NINETEENTH YEAR

Anarchists Proposed to Waylay William on Way East-Nine Italians Reds Arrested at Alexandria, Egypt-Bombs
Full of Bullets-Discovered-The Khedive In Danger, Too-Cable News.

Alexandria, Egypt, Oct. 14.-The Alexandria police have arrested nine Italian Anarchists since last evening, and have thereby frustrated a plot against Emperor William, now on his way to the Holy Land, to be present at the consecration of the Church of the Saviour at Jerusalem.
The first to be arrested is a cafe-keeper, a well-known Anarchist, in whose house the police discovered two wire-wound bombs of great strength, full of bullets.
This arrest was made in consequence of a notification from the Italian Consul-General at Cairo, that two Anarchists had left Cairo for Port Said.

The police investigation showed that the arrested cafe-keeper had bribed the steward of a steamer sailing to-day from Alexandria to Port Said and Syria, to take on board a box of bombs. Apparently the Anarchists originally intended to use the bombs at the Palais Abkhia at Cairo, while Emperor William and the Khedive were there.

When the Kaiser decided not to visit Egypt, the Anarchists changed their plans and decided to attack him in Palestine.

The liveliest satisfaction is felt over the smart captures, and the German consulate has expressed its warmest thanks.

The Cairo Anarchists who left for Port Said have not yet been arrested.

ALLEGED TREASON IN FRANCE.

Military Plot to Overthrow the Republic Disclosed-Tremendous Sensation in Paris.

Paris, Oct. 14.-It is announced here this morning that a military plot against the Government has been discovered. The Rappel, Aureole and Petite Republique Francaise published almost identical stories on the subject. It appears that the plot was discovered by a General holding an important position. The plotters were to have taken action on Saturday during the absence of the Minister of War, General Chanle. It further appears that when the Government was warned of the plot the Ministers were not surprised, having already obtained information regarding the conspiracy.

The Matin says the plot was not in favor of one of the pretenders to the throne of France, who has been talked about for some time, but was only for the purpose of changing certain officials of the Government without touching the President.

The Premier, M. Brisson, was among those who were not surprised when notified of the plot. He promised to take action in the matter.

The Government officials here refuse to furnish any information regarding the discovery of the plot against the Government, but it is rumored this afternoon that the conspiracy involved Prince Louis. Bonaparte, who is a cousin of Russian Emperor and in whose favor his elder brother, Prince Victor Bonaparte, recently resigned the leadership of the Imperialist party.
It is added that certain political personages handed the Premier important documents, including a cipher despatch compromising certain military men.

The Minister of War has cancelled his intended absence from Paris.

REALLY IT LOOKS SERIOUS.

London, Oct. 14.-The situation in Paris is regarded in well-informed quarters here as being more serious than at any time since the commune.

The St. James Gazette this afternoon says: "A military revolution, however peaceful, which replaces the Brisson Cabinet with the nominees of the generals would imperil the relations between England and France almost to the breaking point. The semi-official and partly inspired Paris papers are still pretending that negotiations are proceeding between the two Governments and France believes it, although everyone in England knows the statement to be ridiculous.

"Ever supposing Major Marchand is unconditionally withdrawn from Fashoda, the difficulties with France will in no way enhance. Behind it lies the whole question of the Bah-el-Ghazal, the richest prize in the Soudan."

Boisdeffre Was In It.

Paris, Oct. 14.-The Liberte asserts that the military men alleged to have been concerned in the conspiracy are Generals Boisdeffre and Pellieux. Attempts, it is alleged, were also made to compromise General Zurlinden, the military governor of Paris, who for a short time was Minister of War, but it appears the present Minister of War, General Chanle, refused to countenance it.

According to the Jour, the rumor of the plot arose from a forged letter, purporting to have been sent by General Boisdeffre to General Zurlinden, containing the words "Let us be ready for Saturday."

The semi-official Temps this evening minimizes the affair and says the officials of the Ministry of War formally deny that a plot existed. The Temps suggests that misinterpretation was placed on some of the numerous despatches now being exchanged between the different generals, in connection with the present movements of troops, which led to strange reports of plots.

Clear Proofs Are Lacking.

London, Oct. 15.-The Paris correspondent of The Times says:
"It is impossible to obtain clear proofs of the existence of a plot. I believe, however, that the idea of some act of force haunts certain military minds. Maddened and stung by violent criticisms of the army, arising out of the Dreyfus affair, they are especially irritated at the attitude of civilians in claiming to interfere in the detention of Col. Picquart, for which the entire military authorities are responsible.

"Looking to the excited state of many minds at the present time of conflict between the military and civil authorities, it is only surprising that such alarms are not more frequent."

Very Uneasy Feeling.

Paris, Oct. 15.-It is impossible to pick out the truth from the mass of rumors current regarding the alleged military plot.
The general idea is that it was intended by a pretended revolutionist demonstration to insult and provoke the army into some act which might have led to the arrest and incarceration of a Dreyfusite, and the proclamation of a military Government.

Apparently the Orleanists were at the bottom of the movement, and an English Duke is mentioned. There is little doubt that the plot has been frustrated, but a very uneasy feeling prevails.

Duke of Orleans at Brussels.

Brussels, Oct. 14.-Midnight. The Duke of Orleans, accompanied by Comte Sabart Pontevras has arrived here to watch events.
The papers here believe the reports of a coup. The Duke Belge regards it as "the last desperate effort of the French General staff to save itself from downfall."

Other papers say that the conspirators had been meeting clandestinely at Versailles and that M. Brisson has intercepted cipher correspondence pointing to a design to seize fifty prominent Republicans.

Railroad Men Are Loyal.

Paris, Oct. 14.-The Railroad Workers' United have posted placards, ordering a strike to-day, urging the strikers to refrain from violence and informing the public that if danger threatens the country the strikes will immediately return to their posts. This strike includes the Algerian Provinces. But in spite of the placarding, the threatened general strike did not take place. The workmen stopped to read the placards, announcing the strike, but there was no disorder. Nearly all the laborers are at work and the railroad service is uninterrupted, the railroad men having apparently ignored the decision of the committee representing them.

Yielding a Little to Turkey.

Constantinople, Oct. 14.-The Ambassadors of the powers have transmitted to the Turkish Government the decision of their Governments on the subject of Crete, which sets forth that while adhering strictly to their ultimatum, Turkey may possibly later be permitted to maintain a small force on the island, as an emblem of Turkish authority.

New Ministry for the Cape.

Cape Town, Oct. 14.-The Hon. W. P.
Schreiner, the Afrikaner leader and former Attorney-General of Cape Colony, whose motion of want of confidence in the Government recently overthrew the Gordon Sprigg, or Rhodes Ministry, has succeeded in forming a new ministry. It is regarded as being a strong Afrikaner combination.

OFFICER FROM FASHODA

Has Arrived at Cairo by Courtesy of the British Government.

Cairo, Oct. 14.-A steamer having on board an officer belonging to the French forces under the command of Major Mar-chand, now at Fashoda, on the Nile, has arrived at Khartoum. This officer is the bearer of the report sent for by the French Minister for Foreign Affairs, M. Delcasse, by courtesy of the British Government, over the Anglo-Egyptian lines of communication. It is presumed the officer will proceed to Cairo in order to be able to use the official cipher of the French Consulate here for transmitting the report to Paris.

Was the subject of Hon. G. W. Ross' lecture last night at Montreal College.

THE FASHODA BLUE BOOK.

St. Petersburg, Novoe Vremya Appears to Think Things Will Go as Britain Desires.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 14.-The Novoe Vremya, commenting on the British Blue Book, says the correspondence between Great Britain and France concerning Fashoda, says it is difficult to believe that the negotiations will not end in the manner Great Britain desires. It adds that France, thanks to her present rulers, distances herself on the verge of a serious diplomatic defeat.

Russia Should Now Help France.

Paris, Oct. 14.-M. Deffosse, the Royalist leader, in a letter published in The Gaulois, says that at the conclusion of the China-Japanese war France unhesitatingly assisted Russia, and the time has now come for Russia to repay that service by helping France against England. It is evident, he says, that if it should be necessary for England to go to war, France would be helpless alone. Russia is the only power that can contemplate war with England with serenity, for she is invul-nerable.

Convicts in U. S. prisons can make cheap can be imported into Canada and sold in bigger profit for one dollar, and a dealer can more than double his money by sell-

ONTARIO'S CHEAP OPPORTUNITIES.

Montreal Gazette.

The situation is grotesque in some of its aspects. The spectacle of men counted off, even by a partisan majority, to be the legal and constitutional advisers of the Crown, being upset by an anonymous letter in a newspaper, is not often exhibited. The Government's arrangements for a session of the Legislature have been arranged, because when it was making them its members did not know what the statutes they had themselves prepared and carried meant. It should penetrate even the armored mind of an Ontario Liberal that such a state of affairs is not credible. And the worst part of the affair is that, humiliating as the situation is, it is almost the regular thing. The late session of the Legislature, so unexpectedly terminated, was itself an evidence of the incapacity to understand the law of the Ontario ministers. The Court of Appeal unanimously declared that the law was not what the ministers dreamed when they summoned their supporters to legislate so as to avert its consequences. As a result of this ministerial and legislative incapacity, the Ontario statutes are in a shape that efforts to count to discover their meaning evoke the laughter of judges and barristers. Legislation in what is called the leading province of the federation has for twenty-five years been in the hands of cheap opportunists, without fixed principles about anything, and who, as they thought they saw a popular demand, put a patch here and another there, doing as little as possible and making a great noise over it, and being accepted as statesmen on their own pretensions. The present is not the worst of their botches, but the circumstances attending it are such that it is likely to most impress itself on the public mind, and to at last do something towards awakening the people of Ontario to the real calibre of the men they have chosen to rule over them.

The Home of the McPherson Shoe.
Ontario's largest and oldest shoe factory established 1853. The J. McPherson Company, Limited, of Hamilton, are now conceding to be the greatest makers of gentlemen's fine shoes in Canada. The style of their goods is and has been of a high order that many dealers have been offering them for years to their customers as American shoes, and adding the supposed duty to the regular selling price.
All this is now to be changed, and "The McPherson shoe" from now on will be stamped with the firm's name, and sold at the prices branded on the soles.

Mr. George McPherson, so long identified with the McPherson Shoe Company, has re-established himself in Toronto, at 228 Yonge-street, (a few doors north of Albert) and will make a strong specialty of the McPherson shoe.

Mr. McPherson's eastern store, under the Queen's Theatre in Montreal, is the largest of its kind in Canada, and as it is situated right in the heart of the wholesale manufacturing shoe district, patrons of his Toronto "Factory Shoe Store" can rely of plums come his way.

News by Cable.

London, Oct. 14.-The Atlantic Transpor-Company's steamer Mohegan, formerly the Cleopatra, of the Wilson and Furness-Ley-land Line, which left London for New York yesterday with 50 passengers and a crew of 150, is ashore off the Lizard on the westward coast of Cornwall, and the vessel is Manacles and the Lowlands. It is rumored that there has been a great loss of life.
A coast guard message reports that the passengers are "drowning like rats."

Another report says, bodies are washing ashore, one being of a lady with both legs severed, lashed to a plank.

Particulars as to the disaster are difficult to obtain. It appears that when the Mohegan struck a gale was blowing and the sea was running high. Lifeboats put off from the Lizard and from Falmouth, one returning filled with passengers. Several

THE NORTH AMERICAN LIFE ASS

IN A BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRAT

THE GENERAL SAID TO THE KILTIES

"The Traditions of the Highlanders Have Been Steadiness on Parade"

At the Inspection Yesterday.

Major-General Hutton and staff were to have inspected the rifle ranges at Long Branch yesterday afternoon, but on account of the rain the event was postponed until this afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon the commandant received a delegation from the Toronto branch of the Navy League, composed of a Mr. McMurich, Q.C., H. J. Wickham, A. M. Howard, T. E. Hodgins and W. A.
Moberly, to discuss the work of the league toward the naval defence of Canada.

The General was greatly pleased with the interest taken, and promised to support a movement for the establishment of a naval corps in this city. A memorial will be sent to the new Governor-General upon his arrival, requesting that such an organization be formed.

Before inspecting the Highlanders, the General and his staff attended the sermon and the first two acts of "A Lady of Quality."

Highlanders Inspected.

The Highlanders turned out in full regular uniform about 370 strong, and performed their drill in the front of the commandant and the General addressed them, saying:

"Col. Cochrane and men of the 48th Highlanders, I have been very much pleased to see you here such a fine battalion of Highlanders, and I have been very much struck by the extreme steadiness of the men on parade. The Highland uniform recalls to me very happy reminiscences, for I served a campaign with a Highland brigade and believe me, the great tradition of the Highland regiment has been steadily on parade and discipline generally. Valor is a quality common to all British troops, but steadiness on parade is particularly the privilege of our Highland regiments."

"I think, if I might be critical, I should pay a little more attention to the handling of the arms. I am accustomed to see regiments—and I class this regiment very high among battalions I know of—an extraordinary precision and of an extraordinary facility."

"I compliment you most highly, Colonel, as well as I look around to my right and my left, as well as to the front, I cannot see a single man move. Believe me, if you get a regiment into this condition, there is nothing you cannot do with them in moments of danger or of peace. I congratulate you most heartily upon having arrived at this highly efficient and satisfactory stage."

"I alluded last night, in addressing the Grenadiers, to the length of the men's hair, which I noticed in some cases was a little too long. I do not wish to be critical, but your regiment, but I should like to emphasize what I said last night, and for this reason: you are citizen-soldiers and are prone to recognize throughout the Empire as British soldiers, and one of the signs of your being such is short, wellcropped hair."

"Once again I congratulate you and repeat what a great privilege and pleasure it is for me to see so fine a regiment."

REV. MR. BATES REPLIES.

The Other Side of the Thornhill Church Case Told in Terse Language.

Editor World: It is an old saying that epitaphs should be written for the living in private, but as some people here have chosen to do so in your columns, and as they have tried to wrap me up in some of their dirty clothes, I thought I would send a reply. I shall avoid personalities as far as possible, for the time may soon come when it may be necessary for me to give you the true character of some of those mentioned by your reporter, and also that of others who are not mentioned.

1. Eighty families belong to this congregation. This was, I believe, true many years ago; but when I came here, Jan. '83, the number was forty-three. Some of these have since died out altogether, and others have moved away, so that now there are but twenty-eight households. Unfortunately, those who are gone were almost without exception, those whom we could least afford to lose.

2. "The parish has been declining year by year since he became rector."

True in the sense already mentioned, true in every sense for the last year or two, but not true in the sense that no progress has been made. The church, a disgrace to the parish when I came here, has been cleaned, calmsed and painted; the old disused gallery has been made into a chapel; a handsome memorial window has been placed in the chancel; the churchyard very much enlarged and newly fenced; a fine pipe organ was placed in the church less than three years ago; the financial report, Buster, '97, was the most satisfactory that had been presented for many years, showing every account paid except arrears of steward and about one hundred dollars still due on the organ. Besides, the rectory and grounds have been greatly improved.

Taking a more important point of view, I do not know three parishioners of confirmation age who have not been confirmed up to about last Christmas the attendance at church was very good in proportion to the number of families, and I believe no church in the diocese had a larger attendance at Holy Communion in proportion to the number of communicants—generally due on the organ. Besides, the rectory and
grounds have been greatly improved.

3. "Letters and sermons." I have copies of them all, and am ready to give the letters to the press, and will do so, if necessary. I have never yet preached a sermon which could be called personal. I preach the whole Gospel, and tell the people of the plain truths, and no one need wear the cap of "damnable lies."

If it does not fit—though I cannot recollect ever having used the expression either in the course of the pulpit or in private conference. The fact is, they don't want a preacher who will teach the whole Faith, who will give them meat, but a sort of ecclesiastical dry goods store, who will give them milk and water, feed them on "goody-goody," like so many babies. If they could only be made to see the sort of church baby farm! It beats me how they ever found out that I was "a learned divine."

Years ago I felt I was not the man for the place, and I told my bishop I was ready to leave as soon as he could offer me a suitable parish. Nothing could be kinder than his reply.

4. As to my teaching about the Holy Communion, I certainly have taught what St. Paul taught the church at Corinth as to unworthy reception, but I never attributed "all manner of sins" to this or any other sin. No, but I have preached against other sins, and among them the sin—not more deadly, but more flagrant than this sin, it seems, fitted as well as the one made of "damnable lies."

5. "I had been told to get the church books from the rector." No one knows better than Mr. Drury that he never asked for them before Easter, '96, and that I at once handed them to him, telling him I was very glad to be relieved of them.

Poor Jack Drury! as we used to call him long ago. He is very young and incompetent, and has those belonging to him whom I greatly esteem. For those reasons, though he calls me by a very opprobrious name, I shall let him off just now very easily by merely saying that there are more unhappy things in the world than the character of that name so admirably described by the late Mr. Dickson. We have one or two also whom the same writer might have taken as his model. I had delight in Mr. Dickson.

6. As to the representation of the state of the parish, movements by correspondence with His Lordship would show the state of the parish, but I do not suppose that I put it lower than those whom your representative called upon—lower even than they can imagine.

The other matters concerning myself are so purely personal that I leave your readers to judge of the minds and hearts of those who would publish them in a newspaper. Just now I simply deny them. They will be more appropriately considered by His Lordship's commissioners.

But why do I deny? I do not suppose that those who have appealed to your columns to air their "grievances" are deeply interested in the church, and support very liberally.

Let us say then, that the improvements mentioned were not made by the aid of some of them, but in spite of their opposition; that, at the best of times, the congregation never paid more than the stipend than one hundred dollars a year, and that one-half of this wretched sum was due to my predecessor for months after I came to the parish.

But they make it up by the Christmas offerings! Never during my incumbency have the Christmas offerings at Trinity Church reached twenty dollars; often not ten, sometimes not five!

But why on earth does the man stay there? As already implied, I have been ready to leave here any time for the past ten years. In the winter of '97 I had several offers to exchange subject, of course, to the bishop's approval. I told them here from the chance steps that I wanted to get away, and beyond of them to pay up my arrears and let me go. They called a meeting. I was not present. A resolution was passed that the arrears could be paid, but that the proposed exchange would not be for the benefit of the parish.

I could write in this way for hours, and could show how one or two mischief-makers have set the parish by the ears. I may have to do so yet, though. God knows, it would be a dreadful task. But my letter is already so long that I must depend upon your kindness—not, kindness, but your kindness, to give it as prominent a place as you gave that to which it is indeed a very mild reply. W. W. Bates,

To Business After Holidays.

The members of the Irish Protestant Benevolent Society met last night, after heavily three months' holidays. Mr. J. J.
Thompson occupied the chair, and many members were present. A paper on "The Influence of Ireland" by Mr. E. M. Mc-Pherson was interesting, instructive and witty.
A committee was appointed to frame a resolution of condolence to be forwarded to the family of the late Rev. John Hall of New York who died recently in Ireland, and who was an honorary member of this society. Other small items of business were transacted and several new members admitted.

Canadian Talent. H. C. Arnold, manager of leading Canadian artists, returned to the city last evening, after a very successful trip in Western Ontario. Prominent among his artists this season is Miss Annie Richardson (late of London, England), where for the past year she has not only been studying under the best masters, but has been filling numerous platform engagements before large and appreciative audiences. Her appearances in London drawing-rooms were invariably greeted with marked enthusiasm and approval. Her unusual versatility, embracing dramatic, comic, humorous and pathetic selections, has made her a great public favorite. Her first appearance in Toronto will be at the Massey Hall on Thursday evening next, Oct. 20th.

A Recommendation Filed. Trustee Baird's Special Committee to limit the teaching of certain subjects in the fifth book classes of the Public Schools, met last evening at headquarters. After a great deal of discussion, the committee decided to forward to the board a recommendation that there be six junior fifth classes established in Toronto, in which an English, business and commercial course will be taught.

As to Members' Salaries. A glance at the statute governing salaries of members will prove that there is no amount to be paid, but leaves it at the discretion of the Legislature. Therefore, there is no talk of the $250 which each was appropriated.

HE HAD HIS WATERLOO.

Judges Unseat Dr. Lackner, the Conservative Member for North Waterloo.

The judgment of Justice Rose and Justice MacMahon, who tried the election petition in North Waterloo yesterday, unseated Dr. Lackner, the Conservative Member for North Waterloo.

The judges held that the charges of corrupt practices by the agent, Reilly, had been proven, excepting that Dr. Lackner, from the personal charges somewhat reluctantly, "With hesitation," said the Court, "we think that his knowledge was not such as to make him accessory under the meaning of that word in the Act, and we give him the benefit of the doubt."

The Feeling in the Riding. Berlin, Ont., Oct. 14.—(Special.)—The unseating of Dr. Lackner, the Conservative Member for North Waterloo, was a surprise here. Everybody, from Tory to Liberal, expected it. The probabilities are, however, that the Doctor will be re-elected with a larger majority than ever. The Reformers in this city are clearly disgraced. Said one leading Reformer who took a prominent part in the election last March to the World man yesterday: "Whether Lackner is unseated or not, I've done with active service in North Waterloo. I was opposed to the protest, because I didn't think the evidence was worth while bringing up."

The Woodbridge Fair. The Woodbridge Fair and Dog Show will be held on the 18th and 19th inst. Entries close to-day, with the exception of speeding. From the number of them now in it promises to be the best show yet held there. There are a great number of entries in horses, cattle, pigs, sheep and poultry, as well as in dogs, in which every class has crack-jacks, and this feature will be an attractive one. It will form a nucleus for another year, so that it can be operated under the C.K.D. rules. The speaking this year is expected to excel that of any previous year. Three four-in-hands will leave Toronto on Wednesday, as usual, and the occupants are advised to wear white plugs. There will be several special trains at single fare on the 18th, and visitors will be met at the station with a brass band and escorted to the Fair Grounds.

Stall Over Cattle. Charles Dufosse, the man brought back from Sault Ste. Marie, appeared before Magistrate Ramsden yesterday at Mount Albert. He was charged with stealing five fat head of cattle from W. J. Kestor and a like number from J. Draper. Dufosse was remanded for a week.

City Denies Liability. It is only some two years since Percy Haskett, the 8-year-old son of Mrs. Haskett, was killed by the runaway fire engine team at the Elgin ave. and the case has now reached the Court of Appeal. Mrs. Haskett sued the city and secured judgment for $1000. The city appeals on the ground that there was no contributory negligence on the part of the fireman and that if there was the city is not responsible; the argument being that the city is not responsible anyway.

Another Epworth League. The Bathurst-street Methodist Church E. L. has elected the following officers: President, Mr. B. Almond; first Vice-President, Mr. Perkins, Christian Endeavor Department; second Vice-President, Mrs. Almond, Missionary Department; third Vice-President, Mr. T. Green, Literary Department; fourth Vice-President, Miss Bull, Social Department; Recording Secretary, Miss Somerville; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Hattie Green; Treasurer, Mr. Thomas.

Chalmers Church Special Services. Special services will be held in Chalmers Presbyterian Church, corner Sabbath, Dr. Owen of Knox College will conduct the morning service, Rev. C. O. Johnston of Queen-street Methodist Church will preach at 3 p.m. and the pastor in the evening on the subject of "Eternity." The choir, under Mr. Arthur Hewitt, have prepared a special music for all three services and will be assisted by some of the best local talent.

Beer Case; $50 Fine. The trial of David Collins of Markham for selling legal beer was concluded yesterday before Magistrate Omerod and Clarke, and a conviction made. Much expert testimony was given on both sides. A fine of $50 and costs was imposed. The case will be appealed at once. Magistrate Denison some time ago gave a decision in favor of the manufacturers of legal beer, holding that it was not intoxicant.

CHICAGO WHEAT CLOSE FIRM

After Weakening Early on Bear News,

Such as Big Decline at Liverpool and at Northwest Points—Primary Receipts Also Heavy—Later Good Cash Demand From the Continent and Record Takings for Export Rallied the Market—Notes and Gossip.

Friday Evening, Oct. 14.

Liverpool to-day reported stocks of red winter wheat exported, an advance of 14 in spot, No. 1, and a decline of 14 in No. 2. The market was strong and steady, with March options closed 15 1/2 to 15 3/4 per bushel, respectively, lower than yesterday's. The market was strong and steady, with March options closed 15 1/2 to 15 3/4 per bushel, respectively, lower than yesterday's.

The weak Liverpool cables to the above effect, and a decline in the cash article at Minneapolis and Duluth, together with liberal primary and Northwest receipts, caused an easy feeling on the Chicago board, with the result that at one time prices receded fully a cent a bushel. Later in the day shorts ran to cover on news of large clearances from the continent. All deliveries closed about 1/4 above yesterday's final figures.

Liverpool maize receipts to-day, 1,400,000 bushels, against 1,225,000 bushels same day a year ago; corn receipts, 615,000 bushels, against 535,000 bushels and the same day a year ago; wheat receipts, 136,000 bushels, against 124,244 bushels the same day a year ago.

Cas lots at Chicago to-day were: Wheat 247, contract 30; corn 745, contract 54 1/2; oats 331, contract 30.

Total clearances to-day: Wheat and corn, equal to 190,000 bushels. Exports at New York to-day: Flour, 13,504 barrels and 4842 sacks; wheat, 115,810 bushels.

No less than 142 loads of wheat were reported taken for export to-day.
