BLAME LIES WITH COUNCIL

Health Board Will Not Be Responsible For Unfortunate Crisis

DR. CHARTERIS SPEAKS

Mayor W. S. Marshall's announcement that he will not sign any cheques in payment for repairs to the isolation hospital has been succeeded by a rather awkward silence. This stand on the part of the Mayor was quite unexpected, though it might easily have been surmised all along that His Worship had a stuffy club ready for use on the Health Board's proposal the first opportunity that might present itself.

The statement has been made that the Health Board can force the hand of the Mayor in the matter, but so far the Board has let the Mayor severely alone, and there has been nothing done that would indicate that they intend to push the matter.

Public opinion, it must be admitted, appears to be strongly against the expenditure of so much money to improve the hospital. The Mayor's abrupt action is condoned and commended alike, but it is understood that he intends to stay by his original intentions, and sign no cheques.

In the meantime the building and property which cost the city much trouble and money, remains a senseless affair for the need of proper repair.

From an interview with Chairman C. R. Charteris of the Health Board, it would seem that the Board does not intend to take any action.

The doctor when seen at his office by a Planet reporter this morning, said:

"The Health Board does not intend to take any action in the matter as far as I know. The Board considered the repairs highly necessary and that is why we recommended them to the Council. The Board has done its duty, and therefore should any unfortunate circumstances result, the citizens cannot shoulder the responsibility on the Board. It now lies with the Mayor and Council."

"Remember I am not speaking for all the members of the Board, but there will be no action taken as far as I am personally concerned."

GIBRITSKIES

ARE ON TRIAL

Case Was Commenced This Morning Before Judge Bell

REPRIMAND FOR LAWYER

The Gibritskies were placed on trial this morning before Judge Bell at the Court House. The case was in progress all morning and was still going on at the time of going to press.

It has been arranged that Simon and Jacob Gibritski will be tried together, and Samuel will come up alone. The case against the first two named was brought up first.

The evidence produced in Court this morning was much the same as came out in the Police Court at the preliminary hearing and reported in The Planet. A. F. Campeau, Lily Baverstock, Peter Dezela, Samson Russell, Mr. Neff, Chief Benn and S. M. Smith were all examined.

Mr. Smith was the new witness. He swore that Jacob Gibritski rented his barn to store goods in. Furs had been stored there.

About the only thing that happened this morning to relieve the monotony of hearing a rehash of old evidence was the stiff reprimand handed out to R. Brackin by Judge Bell, who is trying the case. Brackin appears for the prisoners, and was at the time conducting a cross-examination with Mr. Neff in the witness box. He started off on a tack of his own, and the Judge could not see what he was driving at or how his questions had any bearing on the case. In the meantime the time of the court was being taken up. The Judge stood it for some time, and then protested.

"That sort of examination is utterly useless," said the Judge in a tone of disgust. "You are only taking up the time of the court. But go on. I will put up with anything. I suppose we have to let young lawyers get experience until they learn what is pertinent and what is impertinent."

The case will not be concluded until late this afternoon.

REPORTS SHOW GREAT PROGRESS FOR THE SONS OF ENGLAND

Opening Session Of Supreme Lodge Was Held Yesterday Afternoon—The Order Parades The Streets And Attends Divine Service

The opening session of the Supreme Lodge of the Sons of England Benefit Society was held yesterday afternoon in the Christ Church Sunday School Hall.

There were 118 delegates present from all over Canada, from British Columbia and Nova Scotia.

The session was opened by Mayor Marshall, who addressed the gathering, welcoming the delegates to Chatham and extending to them the freedom of the city. He dwelt at some length upon the merits of the order and foretold the great success which would undoubtedly follow it in the future. He complimented the officers upon their excellent reports. The address was responded to by the president.

Mr. Moore then, in behalf of the S. O. E. district of Chatham, extended a welcome and greetings, which were fittingly acknowledged. Ex-Mayor T. A. Smith presented the president with a silver-mounted gavel, made from the hull of the historic gunboat discovered in the Thames near Chatham.

RECOMMENDATIONS ADOPTED. The sessional papers were first taken up, and the first 16 clauses of these were disposed of. The Supreme Lodge sustaining the recommendations of the General Purpose Committee in every instance. The summary of the legislation enacted is extended, the age of candidates eligible for admittance to the society is reduced from 18 to 17 years.

The statutes of the Supreme Lodge shall remain unchanged in the matter of Executive, quorum, and period of session, and personnel; the district deputies shall continue as in the past, except that their year shall commence in September, instead of January, and they shall not as one clause proposed, discovered in the office, members of the Supreme Lodge.

Telegrams were received at the meeting from James Lomas, of Toronto, one of the original founders of the society, and from Past Supreme President, Fred Cook, of Ottawa. Both of these gentlemen extended their greetings to the assembled lodge, and the reading of the telegrams was received with much applause.

Last night the delegates attended divine service in Christ Church. Preceding the service the delegates paraded the principal streets of the city, headed by the 24th Regimental Band, visiting the fire hall, where the brigade gave an exhibition run. At Christ Church the service was conducted by Rev. J. W. Hodgins, rector of Holy Trinity Church, assisted by Canon Chambers, of London; Rev. F. Vipond, of Toronto, and Rev. W. H. G. Colles, of this city.

SUPREME PRESIDENT'S REPORT. In the opening paragraphs of his report Supreme President W. H. Hurdle, of Montreal, emphasizes the principles on which the society is founded, the advantages that accrue not only to the members but to the community at large by adherence to these principles by such an organization as the S. O. E. B. S. "While the ambition of perpetuating and extending the sense of freedom, loyalty, of true religion, which should be conveyed in the proud title of Englishmen is yours, we are still proud to remember that your presence here has for one of its objects the seeing that not one shall be allowed to fall by the wayside of life without a brother's hand-clasp to encourage, or a brother's sympathy wherewith to lean. At the same time, you feel as I do, that manliness, one of our best inheritances, must be preserved, and that by developing self help in him do we best exhibit our helpfulness to our brother."

"Glancing over the whole Canadian field of our operation, I am pleased to be able to state positively that the work and influence of our society is greatly increasing. It is becoming recognized more and more that the Sons of England Benefit Society exists not for wage-earners only, but for Englishmen generally."

WILL APPEAR SATURDAY

The Planet is indebted to ex-Mayor George W. Sulman for a very interesting article on his visit to the beautiful Azores Islands during his recent continental tour. This article will appear in Saturday's issue of the Great Home Journal, and it will be well worth our readers' while to watch for it.

Mr. Sulman's descriptions are vivid and fascinating, and he misses no item of interest. Everybody will be interested, and those who read the article will find it quite a literary treat. Mr. Sulman has very kindly promised, time permitting, to write a short series of these articles on various points of interest visited by him during his recent tour, and we hope to be able to give our readers an installment each Saturday.

AN EXHIBITION RUN

For the benefit of the visiting delegates to the Sons of England High Court, the firemen last evening gave an exhibition run to the corner of King and Fourth streets. The run was made in creditable time, and a hose was quickly attached at the Bankin Hotel corner.

When Bob Oyle proceeded to attach the hose to the hydrant, he noticed John Pleasance sitting close by, so he gave the genial hotel-keeper a warning to watch out for the shower which might come. "Oh, never mind me," responded Irish Jack. The next minute Mr. Pleasance was treated to an out-door shower bath, the water escaping while the hose was being connected, splashing all over him. The incident caused quite a ripple of merriment.

AN ADDRESS TO MRS. ROSE

Mite Society, Holy Trinity Church, Acknowledge Her Services

GOES TO NORTH WEST

A number of ladies connected with the Mite Society of Holy Trinity Church met at the rectory on Tuesday afternoon and presented their president, Mrs. Rose, with an address and a ladies' suit case. Mrs. Rose, who has been an active worker in Holy Trinity for years, is leaving the city to reside with her daughter in the far west. After the presentation, afternoon tea, cake and ice cream were served by Mrs. Hodgins, and a pleasant hour spent in social converse.

Following is the address:—

Dear Mrs. Rose:

We, your associate workers in the Mite Society of Holy Trinity Church, wish to express to you our deep regret at your contemplated removal from this parish. As our president you have been most assiduous in your work for the church and a noble example to your fellow-workers. We shall miss your willing help and your wise counsel at the meetings of our society. As a reminder of the many pleasant hours we have spent together we ask your acceptance of this small token of our appreciation of your valued services, and our earnest prayer is that God may bless you wherever your lot may be cast, and that you may be long spared to help in advancing the welfare of Christ and His church.

Signed by the members of the Mite Society.

RAT CAUSED FIRE MAY YET COME UP

Small Blaze At Mrs. Calmeyer's Residence Late Yesterday Afternoon

A rat's fondness for sulphur matches was the cause of a fire in a Queen St. residence late yesterday afternoon. About 5.30 some of the members of Mrs. Calmeyer's residence, at the corner of Queen and Gray Sts., discovered fire in a closet off the summer kitchen. The alarm was at once sent in to the fire department, and the blaze was quickly extinguished before any heavy damage was done. The loss sustained was pretty well covered by insurance.

The fire was caused by a rat gnawing at matches, which had been stored in the closet. The rat's peculiar appetite was the cause of its own doom, as it was found clogged by almost burned to a crisp.

CORINTHIANS COMING

Police Officers Coughlan, John Doane and Arthur Gloster, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are in the city endeavoring to arrange to take the Gibbiskies back to New York if they can possibly do so.

About 5.30 some of the members of Mrs. Calmeyer's residence, at the corner of Queen and Gray Sts., discovered fire in a closet off the summer kitchen. The alarm was at once sent in to the fire department, and the blaze was quickly extinguished before any heavy damage was done. The loss sustained was pretty well covered by insurance.

The fire was caused by a rat gnawing at matches, which had been stored in the closet. The rat's peculiar appetite was the cause of its own doom, as it was found clogged by almost burned to a crisp.

CORINTHIANS COMING

Mr. Percy Peggott announced this morning that arrangements have been made to bring the famous English football team, the Corinthians, to Chatham.

POLICE COURT BLOTTER

Thomas Wilson, a Scotch emigrant giving his address as Raleigh, took on too freely of the Oh Be Joyful recently, and as a consequence he was an invited guest to Judge Houston's Court this morning.

The privilege of feeling too good cost Thomas $1 and costs, $5 in all. Thomas has promised to stick faithfully to the water wagon in future.

While W. R. Newell, the Bible teacher, was speaking in the Fort street Presbyterian church, Detroit, Monday night there was the clang and clatter of fire engines, trucks and hose wagons. "The great fire will come later," shouted the speaker above the din that filtered into the church through wide-open doors. Everybody had stirred in their seats as people always do when the fire fighters dash by, but the apt sentence of the speaker, coming with scarcely a break in the discourse, brought the great concourse down to attention again, and the earthly conflagration was lost in contemplation of far more dismal prospects.

JOHN OLIVER HOBBS DEAD.
Brilliant Authoress and Dramatist Passes Away in Her Sleep.
London, Aug. 14.—Mrs. Pearl Mary Teresa Craigie (John Oliver Hobbs), the authoress and dramatist, died in her sleep yesterday morning of heart failure.
Her death was totally unexpected, she having been apparently perfectly well when she retired Sunday night. Mrs. Craigie had been spending a fortnight at her home, Stophill Castle, Ventnor, Isle of Wight, which she left Sunday afternoon to keep an engagement in London. She was 39 years of age.
Sketch of Her Life.
Mrs. Craigie was a native of Boston, Mass., her father being John Morgan Richards. She was married when 19 years of age to Reginald Walpole Craigie, by whom she had one son, now 16 years of age. Though of Protestant parentage, Mrs. Craigie joined the Roman Catholic Church in 1892. Her interest in the land of her birth continued throughout her life, and she made several visits to the United States after her marriage, the last one being in November of last year, when she lectured on literary subjects. After her return to England she lectured there on "American Worship of Wealth."

INDIAN CHIEFS SEE KING.
Make Gifts to Queen and Say They Have No Complaints.
London, Aug. 14.—(C. A. P.)—A large crowd of people, many with cameras, assembled yesterday afternoon in front of the Canadian Government offices in Victoria street, the rumor having got about that Lord Strathcona, was to leave for Buckingham Palace accompanied by three Canadian Indian chiefs, at present in London, but the crowd was disappointed. Lord Strathcona did not go to the palace.
The Indian chiefs were received by the King, to whom they presented a document owning allegiance to the late Queen, and not to His Majesty. They presented three beautiful Indian work-baskets to Queen Alexandra, one basket containing the picture of the son and daughter of Chief Koe Caplano.
The chiefs were delighted with their reception by the King. The C. A. P. asked Caplano what he thought of the King.
"Oh, he's a good man; he speak so softly."
The chiefs had no grievance whatever to put before the King. Minister of the Interior Oliver had an interview yesterday which lasted several hours with Lord Strathcona.

ARRESTED FOR BIGAMY.
George Burling of Essex County Arrested While Courting.
Detroit, Mich., Aug. 14.—While waiting on a street corner Sunday night to keep an appointment with Miss Stella Brady of Maldenstone, a small town in Essex County, George Burling, aged 39 years, was arrested on a charge of bigamy, and was taken to Windsor.
A year ago Burling married a young woman at Cottam, Essex County. He deserted her after a time and came to Michigan. At Albion he married again. He deserted the second wife, and wandered back to Essex County.
While working on the farm of S. M. Brady, near Maldenstone, three months ago, Burling and Brady's 21-year-old daughter Stella came to Detroit together, and the girl says they were soon to be married. It is said that there is still another woman in Essex County to whom Burling was married.

STILL UNCONSCIOUS.
Miss Jones of Owen Sound, Assaulted on Road, Worse.
Owen Sound, Aug. 14.—The condition of Miss Louise Jones, who was found unconscious near her home on Sunday morning, after lying all night on the road, was worse last night. She rallied somewhat in the day and mumbled a few incoherent sentences, which throw no light on the assault.
The police are working industriously on the case, but have not the slightest clue to the identity of the assailant. The recovery of Miss Jones is expected to reveal a description of the party.

Italians For the West.
Ottawa, Aug. 14.—One of the results of the Canadian exhibit at Milan has been to induce the Emigration Department of the Canadian Government to send a special officer to look over the display, interview the Canadian representatives and report on the suitability of Canada as a residence for Italians of the agricultural class.

Accquitted, Dies on Way Home.
Winnipeg, Aug. 14.—Tushwege, the Cat Lake Indian, who was tried at the spring Assizes at Kenora on a charge of murder and dismissed, died on the way to his home in the North Country. He died suddenly when within sight of his hunting grounds on the Rat Portage, on Cat Lake.

Cured at St. Anne.
Ottawa, Aug. 14.—Mrs. William Post of Hintonburg, a suburb of Ottawa, has been cured of lameness, and claims this as the result of one of the miracles at the famous shrine of St. Anne de Beauspre. She walked to St. Mary's Church Sunday without crutches for the first time this year.

Lost Bank Funds in Speculation.
Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 14.—Officials of the First National Bank yesterday announced that Alexander R. Chisholm, paying teller of that bank, is $100,000 short in his accounts. Chisholm says he lost the money in speculation. He is under 30.

Sudden Summons.
St. Thomas, Aug. 14.—Otto Nicol, proprietor of the Palace Restaurant of Rodney was at business late Saturday night. Shortly after retiring he complained of not feeling well and expired at once.

Henry Carscallen Ill.
Hamilton, Aug. 14.—The condition of Henry Carscallen, K. C., M. P. P., is causing his family serious alarm. He has consulted a specialist, who informed him that his condition was very serious.

ATTRACTIVE STYLES.
Handsome Embroidered Collar and Cuff Sets—Flower Stoles.
Turnover collars and cuffs embroidered by hand are still with us, and more beautiful than ever. The chief difference between those of the present and past seasons lies in the great depth of the cuff, which is adapted to the long, close sleeve, instead of the old time wristband. Offered in fine lawn and the finest linens, handsomely embroidered and inset with lace, are both these types of cuff. For the deep ones heavy linen is more practical than the very fine kind, which gets crumpled as soon as the cuffs are adjusted.
The latest accessory to smart dress is the stole made of flowers. Hitherto stoles have been seen in fur, crepe de chine and taffeta chiffon, but now the flower stole is all the craze. It is fashioned of silk, muslin, chiffon or fine silk and it is very lightly put together in the form of roses, daisies, buttercups, snowdrops or poppies. Between the flowers is an intervening arrangement of latticework, made of narrow satin ribbon of the same color as the flower. The edge is finished with a fringe of ribbon.

Some simple lingerie petticoats for morning wear are made of the favorite broderie anglaise, and are innocent of any supplementary frills. These are very economical from the laundry point of view, as they are not nearly so difficult to iron as the many frilled ones.
Veils seldom receive sufficient attention. Each time they are removed from a hat they should be pulled out and rolled up. The cardboard tubes which are used for sending photographs by post are excellent for this purpose, and many people cover these with wadding and again with silk, so that the veil may be pinned firmly when it has been stretched round it. Crumpled and limp veils may be successfully stiffened by dipping them in a little gum arabic and water.
Very smart is the pelierine ruche pictured. White chiffon ruffles edge the lace puffs, which in turn are finished with gathered black satin ribbon.

An Ancient Captain.
The columns of The London Times recently contained the announcement of the death at Longford, Tasmania, of Capt. Edward Dunderberg, in his 104th year. This officer, whose life was so extraordinarily prolonged, was invalided out of the Bombay army in 1827, after less than nine years' service. His nomination as a cadet by J. B. Taylor, a director of the East India Co., was dated Dec. 15, 1818; on the 30th of the same month he was appointed a lieutenant in the 5th Bombay Regiment, at the age of sixteen years and six months. He was promoted captain in September, 1826, and on April 25, 1827, was retired on a Lord Clive's fund pension, which he drew for seventy-nine years, less only a few days. The certified cause of death of this invalid of 1827, on April 23, 1904, was "weakness due to old age."

Greenland's Glory.
The largest mass of ice in the world is probably the one which fills up nearly the whole of the interior of Greenland, where it has accumulated, since before the dawn of history. It is believed now to form a block about 600,000 square miles and a half in thickness. According to these statistics, the lump of ice is larger in volume than the whole body of water in the Mediterranean, and there is enough of it to cover the whole of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland with a layer about seven miles thick.

Had Diarrhoea so bad he had to give up work.

HAVE YOU EVER BEEN IN THIS POSITION?

If you have not been, but ever do be, remember that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is nature's specific for all Bowel Complaints.

It has been on the market for 60 years. Surely this is reputation enough as to its efficacy.
Mr. Henry Voll, Carthage, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry with the best of results. Last summer I had the Diarrhoea so bad that I had to give up work. A friend of mine persuaded me to give Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry a trial, which I did, and can say that it cured me entirely. I can recommend it to all who are troubled with Diarrhoea."
Be sure and ask for Dr. Fowler's and take no substitute. All dealers sell it.

Prehistoric Canoe.
An ancient canoe, measuring 27 feet in length by 3 feet in width, has been found in a bog at Trehook, near Redhills, County Cavan. It was hollowed out of a trunk of oak, and contained a rudder and spaces for oars.

THE READY REMEDY.
When trouble after you doth chase,
Why, turn and stare her in the face
And smile.
And she will drive her from your sight;
A smile will fill her full of fright,
So smile.
When worry hastes after you
And dyes the world a sombre hue,
Just smile;
A grin will drive her far away.
So let your laughter muscles play
And smile.

INSATIABLE PLAYGOERS.
Curious Patrons of Theatres in "Dear Old London."

The managers and box-office keepers of London theatres tell strange stories of the eccentricities of their patrons.

A certain gentleman, for instance, has never missed a single performance at the Vaudeville theatre since the first day of "The Belle of Mayfair." The curious point about him is that he always takes two stalls, reserving one of them for his hat and coat. At Daly's theatre there is also a patron who for many weeks has never missed a performance, and has intimated that he wants the seat—in the dress circle—reserved until his leave of absence from his regiment in India expires.

At the Gaiety theatre there is a pit customer who, ever since the theatre was built, occupies the same corner each Friday night, and for some years before did the same thing at the old Gaiety. When the old Gaiety was in existence a man used to sit in the gallery every night until a certain lady in the company left to go on tour, when he, too, left to follow her silently round the country. Recently when she appeared at another London theatre for a short engagement this distant and devoted admirer appeared in the gallery. Another well-known patron of the play-houses is a tall, gaunt man who goes to every matinee of the newest musical comedy. He arrives without fail, and punctually at half-past four leaves the theatre and drives away in his carriage. This continues every week until another musical piece is produced, when at once he transfers his custom.

Last year during the Covent Garden opera season a colonial ex-Premier arrived one evening in ordinary walking costume, and when he found that evening dress was indispensable he borrowed a white tie from the management, and keeping on his overcoat took his seat. He went to the opera many times afterwards, and always insisted on borrowing the white tie.

Mr. Lewis Waller at the Imperial theatre had a misadventure that left his theatre half empty one Saturday night. Through carelessness the "House Full" boards were not taken away after the matinee, with the result that people arriving in the evening turned away and went elsewhere in search of amusement.

Morency is in the Toils.
Toronto, Aug. 10.—On the complaint of medical men and others, that certain individuals were taking orders for a family "Encyclopaedia of Health," called "Mediology," and representing that the medical faculty of Toronto endorsed the distribution of the book, which was false, W. W. Morency, the agent for the book, was yesterday arrested by Detective Sackett, and is being held on a nominal charge pending the investigation of his enterprise.

Wine Grand Handicap.
Hamilton, Aug. 10.—At the Dominion of Canada Shooting Association's tournament yesterday, W. P. Thompson, Hamilton, won the Grand Canadian Handicap of fifty targets with a score of 49. Harry Scane and W. Hewing had the high average of the day, each getting 190 out of 200.
