Blair Walker, clerk in the O'Neill Pharmacy, Brussels street, has purchased the drug business carried on by the late Mr. Dick at the corner of Charlotte and Duke streets. Mr. Walker will take over control of his new business in a few days, and Mr. Dick will enjoy a rest before considering his future plans. A good time reigned in the boys' department at the Y. M. C. A. last evening. The first social gathering of the Y. M. C. A. boys' department was held with about one hundred in attendance. The evening was spent in playing pool, and the enjoyment of the evening, under the direction of the boys' secretary, N. McEwen, and his assistant, H. A. Johnston. The following police constables have passed the examination in first aid held by the St. John Ambulance Association Thursday night. The men are named in order of merit: Police Constables Spiny, Storey, Chisholm, Howard, Lewis, Dykeman, Young, Corcoran, Sergeant McLean, Police Constables Gill, Lobb, Linton, Donahue, Duffy, Gaudet, McInnes and Gorman. An Albert county farmer, living near Moncton, was taken to the provincial hospital in Lunenburg yesterday. The unfortunate man suffered a sun stroke while working in his hayfield last July, but he has since recovered. This week he became ill again and unmanageable. Assistance was called in from among the neighbors and it was decided in the interest of all concerned to place him in the hospital. He is the father of a large family. A preliminary meeting for registration of members of the Audubon Society was held in the Natural History Society room yesterday afternoon and many school pupils attended to have their names placed on the roll. The first regular meeting will take place next evening. Previous members have shown a flattering eagerness to enter again this year. William McIntosh and Miss Harriet Dunlop, who have charge of the society's meetings, anticipate a successful year. Two infringements against the traffic laws were taken up in the police court yesterday afternoon, when Geo. Lunnery, 140 Waterloo street, was charged with exceeding the speed limit in Main street at 12.30 a. m. on Oct. 13, and John Jacobs was brought before the court for operating an automobile without the rear light burning and the number plate recently displayed. A small fine was struck against Lunnery and allowed to stand. Jacobs explained that the tire on the rear of his machine obscured the light. On promising to repair the matter he was excused. McCANN-MOORE: The wedding of Miss Florence Amelia Moore of London, England, and William McCann of this city, was announced yesterday. HOW CUB REPORTER SCOOPED MELVILLE STONE Charles Chapin Tells How He "Put It Over" Veteran in Old Chicago Days. One of the few men who successfully "scooped" Melville E. Stone, now general manager of the Associated Press, is at present serving a life sentence in Sing Sing prison. He is Charles E. Chapin, formerly city editor of the New York Tribune. World, whose extraordinary book describing his life, career, and the tragic events which terminated it, has just been published by Putnam under the title of "Charles Chapin's Story." Chapin was a cub reporter on the Chicago Tribune when Stone was one of the star men of the Daily News. McGarrigle, the former chief editor of the New York Daily News and Chapin for the Tribune which then largely ruled affairs in Chicago. The newspapers finally forced several county commissioners fled the country, and some others together with McGarrigle were jailed, convicted and sentenced to long terms. Before he was sent to Joliet penitentiary McGarrigle contrived to escape on the schooner Blake through the Great Lakes. Then it was that Stone for the Daily News and Chapin for the Tribune started in pursuit. Stone went to Michigan to head off the fugitive at the Straights, not knowing that the Blake, with McGarrigle aboard,

NO ROOM FOR THE REDS

Reference was made in the Times a day or two ago to the complaint of many employers that with increased wages for workmen went decreased production. A prominent labor man in Toronto attributes this condition of affairs to the activity of the Reds. He says: "From all over I hear of increased production in the factories. If prices drop and wages are retained at their present level I think that the 'Red' element will drop out of sight in the labor movement. Their idea was to cripple production, drive the manufacturer out of business and then attempt to take his place. There was even a lecturer here last winter to tell workmen how to lose successfully. At the Labor Congress there were only about a dozen 'Reds' and they had no influence."

DISTRIBUTING IMMIGRANTS.

The crowding of immigrants into already congested centres is not confined to Canada. In the United States it has become necessary to form a new bureau at Ellis Island to secure if possible a more scientific distribution of incoming aliens and tell them more about the advantages of farm and country life. The purpose of the bureau is to counteract the general tendency to settle in large cities because the immigrants know nothing of the rest of the country. The bureau will co-operate with the authorities in every state to establish a better distribution of aliens, for their own and the country's good. So many evils have resulted from crowding these people together in cities that their better disposal has become a matter of national concern. The cities, moreover, are growing out of proportion to the growth of rural districts, and at the expense of agricultural and other producing industries. In this connection Immigration Commissioner Wallis says: "Detroit has changed within ten years from the ninth to the fourth city in the United States. Akron, Ohio, has shown an increase of population something like 400 per cent. Delegations of business men have come from these two cities within the last week to Ellis Island to inquire if something cannot be done to divert immigration from their municipalities to the farm lands of Northern Michigan and Ohio."

During the last fiscal year 480,000 immigrants entered the United States, and millions more are endeavoring to arrange their affairs and come to America. Canada is already receiving large numbers, and here as well as in the United States the question of their distribution in such a manner as to avoid over-crowding the cities will be a problem of increasing difficulty. The following are some extracts from an article by the Montreal Herald on the New Brunswick elections—"Revised returns from New Brunswick enhance the standing of the Foster government. In the new house and increase the probability of the administration being able to carry on. The election of nine or ten members of the Farmers' Party is not as significant as it might at first appear to be. The United Farmers and Laborites had 30 candidates in the field and elected 11, which is by no means the success they had counted on. The defeat in Kings County of the former premier and recent leader of the Opposition, Hon. J. A. Murray, and of the minister of public works under the old regime would seem to indicate a lack of public confidence in that party. Under all the circumstances it is difficult to see how Premier Foster can be beaten in the new House, especially as he has solidly behind him the important centres of St. John City and Moncton."

The Toronto Telegram has no great sympathy with the sugar refiners. It says:—"Fruit growers in the Niagara peninsula are entitled to more sympathy than the dealers in sugar. Consumers in the city of Toronto have a better claim for consideration than the sugar refiners in Montreal. When somebody was accumulating millions out of sugar there was little help for the householder. He had to pay the price or go without. It will be very difficult to justify any special protection for the refiners now that the sugar market is breaking. When the ground is carpeted with fruit which cannot be marketed, largely because of the high price of the sugar necessary to preserve it, the sugar refiners will get little sympathy for their plea that prices should be held up in order to save their dividends."

Local financial opinion appears to be strong against any return to control of prices, particularly as values are falling rapidly on other commodities, in which the business man may stand to lose large sums. That he has profited heavily during the past few years as prices went up is no more consolation to him than the fact that the farmers made well under high wheat prices will lead the agriculturists to accept this year's prices with good grace.

The following table of prices at Chicago gives an idea of the great changes that have taken place in grain, provisions and live stock prices in the past few years, the quotations covering the prices seven years ago, the record price in the intervening period and the present price:—

Table with 4 columns: Commodity, 1913 price, Record price, Present price. Rows include Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, Pork, Lard, Short ribs, Hogs, Cattle.

PAPER CLOTHES

They're talking now of paper suits, and paper shirts and collars and paper socks and paper boots—great scheme to save the dollars! My paper rags seem good and right, while at my lye I'm slaving; but there's no other gen in sight who is so intent on saving. Men do not want the cheaper things, when they go blithely shopping; they'd like to wear the robes of kings, though bank accounts be popping. The janitor of this, our flat, says, like a lord blue-blooded, "I want to buy an ermine hat and necktie; diamond-studded." And he would paw and he would breast and cut an angry caper, if you in kindness should suggest a nice new suit of paper. The tinsmith wants imported cloth when he goes out for his raiment; for paper suits that cut a certain he'll never make a payment. My paper pants look rather cheap, and they're a frost almighty, and often I'm inclined to weep when in my paper nightie; beneath my paper hat I write, beside the heaving pillow, I save all day and sleep all night upon a paper pillow. And I'm the only guy on earth who's cautious, saving, thrifty; my paper duds have little worth, but bank accounts are nifty.

Domestic Happenings of Other Days

THE RED CROSS

Until nearly fifty years ago there had stood at the corner of Dorchester and Guy streets in Montreal a shabby red cross. Every stranger who came to the city was interested in the story it recalled. It marked the burial place of a murdered named Belle who had paid the penalty for her crime on the scaffold. He lived in Dorchester street near the place where the red cross was planted in later years. On the other side of the road—for it was only a country highway in those days—lived a farmer named Jean Favre. The story was current that the farmer kept a large amount of money in his little hut. It roused the envy of Belle, who finally planned to secure the treasure. So one night he broke into the log house and made the attempt. The farmer defended his home and wealth with the result he was shot first and then stabbed to death. Then the murderer, fearful of recognition by the wife, stabbed her too and beat the body horribly with a spade he found in the place. But when the crime was discovered suspicion fastened itself upon Belle very quickly. He was arrested and at the trial found guilty of the double murder. He was sentenced to hang in the market place of Montreal, on Place Royale, where in the presence of about 1000 spectators he paid the price of his crime. He was buried out in the country at the cross roads and the red cross was erected there the burial spot of the criminal. There it stood for a century.

Each pumpkin has a sort of face that grins at you with yellow cheeks. And fairies, winged and full of grace, Along the wind-blown meadow race. Where green has gone these many weeks. The night is heavy with the sighs of autumn, as its pulse-beat dies. Across the lawn and down the lane, You see a wealth of flimsy things That sob as if it was in pain, Then hides behind the stacked-up grain. It is a queer and funny time a'going. And from the north and grey-dark skies The first fruit little snowflake flies. —Howard's Dailyman.

IN LIGHTER VEIN.

Other Times. "I can remember when a dollar would fill a market basket." "Yes. But you can also remember when a man had to work as much as a couple of hours for the dollar."—Washington Star.

Psychological Advantage.

"Don't you object to all this talk about the high cost of everything?" "Not at all," replied the profiteer. "It prepares the mind of a customer for what he may expect, and saves argument."—Washington Star.

Had a Guarantee.

Newrich (showing treasures)—This picture is by an old master. Critic—Indeed! I would never have guessed it. Newrich—It is, though. The man I bought the picture was past seventy before he did a stroke of it.—Boston Transcript.

Smart.

"The gentlemen who came to see papa while you were away said I was the smartest child they had ever known, and each gave me a quarter of a dollar." "Oh, that pleases mother very much. You recalled for them all the nice pieces you know?" "No. I said I knew a lot of pieces, and then I didn't recite any."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

The Bit.

While other maidens avoided, bathed, And flirted all the day, On the hotel piazza she Sewed busily away. "Here is the wife for me at last, Industrious," he said. "And so domestic in her tastes," And shortly we were wed. Alas! My shirts are buttonless, My socks are full of holes, She pillowtalks both night and day With kindred female souls. "Why you have changed, my dear," cried, "And in so brief a span?" "That sewing machine, my dearest, she said, 'to catch a man.'"—Mimsa Irving in Cartoons Magazine.

TRANS-CANADA FLIGHT.

Merritt, B.C., Oct. 15.—The trans-Canada airplane landed here at 1:45 o'clock this afternoon and the aviators, General A. K. Tylee and Captain G. A. Thompson, decided to remain overnight. A heavy fog prevails in the Coghualis Pass. A good landing was made in a field one mile from the station.

LARGEST POTATO CROP FROM PLANTING SPROUTS. London, Ont., Oct. 16.—Owing to a severe shortage of potatoes last spring, David Stevenson of Concession 5, township of Westminster, planted sprouts from potatoes instead of the tubers themselves. Now he claims that his potato yield is the greatest in his experience. Not only were there many to the hills, but they were very big, one of them weighing more than two pounds.

HEAVY EXPORT TONNAGE EXPECTED

The freight department of the C. P. R. advise the board of trade that a very heavy tonnage of foodstuffs and other supplies for export to European countries is expected at this port during the approaching shipping season, and in order to avoid delays and congestion it is suggested that each maritime province supplies as oats, feed and flour should be brought in before Dec. 1. In past winters, it is said, there have been many complaints with regard to delays in handling these products, hence the suggestion that they should be brought in as early as possible.

ARITHMETIC CLASS OPENED. The city winter class for girls in mental arithmetic was opened last evening by Michael Kelly. All the members of the class except one were present and all expressed themselves as eager to resume their contacts with Beauséjour. Mr. Kelly was very well pleased with the attendance and looks forward to a very successful season.

RECENT WEDDINGS

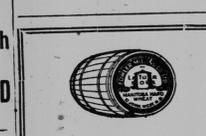

An interesting home wedding took place at Plamveeep, Kings county, on Wednesday afternoon, October 13, at 3 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cunningham, when their daughter, Glenora Maud, was united in marriage to Christopher S. Chittick, son of Mrs. and the late Samuel Chittick of Penobscot. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and friends by Rev. J. M. Rice of Sussex. The happy pair left by automobile for a tour of the province after which they will take up their residence in Moncton where the groom conducts a large milk business.

On Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Margaret Alice, only child of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dymont, Dale avenue, Toronto, was married to Wilfred Andrew Landry, son of the late Chief Justice Sir Pierre Landry and Lady Landry of Dorchester (N. B.). The bride was given away by her father, came into the drawing-room through an aisle of white ribbon and by Major John Leach, Geoffrey O'Brien, P. Campbell and W. Stratton. Miss Grace George was her attendant. Major Magan acted as best man. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Landry received their guests. General Newburn, of Hamilton, proposed the bride's health, to which the bridegroom made a witty response. Dr. and Mrs. Landry will spend their honeymoon in the Laurentian Mountains and will later live in Montreal. Some of the guests were: Sir Allan and Lady Jones, George Beaudoin, Mrs. Fisk, Mrs. Flunkett Magann, Senator Nicholas, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Peck, Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Caulfield, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Christie, Mrs. Douglas Young, Mrs. Walter Barwick, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. McCarthy, Miss Leah McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Burritt, Colonel Ian Sinclair, Major and Mrs. Ponton Armour, Alfred Beaudoin, Miss Rita Ince, H. Grabbie, Mrs. Straubenzic and Duke West.

Miss Reta A. Davidson, daughter of J. A. Davidson of Moncton, was united in marriage on Friday to Noble Renton, C. N. R. conductor. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Ransay. After their return from a wedding tour of western cities, Mr. and Mrs. Renton will reside in Moncton.

PLAN INCREASE IN ANNUITIES OF MINISTERS

Twenty Per Cent. More for Methodist Clergymen Sup-erannuated.

Toronto, Oct. 16.—An increase of twenty per cent. will be made in the annuities of the superannuated ministers of the Methodist church, so the superannuation board of the Methodist church in Canada decided yesterday. The financial report, which showed that the permanent fund had reached $1,461,895, was regarded as satisfactory.

CHANCE TO APPEAL

SHIPPING AND FREIGHT RATES

Movement to European Countries Unlikely Before First of Year — Exchange Situation and Price Conditions.

William Forrest in New York Evening Post
Large freight forwarding companies operating to East ports report a very small movement of general cargo, and tonnage in every trade with the exception of Cuba is offering freely. The movement to Europe continues strong, with the railroads moving general cargo as if offering in merchandise that was ordered months ago as steamship companies are competing strongly for it.

Steamers out with from 20 to 40 per cent of unused space. Even the gradual withdrawal of Shipping Board vessels has not helped much. I do not believe there will be any further general reductions in rates to Europe, or to any other market. In comparison with operating costs, rates are now lower than they were before the war and there seems little chance of the cost of fuel, labor or other commodities entering into the cost of operation being reduced for some time. In the face of small freight offerings, the lines operating to the east coast of South America increased their rates. These rates are being maintained fairly well in spite of the keen competition for business, and the probabilities are that they will go higher rather than lower.

To Continue in Public Service—

The Navy League of Canada Needs $760,000

Since the money must come from the people, explanation is due to them of the need for it. The work of the Navy League is:

To Continue the Sea-Conscious Spirit in the People and in the Government.

To enlighten people upon the importance of the sea; so that Canadian products may be shipped, through Canadian ports, in Canadian ships, officered and manned by trained Canadians.

To Continue the Sea-Conscious Spirit in the Schools.

As a Merchant Navy is the first step to sea power in any nation, so is the seed-sowing of fundamental national ideals in the schools, the first step to national greatness.

To Continue Training 2,000 Canadian Lads for the Sea.

The continuous training of over two thousand Canadian lads, in the Boys' Naval Brigades of the Navy League of Canada, is to-day having an effect upon our maritime future.

Since May last, sixty of these lads have completed their training and passed into the Canadian Merchant Navy. Fifty more have gone to England to man the new ships of the re-organized Royal Canadian Navy.

Under the guidance of Experienced Sea Minds, it is being planned to give chosen lads from the Boys' Naval Brigades an ocean-going education second to none, so that Canada will have efficient master seamen.

To Continue to Relieve Distress of Canadian Merchant Sailors.

After this year the League expects to cease asking for funds for the relief of the Canadian dependents of Merchant Sailors who were killed on Active Service. With the trust funds now in hand, together with the sum set aside in the Budget, to be raised by public subscription, it should be possible to establish an endowment, the income from which will be sufficient to provide these dependents with a pension equal to that granted to the dependents of Naval men killed on Active Service.

As many of these dependents are young children, the endowment must continue for a number of years, until the children become self-supporting.

To Continue Upholding Every Sailors' Home, Institute and Sailors' Welfare Society in Canada.

The Navy League seeks to make life comfortable for our sailors when ashore. After all, Canada is their home; and the home, while they are here, of the sailors of other lands.

The Navy League endows, maintains or assists in maintaining every Sailors' Home, Institute and Welfare Society in Canada. And every dollar subscribed for the maintenance of these Homes and Institutes will be money well invested and redound to our national prosperity.

These objects can only be achieved through an organization representative of public responsibility and outside party politics.

The obligation is apparent, simple, easy! Borne in proportion, from coast to coast, the weight is felt, but not the strain. The public expect this work to continue and to be maintained by public subscription "until it yields the true glory."

RE-ESTABLISHMENT FOR RETURNED MEN Army and Navy Veterans Discuss Prohibition and Other Matters at Convention.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Victoria, B.C., Oct. 15.—Present prohibition acts in Canada do not meet with the approval of the Dominion Command of the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada. The national convention in session this morning declared that the prohibition acts interfered with the liberty of the individual and that they are not British. It was unanimously resolved that the convention is not in favor of prohibition, but it is a strong advocate of temperance. The convention is also discussing a proposed plan for re-establishment of the returned soldier, a special committee consisting of representatives from each of the provinces being appointed to bring in a report before adjournment. The convention placed itself on record as being strongly against profiteering in rents as practiced in the cities and towns in Canada, and will petition the government to amplify the amount at present available under the housing scheme. The executive council was instructed to deal as sympathetically as possible with any movement toward the federation of ex-soldier associations. The necessity of a home in each province for aged and infirm veterans of all wars was emphasized and it was decided to ask the Dominion and provincial governments to set aside public lands for the purpose and to provide the funds necessary to build and maintain such homes. The convention will petition the Dominion government to discharge from the Dominion civil service all employees who being eligible for military service did not volunteer, and were subsequently conscripted.

Coal Embargo A Temporary Measure

(Canadian Press Despatch.) The officials were given assurance that after this had been done pas-

Protest Made Against Order of Railway

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Winnipeg, Oct. 15.—Announcement by President D. B. Hanna of the Canadian National Railways that employees of that system would not be allowed to run for political offices, the penalty being dismissal from the road, aroused a storm of indignation and protest at the morning session of the division No. 4, department of railway employees, American Federation of Labor, which is in convention here. It is the contention of the union that the international council of the railway employees to press to the limit for a cancellation of this order, for which they can see no adequate reason.

FISH INVESTIGATION

Washington, Oct. 15.—Canada, Newfoundland and the United States are to appoint three members each on an international committee on marine fishery investigations under an agreement reached at an informal conference held last month in Ottawa. The conference also recommended that the international committee establish contact with the permanent international council for the exploration of the sea.

Anarchist Bomb Kills One Person

Y. M. C. A. SENIORS CHOOSE PRESIDENT

The senior men's gymnasium class at the Y. M. C. A. was organized last night with the election by majority vote of Roy Willet as president. Mr. Bally, Arthur Gillen and Reginald Barbour were appointed to act with Mr. Willet as a committee. The senior class turned out in strength. The class is a promising bunch of husky young men. A workout on the floor was followed by a fire-side social, at which a short musical programme of songs and instrumental music was provided by Cedric Flewelling, R. S. Coupe and F. W. Roloff. Refreshments were served. A short address was given by Rev. A. B. Fitzgerald, of Newark (N. J.), who spoke of his own work in the association, of its work among the Allied forces overseas and in the home camps and delivered a message to the members there to carry on the good work so well begun.
There will be no regular classes on Monday. Thanksgiving Day, but who floor will be open in the afternoon for men's volleyball and in the evening for senior basketball.
The enrollment for the boxing and wrestling class is progressing daily and these branches are assured of complete success.

VOLCANO ACTIVE
Mexico City, Oct. 15.—The volcano Popocatepetl, twenty-six miles west from the city of Puebla, is reported to be in eruption with much steam escaping and deep rumblings, according to dispatches from Puebla today. There has been no damage as yet, the dispatches say, but the population is preparing to flee.

The Monthly Cheque That Never Fails

How the Money was Lost

"You see I had only a few thousand dollars left after the estate was settled—" and my brother borrowed some to help him along; of course that went and then—"

I simply had to help father with his business, he was so worried—" and I thought it best to invest something in real estate at once. Well, that failed—" and, really, if it were not for the monthly income cheque from the Canada Life I don't know how I should be getting along now."

It is all so simple and effective!

Just a few dollars set aside regularly, and the Canada Life will guarantee to your home a continuous monthly income.

What a relief to know that no matter what may happen, the monthly cheque that never fails, issued regularly by the Canada Life, will come to your home!

Your present Life Insurance will no doubt "clear the mortgage," pay off the obligations of your estate, and leave something for your family, but

Consider This

In addition to a "lump sum" of money, you should provide a definite income that cannot fail.

A weekly or monthly income is the natural thing for most people.

A woman can keep a family together on even a small income, provided it is regular.

Financial problems should not be thrust upon a woman who is not used to business deals.

The hands of unscrupulous men are always outstretched for money held by the unwary.

The Monthly Income Plan

You will be surprised to learn what a reasonable proposition can be made to you; how only a few dollars saved and set aside from your regular earnings can be multiplied into a substantial income for your Beneficiary.

WOULD ASSIST BELGIUM AGAIN

(Canadian Press.)
Brussels, Oct. 15.—During the recent conference in London between David Lloyd George, British prime minister, and M. De La Croix, Belgian premier, concerning the question of German reparations, the Franco-Belgian military convention also was discussed, according to the Etienne Belge. The newspaper quoted Lloyd George as having said that if Belgium's territory was again invaded, Great Britain, as in 1914, would consider such a violation a casus belli.

FIND NO CLUE IN DOUGHTY'S VAULT

Detective Mitchell Tells of Search—Seek Missing Small Document.
Toronto, Oct. 16.—Detective Austin Mitchell, who is handling the case of Ambrose Small for the local police, stated that John Doughty's vault in Dominion Bank was opened three months ago when the warrants for the arrest of Doughty on a charge of murder and kidnapping were issued. A search warrant was taken out and Mitchell broke the lock on the vault. He said the only things found were articles of jewelry belonging to the man's first wife, but when they separated, the jewelry was returned to Doughty, and he placed it in the vault. Mitchell secured another safety vault, and placed these articles back in the vault. The problem confronted by Inspector Miller of the Provincial Police, is the disappearance from Small's vault of a document, which, it is feared, has been destroyed. If this document could be recovered, it is said it would contribute materially toward the clearing up of the mysterious disappearance of the wealthy theatrical man.

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISE

If you have ringing, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength), and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little grass and sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dripping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal trouble of the ears, is hard of hearing or has head noises, should give prescription a trial.

Piles Cured Permanently Without Drugs

Internal Bathing Relieves the Cause.
Mr. A. N. Steel Cupper, Sask., writes: "I had been troubled with my Stomach, Piles and Constipation for years until I had become very thin and looked 20 years older. A leading Doctor in Regina, Sask., told me that the main canal was badly altered. I gradually became worse, until one day, when purchasing a bottle of Dr. Russell's condition, Mr. Russell noticed my condition and said: 'I can cure you. Get a J. B. Colson's Well, I did so, and the first night I used it I slept all night for the first time in weeks, and in a short time I felt quite myself again. It also cured my piles, which had troubled me for years.'"

HOME FROM AROUND THE WORLD

(New York Times.)
While it is not quite safe to deduce from the innumerable photographs taken of the Prince of Wales in the course of his journey around the world that he found the tour personally enjoyable as well as informative, many of the pictures that have been printed show a young man doing things and seeing things that almost any young man would find pleasing. The chances are, therefore, that the young prince, in the course of this thoroughly modernized form of the ancient "progress," outambered, or at least more than balanced, what must have been the tedium of hearing over and over again about the same speech of official welcome and of making it, necessarily, about the same response.

Five Year Training in Engineering Physics Inaugurated

The inauguration of a new course of Engineering Physics, covering a period of five years, has been authorized by the Corporation of McGill University. The course will be opened to students in both the Faculty of Arts and of Applied Science. The first year of the course will include the ordinary first year work for the degree of Bachelor of Science. The students in Arts will be eligible to take the course, and must have completed two years in the Faculty and have passed examination in certain branches of mathematics and physics. In the third year the students will study the ordinary fourth year science course in electrical engineering and a number of courses in physics, a thesis and a number of research papers, and a thesis.

IF Thin, Nervous, Run Down, Depressed, This Will Help!

The wear and strain of life has tensed in recent years to produce nervous debility in a large percentage of our population. Thousands are affected with a feeling they can't exactly describe. They are always tired and droopy, lack ambition, have poor appetite, look pale and suffer from depressing headaches and insomnia. This condition is full of peril. It is the stepping stone to invalidism, the beginning of a shattered constitution. We advise everyone in this condition to get well while yet there is time. Probably no better advice can be given than to use Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which have become famous in restoring the sick to good health. A general toning up of the system at once takes place. The whole body is vitalized by richer and purer blood. The appetite is increased, food is digested and naturally strength rapidly increases. Headaches go because the bowels are regulated and all wastes are carried off.

HOW TO COMBAT DISEASE

Facts Everyone Ought to Know

GOOD health is impossible, if the kidneys are out of order! Once these organs fail to properly perform their natural functions, you have trouble ahead. Disease in many forms lurks ready to grip you. Uric acid and other impurities immediately begin to collect in the system, and poison the blood stream. Then, in their train, quickly follow a chain of afflictions.

Symptoms Not to be Neglected

Only those who have lived through the dreaded pains of kidney and bladder troubles know what distress awaits you if you fail to give the symptoms early attention. Backache, headache, and dizziness are often treated lightly, whereas they are danger signals. If these symptoms of kidney trouble are ignored, as naturally as night follows day, will trouble come. Sciatica, or lumbago, stones, gravel, rheumatism, swollen joints or one of the many other similar serious and painful—yes, and sometimes fatal—maladies is bound to come.

Yet the remedy is within reach of all—GIN PILLS. You may be skeptical, but if you were to read some of the thousands of remarkable stories reaching us daily by letter, you would sit down and think awhile.

First Get Rid of the Cause

The reason why Gin Pills afford instant relief where other "remedies" fail can be easily understood without a highly trained medical mind. It is impossible to get rid of any physical illness without first getting rid of the cause. It is only natural that as long as the root of the trouble remains, a permanent relief cannot be hoped for. Therefore, as the painful diseases referred to are the result of the failure of the kidneys to act properly, the first step necessary is to rectify the action of these organs.

The function of Gin Pills is to help the kidneys to perform their natural duties once again. The result is immediate relief. Even cases of long standing are benefitted by a reasonable course of Gin Pills treatment. Sometimes, permanent relief is accomplished in remarkably quick time.

Gin Pills contain the beneficial ingredient of Gin without the slightest taste of alcohol. The formula comprises several other tested diuretics and antiseptics.

Our "Money Back" Offer

If you doubt that Gin Pills can relieve you, we do not ask you to go to any expense to try them. You can have a sample sent you, by writing us or you can purchase them from any dealer and we will refund your money (up to the price of six boxes) if you are not satisfied with the result.

You owe it to yourself to try them. What Gin Pills have done for thousands of others, they can do for you.

Read these few letters, which are typical of the hundreds that reach us from all parts of Canada and abroad. The addresses can be furnished upon request.

UNABLE TO WORK

"I have been troubled with Rheumatism for five years, one of which I have been unable to do any work whatever. Have spent much money on other remedies, until I purchased from my druggist, L. T. Best, King-ston, one box of Gin Pills on his recommendation. The result was beyond my expectations. The first box banished all traces of Rheumatism. I now keep Gin Pills in the house, and use one occasionally. My sincere thanks are due you for your wonderful remedy, which has done so much for me."

A SKEPTIC CONVINCED.

"I have suffered from kidney trouble for several years. I have tried many remedies and on the medical profession, without having succeeded in getting any relief. I have spent much money on other remedies, until I purchased from my druggist, L. T. Best, King-ston, one box of Gin Pills on his recommendation. The result was beyond my expectations. The first box banished all traces of Rheumatism. I now keep Gin Pills in the house, and use one occasionally. My sincere thanks are due you for your wonderful remedy, which has done so much for me."

LOOKS LIKE CUT IN VOCATIONAL PROGRAMME

The vocational training programme for the city in the coming winter is likely to be somewhat curtailed because of restricted finances. At a meeting of the vocational committee in the school board rooms yesterday afternoon, when preliminary reports were discussed, it was estimated that about $8,000 would be available to carry on the classes this winter and it was thought that motor mechanics, domestic science, estimating for builders and drafting would have to be eliminated from the programme.

Dr. A. F. Emery, the chairman, presided and other members present were Mrs. Richard O'Brien, Mrs. W. Edmond Raymond, Thomas Nagle, Alexander Wilson and A. Gordon Leavitt, secretary.

Of the $12,000 assessment which the city was to contribute to the expenses of the vocational classes, it was said that $8,000 would be paid next week but that it was probable that the city would fall $2,000 short of the full amount in making the grant. The methods by which the committee is financed, being obliged to have its expenditure passed on by the school board, were severely criticized and it was said that the New Brunswick vocational education act was unique in this particular and handicapped the local committee.

As funds did not permit of procuring a permanent director this year, it was suggested that a temporary director to take charge this season should be secured and the names of two suitable persons recommended by Fletcher Peacock, supervisor of vocational training, were submitted at the meeting. It was decided to ask Mr. Peacock to interview one of the men named and to inquire what salary he would be willing to accept.

It was pointed out that the women's classes would need a woman director and that, should the man suggested be appointed as director, he should have a woman assistant who would have supervision of the women's classes.

The holding of domestic science classes in the public school domestic science rooms in Waterloo street last year was said to have been found impracticable and as it would require an outlay of $2,000 to equip a room for domestic science instruction, it was felt that these classes could not be included in the programme during the coming winter.

Preliminary statements of accounts as of Oct. 1, not entirely complete, were submitted at the meeting as follows:

Grant from city of St. John, $5,000.00
Students' fees, 1,896.00
Sale of dresses, hats, etc., 417.28
Overdraft—Bank of N. S., 4,086.10
$11,849.38

Overland Prices Down
but Quality Stays Up

On October 1st, reductions of from $100 to $375 were made in Overland and Willys-Knight prices. Further fuel-saving devices are among the various improvements to the new Overland that has already so many Economy records to its credit—32.6 miles to the gallon on its 3000-mile Coast-to-Coast trip, 30 1/4 miles average among 191 cars in the United Kingdom one-gallon test, and scores of 25 to 35 miles to the gallon on tests by Canadian owners. Triplex Springs and fine alloy steels are the secret of Overland's operating economy.

New Overland prices—touring and roadster $1315.00, coupe $2040.00, sedan $2200.00—are for cars completely equipped, f. o. b. Toronto, including excise and sales taxes.

TO FURNISH ROOMS IN NURSES' HOME

Several Generous Offers Received by Committee of Women's Hospital Aid—Brass Plates to Bear Names of Donors.

Mrs. Vassie and Mr. and Mrs. W. Malcolm Mackay have notified Mrs. W. White of their intention to help along the good work of the Women's Hospital Aid in furnishing the new nurses' home. Each will furnish a bedroom. Mrs. White is also in authority from Robert G. Moran, New York, a former St. John resident, to furnish one of the rooms at his expense. As these and other gifts previously announced provide for only five of the seventy-five bed rooms in the new home there is still opportunity for all who can assist. Mrs. R. Duncan Smith is looking after the furnishing of the reception room as a memorial to the late Lieutenant Claire Gilmour, and two doctors have assumed responsibility for two of the largest rooms in the house. It is understood that brass plates will be placed over the doors of the various rooms showing who were the donors of the furnishings.

The British mails here will close at 4 p.m. on Monday for the steamship Adriatic, via New York, and on October 22, at the same hour, for the C. P. O. S. liner Metagama, via Quebec.

Gillette Safety Razor

GREATER production is the key to many of the world's more pressing problems today. And nature has assuredly shown the way with record crops.

The bountiful harvest—now safely garnered—spells Prosperity, and gives ample cause for heartfelt thanksgiving.

Canada's grain, her cattle, and her daily products are sorely needed by the Old World. And Canada is proud to be able to answer the call—not only for the riches of her land, but for the products of her factories!

For the world needs Canada's manufactures, too—as witness the Gillette Safety Razor, Made in Canada, Known the World Over.

Canada strengthens her world position with such QUALITY products, which are in demand, not only throughout the British Empire, but in the countries that are not coloured red upon the map.

NEW PASSENGER STATION CERTAIN FOR NEXT YEAR

L. S. Brown, general superintendent of the eastern lines of the Canadian National Railways, was in St. John yesterday having come in over the Valley Railroad. Mr. Brown said his trip was chiefly confined to looking over the division in anticipation of preparing the appropriations for next year. Asked as to the company's plans for improvements in the St. John district he said that he understood that Mr. Hanna, president of the road, made certain announcements in regard to St. John when he was here a short time ago. The sum of $1,000,000 had been appropriated for the purpose of building a station and labor and other factors, the work was not commenced this year. He said it certainly would be undertaken next year as the city was badly in need of a new station.

When asked as to conditions on the Valley Railroad, Mr. Brown said that the freight business was picking up very satisfactorily and that the road had cars loading at every siding. The principal business consisted of hay, potatoes and pulp wood. Owing to the drop in the price of potatoes the farmers along the line were not shipping that commodity so freely as usual, but the business in pulp wood had considerably expanded and furnished most of the freight at the present time. In regard to the service on the Valley Road he said that the management was not contemplating any change in the present schedule which includes a passenger train each way every day and a mixed train every other day. Speaking of the suburban traffic, he said that the passenger department had not looked into that phase of the question as yet. Next year if, on investigation, conditions warranted it, it was probable that a good suburban service would be put on, but the matter had not as yet been considered.

Mr. Brown left last evening for Moncton in his private car attached to the maritime express. He was accompanied by W. K. Devensah, divisional superintendent.

Daniel Murphy, who has been a member of the local customs staff for about twenty years, has been promoted to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James B. Daly, customs appraiser. This is the first local result of the new civil service reclassification and the adoption of the policy of appointment by promotion. The promotion carried with it a substantial increase in salary.

H. W. Woods, post office inspector here, has called for tenders for the conveyance of His Majesty's mails daily to and from Buctouche and Shediac, twenty miles. He has also called for tenders for the conveyance of the mails daily between Shediac and Great Shemogue. The contracts are to be for four years.

From all indications, he said, there will be a busy season here through this port during the coming season.

PRESENTATION.

Friends and relatives of Mrs. Mary A. Kerr surprised her last evening at her home, 227 Main street, and presented her with a shopping bag and a well filled purse. The presentation was made by Chas. McNulty of West St. John, Mrs. Kerr, although taken completely by surprise, made a most suitable reply and thanked the donors for their gift. Refreshments were served, and the gathering broke up before midnight after a very enjoyable evening.

NOVELTY SHOWERS

Miss Dorothy Kinella, whose wedding will take place next week, was the guest of about sixty of her friends at the home of Mrs. W. P. McDonald, Esplanade street, last evening, when she was tendered a novelty shower. She received a great many handmaiden and gifts, along with the best wishes of the gathering for her future happiness. The evening was enjoyed and dainty refreshments served.

Miss Myrtle MacFarlane was tendered a novelty shower at the home of Mrs. Ralph Fulton, East St. John, by the East St. John Girls' Club, in honor of a happy event of the near future. A number of gifts were received and a pleasant social evening followed.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Senior Epworth League of Portland Methodist Church held election of officers last evening in the Y. M. C. Hall. The pastor, Rev. Harry B. Clark, presided, and many members were present. Lloyd Yocum was elected president; Frank W. Merrill, 1st vice president; Miss Laura Panjov, 2nd vice president; Miss Ray Yocum, 3rd vice president; Miss Hattie Wright, 4th vice president; Miss Kathleen Bilsand, recording secretary; Miss Ellen Panjov, corresponding secretary; Fletcher Kirk, treasurer.

After the election of officers, progressive games were indulged in and refreshments served. The entertainment was in charge of Miss Marie Panjov, who was assisted by William Atherton, Laura Panjov, Kathleen Bilsand and Stanley Irvine. The function was brought to close by singing the National Anthem.

HONEYMOON TRIP

ON SAILING SHIP

Miss Irvine, of This City, Going to New York to Marry Captain C. F. Richards—Presentations.

Many friends in St. John will be interested in the wedding of Miss Bessie A. Irvine, until recently residing with the firm of Nagle & Wigmore, which will take place in New York next week when she will become the wife of Captain C. F. Richards of the five-masted schooner Mary P. Barrett. Miss Irvine will leave this evening for New York. A honeymoon trip in the captain's vessel to Rio de Janeiro has been planned.

Before giving up her position with Nagle & Wigmore, Miss Irvine was the recipient of a handsome silver service, the gift of the firm, and also received other valuable remembrances from the individual members of the staff. The bestwishes of a large circle of friends will accompany Miss Irvine on her departure from the city.

ST. JOHN BRIDE TO LIVE IN NEW YORK

A marriage of much interest was solemnized at half past four o'clock this afternoon in the Victoria street Baptist Church, when Rev. G. D. Hudson officiated in marriage Miss Lottie A. Vincent daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Parlee of this city, and Talbot Lee Capps, formerly of Norfolk Virginia, but at present residing in New York City.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charmingly crowned in navy blue georgette and beads, with large hat of velvet and lace to match and wore a corsage bouquet of carnations. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Greta M. Parlee, R. N., who looked charming in a gown of champagne blue pan velvet with black picture hat and wore a corsage bouquet of roses. The groom was supported by the brother, W. Taswell Capps of Baltimore.

The ushers were Albert W. Fowle and Chas. E. Parlee both cousins of the bride. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion with ferns and potted plants. Miss Edith Megarity presided at the organ and played excellently "The Voice that Breathed Over Eden."

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Capps left on the B. N. train for honeymoon tour to Virginia. Upon their return they will reside on Riverside Drive, New York City. Many beautiful gifts were received from the bride's father, her uncle, Herbert W. Parlee and from the groom's eldest brother, Overton Bernard Capps, manager of the Locomotive Stoker Co., of New York City, with which firm the groom is also associated, and a chest of silver from her cousin, Chas. E. Parlee.

Orphans of St. John Assured of a Picnic as Long as the Sun Shines on the City

The mayor has received a letter from J. D. O'Connell, mailed at Jacksonville, Florida, in which Mr. O'Connell thanks the mayor and members of the common council for the letter sent him containing a copy of a resolution passed by the common council.

"It was certainly very thoughtful of you and the commissioners," he wrote, "and I wish you to convey to them my sincere thanks. I join with them and you in hoping that I may be able to return for the same purpose for many years to come. When I fail to be present I know that you or the mayor at that time and those associated with him will still carry on the picnic and thus help to spread sunshine amongst the most needy ones, the orphans, and you can assure all interested that I have arranged for one of these picnics every year while the sun shines on St. John."

TO THE HOSPITAL WITH KNIFE CUTS

Chas. Thompson Severely Wounded and Arthur T. Merritt Is Under Arrest.

Arthur T. Merritt was arrested at half past one this morning on a charge of cutting and wounding Charles Thompson, Ritchie in the police court at six o'clock this morning. No evidence was taken, and the case was postponed until Tuesday morning. Thompson, who was removed to the General Public Hospital, having suffered severe cuts in the back and chest. It is expected that he will recover.

Police-men Saunders and Killen were attracted to a yard at the rear of 85 North street at an early hour by cries coming from that direction. They found Thompson on the ground bleeding profusely and they arrested Merritt on the charge stated. After taking him to the central police station and sending the wounded man to the hospital, because of information received they went to the home of Mrs. Minnie Cook and took her to the police station, where she is being held as a material witness. It was necessary to bring also a change of nine months of age, but Miss Ross, police matron, sent the baby to the infants' home this morning.

MANITOBA FLOUR UP HERE

Advance of 50 Cents a Barrel Announced Today.

Strengthening of the wheat market which since the first of the month has caused the price of wheat to advance 20 to 25 cents a bushel, is given as the reason for an advance of fifty cents a barrel in the price of all Manitoba flours on the local market this morning. This raises the average price for this commodity from $14.75 to $15.25 a barrel wholesale. At the same time a reduction in shorts and bran, is announced. No change in the price of Ontario flours, although blends are affected according to the proportion of Manitoba wheat used in their milling.

ABSURDITIES IN SCHOOL PLAN

Principal Grant So Declares Some Features of Present Day Education.

Toronto, Oct. 16.—Speaking at the primary exercises of Upper Canada College, Principal Grant declared today the present Ontario system of education suffers from an artificial simplicity, due to a false conception of what is an abused word—democracy. He said it was "ridiculously absurd that more freedom in matters of curriculum was not given to local bodies. "It is absurd that the child the farmer, the child of the city, the industrial center and of the mining community should be taught the same things, the same way and by the same type of teacher." He said the part of the residential schools play in the differentiating this unfortunate uniformity is worthy of public attention.

Dr. J. P. White of the Ottawa Normal School, declared that no hundred-year person should ever be allowed to enter a school to teach children, and he said he hoped to see the day when training schools would have to reject to reject persons of this type from the teaching profession.

Times' London Man Writes of Visit To Capital of Belgium

Brussels Untouched by War—The Duke of Connaught's Health—News Topics of a Week in Empire Metropolis.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) London, Sept. 30.—A man must leave London sometimes, and so I make no apology for inflicting on my readers some reflections on a few days in Belgium which I have just been enjoying. Going to Brussels (I had not been in the city myself till the early days of the war, of which more anon), is a very simple business compared with going to Paris. The passport formalities are reduced to nil, and customs people have no interest in seeing how you pack your trunk nor what you take in it, and the hosts are bigger, better and cheaper than those on the Calais and Boulogne routes. A cabin costs only forty francs—about sixteen shillings, as against twenty-five shillings on the other route, and this for a four hours' journey instead of one hour and a half. Moreover, there are plenty of them and, as the Belgians are a hardy race, generally one or two to spare for the chance traveler.

Brussels I have found absolutely untouched by the captivity which lasted four years, and ended only two years ago. The shops blaze with light, electric signs whiz in the sky, there seems a profusion of luxuries of all kinds, and every third building or so is a cinema or a public house (no use calling them safs, as in Brussels, as a general rule, you sit indoors). The drinking and social habits of the Belgians, as a matter of fact, are very much more like our own than they are like the French, and I should think rich lessons are to be learned here by Admiral Sir Reginald Hall in his constructive public house reform movement. If I were he, I should go over and have a good look at the methods of Brussels.

The Duke of Connaught has evidently made up his mind to take his doctor's advice, which was very insistent last year, and spend no more winters in England. Our damp air gives him, as it gave King Edward, chronic bronchitis, and as it was out of the choking produced by an illness of this kind that the late king died much before the average age, the duke is wise to be careful. Though he will spend this coming winter in India and the Straits Settlements, traveling in H. M. S. Malaya (a great ship "wrecked" out of the Federated Malay States by Sir Frank Swettenham) he has bought a villa at Beauvechain, near Nice, and intends to spend every future winter there. The departure of Prince Arthur leaves him rather lonely, and fancy that Captain Ramsay will next spring give up his post in Paris in order that Lady Patricia may join her father more frequently. The duke goes very little into society nowadays, finding his ceremonial work a great deal of which he still does for the king—as much as he can accomplish.

The late Sir George Lewis and Lord Knollys both men publicly boasted of their determination to keep no record of anything that ever happened to them in connection, in the case of distinguished clients, and in the other case of a royal master. The effect of this reticence on the part of the solicitor and the private secretary has been, of course, to excite public curiosity very much more than any gratification could possibly have done. The probability is that the secrets darkly embedded in Sir George Lewis' mind about his various distinguished clients did not, in fact, matter a row of pins. It is equally probable that Lord Knollys, if put on the rack, would tell us nothing about King Edward as interesting as the legends which gathered round his name. All the same, in spite of this element of tosh which surrounds the noble refusal of these gentlemen to speak their attitude is surely better than that of a man who rushes off into print.

The late G. W. E. Russell, a very charming man and a very devoted friend, is said to have lost a place in Mr. Gladstone's last cabinet because of the suspicion of that statesman, which I am personally confident was quite unjustified.

Never Cakes No Waste REGAL FREE RUNNING Table Salt THE CANADIAN SALT CO. LIMITED MADE IN CANADA

Mr. Asquith's Hope. What, however, about Mrs. Asquith? I think it is due to her to say that she ought to be absolved from these strictures altogether. She has said hardly anything new that has not been contradicted, and after all the studies in the psychology of the Asquith family which she has obliged the public are not in themselves, indiscretions outside the area of Bedford square. Mr. Asquith, as his friends keep insisting, had not read the book before its publication. It is said that when he was informed by his wife that she had got £10,000 for the manuscript, he said: "I only hope, my dear, it isn't worth it." So far as one can see, that hope has been justified.

The Jockey Club. There is intense interest among sporting and more especially racing men, as to the chances of any "reforms" of the Jockey Club. Everybody knows that the Jockey Club is the most exclusive sporting institution in existence, even including that rather ridiculous coterie, the Royal Yacht Squadron. The nobles and great sportsmen who constitute the Jockey Club are above suspicion and their sovereign control of the turf is unchallenged; but recent events have certainly tended strongly to emphasize criticisms that have been heard in growing volume for some time. Nobody questions the absolute bona fides of the Jockey Club stewards, but a good many capable authorities approach their wide-spreads. The feeling is very strong in racing circles that a stronger hand and an alert eye might sometimes be an advantage to the sporting world. The recent turf revelations and a notorious scandal connected with the last classic event at Epsom are instances of this necessity. And it is quite possible, I believe, that we may, as a result, soon hear of some important developments on the official side of the Jockey Club.

No More London Roar. Londoners have not noticed a subtle change that has come upon their beloved metropolis. London is growing silent. The famous London "roar" has ceased to be. There is no doubt about it. Twenty years ago, it was one of the common experiences of visitors to London that away in the suburbs as they lay in bed at night in comparative quiet around the dull throbbing roar of London's traffic could be distinctly heard. It was like the distant sound of a heavy surge beating on some beach. One will not hear anything of this kind now. The explanation is quite simple, of course. It is summed up in wood or asphalt pavements and rubber-tyred motor transport. We have quite forgotten what the volume of sound was like in the old days when the London horse-tram was in full swing in the city and the west end, with the noise of innumerable iron-shod wheels constantly churning in unison on the hard macadam roads, and the beat of hosts of horses' hoofs joining in.

A Silent Echo. The scene was Pleadably Circus. The hour was that congested one of thronged bustling around all the theatres which immediately precedes the rising of the curtain within. The clattering crowds poured out of the restaurants and cafes, making for the play houses, and the street traffic in the Circus was at its height. Suddenly there fell a strange silence, which momentarily infected the whole mise-en-scene. It was a silent and tragic echo of the past, and it drew even from the west end crowds of conscientious on-lookers their tribute of profound silence. An old gentleman and a young lady appeared, leading each by one arm a blind French officer. They came right up to the Circus, making for South Regent street towards Shaftesbury avenue, and literally the animated and noisy panorama stood still and held its breath while they passed. The elderly man and the young lady walked unconsciously yet proudly through the silent homage of the gazing multitudes. The blind soldier of France's erect and manly figure of a young man in the very prime of life, faultlessly attired in the scarlet and blue of a French cavalry regiment, with a face of sunburnt pallor and eyes hermetically closed like a statue's, surrendered himself to their guidance like a novice in the terrors of eternal darkness. And Pleadably—cynical, flippant, dissipated, riotous, sinister Pleadably—raised its hat to the scarlet fourragere of France on the tunic breast of the blind man.

Down in the Mine. Some interesting details of the Holmwood Pit affair near Chesterfield have been given me by a friend who was there. Through it all, he says, the miners exhibited just the same grim humorous pluck as they did in France and Flanders. Two young brother-in-law miners, both ex-servicemen, who were entrapped in utter darkness for five days by a "fall" were cut off by ten yards of solid wall. Under this the watchers gradually worked a thick steel pipe with a screw lead cap. Once the entombed men felt the pipe and unscrewed the lead cap they could talk to their rescuers, and were fed through the pipe regularly. By means of a stiff wire a cord was pushed through the pipe and a "sausage" of indiarubber tubing, stuffed with chocolate, fruit, and other food or filled with water, was drawn backwards and forwards quite easily. While the rescue parties were working away at the task of digging the men out, some of them kept up "funny" conversation with the buried men through the tube. One of the mine directors, a keen billiard player, who knew one of the two men was the local billiard champion, said: "In banter aren't you?" And back came a grin chuckle, "Aye! It's double baulk a' rest!"

A Horse Paradise. Out on J. B. Joel's lovely stud farm at Childwickbury near St. Albans, there are more horses than one cares to count, and, wandering free amongst the beautiful flower beds and lawns, these friends of man and particularly pets of the South African diamond king must feel that his life, "Dear Swift," many crowded hours of glorious sporting down there to see the brood mares now in foal tells me that "J. B." spends every week-end out there, wandering around in a blue lounge suit and a cap, with his hands in his trousers pockets, watching the horses and hardly saying a word. He is tremendously popular with his staff, and even the under gardeners who sweep the tip paths can give the life his every mention the money they carried and the odium at which they ran. Emphatically worth penitence for life, the former hero of seeing, and it cannot fail to be heartily enjoyed, even though Ireland just now suggests less pure comedy than real drama. The other musical play, "The Right to Strike," at the Garrick Theatre, is a modern political play by Percy Hutchinson, also admirably staged and finely acted, with its theme well disclosed in the title. In this case it becomes a question whether doctors can strike against proletarian workers. The character acting is excellent and the play engrossing, if the moral remains inconspicuous. QUEBEC REJECTS A CURFEW LAW

Quebec, Oct. 16.—By a vote of seven to five, the city council last night rejected a curfew law which would oblige all children to remain in their homes after nine o'clock in the evening in summer months, and after eight o'clock in winter.

INCREASED SERVICE

Montreal, Oct. 16.—It was announced here today by the Robert Reformed Company that it is the intention of the Canadian line to maintain its present service from London, calling at Halifax en route to New York, all winter. The service, which at present includes the Scotia and Saxonia, will be augmented early next year by the Carmania, Scotia and William McIntosh, provincial agents at Halifax on the west-bound trip only and it was said today that nothing definite has yet been decided regarding any east-bound sailings from Halifax.

NO PROGRESS MADE

Truro, N. S., Oct. 15.—No progress was made today by the coroner's jury investigating the mysterious death of Sumner Neil. The jury met at 2 o'clock and adjourned till next Tuesday at the same hour. No evidence was heard today. The reason for adjournment was that reports were not yet available with respect to analysis of the contents of a bottle of liquor which was exhibited in court Wednesday.

WILL RUN LONGER

It had been intended to take the Eastern Steamship Lines, Inc. steamer Governor on Anna Chocoma, N. S. Male accas route today, and place her on the Portland and Boston run for the winter, but the passenger business of the Dingley has been so good that the change will probably not be made for some time.

Doctor Acquitted

Montreal, Oct. 16.—Accused on an alternative indictment of an alleged operation on Anna Chocoma, N. S. Male accas, acquitted yesterday by a jury in the court of King's bench. He had previously been acquitted of murder in connection with the death of the Chicago girl.

W. J. D. Told of Frederick, director of the entomological laboratory; A. G. Dustin, assistant dominion entomologist; and William McIntosh, provincial entomologist, visited the John O'Keagan farm at Spruce Lake yesterday. This farm, where sixteen acres of wheat was completely destroyed by the army worms, was inspected by these officials, and specimens showing the ravages were taken to the Natural History Museum. It is thought that the outbreak of the army worms will not be severe next year, and it is pointed out by entomologists that it is easily stamped out in the early stages by the placing of poisoned grain among the grain.

A C. P. R. messenger boy who was coasting down Princess street last night was thrown from his bicycle, face first, suffering painful bruises. The accident was caused by the slipping of the chain from the gear wheels. Attention was given to the lad's injuries in Hawker's drug store, and it was found that no bones were broken.

THE EXCHANGE RATE

II.—What Controls It?

THIS series, published each week, is intended to remove misunderstandings as to the cause of fluctuation in the exchange value of our dollar in other countries.

When the demand for any commodity is greater than the supply, the price of that article is sure to rise.

A foreign dollar is a commodity in Canada, that is something to be bought or sold and not current money, and similarly the Canadian dollar is a commodity in a foreign country and not current money there.

Their value (or rather their price in the local currency) is therefore governed by the law of supply and demand.

The reason foreign dollars are commodities is that they are not "legal tender" outside their own country.

You would not like a debt to you to be paid in German marks or French francs because of the difficulty you might have in converting them into your own currency.

At border points in the United States, our immediate neighbor, where exchanging the two currencies is a simple matter, Canadian money is now generally accepted, but elsewhere in that country it is taken reluctantly.

To protect their peoples all Governments provide that creditors may refuse payment of amounts due them unless made in certain specified currencies and the currencies so authorized are called "legal tender."

The banker who receives "foreign dollars" cannot therefore pay them out over the counter so they are not money to him, but only securities, until he can exchange them for currency of his own country.

Next week in No. III of this series we will explain the method of making this exchange.

THE BUSINESS COLUMN

EDITED BY MANSFIELD F. HOUSE

Dressmaking Experiment Used Up All Remedies.

"Yes, indeed, the material is perfectly satisfactory. It is just that I do not know where I can get some one to make it up," or "I could afford this nice material if only you could suggest a less expensive dressmaker."

It was remarks of this kind, repeated all day long that set Frank C. Enrick, buyer for the dress goods department of the Stone-Fisher Co., of Tacoma, Wash., to thinking. Although the spring season was far advanced, the continued cold weather put a damper on sales and to-day were lagging behind those of the year before.

"Careful investigation," said Enrick, "showed that there were no inquiries for a dressmaker or tailor to justify some action on the part of the management and the reports of our salespeople indicated that they were increasing daily."

Just as an experiment he suggested that one of the boys work up his tailoring a little and some sample skirts were made. The results were so satisfactory that an offer was made to customers to cut skirts without charge and pin them together ready for sewing, provided all materials were purchased in the store.

This plan met with instant success and, while it was at first supposed that half of one man's time would be quite enough to care for the orders, as soon as they were fairly swamped, it almost seemed as if every woman in Tacoma had suddenly decided to get a new skirt and have them cut it for her.

Within a short time there were so many requests to have the skirts out-right, doing all the stitching, finishing, etc., that it seemed advisable to put in a sewing machine. In doing this, of course, a nominal charge was made, but the orders continued to pour in.

Although the service has been in existence a comparatively short time, 1,200 men and the reports of our salespeople indicated that number only eight have been reported for complaint. These were immediately referred to the customer's satisfaction, as this department considers the good will of its patrons as its largest asset.

As might have been expected, this progressive venture soon re-acted in other departments besides that of the dress goods, for not only did it attract many new customers to the store but the little factory soon found other opportunities for its work and all idle moments are filled in with any number of odd jobs.

For instance, the manager of the cotton goods department found some short lengths of gingham and percales that were inclined to stay on the shelves. An immediate S. O. S. was sent in for help and with the assistance of a little ric-rac braid from the notion counter they soon re-appeared in the ready-to-wear department all dolled up as bangalow aprons and chic little play-dresses for the kiddies, with bloomers and sun hats to match. On account of the low cost of production they could be offered at an attractive price, and, as Advertising Manager P. C. Smith says, "it didn't hurt our business a bit."

A Caution for Use on Salesmen.

What is the best course for a merchant to pursue with respect to dealing with salesmen? Should he listen to the arguments of all who enter his store—thereby consuming much valuable time—or should he decline to pay attention to any of them, thus run the risk of overlooking some exceptionally good opportunity?

These were the questions recently put to ten of the leading retailers of the country—men who had risen from the ranks of smaller stores and were conversant with the most profitable procedures.

Their experience when tabulated, showed that there are just six questions to which brief answers will bring out whether or not it is worth while to entertain the salesman's proposition:

1. Whom does the salesman represent, and what has he to sell?
2. How does his product or its quality differ from some other standard article on the market? (This article is mentioned specifically by the merchant in his query.)
3. What is its retail selling price?
4. Is the line nationally advertised and will the firm guarantee local newspaper advertising, and to what extent?
5. What is the firm's policy in the matter of maintaining or cutting prices?
6. What profit and terms are allowed the dealer, including assistance in pushing sales other than through advertising in publications, etc.?

There is no reason why the salesman cannot be put through this brief catechism in a very few minutes. If he answers the questions satisfactorily the chances are nine out of ten that the merchant will think it worth while to listen to his story in detail. If he does not the merchant runs little risk of losing anything good and the salesman should thank him for saving him time and effort where there is no possibility of a sale.

TWO NEW TROOPS OF BOY SCOUTS FORMED IN CITY

St. Andrew's and Knox Churches Join the Movement

Excellent Season Looked for Throughout Province — Several Troops Get Good Start on Winter's Work — Consecration of Colors at Trinity Tomorrow.

THE BOY SCOUT.

Within the last two or three weeks scouting has advanced to a surprising extent in St. John, and, in fact, in the province in general. Excellent news is shaping up in the best possible way.

During the last fortnight two new troops have been formed in two Presbyterian churches of the city. One at St. Andrew's, where there are about ten or twelve boys lined up, and the other at Knox, where they have about eighteen. All boys in both troops are as keen as can be and great things will be expected of them. Here's wishing them every success in their good work.

5th—St. Jude's.

The regular weekly meeting of the 5th (St. Jude's) troop was held on Thursday, Oct. 14, at troop headquarters, about twenty-five or thirty scouts being in attendance. After the regular routine work of the meeting several scouts were examined on first and second class tests. The usual games and exercises were indulged in, in which every day and everything in general is shapung up in the best possible way.

8th—Mission.

The Mission Troop, on September 21 held its preliminary meeting at troop headquarters, at which the court of honor for the coming year was formed. At the next meeting, held one week later, the annual ban supper took place with the help of Mrs. Mowry and Mrs. Lee, who prepared the "cass." Since that time several meetings have been held. Mr. Mowry is now acting as the scoutmaster of the troop.

11th—St. Luke's.

At the meeting held on Monday evening in connection with first class and tenderfoot tests was started. Some of the scouts who are preparing for the first class test have taken the new scouts and will train them to become tenderfoots. As this is one of the tests for the first class badge these new boys should be thoroughly trained.

One of the most popular events of the programme with the scouts of this troop is the weekly hike. As usual one was held from troop headquarters this morning.

17th—Trinity.

The second meeting of the 17th troop was held last Monday night at troop headquarters. An excellent meeting took place. The boys of St. Andrew's Troop, one of the troops in process of formation, were the guests of the troop and were given some valuable pointers in scouting.

MORNING NEWS

OVER THE WIRES

The grand jury brought in no bill against P. Collin, sr., P. Collin, jr., and Fred. Levesque, who were charged with shooting Mrs. Gorneau at St. Hillaire, Que. The accused were ordered released by order of the Madawaska circuit court now sitting at Edmundston. The shooting was said to have taken place during a run-runners' fight.

A startling tragedy occurred recently near Machias, Me., when Frank Tucker, acting under instructions which he said he received from his dead grandmother, shot and killed a neighbor, Melvin Wilson. After he had killed Wilson, Tucker gave himself up to the police. It is said that he had been acting strangely of late and will be examined by an alienist.

USE The Want Ad Way

FAVORS PRIVATE OWNERSHIP OF PUBLIC UTILITIES

Matter Discussed by Vice-Chairman of the Montreal Tramway Commission in Paper Read to Municipalities Union.

The following is from a paper on the municipalization of public utilities, read before the annual convention of the Union of Canadian Municipalities at Quebec during July. The paper was prepared by L. A. Herd, D. Sc., vice chairman of the Montreal Tramway commission. He said in part:

"Public Utilities stand face to face today with the greatest crisis in their history. In very few cases, profits under the new scale of wages and with the old rates for service may still be sufficient, but a large increase in the cost of labor and the cost of material and supplies has placed upon the public utilities in Canada and in the United States a burden which it cannot properly be asked to bear. In the larger number of cases it is unable to bear it. Public Utility Service is a necessity in small and large cities. We could no more do without light, power and transportation, than we could do without bread. A public utility as its name implies is designed to render the amount of service which the public needs in the commodity or necessity which it supplies.

The Public Utilities of Canada and the United States and particularly the Street Railway Companies are clamoring for financial relief through increased rates and fares. The business does not pay. The great industry of transportation is staggering under the burden of increased cost of labor and material. Capital cannot be drawn to it and capital is required to finance betterments and extensions. The whole structure of the franchise relationship between the public utilities and the various communities has broken under the strain of increases in cost of labor, material and supplies.

A public utility, within a given urban community is naturally a monopoly and its operation should be such as to secure to the people the best public utility service that is practicable, but the bill cost of this service must in the long run be borne by the public. If this service is given by a private company, this cost must be made up through the rates, special assessments or through subsidy from taxation.

Whether the public shall decide to operate the public utilities themselves through the Municipal authorities, whether it assumes control over these, or allows them to remain in the hands of private investors, the price at which their products are sold must be sufficient to operate the plants and give a sufficient return on the money invested in the enterprise, that is, the rates of fares must cover (1) operating cost and maintenance (2) interest on money invested—whether the money is that of private investors or that of the municipality.

The question of the wisdom or policy of private or municipal ownership and management must be solved in each instance with reference to the problem as to under which policy will the public receive the greatest economic benefit, that is, which policy will bring to the public the best return for the money it will pay out for the service.

Can municipal or government bodies meet the test of operating large public utility enterprises as successfully as it can be done through private initiative? It has been my knowledge, to my knowledge. The most prominent example of a public utility successful under municipal ownership is that of the Winnipeg Light & Power Department—controlling and operating a vast hydro-electric enterprise, supplying light and power to the citizens of Winnipeg at very cheap rates—but the success of this enterprise has been mainly due to the fact of the City having developed at low cost a water power of large potentiality, and again that the whole enterprise was placed under the management of a trained business man and expert engineer without interference by the municipal body.

I am firmly of the opinion that at the present time, each separate case of public utility operation in the City has aspects peculiar to itself and it is impossible to solve all questions by some simple rule or formula.

The public require and desire to be protected against unreasonable rates—also desire to see speculative profits eliminated from the financing of public utilities—that is all.

If the public was convinced that the government, whatever it may be, is fit to undertake and carry out the management of all municipal affairs including public utilities, it will probably ask that this be done; but the large and important problem involved in the economic development and operation of light and power plants, urban, suburban and interurban railways require men of ability, trained and fitted to handle such problems and whose tenure of service and standing is free from political influence.

Municipal ownership is urged by many a pathos against the large increase of rates and fees which the public utilities have had to charge for their services. The public is under the impression that street railway enterprise particularly is operated solely for the benefit of the investors, that it is an usurper of the streets and that the business is conducted solely in the hope of securing profit and awarding loss to its owners. Let me say that there is not one street railway property in Canada today, that is operating at a profit, and that the speculative element both in Canada and the United States is a thing of the past.

The whole complex financial structure of the public utilities in Canada, is on the verge of collapse. I am firmly of the opinion that the best service which can be given to a community is by private ownership, with private management under regulation and control as will assure to the public fair and reasonable treatment in all matters of service, safety and safety regulation that will encourage and reward those supplying the energy, enterprise and capital which have made the development of public utilities impossible.

Fatal Result Of Accident At Millerton

Alfime Pineau Has Leg Severed by Saw and Dies a Few Hours Later.

Newcastle, N. B., Oct. 15—A fatal accident occurred at Millerton this morning about 7 o'clock this morning. Alfime Pineau, a young man about twenty-one years of age, son of Andrew Pineau, employed in a mill owned by his father, was putting a belt on the trimmer when the saw caught suddenly practically severing his left leg. He was immediately taken to the Miramichi hospital but succumbed to shock passing away at 5 p.m. The young man was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pineau. Besides his parents, one sister, Emma, survives him. The remains were taken to his home at Acadville this evening. The funeral will take place on Sunday. Much sympathy is expressed for the family in their sorrow. He was a very popular young man and will be much missed in the community.

COLONIZATION ASSOCIATION RAISES MONEY

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Toronto, Oct. 15—The western business men who came east a month ago in the interests of the Western Canada Colonization Association have given a most good reception at the hands of Ontario merchants and manufacturers. In thirty days they have secured subscriptions running into a quarter of a million dollars. This notable achievement raises the total contributions in hand to over $1,200,000.

The outstanding financiers and manufacturers identifying themselves with the association regard their commitments as investments which will bring them and all Canada handsome dividends in the next few years. Their reasoning is simple and direct.

DOCTOR PLACED ON TRIAL BECAUSE OF GIRL'S DEATH

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Montreal, Oct. 15—Found criminally responsible by a coroner's jury for the death of Daby Gross, a fourteen-year-old girl, who died in the Royal Victoria Hospital, following an illegal operation, Dr. Paul Emile Lalane, 1077 Sherbrooke street, East, was arraigned before Judge Cusson today on a charge of having illegally caused the girl's death. He was remanded for enquiry on October 19. It is probable that the charge already pending against Lalane of making an illegal operation on Daby Gross, will be pressed as an alternative indictment in the event of the accused being acquitted of the charge of murder.

WHOLESALE DISCUSS THE LUXURY TAXES

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Winnipeg, Oct. 15—Wholesale grocers, merchant tailors, and furriers at an informal tariff inquiry meeting here today met Sir Henry Drayton, chairman of the Commission, and discussed the sales and luxury taxes to which their businesses are subject. They claimed that in certain instances, the act imposing these taxes is burdensome and suggested means by which they might be relieved. Because of the increased cost of fruit, the wholesale grocers held that the ad valorem duty is at present too high in proportion to the excise duty. The commission leaves at 9:30 p.m. for Fort William, where a session of the inquiry will be held on Saturday.

furs in new Modes

Beauty and Economy Fall and Winter 1920-21

FUR COAT is today, especially in the Canadian climate, a veritable necessity. When you consider the years of service and the extra comfort which such a coat will give you it is really more economical than a cloth one.

The rare beauty and silky sheen of fine quality Hudson Seal appeals to every woman. Its soft fur is so light and comfortable, yet so warm and cozy, and it blends so perfectly with such furs as Beaver, Alaska Sable or Opussum, which are so popular as trimmings and yet a coat of all Seal is quite handsome in itself.

HE TOILS 'MONG THE FISHERMAN

Dr. Grenfell's Address to the Canadian Club in Toronto - Campaign for Endowment Fund.

(Toronto Telegram)

The history of the work which is being carried on among the fishermen on the coasts of Newfoundland and Labrador was outlined by Dr. Wilfred Grenfell, who was the guest of the Canadian Club today. Dr. Grenfell commenced in Canada his campaign to raise an endowment of $1,500,000, because of the sympathy Canadians have always extended to his work. He is representing the International Grenfell Association, of which he is superintendent. This association is composed of two directors from Great Britain, two from Newfoundland two from Canada, and four from the United States. They run the whole group of industries in North Newfoundland and Labrador. The association felt that it was too great a strain on Dr. Grenfell to continue both his work and his lecture tours to continually obtain funds. It is hoped that $250,000 will be raised in Canada last year he had a budget of $80,000.

Volunteers are Helpful.

Dr. Grenfell made it plain that were it not for numerous volunteers, who came annually and paid their own expenses, the work could not be carried on so economically. Last year there were fifty volunteers, including an eye specialist from California, who for eleven years has been working at the island at his own expense.

A Busy Professor.

Prof. W. Gillespie, who was born in Hamilton, and for 23 years has been professor of mathematics at Princeton University, wrote offering his services to do anything.

"So he came," said Dr. Grenfell, "and did splendid work in digging the foundations for the new brick orphanage. He put in nine hours a day and must have lost at least twenty pounds in weight. The university students who were there as volunteers, elected the professor 'Wop'."

Work is Extensive.

It had been proposed to establish a nursing station at Cartwright through the support of the Hudson's Bay Co. The work carried on include six hospitals, four nursing stations, one orphanage, containing fifty children, one seaman's institute, four branches where industrial work is taught, numerous summer schools, one hospital steamer, and four hospital launches.

The industrial work is proving a great success. After training teachers there they are sent to various centres where they taught the inhabitants to make hooked mats, toys, presenting local animals and scenes, the weaving of homespun and embroidery on deer skin.

The old hospital steamer "Strathcona" has been refitted at a cost of $19,000. Dr. Grenfell, who has his master mariner's certificate, has been sailing her for twenty years. She had become rusty through the summer months by Lloyd's. The Admiralty and the Canadian Government have presented the association with a deferrer.

The bringing of weight to bear upon the New Brunswick legislature, thereby inducing it to advertise the province in the old country, in the same manner as the western provinces and private interests, for the bringing of immigrants to this province; the improving of existing conditions in the immigration laws so as to have medical examinations conducted at the point of embarkation instead of at Canadian ports; and the protesting to the Dominion government so that immigrants would not be brought here by the false promises of agents or published misrepresentations, were the subjects of addresses by members of the Old Country Club last evening at their meeting in the Orange Hall in Germain street.

The speakers were W. Brindle, Herbert Dickinson and G. W. Olund. Officers for the club were elected last evening as follows: President, W. Wanted To Die

Yet, at 72 He Lives To Tell Wonderful Story

Hydraulic Engineer Finds Cure for Rheumatism After Suffering Agonies Many Years

HOW IT HAPPENED "Eleven years ago I was in a hospital for seven weeks, at a cost of over two hundred dollars. For two years I suffered torments, and winter before last I was laid up six weeks under doctor's care. Truly in the last twelve years I have wanted to die. I was in such agony. I would say, 'good Lord take me rather than go through it again.' "But now I am a new man. I am a better man today than I was twelve years ago. I can almost put my leg over the back of my head. I could do that at 60, now I am 72." Mr. Wilson, the well known Hydraulic Engineer, is only one of thousands who suffered for years, owing to the general belief in the old, false theory, that "Uric Acid" causes rheumatism. This erroneous belief induced him and legions of unfortunate men and women to take wrong treatments. You might just as well attempt to get rid of your rheumatism, neuritis and like complaints, by taking treatment supposed to drive Uric Acid out of your blood and body. Many physicians now know that Uric Acid never did and never will cause rheumatism; that it is a natural and necessary constituent of the blood; that it is found in every new-born babe, and without it we cannot live!

Whatever You Do Don't Neglect Your Eyes, Says Dr. Lewis, Who Tells How to Strengthen Eyesight 50% in One Week's Time in Many Instances. A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home. Philadelphia, Pa.—Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. He says recent causes more eye troubles and poor sight than any other one thing. Many whose eyes were failing say they had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says after trying it: "I was almost blind, could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do me water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitude more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow it to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two or four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time. NOTE: Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent. in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." It is sold in this city by all druggists, including Wasson's Drug Store.

COMMUNITY PLAYGROUND PLANNED FOR RENFREW. Agricultural Fair Grounds to be Utilized. Cost Put at $1700. Rensfrew, Oct. 15—Renfrew is to have a community playground where provision will be made for holding all sorts of athletic sports. There will be a lawn tennis court, a bowling green and a baseball diamond. A supervised playground for school children will be established in connection. The place selected is the Agricultural Fair grounds. W. J. Neil, supervisor of civic playgrounds, Ottawa, was here to lay out the grounds and make an estimate of the cost. He said the place was ideal for the purpose intended. The space inside the race track is to be utilized. The children's playground will be open not during school vacation alone, but throughout the summer months, evenings and Saturdays included. A married man will be engaged the year round as caretaker of the fair grounds, and with his wife will supervise the children's sports and look after the older's playgrounds as well. The children will be provided with full equipment for all sports of juvenile games. The cost of installing the two playgrounds is estimated by Supervisor Neil at $1700. Swimming pools for both sexes are to be placed in the basement of the new fire hall, and are to be open every month in the year. The cost will be met not by the uncertain and tedious process of soliciting subscriptions, but by the issue of ten-year debentures by the council. J. J. Humphrey and Mrs. Humphrey, of Ridgewood (N. J.), who have been motoring up the St. John river, arrived here yesterday and registered at the Royal. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Walker, of Fredericton.

STOP! Release for Women who Suffer. The multitude of American women who suffer terribly day after day and year after year from ills peculiar to their sex is almost beyond belief—yet there is hardly a town or hamlet in the United States wherein some woman, and often many, do not reside who have been restored to health from some of the worst forms of female ills, and often avoided operations by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. These Two Women Tell of Their Experience. Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I shall always recommend your Vegetable Compound."—LILLIAN THAYER, 824 South 6th Street, Carrollton, Ky. Thousands of Such Letters Prove the Curative Value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Onalaska, Wis.—"Every month I had such pains in my back and lower part of stomach I could not lie in bed. I suffered so it seemed as though I would die, and I was not regular either. I suffered for a year and was unfit to do my household work, could only wash dishes once in a while. I read an advertisement of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other women and decided to try it. It surely did wonders for me. I have no pains now and can do my own household work without any trouble at all. I will always praise your medicine as I do not believe there is a doctor that can do as much good for female weakness as can Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you may use these facts as a testimonial."—MRS. LESTER E. WARNER, R. 1, Box 69, Onalaska, Wis. LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO., LYNN, MASS.

MUST DO MORE FOR CITY'S BOYS

Agreement Reached at Meeting of Delegates From Representative Organizations—Details to be Considered Later.

General agreement that something more should be done than is now being carried out in regard to boys' work in the city, was the main feature of a meeting of representatives of various organizations of the city, called by E. J. Terry, president of the Rotary Club, in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday.

Those present were: E. J. Terry and C. A. Conlon of the Rotary Club; E. J. Alexander, representing the school teachers; L. G. O'Neill, Father Dulse and H. J. Sheehan of the Y. M. C. I.; E. J. Henneberry, Dr. W. P. Broderick and Dr. J. B. Gossell of the Knights of Columbus; W. A. Covay, Playground's Association; H. W. Rising and W. S. Allison of the Commercial Club; A. C. Skelton and Mr. Cramp of the Boy Scouts; R. E. Armstrong of the Board of Trade; W. E. Scully of the West End Improvement League; H. U. Miller, S. B. Stokes and N. McEwen of the Y. M. C. A. The representatives invited from the following bodies were absent: School Board, Trades and Labor Council, South, West and East End Improvement Leagues, and Boys' Work Board.

There was a general discussion of ways and means of work for the boys of the city and the delegates present agreed heartily on the need for more vigorous efforts along this line. Details will be considered at the next meeting.

MANY WOMEN LEAVING IRELAND

100 to 150 Applications Received Daily—Passages Booked Months Ahead.

Dublin, Sept. 29.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—The proclamation of Dail Eireann prohibiting emigration has only had a slight effect and the American consulate is daily dealing with applications for passports. On a landing of the consul's office the Dail decree is displayed forbidding the emigration of Irishmen of military age and of all citizens of the Irish republic without the written consent of Dail Eireann.

apply to the local Sinn Fein justices giving their reasons for leaving Ireland and full explanation must be forwarded to the republican minister for home affairs. Nevertheless, the applications to the American consul continue, most of them however, from women. From 100 to 150 is the daily average. Third class passages to New York are said to be booked for months ahead.

WARSHIPS TO CARRY OFFICIAL BADGES

(Associated Press Correspondence.) London, Sept. 29.—Since the days of the elaborately carved figureheads, now only seen in naval museums, no British warship has carried an official badge, but now an admiralty committee, with an "heraldic adviser," has revived the ancient insignia in another form.

Each British man of war has now been granted a duly authorized badge, to be fixed in wood or brass on the quarter deck, and on either bow of its boats. Badges have been designed to represent the name of the vessel pictorially, or when that was impossible, to embody some device connected with its history.

back: Inconstant, a butterfly; Sesame, a key; Sterling, the pound mark (£), and Watchful, an eye. Major Charles Rfonkes, of the Royal Marines, acts as heraldic adviser.

SAYS CAR SHORTAGE MEANT GREAT LOSS TO THE C. N. RAILWAYS

Regina, Oct. 16.—Shortage of cars estimated by D. Macrae of the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Co., have caused the Canadian National Railway a loss of $850,000 during the last month alone owing to the diversion of 3,000,000 bushels of grain to C. P. R. points by the Saskatchewan farmers.

At a pre-communion service in St. David's church last evening, Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, president, thirty-two were received into the membership of the church. A large proportion of the new members were young men.

The Wife Must Provide for the Widow

To do so, it is necessary that out of her husband's income a certain percentage is deposited yearly in Life Insurance premiums. This is the only sure method of providing for to-morrow.

The margin between income and expenditure is not very large in the average home, owing to the high cost of living. This margin should be carefully invested so as to provide for future contingencies. Man and his estate becomes a fact at death. The amount of this estate largely depends on the wife because seven-eighths of all estates are comprised of Life Insurance.

Consult us as to how best to provide.

Polling 600,000 Voters in Six Pivotal States

In this week's LITERARY DIGEST the first instalment of THE DIGEST poll of 600,000 voters in the six big doubtful states of New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and California is published. These votes have been polled from all classes of voters with entire impartiality, and the results of the poll are extremely interesting because the electoral votes of these six states total 140, or more than half of the 266 votes necessary for a choice by the electoral college.

The article accompanying the tabulation brings out many interesting sidelights on the political situation this year. This week's number of THE DIGEST will be read and studied with unusual interest by men and women of all political faiths.
