COBALT--Market Undertone for Mining Shares Has Been Improved--COBALT

PRESSURE STILL EXERTED BUT WITHOUT EFFECT

A Few Shorts Close Out and New Buying Orders More Than Take Care of the Selling.

World Office.
Thursday Evening, Dec. 3.

The diagnosis of the Cobalt market in these columns yesterday was partially verified by the action of the Cobalt securities to-day. Some of the weaker traders found the stocks scarce in the market this morning, and commenced to cover their outstanding short contracts.

The outside buying improved somewhat to-day and only fair pressure which is still being exerted against the market price advances would have been much larger than they were.

Brokers reported that it was very difficult to get stock except on straight market orders. One broker stated that he had morning orders to buy stock, not less than six orders to buy stock, and that the orders were filled only because his limits of purchase were only a fraction below the market. This fact is taken as the strongest kind of evidence that many of the offerings are purely tentative for ulterior purposes, otherwise orders of this kind within such a narrow range of supposed offerings would surely have been readily filled.

In the late trading Nipissing turned quite strong on the New York curb, and had a beneficial effect upon the whole market. The break in Nipissing was due to nothing less than inside manipulation. It is firmly believed that the next dividend on Nipissing will be at the rate of 23 or 24 per cent. per annum, and that the dip in the stock was preparatory to or in discounting of this news in the market.

From New York it is stated that another dividend payer will be announced shortly, the announcement having been made that the Cobalt Central Company will make an initial dividend declaration on the 17th instant.

There was a good demand for all the shipping mines to-day and Beaver picked up somewhat on another rumor that the Temiskaming vein had been struck.

Peterson Lake was also in substantial demand. This company's property is being worked in consecutive sections by leases, the parent company holding the intervening 10 acres between each lease of 10 acres. The discoveries on the portions leased by Nova Scotia and Little Nipissing have, it is thought, stamped the Peterson Lake as a valuable proposition. The shares are expected to demonstrate this value some time in the near future.

Temiskaming was quite strong in today's business. The next quarterly dividend on this stock will be announced shortly, and here again it is believed that an increase in the distribution to shareholders will be made.

At the close of the market, the buying was much better than the selling. The undertone to prices was exceedingly good, and with the large outstanding short interest which still exists, there is an undertone to the market which was lacking a few days ago.

October Earnings of La Rose.
The preliminary report of La Rose Mine Company operations for October shows gross earnings of $83,000, representing a production of 493 tons of ore, containing 125,000 ounces of silver. The net earnings are placed at $64,000, or $14,000 in excess of dividend requirements for the month. The net operating profit since June is placed at $484,000.

NEW FIND AT OTISSE.
Mine Has Vein Two Feet in Width for One Quarter Mile.
The Montreal River Explorer says that the new find at Otisse is a wonder. The vein is of calcite and decomposed matter. It has a width of two feet, and can be traced across the property a distance of at least one-quarter of a mile. On either side of the vein for 12 or 16 inches the rock is impregnated with leaves of silver in the pure state. According to the mining engineers who have examined it, the new vein will carry from 1500 to 2000 ounces of silver to the ton. Work on the shaft commenced a week ago. The slow at first, Manager Loggery expects to strike a pace that will drive the hole into the ground at least one foot for drift work by next month. No ore is being bagged, and the early baggings will form half, at least, of the proposed shipment.

PURE SILVER AT LITTLE NIP.

Latest Strike Maintains Evidence of Wealth on Property.
A despatch from Cobalt over Wallace & Eastwood's wire yesterday says Little "Nip" ran into very rich ore at the bottom of the shaft. The vein is almost pure silver. The news of this strike has a good effect on the company's stock. At the close of the exchanges the price of the shares were 42, but last night 48 was bid for 5000 shares.

Buffalo Mines Divided.
Buffalo Mines, Limited, declared a quarterly dividend of five per cent. and an additional dividend of one per cent. a month. Previous disbursements were three per cent. on Oct. 1 last.

Will Declare Initial Dividend.
NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Phos. A. Nevins, president of the Cobalt Central Mines Co., announces that at the next meeting of the company's directors, which will be held in New York Dec. 17, the initial dividend on its stock will be declared.

CONSERVE SPRING WATERS.

Dam Will Be Built at Foot of Lake Temiskaming.
OTTAWA, Dec. 3.—(Special.)—The work of providing for the conservation of the spring waters of the Ottawa River for use during the dry season will be undertaken without delay. The public works department has received tenders for the construction of a dam at the foot of Lake Temiskaming, which will permit of the storage of nearly thirty million cubic feet of water to be used in the dry season to maintain a sufficient supply for power and navigation purposes. Later on several other dams will be built on various rivers which empty into Lake Temiskaming and when all are in operation there will be adequate supplies for power purposes at all periods of the year.

If the weather is not too severe construction of this dam, which will be 1100 feet in length, will be commenced this winter.

WILL BE BLOCKED.

Local Optionists Must Fight Bylaw Again in Council.
BRANTFORD, Dec. 3.—(Special.)—City Solicitor Henderson has informed the city clerk that another meeting of the council is necessary before the local option bylaw can be voted on. Mayor Bowley has called a special meeting for Monday night, but the hotelmen say the issue will be blocked by a vote in the council.

City Clerk Leonard was to-day threatened by the local option supporters that if he failed to publish the bylaw court costs would be asked for against him.

HITS MERCHANTS.

Imports Packed in Straw Held Up at Boxbes.
WINDSOR, Dec. 3.—(Special.)—Quarantine against any animals coming into Canada thru this port is proving to be disadvantageous to many local merchants. Under the present circumstances, no hay, straw, or fodder can come into Windsor. Many merchants buy goods in Detroit and other American cities, which come packed in straw or hay. Such goods are now on hand held up on account of the straw packing in the boxes.

PROOF WANTED, NOT ASSERTIONS.

As The World pointed out yesterday, the burden of proof that license reduction would do the good its advocates claim lies with those advocates. They are asking for the enactment of a measure which they assert will promote temperance and diminish drunkenness, and they are fairly called upon to demonstrate that it will do, or that it is altogether likely to do this.

Everyone admits that intemperance is bad, and that temperance is good. It is not worth while discussing this. The question is, Will the reduction of licenses, and the consequent further concentration and congestion of the bar room trade of the city, promote sobriety and diminish inordinate drinking? Temperance orations and denunciations of intemperance are beside the mark; the people have a right to insist upon straight answers to the question. Will license reduction lessen inordinate drinking and diminish drunkenness?

Nor will they be content with mere assertion, the answer should be accompanied by reasonable proof, and those who advocate license reduction are fairly called upon to be ready with that proof. If it is capable of proof, that proof must be available; more than that, the people have a right to assume that before they put the city to the expense and inconvenience of such a contest as this, the advocates of license reduction had fully fortified themselves with this proof and that they have it ready at hand.

To-night in Massey Hall, the leaders and spokesmen of the license reduction propaganda are to speak in favor of it. Will they give their audience proof, not oratory, but proofs and arguments based upon established facts? Toronto has tried license reduction in the past. The records of the police court are available. Do these show that the last reduction was followed by a lessening of the number of arrests for drunkenness? If the figures show this let some one of the speakers give us the figures.

Some of the cities in the United States limit the number of licenses, while others do not. The figures are to be had. Do they show that there is less drunkenness or more in the cities where the number of licenses is restricted, as compared with those in which they are comparatively numerous? If some of to-night's speakers will give these figures and demonstrate by them that license reduction promotes temperance, it will have to be admitted that they have furnished proof.

Some of the pro-reducers, we understand, claim that, even though reducing the number of licenses may not accomplish the good they aim at and hope for, it is but a means to an end; a step towards a definite goal, and that goal local prohibition. But even these have something also to prove. It is for them to demonstrate that, when tried, local prohibition promotes temperance and diminishes drunkenness. There are cities in the United States which similarly situated and circumstances as to population and surroundings, some of which are under license and some under local prohibition. Again the figures are available. The speakers to-night can give them if they will. Either these figures will prove their claims or they will not. Let us have the figures.

It is also fairly up to the advocates of license reduction to show that they are not asking the people to do anything that is guilty of public dishonesty. It is for them to demonstrate that their measure does not involve confiscation, unfair and unjust confiscation. They must not ask the people to close their eyes to the fact that three years ago, because of the fiat of the people, the license commissioners, acting in accordance with the law and their sworn duty, compelled numbers of hotel keepers to expend large sums of money on their premises; money that will be most of it, absolutely lost if they be deprived of their licenses.

Let the speakers to-night say whether they propose that compensation shall accompany reduction, or whether they are asking the people to vote for confiscation? As a Toronto citizen man once said, and as every honest man in his heart must say: "In trying to remove evils we must do the just and the righteous thing."

We shall await with interest the statements to be made to-night in Massey Hall, and we do not think we are asking too much when on behalf of the citizens who wish to act justly and fairly, we call upon the leaders of the license reduction movement, in addition to what The World asked yesterday, to give us proof based upon official records that license reduction will promote temperance, and that their measure does not involve confiscation and dishonesty.

PROTECT THE FORESTS.
No more important duty rests with the governments of Canada and the United States these days than to devise ways and means which will tend to the preservation of the timber wealth of the continent.

The recent warnings of Prof. Fernow, delivered before the Toronto Canadian Club, were none too serious, as the following Washington despatch will testify:

"That the topnotch of the lumber production of the United States was reached during the past year and that from now on the annual production would either remain the same as last year, or would show a decrease, was the startling statement made before the National Conservation Commission by Overton Price, associate forester in the United States Forest Service. He declared that the original forests cover only one-fourth; that only one-fifth of all our standing timber is publicly owned; the other four-fifths being held in private ownership, and that only 70 per cent. of our public forests and less than one per cent. of our private forests are conserved for use. He added:

"The average growth in all our forests is about 12 cubic feet per acre, or a total of seven billion cubic feet. But we take from the forests twenty-three billion cubic feet each year, or over three times what they produce.

"Forest fires run thru fifty million acres of forests each year."

WHERE IS THE GLOBE?
Globe: In creating a street car company to operate its service, the city of Toronto sold its birthright for a mess of pottage, and did not get the pottage.

But what does The Globe say to our trying to get back the birthright? We can get the power to buy the shares, or substitute city bonds for them, or the power to expropriate.

What does The Globe say to this? Globe (again): Owing to our unfortunate bargain, we may be handicapped in suburban electric car services, but the same influence must not extend to local steam railway operation.

Why is The Globe so anxious to rub it in that we've "sold" our "birthright," that our "bargain" is "unfortunate," and that we are "handicapped"? Is there no relief? We think there is.

The Ontario Legislature, led by the Whitney government, can give us relief from a "handicap," and is bound to give us relief. Will The Globe join in asking for this relief? It can "put it up to Whitney good and hard" if it wants to.

Again we ask: Why is The Globe so anxious to make out that we are in a hole, instead of coming out boldly for a demand for legislative relief? That there is a legislative cure for every legislative evil was once supposed to be a good liberal doctrine.

A GOLD BRICK FOR THE PEOPLE.
We have read a good many sophisticated deliveries, but never one so equal to the occasion as that of the railway commission, dealing with the reduction made before that body to compel the Grand Trunk to give a commutation rate to Brampton on the same terms as the one given to Oakville, and which motion was denied by the chairman. Not that he does not make out what looks like an argument, but in making the delivery that he did he repudiated his office, he repudiated the commission, and he repudiated the reason given for its establishment, that was, in substance, that the commission was to secure justice and TO AFFORD RELIEF TO THE PUBLIC.

We were told that when the commission was established we would not be given law and opinion, and casual reasoning, but that RELIEF WOULD BE AFFORDED WHERE SUBSTANTIAL GRIEVANCE EXISTED.

All The World has to say is that a most uncalculated discrimination is being shown by the Grand Trunk in favoring Oakville as against Brampton and similar towns, and that the railway commission, either in its interpretation of its duty or thru lack in the law which created it, has given the public a "gold brick," and a big dose of casuistry at the one time.

It is now up to the minister of railways and the government at Ottawa to do something.

A peculiar passage in Mr. Mabee's decision was the statement that he had been influenced by the fact that one class of the community (the merchants of Brampton) had at one time objected to other classes of the same community (the people) getting commutation tickets! Things have reached a nice pitch when our neighbors are to regulate our buying and selling, and our traveling and our not traveling as they see fit.

NO INJUSTICE, PLEASE.

Goldwin Smith in Weekly Sun: The license question appears to be coming up again. All the bystanders can say is let everything be done which is found necessary for the prevention of disorder, but let there be no injustice. Granting that our agreement with the houses, or some of them, had better not have been made, having been made, it must be honorably cancelled, not broken. Intemperance is bad; intemperance is worse; so, it is to be hoped, that the government will hold with reference to the more general question of the use of liquor, we should be glad to have a more authoritative verdict of the medical profession. What is alcohol? What are its effects when used in moderation? Is anything of the kind necessary or useful to the human constitution generally or under special circumstances? Supposing we could enslave alcohol, would any other intoxicant be better? The profession seems at present to be greatly divided on the subject. Surely there must be a road to agreement.

Political Intelligence.

The elections are on in the Yukon, Jan. 19 being fixed for election day. There is a quadrangular fight between two Liberals and two Conservatives. The Liberal factions being known as the "tabs" and the "steam beers."

A very readable description of the contest is contained in a letter received from Joseph A. Clarke, one of the Conservative candidates in the field.

"When I came from Whitehorse after the Thompson-Congdon election, the 'tabs' and the 'steam beers' died as door nails, but by my entering the lists with the then State of Beer leader (O'Brien), the Yukon council fight, the 'tabs' took heart and got one of their men in another constituency. Now the 'tabs' are running Congdon and the 'steam beers' are running Bob Lowe of Whitehorse, a great friend of Sir John George Bickie, is running as a Conservative, nominated by the professional element of the Conservatives. I am nominated by a straight Conservative, at which I admit no professional men were present."

Mr. Clarke incloses a poster which announced his meetings for the week ending Nov. 25, when he was advertised to speak at "May's Last Chance." He declares that he was elected first M.P. for Yukon Dec. 2, 1907, and counted out.

Clarke is strong for public ownership, and believes that the Conservative party would be obtaining the first of such to take place within months or two years after it is decided to call the same. The jurisdiction of the party, and the parliamentary discipline or our present leadership would be jeopardized by allowing the convention to even name or at least be allowed to reject any one of the parliamentarians for leader. The advantage of allowing the rank and file a say and making them an actual part of the party would overcome any disadvantages.

A Montreal despatch says: There is no truth in the report that the present visit of Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper to Eastern Canada has anything to do with the suggestion for a change in the leadership of the Conservative party, as published here. Sir Charles and members of his family are on their way to England to visit his mother, Lady Tupper, who is now in England and making them a source of anxiety to her family.

The Kingston Standard (Con.) renews its call for a convention to determine the party's stand on new issues such as Canada's contribution to imperial defence, closer trade relations with the United States and government ownership.

The Standard says it is opposed on principle to this policy of government ownership and rather significantly that it knows a number of influential leaders who are likewise opposed to it.

WHISKEY DETECTIVE BRIBED TO LEAVE TOWN

Sensational Testimony at Owen Sound in Case Against Hotelman Crook.

OWEN SOUND, Dec. 3.—(Special).—Evidence of a sensational character was given in the police court this afternoon in connection with the charge of having sold liquor, brought against Charles Crook.

The first witness called was Euno Saunders, chief of the license department, Toronto, who declared that he had never served any of the detectives with liquor at any time. The spotters had been well known to him, and while they had been drinking these soft drinks the local inspector had come in and had seen what they were drinking.

Stewart stated in evidence that prior to the appearance of the local inspector he and the other detectives had been served with whiskey by the accused. The names of the other detectives were Alexander Corrien and Claude Pownall.

Says He Was Bribed.
Witness declared that a C.P.R. driver named George Pumble had bribed them for his life and agreed to skip. They could get $500 or $750 if they left the town, and if they remained they would be shot. Witness was frightened and said that he had been told that they could get $500 or $750 if they left the town, and if they remained they would be shot.

Witness then went on to relate how he and Pownall a few minutes after 10 o'clock on the morning of the 26th of last month boarded a freight train at Owen Sound, of which the driver was George Pumble. During portions of the journey to Orangeville, where they got off, they had at times ridden on the bumpers, on the top on an open car containing stones, on the platform and on the engine. While they were on the bumpers witness' hat was blown away. Conductor Grimes admitted that into the caboose there were a wash and the conductor gave witness a loan of a hat on condition that when he bought a new one at Orangeville witness would leave the conductor's hat at Orangeville station, which he had done.

While they were riding on the engine Pumble handed a roll of bills to Euno, who counted them and handed witness $50 in the form of four $10 bills and two $5 bills. That money he handed over to Mr. Saunders in Toronto.

Scare Were On.
In cross-examination witness declared that no sooner had he reached Toronto than he made up his mind to return to Owen Sound and give evidence. He was sorry that he ran away.

This concluded the evidence of Stewart and the court then adjourned till to-morrow morning. Stewart is 22 years of age and came out from Ireland two years ago. He gave his evidence in a very clear manner and went into great detail.

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR.
"The Christian Science Monitor" is a unique entry into the field of daily journalism. It began publication in Boston on Wednesday of last week with an issue of 12 pages. It sells at two cents a copy. It aims to be a newspaper along non-sensational lines, to be an exponent of clean journalism, and as Mrs. Eddy herself writes, "The object of the Monitor is to injure no man, but to bless all mankind."

The paper presents a very neat appearance, and its contents while of a general news character, assured, well written and readable, are in many respects notably different from the average newspaper. Separate pages are devoted to sport, stocks, the home forum (miscellaneous), and editorial. Only in the latter category the doctrine of Christian Science referred to.

The experiment which The Monitor represents will be watched with interest.

No. IV.—On the Importance of Little Things

Someone Blunders

A switch is left open. The limited express filled to its capacity with precious human lives, is whirling along at sixty miles an hour, on the main track. It strikes the open switch—dashes headlong into freight cars on the siding—and then—shrieks—groans—horror—chaos—gloom!!

Think of the terrible impact of that giant bolt hurled with such gigantic force from the catapult of Fate—think of the human lives sacrificed—all because someone blundered in a little detail.

in a little detail of railroad work—and a horrible catastrophe follows.

Then---think of this---Such wrecks are needless—they can be stopped.

The Price System of Automatic Stopping and Controlling for Trains would have guarded against that mistake.

True, it could not have stopped someone from leaving that switch open, but it would have registered the fact of its being open, and have stopped the train in safety.

It is proof against human error—it never forgets—it always protects.

We are showing how the Price System works under all conditions, at our Demonstration Rooms, top floor, 12-14 Wellington St. East, every day, between 9 a. m. and 6 p. m. Free exhibition, all are welcome—come and see for yourself.

STEEL-COAL ARGUMENT.

Law Lords Make Observations to the Council.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—(C.A.P.)—The privy council has been very silent all day since the hearing of the Dominion Steel & Coal Company. When Mr. Lafleur was concluding this dialogue passed between Lord Robertson and the counsel.

Lord Robertson: "May I call your attention to this? It strikes me that the last sentence of clause three implies there is a standard of purity in the run of mine grade, that is, purity from sulphur. The same coal run of mine grade supplied shall not contain a percentage of impurities, including sulphur, appreciably greater than the per cent of impurities in the same coal run of mine grade. I suggest to you that that implies there is a standard of purity from sulphur in run of mine grade."

Mr. Lafleur: "The evidence is that run of mine grade varies its sulphur content so as always to defy completion."

Lord Robertson: "Then the clause is nonsense."

Sir Robert Finlay, resuming to-day, said the Coal Company were endeavoring to read a new term into the contract which they claimed that the coal was picked on the picking belt that stipulation was met.

Lord Robertson: "The clause is nonsense."

Three Years for Bad Boy. MONTREAL, Dec. 3.—(C.A.P.)—Boyd, a youth, concerned in the recent Geofrion Club scandal, was sentenced to three years in the reformatory to-day, having been found guilty of indecency.

"Its Only a Cold, A Trifling Cough." Thousands have said this when they caught cold. Thousands have neglected to cure the cold. Thousands have filled a Consumptive grave through neglect. Never neglect a cough or cold. It can have but one result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is the medicine you need. It strikes at the very foundation of all throat or lung complaints, relieving or curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Sore Throat, and preventing Pneumonia and Consumption.

REFORMING THE LORDS.

Reduction in Number of Peers by One-third is Likely.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The committee of peers appointed in June, 1907, to consider reforms in the upper house, is expected to issue a report shortly in favor of reducing the number of peers by one-third.

The report of the committee, it is believed, will recommend that the right to sit shall be dependent upon distinction of birth, not on the country, or election by the peers, not on heredity alone, and that a certain number of life peers may be elected.

LATCHFORD CONS. ORGANIZE. LATCHFORD, Dec. 3.—A meeting of the Latchford Liberal-Conservative Association was held in the Oddfellows' Hall, at which the president, James Patrick MacGregor, was in the chair.

Inspector Robert Howe of the Canadian Fire Underwriters Association said yesterday that the high pressure system would be in operation shortly.

Chicago and Return, $16.00. Accountant of the International Live Stock Exposition, tickets good going to-day only. Return limit Dec. 12th, 1908. The Grand Trunk Railway System is the only double track route through St. Clair Tunnel by electricity.

College Course for Civil Servants. KINGSTON, Dec. 3.—Prof. Adam Shortt, chairman of the civil service commission, is in consultation with the senate of the Canadian university to arrange a uniform civil service examination, so that the work may be taken up in the colleges.

New Motor and Country Club. The new Motor and Country Club has been so enthusiastically supported both in the city and through the province that it may lead to its development on a larger scale than originally contemplated.

Educational Bill in Danger. LONDON, Dec. 3.—Another deadlock has arisen between the government and the Church party, which threatens the doom of the education bill, backed by W. B. E. R. D. C. Another deadlock has arisen between the government and the Church party, which threatens the doom of the education bill, backed by W. B. E. R. D. C.

Mrs. J. Brewster, Grafton, N.S., writes: "Two winters ago I suffered severely with a very bad cold and asthma. I was so bad I could not get my breath, and very often thought I would choke. My husband became very much frightened, and got me a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and it gave me almost instant relief. I can recommend it to anyone having the least kind of a cold."

THE CRISIS IN TURKEY.

A Lucid Statement of Affairs as They Now Exist.

"No problem can occur in this world in which Great Britain is not interested," remarked Dr. Sydney Gould of Jerusalem, at the Empire Club, in addressing the members on the present crisis in Turkey.

More especially was this the case in the diplomatic problems of the Levant. He had seen the bullet marks on the walls where the Armenians had been driven into the Golden Horn in the massacre of ten years ago. To-day a Jew had been returned as a member of the Turkish parliament from Jerusalem, along with a Christian and a Moslem.

It was no bloodless revolution. Probably as much blood had been shed in leading up to it as in connection with any recorded in history. He thought Lord Strafford's definition was as much to be credited with the beginning of it during the Crimean war, as anyone else. The reflex influence England's work in Egypt had to be credited with a large share in bringing about the change.

The building of railways, especially the Bagdad Railway, and the work in Egypt had to be credited with a large share in bringing about the change. The building of railways, especially the Bagdad Railway, and the work in Egypt had to be credited with a large share in bringing about the change.

Among disruptive influences was the inequality between the house of Islam and peace, and the house of war, which included all outside the pale of Mohammed. The corrupt judiciary; the rebellion in the Yemen, in which thousands of soldiers died of starvation; the reign of spies and secret police, through which the prisons of the empire were crammed with the best men of the nation; the indescribable system of taxation; and the degradation of the central power by the great influence of western powers were other leading causes. The neglect of the army was the great tactical error of the government.

The difficulties in the way were the fundamental differences between Mohammedan and reform principles; the incompatibility of the many races concerned; social customs; the ever-present military danger; the ambition of the Bulgars, who were the Japanese of the nearer east; and the want of any moral balance of the Turks themselves. He hoped to see the re-establishment of English diplomatic influence at Constantinople. All thru Arabia England was regarded as the model of freedom, equity and fair dealing.

Negro Spirited Away. BROWNSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 3.—Prompt action by the authorities here and at Seymour to-day averted the possibility of mob law in the case of a negro who is accused of having assaulted Mrs. Harold Donnettel, near her home, two miles south of Seymour yesterday. The negro was spirited away.

McCarthy, for respondents. Plaintiff brought this action to have a declaration that as against the defendants, the defendant in question and now forming part of the Town of Parry Sound, or in the alternative that the said strip of land is part of a highway and conveyance to the defendants is entitled to special easements over the said lands, or in the alternative that the said strip of land is part of a highway and conveyance to the defendants is entitled to special easements over the said lands.

For three long months I was not able to attend to my own needs; and for three weeks the eczema on my hands was so bad that I was unable to feed myself. I had to be fed on one spoon a day, because I could not hold knife, fork, spoon or cup. So says Miss Violet McSorley, of 75, Gore Street, South Ste. Marie, in telling how Zam-Buk cured her of eczema. She adds: "Hands, wrists and arms up to the elbows were covered with eczema. The itching and the soreness were unbearable. As the disease developed, the skin actually peeled off leaving raw sores. The palms, fingers, backs of my hands and wrists were, all in this shocking state, and I was forced to sit in agony all the while."

The raw sores were soon in a foul condition, and my finger nails, all except two, fell off. During the different stages of my trouble, I sought the advice of three different doctors and received treatment, but although getting slight relief at first—there was no cure. Amputation was at one time thought necessary but the timely introduction of Zam-Buk prevented this fearful ending."

Zam-Buk was recommended by a friend and we bought a supply. The first few applications gave me a little ease, but it was not until I had continued with it for some time that I felt a decided improvement. After that my cure went on quickly. Zam-Buk did what everything else had failed to do. Now my hands and arms are quite freed from the terrible eczema."

The Why of the Slate

WHEN you see a Slate mark Like this On a Shoe sole or Shoe lining, just sit up and take notice—Because— This Slate mark certifies that You are looking at a genuine Old-time "1889" Slater Shoe.

There are other Shoes sold aplenty By the taking-in-vain of the mere Name "Slater." Just as "Baker's Cocoa" With risk Be sold by any man named Baker. But, it is not the name alone That makes a Shoe worth money.

It is what that name stands for In Workmanship, Fit, Quality, And Wear. Ergo— The mere name "Slater" Has no significance in Shoe Annals Unless— The Name be coupled with The "Slater" Trade-mark which Gives it meaning.

"The Shoe with the Slate" therefore Is the Shoe you mean when You ask the shrewd Shoe Merchant for "A pair of Slater Shoes." These Slate marked "Slater Shoes" Are made in a factory which For Ten years has not Made a Shoe Of lower grade than $3.50 to $5.00.

They are made by Specialists, Trained and developed Through long Years of Practice and Perfecting In the niceties of Fit, Finish, Style and Workmanship, Which constitute The vital differences between A regular "Hand-made" and A high-grade "Custom-made."

A Blacksmith might try hard to Make Watches in his smithy, But— His good intentions could not Compensate for lack of Training, Material or Equipment. So— Shoe Factories that make Shoes "of all kinds and Descriptions" Can't make Fine Shoes.

Everything that enters the making of Slater Shoes is carefully selected. Only the best is used. They are made by that wonderful manufacturing process—the Goodyear Welt, insuring comfort and durability.

The Slater Shoe Store, Chas. C. Cummings, Limited, 117 Yonge St. Sub-Agents: J. H. Wood, 528 Queen St. West; J. Jupp & Son, 810 Queen St. East; Thos. Powell, West Toronto.

The Slater Shoe Store, Chas. C. Cummings, Limited, 117 Yonge St. Sub-Agents: J. H. Wood, 528 Queen St. West; J. Jupp & Son, 810 Queen St. East; Thos. Powell, West Toronto.

Well enough, No poor Shoes cheaply enough To meet the Specialist In either grade.

This is why The Slate-mark "Slater Shoe" Is a Shoe worth watching-out for. Because, it is The only brand of Shoe made in A Canadian Shoe Factory Which makes up in an evasive, Incidental and misleading way With the mere name of "Slater."

Remember— It is not the Slate name, alone— But the Slater brand, which stands For what you seek. And are entitled to secure, When you ask a Merchant for "The Slater Shoe."

That Price protects Consumers Against possible or probable Overcharge, and It guarantees to them Full measure of value— Up-to-the-Makers' price Stamped on each Shoe in A Slate frame.

When, therefore— Any Shoe Dealer, or Shoe Salesman, Answers your inquiry for "A pair of Slater Shoes" with A pair without a Slate mark Stamped clearly on them— Just look him in the Eye and Watch him. Test he take Your watch.

Remember— It is not the Slate name, alone— But the Slater brand, which stands For what you seek. And are entitled to secure, When you ask a Merchant for "The Slater Shoe."

GUROFSKY FOR ALDERMAN.

Third Ward Will Have an Opportunity to Elect Him.

Louis Gurofsky is out for alderman in the third ward, and expects to win. His main plank is: 1. Abolition of tax exemptions; 2. prohibiting civic employees from taking other employment while on holidays; 3. against reduction of licenses; 4. public ownership of utilities.

Mr. Gurofsky is one of the best known citizens in the ward. "I am a Jew and proud of it," he says. "There are 15,000 Jews in Toronto and none are better citizens than they. There are several Jewish physicians and lawyers, two of the letter gold medalists at the university. Further, the Jews own about one-fifth of the realty of Toronto. I myself can vote in every ward in the city."

Mr. Gurofsky believes that his candidature may encourage others of his sect to enter municipal life, and points out that in other cities Hebrews have played an important part, one being warden of Ontario County, another an alderman in Ottawa, one was for three years an alderman in Winnipeg and Vancouver never had a better mayor or than a Jew made for the city. In other countries Jews have played a foremost part in politics.

"And I'll represent the people that elected me always," said the candidate yesterday.

WE MUST HAVE A SUBURBAN STEAM SERVICE.

The Globe: The commission is reported to have found that as Oakville is not profiting by cheap fares at the expense of Brampton, there is not unjust discrimination against the latter town. This is a conception of the railway which will need to be materially changed. Oakville is profiting by cheap fares, not necessarily at the expense of Brampton, but at the expense of it. It need not be even at the expense of the railway, for the lower rates will not similarly profiting by the same system. If one town gets an advantage which another never has, a better way out of the difficulty which has been created would be to declare certain rates to be commutation tickets covering a defined area. It is plain that the question cannot be in its present position.

The railway is destined to grow, and cheap and speedy access to suburban towns and districts is a necessity. It may be necessary for parliament to interfere and relieve the situation which this decision has created.

Discrimination.

The Telegram: It is not discrimination to allow commutation tickets to all communities within 40 miles of Montreal and to refuse commutation within 20 miles of Toronto. It is not discrimination when the G. T. R. charges $1.10 for the return trip over the 21.1 miles between Toronto and Brampton, any 28 or 32 cents for the return trip over the 21.10 miles between Toronto and Oakville.

When the G. T. R. favors Ottawa as against Toronto, such favoritism looks like discrimination to the eyes of the lay mind.

When the G. T. R. favors Oakville as against Toronto, such favoritism looks like discrimination in the sight of plain, everyday common sense.

Alas, the lay mind and plain, everyday common sense do not look at questions thru the official eyes of that great legal tribunal, the Railway Commission of Canada.

Investment Stocks are Strong.

World Office, Thursday Evening, Dec. 3.

There was nothing in to-day's market to show any decided change in the trend of prices at the Toronto Stock Exchange. A little more business developed to-day, but stocks dealt in were only those which are usually well to the front at this market. The operations were kept up in Sao Paulo and the early prices were the best of the day for this stock. A satisfactory feature of to-day's business was a renewal of the demand for the investment securities. Commerce was the strongest of the banks, a few odd lots of the stock going as high as 169, an advance of two points. This class of securities was strong thruout, and real buying orders are closer to the best figures recently made for these shares.

Price Changes on Wall Street Are an Insignificant Item

No Rallying Power Displayed After the Initial Drop—Little Interest in Toronto Stocks.

World Office, Thursday Evening, Dec. 3. The Toronto Stock Market showed but little resiliency to-day. True, there was an apparent bigger volume of business, but most of this was confined to the exchange itself. The only strong trait in the business was the substantial absorption of securities with real values. The expected increase in Sao Paulo dividend and the Coal-Steel trial left room for active manipulation, but these matters only concerned those willing either to lose their money or take somebody else's. The meeting of the shareholders of the two Mexican propositions was scheduled in Montreal to-day, but the markets acted oblivious of anything that might be arranged. The steel people bid up their stock at the Montreal Exchange, but the Coal support was by no means weak and both appear hopeful of getting a favorable verdict. There was a substance to the bank shares to-day, and it is a noteworthy incident that more buyers are present for these securities than there are sellers. The local speculative situation is in no way changed. Pools are hopeful of a turn for the better, but in this they may be mistaken.

Wall Street Pointers.

Bank of England rate unchanged. Great Northern Ore Lands expected to pay dividend of $1.50 in January. Regular dividend expected on Anaconda this month. Rumor of Gould Holding Company not taken seriously by people likely to be well informed. Fair borrowing demand in loan crowd and enough short interest indicated to be useful in a weak market. Large stocks of copper in Europe checking advance in price of the metal. Advance in interest rates necessary to check gold exports, but loss on that account not expected to exceed $7,000,000 bars available. Joseph says: For a few days the market will be a good trading proposition. Sell on spurts. Short interest is growing. Conservative purchases on drops may be witnessed. Fool distribution is reported now in Rock Island preferred. On drops we would prefer as purchases Southern Pacific, Atchafalaya, Great Northern, Consolidated Gas, Illinois Central and Kansas & Texas common.—Financial Bulletin.

Continuous good buying still seems to be going on in both Wash and London.

NEW TELEGRAPH SYSTEM.

Revolution will be worked in Telegraphy by Teletype.

Eugene M. Beals of New York is staying at the King Edward Hotel for a few days.

He has the entire rights thruout the world, with the exception of the United States and Mexico, for the "Teletype" a system of automatic rapid telegrams, that sends messages over the telephone wire (without disturbing simultaneous conversations), at a speed of 1000 words a minute, automatically recording them at the delivery end.

By this system it is estimated that the cost of telegrams will be less than one-quarter of the cost which now prevails thruout the country.

This system has already been installed thruout the New England States and has earned on its merits the highest recommendations as to simplicity and economy.

Mrs. Treble's Gift. In the presence of a large number of representatives of the Toronto University and other affiliated colleges, Chancellor Burwash of Victoria University laid the corner-stone of the new household science and art building, which is the gift of Mrs. Lillian Massey Treble to the University of Toronto.

The approximate cost of the new structure will be $300,000, and it is expected to be ready for occupancy in two years. The first sod was turned May 16 last. The building is to be of Greek (Ionic) architecture, constructed of dressed sandstone. It has a frontage of 70 feet on Avenue-road and a depth of 130 feet on Bloor-street, and will be three storeys in height. In the corner-stone were placed two sealed glass jars containing copies of yesterday's daily papers, a history of the school from its inception 12 years ago by Mrs. Treble, current coins, a revision of the work of the department of domestic science, by Prof. McCallum of Toronto University. In a scholarly address, President Falconer referred to the good work of the founders and to the growth of the institution. Prof. John Hopkins, chairman of the board of governors, dwelt upon the ultimate beneficial results of this important branch of university work. The department was for the benefit of women who desired to take a course in household science and art, and at the present time 45 students were in attendance, 50 or 60 of whom were university girls.

ARE SHY OF ENDORSING REDUCTION PRINCIPLE

Ald. Hales' Resolution Missed Fire, the Aldermen Deciding to Adjourn Instead. The members of the city council will not go before the voters pledged to the reduction principle that a reduction in the number of places where liquor is sold tends to lessen the evil of intemperance. The issue was introduced into the special meeting called yesterday for the primary purpose of passing a formal by-law setting aside polling places and appointing returning officers for the municipal elections. Ald. McMurrich called attention to a motion of Ald. Hales which has been resting unobtrusively on the order paper for some weeks, and which, after dwelling on the harmful influence of intemperance, asked council to declare that "a reduction in the number of places authorized to sell intoxicating liquors would be to the benefit of the city and to the relief of the condition of the whole community."

LIBRARY UNDER HAMMER. SHOOT FOUR MEN.

Rare Books of Lord Amherst Bring $50,000. LONDON, Dec. 3.—The dispersal of the famous library of Lord Amherst of the greatest book sales of modern times, began in London this afternoon and attracted biographers and collectors from all parts of the world. This magnificent collection was brought together during the past half century, at a great cost in money and labor, and it is being sold in consequence of the heavy financial losses entailed by Lord Amherst thru an attorney who got away with a trust fund, of which Lord Amherst was trustee, to the extent of $1,250,000. At a private sale yesterday 15 fine Caxtons were disposed of, supposedly to J. Pierpont Morgan, but numerous treasures are still left, and the building to-day was spiced. The celebrated Masarin Bible was sold to a London dealer for $10,250, while the "Apocalypse Scamias," an original block book of the Low Countries, brought $10,000. This same volume was auctioned at the Crawford sale in 1887 and brought $2500. King Charles' copy of the Cambridge Bible brought $5000. A total of almost $50,000 was realized to-day from the sale of 150 lots.
