THE BUDGET SPEECH

In 1879 thought it necessary that our industry should have the advantage of a protective tariff in order to build up the country, and stand up against foreign competition, there was greater reason than ever that such a policy should be continued. (Cheers.) Competition with the outside world had not decreased, but had increased. The United States had a 40 per cent tariff, and now a Republican House of Representatives had sent a bill to Senate to still further raise in the tariff. All other nations were backing up industries by tariffs.

Immense possibilities. He proceeded to show the immense possibilities of developing the resources of Canada and the Empire, and showed what the Dominion is capable of in the way of providing food for the Mother Land. In a recent article in the Nineteenth Century the question had been discussed whether the empire could feed itself. Why, sir, if statesmanship is not able to practically solve that question, statesmanship must find it impossible to solve any of the great questions which from time to time present themselves to us.

The empire able to feed itself. Yes! The writer said 100,000,000 bushels of wheat each year, and raised other than what the colonies afforded her at the present time, in order to feed the people of the Empire. One hundred million bushels of wheat, why, fifty thousand Canadian farmers with 100 acres each would raise and raise thirty bushels to the acre, would produce 150,000,000 bushels of wheat for export to Great Britain. (Cheers.)

What is fifty thousand farmers cultivating fifty million acres compared with the numbers of farmers and acres of good wheat land in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories which has not yet been scratched by the plough? It is more than the amount of land and forty millions of pounds would have to be supplied by the colonies. (Cheers.)

Why, cattle, and horses, and pigs in unlimited quantities are raised in this country. And as to butter and cheese, fifty thousand farmers, owning fifty cows each, would produce enough to meet the surplus of what is required in Great Britain. And with the vast lands of the Northwest, that is not an estimate which cannot be reached. It means are taken by which it could be reached. No, sir, I might go on to amplify this. The sugar which is necessary to the Empire could be supplied by the West Indies and by the East Indies. By cultivation of the cane which, by some means, and by impoverishing the planters and laborers, the East and West Indies might again have their period of progress and remunerative protection. So all the way through, it is a problem which only requires time and statesmanship to solve, and as I said before, it is for Canada, it is for Australia, it is for the other colonies of Great Britain, and for Great Britain herself. It is a problem which will make the Empire and its dependencies sufficient without the colonies, and by doing that will add to the force of business, and will add to remunerative protection, and will add to the Empire. And that is better and greater than all that, sir, it will make these outlying dependencies of the Empire, and Britain being a common interest of trade and common defence, it will make them strong and united to begin that progress which is the Imperial progress which I believe is in store for the Briton in Canada, the Briton in Australia, the Briton in Asia, the Briton in Africa and the Briton in the Isles of the sea. (Prolonged cheers.)

The Minister spoke two hours and ten minutes.

After recess Sir Richard Cartwright took up his annual parole. He declared no other country was more united than Canada to the Empire, and that protection. He held that its vast area and sparse settlement, and its geographical position, but that to the south, He denied that exports showed any really appreciable increase. Most of the exports were of articles such as wooden goods, which, he held, should not be placed to the credit of the Government in a country so especially favored as Canada was, Canada last year exported one million dollars' worth of household goods, and these were settlers' effects. He charged that Canada was altogether over-governed and declared there should be a halt in the extravagant course of the Government. He said the Conservatives vaunted about their love for England, but how did they show it? They imposed high duties on manufactured goods, and England being the greatest producer of manufactured than any other country. In 1874 under the Liberals, the imports from Britain were $3 millions, but in 1895, the Conservatives, they were only $1 million. He held that the slow increase was wrong. The soil, the men, and everything else about Canada, that was better than there, the very bad condition it was in must be due to the possession of a remarkably bad Government. (Cheers.)

Sir Richard did not take up the budget speech in detail, but, after speaking one hour, he moved the adjournment of the House in order that he might deal further with the subject at the next sitting of the House. The House went into committee on Mr. Sprague's bill to prevent adulteration of honey. Some progress was made, and the House adjourned 10 p.m.

Tornado and Flood Visit the Colony—Heavy Loss of Life—Property Loss Estimated at $2,500,000.

Brisbane, Queensland, Jan. 31.—Great loss of property has been caused in the northern part of this colony by a tornado and heavy rain. The damage is estimated at $2,500,000.

Several coasting vessels are missing and it is believed that they have been driven ashore and that all aboard of them were lost. Townsville, a seaport on Cleveland Bay, suffered more than any other place in the districts affected.

There is scarcely a building in the town that escaped damage. The houses in the town were blown down, and the property was lost.

Advices from the Tonga Islands show that a hurricane lately passed over them. Two ships at Tongataboo and other islands were wrecked, and the thousands of cocoanut trees on the plantations were torn up by the roots, causing heavy loss to the owners.

A Great Vaudeville Show. The announcement that comes from Montreal for the coming week is that an exceedingly popular organization and great drawing card, the Boston and Paris papers call him the greatest legitimate clown in the amusement world.

ANTARCTIC POSSIBILITIES.

Dorchbrevik Thinks There May Be a Future for Commerce There.

The recent Antarctic expedition was a commercial one, and commercially it was a failure, because we did not find the right whale so valuable for its blubber.

I do not by any means consider the fact of our not having met with the right whale in those seas as conclusive proof of their non-existence in the bay at Victoria Land.

The difference in the appearance of the blue whale as we found it there, and the right whale as we found it in the bay at Victoria Land, is so striking that even the most casual observer could not easily be deceived.

As I remarked at the International Geographical Congress, we found few seals in the bay at Victoria Land, in number, as we worked eastward, and seemed afraid of the land.

I consider the guano beds which we discovered of great commercial importance, and the presence of the seal, which we were so anxious to find, brought back to me a contains a large percentage of ammonia.

Furthermore, from the analysis of the specimen of rock which I brought back with me, the possible and probable presence of valuable minerals on the continent is not later than 30th April.

Now For February!

This store is an habitual record-breaker. Each year breaks the record of all predecessors, and we work in the promise of still greater things.

On another page of this paper we outline part of the February programme. But that isn't all. New Spring Goods are wheeling into line and you'll be glad to pass them in review.

In all Canada no equal stocks. That has been true for years, and the largest trading will continue to give verge and scope to this business.

New Eatonia Bicycles!

There's more suggestion in the display of new wheels than you'll get in a column of words. It's a revelation to most people—an economic revelation even to us.

Last year our advertising effervesced over Bicycles. The enthusiasm is greater now, and the beauty of the new wheels predicts even greater popularity for "Eatonia's."

COSTLY WINE.

What You Have to Pay for Tokay of 1896 Vintage. It was aromatic in a musty way, describing the cellar where the last few bottles of Tokay—the most expensive of all wines—are stored, and bore no more resemblance to an ordinary cellar in point of smell than, say, Gruyere to Cumberb.

I seemed to breathe in fungus at every breath. A slight haze hung along the top of the passages, and I tried to fancy it was flavored with the choicest and oldest vintages of Tokay, but could not get beyond a moldy state akin to the fumes on the morrow of a supper party.

My first surprise was to observe that the bottles were kept upright and with the corks loosely inserted, not hammered down and sealed. This is imperative for keeping Tokay in perfect condition, and there is the advantage that a sample even of the oldest vintage may be taken out and tasted at any moment without impairing the contents.

Moreover, a bottle may be shaken to any extent without risk. No one knows the reason for this peculiar virtue of Tokay. It has not been made for a generation—at least, the modern wine which goes by the name comes nearer the genuine article than modern Madeira.

Real Tokay is the only wine which goes on improving forever. You may give champagne 12 to 15 years at the outside, and then every other bottle will be corked; Bordeaux and Burgundy may not be trusted much beyond 1888; port, with its proverbial longevity, is generally not worth drinking after a hundred years' keeping; even brandy has not much greater vitality.

I tasted a thimbleful of Tokay which was authenticated 1668, as the exquisite aroma will always linger on my palate. Only 10 dozen of it remained a couple of years ago, and taking compound interest into consideration, it seems dirt cheap at $20 the bottle; 1862 cost $26 a bottle. From 1781 to 1788 the prices range from $15 down—Saturday Review.

He—I'm afraid I couldn't make you happy, darling, on only $2,000 a year. She—Oh, it's plenty! With economy I can dress on $1,500, and just think, dear, we can have all the rest for household expenses—Life.

Lawyer—You say the prisoner stole your watch. What distinguishing feature was there about the watch? Witness—It had my sweetheart's picture in it. Lawyer—Ah, I see. A woman in the case—Scottish American.

Old Lady—Can you save wood? Rollingstone Nonsense—Fardon me, madam, but you are slightly at fault in your tense. If you mean can I see wood, I may say that my eyesight is slightly defective—Philadelphia Record.

Ferguson—I don't like to see a full-grown man like you carrying a pair of skates along the streets down town, Hankinson—You'd rather see me carrying them than having them on, wouldn't you?—Chicago Tribune.

Cashier—Haven't you heard, sir, that John Jones is a bankrupt? Banker—Well, that's good news. We'll now get a little of what he owes us, whereas, if he had remained in business we'd never have had a cent.—Pilegnde Blaetter.

First Young Lawyer—I don't see how you happened to lose your case. The law was plainly on your side. Second Young Lawyer—Yes, I knew it was, but that was what I depended on. But I forgot all about the jury.—Somerville Journal.

THE CITY AND PUBLIC FRANCHISES.

As the question of empowering another company to manufacture and distribute electric light energy in the city has been referred to a special committee, it will be out of order to briefly refer to the general relations existing between the city and companies of this kind. In presenting their case to the council, the Aqueduct people think that a franchise in duty bound to give them a franchise similar to the one under which the Incandescent Light Company now carries on its business. The reasoning is that if one company can get a franchise, it is only right that another should be allowed to obtain a similar franchise under the same conditions.

This line of argument is fallacious. No matter what the city may have done in regard to any other company the Aqueduct people have no right to demand any concessions from the city. The city may have made a good bargain with the Incandescent Light Company, or it may have made a mistake. In either case it is not compelled to direct its attention to the Aqueduct people. The first thing, therefore, that the aldermen want to keep in mind is that the Aqueduct people have no claim whatever upon the council.

The second point to which we wish to direct the attention of the aldermen who are acting for the citizens in this matter is that as soon as any company obtains a franchise from the city, it immediately becomes inimical to the interests of the citizens. We do not think it is necessary to go further than cite the case of the Consumers Gas Company. This concern was, as its name implies, started in the interests of consumers of gas. The shareholders obtained their agreement from the city they side-tracked the consumers and worked altogether in the interests of the shareholders. The only concern of the directors of the Consumers Gas Company is to strengthen the position of its shareholders and to oppose the rights that belong to the consumers. When the vote was recently taken whether the city should make its own gas lights or obtain them by contract, the Toronto Electric Light Company spent several thousand dollars to defeat the project. The greatest objection to the city's undertaking the project to light its own streets and thereby get the service at cost price was a company that the city itself had brought into existence. Every concern of this kind derives its revenue from the public and it stands to reason that the more money the public can be made to give up, the more profit accrues to the company. They are antagonistic forces. Every company that the city brings into existence becomes its natural enemy.

Another point that we wish to impress upon the aldermen is that it is a bad economic principle to trust to competition for the reduction of prices when the creation of a regulated monopoly is possible. A couple of years ago a second gas company was started in Montreal with the object of reducing the price of this commodity.

Some half million dollars were expended by the new concern. It began to supply gas at greatly reduced rates, but it had not done so long before the old company absorbed the new company body and bones.

It was, of course, one of the stipulations of such an amalgamation was to be prohibited, but, as we know in Toronto, provisions of this kind are hardly worth the paper they are written on. The result of the deal in Montreal was that the old company had to increase its capital stock by half a million dollars, close up the new concern and adjust its rates so as to earn a dividend on a capital stock unnecessarily increased by half a million dollars. Instead of being benefited by the new concern, the gas consumers of Montreal found themselves taxed to pay dividends for two sets of shareholders instead of one as previously. A similar state of things is on the point of being carried out in this city. The Incandescent Light Co. was established on the understanding that it would afford bona fide competition in electricity. A provision to that effect was inserted in its agreement with the city. In case of violation of this provision the charter was to be forfeited. What is virtually an amalgamation of the two concerns has now been completed, and the city will have to pay interest on two different plants and dividends to two sets of shareholders when one plant and one company is all that is necessary to cater to the wants of the people. If an engineer were asked to design the most economical system for the distribution of electricity in any city, he certainly would not suggest the formation of two independent companies. That the citizens are paying extravagantly for electric light and power is evident from the fact that the shares of these two concerns are quoted at about 150, and fully one-third of the capital is superfluous.

What the aldermen at the City Hall should now consider is how they will aggravate the evil by bringing into existence a third concern. The fact that the company seeking privileges from the city promises a reduction in the price of electric current counts for nothing in the light of facts which we have just cited in regard to Toronto and Montreal. Just as sure as this company is allowed to use our streets for the distribution of electric power, just so certain will it be that it will establish a monopoly, and that the two that already exist. To allow several companies to distribute a commodity like electricity is a retrograde step. The tendency of the times is to establish monopolies, and managed wholly by the municipality or regulated by it. We have started out in the right direction and if we do not stray from the policy we have adopted we will soon regain possession of all the franchises we have previously lost. The street railway franchise is in our hands. If we take advantage of the opportunity we may regain possession of the franchise for supplying gas. We control to a large extent the telephone privilege. During the winter season we will probably monopolize the ferry business and sell out the privilege to the highest bidder. And if we play our cards rightly at the present juncture we can bring the privilege of distributing electricity under the control of the people. To deal at all with the Aqueduct Company is to postpone and render more difficult the regaining control of the franchise. Instead of dealing with a single company, we should force the existing private companies to give us a certain percentage of their receipts and limit themselves to a maximum price, in consideration of allowing them a monopoly of the business for five or ten years.

Mayor Fleming has made many promises to safeguard the rights of the people. We ask him now to protect the people against a retrograde movement. As we pointed out above, the Aqueduct people have no claim whatever upon the consideration of the aldermen. The citizens expect that these latter will act altogether in the interests of the people, and it certainly is not in their interests to create another concern whose interests are always hostile to the city.

THE TOLLGATE QUESTION.

It is to be hoped the York County Council will make a herculean effort during the present meeting to abolish the tollgates now so standstill in progress in this metropolitan county. Mr. Robinson, the metropolitan solicitor, ought to draft a bill that will hold water this time. The doing away of the tollgates will, we think, have a marked tendency to improve the roads. The money for maintaining them will be distributed among all the ratepayers instead of being limited, as it is now, to those who actually use the roads. Indirectly all residents in the county get the benefit of the tollgates, and, therefore, that all should be taxed to maintain them is an additional tax that will be rendered necessary, in the absence of gate receipts, for maintaining the highways will be comparatively small when it will be considered that every ratepayer, whether he has a horse or not, will have to contribute his share. In addition to being relieved from the market fees, the farmers of York County will and themselves paying less annually for the roads than they now do. The exchange is one more favorable to the residents of the county than to the citizens of Toronto. The county councillors stand in their own light if they any longer refuse to avail themselves of the generous offer of the city.

The annual general meeting of the shareholders of the Central Canada Loan and Savings Company was held at Peterboro on Jan. 22. The report of the directors showed that the net value of mortgages and other securities available for redemption was $3,200,000, upon which 50 per cent. has been paid. The directors have also recommended that the profits of the year four quarterly dividends at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, together with the income tax thereon, be added to the contingent fund, which now stands at $34,025.40. At the end of the year the reserve fund stood at $325,000. The company's assets have increased during the year by $23,890.26, and now stand at $5,479,219.26. The report of the company is a most satisfactory one, showing both careful and economic management.

Central Canada Loan and Savings Company of Ontario. The shareholders of the above company held their annual general meeting at Peterboro on Wednesday, the 22nd January, 1896, when the following report was submitted:

The directors, with submit their twelfth annual report, together with a statement of assets and liabilities as at December 31, 1895, and a statement of the Profit and Loss account for the year ending at that date, duly audited and certified.

After defraying the expenses of management, providing for interest on debentures and deposits, and meeting all expenses in connection with the issue and renewal of $329,450 currency debentures and $1,100,000 sterling debentures, your directors have been able from the profits of the year to pay four quarterly dividends at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, together with the income tax thereon, and to add $10,246.23 to the Contingent Fund, which now stands at $34,025.40. The Reserve Fund as at 31st December is $325,000.

An unusually large amount of sterling debentures was redeemed during the past year. It is satisfactory to note that the renewals and new debentures issued were considerably in excess of the maturities, and that a substantial reduction in the rate of interest was effected.

The company's funds have been kept fully invested during the year, the directors thinking it better to meet the demand for higher rates than leave money unemployed.

The assets have been increased during the twelve months by $23,890.26, and now stand at $5,479,219.26.

The interest payments and maturing instalments of principal have been met with fairly satisfactory promptness. The losses incurred during the year in the management of the property are charged against the Contingent account, which was increased from the profits of the year by $10,246.23.

The inspection committee have made a careful examination of the securities, and reported the same with the most satisfactory results.

The report of the auditors is appended to the twelfth annual report, and is respectfully submitted on behalf of the directors,

GEORGE A. COX, President.

THE AQUEDUCT. PARCE-

The Board of Works puts in a Busy Day trying to find out what it is.

Yesterday at the City Hall the curtain dropped on another act of the farce, the Georgian Bay Canal scheme. The unemployed who filled the Executive Chamber, expecting to hear the glad news that the commencement of the works, which were to cost untold millions of dollars, was an event that would happen in the near future, must have asked themselves the question, where are we at? The special meeting of the Board of Works, called for the purpose of considering this mammoth question, brought out the fact that to all intents and purposes this company has no idea of building an aqueduct or anything else, and that all they ask, according to Ald. Leslie's motion is a franchise to supply heat, light and power. It appears also that the company will not even insert a clause providing that no adult shall be paid less than 15 cents per hour. Those who have followed this question from the time it was first introduced to a long-suffering public, when they realize that the proposition to build a $60,000,000 canal has dwindled down to a request for a franchise which does not even embody the building of an aqueduct, will doubtless enjoy a broad smile.

There was a long discussion over the following resolution, which had been moved at the first meeting of the Board and referred to the Board of Works: "That the officers of this corporation be authorized to execute an agreement under the corporate seal of the city with the Georgian Bay Ship Canal and Power Aqueduct Company, in the same terms and conditions as the agreement now existing between the city and the Incandescent Light Company."

stated that the power furnished by them must come through an aqueduct or canal. Ald. Hubbard, on a point of order, said it would be clearly out of order to discuss Ald. Leslie's resolution, as there was nothing in it that referred to an aqueduct or a canal. Ald. Leslie said the River Humber was an aqueduct. Ald. Boustead pointed out that if an agreement was made in accordance with Ald. Leslie's resolution, the company could build a dam on the Humber, and use turbine wheels and bring water to the city. He moved that the opinion of the City Council be had as to the power of the company to enter into an agreement in accordance with Ald. Leslie's resolution, and that the city advertise the franchise for the supply of heat, light and power. He thought that within a few years the price for electricity would be one-half cent per hour. The Mayor asked if the city's ends would be met if power was furnished from an aqueduct at a certain price, within a certain time. He would not support giving the aqueductors an agreement similar to the Incandescent Company. He was, however, prepared to give them an agreement if power was furnished by an aqueduct at a certain price, within a certain time. LIBELLED TO THE EXTENT OF $1

So Decided a Jury Yesterday in the Case of Ellis vs. The Junction Leader and Recorder.

Messrs. A. R. Fawcett and J. B. Spurr, proprietor and managing editor respectively of The Junction Leader and Recorder, were assessed $1 by a jury at the Civil Assizes yesterday for libelling Police Magistrate Ellis of Toronto Junction. The article which was the cause of the trouble was published in the issue of Aug. 18th last, and was under the heading "They Fear Criticism." A short time previously The Toronto Evening News printed an article "No Conviction, no Pay," which had relation to certain liquor cases which were tried before Police Magistrate Ellis, and in which whiskey detectives were the witnesses. In this article it was stated that whiskey convictions were obtained, and it was further stated that magistrates were in the sum box. It was sought yesterday by means of this article to prove that the article of The Leader and Recorder complained of had direct application to Mr. Ellis. The defence set up was that the article was not meant to defame; that it was merely a criticism of the administration of the License Department of the Government, and that it was published in the public interest. Several witnesses were called, all of whom gave it as their opinion that the article had reference to Magistrate Ellis. The defence put in no evidence, relying entirely on the address of Mr. Osler to the jury. Mr. Osler was associated with Mr. Osler for the defence, while Crown Attorney Dewar had the case for the plaintiff. His Lordship in charging the jury explained what the rights and privileges of the press in discussing judicial acts were, and left the article to the jury to make its own interpretation. The jury gave a verdict for the plaintiff for $1. The question of costs will be arranged to-day.

Damage suits still fashionable. Cranwick v. Henderson was also an action for damages. The plaintiff, Fletcher Cranwick, rented a house to the defendant, Caroline Henderson, in 1894, and says that she put him out, although no rent was due, and also made representations to his employer which cost him his job. The plaintiff went to show that a bailiff served the statutory notice on the defendant, and that the plaintiff left the house without further trouble. His

GRAND TRUNK CHANGES

Not likely to be as sweeping as predicted in Some Quarters.

The state of the G.T.R. would hardly know itself if effect were to be given to one-half the changes and removals which have been talked of in the last three or four weeks. As yet, however, the new General Manager has made no changes that directly affect the Toronto district, and although there is a good deal of uneasiness among the local employes, it is thought by those who should know that there will be no important changes here, for the present at least. A contemporary published the alleged information that three G.T.R. employes, who had been in the service for twenty, thirty-five and forty years respectively, had been discharged. This "news" was founded on the fact that one employe of eight years' standing had been removed, and another department transferred to another department. There seems to be but little more foundation for the report that division superintendents were to be removed and their offices abolished. As one railway man remarked, "They may do away with the office and remove the man, but the work must be done by some one, whatever they call him." Mr. T. H. McGuigan, secretary of the Western Division of the Wabash Railway, who is now inspecting the Grand Trunk for Mr. Hays, will shortly leave the Wabash to accept the position on the G.T.R. It is expected that the new man will be made General Superintendent in succession to Mr. Stephenson, who, according to accredited reports, will be made Assistant Manager. Another report has it that Mr. Stephenson will retain his present position, and that Mr. McGuigan will assume the assistant management of the road.

KIDS SENT TO JAIL

The Youthful Housebreakers sentenced by Judge Lang to Jail for 60 Days.

Two youthful housebreakers, Gilbert Oliver and Lawrence Clark who were arrested by Island Constable Gray in the act of robbing Frank Cayley's cottage on the Island, pleaded guilty, and as they both have been previously sentenced to jail for 60 days in connection with this case, a man named Alex Holland was charged with having aided in the escape of the prisoners and was arrested in company with Oliver and Clark. It appears that when the sleigh in which the prisoners had been brought from the Island reached the foot of Scott-street, one of the lads jumped out and ran. The assistant island constable chased him to the market and Holland was alleged to have been the ringleader of the crowd, and after hearing the evidence the magistrate dismissed him with a warning.

Police Station in Heaven

Mr. Aitken stated in St. James' Cathedral yesterday that Toronto had not responded as other towns in Canada had done to his mission, either as regards attendance or liberality. Then, turning to his audience, he said: "Shallow and even profane notions of what Heaven consists of are being put into the heads of the people. It is not a place where the good sit on clouds and trumpets all day long—he did not want to do with keeping people out of Heaven." If it were a true representation of Heaven, he said, it would be a place where the good sit on clouds and trumpets all day long—he did not want to do with keeping people out of Heaven. A LIGHT KEEPER'S STORY.

HIS WIFE WAS A FEARFUL SUFFERER FROM RHEUMATISM.

Her Joints Were Swollen and Distorted, Her Nights Almost Sleepless and Her Appetite Gone—Suffered for Several Years Before Relief Was Found.

From The Kingston News. Mr. Hugh McLaren, lighthouse keeper on Wolfe Island, is one of the best known men in this section, and to his vigilance in the performance of his duties is due the safety of the many craft sailing in that part of the St. Lawrence. Mrs. McLaren, his wife, has been an invalid for a number of years, and in conversation with a reporter recently, Mr. McLaren stated that she was rapidly regaining her old-time health since the use of the most marvelous of modern medicines—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Asked if he had any objections to giving the particulars, Mr. McLaren replied that emphatically he had not if such publication was likely to benefit any other sufferer. He said: "A number of years ago my wife contracted rheumatism, and for a considerable time was a helpless invalid. Her joints were swollen and distorted, her nights were sleepless and her appetite poor and very fickle. During those years she experienced excruciating tortures, the pain never ceasing day or night. She had the benefit of skilled medical advice but the treatment afforded no relief, and we began to fear that her trouble had gone beyond human aid. On a number of occasions I had read in the papers cases of rheumatism being cured by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and this at last determined us to give them a trial. She had used some three boxes before any improvement was noticed, and then we began to note that she slept better and that her appetite was improved. When the pains gradually began to subside, and after using about a dozen boxes she was able to get up and walk about. She continued the use of the pills for a while longer, and although occasionally she feels twinges of the trouble in changeable weather, she now enjoys better health than she has done for years, and can sleep as soundly as ever she did in her life, and her appetite never was better. I look upon Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a wonderful medicine, for I know they have done wonders in my wife's case, and I feel certain that if any who are afflicted as she was will give them a good trial, equally happy results will follow, and I therefore give this testimony freely, hoping that it will benefit some other sufferer."

Mr. McLaren's strong testimony proves the claim made that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure when other medicines fail, and that they deserve to rank as the greatest discovery of modern medical science. The public should always be on their guard against imitations and substitutes, which some unscrupulous dealers, for the sake of extra profit, urge upon purchasers. There is no other remedy that the same as "just as good" as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, which always have the full trade mark "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around every box.

Independent Order Foresters.

Last week Bro. John A. McMillan, F.S., visited Court Iniquity, and delivered an address upon the progress of the Order, and on Monday evening last the Supreme Secretary, accompanied by Bros. E. Botterell, F.S.C.R., Mr. Choquette, M.P., Dr. Goldberg, M.P., addressed a large public gathering at Gaitheir Point, near Ottawa, held under the auspices of Court "St. Etienne Pasha" Tache. On Thursday evening Court Bellevue at Weston held a very pleasant and interesting public gathering in the Home in Rowntree's Hall. The program was interspersed with songs, etc. Refreshments were served during the evening. The Local Court at Oxford Centre held a very interesting and entertaining public gathering in the Methodist Church on Thursday evening. Bro. G. A. Harper, assistant Supreme Chief Ranger, and other prominent Foresters were present, who set forth the benefits of Forestry in a very lucid manner. After the concert a banquet was held in the court room. The growth of Forestry is well illustrated by the record for December, 1895, the receipts being $26,915.90. After paying out in benefits and expenses for the month, the sum of $2,215 was carried over to the surplus fund. The following new Courts have been formed: Courts "Best" at Milton; "Vigilant," at Cleveland; "Kismet," at Elgin, and "Canaan," at Hammond.

Young Men's Liberal Club.

A very interesting meeting will be held by the Young Men's Liberal Club at their rooms, Richmond Hall, on Monday evening, when the committee is to report on the number of promises made to the electors by Sir Charles Tupper, and the number of those that have been carried out. A resolution calling upon the Government to strengthen Canadian defenses on the border, and to properly equip and arm our militia. An election for five members of the Executive will also be held.

The York Township Contest.

Of the eight candidates who originally stood for the vacancy among the deputy reeves of York Township, two, Mr. F. C. Miller and W. J. Moore, have retired. This leaves in the field R. J. Bull, R. Nimmo and J. Morgan. Monday, the election takes place on Monday, and the result will probably be announced at 3 p.m. at the Town Hall, Exinton.

A Short Road to Health.

A Short Road to health was opened to those suffering from chronic coughs, catarrhs, bronchitis, croup, laryngitis, pneumonia, excoriated throats, indigestion, and other ailments, by the introduction of the Electric Oil. The remedy, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

Athletic Life for February.

The February number of The Athletic Life is to hand, and contains an illustrated article on the history of the University of Toronto by James G. Merrick; also one on the Toronto Athletic Club, illustrated by the editor. Trout culture, by Mr. C. H. Riggs, is quite a feature of the number, also Hockey in Canada, by Mr. S. B. Flower. The current number is an excellent one, and should be in the hands of every lover of sport.

Only those who have had experience can tell the tortures of corns. Pain with four boots on, and with them off—pain night and day; but relief is sure to those who use Holloway's Corn Cure.

FLOUR AND GRAIN SECTION.

The Reorganization of This Section Causes Some Bad Feelings.

After the usual call board yesterday it is announced that the section would be reorganized, and he called for nominations for the Executive Committee. The names proposed were Messrs. John Carrick, Thomas Pryan, James Carruthers, C. B. Watts and M. McLaughlin. These gentlemen were elected, with Mr. McLaughlin chairman.

There is a good deal of bad feeling expressed by members at the appointment of the new Executive Committee. The chief reason being that no large dealers in Manitoba were on the committee. It is also stated that members had no previous notification of the reorganization of this section, and many in consequence were absent.

The National Council of Women.

At the meeting of the National Council of Women of Canada, held last night, a resolution was carried which pledges the council to plan, introduce and carry forward measures which will result in the appointment of qualified women physicians for all institutions in which women are detained either for crime, insanity or disease. The council also endorsed the principle of arbitration for the settlement of all international disputes. The resolutions were ordered to be engrossed and forwarded to Lady Aberdeen. There will be a public meeting of the Toronto Local Council of Women, at St. George's Hall, Elm-street, on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

St. John's Entertainment at Norway.

The Executive Committee of St. John's Church, Norway, scored a decided success at East Toronto on Thursday evening with its "cup and saucer social."

The affair opened with a literary program, not too long, and made up of capital numbers supplied by Mrs. J. Fogg, the Misses N. Warningsley and J. Gunn, Mr. H. Jordan and the Trinity College Mandolin Club. As part two of the entertainment, Miss Mabel Wallace and Messrs. F. Paget and W. Creighton gave a representation of "Box and Cox," which should be repeated in Toronto. The chairman, the Rev. G. L. Starr, then made a few appropriate remarks on the work of the Executive Committee, after which came the social proper and refreshments.

Provoost Welch on "George Elliot."

The public will be relieved to hear that the University Councils have been able to carry out their original intentions in respect to this afternoon's lecture, and that Provoost Welch's address on "George Elliot" will be delivered according to the printed program, at 3 o'clock in the Students' Union Hall, Gymnasium building, Queen's Park. The provost has only spent four months in Toronto, but has already a host of friends and admirers. He has not yet enjoyed an opportunity of hearing him will do well to present themselves at the Gymnasium building before 3 o'clock, inasmuch as the hall, though the largest the University possesses, will not seat more than 400 persons, and those who have heard Dr. Welch already will be the more anxious to hear him again.

The Knox College Conference.

The fourth day's proceedings of the conference of Knox College Alumni Association were mainly of a devotional character. Only two papers were read and discussed. The gist of the first one, "Elements in the Development of the Church," was given by The World on Thursday, and that of Rev. Prof. McLaren on "Christo-Centric Theology," was referred to yesterday. In the afternoon Rev. Louis H. Jordan dealt at length with the significance and value of "The Brahmo-Samaj" in India. The conference adjourned until Monday.

The Best. Rest. Test.

There are two kinds of sarsaparilla: The best—and the rest. The trouble is they look alike. And when the rest dress like the best, who's to tell them apart? Well, "the tree is known by its fruit." That's an old test and a safe one. And the taller the tree the deeper the root. That's another test. What's the root,—the record of these sarsaparillas? The one with the deepest root is Ayer's. The one with the richest fruit,—that, too, is Ayer's. Ayer's Sarsaparilla has a record of half a century of cures; a record of many medals and awards—culminating in the medal of the Chicago World's Fair, which, admitting Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best, shut its doors against the rest. That was greater honor than the medal; to be the only Sarsaparilla admitted as an exhibit at the World's Fair. If you want to get the best sarsaparilla of your druggist here's an infallible rule: Ask for the best and you'll get Ayer's. Ask for Ayer's and you'll get the best.

Still have doubts? Send for the "Carebook." It kills doubts and cures doubters. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

A PERFECT DEMONSTRATION

Semi-Annual Sale of Furniture.

January gone—now for February! Last month surprisingly busy—now for still greater activity! We hold great bargain-making power, and we're going to use it to your advantage. Not a day passes without fresh proof of this store's supremacy. We make the public interest our own, giving customers the best end of each and every bargain.

It will be remembered that we began in a small way. It was thought consistent then to "rest up" during the winter months and take things easy until spring. Some merchants haven't got over that notion yet. Business is full of worn-out, tired-out men who live almost wholly in the past and struggle for the success that never comes. Because of that they find fault with the times, find fault with the city, find fault with us. And yet while others are resting we're simply HUSTLING and putting in operation the lowest prices ever quoted for brand-new goods. Business is concentrated by the great stocks and their cheapness—a legitimate result in an intelligent community.

The bold policy we inaugurated years ago was to anticipate needs and use ready cash to unusual advantage in collecting great quantities of goods for quick selling. The enthusiasm of the White Goods selling during January is a fair criterion of what to expect this month. Preparations for the "Furniture Sale" have been made with scrupulous care. During the manufacturers' dullest season we placed large orders on a spot cash basis, besides gathering the surplus stocks of many well-known makers. Our idea is to reduce the cost to you and so increase the demand, and with such an immense outlet we run no possible risk if prices are low enough.

True cheapness makes the whole world kin. A magic circle forms—the manufacturer touches hands with the housekeeper, and both are happy in the larger possibilities of ready money. We buy in such quantities as few stores on the continent would dare buy, and instead of waiting to get the highest prices we can we make such values as will crowd the store with business. Quick sales are what we're after and that means fresh stocks and fresh attractions constantly, without regard to the month or season.

And so we swing into February with bigger stocks and better values in new Furniture than Toronto or Canada has ever known. Our methods have destroyed dull seasons and busy activity abounds as a matter of course. Home-owners and hotelkeepers would much sooner buy now at the lower prices than pay regular prices for regular goods in April or May. The difference to them is a very material saving. And the difference to us is plenty of business at a time when everybody says there's none to be got.

The special prices are only for February sales and all sales are made for February deliveries. The best things will go first as a matter of course, and when these lots are gone they cannot be duplicated at anything like the prices.

OSBORNE COTTAGE GI' Reading
PRINCESS BEATRICE

Sir John Everett Millais Talked of Lord Leighton's Successor - English Papers Barred From Turkey - Speculation as to Who Shall Lead the Irish Party - Viscount Milton Killed on the Railroad.

London, Feb. 1.—The Westminster Gazette says on the best authority that though the death of her son-in-law Prince Henry of Battenberg was a terrible shock to the Queen, the health of Her Majesty continues excellent as usual.
Her Majesty has granted to her daughter Princess Beatrice, widow of Prince Henry of Battenberg, the life use of Osborne Cottage, where the Princess will reside with her family on the death of the Queen.
Sir John Everett Millais will, it is stated, be offered the presidency of the Royal Academy to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lord Leighton. It is likely, however, that he will refuse to accept the position on account of his age and his disinclination for public oratory.

Viscount Milton Killed
London, Feb. 1.—Viscount Milton, grandson and heir of Earl of Fitzwilliam, was killed to-day on the railroad near Doncaster, while out hunting. The Viscount was only about 22 years old, was a lieutenant in the Oxfordshire Light Infantry, and served as aide-de-camp to the Marquis of Lansdowne when the latter was Viceroy of India.

Mr. Blake - Successor
London, Feb. 1.—Thomas Sexton remains the first favorite for the succession to the office of the Irish Parliamentary party, who, it is announced, will certainly retire from the leadership immediately upon the re-convening of Parliament. The question of who will succeed him in Dublin, but it will finally be decided in London after the House of Commons resumes its sittings on Monday.
The chances of Edward Blake, the Canadian who sits for South Londonderry, being selected to lead the Anti-Parliamentaries, seem remote.

ENGLISH PAPERS BARRED.
Those Containing the United States Senate Resolutions on Armenia Barred Out of Turkey.

London, Feb. 1.—The United Press correspondent at Constantinople, under date of Jan. 31, says the Government has forbidden the circulation in Turkey of the English newspapers of Jan. 27, which contain despatches from Washington, giving the United States Senate resolutions regarding the condition of affairs in Armenia, and also a report of the speech delivered at Birmingham on the night of Jan. 26, by Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, in which he declared that the condition of Armenia was a danger and a disgrace to Europe.
The correspondent also says that the Russian Consul at Constantinople, Zolotarev, has reported that hundreds of the Armenians who are holding that town are dying of disease and exposure to the intense cold.
