ROUND THE WORLD BY WIRELESS British Post Office Department and Marconi Make Arrangement

CHAIN OF STATIONS Great Britain Will Have Independent Telegraphic Communication With Any Part of the Globe—Mint Issues First Report on Gold in Circulation

(Canadian Press) London, Oct. 27.—Early announcement may be expected that negotiations have been concluded between the post-office department and the Marconi Company for the erection of a chain of wireless telegraph stations round the world, linking up the British dominions and giving Great Britain an independent system of telegraphic communication with any part of the globe.

Connection with the western hemisphere will be effected by means of the station already existing at Glace Bay, and it is proposed to establish another station at Montreal to communicate with the West Indies, where all the islands will be connected by short distance stations. From Glace Bay, it will be possible to communicate direct with Vancouver, where a large power station is to be established, which will provide direct communication with Hong Kong.

For the first time, the report of the English mint, issued last night, gives an official estimate of the amount of gold coin in circulation in the United Kingdom. The total is £110,000,000, an increase of £1,000,000 since 1909. In 1909, the total was £109,000,000. The phrase "in circulation" includes the amount of gold held by banks in their coffers, which has been increased in recent years. The mint's figures will be of great value to the economist which will give the cause for the increased cost of living to the expansion in the amount of gold coined, thereby helping to diminish the purchasing value of the sovereign.

ITALY HAVING NO EASY TIME Difficulties in Carrying Out War Plans Are Encountered—Sending the Wounded Home

Rome, Oct. 27.—(via Frontier)—As the Italian operations in Tripoli proceed the difficulty of carrying out the plans projected by the military administration before the beginning of hostilities, becomes apparent. It has been found impracticable to care for all the wounded on the scene, and many of the wounded are being sent home so that the camp will be delivered of their care and protection.

MISFORTUNES MANY Family of Henry Bouchee Have a New Trouble in Accident to Daughter

Misfortune seems to follow the family of Henry Bouchee, of 35 North street. Two months ago Warren Bouchee, aged about fourteen, was drowned at Beatties Beach and the household were just recovering from that shock when Louise, aged eight years, was badly injured yesterday afternoon. The little girl was returning from St. Joseph's school, and while running along the sidewalk, tripped and fell heavily, her head striking the curb. She was unconscious when picked up.

HAZEL ELECTED Socialists Present Papers in Nomination of F. Hyatt, But They Are Declared Not Proper—Interesting Time in Returning Officer's Court

Hon. J. D. Hazen was declared elected as the representative of the City and County of St. John for the house of commons at 2 o'clock this afternoon, his nomination papers being the only ones filed. An effort was made to nominate Fred Hyatt as the Socialist candidate, but this failed, owing to his nomination papers being incomplete and incorrect.

Mr. DeForest pointed out that the term should be the electoral district of the City and County of St. John, and that he could not accept the nomination. Mr. Eastwood protested that any sensible man could see what was meant but as he could not shake the sheriff's attitude he set down and took up a pen, it was thought with the evident intention of correcting the phrase without further delay.

Mr. Hyatt then told his agent to put up the $200 and he would see if they could turn him down.

LIQUOR SEIZURE Customs officers this morning seized a quantity of liquor, said to be about five barrels, consigned to a wholesale house here. Just in what manner the liquor in question reached here seems to be puzzling the revenue officers. It is said today there would be interesting developments. The name of a wholesale firm is mentioned but not authoritatively.

HEAD IN BAG AND LEGS TIED TO WHEEL OF A C. P. R. CAR Montreal Has a Sensational Case—Victim Says he Was Attacked by Four Men and Tied Up

(Canadian Press) Montreal, Que., Oct. 27.—With his head in a bag, half filled with saws, and his arms and legs tied around the axle of a Canadian Pacific freight car, Mike Schütz, a -ole, was found last night by police officers of the Grand Trunk.

Grains issuing from beneath a car led to the finding of the man. When the policemen untied the rope binding the man to the axle and the bag from around his neck, they found it was half filled with saws or cutlers, and that there was a big pile of cotton waste tied around the man's mouth for a gag.

He said he had been attacked by four men in the street and tied up, but did not know where he had been placed until removed. The police believe Schütz may know something about the mysterious shooting of Joseph Budziszewski, who died on Tuesday night, after being shot in the back, while walking along the street.

BAKER LEADS THE BATSMEN IN THE SERIES Athletics' Home Run Man Had 375 Average in The Six Games

(Canadian Press) Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 27.—The official batting and fielding average of the Athletics and New York players in the world's series, compiled by Francis C. Richter of this city and J. G. Taylor Spink of St. Louis, the official scorers, appointed by the National Commission, were made public last night.

For the world's champions, Baker leads at the bat with an average on the six games of .375, Barry is second with .368, and Murphy third, with a percentage of .304. The team batting average for the championship is .240. Lord and Davis are the only Philadelphia players who took part in the six games, who have a fielding average of 1.000.

Crandall leads the Giants at the bat with an average of .280, but he only took part in three games. Of the players who took part in the six games, Capt. Doyle leads with a percentage of .304. Meyer is second, with .260, and Herzog third with .250. Mathewson has an average of .298, but he was in but three games. The team batting average is .275.

Snodgrass and Meyers each have a fielding average of 1.000 in the six games. Murray made the poorest showing of any of the Giants. He did not make a hit during the series, and his fielding is rated at .800. The Athletics excelled in every department of the game, except base stealing, and they tied with their opponents at four in that branch.

LEAP ASHORE AS STEAMER CASTS OFF Deserting Sailors Put Aboard at Chatham Cast Away Again

(Special to Times) Chatham, N. B., Oct. 27.—Oscar Arnesen and Hans Beaton, who deserted from the steamer Daged, and who were arrested on a theft and desertion charge, were put back on the vessel yesterday at noon by the police. At three o'clock of the steamer was casting off her lines from the wharf, the two men made a run and jumped to the wharf, and disappeared among the lumber piles. The captain has given them up as hopeless.

STREET BLOCKADE. Traffic was delayed for a little while today in Mill street, when a break occurred in the street railway service near the depot. It was just a little after the noon hour, but the cars were soon in running order again.

La MARQUISE de FONTENAY English Librarian Who Denounces the Carnegie Foundations—Police Head to Accompany King To India—An Influential Peer

Edmund Gosse, who has publicly endorsed Lord Rosebery's condemnation of the ever-increasing output of trash and useless books, and who, like him, deprecates their preservation by libraries, recommending a policy of selection and concentration and even expressing himself in favor of the precedent set in Caliph Omar's burning of the library of Alexandria as the best means of disposing of the colossal masses of literary rubbish, is one of the best known English men of letters of the present day.

He is the son of a famous zoologist, whose principal labors and discoveries were in the United States, and is of Scandinavian origin, his grandparents having been Norwegians.

His office of librarian of the House of Lords is a most desirable one, carrying with it a salary of $5,000 a year, as well as an official residence in the houses of parliament. The library itself is located on the main floor of the Palace of Westminster, overlooking the river, and in line with the House of Commons dining-room and library. The collection contains some 50,000 volumes, and an immense number of valuable papers, together with some rare historical documents, including the original death warrant of Charles I.

Edmund Gosse has also been principal official translator to the government department known as the board of trade, which is the English equivalent of the department of labor and of commerce in the United States, and on the continent of Europe. He has likewise been entrusted by the late Duke of Devonshire and other peers who had inherited his libraries and valuable collections of books, with the editing, arrangement and cataloguing of their libraries.

He has been engaged in many bitter literary controversies, one of which, with Sir Edward Clarke, led that eminent lawyer to write: "The literature of England is a fair and spacious domain, and does not belong to Edmund Gosse. He is rather like the intelligent rustic whose business it is to open one of the gates. It is a useful occupation, and I do not grudge him its rewards. In a poetical manner he, as the representative of literature, rebukes me for my presumption in having an opinion of my own, and in actually venturing to express it."

Like Sir Edward Clarke, the British speaking public has come to regard Edmund Gosse as one of the most authoritative representatives of literature and to such an extent is this the case that his denunciation of the Carnegie libraries, not only as doubtful blessings but as absolute nightmares, may, it is feared, lead some crank to take his warm approval of the specific methods of Caliph Omar at Alexandria as an encouragement to apply the torch, or perhaps dynamite, to the libraries identified with the name of the millionaire Laird of Skibo.

With King to India

King George's action in appointing Sir Edward Henry to be one of his extra equerries is in order to enable this particularly clever officer, who is chief of the metropolitan police, to accompany him and the Queen Mary to India next month as a valued member of their suite. Considerable anxiety prevails among the authorities, not only at home, but also out in India, with regard to the safety of the king and queen during their stay in India, where it is feared that advantage may be taken of their presence to make some attempt upon their lives, by oriental fanatics or notorious mad Baboos.

The whole of Sir Edward's career, until ten years ago, was spent in the police service in India and throughout the last decade of the nineteenth century he was inspector general of police there and introduced throughout the peninsula the present system of identification of criminals by finger prints, after he had convinced himself of the impossibility of securing accuracy, at any rate in India, through the Bertillon method of anthropometry.

During the South African war Lord Milner, who was then governor general there, demanded and secured his services, in order to deal with the white scum gathered at Johannesburg and elsewhere in the Transvaal, after the overthrow of the Kruger government. From there he was promoted to the command of the Metropolitan police in England.

The Indian police, and especially its secret service, with which Sir Edward was identified, is the most magnificent equipped in the world, and the principal, or at any rate the most powerful, agency by which Great Britain keeps under control and subjection the entire Indian Empire, with its 300,000,000 of population adept, as all orientals are, in every form of intrigue and device of that sense of right and wrong which exists among civilized nations.

It is felt that the presence in the immediate entourage of the king and queen of an officer such as Sir Edward, who was for so long the chief of this wonderful police organization and who is possessed of a most marvelous and intuitive knowledge of Indian affairs and especially of Indian crime, will constitute a guarantee of safety to the monarch and his consort. Sir Edward is a very silent, unassuming and unobtrusive man, whose children instinctively like and to whom animals of every kind take. He is a crack polo player and has left behind him an excellent record in India as a hunter of tigers.

Prominent English Peer

The Hon. Wilfred Egerton, who arrived in New York this morning from England on the Cunard liner Mauretania, is a younger and unmarried son of the Earl of Ellesmere. He served throughout the South African war as a cavalry subaltern, and also as A. D. C. to Lord Roberts. He has now left the army and takes his headquarters at White's club in St. James street. He has numerous brothers and sisters. One of the latter, Lady Alice, already well known as an author, playwright and poet, has just published in London a new volume of verse entitled "The O'Dreams."

Lord Ellesmere is one of the richest and most influential of British peers.

A TORONTO PASTOR PETITION IN STORES HERE FOR SIGNATURE To the Editor of the Times. Six or seven weeks ago a 'World Petition to prevent war between Nations' as the heading runs, was circulated in this city for signatures.

The petition is addressed 'To the Governments represented at the Third Hague Conference' (which will meet probably in 1915) and reads: 'We, the undersigned citizens of the different nations, believing that the adjustment of all international interests by convention and treaty containing an arbitral clause will lead to the abolition of war, minimize the necessity of armaments, and effect their gradual reduction, hereby voice our gratitude for the official already taken toward this end, and desiring to support further concerted action, respectfully petition, that at the third Hague conference a convention be agreed upon, by which the nations shall mutually themselves guaranteeing Y and each other's integrity and just development, so refer to arbitration all differences not settled by diplomatic negotiations.'

It is signed by Anna B. Eckstein, 25 Beacon street, Boston, Mass.; Miss Eckstein is one of the foremost members and lecturers of the American Peace Society. In view of the coming celebration of one hundred years since the signing of the United States and Canada, this petition should be particularly well received by our citizens. The copy of the petition, already circulated met with immediate response from such a number of eager and interested signers, that it seemed a waste of time to go around soliciting names, so the undersigned ladies, into whose hands the work has fallen, have decided to take in and about the city, several copies which are to be forwarded to Boston as soon as possible. Therefore, all persons of age, men and women, are hereby requested to sign as promptly as possible.

THE ARMY FOR OCTOBER

The October number of that bright little monthly paper of the local Y. M. C. A. Army, which has just come to hand, is most attractive and contains the up-to-date spirit of the association. The paper appears for the first time with a cover, on which is depicted the peculiar shape of a triangular window in the wall above the teacher's head, although they must have looked at a hundred times daily.

LAST NIGHT'S CONCERT

Both as an entertainment and as a benefit performance, the concert given in the Opera House last evening in aid of the Home of the Good Shepherd was eminently successful. The house was crowded with a fashionable audience which showed its hearty appreciation of the excellent programme by an uncertain manner.

MORNING LOGALS

The police court yesterday afternoon was given over to dog owners of the North End. Many of those who had been summoned had taken out a license before coming to court. Sixteen cases were stood over until next Tuesday. Those who have been asked to appear on Tuesday are: William Ingraham, William Marks, Stephen Kane, James Clancy, James Cooper, William Caples, Edward Downie, John H. Flewelling, Edward Spague, David Adams, Nelson Bacon, Thomas Strayhorn, John Irvin, Walter Walsh, Charles Burton and Harry Williams.

The Evening Chit-Chat By RUTH CAMERON

Did it ever occur to you how astonishingly little most of us see of all that we look at? The other day I was asked what was the color of a house next door to the hotel in which I had stopped several days and I actually couldn't say.

And yet I must have looked at that house at least a hundred times. Doubtless I am remarkably unobservant, but I fancy many people have similar, if not as inexcusable, experiences. I read the other day that when a test of this sort was made to see how observant school children are, many of the children questioned could not tell whether the columns in the vestibule of the building which they passed daily were round or square. Some of them, furthermore, had not even noticed the peculiar shape of a triangular window in the wall above the teacher's head, although they must have looked at this aperture half a hundred times daily.

At a party which I once attended one of the gossips was for each person to pass by a table loaded with all kinds of objects and then write down the names of as many of the articles as he could remember. There was a prize for the person with the longest list, but although there were fifty objects on the table I remember that the prize winner had named only about twenty. The rest of us ranged from two down to ten or twelve. Now was this because it is not possible for even an observant human being to take in so much in a short time, or because the celebrated Houdini that he could run past a shop window dressed in a single glance and enumerate correctly every one of a hundred different articles displayed there? And as far as that goes, I do think it would not do any harm for some of us to pass a shop window try to recall as many articles as possible. See if you can tell what color all the houses on your street or in your immediate neighborhood are. Try to recall what are the objects of furniture in some friend's living room. Look at your desk or your bureau for a few seconds and then shut your eyes and see if you can correctly enumerate every article upon it. Another interesting experiment is to look at some familiar object very intently and see if you cannot discover something about it that you never noticed before. In nine cases out of ten you can. The other day I was obliged to wait for a train in a very unpleasant spot where the most interesting thing to look at were half a dozen pigeons which were strutting up and down the track, pecking up some grain which had providentially overflowed from a freight car. I looked at those pigeons as I had never looked at pigeons before and soon I noticed the most peculiar concomitance between the motion of the feet and the motion of the head. It seemed as if they must be fastened together by some internal spring. Now I've carefully looked at pigeons a thousand times before, but I never noticed that, because I never really observed them intently. We fret at monotony of scenes. We complain that we cannot afford to travel and see distant lands. But how few of us really look at our own land, our own town, our own street and neighborhood with anything like seeing eyes.

ONTARIO LIBERALS

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 27.—Inaugurals against the Liberal leadership of Hon. A. G. Mackay, declared themselves last night at a meeting of the Macdonald Liberal club, when the following resolution was submitted: "As the Liberal party has led in every reform, and as the time is now ripe for other advances in legislation looking to the welfare of the people, this club is of the opinion that the party leader should be a man in hearty sympathy with advanced legislation. We regret the present leader is not in accord with such sentiment."

As a club, request our representatives at the coming meeting of the Ontario Liberal party, to use their influence and votes for the selection of a leader who will cheerfully aid in the work of securing advanced legislation.

The motion was withdrawn, its sponsors believing that the purpose had been achieved.

ST. JOHN'S FUTURE

It is sometimes said that there is too much politics in St. John, and that this prevents progress. Whatever truth there may have been in this statement in the past, it may be hoped that the conditions have changed. The Liberal party will certainly welcome any action taken by the Conservative government to build up this port. It is not necessary to await the formulation of a policy, since tenders were received by the old government for works in both the eastern and western harbor which would be of enormous benefit to the city. Not only so, but complete plans have been prepared for additional work in both the eastern and western harbor, covering a period of years, and eventually making this one of the best equipped ports on the Atlantic coast. No Liberal will protest against the carrying out of this policy by the Conservative government, for what has been carried out had the Laurier government been sustained. Politics therefore cuts no figure in this phase of St. John's development, unless the government should fail to do its duty. At the present moment the citizens are fatal to the city, which is of so much importance to this city. The Liberals are as anxious as the Conservatives can possibly be to see all these public works carried to completion. They were all provided for in the progressive transportation policy of the Liberal party.

So far as the growth of St. John is concerned, there should be only one party. It will require the combined efforts of the leaders of both parties to develop the city as it should be developed. The stumbling block in the way of progress in the past has not been wholly political, although it has not been admitted that the late minister of public works never received from one party the credit he deserved for his splendid work as the city's representative at Ottawa. Nevertheless, the pessimists against whom it has been necessary to wage vigorous warfare were not all thinking of political effect. They were "knockers," pure and simple. The progress made in the last four or five years has largely overcome their influence. The conditions and the outlook have improved so much that the citizens at large have become convinced of the bright future of St. John. Progress may be delayed, but it must come and continue. A change of government at Ottawa or elsewhere cannot rob St. John of its natural advantages. The people have the very best grounds for an abiding faith in its future.

CANADA AND THE NAVY

What will the Borden government do with the navy? Thus far it has won the approval of Mr. Bourassa in all its acts. Will its naval policy also meet with his endorsement?

The Montreal Star wants Mr. Borden to present the admiralty with drafts of an annual grant. Neither of these plans is approved by the Ottawa Journal, a stout supporter of Mr. Borden. It stands for a Canadian navy. After setting forth six objections which it regards as fatal to a money contribution to the Journal says: "May we ask what particular efficiency characterizes this country that undertake a direct naval responsibility is undertaken? Are we not fit to rank in national efforts with Argentina, or Chile, or China, or Denmark, or Belgium? What's the matter with us? Is the breed here inferior to that in Australia or New Zealand? We have constructed the greatest railways in the world, and the greatest canals; we have in forty years welded half a continent out of sparse feeble provinces into a strong nation—what mysterious disability prevents us building warships? Extravagance, is it argued? Grant? Corruption? Nonsense. There will be no more of either nation-building—which on the whole has been a mighty good job.

"It is true that some time must elapse before a Canadian navy can be an efficient factor in imperial defence. But so must elapse before anything that Canada would do would be an efficient factor in imperial defence. Possibly money sent to the British Admiralty would be, for a while, more effective in sea power than direct Canadian expenditure. But as such money subsidy would not meet a Canadian national education, nor Canadian industry, nor Canadian crews or training, nor Canadian pride, it would speedily be an infinitely poorer thing for the empire. Canada's motto should not be either gifts or tribute. It should be cooperation upon a basis of national self-respect, self-dependence and self-effort. These things a Canadian navy means."

A TRADE PROPOSAL

A movement is in progress to develop trade between Canada and the republics of South America. An Ottawa paper states that Mr. George F. Johnston is expected in that city next week, at the request of Hon. Mr. Foster, minister of trade and commerce, to discuss with him the whole question. Mr. Johnston has received letters from over two hundred manufacturing and business concerns, who write favorably of the project. While the manufacturers say they are at present pushed to their capacity to supply the home market, yet they realize the importance of getting a foothold in a new market, and Mr. Johnston believes they would cooperate in developing the foreign business. His plan is to induce the government to subsidize a line of steamers between Canada and the South American republics, and to appoint an enterprising agent to exploit the West Indies. When Mr. Foster, who has declared himself much interested in the subject, the substance of the correspondence he has received, and hopes for favorable consideration. If such a line of steamers were established, St. John should be its winter terminus.

It may be that Canadian manufacturers can be interested in South American trade, but they have certainly betrayed no eagerness to exploit the West Indies. When urged to do more business there they have replied that the home demand kept them busy.

In a recent speech in South Africa, Premier Botha said to his cheering constituents:—"Should the unhappy day ever dawn when the common fatherland is attacked, Dutch and British Afrikaners will be found shoulder to shoulder defending the fatherland to the very last."

At the banquet at the Royal Canadian Institute in London, in honor of Earl Grey, the Rt. Hon. Mr. Harcourt paid an eloquent tribute to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and the great services he had rendered Canada for so many years. Englishmen, he said, felt a warmth of gratitude for Sir Wilfrid's achievements. His remarks were heartily cheered by the distinguished company.

A writer in the Toronto Globe says:—"The proposal of the Board of Education to begin classes in housekeeping and the care of babies in the public schools, is a good one. A large proportion of the world's poverty and disease is due directly or indirectly to ignorance of cooking, household economy and sanitation, and care of children. Women have more to do with the welfare of a nation than either men or women realize."

The Ottawa Journal, Conservative, warns Canadian manufacturers not to seek a higher tariff. It says:—"Just so soon as Canada's tariff goes up beyond a fair figure just so soon will a widespread low tariff sentiment arise and grow, and ultimately have to be satisfied. The aphorism 'much wants more and loses all' is as true when applied to national tariffs as to other and lesser values."

In the course of a recent judgment, in a case in which a liquor dealer was interested, Chief Justice Mulock made these observations concerning the liquor business in Ontario:—"I venture to assert that anyone going into the liquor business today incurs risk. Public opinion causes the imposition of so many unforeseen conditions and restrictions that the hazard of the trade is materially increased, and it is a hazard which is, or ought to be, in the contemplation of anyone embarking in or carrying on that business."

THE STAR AND THE CROSS

See you star so brightly shining,
O'er the far Judean plain,
As it marks a new day glorious,
Tells the King has come to reign.
Yes, a King by prophets said,
Humbled into human mold,
And you star's resplendent brightness shines in His mighty reign.

See the King, footsore and weary,
Healing, helping, guiding man,
Majesty sublime in greatness,
One with God's eternal plan.
One to do His work and will,
And His mercy to fulfill,
Giving justice all Divinely, bound by love in three-fold span.

See you cross that sin has lifted,
On it they have nailed the King;
In humiliation dying,
That death would salvation bring.
To a world in sin's vile throes,
To a world that God loved so,
That He gave His Son to save it—heaven's co-eternal King.

See you tomb, by angels guarded,
Where the Holy One had lain,
List, they say, the Christ has risen,
He, who on the cross was slain.
Risen in His Spirit's might,
Banishing sin's darkest night,
Strong, victorious, mighty One conquered death, and lives again.

See you men far upward gazing,
There at Bethany, sad and lone,
As their King, their Friend, and Saviour
Passes to His Father's throne.
Wondrous love, in wondrous way,
Heaven and earth, were joined that day,
Now, as Priest and Intercessor, pleads He ever for His own.—S. Jean Walker.

INNOCENT, YET WOMAN IS GIVEN TERM IN PRISON

German Court Sentences French Woman Charged With Being Spy

Berlin, Oct. 27—The supreme court of the empire at Leipzig has sentenced a French woman named Renee Thirion, who was arrested in April last on a charge of attempted espionage, to six months' imprisonment, although the court declared at the same time that she was innocent of the charge brought against her.

Renee Thirion has lived for the last five years in Germany, and at the end of last year she appeared in Cologne as a teacher of languages. She quickly made herself popular with local society, and in particular with the officers of the garrison. Last spring she was denounced as a spy by her sweetheart, a German lieutenant, who had purposely ingratiated herself with the object of worming out her secrets. She was charged with attempting to secure the mobilization plans of the German army corps for the purpose of transmitting the information to the French war office.

After being kept for some months in prison Madame Thirion was brought before the supreme court, who heard the case behind closed doors. In delivering sentence the court said it had been proved that the accused was not a French spy, but a respectable teacher of languages, with the best credentials, and her arrest as a spy was the result of a misunderstanding. Nevertheless, she must be sentenced under a paragraph of the imperial code, because she had once declared herself ready to undertake espionage, although this declaration was not made seriously. The sentence of six months includes the time already spent in prison.

THE APPLE SHOW

Much interest is being evidenced in the seventh annual Fruit Show of the New Brunswick Fruit Growers' Association at St. Andrew's Hall on Monday. Each year these exhibits show the improvement in the quality and quantity of fruit grown in this province, and this year is declared more encouraging than ever.

The big exhibit of apples by the department of agriculture, to take up one end of the rink, will be one of the features and the exhibit of fruit from counties where there were demonstrations is also of special interest.

The Famous Rayo Lamp The best part of the day is the evening, when the whole family is gathered together around the lamp. The old days of the smoky fireplace and flickering candle are gone forever. In their place have come the convenient oil stove and the indispensable Rayo Lamp. There are to-day, in the United States alone, more than 2,000,000 of these Rayo lamps, giving their clear, white light to more than 3,000,000 homes. Other lamps cost more, but you cannot get a better light than the low-priced Rayo gives. It has become so popular we may almost call it the official lamp of the American family. The Rayo is made of solid brass, with handsome nickel finish—an ornament anywhere. Ask your dealer for a Rayo lamp or write for descriptive circular to any agency of The Imperial Oil Company, Limited

NEW LORD MAYOR IS A DOCTOR

London so Honors The Medical Profession For First Time

PHYSICIANS IN HIGH PLACE

Members of Royal Families Who Are Skilled in Medicine—Doctors Who Have Attained To Eminent Positions—Power Behind Rulers of Nation

For more than 700 years there has been a mayor of London and in that time it might be supposed that every grade and profession had contributed at least one member to that high office. Yet it was only the other day that the first lord mayor who was a medical doctor was elected. It would appear that England has been a little slow in conferring her honors, on the medical profession, for elsewhere doctors have had a fair share of important offices, and on more than one occasion have risen to be the heads of great democracies.

Sir Charles Tupper was a medical man, for instance; two or three presidents of Switzerland have been doctors, and one of the ablest statesmen of France, Premier Clemenceau, is a physician. The latter continued to practice even after having become prime minister of the republic, and it is said that there was often considerable confusion between his official callers and former patients who came for treatment. It is related that on one occasion his secretary mistook a dignified professor for a patient and insisted that he take off his coat and shirt before presenting himself to Dr. Clemenceau, in order that the great specialist's time might not be wasted.

Royal Physicians It is said that the young Queen of the Belgians could easily pass a medical examination, since she was for many years the chief assistant of her father, Prince Louis Ferdinand of Bavaria, the leading gynecologist and obstetrician of Bavaria, and the president of the Imperial German Cancer Research Fund. Prince Louis confines his practice to the poorest patients, and rarely accepts a fee of any kind.

The late Duke Charles Theodore of Bavaria was one of the most famous oculists of Europe, and at the time of his death had to his credit nearly six thousand successful operations for cataract, almost entirely among the poor. The ex-Queen Amelie of Portugal passed a medical examination in order that she might give a more intelligent oversight to the hospitals which she founded at Lisbon.

The Queen of Rumania is also a doctor. With these precedents in mind, the London Lancet not long ago recommended that one of the youngest sons of King George should take up the study of medicine, so that the profession should have the honor to which it was entitled. There was very little opposition to the suggestion on the part of the lay press, and since the late King Edward was a lawyer it would seem only fair that a prince of the blood should become a doctor, to maintain the balance between the two professions.

Doctors Who Became Famous Leaving royalty aside, a long list might be prepared of medical men who have attained high positions outside of their profession. The present chief of the United States, the present Leonard Wood, a medical doctor, and declared by Theodore Roosevelt to be the most valuable servant of the United States.

It was a coincidence that was frequently noted that, while General Wood was chief of the United States army, another doctor, Sir Frederick Bouverie was minister of militia in Canada. Sir Leander Starr Jameson, famous as Dr. "Jim" and more recently prime minister of South Africa, a medical man. Lord Lister, who represents his profession in the House of Lords, is one of the greatest doctors in the world. Dr. Sproule is speaker of the House of Commons, and it would be easy to name a dozen doctors who have served the country in high positions of state.

Power Behind Thrones According to an "Ex-Attache" doctors are really the power behind the throne in many countries in Europe, since monarchs are not unwise against illness, and once their health fails they are forced to obey every command of the medical man who has charge of the case. The ascendancy of the doctors thus acquires often continuing when health has been restored, and it is not unusual for a medical man to be the most trusted adviser of kings and queens. This same authority says that a doctor had far more influence over Queen Victoria than any other person, and that she used to consult him about all sorts of matters not at all connected with her health.

STOP WAR BY ADVERTISING

Once People and Out Waste of it, Armed Strife Would Cease, Says Norman Angell

WALL STREET NOTES OF TODAY

London, Oct. 24—Norman Angell has explained how he came to write his own famous book, "The World's Optical Illusion." Mr. Angell is not the usual kind of peace advocate. "I do not desire to see the world a paradise of fat sheep," he says. "I for one, would rather die from a bullet in battle than be choked of fire-damp in a mine." His objection to war is not that it is a struggle, but that it is sheer waste. For six weeks after Mr. Angell's book was published there was not a sign of response, and not even a single newspaper notice. Then it fell in the hands of a leading European statesman, who was so struck by it that he circulated hundreds of copies among kings and his fellow-rulers. Mr. Angell believes that war can be ended to some extent by advertisement. "European opinion could be transformed in a very short time by a legislative expenditure of a million in wise publicity just now, an intellectual ferment could be set up, and a spirit of inquiry aroused that would do the work." He explains that he would buy the first page of every daily paper in Germany on the same day in this time of crisis. He would print there a great note of interrogation and a brief message—five hundred words would do—asking what the people would expect to get by war, and showing how even a successful war could not fail to cost them more than their nation could gain. He would set them questioning. The remainder, he thinks, would follow. "Once the people as a whole are convinced that war between great European Powers is now inevitably ruinous for all who wage it, war will cease."

Funeral of "Grace Darling" Today Body in Launch Across Waters Where She Saved so Many Lives Newport, R. I., Oct. 27—Across the waters where she had performed so many notable acts of bravery, from Limerick light house to the mainland the body of Miss Lewis, the "Grace Darling of America," will be taken in a launch this afternoon for funeral services in the Thames street Methodist Episcopal church. The services will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. F. Giesler. Mayor P. J. Boyle and members of the city government as well as state and federal officials will be represented. There will be a representation from the army and navy. A SUCCESS. The Girl—What's your opinion of women who imitate men? The Man—They're idiots! The Girl—Then the imitation is successful.—Toledo Blade.

WILL HOLD 11 CONVENTIONS IN DOMINION

Declared the Greatest Undertaking Ever Put Forward by the United Churches of Canada

(Toronto Globe.) Greater than any previous movement is what the stirring of missionary enthusiasm is expected to be as a result of the men's missionary conventions to be held throughout the Dominion. This is regarded as incomparably the greatest undertaking of the united forces of the churches of the Dominion, making a distinct epoch in fact, in the church life of Canada. Eleven gatherings in all are to be held under the auspices of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and the various evangelical church missionary boards and societies.

The series has commenced in the far west, with meetings in Vancouver on October 18, 19, and 20. The dates of the other meetings are: Calgary, October 23, 24 and 25; Regina, October 25, 26 and 27; Winnipeg, October 30 and 31, and November 1. Then follow the central conventions: At London, November 6 to 8; Hamilton, November 8 to 10; Ottawa, November 13 to 15; and Montreal, November 15 and 17. The eastern group is composed of meetings at St. John, November 20 to 22; Halifax, November 22 to 24; and Sydney, November 25 to 28.

In power and influence these conventions promise to duplicate the great Toronto Congress of April, 1909, from which is dated much of the advance in missionary interest and service by the churches of the Dominion. No such force of speakers and leaders has participated in any of the series of missionary gatherings heretofore held in Canada.

TIZ--For Sore Feet

Fired, Aching, Swollen, Smelly, Sweaty Feet? Corns, Callouses or Bunions? Use TIZ. It's Sure Quick and Certain.

At last here is instant relief of a lasting permanent remedy for sore feet. No more tired feet, no more swollen, sore feet, no more calluses, no matter how thick your feet or how long you have worn them. TIZ is totally unlike anything else for the purpose you ever heard of. It is the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely plug up the pores. TIZ cleanses them out and keeps them clean, healthy and soft. You will feel better the very first time its used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with TIZ. It is made only by Walter Lather, Dodge & Co., Windsor, Ont. and is for sale at all druggists at 25 cents per box.

The shaft of the top broke and Mann-Rot fell heavily to the arena, fracturing his skull and breaking several ribs. He is not expected to recover.

Militia Officials Watch Aviation Flights—Work of Boundary Survey

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—A portion of the international boundary survey party of ninety men, who have been engaged during the past summer in remarking the boundary between Alaska and the Yukon Territory, arrived in Ottawa today.

The surveyors have cut a path twenty feet wide along the whole line. Much of the territory was never before visited by white men, and the mountain part of the work has been exceedingly difficult and often dangerous.

A cabinet council meeting was held this afternoon with Hon. George E. Foster, acting premier, presiding. Only routine business was transacted.

The ministers, with the exception of Hon. Messrs. White and Cochrane, left tonight for their constituencies to be met tomorrow at the nomination for their bye-elections.

Col. Sam is Busy. On instructions from Hon. Sam Hughes, minister of militia, Col. Fiast, deputy minister of the department, and Lt.-Col. Mansell, director of engineer services, left this afternoon for Atlantic City to witness the aviation flights there during the next few days, under the auspices of the United States War Department.

The Canadian militia department has as yet taken no definite steps to keep pace with the times in preparing to utilize aerial craft for defence purposes, but the question has been under consideration by the militia council for some time.

Col. Hughes as head of the department, is displaying his customary activity. He will leave on Sunday for the Pacific Coast in company with Major General McKenzie, chief of the general staff, for an inspection tour of the military properties and forces between Winnipeg and Victoria.

WEST LOSING CATTLE TRADE WITH ENGLAND Reduced Cost of Raising is Only Alternative, Says One in the Business

Winnipeg, Oct. 26.—Unless the cattle raisers of western Canada can manage to reduce the necessary cost of raising cattle considerably, they may as well goodbye to their English market.

That is the opinion of W. S. Williamson, who has been interested in the English business for nearly half a century, and who for many years looked after the English end of Gordon Ironsides & Fares' business in London.

There is not the slightest doubt," he said, "that Canada is losing the trade of her export cattle trade to the other colonies and the South American Republics. Argentina can sell meat to England at a much cheaper rate than we are doing.

CHINA WEAKENS

Throne Grants Demand of National Assembly and Revolution May Soon Be Ended

Peking, Oct. 26.—The throne today surrendered to the Tzu-Cheng-Yuan, China's national assembly, and in compliance with the demands of the assembly dismissed Sheng Huan-Huai, minister of posts and communications; ordered Prince Ching, the president of the cabinet before a board of inquiry, where he doubtless will be severely dealt with; released from custody the president of the Sze-Chuen provincial assembly and other leaders in the riots at Chang-Tu, and in fact agreed to all that the assembly asked, with lack of dignity inconceivable to western observers.

A year ago the throne treated the national assembly at times almost with contempt. The ministers refused to appear before the assembly and the budget and other bills submitted to the assembly for consideration were later put aside for others more suitable to the palace and the great nobles.

The appointment of Tung Shao Yi to succeed Sheng Huan-Huai is believed to forecast the appointment of Yuan Shi Kai to the second office in the cabinet, if not to the premiership.

With the prospects of Yuan Shi Kai, who is a Chinaman, leading the country, now ruled by the national assembly, it is evident that the Manchus mean to offer to the people complete and immediate constitutional government in return for cessation of hostilities.

PSORIASIS WAS CURED After Five Years of Suffering—Three Doctors Failed and Said Case Was Incurable.

Itching and Burning Was Terrible Until Relief and Cure Was Effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment

Psoriasis is another name for chronic eczema, and is the worst form of this dreadful itching skin disease. Once established it is usually incurable.

But here is a case which proves again the wonderful healing power of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Not only does relief come quickly, but the resulting benefits are thorough and lasting.

Nettie M. Morley, of Chicago, Ont., writes: "I thought my duty was to tell you of my cure. I had been suffering from psoriasis for five years. I had tried three different doctors, who gave me pills, and one of our noted specialists, who offered to operate on me for $500.00 to keep my name in my pocket, as I could not be cured in my opinion."

"The disease spread all over me, even on my face and hands. The itching and burning was hard to bear. I had my brother read in the paper about Dr. Chase's Ointment as a healer. I used 8 boxes, and I am glad to say I am entirely cured, not a sign of a sore to be seen. I can hardly praise the ointment enough, and you are at liberty to use my testimony to Dr. Chase's Ointment, 69, a box, at all dealers or Edman, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

KIDNEY TROUBLE CURED! Engineer Elliott Promptly Relieved by Morrissy's No. 7.

LAKE MEGANTIC, P. Q., Feb. 25, 1911. "I was troubled with kidney trouble for the last four years, due to a cold, and tried a great many remedies but without any relief. I was advised to try No. 7 Rheumatism Remedy, and can say that my kidneys are entirely cured, and the jar of the engine does not pain me any more. Any sufferer from Rheumatism or Kidney trouble should by all means try Morrissy's No. 7. The nature of my work induced kidney trouble and it required a mighty good remedy to successfully combat the disease."

W. A. Elliott, P. E. Engineer.

The above prescription is not a "Cure-All" or so-called patent medicine. Dr. Morrissy prescribed it for 44 years, and it cured thousands after other doctors failed.

W. S. FISHER PRESIDENT OF ST. JOHN ART CLUB

Annual Meeting Hears Encouraging Reports—New Works of Art Received

The annual meeting of the St. John Art Club which was held last night in the rooms of the club in Union Street, was well attended and the reports showed the club to be in a very flourishing condition both as to number of members and financially.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $283.27 after the payment of all debts incurred during the last year. At the commencement of the new season at this time last year the balance in hand was only $110.88 so that this year's report shows a substantial increase.

The secretary's report said that the last year had been a most successful one for the club and gave the number of new members as 122, making the total membership now 270 paid and one honorary member.

A list was given in the report of the works of art acquired by the club during the last year which included three new pictures, a small statuette from the London Art Union and several books. These latter were six finely illustrated volumes describing the art of the Philadelphia exhibition, a volume of the Chief Painters of the World, and one volume entitled Celebrated Paintings.

A picture was also presented to the club last night which was a very fine oil painting entitled 'Drifting,' by Charles C. Ward. The report showed that a committee had been appointed to obtain from the Legislature an act of incorporation for the club. A committee had also been appointed to consider the establishment of an art school in connection with the club.

The following officers were elected last night: President, W. S. Fisher; first vice-president, Mrs. Silas Alward; second vice-president, Mrs. C. O. McGivern; third vice-president, William Brodie; secretary, Joshua Clewson; assistant secretary, Mrs. R. G. Murray; treasurer, M. V. Paddock; additional members of the executive, Mrs. Murray MacLaren, Lieutenant Colonel Sturdee, John Sealy, D. R. Jack, T. H. H. C. Page, Mrs. G. C. Coster, Mrs. J. W. W. Lawlor, W. C. Rowell.

After all reports had been read a short musical programme was given, and this was followed by refreshments. Following is the programme: Solo, Miss Valerie Steves, accompanied by Miss Tapley; piano solo, Mrs. Barnes; solo, Mr. Armitage.

The following ladies were in charge of the programme and refreshment proceedings: Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. Allen and Miss McEivern.

Gets $300 Verdict Fredericton, Oct. 26.—A verdict for $300 for the plaintiff was awarded by the jury in the case of Phillip Markey vs. George R. Short and Fraser Saunders, which was tried in the circuit court before Judge McKeown. The judge finished his charge to the jury tonight, a night session of the court being held.

The plaintiff was suing the officers of the town of Marysville for $300 damages for false arrest and imprisonment for the non-payment of a dog tax. The amount awarded by the jury is unusually large, it being seldom that a York county jury is so generous.

INQUEST POSTPONED UNTIL TOMORROW

When they resumed the inquest into the death of Mrs. Ryder, Kings county, yesterday afternoon, Mr. Fowler asked for an adjournment until Saturday morning at 10 o'clock as Dr. Thorne, an important witness, was not present and also because he wished an opportunity to examine the scene of the tragedy. The adjournment was accordingly granted.

In addition to the witnesses who have already been heard subpoena have been issued for a number of others and among those who will probably be heard on Saturday are Dr. Thorne, Dr. Murray, Ethel and Ulevella, daughters of Ryder; Kenneth Cusack, the boy who worked for them; Mattie Elder, John Jamieson, Richard Melvin, Hanford Price, Edward McNaught, Fred Henderson, Dennis O'Regan, Mrs. Rutherford and Beverly Cusack.

ATHLETICS ARE CHAMPIONS; GIANTS ARE PUT TO ROUT

Three New York Pitchers Fail to Stem the Tide—Winning Players Will Get About $3,500 Each and Losers About $1,000 Less

(By Christy Mathewson, the Giants' pitcher. Canadian copyright by J. W. Bolton, copyright in United States by the New York Herald Company. All rights reserved.) Philadelphia, Oct. 26—Perhaps the silent treatment would fit the game today as well as any other.

When the game started today, both clubs were up against it for pitchers and the selection was bound to be a sort of lottery.

The "break" of the game came in the fourth inning, although the Athletics had counted one in the third.

It was one of those plays that could have been called either way. If Doyle had not taken the time to glance at Murphy on first base, the world would probably have been secured.

What started the Landslide. The real crisis of the game was the next play, and it was the one which broke the back of New York Club and gave the Athletics the championship.

It was the beginning of the end, and we had kicked an opportunity to win the championship of the world away ourselves.

VANHORNE PLANS TO MAKE CUBA GROW

Establishment of Farming Companies Part of Project He Has in View. (Correspondence of The Boston Herald.) New York, Oct. 26.—In the recent visit made by Sir William Van Horne to this city he had opportunity to explain to some of his friends many of the features of the development of Cuba in which he is taking, both as an executive and capitalist, so prominent a part.

As soon as this railway development is completed, the commodious ocean port at Nipe, near the eastern extremity of the island, will probably become a great rival of Havana, at least so far as foreign commerce is concerned.

At present, the railroad depends chiefly for its traffic upon the mahogany or other fine wood industry, but it is Sir William Van Horne's plan to greatly increase the agricultural production of Cuba, believing that the island will not reach its highest stage of prosperity until the farmers cease the almost exclusive growing of sugar.

FIRST SNOW TODAY

Just a Little, But Two Weeks Earlier Than Last Year

St. John had its first real taste of winter this morning when snow began falling about 10:30 o'clock. It came steadily but not heavily, just enough to remind the people that the good old summer time was no more. Last year the first snow here was on Nov. 13, so those who have predicted an early winter seem to be on the right track. Montreal had a small snow storm this morning also. Reports from Halifax are to the effect that the first snow fell there about two weeks ago. The lowest temperature in St. John this morning was 38 degrees. The probabilities for tomorrow are cooler weather, with a few scattered showers.

LITTLE GIRL'S BURNS CAUSED HER DEATH

Keen sympathy is being felt for Mr. and Mrs. F. W. McCaw, of Rockland Road, in the death of their little daughter, Muriel, this morning from injuries sustained about two weeks ago, when she was badly burned while playing with matches. She was a twin daughter, and a bright little child of three years. Besides her parents, there are three sisters and one brother, at home.

The accident occurred on Saturday, two weeks ago tomorrow, quite early in the morning, when she managed to get some matches unburned to her mother. In the excitement she was playing with them when her clothing caught, and before the flames could be extinguished by her mother, she had been seriously and seriously burned. The funeral will take place from the home of her parents, 218 Rockland Road, on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

General Taylor, county secretary for Westmorland gave the valuation of the property in 1911 and 1910.

John Winter gave evidence in reference to his own property.

AGREEMENT OVER POWER

Hydro Electric Company and Council Sub-Committee Have Come to Terms

An agreement has been reached between the New Brunswick Hydro Electric Company and the members of the sub-committee of the council to whom their proposals to enter the city were referred. The agreement gives the company the right to enter the city, erect poles, etc., and carry on business here and in return the company makes certain concessions in regard to rates.

It is understood that the terms of the agreement provide for a substantial reduction in the rates to all consumers, large and small, for both power and illuminating purposes.

The terms have been submitted to the company and approved by them and the next step will be to lay the agreement before the council for ratification. If the council approves, it was said today, the company will be in a position to go ahead at once and it is understood that it is their intention to waste no time preparing to enter the city once the agreement is signed.

THE WATER TROUBLE IN FERNHILL CEMETERY

Directors and Alderman Make Inspection, But No Result—May Be More Definite Action

Another attempt to investigate the origin of the leak in the water main running through Fernhill was made a few days ago but nothing further has been done.

Hon. J. G. Forbes and G. S. Fisher on behalf of the directors of the cemetery company promised to lay another drain pipe to the water and sewerage board, paid a visit to Fernhill and went over the situation there in an effort to decide whether the water comes from a leak in the main or from some other source, but it was decided impossible to determine this definitely without uncovering the pipe line.

It is understood that the city engineer has promised to lay another drain pipe to carry off the surplus water, but the directors feel that this would not be enough. As winter is approaching rapidly, it was said today to be probable that the directors will take some more vigorous action than they have yet done if the source of trouble is not revealed and remedied promptly.

SHOULD BETS BE PAID OVER NOW?

Some Thousands of Dollars Tied up in St. John on Queens-Sunbury Election

There is a good deal of St. John money tied up in the Queens-Sunbury election in the form of bets on the result. When the declaration proceedings ended in the official announcement that Col. H. H. McLean was elected, it was expected by winners of bets that their money would be paid over, but there came the demand for a recount and with it hesitancy on the part of stake-holders as they feel they should await the result of the second counting.

Now the re-count is off and those interested are asking today does Judge Wilson's decision against the recount finally release the bet money. It is said that several thousands of dollars are thus tied up in St. John.

PICKED HIS MOOSE

Huntsman in St. John County Woods Came Upon a Herd of Seven

It does not frequently happen in any woods that there is presented to a sportsman the opportunity to take his choice from several moose, letting several pass by without firing a shot at them, and then to see a chance along, and then is "bagged." Such, however, happened yesterday in the woods near Seven Mile Lake, St. John county, when W. J. Hamilton, of Orlolo, Philippine Islands, brought down a fine big bull with a spread of 54 inches and fourteen points.

Mr. Hamilton has been visiting W. George Gray of Main street, for some time, and has been spending a little time on the latter's farm in the country. This week with Mr. Shaw of Lepreau as guide, he has been in the woods armed with a big game license and a rifle. Before he picked out his game, he had the novel sight of "looking them over" as they came upon a herd of seven moose. Only one of the lot was a cow.

LITTLE BOY SEVERELY BURNED

Son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Williams Plunged Hand Into Hot Candy

Harold, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Williams, had his right hand severely burned while playing in his home in Duke street on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Williams was making some candy when the little boy came along and plunged his right arm down into the pan. His arm now badly burned, and the child suffered intense pain. Dr. McAlpine was summoned and attended to the injury. The skin was burned off the hand, and a part of the arm. The boy is getting along nicely, however.

DETECTIVE KILLEN HOME

Detective P. P. Killen, who, with C. E. Sanford, left this week for New York in connection with the arrest of Harry B. Clark in the Bank of New Brunswick case, returned to the city this morning. He will be some days before Clark can be brought here, owing to the necessity of having extradition papers signed by the Duke of Cornwall and President Taft. In the meantime, as stated in the Times' despatches, Clark has been committed to the Tombs for thirty days.
