

KING CABINET NOW AT HELM OF DOMINION

Liberal Ministers Assume Office Without Pomp or Ceremony.

SEEK NATIONAL UNITY

Ontario Wins Six Portfolios Despite Abolition of Useless Posts.

OTTAWA, Dec. 29.—The Liberal cabinet sworn in late today by Lord King of Vimy, governor-general of Canada, varied in personnel in only one particular from the slate published in The London Advertiser yesterday, the Hon. Hewitt Bostock winning the portfolio of minister of public works temporarily at the eleventh hour from Dr. J. H. King, who, it is understood, will be appointed to that portfolio at a later date.

The official cabinet is as follows: Prime minister, secretary of state for external affairs and president of the privy council—HON. WM. L. MACKENZIE KING (Ontario).

Minister of Justice—SIR LOMER GOULIN (Quebec).

Minister of Finance—HON. WM. S. FIELDING (Nova Scotia).

Minister of Marine—HON. ERNEST LAPOINTE (Quebec).

Minister of Militia—HON. GEO. P. GRAHAM (Ontario).

Minister of Railways—HON. WM. C. KENNEDY (Ontario).

Minister of Labor—HON. JAMES MURDOCK (Ontario).

Postmaster-General—HON. C. MURPHY, K.C. (Ontario).

Minister of Trade and Commerce—HON. JAS. A. ROBB (Quebec).

Minister of Customs—HON. JACQUES BUREAU (Quebec).

Minister of Soldiers' Re-establishment—HON. H. S. BELAND, M.D. (Quebec).

Minister of Agriculture—HON. WM. S. MOTHERWELL (Saskatchewan).

Minister of the Interior—HON. CHAS. STEWART (Alberta).

Minister of Public Works—HON. HEWITT BOSTOCK (British Columbia).

Secretary of State—HON. A. B. COPP (New Brunswick).

Solicitor-General—HON. D. D. MACKENZIE (Nova Scotia).

Ministers Without Portfolio—HON. THOS. A. LOW (Ontario); HON. R. DANDURAND (Quebec); HON. J. E. SINCLAIR (Prince Edward Island).

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the administration of Right Hon. Arthur Meighen came to a close and that of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King began. The transfer of government was accompanied by no pomp or ceremony other than the formal taking of the oath by the new members of the cabinet.

Shortly before 3 o'clock in the afternoon his excellency the governor-general, attended by his military secretary, private secretary and aides de camp, arrived at his office in the east block. He was not in uniform.

Before the formal ceremony of swearing in the new members took place, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King had an interview with the governor-general, which occupied about a quarter of an hour.

While it was in progress the new cabinet had assembled at the privy council chamber, and at about 3:30 its members marched in couples down the hall to the governor-general's room. The leaders of the procession were Hon. W. S. Fielding and Hon. Geo. P. Graham, and the former was heard to say the latter where to find his excellency.

"I've forgotten the way," he remarked facetiously.

The process of swearing in the new members of the cabinet occupied about half an hour and was, of course, conducted in private. At its conclusion the members of the new cabinet lined up in the wintry air outside the east block of the parliament buildings and had their picture taken.

Following this they proceeded to the privy council chamber to attend the first cabinet council of the new administration.

The members of the retiring government appeared optimistic as they gathered immediately before saying good-bye to the governor-general. In addition to Mr. Meighen, Sir Henry Draxton, Sir James Loughheed, Hon. J. A. Stewart, Hon. R. B. Bennett and Hon. G. D. Robertson called on His Excellency Lord Byng.

Lemieux To Be Speaker.

That Hon. Hewitt Bostock, new minister of public works, would be appointed speaker of the senate as soon as parliament meets, and that Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux would be appointed speaker of the House of Commons was contained in a statement issued by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King immediately following the "swearing-in" of his cabinet.

The statement also says that "Senator Bostock, it is expected, will be succeeded in the leadership of the senate by Hon. Raoul Dandurand."

"In the formation of the government I have aimed above all else at national unity. This end, I have felt, would be served and the federal spirit of our constitution more acceptably recognized by according representation in the cabinet, so far as might be possible, to all the provinces of Canada, and that with regard to the number of constituencies in each province, and to groups of associated provinces.

In those parts of Canada where Liberal thought and opinion is divided, though equally opposed to the reactionary character and policies of the late administration, I have felt that national unity would be further promoted and confidence and goodwill between all parts and classes augmented, were opportunity of representation in everybody wants his glasses right and wants them promptly.

Brown Optical Co.

the new Liberal administration afforded individuals enjoying the confidence of a considerable portion of the Canadian electorate, who, but for such representation, might as the years pass be led to experience a feeling of isolation as respects the formation and administration of our national policies.

Ignored Differences.

Accordingly, I have made known that, regardless of existing differences I was prepared to consider representation in the cabinet of all who were prepared to advocate and support Liberal principles and policies, such representation to be on a basis identical with that expected of every member of the new administration.

Whilst it was felt by those with whom I conferred that existing conditions would not permit of representation of their followers on this understanding, I have reason to believe that the attitude assumed by myself in this particular was duly appreciated and met in like spirit.

"With respect to the new government, certain reforms have been instituted, with a view to economy in national expenditure and to efficiency in administration.

"(1) The size of the cabinet has been reduced. At the time of the formation of the Unionist administration, for reasons alleged to be connected with the war, the cabinet was increased in size by Sir Robert Borden. It was made the equal size by Mr. Meighen at the time of his recent appeal to the electorate. There were in the administration with which Mr. Meighen appealed to the country, twenty-two ministers, eighteen of whom, including the solicitor-general, were holding offices under the crown, and four of whom were ministers without portfolio.

Reduces Portfolios.

"Prior to the war the office of president of the privy council was held in conjunction with that of the prime minister. The duties attaching to that office are not such as to render necessary or to justify its being continued as a separate portfolio. It will, therefore, be held, as formerly, in conjunction with the office of prime minister. The number of ministers without portfolio has been reduced from four to three.

"(2) The allotting of portfolios to members of the Senate will not be continued as a practice. Except for very special reasons ministers of the crown holding portfolios will hereafter be selected from members of Parliament occupying seats in the House of Commons. In the ministry, as announced, there is an apparent exception to this rule. It is, however, only apparent.

Hon. Hewitt Bostock of British Columbia, who has been the leader of the Liberal opposition in the senate, and who has been given the portfolio of minister of public works, will, it is expected, be appointed speaker of the senate as soon as parliament meets.

British Columbia's representation in the ministry will then report to the House of Commons. Senator Bostock will, it is expected, be succeeded in the leadership of the senate by Senator Raoul Dandurand, who, as minister without portfolio, will then be the only representative of the senate in the ministry.

Will Select Lemieux.

It is further understood that at the opening of parliament the Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux will be selected as speaker of the House of Commons. Mr. Lemieux was urged to become a member of the new administration, but preferred to be relieved of again assuming office as a minister of the crown.

"(3) The departments of militia, land service, and force, and possibly also mounted police, are to be combined in one department of national defence.

"(4) As a means of affording to members of the House of Commons opportunity of becoming more intimately acquainted with the business of the different departments of the government and of qualifying for promotion to higher positions, early consideration will be given by the new administration to the desirability of appointing, in an honorary capacity from among the members of the House of Commons, parliamentary under-secretaries to assist the ministers during the parliamentary sessions. Hon. Charles Stewart is to be acting minister of colonization and immigration.

The swearing in today was two-fold in character. Those who were not privy councillors were sworn in as such. Thereafter each minister was called upon to take the oath required for the administration of a department.

Oath is Ponderous.

The privy council oath is a ponderous one, as follows: "I do solemnly promise and swear that I will serve His Majesty truly and faithfully in the place of his council in this his Majesty's Dominion of Canada."

"I will keep close and secret all such matters as shall be treated, debated and resolved on in privy council without publishing or disclosing the same or any part thereof by word, writing or any otherwise, to any person out of the same council, but to such only as he so propounded, treated or debated in any such privy council shall touch any particular person sworn of the same council, upon any such matter as shall in any wise concern his loyalty and fidelity to the king's majesty, will in no wise open the same to him, but keep it secret, as I would from any person until the king's majesty's pleasure be known in that behalf."

"I will in all things moved and treated in such privy council, faithfully, honestly and truly declare my mind and opinion to the honor and benefit of the king's majesty and the good of his subjects without partiality or exception of persons, in no wise forbearing so to do from any manner of respect, favor, love, need, displeasure or dread of any person or persons whatsoever."

"In general, I will be vigilant, diligent and circumspect in all my doings, touching the king's majesty's affairs of which matters and things I will faithfully observe and keep as a good councillor ought to do, to the utmost of my power, will and discretion. I will of those who stood up were already privy councillors.

LIBERALS WILL PICK NEW CHIEF

TORONTO, Dec. 29.—A provincial convention of Liberals to select a new leader will be held before the coming session of the legislature opens, probably in the last week in January.

Liberal members of the house reached this conclusion in the course of a lengthy conference today in the Liberal rooms at the Parliament Buildings, the decision taking the form of a recommendation to the provincial Liberal executive that a convention be called.

It is believed that the necessity for a leader was impressed upon the Liberals in the recent North Oxford by-election, when the party was without direction and lacked organization. It is believed also that the Liberals intend to be more aggressive in the legislature in the coming session.

A Liberal will run in Russell, but it is not certain whether a fight will be made in Kingston, where the resignation of Brig.-Gen. Ross has made a vacancy.

Want 'Fair Wage' Clause In Building Contracts of New University

That the construction of the new Western University building directly north of the city limits, should be governed by the "fair wage" clause is the contention of the trades unions, whose representatives have already approached the university's authorities with respect to the same. The latter has communicated with Ottawa, asking for definite information as to the so-called "fair wage" clause. When the subject was first broached the opinion was also expressed that this question was purely a matter for the contractors to decide. It was reasoned that they alone should have the say as to whom they shall employ and under what terms. The labor men contend, however, pointing out that all that will be necessary is for the university officials to make sure that the "fair wage" clause is included in the specifications, and the contractors would, therefore, be compelled to act accordingly.

The whole of his legal career, extending over 46 years, was spent in this city and we all knew him well. He studied in the law office of MacMahon, Gibbons & McNab, and on his call to the bar in 1881, became a member of the firm of Gibbons, McNab & Mulken, which subsequently became Gibbons, Harper & Braden, and of which firm he was the sole surviving member. Mr. Harper was an able and successful attorney and a man of varied experience. Of a bright, cheerful and kindly disposition, he was held in high and affectionate regard by all his fellow practitioners. It was also resolved to attend the funeral in a body and that a floral tribute be sent.

ANNNOYED AT LACK OF ICE AT CITY PLAY PARK

As complaint was registered on Friday morning to General Manager Buchanan of the Public Utilities Commission that the residents of South London were somewhat annoyed because of no ice has as yet been available for skating at the Thames Park playground, the manager explains that such has not occurred through any neglect on the part of the commission. "If anyone will go up to Victoria Park," explained Manager Buchanan. "and note the condition there, they will readily conceive how difficult it would be to furnish satisfactory skating facilities. The park is full of slush, rendering the maintenance of a rink an impossibility."

CHRISTMAS IN WIPER FAMILY WAS UNHAPPY

Wife Claims Husband Gave Her No Money or Food.

LANDLADY TESTIFIES Declares Mr. Wiper Always Claimed To Be Very Kind Man.

According to evidence introduced in police court Friday morning "Merry Christmas" was foreign to the home of Mrs. D'Arcy Wiper last Sunday. It seems that the couple were married on the first of November last, and trouble in large "gobs" ensued the week before Christmas. Mrs. Wiper declared that her husband never gave her any money and that he would bring nothing home to eat. She went to bed hungry on Thursday and Friday night last and had her dinner at her brother's, who lived two blocks away. "I went home at 5 o'clock Saturday night and on Sunday morning as I left my bedroom I saw him coming from the bathroom," said Mrs. Wiper. "He swore at me, kicked me down and almost choked me. Then he threw me down in the bedroom and choked me again. I finally managed to get downstairs and then he grabbed the key. I haven't been home since."

Cross-examined by R. A. Ramsay, counsel for Mr. Wiper, Mrs. Wiper declared that her husband never gave her a weekly allowance. "He got his own breakfast," she said. "That is what all the men should do." Mr. Wiper declared that he had always provided for his wife. On Sunday morning he had asked her why she didn't stay home instead of always going to her brother's, and she had replied, "You dirty the dishes and you will wash them."

Mr. Wiper admitted that he was angry and he shoved his wife into the bedroom. He did not choke or strike her. She grabbed for a water jug and attempted to strike him and fell down on the floor. Witness declared that he had been struck by his wife when she stooped to pick up the key to the front door. Mrs. Spooner, who rents the house at Wiper's, living in, stated that Mr. Wiper and always provided for his wife. She had lunch with Mr. and Mrs. Wiper every day. "He always seemed to be a very kind man," said Mrs. Spooner, who corroborated the testimony of Mrs. Wiper. "The last witness seemed to bear your husband out. He seems like a decent respectable man," declared the court. "The lawyer bought her over," flashed Mrs. Wiper. "Come, come," said Mr. Bartlett, "you shouldn't talk like that. I'll adjourn this case for a week. You better come to my office tomorrow morning at 9:30 and I'll advise you as to what to do. I warn you, Mrs. Wiper, that you cannot expect much from the court after the evidence I have heard. You are probably to blame and I have no sympathy with you."

PLANS SERVICE FOR RELIEF OF UNEMPLOYED

Ministerial Alliance Appoints Committee To Draft Program For January 8.

URGES MUNICIPAL WORK

The Ministerial Alliance at its special meeting held in the Y. M. C. A., Dec. 28 appointed a committee to draft plans for relief of the unemployed in the city on Sunday, Jan. 8. It was decided to devote one service to the question of unemployment in the city and to provide, if possible, a remedy. Copies of the program have been sent to all the churches for their information. The program is as follows: "That at an early date, preferably Sunday the 8th of January, the situation be presented in the churches as fully as possible, requesting the people generally to assist the city in its undertaking to provide employment by proceeding at once to such building and improvement operations as they themselves have under contemplation. And believing that to a large extent the present distress is not so much due to financial stringency as to moral causes, such as want of order on the part of the purchasing public, and lack of public-spirited enterprise, we would therefore urge the people generally to assist the government in its program of stimulating business through a buying and selling campaign. "We urge that such presentation be followed up in all the churches: "(a)—By increased pastoral visitation and close personal contact with all the people in their congregations and parishes, with a view to discover need where it exists. "(b)—By encouraging church organizations to undertake a program of social helpfulness, keeping in mind especially those who may be out of work or in need of relief and friendly council. "(c)—By making an appeal to the well-to-do people in each congregation, to provide a fund to help needy cases through the present period of distress. "That while appreciating the present efforts of the city council in providing work for the unemployed, we would respectfully urge that the council go as far as they possibly can in the way of opening up more public works, to the end that no one able and willing to work should remain unemployed."

CHRISTMAS MONEY LOST

How often this happens! Folks get money given to them for Christmas, they carry it around with them, putting off the purchase of the remembrance it was intended for. Then they lose it or spend the money foolishly. This year play safety first. Buy perfect blue-white diamonds from A. Nash, My Jeweler, 132 Dundas street, where you will eventually buy.

Smiths Again Largest Family Listed in London City Directory

Immediately a new directory is issued there is a general rush in this neck of the woods to count the Smiths and Jones, just the same as New York rushes to count the Cohens.

Vernon's fifteenth effort in directory making is just to hand, and so that all may not have to count, The Advertiser picked out a few features for its readers. As has been the case in London for some years, the Smiths are the dominant family. London harbors no less than 351 of the specie, Williams being in the forefront with 49. There are 13 Johns, 12 Charles and 11 Georges. Franks, and a similar number of Alberts with 6 Arthurs.

The general supposition is that the Jones and Browns ranked second and third in the Smiths, but this is proven a fallacy by Vernon's latest effort, they bring the Johnson-Johnston-Johnstone clan to the front with 236, relegating the Browns to third place with 206, and Jones will be found a long way down the list.

TECHNICAL SCHOOL INSURANCE PAID

The Board of Education Gets $590.80 For Recent Fire.

Insurance to the amount of $590.80 has been received by the board of education as settlement for the recent fire at the London Technical and Art School. This sum is reckoned at the rate of 56 cents per each thousand dollars' worth of insurance placed on the building. A report to this effect was submitted to the board of the advisory vocational committee of the Technical School on Thursday evening. Smallman & Ingram have been awarded the contract for painting and renovating such portions of the latter school as were damaged by the recent fire. As the price asked by this firm was deemed by the trustees as being quite reasonable, permission was extended for a contract to exceed in $300 to the extent of $150.

Principal Beal was given permission to purchase a phonograph and records for the girls' physical training department. A request for a milling machine was deferred until a later period, as was the request for a lathe to machine two large lathes for three smaller ones. It was held by the committee that next year would witness a substantial decrease in the price of such machinery. A second-hand automobile engine and chassis, however, will be purchased at a figure not exceeding $225, for the automobile repair shop.

The principal's report for the month of December was as follows: No. Enrolled, Average. Technical day pupils.....236 217 Commercial day pupils.....277 267 Evening and special afternoon classes.....1,225 261 Total.....1,738 745

DEPUTATION PLEADS WITH PASTOR TO STAY

A large deputation from the Talbot Street Baptist Church waited on the pastor, Rev. T. S. Roy, Wednesday night and urged him to remain in London. Although Mr. Roy has only been in the city two years, he has won the love and confidence of his congregation, and it is the united wish of the church that he decline the call which he has just received from Massachusetts.

Mr. Roy has been largely instrumental in building up the church, and especially in this shown in the Wednesday night prayer meetings. There are 10 Bishops by name, and 2 Bishops by calling or profession. Of Banks there are 8 people and 29 institutions. Down in Toronto there are a number of Finnegans and a number of Finnekers. Former Crown Attorney Corley told Magistrate Col. Denison that the Finnekers were Finnegans who had gone to live in Rosedale, Toronto, "400" section. London has no "400 Finnekers," but has four of the ordinary ones. There are some funny spelled names, some of them real jaw breakers, to be noted in going through the directory. Here is one of them, "Acoquafieda Bernarido." Another is spelled "Bawtinheimer."

There are many families of the fish family, Fish, Fysh, Fishbein, Feishburn, Fisher, Fisherman, Fishleigh, Sturgeon, Trout, Haddock, Salmon, Pickler and Halibut. It is noted that of the Husbands, eight in number, listed, two of them are females. There is one Jeff in the directory, but not a Mutt. Abbott is the first name, Zwicker the last in the directory. The shortest name found is "Ho" Charlie, a laundryman at 190 Hamilton road is the proud owner. There are hundreds of names of various letters. In going over the street list, one is found missing, Main street. It runs off Glenwood, near Trafalgar. The insurance business of the city seems to have the most keen competitors. It takes some time to list the names of the various agents.

NEW OFFICERS INSTALLED BY LIBERAL CLUB

Enter On New Duties at an Enthusiastic Rally At Hyman Hall.

URGE PERSONAL WORK Speakers Advocate School of Instruction for Younger Members.

Thursday night was a memorable one for the London Liberal Club, when the newly-elected officers were duly installed. A large number of the members were present, and the best of good feeling was displayed throughout. Several of the officers, in their speeches of their acknowledgment of election, made reference to their experiences in the late campaign, and all looked forward to the time when London will be more richly blessed, in the Liberal camp.

Andrew Robson Presides. A Robson, president of the club, was in the chair for the evening. Arthur Adams, vice-president, in his remarks, brought out the question of instituting something in the way of an instruction class for the younger members of the club, where they might have a chance to become familiar with Liberal history, and thereby to help the aims and ambitions of Liberal leaders. C. C. Ferguson, the treasurer of the club, spoke on the necessity of keeping the finances of the organization in a good healthy state, so that any claims they had could be met with in a straight businesslike manner. J. Vivian, the secretary, had only a word or two of thanks for his acclamation.

Parents of Members Invited To Witness Gymnastic Exhibitions. SWIMMING CONTESTS Will Be Greatest Entertainment in History of London Association.

The doors of the Young Men's Christian Association will be thrown open on Jan. 2, New Year's Day. The members of the association are invited to bring their parents to one of the greatest entertainments in the history of the Y. M. C. A. in London. From 2 to 2 o'clock Monday afternoon there will be an informal reception in the main lobby, at which all the directors of the association will be present. Beginning at 2 and continuing until 4:30 o'clock there will be a big gymnastic display under the auspices of the physical department. The gymnastics will begin with a drill of prep boys from 10 to 12 years of age, followed by the junior leaders' drill. The new gymnasium floor will then be taken over by the Businessmen's Club, who will play volleyball. The old boys vs. home boys will conclude the gymnastic program with a basketball game.

Beginning at 8:30 and concluding at 4:30 o'clock, the members of the boys' department will give a demonstration of swimming in the Y. M. C. A. swimming pool. The members of the wireless club will give a wireless concert in room five from 2 to 5 o'clock. A great deal of interest has been manifested in the work of the organization. They have gradually got better equipment and have added many new names to their rollcall. The club is rapidly becoming the strongest in Canada.

The directors have not forgotten the younger members of the association. Between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock there will be a gymnastic display for the younger boys. The program includes ping pong, checkers, croquet, carpet ball and billiards. Throughout the afternoon there will be a checker tournament in room three. The tournament can be passed out and some very interesting moments are expected. There has been a checker club organized at the Y. M. C. A. and many of its members are becoming quite expert.

Refreshments will be served by the ladies' auxiliary to adult visitors from 3:30 until 5 o'clock in room six, and to the boys in the boys' room. Throughout the performance an orchestra, under the direction of H. Payne, will be in attendance in the main lobby.

HEALTH OF CITY IMPROVES IN 1921

The year 1921 will pass out with the health of the city in much better condition than it was at the launching of the year. Dr. Downham, M. O. H., said that scarlet fever, with about 19 victims, is the only disease that is prevalent now. There is one measles victim, a baby, who is in the hospital with diphtheria, with none in homes. There is no smallpox or chickenpox. When the year was launched there was considerable chickenpox and smallpox and quite a few cases of scarlet fever. Dr. Downham says that all diseases show a decline as compared with the year of the year. There has been no smallpox since midsummer.

THE REV. A. C. BINGHAM has announced a series of interesting sermons under the title "The Five Liars." The first sermon of the series, "The Deceitful Liar," will be preached on Sunday night, the other five following on the succeeding Sunday nights—"The Egotistical Liar," "The Ecclesiastical Liar," "The Hard-Hearted Liar," and "The Bare-Faced Liar."

Cost Him $2 To Land On "Tom the Peeper"

JACK Palmer told Deputy Police Magistrate P. H. Bartlett that he walloped Tom Desalvator in the face because he caught him peeping under the blinds of his house. He thought that Desalvator was looking for his wife, as she had roomed there for some time. "She came to our place two months ago from St. Catharines," said Palmer, "but he persuaded her to go back to St. Kitts. When she got there she had to buy her own supper, and then she came back here. She hasn't been rooming at our house for over three weeks."

Desalvator apparently didn't like the way he was treated on Monday night last, when the assault took place, and had Palmer summoned. "You had very good reasons for hitting this man, but the law doesn't recognize them," said Mr. Bartlett, in fining Palmer $2 for assault.

ACCIDENT VICTIM UNCONSCIOUS YET

William Giles, Aged Lambeth Man, in Precarious Condition.

Wm. Giles, aged 62, of Lambeth, lies in Victoria Hospital with an even chance for his life, as a result of an automobile accident Thursday afternoon when the motor car in which he was riding was struck broadside by a street car at the corner of Horton and Waterloo streets. Mr. Giles was rendered unconscious, and late reports Friday afternoon stated that his condition was anything but favorable and that he had yet to regain consciousness. Dr. Roy Foulledge and Dr. Rankin performed a slight operation on his head Thursday night.

The automobile was driven by Ed Winters of Lambeth, and although he escaped injury, his wife, who is the daughter of Mr. Giles, had her face badly cut by flying glass. Motorman James of the Oxford car stated that the occupants of the motor apparently did not see his car approaching, and although he put on the brakes the car slipped on the greasy rails.

URGES NEW CITY HALL BE BUILT IN NEAR FUTURE

Ald. F. R. Watkinson Sees the Need of Many Municipal Improvements.

PEOPLE WANT ACTION East End Alderman Advises Structure Be Located On Federal Square.

The question of a new city hall for London is going to be dealt with in some way or another by the 1922 council, said Ald. F. R. Watkinson to the Ald. Watkinson was acting-mayor on Friday. A remark was passed that the mayor was badly in need of a new desk. "Yes, we are in need of many things around here to my way of thinking," said Ald. Watkinson. "We have got to do something also with the city hall question. The people are looking for some action from the incoming council. They showed this in the last election, and that is one reason why the western part of the city gave Cameron Wilson such a big vote for mayor. The 1922 council is not going out without doing something, either," he added.

Ald. Watkinson was asked what his views were. He said that the new structure would have to be on the federal square, the people having voted two or three times for that. If it cannot all be done at once it can be done in sections. He thought that the present hall was a disgrace to a city the size of London. The bridge over the G. T. R. at Ashland avenue, which connects Fine Lawn with the city proper, will also have to be built, contended the alderman. He says the plans are all ready.

Ald. Watkinson has applied to the G. T. R. for permission to use the vacant land between the St. Marys branch and intersecting line for a skating rink. It is partly flooded now, and if he can get permission to use it he will ask the artifice commission to supply the water.

The Old Order Changeth, Yielding Place To New!

"Now is the winter of our discontent Made glorious summer by this sun of York." "And slowly answer Arthur from the barge, The old order 'changement, yielding place to new."

Who's Who in Liberal Cabinet Now Guiding Canadian Destiny

Eighteen Leading Dominion Statesmen Chosen by Premier W. L. Mackenzie King Give Promise of Paving Path of Prosperity For All Canadian Industries.

With the swearing in of the Liberal cabinet, headed by Premier William Lyon Mackenzie King, Canada's skies have cleared, all the clouds of uncertainty and doubt having vanished in the mist.

Prediction is rife that the step taken Thursday was merely a preliminary to great prosperity. As soon as this body of statesmen gets down to work, it is pointed out, they will begin the "house-cleaning" promised during the election, and pave the way to a better and bigger Canada.

In two cases, that of James Murdoch, minister of labor, and Charles Stewart, minister of the interior, plans will have to be made for securing seats in the Commons.

HON. WILLIAM LYON MACKENZIE KING, C.M.G., LL.D., the prime minister, first entered Canadian public life in 1908, when he was elected as Liberal representative in the House of Commons for North Waterloo, Ontario.

In 1909 he was appointed minister of labor in the Laurier administration, a post which he held until 1911.

Mr. King was defeated when he stood in North Waterloo in the recent provincial election of 1911, and was again defeated in the election of 1917, when he contested the riding of North York.

Prior to his entry into the political arena, Mr. King was deputy minister of labor from 1906 to 1908, during which time he served as chairman of several royal commissions on labor and immigration problems, and as government conciliator in numerous industrial disputes.

In 1906 he represented the Canadian government in the conference with the British government on matters pertaining to immigration from the mother country, and was also the Canadian representative at the conference on the subject of immigration from the Orient, and immigration from India in particular.

He was one of the British delegates on the international opium commission which met at Shanghai, China, in 1909.

AN ADMINISTRATOR of breadth of view, great energy and ability, and unimpeachable probity, is Hon. Sir Jean Lomer Gouin, C.M.G., B.C.L., LL.D., LL.B., premier and attorney-general for the province of Quebec.

Sir Lomer was an unsuccessful candidate to the House of Commons for Richelieu in 1911.

From 1897 until 1908 he was member of the Quebec Provincial Legislature for St. James' Division, Montreal. Was re-elected at the general elections in 1908, and was re-elected in 1911 and 1917. He was made chief whip of the Liberal party in 1913.

Mr. Gouin was a member of Valleyfield City Council for eight years, and was mayor of Valleyfield from 1906 to 1910; and was school trustee from 1897 until 1920.

He is a partner in the firm of McDonald & Robb, millers, Valleyfield, Quebec, and is also president of Brunseau, Currie & Co., Limited, wholesale flour merchants, Montreal.

HON. GEORGE P. GRAHAM returns to the cabinet after an absence of some years. Mr. Graham held the portfolio of railways and canals in the Laurier administration from 1907 to 1911.

He has had an extended political experience both in provincial and federal arenas.

He was born at Eganville, Ont. He became managing director of the Brockville Recorder and was also associated with the Morrisburg Herald and the Ottawa Free Press for a time.

He was appointed provincial secretary in the Ross government in 1904 and the resignation of J. R. Stratton and became leader of the opposition in the Legislature in 1907.

Before entering Parliament he was a well-known Windsor businessman and made a fortune out of the gas and oil business. He is one of the chief owners of the Windsor Gas Company.

Entering Parliament at a time when the Liberal ranks were badly shattered, he soon occupied a position of prominence. He is a fighting Irishman, a vigorous speaker and a good businessman.

Mr. Kennedy is a genial, popular and hale fellow well met. He was born in Ottawa in 1868.

URGES RATEPAYERS TO PURCHASE HYDRO RADIAL

WELLAND, Dec. 29.—"I am not going to desert the hydro commission. The municipalities unless there is some indication on the part of the people that they don't trust me any more and then I will get out quickly," declared Sir Adam Beck at a mass meeting of citizens here last night when he dealt with the hydro-radials question, and urged the ratepayers to vote for the Toronto-St. Catharines and Niagara bylaw on Monday.

"I am going to go on record here with both hands up recommending you to vote this railway," he said in conclusion. "Don't mistake it and don't desert this bylaw. If my reputation were bad I would not be here. If it is a good I have only one object and that is to keep it good."

SAVANTS REST DELIBERATIONS 'FOR BAGPIPES'

Attend Recital At Hart House, Toronto, After Three-Day Session.

FORM NEW ORGANIZATION

Dr. Phair Tells Delegates 70 Per Cent of Children Have Defective Teeth.

TORONTO, Dec. 29.—(By Canadian Press).—The men of science, to the number of nearly 2,000, who are here attending the annual meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, rested from their three days of ponderous deliberations tonight, and attended a conversation held in Hart House by the University of Toronto and the Royal Canadian Institute.

Continuous programs were carried on throughout the evening in the various sections of Hart House, which is a students' community building, embracing an underground theatre, great assembly, reading and restrooms and roof gymnasium.

When the grave savants became weary of recitals of Scotch, Irish and English selections of bagpipe music and the program of the 48th Highlanders' band they had the choice of watching water polo games, swimming and diving in the tank, or of boxing, wrestling and fencing in the gymnasium.

An exhibition of etchings, paintings and architects' designs was also provided by the Scotch club.

The two dozen or more affiliated societies of the American Association for the Advancement of Science were augmented today by the organization of a new society, known as the Historical and Philological Section, which will be chiefly concerned in recording the development of all sciences, especially the advances made in physics, astronomy and biology.

Registration of delegates has continued through the three days past, and tonight the total attendance stands at 7,750. Committees in charge commented on the success of the meeting, which they declare, has already outstripped any previous annual meeting, excepting only the big quadrennial meetings in New York, Chicago and Washington.

Over 300 papers on scientific subjects have already been read, and this total will probably be doubled before the convention concludes Saturday.

Annual dinners of the various affiliated societies are now of nightly occurrence. Those meeting tonight were the Horticultural Society of America, the Gamma Alpha Fraternity, the American Society of Naturalists, the American Metric Association and the American Pathological Association.

That 79 per cent of 70,000 Ontario school children examined were found to have defective teeth and 12 per cent to have defective eyesight was the statement of Dr. J. T. Phair of the Ontario Department of Education to the education section of the association today.

Dr. Phair stated that the medical surveys of school children now being carried on by the department of education throughout the province are the direct result of the movement to establish school medical inspection in the rural sections, inaugurated some eight years ago by the Women's Institutes of Ontario.

While only some 70,000 children have been examined to date, the figures obtained prove fairly conclusively the need of an early appreciation by all of the conditions as they exist throughout the province, it must be expected of the movement for health betterment. Of those examined over 1,700 also showed evidence of deafness.

URGE BARRING OF WINDOWS IN CITY HOSPITAL

Jurors at McDougall Inquest Advise Safeguards For Upper Floor Patients.

NURSES NOT BLAMED

Find Denfield Farmer Fell From Third Story While Mentally Afflicted.

"That John McDougall came to his death on Monday night, the 26th inst., as the result of injuries sustained by throwing himself out of a third story window on Sunday afternoon at Victoria Hospital, while suffering from temporary mental derangement. No blame attaches to the nurses in charge.

"As this is the second fatality at the hospital this year, under similar circumstances, and the third within four years, the jurors are of the opinion that the hospital trust should take steps to prevent similar recurrences by providing wire screens or other suitable safeguards for the lower half of third story windows; and we further recommend that mental cases be classified on admission by the medical house staff and as far as possible assigned to suitable rooms on the ground floors."

Above is the verdict of the coroner's jury which met at Victoria Hospital Thursday night at 8 o'clock to hold an inquiry into the death of John McDougall, a farmer, who resided near Denfield. Coroner Dr. Robert Ferguson was in charge of the inquest, while A. R. Douglas represented Crown Attorney J. B. McKillop.

The day before yesterday, when Mr. McDougall was admitted there was no intimation given of the nature of the case. He had been sent in by Dr. Robinson of Denfield.

McDougall's night nurse stated that she had been on duty for two nights before the accident. She had not been warned that he was a mental case. He talked religion, and got out of bed several times to say his prayers. She didn't think that he wanted to escape from the hospital, and he told her after the accident that he didn't intend to do away with himself.

The day before yesterday, thought McDougall seemed greatly depressed and much worried about the future. He didn't give any idea, either by word or action, that he contemplated ending his life. She left the room for a minute, and when she returned the patient was gone. She noticed his bedroom slippers at the side of the bed, and saw that the window was half open. When she left it had been raised but three inches. She raised the window and saw McDougall lying on the ground below.

Had Persecution Idea. Dr. J. R. N. Childs, attending physician, was called in on the case on Dec. 14. His patient seemed restless and sleepless. Dr. Childs stated that he attended him right along. There was no marked development during the first few days, but later on McDougall seemed depressed, and had an idea that he was being persecuted.

Asked if McDougall showed any signs of suicidal intent, the doctor replied none whatever. It occurred to him as a possibility, not a probability. When he was discharged shortly before noon on Christmas Day he had had some ideas of persecution. He saw the man almost immediately after the accident. In his opinion death was caused by internal injuries resulting from the fall.

Seemed Quite Rational. Dr. George McNeil, who made the X-ray examination, said that there was no evidence of a fractured skull. When he saw McDougall after the accident the latter seemed quite rational and clear.

"He didn't want us to think that he wanted to commit suicide," said Dr. McNeil. "He was so sorry that he had been so foolish, and said that he just wanted to get to the office. I don't think he knew where he was going. I would say that he died from shock resulting from the fall."

Superintendent T. H. Heard stated that rooms for patients were generally arranged for by their physicians, and that their allotment all depended where there was a vacancy. The room for McDougall was cleared over the phone. When he first came in he was in a semi-private ward, and later moved to Ward 15. They had no means of knowing whether the patient was a mental case unless informed by the physician in charge.

Previous Accident. The last accident of a similar nature when G. W. Pitt lost his life. He had jumped from the window of the room adjoining that of Mr. McDougall. "Was your attention drawn to the matter at the time by a coroner's jury?" asked Dr. Ferguson.

"Yes," replied Mr. Heard. "It was recommended that the windows of the hospital be barred. The matter was discussed by the hospital trust but no action was taken, as it was felt that the recommendation was impossible. There is no provision made for mental cases beyond a special room suitably fitted, as we are not expected to treat them only for a short time."

Dr. Johnston, chief of the house staff, before and after the accident. McDougall did not strike him as being an unsafe case. He was very quiet and did not want to talk very much.

MONTREAL YOUTH SHOT IN FACE WHILE HUNTING

Montreal, Dec. 29.—Shot in the face by the discharge of a gun while hunting on the slopes of a hill for eight hours while his father and a search party scoured the environs of Mount Tremblant, in the Laurentian Mountains, during a heavy snowstorm, was the experience of Tuesday last of Ian Ross, 17, of the Royal Military College, Kingston, and son of D. W. Ross of this city.

He was hunting with another young man when the accident occurred, and his companion ran four miles to the camp where the young man's father was staying. The victim is now in the Royal Victoria Hospital here confined. He received 20 pellets in the face, but luckily his eyes were not injured.

The New Cabinet.

RIGHT at the outset it is apparent that Hon. Mackenzie King has dealt fairly and aboveboard with all the claims that have been made for his consideration in the formation of a cabinet.

One might well draw a parallel case between Mackenzie King and Oliver Mowat, who was premier of Ontario for over a quarter of a century. Mowat was a statesman like him, King has a well-balanced mind and good judgment. Both had training at the bar—King had also good newspaper experience, has always been a student of labor and economic conditions, and a trusted member of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's government.

King has as his right-hand man Hon. W. S. Fielding, and this should prove satisfactory to industrial Canada, as all through the campaign the name of Fielding was featured as the prospective tariff-maker.

W. C. Kennedy of Windsor wins the recognition that has long been due him, being awarded to the important post of minister of railways.

Western Canada has a capable representative in Hon. W. R. Motherwell, who knows the needs and problems of Western Canada probably better than any man who could have been secured for the work.

The King cabinet can count on Mr. Motherwell keeping the interests of the Canadian farmer constantly to the front.

The selection of James Minto as minister of labor brings a real labor man to the position. His experience on the late lamented board of commerce gave him an insight into Canadian business. If he were liable to err at all it would be in the way of viewing things too much from the standpoint of the employer.

At the same time, he is fearless, honorable and sincere. It will now be necessary to find a seat for him.

Hon. Charles Murphy as post-master-general will have a big piece of work to handle. His visit to London in the last campaign made friends right and left for him here.

Hon. Geo. Graham has a field that is somewhat new to him in the militia. Right now Canada is more in need of a business administrator at the head of that department than a military enthusiast.

Mr. Graham's long experience in the Laurier ministry fits him for the work.

One cannot, in passing, refrain from a measure of regret that Duncan Ross of West Middlesex and Fred Pardee of West Lambton did not survive to find cabinet recognition waiting them.

Quebec has a strong representation in the cabinet, but the members are known and tested. Gouin brings to his task a trained business mind and a splendid knowledge of Canadian affairs.

Beland has a war record that is unique, while Lapointe, the eloquent Bureau and Robb are men of the calibre necessary to insure successful administration. The Quebec delegation is as good a representation as that province could have sent to Ottawa.

The cabinet gives a very fair representation, according to population and weight of vote. The premier has given evidence that he can be stamped neither one way nor the other.

May Mackenzie King rule Canada as long as Oliver Mowat ruled Ontario.

The Bank of Toronto.

THE last annual report of this old conservative institution is first class. Conditions have been adverse, but it has maintained its strong position.

The balance carried forward totalled $1,037,479, which is $51,125 more than a year ago, and makes total reserves $7,037,479, with a paid up capital of $5,000,000. Total deposits stand at $78,966,977, which is a reduction of $2,190,910 for the year, but the increase from 1916 is $24,073,470.

The Bank of Toronto opened its branch in London in 1857, and since that time has conducted one of the safest and most profitable banks in London.

Its first manager was W. R. Wadsworth, who left it to take the management at the head office. He was one of the best bankers in Canada.

The next manager was Thomas F. How, who left it to take the management at Montreal, and is now general manager. Twenty-seven years ago John Pringle assumed the management. He was acknowledged to be the leading banker of London.

He recently retired, and his place has been taken by F. C. Field, who has been many years in the bank, and came here from St. Catharines. He follows the three best men in the bank, outside of Mr. Coulson and Mr. Henderson. He has already made many firm friends, and it is hoped he will long continue as manager at London.

The late Duncan Coulson was a conservative, careful manager. Much of the success of the Bank of Toronto was due to his personality. He had splendid assistants in Mr. Henderson and Mr. Wadsworth. Mr. How is following in his footsteps.

Well, Santa Can't Please Everybody.

and still has with him Mr. Henderson and Mr. Lamb.

It is with great regret the business community views the retirement of Mr. Pringle, and with much pleasure sees his place taken by Mr. Field. It now has four additional branches. Mr. Adams, manager corner Dundas and Talbot streets; Mr. Patterson, corner Dundas and Adelaide streets; Mr. Margaret, Richmond street north, and Mr. Walker, corner Dundas and Wellington streets.

The permanent prosperity of the country depends very much on its solid banks like the Bank of Toronto.

cause of the rupture. There were other difficulties, but they could have been surmounted; what the Egyptians held to be incompatible with any 'independence' worth having was the continued presence of a foreign army up and down Egypt and the use of her means of transport to move it about. Most people would agree, that whether or not independence ought to be granted to Egypt, it is idle to maintain an army in the country on this method, and at the same time to talk of Egypt's independence. No doubt there was powerful military advice behind the insistence of the British cabinet, but there is something bigger even than the military question. How long," continues the Guardian, "can the Egyptians really be constrained to admit our military domination? How long ought we to constrain them? It is not as though they were not already willing to have a British military force at certain agreed points within easy distance of the centres that really matters. Meanwhile, we shall soon have all Egypt united against us."

Canada has a railway mileage of approximately 39,000 miles. In 1836 she had 16 miles; in 1858, 1,863; in 1878, 6,226; in 1888, 12,163; in 1898, 16,870; and in 1908, 22,966. The increase in the past decade is almost 50 per cent. There is one mile of railway for every 226 of the total population of Canada, or in Western Canada alone one mile for every 110 persons. The United States has 404 persons to the mile, and Great Britain, 1,804.

Canadians can gather at a glance what has been granted to Ireland by reading the second clause in the agreement signed between Great Britain and Ireland. It is this: "Subject to the provisions hereinafter set out, the position of the Irish Free State in relation to the imperial parliament and government, and otherwise shall be that of the Dominion of Canada, and the law, practice and constitutional usage governing the relationship of the crown, or the representative of the crown, and of the imperial parliament to the Dominion of Canada shall govern their relationship to the Irish Free State."

An interesting point comes out in the annual statement of the Toronto and Hamilton Highway Commission. Hamilton had to pay only $508 toward the maintenance account for the year. The fines paid by motorists came within $6,671 of paying upkeep costs, the fines amounting to $23,967. Motorists pay out a price for their frolics on the highway. There is quite a difference in the car caught. Some drivers of high-powered cars go over the highway week after week at a speed in excess of the regulations. The road is good, and the large cars make very little fuss; they simply travel. The driver of the light car, when he tries to make the same speed, bounces all over the road, and the speed cops gather him up in their traps.

Yes, and did you hear that the Corner Grocer has shut down on giving credit to Mr. Blank? Strange, you hadn't heard of any of these things.

And you pass on, wondering, perhaps, if things are not sort of headed for the bow-wows.

And your whispering friend wanders along, dropping his little piece of doubt and suspicion here and there.

Nor can it be claimed that he is performing any good service. He is simply pouring his little bit of poison into the stream of business.

If you want to do your community a good service, show this chap where he can get a job elsewhere.

The effect of such a move would be decidedly bad on the minds of pupils under their care.

The young people of this country should have their minds turned to more effective methods of settling trouble between employer and employee, and the teachers in the schools have a very direct influence in turning their minds one way or the other.

The teachers certainly have their troubles and grievances, and at times feel the need of some collective way of dealing with them that will give them more weight and prestige than through individual effort.

It is to their credit that they refrained from strike or emergency fund ideas.

The Egyptian Affair.

THE British army of occupation in Egypt is one of the bones of contention responsible for the rioting and continued unrest there.

The appointment of Egyptians to civil offices is another move that has not yet been carried out, although there is nothing to show that this has a direct bearing on the matter now.

The Manchester Guardian holds that since the publication of the terms of the proposals made to Adly Pasha and the Egyptian delegation, it is proved that "the question of the British military force or 'army of occupation,' as the Egyptians would say—that was the principal than a radial connecting the city with industrial centres like Guelph, Kitchener, Waterloo and Galt?"

In other words, why can't all Ontario come down and do its shopping in Toronto?

WAYS TO KEEP WELL—A First Aid Kit

BY DR. R. H. BISHOP. SECRETS are unnecessary if there is at all times a simple, efficient first aid kit or medicine kit handy.

In your first aid kit should be several bottles of drugs. Each should be plainly labeled. Names and uses of the drugs:

1. Iodine, a three per cent alcoholic solution. To be dropped into a wound of the skin is broken.

2. White vinegar. In burns from alkalis, as plaster, potash, lime and ammonia, the parts should be flooded with vinegar, which neutralizes the alkali.

3. Boracic acid, a four per cent solution in water. May be freely used in burns or injuries to the eyes.

4. Aromatic spirits of ammonia. One-half a teaspoonful in water. In fainting after consciousness has returned or when one feels faint.

5. Jamaica ginger. A teaspoonful for chills, cramps or colic.

6. Bicarbonate of soda, a three per cent solution in water. For acid burns.

7. Epsom salts, four ounces (or half dozen Sedlitz powders) for use in constipation.

Further supplies suggested are: Alcohol, 4 ounces, aqua ammonia-hartshorn, two ounces, labeled poison, rubber cork, mustard powder, two ounces.

A teaspoon and several paper cups. A medicine glass, marked with liquid measurements.

Half a dozen wooden tongue depressors and a few wooden applicators. Adhesive plaster, a small roll, one inch wide.

Absorbent cotton, a two-ounce package.

Bandages, at least half a dozen rolls, one, two and three-inch widths.

A tourniquet to assist in bleeding. For this purpose a piece of small rope, twine or a specially-made rubber binder may be used. There are several very simple devices of this sort to be had at drug stores.

Hair Ornaments? One For Every Hour

BY MARIAN HALE.
LONDON, Dec. 29.—There's an air of reminiscence of the days of Josephine, Eugenie la Pompadour—those women who broke hearts with the placing of a jewel, who stood before their mirrors as an artist before a canvas, and tested the silver leaf, the wisp of tulle or the jewel in their hair.

There is no hour of the day, no gown, no occasion which has not its fitting hair ornament. In the places where smart women gather an unromantic coiffure is rarely seen. Jeweled combs have led to jeweled bandeaus and wreaths of gold or silver leaves.

The wealth of leaves finished with drooping buds is one of the favorites of the fair. Worn quite low, as is Woodstock and Miss Loretta Swan of Walkerville.

A number of bright little entertainments have been given this week in honor of Miss Ruth Williams of El Paso, Texas, who is spending a month's holiday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, Elmwood avenue.

Miss Loretta Swan, who has been visiting Mrs. Marguerite Durdin, Terrace street, also her grandmother, Mrs. Bishop, Inkerman street, has returned to her home in Walkerville, taking with her Miss Durdin, who will spend New Year's in Walkerville.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Armstrong and daughter of this city joined a holiday house party this week in the home of Mrs. Armstrong's sister, Mrs. Douglas, "Glenhurst" Strathroy. Other guests included Mrs. Hobkins, daughter of the hostess, and Professor Robbins of Toronto University, and Miss Douglas of Toronto.

Mrs. R. G. Smythe, who has been nominated president of the Local Council of Women of Toronto for a second term, is well known in London and vicinity. Previous to her marriage she was Miss Agnes Lind of Westminster, and is a sister of Mrs. Jennie Lind, Alexandra Apartments, whom she visited some weeks ago.

THE ROSEBUDS BLOOM AGAIN.
Well my dear old pal and friends, it's so long since I have written to the Mail-Box I am sure you have all forgotten us. We have just returned from a trip to the lake, and I assure you, we had a lovely time. Probably you will think we will be frozen up, but we are house roses, and are still alive and looking well.

Well, I am a little "hello" girl now, and you can imagine how busy I am kept—hardly find time to write. Iona Ford, where have you gone to? I have mourned so much for you. I am nearly wearing black. I had some lovely correspondents, and I would like to hear from them and any others that would care to write. I will try hard and find time to answer all letters I receive.

When Cynthia is not in the paper it is hardly worth while reading it. I always find time to read that page anyway. I must tell you about our flowers. They were grand this summer. We took several different pictures of them, so if any of your readers ever come to see me I will show them.

I was sorry I was not at home, or I would have loved to make a block for that quilt. We will leave our address with dear old Cynthia for anyone that wishes to write. Your old friends,
THE TWO COUNTRY ROSEBUDS.
It is splendid to have a visit from the Rosebuds this frosty weather. Isn't it? I thought you had forgotten me altogether. I am sorry your greetings did not come in time to appear on our Christmas page, but better late than never.

GERTRUDE BECAME CONFUSED.
Dear Miss Grey—Here I am back again. I saw in the paper where Gertrude had some old boots to give away. Now, if you will excuse me, I'll tell you that was my pen name, and it must be someone else who has written that letter. Now, my dear Mail-Box friend, will you kindly change my pen name to avoid mistakes. If you would do that it would save me a lot of bother.
GERTRUDE.
Will Gertrude No. 2, who has the boots, kindly send in her name and address, as there have been several requests for them? I am sorry that your greetings were too late for the piece, as we missed you in the family circle, Miss Original Gertrude.

GREETINGS CAME TOO LATE.
In token of sincere regard and warm remembrance, this comes to you a very happy Christmas and a glad and bright New Year. God bless The Advertiser Goodfellows.
LILLY FROM LIVERPOOL.
There were a number of greetings came too late, Lilly. I am sorry, as I would have liked to have had all the members of my family present on Christmas morning.

Miss Lillian Spurling, Kathleen Richardson and Lillian Spurling.
Mrs. Arthur Brickenden was the hostess Thursday afternoon of a jolly tea-dance for the not-outs given at her home on Dufferin avenue in honor of Mrs. George McCormick's guest, Miss Betty Wilson of Sarnia. The rooms were effectively decorated with holly and Christmas wreaths, and in the center of one was a large Christmas tree decked with Christmas favors and bearing well-filled stockings, which were later claimed by the guests. Mrs. Brickenden received the young people in a beaming gown of blue canton crepe, and was assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Green and Miss Wilson, who wore a pretty frock of blue green georgette with French flowers. At the tea hour the guests sat down at small tables with holly. Among the guests were: Misses Katharine Beltz, Shirley Johnston, Kathleen Richardson, Beryl Jewel, Lorna Rumball, Elsie Wood, Margaret Jordan, Doreen Lloyd of Montreal, Louise Kennedy of Toronto, Jean Gerrie, Gwen Williams, Alison Buchner, Mary Granger, Retta Carson; and Messrs. Bland McCormick, Jack Masey, Fred Kennedy, Frank Kennedy, Langford McGreggor, Jack McGreggor, George Vandell, Orem Beltz, Ted Beltz, Bob Masuret, Clarence Wood, Gerald Jordan, George Younge, Ed. Dignan, Ted Wainwright and S. Granger.

BUSKINS
[By Olive Roberts Barton.]
"May I come in? I want to talk to you about an adventure."
Yes, the little house had begun to move, slowly at first, then faster and faster and faster. The children were almost too amazed to speak.

"X-yes, it is an elevator," gasped Nick, finally finding his voice. "There's a bell ringing. Some one wanting to get on likely. W-what'll I do, Nancy?" Nancy, who had been looking out of the funny little window at the pink and white topped orchard getting smaller and smaller below them, answered sensibly.
"Why stop it, of course. I s'pose you pull the thingumagum the other way."
So Nick gave the brake a jerk as the little house, or apple-tree elevator as we had better call it now, stopped instantly.
And there stood a fairy. The children knew right away that he was a fairy, although he was dressed more like a pirate, with a colored bandy tied round his head for a hat and high top boots.
They had had enough adventures with fairies in the Fairy Queen's Nin-

New Year Table Decorations

Here are some new ideas in decoration for the New Year dinner-table. Get half a dozen cypripediums insigae or "green orchids" as they are sometimes called. And three dozen Roman hyacinths and a dozen maidenhair ferns. Make your place flowers from the Roman hyacinths and maidenhair ferns, tied with pale green ribbons. Place your centre flowers in a white-enameled willow basket with a tin cup filled with water concealed within to keep the flowers fresh.

Little boys and girls figures will add to the attractiveness of your bon-bon baskets. Paper white narcissus can be used instead of hyacinths, but the contrast is better and stronger with hyacinths. The picture shows how the flowers mentioned should be arranged in centerpiece, favors and corsages.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN
MARMALADES
S the jelly glasses are emptied, fill them up with marmalades. Orange or grapefruit marmalade is delicious with toast and coffee for breakfast or with toast and tea for tea.
While there are excellent marmalades on the market a housekeeper will effect an appreciable saving if she makes her own. With sugar back to normal prices, marmalade is not expensive to make. A marmalade that is not quite as bitter as an all-orange sweet is made with carrots.

Carrot Marmalade.
One pound carrots, 2 lemons, 1 orange, 4 cups sugar.
Wash and scrape carrots and put through food chopper. Squeeze juice from lemons and put rinds through food chopper. Barely cover each with water and cook until tender. Cut orange in very thin slices and remove seeds.
Combine carrots, lemon rind, orange slices, sugar and lemon juice and add 1/2 cup of boiling water. Pour into glasses and cover when cold with paraffin.

Marmalade.
One large grapefruit, 1 large orange, 1 large lemon, 7 pints cold water, 5 pounds granulated sugar.
Wash, wipe and dry fruit and cut into quarters. Cut the quarters through the peel and pulp in very thin slices. Add cold water and let stand overnight. In the morning cook until the peel is very tender.
Set aside again until the next morning. Add sugar and cook until the syrup thickens as in the preceding recipe. The seeds should be removed from the fruit when cutting in quarters. This makes twelve large glasses of marmalade.

Orange Marmalade.
Twelve oranges, 6 quarts water, 6 pounds sugar.
If oranges are sweet add 2 lemons. Pare oranges as thin as possible so that very little white will remain on the yellow rind. Roll these parings and cut in shreds.
Put in cold water. Scrape off all the white from the oranges. Cut fruit in thin slices, removing seeds and add to rinds. Let stand overnight.
Add sugar and boil until the mixture jellies when tested on a cold saucer. Pour into jars and cover with paraffin when cold.

Yuletide Marmalade.
One pound beets, 1 orange, 1 lemon.

After a short honeymoon the happy couple will reside on the groom's farm near Tempo.

BURCH-APPLETON.
A quiet wedding was solemnized at Cronyn Memorial Church on Dec. 21, when Annie M. Burch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Appleton, was given in marriage to Francis W. The bride looked charming in a gown of silver grey brocaded crepe de chine, with coral trimmings, and wore a corsage of Ophelia roses and violets. After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the bride's home, where a dainty luncheon was served. Only the immediate relatives were present. The happy couple have taken up their residence at 45 Terrence street, where they will be at home to their friends.

OLIVER-COCHRANE.
A quiet wedding took place Thursday, Dec. 23, at four o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. M. Cochrane, Dutton, when Lillian Saunders Cochrane and Mr. George Edward Oliver were married. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. The bride and groom were unattended. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served and later the happy couple left by the M. C. R. evening train for Detroit and Pontiac, the bride travelling in a suit of brown velour with fur trimming and brown hat. On their return they will reside on Vancy street, Dutton.

Among the beautiful wedding gifts was a handsome electric reading lamp from the choir of the Anglican church, of which the bride was a member for a number of years previous to her marriage.

Yankees Get Strangle Hold On American League

THE field against New York is a bad bet in the American League. The latest deal put through with the Boston Red Sox just about insures the Yankees another pennant.

Everett Scott, who goes with the two pitchers to New York, is one of the greatest shortstops in the history of the game.

Joe Bush had a big year in 1921, due largely to a new delivery he developed. He calls it "York ball" because of the way he held it to get the break.

Sam Jones is one of the most valuable pitchers in the American League. He is a finished performer who knows how to pitch.

BACK IMAGINATION UP WITH ACTION

E. Dennis Speaks On "Imagination and Business" At Kiwanis Luncheon.

"Imagination in Business," was the subject of the address given by E. R. Dennis at the Kiwanis Club luncheon Friday.

The speaker declared nothing great had ever been accomplished without it first having been imagined, and that imagination, or inner sight, being backed up by action.

Everybody was in possession of the power of seeing pictures of what might be, but most people had not the confidence to support it with their will and judgment and make it a reality.

It is usually thought that a child who has a very vivid imagination would make a much better professional man than a business man, but such is not the case, if there will and judgment are properly combined with the imagination.

Every person who gives anything new to the world must first see a picture of the thing in his own mind, before it can be developed and turned into use for mankind.

It would be impossible to have an inventor without any imagination.

The speaker mentioned several things in use throughout the world today that were a direct result of some person using their imagination. He continued: "Imagination is the thing that places ideas before the minds of people, they get an idea and the mind draws a vivid picture of it and they carry that view around with them and then create the ambition to be exactly like the picture in their minds."

The next meeting of the club will be the installation of the new officers for the coming year.

Every person who gives anything new to the world must first see a picture of the thing in his own mind, before it can be developed and turned into use for mankind.

It would be impossible to have an inventor without any imagination.

The speaker mentioned several things in use throughout the world today that were a direct result of some person using their imagination. He continued: "Imagination is the thing that places ideas before the minds of people, they get an idea and the mind draws a vivid picture of it and they carry that view around with them and then create the ambition to be exactly like the picture in their minds."

The next meeting of the club will be the installation of the new officers for the coming year.

EAST MEETS WEST IN POLICE COURT

Prisoners From Alberta and Nova Scotia Charged With Vagrancy.

It was a case of "east meet west" in police court Friday morning, when George Smith of Grant, Alta., rubbed shoulders with Alex. Ferguson from Halifax, N. S. Both young men had been harvesting out west and had managed to get as far as Toronto. They were arrested there on a charge of vagrancy.

Smith told Deputy Magistrate P. H. Bartlett that he had never visited the east before, and had bought a ticket to Toronto. He came to London looking for work.

"What am I going to do with this young fellow, chief?" inquired the court. "There is nothing for him to do, apparently; he is far from home and friends."

"Head him back west," replied Chief. "Maybe six months in Burwash would do him good, and in the spring he could go back home."

"Why should I get something to do. He is an experienced farm hand, so he says," declared the court.

Ferguson said that he did not want to go home to his father, as he had made off him the greater part of the summer before going to the grain fields of Manitoba.

"I loafed around home when there was nothing to do, and I don't want to do it any more," he stated.

Mr. Bartlett adjourned the case for two weeks.

UNITED BOARDS OF TRADE WILL MEET

To Hold Annual Western Ontario Conference At Woodstock.

The local chamber of commerce has been notified by the Woodstock Board of Trade that arrangements have been made for the entertainment of the delegates attending the annual meeting of the United Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce to be held at Woodstock Jan. 15 and 16, 1922.

The arrangements at present provided for the session to begin at 2 o'clock Jan. 15, when H. R. Bousette will explain the question of British Industries to the delegates.

After the dinner the evening session will be devoted to the discussion of blue sky legislation and the question of sending a resolution to the Dominion government and provincial governments, or to the latter will be argued. It is expected the E. G. Fleming, K.C., of Windsor; Jared Vining of London, and Norman Harris, financial editor of the Toronto Saturday Night, will open the discussion.

The morning session of Jan. 20 will be devoted to the discussion of resolutions submitted by the affiliated boards of trade.

After luncheon the afternoon meeting will be addressed by W. S. B. Armstrong, secretary of Ontario Town Planning and Housing Association, on town planning legislation. M. F. MacLure Scandlers, F.R.C.S., of Windsor, will give an address on the work of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Completed programs will be sent out early next week.

Dust Still Flying From Squabble Over "Star Dust"

BY JAMES W. DEAN.
NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Fannie Hurst says an injustice was done to her by the film called "Star Dust" and that she will spend the $30,000 paid her for film rights to the novel of that name in fighting the exhibition of the film under that title.

But that's not the end of it. The Hope Hampton Productions Company, producers of the film, has filed action against Miss Hurst for $250,000 damages because of statements she made about the film.

There's a joke in all of this to this writer. Both Miss Hurst and the film are getting valuable advertising through their squabble.

This article, however, is not intended for an advertisement. The question is—how far should a producer go in changing the printed story when it is converted into films?

I have read the novel version of "Star Dust." I arranged for a special screening of the film for comparison. The title reads, "Star Dust," suggested by Fannie Hurst's novel of that name.

Soon after the introduction of characters the film story departs from the novel version. If you read the novel and liked it you will not like the film. If you didn't relish the novel, you'll enjoy the film.

It is not a masterpiece, but it is better than the average film of today. In the picture the heroine leaves Paradise, Iowa, after her marriage. Her troubles accumulate. Her baby dies. She plans suicide. Thwarted in that, she finds life opening into more pleasant channels. She becomes an operatic prima donna.

The husband hurrying to share in her glory and her wealth is killed in a train wreck—the most thrilling I have ever seen on the screen.

Husband eliminated, the girl with the soul of an artist finds happiness in a marriage with a song writer.

The film story, compared to that of the novel, leaves a pleasant taste in the mouth. It is doubtful if any motion picture censor in the country would have passed the film had it been produced in strict adherence to the novel story.

In the novel the baby lives and the MINSTRELS RETURN.

LONDON, England.—Negro minstrels, of thirty years ago are planning to bring back to London their form of entertainment. Many performers are old veterans.

EXPERT WORK. MODERATE PRICES.
210 DUNDAS STREET.

Fannie Hurst, right, sold screen rights to "Star Dust." Hope Hampton is starred in the film. It's a good one, but Miss Hurst denounces it because it isn't like her story.

mother goes on to the bitter end slavery, "Humoresque."

Well, should a producer change the story when he converts it to the screen? If it does not fall within the limitations of the screen and within the limitations of censorship, he must change it.

This writer once saw a miserable film in which Hope Hampton was starred. He thought her case was hopeless. In "Star Dust" she does as fine a bit of work as any feminine star has given to the screen in months. She shows she understands pantomime. She has come a long way in the last year and promises to go a long way further in the next year.

High Class Vaudeville Bill At Grand Merits Good Patronage

Elaine Hammerstein in "Poor Dear Margaret Kirby" Presented in Conjunction With Charlie Chaplin, Furnishing Excellent Film Program.

Another exceptionally high-class vaudeville bill opened Thursday at the Grand Theatre, and with the Selznick feature film, "Poor Dear Margaret Kirby," starring Elaine Hammerstein, will be repeated afternoons and evenings on Friday and Saturday.

The vaudeville leaves no room for criticism, and the work of Miss Hammerstein and supporting cast in the photoplay is excellent. The plot of the picture in some respects, however, is somewhat weak, but the details are worked out in an interesting style that makes it genuinely entertaining.

Charlie Chaplin appears in a really funny and clever comedy film, entitled "A Night In the Show." Some uproariously humorous situations arise, and laughter is irresistible. A Pathe color feature and news reels are included in the pictorial offering.

Queen of Sheba, Feature At the Allen, Is Gigantic Spectacle

Creates Most Profound and Favorable Impression Among Motion Picture Fans of London.

Betty Blythe, one of the better-known popular artists of the silver screen, is still attracting gratifying houses at the Allen Theatre, at the latest William Fox super-production to reach London direct from New York City, "The Queen of Sheba," which will continue as the feature picture at that playhouse for the remainder of this week.

Undoubtedly "The Queen of Sheba" has created a most profound and favorable impression among the local motion picture patrons, not only as a film creation of wonderful and exceptional proportions, but as what may be termed as far more essential, a picture that is entirely free from objectionable scenes or art titles. From a historical angle alone "The Queen of Sheba" enjoys a remarkable educational value.

Chariot races, rendered more realistic by such drivers as Tom Mix and the western plains; Titanic struggles between armed hordes, thousands in number; droves of camels and other creatures of the dazzling Orient, are but examples of what is revealed in the several gigantic scenes staged with all the pomp and ceremony of the Holy Land of centuries ago.

AUDIENCE ENJOYS "THE HOTTENTOT"

Grew Players Excel in Latest Comedy At Majestic Theatre.

Another large audience enjoyed the splendid comedy, "The Hottentot," at the Majestic Theatre Tuesday night. The Grew Players have put on a number of fine comedies during the present season, and "The Hottentot" compares most favorably with the offerings of past weeks.

Robert Hyman in the leading role is all that could be desired. The entire action of the comedy revolves around Mr. Hyman, who is believed to be Sam Harrington, a famous steepchase rider. As a matter of fact, Mr. Harrington is anything but enamored of even a rooking-horse, but in order to "make good" with a certain young lady (Miss Virginia Mann), he pretends that he is the original Sam and anxious to ride the lady's horse in a big race. How he manages to get out of the job and fall into another more dangerous still, gives the entire company ample scope to show their undoubted ability.

Miss Virginia Mann shares honors with Miss Gertrude Gustin, who, as an airy-fairy young widow keeps several young men dancing attention on her. Wallace Ray, as Swift, the butler, is exceptionally good, and, with Mr. Hyman, provided many hearty laughs for last night's audience. Mr. Ray seems to improve with each succeeding play.

Duncan Penwarden, Ross MacDonald, Elizabeth Fox, Harold Moniton, Rickey Secret, William H. Malone and J. S. Fumble are other members of the cast whose work is worthy of mention.

BAIL REFUSED TO LONDON WOMAN

Mrs. Louise Leslie, Facing Toronto Charge, Must Stay in Jail.

Toronto, Dec. 29.—Acting for Mrs. Louise Leslie, of London, Ont., W. K. Murphy this morning applied to Justice Orde for bail. The application was refused.

Mrs. Leslie is held on a charge of the murder of a young Toronto woman, Ellen Lyons, who died in the hospital here on Nov. 12, as the result of an illegal operation which it is alleged was performed by Mrs. Leslie.

Mr. Murphy pointed out that there was no direct evidence against his client of having committed the crime. The principal evidence was that of the young man most interested in having the operation performed, who had declared that it was every man for himself. The other evidence was that of Collins, who was charged with conspiracy, which charge has been withdrawn.

F. P. Brennan, for the crown, opposed the application on the general ground that bail should not be granted in a murder case. Even though the jury might acquit Mrs. Leslie the charge was still murder.

Justice Orde pointed out that Mrs. Leslie might be brought to trial within three weeks, and that it would be no hardship for her to remain in custody in the meantime. The courts, he said, hesitated to grant bail in murder charges except in exceptional cases.

WAGE HARD FIGHT AT INGERSOLL

[Special to London Advertiser.] INGERSOLL, Ont., Dec. 29.—With fourteen candidates in the field for the mayoralty and six council seats, it can be truly said that the municipal pot is beginning to boil. Most of the candidates are conducting a vigorous and systematic campaign, and the outcome of the election is eagerly awaited by the ratepayers. There are no outstanding issues in the campaign. Several of the candidates, however, are emphasizing the necessity of economy in the transaction of the town's affairs in 1922.

Only two members of the present council are seeking re-election as councillors. They are William English and N. J. Daniels. W. A. Sutherland, who is a majority candidate, is member of the present council.

ADOPT PROGRAM TO HELP NEEDY

[Special to London Advertiser.] INGERSOLL, Dec. 29.—Prompt action was taken by the Big Eight fraternal society on a suggestion that organized effort be put forth to help the families who require assistance owing to the unemployment situation.

It was decided to open a fund, and a contribution of $10 was made by the society, which has been augmented by individual contributions. A committee from the Big Eight will work in conjunction with the central relief committee.

"Y" SEEKS ADVICE FROM MISS FORD

Among the important questions to be discussed at the first meeting of the New Year of the Young Women's Christian Association will be the appointment of a general secretary to succeed Mrs. J. R. Henderson, whose resignation was regrettably accepted at the December meeting. Mrs. Henderson consented to carry on the duties of the office until business was shaped up for the annual meeting in February or other arrangements made.

No name, it is stated, is yet definitely before the board, awaiting recommendations from Miss Marjory Ford, the general secretary of the Dominion Council, who is closely in touch with highly-qualified, trained workers.

The appointment of a travelers' secretary to succeed Mrs. Parker will probably be made in the course of a week or ten days.
