TUNISIAN'S TRIP WORST ON RECORD

Arrived Here This Morning, Three Days Late

One Passenger and Two of Crew Injured During Voyage—Three Shipwrecked Seamen Brought Across.

After the most tempestuous trip in her history, the Tunisian reached port and docked at 9 o'clock this morning from Liverpool via Halifax. Three days overdue, the Tunisian experienced the worst voyage in her history on the trans-Atlantic run.

The Tunisian left Liverpool on Friday, January 7, and should have reached St. John either Saturday or Sunday last. Her daily runs were as follows: 25, 186, 153, 151, 161, 221, 275, 202, 235, 304.

H. W. Lance was a cabin passenger. Mr. Lance is going to Nelson to locate John M. Mathewson, another Englishman who plans to locate at Strabourg.

W. Abrahams, Mrs. Adamson, J. W. Bellin, the Hon. R. K. Bishop, Henry G. Burgess, Miss M. E. Chessman, John P. Dallas, William G. Duncan, Miss E. Ellis, F. R. Gibson, Rev. M. McLean Goldie, John Grant, Miss Jean Greenhalgh, D. S. Inella, Mrs. J. A. Jones, Mrs. C. M. Jones, Miss Elvira Jones, Dr. J. A. Mackinnon, Mrs. Mackinnon, John Matheson, Malcolm McCreath, Miss O. M. French, Herbert Raine, Mrs. A. G. Strangman, Madame Marie Trambly, Wallace C. Trotter, Harold L. Trotter, J. H. Vandelaar, Mrs. Vandelaar, Francis L. Watters, Miss A. W. White.

There were nine first-class and 315 steerage passengers. The officers of the steamer said this morning that three shipwrecked sailors were among the passengers from Liverpool. These men left the steamer at Halifax and were forwarded to Newfoundland. The men were William Earl, St. John's; Stephen Weag and Peter Hensley of the deck. Two other members of the crew of the St. John's schooner Ceylon, who were on board, travelled over 6,000 miles before reaching their homes.

Hon. Robert K. Bishop, owner of the Ceylon, was also a passenger on the Tunisian.

During the passage of the Tunisian Dr. Coyle, the ship's surgeon, was a busy man. Madame Marie Trambly, who ventured out in the storm, was thrown violently on the deck. Two sailors were also badly shaken up by falls on the deck.

Hon. Inspector Lantulum said this morning that the officials performed the inspection at Halifax, the latest news of the arrival of the steamer caused many passengers to leave at Halifax. Six were held up by the Canadian officials. G. F. Smith is the second officer on the Tunisian on this trip. Mr. Smith has the distinction of having received the Albert medal for bravery in his last voyage.

The Tunisian will endeavor to sail from this port on Saturday. The large cargo is being discharged at No. 3 wharf. One of the largest crews of the season is working on it.

C. P. R. steamer Montreal sailed this morning. The steamer carried 301 head of cattle.

SPRINGHILL OFFICIALS ARE NOW CUTTING COAL

Have Secured Enough Fire Goods to Attend to Heavy Work on the Surface

SPRINGHILL, Jan. 13.—It is becoming apparent that the Cumberland Coal and Railway Company have fully decided not to open up any negotiations with their striking employees.

It is also becoming evident that it is the intention of the company to resume operations at the earliest possible date.

Whether a person's sympathy is with men or management, no one can fail to admire the faithfulness of the officials to the company. Once five months ago they stepped out of comfortable offices, laid aside their ordinary working apparel and donned overalls to undertake heavy manual work to which they were totally unaccustomed.

For five months they have carried on their work without complaint and without receiving any extra remuneration.

When sufficient foreigners were secured to afford them relief at the fire doors and about the mine heads they went down into the mines and have now been engaged for a week in cutting coal. Rumor has it that their strength has been augmented by a limited number of skilful miners. Even if the strike terminated tomorrow the company could not find employment for over a fifth of the men who struck.

The All-St. John hockey team is in communication with several of the leading rackets in Nova Scotia. It is planned to have the Halifax Wanderers play here next week. The locals are confident that they can defeat the Wanderers, despite the latter's victory at Halifax.

RAILWAY EMPLOYES WANT BETTER TERMS

Big Conference Held in Toronto to Prepare Demands

Gov't Ownership of Western Elevators—A Bo'ed Marriage, Report—City Employees Must Go Dry.

TORONTO, Jan. 13.—Ten Eyck, the veteran long distance runner trainer, is here and says Hans Holmer is regarded around New York as being the world's champion Marathoner. Eyck is here searching for a runner to enter the big Madison Square pro Marathon on February 14th.

A joint conference of eastern and western employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway was held here yesterday and a list of demands for improved working conditions were drawn up for presentation to the general manager at Montreal. The Grand Trunk employees will hold a conference next week to formulate similar demands.

HAMILTON, Ont., Jan. 13.—The new Board of Control announces it has decided to stop excessive drinking which has been a noticeable fault on the part of city employees. Holding a card of the employees in saloons, a practice which has been very popular of late, has been forbidden.

TORONTO, Jan. 13.—The Registrar General's department was started recently to record the return of a marriage performed under bans nearly seven years ago by a provincial clergyman. In view of the discrepancy on the part of certain clergymen in making returns of such marriages, the department has prepared a special certificate of publication of bans which must be returned to it as soon as the marriage is performed.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 13.—It is reported that the provincial government's intention to introduce a bill to introduce a referendum on the province before it becomes law. The bill will be taken at the general elections which are expected this spring.

FIGHT AT GLACE BAY IS DECIDEDLY HOT

Policeman Was Placed Under Arrest Today

He Had Endorsed, on Mayor's Orders, to Permit Town Clerk McNeill From Entering His Office.

GLACE BAY, N. S., Jan. 13.—Sensational developments have arisen over the dispute between the mayor and the town clerk of Glace Bay, the town clerk being accused of receiving money from the local miners to be placed on the 16th, being the last day to qualify rate-payers for voting, in order to favor his political friends. After the incidents of yesterday, when the clerk opened the town office door by break of day, and resumed his duties, nothing of unusual interest occurred during the rest of the day, and the clerk and his staff were allowed to attend to their duties unmolested. It is learned that the mayor has an officer placed on duty at all times to prevent the town clerk from entering the town office building. The chief acted upon the mayor's instructions and placed Police Officer George Costey, who was on duty last evening just outside the entrance to the town office with positive instructions to prevent the entrance of Mr. McNeill, the town clerk, and arrest him if necessary. Mr. McNeill arrived at his office again this morning when he was stopped at the door of the building by Officer Costey. The officer informed him that he was under instructions to keep him from entering the building. The town clerk said he could not prevent him from going to his office and attempted to rush past the officer into his office when the policeman put his hands on his shoulders and pushed him back into the street.

McNeill called upon Officer Percy Morris to arrest Police Officer Costey, which the latter did at once and brought Costey before Stipendiary McNeill when he was remanded until this afternoon and later released upon his furnishing bail. The town clerk then resumed his work and opening the door of the town office let himself and staff in to take up their daily routine of town matters.

The Exhibition Association executive was most gratified yesterday by the receipt of a letter from F. B. Francis offering, on behalf of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, a cup or other piece of silver as a prize to be awarded to any class which the association chose. It will probably go to one of the horse classes. There are a number of classes for which the management would like to have similar prizes and they would welcome gifts of the same kind on the part of public spirited citizens or corporations.

The annual meeting of the Tabernacle Church will be held this evening at 8 o'clock.

JAPAN DEVELOPS ANOTHER SCANDAL

Contractors are Under Arrest in Tokio

Charged With Fraud in Civic Works—Two Big Sensations Created Last Year.

TOKIO, Jan. 13.—The year 1909 will not be looked back upon with pride by the business people of Japan, but it is believed that the continued exposure of fraud in various circles will have a good effect.

The sugar scandal has been brought to a conclusion by the final sentence of those concerned to varying terms of imprisonment with fines. Another great commercial scandal uncovered at Osaka in what was known as the Maruzen Product Company has also furnished its contribution to the penalties of those concerned occupied high positions, including some in the lower house of the Diet.

The latest scandal has developed in this city. A number of contractors and engineers have been arrested and charged with fraud in connection with the city improvements going on now for some years past.

TORONTO PROFITS BY SUCCESS OF THE FAIR

City Receives $38,000 as Share of Receipts

Trouble in the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company—Creeleman to Lead Ontario Liberals.

TORONTO, Jan. 13.—George C. Creeleman, president of the Ontario Agricultural College, is named for leader of the Liberal party in the Ontario legislature according to the World as the latest political whisper.

PEELIE, B. C., Jan. 13.—There is more trouble in the Crow's Nest Pass Company's mines. Charles Simister, general superintendent, and Mr. H. J. Spence, superintendent of mines at Coal Creek, have been dismissed. The changes have caused wide comment here, as they are expected to affect the local miners outcrop impression that things have not run smoothly since the company passed into the hands of Great Northern Railway interests.

TORONTO, Jan. 13.—The city will receive $37,500 from the receipts of last year's Canadian National Exhibition. The total surplus was $47,850, of which amount the exhibition retains ten thousand dollars for working expenses.

MINERS ARE ON THEIR BEST BEHAVIOUR

Showing Visitors Just How Good They Can Be

Big Crowds Surround the Collieries, but No Serious Disturbances Have Occurred—Only One Arrest.

SYDNEY, N. S., Jan. 13.—It would look as if the strikers were anxious to create a good impression upon the officials of the company who are at present in Cape Breton from the manner in which they have been performing their picket duty the last couple of days. Yesterday and today the largest turn-out of pickets yet seen on duty about the several collieries were in attendance about the fences and gates leading into the collieries. They were using profane language in many instances. At Dominion No. 2 yesterday one arrest was made of a man for calling "scab" after another. Another large number of men estimated at nearly 1,000, were out this morning at the various collieries, but no disturbances of any kind occurred. Peter Patterson, international board member, left today en route to Indianapolis, Ind., to attend the annual convention of the United Mine Workers of America, which is now in session in that city.

Messrs. Ewald, President McLaughlin, McNeill and other officials, who are in charge of the strike here, will probably leave tomorrow for the convention.

St. John will be represented at the meeting of the Canadian Union of Municipalities, which is to be held in Campbellton next month, by Aldermen McClelland, Potts and Scully. These gentlemen were selected by their wardship the mayor this morning and have signified their intention of attending. Councillor Cochrane was selected yesterday to represent the Municipal Council of St. John county.

EIGHTY ONE SEATS CONTESTED TODAY

Results Will Not Likely be Known Until Tomorrow

Unionists Expect to Make Big Gains—Prominent Party Men Interested in Today's Struggle.

LONDON, Jan. 13.—Eighty-one constituencies returning 31 members voted for members of the new parliament today, but few results will be known before tomorrow. The county divisions had their first pollings and these seldom make their returns until the day following the election, but upon this occasion a half dozen returned from the usual custom and so with the few boroughs which polled today there will be about a dozen results known tonight. Of the eighty-one seats contested today the Liberals held 52 in the last parliament, the Unionists 18, Labourites 7, and Irish Nationalists 4. The Unionists, however, expect to make big inroads upon the counties captured by the Liberals in the landslide of 1906.

Among interesting personalities standing for election today are Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs; Liberal candidate for Northumberland, north division; Arthur H. Lee, Unionist, Hampshire, south division; Herbert L. Samuel, Liberal, Yorkshire, north riding; Cleveland division; Thos. MacKinnon Wood, Liberal for Glasgow, St. Rollo division; and Alexander Dre, the Liberal candidate for Llanidloes, against whom the Unionists have an especially energetic campaign because of his assertion that government old age pensions would cause if the Liberals were ousted from power.

J. Keir Hardie, Labourite for Merthyr Tydfil, is also fighting for his seat today, not having stood yesterday as it had been announced he would do so. Capt. H. Spencer Clay, Unionist, who married Miss Pauline, daughter of Wm. Waldorf Astor, is trying to break into the Liberal ranks.

Italian Charged With Shooting His Wife—Negro Assaulted Child—Farmer Killed by Train.

SAULT STE MARIE, Ont., Jan. 13.—John Manucevich, an Italian, appeared in the police court yesterday charged with shooting his wife with intent to kill and was remanded for trial. The woman had tried to prevent her husband leaving the house in an intoxicated condition. She is not expected to recover.

TORONTO, Jan. 13.—Wm. Wilson, a young negro, was sentenced in the police court yesterday to six months in jail for attempting criminal assault on Olive Outton, a six year old girl. The negro took the child for a ride on his car when it was alleged, the act charged against him was committed.

LONDON, Ont., Jan. 13.—The City Council has appointed a committee to investigate affairs at City Hall. The investigation will cover employee, their salaries and the system of doing business in the railway department. The new council is opposed to the alleged high salaries of some of the employees and will cut them down. It is proposed also to cut Mayor Beattie's salary, which is two thousand dollars.

HARRISON, Ont., Jan. 13.—Donald Davidson, a well to do farmer, who lived one mile west of Harrison, was instantly killed by the express train at a crossing here last evening. His sleigh was smashed, but the horses escaped without injury.

TEMPERANCE WAVE HITS LAURENTIAN MOUNTAINS

Majority Campaign Fought on That Issue—Liquor Nominees Dropped Out.

MONTREAL, Jan. 13.—The question of liquor in the summer resorts in the Laurentian Mountains has become a burning question in the past few years, and yesterday the vote at Ste Agathe for the majority was on that issue. The no-liquor party carried the day, as the liquor nominees dropped out at the last minute when he saw he had no chance. This is the first victory for the no-liquor party in the mountains.

Mr. Harvey C. Ring of St. John street, Carleton, was yesterday sworn in as a preventive officer by Mr. A. T. Dunn, collector of customs, succeeding the late Mr. Samuel Robinson. Messrs. Ephraim Corbett and Geo. McSherry were also sworn in preventive officers. It is said that the department has authorized the appointment of two additional men on account of the increased work on hand.

HAVE KEPT THE FIRE DEPT. ON THE JUMP

23 the Significant Number of Calls

Same Number of Alarms in Last 49 Days as in Four Months of Corresponding Period at First of Last Year.

The fire department in the North and South Ends of the city have had a considerable number of calls during the last month, and up till today: in the past 49 days the department has responded to 23 bell alarms, while there have been a few still alarms. During December, 1908, January, February and March of 1909 there were only 23 alarms. There were eight in December; two in January; seven in February and six in March.

The alarms since the first of December are as follows: Dec. 2—Box 122, accident to tug Captain. Dec. 2—Box 241, Jamieson's house, Celebration street. Dec. 10—Box 17, tar pot, Brunswick street. Dec. 14—Box 132, Ruddock's house, Strait shore. Dec. 16—Box 46, dump fire. Dec. 20—Box 23, Clifton House. Dec. 22—Box 31, Harvey's, Leinster street. Dec. 23—Box 4, needless alarm. Dec. 28—Box 37, Scovill's house, St. James street. Dec. 29—Box 124, Riddle's house, Adelaide street. Jan. 1—Box 7—Garbraith's store, South wharf. Jan. 1—Box 41, St. James Hotel. Jan. 6—Box 53, Cook's house, Esplanade street. Jan. 6—Box 13, Trueman's house, Eglar Row. Jan. 9—Box 311, false alarm. Jan. 12—Box 142, Maritime Nat. Works. Jan. 13—Box 52, Myers, house, City road. Jan. 15—Box 15, Graham's house, Brussels street. Jan. 15—Box 23, false alarm. Jan. 15—Box 23, needless alarm. Jan. 15—Box 14, Halifax Hotel.

The sub-committee of the Safety Board met yesterday afternoon and decided to recommend that each of the drivers should have 24 hours clear time every fourteen days, and to provide the additional assistance necessary the committee will recommend that two additional drivers be engaged at $2 per month each. These men will rank as probationers and will fill in for 27 men each month. They will be promoted to the regular staff of the department as vacancies occur and their places will be filled by new men.

There was quite a change among the drivers yesterday. Frank Purlong of No. 1 horse was appointed the chief driver. James Callivan was shifted from No. 1 ladder truck to No. 2 horse; Joseph Redmond was shifted from No. 2 horse to No. 1 horse; Alex. Childs from No. 2 engine to No. 1 ladder truck.

AVIATION MEET IS A FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Subscribers Will Get Their Money Back—Attendance Has Averaged 30,000 Daily.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 13.—According to the treasurer's report the first aviation meeting in America, which closes tomorrow, has been a financial success. Those whose subscriptions made it possible to bring the noted French and American aviators here will receive every dollar they risked and probably more with good crowds today and tomorrow. The attendance so far has averaged 30,000 a day. Receipts have been estimated at close to $20,000 a day, and half that amount for each of the ten days would total sufficient to cover the estimated expense of $10,000 for the meeting.

MRS. STETSON'S PARTY FAILS TO GET CONTROL

Lost in the Election for Trustees in First Church of New York—May Pro-test the Election.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson's friends have lost their fight to keep control of the First Church of Christ Scientist's board of trustees. The result of the prolonged meeting of the congregation last night followed by balloting in the early morning hours was learned today, when it was announced that the election of the party opposed to the former first reader had been decided by the decisive vote of 73 to 48.

There are hints that the validity of the election will be tested in the courts by Mrs. Stetson's supporters on the ground that challenges of voters were overruled by the chairman of the meeting; but no authoritative statement on this point could be secured today.

NEWS OF SPORT

KAUFMAN MUST WIN FROM O'BRIEN TONIGHT

Battling Nelson Says He Will Take on Welsh After He Meets Wolgast—Champion Must Fight.

Battling Nelson makes a positive statement that when he gets through with Al Wolgast he will entertain a challenge from Freddie Welsh, the English lightweight champion, but Nelson says the bout must be for forty-five rounds at 133 pounds ring-side and must be held in this country. He makes it clear that he will never fight Welsh in England and ridicules the latter's claim to the world's title. If Nelson's proposed battle with Wolgast near Frisco on February 23 falls through the man can fight forty-five rounds under the management of McCarney near Los Angeles and Nelson can receive $14,000 as his end. Under the circumstances ring followers say that if Nelson refuses to meet Wolgast in the event of a miscue over the Frisco battleground it will be further proof that the Dane is not hankering for a real fight these days.

Al Kaufman must beat Philadelphia Jack O'Brien decisively in their six round bout in Philadelphia (night) if he wishes to be classed among the top notch heavyweights. Kaufman is eight years younger, three inches taller and forty pounds heavier than O'Brien, who knocked him out in seven rounds more than four years ago. Kettie knocked all the fight out of O'Brien in two battles last year, but since then Crusty Jack has recovered some of his nerve and still believes he possesses some skill. He is still a fast boxer and expects to outpoint Kaufman without much trouble. The big Californian, who was outpointed by Jack Johnson in ten rounds last September, is a hard hitter but slow in action. His friends say he can win if he goes in and lugs O'Brien at close quarters. But can he corner the shifty "quaker"?

SKATING TROUBLE IN NEW YORK NOW

President Louis Rubenstein, of the International Skating Association of Canada, has returned to Montreal from a visit to New York, where he went to help to straighten out the skating tangle. The international body has won out, and a new Eastern Skating Association was formed with such well known men as Slawback and Tucker as officers. The former is President and the latter Vice-President, and Mr. R. Lee and Mr. P. Dowling are appointed respectively secretary and treasurer. It appears that all the people who had received sanctions from Mr. Hemmett's Eastern Association, which was put out of the International Union for disobedience of orders, which took of the real state of affairs, immediately got sanctions from the new and official Eastern body.

MET HEAVY WEATHER

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., Jan. 18.—Schooner Collector (Br.), Mahoney, St. Margaret's Bay, N. S., for New York, which arrived here today, reported that on January 15th, when 100 miles east of Cape Cod she experienced a violent northeast storm, accompanied by heavy snow and a thick sea. One of her boats was washed away, her fore-boom was broken, and a portion of her deckload of fish was washed overboard.

MONMOUTH, N. B., Jan. 18.—The Fredrickton curlers played Moncton here tonight for the McCaffrey cup medal. The score was 57 to 50 in favor of the home team.

JOHNSON NOW SURE RICKARD IS RIGHT

Champion Says Gleason Would Not Have Been One of Promoters But for Jeffries.

Following the announcement of Rickard's offer to post the entire fight purse of $10,000 with "Big Tim" Sullivan, the stakeholder, to guarantee the battle for Salt Lake City, "Jack" Johnson and his manager, George Little, arrived in this city. Last night both declared that Rickard would have made no announcement without knowing where he stood. "Rickard is the man behind this fight and Gleason would not have been in, but for the fact that Jeffries and Berger are Gleason's personal friends," said Johnson.

Algonquins Defeat St. Andrew's and Exmouths Win From Y.M.C.A.

In the Independent Basket Ball League, Algonquins defeated St. Andrew's 25 to 23, and the Exmouth won 29 to 9 from Y. M. C. A. The matches were played in St. Andrew's school room, and were witnessed by a large number of spectators. The games were rather rough, particularly the first.

ROOSEVELT AS THE REFEREE OF BOUT

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—In a letter received today, ex-President Roosevelt says: "Jack Johnson is unquestionably the first class fighter. I wonder if Jeffries can get back into form; if he can, it will be a tremendous battle when they meet."

DAVE RENNIE IS NOW AFTER ALF LYNCH

Dave Rennie, the Montreal boy, who holds the national amateur featherweight championship, says he will box Billy Allen at 120 pounds at six o'clock on the 21st, or any other time the promoters see fit to make the match. He says: "I am a natural 116 pounder, and I don't see why I should give away eight pounds to a boy like Allen, when I box at 120 pounds; I can give away four pounds, and that sure is enough. Rennie says the only man he would like to box is Alf Lynch, Quebec, for the bantam-weight championship of Canada, and a $200 side bet. I think that would be a good match, and should settle for all time as to who is the legitimate champion. Rennie says if he don't get something to do here soon he will pack up and go to Pittsburg, where he has several good matches in view.

JACK SULLIVAN BEATEN

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—Frank Klaus of Pittsburgh defeated Jack (Twin) Sullivan of Boston for twelve rounds at the Armory A. A. tonight and easily won the $1000 prize. Sullivan was unable to stem the attack of the Pittsburgh burg and made a very poor showing in all but the second and last round. Klaus landed right and left swings to the head frequently and then clinched for a terrific body punishment on his opponent.

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—Two steamers and a three-masted schooner were damaged by a collision between the steamers in the harbor opposite Castle Island just after dark tonight, the steamers finally landing on the flats beside the channel.

CANADIAN NORTHERN HAS BOUGHT D. A. R.

HALIFAX, Jan. 18.—At the annual meeting of the Board of Trade today President Johnson made the announcement that he understood the Canadian Northern Railway had purchased the Dominion Atlantic Railway from Halifax to Yarmouth. He had hoped that the C. P. R. would have obtained control of the road, but it seemed to be its destiny to fall into the hands of another great railway corporation.

JOHNSON AND GOMISKEY DECIDE SPIKE QUESTION

Griffith Has Convinced Hermann That 168 Game Schedule is Not Feasible.

San Johnson and Charley Gomiskey, the American League's committee on spikes, have decided after due consideration that no suitable device can be substituted for the cleats now used by the players. Gomiskey says that spikes are necessary to maintain the present standard of fast fielding and base running, and that the game cannot be made slower in any way. So during base stealers and infielders will run chances of serious injury from spikes in future as in the past.

PORTLAND, Me., Jan. 18.—Schooner Margie Turner, which was carrying a member of the crew, was hit by the main boom on Monday and knocked into the sea. A futile effort to reach the man was made by men in a dory. Burke's home was at Cross Island, N. H. He was 27 years.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 18.—William Williams was suffocated and burned to death by the accidental overturning of a lamp in his room at 75 Bickford St., Roxbury, today. He was twenty-eight years old and unmarried. The fire was put out without causing any considerable damage to the property.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, Jan. 18.—Contractors to expectations, the defense failed to rest its case this afternoon in the habeas corpus proceedings instituted here by Mrs. Howard Chandler Christie for possession of her daughter Natalie. The entire day was taken up by the testimony of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christie and their mother, and Miss Rose Christie, his sister.

Miss Christie said for the past year she has been the real guardian of little Natalie. The testimony of the father and mother, which was taken in the presence of the court, was that they were not the real guardians of the child. Both testified to the alleged heavy drinking and misconduct of their daughter-in-law.

THE HUNTED WHALE

IS DISAPPEARING

Sperm Varies in the Most Valuable of All—Is Prince of Whales

Romance of Whaling Days Is Over—Is Not a Fish But a Mammal.

The Bible tells us that in the beginning "God created great whales," but if man persists in his destructive ill use of the things which the Almighty has provided for him, it will ere long be a memory, says the author, some species are already extinct, and are known only to the geologists, and the rest are fast going. And why? Because a whale will yield usually a hundred, or sometimes two hundred or three hundred barrels of oil, and in some cases as much as two thousand or three thousand pounds of baleen or whalebone—and as whalebone is growing more and more valuable, no wonder it is being shown to the whales that produce it.

Dr. Wiley, head of the Government Pure Food Bureau, tells a story of a codfish that met a whale and said to the whale, "You are a very good fellow, you don't seem to be much in demand, now that they have found substitutes for whale oil, spermaceti and whalebone." To which the whale replied: "No; to which I am good for now is to furnish 'buns and liver oil'."

There is some truth in this story. Formerly, before the discovery of petroleum, whale oil was a very common article of commerce, but now about the only form the ordinary citizen sees it in is in which oil is used for protecting fruit trees from insect pests, or disguised as cod-liver oil. There are a number of other uses of whale oil, and evidently it must have been a sperm whale that swallowed Jonah, because the sperm whale has a throat big enough to receive a man, while the others haven't. The sperm whale is the most delicate of all in his kind; he is the Prince of Whales as it were. This is because he carries in the top of his head a small reservoir of valuable sperm oil, and the sperm whale sometimes goes as high as 100 fathoms, and sometimes several hundred fathoms, in his search for food. These bulls have terrific fights, and they are said to make an average of any number of miles in the vicinity of the "line."

The sperm whale is also treasured because now and then in one of them some of the precious ambergris is found. Ambergris is a substance known to man. It is secreted in the whale's intestines, probably from the stomach, and is found in some cases floating on the shores of the ocean. It has an odor all its own, and is used for perfume and in the manufacture of soap. It is almost worth its weight in gold for the purpose of making perfume, and is used for the same purpose in the manufacture of soap. Ambergris is used for perfume and in the manufacture of soap. ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JANUARY 19, 1910.

"AMAZING DEVELOPMENT."

At an important meeting in Britain recently, Sir Robert Perks was invited to address the audience on his visit to Canada and the United States. During the course of his remarks, quoting from an account of the meeting published in the correspondence of the Christian Guardian of Toronto, Sir Robert is said to have "dwelt upon the amazing development and growing importance of places such as St. John, New Brunswick. In St. John there were everywhere evidences of a vital progress. This appears to be the opinion that one of the most eminent and energetic British capitalists has formed of this city. He was able to see so much during his stay of little more than a day here. He sized up the situation perhaps better than we do ourselves, and evidently was deeply impressed with the possibilities of the town. The result of his visit has already been intimated in the suggestion of dry docks and shipbuilding yards here, and when an outside capitalist acquires upon brief investigation such a faith in the future of the city, surely the people who live here should be possessed of an even more intense enthusiasm.

FALSE DOCTRINES.

"Dispensing of charity by cities and towns to the old and physically impaired, should be abolished because such recipients have ceased to be useful to the world and consideration of economy requires that the money should be devoted to saving younger and more hopeful cases."

This is one of the statements made to the medical students at Harvard by Dr. William T. Porter, professor of physiology in that college, during his weekly lecture on Sunday. Such views can be the outcome only of a nature in which selfishness is one of the ruling passions, and in which the belief is entertained that men should adopt only those lines of action which will result in profit to themselves. The advice given to these students is not only contrary to the teachings of their religion, but is at utter variance with the ideas of the better half of the world today. "If a town, rich and poor, has long since abandoned the idea of the poor and helpless, let him starve to death," was the method employed by savages years ago and yet practiced in some of those countries untouched by civilization. It is not the custom in Christian lands. The old are entitled to respect, to help, and to comfort in their age, not because of what they may be but for what they have been. The individual or municipality which, from motives of economy, can disregard its duties to humanity will soon lose all those characteristics which make toward success.

THE VALLEY ROAD.

There was very little of a political nature in the meeting held at Gagetown yesterday to consider the Valley Railway project. It appears to be the general wish of the people in the district to be served by the proposed line that construction be undertaken as soon as it can possibly be arranged. In some quarters—and this does not apply to those who will profit by the operation of the road—there is an evident tendency to make political capital out of the question. Mr. Hazen has already heard sufficient to form a correct impression of the wishes of the people. In such a matter as the development of the province he might reasonably be expected to take the lead, and if he is sincere in his expressed desire to forward New Brunswick he will give some definite outline of his intentions. Someone must make a start, and as head of the provincial government it would seem to be his clear duty to open negotiations with the federal administration.

KEEP THE MONEY AT HOME.

One of the best methods by which the prosperity of St. John may be increased is by keeping in this city the people's money. Among the principal sources which draw from the town is the mail order business, an evil which is so rapidly growing that it has become almost a menace to certain lines of trade. There can be no doubt that the amount sent to Upper Canadian cities at the present time represents a turn over of goods on the part of mail order houses which would probably support half a dozen extensive establishments at home. Hereafter merchants have done little more than talk and place before the people their personal sentiments on this matter. This is not enough, as has been shown by the continued increase in the mail order trade, and it is apparent that unless merchants unite for their own protection they will before long be compelled to get together for their own preservation. In some lines of trade, agreements have been reached between retailers as to prices of standard commodities for household use, but the majority of lines there is no such local competition, such as arraying after every extra dollar's worth of trade that merchants are really indulging themselves. While they compete with each other the outsider comes in and takes away a large share of their business. Some sort of organization against this ever-growing mail order trade should be brought about, and there is no doubt that if merchants acted together, enormous sums of money could be kept in the city which now go to Montreal, Toronto and elsewhere. That is one method by which St. John's prosperity can be advanced.

TYPICAL SCENES ON AN ELECTION NIGHT

How Londoners Heard the Returns

Red Hot Radicals in Their Club and Strongly Unionist Audience at the Alhambra.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—Two typical London scenes last night were witnessed by your correspondent. One was at the National Liberal Club, the fighting centre of rampant radicalism, in the huge smoking room of which I spent four hours jammed in between yelling red-hot Radical and Socialist journalists, lawyers and law merchants, yowling distraction to every peer, consigning every tariff reformer to political hell, launching special invectives at Balfour and Chamberlain. "We've got 'em at last, down at last, and they can't get up," was the cry, and the result followed one another to be succeeded by hisses or even more significant gloomy silences when Unionist gains and Liberal defeats were announced on the huge screen at the end of the room. About midnight John Burns came to add fuel to the flames. With a flushed face and a voice made raucous by open harangues: "Get home and be up with the lark tomorrow to strike fresh blows for freedom!" That was his final message.

WALTER GOLDING IS ADVERTISING MANAGER

A meeting of the Exhibition Association executive was held last evening and Walter H. Golding was appointed to take charge of the advertising. Reports were received from the committees appointed to interview the local government and City Council with reference to a grant for the exhibition. It was announced that a local bank had offered a cup to the executive as a prize in any competition they might select. The matter was discussed, and it was understood the executive have in view a man whom they believe is capable and willing to fill the position.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

I gave yesterday some of the questions that I thought any girl who stood hesitating "where the brooks and rivers meet" would do well to ask herself in regard to the man who stands beckoning her onward. Here are a few more.

Are you averse to marriage? "The attraction of opposites" is one of those half understood phrases that do a great deal of harm in the world. "We don't like at all the same things," I heard a girl say the other day, "but that is a good sign—the attractions of opposites, you know. That is a big mistake—the difference should be in disposition, not in tastes. Of all foundations for a happy marriage I think congenial tastes about the best."

WORCESTER, Mass., Jan. 18.—After more than ten years of a hermit's lonely existence in a remotely situated hut, the last two months of which have been passed on the damp floor which served as a bed, while he was in Andrew P. CANADA'S DISPUTE AT HAGUE POSTPONED

OTTAWA, Jan. 18.—The Canadian government has been notified by Right Hon. James Bryce, British ambassador of Washington, that an agreement has been reached with the United States government fixing the date for the hearing of the North Atlantic fisheries dispute at the Hague for June 1st instead of April fourth, as originally intended. The setting forward of the date by nearly two months has been at the request of the United States government, which represented that further time was needed for the final preparation of the American case. The postponement was not objected to by Canada or Newfoundland. Under the new arrangement the rejoinders of the parties to the statements of claims are to be made by the 21st of February and each government will present its final case on May 1st next. The British case will be presented first, the hearing on June 1st. The delay will permit Hon. Mr. Aylesworth to remain at Ottawa probably until the conclusion of the present session. It may be noted that the Minister of Justice characteristics as absurd stories that have been circulating in the press during the past few days, stating that he was contemplating shortly retiring from the government.

A COLUMN FOR WOMEN

Household : Hints

Any piece of woolen wrung out in gasoline make a good duster. French chalk will remove practically all grease spots from dress material. Never use soap on window panes. Use either alcohol or ammonia to make them shine. Cream cheese, mixed with canned currants or jellied cranberries, makes a good sandwich filling. Cool soot is easily removed from tin articles or porcelain if they are first coated with kerosene. To keep insects away wipe the floors of closets after they have been scrubbed with gasoline or benzine. Rub the juice of ripe tomatoes over them and rinse in warm water. The flavor of a cup of cocoa is often made more delicate if the least bit of vanilla is placed in it. If you cannot get into the deep recesses of a refrigerator with a scrub brush, try using a small, stiff, paint brush.

Fashions and Fads

A white bag purse of linen and Irish crochet baby lace dangles like a chandelier bag from the belt of any woman wearing her best lingerie gown. It is very strong and useful, besides giving a Parisian touch to the costume. Since the fad just now runs to trimming all manner of garments with fur it follows that excellent use is made of the opportunity to produce striking contrasts through the combination of the white material with dark furs. In jackets we may talk with safety of a complete change. All sorts of styles, reaching just below the hips and hardly to the hips, are being shown. These little jackets will have big revers of moire and equally big cuffs. There is considerable unrest in the corset world as to just what new lines the gowns for spring may demand. The tendency toward the fitted bodices and the fuller skirts which is so clearly discernible in fashions from Paris forecasts which will give the smaller waist line and mark more distinctly the hips. The latest method of arranging the hair is called the "modern Gainsborough." The hair is arranged in a chignon with a huge double coil which stands out from the head at the side. In the front is a small flat side parting, and a few curls flutter on the forehead. The heavy double coil is seen under the uplifted brim of a Gainsborough.

BRASS WIDOWS BARRED BY BACHELORS' CLUB

Real Kind and Good Women Welcomed by Mating Bureau—Fifty-seven
Looking for Wives.

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 18.—There are more well-to-do young and middle-aged bachelors in Columbia county, Wash., than in any similar area on this continent, said Ralph Hunt, president of the Blue Mountain Bachelors' Club, organized at Dayton, "and," he added, with a chuckle, "every one of them is looking for a wife."

President Hunt, organizer of the club, is a prominent rancher and graduate of the state college of Washington. He announces that the chief objects of the association, which has fifty-seven charter members, are to encourage matrimony by discussing its advantages and happiness, culinary science, education and allied subjects, and to establish an information and making bureau. He said:

"Forty bachelors attended the first meeting, at which it was decided to gather once a week, but the interest has become so keen that we have a 'run together' every other night. Of course, we are all pledged to secrecy, and as a consequence, I cannot give out the names of others identified with the plan, but I can assure you that every member is on the square.

"Much good has been accomplished elsewhere in mating pairs, and we believe we can make our organization a success. The percentage of bachelors is unusually large in Columbia county, and there are many who seek happiness in married life. The information and mating bureau will be operated along confidential lines, and communications are solicited from other young women everywhere. We have no time for idle correspondence with others, but for idle correspondence with others, between the legal age and 35 years, of good education and standing. Widows are not barred, but they must be real ones, not of the this city. Taking to the yacht's yard, Mr. Binney and Mrs. W. L. Darrell, of New York and her two year old daughter, reached the sea end of Ocean Pier and were dragged to safety by the excited spectators. Mrs. Darrell, who was seeking during the storm at sea, is in a serious condition. Lifesavers found the four men of the crew and the cook, fighting against the gale in an attempt to make their anchors hold, while their vessel was steadily drifting toward the big breakers. They were taken off after a long struggle in which the lifeboat narrowly escaped being crushed against the schooner's side. The men reported that the Mist was run short of fuel and that they had run in close to shore for a supply and to land Mrs. Darrell, when caught in the gale.

HIS OWN METHOD.

"Did you say that you wanted to abolish our tyrannical system which enables persons to do little or nothing to exact tribute from hungry strugglers?" asked the chairman of the meeting.

"That's what I said," answered the Socialist orator, "and it got great applause."

"Yes, but don't you say it again. Remember you got your start in life from tips while you were waiter in a restaurant."

SCENES OF EXCITEMENT THAT MARK A BRITISH ELECTION

Politics are the Greatest Sport of the People Who Fairly Revel
Campaigning—Usually Takes Two Hours to Count Votes
—Danger of Riot When Result Announced.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—The English are a nation of sportsmen. The vast numbers that assemble every Saturday in the season to watch the big football matches, and the great race meetings sufficiently prove that with them the love of sport is something more than a hobby. But electioneering, even though it can, from the nature of things, be participated in only once in four or five years, is par excellence the national sport. There are hundreds of thousands, many millions, of Englishmen, who, from the commencement of an election campaign right up to its close, seem to have no thought or care but for politics. At their work or in their leisure hours, eating or drinking (and especially drinking), they are all of politics—the politics of the Empire and the politics of the poor man's beer, and political all the time.

During the three or four weeks of the election campaign, the excitement grows intense, particularly in the boroughs where the population is dense. Every day many public meetings take place, and it is a point of honor with both parties to vie with each other in some manner of public display, and also to ensure that on each successive day the number increases until, on the day before the election, it reaches a high figure, as many as forty meetings on each side being often held in a constituency on the eve of the poll.

THIRTY VOTERS TO EACH.

All this time the work of the canvass is being thoroughly and systematically proceeded with. Each canvasser is allotted to him, say, some thirty voters, whose dwellings he has to visit, and whose political views are to be ascertained and reported to the party agent in the constituency. The doubtful voters—those who refuse to give a definite assurance in response to the blandishments of the canvasser—are made the object of special attention. They are told off to wait on them, and endeavor to effect their conversion to one side or the other by demonstration that tariff reform would not increase the price of living, or that anything else that the exigencies of the occasion seem to require. A few days before the close of the campaign the canvasser is practically complete, and he makes his first estimate of its results, dividing such results into "prospects," "realists," and "miserables." They then make their calculations as to the probable voting strength of their respective parties, and though their estimates have to be constantly revised till the poll has closed, it is astonishing how near the final calculations approach to accuracy.

The writer knows of numerous instances in which the canvasser has not merely the number of votes cast for a candidate, but also the majority for the winning party, within thirty of the actual figures.

THE CLIMAX REACHED.

The climax is reached on polling day. In a few hours the work of years is tested—for political organizations in the Old Country is a very serious business, and a large number of men with expert knowledge are exclusively engaged in it, and many of the masses is taken on the momentous questions of the day, and the predictions of the political prophets are verified or falsified as the case may be.

The meetings of the previous night have worked up the enthusiasm of the rival parties to fever heat. Every house is decorated with the colors of the party which its occupier affects. Party favors are worn by men, women, and children, and even by dogs. Party songs are unmelodiously chanted, and party watchwords raucously and defiantly shouted on all sides. Crowds of people are gathered everywhere—a practical demonstration of the unemployment that is so rife, for election day is not a holiday—raising cheers or groans for "Asquith" or "Balfour," or "Lloyd-George," or for lesser lights of purely local fame. Free fights are frequent occurrences, and seem to be less popular than free trade, and the police have their hands full in every sense of the term.

INSISTS ON A RIDE.

The voter who ordinarily contented himself, when going about his daily avocations, with walking as a means of locomotion, insists on being conveyed to the polling booth in an automobile or a carriage and pair. Polling usually proceeds fairly steadily from eight o'clock in the morning till about six in the evening, at which time there is generally a rush of workmen and laborers to exercise the franchise after their day's work, and it is then that a "stamp" in a party's vote not infrequently sets in. The two hours just previous to the close of the poll at eight in the evening are regarded by politicians as a very critical time for many reasons, and not the least because there is in every division a certain number of voters who actually seem unable to make up their minds as to how they will vote until the very last moment.

For the candidate it is a trying day. He has been addressing meetings daily for weeks before, and has usually lost his voice. But there is one thing which it is far more important that he should not have lost, and that is his temper. Throughout the day he must be continuously on hand to hearten his supporters, and even, it may be, at the eleventh hour, to convert an occasional opponent. The predictions which he has made for his supporters from his agents, stationed outside the various polling booths, raise his hopes at one moment, only to dash them to the ground the next. And through it all he must appear to be "kindly man his friend," or at least that portion of the ear which he desires to represent in Parliament. Still, wonder that when the poll closes at eight

COUNTING TAKES TWO HOURS.

The counting of the votes in a borough usually takes a little over two hours, and the result is made known to the multitude outside the civic hall by the returning officer. The scene in the streets at the declaration of a poll in a large borough literally beggars description. One wonders where all the people come from who are reflected that Greater London alone contains over seven million inhabitants, and that some cities in the provinces have a population of over a million. Few people ever actually hear a poll declared, for pandemonium reigns supreme, and the eloquent speech in which the successful candidate assures the voters that the worst man's beer of the people is still sound, or in which his vanquished opponent describes his defeat as a moral victory, and darkly hints that "a day will come," seldom reaches beyond the reporters. Where the contest has been marked by much bitterness, as has unfortunately been the case almost everywhere during this election, the disorder frequently takes a very serious form, and in more than one district—not merely in London alone—there is reason to fear that something not unlike riots may follow the announcement of the results. The returning officer is present at more than one declaration when it has been found necessary to call out the military to restore order, and to protect property, if not life.

One can only hope that the termination of an election by the whole world is looking on will not be signalized by outbreaks of lawlessness, of which the world's history is so full of present-day British character, will not fall to take account.

The American Excess of Good Living

The Principal Cause of the Great Prevalence of Indigestion and Dyspepsia

A TRIAL PACKAGE OF STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS SENT FREE.

Man inhabits every part of the globe where external influences can be successfully resisted. Food is an important element in effecting this, and nature has provided for it accordingly. The colder the climate the more nutritious the food and the more abundant the diet; the warmer a preponderance of vegetables and fruits is necessary in one's diet.

The whole-blubber of the fur-clad Eskimo, and the rice and yam of the tropics, are a much necessary of locality, as matters of climate. The same indications exist in the nature of the diet in America and England is essentially different from that in Italy, Spain and Egypt.

The effects of universal communication are nowhere more obvious than in the luxuriant and excessive amount of food that all climates, both sea and land, are laid under contribution, and the stomach is expected to digest, with assistance everything that is put into it. Combining together such varied products, and the neglect of the relation between climate and food, are very active causes of dyspepsia.

The heavy substance of the German climate accord badly with the thermometer at ninety degrees; and an inability to digest an excessive amount of food at the table, have obtained speedy and permanent relief by means of a simple expedient—the ingestion of one or two of STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS after each meal, or when ever any of the well-known symptoms of indigestion are present.

These powerful digestive tablets convert every element that exists in the stomach to digest the food, and in the exact proportion as found therein. They take the place of the natural digestive juices where the latter are deficient in quality or quantity, and do their work for them, removing the indigestion by digesting the food and resting, strengthening and purifying the digestive tract.

There is no other digestive remedy on the market which has been found equal to Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets; none which is so rapidly and powerfully efficient, or which removes discomfort, banishes stomach-pain, and relieves and cures all of the symptoms of dyspepsia and indigestion in so thorough and pleasant a manner as these marvelous little tablets, a single grain of which is capable of digesting 3,000 grains of any and every kind of food.

All persons who are annoyed with stomach troubles of any kind should use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which will remove such troubles in a very short time. Purchase a box from your druggist, and send us name and address for free sample. Address, F. A. Stuart Co., 159 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

PRINCESS AUTHOR OF MYSTERIOUS BOOK.

Unhappy Life of Clever Unknown Royally Dismissed in Verse.

MUNICH, Jan. 17.—The simple and life story of an unknown German princess is unfolded in "Dream and Life: Songs of One Who Came to an Early End," a remarkable posthumous volume of poems published anonymously at Munich. Beyond the disclosure of the poems themselves, that they are the productions of a royal woman who passed her final days on the Riviera, the mystery of their authorship is profound.

The publishers say that her identity has been known to them from the very first. The princess was a Bavarian. The poems are of complete and perfect accomplishment that the amateurish efforts occasionally put forth by poets of gentle birth, and deserve notice, according to the reviewers, on their merits, quite apart from their romantic and mysterious origin.

The authoress has practically written an autobiography in verse. It begins with poems of her childhood and of a youthful love which never took form, and it relates the mysterious of a marriage in which her heart had no place, and how her sorrow sent her to an early grave, despite her efforts to find solace in her children and in deeds of mercy.

In aristocratic and literary circles there is keen interest in identifying this gifted princess who died of a broken heart.

I Give My Belt Free

You've doctored and doped till you are sick of it.

You would pay for anything that would give you back your own vim. You don't want to pay out any more money until you are sure.

I will cure you first and you can pay me afterwards. Is that fair? Then get in line.

I know what I can do, because I've done it, and am doing it every day. I'm sure that Electricity is the life, and that I can restore it where it's lost.

So if you need what I offer, and don't want to risk my price, wear my Belt free until you are cured, then you can pay me.

And when you do pay me the cost is less than a short season of drugging, and how much more pleasure!

You put my Belt on when you go to bed, you feel the soothing, exhilarating vigor flowing into your weak body, and while you sleep peacefully it fills up all of the fire of life. You wake up in the morning feeling like a giant.

Now, I can't cure everything. I don't claim to, and I won't take a case that I don't feel sure of, but all these troubles which come from an early waste of vitality, from dissipation of any kind, from decay of nerve power, or from any organic stomach, liver or kidney weakness, I can cure and those are the cases I am willing to tackle and take chances on. I am curing them every day.

All I ask is reasonable security for my belt while you are wearing it. Dear Sir—It is with pleasure I write you a few lines to say that I am well pleased with the use of your Belt. I am feeling and looking better; I can sleep better and can eat my food with pleasure. My kidneys and heart are well and strong again, and I have no more of those fainting spells, as I did formerly. The night losses have disappeared entirely, and I do not have those pains in my back. I certainly have strong faith in your remedy, and I thank you for it. I am glad I took your advice, as I had no faith in its ability to help me. Wishing you every success.

That's enough. You need the cure. I've got it. You want it. I'll give it to you, or you need not pay me a cent. Come and get it now. The pleasurable moments of this life are too few, so don't throw any away. While there is a chance to be husky and strong, to throw out your chest and look at yourself in the glass and say, "I'm a man," do it, and don't waste time thinking about it.

I've got a beautiful book, full of good, honest talk about how men are made big and noble, and I'll send it to you, free, sealed, if you send this coupon.

Miss Whitehead and Mr. McKee Married

Mrs. Pearson Dead in Toronto—R. W. McLellan Buys the Hatch Property—Weather is Mild.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Jan. 18.—The wedding was celebrated at 5.30 o'clock this morning in the Methodist Church of A. Hamilton McKee of the railway department, Ottawa, son of S. H. McKee of this city, and Miss Eleanor Whitehead, daughter of W. T. Whitehead, who were united the happy couple, who were unattended. The ceremony was very quiet, only the relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom being present. Mr. and Mrs. McKee left by the 6.20 train on a honeymoon trip, which will include the principal cities of the United States.

Word has been received here of the death in Toronto of Mrs. Pearson, wife of the Rev. John Pearson, rector of Trinity Church, in that city. Mrs. Pearson was well known in this city, where for many years Mr. Pearson held the position as sub-clerk of the Cathedral to the late Metropolitan Medley. The County Council met this morning, but only for a short session. The council adjourned to allow the several committees to meet at 11 o'clock. The members visited the county jail, making their annual inspection. It is understood that R. W. McLellan, of the firm of McLellan and Hughes, has purchased the Hatch property on Charlotte street just below the tracks, which will make the premises into tenements.

Twenty-seven articles will be affected.

STRENGTH Without Overloading the Stomach

The business man, especially, needs food in the morning that will not overload the stomach, but give mental vigor for the day. Much depends on the start a man makes each day, as to how he may expect to accomplish the work on hand. He can't be hearty with a heavy, fried-meat-and-potatoes breakfast before he has taken a little of vital energy in digesting it.

A Calif. business man tried to find some food combination that would not overload the stomach in the morning, but that would produce energy. He writes: "For years I was unable to find a breakfast food that had nutrition enough to sustain a business man without overloading his stomach, causing indigestion and kindred ailments. "Being a very busy and also a very nervous man, I decided to give up breakfast altogether. But luckily I was induced to try Grape-Nuts. "Since that morning I have been a new man; can work without tiring, my head is clear and my nerves strong and quiet. "I find four teaspoonsful of Grape-Nuts with one of sugar and a small quantity of cold milk, make a delicious morning meal, which invigorates me for the day's business. "Read the little book, 'The Road to Well-being,' in pgs. 'There's a Reason.' "Ever Read the Above Letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are Genuine True and full of Human Interest will be on Friday morning."

FOURTEEN YEAR OLD GIRL FOUND DRUNK

Got Liquor in Bear Shop Kept by Poor Woman

The Later, Whose Husband is Sick, and Who Has Three Small Children, Was Fined $50.

A most distressing case was brought up in the police court this morning when Police-man John Smith charged Mrs. Ernest Osborne, who conducts a licensed bear shop in Westmontland road, with having intoxicating liquor on her premises, whereby Annie Preston, a fourteen year old girl, became drunk from partaking of a quantity of gin.

The case is a decidedly one and the other of the kind which has been the Associated Charities will be asked to do something in the matter. The Osborne woman is about 27 years of age. She has a husband sick in the hospital, and three small children at home. Mrs. Osborne was found by Sergeant Kilpatrick says that her children are cold and dirty, that she has not slept up since after midnight among men drinking beer, and that the police should not be called.

SHOT HIS WIFE, THEN SUICIDED

Former Hamilton Man Commits Crime in Buffalo

Woman Was a Toronto Girl—Not Seriously Wounded—Husband Had Been Drinking to Excess.

BUFFALO, Jan. 18.—Coming home yesterday afternoon after a week's absence, Walter Garner, a barber, 28 years old, recently of Hamilton, Ont., twice shot his wife, Maude, 29 years old, formerly a Toronto girl, one of the bullets striking her in the left arm and the other striking her in the right shoulder. Garner then turned the gun on himself and fired two shots, one of the shots going wild and the other penetrating his right temple. He died later at the hospital. Mrs. Garner is not in a serious condition. Her wounds were not serious enough to necessitate any special treatment. ## Sale of Fancy Vests

We have made radical reductions in the prices of our fine fancy vests, including patterns that have proven very popular during the last few months.

Prices were $2.00, 2.50 to 3.50
Now, $1.00, 1.25, 1.50, 2.00

In other words, fully FIFTY PER CENT. cut from the former, very reasonable prices in most cases, and in ALL cases at least 25 per cent. to 35 per cent.

This is unquestionably a very exceptional opportunity for the selection of a fancy vest of pleasing pattern and genuine worth, at a fraction of its value.

The line now includes a considerable number of designs and colorings. But brisk buying will soon deplete the stock—so call early.

The "Mab" Safety Razor

The most complete Safety Razor on the market. The "Mab" Safety Razor is not only extremely simple and effective, but differs from most others in respect of the composition of the blades, which are made of a special brand of steel, similar to that used in the manufacture of the "Mab" Razor, ensuring a perfect and lasting edge, rendering stropping rarely necessary. When a blade requires stropping, the blade-holder provided should be used.

We have received shipment direct from manufacturers. Price with two blades, $1.10. Extra blades 20c. each.

DEPUTY ON DUTY WITH FRACTURED RIB

Injury Received Two Weeks Ago—Did Not Know Its Seriousness Until Yesterday.

Deputy Chief of Police Fred Jenkins was compelled to go on duty yesterday as the result of injuries received about a couple of weeks ago. He was at the Nickel Theatre entrance trying to prevent the crowd from pushing in to see some pictures of the Johnston Ketcher on his side. He consulted a physician later who told him he would be all right soon and prescribed. Yesterday the Deputy expected blood and on consulting another physician he learned that one of his ribs was broken and an end was penetrating the lung. He was ordered to his home where he is being treated.

SHUT OUT ANY HEIR WHO DISPUTES THE WILL

Mrs. Ingraham of St. Martins Divides Her Estate Among Relatives—Legal Action Hinted.

Probate Court—Estate of Jane Ingraham, late of St. Martins, widow. Last will proved by Counselor Cochran, a witness, whereby deceased directs that all her real and personal property be sold and the proceeds from such sale to be divided as follows: One-quarter to Effie Morrow, a sister; one-quarter to William J. Morrow, of St. Martins, tax collector; one-quarter to Joseph Kennedy, of Robesay, hotel keeper, a nephew; one-eighth to Mary E. Hunter, a niece, wife of William J. Hunter, of Sussex, contractor; one-eighth to Levenia (Leurina) Gertrude, a niece, wife of Frederick McLean, of Moncton, merchant; one-eighth to Annie (Elizabeth), Agnes and Mary (Jane) Renshaw, of Robesay, nieces, and one-eighth to Rebecca Brooks and Richard Brooks, of New York, nephew and niece of the late husband of the testatrix, to be divided equally among them. The will provides that anyone disputing the validity of the bequest or any beneficiary out of her estate and nominates Samuel Charles Shanklin, of St. Martins, farmer, sole executor, who is sworn in as such. Personal estate $2,300. Realty consisting of nine separate parcels valued at $6,900. Mr. Joseph J. Forrester for the executor, Mr. A. P. Barnhill, K. C., advocate for one of the beneficiaries.

It is stated that legal action of some sort may arise from the distribution of this estate. It is understood that considerable property was disposed of a short time previous to the testator's death, the transfer paper being registered almost immediately after death, and that in this the Government may be interested in the way of succession duties. It is hinted, too, that some of the heirs are hardly satisfied.

LORD'S DAY ALLIANCE TO START CAMPAIGN HERE

Hope to Further Restrict Work on the Sabbath—Labor Men to be Helped.

The Lord's Day Alliance are arranging to more fully extend the privileges of the Lord's Day Act to the laboring men of the province. Rev. R. B. Moore, the general secretary, will reach St. John on Saturday, January 23. On Sunday he will open a campaign in St. George's church, West Side. A public meeting will be held at 4 o'clock. The meetings are now being arranged in large numbers.

Rev. W. H. Sampson of the local alliance said today that Mr. Moore would tour the province and address the labor men at all centres. The meetings are now being arranged.

The alliance are strongly against any labor on Sundays. The working of the steamer at Sand Point is against their wish.

NEARLY AN INCH OF RAIN FELL YESTERDAY

If It Had Been Snow, the Slighing Would Have Been Excellent.

Yesterday's storm was quite severe, although no great damage was done. The storm started in the afternoon from the southeast and gradually changed to south and southwest. The heavy rain was accompanied by strong winds. A velocity of forty miles was attained between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning.

Director Hutchinson reports a total rain-fall of nine-tenths of an inch, equal to nine inches of snow. The wind blew continuously at the rate of thirty to forty miles. The highest temperature was forty-six degrees. At noon today forty-one degrees was registered.

DEATH CLAIMS ONE OF THE OLDEST RESIDENTS

The sad news of the death of Mrs. Hannah Fox of Fox's Reach, or Lower Gagetown, was received by relatives in Indian town this morning. The deceased was the widow of the late Wm. Fox, was in her 89th year and for some time has made her home with her son-in-law, Mr. Wilford Vanwart of Hampstead.

She was a native of Kings County and after her marriage resided in St. John for some years before going to Lower Gagetown, where she resided until the death of her husband. She is survived by one son, Abraham C. Fox of Queenstown, Queens Co., and five daughters, Mrs. James I. Davis of St. John, Mrs. Jas. Perry, Upper Hampstead; Mrs. Duncan Slipp and Mrs. Wilford Vanwart, Hampstead, and Mrs. Geo. C. White of Charleston, Mass. There are also a large number of grandchildren. The deceased was well known and highly respected and her death will be heard with regret by a large circle of friends.

The funeral will be held on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock from the Upper Hampstead Church.
