Catholic Ireland Shocked By Death of "Grand Old Man" BALDWIN AWAITS DOMINION ACTION

CARDINAL LOGUE PASSES AWAY AT HOME IN ARMAGH

No Previous Intimation of Primate's Illness Had Been Given.

84 YEARS OLD

Was Always Exponent of Peace Between Peoples in Emerald Isle.

(Canadian Press.)

Belfast, Nov. 19.—Cardinal Logue, Primate of Ireland, is dead.

Death occurred at six o'clock this morning. There had been no previous intimation of the Cardinal's illness and the news of his demise caused a great shock throughout Ireland.

The Primate died at his residence, "Ara Coeli," in Armagh. Archbishop O'Donnell, the Cardinal's coadjutor, who lives at Dundalk, was immediately advised and left for Armagh.

Condemed Shooting

The last time he commented on political questions was on the occasion of the Queenstown affair last March in which British soldiers were fired upon, with nearly a score of casualties. Speaking to the Associated Press correspondent he termed the incident a "diabolical outrage, perpetrated to prejudice the relations between Great Britain and the Free State."

Cardinal Jubilee 1916

Cardinal Logue celebrated his golden jubilee as a priest on December 21, 1916 on which occasion Pope Benedict XV honored him with a Papal letter imparting the Papal Benediction to (Continued on page 13, column 5.)

RIVER STEAMER AT WORK AGAIN

Rush of Freight Brings D. J. Purdy Out of Winter Home.

So large a quantity of freight was received by the Steamship Company for points between Indian town and Fredericton that the D. J. Purdy 1, which had been placed in winter quarters, was brought out again and sent up river this morning. The freight was the largest handled by the company this season. Owing to reports from up river that ice was forming near Fredericton some doubt was expressed whether or not the steamer would be able to reach the capital.

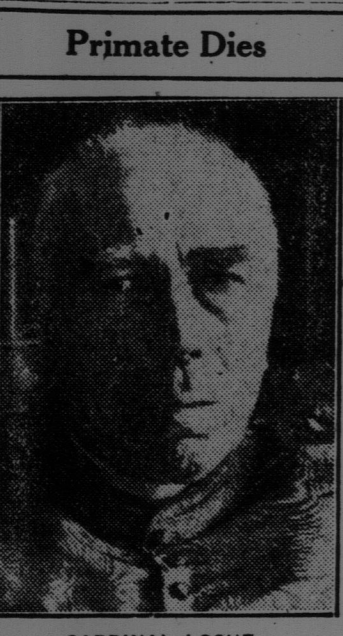

The Majestic, which was put on the main route replacing the D. J. Purdy 1, remained at Indian town today as she was not able to carry the large amount of freight offering. It is not definitely decided whether or not she will make another trip this season.

It was not known at Indian town this morning whether or not the Hampton would make another trip to Wickham. She was due down river some time during the afternoon and until she arrived it could not be definitely stated what were the captain's plans.

Poland May Enter The Little Entente

Paris, Nov. 19.—Poupartiers are soon to be opened looking to the entry of Poland into the Little Entente. Le Matin Belgrade correspondent says he learns.

Political circles in the Jugoslavian capital, he adds, believe the addition of Poland is made imperative by the fact that recognition of the Russian Soviet by the Little Entente cannot long be delayed. The entry of Poland, it is considered, would strengthen the entente as regards Russia and help to maintain peace in Central Europe.

Primate Dies

Shreveport, La., Nov. 19.—The drought in this state is causing the death of thousands of wild ducks in a most unusual manner.

Ducks Seek Water, Die in Oil Tanks

North Louisiana is dotted with large earthen tanks for storing crude oil from the Arkansas and Louisiana fields. With most of the small lakes and marshes dry and minor streams little more than brooks, ducks arriving from the North are mistaking the oil tanks for water and alighting in them.

FORM RIFLE CLUB IN FREDERICTON

Will include Members of Military Organizations—Officers Are Chosen.

Gets 3 Months In Tax Evasion Case

Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 19.—Three months in jail was the sentence imposed by Judge Evans in Criminal Court upon Steven Sperin, convicted of conspiracy in connection with the tax evasion scandal. It was the first conviction registered and several prominent citizens will answer to a similar charge shortly.

Vancouver Woman M. P. Approves Flogging of Female Drug Traffickers

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 19.—The flogging of women drug traffickers met with the approval of Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, M. L. A., Vancouver, who favored a resolution in the legislature yesterday to authorize the lash for convicted drug traffickers. Asked whether she would have women flogged as well as men, Mrs. Smith said "We can't make the punishment too heavy for men, and women too, who traffic in narcotic drugs," adding, "I hold no brief for either sex. If a woman breaks the law she should get the same punishment as a man law-breaker. Women traffickers in narcotics can destroy the soul just as can a man, and they should be subjected to the same penalties." The motion authorizing the lash passed.

LINK OF EMPIRE IS STRENGTHENED BY BALDWIN'S ACTION

Closer Relationship Expected After Conference with High Commissioners.

MOVE COMMENDED

Premier Intimates Desire to Have Envoys Deal With Imperial Affairs.

(By HERBERT BAILEY.)
(British United Press.)

London, Nov. 19.—I have the highest authority for stating that Premier Stanley Baldwin intends to continue direct conferences between himself and the high commissioners of the overseas dominions in London, which he inaugurated yesterday, and that those meetings will in future be part of the regular procedure of government. By these conferences the future foreign policy of the Empire will be revealed to the different units of Empire and discussed.

Ample Chamberlain and Col. Amery were also present at yesterday's meeting, and the main outstanding features of foreign affairs were brought forward, the subject ranging from Singapore to the Geneva protocol.

Commissioners Express Views.

The high commissioners were asked for their opinions on the points raised and these were freely given. The main discussion which lasted for more than an hour and a half was concerned with foreign affairs and, while the question of the future status of the high commissioners was not specifically raised, Premier Baldwin said to have intimated by his friendly attitude that he would favor any proposal that would give the high commissioners more authority to deal with Imperial problems after the manner of ambassadors.

Premier Baldwin expressed his satisfaction with yesterday's innovation. Considering it, he said, an improvement on the old methods, were free to report to their home governments any thing they pleased. Ottawa was notified.

This morning Hon. P. C. Larkin sent a long cable to Ottawa, detailing the discussion that had taken place at considerable length, but naturally much secrecy is maintained here as to the exact nature of the discussion as apparently Premier Baldwin revealed very clearly those matters of foreign policy which he will make public through the King's speech.

The innovation intimated by the Prime Minister is much praised in political circles here, and Austen Chamberlain's request to the League of Nations to postpone discussion of security and disarmament which was to have come up at the next meeting of the council until the British government has had time to consult the overseas dominions is taken as a further proof that a new basis of relationship for the Mother Country and the several units of the Empire is being inaugurated.

Halifax Man Is Dead In England

Halifax, Nov. 19.—News of the death of Brenton Halliburton Collins, son of the late Enos Collins, of Liverpool, N. S., founder of the Halifax Banking Company, later the Canadian Bank of Commerce, has been received here. He died in Tunbridge Wells, England.

Airman's View of $5,000,000 Dollar Fire In New Jersey

This is a remarkable aerial view of the $5,000,000 Jersey City (N. J.) fire, at its height. More than 1,500 families were made homeless, it is estimated, when a dozen tenement houses were destroyed. Three large factories also were razed. Firemen from Jersey City, Hoboken and New York fought the flames for several hours before the conflagration finally was brought under control.

Canadians Are Returning From U. S. In Larger Numbers; Fewer Leave Country

(Special to The Times-Star.)

Ottawa, Nov. 19.—In the seven months ended with October there was an increase in the number of Canadians returning from the United States, and a small decrease in the number of Canadians going there. The number of the latter is still very heavy, however, and, the Department of Immigration is not making public the figures. For the seven months ended with October 31 the total number entering Canada from the United States was 30,966. Of this total 25,985 were born in Canada, 3,626 were British subjects with Canadian domicile and 1,355 were naturalized Canadians.

While there was a decrease in general immigration to Canada for the last seven months there was an increase for the 12 months of about six per cent.

U. S. DELEGATION PROPOSES STRICT CONTROL OF DRUGS

Stringent Measures Urged at International Opium Conference at Geneva.

WOULD CUT OUTPUT

Abolition of Heroin as Unnecessary Drug is Recommended.

(Canadian Press Cable.)

Geneva, Nov. 19.—A series of proposals, striking at the very roots of the evil caused by the misuse of narcotic drugs, was presented to the international opium conference here today by the United States delegation, headed by Representative Stephen G. Porter.

Only by the most drastic restriction at the point of production, it was held, could the quantity of illicit drugs reaching the people of the world be put off or curtailed. Consequently they proposed prevention of a surplus production of raw opium and also of the coca leaf from which cocaine was extracted. Furthermore they would absolutely prohibit the distribution of heroin, an opium derivative, holding it unnecessary in medical or scientific practice.

Limit Ports of Entry.

Besides the prohibitions on the production of narcotic raw material, various proposals were advanced for their handling in commerce where necessary. Provision was made for the production for exportation, or the actual exportation of raw opium for the purpose of taking prepared opium into those territories where its use is now permitted, but the contracting parties were asked to limit the number of towns and ports through which such raw opium and coca leaves were exported.

An extensive and strict system for licenses for importation and exportation was suggested.

Reduce Imports.

It was recommended that imports of raw opium for the purpose of making prepared opium be curtailed in those countries where such use is now permitted, the amount imported being reduced 10 per cent, each year, until all imports ceased.

Under the programme as outlined, the manufacture, sale and use of morphine, cocaine, and their respective salts or derivatives, would be effectively limited and regulated exclusively to medical and scientific purposes. A central board was recommended to which the contracting parties would each year furnish estimates of their requirements for all purposes, the signatory countries undertaking to prohibit importation in excess of the quantities necessary.

Not a Fatality In 1924 Flying

Ottawa, Nov. 19.—Though the flying operations of the Royal Canadian air forces during 1924 have taken up 3,840 hours of flying time there has not been a single fatality or any accident involving serious injuries to any of the personnel which proves, according to a bulletin issued by the air force, "that flying, as carried out by carefully trained personnel, is quite applicable to everyday civil life."

Curley Will Not Run For Mayor

Boston, Nov. 19.—Mayor Curley will not be a candidate for re-election as Mayor of Boston, he announced upon his return to City Hall. It was predicted he might attempt to succeed himself, despite the ruling of the City Charter, and then, provided he was elected by the voters, appeal to the Supreme Court to determine whether or not the charter provisions were constitutional.

Belfast, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Darrel Figgis, wife of deputy Figgis, member of the Dail Eireann, was fatally shot at Rathfarnham, outside Dublin, this morning.

Educational Campaign In U. S. Cuts Lynchings to Low Level Record

Washington, Nov. 19.—(United Press)—Lynchings in the United States so far this year have numbered only nine, by far the lowest number since accurate records have been kept, according to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People here.

Five years ago there were almost three times as many as this year. The record for recent years follows:—1919, 86; 1920, 65; 1921, 64; 1922, 64; 1923, 28.

Debs Is Better

EUGENE V. DEBS.
Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 19.—Eugene V. Debs is home again, looking 20 years younger than he did when he returned from prison three years ago.

Six months ago the Socialist leader was reported critically ill. Then he dropped out of sight.

Now he is back—back from the north woods. Four months he lived up there, "taking nature's cure and living like an Indian."

He wants to be a prison warden. "I would dismiss the guards," he says. "I would reform the men through love, and teach them to be men. And I would see that they got their chance when they went out."

BRITISH GENERAL IN EGYPT IS ATTACKED

Is Badly Wounded Following Bombing and Revolver Fusillade.

Cairo, Egypt, Nov. 19.—Two bombs, one of which exploded, were thrown at Major General Sir Lee Stack, Sirdar of the Egyptian Army, while driving from the ministry of war today. General Stack was also attacked with revolver shots and badly wounded in the stomach. He was removed to a hospital.

Major General Sir Lee Stack who attained his rank in the British Military Service, was appointed Governor General of the Sudan and Sirdar of the Egyptian army in 1919. For the present, under the constitution granted to Egypt when it ceased to be a British protectorate in 1922, the defence of the country remains under British control.

The medical bulletin states that General Stack's condition is serious. He is suffering from shock and has three bullet wounds—in the stomach, hand and foot respectively.

The three or four assailants involved in the affair eventually escaped. They first threw a bomb which failed to explode. Afterwards they fired several rounds with revolvers, hitting General Stack, his aid-de-camp, his chauffeur and a policeman.

Time Too Short

It is considered that the interval between now and December 8, the date of the Rome meeting, is too brief to allow of a sufficiently thorough canvass of the situation.

It is also stated that there never has been any desire to turn down the scheme of security and disarmament evolved at the last League assembly without the substitution of a constructive plan, and that the whole matter requires the most thorough counsel on the part of Premier Baldwin with all of his advisers.

Postponement Asked

Sir Eric Drummond, secretary general of the League of Nations, left London yesterday for Geneva, carrying with him a request of the British government for an indefinite postponement of decision by the League of the security and disarmament protocol adopted recently by the assembly of the League at Geneva.

Newspaper Comment.
"The Geneva protocol is scrapped," was the interpretation placed by the Daily Telegraph's diplomatic correspondent upon the announcement that consideration of the re-drafting of the covenant of the League of Nations by a committee of jurists in accordance with the terms of Geneva protocol is to be omitted from the agenda of the session of council of the League to be held shortly in Rome.

The writer thinks Great Britain's action is not surprising in view of the strong objections raised by the Dominions and that it also was difficult to see how the protocol could be amended in detail without all the alterations in conformity with the covenant being deleted.

WILL NOT OUTLINE ARMS POLICY UNTIL CABINET CONSULTED

In Meantime Matter Will be Placed Before British Dominions.

DELAY IS ASKED

British Govt. Asks Postponement of Decision by the League of Nations.

London, Nov. 19.—It was stated in British official circles this morning that the British attitude toward the Geneva protocol on security and disarmament had not yet been defined by the new Baldwin cabinet nor the late Labor government. The government's request that action be postponed until after the coming meeting of the League of Nations Council in Rome, was made, it was stated, in order to give the cabinet time to place the matter before the British dominions, and allow the new ministers of Great Britain time to investigate the protocol as it will affect Great Britain.

To Consult Dominions.

The government, it was added, continues its policy of favorably regarding any attempt by the League of Nations to settle the disarmament and security and the present protocol, so far as the government has in its office understands it, will form a sound basis for an international conference. The Conservative government will not define its attitude toward the protocol until all the dominions have been consulted.

Their respective decisions are expected to carry weight with the cabinet as to the cabinet's final decision.

Officials today denied statements that their action in any way could be connected with the international security and disarmament protocol. It was pointed out that Great Britain means to allow France and the other powers to have security against aggression, if not directly by means of the protocol, then by other measures which will attain the same result, namely, the protection of France against aggression on her borders or upon her colonies.

Time Too Short.

It is considered that the interval between now and December 8, the date of the Rome meeting, is too brief to allow of a sufficiently thorough canvass of the situation.

It is also stated that there never has been any desire to turn down the scheme of security and disarmament evolved at the last League assembly without the substitution of a constructive plan, and that the whole matter requires the most thorough counsel on the part of Premier Baldwin with all of his advisers.

The writer thinks Great Britain's action is not surprising in view of the strong objections raised by the Dominions and that it also was difficult to see how the protocol could be amended in detail without all the alterations in conformity with the covenant being deleted.

Some of the other newspapers comment was aroused in political newspaper circles by a visit of former Premier MacDonald made to Austin Chamberlain at the foreign office yesterday, but about which nothing is known. Speculation, however, connects it with the Geneva protocol, concerning which it is claimed by the supporters of the late government that Mr. MacDonald did more for peace in eight months than other governments did in eight years.

GOGUEN IS ON STAND TODAY IN LIBEL CASE

Court Adjourns Till Tomorrow and Commission Sits.

HEARS EXPERTS Evidence of Visiting Witnesses is Taken by Court Stenographer.

Adjournment until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning was made by Judge Crockett at noon today in the libel case of Driscoll et al versus Dr. H. A. Pugsley, medical superintendent of the St. John County Hospital, to allow the taking of evidence by a special commissioner, of several Upper Canadian tubercular experts, who are desirous of returning to their homes this afternoon. These experts are witnesses for the defendant, but through agreement of counsel, this accommodation was afforded them although the plaintiff's case has not been finished yet. One witness, Frank Goguen, was on the stand during the morning session, undergoing cross-examination by H. A. Powell, K. C., and re-examination by Hon. Dr. Pugsley.

F. Goguen on Stand.

Continuing the cross-examination of Frank Goguen, Mr. Powell asked the witness if he worked continuously during the winter, notwithstanding his injury. Witness said he gave it to Mr. Powell, K. C., and re-examination by Hon. Dr. Pugsley. Mr. Powell recalled his testimony when cross-examination commenced and said he could not remember that he had worked continuously through a talk between himself and Mr. Driscoll. He gave Mr. Driscoll an idea of what he was taking—a big spoonful after each dose. He mentioned the inclusion of water in the preparation. The witness did not answer and the plaintiff's counsel objected. He could not remember if the medicine was put up in 12-ounce bottles or not. He did not know if people were treated with the medicine before Christmas, 1923. Dr. Farris had told him to go to work to go to work about Nov. 1.

considered Mr. Powell exceedingly courteous and Mr. Powell retorted that as a man of truth he could hardly be otherwise. Judge Crockett here intervened and cross-examination continued. The witness said he had taken more than two bottles. Counsel recalled the witness' reply to the same question on discovery. In this the witness said he could not swear whether he took one or two bottles. He said he was in court at the opening day and heard Dr. Wallace tell the jury that this medicine was for the benefit of man. He agreed with this. Also, that the public should have the benefit of the discovery.

NEWS NOTES OF BAPTIST INTEREST

The following items are from the Maritime Baptist—

Rev. B. E. Cullison returned Nov. 11 after a trip to Toronto. Mr. Gullison and family are the first missionaries to occupy the new Missionary Home in Wolfville.

Rev. J. Howard Barrs has returned from Michigan, where he has been paying a visit to his son, Dr. Ernest Barrs.

Gerold W. Guioi did first-rate work during the summer in connection with the branches of the Amherst church, and they were loath to let him go. He has, however, returned to his studies at Acadia.

Our ministerial Nimrod, Rev. C. T. Clark of Valley, N. B., spent a week in the woods in York County recently. Mr. Clark's prowess as a hunter had for its reward a very fine deer.

Geo. N. Hamilton, L.C., is supplying each week on the St. Mary's Bay Field, Digby County, N. S., with much acceptable carrying his college work in the Acadia Freshman Class.

Dr. H. Y. Corey is making gratifying gains in strength. He is able to be out for walks every fine day.

Five students from Acadia College, H. A. Academy—R. Fred Smith, H. D. Hopper, Lewis Williamson, Horace Morgan and Fred Cowan—attended the Older Boys' Conference in Windsor, Nov. 7 to 10.

After 17 years' service as a secretary of the American Baptist Home Mission Society, Rev. Lemuel Call Barnes, D. D., has retired from office. He reached the age limit which he has advocated. Dr. Barnes' work still abides in strength and he will likely do much more valuable service for the denomination and for the kingdom at large.

Rev. Henry E. Alaby, for the last four years pastor of the Baptist church in Davidsville, Rhode Island, has accepted an invitation to the pastorate of the church at Berwick, N. S., and will commence there with the coming new year. Mr. Alaby is one of our own men, a graduate of Acadia, who served some years among our churches prior to going to New England. He has shown fidelity and efficiency in his work and we gladly welcome him back among us.

DEBATE FEATURES PLEASANT EVENING

The Young Men's Club of St. Andrew's church were hosts to their lady friends last evening. The first number on the programme was a debate. The topic was 'The environment of wealth is a greater incentive to crime than the environment of poverty.' The affirmative was upheld by T. D. Tweedie and Charles McInnis, and the negative by Mrs. W. A. Clarke and Miss Alice Murdoch. Both sides put up a good argument, but the popular vote decided that the negative had the better of the discussion.

Then followed a musical monologue by Mr. Gardner, who was accompanied by Mrs. Gardner at the piano. His offerings were much appreciated. The next was a series of charades, three words being illustrated. This produced a lot of fun. Light refreshments were served, after which a hearty singing was participated in by all. Cheers for the hosts by the lady guests, and "The King" brought the meeting to a close.

PERSONALS

Dr. A. Reg. McLean, formerly of Wolfville and now of Montreal, is registered at the Victoria Hotel.

Rev. J. Woods, C. S. S. R., of St. Mary's, returned yesterday from Quebec.

Mrs. J. J. Gordon will be at 160 Prince street for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Magee of Canterbury Alling moved to St. Stephen on Sunday morning and spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Harcourt McCoombe of King street, returning to St. John on Monday night. They found the roads in excellent condition.

Mrs. T. Amos Wilson and Miss Laura Wilson of Fredericton are in St. John for a few days.

H. M. Turret of St. John was in Fredericton yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mullin, who have been visiting in Ottawa, are expected home the latter part of this week.

WEDDINGS

Allingham-Mayes. A pretty wedding took place in St. Stephen's church, Queenstown, yesterday morning at 11:45 when Miss Muriel Mayes, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan G. Mayes and H. W. S. Allingham, youngest son of Harry Allingham of this city, were united in marriage. James Bennett, rector of the church, officiated at the ceremony.

The church was decorated with evergreens and holly and the ceremony was performed under an arch of evergreen covered with vines. The bride wore a dress of white flat crepe, caught up with black lace. The groom wore a blue silk tuxedo with black hat. The bride carried a bouquet of white and red flowers. The bridesmaids wore a dress of blue Canton crepe, trimmed with bright colored embroidery. The groom's suit, Mrs. Thomas Allingham, wore a blue silk dress with black hat.

Miss Grace Gilbert of Gagetown was organist and played Lohengrin's wedding march at the beginning of the ceremony. The Mendelssohn's at the close. "The Voice That Breathed O' Eden" was sung by the large congregation which witnessed the ceremony. The ushers were Fred M. Crocker and J. K. Knight.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served at the bride's home, which had been prettily decorated for the occasion. The bride's sister, Mrs. J. A. Moore of Gagetown and the groom's sister, Mrs. Reid of Gagetown, poured the champagne. Mrs. F. L. Flewelling, St. John and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Allingham, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Reid and Miss Mary Reid, Gagetown.

WIDOW OF NOTED SCIENTIST GIVES ORATION AT BIER

Friends Expected Her to Collapse—5,000 at Funeral.

New York, Nov. 19.—They expected Mrs. Miriam Scheinkin to collapse. Five thousand persons, gathered for the funeral of her husband at the National Hebrew School, in East Broadway, waited for the moment when the frail, black-clad woman would sink to the floor in her grief.

Physicians were there, ready to care for her when the break came, as they were sure it would. The 5,000 mourners knew that she had been very close to her husband, Dr. Menachem Mendel Scheinkin, noted Zionist, who died in Chicago last week. They knew that for thirty years she had worked with him on his manuscripts, his speeches, his campaigns.

They saw the widow rise slowly beside the body. She swayed a little. Then they saw her straighten. Her head went up, her eyes flashed. Dry-eyed and unflinching, she launched into a funeral oration such as a Spartan widow might have delivered at the bier of her warrior. She did not weep, but the spectacle dissolved the audience in tears. They wept, men and women alike, and at the end of her clear, ringing eulogy they burst into cheering.

"Not a Time for Tears." "My friends," she said, "this is not a time for tears for me. Our work is not over, nor is it halted. What we started thirty years ago we shall continue, for I shall work on with his presence close to me, and guiding me."

"Our leader was taken from us in the years of his prime. He knew no discouragement, spared himself no hardship, contented himself with nothing less than the giving of all that was in him. He labored fifteen and twenty hours a day in the best years of his life and we are only beginning to reap the fruits of what he sowed."

Then came the detailed story of Dr. Scheinkin's career, from the time he was an obscure rabbi in Balta, Bessarabia, through the years in which his Fatally Hurt in Wreck. Dr. Scheinkin, fifty-four years old, was returning to his home from a Zionist meeting he had addressed in Chicago on November 2 when the street car in which he was riding was struck by a freight train, several passengers being fatally injured in the wreck. Among them was Dr. Scheinkin, who died several days later in St. Joseph's Hospital in Chicago.

His body will be sent for burial in Tel-Aviv when the Fabre Line steamer Canada sails Friday for Palestine. Mrs. Scheinkin will accompany the body.

So great were the crowds attending the service that thirty patrolmen of the Clinton street police station were summoned to keep persons unable to get inside the auditorium in check. Rabbi Hirsch Maslansky officiated at the service.

SEES PROSPERITY FOR AUSTRALIA. (Canadian Press Cable.) Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 18.—Prime Minister Stanley M. Bruce, speaking here today, again stated his belief that there was a great development in store for the Commonwealth and that the country was already on the brink of unusual prosperity. This great development, he said, with closer imperial relations, would result in the absorption by Australia of Britain's surplus population and the adaptance of Australian products to the great markets of Britain.

Odds and Ends

"You never know what you'll find among the odds and ends."—From "Notes by A. W. Yarrar."

Admiral Death. (Sir Henry Newbolt.) Sir Henry Newbolt's visit to St. John and the wonderful impression he created by his public addresses here, lends particular interest to all his verse and prose. It would be unfortunate indeed if the effect left upon the public mind by the extended reports of Sir Henry's addresses in St. John should be effaced. There is prize show, speaking of Sir Henry, the final stanza of his fine poem "Admiral Death."

How will ye know him among the rest? (Hear 'twixt the sea-wind saith) By the glint of the stars that cover his breast. Ye may find Admiral Death. By the forehead grim with an ancient scar. By the voice that rolls like thunder far, By the tenderest eyes of all that are. Ye may know Admiral Death.

Where are the lads that sailed before? (Hear 'twixt the sea-wind saith) Their bones are white by many a shore, They sleep with Admiral Death. Oh! but they loved him, young and old, For he left the laggard, and took the bold, And the fight was fought, and the story's told, And they sleep with Admiral Death.

That Early Shopping. (Boston Post.) It is time to realize that Christmas is only a few weeks away. It is also reasonable to repeat that now familiar plea:

Do your Christmas shopping early. Don't put off your purchases, but make them now. It is the best method known for providing an opportunity for all concerned to have a chance of enjoying the great holiday.

Fire on the Hearth. Kneel always when you light a fire! Kneel reverently, and thankful for God's unfailing charity. And on the ascending flame inspire! A little prayer, that shall uphold The income of your thankfulness. For this sweet grace Of warmth and light! For here again is sacrifice For your delight.

INTERIM. There you lie, your strong hands folded, In silent lowly state, On your right lies your young wife Hannah, On your left your old wife Kate.

Oak trees spreading their arms to heaven Spring from the quiet bones Of a man and his wives, one old, one young, Lying between straight stones. Oak trees dropping rusted leaves Over sleepy ground Strew their gold on the mound of Katy, Gold on Hanna's mound.

There where you lie if you stretch your arm In your deep, earthy place You may touch on your left your old wife's hand, On your right your young wife's face. Your old wife Kate who closed your eyes When your old life was over, Your young wife Hannah who trusting died In the arms of a husband-lover.

When Gabriel walks under the oaks Will you forget old love's slow steps Remembering young love's slow steps?—Lillian Middleton.

Hasty Conclusions. Sir John Simon, K. C., the eminent advocate, was once addressing a group of young legal students, and among other things he warned them always to sift carefully all evidence and never on any account to allow themselves to jump to conclusions.

"Now," he continued, "a friend of mine who has just returned from a hunting expedition in Central Africa told me a most remarkable occurrence. He and his party were trekking through a heavily wooded region when the cries of a number of birds attracted them to a bit of overgrown jungle. Peering within he beheld a trunkless body."

"But, Sir John," interrupted one of his hearers, "surely you mean a headless body." "My dear fellow," retorted the smiling K. C., "didn't I warn you not to jump at conclusions. The body was that of an elephant!"

They All Do. Mr. Bacon—Did you hear those mealy roosters crowing this morning early? Mrs. Bacon—"Yes, dear." Mr. Bacon—"Yes, dear, but what on earth they want to do that for?" Mrs. Bacon—"Why, don't you remember, dear, you got up one morning early, and you crowed about it for a week?"

What Goes Up. The airman was explaining the use of the parachute to a group of sightseers. "And what would happen if the parachute failed to open after you jumped off?" asked the listener. "Oh, that wouldn't stop me!" replied the airman. "To come down just the same."—Everybody's Magazine.

Very Lucky. A negro waiter employed in a certain cafe "sees good in everything." One hot afternoon a customer entered this cafe and ordered soft-shell crabs. When they had been served he said to the waiter: "George, these crabs are very small." "Yesuh." "They don't seem very fresh, either." "Well, suh, den it's lucky dey's small, suh, ain't it?"

Hard to Beat. Macdougall, a Highlande, had prided himself for years on being able to play the pipes. One Sunday morning when he was blowing for all he was worth, the minister came along, and going up to Macdougall with the intention of severely reprimanding him, said, in a harsh voice, "Macdougall, do you know the Ten Commandments?" Macdougall scratched his chin for a moment and then, in an equally harsh voice said:— "Do you think you've beat me? Just whistle the first three or four bars, and I'll have a try at it."—Cornish Army Bulletin.

New York, Nov. 18.—The development of commercial aviation, to judge from the ideas being put forward here, may be much nearer than it might seem from the empty skies. The first of what the designers group of Hudson on Long Island, hope may be a regular output of twelve-passenger planes, has recently been completed and successfully flown. The possibility of turning out one and two passenger planes at $500 each was confidently predicted here, also, by Alexander Kleimly, associated with the group of Hudson on Long Island, who is president of the United States Government is about to commence by H. G. Parker, the Dutch designer, who has arrived to begin work. The formation of a company to operate air taxis at 20 cents a mile and at a speed of about 100 miles an hour has just been announced by Col. H. E. Hartney, who commanded an air squadron in the American Expeditionary Force. What is perhaps even more important is the indication that military men are waiting for commercial lines, which was given this week when Robert E. M. Cowie, president of the American Railway Express Company, announced that his company would give the exclusive contract for their packages to any company that could establish and operate a dependable air service. Construction, of course, has been delayed to await the results of public confidence, though with the repeated success of the recent aerial exploits, that may be further advanced than the promoters realize.

A vivid picture of the League of Nations at work in its recent session was given to the Women's Pro-League Council in New York last week by Mrs. W. Lamont. Her dominant impression as she came away, she said, was "of the goodness of the League." It was a "going concern." There was an atmosphere that made us all feel that great things were being done; that if we gave it a chance it would do great things for the world. There was a tense seriousness among the delegates to the Assembly, a respect for one another's purposes, they proposed, debated, and passed upon point after point, until word of speech after speech with its usual breath. And, best of all, there was the group of prime ministers whom Mrs. Lamont said, that she had heard discussing the League project for reduction of armament. Without the haughty national dignity so emphasized in old days, and with a frankness born of regard for one another's purposes and respect for each other's purposes, they proposed, debated, and passed upon point after point, until word of speech after speech with its usual breath. And, best of all, there was the group of prime ministers whom Mrs. Lamont said, that she had heard discussing the League project for reduction of armament.

VISION OF THE ROSE. (William Drummond of Hawthornden) A rose, as fair as ever saw the North, Grew in a little garden all alone; A sweeter flower did Nature never put forth, Nor fairer garden yet was never known; The maidens danced about it morn and noon, And learned bards of it their ditties made; The nimble faeries by the pale-faced moon, Watered the roset and kissed her pretty shade. MISSING SAILORS RESCUED BY SHIP

DECLINE TO TOUCH LIQUOR QUESTION

Dominion Conservatives Decide Against Interfering in Ontario's Case. Toronto, Nov. 18.—By a standing vote which brought all but an insignificant number of the eight hundred or more delegates to their feet, the annual conference of the Liberal-Conservative Association this afternoon squashed the resolution sponsored by F. W. Wilton, M.L.A., of Windsor, that a discussion be permitted on the proposal to urge that legislation be introduced in Ontario to permit Government liquor control in ridings that had voted "wet" at the last plebiscite.

The conference decided that a series of meetings will be organized throughout the province at which politicians will be invited to speak. A tentative proposal was made that the party proceed at once with organization of ridings and nomination of candidates. It was finally decided to leave the matter of nominations to the executives. John McNaughton, of Quebec, said that since the last Federal election there had been a definite growth of sentiment in Quebec in favor of Conservative politics as evidenced by the results of provincial elections. He urged a closer entente between Ontario and Quebec.

The question of permanent headquarters was left for further consideration by the executive. Mr. Bennett (Simcoe) urged that Conservative organizations should work with friendly newspapers and seek to increase the circulation of newspapers in support of the Conservative cause so that more people should "see it in the paper." Hon. J. D. Stewart, Premier of Prince Edward Island, and W. L. Hall, K.C., Conservative leader in Nova Scotia, spoke enthusiastically of conditions in the ridings and nomination of candidates. The latter prophesied that the Liberal administration in Nova Scotia would be out of office by next summer.

WILL TRY TO PROVE WORTHY OF TRUST

Meighen Appreciative of Confirmation as Leader—Raps Government (Canadian Press Despatch.) Toronto, Nov. 18.—Expressing his satisfaction with the outcome of yesterday's national conference of Conservative leaders here, at which a national association of the Liberal-Conservative party was formed, Right Hon. Arthur Meighen addressed the Ontario provincial convention of the party today. He would try to be worthy of the honor paid him by yesterday's conference in confirming him in the party leadership. His speech was brief because the Conservative leader had to leave for a speaking tour of the West Coast riding.

In his recent tour of the West, Mr. Meighen said that he found people not at all satisfied with the achievements of the present Government in its three years of office. It had shown less and less willingness to shoulder the responsibilities of office. Mr. Meighen made special reference to the taxation conference, he said, had proved abortive because the Government disavowed responsibility. The unemployment conference had found no solution of the problem it sought to face. That was because the one thing which could have been done, the one thing which could have furnished the key to the problem, that is the fiscal question, was a subject taboo by the chairman of the conference, Hon. James Murdock, who was more engrossed in more personal affairs at the time.

Claims Credit for Tories. "Futility follows futility," said Mr. Meighen, "while the country suffers as a consequence." The Government, said Mr. Meighen, had taken away the protection on which national industry depended and offered Canada in return "an expensive Shibboleth" or any new business nostrum, but it needed only to get back to the "rock of commonsense of the National Policy" and to profit by the experience and tradition of 60 years of prosperity, he said. Constructive policies in Canada, said Mr. Meighen, had always been their genesis in the Conservative party. Whatever there was of solid and dependable policy in the Liberal administration had been a heritage from Conservatives.

"True," said Mr. Meighen, "there were some great Liberal enterprises which were constructive while they were under construction." There was the Transcontinental Railway. But these he said had come back as liabilities to the doorsteps of Canadians, who were the mortgagees for these enterprises, which had become a monument to the folly of 20 years ago.

Freedom of City Conferred on President of City Cornet Band. The City Council yesterday afternoon unanimously adopted a resolution conferring the freedom of the city on James Connolly, president of the City Cornet Band, in recognition of his services to the city as a musician. Mayor Potts reports as a musician. The report from the milk committee will be submitted next Monday.

The report of the committee of the whole, recomending that $310 be paid to W. A. Quinton for lots purchased by the city; that the sum of $100 be paid to James Leary, district commissioner for Stanley Ward, and that the sum of $5,000 be advanced to the Civic Power Commission for construction account, was adopted. A request from D. G. Clark that he be allowed to surrender the lease of certain lots on the West Side was referred to the Commissioner of Harbors for a report.

A communication from the Log Cabin Fishing Club, asking that the fish pier be opened to allow the city to ascend the river, was referred to the Commissioner of Water and Sewerage and City Solicitor for a report. Commissioner Harding was given authority to pool the unexpended balance in the safety department. A letter of thanks from the brothers and sisters of George F. Parks, for kindness shown in their bereavement, was ordered filed.

May Buy Horses. Commissioner Frink was given authority to purchase three horses for the public works department, to be paid for from appropriation. Commissioner Harding was given authority to pool the unexpended balance in the safety department. A letter of thanks from the brothers and sisters of George F. Parks, for kindness shown in their bereavement, was ordered filed.

federal authorities they had replied that they had complied with the building regulations and could do no more. Further resolved, that this freedom of the city of St. John bestowed upon the said James Connolly carry with it exemption from Civil Income Tax for the rest of his natural life, and also the right of voting at Civic Elections. This was seconded by Commissioner Wigmore and carried unanimously. The arrangements for the presentation of the freedom were left in the hands of the Mayor.

The Price Waterhouse report shows a loss incurred by the Civic Power Commission of more than $70,000. There's no use in camouflaging things. Catch cries, or poetic quotations, or even citations from the Scriptures won't bring back YOUR lost dollars; won't stay the increasing Hydro debt. The solution—the only sane, business-like, patriotic solution—for the present situation, is to bring the competition between the Civic Power Commission and the New Brunswick Power Company to an end. Co-operation will assure cheap power in St. John; it will protect the rights of the citizens. Co-operation will ensure harmony in the community. It will mean an immediate reduction in the number of poles that disfigure our streets. It will mean a lessening of the maze of wires which are both unsightly and dangerous. It will inaugurate a real programme of progress with the City and Power Company working together for mutual ends. Since obtaining control of the New Brunswick Power Company, the Federal Light & Traction Company has manifested, in many ways, that it will handle the affairs of this company along lines which will meet with the approval of all fair-minded citizens."

CANADIANISM IS LECTURE SUBJECT

Acadia President Urges Tolerance for Intelligent Criticism.

A stirring appeal for tolerance for the intelligent criticism of Canadianism as it exists today was made last night by Rev. F. W. Patterson, president of Acadia University in the course of his address "Canadianism Critical and Selected," before the St. John Canadian Club, at a dinner in the Hotel Dunlop.

At the outset of his address Rev. Dr. Patterson said that the Canadian Clubs had within themselves a power for the exercise of a great good, for their membership comprehended men of every race original, every phase of political affiliation, and every creed, all bound together by a bond of citizenship, a love for their country and pride in things Canadian.

There were almost as many types of Canadianism in Canada as there were Canadians declared the speaker. There was one class which, in the speaker's opinion, included all the rest, and of this class there were two divisions, the sentimentalists and the critical and selected.

The sentimentalist was exemplified in the mother who watching a regiment march past, remarked that they were all out of step but John. It was in this sentimentalism that what was known as 100 per cent. American, consisted. It was this loyalty which made for stability, but not for progress. The motto of this class was "My Country, My Party, My Creed, always right!" Such Canadianism had no place for criticism.

This type of Canadianism was not to be found in maturity, but was to be found in the child in his love for home, before he could intelligently comprehend what home meant for him. It should be developed in the schools, Dr. Patterson declared, for that patriotism which evoked physical expression, would lay the foundation for that higher Canadianism selected and critical, in times to come. He felt that there should be in the schools more exercises which would stimulate this physical expression of patriotism in the child. The literature of Canada was also weak in this respect. The rhythm, which would give rise to these emotions, was lacking, and it was his belief that the poets could leave no better heritage behind them than works which would do that very thing. One Will Emerge.

Selected Canadianism consisted in that form which could not be defended as the absolute final expression of Canadian sentiment and spirit. The many types of Canadianism were competing and the one dominant type moderated by its battle with the rest, which would emerge, will be selected and will be based on intelligent criticism, declared Dr. Patterson.

The type of Canadianism which had for its creed "As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be" was not the type for Canada.

The true Canadianism was exemplified by the type of man, who has an open mind, and is always ready to vacate a position which in the light of criticism he finds untenable.

The intelligent concept of the real value of Canadianism must combine the sentimental with the intelligent selected.

He closed his address with a plea for tolerance for the critic. There was a place for the true, sane, loyal and patriotic critic of Canadian life and institutions, the speaker concluded.

DEATHS

Mrs. Christina Stewart.

A lifelong resident of Richibucto passed away suddenly at her home on Nov. 12 in the person of Christina Curwen, beloved wife of B. B. Stewart and daughter of the late Thomas Hudson Curwen, of Maryport, England, and Margaret Anderson. She was one of the most highly respected citizens of the town and took an active interest in the social and religious life of the community. At the time of her death she was president of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Mary's church, president of the Kent County Women's Christian Temperance Union, on the executive of the Bible Society branch and teacher of the infant class of the Sunday school. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, two sons, Rev. T. Hudson Stewart, of St. George's church, Richibucto, R. H. Stewart, of Fredericton; two daughters, Mrs. J. H. Stevenson, of Lawson, Sask., and Mrs. W. A. Adair, of Sessoms, Alberta; also two sisters, Mrs. William Hudson, of Richibucto, and Mrs. Beckett, of Lawrence, Mass., and one brother, William Curwen, of Moncton. The funeral took place Friday, Nov. 14, to the Anglican cemetery. The service was conducted by Rev. W. McLaren, the rector of St. Mary's church. The respect and esteem in which she was held were shown by the large number who filled the church. The teachers and children of St. Mary's Sunday school, with which she was associated for so many years, marched in a body. The pall-bearers were Judge H. H. Jones, Col. W. E. Forbes, E. O'Leary, E. McInerney, G. O. Lang and Bruce Brown.

Robert Radley.

St. George, Nov. 18—Robert Radley, a highly respected citizen, died at his home in Upper Letang on Wednesday morning, following an attack of heart trouble. He was in his eighty-fourth year. The funeral was held from his late home to St. George's Catholic church on Saturday morning for high mass of requiem by Rev. J. W. Holland. The body was laid to rest in the new Catholic burying ground. Four nephews acted as pall bearers, Frank, Henry, Hugh and Wilbur Faloon.

Miss Laura A. Purves.

Miss Laura A. Purves, of Nauwigewauk, died in this city on Monday, Nov. 17, at the age of 67 years. She was born in Nauwigewauk and was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Purves. She was a graduate of the St. John High School and of the Provincial Normal School, Fredericton. She taught in Kings county schools for 35 years, retiring six years ago on account of ill health. Miss Purves leaves two sisters, Mrs. James R. Henderson and Mrs. Hudson F. Fickett, both of Nauwigewauk, one brother, Norman R. Purves, of Waltham, Mass. The funeral will be held from the residence of her sister, Mrs. James R. Henderson, Nauwigewauk, on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock to the Presbyterian burying ground at Hammond River. Miss Purves was highly respected and will be greatly missed in her community where she had many friends.

Robert V. Barker.

The death of Robert V. Barker occurred on Monday afternoon at the residence of his son, William F. Barker, 303 Rockland Road, and will be heard of throughout the province with much regret. Mr. Barker was born at Hampton on Sept. 1, 1847, a son of the late George T. and Eliza Barker, and came to St. John as a young man. He served his apprenticeship in learning the drug business and afterwards conducted a drug store business of his own at Golden Ball corner, Sydney and Union streets, at the same time conducting a wholesale manufacturing business with offices in Prince William street. More recently he was a traveler for the firm of T. B. Barker and Sons and afterwards was traveler for the Canadian Drug Company, Limited. Mr. Barker had been in failing health for the last two years. He is survived by his wife, one son, William F. Barker, and one sister, Mrs. Maria Belyea, of this city.

John Baillie.

The death of John Baillie occurred yesterday afternoon at his late residence, Lancaster Avenue, West St. John, after a short illness. The late Mr. Baillie, who was 84 years of age, was born in Glasgow, Scotland, but came to St. John when a young man. For many years he was a conductor on the St. John and Maine railway and later agent at the C. P. R. wharf terminal. He had been on the retired list for some time. Mr. Baillie was of a kindly and genial disposition and formed and retained very many friends who will hear of his death with regret. He was a life long member of the First Presbyterian church, West St. John.

Mr. Baillie is survived by three sons, William at home, and Robert, a C. P. R. engineer, West St. John, and George M., assistant C. P. R. superintendent at Windsor, Ont.; two daughters, Mrs. John M. Wilson, West St. John, and Miss Annie at home. Six grandchildren and one great-grandchild also survive.

The funeral will take place from his late residence, 240 Lancaster Avenue, Thursday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. Services will begin at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Emma R. Miner.

Yarmouth, N. S., Nov. 18—(Special)—The death of Emma R., widow of Dr. W. H. Miner, occurred on Sunday at the home of her daughters in Arlington, Mass. She was 69 years of age and her passing was comparatively sudden, following a brief illness of bronchial pneumonia. Mrs. Miner was always a resident of Digby county until the death of Dr. Miner about 15 years ago, when she went to make her home with her children in Massachusetts. She always maintained interest in her native community, however, and spent many summers at her old home. She is survived by three daughters, Misses Gertrude, Mildred and Georgia, all of whom accompanied the body on the Prince Arthur this morning and went forward by the D. A. R. to Barton, also one son, Wallace H., in Brooklyn, N. Y. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from the Barton United Baptist church, of which Mrs. Miner was for many years a most consistent adherent.

Mrs. Annie R. Leonard.

Mrs. Annie R. Leonard, wife of Oliver A. P. Leonard of this city, died on Tuesday, Nov. 18, at the age of 76 years. She had been in failing health for some time, but her death came as a shock to her many friends. Beside her husband, she is survived by four sons and one daughter. The sons are: Harry

Why YOU Should Purchase a Canadian Government Annuity

Because in old age it will free you from the dread of poverty or of becoming a burden upon others. Because it will bring you comfort and independence in your later years. BECAUSE IT WILL GIVE YOU A LARGER RETURN FOR THE AMOUNT INVESTED THAN ANY OTHER LIFE INVESTMENT OF EQUAL SECURITY. For example, if a man of 20 will pay to the Dominion Government the sum of $6.31 a month until he is 60, the Government will agree to pay to him from 60 as long as he lives $50 a month—a return equal to over 23% on the total amount paid. If he dies before 60, every dollar that he paid in, with 4% compound interest, would be returnable to his heirs. If he should die between 59 and 60, the amount so returnable in a cash sum would be $8,230.00. Such an Annuity may be of any amount from $50 to $5,000 a year, the cost being relatively the same. It is non-forfeitable, cannot be seized for debt, and is free from Dominion Income Tax. For full particulars fill out this coupon and address it as directed.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Burton

THE TWINS COME TO YUM YUM LAND

"Now," said he, "I am going to have a feast."

When the King of Yum Yum Land got the magic fork and the magic teapot, he tucked them under his arm and said to his subjects:

Anything You Can't Eat?

If it's good to eat, of course. If your stomach hurts, aches, or gets gassy after eating corned beef and cabbage, bacon and eggs, mince pie and cheese, or doughnuts and coffee, or lobster salad keeps you awake all night, ask the man or woman who looks on

"Had no strength to walk"

After taking her second bottle of Carnol, Mrs. George Brown says, "I am a new woman and I would not be an hour without Carnol."

The benefits derived from Carnol are in many cases almost miraculous. It has proved of wonderful benefit in cases of weakness and other run-down conditions. Where other remedies have failed to do good, Carnol has given almost immediate relief, as instances what Carnol has done for Mrs. Brown,—"I am dropping you a few lines to tell you what good results I have received from your Carnol medicine. For three years I could not do my housework. I was weak and I did not have strength to walk across the kitchen. I got so weak that my husband and mother had to lift me about. I tried all kinds of medicines which did not do me any good. I had four doctors, they all said that I would have to go to the hospital and get an X-ray. I read of your Carnol medicine in the St. John Star, and I said to my husband, "I think I will try it." Before I had taken the second bottle I felt like a new woman. I would not be one hour without it. I cannot praise it enough for what it has done for me and also for my husband and children. They had colds and in a day they were better. I am telling everybody what a great medicine Carnol is. I don't know what it is to have a day's serious sickness now." — Mrs. George Brown, 42 St. Andrews Street, St. John, N.B.

What was I talking about? Oh, yes. The king sat down in front of the fire. "Now," said he, "I am going to have a feast. A real feast and no bothersome cooks about or anything." It was only half past four in the afternoon and the king was still full of his toasted butterfies and soda water, but he didn't care about that. So he said to the magic teapot, "Go do your best, go do your worst, Or, teapot, dear, I'd like a treat. Please see what you can find to eat." Instantly the teapot and the fork went clackety, clack to the door and disappeared down the road.

Now right overhead, if the king had chanced to look out of the window, he would have seen a queer sight as a walking fork and teapot in a green suit. They were no others than Daddy Gander and the Twins. They had just arrived in Yum Yum Land and they were looking down to see if they could catch a glimpse of the very fork the king had sent to do his errand. It didn't take Nick's sharp eyes long to discover it. "Why there it is," he

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

The object of the cross word puzzle is to fill out the white spaces in the diagram with words which agree with the definitions given in the accompanying text.

The word defined in the text under "HORIZONTAL" and indicated as No. 1 (in case such a number appears in the Horizontal list) will extend horizontally from No. 1 square to the next Black square.

The word indicated as No. 1 under "VERTICAL" in the list of definitions will extend from white square No. 1 to the black square below. And so on.

Most of the letters are used in the making of two different words.

SUGGESTIONS FOR SOLVING CROSS-WORD PUZZLES

Start out by filling in the words of which you feel reasonably sure. These will give you a clue to other words crossing them, and they in turn to still others. A letter belongs in each white space, words starting at the numbered squares and running either horizontally or vertically or both.

Comfort in Bed

"Umm—there's nothing like a comfortable bed when you're not feeling well." Mr. Mann of Anytown would grunt from underneath the covers when indispositions overtook him. Every good nurse appreciates how important is the element of physical comfort in the psychology of an invalid. Here are a few things that can be given attention by any woman who wants to make her hubby or children more comfortable during an illness: Watch the light. Don't let it shine in the patient's eyes. Be as quiet as possible and don't bring about any overexcitement through argument or talk. If the patient has been lying for any length of time, prop a pillow beneath his knees to relieve the strain on the muscles. Don't let the covers become oppressively heavy and don't let the patient get too hot. Have a comfortable bed and changes of sheets. It doesn't take much to make sick people happy—a few flowers, some little presents, some wholesome article of food, or any one of a dozen things.

CHANGE CAPITAL'S NAME

The Consulate General of Norway at Montreal has announced that according to law passed July 11, 1924, the capital of Norway, now called Kristiania (Christiania) will from January 1, 1925, be called Oslo. This information was given out yesterday by Hugh H. McLean, Jr., the Norwegian vice-consul here.

HAVE ENTERTAINMENT.

The semi-annual meeting of the King's Daughters, held last night at the Guild, was largely attended and most enjoyable. Mrs. Edith Stevens, president, was in the chair and the opening devotions were conducted by Mrs. Frank McArthur and Miss Laura McLaughlin. The members brought a great array of home made preserves and pickles as a sweet and sour offering for the Guild and during the evening the members were busied in sewing garments for the children of the poor. Mrs. Austen had charge of the distribution of the sewing. A pleasing entertainment programme, arranged by Miss Alice Rising was much appreciated. The programme included the following numbers: Readings, Mrs. E. B. Sprague; vocal duet, Mrs. Hugh Gregory and Miss Marion MacLean, and vocal solo, Mrs. Hugh Gregory and Miss Marion Miles. The accompanists were Mrs. H. M. Brittain and Miss M. MacLean.

Social Notes of Interest

Yesterday the members of the Municipal chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, were hostesses at a luncheon in Green's Dining Hall for the out-of-town delegates who were attending the semi-annual meeting of the Provincial Chapter, I. O. D. E., which took place in the morning in the Church of England Institute rooms.

At luncheon the guests who numbered about seventy-five were seated at small tables prettily centred with yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Heber Vroom, regent of the Municipal chapter, had as guest at her table, Mrs. H. F. McLeod, Mrs. John Black, Mrs. Havelock Coy, Mrs. W. S. Allison, Mrs. P. R. Taylor, Miss Alward. After lunch the members adjourned to the Church of England Institute room where the business meeting was continued. Tea was served at five o'clock. Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong and Mrs. R. W. Wigmore presiding over the tea cups.

ALBERTA SEEKING TO GET RESOURCES

Ottawa, Nov. 18—Alberta is negotiating for the return of its natural resources, separate and distinct from those of Saskatchewan and Manitoba. And Premier Greenfield, with Attorney-General Brownlee, are due here on Wednesday for an annual conference. There is some hope that this will be the farewell.

Alberta shows a greater anxiety to get hold of its natural domain than the other prairie provinces, because of the undoubted richness of its coal deposits and other minerals.

RED PEPPER FOR COLDS IN CHEST

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the old remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once. The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known.

BUILDING MILL AT NEPISIGUIT JUNC.

Bathurst, N. B., Nov. 18—Preparations have begun at Nepisiguit Junction for the new hardwood mill. Excavation has been completed and lumber is being put on the site. The new mill will be about 34 feet by 40 feet one and one-half million feet spool bars.

Northwest wind yesterday brought enough snow for sleighing in outlying districts, but hardly enough for the heavy traffic in town.

Chipso—a surprising new form of soap for a new-fashioned washday WHEN experienced women say "Chipso is the finest form of soap I have ever used in my life," you must know that something very unusual has happened. Chipso is a sensation—no other word can describe it. After years of dreary washdays, of fuming tubs and drudgery, Chipso comes with the white magic of its electric suds—and a new washday is here. New? Yes, Chipso is new! But it is not an experiment. Thousands of women are using Chipso every day—not only for its help towards brilliant laundry results, but for its convenience and safe effectiveness in all kinds of household cleaning; dishes, woodwork, floors. And with all its advantages, it is economical! The price of the big blue-and-orange package will tell you that! Remember—whether you boil, soak, or use a washing machine, Chipso and water are all you need! Snow-white Chipso dissolves instantly—no powder or fumes to make you sneeze. A few whisks with your hand, or a few revolutions of the washing machine, and Chipso expands into a sudsy mountain of magic bubbles. Do your washing by your usual method; but do it with Chipso—quicker—easier—better! PROCTER & GAMBLE Chipso (Quick Suds)

Oct. 30, at the Brompton Oratory, by Rev. E. Hughes, assisted by Rev. J. W. Doran, Capt. George Conroy Cooper, son of the late George Cooper and of Mrs. Cooper, 17 Evelyn Gardens, to Yvonne Victoria, youngest daughter of the late Thomas Francis Hughes and of Mrs. Hughes, 30 Bramble Gardens, and granddaughter of Dever, of St. John, New Brunswick. Mrs. Hughes will be remembered in St. John as Miss Gene Dever. Her husband, who died some years ago, was in the British Government service and held an important position in China. Brompton Oratory is one of the best known Catholic churches in London and is the scene of many marriages in high life. The Order of the Oratorians was founded in England by Cardinal Newman in 1847. Mrs. Dever, grandmother of the bride, has been residing for some time with her daughter, Mrs. Norman Leslie, in Kingston, Ont., and notwithstanding her advanced age is in fairly good health. Bonnell-Herd. A very pretty wedding took place in St. John's church, Strathroy, Ont., on October 29 last at 5 o'clock when Alveris Louise, eldest daughter of Mrs. S. L. Herd, and the late George K. Herd, became the bride of Charles Cecil Bonnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bonnell of St. John, N. B., Rev. George Pugsley officiating. The bride, who was given away by her brother, H. Oliver Herd, wore a charming French gown of brown cut velvet on georgette, and a black picture hat, and carried a bridal bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was attended by her sister, Gladys Leona, who wore a gown of cocoa georgette with lace trimmings and carried Ophelia roses. Wm. F. Nichols was best man. Stewart Herd and Russell Hife acted as ushers. A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, where luncheon was served. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Bonnell left for their home in Chicago. The bride traveled in a black satin-faced Canton crepe gown with Hudson seal coat with sable collar and cuffs and hat and shoes to match.

MANY LISTEN TO MONCTON RADIO

Moncton, Nov. 18—The fourth broadcasting concert from the new radio station, CNRA, was given tonight and was heard by many radio listeners in Canada and the United States. The programme was an excellent one, including orchestral selections by the Rainbow Melody Orchestra, songs by Miss Gertrude McLellan, Mrs. W. A. Pritch and R. Gander. The next concert will be on Friday evening next.

M. P. WOULD PROBE CURRIE CHARGES OF WAR WASTAGE

Canadian Commander Quoted as Saying 100,000 Useless Men Enlisted.

Ottawa, Nov. 18—Charges made in Montreal by Sir Arthur Currie, former commander-in-chief of the Canadian forces, that at least 100,000 men were enlisted in the Canadian expeditionary force who should not have been enlisted, thereby entailing an unnecessary expenditure of millions of dollars, are due to be ventilated at the coming session of Parliament. Joseph Archambault, Liberal member for Chambly-Vercheres, has given notice that he will move for the appointment of a special committee to determine responsibility. Mr. Archambault also asks for inquiry into Sir Arthur's charges against the Ross rifle and other matters.

Confirms Report.

Montreal, Nov. 18—Joseph Archambault, Member of Parliament for Chambly-Vercheres, this evening confirmed the report from Ottawa to the effect that he intended to ask for an inquiry into the statements attributed to Sir Arthur Currie in an address before the Citizens' Research Institute on Sept. 11, last, regarding alleged wastage of men, money and material in the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

Interviewed by the Canadian Press tonight, Mr. Archambault said that "the charges were startling." He wanted to know exactly what they were, the foundation for them and upon whom the responsibility should be placed.

This, he said, was his only intention as a public man. They were all the more serious, he declared, coming from a man of Sir Arthur's standing in the Dominion.

Currie Declines to Talk.

Sir Arthur declined to be interviewed this evening, merely commenting that he refused to be involved in any political issue. He had nothing to add or detract from what he had said, the exact substance of his remarks being embodied in the report of the proceedings of the institute and what was contained therein represented his statements accurately. Sir Arthur declared that he had not remarked that "at least 100,000 men were enlisted in the Canadian Expeditionary Force who should not have been enlisted," as the Ottawa report stated.

Report of Address.

Addressing the Citizens Research Institute of Montreal, Sept. 11, last, Sir Arthur Currie, who commanded the Canadian Army Corps during the latter part of the war, was reported to have said as follows:

"I do not know all about the war, but I do know a lot of it looking at it from a long distance from the place where the expenditures were incurred. I know that the war cost hundreds of millions more than if expert advice had been listened to. I think I am right in saying that 100,000 men were enlisted and sent to England who were of no use to us in the field. I think the average cost of each man would be $1,800 and that would be $180,000,000." Sir Arthur was also reported as having deplored the granting of expert advice regarding the Ross rifle and the Oliver equipment.

CIVIC PAWN SHOPS COMMITTEE'S AIM

Will Ask Legislature to Sanction Stores in Montreal

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Montreal, Nov. 18—Following revelations of alleged reception of stolen goods by pawn shops in Montreal, the executive committee is considering for recommendation to the council the project of establishing municipal pawn shops, on the lines of those which have existed in Europe for centuries, especially in Paris. The committee has decided to apply to the Provincial Legislature for authorization to enter the trade. The articles received would be limited to certain kinds, city valuers would be named to value them, a period for redemption would be fixed and a record kept of all persons leaving goods for loan.

DICTATOR CHARGE CRERAR SCOFFS AT

Calgary, Nov. 18—It is extremely rare that Hon. T. A. Crerar, president of the United Grain Growers, will consent to be interviewed by the press. He departed from his usual custom, however, this morning when a representative of the Canadian Press showed him a Toronto dispatch in which W. J. Blair, Conservative leader in Alberta, charged him with being the dictator of the province.
"Mr. Blair's statements regarding both myself and the United Grain Growers Limited," he said, "are wholly absurd and even ludicrous. I do not think they originated with Mr. Blair, but probably with Hon. Robert Rogers, who has a unique facility for making such statements and who is probably celebrating his restoration to position of prominence in the Conservative Party."

VICTORIA COUNTY CASE UP.

Andover, Nov. 18—The November sitting of the Victoria County Court opened this morning with Judge Carleton presiding and only one case on the docket, an action of trover.
The parties in the case are Frank Watson and Alexander Henderson and at noon, when the court adjourned for lunch, the evidence for the plaintiff had all been submitted. In the afternoon the defence was to be taken up.

Defeatist May Prosecute Cabinet Which Stigmatized Him

REVISION OF CASE IS INSISTED ON BY FORMER MINISTER

Senators Who Condemned Him Now Suggest Belief of Innocence.

NEW FEATURES

Returned French Exile Claims Charges Made in Face of Opposition.

(Canadian Press Cable.)

Paris, Nov. 18.—Louis Malvey is not satisfied with the amnesty voted him by the Senate yesterday. It was declared, and intends to insist upon a complete revision of his case.

Many Senators, who sat in the high court which convicted the former minister, declare that, had they been presented with such a certificate of character during the trial as that which former Premier Poincaré gave M. Malvey on the floor of the Senate yesterday, they would never have condemned him.

The principal charges against Malvey were that he protected the anarchist, Sebastian Faure, and gave money to Miguel Almeraya, editor of the notorious "Defaitiste" newspaper, Bonnet Rouge. Malvey has now represented as declaring he is able to prove that both these steps were taken by others in the face of his opposition.

These and other facts, which Le Matin says amount to charges against the government in office at the time of the trial, may be produced in a new case with Malvey as prosecutor.

C. P. R. GETS FAST ONES FOR PACIFIC

Two 21-Knot Steamships are Being Built on the Clyde.

Montreal, Nov. 18.—Two steamships that are being built on the Clyde, for the Canadian Pacific, will be placed in service early next year, will be, in point of speed, design and completeness of finish, by far superior to any vessel that has ever operated on the Pacific coast, said Captain J. W. Troup, manager of Canadian Pacific B. C. coast services, who passed through yesterday, on his return from Scotland where he has been superintendent of the construction of the vessels.

Captain Troup expects that the first vessel, the "Princess Kathleen," recently launched, and sponsored by Lady Strathcona, will be delivered to the Pacific coast by the end of December and placed in service between Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle soon thereafter. The "Princess Marguerite" which will be launched on November 29 and sponsored by Hon. Marguerite Shaughnessy, daughter of the late Lord Shaughnessy, is scheduled for delivery at the end of February. Both vessels will operate at 21 knots which will enable them to reduce the time between ports served by at least 30 minutes.

At first a plan involving the construction of auxiliary fuel tanks on the decks and in the holds of the ships for the voyage out was considered, but present plans call for re-fueling at the Azores, the West Indies, and Panama, and these arrangements made, the ships will be able to make the trip without extra supplies being taken on at Clydebank.

ENGLISH STUDENT JOURNALISTS WILL WORK IN UNITED STATES

London, Nov. 18.—Two scholarships for English journalists, to be known as the "Walter Page Scholarships," have been founded by the English Speaking Union. They comprise a year's visit to America for the study of life and politics of the country, and their value is about $2,200.

Most of the funds for next year's scholarships are now available, and it is planned to send the two journalists over in January. The holders will be chosen by a committee of the London branch, and it is possible that during their visit to the United States they will be affiliated for a short time with some American newspaper.

WANT $55,000 FOR WAR MEMORIAL FUND

At a Mantelpal Chapter, I. O. D. F., meeting, held in Toronto the other day, it was said by the treasurer, Mrs. W. B. Hill, that Ontario's share in the funds necessary to complete the war memorial fund was $55,000. The completion of this fund during the coming year is the aim of the order. It has been suggested that early in February the Toronto chapters hold a memorial week, and do everything in their power to raise their allotment.

Ocean Bottom Rises and Falls in Titanic Motion

After taking all the trouble to ascertain the exact position of a new island in the China Sea and mark it on the charts, the hydrographers of the various nations have had to expunge it again. It was the largest of several northward during the recent Japanese earthquake. It lay in the degree 10 minutes north and long. 109 degrees east, that is, some nine miles to the northeastward of Great Catwick, the French Ind-China island. It was some ninety-seven feet in height.

When it was apparently firmly set and vegetation commenced to grow on it with his band of desperadoes, Dahlak and his island had utterly vanished. Subsequent investigation established the fact that where the island stood there is now twenty-five fathoms of water.

Through in this instance the coming and going of an island was spectacular, similar occurrences are not so uncommon, considering the world as a whole and thinking in centuries. In the volcanic regions many islands have appeared, some to remain, some to vanish again, while others reported ages ago, are really the edges and the multi-farious ranges inhabiting them—some gentle, some cannibal; with gentle zephyrs or tornadoes, and so-called "hot waves." It is always the unexpected which happens on the Pacific.

New Yorkers Tip Everybody, Even Man Who Makes Change

New York, Nov. 18.—"New York has gone tipping mad," remarked a foreign visitor the other day. "A generation ago when I first came to the city there was far less tipping than in large cities abroad. A change was noticeable before the war and on my various visits I found that tipping had become quite as common here as in London or Paris. Since the war the practice has grown by leaps and bounds. New York today not only follows every custom of the kind which obtains in Europe, but is constantly inventing new ways of distributing its small change."

"There may be said to be certain universal practices in tipping common to all great cities. We may complain of the constant holdup, but every one admits the tipping of the porter at the steamship dock or railroad station, the waiter, the hat check man and others is too much a habit to be eliminated. It has been established beyond challenge."

"Nowhere else, however, will you find the extra tip, to call it such, so common as in New York. The elevator boy in your apartment is tipped on holidays, especially weekly or monthly, and on special occasions. But many people I find, tip him when they are in late from the theatre for a special tip. I don't know again of any other city."

friends of the lad were invited and had a very enjoyable time. The table was decorated with a large birthday cake with six candles and there were numerous other good things which the children enjoyed. Among those present were: Agatha McCaig, Celia McCaig, Teresa Melanson, Josephine Melanson, Rosa Wiebel and Coris Wright.

BRITISH TEACHERS TO COME NEXT YEAR

Manitoba M. P. Here to Arrange Details of Visit to Canada.

W. D. Bayley, an independent member of the Manitoba Legislature, arrived in the city yesterday to take up the duties of his office. He is the first of the Municipal authorities and teachers' organizations, the matter of arranging a programme of entertainment for a large number of British school teachers who will tour Canada next summer. A fault that has occurred many times is to be remedied in as far as their trip is concerned, said Mr. Bayley. Too often delegates have crossed the ocean to travel throughout Canada, landed at Montreal and proceeded West without taking in the Maritime Provinces. He is greatly interested during the few days he had been in the Maritimes, that all the bodies would cooperate, and that the trip through the Maritimes was going to prove one of the most enjoyable of the whole trip.

While he had arrived here at rather a poor time to fully appreciate the beauty of the Maritime Provinces, he was deeply interested in the opportunity to study the education systems here as well as the institutions. It was a relief to find that the Maritime cities were feeling the difficulties so common in the West, because of the excessive real estate expansion. It was a matter of surprise to him to find that the members of the school board here were selected and not elected. Personally he favored the elective plan, but the selective method obliterated one very contentious matter, that of Western provinces were struggling with. There, one body, the school trustees received all the praise for their progressiveness. In the Maritime, while the municipal bodies got nothing but abuse for raising the tax rate so as to meet the bills contracted by the school board.

Since leaving Winnipeg Mr. Bayley took part in the recent campaign in Ontario, making 80 speeches in all. He was gratified that the reaction against the dry laws in that province had been checked. In Manitoba the Government sale of liquor in sealed packages had been going on for 12 months. During the last summer, despite the two to one vote for prohibition, 19 hotel bars had been discovered selling liquor as freely as unlicensed saloons. The liquor commission had also cancelled 300 permits one day during June, which meant that 300 men were continuously purchasing Government liquor for bootlegging purposes.

The rising of a large area of the Atlantic bed, though the news of it passed almost unnoticed in the press, is one of the most vast and most important changes in the earth's surface. It was discovered when the Eastern Cable Company's cable between Cape Town and St. Helena broke some 500 miles north of the Cape. The repair instead of finding it at the depth it was laid, in 1899, of 2,700 fathoms, or just over three miles, picked it up a little more. Therefore the ocean bed must have risen more than two miles within the last twenty-five years.

The magnitude of this phenomenon and some idea of the enormous pressure when one considers that the sea water would be resting on the bottom with a pressure of a million pounds to the square foot, or about thirteen thousand million tons to the square mile.

MAKES FINE GIFT TO MASONIC LODGE

Yarmouth Man Marks Birthday and 54th Year as Mason.

(Special to The Times-Star.) Yarmouth, N. S., Nov. 18.—An interesting event in the history of Scotia Lodge, No. 21, A. F. & A. M., took place at a regular communication on Monday evening when Past Grand Master J. Murray Lawson, editor and proprietor of the Yarmouth Herald, presented to the lodge a handsome jeweled altar jewel. It is made of sterling silver, handsomely encased, and can be adjusted for all three degrees of the Blue Lodge. It is a real piece of jewelery art and bears the following inscription: "Presented to Scotia Lodge, No. 31, by Past Grand Master J. Murray Lawson on his 54th birthday, January 13, 1925, and his 54th year as a Mason."

Past Master Lawson, in making the presentation, gave expression to a few brilliant thoughts on the lines of masonry.

On behalf of the lodge, Edgar J. Vickery, Jr., acting master, expressed appreciation for the gift.

Following that, an illuminated address was presented to Past Grand Master Lawson, and on motion of P. D. D. G. Master Robert S. McKay, K. C., and Past Master Major George D. Blackadar, it was ordered engrossed on the minutes of the session.

MOTOR BUSES SOON TO MOVE MOSCOW CROWDS TO SUBURBS

Moscow, which from time immemorial has depended upon the horse-drawn carriage and the conventional trolley car for its transportation, will soon have its own motor buses, according to an Associated Press dispatch from that city. Eight omnibuses of the London type will make their appearance soon, and it is the intention of the municipal authorities eventually to secure sufficient additional vehicles to establish connection with suburban districts. This will do much, the officials say, to relieve the fearful congestion on trolley cars and roads, and will also encourage part of the population to move to the suburbs.

JEWIS WILL RAISE $3,000,000 TO AID PALESTINE WORK

Groups to Ally for Relief of Refugees—$450,000 Subscribed.

New York, Nov. 18.—A $3,000,000 investment corporation will be incorporated under the laws of Delaware early in 1925 to aid in the development and rehabilitation of the Jewish homeland in Palestine. It was announced by Louis Marshall at the eighteenth annual meeting of the American Jewish Committee at the Hotel Astor. The corporation will not be in any sense a philanthropic institution, Mr. Marshall said, but will furnish credits for the establishment of industries and commercial institutions and will demand reasonable rates of interest and adequate security for the protection of the loans.

The organization of the new company, to be known as the Palestine Economic Corporation, is the development of meetings held in this city since February 27, when its establishment was first discussed and a committee was appointed to further the plan. Mr. Marshall said a meeting would be held early in 1925 to ratify the plans for the corporation.

Considerable stress was laid on the fact that there are more than 15,000 Jews stranded in Europe and Cuba because of the passage of the immigration act of 1924. Many of these, it was pointed out, are unable to obtain employment and others have been "stricken with illness in consequence of climatic and other conditions, while young girls are living under conditions that subject them to unpeppable dangers."

It was said that about $210,000 had been subscribed toward the work of an emergency committee of Jewish refugees organized in August, to assist in repatriating and aiding them to settle in countries where there are opportunities.

The campaign for funds, which aims at $500,000, will be continued by a subscription committee headed by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise.

GERMAN AIRCRAFT WORKERS NOW TURN TO MAKING TRACTORS

Zepplin workmen who built the ZR-8 and who for years have been constructing things which fly, will now be employed in making things which travel on the ground, says an Associated Press dispatch from Friedrichshafen. By the terms of the treaty of Versailles the great hangars at Friedrichshafen must be destroyed.

In addition to manufacturing automobiles, bicycles and various other mechanical affairs the Zepplin company has already arranged to build caterpillar tractors, and this factory will take over most of the men who for more than two years have been working on the ZR-8.

DISARMAMENT IN FIRST PLACE ON LEAGUE AGENDA

Programme for 32nd Session Has Many Subjects for Discussion.

Geneva, Nov. 18.—A lengthy official communication issued by the League of Nations calls attention to the importance of the programme for the thirty-second session of the Council of the League which will open on Dec. 8 in Rome. The programme contains a number of questions concerning the main activities of the League. First place is given in the communication to the reduction in armaments. It says the Council will begin preparations for an international conference on reduction. The Council also will study a convention for the control of international traffic in arms, and, according to the communication, probably will appoint an American on a special committee which will draft a convention for control of the private manufacture of arms.

International Law. Another matter of special interest to Americans to be dealt with in Rome is a general codification of international law. It is assumed in Geneva that the United States will desire to participate in this activity of the League. The Council of the League will appoint a committee of experts to study the general question of codification of international law. These experts will represent the chief forms of civilization and the chief legal systems of the world. They will draft lists of points on international law, for regulation by international agreement.

The right of the League of Nations to conduct investigations into the armaments of Germany and the other central powers also will be discussed.

Firemen Hosts in Fairville Station. The Fairville firemen with Captain Charles Mason held a very enjoyable social on Monday evening in the new fire station which was officially opened on Jan. 23, 1923 and replaced the old station that was burnt on Nov. 17, 1920, just four years ago. The firemen were hosts for the fire warden, W. A. Reed, Harry Watters, and George Costley, and Councillors J. O'Brien, William Golding and Murray Campbell, and other invited guests.

An interesting programme was furnished and included the following selections: Guitar and vocal and violin selections, J. Sargent; vocal and violin quartette, Benjamin Wood, Robert Lunnergan, Joseph Sweet and Arthur Driscoll; vocal and violin selections, J. REPORTS TELL OF FIGHT AGAINST TUBERCULOSIS Year's Work is Reviewed at St. John Society's Annual Session.

Officers Elected. A. M. Peters Succeeds E. L. Rising as Presiding Officer.

At the annual meeting of the St. John Anti-Tuberculosis Association held last night in the General street Baptist church with E. L. Rising, retiring president, in the chair, it was reported by Dr. H. A. Farris that within the last 9 months there had been 18 children who had died of tuberculosis and each of these deaths could have been prevented had proper care been taken during the year just closed a record for work had been attained and results had been gratifying.

The meeting was addressed by three visiting speakers, Dr. H. A. LaFleur, of Montreal, and Dr. C. D. Parfitt and Dr. Jabez Elliott of Toronto. A. M. Peters was elected the new president of the association, and appreciation was expressed of the work of Miss Melkejohn whose departure from the city was greatly regretted.

Miss Katherine M. Smith, secretary, gave the 18th annual report telling of a very substantial increase over the visits of the previous year.

Thanks were tendered to Dr. H. A. Farris who with his assistants at the County Hospital made all examinations for the association, to Dr. H. L. Abramson, Dr. E. S. Briggs, the Health Centre, the City Commission and all who helped in the work.

The treasurer, Miss Helen Sidney Smith reported total receipts $5,689.61.

Funds Low. Miss Smith pointed out that the balance of $185.70 was less than the balance of $475 which the previous year had closed. She explained that this sum was not sufficient to pay the salaries of the nurses for the current month and that the municipal grant of $1,000 which would be available early in the new year as a replacement would be to some degree replace the gap which it would be unable to hold again this year.

The society's milk fund was now so depleted that there was only about $5 left and supplies of free milk had to be stopped. A special fund for milk for soldiers in the new year of about $180 left. The society was hard pressed for funds and was relying on the sale of Christmas seals to supplement the report of Miss Hegan, superintendent of nurses gave statistics of the year's work.

Officers Elected. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, A. M. Peters; vice-president, E. L. Rising; secretary, Miss Helen Sidney Smith; treasurer, Miss K. Bell; assistant secretary, Mrs. Campbell Mackay; additional members of the executive, Mrs. G. E. Barbour, Mrs. Arthur Bowman, Mrs. Busby, Mrs. W. H. Shaw, Mrs. Daniel Mullin, Mrs. David McLean, Mrs. E. B. Ellis, Mrs. Haney, Mrs. Harvie, Mrs. Daryl Peters, Mrs. Goldman, Miss Agnes Warner, Mrs. Bruce Burpee, Mrs. M. B. Edwards, Mrs. J. H. Farris, Mrs. Doody, E. L. Rising, F. B. Schofield, D. C. Clinch, T. E. G. Armstrong, C. C. Kirby, Rev. W. M. Duke, George R. Ewis, Mrs. A. W. Paterson, ex officio, Miss Alice Hegan, Dr. H. A. Farris, Dr. Warwick, Mr. John Kelly.

Dr. H. A. Farris and Mrs. W. H. Shaw seconded the hearty vote of appreciation extended to the retiring president, E. L. Rising, and Mr. Rising made a brief address.

Dr. Farris pointed out that the year had been a record one for work accomplished. He told of how the work was carried on with three clinics weekly, supplemented by a weekly fluoroscopic clinic; free X-ray diagnosis at the County Hospital, and follow-up work in the visits of the nurses to the homes. He said this year an intensive drive had been made to follow up all exposed cases and in this the cooperation of Dr. William Warwick, medical health officer, had been of very great assistance. He told of the gratifying reduction in the death rate from tuberculosis but said in the last nine months there had been 18 deaths among children in the city which had been caused by unnecessary exposure to tubercular infection. Dr. Farris spoke of the excellent facilities in St. John for combating tuberculosis, mentioning the clinics, the three clinical professors of medicine at McGill University, congratulated the St. John organization on what it had accomplished and wished it continue to succeed.

Dr. C. D. Parfitt, of Toronto, president of the National Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, referred to his former visit to St. John when he had been much impressed by the organization for fighting tuberculosis in this community. He paid a warm tribute to the far-reaching work which had been done in cutting the tuberculosis death rate of St. John from (Continued on page 14, 7th column)

OFFERS $5,000 PRIZE ON WAGE QUESTION

Chicago University Says the Topic is Interesting One at Present.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—In the hope of gaining new light on the question of wages for the benefit of workers, a prize of $5,000 for a treatise on "The Theory of Wages" is offered by the committee on economic prizes, it was announced by Prof. J. Laurence Laughlin of the University of Chicago, chairman of the committee.

Explaining the choice of the subject, Professor Laughlin said to a representative of The Christian Science Monitor:—"The question of wages is most important to the country as a whole and needs the best thought and knowledge of economists of all countries. It has been the centre of economic study for people who earn, it was chosen for this prize."

"The contest is to be announced in Europe as well as in the United States. The committee places no restrictions upon the scope, method or character of the studies submitted beyond the requirement that they make genuine contributions toward our understanding of the problem."

Emphasis may be laid upon analysis of the economic principles underlying the determination of wages upon conditions which set maximum and minimum limits to the prices paid for important types of labor or upon any other aspect of the problem which a writer can show to be significant or upon which he can throw new light."

To give time for thorough research, the committee will receive contributions until Oct. 1, 1926. The prize is to be paid by Hart Schaffner and Marx of Chicago. It is hoped by the committee that the prize is the forerunner of an annual prize for distinguished work in economics.

Want Duty Cut On Motor Cars. Ottawa, Nov. 18.—Delegations are approaching the Government with representations that there should be a reduction of the duty on motor vehicles entering or at least the removal of the sales tax. It is argued that the spread between the price of the same make of such vehicles in Canada and the United States is far too wide, and that, in view of the almost general use and ownership of automobiles and the increasing use of freight trucks, the price in Canada should be much closer to that just across the line. The present duty on cars is 85% and there is also an excise tax. More of the matter will be heard when the budget comes on.

Girl Who Gives Best Name to Mama Doll Will Win It. Contest Closes at Telegraph-Journal Office Tomorrow Night.

What little girl in St. John is going to win the beautiful Mama doll which the Telegraph-Journal is going to give to the girl who sends in the nicest and most appropriate name?

This orphan doll, which is coming to St. John along with all her little sisters, wants some little girl to pick out a nice name for her. She is a big, beautiful, pink-cheeked, blue-eyed doll with bobbed brown hair. She walks, talks, sleeps and rolls her eyes. In fact, she is a doll that any little girl would be proud to own and the one who sends in the name which the judges consider most appropriate is going to win it.

Any girl can send in a name—just one—or her mother can select one for her. Write the name which you think will win the doll in the coupon printed below, together with your age, name and address and mail or bring it to the Telegraph-Journal office, Canterbury street.

The contest is open to any little girl in St. John. All names must be in the name of the girl who sends in the name. The contest closes at 6 p. m. Thursday, Nov. 20, so send in the coupon right away.

Cables from Cunards. Whenever a Cunard liner comes to Halifax, somebody on board is certain to send a cable via Louisburg asking that a supply of Moirs Chocolates be placed on board, to be eaten in New York or London.

To get square with cabarets which have no amusement tax to pay, a London Theatre has "abolished" admission fees. Instead it sells boxes of chocolates. The size of the box you buy depends on the position of your seat—from the stalls to the galleries.

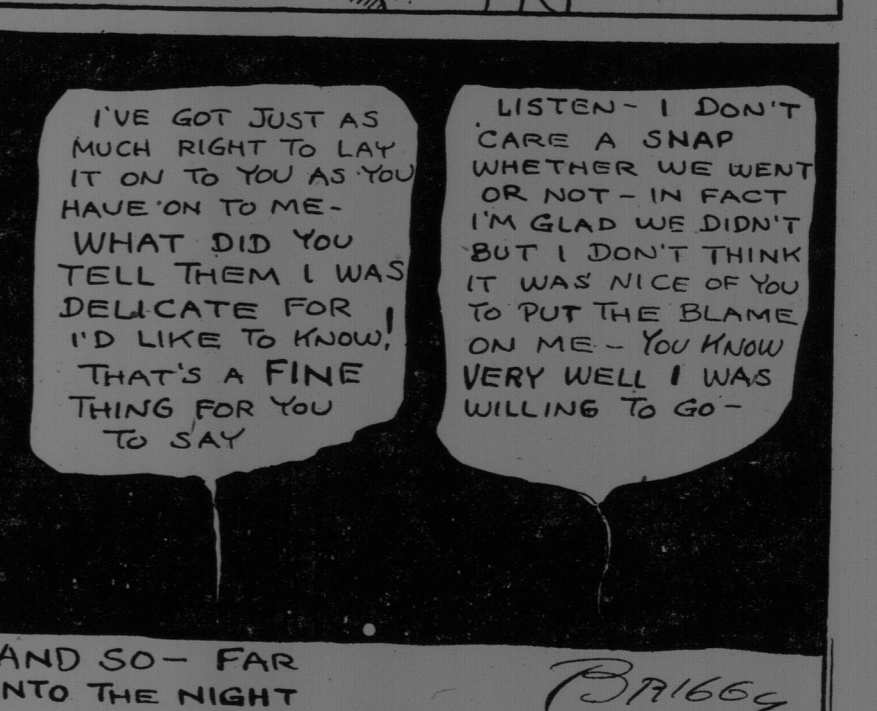

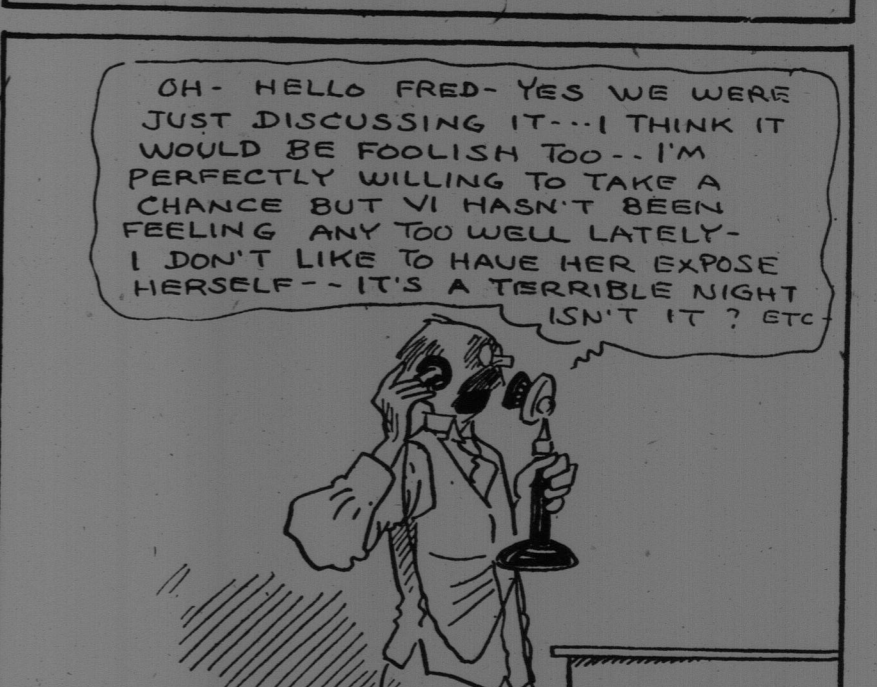

If Moirs Chocolates are sold, it's a safe bet the audience will consider the show a success.

MANY IMMIGRANT CHILDREN NOT PROPERLY CARED FOR IN PROVINCE

Delegates to I. O. D. E. Meeting Hear Complaints Re Conditions Here

That many immigrant children brought to New Brunswick were not sent to school; that they were inadequately clothed and generally uncared for, were the accusations made by Mrs. Havelock Coy, of Fredericton, before the delegates at the semi-annual meeting of the Provincial Chapter, I. O. D. E., held here yesterday.

Y. M. C. I. CONCERT
EXCELLENT EVENT

First Programme of Season
Last Evening was Much Enjoyed.

The first concert presented under the auspices of the entertainment committee of the Y. M. C. I. this season was given in St. Vincent's auditorium last night, and was a pronounced success. The audience occupied more than two-thirds of the large theatre and its hearty appreciation of the work of the performers was manifested in the applause which greeted the conclusion of each number. Each of the entertainers had to respond to several encores.

The success last evening has so encouraged the committee that they expect to stage other similar entertainments.

The Ligourian Orchestra as usual played selections of high order. One particularly pleasing number on the programme was an instrumental duet, in which Miss A. Williams on the violin, and an Edison phonograph, played Beethoven's Minuet in G. The number was unique, and the pleasing manner of its execution brought rounds of applause from the audience. Miss Williams and Miss G. McGrath played a piano duet that was well done.

A ladies' quartet, composed of Miss D. McDonald, Miss M. Flood, Miss E. Kiernan and Miss L. Moore was particularly good in its rendition of "Summer Idyll." Miss Mena Melody, who sang "Bird and the Rose," greatly pleased her audience. Miss Gertrude Onell, Francis Barry, Harold Gillis, Mrs. C. O. Morris, F. J. Joyce, Miss M. Scully and Cyril Moore all were heard in excellent numbers.

The accompanists were Mrs. M. Quinlan, Miss Charlotte Calkin, Miss V. Waterbury, Miss Helen Lawlor, Miss Irene Weeks and Frank Spittal.

WILLIS LODGE HAS
FAIR IN FAIRVILLE

Good Attendance Marks the Opening—Proceeds for Repair Fund.

A fair under the auspices of Willis Lodge, No. 79, L. O. L., in the Orange Hall, Fairville, had a very successful opening last night with a large attendance. The hall was effectively decorated with yellow and blue streamers, flags and bunting. Councillor William Golding was general manager. Throughout the evening delightful music was furnished by a string band composed of Clarence Kane, John Stevens, Roy Titus and Mrs. Edward Hamilton. The various booths were tastefully decorated and those in charge were as follows:

Homes cooking, Mrs. William Golding, Mrs. Robert Rose and Mrs. John Baird.
Wheel of fortune, Edward Cunningham and Earl Lawson.
House-house, Thomas Kilpatrick, Harper Henderson and Frank Archer.
Air gun, Edward Wilton.
Spindles, Walter Chisholm.
Guess box, Mrs. William Murray and Mrs. Edward Duff.
Bean guessing, Walter Stevens.
The door tickets were taken by Edward Long and assistance in conducting the games was given by Arnold Wilson and George Adams. The proceeds of the fair will go towards the repair fund for the hall.

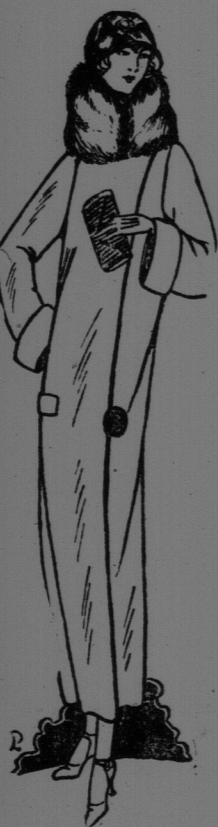

WAS FAMOUS AS
AUTO SPEEDER

London, Nov. 19.—Count Louis Zborowski, a famous racing motorist, who was killed on the Monza track, Milan, recently in the presence of 40,000 people, was one of the greatest figures at Brooklands, the famous English track. He was about 40 years of age, and a millionaire.

His home was in the West End, but his estate is in the U. S. and includes a valuable portion of Broadway, New York. From this he derived much wealth.

The money he spent on cars and motor-racing ran into thousands of pounds every year, and his craze for "speed and yet more speed" meant enormous expense. He inherited this passion from his father, who also met his death by racing.

Count Zborowski did not know the meaning of fear. He had nerves of iron. He was one of the best-known men on the Brooklands track, where he had many hairbreadth escapes. Only a few weeks ago he escaped death at Brooklands by a miracle. On more than one occasion he was involved in a smash on the track but would be participating in another race a few minutes later.

He was a constant and fearless competitor in the big Brooklands races for several years, and in 1921 caused a sensation by producing a weird and mysterious car nicknamed the "Chitty-Bang-Bang."

His fertile imagination was symbolized in the "Chitty-Bang-Bang" which was built by himself at his private garage on his estate in Kent. He first purchased a huge Mercedes chassis, the engine of which he replaced with a roaring 600 horse-power Maybach Zepelin engine, and the combination of strength and speed made it a most formidable opponent.

It required two men working a specially designed lever to start up the powerful engine, the noise of which resulted in its nickname of "Chitty-Bang-Bang." It frequently exceeded 100 miles an hour.

Money meant nothing to him, and it was no unusual thing for him to come here, look round the showrooms, write out a check for $7,500 a model which caught his eye, and drive away in it, said a director of an automobile concern here.

On his estate at Higham, near Canterbury, his garage was filled with his "feet" of private cars. Although he was a millionaire and always dressed in the height of fashion, he would never object to handling a spanner and he did his own repairs. Count Zborowski was of Polish descent, and married Miss Violet Leicester, an actress.

"LAUGHING CACTUS"
A naturalist recently returned from Arabia describes a plant called the "laughing cactus," which gets its name from the fact that anyone eating its seeds gives way for some minutes afterwards to immoderate laughter, frequently ending in nervous prostration. Natives of the district in which the plant flourishes dry the seeds and grind them into powder, which they keep, and on suitable occasions administer to those against whom they have a real or fancied grievance. An overdose may result in temporary loss of reason, following which the victim falls into a deep sleep, awakening with no memory of his curious conduct.

GOOD WORK BY CHILDREN'S AID

Agent Gives Figures Covering
Several Years, Justifying Support.

The work of the Children's Aid, said Rev. George Scott, agent, today, carried on quietly in this community ever since the organization of the society was so far advanced as to justify them in asking generous public support. Much of it had not been apparent because of reasons which would readily suggest themselves to anyone.

The present agent took up the duties of the office the latter part of May, 1917. That was a busy time, as in the six months that were left in that year he visited 12 families having 175 children. The figures for 1918 were an even 100 families having 323 children. In 1919 his attention was called to the condition of 74 families which he visited, and where he found 289 children. The following year the number of families had decreased to 68, with 224 children. In 1922 the number of families had dropped to 65 in number, with 213 children. In 1923, however, for some reason or other, he had to call on 70 families, having a total of 240 children. Of this total of nearly 1,500 children, however, only 263 were admitted to the home since 1917. Of this number, 93 were committed to the society by the courts, but no fewer than 125 were returned to parents when conditions showed betterment. Fifty-nine were sent to other institutions and 21 to male or female reformatories. Thirty-two were placed in foster homes, mostly in New Brunswick, and all were reported to be doing well. Four, three of them foundling infants, have died. Only one of these unfortunate infants lived, and is now grown up to be a bright, intelligent child attending school, where she stands well in all her classes. There are now 22 children in the home.

"It seems as if the work of the Children's Aid Society in placing these children in good surroundings," he said, "has demonstrated that continual kindness is capable of accomplishing more perhaps than the ordinary man realizes in overcoming the handicap of early lack of training."

SIX INCHES OF SNOW
IN NORTHERN N. B.

Grand Falls, N. B., Nov. 18.—Six inches of snow fell on the upper St. John river valley in yesterday's storm and there is good sleighing here as well as at Edmundston, Andover and elsewhere in Victoria and Madawaska counties.

In Carleton county the snowfall was not so heavy, but is believed to be sufficient here to insure a continuation of winter conditions.

On North Shore.

Bathurst, N. B., Nov. 18.—Five inches of snow fell here and elsewhere on the North Shore in yesterday's storm. The weather today is considerably milder, and it is doubtful whether the blanket of snow is of sufficient depth to withstand the onslaught of the hot sun. In the country districts and in the woods sleds are now in use as well as about town today.

Lose Your Fat,
Keep Your Health

Superfluous fat is not healthy. Neither is it healthy to diet or exercise too much. The simplest method known for reducing the overfat body easily and steadily is the Marmolin Method, tried and endorsed by thousands. Marmolin Prescription Tablets contain an exact dose of the famous Marmolin Prescription. These tablets are sold by drug-gists the world over at one dollar for a box. They are pleasant to take and leave no gripes or flatulences. They are popular because effective and convenient. Ask your druggist for them or send price direct to the Marmolin Co., General Motors Bldg., Detroit, Mich., and procure a box.

Paris Claims Traffic Record.
Traffic officers maintain that Paris has the most intense traffic problem of any city in the world. According to a tally kept from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. more than 104,000 vehicles passed the crossroads at the Place de la Concorde, an increase of 20 per cent.

MARITIME HOCKEY
MEETING FAILURE

Only Two of Five Towns
Were Represented at Meeting.

Amherst, N. S., Nov. 19.—The organization meeting of the Central Section of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association, called to meet here yesterday, did not materialize, as the only delegates present were H. W. Wood, of Sackville, and representatives from Amherst, Dorchester, Springhill and Oxford failed to send delegates. D. B. Garty and A. E. McInerney, both of Amherst, will represent the central section at the annual meeting of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association which meets here tomorrow.

Kindergarten
Helps Canada

All the way from Russia the little girl had come who was attending the North End kindergarten last year, and the manner of her coming was not the very happiest. With her parents she was a refugee from that land of turbulent times and she was a shy and different little youngster when she made her first appearance at kindergarten. She could not speak English and she could not enjoy the comradeship of other small people on that account. The kindergartener, Miss Edith Stevens, was at once interested in the little stranger and giving her the individual care which kindergarteners stand for was able to help the child to learn to speak the language of her companions. Within a very short while the child had picked up a few words and quickly she added to her growing vocabulary. There was no more interested or eager child attending the North End kindergarten. The little girl is now of school age and at the beginning of the school year she was able to enter the public schools and take her place amongst the other pupils. It was good Canadianization work kindly and helpfully performed and St. John has gained a loyal little citizen where the kindergarten found a sad and disconsolate foreigner.

Bushes Blighting Trees.

Large stands of white pine in the New England states are being blighted by pine rust that is spread from tree to tree through the medium of goose-berry bushes. Some stands of timber are 46 per cent infested, it is said, and a move is on to eradicate the berry bushes, both wild and cultivated, in those vicinities where the blight is at its worst.

CITY BRANCH OF ALLIANCE PLANNED

Representatives of Churches Meet This Afternoon on Temperance Matters.

At 4:30 this afternoon representatives of the various churches were to meet in the Board of Trade rooms to consider the formation of a St. John branch of the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance.

ALL PLEDGES MET, ARE W. A. REPORTS

St. James' Society and Senior Girls of St. Jude's Meet.

The annual meeting of the W. A. of St. James' church was held yesterday. The members attended corporate celebration of Holy Communion in the morning when Rev. H. A. Cody, the rector, gave an inspirational address.

The business session was held in the evening with Mrs. B. C. Waring, president, in the chair. The branch was able to meet all pledges in full and the reports showed that the last six months' work had been very successful. A very helpful Bible reading was given by Mrs. H. A. Cody.

The election of officers resulted as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. H. A. Cody; president, Mrs. B. C. Waring; vice-presidents, first, Mrs. C. M. Leonard; second, Mrs. R. O'Shaughnessy; third, Miss Besse Charlton; secretary, Mrs. John C. Keay; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Holder; assistants, Mrs. D. Budge, Mrs. C. M. Leonard, Mrs. Fitzmaurice and Mrs. Christiansen; E. C. D. treasurer, Mrs. Walter S. Vaughan; junior superintendent, Mrs. Roy Watson; Little Helpers' secretary, Mrs. H. S. Brown, assisted by Mrs. Roy Watson; Messrs. Messrs. Fred Stewart; rector's representatives, Mrs. W. J. Nagle, Mrs. Charles Marven and Mr. W. S. Vaughan; delegate to the diocese, Mrs. W. H. Holder; substitutes, Mrs. O. Thomson and Mrs. C. M. Leonard.

The eighth annual meeting of the senior girls' branch of the W. A. of St. Jude's church was held last evening. Before the business session the members were served at a very enjoyable supper. The various reports read at the business meeting showed that the branch had had a very successful year. All of the pledges will be met. The members are now at work on an outfit for an Indian girl. Mrs. J. A. Holmes, president, was in the chair. By unanimous vote all the former officers were re-elected for the ensuing year.

WILL FORM CITY DEBATING LEAGUE

Meeting at Y. M. C. A. Decides and Will Organize on Next Monday.

A City Debating League is partly in the making as a result of a meeting of several organizations interested held in the Y. M. C. A. last night. Another meeting will be held next Monday night when it is hoped that all organizations desirous of joining in the league will have a representative present. A. M. Gregg, who acted as the chairman of last night's meeting, said that the Y. M. C. A., hearing that there was a desire for an debating league among several organizations in the city had taken the liberty of calling the meeting.

THREE IN FAMILY RHODES SCHOLARS

A Remarkable Circumstance Comes to Light in Choosing T. H. Robinson.

In connection with the award of the Rhodes Scholarship to Thomas Hoben Robinson, son of the late Rev. W. R. Robinson of this city, it is interesting to note that he is the third one on his mother's side of the family to receive this honor.

Mrs. Robinson, who is now visiting relatives in Maine, was Miss Frances Hoben of South Devon, N. B., and three Rhodes scholars, George Hoben Estabrooks, Adrian Gilbert and Thomas Hoben Robinson, all had the same great-grandfather, Reuben Hoben of Burton, Sumbury County.

LOCAL NEWS

FINED IN LIQUOR CASE.

Joseph Lynch was fined $200 in the police court yesterday afternoon for having liquor in his bar shop in Thorne avenue. William M. Ryan appeared for the prosecution.

MUST GO TO COURT.

Harvey Reid, who was reported for obstructing the traffic in Union street on Nov. 18 with his horse and wagon, did not appear in the police court this morning when his name was called and a summons will be issued for him.

RETURNS THANKS.

The Board of Trade this morning received from James Cormack, the Canadian Trade Commissioner at Kingston, Jamaica, a letter, thanking the board for literature sent forward. Mr. Cormack said he felt sure the information would be of value and he would have much pleasure in distributing it.

INTO WINTER QUARTERS.

Two schooners have gone into winter quarters here this week. The four-masted Avon Queen shifted this afternoon from Grand Point to Rodney Slip to lay up for the season, while the Emily F. Northam was towed through the falls yesterday to Marble Cove, where she will spend the winter months.

FROM WEST INDIES.

The R. M. S. P. Clarendon arrived last night about 7:45 o'clock from Bermuda and the West Indies and docked at the Rethery wharf. She carried seven first-class and 12 third-class passengers, in addition to 1,800 tons of raw sugar, 1,600 tons of which is for the local refinery and the balance for Montreal; a consignment of molasses, and some general cargo. Among the passengers were: Dr. L. A. Goodridge of Moncton, Samuel Clarke of Halifax, and Fred Himmelman of Lunenburg.

SOCIAL EVENING.

The Young People's Club of the First Presbyterian church enjoyed a social evening last night. A programme of games and amusements was directed by Miss Margaret Newcombe assisted by Rev. W. McE. Matthews. Miss Violet Moore had charge of the refreshments and was assisted by the members. A hearty sing song was enjoyed. The next meeting of the club will take the form of a literary evening when the topic will be Burns and his works.

PRIZE WINNERS.

The regular meeting of the Nomads of Abrudaka was held last evening in Temple Building, Main street, with Mrs. H. F. Phipps in the chair. After routine business a social hour was spent with bridge and 40's. The prize winners were: First, Mrs. S. W. Beth and T. W. Perry; consolation, Mrs. Howard Bell and Capt. J. A. Mowry. The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. T. W. Perry, Mrs. O. S. Dykeman and Mrs. E. A. Holmes. Miss Denning and they served daily refreshments.

WILL ASK VETERINARY.

Bertram Hall appeared before Magistrate Henderson this morning on a charge of cruelty to animals by driving a horse considered unfit for work. The defendant acknowledged driving the horse, which was lame. He said he had reported the matter to the owner, W. Bedford, who was in court. When he was summoned he said that the horse was strong and healthy and that it had been under the care of L. A. Donnan, veterinary surgeon, who considered it fit for work. The S. M. Wetmore, secretary of the S. P. C., who appeared on behalf of the prosecution, if the doctor had said it was fit for work, the owner should have taken the horse to the vet. Magistrate Henderson said he would set the case aside until Friday morning and would then render a decision after he had heard the veterinary's statement.

CONFREES PAY A FINE TRIBUTE

Hartford Hospital Staff Send Appreciation of Late Dr. C. P. Inches.

There has come to the relatives of the late Dr. Charles P. Inches of St. John, who passed away in the Hartford (Conn.) hospital on Nov. 7, a fine tribute to the worth of the young man, a son of the late Dr. and Mrs. P. Robinson of St. John, who had progressed well along the path followed with such distinction by his father in the profession of medicine. The tribute is in the form of a high appreciation of the young St. John physician from his conferees in the Hartford hospital, and is in the following terms:—

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 12, 1924

A meeting of the medical and surgical staff of the Hartford Hospital was held on Sunday, Nov. 9, at noon, in memory of Dr. Charles P. Inches.

Various members of the staff spoke in appreciation of Dr. Inches' work at the hospital. His calm poise, his efficiency which radiated from his every look and movement, the confidence which he instilled into every member of the visiting staff, as well as the patients with whom he came in contact, his winning smile, his self effacement and his courteous gentlemanly deportment were some of his outstanding characteristics which were favorably commented upon. His relations with the other interns were referred to and he was considered their stabilizer. They each and every one felt the majesty and the beneficence of his presence, and were inspired by him to put the best that was in them into their work at the hospital.

The meeting desired that this appreciation of his worth be sent to his family, who have also the deep and heart-felt sympathy of every member of the staff.

(Sgd.) WALTER R. STEINER, CHAS. H. GENRICH, JOHN C. ROWLEY, Committee from the Staff.

TIMES-STAR HAS FOUND MAN SOUGHT

W. T. Simms, in St. Lambert, Que., Reads Query About Him.

Recently The Times-Star told that Mr. Wardroper, the Common Clerk, had received from a lady in England a request for the address of her nephew, William Thomas Simms, who was supposed to have resided in St. John at one time. This morning Mr. Wardroper received from Mr. Simms a letter, giving his address as 265 Notre Dame street, St. Lambert, Que., and stating that he was writing to his aunt by the next mail. The letter stated that he had seen the article in The Times-Star.

ENJOY FIRST SKATE

Two Boys Have Spin on Mill Pond Ice This Morning.

To see two youths enjoying a spin on the Mill Pond this morning was a scene which greeted people passing along Millidge avenue and Adelaide street. The boys were Arthur Breen and Alfred Oland, who had been eagerly watching the ice form during the cold spell and were bent on establishing a record for the first to enjoy a skate.

Owing to only a small quantity of water being in the pond the boys were not endangering their lives and the worst they could get would be a ducking. However, the ice was quite firm although in places it cracked as they went gliding over it. Nov. 19 is an early date for skating in this city although it is not thought to establish a record.

SCOUTS AND CUBS ORGANIZED IN WEST

Troop and Pack Formed Among St. Patrick's School Pupils.

A new scout troop and a new Wolf Cub pack were formed among St. Patrick's school pupils last night when Field Commissioner Harry Lister conducted organization and Dr. G. B. Peat, district commissioner and L. L. Johnson, district secretary were present. Both organizations promise to be very energetic and enterprising and there is a probability of a second scout troop soon. Miss Agnes Ginn was chosen as leader for the Cubs and Charles L. Morris was chosen as scout master with J. Sarto Russell and Edward Fitzgerald as assistants. Rev. J. J. Ryan is to be the chaplain of the two organizations and the troop committee men chosen were Father Ryan, W. J. Farren and Walter E. Morris. The boys enjoyed some scout games and listened with appreciation to addresses by Dr. Peat, Mr. Lister and Mr. Johnson.

K. C. ANNIVERSARY

Prominent Speakers for Banquet—Already Gathering of 250 Assured.

A committee, which has in hand the arrangements for the celebration of the 20th anniversary of the St. John Council, Knights of Columbus, tomorrow, met last evening and perfected plans for a banquet which will be held in the council rooms on Thursday evening. It was decided to set the time of commencement of the event at 8 o'clock sharp.

It was reported that acceptances had been received from about 200 guests and members, and details of the programme had been completed. Amongst the acceptances are those of His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc, His Worship Mayor Potts, Hon. Dr. J. B. Baxter, K. C. M. P.; Hon. J. P. Byrne, W. E. Scully, M. P. P.; E. J. Henneberry, State Deputy; Dr. W. P. Broderick, Past State Deputy, and W. J. Mahoney, the first Grand Knight of the council.

CAPITAL NAME CHANGED

Hugh H. McLean, Jr., Norwegian vice consul here, has received the following notification:—The Consulate General of Norway at Montreal has the honor to make it known that, according to a law passed July 11, 1924, the capital of Norway, now called Kristiania (Christiania) will from January 1, 1925, be called Oslo.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "did you ever study a railway timetable to find out how you would get anywhere and when you would arrive?"

"Yes, sir," said Hiram. "I done it once. When I got out agin Doc Anglin he told Hanner to be very careful an' keep timetables out of the house an' never let me see one agin."

"Dear me," said the reporter. "You terrify me. I have been studying one myself, and have not yet got the information I need. I wonder what I should do?"

"Just get a ticket an' start," said Hiram—"an' then ask questions as you go along. If you set down—" an' begin—"to steady—" A.M.—that there—" timetable you'll—" P.M.—so—"I—" rattled that—" you won't—" know—" 5:50—whether you're goin' or comin'—no, sir, what I should do?"

"I'll get you a ticket an' start," said Hiram—"I'll mention it," said Hiram. "I been there myself."
