ELEMENT OF FRICTION.
Newfoundland Fisheries Dispute a Small Matter.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, Jan. 1.—The Scotsman, reviewing the colonial administration in 1906, says the dispute regarding the fisheries of Newfoundland was one of the most troublesome and ungrateful for the colonies. It is a small matter, but like the quarrel between the San Francisco school board and Japan, it contains an element of international friction which the most level-headed statesmanship may, owing to the obstinacy of the parties, find it difficult to smooth over.

DEATH OF N. RIGOU.
Quebec, Jan. 1.—Narcisse Rigou, a prominent merchant of this city, died this morning. Mr. Rigou was a director of the Banque Nationale and one of the members of the Quebec harbor commissioners. Heart disease was the cause of death.

A New Stomach

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Restore Lifeless Organs to Normal Condition.

A TRIAL PACKAGE FREE.

Many a sufferer from Dyspepsia, indigestion and kindred ailments, the digestive organs carries around an absolutely useless stomach—a dead load, and a cesspool for ever-increasing disorders. The muscles are seemingly worn out, the mucous lining has lost its secret power, and food taken into the stomach lies there, and ferments, causing sour eructations, belching, heartburn, dizziness and other distressing conditions. Many sufferers have given up in despair until they have been induced by some interested friend to try a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the dyspepsia's sure and only hope. They are a natural restorative of healthy action to the stomach and small intestine, because they supply just the elements that the weak stomach lacks—pepsin, diastase, golden seal and other digestives.

If you are afflicted with any of the symptoms above described, be assured that your digestive organs are losing power—they need help and there is no more sensible help to be given them than to supply elements which will do the work of digestion for them.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been found by the best of reputable physicians in the United States and Great Britain to have remarkable digestive powers, one grain of the active principle of these tablets being sufficient to digest 3000 grains of ordinary food. It is plain that no matter what the condition of your stomach, or how far your disease has progressed, one only of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, taken at meal time will do the work—give your stomach an opportunity to regain its lost powers, the muscles will be strengthened, the glands invigorated, and you will be a new man.

It costs nothing to prove the effectiveness of this cure. Send for a free package by return of postage. F. A. Stuart Co., 78 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich. All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 cents a box.

LADY BURDETT-COUTTS ENGLAND'S GREAT GIVER

Woman, Who Has Just Passed Away, Distinguished for Charity.

The late Lady Angela Georgiana Burdett-Coutts, whose works of philanthropy have made her name well known throughout the world, was the youngest daughter of the late Sir Francis Burdett, Sir Francis, who died in 1816, was for about thirty years member of parliament for Westminster and North Wilts, and was distinguished for his attacks upon the government and for his advocacy of the most radical measures. Lady Burdett-Coutts was born in April, 1814, and at the age of 23 she inherited the fortune which has enabled her to do so much for the poor of England. In June, 1871, Queen Victoria offered her the honor of a peerage in recognition of her great and noble works, and after some hesitation she accepted the offer and became Baroness Burdett-Coutts. The public with whom she was always a favorite, received with pleasure the announcement that she had been raised to the peerage. Her grant was £100,000, a London banker. Late in life she married her second wife, Harriet Malton, popularly known as "the Countess." Lady Burdett-Coutts was one of the largest fortunes in England to her widow. On June 16, 1887, Mrs. Coutts was married to the ninth Duke of St. Albans. She died on Aug. 6, 1887, without issue, and left her fortune to Miss Angela Burdett, on the condition that she should assume the name of Coutts, and that if she married an alien or a naturalized citizen of Great Britain she should forfeit a certain portion of the property. This portion, it is said, was worth over $500,000 yearly. The property left by the duchess included the senior partnership—that is, one-half interest in the historic banking house of Coutts & Co., which its value was estimated at between $10,000,000 and $15,000,000.

Help to Struggling.
The great wealth placed in her hands enabled Lady Burdett-Coutts to benefit thousands of her fellow creatures who were struggling through the world amid misfortunes of all kinds, and since 1837 she passed her life in devising and carrying on charitable schemes. At the same time she was a large subscriber to the various charitable institutions of the day, and what was more to her credit, she suffered unusual hardships she was always ready with aid as effectual as it was munificent. Lady Burdett-Coutts gave much attention to the education of the poor, and one of her earliest works for the public good was to secure an education for the children of the poor. GOOD NEWS TO HAMILTON.
Victory of Power Bylaw Received With Enthusiasm.

Hamilton, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—The news that the power bylaw was carried in Toronto, was received with enthusiasm. There is not the slightest doubt that the bylaw will be carried by a large majority here next Monday. It looks now as though not more than 50 of the aldermanic candidates would remain in the field. Amongst those who have signified their intention of dropping out are Ald. Winton, Gilbert, and ex-Ald. W. J. McDonald and T. M. Williamson.

McKenzie Mills was taken to Cayuga today to answer a charge of obtaining money under false pretences. The holiday was observed quietly. Both the theatre and office business, both being sold out.

The officers, sergeants and men of the local regiments fraternized to-day, making some of the New Year's Day calls upon each other in their quarters at the drill hall.

BRITISH EVENTS OF 1906.
Review of the Year by Writer in New York Sun.

In its review of 1906, The New York Sun of yesterday said, with regard to British politics:

In the United Kingdom public attention will be concentrated on the struggle between the Liberals, possessed of an overwhelming majority in the House of Commons, and the Conservatives, who seem impregnable in the House of Lords. It is obvious that we have here the elements of a dramatic conflict. The precise function of the upper house in the British constitutional system has never been clearly defined; the theory and practice of the chamber have differed at different times. Even during the whole of the nineteenth century, the body of the Unionist majority in that body, has taken positions inconsistent with each other, and with the view of the Liberals as to the function of the upper house. He has defended the refusal of the peers to pass the Education Bill, and the refusal to accept the bill of the commons, on the ground that this measure was not a better ventilation than the usual one, and that, consequently, the Bannerman government has not received from the country the support which it so justly deserves. On the other hand, while denouncing as iniquitous the trades disputes bill, which relieves the employer of his liability for damages traceable directly to his orders, Lord Lansdowne advised his fellow-peers to vote for it on the ground that the bill was a necessary and desirable measure for the benefit of the British people. As a matter of fact, the trades disputes bill did not figure so conspicuously in the speeches of the last political campaign as did the education bill, in which the whole body of English Nonconformists was deeply interested. The truth doubtless is, and we shall be surprised if it is not brought out in parliament, that in opposing the upper house, much against its will, to accept the trades disputes bill, Lord Lansdowne had in view a considerable administrative and legislative powers concerning Irish affairs upon a central council to assist the government in the management of the cabinet is to abolish the traditional and discredited system of "cabinet government" in which a non-parliamentary cabinet is composed of a measure against the opposition of the members of the ministry in 1907, but there are other premises, made to

A SMART COAT SUIT.

No. 6822 and 6823—Now that the high priestess of fashion has commanded that there be no hips, the styles in coats, as well as waists, must follow. Here is shown a very attractive street suit in herringbone cheviot, which is fitted by single darts in front and by gores in back. The closing is single-breasted, and the neck finished with an abbreviated Tuxedo collar. The skirt is in five gores and may be in sweep or round length, with a back under box pleat or in hank style. The manner of trimming suggests a front panel, and this is recommended for those of full figure, or one who is short. The suit is one which will become a woman of almost any figure, being especially flattering to her of full proportions. For the medium size, 8 yards of 54-inch material are needed.

Two patterns: No. 6822, sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure; No. 6823, sizes 20 to 32 inches waist measure. The price of these patterns is 20 cents, but either will be sent upon receipt of 10 cents. Mention size desired and bust measurement.

The New Leaf. Did you watch the old year out and the new year in with all sorts of good resolutions stirring in your heart? Do you really intend to "turn over a new leaf" to give up some of these cherished little habits of self-indulgence which you feel are almost sinful, to walk a path, oh, so much straighter and narrower?

One woman said to me, "Oh, I never make any resolutions. What's the use? I only break them again and then I feel worse than if I had never made them. This year I shall not make any resolutions, just worry along from day to day, doing the best I can, with the opportunities allowed me."

"That's a resolution in itself," said someone, and there was a general laugh. "After all," said a man, "you can't get away from the new year's resolutions. About the woe man's hours of New Year's morning, when you are lying half-awake and your room is full of dim indeterminate shapes that give you all sorts of fearful ideas, you are sure to have a little heart-to-heart talk with yourself over all the things you've left undone, and the things that unfortunately you haven't left undone."

"Then you get cold feet for your chances of life hereafter, and that's where the new year's resolution gets in its deadly work."

Everyone smiled at this masterly summing up and one bright little girl cried out, "I tell you good stout. Let's each tell what new year's resolutions we want to make, or should make. That will give us some good ideas."

"It was a 'local option' town we were in, and one of the boys laughed, "I'm going to swear off importing booze. It costs me too much and we're all getting into bad habits. We get stuff in the house and drink it which we never would have dreamed of drinking when we had a hotel in the town. His mother applauded this vigorously and said, "I'll try to stop being envious of the woman who makes a better speech than I at the club, or who has a little more time for reading, or a little prettier clothes."

"Such a feminine ending," laughed her daughter. "I don't envy anyone any material assets, but I do wish Kitty," she nodded to the bright little girl, "that you would give me some of your energy. I'm so hopelessly lazy. That extra hour in bed in the morning, that disinclination to exertion, when I do get up. This whole business of frittering away my days and never accomplishing anything, disgusts me with myself."

Kitty said, rather dolefully, "Yes, I'm energetic enough, but I'm such a procrastinator. I'm doing something always, but I'm sure to do to-day what I should do to-morrow, and vice versa."

She has a fatal habit of putting off the really important things and basing her energies in doing things that don't count. Here the man of the house came in.

MANITOBA TELEPHONE NOTE WHY A PART WAS ADVERSE

Sections Which Defeated the By-law Know Little of the Use of the Instruments and Were Stamped by Specious Arguments of Increased Taxation. Winnipeg, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—A statement, made up from official and non-official returns, has been prepared, showing the result of the vote on the telephone legislation for the whole province. Official returns from 33 municipalities are yet to be received, but it is not anticipated that these will differ materially from the unofficial information to hand, so that the statement is an absolutely reliable indication of the verdict recorded in the matter of public ownership of telephones by the people of Manitoba.

There were 67 municipalities which gave a majority in support of the government legislation, and 6 a minority, leaving a majority of 11 for public ownership. In those municipalities where the Bell Telephone Company is known that company has been voted down and out. In those municipalities which have recorded a minority vote the people have little or no knowledge of a telephone, and do not appreciate its value as a utility; hence they were indifferent to the subject.

Further than this, the farmers in a number of these municipalities are largely made up of French, German, and Italian. These people require a considerable amount of educating before they will become progressive enough to desire a telephone service. They were undoubtedly scared into voting "no" by the bogey of increased taxation, which was cunningly held up to their view by Bell supporters and in Bell literature.

"In my opinion," said E. Daggert, the provincial telephone expert, "our three months' campaign has been in every way successful, and I am convinced that the results of the campaign will bear fruit in those districts which, for lack of a proper appreciation of the situation, voted in the negative. It is a matter of a very short time before, even in the most remote districts of Manitoba, the people will be clamoring for the establishment of a publicly owned telephone service."

The total figures to date of the vote are: Municipalities. Yes. No. Official 90 10,717 8,114 Non-official 4 1,875 2,138 Total 94 12,592 10,252 Majority voters 1,875 2,138 No figures from nine municipalities. By-laws Carried. Official 45 Non-official 4 Total 49 Municipalities recording 50 to 60 per cent vote. Official 9 Non-official 4 Total 13 Total municipalities supporting government legislation 47 Municipalities recording vote against legislation: Official 28 Non-official 20 Total 48 Majority of municipalities in favor of legislation 11 This statement is complete for the whole province (124 municipalities, including Neepawa, which did not vote), but, as shown above, the returns for 23 municipalities are non-official, being taken from newspaper reports.

Of the 56 municipalities which gave a vote adverse to the government legislation, the Bell has exchanges in only nine. In these nine municipalities there are 48 exchanges, as against 26 exchanges and about 9000 telephones in those municipalities which supported the Bell plan of government-owned telephones.

O'BRIEN PROMISES EXPOSURES

Says Financial Methods of Redmondites Would Be of Interest. London, Jan. 1.—Speaking at Cork last night after the unopposed re-election of Daniel P. Sheehan as member of the house of commons for Mid-Dunk, William O'Brien (Nationalist) threatened revelations of the financial methods of the "Redmondites," which he said would be of great national interest than anything that has occurred in Ireland since the Parnell commission.

Sheehan resigned his seat because, being a follower of Mr. O'Brien, the party stopped his allowance, but the "Redmondites" did not attempt to fight his re-election.

100 YEARS OR 60 YEARS!

Medical Science has reached its highest pinnacle in the discovery of Zam-Buk. The healing power of this herbal balm is absolutely unprecedented. A case has just been reported to the proprietors, in which Zam-Buk has closed and healed ulcers which for 60 years had defied every remedy known. 60 years ago, the lady in question was bitten on the leg by a dog, and intervals the place broke out in bad ulcerated sores. Zam-Buk has ended the mischief once and for all. This case and that which follows should convince all sufferers from skin disease or injuries that Zam-Buk is on an entirely different plane to ordinary remedies. Send one cent stamp for free sample box and test it at our expense.

Mrs. W. E. Rice, of London Junction, (Ont.) says:—"I cannot be thankful enough for the day Zam-Buk came to Canada. For nine years I had been a sufferer from running sores on my legs caused by blood-poisoning. I had tried every kind of ointment and salve, but had heard of, but none of them seemed equal to Zam-Buk. Last winter I was worse than ever, and could not bear to stand on my feet for five minutes. The pain was so acute that I could not bear to have my slippers on."

"I heard of Zam-Buk and decided to give it a fair trial. From first commencing with it I did me good, and it has now cured me. Whereas before I could not stand on my feet for five minutes at a time, I can now not only stand but walk about without feeling any pain whatever. I feel like a new woman. I have waited to see if the cure was permanent before making any statement, and now I am very willing to give my testimony. I shall be pleased to answer any inquiries and if any one cares to come and see me, I shall be pleased to tell them what Zam-Buk has done for me."

HEALED FINALLY BY

HUGHES IS GOVERNOR.

Formally Sworn in as Head of the Executive of N.Y. State. Albany, N.Y., Jan. 1.—Charles Evans Hughes of New York to-day began his term of office as governor of the State of New York, formally taking over the office from Frank W. Higgins of Cattaraugus.

With simple but impressive ceremonies the inauguration ceremony of the new governor was administered to the new governor by the new secretary of state, before an audience which crowded the great assembly chamber to overflowing. After two days of fog and drizzling rain, the skies cleared and bright sunshine shone upon the brilliant military parade which preceded the inaugural ceremonies.

After the ceremonies Governor Hughes held a reception in the executive chamber, and the usual public reception was held this afternoon at the executive mansion.

WAGES GO UP AT BUFFALO. Dry Dock Company Makes Increases of 10 and 5 Per Cent. Buffalo, Jan. 1.—The Buffalo Drydock Company has posted a notice in its yards, stating that "owing to prosperous conditions and the increased cost of living," 10 per cent increase will be granted all men earning less than $2.25 per day, and 5 per cent, to all men rated at over $2.25.

A general strike will also be made on piecework prices, to take effect Jan. 15 next.

BIGGEST LUMBER MARKET. Tonawanda, N.Y., Takes First Place in the World's Business. Buffalo, Jan. 1.—The Tonawanda (north and south) ports are now the largest lumber markets in the world. The official report of the lumber received at Chicago, the only rival for the season just closed shows that 264,399,000 feet of stock were received there, while at the Tonawandas the receipts exceeded 448,000,000 feet.

PREPARING TO TRY THAW. Special Panel of 500 Men—Mrs. Thaw's Mother for Defence. New York, Jan. 1.—Notice of an application was served upon Clifford W. Hartridge of counsel for Harry K. Thaw, to be made in the supreme court, criminal branch, for the selection of a special panel of 500 jurors for the trial of Thaw, which is to begin Jan. 31.

The panel is made up of 500 men who have already been examined as to their qualifications. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, the prisoner's wife, a credited with a detail of the report that her mother, Mrs. C. J. Holman of Pittsburg, Pa., would come to this city and testify against Thaw in the case is tried for the murder of Stanford White. Mrs. Thaw intimates that her mother would be a witness for the defence.

ONE OF ITS CHIEF INDUSTRIES ACHIEVES SPLENDID RECORD OF GROWTH. Montreal, Jan. 1.—Canada's barometer is her customs statistics, and it is gratifying that the details of trade and commerce are not made known before they are five years old. That the growth must have been phenomenal is indicated by the great increase in the revenue.

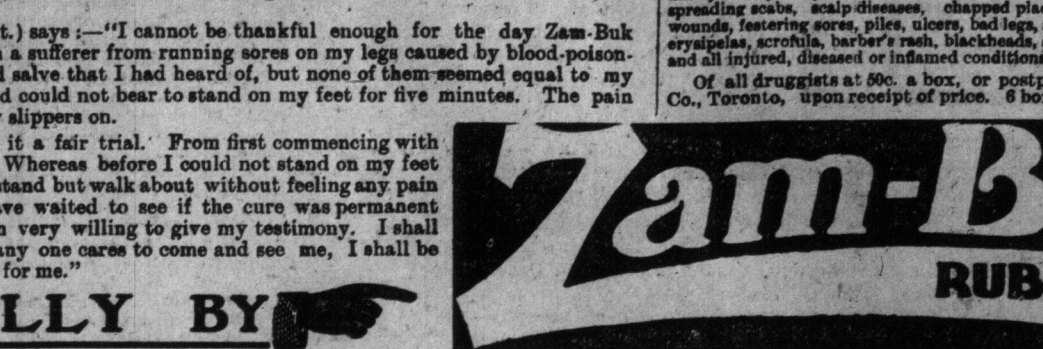

Montreal, the commercial gateway of Canada, feels the business pulse of the country. From every industry there are glowing reports. The Slater Shoe Company, ending its fiscal year in October, reported an increase of quarter of a million dollars in its total output in Canada and foreign countries, but this record has been beaten already. The sales for the first month of the new year developed an increase of $115,000 over the corresponding month of last year. Much of the increase is ascribed to the fact that buyers find protection in the price-protected shoe they know white leather shoes are soaring upward and other shoe manufacturers are wasting time and energy in seeking higher protection.

WOMAN MURDERED IN NIGHT CHILDREN NEARBY UNDISTURBED. New York, Jan. 1.—Mrs. William Wilson, wife of a stableman in Wellington, N. J., was found murdered in her home when her husband returned from work to-day. She had evidently been dragged from the bed, for she still wore her night clothing and was lying in the stomach and strangled. Her children, who were asleep in a room nearby, were not awakened.

FUMES ENTERED ENGINE ROOM DISTILLERIES ARE FIRE-SWEEPED. Cincinnati, Jan. 1.—The buildings of the Diamond Distilleries Co., in East Cincinnati, were gutted by a fire to-day. The flames probably started from the communication of fumes of spirits or high wines with fire in the engine room. The loss is about $100,000.

KEY FROM BROOM HANDLE.

Prisoner Escapes From Vermont Prison—Leaving Wife Behind. Bennington, Vt., Jan. 1.—Ingeniously making a false key of a broom handle, E. C. Smith, said to be of Boston, escaped from the county jail here early to-day, and, with half an hour's start over the officers, made his way, it is thought, towards the New York State line.

A woman, who is said to be the man's wife, and who was with him in the cell, also tried to escape, but was frightened by the barking of the warden's bulldog, and after getting outside the jail, returned.

Smith and his wife had been held on a charge of forgery.

ALLIAN LINE TRAFFIC.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable). London, Jan. 1.—The Allan Line carried 77,942 passengers to Canada in 1926, as against 70,945 in 1925.

Blow For Comstock. New York, Jan. 1.—The complaint against Miss Anna Robinson, book-keeper of the Art Students' League, who was arrested when Anthony Comstock raided the offices of the league and seized thousands of the catalogues, was dismissed by the court of special sessions.

"Whatever may be the legal merit of the contention," the district attorney said, "there can be no question that the promoters of this magazine acted in perfect good faith, with no illegitimate purpose, and that their sole motive was to illustrate the quality of art work done by the students of the art league."

Sam Martin Dead. New York, Jan. 1.—Samuel W. Martin, proprietor of a well-known all-night Broadway restaurant, died suddenly last night from heart disease. His health had been poor for some time. He was 60 years of age. The subject for discussion will be: "Is the present tariff consistent with the Liberal platform of 1895 and Liberal principles?"

RECEPTION AT WHITE HOUSE

President Meets Ambassadors and Commissioners as Equals. Washington, Jan. 1.—Each year the White House doors swing open to all the nation on Jan. 1, and a heartier welcome was never extended to visitors than that which greeted the thousands who entered the White House to observe the banished rank and class distinction. The president met ambassadors and laborers with the same firm handshake.

TURKS PLAYED HORATIAS.

With Sword Bayonets Held Bridge Until Troops Arrived Them. Constantinople, Jan. 1.—A panic occurred in the main thoroughfare here at noon to-day as the result of the disorderly action of 250 soldiers of the Imperial Guard, who drew sword-bayonets and held the bridge connecting the populous sections of Galata and Stamboul.

LONDON BASKETBALL TEAM

Win at Central in Afternoon and at West End in the Evening.

Last night at the West End Y.M.C.A. the London Y.M.C.A. basketball team defeated the home five by the score of 26-22, the half-time score being 12-14. London was in good shape, notwithstanding their hard game with Central in the afternoon, and played a hard checking game. They are considerably better than West End, and used their weight to advantage.

In shooting, Harvey, the captain and star of the night's play, had his men well in hand, and directed the plays well. They had a good fast team, and will take a lot of beating when they get more practice. West End were out of condition and played very ragged in spots. Skene, the new man, in centre, showed up well for his first senior game, but lacks experience. The Gray half was not as good as the final period of play. West End failing to get in their usual brilliant combination.

One of the largest crowds that ever entered the West End gym. witnessed the same. Referee Scott and Umpire Wicket had their hands full keeping the men in check, as there was a tendency to rough it at times.

The second game was between the old Harriers' Club and the West End Inter-mediate, the latter getting the large end of the tally, 27-23. Dick Bond and Bob Hanna, home from the west for the first article of ball, considering their condition, did well.

London 73, Central 52.

The London basketball team, captained by Harvey, the old Hamilton player, played Central Y.M.C.A. yesterday afternoon, defeating them by 73-52. At half-time the score stood 37-27.

The winners were much the heavier and used their weight to good advantage. The teams:

Centrals (52)—Forwards, A. Jardine and Ed. Sauter. London (73)—Forwards, Harvey and Skene; centre, Strawn; defence, Block and Crawford.

MONTREAL ARCHBISHOP TALKS ON FRENCH CRISIS

In New Year's Sermon Protests Against Persecutions, and Predicts Final Victory.

Montreal, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—At the reception given to-day by the officers of the 66th, Rodolphe Forget, M.P., extended an invitation to the entire regiment to spend a couple of days at his summer abode, St. Irem.

New Year's Day passed off quietly, although the receptions held by the French consul-general and the Archbishop of Montreal were very largely attended. The officers of the different regiments received their friends at headquarters, while 8000 children gathered in the different Protestant Churches.

Archbishop Bruchesi spoke in the cathedral of affairs in France, concluding with these words: "I protest in the name of justice, liberty and humanity, against these persecutions, but I am confident that the persecutors will not have the last word."

The Archbishop of Paris, Cardinal Richard, and the titular heads of various other religious bodies who always in the past have been among the president's guests at luncheon, were not invited to-day.

SIR FREDERICK BORDEN MAY GO TO LONDON.

Likely to Succeed Strathcona as High Commissioner.

Ottawa, Jan. 1.—While there is nothing definite yet about Lord Strathcona's resignation as Canadian high commissioner at London, it is said he will ask to be relieved from responsibility, but it is certain that the premier and government will use every effort to get him to continue acting.

As to his successor, it is believed that Sir Frederick Borden, the present minister of militia, desired the post he could get.

Toronto Junction Continues to Forge Ahead—Nomination Meeting.

Toronto Junction, Jan. 1.—The adjourned nomination meeting was held in St. James' Hall to-night. Dr. Perfect was elected chairman, and the different candidates delivered their addresses to between five and six hundred electors. There were three candidates for the mayor's chair, namely, Councillor W. A. Baird, ex-Councillors S. Byding and Thomas C. Wright. In ward 1 Councillors Chapman and Alex Hain are elected by acclamation. Jas. Finch announced that he would not run. Councillors Joseph R. Bull and William Ford are also elected by acclamation for ward 2. There will be two bylaws submitted to the electors on Monday next. They are the power bylaw and a bylaw to repeal the local option bylaw. The Rev. Dr. Hazlewood, Rev. Dr. Pidgeon and the Rev. Beverley Smith were nominated as mayoralty candidates, but retired. Dr. Hazlewood delivered a stirring address, asking the electors to sustain local option.

A load of lime belonging to the Ontario Lime Association, was passed over the scales a few days ago, and the weight was found to be correct. Yesterday as Mrs. E. Connolly was milking a cow it became excited and knocked her down. She fell under the feet of a horse in the next stall and was struck on the head by its feet. Dr. Macnamara was called in and had to put seven stitches to close the wound.

The customs house returns for Toronto Junction show a considerable increase. The receipts for the month of December amounted to $22,717.99; that of December last year $10,011.04, an increase of $12,706.95; for the past six months the amount was $113,611.15, nearly double the amount paid in the corresponding month of last year. The receipts for the whole of 1906 were $23,774.44, and for 1905 were $147,737.09, an increase of $73,042.65.

Unioville, Dec. 1.—(Special.)—Nomination proceedings, held in Victoria Hall on Monday afternoon, were attended by a representative gathering of farmers, which packed the hall to overflowing. The contest for reevehip was expected to furnish a sharp fight, ex-County Councillor Arthur Quants having, previous to the nomination, being looked upon as a strong favorite. His failure to enter the list resulted in the return by acclamation of the present reeve, Jonathan Sater. For first deputy reeve, the candidates are A. Lapp and Alex. Plinge; for councillors, Thos. Hagerman, George Pidgeon, Jonathan Nigh, Geo. Morrison, A. Kester and Peter Boynton. Within the past year Unioville has been incorporated as a police village, and nominated to all the positions of school trustees, George Pidgeon, Jonathan Nigh, Oliver Harding and William Pidgeon.

Geolph 3, Preston 2.

Preston, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—A good-sized holiday crowd saw the Geolph Seals defeat the Preston Inter-mediate in an exhibition game of hockey in the Preston rink this afternoon. The game was decidedly fast for exhibition purposes, and afforded the spectators lots of excitement. The score at half-time was 2 to 2, and 3 to 2 in Geolph's favor at the end of the game.

The teams were evenly matched and the result was ever in doubt. The game was rough at times and several players were penalized. The line-up: Geolph (3)—Barber, goal; Christian, point; Irving, cover-point; Atkinson, Pye, Desman, Oulete, forwards.

Preston (2)—Puffer, goal; Naira, point; Franklin, cover-point; Kiefer, Bernhardt, Smith and Wismer, forwards.

FOR CHEAP POWER.

Everything has gone well with the power bylaw. The result is thoroughly satisfactory, and must greatly encourage the provincial government and the supporters of its policy in other municipalities. It was at the moment of supreme importance that Toronto should speak a clear ringing note for the cheap power and cheap lighting which hold within them the necessary assurance of expanding industries and increased comfort for the citizens. That note has been sounded, and will reverberate through the province and beyond its bounds. What is especially gratifying is the severe condemnation pronounced upon the underhand methods of the electric ring, which has failed to influence the electors to any material extent. In fact the ring has entirely overreached itself and has been taught with much needed point that the game of trickery and deceit is not a safe one to play in these days. The circumstances attending their attempt to discredit the government's power policy cannot but direct attention to the impropriety of permitting franchise-holding corporations to oppose directly or indirectly proposals designed to secure for the people fair and just treatment.

What the government offered thru the hydro-electric commission was well within the power of the Niagara companies to grant had they administered the franchise entrusted to them with due regard to its character as a virtual trust for behoof of the citizens. But instead of limiting their capitalization to the legitimate expenditure incurred in the construction and equipment of their works they anticipated profits by heavy stock watering and then asked the public to pay the extravagant charges necessary to pay dividends on the water. Confronted with the careful estimates made by the commission, and unable to meet the min the open, they resorted to the tactics now so unreservedly condemned. Altho a striking initial success has been gained, the efforts of the advocates of the Waterloos of the power campaign has yet to be fought and won by the people, and the rout of yesterday is of hopeful augury for eventual victory.

YESTERDAY'S CITY ELECTION.

Yesterday's contest for the mayoralty was remarkable for the volume of support accorded the socialist candidate. But it would be erroneous to infer that his showing represents a straight vote in favor of his program. The result is not a moral victory for socialism, but a moral defeat for the flabby policy of the mayor. The electors voted as they did, not because they liked Mr. Lindala more, but because they liked Mr. Coatsworth less, and their feeling was effectively voiced by the defeat of the three civic bylaws—in the case of the Yonge-street bridge, indeed, his contemptuous rejection. The mayor must realize that his renewed lease of office was due rather to the absence of a really popular opponent than to confidence in his strength of character and ability to handle municipal concerns in the interest of the citizens. The election demonstrates the increasing favor with which public ownership and operation of the civic franchise is regarded by the people. It serves another notice on the franchise-holding corporations that the day of their power is rapidly passing, and that they will be held to strict account for the administration of the public services entrusted to them. If Mayor Coatsworth desires to re-establish himself in the confidence of his fellow citizens he must adopt a different policy and set himself resolutely to maintain the public rights conferred by the contracts under which the franchise-holding corporations hold their privileges. The citizens have shown in a manner which cannot be ignored their determination that the companies be compelled to act up to the full measure of their obligations. A feeling is unquestionably abroad that there has been too much truckling on the part of the city council to the masterful men who are manipulating the corporation influence to the prejudice of the just claims of the people. An uneasy suspicion, which is really a conviction, prevails that secret meetings and informal consultations with artful corporation officials are not conducive to healthy independence and resolute maintenance of the city's rights. Evil communications of this kind invariably end in a surrender, more or less complete, to the private interests who know that the lack of public knowledge means the absence of public supervision and the stimulus it brings. The results of yesterday must hearten the supporters of municipal ownership and encourage them to prosecute their propaganda vigorously among the electors. Only thus will a compact body of public opinion be obtained sufficient to command the situation at future elections.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF RAILWAYS.

Nothing is more significant than the growing demand in the United States for government control of railways, and for public ownership. That this may lead to far-reaching consequences in strengthening the federal government and in destroying the last vestige of state sovereignty is admitted. The present evils of private ownership and operation, however, are so grievous, and the railway companies themselves are so rich, powerful and unscrupulous, that they can only be grappled with by a strong centralized government with jurisdiction co-extensive with the nation. The Chicago News of recent date defines the situation thus: It is impossible to establish once for all the precise line of division between matters that are properly in their scope. Some things which were local a generation ago have now taken on the nature of national problems. The so-called "range" movement was an attempt of various states to regulate the railroads. Now, by common consent, a railroad regulation is accepted as a problem for the nation to deal with. The inability of the individual state to cope with the great interstate carrying corporations is recognized practically in all quarters.

SIR WM. HOWLAND

Canada Pacific Railway. For his services of construction of the railway was created in 1877, and in 1878, as a further mark of royal approval, he was appointed a K. C. M. G. In politics he was liberal and in religious belief a member of the Church of England. Sir William was born in 1843 Mrs. Webb, who died 1849; second, in 1866, Susan Julia, widow of Captain Hunt of the military stores department. She died in 1888. He married Elizabeth Bethune, daughter of James Bethune, Q. C. Sir William was a brother of the late Sir Howard Howland, who died in 1885. Sir William was also the father of two mayors of Toronto—William H. and Oliver A. Howland, both now dead.

Sir William Howland arrived in this city on Nov. 3, 1880, being then only two years of age. He was the only one of his name in this part of the country. His father, Sir Howard, who had preceded him by two years, and a Mr. Lewis, whose business was managed by Sir William's brother, had set up a business in the interior of the country, sending Sir William's brother to take charge, and Sir William was urged to stay and take his place, which he decided to do. One of the duties he was required to perform was the management of the country, which was then under the control of the imperial government. The main route was from the west coast, and he was obliged to get up at 1 o'clock in the morning and receive the mail, which was fastened with iron chains, and in the winter covered with ice and snow. Mails at that period were infrequently delivered, and the portions belonging to his postoffice, and that of his brother, Sir Howard, who time very little postage was prepaid, it being carried forward and charged against the several offices to which it was addressed.

"This," Sir William has written in an autobiography, "caused me a great deal of work, and led me when I afterwards became general manager to consider the best means of improving the service. In the following autumn he bought out Mr. Lewis' interest in the business, and as partner, carried on the business with his brother, during which period he bought the late William Falls, who was at that time the one of the leading business men of the district. Being in business and being obliged to give long credit to struggling farmers, were the main causes which fixed Sir William in the country, and it is not too much to say the lenient and other concessions granted to many of the customers of Howard Bros. were frequently referred to in after years by those same clients as among the main reasons of their success.

In public life the action taken by Sir William Howland in regard to the acquisition of the Hudson Bay Territory and the accomplishment of confederation. He took a leading part in the Hudson Bay and the possibility of the Hudson Bay territory. He induced the late Sir William McKelvey to join him in furnishing the requisite funds necessary to send Captain Kennedy—who had traversed the interior of that country in charge of a party in search of Sir Franklin—to go up there and bring back a report as to the condition and products of that part of the Dominion. With a view of prosecuting the agitation of the Northwest Territory, the late Sir William formed a company, composed of nine persons, including the late Senator McMaster, Hon. Mr. McArthur, the late Lawrence, Capt. Dick and himself. This company performed important work in the investigation of the Hudson Bay territory, and the use of their steamship Resolute to the use of their possession of a considerable portion of the coast of which is now Port Arthur, built for the purpose of serving as a wharf, which, after being extended, and used as a landing by the Canadian Pacific Railway. They also had a considerable amount of land and water communication between Port William and Port George, in connection with this made a road for the government, and in use to-day as a government road. For these public benefits in the earliest years of his life, Sir William received an annual pension of $10,000, he would not allow his name to be included in a claim afterwards made, as he says in his memoirs, "being in the house of commons, and a big to join in any application in which I was personally interested, and I would be called an additional railway."

Intercolonial Railway. In 1862 Sir William and the late Judge Sicotte were appointed delegates to discuss with the imperial government the construction of the Intercolonial Railway, the Imperial government granted a very liberal measure and gave a concession of a military line, but Sir William pointed out that Upper Canada would not be satisfied to share in the expense unless something was presented to the Imperial government, and suggested the purchase of the Hudson Bay Company by the government. In this negotiation Sir William received considerable opposition from some members of the Imperial government. The main decision of the route was arrived at, but the late Sir William had withdrawn from the government, and was not present at the meeting, but military grounds having so largely been insisted on by the Imperial government, the cause of the present one being adopted.

With regard to the question of the militia, which Sir William and his colleagues were charged to discuss, the Imperial government had made a demand for pure salt is just as important as pure water or pure milk. WINDSOR TABLE SALT is absolutely pure and never cakes.

THE RAILWAYS AND THE BOARD OF RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS FOR CANADA. Twenty-seventh Article. We want cars in which to haul our products to market; from cities, towns and villages, from farms, factories, mines and ranches comes the cry, and the patience of a long-suffering public has at last become exhausted. Car shortage is so easily cured that it is simply amazing that the people of Canada have allowed existing conditions to continue year after year without insisting upon the remedy being applied. When a law is passed enforcing reciprocal demurrage, car shortage will be merely a page of history. In reciprocal demurrage we find the solution of the problem, and up to the present time there has not been a single argument advanced to show why it should not be imposed. If there is nothing to be said against it, why is it not put into effect? Simply because the railway companies control the government. That is the answer in very few words. Everyone knows that discrimination is exercised in the distribution of cars, and while competitive points and certain favored concerns are supplied with rolling stock, farmers and shippers at local stations are compelled to wait for the produce rot in the fields owing to their inability to get the traffic moved. The railways have no money to provide the necessary motive power and rolling stock required to move the business of the country, but they have plenty of money to spare for the purpose of purchasing members of parliament and controlling legislation. They have plenty of money to build new lines, but no money to spend in furnishing necessary equipment for those already in operation. The railways do not undertake to defend their position before the public, but prefer to rely upon the support of members of parliament who can be depended upon to shelve any legislation which may be inimical to the interests of the carrying companies. If the house of commons does not, during the present session, undertake to pass legislation which is absolutely necessary for the welfare of the country, and which is required to relieve a situation that is paralyzing the business of the country, the people should arise in their might and annihilate the government.

THE LATE SIR WM. P. HOWLAND

When the board of railway commissioners for Canada gave their decision, making demurrage a legal charge, they did not do so in ignorance of the facts. The necessity for a reciprocal demurrage arrangement had been argued before them and insisted upon, but they deliberately passed legislation that was absolutely and entirely one-sided and in the interests of the railway companies, and for which no equivalent compensation is rendered to the people of Canada. In view of the fact that the board of railway commissioners was created for the express purpose of protecting the public against the levying of unfair tolls by the carrying companies, we have no hesitation in stating emphatically that in this case the board was guilty of a breach of trust. It had no right to pass legislation imposing upon the people a penalty for delays to rolling stock, unless at the same time it exacted from the railways an equivalent penalty for delays to traffic of a precisely similar character. There should not be one law for the railways and another for the people.

THE LATE SIR WM. P. HOWLAND

When the board of railway commissioners for Canada gave their decision, making demurrage a legal charge, they did not do so in ignorance of the facts. The necessity for a reciprocal demurrage arrangement had been argued before them and insisted upon, but they deliberately passed legislation that was absolutely and entirely one-sided and in the interests of the railway companies, and for which no equivalent compensation is rendered to the people of Canada. In view of the fact that the board of railway commissioners was created for the express purpose of protecting the public against the levying of unfair tolls by the carrying companies, we have no hesitation in stating emphatically that in this case the board was guilty of a breach of trust. It had no right to pass legislation imposing upon the people a penalty for delays to rolling stock, unless at the same time it exacted from the railways an equivalent penalty for delays to traffic of a precisely similar character. There should not be one law for the railways and another for the people.

THE RAILWAYS AND THE BOARD OF RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS FOR CANADA.

Twenty-seventh Article. We want cars in which to haul our products to market; from cities, towns and villages, from farms, factories, mines and ranches comes the cry, and the patience of a long-suffering public has at last become exhausted. Car shortage is so easily cured that it is simply amazing that the people of Canada have allowed existing conditions to continue year after year without insisting upon the remedy being applied. When a law is passed enforcing reciprocal demurrage, car shortage will be merely a page of history. In reciprocal demurrage we find the solution of the problem, and up to the present time there has not been a single argument advanced to show why it should not be imposed. If there is nothing to be said against it, why is it not put into effect? Simply because the railway companies control the government. That is the answer in very few words. Everyone knows that discrimination is exercised in the distribution of cars, and while competitive points and certain favored concerns are supplied with rolling stock, farmers and shippers at local stations are compelled to wait for the produce rot in the fields owing to their inability to get the traffic moved. The railways have no money to provide the necessary motive power and rolling stock required to move the business of the country, but they have plenty of money to spare for the purpose of purchasing members of parliament and controlling legislation. They have plenty of money to build new lines, but no money to spend in furnishing necessary equipment for those already in operation. The railways do not undertake to defend their position before the public, but prefer to rely upon the support of members of parliament who can be depended upon to shelve any legislation which may be inimical to the interests of the carrying companies. If the house of commons does not, during the present session, undertake to pass legislation which is absolutely necessary for the welfare of the country, and which is required to relieve a situation that is paralyzing the business of the country, the people should arise in their might and annihilate the government.

The instinct of self-government among the people of Canada is too strong to permit them long to respect any government which fails to exercise its power to protect the welfare of the country. The government that neglects its prerogatives will only awake to consciousness when it is ignominiously defeated. The people of Canada want a law passed enforcing reciprocal demurrage, and they intend to get it or know the reason why. We have in our possession at the present time a batch of letters an inch thick from prominent business men throughout the country, stating that it is necessary in the interests of the country, and urging us to keep the agitation going until it is secured. If there are any good reasons to offer in opposition to this proposition we would like to have them brought forward for the information of the public. In the State of Oregon the people are asking for a penalty of $10 per car per day for failure to provide cars for the carriage of traffic, and, if the law becomes effective, the State of Oregon will get all the cars it requires for the proper conduct of business. It is the only way in which the railways can be brought to a proper realization of their duty to the people, and the demand for "more cars" must be met by the passage of legislation that will secure them for the public.

The prosperity of Canada must not be jeopardized by the neglect of the carrying companies, and it is the duty of parliament to protect the interests of the people. When the board of railway commissioners for Canada gave their decision, making demurrage a legal charge, they did not do so in ignorance of the facts. Security Prices Lower Where Increased Dividend Payments Have Not Been Made.

World Office,
Tuesday Evening, Jan. 1, '07.
The new year opens auspiciously for Canadian securities, and taken altogether the year just closed has not proved unbeneficial to investors, and much less so to speculators. Many theories have been advanced to account for the spathy of traders, but none seem so well to accord with the situation as the activity and profit of all commercial enterprises, and the strength of support and attention away from securities. The widespread money tightness, with a consequently larger interest rate, has necessarily reduced the value of stocks, which in it has not been found possible to enlarge dividends, and the only instances of a betterment in quotations of securities on the Toronto market is where such increases have occurred. Canadian investors are principally by reason of the Ontario Bank failure, and the big losses to the Toronto insurance companies from the San Francisco disaster. The congested state of the investment market for securities is best illustrated by the small number of new flotations put out, and even in these the reception, as in the case of the Western Canadian and Consolidated Rubber, has been anything but satisfactory. The Cobalt ventures proved more profitable. Mining properties established worth were well received until this class of investment was satisfied by the introduction of improved properties, with excellent capitalizations. The market enters the new year under a depression, but buoyant sentiment, due to progress and widespread commercial activity, is only dormant. If relief comes, and the money market this will make itself felt in the appreciation of standard shares, which have a substantial immediate present and a possible future.

The trend of prices since a year ago may be gleaned by the comparison of the following prominent local issues:

January 1906	1907
Toronto Electric	152 1/2
General Electric	140 1/2

TORONTO HORSE MARKET
VERY PROSPEROUS YEAR
Sales Three Times as Numerous as Five Years Ago and at Good Deal Better Prices.

A correspondent writes to ask what has really happened to the Canadian Horse Breeders' Association. Just this: Mr. Monteth, in his capacity as provincial minister of agriculture, has cut the association into two, turning one the Ontario Horse Breeders' Association, and the other the Canadian Horse Breeders' Association. The Canadian Horse Breeders' Association, although incorporated, was not consulted in the matter. Mr. Monteth decided that the Canadian Horse Breeders' Association might retain the funds, amounting to four or five thousand dollars, of the Canadian Horse Breeders' Association. Last Friday the directors of the latter association met and voted the Ontario Horse Breeders' Association the use of $3000 for a show to be held in February or March. Then the directors of the Canadian Horse Breeders' Association formed themselves into provisional directors of the Ontario Breeders' Association, thus controlling both associations and funds thereof. Thus things practically revert to where they were with the difference that a large liberal body like the Canadian Horse Breeders' Association goes out of business and an exclusive organization, worked by clique and known as the Ontario Horse Breeders' Association, comes in.

In the interests of the horse trade of the province it is about time the department of agriculture began to collect statistics showing the number of horses sold and the average price paid. That the market in Toronto at the big horse marts, during 1906, compared with the number sold in the first year of the century. Prices, as indicated by the statistics, were about 25 per cent. higher. And all this in spite of the coming of the automobile, the trolley, and the bicycle. Surely this state of things is something to give us pause to think. Marvellously it indicates the tremendous development and growth of the country.

In one direction the movement has been backward, instead of forward, namely, in exportation. Horses of our best still find their way abroad, but a quarter of a century ago the hundreds of thousands of horses were shipped to other parts of the world. Now we can use more than we raise. Of course, the horse and carriage trade has a depressing effect on our export trade.

But if our exports have fallen off, our imports of registered stock have increased enormously, especially of heavy animals. There is a big and important import of horses from the States. The Graham Bros. and others, by the bringing in of Clydesdales has been phenomenal. The heavy stock trade closed a great many more auction sales were held than usual, and the prices, compared with the year just past, were entirely satisfactory, running in the average between $350 and $400.

The importation of Shires has also manifested a tendency to increase, and the coming of the King's horse has undoubtedly attracted additional attention to the breed. Unfortunately, these horses do not remain in Canada, but found an outlet in Illinois. However, Messrs. Morris & Wellings, of Ontario, Messrs. Chambers & Sons held auction sales of Shires, at which, if not good, at least fair, prices were realized.

Leaving the breeding classes and the heavy stock trade, the year just past has been better than it had previously ever been. Draught horses especially have been in demand, and so, to have heavy expressers. Drivers usually find a sale, but compared with the heavy fellows they have not done so well. For track horses, however, thanks to the driving-clubs with their large stables, and the springing up in all directions, the market has been exceedingly good, and the movement brisk. Carriage horses must be topers to command quick sale, and then no price is hardly too high. For second rankers and inferiors the figures are stationary and low, the main demand, both at home and abroad, being for the best for show purposes. Still even on the market for carriage horses, the automobile has had, but slight effect, surprisingly slight in fact.

As regards saddle horses, it is regrettable to say the year has shown no great improvement. Horseback riding is the besetting sin of the modern woman can indulge in, while it is far less trouble to bit and saddle a horse than to hitch him to carriage or wagon, but in the east the general preference is still for driving. In the west and northwest, however, saddle horses are entering into the daily life more and more. It is in that direction from this out we shall have to look for our best saddle horses. There have been several important sales of thoroughbreds, chiefly due to the greatly lamented death of Mr. William Hendrie and his consequent distribution of his racing and breeding stables. Prices for Canada were exceptionally good, $3000 being paid for the province-bred two-year-old gelding Demham, and $1500 for the two-year-old filly Ayrwater. Mr. Seagram, too, had a sale late in the year, at which he offered some choice stallions and brood mares, that brought, however, but moderate prices. Ponies have been in good demand, and the outlook for the little fellows could not possibly be better.

John Macdonald shipped last week to a western buyer a matched pair of extra good brown geldings, and sold to city parties a heavy harness horse and three saddle horses. The demand, Mr. Macdonald says, seems to keep up.

Messrs. Morris & Wellings, Front Hill and Toronto, have imported the Shire stallion, Thorpe, which has been a frequent winner in England, and was only beaten at the Royal Agricultural Society show, which was held at Birkenhead. For this same colt 600 guineas has been offered. Taiton Carion is by Blairdon Conqueror, a stallion that has won the title of champion of the breed in England, and that was hired by a Welsh syndicate for $2000 for the season, and for which $2000 has been offered. Blairdon Conqueror is by Hitchin Conqueror, a horse that figures largely in extra good Shire pedigrees. The dam of Taiton Carion is Violet, by Wesley Heather, grand dam Daisy, by Carbon, and great grand dam Wooliam, by Woodman. The youngster is not only of royal descent but also a splendid individual.

John A. Spoor, president of the Union Stock Yards, is said to have sold $5000 for the 2-year-old Percheron stallion, Dragon, winner of the first prize in his class at the International Live Stock Show, which was held in Toronto at the big horse marts, during 1906, compared with the number sold in the first year of the century. Prices, as indicated by the statistics, were about 25 per cent. higher. And all this in spite of the coming of the automobile, the trolley, and the bicycle. Surely this state of things is something to give us pause to think. Marvellously it indicates the tremendous development and growth of the country.

He is 16 years old. He was 23 years old, and was shipped to England, where he jumped 8 feet 8 inches, and she has record 6 feet 9 inches over loose bars.

Anti-Pass Legislation Went into Effect in U.S. Yesterday.

Washington, Jan. 1.—To-day marks the beginning of the life of several important legislative acts.

These are the free alcohol law, the pure food law, the anti-pass section of the interstate commerce law and the modification of the navigation law to simplify enrollments and licenses.

The pure food law contemplates the barring from interstate commerce of foods that are injurious to health and the modification of the navigation law to simplify enrollments and licenses.

The anti-pass provision of the interstate commerce law forbids common carriers, directly or indirectly, giving interstate free tickets or passes for passengers, except to their employees and families, the agents of the carriers and their surgeons, physicians and attorneys, to persons engaged in religious and charitable work and to certain other specified classes.

BIG HORSE IN SMALL HOLE.

Necessary to Excavate the Earth to Get Him Out.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Jan. 1.—An unusual accident occurred yesterday at the corner of St. Lawrence-avenue and Queen-street, where the Ontario power company is building a transmission line.

Two large holes for poles were dug a short distance apart and when the poles were being brought to the place one horse of the team stepped into the hole. The big hole held his body nicely, and all that was visible was his legs and fore feet.

The rescues occupied several hours. The horse so filled the hole that nothing could be got under him. It was necessary to excavate the earth between the two holes and let the horse down into the new hole, then to get blocks and ropes and planks and lift him out. The animal was but little hurt.

ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP SHIP.

Unknown Men Felled in Attack on Vessel at Odessa.

London, Jan. 1.—A despatch to a news agency from Odessa, published to-day, says that a band of unknown men made an attempt last night to blow up the Russian Steamship Co.'s Atlantic liner Gregory Morsh, which has just completed her first trip in the new Odessa-New York service.

A desperate struggle followed between the crew and the members of the band, during which several sailors were shot.

The cause of the case of a bomb was extinguished before any damage was done.

THIEF GETS $20,000.

Bars Door, Smashes Window and Gets Over Fence to Freedom.

Monah, Nev., Jan. 1.—A freckling robbery of the jewelry store of George M. Blakely occurred last night, when the store was still open.

The robber put a brick through the outer handle of the door, so that it could not be opened from the inside.

With a hammer wrapped in paper, he broke the plate glass window, took a tray containing diamonds worth $20,000, jumped a fence and disappeared.

NOT RECOVERED.

Petrolia, Jan. 1.—The bodies of two boys, Russ Collins and George Niven, who were drowned in Bear Creek yesterday, have not yet been recovered, nitro glycerine is being used to raise the bodies.

Fireworks Exploded.

Havana, Jan. 1.—A panic was caused among the women guests at the officers' club at Mariano last night by the explosion of a mortar on the roof, from which pyrotechnic bombs were being fired at midnight as a New Year's salute.

The explosion blew a hole in the roof and caused some of the women to faint, but nobody was seriously hurt.

VITAL STATISTICS OF 1906 INCREASES VERY SLIGHT

169 More Births Than in 1905; 79 More Deaths and 42 More Marriages.

The vital statistics for the year show a slight increase in the births over 1905 of 167, while there have been 79 more deaths and 42 more marriages.

City Clerk Littlejohn is of opinion that the smallness of the advance in the number of births, as shown, is due to the neglect of parents to register their offspring, despite the fact that the law makes such omission a punishable offence.

The record for the past six years is as follows:

Year	Births	Deaths	Marriages
1901	4445	3428	2148
1902	4665	3234	2238
1903	5040	2871	2604
1904	5238	2862	2528
1905	4818	3065	2882
1906	5085	3164	2924

Year	Births	Deaths	Marriages
1905	419	557	413
1906	261	277	281
1907	302	269	246

The deaths from contagious diseases were 44 less than in 1905, and 77 less than in 1904, the material reduction in the mortality from diphtheria being chiefly responsible. The record is:

Year	Smallpox	Scarlatina	Diphtheria	Measles	Whooping cough	Typhoid	Tuberculosis
1905	12	5	12	137	181	42	303

The last month of the year shows 43 more deaths from contagious diseases than during November, and 34 more than for December of 1905. There were 45 deaths from pneumonia. The statement is as follows:

Year	Smallpox	Scarlatina	Diphtheria	Measles	Whooping cough	Typhoid	Tuberculosis
1905	499	466	422	60	51	94	60
1906	419	302	269	30	28	45	60
1907	302	269	246	30	28	45	60

For the month, death of children under 1 year of age numbered 85, and of people over 70 years, 66.

METHODIST RALLY.

3000 Sunday School Children Gathered at Massey Hall Yesterday.

Lowering skies, while they served to reduce materially the attendance at the annual "rally" of the Toronto Methodist Sunday Schools, held yesterday morning in Massey Hall, could not dampen the ardor of the 3000 pupils there assembled. The sight, as viewed from the galleries, was inspiring, seated on the platform were many of the leading Sunday school workers in the city. The meeting was presided over by S. H. Moore, superintendent of North Parkdale Methodist Church, while the musical service was in charge of Dr. G. L. Palmer, conductor; R. E. Cringan, orchestra leader; Dr. F. H. Torrington, organist, and Miss Minnie Claxton, pianist. "Hark 'Tis the Shepherd's Voice I Hear" was the opening chorus, in which the scholars joined with a vim. Rev. Dr. Potts delivered the invocation, after which Chairman Moore outlined briefly the work sought to be accomplished by the annual "rally." Edward L. Crawford sang a solo and the battle song, "Hail the Fort" was rendered by the school choir.

The feature of the "rally" was the illustrated talk by Ivor Brock, superintendent of Parkdale Methodist Church. Miss Springer gave a solo, which was heartily enjoyed.

"We ought to be devoutly thankful this morning," said Rev. W. F. Wilson, "that in King Edward we have one of the best of the world here ever seen." President Roosevelt also came in for a glowing eulogy, as did Premier Whitney. Mayor Coatsworth and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The speaker urged upon those present the importance of the consecration of their powers to the service of their Maker in their early youth. A string quartet selection by Messrs. Graham, Cringan, Elliot and Benedict Clarke was enthusiastically applauded. A few brief remarks from Hon Justice Maclean brought the proceedings to a close.

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

The story of Richard Carl's tremendously successful farcical opera, "The Mayor of Tokio," which will be presented for the first time at the Grand next week, is laid in Japan, and deals with the hard times of the earthquake-stricken organization. All the survivors of the earthquake left San Francisco 60 strong; are the impresario, a sour-faced wardrobe mistress, a love-sick girl, a soured man with Shakespearean ambitions, and nine little girls known as the "peanut ballet."

English theatrical managers who saw the performance of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" at the Princess Theatre next Monday evening, declared that it was the genre play-par excellence; that is to say, it excelled in the truthful depiction of life and gave not one but many for the memories of the thousands who saw the dramatization of Rice's two popular stories. This remarkable play, popular because of its homely teachings, will be the attraction at the Princess Theatre next Monday evening, when it will enter upon a week's engagement. Mrs. Wiggs' philosophy is written in English, and a soured man, who is being importuned to send the entire production to England. The engagement here will include Wednesday and Saturday matinees.

Interesting for ambitious young men who contemplate a theatrical career is the executive force of Duff of the Augustin Daly Musical Company consists of three Canadian boys: Colin Eaves, general adviser, Montreal; H. B. Tiedeman, manager, Victoria, and George Francis Beard, business manager, Toronto.

Another star attraction of the Augustin Daly Musical Co. will be brought to the Princess the week of Jan. 21, when "The Miss Mithus," a musical comedy from the French of Messinger, will be given its premiere performance in America. The show has held the boards at Daly's Theatre, London, for two years, following the "Clingalee." George L. Groves, an English comedian, will be seen in the role he originated, while a feature will be the appearance of the Misses MacFarland, two young ladies of stage accomplishment, who are twins, and marvellously alike, taking roles called for by the plot of the comedy. Geo. Fortescue, the heavy-weight comedian, is also of the company.

"White Frisco Burns," the 20th success by Lincoln J. Carter on the stage of this country, and his very latest play, will be seen at the Majestic next week. The audience sees seemingly the entire stage move in three different directions and break into a chaos of ruins. Whole rows of buildings are crumpled in minute pieces; yawning chasms open up in streets and facades of monster houses; a vast sea of flame advances on the ruins and tumult reigns supreme.

The concert in Association Hall last evening was largely patronized and was largely enjoyed. The trio of artists, Ione Robertson, Janet Duff and Harold Jarvis were enthusiastically received. The Scottish character of the program seemed to appeal strongly to the large majority of those present.

The Strollers' Club held their annual sleighing party on New Year's eve, to the Summer House, Danforth-road. Although there was no sleighing, they held it on wheels, and danced in the new year, to the strains of Ferguson's Orchestra, afterwards having supper, and came home in the early hours, everyone vowing to be better held. W. Wilson was secretary and managed the affair in first-class style.

A Card of Thanks.

Mrs. R. B. Hamilton wishes to thank, thru the press, the kind friends who generously provided for the Xmas tree at the General Hospital.

COBALT MEMBERS OPERATE WITHOUT A VOTER RULE

Officers Considered Unnecessary and Expenses Are Nil—Dealing Dates Back to 1720.

New York, Jan. 1.—Many persons are of opinion that curb trading competitively is a new proceeding, but this is not so, as it is known that in 1720 a curb market existed in Paris in the Rue Quincampoix, and, as is the case here, a part of the street was roped off to mark the boundaries of the market. The French market finally became so large that it had to be moved to the garden of a prince, who rented out booths at enormous figures. The curb on Broad-street was started in the early part of the century, and a dense mass congregated in front of the Mills Building and traded in a few hundred shares of stock daily. The market traded in this time principally were bank stocks and other high grade issues. The broad-street market pays no royalties to the use of the street, and enjoys most of the advantages and escapes some of the disadvantages that are common to a regular organized stock exchange. Consular officials curb are the same as on the curb, but the market is more conservative of the brokers use all possible means to prevent splitting of this regular rate.

The curb is an open market. It has no admission fees, no restriction as to members and no listing committee. This has often invited the question: Why is it that a man who wishes to buy or sell a block of stock on the market does not do so through a broker? The answer is: Why? These questions are but natural, but let us consider the advantages of curb trading. First, the man who transmits his own business and the question is answered. None but regular recognized brokers are admitted to the market. Signatures of outsiders will not be accepted, and the traders usually put up the money themselves. If he attempts to introduce himself, he will be refused. For many years the curb has been recognized as a necessary adjunct to the stock exchange and its members are jealous of its good name, to the exclusion of any other organization, bylaws, constitution or rules for the transacting of business, but they are not so stupid as to let their market be invaded by their members. The strict observance of the curb laws is maintained when the interests of the market are considered.

When a new issue of business, credit is absolutely necessary and credit is given freely without question to the members who have thousands of dollars in the market. Very few cases of abuse ever have been known, and where such a case occurs, it is reported and the short duration of time necessary to investigate is amazing.

When a new issue of stock has been announced in the newspapers or on the ticker, the market is closed for a few minutes and the curb is closed for a few minutes. The curb is closed for a few minutes and the curb is closed for a few minutes. The curb is closed for a few minutes and the curb is closed for a few minutes.

Heve in public ownership and many of the things we advocate do not understand the word Socialist. They think it means Nihilist, anarchist, or something of that kind. I am heartily glad that the power bylaw carries. That pleases me more than if I had been elected and the bylaw had been defeated.

The campaign did not affect Mr. Lindala's daily life a particle, and evidently the result of the election has not disturbed his equanimity.

Politics of Council. Politically the city council has undergone little change, despite the passing of Controllers Jones and Shaw.

Ad. Fleming, Dunn, Stewart, and Noble, all Conservatives. In last year's council there were 13 Conservatives and 9 Liberals. The present line up is: Conservatives—The mayor, Controllers Hubbard and Hocken, Ald. Wilson, Church, J. Ailes, Foster, Geary, McBride, Keeler, Whytock, R. E. Graham, McChie—2.

Liberal—Controllers Ward and Harrison, Ald. Chisholm, E. Hales, Bengough, McMurrich, Lytle, Graham and Adams—10.

Ad. Vaughan has no particular politics, he says. He is understood to be an independent Liberal.

The New Controllers. H. C. Hocken of the new board has gone but will not be forgotten. R. H. Graham is not new to the council board. He represented ward five for several successive terms, retiring a few years ago. Mr. Graham had a good civic record, and should give the city good service, as he has a good fund of municipal knowledge and a reputation for sound judgment. He is a retired business man, with plenty of spare time to give to civic affairs. He is in politics a staunch Conservative.

Peter B. Whytock, who fills the second vacancy in ward five, has campaigned more than once before in the ward, the last year he stayed out of the race. His policy of "try, try again" has been rewarded. Mr. Whytock is in business as a butcher and is very popular in his section of the ward. His politics are Conservative.

won a seat on the board thru his strong platform and untiring energy. As a campaigner in municipal politics his equal has seldom been seen. Mr. Hocken has been in active newspaper work for 14 years, and is now editor of The Orange Sentinel. During the past year he was on the advisory board of the civic island committee.

Dr. Harrison has been a strong advocate of public ownership during his four years in council for the fourth ward. Last year he was head of the poll, with 3991 votes. He is able and aggressive and should strengthen the board.

The New Men. James Wilson is a printer. He has contested ward one for two or three years in the labor interest. He is a young man and was for a time editor of The Teller, the one-time trades union paper. Last year he polled 1221 votes.

Edward Hales made his first bid for aldermanic honors last year, when he polled 1230 votes. He was for a number of years on the Toronto police department, retiring with the rank of inspector. He has a good property interest in the ward. He is a Conservative.

James Hales, the new man in ward two, is a barrister, who has previously contested the ward. Last year he was fifth man, with 1254 votes. Mr. Hales is young and energetic, and goes into the city council with every indication of proving a capable representative. Mr. Hales is Conservative in politics, like his colleagues of the ward. It is said, however, that he resolved a large number of votes from supporters of ex-Ald. Oliver, which means that he is popular outside the party ranks.

James Foster, the victor of Ald. Noble in the faction fight of the same ward, is well-known in a civic sense. For many years an alderman, his career was cut short two years ago by the going away of his controllership plans, and last year he sought without success to regain his position in the ward. With a strong organization, at work for weeks, he has succeeded.

Mr. Keeler is a cartoonist, lecturer and single-tax advocate. Last year he was fourth man, 169 behind Ald. McBride. It was generally conceded that he would be elected, but his strong run was not expected, as the advocacy of the $700 exemption was believed to be a drawback to his prospects of making better than third place. Mr. Bengough undoubtedly drew his support in a large measure from the Liberals of the ward, who concentrated their voting strength upon him. Mr. Bengough is a champion of public ownership, and should bring some good debating ability into the council.

Thomas A. Lytle, who has made the third place in ward four, is head of the manufacturing firm of T. A. Lytle & Co. This is his first race for aldermanic honors. He has experience as a public man, having been confined to his membership in the old school board, in which he served for several years. Mr. Lytle should make an excellent alderman, as he will bring sound business ideas into the office. He has energy in his disposition, as shown in his nomination address, and his campaign. Mr. Lytle is a moderate Reformer.

The Sale of Rubbers

Goodness! to think of rubbers at a discount this weather! They should naturally be at a premium and they are too in the wholesale way, that is to say raw rubber is getting scarcer.

Nevertheless here are we, in the January thaw of all times, offering new perfect rubbers at reduced prices. It's a little surprise we planned some time ago when an unusual opportunity occurred to make it possible.

Maltese Cross Rubbers 200 pairs of Men's Maltese Cross Rubbers, plain over, rounding toe, heavy corrugated sole and heel, strong lining, popular sizes and widths, list price 85c, on sale Thursday 59 on the same terms as the waterworks, and will no doubt be as profitably and beneficially managed for the citizens. The cost of this plant will be secured out of the revenue for the power and light, and will be paid for in 30 years, when it will become the property of the city without having cost the city a cent in direct payment. The engineers of the hydro-electric power commission have stated that the extra cost for distribution in the city will be some $4 per horsepower. As $15 is the maximum price for power, $2 will therefore represent the cost of power to the consumer's door. Under any kind of favorable consumption of power in Toronto, as is more than probable, the quantity taken is expected to reduce the price considerably below $20 per horsepower for 24-hour power.
