"CAN YOU ACCOUNT FOR TWO SLABS BEING DONE SO BADLY?" ASKED THE CHAIRMAN.

"IT MUST HAVE BEEN DONE WITH MALICE AFORETHOUGHT," THE ENGINEER DECLARED. "I CAN CONCEIVE OF NO OTHER WAY, SOMEBODY MUST BE RESPONSIBLE, AS I CANNOT SEE THAT THE MACHINE WOULD BE DEFECTIVE."

"THE CONTRACTOR WOULD NOT HAVE AL-LOWED THIS UNLESS THE INSPECTOR HAD AL-LOWED IT?" CONTINUED THE CHAIRMAN.

"THE FACT IS THAT THE WALK WAS BAD," ANSWERED MR. WRIGHT. "HOW IT CAME TO BE BAD I AM NOT IN A POSITION TO SAY JUST NOW. THE BAD CONCRETE MAY HAVE BEEN PUT IN WHEN THE INSPECTOR WAS AWAY."

IN HIS OPINION, THE MACHINES WOULD OPERATE PROPERLY UNLESS THEY WERE TAM-PERED WITH. ONCE SET THEY WOULD CON-TINUE TO DO THE WORK, HOWEVER, IT WAS POSSIBLE TO INTERFERE WITH THEM, AND IF THE MACHINE WERE NOT DOING PROPER WORK HIS CONCLUSION WOULD BE THAT SOME PERSON HAD TAMPERED WITH IT.

City Engineer Wright was asked to submit to questioning, to which he willingly consented. In the first place Ald. LONDON LODGE TO SERVE INJUNCTION UPON OFFICERS

A number of the London members of the A. O. U. W. met U. A. Buchner, barrister, this morning, and requested him to issue a writ of injunction against the officers to prevent them increasing the rate, as was decided at the recent meeting of the organization.

The case was stated to Mr. Buchner, and it was decided to institute proceedings at once. This is understood to be the first practical step taken by the members to prevent the A. O. U. W. from taxing the members the larger fee proposed.

Meetings have been held throughout Ontario to protest against the action of the officers, but further than to express dissatisfaction, nothing was their neighbors' displays. One Todone until the local Workmen ordered a writ issued.

trate J. C. Judd some days ago proclaimed that any person guilty of allowing a train under his direction to block a crossing more than five minutes might as well bring along his $50 fine being registered, especially concerning the manner in which the street railway service is interfered with

A great many of the lines, the Belt, Ottaway, Wellington and Oxford, are compelled to make railway crossings every trip, and as interruptions are fre quent the service, as a result, is greatly demoralized. Thursday night an incoming train from the west stalled over the Richmond street crossing of the Grand Trunk at about 9:30 and, according to street railway officials, blocked the Ottaways, Oxfords, Wellingtons and Belts for twenty five minutes. About fifteen cars were held up, nine of them being on the south side of the crossing, before the track was cleared. Endeaver to Explain Matter to Crowde ed Meeting in London Lodge Rooms.

A union meeting of all the local lodges of the A.O.U.W. was held in he rooms of the London Lodge, Albion Block, Thursday night, to hear Grand Master McEwen, of Drayton, and Grand Treasurer Inwood, of Toronto, explain the action of the grand lodge last June when it adopted the increase in rates that will come into effect on

Oct. 1. That all the members of the order in this city oppose the increase was shown by the attitude of those present, and the meeting was almost unanimous in condemning the raise in the rates. The meeting lasted from 8 o'clock until after midnight and few left the crowded hall until the meeting closed. No resolutions were passed, as the rule had been made that only the grand lodge officers could speak, but the members asked innumerable ques-

Allege a Misunderstanding. The cause of all the trouble in the A. O. U. W. is that the rates, which were raised in 1905 to a seemingly satisfactory figure, were again raised at a special meeting of the grand lodge in Toronto last June. It was stated that at this meeting that the motion raising the rates was put in such manner that most of those present thought that they were voting against the proposition instead of in favor

At the time that the order founded the rate was established at $1 a call, with four extra calls each year, making the highest possible assessment $16 per year. This rate applied to everyone between the years of 21 and 49. The rates were again changed in 1903, and were arranged according to the ages of the members. These rates were similar to the "Hunter rates," and if they had been adopt-ed at first there would have been no need for further changes.

Hits the Old Members In the present arrangement that is causing all the trouble in the lodge, the increase in the rates does not affect any members who have joined since 1905, but it certainly does affect the older members, particularly those over 60 years. The older mem-

TRIPPED IN COURT ON WORD MEANING

f Prospective Juror Had The Advertiser's Dictionary He Would Have

A man was under examination recently by a New York lawyer with ref-erence to his qualifications as a juror in an important case.
"Do you understand," the lawyer asked, "what is meant by a preponderance of evidence?"

"Yes, sir," the man replied, promptly. "Let me have your definition of it."

"I understand it, I tell you." "Well, what is it?" "I know what it is," said the man. hotly. "When I tell you I know what a thing is, I know it, Tnat's all there s about it."

"I don't want to hear any more of that kind of talk," interposed the court. "Answer the question addressed to you by counsel." "Judge, I did," the man insisted. "He asked me if I knew what it was and I

"If you are sure you know what is meant by prependerance of evidence, define it," directed the court,

"It's evidence previously pondered," was the answer. The Advertiser is distributing Webster's New Illustrated Dictionary. With cuse for not knowing the meaning of terms commonly used in law or busi-ness. The book comprises 1,200 pages of ready reference for daily use. It includes also the usual dictionary data and many things of rare educational

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—Claiming that the apparent discrimination which exists against western points as compared with rates to those in the east is due to geographical and economic conditions over which the company has no control, the Canadian Pacific Railway has now prepared its case for presentation at the hearing of the western freight rates case before the railway commission here in October next. In onnection with the company's recent application to the Government for permission to increase its capital stock by $60,000,000, the defence which it will put up is of especial interest. F. H. Chrysler, K.C., of Ottawa, and E. W. Beatty, chief counsel for the company, Montreal, will probably present the C. P. R. case. They will admit carried away after it was over.

BANDIT FOILED

Felled by Engineer After He had Held

[Canadian Press.] Orleans, Sept. 5. from a scalp wound, the bandit, who, New single-handed, robbed the New York limited train on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, east of New Orleans last night, later to be felled by the engine driver, was brought to this city today and placed in the Charity Hospital.

The bandit said that his name is Howard E. Edwards, and that his family lived in Jupiter, Fla. He gave the herstburg. The men will have to face charges of jail breaking, larceny and olice information that is expected to lead to the early capture of three other members of a gang, which is believed to have been responsible for a series of sensational train robberies in this section. Edwards is in a precarious condition, and attendants the hospital declared it doubtful whether he would recover from his injur-

Weather Probs: Mostly Fair It's Time Every Woman (Man Too) Met Fashion's Demand for Fall Clothing

Our Women's Suit Section is Especially Interesting This Week

A special presentation of those styles distinguished by the preference of Paris, which should first of all interest Autumn brides, debutantes and travellers, the choosing of which is made almost difficult by the bounteous variety. Many style teatures are borrowed from gowns of Napoleon's court and the reigns of Louis XV. and XVI. Some of the materials and color touches also are interesting features of this season's display.

Manufacturers' Sample Models on Sale SATURDAY for $12.95

158 Men's Fall Suits and Overcoats 175 Men's Winter Overcoats

These are the samples of the biggest clothing makers in Canada, and scores of men who have purchased their Suits and Overcoats in past seasons from these models know something of the values. When we have such instances as a man telling us that he paid elsewhere $22.00 for the duplicate of the sample model he bought at this store, he liked his suit so well he bought the second one, and did not pay too much at $22.00. It's just the advantage of getting in early for the pick of the higher-priced Suits. They have been carried in the travellers' trunks for ten weeks taking the fall orders, but are all repressed and none the worse. In fact, being made for models, you would expect even more perfect workmanship than the ordinary stock Suits.

In order that visitors to the fair, who cannot come later, may take advantage of this opportunity, which only comes once a season, we are placing these models on sale at the very beginning of the fall season, before the regular stocks are even broken, and before you have bought your fall suit or winter coat, and that you may profit by getting just what you want when you want it, and save about the half in many cases. And in our opinion these are the very best models we have ever offered. A word to the wise is

LONDON, FRIDAY, SEPT. 6.

SIR GEORGE REID ON THE EMPIRE.

It may be doubted whether the speech of Sir George Reid to the Empire Club, Toronto, was palatable to most of his listeners. The Australian High Commissioner threw cold water on some of the ideas fervently cherished or professed by the Toronto the name of Col. Denison. He regarded the difficulties in the way of an Imperial Parliament as insuperable. What account would be taken of the 360,000,000 Asiatic subjects? "How could we sit happily," asked Sir George, "in an Imperial Parliament hearing our actions with regard to the emigration of these inhabitants of India discussed? In such a case what harmony would there be?"

In an Imperial Parliament in which only the 60,000,000 whites unde. the British flag were represented, the Canadian or Australian contingent would be a small minority. Says Sir George

"How happy would Australia with her five members or you with your and carry some methods of taxation Friday. to us obnoxious? No, local Parliaments in the different dominions are the safety-valves of Empire, while an Imperial Parliament might result in a calamity such as caused your neighbors across the border to be known as the United States at the present day."

Yet many who agree with this view will not relish Sir George's comparison of the Empire to the solar system, with the great self-governing colonies perpetually revolving like satellites around the mother country. Historically and sentimentally the analogy is perfect, but politically it will be impossible when the satellites become as large as the sun. Even before then, the legislative subordination of the self-governing dominions should be replaced by some system of equality. With the crown as the common political tie, and meeting as equal partners, the mother country and the dominions could more exactly define their relations by treaty, particularly in the matter of defence. There would be then no sense of inferiority or subjection in the colonies, no feeling in the mother country that the colonies had conferred favors grudgingly or through pressure. All would meet one another on the same footing. The present relations are transitional, and must change with changing circum-... 111 ...

NOT THE SINGLE TAX.

The Weekly Sun shows a lapse from its wonted fairness in describing Mr. Though as an advocate of the single tax, which, it says, is opposed to the farmer's interest.

The Sun fails to distinguish between single tax and the measure of local option in taxation favored by the Ontario Opposition and some of the progressive supporters of the Government. The bill introduced by Mr. Rowell merely seeks to empower any municipality, by a vote of its ratepayers, to exempt improvements in whole or in part. . In a rural municipality the farmers could decide for themselves whether to put the burden of taxation wholly on the land or put it partly, as now, on the buildings. In Manitoba the farmers prefer the former system. In Ontario they should at least have the right to do as they

On second thought, the Sun will see that this species of local option, which their example, if they have not already 1s practiced all over Western Canada, done so. Many people have not the has no relation to the central principle slightest of the single tax. The single tax means the abolition of the tariff and all other forms of taxation excepting a tax on land values, which would absorb all rent for public purposes. This theory is not a question of practical politics in Canada today, though it has a considerable body of opinion behind it.

SCIENCE AND LIFE.

President Schaefer tells the British Association that before long it will be demonstrated that life can be produced by chemical action;

There will be no such pulpit excitement as followed the publication of Darwin's "Origin of Species." Many Christian thinkers today see nothing inimical to religion in the Darwinian theory; in fact, many have accepted it and profess to find it a support for Christianity, not the destruction of

The more that the properties of "matter" yield to investigation, the more they reveal infinite and eternal energy, Christianity no longer stands in fear of every word that science laboriously spells out of the book of nature. Now if a militant suffragette should hit Ontario's grouchy Premier with a ripe tomato !!!???!!!

A Toronto woman says all the bright minds of the Ontario Legislature are in favor of woman suffrage, Sir James Whitney being the main obstacle. That is a harder hit than a brickbat.

The Board of Social Service of the Presbyterian Church congratulates Mr. Rowell on his temperance platform. Unlike some of his party opponents, it sees no crime in projecting a moral issue into politics.

Colonel Sam Hughes denies that he has been refused permission to attend the German manoeuvres. After his Vancouver speech he showed a good deal of assurance in asking for permission, and in granting his request Germany has given him a lesson in

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Woodstock, Sept. 6 .- One of the most destructive storms that has ever swept this district last evening destroyed property worth fully $25,000 and was responsible for the death of George Phillips, a farmer, 60 years old, who resided on the 15th concession of East Zorra. Phillips had had a weak heart for some time, and worked very hard when he saw the storm coming up to get some of his grain in. He had just driven in with a load of grain when the storm broke, and Mr. Phillips dropped dead. The property loss will be very heavy all through the district, and the loss in grain and fruit which has blown down will run into thousands. This year he had not made a test, but from examination he would venture the opinion that the cement was

FOUND BODY

Missing Engineer's Remains Were Many Miles Down the River.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Sarnia, Sept. 6. - The body of Cal Stevens, the one-legged marine engineer, who was drowned off the Butler street dock at Port Huron ten days ago, was found floating in St. Clair River, opposite the city of St. Clair, and over twelve miles from where the accident occurred. Several men who were sitting on the river bank noticed what they thought was a buoy floating down the river, and on investigating discovered it to be the artificial leg of the dead

GROWS NEW HAIR ON BALD HEADS

Real Hair Grower Discovered at Last in the Juice of Tropical Shrub, Stops Falling Hair and Itching Scalp in One Application, Kills Dandruff Germs in Three. Restores Color to Gray Hair In Seven Days Without Dyes.

Deadly Hair Destroying Dandruff Germ Greatly Magnified. The Salithol Treatment Kills Them—Quick.

500 Fifty-Cent Packages FREE

Stop being a Bald Head. Stop scratching!
Stop pulling out hair by the handfuls with every combing.
Stop hiding your poor scanty tresses with dead hair, wigs, puffs, switches, transformations that never fool anybody.
Kill for once and for all the Deadly
Kill for once and for all the Deadly
The death occurred yesterday of ittle Dandruff germ that saps the vitality of your hair roots and covers your hair, scalp and coat with disgusting scaly matter. Stop growing old and gray. Be young again. Have hair its natural

Begin today to end all hair and scalp trouble and have a thick, glossy luxuant head of hair as Nature intended. The SALITHOL treatment is the most wonderful hair remedy in the world. Not a mere pleasantly perfumed hair wash like the drug-store advertised "tonics," not a greasy pomade, but a marvellous, original, scientific discovery that genuinely and actually grows new hair on the baldest heads where roots are not totally destroyed, in thirty days or less, and quickely ends hair and scalp trouble of every form and description. I will prove this to 500 readers of this paper by sending them a full-size 50c package of SALITHOL absolutely free to use on their own head.

The SALITHOL treatment has, as its base, the juice of the rare and little-known Pernambuco Shrub of South America, which grows new hair with ut-terly amazing rapidity. Hundreds of peo-ple, living in every corner of the United States, testify to its marvellous qualities.
One lady writes to say: "My husband has been bald for twenty-five years and has used everything. The first week after using your treatment his hair began to come in, and what hair he did have is turning back to its original color." A lady user says: "I have been terribly tortured with itching scalp and dandruff. Your treatment stopped them quickly."
Another user says: "My hair was coming out in handfuls with every combing. One application ended all trouble."

I want 500 readers of this paper to step forward and send me the free coupon below—readers with any form of hair and scalp trouble. I want bald-headed people—the balder the better—folks who wear wigs, who think their hair roots are dead and that nothing can help them. The hair roots are idead and that nothing can help them. The hair roots rarely die and merely lie dormant beneath locked follicles waiting for a true stimulant and scalp food to set them to work again.

Here is the test that tells. Use the SALITHOL treatment one week. Then take your mirror and note the countless tiny hairs that have sprung up on every bald and thin spot. Watch them grow. Be careful not to apply where hair is not desired.

Sign and send this coupon today, inclosing ten cents in stamps to pay for postage and packing and a full-size 50c package of SALITHOL will be sent you free. Do it now and be one of the lucky five hundred. Address me personally. Everett Wood, Hair and Scalp Specialist, white 1929 B. Clark Plags. Suite 1239 B, Clark Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y.

RAIN PREVENTED LONDON FROM WINNING THIRD GAME

Big Thunderstorm Swoops Down on the Field in the Sixth Inning With St. Thomas in Lead and Game Had To Be Called-Jo-Jo Keenan Plays for London.

The Saints copped the third game of the inter-county series between London and St. Thomas, and only a heavy deluge of rain, which came in the sixth inning saved the locals from a bad drubbing. Matt Hynes, who once in a while gives an imitation of real pitching, was on the mound for the locals, and the way the Saints combed his assortment was criminal. Matt did not have a thing on the ball and much less ambition to put anything on it. He gave one of the worst exhibitions of twirling that he has dished up this season. When the rain came the Saints were in the lead by the score of 9 to 4, and London was just starting the sixth inning. It was so dark by this time that Catcher Keifel refused to play, stating that he was not going to get killed. Benny Speer was at bat, and was pleading he was not going to get killed. Benny Speer was at bat, and was pleading for somebody to turn on the lights, when Smith finally announced that the game would be called on account of darkness. The score then reverted back to the fifth, with St. Thomas still in the lead. Had the sixth inning been completed the score would likely have read 9 to 4 in favor of the litewart class. tewart clan. Dinsnore made a bad throw to catch Powers, and the latter came running in. Hynes fielded the ball fast and threw Fowers out at the plate a mile, but Umpire Smith was not looking at the time, and he did not see the play. It was a plain piece of robbery and cost London the game. King then got a life on Jo-Jo Keenan's wild throw, which brought Newashe in.

WOLGAST SUFFERS INJURY TO HIS ARM

WIII Be Out of Fighting Game for Several Weeks as Result.

Cadillac, Mich., Sept. 5.—The proposed 10-round bout between Lightweight Champion Wolgast and Packey McFarland, scheduled for Sept. 27, in New York, has been indefinitely postponed. Wolgast suffered an injury to his right arm while cranking his automobile. He may be compelled to postpone engagements carrying aggregate guarantees of $45,600. Physicians say he may not be able to enter the ring again for a month or six weeks.

Cadillac, Mich., Sept. 5.—After a minute examination of the X-ray photograph today of Champion Wolgast's injured left arm, physicians failed to find any trace that would lead them to think that the old break of the wrist had been repopuled.

CHAPTER IV.

And When I Dine. Henrietta turned sidewise that she might the better corverse with her guest. "I noticed by the papers that you always make it a point to spend Sundays in the country somewhere near New York, so that you can return quickly in the country somewhere that you really need that you really need to be the your really need to your car. I suppose that you really need the rest and quiet for your week's work." "I never work when I can rest," said the Watermelon truthfully.

the Watermelon truthfully.

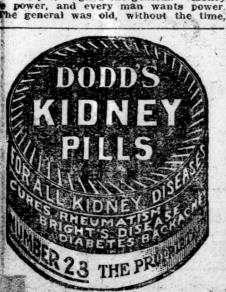

"That's right, that's right," agreed the general, torn between a desire to talk to the phenomenal young financier who in one night had set New York all agog, and to avoid a smash-up with the stone walls on either side of the road, "Men are altogether too eager to make money" are altogether too eager to make money."
"Yes." said Henrietta. "Everything nowadays is money, money. money." Then remembering who her guest was, she added quickly, "I think it is splendid in your getting away from it all and spending one day a week in the country, close to na-ture. They say that stockbrokers are "But I am not a stockbroker," explain-ed the Watermelon, with his candid, boy-

"Ah, yes, three millions. Have you ever lived in the country?"

"Oh, off and on," said the Watermelon.
"I suppose you are fond of it, or you wouldn't come up here every Sunday," went on the general, missing the wall on the right by a fraction of an inch. "Do you care for fishing?" "If the bites ain't too plentiful."
Henrietta laughed. "You can't do it Henrietta laughed. "You can't do it, Mr. Batchelor," said she.
"Do what?" asked the Watermelon, leaning forward. The Watermelon never lacked self-assurance under any circumstances, and before a pretty girl it merely grew in ratio to her good looks. Henri-etta was not pretty, but she had charm and grace and good breeding, and a com-bination of the three sometimes equal:

prettness. "Make us believe that you are as lazy as you are trying to."
"If I can't do it, I won't try," laughed the Watermelon. "But you can't do it, "Do what?"

Henrietta laughed. "But not neeced, said she gaily."

Not yet," admitted the Watermelon. wondering if William Hargrave Batchelor was still enjoying his swim.

What you want to do, now that you have made your 'pile,' "advised the general's daughter," returned the Watermelon, letting his voice fall, gently and softly. The general was busy at that moment preventing the car from climbing a tree and trying to decide between Maine and Virginia as the best place for the Watermelon to invest in his country estate. Personally, he preferred Maine in dear a tree, 'Is to leave the street at concernment bonds and buy a place in the country."

The general frowned. "You don't drink hope, young man?' Thope, young man?"

"Drink," said the Watermelon, making Henrietta think unreasonably of a minister, "Drink causes a psychological condition which each man should experience to obtain a clear insight into the normal condition of the mind." He paused impressively, and Henrietta felt almost compelled to say "Amen," for what reason she did not know. "But," added the youth in the solemn tones of the benediction, "when I get—lit, I like to do it on whisky and not poison."

and not poison."

The general, who had intended a scathing reply, and firm but gentle counsel to lead back to the narrow path this promising young man hovering on the brink of ruin, with all his glorious possibilities, found himself agreeing.

The car had reached the top of the steep.

The car had reached the top of the steep hill, and suddenly left the trees, the narrow woodland road, with the columbine and wild roses nodding at them from the underbrush, and swept out on to a wide, well-kept driveway, with smooth, rolling lawns on each side and a majestic white building as a growing slavery on the top building as a crowning glory on the top of the hill.

Grandview did not belie its name. High on the topmost ridge, it looked over valley and woods and streams, beyond to farther hills, peak after peak, range after range, fading into a blue shadow against the sky. It was a big, square, garish building, gaunt and unlovely among its lovely surroundings. There were two porches, one upstairs and one below. They were filled with chairs and gay, brightly fringed hammocks. Behind the hotel was a stable and garage, white and gaunt and square, like the main building

The car stopped and she started to alight, but the Watermelon was before, offering his hand with a grace bred of absolute unconsciousness of self. "Alphonse can take your car to the garage and fill it with gasoline," said the general. He always felt that after he general. He always felt that after he had done his best to put a car out of order for good, he practically owned the car and its owner.

"Aw, don't bother," protested the Tush, tush, man, it is no bother," and the general turned to the coldly respect-ful Alphonse.

Henrietta had started toward the steps and the Watermelon turned to follow her, when he saw "her" standing on the top step, looking straight at him across Hen-rietta's shoulder. His first impulse was to stand and stare, his second to turn and run back to Mike and James and his old clothes; his third, which he followed blindly, was to stumble forward, hat in hand, not from any respect for woman in the abstract, but just for her, her tiny feet, her small white teeth, her dimple. She would not come up to his shoulder by at least six inches, she was very slender, and in her high-waisted yellow frock she seemed a mere wisp of a girl. Her hair and eyes were brown, her cheeks flushed like the petals of an apple blossom. She had a crooked little smile that brought a single dimple in one soft cheek. Her hat was a big, flapping affair, covered with buttercups and daises. (To be continued.)

G. T. P. AND GOVERNMENT

Road Not Likely To Be Hurried by Govt. Over Superior Section. Ottawa, Sept. 5 .- A Winnipeg report to the effect that W. B. Cronk

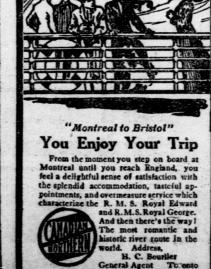

would take over the Superior section of the Transcontinental Railway on behalf of the Government in order to facilitate the crop movement has been officially denied here. There is, it is stated, absolutely no change in the situation, nor will there be until the return of Chairman Smithers and President E. J. Chamberlain from the west next week; in any case until the return of Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways, to the capital on Monday or Tuesday next no action could reasonably be taken.

As a matter of fact, even should there be any friction between the Government and the company, "which s not expected in Ministerial circles." would appear to be almost impossible for the Government to take over the section, owing to the difficulty of procuring rolling stock for the equipment of the road. The Grand Trunk Pacific rolling stock cannot be com-mandered unless the G. T. P. is will-Watermelon.

"Of course," said the general, aloud, "Maine has fine shooting in winter."

"None of Maine for mine," declared the Watermelon conclusively. "Maine is a prohibition state."

Ingersoll, Sept. 6.-The question of upremacy on the diamond, which has been agitating the intellects of east weeks was settled yesterday afternoon, when the west side took the final game of the series by a score of 18 to 11. Some former stars were hunted up by both sides, and at times the specators were treated to some really brilliant plays, doubles being very in teresting features. Some of the oldimers pulled off some classy stunt that were actually thrilling.

CORRESPONDENCE

A Protest Against Annexation. To the Editor of The Advertiser: I should like to know what the taxpayers of London have to gain by nearly loubling the area of the city? I wonder if they generally understand that these enormous districts are to be given for fifteen years, not only a fixed tax rate of fifteen mills, but a fixed assessment based on the London Township roll of 1911—not 1912, mark you!

For years these districts have been under-assessed, and this year the township assessors imagined them by nearly coal situation. The committee is desirous of getting to the bottom of the difficulty, so far as it pertains to Ingersoll, with as little delay as possible, and to acquaint citizens with whether the cause of the scarcity of coal is lack of railway facilities, or what, is what the committee and citizens generally want to know.

The committee will leak into a limit and the present improvements are concerned. Thus for the next fifteen years, lets in these suburbs will enjoy an assessment, as well as a tax rate, very much lower than property within the present city limits.

Imits.

In my opinion, the result will be to greatly depreciate the value of land and all property in the present city of London. It will be a mighty good thing for the owners of land in the districts which it is proposed to annex, but their gains will be made at the expense of the present property owners of London, who have had to put up with a good deal in recent years. Everyone knows that real estate values have been stagnant in this city for some time. Now it is deliberately proposed to depress them still further. On what ground? Can anyone give a valid reason for taking in this enormous area when the city already enormous area when the city already covers so much ground, and when there is so much idle property awaiting improvement and scarcely saleable?

I think there ought to be an emphatic pretest from city raterayers. It will be time enough to spread out all over the adjoining township when the city has filled up its present area, and is growing at a more rapid rate than it is today. When that time comes we can easily take in what we want. Yours truly, RATEPAYER.

GREY WRITES ON THE CANAL ACT

Indication That Panama Negotiations Are To Have Financial Basis.

A TOLLS COMMISSION

British and Foreign Commerce Would Have Additional Burden of Ten Per Cent.

Sir Edward Grey, British foreign secretary, to the Gateshead Chamber of Commerce, regarding the British Government's attitude towards the Panama Canal act, is regarded here as an indication that the negotiations between the two countries are to have a financial basis, the foreign secretary's argument being that British shipping is to be burdened with an undue proportion of the charges for the maintenance of the canal, through the complete exemption from tolls American coastwise shipping.

A Tolls Commission. In view of this importance attaches to an inquiry which now is being conducted on the isthmus by Professor Emery R. Johnson, special commissioner on Panama traffic and tolls.

By the data already prepar by the professor, pears that according to the best estimate the whole of the American coastwise traffic that is likely to pass through the Panama Canal will be about 1,000,000 tons, or a little more than 10 per cent of the total tonnage that will pass through the canal in the years 1915 and 1916. In the course of five years it is estimated that this American coastwise tonnage will rise but foreign commerce will increase in like proportion.

This would indicate that the British and other foreign commerce would have to bear an additional burden of 10 per cent in tolls. It is pointed out, however, that a proportionate share of this burden, if it did exist, would have to be borne by American ships in the foreign trade, which consequently would be on a precise equality with the British ships. Suez Competition.

Prof. Johnson's statistics disclose still another factor. After pointing out the many advantages of the Suez in the way of coaling facilities, low insurance rates superior opportunities for picking up cargoes between terminals, and the like Prof. Johnson declares that the only possibility of the Panama Canal getting a fair share of the world's business i to place the tolls at a figure actually lower than by the Suez route. These are now $1.25 per ton, so that the rate on the American canal must be sensibly lower than this, and the professor has even mentioned a flat dollar rate for the first few years of the canal's operation

On the basis of ten million tons business, this would vield an income inadequate to meet the cost of operation and maintenance of the canal. Allowing two per cent interest on the capital invested in the canal and one the annual charges on the canal are likely to be more than $15,000,000, or about 50 per cent more than the gross revenue from tolls. With figures before them, and the rate on British shipping fixed far below the ictual cost of the service, it is believed by the officials here that they will have ttle difficulty in showing that the exmption of American coastwise traffic from tolls has no influence upon British shipping, and consequently that no discrimination is proposed in violation of

A Sensational Report of Mismanagement Given a Denial.

ONE CASE OF GRAFTING

An Investigation Discovered That One Man Was Stealing From Charities.

New York, Sept. 4 .- Cecil S. Ashdown, a public accountant, of this city, who has just returned from St. Johns, Nfld., where he had been at work on a plan of reorganization of the various missionary enterprises on the coasts of Newfoundland and Labrador established by the Rev. Wilfred T. Grenfell, said yesterday that he regretted very much that the port that he made to the Grenfell Association in America had given rise o misstatements.

He said there was no basis at all for making it appear that there had been any general mismanagement or misappropriation of funds. of condemning in his report the use of the vessels for other than religious derstands the situation." Hitherto the Grenfell missions have been supported by four different organizations representing the States, Great Britain, Canada and Newfoundland. Under the plan proposed by Mr. Ashdown, which been accepted by the various boards, the entire enterprise will be in the

It is perhaps no more than a coincidence [Canadian Press.] that thievery enters into the plot of the work of Charles Kenyon, the author, as it did in "The Thief," in which Miss Illington scored her greatest success. Radically different as are these two plays there is much to indicate that Miss Illington has chosen wisely in the vehicle in which she is now appearing. The scenes are laid in New York's tenement district of the lower east side. Miss Illington will be supported by the same brilliant company that appeared in New York and Chicago. Seats today,

The J. J. Callaghan Piano House

Was unable to secure space at the Western Fair for the exhibition of the famous Martin-Orme Piano and Player-Piano. Messrs. Martin-Orme had arranged to send specially fine examples of their splendid instruments, duplicates of those so admired at the Canadian National Exhibition.

These Are On View at 195 Dundas Street Next The Advertiser Office

Any Martin-Orme Piano has a tone and touch superior to other pianos, but these instruments were picked out by Mr. Owain Martin, the master-builder of this country, as emphasizing that fact most conclusively.

If you play the piano at all, come and try the Martin-Orme, you will be charmed with it; if you are merely "just fond of music," you can't fail to appreciate the fact that perfection of tonal quality has been

This special exhibition at 195 Dundas street will be held till the 19th inst., closing each evening at 9 o'clock.

If you are contemplating the purchase of a piano don't put off your visit one day, because these superb instruments are being sold at about the price charged for an ordinary piano.

IMPOSSIBLE TO FILL ORDERS FOR OATS

Demand Is Heavy, But Only One Load Is Received in Week.

Fruit was the only offering on the local market this morning, and the retail fruitmen have a large supply on hand. They realize that on account of the warm weather they must dispose of this quickly, and are lowering prices accordingly.

There is a good demand for hay and oats, especially the latter. There has been only one load of this grain offered for sale this week to date. Although there is a big difference in prices, buyers still want the old variety, and they have large orders booked which they cannot fill. Canada Machinery, com. BORDEN INTERVIEW

Quebec, Sept. 6. - Interviewed on the Victorian, Mr. Borden said in reference to the Panama Canal bill that the matter was in the hands of Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign secretary, with whom he had discussed the question. He had every confidence that the foreign secretary would see justice done to all the dominions overseas.

In regard to the naval policy, Mr. Borden said the people must continue to speculate as to when it would be announced to the country. It would be decided when the full facts and details of the British situation could laid before the cabinet.

The Premier admitted that there were two phases of the question, viz. an urgency contribution and a permanent naval policy.

He could not discuss the alleged German scare, nor any further conferences.

He said he had not changed his attitude from last year on the question of to the country on the naval issue.

Mrs. McCrae presided. Greetings from Mrs. E. H. Sawers, of North Bruce, who had organized the society 25 years ago, and many other former members, were read by Mrs. Neil Mun-ro and Miss Ma aret Munro. Mrs. John H. Elliott gave a bright sketch of the work of the society during the

25 years of its existence. A very pleasing feature of the meeting was the presentation of a life membership certificate to Mrs. John H. Elliott. Mrs. McPherson read the address, and Mrs. James McLaughlin made the presentation on behalf of the members and friends of the auxiliary. Miss Gould, of New York, a former member, spoke of her work in the Union Mission Training and spoke of the benefit she had received from her association with the work of St. Andrew's. At the close of the meeting in the church, a splendid fowl supper was served in the lecture hall, where Dr. McCrae presided and congratulated the ladies on the success of their efforts to make the occasion a memorable one

Storm sewers was the topic of discussion at the meeting of the board of works on Thursday. The debate was occasioned by the presence of ex-Ald. Richard Booth and other residents of Wellington street and neighbor hood, who complained of damage done by the recent storms. "Conditions are serious," he explained to the committee. "For years Nothing in the world retains its commercial value like a diamond. We have found nothing yet that will scratch or mark a diamond, or even mar its brilliancy. Why not buy yourself one? The most precious of all sems. We carry a large and wellwe have been suffering. Every time there is a storm of more than ordinary violence, the water is backed into the sewers, and our cellars are flooded. The filth and dirt are abomin-able, and we should have some reall gems. We carry a large and well-assorted stock. Prices ranging from $5 to $800. dress. I consider it the duty of the council to relieve the situation."

"The putting down of curbs and gutters is responsible for this condition," declared Ald, Coles. "A large number of them have been laid throughout the city, with the result that the present sewer system is taxed beyond its capacity. I suggest that no more curbs and gutters be put down until we have a storm water

"A storm sewer system is badly needed," said Ald. Moore. have to submit a bylaw to the ratepayers in January on the question."
"It will carry, too," said Ald. Coles. City Engineer Wright explained that he would go into the complaints of the ratepayers, and would afford whatever relief he could under present conditions. Mr. Thomas C. Knott complained of the pools of stagnant water on Carfrae Crescent. The smell was most obnoxious and the water should be taken away. Ald. Moore thought great care should be exercised in taking over certain streets. It should be the duty of the council to see that everything had been done in accordance with the law. In the meantime City Engineer Wright will go into the matter and report to the committee. Ald. Coles brought up the question of the condition of Wellington street. The heavy lorries from the C. P. R. and other railways continually used the street for traffic, with the result that it usually was in bad condition. He suggested that the lorries be compelled to use Richmond street. City Engineer Wright will inquire into the feasibility of this. There was considerable routine business disposed

Those present were Ald. Robinson chairman, Ald. Moore, Ald. Coles, Ald. Blandford, City Engineer Wright and Secretary Baker.
