At a conference of the federated grocers' associations of England, which was recently held in Manchester, the following resolution was passed : "That all imported tinned meats, fish, and fruit should have the gross weight and tare with date of packing branded on the outside of each case." It would no doubt be a good idea to have the weight specified on each package. In the omission of this requirement from the Canadian canned goods law there is too much latitude for the play of price-cutting. The so-called two or three pound can is seldom of full weight, and those who are honest enough to put in the weight that is implicitly understood to be in the can are aware that they are giving more for the price than most of their competitors are. Often cans are two to three ounces short of the weight supposed to be in them. Our law punishes the packer who falsely represents the weight on his label, but does not require him to state the weight there. Two or three ounces of shortage on each of twenty thousand packages will balance a material cut in the price. If each packer were obliged to have a specified weight in each can, there would be general improvement in the quality of the pack, an improvement incidental to the care necessary to be exact in the weight. The packer is required to label his cans with his name. This was intended to establish a high standard of quality upon the basis of pride of reputation. But it did not do nearly what was expected in this regard. The name should now be made use of as a means of tracing home and punishing the use of bad material, slovenly processes or shortage in quantity, and if inspection were added, along with the obligation to mark weights on labels, there would be a speedy amendment in the conditions of trade in canned goods. The date on the label would be a doubtful improvement. It would often mislead people to prefer the worse goods, and no element should be introduced that would tend to discount quality. Coods that are hermetically sealed will usually open up as fresh and toothsome in five years as in the year they are packed. Suppose B a packer who puts up first class goods, and C a packer who puts up slop. If B's goods of 1891 are offered beside C's of 1892, the buyer will ignorantly choose the newer and worse goods ; thus merit and reputation are handicapped by the supposed effect of age. Again, the raw material of the newer goods may be inferior to that of the older goods. Take this year's peas, for example, and compare them with last year's. As a rule, the knowing trader who can get last year's goods prefers them, for the crop was much better on the average them this year's crop, and the canned product consequently nicer. That difference, and in fact all other differences, would tend to be effaced by a label noting the date. Our law imposes a penalty for putting a false date on the label, but otherwise says nothing about dates. The date is usually written in the condition of the label. Time fades all bright colors, and most labels are brightcolored. Time also causes rust to form on the cap, unless the goods are kept exceedingly free from moisture, so that it a new label be put on, the metal seldom is untarnished by a year or two of storage.

No. 49

A trader's methods and character are the ground-plan of his business. If he is a man of system he will rarely fail. A business may be very showy and excite the jealousy of rivals and yet be built on false lines. The collapse of such a business may be long delayed but it is usually inevitable. The bookkeeper is the architect, and defines the lines along which the merchant should construct. The importance of book-keeping can not be over-estimated. The trader whose books are in a slovenly state should not allow himself any peace of mind till he gets them tidied up, and gets himself into the habit of keeping them as near perfection as possible The schools of to-day are giving prominence to commercial education, and that is a hopeful sign for the future. They might do a good deal more than they have done for the present amendment of business. The schools bave not raised the standard of penmanship to a high average of excellence. The reason appears to be that writing is a subject of mere manual acquirement as distinct from intellectual. Teachers are prone to regard it as of comparatively inferior value. Yet they give attention to good oral expression, not merely to the structure of sentences, but to the neatness of pupils' articulation. Pure utterance and enunciation in spoken language are scarcely of more importance than clear delineation and legibility in writing. The first step towards good book-keeping is the acquirement of good handwriting. People should be able to read all memoranda of account without difficulty. Where they can not, they are apt to apply to writing Talley-rand's epigram on language, that its purpose is to conceal thought not to reveal it. * * *

Professor Robertson, professor of agriculture at the Experimental Farm, and Dominion dairy commissioner, has been at work for some time upon experiments in hog-feeding, the results of which have just been made known. The value of one of these results will be of most importance to Manitoba, the North West Territories and those other parts of the country in which frozen wheat is a source of loss. The experiments show that on frozen wheat fed to hogs in even the most unfavorable circumstances 43 1/4 c. per bushel can be realized. If the same feed is used in the most favorable circumstances, the return from frozen wheat used as hog-feed is equal to about 731/2c. a bushel. Both these calculations suppose the price of pork to be 5c. live weight. The value of this discovery can hardly be over-estimated, as it not only points out a very profitable way of disposing of frozen wheat, but it makes for the improvement in the pork raised in the country. The value of skim milk as hog feed was also brought out in Professor Robertson's investigations. His work is to be issued in the form of a bulletin, which should be in the hands of all farmers. The lean bacon nowadays in demand both for domestic and export trade is very generally produced, but the English consumers complain that pea-fed hogs yield too hard a lean. A study of the matter along the lines traced by Prof. Robertson would have a good effect upon our pork industry. *

The Patrons of Industry are not a flourishing order, but they are a deranging factor to trade in all localities where they get a toothold on their 121/2 per cent. basis. They injure less by their own force than by the reaction upon the whole local trade of that over eagerness for business which leads some merchants to become subject to them. It is not the strength of the Patrons, but the weakness of some few merchants that makes the mischief which is felt so largely by traders in all neighbourhoods where the Patrons exist. Like a few factious members of a legislative chamber that is pretty evenly divided between the two great parties, they hold the balance of power between contending traders, mainly, if not altogether, in virtue of the contention. It the trade would hold out unanimously in all Patron districts, it would be interesting to see how many lodges would have the enterprise to start stores of their own. There would be very few so thorough-going in their profit-paring scheme of economy to subscribe the necessary capital, and the few mistaken ones who should do so would not be likely to repeat the investment after a year or two's experience. Happily their faith is usually in inverse proportion to their affluence, so that those who most strongly cherish the idea of prosperity through the extinction of the retailer are least able to help along its realization, and those most able are least willing. If the Patrons give trouble anywhere, the cause of their power to do so is to be sought on the side of the merchants, where it will usually be found somebody has lacked spine to withstand them, orhas lacked customers to be independent of them and has become their liegeman.

The sentiment of the last meeting of the Toronto Retail Grocers' Association was strongly in favor of early closing. The members, with an experience of the working of trade agreements, had the prudence not to risk the spirit of reform by compressing its action within the strait wording of a resolution. Views were exchanged, and the unprofitableness of late hours was generally admitted. There are always night-hawks who hover about the streets after their neighbors have gone to bed, and whose prowling propensities the late closing traders encourage by waiting till midnight for custom. Night trade is more expensive now than it is during the summer. In summer the grocer gets, free of charge, all the heat and a good part of the light he wants. In winter he has to pay liberally for both. The trader, not the customer, is responsible for late business. Why do people not buy goods on Sunday? Is it because everybody regards such trade as sacrilegious? No, there are undoubtedly many people who would buy goods on Sunday if the shops were open. They don't buy, for the reason that the shops are not open. Yet we do not hear this class of people crying out against Sunday closing. In the same way, we should not hear the nighthawk customers crying out against the discontinuance of night trade. They would buy during the day time. Law, probably as much as reverence, is what restrains some traders from opening on Sunday. If law can keep down Sunday trading with such men, it could also keep down late hour trading, though it would not have the support of custom, which admittedly is powerful on the side of abstinence from trade on Sunday. But we should not go the length of approving such a law as was proposed tor this purpose in Quebec during the last session of the Legislature of that province. The quiet influence of example, which is the method of the Toronto Association, will do much to abolishlate hours in winter.

A word is always spoken in season when it is spoken in behalf of the delivery horse, but it is especially well-timed on the verge of winter. The grocer's horse is rarely the abused animal that the butcher's is, whether or not the difference is due to the tendency of the butcher's calling to quench the feeling of pity for the sufferings of dumb animals. The furious driving and lashing of butchers' delivery horses is a disgrace to this city, and a cause of hourly danger to people on the streets. But the occasion of the reference to delivery horses is the resolution passed by the Toronto Humane Society to make a strong appeal to drivers and owners of horses to blanket their horses while standing on the street, and to avoid as much as possible keeping their horses out after being driven. A former similar resolution was quite generally complied with, and it is to be hoped this one will be. The lite of a horse is shortened by neglect in cold weather more perhaps than by any other form of abuse he is subjected to by drivers. Masters should give strict instructions to their boys to blanket the horse, even if he is to be left but one minute standing in the cold. Complaints of abuse by drivers ought to be encouraged by masters.

The cutting of prices on woodenware is likely to work its own cure. It has been carried on until profits were beginning to disappear entirely, the price having been reduced in some cases 20 to 25 per cent. below the list. A common interest in putting an end to this senseless business brought the manufacturers together. They had a meeting on Monday, the result of which makes it likely that the authority of the list will be restored. The retailer is as mnch interested as the jobber in having the price put on a steady basis. There is no reason why full prices should not be obtained on all woodenware articles. If the manufacturers cut the price everybody else must, and surely the retail grocers do not want any addition to the cutting lines they now handle.

* * * The business tax, so odious to many of the merchants of the Province of Quebec, particularly to those in Montreal, will be collected this year, but the government holds out the hope that before another year the state of the provincial finances may warrant the repeal of the law enacting it. The arguments of the delegates that waited on the government demonstrated its injustice. It was shown that if merchants were to be taxed in proportion to the rental they pay, the ratio should be the same in all localities. According to the law as it is, the Ouebec merchant who pays an annual rental of $1,000 is taxed only $40, while the Montreal merchant, who is in the same position, is taxed $80, yet the probability is that the first is doing the larger business, as rents are always lower in smaller places. M. de Boucherville, premier of the province, in his published answer to the delegation which had waited upon him in reference to the tax, stated that the condition of affairs to which his ministry succeeded made it necessary that the business tax should be collected this year.

A preliminary meeting was held on Monday night in Richmond hall, Toronto, to further the interests of the early closing movement. It was resolved that a special meeting for the election of officers should be held on Tuesday, December 13th. The object of the movement is to induce all retail merchants to close their respective establishments each evening of the week at 6 o'clock throughout the year. Judged by the sympathy already shown by the purchasing public, the success of the movement is ensured. The movement includes all classes of merchants, and in that has a fair promise of effecting the purpose aimed at.

The tobacco trade is a ticklish one nowadays. It is hedged round by laws whose faithful ministers exercise unsleeping vigilance. The city of Toronto has a by-law fixing a license fee, and the city license inspector jealously watches over its working so that none shall violate it. Another city by-law forbids by severe penalties the sale of cigars, cigarettes or tobacco to children under the age of 14 years. This law has likewise its lynx-eyed guardians. The province of Ontario has a law which enacts that no young person below 18 years of age shall be a safe person to sell or give tobacco to, as the dealer who should fill such a minor's order for tobacco, cigars or cigarettes, is subject to a stiff punishment by a fine or imprisonment orboth. Provincial license inspectors uphold the majesty of this law. Then no man must have a package of cigars, cigarettes or tobacco in his possession without the inland revenue stamp upon it. This is a Dominion law, and inlands revenue officials see that every transgression of it is made an example of. On Monday, W. A. Doherty, a tobacconist on Yonge St., in this city, was fined $50 because he offered contraband cigars for sale. Oscar Duck, a cigar merchant, was also fined $10 in the Toronto Police Court the same day, because he sold cigarettes to a boy 13 years of age. Several dealers have been excused on account of their ignorance of this law, but now prosecutions will be carried to their issue. Grocers, be on your guard.

LARGE TURNOVER OF RAISINS.

The actual movement of trade in groceries in Montreal has been quiet during the week, but there have been some wholesale turnovers of Valencia raisins, the circumstances of which are sufficiently interesting to deserve special comment. Readers of THE GROCER will remember that a fortnight ago attention was called to the uncertainty that existed among some Montreal importers regarding supples of Valencias which had heen sold them. They were disappointed in not receiving them by the last direct steamer from Spain, and since that time very little change has occurred in the situation until Wednesday of last week, when the news was sent abroad that a round lot was coming via New York. They arrived in due course, but instead of the large quantity that some jobbers were urgently wishing for, only 7000 boxes were available, or about one quarter of what was anticipated. However, despite this, lower offers were made than what the holders in Montreal of good merchantable fruit were asking, and this created an unsettled feeling for a day or so. The rapidity with which the stock offered was absorbed however soon dispelled this, and the market immediately resumed its firm tone, so that as a matter of fact no change in current prices was actually established. There were occurrences also which favored the inference that some of the offerings at the lower figures could not have been very select, for a round quantity of the stock which has been held for some time was given the preference. The mere fact of the lower offers being made, however, brightened up things materially, inasmuch as it led to some slight concession on the part of one holder, who closed out his entire lot at within a fraction of 5c. with some at 51/8c. This large sale led to others, and since it another large holder has practically sold out to jobbers at his own figures. The aggregate quantity of these turnovers is not very large, but is important, owing to the exceptionally bare condition of the market. The recent sales are approximated at 10,000 or 12,000 boxes, and this practically closes up all the present supplies here except what is in jobbers, hands, which of course is wanted. The manner in which the latter have absorbed supplies recently makes it patent that they are urgently required, and the prospects of buyers obtaining better bargains by holding off are very slim indeed. Advices from primary markets are firm. Cables to Denia for additional stock to come via New York have in many instances met with no response in the way of sales, the answer being that the unsold supply is reduced to small proportions, and that firstclass brands are difficult to obtain. Some dealers hope that a surplus may develop on the London market, as England has been an unusually large buyer this fall, in which case additional supplies might be obtainable from there. But, on the whole, the statistical position is strong, and the impression general that prices will rule higher instead of lower.

GROCERS AND LENTEN OBSERVANCE.

An outsider would no doubt be surprised to hear that wholesale grocers in Montreal are very anxious about the question of Lenten observances, and the duration of the period of fast that is to be prescribed by the Roman Catholic religious authorities. But this, like everything else in the highly complicated system of civilization that we enjoy, is only another illustration of how sympathetic one thing is with another. During the past two years, owing to special circumstances, the Lenten period was shortened by the ecclesiastical authorities. The trade contend that the suddenness with which this was determined on, was the cause of considerable inconvenience and loss to them. Accordingly, this year the French wholesale grocers decided to try and avoid it if possible. The matter was brought up before the French Chamber of Commerce last week and fully discussed, and it was resolved that a committee composed of Messrs. Geoffrion (Chaput, Fils & Co.), Laporte (Laporte, Martin & Co.), and Mr. Cote, Secretary of the Board, should wait upon Archbishop Fabre and endeavor to obtain something definite about the matter.

With regard to the exact effect on business. THE GROCER correspondent learned that the demand for fish led to a good deal of incidental business in other lines. It was in this connection that the trade felt any change the most, for, though they did not make much profit on fish, a buyer generally ordered something else with it. During the last two seasons, however, supplies of fish had been provided far ahead in the expectation of the usual period of observance, and a considerable quantity had to be carried over in consequence of the change, and eventually parted with at a loss or on a very narrow margin, considering the cost of storage, interest, etc. The trade hope this season, if at all possible, to operate on a more definite basis, especially as the fish market rules remarkably firm, while the scarcity and high price of potatoes in the Province of Quebec are likely to curtail the actual consumption of fish, even if the usual forty days fast is observed.

The committee waited upon his grace on Monday evening. They were courteously received, and after laying the circumstances of last season's trade before him the Archbishop gave them to understand that ample notice would be given before the opening of Lent as to what course the Church should take for its observance in the matter of fasting.

Inspector Awde the other day confiscated 24 cases of finnan haddies offered for sale in Toronto, and caused them to be destroyed as unfit for food.

THE PERSONALTY TAX.

Enough has been written concerning this pernicious municipal tax to supply a student with five years reading, but still it is with us. The cities of the United States have been trying to free themselves from it, but with only moderate success. In Canada, the leading cities from Halifax to Victoria have labored with the problem ; but still the oppressive and imquitous tax is used by our municipalities. The rulers of this country are too conservative altogether. The fathers of the municipality think that what was good enough for the grandfathers is good enough for the grandsons. In fact they find this problem too heavy for them, and for fear of making new mistakes, they retain the mistakes of the past. This is a nice rule of thumb, but it is exceedingly disastrous to the welfare and morals of the community.

Equality should be apparent in all systems of taxation, but it is not one of the results of the personal property tax. Part of a community's personal property cannot be found by even the shrewdest assessors; and when part cannot be found, the part that is found bears its own share, and the share of the unfound part. For example, suppose a municipality tried to tax a man on his bank deposits—does any sane man think those deposits would be there, when the assessor came to examine the books. They would be withdrawn. Theoretically they are taxable in Ontario; practically they are exempt.

Moreover, a personal property tax is inexpedient. It drives moveable property away from the municipalities which impose the tax most thoroughly. Now in cities, the value of real estate depends altogether upon the accumulation or personal preperty upon it; and to drive away this moveable property is to create in this way, a double loss in assessable property.

Some forms of personal property are already exempt, and thus the burden falls more heavily on the other classes. For example, in Toronto all machinery in actual use for manufacture is now exempt, by a bylaw.

But the greatest and gravest objection is the fact that a man must perjure himself or pay more than his share of taxation. Suppose you have two men doing business with $50,000 capital, mostly in form of merchandise, one claims that his debts are so great that he is worth almost nothing, and he gets off with an assessment of $5,000. Many men make such a statement who have few or no debts but do it to escape taxation. The other, being more honest admits a net worth of $50,000 and is taxed on that. He pays ten times as much taxes as the other, and perhaps makes less profit. Tax debts as well-that is make no deduction for them, and the assessment is unfair and double taxation results. Exempt debts, and fictitious debts are created with a view to escaping taxation.

There is a strong idea abroad that a man who is engaged in commerce should pay full taxes. These men are the bone and sinew of our country, and their burdens should be lightened. In Toronto the merchants are suffering very much, as they pay the double share in many cases, due to faulty assessments; and then this double share is again doubled by reason of the exemptions of other classes.

Now the personalty tax should be done away with for the above and other reasons. A tax on realty is better because realty is visible, easily valued, and permanent in location; it derives an increased value from public security and public works; and it is a permanent source of revenue. A personalty tax might work fairly as a Dominion tax, but it is useless as a municipal tax.

The Dry Goods Section of the Board of Trade are about to ask the provincial government to appoint a commission to investigate the subject. This is the least it could do towards learning truth. The dry goods merchants of this city are well knowledged in this matter and know whereof they speak. The most indefatigable worker for this reform is Mr. Paul Campbell, of Jno. Macdonald & Co.; but the movement has the sympathy of nearly all the leading merchants and other public men of the city.

A BUSINESS GUIDE.

Mr. C. C. Fleming, of Owen Sound, a member of the Institute of Chartered Accounts of Ontario and the author of several works, has issued a book, entitled Expert book-keeping, an advanced work in connection with this subject, which has never been treated by any other writes in as special a manner. It deals almost entirely with the formation, incorporation, and book-keeping, of joint stock and loan societies, churches, partnerships, auditing, investments, municipal book-keeping, etc. It contains both the Dominion and the Provincial laws relating to corporations. Besides this it contains a great deal of information which is valuable and useful for all kinds of book-keepers and business men. It will be of special benefit to officers, shareholders, etc., of all classes of incorporated concerns, as well as to students of the advanced branches of book-keeping. The author has treated his subject in a clear yet exhaustive manner, and has produced a classic work on this subject. The book is elegantly gotten up and contains 337 pages.

From early morn to late at night, Commercial man with grip in hand, Always seen in dark and light

In every town that's in the land. His calling it is honorable,

His goods are just and true, His business is to sell his wares.

That suit both triend and foe.

The traveller he's no boaster, With samples in his hand, You can see and them examine,

As they bear the latest brand.

No spurious goods are entered In his confidental guide; All wares are recommended, Which he carries by his side.

He toils both late and early, In justice to his house ;

And often shares but sparely, For kindness—often sauce.

Meet him on that crowded train, His politeness there you see ;

Will oft vacate his only seat For any lady there may be.

He's jovial, though wanting rest, A pleasant word for short or tall; The commercial man he is the best,

That shows his samples all.

He may have faults—all mortals have ; But his goods are from the firm :

The house it is responsible For his representative charm.

If any fault is found with goods, Or fault with the agent's say; You address the house at once, And have it fixed just right away.

For the agent is but human,

Like all mortals in the race; His duty it is honorable,

He seeks no other place.

Lucknow, Ont.

His day may be cold and dreary, His path through life quite hard ;

But he's always happy, cheery, For in Heaven is his reward.

Of late years a use has been found for the bog lands in Aylesford, N. S. Large areas have been stripped of turf, covered with sand and planted with cranberries. Over one hundred acres have been planted thus in the township of Aylesford. One company owns 25 acres, and private individuals have as high as twelve acres. If possible the patch is flooded every year. But beyond this there is little labor after the vines have once been set out. The yield is immense, one hundred barrels to the acre being only a moderate return. The price received is six or seven dollars per barrel. So it is easy to make an acre bring $600.

Gowans Kent & Co. are offering job lots of lamps in many varieties and styles. They get up packages of them well assorted and just suited for the Christmas and winter trade. If you are in need of a line of lamps you would do well to write them.

The by-law relating to the sale of apples by barrels says: "A barrel for apples must be as near cylindrical as possible, having staves 27 inches from croe to croe—that is the inside measurement from head to head, and heads 16½ to 17 inches, according to the barrels being cylindrical or otherwise." Inspector Awde says the barrels frequently offered for sale contain from half a peck to a peck and a half short measure. Why are not the vendors summoned to the Police Court and fined for the fraud?

The Guelph Herald says a young man is canvassing the city just now for a London tea firm. He has made himself very obnoxious to several ladies on whom he has called, the only means by which they can get rid of him being to give him an order. He is very cheeky and deserves to have the door shut in his face.

A New Orleans report says that several moderate-sized lots of rough rice have been sold for export to Germany, and will be shipped at once. The firm of Betts & Gwynne, Prince Albert, N. W. T., proprietors of Buffalo Hall, have a novel way of writing their advertisements in The Saskat.hewan Times, of that town. In the advertisement in question appears a clipping from THE CANADIAN GRO-CER in regard to Boulter's canned goods. The idea is a good one, and will of course be effective in informing the consumers of the value of Boulter's goods.

A new grocery store has been opened in Berlin, Ont, by two very promising young men, both of whose names appear in the trading style of the firm they have formed, namely, Steiss & Good. Mr. Steiss was with Randall & Roos, wholesale grocers, Berlin, and Mr. Good was with Dunke & Co. of the same town. They thus unite knowledge of the wholesale trade with knowledge of the retail trade, and both being live, progressive men they have a good prospect before them. They have a beautiful store, they carry the highest grades of fancy groceries, as well as staples, and they are situated in the heart of the town, next door to the American Hotel.

Hugh Malcolmson & Co., Chatham, Ont., do a flourishing business both in the grocery and crockery trade in that town. Their crockery hall is managed by a son of Mr. Malcolmson, another son manages the company's extensive grocery business, a business in which select goods play an important part. The company is well known by the excellence of its canned goods and pickles, which it manufactures under the style The Kent Canning & Pickling Co.

N. D. Galbreaith, Hamilton, is a grocer who keeps in the very fore-front of progress. He does what may be truly described as a refined business, and does it by refined means. Just now his store is a most inviting place for the lady weary with shopping to drop into. There, on a table covered with a faultless table-cloth, are laid out the samples of the most tempting delicasies jellies, canned goods, Burnham's goods, etc., etc., with elegant table ware, such as silver spoons, for the use of samplers. The lady customers are provided with easy chairs, and on every Saturday can test Mr. Galbreaith's fancy groceries, a line in which his stock is always exceptionally full, choice and varied. Three young ladies wait on these tables.

Stroud Bros., Ottawa, are doing a good business in a line of black tea they are putting on the market. They are pushing its sale by means of a poster which bears an enlarged fac-simile of the label and package. This poster is printed on paper made by the E. B. Eddy Co., and covers six sheets of it. The following is copied from a circular now being issued by the firm and speaks for itself : This blend of tea is the result of a long study of one of the most experienced tea testers. The tea trade of to-day is a study of itself, and to get the best results for the least money has been our object. This tea we have packed and offer to the public in one pound and half pound lead packages. Thus the tea is always fresh. If your grocer does not keep it you can procure it at any of our stores.

FANCY GOODS

The latter half of last week showed considerable improvement in the movement of cold weather goods. This week has again been quieter. Still, everything considered, trade is very good, but, of course, nothing like it would be if colder weather would set in.

Letter orders continue numerous and satisfactory, but payments are not any better than they should be.

There is quite a, struggle for holinovelties, and enquiries for the latest importations are numerous. Orders are not bulky for this class of goods, but varied and numerous.

The rise of Kerr's 200 yard six-cord spool cotton from $3.20 to $3.50 has created a feeling that other brands will follow, and consequently prices are very firm.

Raw cotton keeps steadily upward and this will have a stiffening effect on manufactured cottons of all kinds. Since last December the price has risen three cents per pound. This will sooner or later have a strong effect on prices here.

NOTES.

Messrs Alexander and Anderson are showing a full range of navy estimaines and heavy navy diagonals, also diagonals in the new fashionable green. This new shade is very fashoniable at present in England, and, being a shade of bronze green, is very pleasing. It looks extremely well in diagonal dress serges. Stock taking is in full blast in this house, and special offers in job lots and remnants are being cleared out at reduced prices.

Messrs. Gordon Mackay & Co. are offering a special low line of domestic wool hose in ladies sizes. This is a special line they are running out in order to clear. Other job lines are numerous in hosiery, underwear and gloves. In their dress goods department they report tartans selling extremely well, and also all shades of greens. Greens sell well in the city, and in all other places which lie anywhere near the border of the United States, as there the color is in strong demand in all kinds of dress goods.

Caldecott, Burton & Spence are offering certain lines of silk dress trimmings at extremely low prices to clear. These are new goods, but are broken lots, and must be cleaned out. At rpesent they are doing a nice trade in silks genererally, especially in lighter shades for evening wear, and for fancy goods manufacture. They report very hopefully concerning spring orders. They are numerous and bulky. Stock-taking is keeping all hands busy at present.

Wyld, Grasett & Darling are showing special drives in ladies wool hosiery and underwear. One particular line of ladies' underwear is being cleared out at a low price, and for this particular price the quality is much better than is usually offered by any wholesale house. In a few days they will open up a shipment of novelties in laces and veilings. These are scarce goods, and already heavy advance orders have been received from city dealers. In their imported woollen department they are offering broken lots at prices which must tempt buyers. All the goods here are of best quality and no doubt will be rapidly cleared. John Macdonald & Co. have just passed into stock a shipment of new daisy ball cotton fringe. This is something extremely nice for trimming the new art muslins and silks. There is also to hand a repeat delivery of fourhole and shank large smoked and white pearl buttons. The demand for these goods is still very active. In silk and satin pompoms, tassels and chenille cords they have very full lines at present. In fact they are always able to fill orders for any color or quantity. They are showing new stocks of cashmere mufflers in plain white, spots and dark fancies. To-day they open up ten cases of the latest English neckwear, which have been arranged for to meet their holiday demand; and also two cases of novelties in umbrellas in silver and other handles suitable for presentation goods. In smoking jackets and dressing gowns some very new and choice things are shown. These novelties are to be seen in the travelling rug section of the haberdushery department.

A LIVING EXAMPLE OF WHAT PURE GROCERIES WILL DO.

It is necessary that the window be made attractive if the merchant desires to secure the patronage of the public, and it is a recognized fact that the window as an adver-tising medium is of the utmost importance to all classes of trade. Perhaps the grocer has the greatest variety of goods suitable for the work, but the object is to have an attractive design of some original idea. The town of Peterboro' has the reputation of being one of the most enterprising, both as to window displayand the interior arrangement of the store, where there has been the greatest rivalry between its grocers. Brown Bros., grocers, wine and liquor merchants, of that town conceived the idea of having a hving example of the purity and excellence of their goods. On Saturday, Nov 19, that firm exhibited in one window the healthy and robust person of W. Brisbin, flour and feed merchant, seated in a luxuriously upholstered easy chair, he being one of Peterboro's best known and most popular business men. In the opposite window Alex. Trotter, a local giant six feet ten inches in height, stood, while a broad smile adorned his face. Brown Bros. are "live" business men, and very ap propriately employed a live business man like Mr. Brisbin to attract attention, but his presence there was the result of a bluff made by Mr. Brown that he would not sit in the window for a certain sum of money. It is not necessary to state that it attracted a crowd, for all day long the sidewalk in front of the store was thronged with spectators gazing into the window.

TORONTO MARKETS. TORONTO, Dec. 1, 1892.

GROCERIES.

There is less satisfaction with trade this week than there was last. In the first place there is not as much of it. Buyers are taking a breathing spell between the regular fall and special Christmas trade. They still send in orders but not with a free hand. In the next place, profits are being melted away in the heat of stiff competition. The shading of prices is now a very common feature. It extends to nearly everything that is in demand at the moment. If it does not take the form of a cut on former prices, it takes that of disregard of outside advance. Travellers are far from importunate in their efforts to sell sugar. That commodity they take orders for rather than solicit them. All the selling energy that was formerly expended on this great staple is consequently trans-ferred to other goods. The effect of this is that with so many salesmen trying so hard to sell the same descriptions of goods, prices are strained severely, and the profit is apt to get nipped off. The wholesale grocers are not making as much money as they did eighteen months ago. Payments are complained of as being backward as well. The demand for Christmas lines is just beginning. Inquiries for truits, nuts, peels and spices are cropping up in all quarters. Newcrop walnuts are to hand, a second shipment of dates is coming in.

COFFEES.

The stiff advance in coffee which the accumulated gains of the past month amount to has had the effect of curtailing business, and the finer coffees are reported to be rather neglected. Retailers are not eager to buy the commoner grades either, when prices are 2 to $2\frac{1}{2}$ cents higher than those they paid in October. Rios were obtainable at $17\frac{1}{2}$ c. up till the close of that month, but are firm now at 20c. for the lowest grades in stock here. The market is still vigorous at the main centres and may be equal to the addition of aother fraction.

DRIED FRUITS

Dried fruit is the centre of interest just Buying is collecting itself for its Christmas effort. In some lines indeed a good trade has already been done. This is rather due to the interest always attaching to new arrivals than to any hurry on the part of the demand to take time by the forelock for Christmas supplies. The goods most favored are those just to hand, new walnuts and prunes. The call for the latter has been keen since their receipt, in fact a good budget of orders was held by each house await-ing arrival of the goods. Walnuts were likewise freely ordered to arrive. Grenobles, Marbots and Cahors are in the stocks of the majority of the houses on the streets. The price of Grenobles is 15c. in bales and 16c. in broken lots. Marbots are 13c., Cohars 12½c. New Sicily filberts are likewise to hand, and are quoted at 10 to 11c. New Sphinx prunes are offered at 8¼ to 8½c. In Valencia raisins the demand continues steady as well as the price. A circumstance supposed to be weakening in its action upon the latter is the break in the combine among California packers, which would sharpen the competition Valencias would meet at New York. This effect has not yet appeared. The lowest price openly quoted here is 5 1/2 c. Valencia layers are being quite freely bought at 7 to 7 1/2 c. Malaga raisins are moving out steadily at the same price as was going last week, though there are some grades of lower quality offered at from 25 to 40c. below those quoted for the best, the best being held as follows: \$2.75 to \$3 for London layers, \$4 for black baskets, \$4.50 to \$4.75 for blue baskets, \$4 for Connoisseur clusters, \$4 50 to \$4.75 for extra desserts, \$1.25 for quarter boxes of black baskets, \$1.50 for quarters of blue baskets, \$1.25 for quarter boxes of X L clusters, \$1.50 for quarter boxes extra dessert. There is no change in figs, Malagas being $6\frac{1}{2}$ c. in 25lb. boxes, $4\frac{1}{2}$ to 5c in mats, while natural in bags are also $4\frac{1}{2}$ to 5c. The lowest price yet quoted for dates is 61/2c. A shipment via Liverpool is expected to arrive by the beginning of the week. Peel is moving out steadily at 16c. for lemon, 18c. for orange, 30c. for citron.

THE CANADIAN GROCER

RICE, SPICES, ETC.

Rice is seldom called for now. An order comes in as an item in mixed invoices, but rice is plainly in its off-season. Common quotes from 31/2 to 4c., Japan at 5 to 51/2c.

Spices have all the trade they are now entitled to. They are in a better position than they were two months ago. Pepper and cloves show a still further upward tendency, but no advance has been made since last week. Our Prices Current show the quotations as they are now held.

SUGAR.

In talks with wholesalers about the market there is nothingmore significant than their silence on this subject. Everything else comes up but that, it seems to be kept in the back ground. The interest does not crowd around it as it used to do at this time of year when wholesalers' profits were assured. There is no money in it at present prices, which remain at last week's quotations, namely, 45%c. for granulated and from 35%c. upwards for yellow. If people bought very freely of sugar there would probably be little note taken of the business by sellers, as they look now to other lines for profit. The position of the raw market does not change in favor of buyers. The incoming of the Louisiana cane crop was expected to make the Trust in the United States independent of the holders of Cuba sugar, but it turns out that Cuba sugar is quite firm and that Trust refiners are paying holders' prices. Hence there is no general weakening in the price of material, and Canadian refiners are still quoting as they have been for several weeks. Retailers' orders keep the movement of sugar steady, but it is expected they will come in with stronger force in a week or two.

SYRUPS AND MOLASSES.

In this department there is an absence of new features. Syrups are not in very strong request, but they are more active than they were some time ago. The quotation is from 21/2c. upwards for Canadian, and from 13/4c. upwards for United States goods. Molasses for baking purposes is beginning to receive tresh attention. The grades wanted are of medium quality, fine table grades being as little in request as very low ones. New Orleans quotes at 26 to 52c., West Indies at from 30c. upwards.

TEAS.

Though declining from the active state in which it was last month, the tea trade is etill (Continued on page 16.)

CANNED GOODS.

TORONTO.

The sales of canned vegetables are still limited to present wants, and therefore do not loom up big in current business. Prices remain at 85c to $1. The grocers who make a specialty of fine goods are not averse to paying comparatively good prices for the best brands, but they will not venture into supplies to cover future wants. Salmon is quiet at from $1.43 upwards. All other lines are quiet and unchanged.

MONTREAL.

The jobbing trade in canned goods is not large, but report has it that some sound lots of held stock have recently been moved from first hands. There is no change in prices to mention.

of considerable vnlume. The fruit trade absorbs so much of the interest of buyers that all other staples must for the time being suffer more or less neglect. Brokers report business with the wholesalers quiet. The tea trade is being pushed vigorously, how-ever, by the wholesalers. It occupies an important place in the grocery business, the aim being to sell it at prices that will give a liberal profit, the more so as sugar has ceased to be remunerative. Hence jobbers buy as closely as they can, and in spite of the firmness of prices brokers find it hard to push business without giving concessions. The tea trade with city retailers is specially contested, there being usually more than one traveller to figure on every order that tendered. The market is steady in the strong position it has held in all teas for some time.

MARKET NOTES.

[Importers, wholesale merchants and manufacturers should send any items intended for this department so that they may reach the head office not later than Wednesday morning. The editor will always welcome such information.]

Valencia oranges will be here next week.

Tee second shipment of Hallowee dates via Liverpool is on the way.

Smith & Keighley are offering new Sphinx prunes at prices favorable to buyers.

J. W. Lang & Co. shipped a carload of goods to Vancouver, B.C., on Tuesday.

Evaporated apricots are not the low-priced fruit they were this time last year. They now quote at 19 to 20c.

Clam Broth made from Burnham's Clam Bouillon is delicious. It gives one a pleasant recollection of the sea shore.

W. T. Harris, Chatham, N. B., dealer in general merchandise, offers 200 cases canned lobsters, also dried cod of finest quality.

Valencia layer raisins are becoming quite scarce. It is remarked that the demand for these has been on the increase every year for some time back.

Several small lines of low grade Japans have been cleared out this week to the retail trade at 15c., which is less than they can be replaced for to-day.

English holders have sold canned salmon to go to New York at a shade under current prices there, though it has had no perceptible effect on that market.

Eby, Blain & Co. are offering one and five star new Sphinx prunes, superior grades of that brand. These are the first of the new crop to reach this market.

The greater part of the shipment of new Sphinx prunes received this week by Perkins, Ince & Co. was immediately turned over to customers whose orders were awaiting it.

J. W. Lang & Co. have a full line of Christmas fruits, nuts, etc., and are prepared to place them at prices attractive to the buyer.

It is surprising to note the large demand for Burnham's Clam Bouillon in all parts of the country, considering the comparatively short time it has been on the market. It speaks well of the merits af the article.

Warren Bros. & Boomer report the arrival of new Chili walnuts, which they offer at 11c; Bordeaux at 12 to 12½c.; Marbots, 13 to 13½c., and Grenoble 15 to 16c.; Formigetta almonds, 15c.; Taragona, 16 to 17c.

The stock of raisins in bonded warehouses in Great Britain is still heavy. The Board of Trade returns show a total of 9,816 tons on October 31, 1892, against 3,273 at the corresponding period last year, and 7,173 tons two years ago.

Importations of currants into Great Britain during the 10 months ending October 31, 1892, amounted to 41,533 tons, against 51,137 tons during the corresponding period last year, and 38,639 tons in 1890. Of stock in bond there is 22,520 tons, against 13,938 tons two years ago.

Previously it had been stated that supplies at that point were exhausted, and the amount now reported lost naturally excites some comment, but has had no noticeable effect upon the marbet

Sloan & Crowther received the other day a shipment of "Nova Scotia turkey" otherwise choice codfish. The shipment comprised 159 crates, in each crate 12 boxes, each box containing 5 one-pound rolls. Along with 30 barrels of herring the lot made up a carload. The demand was ripe for the goods when they arrived, and the greater portion of the shipment is now in retailers' hands.

Davidson & Hay are fully stocked with new Grenoble, Cahors and Marbot walnuts and Sicily filberts for the Christmas trade.

Having filled all their orders for the Eastern provinces and Manitoba, the manufacturess of the Diamond Baking Powder are now in a position to fill all local orders promptly. The rapid increase in the sale of this powder is something remarkable. All live grocers who have not already tried it should do so at once.

The Pure Gold Mfg. Co have done an uncommonly active trade this season in lemon and citron peel. Their sales were so large that three weeks ago they refused further orders for delivery before Christmas, and are now tasked to the utmost to fill those on their books. Next year they will make an earlier start upon their Christmas business. They are also going into the manufacture of orange peel as well next year.

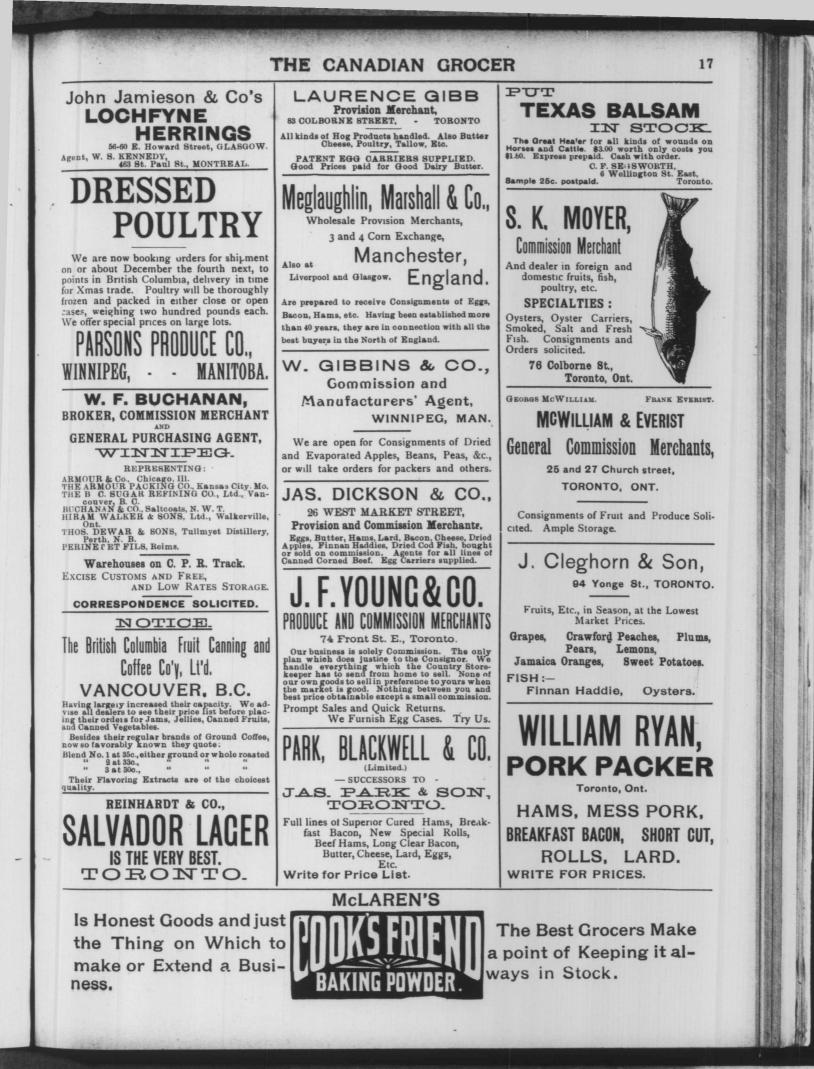

PETROLEUM.

There is no change in prices on this market, the basis remaining 14 to $14\frac{1}{2}c$ the quotation for Canadian.

BUTTER AND CHEESE.

The tendency towards greater ease in the butter market has develoved no further than it was traced last week in our report. That tendency has not only been arrested, but it has been turned back a short distance, and now prices, while hardly so good as they were two weeks ago, are still close to quota-tions. The character of the supply has un-dergone a change, large rolls now beginning to predominate. They arrive in boxes and are freely taken at 16 to 181/2c. Good dairy tub now and then touches 19c, or even a cent better, in exceptional cases, but the price takes a dip down to 16c for butter still in the category of good. This range is in-structive, as it indicates the nature of the selection that will be made for butter that is deemed acceptable at 19c. Store tubs are worth from 15 to 18c, according to quality. The supply of all classes of butter, expected to increase greatly in such good shipping weather, is still rather limited.

The price of cheese shows no inclination downward, but rather a hardening tendency. Sales have been made at the 10% c for large round lots. The jobbing price is very firm at IIC.

COUNTRY PRODUCE. BEANS--Are somewhat firmer, quoting from $1.25 to $1.35 for ordinary jobbing parcels.

DRIED APPLES-The price is no better, trade lots being jobbed at 4¹/₂ to 4³/₄ c., with buyers reluctant to give 4¹/₄ c. outside.

EVAPORATED APPLES—Are quiet at 6 to 6¼ c. outside. Re-sales in medium lots at 634 10 7C.

EGGS—Fresh eggs are now in free de-mand at 18c., with limed also finding ready purchase at 15 to 15½c. HONEY—This commodity appears to be incapable of improvement, dulness still being its most prominent property. Extracted is 8 to Ioc., sections are 13 to 15c.

HOPS-The price has taken a stronger tone in conformity with holders' views, and now 1892 stock is 18 to 20c. Yearling are scarce at 12 to 15c.

ONIONS-The price is quite firm at $2.25 to $2.50 per barrel.

DRESSED POULTRY-The delivery outruns the demand, which has not yet got well opened up. Prices are therefore easier. Turkeys are 8 to 9½c., geese 5½ to 6c., chickens 30 to 45c., ducks 40 to 65c.

HOGS AND PROVISIONS. The price of hogs goes up, contrary to the expectation of packers The better prices have been attended by larger receipts. The best descriptions have brought $6.50 to $6.60, and there is a smaller proportion of the deliveries either too heavy or too light. Products are unchanged.

BACON-Long clear is 8 to 8 1/4 c. Smoked backs are 111/2 to 12c., bellies 121/2., rolls 9 to 9½C.

HAMS-Are II to II 1/2 c.

LARD-Pure Canadian is 10c. in tubs, and 10¼ c. in pails. Compound is 8 to 9c. BARREL PORK-U.S. heavy mess is $14.50 to $15.50. Canadian short cut is $17.

DRESSED MEATS-Beef fores are 3 to 4 1/2 c. hindquarters 5 to 61/2 c., veal 61/2 to Sc., mutton 5 to 6c., lamb 6c. GREEN FRUIT.

Jamaica oranges are about done. They are nominal at $8 per barrel, $4 per box. Floridas are easier at $3.50 to $4 per box. Malaga lemons are $4 to $4.50, Messinas $4.50 to $5. Oranges have not yet got into their usual December movement. Valencias will be in next week. Almeria grapes are $7.50 to $8. Bananas are $1.50 to $1.75 and scarce. Cranberries are $8.50 to $9 for Cape Cod fruit, and $7 to $7.50 for North Shore. Apples range from $1.50 to $2.75. Pineapples are 20c. Sweet potatoes are about done at $5. FISH AND OYSTERS. The demand for fish is moderately good.

Frozen white fish and salmon trout are un-changed at $7\frac{1}{2}$ c. There are a few lake her-ring at \$2.50. A car of white arrived on Tuesday from Lake Winnipeg. Sea cod is 71/2 c., haddock 5c., B. C. salmon 16c. Of cured fish, Labrador herring is \$6, shore herring \$5 to \$5.50, and Digby 11 to 124c. per lb., boneless fish is 4c., boneless cod is 7 to 8c. Oysters are \$1.25.

HIDES, SKINS, WOOL, TALLOW.

The market is steady and unchanged in everything but sheepskins, which advanced 5c. on Thursday.

HIDES.—No. I green cows' are still quoted at 4½c. Cured are moving out at 5c. in car lots.

SKINS-Sheepskins are 90c. Calfskins are quiet at 5 to 7c.

WOOL—Combing fleeces are 17c., clothing fleeces 19 to 20c. The market is very dull. In pulled wool prices remain at 22c. for super and 26c. for extra.

TALLOW-Is quiet at 53/c. for rendered and 2c. for rough.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

MONTREAL, Dec. 1, 1892.

GROCERIES. The actual demand for groceries this week from retailers has not been large, but the jobbers have been operating in some lines showing an anticipation of more activity. This has been the case notably with dried fruits, some large turnovers of Valencia raisins from first hands being to note during the week and although other lines are quiet values all round are firm. In fact once the winter roads are established jobbers look for a sensible increase in business and in the meantime are content to wait as they say they have nothing to complain about in their fall trade, which was quite up to the avarage. In the matter of payments returns are good also and travellers on the whole may be summed up as satisfactory.

SUGAR.

The raw sugar market continues firm and refineries here have their prices on which they will concede nothing, and they claim to be booking fair orders for delivery in the near future at them. Actual business, how-ever, on spot is moderate, but it is understood that some jobbers are selling still on very close margins. We quote current prices at $4\frac{1}{2}c$. for granulated and $3\frac{3}{8}$ to 4c. from the refineries.

SYRUPS.

There were some purchases of a few round lots of syrups between operators on the market toward the close of last week which imparted a momentary activity to the situation, but the regular demand is quiet and prices are about the same at 134 to 178c.

Some round lots of molasses were turned over also during the week at 31 ½ c., but the circumstances were special and it cannot be said that the market is active on account of any sustained enquiry. We quote Barbadoes 31 1/2 to 32c. for wholesale lots.

TEAS

Nothing specially interesting has trans-pired in tea during the week, but the firm tone of the market is fully sustained. A moderate movement in Japans and blacks is going on in a small way sufficient to demonstrate this fact, low grades having the special call. Cable advices from London state that there are no low grade blacks to be had at all under 51/2 to 6d.

COFFEES.

FLOUR AND FEED.

TORONTO.

The price of flour has shown no tendency to improve. Business goes on, but is not free, being most active in special brands. Prices remain at last week's basis. Feed is unchanged.

FLOUR .- City millers' and dealers' prices are: Manitoba patents, $4.70; strong bakers', $4.40; white wheat patents, $4.60; straight roller, $3.80; low grades, per bag, $1.25 to HAY-Baled timothy 1s $9. STRAW-Is steady at $5.50 to $6.

MONTREAL.

There is no change in this market, and buyers still have the best of it when it comes to an actual sale, Local demand is good, and city bakers show some disposition to stock up, as they feel that prices are low enough. The stock in store indicates a free movement during the week, for it is 13,728 barrels less than a week ago, but it is still large, being 13,155 barrels more than for the corresponding week last year. We quote : Patent, winter $4.25 to $4.50; patent, spring 4.50 to $5.00; straight rollers $3.85 to $4; extra $3.20 to $3.25; superfine $3.00 to 3.15 ; city strong bakers $4.10 to 4.20; strong bakers $4.00 to $4.10 ; oatmeal $2.05 to $2.10 bran $14 ; shorts $15 ; mouille $23 to $24.

Some small quantities have come forers. ward during the week and have been turned over from first hands at 20c., and it will be hard to find a seller under that of really good stock. We quote Rios 20 to 21c. in straight wholesale lots, Santos nominally about the same.

RICE.

There has been a satisfacctory movement rice, while values rule firm. We quote : in rice, while values rule firm. Standard, $3 85 to $4; Louisiana, $5.25 to $5.50; choice Burmah, 4to 4½c.; Japans $4.50 to $5; Patnas, $5.24 to $5.50; Carolina, $7 to $8.

DRIED FRUIT.

The market did not present anything out of the ordinary run until the close of last week, holders of Valencia raisins maintaining their firm prices while there was nothing else available. The arrival of 7000 cases from New York, however, some of which was offered at a sensible shading on the figures that ruled the previous week put more ani-mation into the market as the jobbers who were short of supplies made haste to provide for their wants. The quantity above referred too was only one quarter of what was anticipated, and the rapidity with which it was absorbed strengthened up the position again. In fact although one large holder closed out his lot at a slight concession, the range of current prices were not affected, and as a second large holder closed out his lot at 4 1/8 to 5 1/8 c. there is no occasion to change our quotations of a week ago. The market is naw bare of stock aside from what jobbers have and of course they want it all. At least this is the inference to be drawn from the active demand that was experienced for the ock above referred to. Accordingly we quote Valencias firm at 5c. for seconds at 5¼ to 5½c. for firsts.

In currants the circumstances to which THE GROCER specially referred to last week have operated to produce a very firm market and although business is quiet at present in a regular jobbing way, holders have no anxiety about their holdings. We quote prices firm, barrels 5½ c., half barrels 5½ c. and cases 6c.

NUTS.

The market is quiet and unchanged at the following quotations :- Pecans 10 to 121/2 c., Terragona al monds 14 to 15c., Grenoble walnuts 131/2 to14c., filberts 9 to 10c., Ivica 121/2 to 13c., Bordeaux 9 to 10½c., peanuts No. 1 roasted 9½c., Brazil 11 to 12½c., marbots 11 1/2 c., cocoa nuts $3.50 to $4 per bag of 100, chestnuts 9 to 11c. per lb.

FRUIT.

There has been a fair demand for oranges and lemons during the week, especially the latter, the cold weather increasing their sale. We quote Malaga lemons $7. to $7.50 in chests and $3.50 to $4. in boxes, and Jamaica oranges $6.50 to $7. per brl. and $3.50 to $4.per box.

There is no change in dried stock." We quote dried apples 5 to 5 ½ c. evaporated 6 to 7c. dried peaches 14 to 15c., apricots 14 to 15c., evaporated peaches 12 to 13 ½. Pears have met an ordinary demand at $5. to $6.50 per brl.

Small lots of bananas continue to arrive by express and move steadily at $2.50 to $3. Choice dates are fairly active and steady at 5 to 6c.

Figs have met a fair demand in a jobbing way at II to I3C.

FISH.

There is a steady demand for fish and now that the archbishop has intimated that the Lenten observance will be strict this year fish dealers expect a more active demand from jobbers who have been holding off until certain about this. Values rule quite firm and as already noted supplies of several leading lines are limited. We quote : La-brador herring, $5 to $5.50 ; C.B. and B.C. salmon, $13 to $15 ; green cod, $4.50 ; had-dock and cod ac dock and cod, 3c. PROVISIONS.

There is very little change in provisions the market ruling quiet. Smoked meats and lard are moderately active. Canadian short cut, per brl. $16.50 to $18; Mess pork, Wes-tern, new, per brl $16 to $16.50; Hams, city cured, per brl. 11 to 121/2c ; Lard, Canaadian, in pails 9 to 91/2c ; Bacon, per lb., 11 to 12c. ; Lard, com, refined, per lb., 71/2 to 8c.

BEANS. There is no change in beans which rule at $1.40 for picked, and $1,20 to $1.30 for common. POTATOES. The cold weather has stiffened up the market materially and straight car lots of good early rose have sold at 75 to 77c.

DRESSED HOGS. Receipts of dressed hogs have shown some increase during the week and, if the cold weather keeps up, dealers anticipate larger supplies. Business transpires at $6.50 per 100 lbs.

EGGS. There is no material change in the egg market, either in prices or otherwise. Western limed are rather slow of sale. We quote Montreal limed 16to 17c., western 14 to 15c., held fresh 17c. and fresh 22c.

BUTTER AND CHEESE. The butter market is quiet. There are ample supplies and only a moderate demand. We quote :- Late made fall creamery 23 to 231/2c ; Earlier makes 22c. ; Townships 20 to 21c. ; Morrisburg and Brockville 18 to 19c. ; Western dairy 17 to 18c. Cheese is firm and quiet. Stocks here are much smaller than last year despite the heavy make this season. Finest late made Ontario, 105% to 1034 c., finest late made Eastern, 101/2 to 105% c., fair to medium, 103/8 to 101/2 c,

C. R. SOMERVILLE'S EXTENSIVE CHEWING GUM AND POP CORN FACTORY.

One of the thriving industries of London to-day is the chewing gum and pop corn fac-tory operated here by C. R. Somerville, an energetic business man. Its growth has been something remarkable, having sprung from a beginning made with only hand machinery and the employment of a man and a boy or two to the utilizing of steam power and the constant engagement of about 75 hands, with the number steadily on the increase. Through the legal proceedings brought by the Adams Company, the American manufacturers of Tutti Frutti, to obtain an injunction restraining Mr. Somerville from using a certain class of label—a suit that has already traversed three courts, and in each instance with success to the defendant-Mr. Somerville-has become known all over the country. And the reputation he thus obtianed has been well maintained by the excellent quality of the goods he manu-factures, and which to-day are represented by travellers in every Province, and are hand-led by dealers all over the Dominion. Many Many novelties have been introduced into the trade by Mr. Somerville, including the giving of a warranted Lord Fauntleroy clock with cer-tain quantities of that brand of gum, $20,000 worth of which has already been disposed of. The perfume brand is another very popular line, and its immence sale may be judged by the fact that Mr. Somerville recently placed an order for $2,000 worth of perfume. The Mexican Fruit is perhaps the most popular among fifteen lines manufactured. In the pop corn business the trade is growing very rapidly, and the corn is received by the car load from the Western States. Added to his other branches, Mr. Somerville manufactures paper boxes of all sorts and descriptions, and for which he has plenty of orders continually pouring in.

John E. Riley and Thomas Williamson have imported a small consign-ment of oranges from the island of Dominica, West Indies. This first consign-ment will be given away to the leading city grocers, being the first of the kind ever received here. The trade to be cultivated and large quantities imported at an early date.

I had an interesting interview with H. A Lyal, manager of the Toronto branch of Ganong Bros., Ltd., St. Stephen, N.B., whose office is at 67 Yonge street, city. They are the manufacturers of the justly celebrated G. B. chocolates, as well as of a very fine line of other candies. "At this season of the year," says H. A. Lyal, "we are very busy, the Christmas orders have been coming in rapidly, and we have done quite an extensive trade in the towns about Toronto. We have found since opening the Toronto branch our trade increasing wonderfully." Mr. Lyal travelled for years in the Lower Provinces for his company, where he was one of the best known men on the road. The company's eastern connection 15 now so extensive that in enlarging their factories they have made preparation for increasing the sale of their goods west. Their chocolates are not to be excelled by any on the market, and they will no doubt build up a very extensive trade here under Mr. Lyal's management.

The Department of Justice has instructed counsel to represent the Dominion Government upon a reference to the Court of Appeal for the province of Ontario by the Lieutenant-Governor of that province, to test the validity of certain Ontario legislation upon the subject of bankruptcy, and particularly section 9 of the Act respecting assignments and preferences by insolvent persons, chap-ter 124 of the Revised Statues of Ontario. The section reads as follows: "An assignment for the general benefit of creditors under this Act shall take precedence of all judgements and of all executions not completely executed by payments, subject to the lien, if any, of an execution creditor for his costs where there is but one execution in the sheriff's hands, or to the lien, if any, of the creditors for his costs who has the first execution in the sheriff's hands. Sir Thomas Galt, as chief justice of the Common Pleas Division, recently decided that the legislation in question is unconstitutional. No appeal was taken from his judgement, and as the question is one of very great importance the Ontario Government has referred it specially to the Court of Appeal for adjudication. It is understood that Æmelius Irving will represent the Ontario Government, Christopher Robinson and Wallace Nesbitt the Dominion Government.
