn out you are certain to have that kind of trouble if yours is a common range.

If you have the Pandora you won't have any trouble, because you can take out the old grates and put in the new ones in ten minutes, and a ten cent piece for a screw-driver does it easier in the Pandora than a whole kit of plumbers' tools will do it in common ranges.

TRAIN WRECKING

Ties Were Placed Across the I. C. R. Track

TWO BOYS SUSPECTED

Police Officers Have Gone to the Scene and Arrest Will Probably be Made

FREDERICTON, Nov. 11.—On Wednesday night last a special train on the I. C. R. came very near being wrecked at the Nashwaak bridge on the Canada Eastern branch and thrown into the river through the actions of some person or persons in putting obstructions on the track presumably for the purpose of wrecking the train.

The obstructions were in the form of railway ties. Two were placed across the rails on the bridge about twenty feet apart. They were placed there early in the evening and were discovered by sectionmen shortly before a special train came along. The matter was reported to officials of the road as was also the fact that several piles of stones and rocks had been removed from the track of late.

I. C. R. Officer D. Noble of Campbellton came over to investigate the matter. Officer Noble is one of the brightest of the I. C. R. staff of detectives and he followed the matter up until his suspicion fell upon two young colored boys named Gosman and Nash, who live near the bridge. It is said that after some skillful cross questioning Officer Noble got one of the young fellows to acknowledge the crime.

This morning Officer Noble with Officer Rideout of the city police force left for the scene of the trouble in a double seated carriage. It was their intention to arrest young Gosman and Nash. They expect to return about noon.—Globe.

PSYCHINE

(PRONOUNCED SI-KEEN)

COUGH AND LUNG TROUBLE

"PSYCHINE" differs radically from the old fogey medicines. It is compounded on new and advanced methods of curing disease, otherwise it would be just like scores of others, without any exceptional merits. But "PSYCHINE" possesses virtues of healing, that no other preparation in the world does.

There never has been in the history of medicine, such a truly remarkable remedy, for the prompt and complete cure of obstinate coughs and lung trouble. There is nothing else just like it, or nothing else one half so good. Thousands of men and women readily and enthusiastically give testimony to prove the statement.

PSYCHINE BUILT ME UP

Linden, N. S., June 7th, 1904.

"I cannot speak too highly for your excellent—I may say invaluable—remedy for weakness of throat, lungs or declining conditions. My brother, mother, and sister died of consumption, and I suppose I inherited a tendency in this direction, but, thank God, through the use of PSYCHINE I to-day enjoy good health. I suffered for some two years from a distressing, obstinate cough and weak lungs. I used PSYCHINE and OXOMULSION, and they built me right up. My lungs are now strong and I enjoy splendid health. LAVAL STUDENTS MADE A RAID

Broke Up Meeting of French Evangelist at Montreal

MONTREAL, Nov. 10.—Last night a mob of French Canadian students and others broke up a meeting of a French Evangelist named Magee and the police had to be called out to quell the trouble. This morning, in referring to the matter Le-Canada spoke of the action of the students in damaging property as "a stupid piece of vandalism." This seems to have been too much for them. They marched down from Laval University with their flag flying at the head of the procession and on arriving at the office of Le Canada, St. James St., tore down the bulletin boards attached to the front of the place and made a bonfire of them in the middle of the thoroughfare. They were unmolested by the police who witnessed the affair and as soon as the bonfire was converted to ashes the procession was reformed and the students marched up town again.

In Time Peace

In the first months of Russia Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by all druggists.

MANY STUDENTS ENTER DALHOUSIE.

Largest Number on Record in Arts and Science. 25 for Engineering.

The number of new students entering Dalhousie this fall is 122. These are distributed as follows:—96 in arts and in pure and applied science; 11 in medicine and 15 in law. While the total number of new students may have equalled in former years the number of new students in arts and science this year is the largest in the history of the college. Twenty-five of them have entered the courses in engineering.

The homes of the new students are thus located: Halifax City and County 47; the Island of Cape Breton, 17; Pictou County, 14; Colchester County, 11; New Brunswick 9; Lunenburg County 7; two outside the Maritime Provinces and the remainder in Prince Edward Island and the counties of Shelburne, Yarmouth, Annapolis, Kings, Hants, Cumberland and Antigonish.

REMAIN IN CANADA

Many Of the Imperial Troops Will Transfer to Canadian Corps

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 10.—It was reported at the militia headquarters yesterday that nearly all of the 103rd Company of the Royal Artillery will be transferred to the Canadian Artillery to-day.

Several of the other company of Royal Artillery have also expressed a desire to remain. A number of the Royal Engineers have also signified their intention to join Canadian corps. Besides those already mentioned, there are some forty artillerymen, who are not connected with any particular company, but are familiar with all the supplies, and the location of them in the different forts, and those are also to remain. It was learned this morning at the armories that when everything was finally settled the Canadian Government will have about 1,200 troops in Halifax. Of that number 650 will be infantry, 460 engineers and gunners, and about 100 men on the staff.

Do You Get Bilious?

No remedy could be more prompt and agreeable than Dr. Hamilton's Pills. No matter where you go you'll hear of the grand cures they make. Writing from Ottawa Mrs. M. E. Leggere says: "For people inclined to biliousness and sick, headache I don't think there is a remedy to compare with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I formerly had bilious attacks about once a month—used Dr. Hamilton's Pills and obtained grand results. My stomach has been put in good order and my health improved." CHRIST SOON DUE, SAYS SANDFORD.

Head of Shiloh Colony Gone and is Thought to be on way to Jerusalem.

SHILOH, Me Nov.—Frank W. Sandford, leader of the "Holy Ghost and Us Bible school," and head of the "Church of the Living God, the pillar and ground of the truth," has left Shiloh, presumably for Jerusalem. The last heard from him as he was in New York, and whether he has sailed for Europe or not is not known here. Mr. Sandford stopped a few days in Boston to attend to business matters.

Shiloh has enjoyed a period of prosperity since Sandford was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs in the cruelty case. Not since the period immediately following the first prosecutions against the Shiloh leader has the treasury been as full as it is now. Followers all over the world sent him money to pay the fine and costs, until he had enough to meet the requirements of the court a hundredfold.

All of this money has been turned over to "The Kingdom," with a prayer of thanks for each gift and a long prayer for the whole amount.

Shilohites believe the Lord made His influence felt in the heart of Justice Emery, causing him to inflict a fine instead of a jail sentence for punishment. Prayers asking a blessing for Justice Emery are offered and forgiveness for the jury.

It is understood that Sandford intends to make his mission to Jerusalem of more importance, and that his business there this trip is to attain that end. He has stated that he believed the return of the Lord to Jerusalem is near at hand. He and his followers are anxious to be as near as possible to the chosen city when that time arrives.

"Do the people of Shiloh have all they want to eat now?" was asked of a disciple today. "Do they have sufficient food to carry them through the winter?"

"I don't know why they should not, as they have several thousand dollars in the treasury," was the reply.

"Does Mr. Sandford intend to make his headquarters in Jerusalem for the future?"

"While he tells little, I understand that he plans to make Mr. Gleason the head one at Jerusalem, Gleason filling the same position there that Holland does at Shiloh. Mr. Sandford will spend his time establishing new missions and between Shiloh and Jerusalem."

"Will he make Jerusalem the principal headquarters of his following?"

"I think not, as the Lord selected Beulah Sandhill in Durham as the headquarters for the religious movement that the following claim will evangelize the world, and he would not change it. But I understand that Mr. Sandford has received some new revelations about Christ's early coming."

"Do you think he intends to stay out of the United States, so that further action in regard to the indictments now standing against him cannot be taken?"

"No, sir; Mr. Sandford will be in Auburn to face trial any time the court wants him."

Death Rate Decreased

The mortality of Tuberculosis of the Lungs, says the Medical Journal, has been greatly reduced since "Catarrhoxone" was introduced. For consumptives nothing is so valuable as "Catarrhoxone."

Throwing Light On The Subject Of HOME DYEING.

Home dyeing is a fascinating and money-saving work when Diamond Dyes are used. Home coloring has an attraction for ladies in all ranks of society, and the wonderful results achieved by the Diamond Dyes for women, have made them the popular home dyes in all parts of the world.

One ten cent package of Diamond Dyes will do the work that a steam-dyeing establishment charges one dollar for.

All faded and dingy looking dresses, skirts, suits, blouses, jackets, ribbons, stockings, coats, vests and trousers, can be re-colored in the home and made to look as good as new, at a cost from ten to twenty cents, when the never-fading Diamond Dyes are used.

It is well to bear in mind that direct money saving can only be guaranteed when Diamond Dyes are used. Have a care that you do not buy the worthless imitations sold by some dealers. Refuse such deceptive dyes if you would avoid trouble and loss of money and temper. Ask for the DIAMOND DYES; refuse all others that may be offered to you.

murder of several months ago of United States Deputy Marshall Z. B. Wade, was brought last night to Roanoke disguised as a woman, from Rocky Mountain because of mob preparations.

When a respite was received for a new trial the people began to get restless. To-day was the day set for the hanging but the respite was granted which gives him a lease of two more weeks. Fearing mob violence because of the delay the sheriff dressed the prisoner in woman's clothes padded him up and shipped him on a night train to Roanoke. The sheriff was accompanied by a deputy. At Roanoke the trio aroused interest but the disguise carried Poindexter to the jail here, although he was much frightened.

The Wonders of the Body

Its mechanism, like delicate machinery, by even a slight cause is so disarranged as to be practically useless. A headache is no trifling matter because the stomach, the kidneys and liver are sure to be affected. To cure the cause of headache and prevent new attacks, use Ferrozone; it acts the stomach by supplying nourishing blood, vitalizes the nerves and brain instantly. Ferrozone braces—gives tone—elevates your spirits. No such health bringer known. Fifty cents per box of fifty chocolate coated tablets at all dealers.

HOW CAMPBELLTON LOOKS TO MIGNONETTE.

Campbellton situated on the famed Restigouche River about 16 miles from its mouth, is a town of which its people feel justly proud, and one for which the stranger feels an exceptional pleasure and interest in visiting. Nowhere in the province is a town so beautifully situated, and nature seems to have out-done herself in all that makes for picturesqueness.

The broad river flowing placidly to the sea, the town nestling on its banks and straggling up towards the beautiful range of hills, and the lofty Sugar Loaf standing sentinel in the distance—a picture to delight an artist. But the town itself—Campbellton depends largely upon its lumbering industry which gives employment to many people. It is also one of the divisional points of the I. C. R., and this gives employment to a large staff in the offices and shops.

The streets are wide, and while not on a par with city streets, are as good as in any town of the same population.

The houses are mostly wooden but show evidences of comfort and thrift.

The climatic conditions of the place, peruse the possibilities of any extensive show at flower culture. It being a well-known fact that flowers do not thrive so near the salt water. The lawns, however, are neat and well kept, in fact nature has been so lavish in other things, that one feels that flowers could almost be dispensed with.

Water Street, running east and west and following the course of the river, is the principal street, and for a population of something over 4,000, is a revelation, and the stranger wonders where the business comes from.

For those who are religiously inclined Campbellton affords everything in that line supporting as it does five churches. Then there are the Hotels, these, strangers consider a feature of the place, while the exteriors are not of the Waldoy-Astoria sort, the interiors are marvels of cleanliness and comfort and the Proprietors of these hostellers have achieved a reputation for hospitality second to none.

The social life of Campbellton is of the very pleasantest nature! One thing, that makes a lady stranger feel at home, is the manner in which the ladies of Campbellton call. Here, there is not that aloofness encountered in so many of our provincial towns, but Campbellton ladies seem to vie with each other in making it pleasant for the "Stranger within her gates." Unfortunately, Campbellton has no Opera House, the people depend on such things as boating, bathing, fishing, and shooting snowshoeing and skating for their amusement, perhaps this accounts for the rugged manliness of its men and the bright eyes and beautiful complexion of its women.

Campbellton with its lumbering, shipping and railroad life its ferry to Cross Point, its Steamship line to Gaspe coast, its smaller steamer routes, its proximity to the world's famed fishing and hunting grounds its beautiful drives, mountain climbs, is a busy spot, and one which the less fortunate towns will envy.

MARRIED AT DALHOUSIE

SIMONS GOOD

A very pretty wedding took place between George Simons of Salmon Brook and Miss Ida Good of Dalhousie, in St Mary's church, on the 31st inst at half past seven o'clock, the Rev. W. J. Bate officiating. The bride was attired in a beautiful fawn cloth dress with brown satin trimmings and wore a white hat and veil. The bridesmaid Miss Stella Good wore a dark grey cloth, and was a niece of the bride. The groomsmen Ernest Good, was a nephew of the bride. The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her brother, while the wedding hymn, "The voice that breathed o'er Eden," was sung. The church was crowded for the occasion. While the happy couple left the church the wedding march was played.

A reception took place and supper was given at 9 o'clock at the home of Mr and Mrs John Henriksen's. Many friends and relatives were present. The presents were handsome and numerous.
